KIMES DIES IN HOSPITAL

A Killer At 19, A Convict At 20, A Corpse At 39---Matt Kimes

(By The United Press)

A killer at 19, a convict at 20, dumpy, barrel-chested Matt Kimes was a tool dresser by trade but a bank robber by preference.

It was in the rip-roaring 1920s when Kimes, a tough kid, organized a tough gang of gunmen and made life miserable for Southwestern bankers.

Kimes and his crew boasted that they had outdone the earlier Dalton brothers gang of Coffeyville, Kans.—they had robbed two banks at the same time.

This the teen-age desperado did at Beggs, a little town in eastern Oklahoma, on a bright May day in 1927. Kimes and company roared into town in two automobiles, simultaneously robbed banks across the street from each other, and shot their way out.

When the gunfire ceased, Town Marshal W. J. McAnally lay dead in the street.

Kimes was the killer and finally was brought to justice and convicted of McAnally's death, but it

Fall Measures 5½ Inches In City Section

Traffic Reported To Be Continuing Over Highways

Slowly rising temperatures and occasional appearances of the sun at noon today were thinning Lubbock's thick blanket of snow, with streets and sidewalks turning into an icy mush which made driving and walking a risky business.

Lubbock's temperature at noon was 30, and the mercury was slowly inching upward.

General Over Area

Snow continued to fall intermittently, but breaking clouds indicated it was due for an early conclusion.

Reports said heavy snow was general all over the South Plains.

Lubbock residents awoke to find the view through the windows like a Christmas card. Snow was stacked on automobile tops, shrouded roofs and hung thickly on tree limbs and sprigs. Having fallen during a still night, with hardly a suggestion of a breeze, snow was heaped on the smallest surfaces, accumulating, for example, on the narrow width of fence tops.

Five And Half Inches

One of the biggest snows this area has received in several years, it was 5 and a half inches deep early today, according to measurements taken at the farm experiment station just east of the city.

Reports from the Santa Fe railway, highway department headquarters, the highway patrol and other sources, the blanket stretched, in varying thickness, all over the South Plains and most of the Panhandle. From reports of its agents at key points of the Lubbock area, Santa Fe division headquarters at Slaton estimated the fall at from 4 to 6 inches over the South Plains.

Heavy At Amarillo

The froth was reported light in the Plainview section but "heavy" in the Amarillo section and northwest of Muleshoe. A motorist reported that snow appeared heavier between Lubbock and Tahoka than in this immediate vicinity.

The Santa Fe report said most of the Texas area west of a line running from the corner of southwest Oklahoma to Sweetwater received snow.

S. C. McCarty, district highway engineer here, said no reports of highway difficulties had been received by his office. He said the absence of wind precluded the collection of drifts, and that, apparently, traffic was continuing as usual. Sgt. E. L. Stroud, of the Lubbock highway patrol office, said it would be "good accident insurance" to stay off the highways, if possible. With the snow melting slightly under the friction of traffic, a slippery condition is presented, he said, which is hazardous.

As the day goes on, the danger will probably increase, he said. "By late afternoon, or nightfall,

Pearl Harbor Probe Snagged

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — The Pearl Harbor investigation hit two big snags today which threatened its future.

First the entire legal staff of the joint Senate-House probe committee asked to withdraw from the case.

Then the committee's chairman, Senator Barkley (D., Ky.) said he was thinking of resigning his post in the inquiry.

Scope Is Widening

Both cited the widening scope of the investigation and the prospects of a prolonged sitting as a factor.

This pair of completely unexpected developments posed the question of how the investigation would continue. It has been planned to conclude it by January 3, but William D. Mitchell, chief counsel of the committee, said there were at least 60 more witnesses. Months would be required to examine them, he estimated.

Republican members of the committee sat in silence as their Democratic colleagues discussed the problem without reaching any immediate solution.

To Aid New Counsel

The legal staff offered to help any new counsel the committee might secure, but Mitchell said that he and his aides could not remain longer than the early part of January.

Barkley called the staff's request to withdraw a "tragic" development and said he had "no idea" who might be willing to take over its work.

In discussing the possibility that he, too, might withdraw from the investigation by resigning as chairman, Barkley informed his colleagues that he expected to reach a final decision in the next few days. Before making it, he said, he would weigh his "relative obligations" to the committee and to the Senate where he is majority leader.

National Inventory Plan Dies In House

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — The House dejected by a voice vote today a plan for a far-reaching inventory of the nation's assets and liabilities.

The proposal had been offered by Rep. Dirksen (R., Ill.) as a substitute for a bill defining federal policy for maintaining employment.

Opponents of the Dirksen amendment acknowledged it had "a worthy aim," but declared it "would be unworkable and result in a cost of billions of dollars."

The House then proceeded to consider other suggested amendments. Leaders said they hope to conclude action on the jobs bill today.

Cruel Boasts By Murderers Are Revealed

Thousands Were Suffocated In Steam Chambers

(By The Associated Press)

NUERNBERG, Dec. 14 — Six million European Jews were ruthlessly slaughtered in the Nazi campaign of extermination, said German secret police estimates placed today before the international military tribunal trying 21 of Hitler's top leaders on war crimes charges.

American prosecutors filed an affidavit by Dr. Wilhelm Hoettl, right hand man to defendant Ernst Kaltenbrunner in the secret police giving the estimate.

Thought Total Too Low

Hoettl attributed his figure to Adolf Eichman, chief "Jew catcher" in the secret police.

Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler thought Eichman's total was too low, Hoettl's affidavit revealed.

Thousands were killed when SS troops wiped out the Warsaw ghetto in a 29-day massacre in 1943, according to records submitted by Major William F. Walsh of New York City, assistant U. S. prosecutor.

Boasted Of Killings

The reports showed that the S. S. chief, a Maj. Gen. Stroop, directed the annihilation campaign from April 17 to May 16, 1943, and that he boasted he had killed 7,000 Jews in battle, 5,000 to 6,000 by explosions and fires and collected 49,000 others "whose extermination in camps can be proved." The cost to the Germans was 15 dead.

Established at German insistence, the ghetto housed 400,000 Jews behind guarded walls until "resettlement"—transfer to Majdane or elsewhere—reduced the population to less than one-fourth by the spring of 1943.

Attack Launched

Stroop was entrusted by Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler with the forced evacuation of the remainder.

He started by attacking with

Bretton Woods Pact Okayed

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Dec. 14—The House of Commons today gave final ratification to the Bretton Woods monetary stabilization pact, approval of which was one of the conditions laid down by the United States for a loan of $4,400,000,000 to Britain.

The measure was passed without dissent on its third and last reading and went at once to the House of Lords. The action came barely 14 hours after Commons had approved the terms of the loan by a vote of 345 to 98.

Bill Rushed Through

The Bretton Woods bill was rushed through its second reading last night by a vote of 314 to 50.

A sharp debate, punctuated by personal clashes between labor and conservative leaders, preceded the vote of the loan terms.

Led by former Prime Minister Winston Churchill, many conservatives abstained from voting and drew caustic criticism from Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, who headed the government's fight for loan approval.

Word Duel Staged

Bevin and Churchill duelled on the Commons floor, the war-time prime minister declared:

"I certainly am of the opinion we (the conservatives) could have got better terms."

Bevin termed Churchill's assertion a "libel on the administration of the United States."

Churchill asked his conservative adherents to refrain from voting, warning that a heavy opposition vote would injure British interests in the United States. Answering Churchill's abstention instructions

Wholesale And Retail Factory For Boots Planned In Lubbock

A wholesale and retail boot factory to serve the Panhandle and South Plains area will be established in Lubbock at an estimated cost of $45,000 for building and equipment, W. F. French, owner of the Texas Boot shop at 1203 Ave. G, announced.

The factory, which will start with a capacity of 50 pairs of boots per day, will employ 50 experienced bootmakers. French said it is hoped that as the demand increases that several hundred boots can be turned out in a single day.

Nazi "Belsen Gang" Hanged

Three Women Are Included

Appeals Rejected By Montgomery

(By The Associated Press)

HAMBURG, Germany, Dec. 14—Field Marshal Montgomery's headquarters announced today that Josef Kramer, the "Beast of Belsen," and ten others of the Belsen gang, including blonde Irma Grese, were hanged yesterday for committing crimes at the notorious concentration camp.

The executions were carried out at the Hamelin by Pierrepont, official British hangman.

All Appeals Denied

The 11 condemned to death were moved from Lueneburg's jail to the ancient prison on the banks of the Wesser river at Hamelin five days ago. The gallows were built by the Royal Engineers.

Marshal Montgomery denied all appeals Saturday.

The eight men and three women hanged were condemned to death by a British military court for atrocities committed at the Belsen and Oswiecim concentration camps. Nineteen other persons drew prison terms.

Three Accepted Verdict

Three of the condemned accepted the court's verdict without appeal. They were Elizabeth Volkenrath, 26, head women's supervisor for the S. S. (Elite Guard), Juana Borman, 42, a fanatic who gave up missionary work to join the S. S., and Franz Hoeszler, 34-year-old S. S. member who helped pick victims for the gas chamber.

Kramer, 39, was camp commandant. Irma Grese, was the pistol-packing "queen" of the Belsen gang.

Others who died were Dr. Fritz Klein, 58, who chose inmates for the gas chamber; Peter Weingartner, 32; Karl Francioh, 33; Ansgar Pichen 32; Franz Starfle, 30, and Wilhelm Dorr, 24.

Two gallows were used, permitting the eight men to be hanged in pairs. The women walked to their death singly.

German civilians said former concentration camp inmates were allowed to witness the hangings by special passes.

General Motors-UAW Breach Widens With Court Setback

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Dec. 14—Attention in the automotive wage disputes switched back to the Ford Motor Co., and to the industry's latest entrant today as impending court action broadened the breach between General Motors corp. and the CIO United Auto Workers.

While Ford officials headed for further wage talks with the union this afternoon, the Kaiser-Frazer corporation, which has leased the giant Willow Run bomber plant for car production, was reported preparing an "entirely novel" company-union security plan.

Details of the plan were not disclosed but Edward D. Riordan, director of Kaiser-Frazer's industrial relations, said they may be made public in advance of the firm's first negotiations with the UAW-CIO next Monday.

Leader Heads Delegation

Particular significance was attached to the fact that R. J. Thomas, the union's international president, was slated to head the UAW delegation at the conference.

Ford began negotiations on a new contract Nov. 21—when the General Motors strike was called—but discussion of the union's demand for a 30 per cent pay increase was held up for three weeks pending agreement on a "company security" counter-demand.

The wage talks began Wednesday after the union proposed to permit discharge or fining of wildcat strikes. Ford officials commended the union for giving their request "thoughtful consideration," and promised a decision on the plan's acceptability at an early date.

Not Time For Increases

They said that because of production uncertainties, however, they felt the time was not ripe for granting such wage increases as the union demanded.

The working out of a new G. M. agreement took another set-

CIO Electrical Workers Vote Favoring Nation-Wide Strike

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 — CIO electrical workers, following the pattern set by CIO workers in the steel and automobile industries voted almost five to one in favor of a country-wide strike, nearly complete balloting returns showed today.

The vote authorized a walkout of a union-estimated 200,000 workers after Jan. 1 in plants of three of the largest manufacturers of electric appliances — General Electric, Westinghouse and the electrical division of General Motors.

The National Labor Relations board said 86,794 workers in plants from coast to coast voted in favor of a strike to back up their demands for a $2 daily wage boost; 18,216 balloted against.

Complete Report Today

The union said official and complete tabulations were expected to be completed later today.

The electric workers, third largest CIO union, thus voted to join the United Steelworkers and the United Automobile Workers in taking strike action.

Union spokesmen estimated that 200,000 U. E. workers would be affected.

After its tabulation of votes last night, the United Electrical workers sent messages to officials of both General Electric and Westinghouse asking for negotiations to begin Monday.

Nine Are Hurt As 44 Cars And Trucks Jam Up Along Highway

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Dec. 14 (AP)—Temperatures dipped well below freezing in southern California's citrus belt again today, but the biggest loss wasn't to fruit. It was attributed instead to a by-product of orchard heating —a traffic accident on a smoke-shrouded highway involving 44 cars and trucks.

Trouble started when a truck struck a taxi, then slewed crosswise of U. S. 99, busy transcontinental artery. Within minutes, vehicle after vehicle piled up behind them.

"Almost every second there would be a screech of brakes, a crash, and we'd mark down another accident," State Highway Patrolman Dale Pence reported. Nine persons were injured, none dangerously.

A warning flare ignited spilled gasoline, and fire destroyed one car, damaged two others. Milling cattle, released when a truck's sides collapsed, added to the confusion. More than an hour was required to unsnarl the jam.

Growers use a type of oil-burning heater to ward off frost, and the smoke was so thick, said

Injuries Fatal For Notorious No. 1 Badman

Career Of Crime Ends Ingloriously At Little Rock

BY JOHN S. HASLAM
United Press Staff Writer

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 14 — The crime-studded career of badman Matt Kimes ended ingloriously today when the number one desperado of the southwest died in a Little Rock hospital following an operation which staff physicians had hoped would save his life.

Hospital surgeons, who performed the operation last night at 9:30 said Kimes' death was only a partial surprise.

He died at 7:54 a. m. (CST).

Was Thought Recovering

The Arkansas-born badman was believed to be recovering from injuries received in a traffic accident here more than a week ago. He suffered a broken leg and head and internal injuries at the time.

Kimes, doctors said, developed stomach trouble about two days ago, and he was operated on for an intestinal obstruction which was believed to have been caused by hemorrhages of the back.

Kimes sister and brother-in-law, of McAlester, Okla., were with him at the time of his death. They left Oklahoma last night and arrived in time to see him alive.

Kimes was being held under guard by the FBI in lieu of $75,000 bond following his being charged on a fugitive warrant by U. S. Commissioner W. M. Rankin.

Held In Bank Robbery

On furlough from the Oklahoma state prison, Matthew Kimes was accused of robbing a Texas bank at the time he was seeking names to a clemency petition. The convicted killer, who served 18 years of a life sentence for murder, had been a model prisoner up to the time he was allowed to leave.

Kimes was run down by a poultry truck in North Little Rock Dec. 1, and was taken to a local hospital for treatment of the many injuries received in the accident.

He identified himself at the time as Leo A. Woods, of Miami, Okla.,

Bodies Sought In Hotel Fire

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., Dec. 14 (AP)—Fire swiftly destroyed the ancient Glenwood hotel early today and authorities, starting a search in the now icy ruins, estimated from three to 12 or more guests may have perished.

Seven persons were injured. Nearly 125 guests fled into near zero weather of this western Colorado resort town.

Dozen May Be Missing

Fire Chief Joe Blanco said only three persons were unaccounted for while Police Chief Charles Wells declared a dozen may be missing. Among them some transients.

The fire, which started at 1:10 a. m. (C.S.T.) in the basement of the adjoining Bullock's department store, quickly devoured the 59-year-old three-story brick structure. The fire chief said its cause remained undetermined. Besides the hotel and store, the Western Union office and the South Canon Coal Mine company's office in the same building were destroyed.

Wells said the loss was roughly between $200,000 and $300,000.

Santa Arrives Early For State Employes

AUSTIN, Dec. 14 (U.P.)—Santa Claus arrived early today for 15 women working in the State Labor department — but other state agency heads were more or less on the spot.

To his women employes, state labor commissioner Leonard Carlton gave each a pair of nylon stockings. The elated employes lost no time telling their capitol girl friends of the gift. And the girl friends lost no time telling their employes of Carlton's early Christmas present.

Now Carlton is being plagued by department heads—and others, too—asking where he got the hosiery. He's making no comments.

Hog Butchered And Stolen Thursday

Thursday's "hog-killin'" weather was no particular source of satisfaction to John Steele, who lives six miles from Lubbock on the Slaton road.

He informed the sheriff's department that someone had gone into his hogpen three-quarters mile from his residence, butchered a 225-pound porker and dragged it away.

The butcher did not bother a larger hog, Steele said.

The sheriff's department was investigating a "lead."

Taxpayers Reminded Of Payment Dates

Statements have been mailed by the local Office of Internal Revenue reminding taxpayers that Dec. 15 is the end of the last quarter for 1945 payments, but giving them until Jan. 15 to file final amended estimates of their yearly income, L. B. Barkley, chief of the local office, has announced.

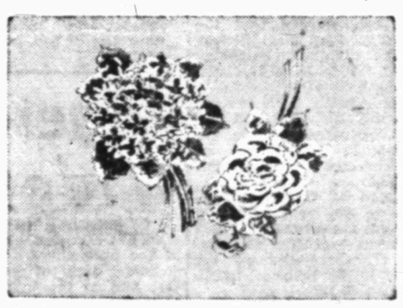

Barkley said that originally Dec. 15 was the deadline for filing final estimates but that due to the confusion it caused the time had been postponed until the later date.

March 15 is the deadline for filing regular returns, Barkley added.

Gen. Patton Is Improving

HEIDELBERG, Dec. 14 (U.P.) — An Army medical bulletin reported today that Gen. George S. Patton was in excellent condition, with his temperature reduced to within one degree of normal after a comfortable night.

The bulletin issued at 9 a. m. said "Patton's condition continues excellent."

It added, "Patton spent a comfortable night. The scalp wound is healing normally. He is cheerful. The neurological situation is unchanged. The temperature is 99, down one degree, pulse 64, respiration 24."

Most Optimistic

The bulletin was the most optimistic yet issued by the corps of British and American specialists attending the 60-year-old general who suffered partial paralysis and a broken neck in an automobile crash last Sunday.

A steadily brightening tone of the official statements has recorded the general's condition progressively as "critical," "grave," "satisfactory" and now "excellent."

If his condition continues to improve, doctors believed they may soon be able to send him to the United States by plane, encased in a plaster cast.

The removal of New York's Sixth Avenue El structure was started in 1938.

American Marines Stationed In China Near Confucius' Home Agree It's No Place For 'World's Best Fighters'

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

TSINGTAO, China, Dec. 14 — Confucius once said "one look is worth a thousand words."

Several thousand Marines, accepting his statement verbatim, have had a good long "look" at this ancient sage's home province and now they're almost unanimous that they don't want to waste words about getting out of here.

It is the only subject I ever knew more than two Marines to agree upon.

Chief China Port

Tsingtao is one of the chief ports of Shantung peninsula in northeast China and is important as a rail terminus, textile manufacturing center and coal shipping point.

Confucius lived in Shantung province more happily than do American Marines, and still residing here are the 77th generation of his descendants.

The old philosopher might like to know that his sacred mountain, Tai Shan, is still 5,056 feet tall and no rivals have appeared upon the landscape.

Peddle Souvenirs

The city has a population of well over 500,000, and a visitor gets the impression well over half of the citizens are engaged in peddling souvenir bric-a-brac and garments of "genuine silk rayon" —whatever that means—at prices that make Shanghai merchants look like philanthropists.

I talked here to two Navy pharmacist mates who also served with the Marines on Okinawa. They emphasized repeatedly how much the Marines dislike their present position in China.

"I know the Marines would bellyache 24 hours a day, even if they were on a 40-hour week," said Frank McCormick of Rutherford, N. J., "but they're the best fighting outfit in the world.

"What Are We Doing Here?"

"Only, the main thing is this—they all want to know just what the hell we are doing over here. The only American property we have to protect is our own equipment."

His buddy, Bill Edward Martin of Richmond Hill, N .Y., said some of the men were considerably annoyed also because whoever sent them 2,000 kerosene stoves to keep them warm neglected to send the wicks.

"And we are so short of shoes," Martin said, "that you have to get a doctor's certificate now to get a pair. I'm not joking."

He wasn't either. He had to get a doctor's certificate himself.

Margaret O'Brien Gets Her Wish To Ride With Santa

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 14—It's a little early, but here's the first Hollywood Christmas story for this year.

Margaret O'Brien thinks more about Santa Claus than the fame and wealth she has achieved as an actress. She profoundly believes in Santa Claus and her burning ambition was to ride with him down Santa Claus Lane.

A couple of years ago, when she was 6, Margaret and her mother were on the Lane, known the rest of the year as Hollywood Boulevard, when St. Nick rode by on his nightly trip. Margaret asked: "Can I ride with Santa Claus?" Her mother told her no, that only movie stars could ride in the sleigh.

This year Margaret asked her mother: "Am I a movie star?"

Mrs. O'Brien said cautiously: "Why?"

"Because if I am, I'd like to ride with Santa."

So it was arranged for Margaret to accompany Santa down the tree-lighted boulevard. The man enacting St. Nick that night was an old actor-friend of Mrs. O'Brien. Imagine Margaret's surprise to see her mother talking over old times with Mr. Claus.

But she still believes in Santa.

New Movie Figure

A golf game with Bing Crosby may lead to anything, but this one brought a movie job to Capt. Mike Zawisza.

Mike, a native of Camden, N. J., was an Army pilot who bagged seven Japanese planes around Port Darwin and Port Moresby. He was resting in Colorado Springs a few months ago when Bing came through on a bond tour. They became golfing companions and good friends and Bing told Mike to look him up when he got out of the Army.

When the captain was discharged, he took Bing at his word. Now Mike is acting in Paramount's "Ladies' Man," and has ambitions to be an actor. I wonder what his new name will be.

Van Likes Crowds

Van Johnson was mobbed by a thousand admirers when he exited from a radio broadcast and couldn't find his car. Of course he could have left by the back entrance, but Van likes crowds. . . Harry James is taking his farming career seriously. He's poring over farm journals to learn how to raise alfalfa on his new ranch. . . . Sinatra and Crosby have been palling around New York. . . . Twentieth-Fox signed James Seay, unknown actor-soldier who appeared in the Army training film, "Resisting Enemy Interrogation." . . . George Montgomery's first civilian broadcast will be on wifie Dinah Shore's program Dec. 20.

A warlock in northern England or Scotland is a wizard, sorcerer or magician. The word in Old English means a "liar against the truth."

Toasted Or Spiced Nuts Are Delicious

Nuts are plentiful. Toast and salt them at home for extra economy and fine flavor. They belong in the holiday hospitality picture.

Toasted Salted Nuts

One pound shelled peanuts, pecans, and almonds; 4 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, salt.

Slip skins from peanuts. Pecans need no attention after shelling, but almonds must be blanched before the enveloping brown skin can be removed. To blanch: pour boiling water over almonds. Let stand 5 minutes and drain. Remove skin. Melt butter or margarine in heavy frying pan, add nuts sufficient to spread out in bottom of a pan. Stir over low heat until toasty brown, taking care not to burn. Sprinkle gereously with salt.

Spiced Pecans

One pound halved pecans, 1 egg white, 1 tablespoon water, ½ cup sugar, dash nutmeg, dash ginger, dash allspice.

Break egg white on large platter; add water and mix. Add pecans and mix well with egg white. Mix sugar, nutmeg, ginger and a dash of allspice. Put this spice dsugar in a bag. Begin to add the pecan meats(well spread with egg white) about 1-4 cup at a time, tossing them in prepared sugar until well coate. Remove to greased paper sheet, spreading out well. Toast in slow oven (250 degrees F.) until delicately brown (10 to 15 minutes).

Almonds Glace

One cup light corn syrup, ½ cup sugar, dash powdered anise, 1-4 cup butter or fortified margarine.

Measure syrup into large heavy saucepan. Add sugar mixed with the anise. Add butter or fortified margarine. Cook to "hard crack" stage, stirring no more than necessary to prevent burning. Remove from heat. Dip the nuts into hot syrup and remove to greased platter (one by one) to cool. If syrup begins to harden before all nuts are dipped, gently reheat to a liquid over low heat.

Sugar Substitutes Suggested For Candy

Unrationed chocolate will be the mainstay of many a candy recipe this season. Nuts, raisins and other dried fruits which are plentiful will all compete for honors, too. Neither of the following recipes uses any sugar:

NUT BARS
(Makes 24 Bars)

½ pound sweet chocolate
2-3 cup seeded raisins
2-3 cup chopped peanuts
¼ tsp. salt

Melt chocolate in the top part of a porcelain enameled double boiler. Stir until smooth, and when nearly cool, add salt, raisins and peanuts. Mix well and spread the batter, inch thick, into a porcelain enameled shallow pan. When cool, cut into 24 strips.

HOCOLATE BALLS
(Makes 20-25 Candies)

½ pound sweet chocolate
1 egg, unbeaten
2 tbsp. butter
Chopped roasted almonds

Break chocolate into pieces and let melt in the top part of a porcelain enameled double boiler. Add egg and mix until smooth. Stir in butter. When cool, form into small balls and roll quickly in the chopped roasted almonds.

FOAL FOR GI MASTER

THERMOPOLIS, Wyo. (U.P.)—Black Gal is a 16-year-old horse. Her master is Lt. Dana Wilson. Every year, until her master went away to war four years ago, Black Gal foaled a colt. When Wilson left, he left her with Buster Hayes on the VH ranch. The horse was bred each year, but there were no more colts. Then, two weeks before her master landed this year at La Guardia Field from months of service overseas, Black Gal foaled another colt.

Floral motif in damask tablecloth is duplicated in Christmas table decoration—a centerpiece of cardboard tree, candles, fruit and roses.

Decorated Table At Christmas Will Whet Family's Appetite

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

CHRISTMAS decorations are a joyous part of the season. Let's carry them to the family dinner table and make the Yule feast colorful and beautiful. Here are some suggestions:

A centerpiece made of finely crushed ice, evergreens and red flowers such as poinsettias, carnations, roses, cyclamen, and popcorn. Invert a glass in a large mixing bowl. Pack bowl with crushed ice and place in refrigerator for three hours. Turn out on a shallow bowl or a large plate. Remove glass and fill the glass cavity with red flowers. Bank edges of your home-made snowball with fir, and complete concealment of the plate or bowl with popcorn snowdrifts. Encircle with red Christmas candles in low holders concealed in the evergreens.

Bricks Add Color

Here's a modern centerpiece. Buy four glass bricks, six by six inches. Arrange bricks with sides of three of them touching, like boxcars, down the center of the table. Place the fourth brick atop the center of the trio. Set low red candles in the center of each of the three units, stabilizing them with florist's putty or some of Junior's modeling clay. Wreath base of candles and bricks with holly, and fill in with pine or fir.

Use your Irish damask cloth with a floral pattern. Repeat the floral motif in your centerpiece. Make a silver cardboard Christmas tree for center. Bank up a little way with colorful fruits—apples, oranges, grapes and bananas. Above the fruit, mass roses or lilies, according to design in the damask cloth. In candelsticks hidden in flowers, place long thin candles. The effect is beautiful and new.

POPCORN BALLS

2-3 cup corn syrup
1 1-4 cups Brer Rabbit Molasses
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1-8 teaspoon soda
4 or 5 quarts popped corn

Cook together corn syrup, molasses and butter (or margarine) until, when a little is dropped in cold water, it becomes brittle. Stir in soda and pour over popped corn stirring corn continuously. Form into balls. Makes about 14 balls.

Variations: ½ cup chopped maraschino cherries, nuts or chocolate bits may be added to he balls for variation. If so, add them before pouring on the syrup.

One out of every 14 farm accidents in West Virginia is fatal, according to the West Virginia University extension farm labor office.

Better Breakfasts Mean Better Grades

Better breakfasts will mean better grades and better health is the campaign slogan of Ava Nell Cheek, senior foods and nutrition major at Texas Technological college.

Students who received midsemester reports of failing grades may trace the cause of low marks to the fact that their fuel reserves were used up because they omitted breakfast. They become irritable and fatigued without a substantial breakfast and cannot study intelligently.

Most college students get up too late for breakfast and attend their morning classes without eating. The college bookstore is crowded with students before noon eating candy bars because they skipped breakfast. Miss Cheek urges students to omit excessive fats and sweets between meals and eat breakfast.

Better breakfasts not only mean better grades and better health but also rosier dispositions, concludes Miss Cheek.

A firkin is an old ale and beer measure containing nine gallons.

PEANUT BRITTLE

1 cup sugar
½ cup light corn syrup
½ cup water
2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup coarsely chopped peanuts

Combine sugar, syrup and water and cook over low heat, stirring only until sugar dissolves. Then cook quickly, without stirring, to 265 degrees F., or until syrup forms a hard ball in cold water. Add butter or margarine and cook until syrup forms brittle threads when dropped into cold water. Remove from heat, add nuts and vanilla and pour onto a greased baking sheet, spreading thinly. Cool, and then break into bite-size pieces.

Before Act 26 in the reign of George II, there was no necessity in England for any religious ceremonial in the performance of a marriage, which might be contracted by mere verbal consent.

Amendments To GI Bill Given Approval; Vets Will Benefit

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP)—A Senate-House conference committee agreed today on amendments to the so-called "GI Bill of Rights" liberalizing loans and educational grants.

The House had recommended that loans for buying homes, businesses and farms be approved by local appraisers while the Senate had asked approval by the Veterans administration. The conference agreed to local appraisers appointed by the Veterans administration.

Senator Johnson (D.-Colo.) listed these benefits for World War II veterans:

Benefits Are Listed

Removal of the 25-year age limit on educational grants.

An increase in allowances to $65 monthly for single veterans and $90 for those with dependents while attending school. These now are $50 and $75.

An increase to $4,000 in the government guarantee on loans to buy real estate, including farms. Repayments may be extended over 25 years on homes and 40 years on farms.

A provision allowing loans to buy livestock and machinery on a farm, and tools for a business.

Removal of a requirement that loans be based upon "reasonable normal value" so that only reasonable value is required. Johnson said present inflated prices of homes and farms would bar any loans on "normal" value.

Increases in benefits to disabled veterans.

Elimination of a present requirement that any unpaid loans or advances be deducted from any future "bonus" or adjusted payments.

Heavy Seas Hammer Five Disabled Vessels

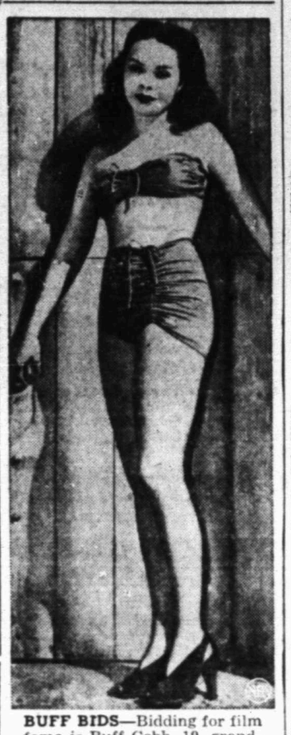

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP) — Heavy seas and strong winds in the North Atlantic last night hammered five disabled or grounded vessels.

They were the troopship Joseph Hooker with 562 servicemen aboard an Argentine Corvette and three fishing craft.

The Hooker, still shipping water through ruptured starboard plates, was proceeding to New York under naval escort at 11 knots. Naval officials were uncertain when she would reach port.

Latest information was that the crew of the Hooker was winning its battle with seawater pouring into the broken hull and that the ship was in no danger.

Germany May Obtain Cotton

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — Germany may become an outlet for a part of this country's surplus of low-grade cotton.

The government is considering ways of placing at the disposal of German textile mills a part of the 2,500,000 bales of such cotton the government acquired before the war under its grower price support program.

Was Big Customer

The objective is to help defeated Germany get back on its economic feet and to provide more cotton clothing for Europe.

Before the 30's, Germany was one of this country's biggest cotton customers. Then the Reich turned to other cotton and to synthetic fiber.

The big problem in the program now under study is one of financing. One suggestion is that the cotton be made available to Germany by means of a loan provided either by the U. S. Export-Import bank or the Commodity Credit corporation. The latter agency holds title to the government-owned cotton.

No Decision Made

Another proposal would involve purchase of the cotton by the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration. UNRRA then would take payment for the cotton from the Germans in the form of textiles for relief of other European countries.

As yet no decision has been made.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson is eager to dispose of the government's cotton holdings during the next year or so.

The Export-Import bank last night announced a $5,000,000 loan to Finland to be used to buy 46,000 bales of cotton.

Under terms of the loan to Finland, purchases will be made by private importers directly from American shippers.

Killer At 19

was not his first slaying of a peace officer.

The year before, on Aug. 27, 1926, he had shot down deputy sheriff Perry Chuculate at Sallisaw, Okla., had been caught, tried, convicted, sentenced to life imprisonment, and escaped the Sallisaw jail.

Life was apprehensive for small town bankers for a few weeks more after the Beggs affair, but the Kimes gang and its leader at last were cornered and captured under the rim of the Grand Canyon in Arizona.

Second Life Sentence

Extradited, Kimes was convicted at Okmulgee, Okla., of McAnally's murder and was assessed a second life sentence.

The squat, gray-eyed killer entered the Oklahoma state penitentiary on July 11, 1937, there to remain for 18 years and 13 days —nearly one half his life.

In prison, Kimes became a model prisoner as the years slowly passed. He picked up weight. He became a sort of penitentiary leader, looked up to by many inmates.

Was Given A Chance

Prison officials periodically recommended clemency for him. Then he was credited with giving information which helped break a prison narcotics ring, and the Oklahoma pardon and parole board decided to give him a chance to "prove that I am a reformed man."

So on July 24 of this year—despite bitter protests from relatives of the two peace officers he had slain—Matt Kimes left prison walls on a 60-day leave.

Ordered not to leave McAlester, Okla., site of the state prison, and to report once a month to the pardon and parole board, Kimes asked for and obtained a six-months extension of his leave to continue his "reformation."

Morton Bank Robbed

Yet he had been at liberty only six weeks when the First State bank of Morton, Tex., near the Texas-New Mexico line was robbed of $17,692.46 on Sept. 5. In this holdup, no one was shot.

After two men were arrested—Ollie Oliver Melton of Shawnee, Okla., on Oct. 23 and J. Fred Pair at Bledsoe, Tex., near Morton — federal charges of bank robbery were filed at Fort Worth against Kimes, Olaf Alvin (Chick) Rogers, a fellow Oklahoma ex-convict, and Melton and Pair.

But death cancelled out Kimes' scheduled appearance in court. Not bullets but complications from an automobile accident in Little Rock ended the career of Matt Kimes.

Speaker Concludes Lectures Tonight

Chas. A. Wells, religious cartoonist, will conclude a series of lectures tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church when he speaks on "Christ or World War III?"

Last night in speaking on Russia, Wells, who visited that country seven times before the recent war and who is planning to pay a return visit next summer, said propaganda would have Americans believe that Russia is a country of "godless bolsheviks and communists." That, however, is not true, he said, and only four per cent of the Russians are communists; the others being "just people, like us."

Because of her unique geographical position, Russia is a "brother to the world," the lecturer explained, illustrating his remarks by sketching a map of Russia, India and china. Paying tribute to the indominable spirit of a people that held out against the Germans despite all odds, Wells said that there is arising a generation of Russians that will enjoy religious freedom bought by the blood of those who were willing to sacrifice themselves for that cause. "God is working today in Russia," he said.

Wells predicted that within a decade Russia will be a democracy.

Bretton Woods

to conservatives, Bevin remarked:

Had To Borrow

"The egoism of it, the actual boastfulness of my right honorable friend, the horrible assumption that the American government would go on its knees to him because there was a labor government in being.

"I say to members of my own party, don't let us have any cowards on this side. The fact is we have to borrow and are not in a position to dictate terms. Therefore, we had to negotiate."

Bevin declared no one could "come away from a money-lender's office and calculate the repayments" without feeling discomfort.

Kimes Dies

and that name appeared on papers in his possession.

Authorities Suspicious

Authorities became suspicious of the credentials he carried, more suspicious when a gun was found at his feet at the secene of the accident and convinced that he was a fugitive when they found more than $1,500 in currency in his wallet.

When police prepared to take his fingerprints, the public enemy admitted his identity.

Kimes' lurid crime career began in 1924 when he was sentenced to prison in Oklahoma for burglary. Since then the counts against him included two murders and numerous bank robberies.

Escaped From Prison

A life imprisonment sentence followed his conviction for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Perry Chuculate, of Sallisaw, Okla., who was killed during a bank robbery. Prison walls held few fears for Kimes at that time, and he soon escaped.

In 1927, howeverd, he and his companions attempted to rob two Beggs, Okla., banks simultaneously. A chief of police died in the resulting gun battle. Kimes was captured shortly afterwards in Arizona and received his second life term for murder. He never escaped from the penitentiary, being a model prisoner during his 18 years there.

This year Kimes was furloughed to seek strength for the petition he hoped would provide his legal freedom.

It was during his leave from the prison that he figured in the robbery of the First State bank of Morton, Tex., from which $17,650 was stolen.

Two members of the four-man gang were apprehended shortly before their leader was injured, and the fourth, Olan Allan Rogers, later surrendered to FBI agents in Oklahoma City.

Rogers was arraigned before the commissioner in Oklahoma City, and his bond was set at $40,000. He pleaded innocent to charges of robbing the Morton bank.

Men Must Quit Fooling Themselves And Live Up To Ideals, Speaker Tells ABC

"There can be no peace until men quit fooling themselves, nor can there be peace until men are ready to live up to such ideals as those of Christ and men like Abraham Lincoln," Charles A. Wells, cartoonist - lecturer and journalist, told members of the American Business club at today's luncheon meeting in Hilton hotel.

Reviewing the thoughts war has brought to America, Wells outlined, by way of sketching and speech, national thinking of the last four years. He said the cloud of war was distant, at first, then it shadowed America. Came Pearl Harbor and the sound of marching men was heard round the world later to be partially silenced by signing of the peace.

"Pretty Dirty Peace"

"Nations and all people remain in the grip of the war's great emotional experience and as it stands now it is a pretty dirty peace," the journalist declared. "We are missing the bridge of peace and if we continue in this same direction it is as though we had poured treasure and blood into a great abyss," Wells said in stressing the importance of men fighting for ideals which must be upheld.

Selfishness, greed and hatred make wars—justice equality, fairness and brotherhood make peace, the speaker explained. "Until we are ready to live up to ideals that men really fight for, until we come to realize that religion is the foundation for these ideals, we can have no peace," Wells concluded.

Jake Mason, club member, announced the names of nominees for club officers soon to be elected. They are Hobart Nelson and J. B. Watkins, president; Joe Carr, Porter Garrett, first vice-president; Bill Pittman and Cliff Wiedner, second vice-president; W. E. McCarty, secretary; W. C. Bigham, Bob Rose, sergeant-at-arms; Douglas Adams, Henry Buell, J. O. Jenkins, V. L. Ellis, Hugh McKelvey, Carl Sutton, H. V. Horn, and Lester White, governors.

Luncheon guests were Dick Roberts, recently discharged from four years service as a captain with the paratroopers; Dixie White, Otis Fincher, recently discharged from the Navy, Jim Williams, Sgt. Otis Cowan, Dale Buckner, Dexter Walthall, Guy Casey, D. O. Purcell, Gus Pothiel, jr., C. B. Bydston, Dick Roberts, Dr. C. E. Hereford.

W. M. Mullen was introduced as new member. Jimmie Wilson, president, presided and J. O. Fortenberry was program chairman.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Hereford, pastor of the First Baptist church.

New Fears Of Inflation Held

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — Signs multiplied today that the administration sees trouble ahead —mainly inflation trouble—unless it braces some of its wartime controls.

The government prepared to celebrate the fifth month of peace starting tomorrow by putting back to work part of its discarded priority machinery.

More Homes Sought

The decision to restore priority control over building materials in an effort to boost the construction of sorely needed houses is the latest in a series of moves tokening a firmer government grip on some parts of the economy.

The moves all are aimed at familiar wartime problems: Prices, scarce materials and work stoppages.

President Truman mentioned these problems only briefly in his recent optomistic report on the first 100 days of reconversion. But since then the administration has:

1. Asked for immediate fact-finding and compulsory cool-off legislation to prevent spreading labor troubles from thwarting the speedy return to peacetime standards of living and working.

Extension Of Act

2. Opened a vigorous drive for prompt extension of the price control act beyond its present expiration date of next June 30.

3. Put a brake on OPA's schedule for removing individual price ceilings. This happened after OPA lifted ceilings from some such suposedly "safe" items as citrus fruit and cocoanuts only to see prices zoom.

4. Reversed its position on real estate ceilings by asking Congress for price control on both new and old houses to go along with the materials.

Withholding Heard

Officials of the Civilian Production administration, often at odds with OPA in the past, have joined Price Administrator Chester Bowles in the campaign for immediate extension of price control.

The reason: They fear that manufacturers will withhold goods from the market and wait for price control to die off so they can write their own price tags.

OPA Administrator John D. Small told a congressional committee that business would hold back goods "on a tremendous scale" if it thought price controls would not be renewed.

New Junior Colleges For Texas Planned

AUSTIN, Dec. 14 (U.P.) — A junior college for Sweetwater and Nolan county was foreseen today if present plans are carried out, according to Dr. C. C. Colvert, University of Texas professor and consultant on junior colleges, who met with Nolan county officials.

Another meeting was scheduled for Dec. 18.

Colvert said Big Spring already has elected a board for a junior college. Other new colleges are being considered at Alvin, Pampa, Freeport and Wharton, to be added to Texas' present total of 40 junior colleges.

Oil Workers Are To Meet In Ft. Worth

FORT WORTH, Dec. 14 (AP) — The Oil Workers International union (CIO) voted today to hold its next annual convention in Fort Worth on August 12, 1946.

In an executive session, the delegates voted down a resolution calling for the drafting of a master contract that would serve as a pattern for all collective bargaining agreements negotiated by units of the union. The resolution would have directed that no contract between the union and any company be signed unless it embodied provisions of the master contract.

The convention called for creation of a committee to draft a retirement system, modeled after the railroad retirement act, to apply to all workers in the petroleum industry and to seek favorable federal action toward its adoption. Local units of the OWIU also were authorized to set up insurance committees to work out group insurance plans for their members.

Michigan Men Are In Prison

JACKSON, Mich., Dec. 14 (AP)—Richard W. Reading, Jr., joined his father, former mayor of Detroit, in the state prison of southern Michigan today.

Both were convicted in the Detroit graft conspiracy scandals of 1941. The elder Reading was mayor at the time and his son was his secretary.

The younger Reading lost an appeal to the state supreme court Dec. 3. He was sentenced to one to five years. His father, sentenced to four to five years, lost an appeal Dec. 29, 1943.

An investigation headed by the Circuit Judge Homer Ferguson, now a U. S. senator, uncovered "protected" gambling and vice and led to convictions of many police officers and others in public authority. Judge Ferguson served as a one-man grand jury at the time — a procedure frequently followed under Michigan law.

Texas Couple Dead In Auto Collision

TYLER, Dec. 14 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bendy of Colmnesneil, Texas, were killed in an automobile collision here last night after they saw their son for the first time in two years.

The son, Sgt. Ray M. Bendy was injured in the accident. He was being discharged from the Army at Camp Fannin after two years overseas and his parents had come to the camp to get him. John Pittman, an occupant of the Bendy automobile, also was injured and seven negroes in the other car were hurt.

At the outbreak of the war, the Royal Canadian Navy consisted of 1,774 men.

Negro C-C Will Hold First Annual Dinner

The Negro Chamber of Commerce tonight will conduct its first annual dinner program, J. E. Blackmore, pastor of Messiah Presbyterian church and chamber secretary, said. More than 150 persons, including special guests, are expected.

Hop Halsey, former member of the state legislature from this district, prominent among Lubbock's younger civic workers and recently returned to civilian life from overseas service, will make the address of the evening. He will discuss civic improvements of Lubbock as a whole, with special emphasis on plans of the negro community for better living.

William Hamilton, president of the Negro Chamber, will preside and George Woods will introduce Mr. Halsey. Blackmore will be toastmaster.

During the first two courses of a turkey dinner, music will be furnished. Mrs V. L. Haynes and Mrs. Clara Shields, sopranos, and Albert Smith, tenor, will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Betty Wilson, pianist.

The banquet-program will be held at the Wagon Wheel Inn, on the paved cut-off linking Carver Heights with the Slaton highway.

Special invitations have been issued to members of the City commission and their wives, as well as to several prominent citizens, Blackmore said.

FEDERATION FORMED

FORT WORTH, Dec. 14 (AP) — The Turkey federation, statewide organization of turkey producers, was formed here last night with R. E. James of Austin, president. V. P. Wiley of Santa Anna was named vice president and A. B. Kennerly of Dallas, secretary-treasurer.

Ickes Reveals GOP Plans For Election

CHICAGO, Dec. 14 (U.P.)—Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior, said last night that the Republicans "already have picked their opponent"—the ghost of President Roosevelt—for the 1948 campaign.

"They are determined to run against Roosevelt," he said.

Ickes, addressing a dinner sponsored by the National Citizens Political Action Committee, referred with characteristic disrespect to the GOP handling of the Pearl Harbor inquiry.

"There is only one difficulty that I can see in the way of a sweeping victory for the Republicans on the disinterred Pearl Harbor issue seven years after the event," the secretary remarked.

Labor Should Unite

"Unfortunately for them, and despite their responsibility for our unpreparedness, we did win the war."

Ickes urged all sections of organized labor to get together on the political front with "liberals and independents not necessarily associated with labor."

"Business has been active in politics for many years," he said. "Just as the government, if forced to do so, will have to imitate the giant business corporations, so must the farmers and laboring men realize, unless the government is to be run by and for big business, that they must organize and take an active part in politics."

U. S. Leads In New Weapons

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (U.P.) — The United States is now a leader in development of radio-controlled bombs and pilotless planes but will fall behind unless it assures sufficient funds for future research.

Navy officials sounded that warning in revealing the existence of three new super-weapons—the "bat bomb," a radar-controlled flying bomb; a radio-controlled "ghost" fighter plane; and a jet-propelled "drone" with a speed of 600 miles an hour.

Bomb Hit Jap Ships

The "bat bomb," a 12-foot pilotless missile, was used during the war to destroy thousands of tons of Japanese merchant and combat shipping. It is launched from a "mother plane" and radar automatically guides it to its goal, regardless of weather or evasive action by its intended target.

The "bat bomb," is the first fully automatic guarded missile ever used successfully in combat. But it is already becoming obsolete in light of newer and still more effective weapons. In Atlantic City yesterday, the Navy demonstrated to newsmen some of its latest developments in pilotless aircraft.

Now Plane Is Shown

The new radio-controlled fighter is known as the "Ghost Hellcat." It lands and takes off by ground radio control and is flown in the air by radio controls from a fighter plane. Its immediate application is as a target for heavy anti-aircraft guns. It has great significance, however, for the future.

The jet drone, still an experiment in the eyes of the Navy, is already regarded as a formidable sparring partner for fighter pilots and anti-aircraft gunners. Launched in the air by a PBY flying boat, it is controlled in action by a fighter plane. It has no landing gear and is brought down by parachute tripped automatically by the control plane.

Stock Exchange Will Close For Holidays

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP) — The New York Stock exchange will close on Monday Dec. 24, making a three-day shutdown for Christmas, the board of governors decided today.

Officials of the New York Curb exchange made the same announcement shortly after the action of the big board. The New York Cotton exchange will close on both the 24th and the following Monday, Dec. 31.

The Chicago Board of Trade announced dealings will be suspended at noon on the Mondays preceding Christmas and New Year's.

Securities and exchange commission offices will close Dec. 22 through Dec. 25 and Dec. 30 through Jan. 1 by an adjustment of the working schedule so as to open all offices for the last four days of the week instead of the first five.

New City Directory Being Distributed

Delayed several months because of labor and material difficulties, the 1945 city directories are being distributed this week.

There is slight difference in the major arrangement of the book, which is 38 pages larger than that for 1944, but there is a different type face used and a given surname may be listed only one time, with others of the same name belisted by initials only in an indented tabulation following.

Owen W. Aaron, a mechanic of Lubbock Auto company who was listed as living at Jones cottage on route 6 is the first individual named in the directory, and A. C. and Lillie Zurke, USA, listed as living at 2424 Fifteenth, the last names.

Oblong Vs. Square Jelly Beans Causing Senators Much Worry As Crisis Nears

BY FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14—Now we've got the Truman administration and the U. S. Senate worrying about the jelly bean crisis. 'Tain't funny.

You know jelly beans and how you eat 'em all except the black ones, which you chew last. Still and all the government has to define what is a jelly bean: a small candy, soft inside and hard without, oblong in shape and rounded at the ends.

The world's greatest jelly bean producer has been producing 'em in Chicago since the beginning of time, or almost, by the thousands of tons. Charles Barhydt, proprietor of the leading 10-cent store in Walden, N. Y., has been buying his fair share of these jelly beans.

Then Came OPA

He retailed them at six for one cent, or two pounds for a quarter, according to the age and financial status of his customers, and all was well in the jelly bean world. Then came the OPA. The jelly bean crisis was not far behind.

Barhydt put on his best green suit, selected a speckled necktie from stock, and came to Washington to put his troubles before Sen. James E. Murray of Montana, who likes jelly beans too (except for the black ones), and the Senator's small business committee.

When his stock ran low, Barhydt testified, he ordered a new supply from Chicago, only to be informed that jelly beans no longer were being produced.

"They told me the only thing they had was South Sea island jellies," he continued. "I ordered some south sea island jellies and they turned out to be square jelly beans."

"You mean that was the only difference?" demanded Sen. Kenneth Wherry of Neb. "One jelly bean was oblong and the other was square?"

Square Beans Expensive

"No, there was one other difference," Barhydt replied. "The new South Sea island jellies cost three times as much as the old jelly beans."

This meant that one cent would buy only two square jelly beans at Barhydt's jelly bean counter. This in turn confronted him with a buyers' strike on the part of the jelly bean consuming public. What Barhydt wanted was relief.

He whispered the name of the alleged jelly bean racketeer to the Senate's clerk, who handed it to Jerome Ney, the OPA's price chieftain, who said he'd bring back oblong jelly beans, or close down a square jelly bean factory.

OPA And Steel Peelers

That solved that and everybody felt relaxed, except Barhydt, who fumbled in his pocket and banged down on the table two pieces of machinery, one of gleaming steel, the other of blue plastic. "Potato peelers," he said.

The senators snapped to attention. Barhydt told how he had made friends and influenced housewives of Walden by retailing the first class steel potato peeler for 10 cents. Then came OPA again.

"Aha," said Sen. Wherry.

"And I could not get steel potato peelers at any price," Barhydt said. "I had to take this plastic potato peeler, which I have got to sell at 25 cents. This would not be so bad, except that it gets soggy (like a Salvador Dali painting) in the dish-water. Furthermore it will not peel potatoes."

The government's going to look into this, too, as soon as it finishes up with jelly beans.

Byron Nelson Picked As Man To Beat In $10,000 Open; Ben Hogan Close Behind

FORT WORTH, Dec. 14 (AP) — A field of 102 started firing today at Glen Garden Country club's tight par 71 in the first 18 holes of the $10,000 Fort Worth open with a guy who used to carry the golf bags here favored to carry off the money bags come Sunday.

Byron Nelson, golf's greatest winner who got his start as a caddie at Glen Garden, returns from a vacation of two months finding himself in the usual spot — labelled the man to beat.

He's Hitting Them

Nelson, the Denton, Texas, farmer yesterday shot his first complete round since Oct. 16 and was hitting them straight and true. He had a 72 without pressing.

Another Texan and also caddie alumni of Glen Garden — little Ben Hogan — and that man with the second-place money complex, Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Sanford, Me., along with Slammin' Sammy Snead, were considered leading threats to Lord Byron. Also there was Gene Sarazen, the ageless veteran who arrived with the announcement that he was going to enter the British open at St. Andrews, Scotland, in July. Sarazen won the British open in 1932 and is co-holder with Henry Cotton of the record of 283 for this event.

Sarazen Warms Up

Sarazen warmed up with a one-over-par 35 on the front nine yesterday.

This will be the fortieth tournament of the year for golfdom's touring troupe, during which the boys have played for a half-million dollars in bonds. Nelson leads with winnings of $64,500. McSpaden is second with $38,800. Snead ranks next to Nelson in tournament victories with six. Lord Byron has won 18.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo and Freddie Haas of New Orleans top the amateur field in the Fort Worth open which has 18 more holes tomorrow, after which the low 40 and ties will go into the final 36 Sunday.

Westerners Lose First Battle In New Deal Cage Tournament

The New Deal High school basketball five took the worst end of the score for three quarters, but it took only a big fourth period to shove the Lubbock Westerners into the consolation bracket of the annual New Deal cage tournament, the host team winning the feature of the opening night, 16 to 14.

Other winners for the opening night were the Lorenzo boys, and girls teams from Abernathy and New Deal.

Lorenzo had little trouble in disposing of the Petersburg five in the tourney opener, winning 30 to 16 to advance into the second round.

Abernathy Noses Petersburg

The New Deal girls had little trouble in winning from Lorenzo by a 27-to-7 decision, but Abernathy had plenty of trouble in beating back a fine Petersburg girls team before ekeing out a 22-to-21 win.

In the opening game, Moore and Kemp set a fast pace for the Lorenzo five, Moore pouring 14 points through the hoop, and Kemp adding eight more. Fowler paced the Petersburg five with four points.

There was never more than three points difference in the score between the Abernathy and Petersburg girls as the two teams battled down to the final whistle. Ledford of Abernathy copped scoring honors, getting half her team's total with 11 points, but was closely pressed by Williams of Petersburg, who dropped in ten points.

In the other girls game, Exum dropped in ten points and Fortenberry added nine more to pace the New Deal girls to the victory. No player on the Lorenzo club could top two points.

Game Was Fast

The feature game of the night was a fast battle all the way, with L. H. Hall of New Deal copping the scoring honors by getting ten of the New Deal points. Verdell Turner of Lubbock trailed him with eight points.

Defensive stars of the game were Utley of New Deal and Turner of Lubbock, the pair having a lot to do with the low scoring of their opponents.

Lubbock held New Deal scoreless in the first quarter, and led 3-0 at the end of the period. The Westerners increased the lead to 8-4 at the halftime intermission, and still led 12 to 10 as the teams turned into the home stretch.

The Snyder boys basketball team sent in word Thursday they would be unable to attend the tournament, because of the number of players ill with the flu. Their place will be taken by the New Deal B team.

Schedule For Today

Play will be resumed this morning at 11 o'clock with three boys games and two girls games to close out the first round of play. Play starts with the Abernathy and Tahoka boys playing the opener. The Tahoka and Cotton Center girls will follow at 12 o'clock. At 1 o'clock the New Deal boys B team plays Cotton Center. At 2 o'clock, the Post and Whiteface girls play. The round will be completed at 3 o'clock with Whiteface and Hobbs boys playing.

The Lubbock boys will return at 7 o'clock tonight to play in the consolation round, playing the loser of the New Deal B-Cotton Center game. The winner last night, New Deal, will play the winner of the Whiteface and Hobbs game at 9 o'clock.

Red Raiders Meet TCU Horned Frogs

DALLAS, Dec. 14 (Special)—Southern Methodist Mustangs beat off a dogged bid by the Texas Tech Red Raiders here last night, and took the finale of the two game series between the two clubs, 57 to 43.

The Raiders opened with a rush, and were ahead from time to time, until midway in the first half. But the more polished and older Mustangs took the lead then, and were never headed off.

Sneed Starts Scoring

Big Tilley Sneed dropped in the first counter to give the Raiders their opening lead, but Bert Rollings of SMU tied it a minute later. Gene Hardey and Bill Kelley added free throw to give Tech another two point lead, then Wayne Penn of SMU tied it with a long shot.

Kelley drove through for a rub-in, and once more the Raiders were in front. Hardey added another short one, and the Raiders led 8-4.

Ponies Pull Away

Bryan Lloyd, husky Mustang center and high scorer, dropped through the first of his seven baskets, and Hanks Rolland tied it up. A moment later Rollings netted a long counter, and the Mustangs were out in front to stay.

The Red Raiders move to Fort Worth today for a two-game series with the lengthy Horned Frogs of TCU, said to be the smoothest ball handling team in the Southwest.

50,000 Fans To See Games

Wichita Favored To Blast Odessa

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Four games drawing more than 50,000 fans tomorrow will send the Texas schoolboy football race into its semi-finals with only one of last year's quartet expected to again reach the penultimate round.

Last fall it was Highland Park (Dallas) vs. San Angelo and Port Arthur vs. Lufkin but two of those teams failed to survive the district campaign this season while another was kicked out in the bi-district round.

Only Scotties Remain

Only Highland Park remains and the Scotties move against the mighty defense of North Side at Fort Worth tomorrow.

The three other games:

Odessa at Wichita Falls.

Waco at Marshall.

Goose Creek vs. Thomas Jefferson at San Antonio.

Favorites are pronounced all along the line with Highland Park, Wichita Falls, Waco and Goose Creek the general choices but with Goose Creek appearing most likely to be upset.

Big Crowds Expected

The largest crowd will turn out at Fort Worth where 20,000 are expected but the other places will draw heavy attendance with capacity throngs at Marshall and Wichita Falls.

Odessa, the last unbeaten, untied team in the state, enters its game against Wichita Falls with several key men on the ailing list. But even at full strength, the Bronchos wouldn't be expected to halt the Wichita Falls powerhouse.

Probably the most sensational offensive duel will be that staged at Marshall where the Mavericks, who upset Lufkin's mighty Panthers last week, will be exceedingly dangerous for Waco's top-rated Tigers.

A Heavy Favorite

Highland Park is a heavy favorite to know down gallant North Side but so was Crozier Tech of Dallas last week and the Wolves were held to a single first down while beaten 16-0.

Hitting six out of eight last week, your correspondent decided that wasn't anywhere near good. Maybe we'll bat in a few more runs this week in the guessing league. Here they are (anticipated attendance in parentheses):

Odessa at Wichita Falls, 2 p. m. (12,000) — It won't be easy but Wichita Falls ought to win it by two touchdowns.

Highland Park vs. North Side at Fort Worth, 2:30 p. m. (20,000) — North Side has a great defense but so does Highland Park, in addition to a top offense: Highland Park by three touchdowns.

Waco at Marshall, 2:30 p. m. (9,000) — A thriller with Waco coming through by one touchdown.

Goose Creek vs. Thomas Jefferson at San Antonio, 2:30 p. m. (15,000) — Goose Creek will win but the Ganders will know they've been in a ball game.

Parham Cage Five Beat Clark Team

The Parham cage five took the featured senior league basketball game last night at the Lubbock Boys club gym, romping over the Clark five by a 46 to 14 score.

Cheatam poured in 18 points for the winners, and Smith followed him closely with 14 points. Mack Feris paced the losers with six points.

The Duane Scott five nosed out the Dudley Stanley club in the junior league game, 19 to 14, with the race close for scoring honors. Bantz paced the winners with five points, while Cook and Peters tied for the losers with four each.

In the opening game, Tommy Elliott's midget league club won an 18-to-8 decision over Jimmy Crawford's five. Jimmy Sexton paced the winners, and matched the losers' score, with eight points. Crawford led his own team with five points.

Five-Year Contract Given Yale Coach

All-Pro Team For 1945 Is Selected

By CHIP ROYAL
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Dec. 14. — Steve Van Buren, the terrific ball toter of the Philadelphia Eagles, playing his second year in the National League, is the only unanimous choice for the All-Pro team selected today by Associated Press sports writers around the circuit.

Next to the former Louisiana State star came Cleveland's Bob Waterfield, rookie of the year. The pasing-punting-scoring pro ace, who did more than any other player to put the Rams in the championship playoff, was only one vote away from a perfect count.

Big Jim Benton, teammate of Waterfield, not only led the great Don Hutson in yards gained by catching passes during the league season but he also topped the ace end in the eye of the All-Pro selectors.

1945 ALL-PRO TEAM

	Wgt.	College	Team
End—Don Hutson	185	Alabama	Green Bay
Tackle—Al Wistert	215	Mirhigan	Philadelphia
Guard—Riley Matheson	210	Texas Mines	Cleveland
Center—Charley Brock	210	Nebraska	Green Bay
Guard—Bill Radovich	260	Southern Cal.	Detroit
Tackle—Frank Cope	234	Santa Clara	New York
End—Jim Benton	206	Arkansas	Cleveland
Back—Bob Waterfield	191	UCLA	Cleveland
Back—Steve Van Buren	207	Louisiana State	Philadelphia
Back—Steve Bagarus	171	Notre Dame	Washington
Back—Bob Westfall	190	Michigan	Detroit

Eight In A Row For Hutson

Of course the honor business is an old story for Hutson. This is the eighth straight year the Green Bay standby has made the top team while creating new records every time he caught a pass or crossed an enemy goal line.

Don is one of four repeaters from the 1944 team. The others are Al Wistert, 215-pound Philadelphia tackle; Riley Matheson, 205-pound Cleveland guard; and Van Buren.

Besides Waterfield and Benton, the other newcomers are ball carriers Steve Bagarus, Washington Redskin freshman, and Bob Westfall, Detroit sophomore; tackle Frank Cope, eight-year man with the New York Giants; guard Bill Radovich, with Detroit for five years; and Charley Brock, Green Bay center for seven years.

Three From Cleveland

As far as team representation goes, Cleveland placed three men on the All-Pro team; Detroit, Philadelphia and Green Bay, two each; Washington an New York, one player apiece.

Benton and Hutson ran way ahead of all other ends in the voting with Frank Liebel, New York; Joe Aguirre, Wahington, and Steve Pritko, Cleveland, following in that order.

No other tackles came close to Wistert and Cope but votes were cast for Chester Bulger, Chicago Cardinals and Emil Uremovich, Detroit.

Matheson led all the guards for the third straight year. Radovich had to beat out Zip Hanna of Washington and Augie Lio of the Boston - Brooklyn Yanks for the other spot. Pete Tinsley of Green Bay also was well liked by the selectors.

Quite A Battle

Mel Hein of the Giants and Alex Wojciechowicz gave brock quite a battle for center honors but the big Green Bay pivot man won out by one vote.

There was never any doubt about the backfield. Of course the big surprise was the failure of Sammy Baugh and Sid Luckman to get enough votes for the first team.

Bagarus ran way ahead of Baugh. Buist Warren of Pittsburgh made a good showing as did Ted Fritsch of Green Bay who lost the first fullback post to Westfall by one vote.

All in all, the 1945 All-Pro team is one any coach would like to field. It has speed, plenty of power and weight. The line averages 217 and the backs 189.

Fall Of Iran City Is Near

TEHRAN, Dec. 14 (AP)—A high government source said today that the fall of Tabriz, largest city in Iran's northwestern province of Azerbaijan, to rebellious tribesmen was imminent.

The announcement came as provincial Governor Bayatt arrived in Tehran after a flight from the besieged city. Bayatt said he had been forced to leave Tabriz by leaders of the movement for local autonomy.

Orders Are Awaited

The Iranian garrison at Tabriz was surrounded by insurgent forces, a government official said, and was awaiting orders from Tehran to fight or surrender.

Official reports earlier in the week from the turbulent northwest province told of small skirmishes taking place there, although information has been scarce even since Iranian troops were turned back by a Russian commander southeast of Zenjan.

The official Russian explanation for not permitting government troops to enter the Soviet-occupied territory was that such a move might cause unnecessary bloodshed.

Heavy Snow

the highways will be glazed over, if the temperature stays at the present level."

According to West Texas Gas Company's main line station, the temperature at 9 a. m. was 24, and during the preceding four hours had remained at 23.

County Agent Jason O. Gordon said: "This is what the farmers have been wanting." Declaring that it was an unusually wet snow, he said the county's small grains would be benefitted greatly.

To Continue Cold

Since the county's acreage of small grains is light—only about 12,000 acres are in wheat—, the greatest benefit is that the snow is putting a good season into the ground for next year, Gordon said.

The weather forecast was for "partly cloudy weather and continued cold."

WIDE SECTION OF NATION IS COVERED

(By The Associated Press)

A blanket of snow covered a wide section of the nation today, freezing rains chilled parts of the south and falling temperatures in the midwest made the winter setting in that region more realistic. The best weather in the land was in some sections of the gulf states.

Snow to a depth of from 3 to 7 inches extended from eastern Nebraska and eastern Kansas to the upper Ohio valley. The snow storm moved eastward from the upper Mississippi valley into the North Atlantic states and headed for New England today after heavy falls throughout the midwest area in the last 48 hours.

The heaviest falls were 7 inches at Erie, Penn., and six inches in Cleveland. Freezing rains were reported in Virginia, the Carolinas and in Washington, D. C., while rain fell over parts of Georgia. Pueblo, Colo., shivered in seven degrees below zero while in Brownsville, Tex., the weather was clear and the mercury touched a peak of 82, the highest reported yesterday.

BELOW FREEZING IN NORTHWEST TEXAS

Light snow and temperatures below freezing in the northwestern part of the state made up Texas' winter weather today.

While temperatures in this section ranged from 16 at Pampa to 31 in Dallas and Fort Worth, the middle part of the state warmed to the middle 30's and 40's following this week's cold wave. Southern Texas, including the Rio Grande Valley, held to lows of 40 and 50 degrees.

Light snow fell in Fort Worth, Abilene, Harpersville, Big Spring, Midland, Wink and Lubbock last night or this morning, the weather bureau reported. The valley and gulf coast had light general rains.

Other temperatures below freezing were reported from Amarillo, with a low of 17; Dalhart, 19; Guadalupe Pass, 26; Wichita Falls, 28; Abilene, Big Spring, and El Paso, 30.

GM-UAW Breach

back yesterday as the company announced it was seeking court injunctions in two cities to halt "illegal picketing" by some of the 175,000 strikers.

H. W. Anderson, GM vice president, told newsmen the company's latest offer of a 13 1/2 cents wage increase was "final."

Charges "Bodily Harm"

Anderson charged that union pickets had "caused bodily harm" to non-striking employes attempting to enter the GM electromotive plant at La Grange, Ill., Wednesday, and used "threats and personal abuse" to prevent office workers and supervisory personnel from entering the Fisher Body plant in Cleveland.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW vice president, said "They can get all the injunctions they want," he added, "but when they get them they'll find the judges aren't going into the plants to make autos."

Atomic Bomb Test In Pacific Next Spring

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — The atomic bomb is expected to get its ocean test in a remote corner of the Pacific sometime next spring.

Although a White House announcement that President Truman himself suggested the joint Army-Navy test against warships indicates desire for early action, those in a position to know say the preparations may require as much as five months.

Christmas Present For Vets Is Asked

By ROGER W. STUART
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14—There were indications today that veterans, often stymied in their attempts to buy surplus property, might be given a priority "Christmas present." Proposed legislation would grant them priority to purchase surplus good ahead of all except federal agencies.

A bill to create such a priority, as well as permitting veterans to buy surpluses for their personal use, has been introduced by Rep. Johnson (D., Tex.). W. Stuart Symington, Surplus Property administrator, has informed a congressional committee that he favors it.

More Support

Additional support came from the Republican side of the House today when Rep. Latham (N. Y.) a member of the committee on expenditures, in whose hands the bill now rests, urged its immediate adoption to "fill a current and obvious need, and at the same time give G. I.'s a legislative Christmas present."

Veterans' experience with surplus property disposal agencies," Rep. Latham declared, "has left them bitter and resentful. Under existing law, they have a vague third priority which, coupled with faulty administration, gets them nothing but promises and a runaround.

"The facts," he added, "are known and the issue is simple and clear. No hearings or reports are necessary. If reported out of our committee at once, we could pass the bill next week, before the recess."

Should Be Limited

Symington, although aproving the Johnson bill, said the Surplus Property administration should have the authority to limit the amount of goods a veteran buys if the right to purchase for his own use is granted. (At present they may buy surpluses only to help them become established in business).

The administration admitted that some of the veterans' difficulties in acquiring goods has been due to "poor administration."

Additionally, he said, there has not been enough of the kinds of property the veterans want.

The condition in which property is declared makes it difficult for veterans to exercise preferences, he added. Property is declared surplus at locations which make it difficult for the veterans to acquire it, and the government has not been able to establish and maintain an adequate number of direct outlets for effective distribution.

Mr. Symington said distribution would be greatly improved under a plan he has submitted to Congress. This calls for releasing goods for veterans through thousands of wholesalers in addition to the few regional offices now selling the surpluses.

Release Of Scarce Goods Announced

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — The War department advised senators today it is releasing immediately more than $400,000,000 worth of scarce civilian goods.

The war investigating committee was given a list of items valued at $203,721,370 and an aide said that another $200,000,000 worth also is being released.

The list was submitted after Under Secretary of War Kenneth C. Royall and Gen. Courtney H. Hodges had assured members that the Army would do its best to alleviate civilian shortages.

Slow Reconversion, Strikes Hold Up Vehicle Production

By JOHN L. ROSE
United Press Staff Writer

DETROIT, Dec. 14. — The nation's motoring public and commercial haulers faced small chance today of replacing badly worn vehicles in the near future. Reconversion troubles and labor disputes allowed only a trickle of new cars and trucks to flow from assembly lines.

A United Press survey of automobile and truck manufacture showed that production so far in 1945 is only a small fraction of the scheduled 500,000 units. Lack of materials, combined with strike, put the industry far behind earlier expectation.

Present production wa estimated at about 7,000 units weekly, compared with more than 130,000 cars and trucks each week during the pre-war period.

Production Figures

The production status of the major car maker follows:

Ford—Production estimated at 970 units daily, including 800 Fords, 150 Mercurys and 20 Lincoins. More than 50,000 trucks built since Jan. 1. Production of cars by Dec. 31 probably will be about half of the scheduled 75,000.

Packard — Output varies from 25 to 100 cars daily, on a production goal of 200,000 annually. Two assembly lines were put into readiness but only one is being used.

Nash—Started production Oct 26 and up to Nov. 30, the company had turned out 3,180 units. December production may reach 6,000 units toward an annual output of 150,000 cars.

Foremen's Strike Delays Hudson

Hudson — About 4,000 units produced since Aug. 30 when assembly lines started. Delayed five weeks by foremen's strike. Lack of parts further delayed production. Expects to start Monday producing about 120 cars daily.

Chrysler — No volume production because of lack of parts. Assembly line production may not start until negotiations with UAW-CIO, now underway, are completed.

General Motors — No production since strike started Nov. 21.

Willys-Overland — Production of commercial jeeps suspended because of lack of parts. Officials reported 2,000 jeeps produced so far, whereas plans called for 8,000. Orders were on hand for 30,000 units.

Studebaker — Assembly lines not in operation, due mainly to lack of transmision, but have been ready to produce since Oct. 1.

All manufacturers reported that their figures "could change" at any moment, raising the hopes of millions of motorists.

tanks and armored cars what the Nazis called "Polish bandits" reinforcing the Jews.

Flame throwers and artillery were called into action by the Germans and wehrmacht engineers were detailed to blow up hideouts. Chemical smoke was used to flush fugitives from sewers. Systematically block after block of buildings was set ablaze.

Executions Described

Describing gas chamber executions at Oswiecim, the prosecutor read the official report of the war refugee board of Washington, D. C., estimating that 1,165,000 Jews had been killed at the one concentration camp.

Another report described the extermination camp at Treblinka, to which two railroad trains a day moved Jews to be suffocated in steam chambers.

"All the victims had stripped off their clothes," the report said. "Women and children first were driven into the death chambers. Those too slow or too weak to move quickly were driven on by rifle butts, by whipping and kicking . . . Small children were simply thrown inside.

"After being filled up to capacity the chambers were hermetically closed and the steam was let in. In a few minutes it was all over."

Housing Plan Said To Be Unworkable

AUSTIN, Dec. 14 (U.P.) — President Truman's plan to place a ceiling on new and old housing was branded "unworkable" by C. D. Harrison, member of one of Austin's leading real estate firms.

Polled with other realtors in Texas on the Truman plan, Harrison said Thursday that the president's snggestion was not practical. "We'll get more homes built," he said, "if they'll turn us loose than under the priority system."

Harrison said real estate firms were anxious to relieve shortages as soon as possible. "We'll reach the desired results quicker," he predicted, "if we don't have a lot of red tape and stuff of that sort."

Earlier Thursday, M. A. Rowe, president of the Houston real estate board, said that real estate is an investment commodity, and "there is no more reason to place a ceiling on the price of homes than there is to fix the price of any other investment business."

Texans Falling Behind In Loan

BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

In the matter of E-bond sales percentages, Bexar County led the three other Texas big city counties today while Harris County trailed.

Citizens of San Antonio and vicinity (Bexar) had a percentage of 72.8 per cent. Tarrant (Fort Worth) was next with 67.2 per cent; Dallas had 62.2 per cent and Harris (Houston) brought up the rear with 59.6.

Fort Worth planned an E-bond buying spree next Monday to honor the visit of Gen. Jonathan Wainwright.

Meanwhile, much more thinly populated counties were showing up their big brothers. The State War Finance Committee yesterday said eight more counties had topped their quotas, bringing the total to 24. The eight were listed as Shackelford, Throckmorton, Tom Green, Randall, Roberts, Mills, Rains and Franklin.

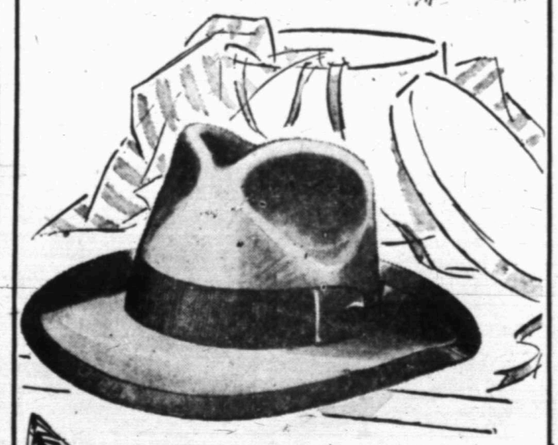

Two hundred and thirty counties still are in arrears. The deadline is Dec. 31.

"I know Texas now will pick up and carry this all-imoprtant last war financing project over the goal," Nathan Adams, State chairman of the drive said. "Reputations for achievement are long in building but they can be destroyed with one failure. The reputation of Texas will be wiped out unless the Victory loan is a success."

Through Thursday, Texas had subscribed 64 per cent of its $90,000,000 E-bond quota. Sales came to $57,617,966.

What Helps Agriculture Helps All of Us

Buy Victory Bonds

WHAT is it that helps agriculture? We know that to grow good crops it takes good seed, fertile soil, a favorable climate, and the skill and experience of the individual. Likewise in the production of livestock you need well-bred animals, proper care and feeding, plus intelligent management.

Through better seeds and new types of plants like hybrid corn, through soil conservation methods, better land management, and improved machinery, through more effective control of pests and parasites, America has reached a level of food production never before achieved by any nation in history. Therein lies much of America's strength for the future.

By many a tragic example, history teaches us that when food supplies fail, nations fall. We of America must see to it that our agriculture becomes always a stronger, surer base for the economy of our nation. This is a task not only for you as producers but also for us who, by providing nationwide facilities and services, bridge the gap which separates farmers and ranchers from the distant consumers who must have their products.

And because our business is so closely linked with the land, we at Swift & Company are vitally interested in all developments that help agriculture. And so in these Swift pages we publish helpful information, knowing that a prosperous agriculture is essential to the livestock and meat industry—and to the prosperity of the nation as a whole.

OUR LIVESTOCK JUDGING METHODS

By R. G. JOHNSON
Head, Department of Animal Husbandry, Oregon State College

Domestic animals are machines for converting plant material into meat, fibers, and other human needs. Competition forces the modern farmer to evaluate efficiency in terms of tons or bushels per acre, dairy production in pounds of butterfat per cow per year, and poultry results in number of eggs per year. Thus, since the basic resource is feed and not animals, shouldn't livestock producers evaluate breeding stock on the basis of meat or of wool their offspring produces per 100 pounds of feed consumed?

The show ring standards for judging animals by external appearance have given us advancement up to a certain point, but breeding for the show ring does not always lead to efficient feed utilization.

A step in the right direction is the increasing use of proved sires. Today, through use of artificial insemination, the purebred breeder is greatly assisted in the establishment and increase of efficient blood lines.

Tomorrow's "yardstick" will not only be bigger yields per acre but also more pounds of meat and fiber per ton of feed.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW? How many of the amino acids essential to health are found in meat?

What governs the price of livestock?

In what dessert is meat an important ingredient?

Answers to these questions may be found in the various articles which are printed elsewhere on this page.

THE EDITOR'S COLUMN

A smart steer on range goes to where the forage is best. A smart livestock producer sells where the market is best. There are many sources of information to help him decide where that best market may be. Radio networks and nearby stations report daily on receipts and prices at central and local markets. Commission houses and their field men are ready to give personal advice on the best time and place to sell. Newspapers publish detailed descriptions of market conditions. Various timely reports are available from the U. S. D. A. and other impartial sources on trends and developments in the livestock-and-meat industry.

In making their bids, livestock buyers also use current market information. Acceptance of any price offered is entirely up to the producer or his sales agent. Meat packing plants and their buyers are located at so many widespread points that if a producer is not satisfied with prices offered by any one buyer, he has a choice of several others to which he may sell his animals.

Moreover, with 3,500 meat packing plants and 26,000 other concerns and individuals who slaughter livestock commercially, there is bound to be keen competitive bidding for your livestock. Barring meat rationing and price ceilings, livestock prices are governed by what the packer can get for the meat and by-products.

"AMINOS" ARE IMPORTANT TO YOU! From the nutrition research laboratories comes the story of amino acids, mysterious substances found in the proteins we eat. Aminos are used by our bodies to build and rebuild our tissues, organs, and blood. They also help fight off infections.

Of the 23 known aminos, ten are absolutely essential to health and even to life itself. Meat is rich in all ten of them. That's why doctors, working to rebuild the shattered bodies of wounded servicemen, order diets with large amounts of meat. That is also why everybody should eat meat for health as well as for its fine flavor and its "stick-to-the-ribs" food value.

Swift and other meat packers, through The American Meat Institute, are telling this vital story of meat and its health-building aminos in many millions of advertising messages. As people read this story, there will be wider markets for meat—and the livestock you produce.

SORGHUMS ON INCREASE AS CATTLE FEED

By A. D. WEBER
Head, Department of Animal Husbandry
Kansas State College

Proof that the new combine-type grain sorghums, Midland milo and Westland milo are the equal of corn as cattle feed, which was demonstrated recently at the Fort Hays Branch of the Kansas Agricultural Experiment Station, will interest feeders who fatten cattle in the Southwest.

Yearling steers fed these two new grains for 150 days gained 2½ pounds per head daily. This was equal to results gained by feeding yearling steers No. 2 corn over a like period. The steers in each lot graded the same (choice), and sold at the same price ($17.00 per cwt.). All grains were fed at the rate of 13 pounds per head daily. Each ration included sweet sorghum silage, 37 pounds; cottonseed meal, 1½ pounds, and finely ground limestone, 1-10 pound.

Three similar feeding trials also proved conclusively that the new combine-type grain sorghums compare favorably with corn as cattle fattening feed—Wheatland milo, Colby milo and Westland milo being tested in these trials.

Increasing use of native feed grains, such as these new type grain sorghums, will greatly benefit the stability and prosperity of this agricultural region.

Strange Death Being Probed

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14 (AP) — District Attorney Edmund Brown last night wired Macon, Ga., authorities to make a complete investigation of the death and cremation of an elderly woman there—the fourth, Brown said, who has sickened and died in hotels throughout the country after becoming acquainted with a former convict under arrest here.

"This completes the picture," the district attorney asserted after he requested Macon to hold the ashes of a woman cremated there as "Mrs. Alma Willa Carter, of 385 Geary street, San Francisco."

Pointing out that the address is a club and bar in San Francisco, Brown asserted he was proceeding in the belief the woman who died in Macon actually was Mrs. Alice W. Carpenter—the same intials—of Bloomington, Ind.

Held For Forgery

While the former convict and choir singer, Alfred Leonard Cline, 55, was held on a charge of suspected forgery, Brown directed an investigation of the deaths and cremations of elderly women at Macon, Jacksonville, Fla., Dallas, Tex., and Portland, Ore., dating back to 1943.

Brown pointed out that there is a similar pattern in all the deaths: 1. All four women died shortly after being registered in hotels; 2. They were ill when they entered the hotels; 3. The arrangements for their cremations were made by a man who identified himself as Cline or Klein, either as their husband or their business agent.

Graduate Receives Aid Under Program

Lewis E. Nancy, 1941 graduate of the Texas Tech college department of animal husbandry, is the first person to benefit from the department's plan to assist former students in restocking their ranch after serving in the armed forces.

A pure-bred herd of Hereford cattle was sold Nance who recently was discharged from the Army after three years service. The herd and nine feed mills were added to Nance's commercial cattle holdings on his ranch in Scurry county.

Other former students have purchased cattle from the department of animal husbandry at different times, Dean W. L. Stangel said. Although the number of cattle is limited, the department hopes to serve as many veterans as possible in the future.

American Policy In Far East Is Rapped

LONDON, Dec. 14 (AP)—Charges that the United States failed to disarm many Japanese troops in China and Manchuria were made in Commons last night by Lieut. L. J. Callaghan, laborite M. P., who asserted that America had embarked upon a "plan of economic aggression in the Far East."

Callaghan demanded that British Foreign Secretary Bevin make "very strong representations" at the Moscow foreign ministers' conference concerning American plans in the Far East.

He accused the United States of apparently supporting what he called Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek's policies of using former Japanese puppet armies against the Communists and appointing pro-Japanese officials.

He also suggested that the Americans should withdraw all their troops from Manchuria, and that the United Nations or Britain, Russia and the United States should assume the responsibility of conducting Democratic elections throughout China now.

Five Million Loan To Finland Okayed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — The United States agreed today to lend $5,000,000 to little Finland, the only nation to meet its World War I financial obligations to this country in the period between the wars.

Finland will use the funds to purchase approximately 46,000 bales of United States cotton, the Export-Import bank of Washington announced.

Fifteen troop-carriers, including the Queen Mary, are due at New York with 24,000 troops; nine ships with 2,400 at Newport News, Va., and two with 1,200 at Boston.

From the Pacific, 20 small vessels with about 600 are due at San Diego, Calif.; 11 with 10,000 at Los Angeles, Calif.; one with 2,200 at Portland, Ore.; 14 with approximately 8,000 at San Francisco, six with more than 10,000 at Seattle, Wash., and one with about 1,500 at Tacoma, Wash.

Puppet Governor In Luzon Is Kidnaped

MANILA, Dec. 14 (AP)—Sergio Aquino, puppet governor of Tarlac province and central Luzon during Japanese occupation, today was reported kidnaped by a band of armed, masked men from a house in Bamban, Tarlac, where he was a guest at a card party.

Aquino, acused of collaboration, recently was released on bail. Police said they had no trace of him.

Aquino is a cousin of Benigno Aquino, speaker of the national assembly during the occupation, reputed strong man of the puppet government and now detained in Tokyo as a traitor.

Cities Asked To Aid In Safety Of Fliers

AUSTIN, Dec. 14 (AP)—A. W. Meadows, State Aeronautics commission's executive director, today urged "a bucket of white paint, a big brush and a little work" upon Texas cities to aid private fliers in finding their way around in Texas.

Most Texas towns and some of the cities are not adequately marked, Meadows said, but two gallons of paint properly applied to the largest available roof would do the job.

He said that a flyer dodging a storm or blown off his course often finds himself in strange territory. Unless he can locate himself quickly, he is quite likely to run out of gas and end up in a pasture.

Conference In Fort Worth

Meadows plans to attend a conference of the airport division of the Civil Aeronautics administration in Fort Worth, Dec. 19 to bring himself up to date on regulations before inaugurating a statewide marking program.

Old regulations required the name of the town painted on a roof in three-foot letters. A large arrow bearing the letter "N" would point north. Another arrow with the letter "M" and a figure would indicate the distance and direction to the nearest airport or landing field.

"It's very simple but very important to the safety and comfort of private flyers to have all towns marked," Meadows said.

Final Fight Card Of Season Slated

Fight winners return to the ring tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Lubbock Boys club for the final fight card of the season that will find only one of the eleven matches failing to pair winners.

Buddy Edge, scrappy 130 pounder who lost by a technical knockout to Norman "Kayo" Lindsey last week, has asked for another crack at the Boys club terror, and booked for the feature attraction of the show.

This card, sponsored by the Kiwanis club, will be the last fight show at the club until after basketball season.

Don Carter, who won his last match by a knockout, is back on the semi-final of the card, paired with Oscar Greenhaw. All other winners were hard pressed to win decisions, and promise some good battles for tonight.

Other bouts on the card will pair James Owens and Dennis Jeter; Pat Warren and Gerald Loyd; Carl Ince and Johnny Boyd; Blair Hankins and Wilburn Roach; Pat Wallace and Deany McGuire; Keith Newman and Stanley Black; Mikey Brady and Jomes Boyd; James Holloway and Frank Brown, and R. J. Matheny and Godfrey Brook.

The third set of bleachers is being moved inside the gym to take care of the crowd, so fans can be reasonably assured of seats for tonight's fight card.

Extension Of City Limits Discussed By Commission

Possible extension of the city limits in several out-lying districts of Lubbock was discussed, along with other changes when the City commission met Thursday afternoon.

The move was the passage of a resolution calling for an ordinance regulating service of city water to customers residing outside the corporate limits. Under the tentative proposal studied Thursday, all water customers living outside the city limits would be required to pay double the water rate charged within the city limits.

City officials pointed out that a major portion of the revenue—for operation of the City of Lubbock are derived from profits of the water department and city tax revenues, both revenues being about equal. Therefore, it is equitable, they said, that water customers who do not pay city taxes, living outside the limits and benefitting therefrom pay their prorata share as customers living within the city limits.

At the same time the city moved to extend water lines to consumers without the city limits, on the basis of 150 lineal feet per customer served including the premises to be served. Any customer desiring water service on extensions of more than 150 lineal feet can obtain the extension by paying, in advance, all estimated costs of the necessary extension above the 150 feet, in addition to the regular tapping fee.

No water lines will be laid out or extended except in dedicated streets or alleys and only to serve property which has been properly platted, approved, and laid out into lots and blocks and the approved plat on file in the deed records of Lubbock county. All rules and regulations now in force within the city governing the distribution of water to the individual consumer will be applied alike to consumers without the city limits.

Extension of sanitary sewer lines will not be made to premises outside the city limits unless the property owner is a user of city water and then the sewer extension will be at the cost of the property owner.

Commissioners pointed out in the meeting that as soon as the areas served by city water outside the limits came into the city, the rate would automatically drop to the normal charge and city taxes on the property would offset the additional charge.

Action on the extra water charge came after it was revealed street closing;

Acceding to the request of Rev. C. J. McCarty, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, for a railroad crossing at Ave. L and First, and granting a request for temporary foundation for a temporary addition to the Calvary church, Eighteenth and Ave. T.

Approval of a contract for two new city water wells to L. A. Peeples for $2,270;

Purchase of a car of cylinder lubricating oil from Cities Service Oil company at 23.5 cents for gallon;

Close Alley for New Church

Passage of an ordinance closing an alley between Broadway and Main and opening of an alley north and south in the 1900-block for the new Broadway Church of Christ building after Paul Sherrod and Claude Tatum had presented petitions approving the closing signed by all property owners and their wives in the block;

Approval of general contractor bonds for J. Ray Givens, T. A. Brown and John C. Harris and an insurance policy for the Yellow Cab company;

Rejection of a request by L. W. Woods for permit to stencil house numbers on curbs in residential areas; and

Claim Is Rejected

Rejection of the claim of W. T. Dickson for $35 damages to his car suffered in a collision caused by water from the city cooling tower that repeated requests for water service without the city limits were being made in areas which ordinarily should be within the city limits. The commission voted to extend the city limits in two different areas after petitions had been presented. They were the Lone Star addition, now known as Tech Terrace, in southwest Lubbock near Wagner park and a part of blocks 65, 66, 67, 68 and 69, Wheelock second addition, in southeast Lubbock.

Election Return Canvassed

Commissioners officially canvassed last Tuesday's election, finding that all 14 propositions of the $5,894,000 bond issue had carried by one-side margins as previously reported unofficially, all propositions getting more than 1,100 votes and more than 1,200 in some instances while opposition votes ranged from 25 to 86 votes.

Elmer East and C. R. Woolsey, representing bonding companies, advised commissioners regarding various details of marketing the bonds, which is expected to be within the next 60 to 90 days.

Other action of the commission included:

Passage at second reading of ordinances No. 734 and 735, closing a portion of Ave. J, south of Nineteenth and a portion of the alley between lots 1 and 36, block two, Dupre addition, to compensate the blowing on the street and forming ice.

The commissioners heard Jack Randal, local attorney representing the Santa Fe railroad company, present a request that railroad property running south of Fourth street from Ave. O to College be changed to an "L" zone. The request had previously been rejected by the City Planning commission. Ray Forbes, division freight and passenger agent; H. C. Vincent, traffic manager; R. H. Deideker, freight agent; W. H. Jones, division superintendent and J. O. West, engineer, Santa Fe officials, also were present. Action was deferred.

Smith Presented Watch

The commission meeting was interrupted shortly after 5 o'clock when more than 100 city employes filed into the room to witness the presentation of a fine watch to retiring City Manager Marlin R. Smith. Vaughn Wilson, city attorney, spoke briefly and Hubert Crawford, chief engineer of the light plant, oldest city employe in service, presented the watch to Smith.

Mayor O. W. Ribble presided and attending were Commissioners Hub Jones, W. B. Price, J. Ray Dickey and Fred H. Childress, Wilson, Smith and City Secretary Lavenia Williams.

United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—I had to take to my bed today with a disease known as congressional ear.

Hour after hour and day after day I've been listening to those babies on Capitol Hill argue about everything from atoms, of which there are two many, to zippers, of which there are too few. Them poor old ears couldn't take it any longer.

They began to swell last night, turn red and sting. They got crinkled edges as they grew bigger and the more they expanded the worse they hurt. The doctor hurried over and said what had I been putting into 'em?

"Oratory," I said.

"What?" he said.

"Congressional speeches," I said.

"Dangerous in large doses," he diagnosed. "Now you've got erysipelas."

Fed Sulfathiozole

I looked that up in the dictionary. It isn't good. The sawbones packed my ears with white paste. He fed me sulfathiozole. I never did see such big pills; they went down like golf balls.

They also made me see double, but that was only the beginning. The doc said I'd have to keep my ears in ice packs and syringe 'em at intervals with something soothing. He said he'd be in to see my ears tomorrow and for me to keep 'em inside the house. But above all, he said, keep 'em out of the House of Representatives.

I said could I write this item for the papers? He said that wouldn't hurt me, but he doubted if it would do you readers any good. If you're smart, you'll take the doctor's free advice and turn the page; if you're still with me you're going to learn about government and my bride.

Corkscrew Shortage

Never having been an invalid before, I never knew the troubles she has with her government. Take corkscrews. She had to get into one of my medicine jugs with an ice pick and a hairpin because there isn't a corkscrew for sale in Washington. The corkscrew dealers claim the federal metal program caused the shortage.

The mail man brought our income tax statement and as of now she is trying to figure it at one out; if I made more money in 1945 than I thought I would in 1944 there'll be a penalty in 1946. Or so the small print indicates to her. She says she believes that Fred Vinson and his Treasury department are running a bean guessing contest.

Bureau Furnishes Recipes

Don't get the idea that she's bitter. She gets her money's worth from the government. She spilled some iodine on the rug. While a still was wet, she had the Bureau of Home Economics of the Agriculture department on the phone, telling her how to remove it. The bureau is good on roast turkey recipes, too, she said, and how to make chestnut stuffing without chestnuts and cranberry sauce without cranberries. The bureau uses apples.

The alley back of our house is piled with rubbish. She has not yet been able to flush out the right man by telephone. It looks now, she says, as though I'll have to take up the subject with Sen. Theodore D. Bilbo of Mississippi, chairman of the District of Columbia committee in charge of alleys.

If I must, I must, but he'll probably make a speech. What that'll do to my ears I hate to think.

Dew or moisture condensing on a car is especially harmful to the finish. For that reason, if for no other, a car should be kept in a closed garage at night.

Driving at high speeds in low or second gear often doubles the amount of gasoline used by an automobile.

First air-conditioned trolley in intracity travel is now under construction for operation in Atlanta, Ga.

Dari Ann says:

DARICRAFT gives a velvety smoothness and rich flavor to foods without adding extra weight-producing "fats." DARICRAFT is fresh whole milk, homogenized and evaporated, with nothing added except additional "sunshine" Vitamin "D," and nothing removed except approximately 50% of the natural water. DARICRAFT is not cream, but it whips and digests easily because of the special processes used.

Excellent Source of Vitamins

While all milk contains valuable vitamins, milk in its natural state does not have sufficient Vitamin "D." DARICRAFT has always had its content of Vitamin "D" increased. The special process used does not change the flavor or odor. You get large quantities of sunshine Vitamin "D" in DARICRAFT—400 USP units per re-constituted quart.

Ultra-Modern Plant with most Advanced Type of Equipment

The new DARICRAFT plant is considered one of the largest and most modern in the industry. Latest scientific methods used throughout. So clean you could almost eat off the floor. From the time the fresh, whole milk reaches the plant until you open the can in your home, DARICRAFT homogenized evaporated milk is never exposed to the air.

Daricraft Whips Quickly for Desserts

Yes, DARICRAFT whips deliciously when thoroughly chilled. Pour desired amount into freezing tray for 30 to 60 minutes, or lay unopened can directly on ice, or touching ice compartment, for at least 12 hours before whipping. Chill beaters and bowl. DARICRAFT can be re-whipped does not change to butter.

Can be Soured Instantly with Vinegar

If your recipe calls for sour milk, dilute DARICRAFT with equal parts of water, and for each cupful, add 1 tablespoon vinegar or lemon juice and you have a soured milk with the perfect degree of acidity. Soured DARICRAFT will always give the same results.

Improved Flavor

DARICRAFT tastes so delicious because of the special processes used. No "burnt" taste, no "caramel" odor. There's nothing in the DARICRAFT process which could change the flavor, and no "preservatives" added. Try it chilled on cereals—diluted for drinking—undiluted in coffee or tea. Taste it yourself to appreciate its delicious flavor.

Doctors Prescribe Daricraft for Infant Formulas

Doctors find DARICRAFT "right" for hard-to-feed babies. They know the seal of acceptance of the Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association means DARICRAFT conforms to highest standards. Ask your Doctor about DARICRAFT formula for your baby. Convenient and simple to make. No boiling necessary. DARICRAFT comes to you sterilized, pasteurized, and homogenized.

Enjoy Daricraft Quality, Convenience

DARICRAFT comes in a yellow and blue can, and is for sale by the best grocers at no additional cost. Keeps on your pantry shelf until opened, then in the can on ice for days. Have several cans of DARICRAFT for emergencies.

Barney Oldfield Still Packs Plenty Of Courage; He's Getting Ready To Become A Groom Again—And For The Fourth Time

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 14—Barney Oldfield, renowned for his skill, daring and dead cigar butt, proved irrevocably today that four decades haven't taken any of the courage which made him the first man to drive a mile a minute.

Barney, who will be 68 next month, is getting ready to be married again—and for the fourth time.

Must Be Getting Braver

Considering what Barney had to work with when he drove his famed "999' at 60 miles an hour at Indianapolis in 1903, Oldfield must be getting braver as the years roll by. Or maybe it's because the current intended is the second wife who divorced him 21 years ago—and any bachelor knows that 60 m.p.h. isn't fast enough to stay single these days.

The safest bet, however, is that Barney still is the nervy fellow for whom racing bicycles were too slow. So in 1902 he talked a struggling mechanic and horseless carriage builder named Henry Ford into building a racing car, old 999. It weighed more than 2,800 pounds and had a wheel base exceeding 120 inches. As Barney modestly put it: "It almost takes a Sampson to get it into a fast turn."

Won His First Race

But Barney won his first race, the Detroit five-mile classic, in five minutes and 28 seconds and was off on his racing career. All the dirt tracks saw the famed Barney, with the dead cigar clenched between his teeth to cushion the shock, as he roared to triumph after triumph and gave Ford vital publicity and production ideas.

Schoolboys' scooters carried the names of Barney's succession of racing cars, the Winton Bullet, Green Dragon, Big Ben, 120 Benz, Blitzen Benz and the Golden Submarine. And it was in the Blitzen Benz in March of 1910 that Barney drove over the sands of Daytona Beach in the unprecedented time of 131.724 m.p.h.

Through it all, the daring Oldfield received his lumps. One of his first crashes was in St. Louis in 1905, where his second and present bride-to-be-again nursed him back to health. And one of his worst was in 1913 at Corona, Calif., when his mechanic, Frank Sandhoffer, was killed and Oldfield himself was scarred for life. Another time he crashed through an outer railing of a "death curve," fatally injuring a spectator.

Barney had enough by 1918 and he retired to head a tire company, later joining an investment house. Reputed to be worth $250,000 before the financial crash in the early '20's, Barney later became a highway safety advisor to a Detroit automobile manufacturer—the old speed demon cautioning others against fast driving.

Now, after divorcing his third wife, Berner Eli Oldfield is going on another trial spin with number two.

Which recalls that Barney once remarked that present day "young firecrackers" with their racing cars "scare me stiff."

Yet, if he is the criterion he should be for race drivers, think of how Barney must be scaring them.

Plans Completed For Wedding Of Midgets

AUSTIN, Dec. 14 (U.P.)—Waylon H. Galloway was mailing invitations today to his wedding and the reception which will follow.

Wayland, 45-inches-tall messenger in Secretary of State Claude Isbell's office and smallest state employe, completed arrangements Wednesday by long-distance telephone with his bride-to-be, Rose Mary Copeland of Burbank, Calif., who is also 45 inches tall.

Rose Mary will arrive next Tuesday at Milano Junction, 91 miles from Austin, and Waylon will be there to meet her.

The wedding was announced for 7 p.m. Dec. 20 in the Texas Senate chamber. Secretary Isbell has engaged the bridal suite in a leading Austin hotel for the couple.

Galloway said yesterday that he has bought a home which is now being redecorated. Special furniture for the place will be made later.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Farm Decline Seen In Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 14 (AP)—Although Texas gained in farm acreage since 1940, the state lost more than 19,000 farms in the same period, the Bureau of Census, Department of Commerce at Washington revealed.

The figures, which were received here today, showed that the number of farms in the 254 Texas counties decreased from 418,002 in 1940 to 398,183 in 1945, equivalent to a loss of 4.7 per cent.

At the same time farm acreage increased from 137,683,372 to 143,221,610 or 4 per cent, in the the five year period, the report showed.

Further breakdown of the department's figures show that the greatest gain in farmland in any county was more than 700,000 acres in Hudspeth County in West Texas. The largest loss, or more than 382,000 acres, was in Webb County, which also lost 165 farms. The greatest gain in number of farms, 1,979, was in Hidalgo County in the lower Rio Grande Valley. Harris County led in the number of farms lost with 1,866.

The Hughes H-4 plane being constructed at Culver City, Calif., will be the largest plane in the world when completed. It will have a wingspread of 320 feet, 20 feet longer than a football fied. It will weigh 200 tons.

Study Compares Cost Of Renting, Buying

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP) — A dollars-and-cents yardstick for the family concerned with whether to buy or rent a home was given today in a study by Charles E. Young, manager of the statistical research department of the Westinghouse Electric Co.

Rental costs would be lower over the first few years, Young's statistics indicate, but the buyer of a $4,000 or $6,000 home would effect savings beyond those of the renter after the sixth year, and on a home costing $8,000 or $10,000 the comparative costs would balance in 11 years with savings thereafter.

Ninety-four per cent of all cars in Michigan are five years or more old.

THAT further wars and organized, international bloodshed may be permanently eliminated by sweetness and light; application of the Golden Rule, etc., and etc., is beautiful to contemplate and some day may be a reality. But it isn't a reality yet—and the more practical of U. S. citizens, as well as members of the Congress, realize the fact.

Although the policy hasn't been couched in exactly these words, the Congress lately has committed itself to the idea of "we're going to have peace, even if we have to fight for it." Because in recent days, both the House and the Senate, by official action, have approved the institution of a strongly defended U.S.A. and the use of force, if necessary, by the United Nations Organization in protecting the peace of the world.

When the House unanimous voted the Vinson bill, it put an unmistakable stamp of approval on the construction and maintenance of the world's greatest peacetime Navy. And when the Senate committed the nation to furnishing men and arms to the UNO if necessary to enforce peace, it did the very same thing.

In short, the military power of this nation has been arrayed upon the side of peace and we will use "teeth," if necessary, to make certain that peace is maintained.

THAT makes sense. It is in keeping with the ideas of the overwhelming majority of the people who live between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans and the Canadian and Mexican borders. And unless we miss our guess a mile, it also represents the opinion of people everywhere, and especially the people of the Western Hemisphere.

It was Theodore Roosevelt, as we recall, who was committed to the theory that it's good to "speak softly," but it's also a good idea to "carry a big stick."

When the human race reaches the point in civilization when the big stick safely can be dropped, all well and good.

But until that day dawns—and we know, beyond shadow of doubt, that it is here—then carrying the big stick is smart business.

L. L. "Bill" Watson, now ranching between Ralls and Post, says the coyotes down in that section of the country are "running wild." Until recently, due to the war's manpower shortage, plus the lack of sufficient ammunition, little was done for years to keep down the prairie wolves. As a result they have multiplied to the point where they are more of a problem than they have been in many a long day.

Mr. Watson, who will be remembered as a longtime partner in Texas, New Mexico & Oklahoma Coaches here, recently moved to his present location after a brief stay in the San Angelo sheep country. He retains an interest in the San Angelo sheep ranch, but is personally running the 12-section outfit south of Ralls.

His place is the old Sidney Webb headquarters—the Z-Bar-L.

Although quail are short down in Mr. Watson's neck of the woods, he says other forms of wild life are abounding.

"We've got polecats, 'coons—and even some foxes," he reports. "I keep banging away at 'em all the time, and have killed quite a few coyotes. But I can't keep shooting fast enough to kill 'em out."

Those in these parts who know Bill Watson is one of the best shots and smartest outdoor men in West Texas can get an idea of how bad the coyotes and other varmints are if he can't keep ahead of them!

AS Tech officials, alumni and friends of the institution in Lubbock and over Texas plan the drive for funds to build a modern stadium for the college, it is interesting to note what is going on in Tulsa.

Up in the Oil Capital of the World, where they take their football seriously, friends of University of Tulsa in 24 hours, raised $85,000 of a $150,000 total to be used in the construction of a dormitory for athletes. In fact, the campaign went so well right off the bat that the $150,000 goal may be upped to $200,000, in order that Tulsa's costly athletes may have even swankier quarters in which to disport themselves between games and trips to the bank. First $65,000 of the campaign was paid in at a "kick-off" luncheon by campaign workers themselves, before they took to Tulsa's streets to porsecute the drive.

What Tulsa can do for a dormitory for athletes, Lubbock and Texas Tech can do for a stadium.

SHOCKING figures: There were almost half as many divorce suits as marriages in the first 10 months of 1945 in 30 of the nation's largest cities.

Many of the suits, it is reported, were filed by servicemen, charging unfaithfulness.

Isn't there something wrong with that picture? The American public has been forced to accept anything but a pretty picture of the morality of servicemen overseas.

CHAPLAIN COMPLAINS

RIGHT now the Navy is trying to answer a chaplain's complaint about the prostitution situation in Japan, in which the chaplains says he saw a line of enlisted men four abreast almost a block long waiting their turn at a house of prostitution.

We have had scores of such ugly pictures during the war — and however shocked we may have been by them, we have had to accept them as part of the total picture of war.

Waiting wives have had to accept such reported conditions, too.

And some of the waiting wives have figured that what men can get by with in wartime women can, too.

But there has been no leniency in anyone's judgment for erring war wives. And the man who comes home to find that his wife has been unfaithful to him—even though he may have been unfaithful himself—thinks it is his right and his duty to cast her off.

GIVE IT A CHANCE

ISN'T it time we took a more adult view of the situation? If it is true that the husband who in ordinary times would have been faithful to his marriage vows might not have remained faithful during years of separation—isn't it just as likely that the wife who was unfaithful in wartime would have been faithful if her marriage had had a normal chance?

For the sake of marriage and the children involved, shouldn't this be the realistic attitude of both husbands and wives whose marriages were interrupted by war: "What happened during the war years when living was not normal for either women or men should not be allowed to break up a marriage. The important thing now is to give the marriage a chance and see if it won't work under normal condtons."

CONTROL OF LABOR EXCESSES

Organized labor, instead of criticizing President Truman's fact-finding plan for dealing with industrial strife, ought to be pleased that nothing more drastic came from the White House. After all, it has asked for pretty stiff action. Mr. Truman's proposal, it seems to us, was a compromise liberal beyond anything for which labor could have reasonably hoped.

However, there is a possibility that angry congressmen may add thorns to the Truman agenda, or sidetrack it altogether in favor of vicious, tooth-packing legislation designed to make labor rue the day it ever thought of the slogan, "52 for 40." But those solons who are cognizant of the workability and success of the Railway Labor act, on which Mr. Truman patterned his plan, are likely to go along with the President.

Some labor czars are shouting that Mr. Truman would "destroy all the rights of unions." UMW's John L. Lewis calls the Truman method an "evil, vile-smelling mess." Industry, strangely enough, has been comparatively quiet. It would seem that if there is any basis for squawking, industrial tycoons would be doing their share—for fact-finding would necessitate government investigators probing through their books.

What Mr. Truman would do is merely to set aside a "strike-less" 30-day period in which the facts of a controversy could be determined. The case of both employer and employee would be gone into thoroughly, and the findings presented to the American people. After the 30-day interval, in event a solution had not been attained, labor could strike to its heart's content.

Judgment in the issue would be up to the American people, who, up till now have been more misinformed than informed on the fundamentals involved in industrial disputes. Labor leaders' vehement opposition to the proposal could be rooted in their fear of public opinion.

"Try And Stop Me"
By Bennett Cerf

DURING the war, the engineering department of a war plant in an eastern state made some experiments with steel wire, drawing it out very fine.

They finally produced a piece of 120-gauge wire—practically invisible. The boys were proud—so proud, in fact, that they cut off a strand and sent it to a rival plant. "This is just to show you what we are doing here," they wrote.

Weeks went by. Then a package was returned to the boasters. The boys opened it with great care. Inside was a steel block; mounted on the block were two steel standards, and strung between the standards was the same piece of 120-gauge wire. At one end of the block was mounted a small microscope delicately focused on a certain spot on the wire. One by one the engineers placed an eye to the microscope and examined in silence the work of their rivals, who had bored, in the wire, a rather handsome little hole!

Women Flown To Dance As Troops Wait

Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Down in Natal, Brazil, a large number of high-point U. S. troops have been sweating it out, hoping to get back to the U. S. A. They are intruders on foreign soil, and the Brazilians resent their continued presence now that the war is over. Also they are largely doing a commercial transport job which ought to be taken over soon by Pan American Airways and other commercial companies. Nevertheless their return home has been all too slow.

The other day, Col. Thomas D. Ferguson, then commander of Natal, issued an order that "enlisted men with more than 60 points and more than two years' service" would not be transferred back to the U. S. A. for several days due to the "northbound backlog" of air traffic. He explained that Miami had been able to send only one additional C-54 to carry personnel, and that for safety reasons men could not return home on combat planes.

The men who had been waiting hopefully to go home took this announcement philosophically and settled down to wait for the transportation jam to get unjammed.

But three days later, Col. Ferguson sent a C-47, No. 9898 from Natal to Bahia on a most "essential" mission. He could not spare a plane to carry enlisted men back to their homes in the U. S. A. But he could spare a de luxe passenger plane to fly a group of women to Bahia to attend an officer's dance. They flew down and back in the "plush job" and a good time was had by all—except by the men who were waiting in Natal, because there weren't enough planes to take them home.

CENSOR CANNON

WHEN most people pick up the Congressional Record, they think that they are reading what Congressmen actually say during official debates. But they're not. Actually they read what the congressmen want folks to think they've said.

In other words, the text of the Congressional Record is altered before it gets into print. There was a time when congressmen would insert "loud applause" after their remorks, even if there had been loud guffaws or boos after their speeches. This practice was stopped by honest Speaker Sam Rayburn but other censorship continues probably without Rayburn's knowledge.

Last week, for instance, the censoring of congressional speeches reached a new low, when dictatorial Congressman Clarence Cannon of Missouri struck out two statements by other congressmen because he didn't like what they said about his appropriation bill. Furthermore, Cannon did this editing without even having the courtesy to consult his two colleagues. When they picked up the record next morning they merely found that their remarks weren't published.

Martinet Cannon was completely impartial. He drew no party lines. He censored Democratic Rep. Eddie Hebert of New Orleans just as ruthlessly as he did Republican Repi George Bender of Cleveland, Ohio.

Hebert, a conscientious congressman who works hard on the District of Columbia committee, objected to Cannon's elimination from the deficiency bill of a mere pittance to help solve Washington parking problems. Cannon's reply during the debate showed that he didn't understand the subject at all. Whereupon, the Louisiana congressman told him:

"If what the gentleman has said indicates his knowledge of the items in this appropriation bill, then it's no wonder he is having so much trouble getting it passed, because he evidently knows nothing about anything in it."

After the debate Cannon secretly blue-penciled Hebert's remarks.

Bender, another able congressman, had objected to Cannon's refusing to vote $24,500,000 for veterans' housing, as requested by President Truman.

"We have servicemen returning from overseas by the thousands," Bender told Cannon during the debate, "with no shelter for themselves and their families. They are standing in long lines and living in tents in some places.

"Gentlemen, many of you remember the bonus march after the last war. Well, that will be as nothing compared to the march on Washington of ex-servicemen looking for shelter. We're going to have it and it won't be long. Sure, I'm for economy, but this is a poor place to begin economizing."

Again without consulting Bender, Cannon blue-penciled the entire text of the Ohioan's statement from the official reporter's transcript before it was sent to the government printing office for publication in the Record.

Apparently free and fair debate is finished in the House of Representatives.

FORD POLICIES REVERSED

SOME big changes are taking place in the Ford Motor empire, in addition to its new attitude toward labor. Henry Ford II, who succeeded to the presidency early this year, makes no bones about his desire to get along with the United Auto Workers though his grandfather fought them tooth and nail.

However, there's still another policy under way that is being discussed only in whispers by the Ford family intimates and the few state Department insiders who know about it.

It involves an effort by the octogenarian patriarch of the auto company, Henry Ford himself, to banish that anti-semitic skeleton in his closet. And Ford has made a private appeal to the State Department for assistance.

Inside fact is that Ford's anti-Semitic Philippics, in Dearborn Independent editorials a couple of decades back, have been dug up and widely disseminated by certain fascist elements in South America which are trying to stir up unrest.

One of Henry Ford's top lawyers recently called at the State Department in hopes of enlisting the aid of embassy and consular officials in South America in combating the propaganda.

The State Department promised to help.

PADDLE BALL SPARKMAN

ONE of the most surprised figures on Capitol Hill was Rep. John Sparkman of Alabama when he was named Democratic whip. He heard about it first through the newspapers.

Politicos generally agree that Majority Leader Rep. John McCormack of Massachusetts couldn't have made a better choice. Liberal and intelligent, the 45-year-old Sparkman has risen swiftly in House councils since his election to Congress in 1935 and has distinguished himself both as a member of the military affairs committee and as an adroit debater on the floor.

"In addition to all these things, I chose John Sparkman because he is a darned good friend of mine," commented McCormack to friends.

"He's also a friend of mine and I think you made a smart choice," interposed G. O. P. Rep. John M. Vorys of Ohio. "I want to thank you on behalf of the congressional paddle ball association."

"What's that?" asked McCormack.

"Well, a group of us play paddle ball a lot in the House gymnasium to keep in physical trim," explained the Ohio Republican. "Sparkman is one of the gang. It's the only place on Capitol Hill where politics doesn't count. All you have to do to qualify for the association is play a good game of paddle ball."

At Pearl Harbor, the Navy said it didn't need the oil and sent the tanker to Guam. At Guam there was no room for the cargo and the Glorietta was ordered to Panama. By the time she arrived at Panama, the war was over; but the cargo was still on board. Connally Blamed For Slowness Of Relief Negotiations

Speed-Up Of UNRRA Appropriations Urged

By MARQUIS CHILDS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The Senate finally got around to appropriating $550,000,000,000 for relief in Europe. They did it in such a way that the matter must go to a conference between the two Houses, thereby prolonging the agony a few days more.

CHILDS

It has been overdue at least six weeks. The activities of UNRRA have been cut again for lack of available funds.

The strange, palsied delay with which Congress has dragged out this vital business is a grim commentary on the times. What makes it harder to understand is that there seems to be no real motive behind it.

Part of the blame rest on Sen. Tom Connally of Texas, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Connally's dictatorial handling of legislation is producing a smouldering revolt among younger senators in both parties. As one of them put it the other day:

"They used to talk about the nine old men on the Supreme Court. Our club is run by six old men."

SPEED-UP VOTED DOWN

Sen. Wayne Morse, Republican of Oregon, tried a week ago to get the UNRRA appropriation voted on immediately. Denying Connally's intimation of a Republican filibuster, Morse offered a resolution which would have made it possible to dispose of the UNRRA appropriation in an hour or two. But the Republican leadership joined with the Democratic leadership to down the Morse proposal by a vote of 53 to 21.

The Senate has delayed so long that a new UNRRA authorization has already been approved by the House which has acted with far more efficiency and dispatch in this matter. After two days of discussion the House authorized $1,350,000,000 to permit UNRRA to continue its operations.

In the House they proved that partisanship of the bitter, deadend sort can stop short at our national boundaries when an issue involving American responsibility and prestige is at stake.

ONE OF the active sponsors of UNRRA legislation was Republican Cong. Christian Herter of Massachusetts. Herter had backed an amendment which made the use of UNRRA funds conditional on allowing U. S. newspapermen into lands where food was being distributed.

Later he concluded this was a mistake. He got together with Rep. Sol Bloom, chairman of the Foreign Affairs committee of the House, and they agreed on the wording of an amendment which would express the hope of a free flow of information but would not make hungry people wait until each country met the American terms.

I think you'd call that statesmanship. It's an example for the Senate to follow.

The $1,350,000,000 is almost as urgently needed as the $550,000,000. If it is not approved quickly, there will be no food for desperately hungry Italy in the late winter and Spring. The political rumblings resulting from that hunger—the overtones of collapse and Communism—are already audible.

EMBARRASSING CONTRAST

The contrast between the little island of prosperity and well-being that is America and the great sea of misery in the rest of the world is so sharp. Sen. Morse pointed it up when he read from the menu of the Senate restaurant. They were having squab on toast that day.

For millions of Americans these contrasts are a source of embarrassment and shame. The evidence shows that over and over.

Following a sermon in one of the Washington churches on this theme, four tons of canned food were collected for distribution overseas by UNRRA. This came not out of any campaign of organized solicitation but out of the spontaneous goodwill of American citizens.

* * *

REP. Karl Stefan of Nebraska spoke of the numerous requests coming to him for information on how the individual citizen might help. He outlined a plan to simplify voluntary giving of food to Europeans which, it is devoutly hoped, will be set up.

The stores in every city are crowded with shoppers these days, holly and tinsel brighten the aisles. The posters say, "this will be a gay Christmas."

For millions and millions of Europeans it will be far from gay. It will be a prelude to despair unless the Senate quickly follows the lead of the House.

Truman Family Plans Missouri Christmas

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — The nation's First Family will exchange gifts around a lighted Christmas tree in the living room in their Independence, Mo., home Christmas afternoon, the White House said today.

Mrs. Truman and her daughter, Margaret, have finished all their shopping and expect to leave Washington for Independence by train late on Dec. 18. Mrs. Truman's mother, Mrs. David Wallace, will accompany them.

The President has announced that he will follow by plane on Christmas morning.

The holiday dinner will follow Mrs. Truman's favorite menu: Mushroom soup, roast turkey, scalloped oysters, jellied cranberries, celery, olives, jelly, pickles, mashed potatoes, giblet gravy, cauliflower, soft rolls, pear and cheese balls salad, plum pudding hard sauce, coffee, candy and nuts.

Wife Offers Lawyer, Bail In Bigamy Case

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 (AP)—John Hughes, 27, a truck driver, was sullen and alone when he entered Bronx magistrate's court today on bigamy charges, but he left in smiles — with his children, his wife and another woman he is charged with marrying bigamcusly.

His wife Florence, who made the charges, hired a lawyer to defend him, sobbed that she did not want to press the charges.

But, Magistrate Samuel Orr set Dec. 19 for a hearing and fixed $500 bail. Florence offered to furnish the bail.

Then Alice A. Alex of Chicago, whom Hughes was charged with marrying illegally last month, entered the court. The two women embraced and wept.

Hughes was freed in bail and with his children, Joan, 5, and John, jr., 2, tugging at his sleeves, he walked out of court with the two women.

CLEAN-UP FOR VAULTS

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb. (U.P.)—The Otoe county courthouse vaults are going to be cleaned. Judge T. E. Dunbar, in accordance with a new Nebraska law, has issued an order to County Clerk L. E. Smith giving him the right to do something about the bulging vaults.

The order said personal tax schedules from 1882 to 1919 and claims against the county from 1895 to 1919, inclusive, may be destroyed.

THE 1946 MERCURY

First 1946 Mercury Being Shown In City Today In Bennett Motor Firm's New Home

The 1946 Mercury automobile will be displayed here today and Saturday by the Bennett Motor company in its new home at 1701 Texas Ave.

The building proper has just been completed recently and work is still being done adding the finishing touches to the structure erected at a total cost, including grounds, of $43,000.

The new Mercury will be on the floor of a 35 by 90-foot showroom in the 90 by 125-foot building. The showroom on the west and north sides consists mostly of large plate glass windows giving a clear vision through to the offices.

Car Is Described

Offices that have been cut out of the showroom take up about 10 feet in depth and are approximately 12 feet wide. There are three of these plus a 20 by 20-foot parts department, the latter partly cut from the display room and partly from the 90 by 90-foot repair department.

But Friday's drawing card will not be the new building but will be concentrated on the new Mercury that is heavier, lower and wider in appearance than previous models. This results from a wider hood and a re-designed front grill, the latter consisting of die-cast, vertical louvres extending across the front.

The lines of the hood ornament also have been changed to connote fleetness and beauty. Separate "Mercury" and "Eight" nameplates have been added and mouldings have been widened all around the car to accentuate the length and low center of gravity.

Available In Eight Colors

The new Mercury is available in eight exterior colors, with harmonizing instrument panels, upholstery and trim.

Two distinctive interior treatments are used—one featuring gray-green broadcloth upholstery and a modernistic gray-green lacquered instrument panel with contrasting plastic trim. Doors are paneled with gray-green art leather.

The other interior features rust brown cord upholstery with golden brown lacquered instrument panel and brown art leather paneling on the doors.

Mechanical changes incorporated in the 1946 Mercury engine stem from engineering knowledge gained during research and production of wartime goods and include such outstanding features as tri-alloy bearings, crankcase ventilation, improved oil pump, four-ring aluminum pistons and interchangeable cylinder heads.

Redesigning of springs—with leaves thinner and their number increased—has improved riding comfort in the new automobiles. A track bar has been added in the rear, preventing "wander" on the road in high winds, and a floating-shoe brake has been developed—softening brake pedal pressure and increasing driving comfort. Wheelbase is 118 inches.

PLANES BOTHER COWS

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14 (AP) — Dairyman Glenn O. Lynch's complaint that noise from low flying planes at Lockheed air terminal had reduced the production of his herd won him a $5,000 award from a jury in superior court yesterday.

After the collapse of the Roman Empire good roads disappeared from Europe for some 12 centuries.

CAN'T EMULATE DAD

CHICAGO, (U.P.)—Fred Lindstrom, Jr., who is just a shade under 6 feet, 2 inches tall and weighs 178 pounds, is an athlete, but does not participate in the sport in which his father, Fred Lindstrom, Sr., was famous as a third baseman. Young Lindstrom plays football, basketball and is a hurdler on the Loyola track team. "They just don't play baseball at my school," he explains.

Homeless War Sufferers Still Wandering Aimlessly In Japan

TOKYO, Dec. 14 (AP)—The Japanese House of Representatives sharply assailed its own government today for failure to provide for war sufferers, declaring that many homeless persons were "still aimlessly wandering on the scorched earth."

In a resolution sponsored by all political parties and adopted without dissent, the House noted that the government had created a number of reconstruction agencies and had drawn up plan after plan but declared nothing had proved effective because the government was "tied up with bureaucratic red tape and is content with fumbling."

Action Is Asked

It demanded immediate drastic action "with a view to stabilizing the people's livelihood and stepping up economic reconstruction in the face of all kinds of difficulties."

In reply, Chizo Kobayashi, president of the war damage reconstruction board, said the government was doing its best, particularly on housing, and hoped to have reconstruction projects half completed by March.

The House already had completed action on a general election reform bill which was expected to pass the House of Peers.

The measure gives women the ballot for the first time and reduces the voting age to 20, thereby adding 25,000,000 voters. It drastically redistricts the country and allows a wider selection of candidates in first steps toward truly proportionate representation.

Election Is Set

Shunichi Suzuki, home ministry election expert, said the first national election under the new program would be held between Jan. 20 and 30, with the newly-elected diet to assembly in February.

The present-lame duck session is to adjourn about Dec. 21, Skipping the regular session which would have begun Dec. 24.

The new election legislation does not revise the lifetime tenure of the House of Peers as earlier promised by Premier Kujuro Shidehara. Such questions will be left to the new Diet, he told questioners today.

Award Of $35,000 Is Made Farmer In Suit

Weaver H. Baucum was awarded $35,000 in his suit against the Southwestern Public Service company by a U. S. district court jury Thursday afternoon. Baucum was formerly a farmer at Seagraves. The jury deliberated two hours before returning the verdict favoring the plaintiff.

Baucum, who appeared in court on an ambulance litter, claimed that injuries sustained from near electrocution at the utility company's Seagraves plant last January 2 had caused paralysis of his body below the waist.

The plaintiff had gone on the roof of the electric plant in Seagraves in an attempted rescue of George Eubank, Lubbock resident, after the latter had also sustained serious injury from the 23,000-volt current, charges said. The current allegedly arced through the body of Baucum, eventually causing paralysis.

The case was begun Monday morning in court here with Judge T. Whitfield Davidson presiding.

Court was adjourned at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon until Monday, Feb. 25, by Judge Davidson.

On the docket for the February term of court will be civil cases. There are Mrs. Betty Gertrude Handy, et al, vs American Employers Insurance company; Hubbard Lee Moore against Continental Casualty company; A. M. Wynn against Employers Liability Assurance corporation; T. O Hunt against Southwestern Public Service company; and I. G. Appleton against the Columbian Carbon company. The first four will be jury trials.

Congressman Loves His Christmas Trees And Plans To Furnish 100,000 Per Year

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14 (AP) — Don't ever step up to Albert J. Engel and ask: "What's the good word about Christmas trees, congressman?"

Don't, that is, unless you have a couple of hours to spare and are vitally interested in the Christmas tree's life story, from birth to burning.

Loves His Trees

For Engel — a Michigan Republican who needs only a beard to make a perfect Santa Claus — plants, cultivates and dearly loves Christmas trees.

He has planted 200,000 of them on the 1,000 acres he owns in his home district. Couple of more Christmases, and the first of these will be ready for market. The "Engel Christmas tree plantation" will have become a complete, going concern.

Eventually he plans to plant — and cut—100,000 trees a year.

Meanwhile Engel remains sad because people are so unappreciative of the fine art of Christmas tree growing.

They don't realize, he told a reporter today, that it takes seven years to turn out a fine five- to six-foot tree.

And they don't understand how many things, mostly bad, can happen to a tree during its childhood. For example: Of the first 20,000 he planted, 17,400 turned up their needles and died.

It used to be that all Christmas trees were whacked out of the woods. But this, in Engel's opinion, is a dying business because:

(A) The supply is dwindling, and

(B) Poets to the contrary, forest grown trees aren't as pretty as those helped along by man.

Engel says if you get your tree home and find it's scrawny in spots and bushy in others, chances are it grew wild.

"Unless they're pruned properly," he said, "they grow too much one year, and not enough the next, see?"

Then he added, darkly: "That's nature for you."

Ex-Soldier Is Named In Paternity Case

READING, Pa., Dec. 14 (AP) — A Berks county court jury named a discharged GI who saw action in Italy father of a five-month-old baby despite testimony by a physician that he was sterile.

Dr. Merrill Dewire told the court yesterday he found Paul Grubb, 21, of Temple, Pa., sterile after an examination. He said the condition was caused by either malaria or shell shock.

The baby was born to an 18-year-old Temple girl.

The rubber industry is planning production of 70,000,000 passenger tires in 1946.
