Program To Help Farmers

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Writer

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. AP — President Nixon returns to Washington today with a $400 million program to help farmers improve incomes and exports-and perhaps improve his own political image in the farm belt. Loans would make up $349.4 million of the total.

For the man who was booed, picketed and snowballed by Iowa farmers during the winter, one great goal now is to push farm exports to $10 billion a year. A record $7.4 billion is forecast for this year.

Nixon spelled it out in a Sunday radio address to the nation.

To achieve the goal, he is adding $1 million to the $27.7 million already in the fiscal 1972 budget for the Foreign Agricultural Service-the federal agency which helps expand agricultural sales overseas.

He also promised continued efforts to lower trade barriers. The President discussed new measures to help farmers combat intiation and ease the cost-price squeeze on an industry whose income this year will be the highest ever. The trouble, he said, is that increases in total income do not always mean increases in net income-because of the high costs of inflation-beset farmers.

So, Nixon said, the administration is working to expand the supply of farm credit. The first step is a bid to Congress to authorize the Farmers Home Administration to insure farm operating loans and then increase the amount available by $140 million-from $210 million this fiscal year to $350 million for the next.

The President said he hoped this credit expansion would be especially helpful to Southwestern farms hard hit by drought.

Nixon also injected into the budget for the 1971 fiscal year ending June 30 $9.6 million to finance federal and state research and experiment stations to attach Southern leaf blight on corn, and to combat cattle ticks, fire ants and gypsy moths that menace Eastern timber.

To throw more manpower into soil conservation, Nixon is adding $12 million to the $135 million already in the 1972 budget. And he is increasing from $77 million to $105 million the 1972 total for 75 small new watershed projects. And he called for an extra $100 million this year and $111 million next year for an insured loan program to finance rural water and sewer systems.

Nixon bore down hard on expanding farm exports at the outset of his speech.

"We know," he said, "that American agriculture can compete successfully-whenever it has the chance. We are determined to see it has that chance.

"As recently as the 1968 fiscal year, farm exports actually dropped by half a billion dollars, a condition which I promised in 1968 to remedy during my presidential term. I am happy to say that we have delivered on that promise."

Nixon Promotes POW Proposal

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon acted today to promote a proposal that prisoners of war from both sides in the Vietnam war be interned in Sweden.

Nixon issued a statement responding to a press report from Stockholm three days ago that indicated the Swedish government would provide ships and internment facilities for prisoners if the United States and Hanoi could reach an agreement on the transfer of prisoners to a neutral country.

The Sweedish government, on April 30, had been responding to a suggestion made a day earlier by Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird.

Ronald L. Ziegler, White House press secretary, said Nixon "noted with great satisfaction that according to press reports the government of Sweden has offered the use of its vessels and its territory to provide internment of prisoners of war from the conflict in Vietnam."

Ziegler added that Nixon "would hope that Hanoi will move promptly to negotiate an agreement on this issue to take advantage of this humanitarian offer on the part of the Swedish government."

Wilson Addresses Legislature

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas legislators gave a standing ovation today to former British Prime Minister Harold Wilson, who told them that Texas politicians have much in common with those from Yorkshire, his home.

"Our politicians have always been put upon and taken for a ride by the smarter and more professional politicians," Wilson told a packed house that included former President Lyndon Johnson.

That remark got a burst of laughter and applause in a chamber once presided over by Sam Rayburn and where Johnson said he played as a boy.

Wilson also praised Texas' growth and, "the strides you have made in the fields of higher education."

7 Escape From Ward County Jail

MONAHANS, Tex. (AP) — While deputies intensified their search for seven prisoners who broke out of Ward County jail Sunday night, word came from Midland that four of the group had robbed a home there, tying up a doctor with his wife and family.

The four were identified from mug shots as Johnny Jones alias Robert Hart, 30, an escapee from a Georgia prison who had been held under death penalty for murder while also being charged with armed robbery of motels in Monahans and Abilene; James Simpson alias Calvin Thomas, 25, from Florida, also an escapee from an Atlanta, Ga., prison; Raymond Harris, 21, a Georgia escapee charged with armed robbery in Ward County; and Timothy Youngblood, 21, held on a misdemeanor charge.

Officers said additional charges were being filed against the four.

Dr. W. W. McCullough and members of his family were tied up by men who entered their home early Monday. The bandits took about $500, two watches, the doctor's 1969 model car, and two medical bags containing narcotics.

The other three at large from the Ward County jail include a woman charged with forgery who was forced to accompany the jailbreakers. Sheriff's deputies identified her as Bobbie Kay Winters, 27, of Coleman, Tex., and said they feared for her safety.

The others escaping are Donnie Howard Elder, 22, formerly of Monahans, and Raymond Leslie Hayes, 25, of Midland, both on armed robbery charges.

The six men made their getaway in the car of a sheriff's deputy, whom they left behind handcuffed in a cell.

Court Upholds Death Penalty

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court rejected 6 to 3 today challenges to death penalty procedures in the United States.

The ruling, delivered by Justice John M. Harlan, said leaving to the jury's discretion the power to decide between life or death in capital cases does not violate the Constitution.

Secondly, Harlan said, the Constitution does not require separating the penalty phase of capital trials from the body of the trial.

In other actions today, the court:

—Set hearings on Texas and Georgia abortion laws. It thus moved toward a possible ruling on the constitutional rights of women to end pregnancies.

Ruled that physicians' written statements may be used by the government to dispute the claims of persons seeking Social Security benefits in injury cases.

—Agreed to decide whether newsmen have a constitutional right to refuse to appear before grand juries and to identify confidential news sources.

The capital punishment ruling had long been awaited.

The decision upholds first-degree murder convictions and death sentences against Dennis C. McGautha of Los Angeles and James E. Crampton of Toledo, Ohio. McGautha was found guilty of killing a grocer, Crampton of killing his wife.

The issues raised in their appeals had blocked execution in the United States for almost four years. There are now 644 men and seven women on death row in 33 states. The ruling could result in early executions in many instances.

The decision does not dispose of the ultimate challenge to capital punishment. This is the argument that the death penalty is a form of cruel and unusual punishment prohibited by the Constitution. The court has never ruled on that question, although the issue is regularly put to the justices in appeals from condemned men.

"Our function," Harlan said, "is not to impose on the states, ex cathedra, what might seem to us a better system for dealing with capital cases. Rather it is to decide whether the federal Constitution proscribes the present procedures of these states in such cases."

Historically, Harlan said, the question of capital punishment has been shifted to the judgment and the consciences of the juries. He said it would require a strong showing to upset this settled practice of the nation on constitutional grounds.

"We find it quite impossible to say that committing to the untrammeled discretion of the jury the power to pronounce life or death in capital cases is offensive to anything in the Constitution," Harlan wrote.

"The states are entitled to assume that jurors confronted with the truly awesome responsibility of decreeing death for a fellow human will act with due regard for the consequences of their decision ..."

Hopes Dim For Death Row Inmates

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Twelve miles out of this city in Central Texas, 43 men sentenced to death in the electric chair live in steel closets.

The Supreme Court's decision today upholding the death penalty in effect robbed them of some more hope of escaping execution.

The death now inmates were moved from the dark red main prison at Huntsville in 1967 because stays of execution caused an overflow.

They were taken to the Ellis Unit 12 miles away. This is a heavily guarded and tightly sealed prison housing 1,300 of the state's hardest criminals.

No one has been executed in Texas in almost seven years. There have been no executions in the nation in nearly four years.

The high court rejected today two challenges to death penalty procedures, although neither of the specific appeals were from Texas.

W. D. Kutach, assistant director for treatment at the Huntsville main unit of the prison system, said, "We have been concerned about this and we are pleased to get a decision from the Supreme Court. Now it is up to the discretion of the governor and we have no idea of what he will do."

Kutach said he does not know how many others in Texas are under death sentence but are held in county jails awaiting appeals of various sorts.

There are no women under sentence of death in the Texas prison system.

The assistant prison director said he does not expect numerous or quick executions because of the Supreme Court rulings.

Clyde Whitesides, chairman of the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles, declined comment.

Troops Keep Traffic Flowing

By LEE BYRD
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Anti-war demonstrators clashed repeatedly with police and snarled rush-hour traffic in the capital today, but the arrest of more than 5,000 frustrated protesters' efforts to paralyze the nation's government.

Flying squads of police, backed by National Guardsmen and federal troops, kept traffic flowing across major bridges into the capital, but numerous intersections in the city itself were blocked temporarily by the demonstrators' hit-and-run tactics.

"The city is open. The traffic is flowing. The government is functioning," Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said at midmorning. Mayor Walter Washington agreed, saying the demonstrators "did not succeed."

Absentee records were not immediately available, but quick surveys of major agencies indicated the normal complement of federal employes had shown up for work today. "It looks like a normal day," several personnel officers said.

Many of the employes, however, had to drive or walk through billowing clouds of tear gas. They joined demonstrators in holding handkerchiefs to streaming eyes and smarting nostrils.

Volley after volley of tear gas had been fired by riot-equipped police, who also wielded billy clubs to disperse crowds of demonstrators.

The protesters, mostly college-age youths, tied up traffic in the Georgetown and downtown areas by hurling debris—and in some cases themselves—into the streets.

Some vehicles were overturned and others set afire. Vandalism was widespread.

By 9 a.m., about 2,200 Marines and Army paratroopers were moved into the city from nearby staging areas—some of them in helicopters which landed on the Washington Monument grounds. Officials said they had been requested by Police Chief Jerry Wilson, who at midmorning radioed his men in the streets:

"You are prevailing against great odds. You are doing an outstanding job. Keep up the good work."

With the aid of 2,000 federal troops, police kept demonstrators from achieving two of their major objectives—blocking four major Potomac River bridges and marching on the Pentagon.

But the toll was high for both sides in the skirmishes.

Emergency rooms at city hospitals were crowded with injured demonstrators and policemen. No count of the number hurt was available immediately.

The arrested demonstrators were herded onto buses and rented vans and taken to a makeshift compound near Kennedy Stadium.

Rogers Arrives In Lebanon

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers brought his Middle East peace mission to Lebanon today, landing at heavily guarded Beirut Airport after a visit to Jord...

Steel-helmeted troops armed with machine guns ringed the airport and guarded all approaches with orders to shoot to kill anyone attempting to interfere with Rogers' arrival or movements.

Armored cars surrounded the runway and army machine-gunners manned rooftops as the plane taxied to a stop.

Shortly before his arrival from Amman, Jordan's capital, thousands of Lebanese leftists and Palestinian guerrillas began a slogan-shouting protest march in Beirut with a rythmic chant of "Go back, Rogers."

The march was allowed by the government under a compromise agreement whereby the organizers gave assurances they would keep the demonstration peaceful and away from the U.S. Embassy and other areas Rogers is scheduled to visit.

In Jordan, Rogers met with King Hussein for 2¼ hours, presenting him with a letter from President Nixon endorsing the secretary's mission.

U.S. officials said the atmosphere of the discussions was agreeable and that some new thoughts on the Mideast situation were advanced by both Rogers and the king.

The officials declined to specify the new ideas.

Rogers' visit to Jordan was highlighted by a low-level helicopter flight along the ... Jordan-Israeli dorder.

8,000 Troops Leave Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command said today that American military strength in Vietnam dropped by 8,000 troops last week, the second largest weekly cut this year.

The weekly summary covering April 23-29 said there were 273,400 U.S. troops in Vietnam on April 29 compared with 281,400 the previous Thursday.

The summary gave this breakdown: Army 208,700; Air Force 39,700; Marines 12,800; Navy 12,100; and Coast Guard 100.

In addition, there are about 17,800 Navy personnel with the 7th Fleet operating off the coast of Vietnam.

Deputy Sheriff Is Wounded

SINTON, Tex. (AP) — Deputy Sheriff Pete Anzaldua, 43, was shot and wounded while escorting a prisoner to the San Patricio County jail Saturday night.

He arrested a young man for a traffic violation, a scuffle developed on the first floor of the courthouse and the officer was shot with his own pistol, Sheriff Wayne Hitt said.

Anzaldua, wounded in the stomach, was reported in critical condition at a Corpus Christi hospital.

The sheriff said Anzaldua's prisoner was held without immediate charge.

Commission Finds Chicanos Isolated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights says a study of Mexican Americans in the nation's schools reveals Chicano students are "severely isolated" in the Southwest.

The report, first of several assessing educational opportunities for Mexican Americans in Arizona, California, Colorado, New Mexico and Texas, was released here and in Austin, Tex., today.

The commission reported about 30 per cent of Chicano students in the Southwestern area attend schools in predominantly Mexican-American districts while about 45 per cent go to predominantly Mexican-American.

While geographic considerations may account for much of the isolation, the report said, many Mexican-American students are isolated in districts next to predominantly Anglo districts.

It said only 4 per cent of the teachers and 3 per cent of the school principals are Mexican-American while 10 per cent of Board of Education members are of the minority group.

It said more than 20 per cent of the pupils surveyed are in schools 80 to 100 per cent Mexican-American.

Only California, the report said, has taken action to eliminate ethnic imbalance in its schools. However, it said ethnic imbalance still remains in that state, even though substantial progress has been made.

The most severe isolation of pupils by school and district was found in Texas, the commission said. Almost two-thirds of the Mexican-American pupils in South Texas are concentrated in 27 counties along the Mexican border or close to it. Nearly 60 per cent of the students attend schools in predominantly Chicano districts.

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights is an independent, bipartisan agency created by Congress in 1957. Information for its report came from a mail survey of all 538 school districts with Spanish surnamed enrollments of more than 10 per cent in the five-state region.

Math Figures In Many Jobs

Career Corner
by Joyce Lain Kennedy

what job would you like to see explored in this column?

Dear Joyce: My grandson is a whiz at math – in what jobs would math be helpful? – M.Q., Chantilly, Va.

Aside from the more familiar – mathematician, data processing specialist, statistician and insurance actuary – math plays an important part in a wide variety of careers. Sometimes students have difficulty connecting the importance of a particular classroom subject with its use in adult life. The Labor Department has issued a series of free motivational pamphlets, which include job ideas; for example, "Math and your career."

Other titles (add "and your career" following each subject): "Foreign Languages . . .," "English . . .," "Biology . . .," "Social Science . . .," "Science . . ." To request, write to Office of Publications, Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20212.

Dear Joyce: I am 15 and plan to try to get babysitting jobs this summer, but don't have any experience. Is there a book that will help me become a good sitter more quickly? – K.D.H., Kingston, Va.

"When Teenagers Take Care of Children – a guide for baby sitters." 60 pages, 25 cents. Order from Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D.C. 20402.

HOMEMAKER'S MONEY IDEA. A Connecticut woman and her partner have an unusual part-time venture. They're estate sales specialists, and work on a fee basis which averages 25 percent of sales. They handle all arrangements – advertising, pricing, financial details – for families interested in disposing of antiques and large lots of household goods. Referrals often come from real estate companies, lawyers, bank trust departments, former clients, word-of-mouth. Obviously, you must know market values, or how to get items accurately appraised. In one instance, the women doubted an original appraisal of $300 each for antique chairs, checked further with a museum and found the true value was $5,000 each.

Dear Joyce: I am interested in learning the advantages and disadvantages of operating a book store. I have a background of office management, bookkeeping, secretarial experience, and have continued my schooling to keep abreast of the times. Can you advise me on: potential of operating profitable book store . . . special courses to learn . . . where to obtain information concerning bookstores? – L.L., Columbus, Ohio

Net profit before taxes in a well-managed bookstore averages from 2.4 percent to about 5.5 percent of annual sales. Many bookselling trade associations offer publications and service to assist members in promoting and managing a successful business. For basic information and leads, start with a free U.S. Small Business Administration publication: "Bookstores–Bibliography No. 42." Obtain a copy from an SBA field office or from the agency's headquarters at 1441 L St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20416.

Dear Joyce: I recall you mentioned a booklet which described an individual's rights under the age discrimination in employment law. Now it is important to me to get that booklet. Can you reprint the particulars? – C.L.J., Philadelphia, Pa.

Two new booklets have been issued since then. "The Law Against Age Discrimination in Employment" may be obtained free from the U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division, Washington, D.C. 20210 – or from any of that agency's offices in 400 cities and towns across the nation.

"Know Your Employment Rights" (covers all types of job discrimination) is available free (single copies) from the Manpower Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, Washington, D.C. 20210.

Cocaine Defendant Dies In Jail

DALLAS (AP) — Robert Louis Robertson, 48, convicted in a cocaine smuggling conspiracy trial last week, collapsed and died in the Dallas County jail Sunday.

A doctor attributed death to a heart attack.

Robertson was found guilty last Wednesday on five counts of conspiring to smuggle and sell cocaine.

Two codefendants—Joaquin Him Gonzales of Panama and James D. Vicars of Hurst, Tex. —also were convicted. U.S. Dist. Sarah T. Hughes said they will be sentenced May 14.

Guards said Robertson, former president of a Dallas aircraft company, refused to take medicine in his cell about 8 a.m. and declined lunch at noon. He died at 12:15 p.m.

Six days of testimony in the smuggling case ended with the judge ejecting Robertson from the courtroom because he refused to stop muttering in the presence of jurors.

He stormed from the witness chair earlier and would not testify for a time. After psychiatric examination he was pronounced fit to continue on trial.

Robertson testified that he obtained a suitcase containing 23½ pounds of cocaine from a utility room of a pilot for his firm after the pilot died last June.

Robertson claimed he was threatened by a government informant. He said he collected $25,000 as his share from sale of the cocaine.

Mother's Day more than just a gift

By Abigail Van Buren

(c. 1971 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. news Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: I hardly know how to word this letter but I will give it a try. It will soon be Mother's Day again, and I hope my children won't buy me something because they think it is their duty. I would rather have a pack of chewing gum if they bought it because they love me and were thinking of me. So many gifts are bought for Mother's Day more out of sense of duty than for love.

I have a lovely gift that my son gave me last Mother's Day and I haven't had the heart to take it out of the box because he just ran in and handed it to me, saying he had to go back to his mother in law's. The gift is expensive, but I had rather he spent a few hours with me than to buy me a present. That is why it is still in the box, untouched.

MAMMA: SAVANNAH, GA.

DEAR ABBY: My seven-year-old son, when told he was adopted, asked the inevitable question: "Then, Mamma, does that mean you're not my real mother?"

"Well, let's see," I said. "Here, pinch me real hard and we'll see if I'm real or not." He pinched, I squealed, and we both had a good laugh. A happy, frank discussion followed.

But the most wonderful part is that this precious son of mine has TWO mothers. I have had the privilege of rocking him, feeding him and watching him grow into an adorable seven-year-old. Yes, I am his "real" mother and don't you dare to call me less!

But no less real is the little girl who refused to have an abortion, insisting, "This little life inside me has as much right to live as I." The little girl who looked the social worker in the eye and said, "This adoption will work, because I am doing it for his sake, and I don't ever intend to hurt him by interfering with his life." That brave little girl has been true to her world for seven years.

Some day when he is grown to a big, strapping six-footer, if his appearance in her life would not hurt the children she is now bearing for herself, I should be happy to think that I had so taught him to love and respect the thought of her, that he would take her in his big arms and whisper, "Mother, I love you."

She has every right to his love. And he will be a better man if he proves wise enough to know it.

HIS OTHER MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: Not too long ago, a young boy celebrated his 14th birthday. I'm sure he had a birthday cake. He actually had two because I also baked him one and put 14 candles on it!

This boy was born to me out of wedlock. I was 17 years old, and decided it would best for Stevie if I gave him up for adoption. Stevie is not his name now, but that's the name I gave him for the short time he was mine. I have no regrets because I know that my son has a wonderful home with parents who love him. To them I want to say, thank you for opening up your hearts and home to my son. I send my dearest love to you, and him.

STEVIE'S OTHER MOTHER

CONFIDENTIAL TO ANYONE FOR WHOM IT IS NOT YET TOO LATE: The gestation period of a mother's advice is anywhere from one hour to 50 years. Losing one's mother before having thanked her for the many precious things she taught you is one of life's greatest tragedies.

Nine Youngsters Killed In Crash

By RAY BELL
Associated Press Writer

COVINGTON, Ga. (AP) — Ten youngsters piled into Danny Henderson's "new" car for a Sunday ride. Nine of them died a short time later when a freight train slammed into the compact auto and dragged it almost a mile.

Jimmy Norwood and his sister Almethin were among the victims. So were Peggy Ann Fuller and her sister Susie Ann.

The 10 ranged in age from 12 to 16. The only one spared was Sharon Belcher, 16. She was taken to an Atlanta hospital in critical condition.

The accident at an elevated country road crossing was less than three miles west of their homes in this north central Georgia community of 10,300.

Newton County Sheriff Henry Odum said the car was hit broadside by the lead diesel of a 65-car Georgia Railroad freight train traveling at about 45 miles an hour.

He said the 10-year-old, second-hand vehicle was bent nearly in half by the impact, with the right rear end of the car lacking only five feet of touching the right front wheel.

"They never knew what hit them," Newton County Coroner San Cowan said. "I was in the first ambulance to arrive and, at first glance, I didn't see how there could be any survivors."

Killed were Henderson, 16; Jimmy Norwooc, 15; his sister, Almethin, 12; Vickie Gilstrap, 14; Dira Williams, 12; Peggy Ann Fuller, 15; her sister, Susie Ann, 12; Harold Tuggle, 16; and Sheilla Height, 14.

The state patrol listed Henderson as the driver.

All of the youngsters lived within a few blocks of one another in Covington, 35 miles east of Atlanta.

The State Patrol said Henderson had acquired the car less than three weeks ago.

"It was his first car," one trooper commented. "Apparently he wanted to share it with his friends.

"We don't know exactly where they were going or where they had been," the trooper continued. "As far as we've been able to ascertain, they were just out riding around."

Quadruplets Doing OK

DALLAS (AP) — The Ward quadruplets are "perking right along" at Presbyterian Hospital toward their discharge in a week or 10 days, a hospital spokesman said Sunday.

Mrs. Sara Miller, nursing supervisor at Presbyterian, said the quads are in fair condition in their incubators. She added that their mother, Mrs. Clifford James Ward, is tired.

She and her husband had arrived at the hospital early Saturday morning to be somewhat shaken, but elated, by the multiple births that evening. The couple had expected twins.

Mrs. Miller said the babies were weighed Sunday—the boys at 5 pounds, and 4 pounds, 12 ounces; the girls at 4 pounds, 9½ ounces, and 4 pounds, 4 ounces. All will stay at Presbyterian until each weighs 5 pounds, she said.

Mrs. Ward probably will leave in about 10 days, too.

Gastro-enteritis killed 185 people, most of them nonwhites, in five eastern Cape Province districts of South Africa in the first 46 days of 1971. Medical authorities said this was "quite normal."

Small Businessmen Disturbed Over Taxes

By JOHN CUNNIFF
APBusinessAnalyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Small and independent businesses are smothering a lot of angers these days.

They feel bypassed by thinkers and legislators who deal mainly with the extremes of big business power or the small man's poverty.

Because they have time only for work, because their means are moderate, they goals modest and their attainments—while important to their communities—of no great national significance, they feel overlooked, ignored.

These are some of the impressions you receive from talking with people at the National Federation of Independent Business and reading the letters they write when polled on national issues, as they are continually.

Some of these smoldering frustrations will burst through May 17 in Washington, when hundreds of businessmen are expected to gather for a conference titled: "Independent Business Speaks Out."

Listed as a listener and speaker is President Richard Nixon.

What do the polls show disturbed independent businessmen: No surprise at all; they're angry about taxes, and they want reform. While much of America looks upon taxes as a decided nuisance or as the means to social reform, independent business views them as the power to destroy.

Big business can live with big taxes, they maintain, but small business is being destroyed. And so taxes were at the top of a recent survey by NFIB, which operates out of San Mateo, Calif.

Inflation was next, followed in order by labor law reform, welfare reform, insurance, crime and paperwork.

Here are some examples of why they feel squeezed by changes in society and by the country's concern with dealing with the extremes while sometimes ignoring the middle.

—Minimum wages are now $1.60 an hour and may rise to $2. The intent of such legislation, they concede, may be admirable, but the net effect is to deprive them of apprentices.

"No employer will pay a worker more than he is worth simply because of a government edict," the federation recently stated. And so, they maintain, they have been deprived of a source of unskilled help, and the nation has been deprived of their services as trainers of apprentices.

—Big business can deal with paperwork because it can hire the clerical help and install the computers. But proprietorships find it nearly impossible to understand and work with the maze of government forms and reports.

The federation doesn't say how it arrived at the figure, but it maintains that "encumbering paperwork and government reporting costs independent business up to $3 billion a year."

—Crime is a growing problem throughout the business world. For the independent businessman it sometimes is devastating. He has to hire guards or employ electronic devices, but he cannot pass on the added costs.

Moreover, burglaries and robbings and riots have left him with either no insurance or exhorbitant rates. Big business can move away from the problem areas; small business sometimes is too dependent upon local trade.

There are an estimated 5.1 million independent business operators in the country. That number can make a memorable chorus.

Junior Editors Quiz on SEA LEVEL

QUESTION: How do you determine sea level?

ANSWER: In our picture, we imagine that this same question had been asked by a father of his two children while the family was vacationing in a New England seaport. "That's easy, Dad," replied Bob. "It's just the line on the shore where the sea comes to. We'll prove it — hey, Helen, c'mon—" So our first picture shows the kids marking the level of the water on a wharf, using their rowboat. But, returning later with Dad, they find the mark — and the dock, too — much higher up. "You didn't figure on the tides," Dad explains. "You made your mark at high tide. Now the tide is much lower. The pull of the moon makes the sea go up and down in this way, so sea levels change. But scientists need to have some kind of general sea level to base their studies on; so they get reports from many places and work out an average or mean sea level, allowing for the movement of the tides, pulling the water sometimes down, sometimes up."

Mothers Day Not The Same

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Like everything else, they just don't make Mothers Days any more like they used to.

Not that I won't get my share of presents this year. In fact, now that my kids are earning money on their own I'm very likely to be generously remembered.

But, the nicest floral arrangement, the tastiest assortment of candy or the most fashionable wearables can't compare with the gifts I received from my children when they were little.

Nothing they can ever give me in the future will come up to those objects made by loving hands at school.

After all, how can you run a household properly without a napkin holder made of one paper plate and one-half a paper plate stabled together, complete with crayon designs and a string for hanging?

And how can you keep your shoes shining without a soft blue polishing cloth with "Mother" spelled out in red basting stitches? What mom would not proudly wear a raft-like bar pin made of toothpicks stuck together, emblazoned with her name laboriously glued thereto in macaroni letters?

There's no finer place to keep jewelry than in a box, created from gilded ice cream sticks, which looks somewhat like a golden log cabin with a roof that lifts off.

Sometimes there were tears along with the laughter on Mothers Day. One year my daughter had made a plaster of paris cast of her hand in her first-grade class. She was so excited at the presentation ceremony that she dropped it. The plaque was shattered and so was she.

On a happier occasion my son, then nearing 5, presented me with an interesting but unidentifiable object. It was a tiny basketlike affair, made of several layers of crimped aluminum foil with a silver-ball keychain for a handle.

He insisted on knowing if I realized what treasured beheld and seemed a bit crestfallen when I couldn't come up with the answer.

"It's a walnut holder," he said proudly. "It holds just one walnut."

IRS Economies Costing Treasury

By EDMOND LeBRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury is losing about $1.5 billion in revenue because the Internal Revenue Service was required to make manpower and spending economies which save only $250 million, IRS Commissioner Randolph W. Thrower says.

Thus, he said, the Treasury loss was $6 for every $1 saved. Thrower gave the figures to a House Appropriations subcommittee to support the agency's request for a $108.6 million budget increase "to put tax administration in a healthier position."

The testimony, given March 24, was made public today.

Manpower available to audit tax returns is at its lowest level since 1963, Thrower said, down 12 per cent from 1968.

"A person who files an erroneous, fraudulent or delinquent return this year is more than likely to continue that practice next year and the year after unless he is corrected ...," Thrower said.

He said the backlog of delinquent accounts to be collected increased from 609,000 to 788,000 in two years and the uncollected amount now stands at $1.8 billion.

Fewer audits, deferred collections and a weaker fraud program, Thrower said, make his service less visible to the public and "tax fraud among the general population is not receiving the attention it clearly deserves.

"Between fiscal year 1969 and fiscal year 1971 the Treasury will have suffered a loss of $1.5 billion in direct enforcement-produced revenue, due to restricted compliance resources in that period ...," Thrower said.

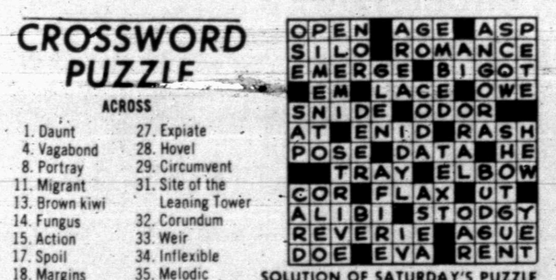

"The 'savings' from 'economies' in IRS resources amount to roughly $250 million. That means for each dollar 'saved' the Treasury lost $6 in direct revenue."

Fifty per cent of West Germany's working force of 24 million persons eat their noon meal at home, according to a survey by Consumers' Marketing and ResearchSKOCIETY.

Bengals Beat Cubs 4-3 On Run In 8th Inning

Snyder's Tigers pushed across a run in the bottom of the 8th inning to break a tie with Brownfield here Saturday afternoon and claim a 4-3 victory.

The win leaves the Tigers with a 14-6 record. They are 3-1 in district play and are tied with Lamesa. The Tornadoes and Tigers will tangle herre at 4 p.m. tomorrow. Another victory will give the Tigers a share of the District 3-AAA crown.

With the score tied at 3-3, Larry Wall opened the bottom of the 8th for the Bengals with a slashing single to centerfield. He advanced to second on a perfectly-executed bunt sacrifice by David Thompson. Then Tommy Washington stepped up to the plate and rapped a single. Larry hurried around the base paths and slid safely into home plate

The Tigers had scored single runs in the 1st, 3rd and 4th frames. But Brownfield tied it up with a 3-run outburst in the 5th.

Marvin McClanahan started on the hill for the Tigers and gave way in relief to Tim Holder in the 5th. Holder was credited with the win. Nall went the distance for Brownfield, and he was the loser.

In the 1st, Stewart Sims reached first on an error which enabled him also to go to second. Butch Buchanan sacrificed him to third, and he scored on a fielder's choice when Larry Wall cracked a hot grounder to the third baseman.

The Cubs got their three tallies on singles by Chance, Vasquez and Murphy combined with a fielder's choice, a hit batsman, and an error.

Then came the big eighth inning for the Bengals.

The only other extra-base hit in the game was a double by Washington in the 2nd. He and Wall each were credited with two hits. Brownfield's Vasquez hit three singles in four trips to the plate.

Canonero II Is No Joke

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Pimlico general manager thought he was being kidded when a telephone caller said he wanted to make a Preakness nomination for a horse racing in Venezuela. It was not a joke and neither is the horse—Canonero II, winner of the Kentucky Derby.

"I thought I was being kidded; I never heard of the horse," Chick Lang said last Saturday night, an hour after Canonero II made himself known to the world.

In changing his status from an unknown member of the Derby mutuel field to a star attraction for the Preakness, Cannonero II soundly whipped 19 other 3-year-olds.

But the Kentucky-bred, Venezuelan-raced colt, owned by Edgar Caibett of Caracas, won't lack competition in the May 15 Preakness.

"I expect 14," Lang said.

One of those expected to test Canonero II is Frank J. Caldwell's Jim French, the Derby runnerup.

Trainer John Campo said Jim French came out of the Derby with cuts on three legs but that the son of Graustark would be ready for the second race of the Triple Crown series in Baltimore.

However, it appeared today that another Campo-trained 3-year-old will miss the $150,000-added Preakness as he did the Derby. Neil Hellman's Good Behaving, the winner of three straight stakes including the Wood Memorial.

Hellman said by telephone Sunday from Albany, N.Y., that he would speak to Campo about putting Good Behaving in the Preakness but added:

"I think we're going to keep our schedule and run in the Withers at Aqueduct Saturday. I wouldn't go in the Preakness with 14 starters."

Two other Derby starters pointed for the 1 3-16-mile Preakness are William A. Levin's Bold Reason, the third-place Derby finisher and Calumet Farm's Eastern Fleet, who got home fourth.

Non-Derby starters expected for the Preakness include Peter F. Kissell's Executioner, the Flamingo winner, and Greentree Stable's Dynastic, second in the Flamingo and third in the Blue Grass Stakes.

A Derby crowd of 123,284—the first ever officially announced by Churchill Downs management—watched Canonero II circle the field under Gustavo Aviala and beat Jim French by 3¾ lengths.

There was another surprise elsewhere Saturday. Big Shot II, an Argentine-bred, scored an upset in winning the $108,100 Century Handicap on the turf at Hollywood Park. Ridden by Rudy Rosales, Big Shot finished a head in front of The Field and paid $18.

The Field was disqualified from second. This moved drumtop into the runnerup spot from third and Cougar II, the odds-on favorite, from fourth to third.

Snyder Stars Win 3rd Place

LEVELLAND — Snyder's All-Stars won third place at the Little Dribblers Basketball National Tournament here Saturday. The local lads were beaten 37-35 by Mercer Island, Washington in the semifinals. Mercer Island pitched in 12 of 17 free throws in the last quarter. Charles Cobb was high point man for Snyder with 19 points.

Pampa beat Mercer Island in the finals 34-29.

Debbie Ragland Wins 1st Place

ANSON — Debbie Ragland won first place in the discus at the regional tournament here Saturday. She heaved the oval 102-7. She thus qualifies for the state meet to be held May 14-15 at Abilene. Debbie is a student at Snyder High School.

Houston Is Voted Into Conference

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The Southwest Conference voted the University of Houston into the league today the first change in the membership since Texas Tech was admitted 15 years ago.

The vote was unanimous.

The Cougars needed only six votes from the eight conference members.

Houston, a long-time independent, will not compete for the conference football championship until 1976, although it already has games scheduled with members such as a Sept. 11 contest with Rice.

Alan Chapman, Rice faculty representative to the conference, made the motion for Houston to be admitted and this was seconded by J. Neils Thompson, faculty representative of Texas, who was the prime supporter of Houston's bid to become a league member.

Southwest Conference faculty representatives and athletic directors had resumed their discussion of the Houston question at 8:30 a.m. today after a nine-hour session Sunday.

The Houston situation apparently hit a last-minute snag Sunday. Newsmen had been told to stand by for a news conference at 1 p.m. but no announcement was made.

Houston has about 25,000 students and is a noted golf and basketball power.

The Cougars also have made such great strides in football recently that major powers such as Mississippi and Mississippi State have dropped them from their schedules because Houston no longer is an easy early season contestant.

The school is one of the few major schools in the country making money off its athletic program. The Cougars have an attractive football arena in the spacious Astrodome—the only such stadium in the world with a roof.

It is the fourth time that Houston has been a member of an athletic conference. The Cougars were in the Lone Star Conference 1946-48, Gulf Coast Conference 1949-50, and in the Missouri Valley Conference 1951-60.

Houston became athletically a major college in 1951 by NCAA designation.

In basketball, Houston owns a 163-44 record for the last six years and has played in six of the last seven NCAA tournaments. Houston holds a 179-51 record against Texas schools in basketball.

In the last five years, the football team has compiled a 38-12-2 mark and finished in the top 20 in The Associated Press polls in the last five years.

The Cougars, current NCAA golf champions, have won the title 12 out of the last 15 tries.

Unlikely Parlay Wins For Rice

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Rice's half-point victory over Texas A&M in the Southwest Conference track championship Saturday night was fashioned by a muscle cramp, a courageous second-place in the three-mile run and a fifth-place tie in the high jump.

Rice Coach Augie Erfurth may not have to rely on such an unlikely parlay next year. The Owls lose only 17 points off their championship team.

The muscle cramp struck Aggie star Curtis Mills in the leg some 50 yards out of the blocks in the 220-yard dash. Mills limped to the sidelines like a lame thoroughbred and with him went A&M's hopes for a second consecutive title.

The Aggies hoped for a 1-2 finish in the 220. Not only did they lose Mills' possible points, but a tired Rockie Woods finished second to SMU's Joe Pouncy in the event. Woods was the meet's busiest athlete, piling up 17½ points. He won the 120-yard hurdles in a SWC record 13.7, took the 100-yard dash in 9.5, and anchored the 440-yard relay team.

The three-mile run followed the 220. Paul Stansberry of Rice had never done better than a 14:33.2 in the event. His failing running style suggests he's almost trying to fly—certainly not the best form for somebody who has to run around a track for 15 minutes or so.

But Stansberry gutted it out. He finished second for four vital points just ahead of A&M's Frank Ybarbo.

"His form is not too good, but his heart is great," said Erfurth.

While Stansberry was getting sick on the infield from his long run, the Owl mile relay team put the clincher on the closest championship meet in SWC history with a climactic victory over the Aggies.

"I thought the second in the three-mile brought it up there where we could catch them," said Erfurth. "I like to win, but I hate to see Curtis Mills go out like he did. He's a great competitor."

Stansberry's time was 14:16.4, some 15 second better than he had ever done before.

Mills wanted to come back for the mile relay, but A&M Coach Charley Thomas ruled against it.

Rice won only five events in the entire meet, but it was a mere half-point the Owl's Glen Ray gathered in the high jump Friday that was the difference.

Rice sports information director Bill Whitmore told a disappointed Ray that his fifth-place 6-foot, 5-inch leap could mean the difference if things got close.

It couldn't have been any closer.

Weekend Violence Toll Is Heavier Than Usual

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pleasant May weather sent Texans flocking out of doors and presumably helped to swell the violent death toll for the weekend.

Thirty-eight persons were killed between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday, including 18 in traffic accidents.

Also contributing to the heavier than usual toll were 11 shootings and five drownings.

In one of the worst auto crashes, three youths died about 3 a.m. Sunday as a compact car smacked into a tree in the Dallas suburb of Garland. They were twins Gary and Cary Lancaster, 17, and Rickey White, 18, all of Garland. Two other youths were injured.

Among the other victims were:

T. D. Blessing, 84, of Robstown was killed in a collision Sunday night on a farm road a mile west of Corpus Christi. His wife Velma, 66 at the wheel of their car, and Ernest S. Bippert, 26, of Kingsville, alone in the other vehicle, were injured.

Three-year-old Sharon Kay Wilkerson strangled Sunday in Dallas as a window slammed shut, catching her by the neck as the child peered in while standing on a block outside her playhouse. She was the daughter of a city detective, H. O. Wilkerson, and his wife.

James Z. Rhoades, 72, of Fort Worth drowned Sunday while fishing in Lake Granbury. He went down about 200 yards from the Oak Shores Trail Marina.

Army 2nd Lt. Michael G. Parmley, 24, stationed at Ft. Hood, was killed Sunday when his parachutes failed to open while skydiving at Palo Duro airport south of Amarillo.

Jesse Elbert Brown, 61, of Houston was killed Sunday when he was hit by a car as he attempted to cross a Houston freeway.

Charles Edward Goodwin, 42, of San Antonio was shot to death Sunday in what police said was an old dispute. Officers arrested a man.

Two men were crushed to death Saturday night in their tractor-trailer rig when it hit an embankment at the edge of Fabens in far West Texas. Police identified them as Bobby Prather, 26, of Stantonville, Tenn., and Randall Palmer, 31, of Corinth, Miss.

Jerry D. Trafliff, 21, of Dallas was killed Saturday as he fell from a truck on a farm road four miles north of Tyler.

A pedestrian, Ernest Gene Tanner, 32, of Socorru, Tex., was killed Saturday night when he was struck by a car on a farm road east of El Paso.

Antonetta Morales, 10, drowned Saturday in Ascarte Lake at El Paso.

Dr. Lonnie Deadrick Jr., 40, a San Antonio physician who was studying psychiatry, his wife, 39, and two of their children died in a shooting spree during which police said Deadrick also wounded two other children and his mother-in-law.

The San Antonio shootings occurred Friday night and the latest victim, Constance Deadrick, 7, died Saturday night. Her mother and brother, Lonnie III, 10, also were slain. The survivors—Joyce Louise Deadrick, 14, Mark Deadrick, eight months old, and Mrs. Viola Edwards, 56, were reported in critical condition.

Glider pilot Dudley C. Shaw, 31, of Del Rio was killed Saturday when his craft crashed while landing at a practice airstrip. A companion, Carl E. Bohler, 15, of Del Rio, suffered serious injuries.

A two-car crash just north of Big Spring killed Violet Jarrett of Big Spring and injured three other persons Saturday night.

Riley R. Williams, 23, of Grand Prairie died Saturday in a car which ran off Texas 24 and overturned four miles west of Newcastle, in Young County.

Johnny Gallados, 37, of Perrin Air Base drowned in a boating accident Saturday on Lake Texoma near Big Mineral Camp. His son, 11, and another companion made it to shore safely.

Gunfire killed Bobbie Jean Brown, 33, and wounded two bystanders, neither seriously, outside a Houston bar Saturday. Officers charged her husband, Joe Edward Brown, 33, with murder.

Hearings Open On Juvenile Homes

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Birch Bayh opened hearings today on conditions in juvenile correctional institutions with a charge that many youths "are beaten, brutalized and exposed to vicious sexual attacks."

The Indiana Democrat, chairman of the Senate juvenile delinquency subcommittee, added in his prepared statement that little, if any, rehabilitation takes place in detention and correctional facilities.

Two of the first witnesses denounced the juvenile justice system in El Paso, Tex., and conditions in the county juvenile detention home there.

Steven Bercu of the El Paso Legal Assistance Society said it is difficult to imagine any place "where juveniles are so routinely abused."

He said police will arrest any juvenile merely on the word of the parent and, in defiance of Texas law, children are detained for indefinite periods without the benefit of a court hearing and "without any conceivable justification."

Bercu said the county detention has no educational or rehabilitation facilities and its sanitary conditions are disgusting.

He also said children are continually beaten, no qualified personnel are employed, and juvenile records are disclosed to any caller.

Even stronger testimony was given by Bill Payne, who said in his prepared statement he was assigned by the El Paso Times last August to conduct an investigation and write a series of articles.

"Juvenile justice as it exists in El Paso County, and, indeed, throughout the state of Texas, is a disgrace and an abomination, conceived and executed in bad faith and designed solely for the profit of the keepers even as they speak nobly of solicitude for the children they catch and cage," Payne said.

Since the construction of the detention home in the early 1950s, Payne said, "in El Paso County there has probably never been a legal detention of a child and there has probably never been a legal commitment of a child from that county to a state reformatory."

More than four million acres of Texas forestlands are now certified tree farms.

BUSINESS and INDUSTRIAL NEWS

Gift Ideas Abound At The Snyder Book Store

With the multiple gift-giving occasions of Mother's Day, graduation and summer weddings approaching, Snyder Book Store is ready with many lovely and useful gifts.

Mother would treasure one of the lovely Bibles available in a number of bindings and translations. To really personalize this gift, have her name or monogram imprinted on it. Devotional and inspirational books, writing kits, stationery, photograph albums, cookbooks, sacred records, as well as current books would be other gift suggestions.

New in the store and perfect for the spring graduate is a line of Remington typewriters in portable electric or manual models. With the purchase of each electric typewriter the store is giving a choice of American Heritage, Webster's Seventh New Collegiate or Webster's World Dictionary, and a Roget's Thesaurus. Other gift ideas are graduation books, scrapbooks, photo albums, diaries, Snoopy dogs, Joan Walsh Anglud books, posters and dolls, music boxes, stationery and letter kits.

"We continue our services to the prospective brides of the area," says Betty Shelburne, manager of the store. "We have available a large selection of wedding invitations from which the prospective bride may choose. Also available are informals for the Thank-You notes, monogrammed or imprinted, napkins, momentos for the attendants, brides books, memory candles and wedding cake ornaments. Also all the necessary items for the 25th and 50th wedding anniversary."

Another service available is help with the reception.

"If you need to rent punch bowls, cups, plates, or even table cloths, contact us," says Mrs. Shelburne.

The store has had many requests for the "Sunshine" line of boxed cards. This item has just recently been added to supplement the induvidual cards of Gibson, Roth, Norcross and Ideals.

San Antonio Has New Mayor

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — W. W. McAllister's 10 years as mayor ended Saturday when a new city council took office.

McAllister, 82, first sat on the council in 1960 and became mayor in 1961. He did not seek re-election.

His successor is John Gatti, 52, a former mayor pro-tem.

Gatti and eight others—members of a slate that swept to victory in the April election—began their two-year terms in formal ceremonies.

Governor Named Honorary Member

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — A church founded by slaves has awarded Gov. Dale Bumpers an honorary membership.

The governor, his wife Betty and their children were present when the Rev. J.H. Corbitt of the predominantly Negro Mt. Pleasant Church named Bumpers an honorary member of the congregation.

The Rev. Mr. Corbitt said it symbolized progress in Arkansas when the governor "will accept such a certificate from a church that was founded by slaves in 1875."

Snyderite On Program At Southwestern

GEORGETOWN — Two musicians from the School of Fine Arts at Southwestern University, Ann Haahn of Houston and Roy Bartels of Snyder, will share a program on Friday, May 7, at 8 p.m. in the Alma Thomas Theatre on the university campus. The public is invited.

Miss Haahn, bassoonist, will play Vivaldi's "Sonata in A minor" (Largo, Allegro, Largo, Allegro), Mozart's "Concerto in B flat" (Andante ma Adagio, Rondo--tempo di Minuetto), and Hindemith's "Sonata" (first and second movements.

Bartels, French horn, performs Mozart's "Concerto No.1 in D major" (Allegro, Rondo), Strauss' "Fantasie in G major" (Theme, Variations I, II, III), and Uber's "Four Sketches, Opus 27" (The Mountain and the River, Ghost Train, The Valley, and The Hunt.

Bartels, a junior in the School of Fine Arts at Southwestern, is majoring in music education with the French horn as his principal instrument. He is also interested in piano, organ, trumpet, and art.

During his college career, Bartels has been a member of the Southwestern University Band, the Southwestern Sinfonietta, the University Choir, Brass Ensemble, and Woodwind Quintet. He has been presented in numerous recitals as soloist and as member of various musical organizations. Active in campus affairs, he is secretary of the Bishops Memorial Union and has served on various committees. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Bartels, Route 2, Snyder.

Capp's son, Kim, said the creator of the comic strip character L'il Abner probably would remain in the hospital several days.

Export Rise Is Forecast

NEW YORK (AP) — Continued expansion of U.S. exports to Latin America was forecast by Harold B. Scott, Director of the Bureau of International Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce. Growth in export trade to Latin America, he said, would probably be more modest than the 15 per cent increase between 1969 and 1970, when exports grew to $6.4 billion.

Tot Killed In Playhouse

DALLAS (AP)—A playhouse window slammed shut Sunday and strangled Sharon Kay Wilkerson, 3, as it pinned her neck to the sill.

Her parents found the child dead in their back yard. She was the daughter of a city homicide detective, H. O. Wilkerson.

Officers said the little girl had been playing in the fenced yard with a dog and this is what apparently happened:

She set a concrete block beside the playhouse, stood upon it, raised the window and stuck her head inside. As the window unexpectedly dropped, the block rolled from beneath her feet and she was left dangling helplessly.

A neighbor telephoned the Wilkersons that she appeared to be hanging from the window and they learned what had happened.

Crackdown Set On Pollution

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The San Antonio River and other South Texas rivers and streams will be under the scrutiny of federal officials this summer in a crackdown on pollution, it was reported here.

The Corps of Engineers plans to gather information on possible pollution violations for prosecution by the U.S. Justice Department, the San Antonio Light said.

The corps has begun mailing permit application forms to firms and individuals discharging pollutants into San Antonio area waterways, the Light said Sunday.

The forms must be completed by mid-summer, a corps spokesman said. He said the corps will evaluate them and the federal environmental protection agency will study them, as will the Texas Water Quality Board.

The Corps' district office in Fort Worth has been authorized about $100,000 for the next fiscal year for the enforcement program, and it has been granted six more people qualified to work in pollution analysis and control, the Light said.

Corps officials said the San Antonio River and most of its tributaries will be included in the crackdown.

One problem the enforcement effort will face is the fact that much of the San Antonio River's pollution comes from treated sewage discharges, officials pointed out.

Bathroom Doors To Be Wider

NEW YORK AP — City Council's building committee has approved a bill requiring bathroom doors in all new buildings here to be wide enough for wheelchairs.

The bill would require bathroom doors to be 32 inches wide instead of the current minimum oof 28.
