Happy To Give

These leaders in Mitchell County United Fund point with smiles and posters to the $27,875 finance campaign which will have its big kickoff Nov. 10. From left to right, they are James Boyd, chairman of general solicitations division; Lewis Williams, chairman of advance gifts division; Dick Wistrand, accountant for the fund; Rex Felker, Chamber of Commerce manager who will head the drive's office staff, and Jeff Taylor, campaign general chairman. The annual campaign incorporates finance drives for nine agencies into one roundup.

Our Town...

By JOE BELL

You'll hunt a long time before finding a City Hall issue which has drawn opposition as ardent as that voiced in the current water tap business.

A small score of citizens, relatively speaking, has organized opposition in a business-like manner.

They have button-holed members of City Council, employed a lawyer, gathered data from other cities, taken their battle to other citizens not directly affected by the proposed large tap minimums, advertised for citizens to appear at City Hall.

And a few nights ago they gathered about 40 strong in Civic House for a meeting to map final strategy for their hearing Monday night before City Council.

YOU NEVER KNOW what issue will arouse the interest of a community.

Only a couple of months ago our local school board adopted a $653,945 budget. This expenditure far above half million dollars required a 15-cent tax rate increase for every property owner within the district.

But not a single person appeared at the school budget hearing to check even one item within the proposed budget. Not a citizen appeared to say yes, nay or maybe.

Public hearings for county and municipal budgets were no more popular. No person appeared to express his opinion or question even the largest expenditure.

Yet, along comes action which would raise the water minimum for less than 5 per cent of the residents within our city and it is a different story.

I'll bet my last bank overdraft notice, too, there will be more persons Monday night in City Council chamber than were at all-city, county and school budget hearings in the last six years.

DON'T GET THE idea I'm allergic to a person or group declaring and pressing opposition on a local issue. Not the least.

Infact, I welcome it. For just as in the instances of the last budget hearings for our governmental bodies within our community, too often local government moves along with no interest from the citizenship.

Sound, bonafide opposition is important in democratic government, the same as the eyes. And government will be better anytime there are interested citizens who question the acts and motives of officials.

But so often—on mighty big questions, too, public officials must chart a course for their community with little or no enlightened reaction from any side.

YOU WILL HEAR a dozen different arguments, pro and con, on the theory of higher minimum charges for water taps that are larger than the usual 3/4-inch size. And there will be various

Nov. 10 Date Set For Fund Kickoff

5 Groups Open Big Roundup

Nov. 10 is the date volunteer workers will kickoff the big campaign in Mitchell County United Fund's 1960 finance drive.

Volunteer workers of five major divisions will go into action that day, signaling an all-out effort for the goal of $27,875.

The big kickoff date was announced Saturday by Jeff Taylor, United Fund campaign general chairman.

It followed the appointment Thursday of the division chairmen who will lead the various phases of the United Fund roundup.

Although most of the United Fund divisions will go into action Nov. 10, the advance gifts divisions will be at work at least a week earlier.

Taylor said the advance gifts division will begin its roundup without fanfare the morning of Nov. 2—only a week away. Their assignment, under the chairmanship of Lewis Williams, will be to raise approximately half of the entire goal of $27,875.

The five divisions going into action Nov. 10 will be special gifts, chaired by Henry Lewis; employees division, chaired by Bob Reiley; general division, chaired by James Boyd; county west, chaired by Gwan Strange, and county east, co-chaired by Rev. Merriel Abbott and Rev. H. M. Farrington.

Volunteers in the divisions will gather Nov. 10 at 7 a. m. coffee and doughnut meeting in Civic House to receive final instructions, draw assignments and start the United Fund roundup.

And a prime effort will be made to complete as much of the overall drive as possible in one day, Taylor said. Infact, a special report session will be held.

COMPANION TO KID BURGLAR

60-Day Jail Sentence In Delinquency Trial

Back on the night of May 25 Alberto Lujan was with a 15-year-old kid he knew. They rode around in Lujan's car, drank some beer together.

And after midnight Lujan drove the boy to the Ritz Theater at corner of E. Third and Walnut. Minutes later the 15-year-old kid broke into Thomas Bros. Service Station, just across the street from the theater, and took three small radios as loot.

A jury in Mitchell County Court Tuesday decided Lujan had contributed to the delinquency of the boy burglar. Their verdict: 60 days in jail and $100 fine, plus court costs.

Lujan was his own counsel in the case, the first of its nature before a jury here in years.

PACED BY HAYES

Snyder Romps by Wolves, 33 to 8

You can say it again, brother: The big difference between Colorado City and Snyder is oil and Hayes.

Quarterback Dick Hayes, that is.

Hayes, the talented No. 40, made fat cats out of Coach John Conley's Snyder High Tigers here Friday night to the tune of a 33 to 8 triumph over Colorado City High Wolves.

The victory shoved Snyder into an undefeated tie with defending champion Sweetwater as District 3-AAA title play opened.

The talented Hayes, a senior who was converted this fall to quarterback after 2 years of halfbacking, sparked the Tiger power to a fine offensive show that was too much for the hustling Wolves, still winless all season.

He passed with rifle accuracy, ran with the drive for extra yardage and defended with deadly sureness.

But he didn't score but one of Snyder's five touchdowns, you say.

That's right, buddy. But he broke up Colorado City's surprise offensive in the opening minute of the game with a pass interception.

He passed or ran for five first downs in Snyder's first touchdown drive that stunned the Wolves, set up touchdown No. 2 with a sprint to the 3-yard line, returned a punt 45 yards for touchdown No. 3, gobbled up 30 important yards in two plays to set up touchdown No. 4, then sparked the final scoring drive with a 23-yard romp.

All total, the Hayes led of fensive gobbled up 19 first downs and 364 yards by land and air.

Coach Otis Holladay's Wolves almost buried under three touchdowns in the first half, fought back with spirit and sputtering efficiency.

Stymied mostly on the ground by a heavy and rough Snyder middle line that out-charged the Wolves most of the night, Colorado City turned to the air to gain 140 yards with passes, add 85 more on the ground for a respectable 225 yards total.

Infact, the Wolves by the slip of the ball or a pass just a bit too long missed possible touchdowns twice with a receiver in the clear.

The first half told the story, really.

Don Vest, the Wolf fullback who was out of the second half because of an injured hip, recovered a Snyder fumble on 17-yard line at the opening kickoff.

Halfback Jerry McKay quickly passed to Danny Maples for 5 yards on the Snyder 12. But defender Wayne Berry broke up a second McKay pass on the 8. Vest was stopped for a 1-foot loss and then Mr. Hayes applied the See WOLVES, Pg. 8

County Attorney Frank Ginzler, who filed the delinquency charge against Lujan after a grand jury had declined to indict him as an accomplice in the burglary, presented evidence that Lujan and the boy were together for several hours before the burglary, that the older man had furnished the first beers and that the kid had changed into Lujan's clothes before leaving the car to commit the burglary.

The defendant repeatedly denied, however, that he knew the boy was going to burglarize the station.

County Judge Elmer Martin already had decided the boy was to be sent back to State Training School for Boys at Gatesville. He returned from the school less than a year ago and had been going to school, apparently staying out of trouble, until shortly before the Thomas Bros. burglary.

However, his career in juvenile crime dates back to 1957 and among his latest offenses was a $100 theft in Sweetwater while on probation.

Members of the jury were L. A. Browne, Mrs. Emory Sweat, Don Blasingame, Gus Chesney, Mrs. J. L. Rees and A. G. Currie.

Other cases in County Court include: Edmond Gooch, $100 fine and 3 days in jail on plea of guilty to driving while intoxicated; Buck James Wimer, $125 fine and 3 days in jail on plea of guilty to DWI; John Douglas Sadler, $100 fine and costs on plea of guilty to unlawfully carrying a pistol on his person.

Facing charges filed in County Court are J. W. Roe, charged with passing a $25 worthless check at J. C. Penney July 25; J. Renolds, charged with fraud, and E. J. McDaniel, charged with illegal gambling.

A fine of $25 and court costs were assessed against Bobby Gene Chalker for illegally hunting doves from an auto on a public road.

Barber Heads Farm Census

Appointment of Ivan J. Barber of Colorado City as a crew leader for the 1959 Census of Agriculture was announced Saturday by Field Director James W. Stroud of the Census Bureau's regional office at Dallas.

Barber, local farmer and salesman, will direct a force of census takers who will canvass all farms in Scurry, Howard and Mitchell Counties.

Before assuming his post, he will go to Lubbock, where he will receive five days of training by a member of the Census Bureau's staff.

Topics to be covered in the training include procedures for recruiting of census takers, census taker training, canvassing methods, preparation and submission of reports, and the supervision of census takers to insure a complete and accurate count.

The crew leader is one of the key people in the field operations of the Census of Agriculture, according to Stroud. It is his responsibility to recruit and train the census takers and supervise their work; plan and allocate work assignments; review the work of the census takers and take remedial action where necessary, and to conduct difficult interviews.

After completing his training, Barber will return to his district where he will spend several weeks recruiting census takers, and training them in preparation for the start of the field canvass Nov. 18.

Police, sheriff and state patrol officers set up the road blocks after Holmes reported a shotgun blast at his car a mile west of Westbrook. The shot blew out an auto tire.

Holmes said that a car had been passing his auto and then slowing down all the way from Big Spring. District Attorney Eldon Mahon said.

Mrs. Idell Gooms Martin, 29, of Snyder was driver of a 1959 Buick Left front of both cars were damaged about $200 each, the patrolman said.

$23,508 Monthly in Social Security Pay

More than $23,508 in social security benefits is being paid monthly into Mitchell County by Social Security Administration.

Mitchell County payments were revealed Saturday by R. R. Tuley Jr., manager for the 16-county Abilene district of the Social Security Administration.

The local payments are part of the $12,000,000 in old-age, survivors and disability insurance being paid yearly in the district.

Figures for Mitchell County and other counties of the Abilene district are based on the latest available tabulation, which was last Feb. 28, according to Tuley.

And Tuley reports that the actual monthly payments into the counties, including Mitchell, are higher now because beneficiaries increase about 1.5 per cent each month through the year.

The Social Security district manager reports there are 405 retired workers in the beneficiary group receiving $23,508 monthly in payments.

That amounts to more than $282,000 yearly that comes into the county through these benefits.

The district office reports that in Mitchell County 169 wives or husbands are listed as beneficiaries receiving $4,740 monthly; 86 widows or dependent parents are beneficiaries for $4,103 monthly; 124 children are beneficiaries for $4,354 monthly.

For the entire state, social security payments at the end of February—date for the tabulation on Mitchell County and the Abilene district—were being paid to 488,026 beneficiaries at rate of $26,093,144 per month. For all of 1958, benefits totaling $283,466,000 were paid in Texas.

Mitchell County's total of social security insured beneficiary monthly payments is lower than 11 other counties in the Abilene district—Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Comanche, Eastland, Haskell, Jones, Nolan, Scurry, Stephens and Taylor.

Driver Unhurt As Car Skids, Overtakes

An auto went out of control Monday evening on U. S. Highway 80, skidded 300 feet and then turned completely over.

But the driver, Theodore Noel Flippin, 38, of Big Spring, escaped without injury.

The accident happened 3.6 miles west of Colorado City on U. S. 80 (to Big Spring) at about 6:05 p. m. as Flippin was driving west.

Flippin told State Highway Patrolman Elwood Rogers that a steering mechanism failed.

The vehicle was out of control for 499 feet, the patrolman reported, and slid 300 feet on the pavement, turned over, crossed oncoming lanes of eastbound traffic and returned to its wheels with a stop nine feet off the eastbound traffic pavement.

There were no passengers in the car with Flippin. Damage to the car was estimated at $500.

Two cars were involved in a collision last Sunday afternoon on a county road west of Colorado City.

Roy Wayne Iglehart, 19, of Westbrook was driving a 1957 Ford sedan which was turning east onto the county road, according to Rogers.

Mrs. Idell Gooms Martin, 29, of Snyder was driver of a 1959 Buick Left front of both cars were damaged about $200 each, the patrolman said.

The defendant was taken into custody about 10 p. m. Thursday in Abilene after roadblocks had been set up here and at surrounding towns.

In its first victory of the year, eighth grade beat Lamesa eighth grade, 14-8.

C-City 8th graders started scoring when the game was only 5 minutes old. Quarterback Richard Smith recovered a Lamesa fumble on Lamesa's 30-yard line and scored on a roll out play. Attempt to add extra points failed.

Lamesa took its turn at scoring late in the first half. They started their scoring action by recovering a C-City fumble on C-City's 40-yard line. From there, they drove to the yard line, a few yards at a time, and went over for the score. A line plung netted extra points, putting Lamesa into the lead, 8 to 6.

The scoring was done with less than 2 seconds left in the half. Late in the third, C-City came back for the final and decisive score. Smith intercepted a Lamesa pass and ran 60 yards for the TD and went on to add the extra points.

Lamesa almost scored several times late in the final part of the game, but C-City's line rallied each time to hold 'em off.

Eighth grade, coached by Bill Everett, is to meet Silver here at 6:30, Thursday.

Seventh grade defeated Lamesa seventh grade, 14-0, scoring in both first and second halves.

Lamesa kicked off at start of the game. C-City 7th graders drove them 50 yards and tallback Tommy Lindsey scored on a 10-yard run. Try for extra points failed.

Late in the third, Roger Proctor, fullback, scored with a 5-yard dash after the team had marched 65 yards.

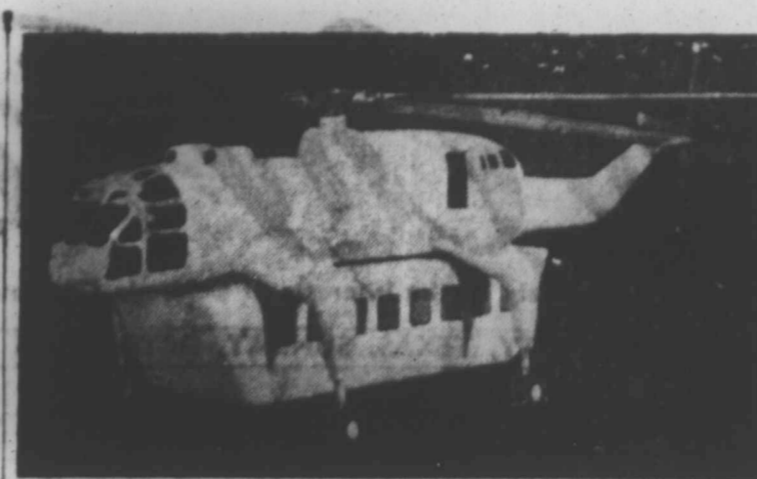

For extra points on the final play, David McKay passed to David Bearden.

Lamesa was never inside C-City's 7th grade's 20-yard line. That's how stout the C-City defense was manned.

Coach Jerry Reynolds was well pleased with the performance of his 7th grade team. Outstanding performances were by Linemen John Beazley, Stan Hardcastle, Paul Yeager and Don Latimer.

No game is scheduled for the seventh grade this week but if arrangements can be made, they will play Coahoma in Coahoma Thursday.

Net value of Texas manufacturers rose from $773,896 in 1949 to $3,500,000,000 in 1955.

FOURTH WIN OF SEASON

C-City Jr. Wolves Slug Hamlin 46-14

By BONNIE SUMMERS
Record Staff Writer

Colorado City's 9th grade Junior Wolves put together a strong passing and running game along with a stout defense to trample the Hamlin 9th grade squad, 46-14 Thursday night in the Pied Piper Stadium.

It was a far cry from the first encounter of the season for Coach Winn Talley's team when they barely squeezed by Hamlin 22-18.

Charles Houston, C-City fullback, had another tremendous night of football as he scored five of C-City's seven touchdowns and threw a 39-yard pass to Daniel Garcia in the end zone for another tally.

First score in the game came when the local squad received the ball on the Hamlin 12-yard line. Houston carried the ball 22 yards for the TD because of two 5-yard penalties against C-City. Try for extra point failed.

Following the kickoff to Hamlin, Jay Lyn Kuhn intercepted a pass on the Hamlin 34 and seven plays later he went over for the second C-City tally. Again try for extra point failed.

A Hamlin punt to the C-City 25 yard line, followed by four first downs by the local team, made way for Houston to go all the way over from the Hamlin 30-yard line for still another TD. For the third time, try for extra point failed.

In the second quarter, returning the ball from the kickoff, Hamlin fumbled and C-City recovered on Hamlin's 6-yard line. Houston slashed through the middle for the only score in the second quarter. Don Free added 2 points going over around right end.

Halftime score was C-City Junior Wolves 26, Hamlin 0.

Following a Hamlin side kick to the 50 yard line, a ground attack by the Junior Wolves sped the ball to the 1 yard line where Houston sneaked through the middle to pay dirt. A seat right around right end applied 2 more points, leaving the score 34-0 for C-City early in the third period.

A side kick to Hamlin by Kuhn rolled to the Hamlin 45 where it was covered by C-City. Next tally for C-City came late in the third quarter when Houston made a 17 yard run to score. Try for extra points failed.

Hamlin's two touchdowns came in the fourth period, one by a ground gaining spree and one via the passing route. First try for extra point failed, the second was good.

C-City's last TD came in the fourth on a beautiful 32-

LAKE VIEW IS IDLE

Sweetwater, Snyder Leap to 3-AAA Lead

By DON BANTA
Record Staff Writer

Two future Colorado City High opponents collided Friday night in an important 3-AAA football contest.

And the Sweetwater Mustangs, defending district champs, knocked the wind out of the Lamesa Tornados, 28 to 0, before a Sweetwater homecoming crowd.

At the same time, of course, the C-City Wolves were dropping their 3-AAA encounter to Snyder, 33 to 8.

The games Friday night were the kickoff for 3-AAA play this season. Out of action for the night with an open date was Lake View, the fifth member of the circuit.

So, Sweetwater and Snyder — on the basis of opening weekend of play — move to the front of the district with unbeaten records.

At the top of the ladder is just where the experts have been picking 'em to be, too, for several weeks during non-district play.

Sweetwater romped quickly and powerfully in the opening half for the major portion of its 28-0 margin over Lamesa.

The Mustangs kicked off to Lamesa in the first quarter and after 3 running plays, Lamesa had gained only one yard. Lamesa's right half Graham Anderson punted from the Lamesa 29.

Sweetwater quarterback Joe Gerald caught the ball on Sweetwater's 35 and ran 65 yards down the right side line.

County Federation To Meet Tuesday

Mitchell County Federation will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. in Civic House.

Garden Club will present the program for the afternoon meeting. Following the program will be a cancer film shown by Dr. Kenneth Cowan.

Door prizes will be given to the club member with the lucky number.

Federal Hill, Ky., was inspiration for Stephen Foster's song, "My Old Kentucky Home."

for his first touchdown. Extra point was kicked by end, Bud Allredge.

Two minutes of the second half were gone when Gerald scored again. His scoring run was 5 yards and came as the climax of a 43-yard drive by Sweetwater. Fullback Mickey Horner went over for the extra points.

Third Sweetwater touchdown was added with less than a minute left in the first half.

Horner scored from the Lamesa 2-yard line. Try for extra point was no good and the score stood at the half, 21-0.

Final score in the game was less than 2 minutes after the fourth quarter opened. This time, Lamesa's Addison punted again and Gerald got the ball on Sweetwater's 44. From there, he again raced down the right sideline for his touchdown. Allredge kicked the extra point.

FIRST DISTRICT WIN

Loraine in 22-0 Romp Over Trent

Loraine blanked Trent 22-0 in their second District 6-B game of the season Friday night in Loraine.

The game started slowly, with neither team scoring in the first half. Loraine went as deep as the Trent 10-yard line once in the second quarter but fumbled and lost the ball.

It was in the third quarter that Loraine finally started its scoring action. Early in the quarter fullback Bob Rankin started at the Trent 20 and ran to the 2-yard line. From the 2, he scored and Larry Moreno ran the extra points for an 8 to 0 lead.

Loraine scored again in the fourth when David Redwine, end, caught a 17-yard pass from Jim Marcum, quarterback. Rankin ran the extra points.

Later in the same quarter, Trent pushed deep into Loraine territory to the 5-yard line. Loraine held Trent back long enough to keep them from scoring.

Final Loraine score was counted when tackle Clovis Hale intercepted a Trent Pass attempt and went 35 yards to touchdown, making the score, 22-0.

The triumph gives Loraine a 500 average in 6-B play, having won one and lost one.

"THE APE IN ME" BY SKINNER

Mrs. Latimer Reviews Book For Zetagathian Study Club

Mrs. Curtis Latimer reviewed the book, "The Ape In Me" by Cornelia Otis Skinner for members of the Zetagathian Study Club and their guests Thursday in the home of Mrs. Bob Robinson.

The book, typical of Miss Skinner's humor, is a farce depicting her own personal experiences which seems to fit in with the often felt but seldom spoken experiences of every day life and the comedy it encompasses.

She compares the human facial expressions, when absorbed, to that of the ape, especially when observing various activities. She describes how our interest compels us to mimic unconsciously, the object observed.

Her description of the peculiarities of gesture, talk and mannerism are typical of Miss Skinner's works which seem to be especially appreciated by the female sex.

Tea table at the afternoon meeting was decorated with silver candelabra. Centerpiece was an arrangement of spider mums in autumn colors of yellow, orange and bronze. Autumn arrangements were featured throughout the party rooms.

Mrs. Treavor Crawford, president, presided at the silver tea service. Dessert and coffee were served to members and their guests.

MRS. ELMER MARTIN, HOSTESS

"Prettier Than You Think" Is Hesperian Daughters Topic

"Enjoy Yourself — You're the make up expert believes. Prettier Than You Think" was the theme of study for members of the Hesperian Daughters Study Club Friday in the home of Mrs. Elmer Martin, hostess for the afternoon meeting.

Mrs. Don Albright spoke on "Etiquette and Charm" and Mrs. Ace McShan spoke on "How to do with Make up."

"If you can solve your make up problems with a debonair sloop of lipstick, you are a lucky girl," said Mrs. McShan. She said that many faces look prettier with more diversified make up, and emphasized the importance of not being afraid of looking made up just because of using more make up items. "The effect, if you use them subtly, will be just the opposite — what you might call a little bit nicer than your natural look," she said.

"Make up should be used not so much to be seen, as to be believed," the speaker emphasized. "Ideally it brings out your best features."

Mrs. McShan quoted from Mrs. Rod Barren, make up director for Helena Rubinstein, as to his professional secrets on make up. Mr. Barren says that a tinted liquid cream make up base gives an illusion of finer texture to the skin. Slightly rosy shades are flattering to almost every woman. Avoid darker tones, if you do not want to accentuate shadows,

Other ways of improving the feminine face were hints on a corrective hairdo to emphasize a woman's best features. The french bang is usually most flattering for all ages. It should be cut and curled to let the forehead show through the bang — a trick which can also correct the appearance of a faulty nose, the speaker said.

"You are continually being photographed by the human eye — the fastest camera in the world" said Mrs. McShan. "All the best that you have to give, must first be expressed through your face — all you hope to gain must be won by it. The face is where a lover sees his first response — where your husband looks to find the understanding and inspiration he needs — where your child looks for love and comfort."

"You spend 24 hours a day growing older, why not spend 30 minutes a day staying young?" the speaker concluded.

Family Night For Presbyterians

Mrs. E. M. Owen was hostess Monday afternoon at 4 p. m. to members of Circle One and Circle Two of the Presbyterian Church in the church parlor.

A family night supper Monday evening is planned for members of the church.

Mrs. W. M. Elliott was moderator for the Monday Bible program.

Attending were Mrs. J. O. Jarman, Mrs. Hal Jarman, Mrs. D. T. Daugherty, Mrs. A. L. Madden, Mrs. Bernice Grable, Mrs. Hattie Ramsdell, Mrs. E. H. Richardson, Mrs. Aycock, Mrs. A. H. Dolman, Mrs. Mildred Coleman, Mrs. R. H. Womack, Miss Nellie Riordan, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Roy A. Harison.

"Charm" said the speaker, "is an irresistible power to please and attract." Quoting from a frenchman who described charm, Mrs. Albright said "Charm is a bloom on a woman, which if she has it, she doesn't need anything else. If she doesn't, nothing else matters."

Some of the things that make up this bloom, the speaker said, are consideration, kindness, an interest in others and the ability to give of yourself and to draw out the best in others.

Mrs. Frank Ginzal presided at the business meeting. Club members voted to give contributions to the Big Spring Hospital as a Christmas project.

A dessert dish of pie and coffee was served to Mrs. Albright, Mrs. A. C. Allen, Mrs. Roy Bates, Mrs. Warren Costin, Mrs. A. L. Geor, Mrs. Frank Ginzal, Mrs. E. V. Grantland, Mrs. J. T. Holley, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Richard Montgomery, Mrs. McShan and Mrs. J. S. Selcraig.

Decorations for the meeting were carried out in a fall motif with lanterns and rustic fall colors completing the decorating theme.

BY MRS. GERALD GORDON

Dear and Glorious Physician Reviewed For Evangels Class

Mrs. Gerald Gordon presented the book review, "Dear and Glorious Physician" by Taylor Caldwell, for members of the Evangels Sunday School Class of the First Presbyterian Church Monday evening.

Meeting was the 11th birthday anniversary dinner of the class in the home of Mrs. E. H. Richardson.

Dining table was centered with a large birthday cake flanked with salal leaves. On either side were five point candelabra with large center candles surrounded by four containers of flowers. Miniature dolls in full lace formal held place cards for the seating arrangements. Bronze mums and roses were used to decorate the reception room and the living room where guests assembled after dinner.

Mrs. Richardson introduced the speaker, Mrs. Gordon.

Speaking of Taylor Caldwell's pursuance of hate as her usual theme, which results in degeneration of characters, Mrs. Gordon said

"Luke, the beloved physician, hated injustice and suffering. That kind of hate is a relief from Miss Caldwell's customary treatment."

Pointing out the dangers of fictionalized history, Mrs. Gordon said St. Luke, author of the third Gospel and of the Acts, was with St. Paul in Rome and is referred to by St. Paul as "the beloved physician."

According to tradition, Luke was a gentle Greek. The author fictionally and colorfully carries St. Luke through early childhood and Alexandria school days.

Philosophies of government and religion were clearly delineated by the author.

"Actually," Mrs. Gordon said, "the story of St. Luke is the story of every man's pilgrimage through despair and the understanding of God. This search for God and the final revelation are the only meaning in life for men. Suffering, hate, love, death, success and failure have always been a part of passionate humanity. The author handled these facets superbly," the reviewer said.

Attending the anniversary celebration were Mrs. Ross Dixon, Mrs. Bernice Grable, Mrs. Grady Sloan, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. A. E. Maddin, Mrs. Ed Owen, Mrs. Walter Gayler, Mrs. J. T. Smith, Mrs. C. I. Before Freezing Food, Tape It the Smart Way

Housewives are using a new freezer tape with built-in cutter bar on the package. The tape is easy to write upon, and seals securely.

BY EDNA MILES

For some time, the trend to once-a-week food shopping has been on the increase. Few homemakers can afford the time to trot to the store or supermarket daily.

So they shop once a week and are turning to home freezers to store food. The enlarged freezing compartment in newer refrigerators are encouraging this trend.

The housewife can take advantage of sales in markets to buy meat and other perishables at lowest prices and store away as much as a month's supply for her family.

The whole process has been made far simpler by development of special papers and tapes, designed for just such storing.

There's a brand new freezer tape on the market now, the first with a convenient built-in cutter bar on the package. This makes it simple to grasp as you wrap food packages and, of course, far easier to tear from the roll.

You can write on the surface of this new tape, marking name of food and date of storing.

NOTICE—WATER USERS COLORADO CITY

A public hearing will be held at the City Hall in Colorado City, Texas at 7:30 p. m. Monday, the 26th day of October, 1959, by the City Council for the purpose of giving an opportunity to the citizens of Colorado City to present arguments pro and con in regard to the proposed changes in the minimum service charges for oversized taps. Trevor Crawford, Mayor Colorado City, Texas

Man Dies at Lake While On Fish Trip

An oil company employee died unexpectedly Saturday while on a weekend fishing trip to Lake Colorado City. Arvis A. DeArmond, 45, of Midkiff was fatally stricken at about 10:20 a. m. at Lake Colorado City Park.

He had just driven his boat back to the park and had started to his parked car when he fell in a park road.

Death was instantaneously. Armond was at the lake park with his wife and son, Tommie, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chestnut for a weekend outing. His companions said he had complained of not feeling well while fishing in the morning, but he had attributed it to indigestion.

Armond, born June 25, 1914, in Weleetka, Okla., was a pumper employed by Paul F. Barnhart Company at Midkiff, 40 miles south of Midland. He and the former Alma Reilly had married April 6, 1933, in Weleetka.

Funeral service will be in Healdton, Okla.

Survivors include his wife and son who were with him on the trip; another son, Scottie, of Odessa; three daughters, Mrs. Norma Strange and Mrs. Gail Pierce, both of Healdton, Okla.; Mrs. Jerrj Wooley of Snyder; 2 brothers, Cleo DeArmond of Rathliff City, Okla., and Glenn DeArmond of Healdton; a sister, Mrs. Ima Gene Sallee of Shildlee, Okla., and 10 grandchildren.

versions, too, about why or how the question affects Colorado City and its citizenship.

But it appears fairly obvious that City Council acted hastily when unanimous approval was voted the higher approvals. The fact is that the best atmosphere in government comes with public hearings on all rate changes — a procedure the councilmen forgot about probably unintentionally.

And, as for the principle involved, it appears to be whether a man with a large size water tap—using more of the city's water main, more of its water system the instance he turns on a hydrant—should pay more for that convenience than a person who uses the usual 3/4-inch size of most taps.

A larger tap, whether it is for a lawn sprinkler system or for some other reason, is a convenience in extra water service.

It is council's job now, in the face of determined protest, to decide if that convenience is worth an extra minimum charge.

Mmes. Butler, McGee Host Loraine T. E. L. Church Class

LORAIN — Mrs. Dan Butler and Mrs. Sylvia McGee were hostesses Tuesday afternoon to a meeting of the T. E. L. Class of First Baptist Church.

The meeting, in the home of Mrs. Butler, was opened with a hymn sung by the group and prayer by Mrs. W. M. Teeters. Devotion was presented by Mrs. McGee. Her theme was "Love," based on the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians.

Program for the afternoon was presented by Mrs. Hal Bennett. Title of the program was "The Standard of Living" and was illustrated by two pictures of automobiles, one a late model and the other, older.

Mrs. Bennett named several parts of automobiles, pointing out the ways in which members of the class were like those parts of the car. She emphasized the likeness of the wheels of the car and the four group captains of the class. She said that both automobile wheels and group captains meant forward movement.

At the end of the meeting, a short business session was conducted by Mrs. Butler, president of the class.

Following the business session, refreshments were served to 14 members and 2 visitors, Mrs. Willie Coley and Mrs. Myrtle Martin.

Harold Bennett of Snyder was lay leader speaker at First Methodist Church on Layman's day last Sunday Morning for the regular 11:00 service.

Bennett, a native of Loraine, is the son of Mr. T. R. Bennett and the late Mrs. Bennett.

Topic of the service was "Christianity in our Daily Lives and Christianity through out America."

For the evening service, Mrs. Everett Duncan was speaker. Also during the evening service, Miss Susan McDonald, of Colorado City, presented a vocal solo.

Bohannon reported that 4 out of 4 boys contacted here had expressed a desire to become Cub Scouts.

"And we have found that almost every boy will join cubbing if he knows who his den mother is and when and where she will hold den meetings," the scout executive said.

"But we need more interested parents who will support the program... more mothers who will become den mothers so all boys who desire can join Cub Scouts."

'Born To Be Loved' Shows At Lone Wolf

"Born To Be Loved," starring Carol Morris and Dick Kallman, comes to the Lone Wolf Drive-In Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

Carol Morris, former Miss Universe, plays a drab, unattractive girl who moves to a Los Angeles tenement and works as a seamstress. She becomes friends with a neighbor, played by Hugo Haas, who is a singing teacher. They talk about their dreams, hers for romance and his for a baby grand piano — and how they can obtain them.

Haas introduces Carol to a handsome young pupil of his (Dick Kallman) and she immediately falls in love with him — to no avail. Carol meets a wealthy widow (Vera Vague) who has a piano like Haas dreams of and talks her into giving him the piano. A romance develops between the widow and the teacher and they help Carol to win the young singing pupil.
