Smith Is Given "Outstanding Citizen" Title

James R. (Jim Bob) Smith, 608 5th St., Tuesday night was honored as Abernathy's "Outstanding Citizen of the Year" by the Chamber of Commerce. The Award was presented to Smith by Pete Thompson, a member of the chamber's awards committee, at the Chamber of Commerce banquet held in the school cafeteria that night.

Bob Stephens of KWGN-FM radio station was master of ceremonies at the chamber of commerce banquet. Burl Huffman, member of the athletic coaching staff of Texas Tech, was the guest speaker on the banquet program.

Ed Graham, out-going C. of C. president, also was honored during the banquet program. He was given a plaque. Making the presentation for the C. of C. was Andy Reid, who will take over the office of president of the C. of C. May 1.

Out-of-town guests at the banquet include those from Hale Center, Floydada, Lubbock, Plainview, Lockney, Olton, and possibly other area towns. Robert Barnes, C. of C. manager, estimated the banquet attendance at about 175 people.

Jim Bob, an ex-serviceman, is associated with his father, Lee Roy Smith, in the operation of Smith's Thriftway Supermarket in Abernathy. He is a graduate of Abernathy High School, and he married Miss Rolfae Ledford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ledford of Abernathy. They have a son and a daughter.

Jim Bob is active in church work at Abernathy First Baptist Church. Earlier this month, he was elected second vice president of the Chamber of Commerce. He is an alderman on Abernathy City Council. He was re-elected to that post April 6. Jim Bob also is active in Lions Club work. He is a member of the Abernathy Volunteer Fire Department.

Eight 'Lopes Qualify For Regional Meet

(By Mike Skipper)

Eight Antelopes will be participating in the Regional Track Meet to be held in Lubbock April 24. These local lads qualified for the meet in the District 3-AA Meet held in Olton Saturday, April 10. As a team, Abernathy placed second in the meet behind Olton. The 'Lopes had a total of 115 points to Olton's 132.

Abernathy's 440-yard relay team ran its fastest time of the year despite a last-minute substitution. Mike Tannehill, who usually runs the third leg of the team, pulled a muscle shortly before the contest and had to be replaced by Pat Hale. The combination of Barry Selke, Lane Wade, Jake Mallow and Hale went on to capture first place, however, in 43.8 seconds. Tannehill will probably be in the relay in the Regional meet.

Barry Selke broke his own school record for the second time this year as he took the 180-yard low hurdles in 19.8 seconds. Two other 'Lopes took first places to qualify for the Regional meet. Boyce Paxton leaped 5' 8" to win the high jump event and Lane Wade won the broad jump with a jump of 20' 10". The only other 'Lopes qualifier was Tommy Hunley, who was second in the pole vault behind Dale Murphree of Friona. Murphree jumped 10' 9".

SANDSTORM HITS AREA SATURDAY

A vicious sandstorm raked the South Plains Saturday and Sunday night, doing some damage. High voltage lines broke and fell on Ave. E. between 7th and 8th Streets. The house over the city water well on the southwest corner of the city square was blown several feet, hitting a tree. If the tree had not been in that location the well house would have slammed into the rear of the new post office building.

Miss JoAnn Lovelace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lovelace of Rt. 2, Abernathy, was named by the Member Services Committee to represent No. Three in the "Miss South Plains Electric" Beauty Pageant in Lubbock, held April 12, at 7:30 P. M. in the Cooperative's Auditorium. Miss Lovelace is a student at Abernathy High School.

The winner of the "Miss South Plains Electric" contest will be eligible to participate in the contest on a Statewide basis at the Texas Electric Cooperative, Inc. Annual Meeting at Dallas in August, 1965.

"Miss South Plains Electric" will also receive an all-expense trip to Washington, D. C. in June, along with the two winners of the South Plains Electric Cooperative Oratorical Contest.

W. C. Bryant of Abernathy is the director for District No. 3. The member Services committee from District 3 consists of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Oswalt, Abernathy, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Adrian, Rt. 2, Petersburg.

A Tech co-ed, Donna Kay Perry, who resides on a farm between Lubbock and Shallowater, was named "Miss South Plains Electric for 1965" Monday night. First alternate is Alice Ann Woolley, a Roosevelt High School Senior.

Second alternate is JoAnn Lovelace. She is a junior student in Abernathy High School.

CHEMICAL WEED CONTROL MEETING AT GRAHAM'S

(By O. F. Rea)

Area farmers were invited to attend a breakfast at Graham's Restaurant at 6:30 a. m. on Thursday of last week by Plains Grain Company. The theme of the meeting was chemical weed control.

On hand to brief the users of Propazine, Atrazine, Simazine and Caparol in the proper manner of application and use was Mr. Charles Cypert of Geigy Agricultural Chemicals. His extremely interesting talk was illustrated with a large number of slides showing the equipment used and the manner of application for various stages of crop growth, which in this area is chiefly maize and cotton.

Attention was called to such items as nozzle size and type and the angle at which to use, the amount of chemical to use as well as the amount of water to obtain the best results and the approximate cost per acre. When to apply for best results was explained also—as failure to apply at the proper time to weeds already up would fail to kill them.

It was pointed out that the proper manner of mixing the chemicals with water before putting into the spray tanks is very important. If the chemicals are dumped into the spray tanks and the water added later the results will be unsatisfactory even though you have an agitator. If you are going to spend your money for a chemical weed killer the only logical manner of handling is the one recommended by the chemical manufacturers and distributors.

Mr. George McDuff of Southwest Fertilizer & Chemical Co. made a short talk on the proper equipment to use and also illus-

$300 MISSING AT NEW DEAL

Burglars caused heavy damage in the New Deal High School office of Supt. Dalton James Thursday night while making off with "about $300" in cash from a floor safe and walk-in vault.

Investigation was continuing early today by Lubbock sheriff's deputies Charlie Bowman and Jack Jackson.

"It must have taken them three or four hours," the superintendent said Friday. "They really tore up the safe and vault doors." He indicated there was a "good deal of money, but luckily I went to the bank Thursday."

The floor safe was pried open and the door battered completely off, James said. The vault door also was pried and the lock mechanism ruined.

FIRE DAMAGES QUARTERS

Fire at laborers' quarters of the Simmons-Henry Gin, located near New Deal, caused heavy damage about 5 a. m. Sunday. Lubbock firemen, who sent two booster units, battled the blaze until shortly after 6 a. m. Firemen said the fire probably started from a gas heater.

Assembly of God Church Sets 7-Week Project

The Abernathy Assembly of God Church announces a seven-week Sunday emphasis to be launched on Easter Sunday.

Its purpose according to the Rev. Roy George, Pastor, is to increase loyalty of Sunday school members to their church.

The activities of Abernathy Assembly of God Church are geared with a denomination-wide emphasis known as the "Loyalty Campaign" which traditionally begins Easter Sunday and continues for the seven following weeks, ending on Pentecost Sunday.

The campaign will be directed by the Rev. Roy George, Pastor, assisted by Bro. A. D. Helms, general superintendent of the Sunday school.

Members will be urged to chalk up perfect attendance records during the campaign, and to enlist new members in the Sunday school.

This is the eighth year that the local church has participated in a loyalty campaign.

During the 1964 campaign, several members of the Sunday school had perfect attendance records.

Currently there are 118 members enrolled in the Assembly of God Sunday school.

An average attendance goal of 125 has been set for the campaign.

Reese Air Force Base today named Marlman and McPherson, partners of Los Animas, Colorado as contractor for the new light plane training program to be conducted for the base beginning August 5. Training will take place at the Abernathy airport.

Major Joseph V. Sullivan, Reese Procurement Officer, notified Marlman and McPherson of the award late yesterday afternoon.

Marlman and McPherson, which has crop dusting operations in Texas, Colorado and Montana, included in their bid a 1/4 of 1 per cent discount privilege, with this discount coming into effect upon prompt payment by the Air Force. This discount clause spelled the difference in their bid of $15.37 per hour from an identical one submitted by Hallmark Academy Inc. of Amarillo. Hallmark's bid carried no discount privilege. Total dollar value of the contract is estimated at approximately $160,000 per year.

The contract provides up to 30 hours of instruction in the Air Force - owned Cessna 172, designated T-41A, for each student pilot prior to his entering the jet phase of training. The contractor must also gain Federal Aviation Agency approval by May 1 to operate a flying school and must have all facilities ready for operation by June 1, 1965.

Although all 21 of the new trainers assigned to Reese will be owned by the Air Force, the contractor will perform all maintenance and care for the craft, plus providing the 16 to 18 FAA certified civilian instructor pilots for the program. Before contract training starts, each civilian instructor will receive up to 10 hours of flight indoctrination by a group of hand-picked Air Force pilots from Reese.

Twenty-four firms sought the Reese contract. Civilian contractors will begin student training in T-41A's at each of the eight undergraduate pilot training bases in August.

Re-introducing a light plane, the T-41A, as the first phase in flight training will reduce training cost in early phases where the greatest number of student pilots are disqualified. This permits an increase in numbers trained at a lower cost than a simple program expansion, Air Training Command officials stated.

Present figures on disqualifications show that ROTC students who have had flight orientation programs in light aircraft have better chances of success in jet training than those who haven't. After training in the T-41A, students will complete 90 hours in the T-37 primary jet trainer and 120 hours in the supersonic T-38 before receiving the silver wings of the Air Force pilot. There will be about 400 students a year, classes arriving each six weeks.

Under the contract, Reese AFB will house and feed students and will transport them to the training area at Abernathy. Civilian contract training will be monitored by Reese flying and aircraft maintenance personnel. Project officer is Major Raymond A. Sofaly.

The T-41A aircraft is slower and simpler to fly than the jet-propelled T-37 and T-38. It is capable of carrying two passengers at a cruising speed of 120 miles per hour for approximately 450 miles. Its feather weight—2000 pounds—is small compared to the T-38 supersonic jet trainer which weighs 11,700 pounds.

The Air Force has purchased 170 of the T-41s for $1,239,650. These aircraft will be furnished to the civilian contractors.

(By Mike Skipper)

'65 Senior Play Set April 30

(By Mike Skipper)

The Senior Class of 1965 will present the annual Senior Play on Friday, April 30, beginning at 7:30 p. m. in the school auditorium. The play, entitled "Come Out of the Closet," is a farce centered around apartment living in a metropolitan area. Some country girls come to the city to earn their fortune and due to lack of money, they have to stay in a rather run-down apartment building. The action centers around a locked closet in which something or somebody is hiding.

Tickets for the farce will be $1.00 for reserved seats, 75c for general admission and 50c for students. Mr. Bobby Hudson will direct the play with the help of the other Senior sponsors. The money received from the play will go toward the Senior trip, which will be taken May 15. This trip is restricted to 24 hours.

Members of the cast, which consists of six girls and five boys, were chosen in tryouts held Monday, March 22. They are as follows: Linda Miller, Mrs. Malone; Mona Drace, Hilda; Glynda Evans, Irene; Donna Webb, Jenny; Linda Martino, Ammonia; Denise Barker, Abbie; J. Frank Jackson, George; Bill Forbes, Mr. Rosewater; Hercules, Bill Lee; Boyce Paxton, Mr. Cutter; and Truett Skipper, Sweeney.

Report on Runningwater Draw Project Presented

Officials from Abernathy and Hale Center, interested in a possible municipal water supply from Runningwater Draw, met Tuesday with Soil Conservation and Watershed Project members.

The considered water supply would be taken from the final dam structure backup on Runningwater Draw near Edmonson, about 12 miles almost directly north of Hale Center.

Mayor Roy Jones of Abernathy represented that city at the meeting. Hale Center city officials present were Mayor L. B. Dyer; councilmen J. O. Wheeler, H. G. Wilson and Billy R. Clark; J. E. Laney, Hale Center member of the Hale County Board of Supervisors and Johnny R. Feagan, Hale Center.

Representing the Soil Conservation Service and Watershed Planning Program were Flip Calhoun, chairman of the Hale County Soil Conservation District Board; Phil Grazer, Watershed Program group leader and Jimmy Lewis, work unit conservationist.

Edmonson Structure

The structure near Edmonson would be the largest dam site on Runningwater Draw, and the last of a series of 10 scheduled to be constructed during the next five years. Planning agenda include use of the dam for recreation, municipal water and flood-control. During the meeting, the officials from Hale Center and Abernathy were informed as to an estimated amount of water they could receive and cost possibilities of such municipal water. The project is still in planning stages.

A survey has been underway for several weeks to secure information on flood damage to individual farms, crops and record past floods.

Lewis said he felt that by the end of April or the first of May, survey teams would begin preliminary work and core drilling rigs would be employed to determine if proposed sites would be capable of holding water.

Liner Use Possible

Should the site prove too porous or absorbent, either an expensive liner would have to be used or another site selected.

Present proposed site of the number 10 dam structure is west of the paved road which connects Edmonson and U. S. 70. According to Lewis, water would back up three to five miles, contain 200-300 surface acres and be 30-50 feet deep behind the dam.

Each of the ten dams would be primarily earth type, and each would have to be completed before moving downstream to the next. The one to be located near Edmonson would be the largest and last to be completed.

One of the main problems to be encountered, said Lewis, is the problem of silt.

"Each farmer or landowner would have to contour, bench level or grass the land around the draw to prevent silt from filling the sites."

Lewis also stated that farmers were urged to cooperate with the survey teams which should be working on preliminary studies on individual farms within the next month.

Rebekah Lodge Meet Held Here

The Abernathy Rebekah Lodge No. 170 met April 6, at 8:00 p.m. in the I. O. O. F. Hall. Mrs. Lois Bishop, the new District Deputy President, made her official visit that night. She presented the Lodge with a beautiful plaque with the new President flower and emblems. She gave an interesting talk on the new President program for the year. The Commission was read for Mrs. Helen Totty, the new Lodge Deputy. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thomas of Plainview.

The South Plains Association of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will meet at Whiteface, Texas, April 17. All members are urged to attend.

After the meeting a salad supper was enjoyed by all.

The District Deputy reported we now have 71 children in our Children's Home and 78 elderly people in our Old Folks Home.

News Of Men In The Armed Forces

ROSWELL, N. M. — Airman First Class James R. Bradley, son of Robert N. Bradley of 2808 Willis St., Eldorado, Ill., has arrived for duty at Walker AFB, N. M.

Airman Bradley, an air policeman, previously served as Schilling AFB, Kan. His new unit is part of the Strategic Air Command which keeps the nation's intercontinental missiles and jet bombers on constant alert.

The airman is a graduate of Eldorado Township High School. His wife, Katherine, is the daughter of Jim Carlen of Abernathy, Texas. His mother is Mrs. Ruth Gladson of Shawneetown, Ill.

Salvation Army

If a man, woman or child is hungry or cold they need your help and need it NOW. This is the basic idea of a Salvation Army Service Unit Committee organized here last week. The unit will serve the Abernathy area by assisting local and transient persons as well as emergency cases.

A service unit field representative pointed out that the committee here, made up of local people, would in no way take the place of the welfare now being done, but assist in expanding it. Heading the local committee is Robert F. Barnes, chairman, Arno Struve vice chairman, and Jimmy Gragg, treasurer.

Other members are: Frank Chapman, Roy E. Jones, Rev. Carlton Thomson, A. B. Reid, Melvin Rape, Delwin Webb and Allen G. McBride.

In the past this area was served by The Salvation Army Corp of Plainview, with the establishment of this local service unit, members of the Salvation Army will cease all solicitations in the Abernathy area. An annual fund raising drive will replace this method.

The first such fund drive will take place in June of this year. Of the contributions made, one third will remain here to be dispersed as directed by your local service unit committee. Two thirds will be forwarded to State Headquarters in Dallas to be used in support of the many State services that will be available to anyone in the Abernathy area, through your local committee.

To name a few of these services: Home and Hospital for Unwed Mothers, Disaster Relief, Missing Persons Bureau, Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center, Summer Camp For Underprivileged Boys, to which the local committee will send two boys in June. There are many other State Services too numerous to mention.

In the event the committee runs short of funds between annual fund drives, money will be granted to the local service unit, by the Dallas Headquarters, so that the program may continue. When a grant is made it is not charged against the local service unit nor is it charged against any future fund drives.

It was also brought out that the cost of administration is less than ten cents on the dollar. It was stated that ninety cents of every dollar contributed stays in the state and used for actual welfare work.

This is a very worthy cause and your help is needed and needed now. During the fund raising in June, help your local

Commissioners Court Studies re-evaluation Of Hale Farm Property

Employment of personnel to re-evaluate Hale County farm property for tax purposes was discussed by the Commissioners Court in a called session Friday.

C. A. Whitfield and W. D. O'Brien, both of Lubbock, met with the Court to discuss an agreement with the county officials to make the re-evaluation. Whitfield and O'Brien were land appraisers for the Federal Land Bank of Houston for 30 years until a few years ago.

The Court took no action on employing the two. Representatives of other re-evaluation concerns have been interviewed by the Court in recent months.

Would Take Year

Whitfield said it would take a year to make the re-evaluation of Hale in the thorough manner in which he and O'Brien would make it. If such a re-evaluation is made, Judge C. L. Abernethy pointed out, the changes would not affect Hale taxes until 1966 assessments.

Whitfield and O'Brien make their land re-evaluations on market value, they told the Court. They said availability of water, condition of the soil of the farms would be taken into consideration. The two made a re-evaluation of Crosby County farm land in 1963 and 1964. The value of one farm was lowered, all others being raised, Whitfield said.

Judge Abernethy said he would contact other tax agencies in the county to see if they

Baseball Camp Is Set At LCC

Final arrangements have recently been completed for the second annual West Texas Baseball Camp to be conducted in four sessions this summer at Lubbock Christian College.

Sessions will begin on June 13, June 27, July 11, and July 25. The July 25 session will last only one week, while all others will be regular two-week periods.

Bobby Moegle, head baseball coach at Monterey High School, will once again direct the baseball instruction at the camp. Dr. Herman B. Segrest, Director of PE for general college students at Texas Tech, is overall camp director.

"Our initial response this year has been excellent," commented Moegle. "There seems to be a great deal of enthusiasm and we expect an increase in our attendance each session. Last year we felt as though we accomplished a great deal and many comments from parents seem to back up our thoughts. Many parents seemed pleased with their son's baseball accomplishments and the opportunity to associate with our coaching staff and learn to work and would join in the re-evaluation and if urban property re-evaluation could be done at the same time as the farm re-evaluation is made.

Judge Abernethy pointed out that due to the steady increase of industrial property in the county, Hale has been "comfortable" financially, but has had no appreciable margin of tax income. There are increasing expenses that could possibly require a higher tax valuation. The tax rate is adjusted on basis of property valuation to bring in the necessary revenue. Hale's tax rate is now $1.70 per $100 valuation, the maximum.

The Court devoted an afternoon session to approving regular bills. Judge Abernethy, Commissioners Marvin Churchwell, Homer Roberson, Doc Brown and Herschel Williams attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Edwards plan to leave Thursday for Houston to visit in the home of his sister, and to watch play in the professional golf tournament which will be under way in that city this weekend.

The Richard DuBose family has moved from a farm north of Abernathy to one located one mile south and three miles east of Happy Union.

co-operate with other boys."

Joining Moegle on the coaching staff include Danny Mason, Golf Coach at Tech; Earl Parker, head baseball coach at Lubbock High; Kal Segrest, assistant baseball coach at Tech; and Bill Dean, Publications Director at Lubbock High and an American Legion and Colt league coach in Lubbock the past 10 years.

Mason will be camp counselor and recreational specialists. He will be in charge of all boys living in the dormitory and will also offer golf instruction for those interested. Parker, Segrest, and Dean will be full-time instructors in the baseball program.

Also slated to make appearances will be Berl Huffman, head baseball coach at Tech. He will be a guest lecturer.

Baseball instruction will stress basic fundamentals of all phases of the game. Instruction by position will be covered in morning workouts and in the afternoon boys will be broken down by age groups for additional instruction and scrimmages.

Aside from baseball training and golf instruction the following activities will be carried on in the large field house on the campus: basketball, volleyball, badminton, tennis, and table tennis.

Boys who live at the camp will stay, two to a room, in new ultra-modern dormitories at LCC. A regular dietitian will be on duty to supervise the preparation of all meals. Local boys may attend daily and return home in the evening.

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS AND CIVIC-MINDED PEOPLE OF LUBBOCK AND VICINITY

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The Abernathy Weekly Review as he saw conditions. These people are all leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the co-operation of those citizens in Lubbock who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

MURL HOLLOWAY

J. Murl Holloway, manager of the Maben Wholesale Floral & Supply Company Incorporated, has won the universal respect and good will of the company's retail dealers in this region for the progressive manner in which he has kept this reliable wholesale floral supply firm in the forefront of the business life of this entire district. Also for the efficient and friendly willingness he has displayed in accepting his share of responsibility in aiding civic projects.

Mr. Holloway is not the kind of individual who makes himself conspicuous by the manner in which he conducts himself, either in business or other matters. Yet, his quiet reserve and air of confidence mark him as a man of sound judgement, whose opinions and advice are sought after and listened to with respect.

We compliment Murl Holloway for the successful management of the Maben Wholesale Floral & Supply Company, and also for his constructive advice and help on those civic affairs in which he has found time to interest himself. He is a man whom many are proud to call friend.

Mrs. W. Roy Faubion

In order to serve the public honestly, efficiently, and cheerfully, is the basic foundation many progressive business men and women of Lubbock have found to be the shortest route to success. In making this statement, the one we have in mind is Mrs. W. Roy Faubion of the Nineteenth Street Nursery & Kindergarten, who will occupy a completely modern building between May 1st and 10th, at 2135 51st Street, which will be known as "Wynken, Blynken & Nod."

The conduct of such businesses, and the people who operate them have done much to make Lubbock the business center for many miles around, and it is fitting that we give credit where credit is due to such women as Mrs. Faubion for her part in the onward progress of the city. In doing so, we are merely putting into words the opinions of those who know her.

Mrs. Faubion has earned her success by the method in which she has served the public, and accepted all civic and business responsibilities, and we wish her very success in the future.

At the head of one of West Texas' more prominent wholesale paper products supply firms, and as a leader of recognized ability in community life, Ralph E. Baker stands out today as one of the best liked men on the panorama of Lubbock activity.

His friends are numbered by the hundreds, and all of them are of the lasting fibre which comes of worth-while associations, both in the world of business, and in the realms of neighborhood life.

The Western Paper Company, of which he is the manager, has been a strong factor in the growth and progress of Lubbock; and Mr. Baker's own efforts, in many instances, have been the stimuli behind the outstanding accomplishments of this reliable company. The case is an excellent example of a man weaving his own personal prominence into an executive's life, with lasting benefits to both organization and individual.

We take pleasure in expressing these few words of commendation to a man who is doing so much to promote the growth and progress of this entire district.

BILL SMITH

Bill Smith, who just a short time ago assumed the operation and management of the Air Terminal Restaurant, quite readily demonstrated his executive ability by his quickness to appreciate the obligations and responsibilities of his new position, and to conduct his affairs accordingly.

Although he has been managing the business for a comparatively short time, he has already many new friends and satisfied customers for the Air Terminal Restaurant.

Mr. Smith is an active, energetic individual whose sincere and friendly personality and desire to be of service is rapidly earning a place for him in this district. He has taken an interest in community activities, and in due course of time will assume his full share of civic responsibilities.

Bill Smith deserves a few words of praise for so adequately establishing himself in his new endeavor, and we are pleased to give him this brief, but sincere mention.

Frank F. Fata, CLU

Having a well-earned reputation for honesty, dependable judgement, and a complete knowledge of the insurance business far above the average, Frank F. Fata, CLU, manager of Equitable Life Assurance Society Of U. S., merits a brief tribute in this Lubbock review.

Without assumption, or seeking public acclaim, he has filled his place in the community as one of its solid citizens, performing his duties of citizenship quietly, yet efficiently.

It is not only as a practical executive, whose sound judgement, and far-sighted planning have brought such fine things to himself, but it is because of his inspiring optimism and loyal friendship that Frank Fata is held in such high regard by the people of this district.

We gladly praise the successful record of his dependable Lubbock Insurance counselor.

Garmon S. Walden

Logically, a man who has earned the reputation of being one of Lubbock's more dependable used car dealers would in so doing, have earned the friendship and good will of a great many people throughout this region. And one who justly deserves that distinction is—modest, efficient, friendly, Garmon S. Walden of the Garmon Walden Motor Sales, who numbers some of our readers as his best satisfied customers.

Mr. Walden is the type of individual who would be an asset to any community, not only because the successful conduct of his business plays a definite part in the general civic scheme, but because the ultimate measure of his value to the city and this district, lies in the fact that he is untiringly zealous, and remarkably successful in the promotion of civic progress.

It would be difficult to estimate the actual dollars-and-cents value of such a man to his community. We congratulate the people of Lubbock for numbering among their more progressive citizens such a man as Garmon Walden, and we also express the wish that he will enjoy many more years of success.

JOHN K. LYON

One of the more progressive business men of Lubbock, and one who deserves the respect and good will of a great many residents of the city is capable, friendly, John K. Lyon of Lyon's Plumbing Company, now located at 901 Adrian, whose wide knowledge and long experience in the plumbing and heating business, has raised him into a position of prominence in his line.

It is because of this that Lyon's Plumbing Company has earned a reputation for reliability—second to none.

Mr. Lyon is also civic-minded, and has always been ready to contribute his time and energy to any plan which promises to benefit this entire district. And the people of Lubbock may regard with particular satisfaction the many services which he has performed in the interest of progress and civic betterment.

We urge our readers to look to John Lyon as a dependable business man of whom we may well be proud. His devotion to the city has been constant, and his achievements well merited. We wish for him further success.

A. E. McMURRY

In compiling this review of progressive Lubbock business men, we have endeavored to select those citizens who, by the manner in which they have conducted themselves and their businesses, have earned for them positions of leadership in their various fields of activities. Such a man is A. E. McMurry of the A. E. McMurry Welding Supply & Oxygen Company, who is well known, and has a great many friends and business associates through out this entire district.

Mr. McMurry's main interests have not been solely confined to his own business and private affairs, but have also included his contributions in one form or another, to those projects of a civic nature which come within the scope of his activities.

A. E. McMurry is a man of wide experience, whose exploits in the business and commercial life of Lubbock and vicinity, merits more than a passing attention, and the writer is privileged to pay this brief tribute to a man who well deserves more credit than is accorded him here.

E. B. HILL

It is desirable in this review of progressive Lubbock business men, that we acquaint our readers with the one to be credited with having maintained the West Texas Equipment Company, distributors for Caterpillar Earth Moving Equipment, in the enviable position it holds in the business and industrial life of this region. That personality is E. B. Hill, Vice President, whose genius for organization, and for converting new ideas into actual deeds, has played a vital part in the distinctive reputation which this reliable Co. now enjoys throughout this entire district.

Mr. Hill has found time, in addition to his business responsibilities, to give thought and energy to community projects. He is a citizen whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the city. He has been successful in his own business, and in the promotion of the general welfare of the community.

We are glad to pay this brief tribute to him, and to say that this district owes much to the many benefits which E. B. Hill, and the West Texas Equipment Company have rendered to this section of the South Plains.

JACK J. ALMACK

In all business and professional pursuits, there are men who have met with success because they have honestly deserved it, and such an individual in his particular vocation is Jack J. Almack, general agent for the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, who well deserves the reputation he has earned for being one of Lubbock's more conscientious business men. His thorough knowledge of every thing pertaining to insurance business is exemplified by the manner in which he fulfills each and every demand upon him in line with his business.

The John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company negotiated for over twelve million dollars in farm loans during 1964 in the Panhandle area, and while Mr. Almack does not transact loans personally, it indicates the tremendous interest the company is showing toward the future of farming activities in this region.

We appreciate the opportunity of including Jack Almack in this group of dependable and civic-minded men who are actively taking part in the evolution of the business life of Lubbock and vicinity.

R. L. McCRAW

We wish in this edition to pay tribute to R. L. McCraw of McGraw Service, for his many services to the city of Lubbock, and his splendid record of achievements in the business life of the city.

Mr. McCraw probably has as wide a circle of friends as any other man we could name, because he is just naturally the kind of individual who makes friends with almost everyone, and always conducts himself in such a manner as to deserve the respect and good will of all who know him.

Lubbock is fortunate in being able to number, among its more progressive business men, citizens of this type.

He is always ready and willing to lend his support to the promotion of any project which promises to benefit this entire district.

He may be depended upon, and his services to the motoring public are too many in number to be described here. It may be sufficient to say that we consider R. L. McCraw an asset to the community, and a progressive business man of whom his city may be proud.

JOEL CULVER

It is no coincidence that more frequently than not, the people who take a progressive part in the civic and business life of their city, are the same ones who are pre-eminently successful in conducting their own private affairs. In connection with the foregoing statement, we wish to mention and pay tribute to Joel Culver of Mays Studio.

Mr. Culver has proven very ably that he is a photographer of more than average ability, for it is largely due to his progressive methods, coupled with his sound and practical ideas that Mays Studio holds its high position in the public's opinion in this area. He has made his business a "profession", with the result that he is today one of the more popular photographers in Lubbock, giving to his patrons an excellence of artistic service seldom equaled.

It is also true that Joel Culver does his share toward community improvement, and has given freely of his time and energy to those enterprises which have benefited the city at large. We are glad to voice our praise of a man who is successful in his own business, and who also has time to give toward community development.

MEL McDUGGLE

The city of Lubbock has assumed its place of importance in the South Plains because of the efforts of far-seeing business men who have helped in developing its industry, or in some manner extended the trade advantages of the locality. One of the men who has taken an important part in many progressive movements is Mel McDouggle of MELMC Realtors.

Mr. McDouggle has devoted his share of time and energy to the growth and development of Lubbock and this district, and it is fitting at this time we attempt to express in a small way, our appreciation for his unselfish contribution to the general welfare of the community.

He is a man of wide acquaintance, whose many friends admire and respect in him, those virtues which inspire confidence and promote good feelings. His upright business methods are but an outward reflection of his inherent appreciation for fair practices. We congratulate Mel McDouggle on his splendid record of service, and wish him continued success.

PRESTON ALLEN

In critical times such as these, it takes business men of more than average ability to carry on their operations successfully. In making this statement, the man we have in mind is one of Lubbock's more dependable sewing machine dealers, Preston Allen of Allen's Sewing Center, authorized sales and service for Necchi, Neclo and Elna, who has a wide circle of personal friends and satisfied customers throughout this entire district—many of whom reside in our own community.

His contagious optimism and freely expressed belief in the assured future prosperity of the people of Lubbock and its metropolitan trading area, are characteristics which are to be appreciated in a progressive business man. He has always taken an interest in community affairs, and has shown a willingness to shoulder his share of the civic load.

It is such men as Preston Allen who, because of the successful conduct of their business and private affairs, and their eagerness to contribute to the public good, are wholly deserving of a few words of commendation. It is a pleasure to pay him this brief tribute.

Paul N. Waddell

We desire in this Lubbock review to call the attention of our readers to the well-earned position which Paul N. Waddell has reached in the business life of this section. During the comparatively short time he has been the manager for Oak Farm Dairies, he has made many personal friends, as well as having earned the good will of his associates for the straight-forward manner in which he has conducted his business affairs.

Mr. Waddell is working hard to deserve the confidence which the firm's retail dealers have in him, and he continues to work hard to maintain in every way, that high standard which he has set, not only for himself, but for the management of Oak Farm Dairies as well.

He has also shown a willingness to assist in every manner at his disposal in the growth and development of the Hub City, and is always ready to lend his support to civic projects. Paul Waddell deserves our heartiest congratulations on the splendid record he has already established, and we sincerely hope for his continued success.

JAMES E. WALKER

Most cities, if they amount to much, are man made. They do not just happen. It has been the realization of its more progressive citizens that their city must grow and prosper, and become something other than just another place on the map, that has brought results, and made it possible for the Hub City to be an outstanding one, and for those within it to prosper.

And James E. Walker & Company is one of those dependable

building contractors to whom much credit must go for playing no small part in the growth and development of Lubbock, and the surrounding area.

Mr. Walker would be the last man to mention the matter, but when the call goes forth to rally around something worth-while for the community, he is among the first to volunteer. But his friends are outspoken in paying him this well-deserved tribute, and they do so because of a thorough knowledge of his activities.

Successful in his own building contracting business, James Walker is equally successful in the promotion of civic programs.

JESSE F. HORNER

Every progressive and successful business man in Lubbock contributes in some manner to the growth and progress of the city. And one who is always willing to do his part in both civic and business activities is Jesse F. Horner of American Growers Incorporated, who is well known, and has a great many friends and business associates throughout this entire district.

The prominent part that American Growers Incorporated is playing in the business and commercial life of this section of West Texas, mirrors the dependability and honesty of such men as he. Moreover, Mr. Horner has also at all times been steadfast in his devotion to the city and the surrounding country, and on many occasions, has lent his support to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

Lubbock and this district are fortunate to have such a man as Jesse Horner in a position of responsibility and service, and this newspaper feels that it merely reflects public opinion in paying brief tribute to one of the city's more conscientious business men.

MAX E. HEADLEY

It is a well-known fact that a man's true character must come through in his work; whether in business or religious activities or in public life. So when a man conducts himself in such a manner as to cause the public to recognize in him, certain qualities over and above the average, he is deserving of a few words of praise. Such a personality is Max E. Headley of the National Plumbing Company, and an active member of the Church of Latter Day Saints.

In addition to being one of the city's more dependable authorities on plumbing and heating problems, Mr. Headley was never one to shirk his civic duties. More than that, he enters cheerfully, and with enthusiasm and optimism into those civic affairs in which he has time to take a part. And seldom does he fail to find time to do his share.

Max Headley deserves his share of credit for being one of those progressive citizens of Lubbock who has contributed so substantially to the onward progress of the city. It is a pleasure to include him in this group.

WILLIAM E. "BILL" OAKLEY

William E. "Bill" Oakley has proved his progressiveness by constantly adding to, and increasing the service which Oakley's Texaco Station has extended to the people. The large volume of business handled by his Texaco station proves that "service" to him, is not "just a word," but something to be rendered to the motoring public to the fullest extent of his ability.

In addition to his close attention to his business affairs, Mr. Oakley was never a man to dodge his civic responsibilities, and help in those matters has always been cheerfully given.

He fully appreciates that value of good will, and has more than his share of that intangible commodity because of the manner in which he meets both business and civic obligations. He is a credit to his community, and is thoroughly established in the business life of the Hub City.

"Bill" Oakley has a great many friends around this region, and it is a pleasure to bring him before our readers in this review of dependable Lubbock business men.

CECIL B. CLARK

In mentioning some of those men who are taking a progressive part in the evolution of the business and industrial life of Lubbock; we would be censored if we fail to include Cecil B. Clark of Safeway Products Incorporated, and the Safeway Scafford Company, a firm that is recognized as a leader in their line of business.

Mr. Clark is that solid type of citizen whose fairness and friendliness, and sincere desire to be of service are accountable for a large measure of his success. And as time goes on, his personal interests have become more closely interwoven with the business and civic life of the city. As a result he has, quite naturally, become accepted as a man who can be called upon, and who will cheerfully do his part to further the development of those community activities to which he is best fitted to lend assistance.

Cecil Clark has, through the successful management of the Safeway Scafford Company, and by his attention to civic affairs, earned the friendship and good will of his colleagues. He is to be complimented for his activities, and we only express the desire of his many friends in wishing him continued success.

C. H. WATSON

Recognized as an authority on all electrical contracting problems, C. H. Watson of the Watco Electric Company, has turned his knowledge to the advantage of the people of Lubbock and vicinity. More than that, Mr. Watson is a man who has always been vitally interested in the civic betterment and progress of the city, and has backed up his interest by lending assistance, in one form or another, to the successful promotion of many things which have benefited the community as a whole. Lubbock owes much to such men for their part in making the city the business center of this area.

He has always been alert to the many opportunities for service, and more than ready to recognize, and accept his share of civic responsibilities.

Because of these things, Mr. Watson has become accepted as a dependable business man who is an asset to both the business and industrial life of the city, and we trust he will continue to serve the people of Lubbock and the surrounding area in his present capacity for many years.

DEARYL QUEARY

In bestowing credit upon some of the more conscientious business men of Lubbock who in one way or another, have contributed their bit to improve both civic and business conditions, has been extremely difficult to maintain. However, that he has done so is proved by the large volume of business which his Phillips 66 station continues to handle, much of which is due to his unceasing attention to detail, and his ability to cope with new and unexpected problems.

Dearyl Queary is also civic-minded, and has, when asked, cheerfully cooperated on those civic activities to which he has been able to lend assistance. He more than deserves the respect and good will which he has earned, and his many friends and customers are confident that he will continue to maintain his usual integrity and high standards.

C. N. HARRISON

Recognized as one of the more progressive business men of Lubbock, C. N. Harrison of the C. N. Harrison Construction Company Incorporated, performs a real service for the people of the South Plains, and his contributions to civic betterment are too well known to require repetition in these columns. His personal success has been achieved in a large measure, because he never misses an opportunity to further the service he renders to the public. A policy which has, and continues to build good will for the C. N. Harrison Construction Company throughout this entire district.

Mr. Harrison is deserving of praise, and this brief tribute is but a just recognition for the many services which he has performed in the way of both business and civic activities. Also his reputation for the successful conduct of his business affairs, is no greater than his reputation for the honest practices which characterize his every transaction.

We congratulate C. N. Harrison on his splendid record, and trust he shall continue to serve the people of Lubbock and vicinity.

BOB BECKWITH

A city grows and prospers by reason of the public-spirited men and women who take an active interest in its development. Lubbock has its share of these conscientious and civic-minded people, and one who is deserving of recognition is friendly, likeable, Bob Beckwith of the Western Marking Device & Supply Company.

His business ability, coupled with a thorough knowledge of the business have been major factors in maintaining the Western Marking Device & Supply Company in a position of leadership throughout the Lubbock area. He not only in his business activities, but also in his attention to civic duty, assumed an active part in community affairs. Mr. Beckwith has always been ready and willing to contribute his time and energy to the promotion of any project promising to benefit the community as a whole. He has often sacrificed personal interests to be of assistance to the city, and his efforts are deserving of commendation and support.

We congratulate Bob Beckwith on his past achievements which, in our opinion, indicate a similar successful career in the years ahead.

J. B. McMAHAN

In singling out some of the more progressive business men of Lubbock we would be censored should we fail to include J. B. McMahan of the West Texas Vault Company. He is a man who has never spared himself in his participation in both the business and civic activities of the city.

Mr. McMahan has always been conscious of his civic responsibilities, and is ever ready and willing to meet in every detail, those opportunities which come to his attention to further civic enterprise. He may well be proud of his achievements along these lines.

J. B. McMahan deserves a great deal of credit for the honest and successful manner in which he has conducted his business affairs. He is a friendly and likeable personality, whose sincere desire to be of service has gained for him a host of friends and acquaintances in and around Lubbock who would, if given the opportunity, join us in wishing him many more years of continued success.

B. J. "BILL" BARTLETT

B. J. "Bill" Bartlett of the A-1 Appliance Company, has a well-earned reputation for dependability, because he has consistently forged ahead in his business; never letting up in his efforts to make the service his company renders to the people more valuable. This invariable policy has made the A-1 Appliance Company outstanding in its field, a fact that is well known to the public throughout this entire region.

But Mr. Bartlett has accomplished much more than just making a success of his business and private affairs, and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to him for devoting what time he could spare to the general welfare, not only to the Hub City, but the surrounding district as well.

It is such men as he, who are both successful in business, and appreciative of their civic obligations that are deserving of recognition. We take pleasure in publicly giving "Bill" Bartlett the credit for his accomplishments which his many friends and associates have so long accorded him.

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS AND CIVIC-MINDED PEOPLE OF LUBBOCK AND VICINITY

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of The Abernathy Weekly Review as he saw conditions. These people are all leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the co-operation of those citizens in Lubbock who helped make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

MURL HOLLOWAY

J. Murl Holloway, manager of the Maben Wholesale Floral & Supply Company Incorporated, has won the universal respect and good will of the company's retail dealers in this region for the progressive manner in which he has kept this reliable wholesale floral supply firm in the forefront of the business life of this entire district. Also for the efficient and friendly willingness he has displayed in accepting his share of responsibility in aiding civic projects.

Mr. Holloway is not the kind of individual who makes himself conspicuous by the manner in which he conducts himself, either in business or other matters. Yet, his quiet reserve and air of confidence mark him as a man of sound judgement, whose opinions and advice are sought after and listened to with respect.

We compliment Murl Holloway for the successful management of the Maben Wholesale Floral & Supply Company, and also for his constructive advice and help on those civic affairs in which he has found time to interest himself. He is a man whom many are proud to call friend.

Mrs. W. Roy Faubion

In order to serve the public honestly, efficiently, and cheerfully, is the basic foundation many progressive business men and women of Lubbock have found to be the shortest route to success. In making this statement, the one we have in mind is Mrs. W. Roy Faubion of the Nineteenth Street Nursery & Kindergarten, who will occupy a completely modern building between May 1st and 10th, at 2135 51st Street, which will be known as "Wynken, Blynken & Nod."

The conduct of such businesses, and the people who operate them have done much to make Lubbock the business center for many miles around, and it is fitting that we give credit where credit is due to such women as Mrs. Faubion for her part in the onward progress of the city. In doing so, we are merely putting into words the opinions of those who know her.

Mrs. Faubion has earned her success by the method in which she has served the public, and accepted all civic and business responsibilities, and we wish her very success in the future.

At the head of one of West Texas' more prominent wholesale paper products supply firms, and as a leader of recognized ability in community life, Ralph E. Baker stands out today as one of the best liked men on the panorama of Lubbock activity.

His friends are numbered by the hundreds, and all of them are of the lasting fibre which comes of worth-while associations, both in the world of business, and in the realms of neighborhood life.

The Western Paper Company, of which he is the manager, has been a strong factor in the growth and progress of Lubbock; and Mr. Butler's own efforts, in many instances, have been the stimuli behind the outstanding accomplishments of this reliable company. The case is an excellent example of a man weaving his own personal prominence into an executive's life, with lasting benefits to both organization and individual.

We take pleasure in expressing these few words of commendation to a man who is doing so much to promote the growth and progress of this entire district.

BILL SMITH

Bill Smith, who just a short time ago assumed the operation and management of the Air Terminal Restaurant, quite readily demonstrated his executive ability by his quickness to appreciate the obligations and responsibilities of his new position, and to conduct his affairs accordingly.

Although he has been managing the business for a comparatively short time, he has already many new friends and satisfied customers for the Air Terminal Restaurant.

Mr. Smith is an active, energetic individual whose sincere and friendly personality and desire to be of service is rapidly earning a place for him in this district. He has taken an interest in community activities, and in due course of time will assume his full share of civic responsibilities.

Bill Smith deserves a few words of praise for so adequate-

Frank F. Fata, CLU

Having a well-earned reputation for honesty, dependable judgement, and a complete knowledge of the insurance business far above the average, Frank F. Fata, CLU, manager of Equitable Life Assurance Society of U. S., merits a brief tribute in this Lubbock review.

Without assumption, or seeking public acclaim, he has filled his place in the community as one of its solid citizens, performing his duties of citizenship quietly, yet efficiently.

It is not only as a practical executive, whose sound judgement, and far-sighted planning have brought such fine things to himself, but it is because of his inspiring optimism and loyal friendship that Frank Fata is held in such high regard by the people of this district.

We gladly praise the successful record of his dependable Lubbock Insurance counselor.

Garmon S. Walden

Logically, a man who has earned the reputation of being one of Lubbock's more dependable used car dealers would in so doing, have earned the friendship and good will of a great many people throughout this region. And one who justly deserves that distinction is—modest, efficient, friendly, Garmon S. Walden of the Garmon Walden Motor Sales, who numbers some of our readers as his best satisfied customers.

Mr. Walden is the type of individual who would be an asset to any community, not only because the successful conduct of his business plays a definite part in the general civic scheme, but because the ultimate measure of his value to the city and this district, lies in the fact that he is untiringly zealous, and remarkably successful, in the promotion of civic progress.

It would be difficult to estimate the actual dollars-and-cents value of such a man to his community. We congratulate the people of Lubbock for numbering among their more progressive citizens such a man as Garmon Walden, and we also express the wish that he will enjoy many more years of success.

JOHN K. LYON

One of the more progressive business men of Lubbock, and one who deserves the respect and good will of a great many residents of the city is capable, friendly, John K. Lyon of Lyon's Plumbing Company, now located at 901 Adrian, whose wide knowledge and long experience in the plumbing and heating business, has raised him into a position of prominence in his line.

It is because of this that Lyon's Plumbing Company has earned a reputation for reliability—second to none.

Mr. Lyon is also civic-minded, and has always been ready to contribute his time and energy to any plan which promises to benefit this entire district. And the people of Lubbock may regard with particular satisfaction the many services which he has performed in the interest of progress and civic betterment.

We urge our readers to look to John Lyon as a dependable business man of whom we may well be proud. His devotion to the city has been constant, and his achievements well merited. We wish for him further success.

A. E. McMURRY

In compiling this review of progressive Lubbock business men, we have endeavored to select those citizens who, by the manner in which they have conducted themselves and their businesses, have earned for them positions of leadership in their various fields of activities. Such a man is A. E. McMurry of the A. E. McMurry Welding Supply & Oxygen Company, who is well known, and has a great many friends and business associates through out this entire district.

Mr. McMurry's main interests have not been solely confined to his own business and private affairs, but have also included his contributions in one form or another, to those projects of a civic nature which come within the scope of his activities.

A. E. McMurry is a man of wide experience, whose exploits in the business and commercial life of Lubbock and vicinity, merits more than a passing attention, and the writer is privileged to pay this brief tribute to a man who well deserves more credit than is accorded him here.

E. B. HILL

It is desirable in this review of progressive Lubbock business men, that we acquaint our readers with the one to be credited with having maintained the West Texas Equipment Company, distributors for Caterpillar Earth Moving Equipment, in the enviable position it holds in the business and industrial life of this region. That personality is E. B. Hill, Vice President, whose genius for organization, and for converting new ideas into actual deeds, has played a vital part in the distinctive reputation which this reliable Co. now enjoys throughout this entire district.

Mr. Hill has found time, in addition to his business responsibilities, to give thought and energy to community projects. He is a citizen whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the city. He has been successful in his own business, and in the promotion of the general welfare of the community.

We are glad to pay this brief tribute to him, and to say that this district owes much to the many benefits which E. B. Hill, and the West Texas Equipment Company have rendered to this section of the South Plains.

JACK J. ALMACK

In all business and professional pursuits, there are men who have met with success because they have honestly deserved it, and such an individual in his particular vocation is Jack J. Almack, general agent for the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, who well deserves the reputation he has earned for being one of Lubbock's more conscientious business men. His thorough knowledge of every thing pertaining to insurance business is exemplified by the manner in which he fulfills each and every demand upon him in line with his business.

The John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company negotiated for over twelve million dollars in farm loans during 1964 in the Panhandle area, and while Mr. Almack does not transact loans personally, it indicates the tremendous interest the company is showing toward the future of farming activities in this region.

We appreciate the opportunity of including Jack Almack in this group of dependable and civic-minded men who are actively taking part in the evolution of the business life of Lubbock and vicinity.

R. L. McCRAW

We wish in this edition to pay tribute to R. L. McCraw of McCraw Service, for his many services to the city of Lubbock, and his splendid record of achievements in the business life of the city.

Mr. McCraw probably has as wide a circle of friends as any other man we could name, because he is just naturally the kind of individual who makes friends with almost everyone, and always conducts himself in such a manner as to deserve the respect and good will of all who know him.

Lubbock is fortunate in being able to number, among its more progressive business men, citizens of this type.

He is always ready and willing to lend his support to the promotion of any project which promises to benefit this entire district.

He may be depended upon, and his services to the motoring public are too many in number to be described here. It may be sufficient to say that we consider R. L. McCraw an asset to the community, and a progressive business man of whom his city may be proud.

JOEL CULVER

It is no coincidence that more frequently than not, the people who take a progressive part in the civic and business life of their city, are the same ones who are pre-eminently successful in conducting their own private affairs. In connection with the foregoing statement, we wish to mention and pay tribute to Joel Culver of Mays Studio.

Mr. Culver has proven very ably that he is a photographer of more than average ability, for it is largely due to his progressive methods, coupled with his sound and practical ideas that Mays Studio holds its high position in the public's opinion in this area. He has made his business a "profession", with the result that he is today one of the more popular photographers in Lubbock, giving to his patrons an excellence of artistic service seldom equaled.

It is also true that Joel Culver does his share toward community improvement, and has given freely of his time and energy to those enterprises which have benefited the city at large. We are glad to voice our praise of a man who is successful in his own business, and who also has time to give toward community development.

MEL McDOUGLE

The city of Lubbock has assumed its place of importance in the South Plains because of the efforts of far-seeing business men who have helped in developing its industry, or in some manner extended the trade advantages of the locality. One of the men who has taken an important part in many progressive movements is Mel McDougle of MELMC Realtors.

Mr. McDougle has devoted his share of time and energy to the growth and development of Lubbock and this district, and it is fitting at this time we attempt to express in a small way, our appreciation for his unselfish contribution to the general welfare of the community.

He is a man of wide acquaintance, whose many friends admire and respect in him, those virtues which inspire confidence and promote good feelings. His upright business methods are but an outward reflection of his inherent appreciation for fair practices. We congratulate Mel McDougle on his splendid record of service, and wish him continued success.

PRESTON ALLEN

In critical times such as these, it takes business men of more than average ability to carry on their operations successfully. In making this statement, the man we have in mind is one of Lubbock's more dependable sewing machine dealers, Preston Allen of Allen's Sewing Center, authorized sales and service for Necchi, Neclo and Elna, who has a wide circle of personal friends and satisfied customers throughout this entire district—many of whom reside in our own community.

His contagious optimism and freely expressed belief in the assured future prosperity of the people of Lubbock and its metropolitan trading area, are characteristics which are to be appreciated in a progressive business man. He has always taken an interest in community affairs, and has shown a willingness to shoulder his share of the civic load.

It is such men as Preston Allen who, because of the successful conduct of their business and private affairs, and their eagerness to contribute to the public good, are wholly deserving of a few words of commendation. It is a pleasure to pay him this brief tribute.

Paul N. Waddell

We desire in this Lubbock review to call the attention of our readers to the well-earned position which Paul N. Waddell has reached in the business life of this section. During the comparatively short time he has been the manager for Oak Farm Dairies, he has made many personal friends, as well as having earned the good will of his associates for the straight-forward manner in which he has conducted his business affairs.

Mr. Waddell is working hard to deserve the confidence which the firm's retail dealers have in him, and he continues to work hard to maintain in every way, that high standard which he has set, not only for himself, but for the management of Oak Farm Dairies as well.

He has also shown a willingness to assist in every manner at his disposal in the growth and development of the Hub City, and is always ready to lend his support to civic projects. Paul Waddell deserves our heartiest congratulations on the splendid record he has already established, and we sincerely hope for his continued success.

JAMES E. WALKER

Most cities, if they amount to much, are man made. They do not just happen. It has been the realization of its more progressive citizens that their city must grow and prosper, and become something other than just another place on the map, that has brought results, and made it possible for the Hub City to be an outstanding one, and for those within it to prosper.

And James E. Walker & Company is one of those dependable

building contractors to whom much credit must go for playing no small part in the growth and development of Lubbock, and the surrounding area.

Mr. Walker would be the last man to mention the matter, but when the call goes forth to rally around something worth-while for the community, he is among the first to volunteer. But his friends are outspoken in paying him this well-deserved tribute, and they do so because of a thorough knowledge of his activities.

Successful in his own building contracting business, James Walker is equally successful in the promotion of civic programs.

JESSE F. HORNER

Every progressive and successful business man in Lubbock contributes in some manner to the growth and progress of the city. And one who is always willing to do his part in both civic and business activities is Jesse F. Horner of American Growers Incorporated, who is well known, and has a great many friends and business associates throughout this entire district.

The prominent part that American Growers Incorporated is playing in the business and commercial life of this section of West Texas, mirrors the dependability and honesty of such men as he. Moreover, Mr. Horner has also at all times been steadfast in his devotion to the city and the surrounding country, and on many occasions, has lent his support to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

Lubbock and this district are fortunate to have such a man as Jesse Horner in a position of responsibility and service, and this newspaper feels that it merely reflects public opinion in paying brief tribute to one of the city's more conscientious business men.

MAX E. HEADLEY

It is a well-known fact that a man's true character must come through in his work; whether in business or religious activities or in public life. So when a man conducts himself in such a manner as to cause the public to recognize in him, certain qualities over and above the average, he is deserving of a few words of praise. Such a personality is Max E. Headley of the National Plumbing Company, and an active member of the Church of Latter Day Saints.

In addition to being one of the city's more dependable authorities on plumbing and heating problems, Mr. Headley was never one to shirk his civic duties. More than that, he enters cheerfully, and with enthusiasm and optimism into those civic affairs in which he has time to take a part. And seldom does he fail to find time to do his share.

Max Headley deserves his share of credit for being one of those progressive citizens of Lubbock who has contributed so substantially to the onward progress of the city. It is a pleasure to include him in this group.

WILLIAM E. "BILL" OAKLEY

William E. "Bill" Oakley has proved his progressiveness by constantly adding to, and increasing the service which Oakley's Texaco Station has extended to the people. The large volume of business handled by his Texaco station proves that "service" to him, is not "just a word," but something to be rendered to the motoring public to the fullest extent of his ability.

In addition to his close attention to his business affairs, Mr. Oakley was never a man to dodge his civic responsibilities, and help in those matters has always been cheerfully given.

He fully appreciates that value of good will, and has more than his share of that intangible commodity because of the manner in which he meets both business and civic obligations. He is a credit to his community, and is thoroughly established in the business life of the Hub City.

"Bill" Oakley has a great many friends around this region, and it is a pleasure to bring him before our readers in this review of dependable Lubbock business men.

CECIL B. CLARK

In mentioning some of those men who are taking a progressive part in the evolution of the business and industrial life of Lubbock; we would be censored if we fail to include Cecil B. Clark of Safeway Products Incorporated, and the Safeway Scafford Company, a firm that is recognized as a leader in their line of business.

Mr. Clark is that solid type of citizen whose fairness and friendliness, and sincere desire to be of service are accountable for a large measure of his success. And as time goes on, his personal interests have become more closely interwoven with the business and civic life of the city. As a result he has, quite naturally, become accepted as a man who can be called upon, and who will cheerfully do his part to further the development of those community activities to which he is best fitted to lend assistance.

Cecil Clark has, through the successful management of the Safeway Scafford Company, and by his attention to civic affairs, earned the friendship and good will of his colleagues. He is to be complimented for his activities, and we only express the desire of his many friends in wishing him continued success.

C. H. WATSON

Recognized as an authority on all electrical contracting problems, C. H. Watson of the Watson Electric Company, has turned his knowledge to the advantage of the people of Lubbock and vicinity. More than that, Mr. Watson is a man who has always been vitally interested in the civic betterment and progress of the city, and has backed up his interest by lending assistance, in one form or another, to the successful promotion of many things which have benefited the community as a whole. Lubbock owes much to such men for their part in making the city the business center of this area.

He has always been alert to the many opportunities for service, and more than ready to recognize, and accept his share of civic responsibilities.

Because of these things, Mr. Watson has become accepted as a dependable business man who is an asset to both the business and industrial life of the city, and we trust he will continue to serve the people of Lubbock and the surrounding area in his present capacity for many years.

DEARYL QUEARY

In bestowing credit upon some of the more conscientious business men of Lubbock who in one way or another, have contributed their bit to improve both civic and business conditions, has been extremely difficult to maintain. However, that he has done so is proved by the large volume of business which his Phillips 66 station continues to handle, much of which is due to his unceasing attention to detail, and his ability to cope with new and unexpected problems.

Dearyl Queary is also civic-minded, and has, when asked, cheerfully cooperated on those civic activities to which he has been able to lend assistance. He more than deserves the respect and good will which he has earned, and his many friends and customers are confident that he will continue to maintain his usual integrity and high standards.

C. N. HARRISON

Recognized as one of the more progressive business men of Lubbock, C. N. Harrison of the C. N. Harrison Construction Company Incorporated, performs a real service for the people of the South Plains, and his contributions to civic betterment are too well known to require repetition in these columns. His personal success has been achieved in a large measure, because he never misses an opportunity to further the service he renders to the public. A policy which has, and continues to build good will for the C. N. Harrison Construction Company throughout this entire district.

Mr. Harrison is deserving of praise, and this brief tribute is but a just recognition for the many services which he has performed in the way of both business and civic activities. Also his reputation for the successful conduct of his business affairs, is no greater than his reputation for the honest practices which characterize his every transaction.

We congratulate C. N. Harrison on his splendid record, and trust he shall continue to serve the people of Lubbock and vicinity.

BOB BECKWITH

A city grows and prospers by reason of the public-spirited men and women who take an active interest in its development. Lubbock has its share of these conscientious and civic-minded people, and one who is deserving of recognition is friendly, likeable, Bob Beckwith of the Western Marking Device & Supply Company.

His business ability, coupled with a thorough knowledge of the business have been major factors in maintaining the Western Marking Device & Supply Company in a position of leadership throughout the Lubbock area. He not only in his business activities, but also in his attention to civic duty, assumed an active part in community affairs. Mr. Beckwith has always been ready and willing to contribute his time and energy to the promotion of any project promising to benefit the community as a whole. He has often sacrificed personal interests to be of assistance to the city, and his efforts are deserving of commendation and support.

We congratulate Bob Beckwith on his past achievements which, in our opinion, indicate a similar successful career in the years ahead.

J. B. McMAHAN

In singling out some of the more progressive business men of Lubbock we would be censored should we fail to include J. B. McMahan of the West Texas Vault Company. He is a man who has never spared himself in his participation in both the business and civic activities of the city.

Mr. McMahan has always been conscious of his civic responsibilities, and is ever ready and willing to meet in every detail, those opportunities which come to his attention to further civic enterprise. He may well be proud of his achievements along these lines.

J. B. McMahan deserves a great deal of credit for the honest and successful manner in which he has conducted his business affairs. He is a friendly and likeable personality, whose sincere desire to be of service has gained for him a host of friends and acquaintances in and around Lubbock who would, if given the opportunity, join us in wishing him many more years of continued success.

B. J. "BILL" BARTLETT

B. J. "Bill" Bartlett of the A-1 Appliance Company, has a well-earned reputation for dependability, because he has consistently forged ahead in his business; never letting up in his efforts to make the service his company renders to the people more valuable. This invariable policy has made the A-1 Appliance Company outstanding in its field, a fact that is well known to the public throughout this entire region.

But Mr. Bartlett has accomplished much more than just making a success of his business and private affairs, and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to him for devoting what time he could spare to the general welfare, not only to the Hub City, but the surrounding district as well.

It is such men as he, who are both successful in business, and appreciative of their civic obligations that are deserving of recognition. We take pleasure in publicly giving "Bill" Bartlett the credit for his accomplishments which his many friends and associates have so long accorded him.

AHS FHA NEWS

JoAnn Lovelace and Thelma Peters, members of the Abernathy Future Homemakers of America chapter of Abernathy High School, will attend the State Meeting of the Texas Association, Future Homemakers of America, in Dallas, April 23-24, according to Cristie Givens, president of the chapter. The meeting theme for delegates from the 13-14 FHA chapters throughout the state will be "Homelife—Foundation for Peace."

JoAnn Lovelace will attend the convention as President-elect of the local FHA chapter and will serve as voting delegate at the convention. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lovelace.

Thelma Peters was awarded the trip to the meeting for being named "outstanding freshman member" in the Abernathy Chapter. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Peters.

Business to be transacted at the meeting by the State Nominating Committee will be the naming of State officers from the ten officer nominees who have been elected by members in the ten areas of the State. Delegates to the National FHA Convention in Chicago in July will be designated.

Nearly 300 members from the 60,473 membership of the Texas Association will receive the State's highest award, the State Homemaker Degree of Achievement. Delegates will confer honorary memberships on adults who have contributed in an outstanding way to the accomplishments of the organization.

Main speaker for the opening session Friday will be Tad Corbett, Bible lecturer, speaker, and entertainer. With his puppet, Johnny, Mr. Corbett, Baptist minister from Lubbock, will address more than 3500 Future Homemakers on the meeting theme.

A program of FHA talent will be conducted Friday night, with the closing session of Saturday given over to business and installation of officers.

Registration headquarters will be the Adolphus Hotel. Meetings will be held in the Music Hall, State Fair Park.

Mrs. Edith Almond, Vocational Homemaking Teacher, will accompany FHA members to the Dallas meeting.

Library News

ABERNATHY PUBLIC LIBRARY HAS NEW BOOKS

Jawbo means "Hello" in many African dialects. It is also the name of a new book added to the Abernathy Public Library. It is a thrilling saga of the free-flowing baloon Jawbo and the three men who risked their lives in a photographic safari over East Africa, told with humor and at a head-long narrative pace. "Jawbo" is an accurate nature and an exciting adventure story.

Another new book, "My Shadow Ran Fast", by Bill Sands, is the true story of a violent law breaking, convention-defying young thing. As a result he spent his early young manhood in San Quentin. What caused him to become a thing, and what convinced him to lead a worthwhile purposeful life makes for fascinating reading.

The library is in the city hall and is open Monday, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

The 26th annual Texas Safety Conference and Governor's Highway Safety Conference will be held March 28-31 in Houston, and is expected to attract approximately 2,000 persons. Officials have announced. Some 32 section meetings on safety are planned, in addition to the general conference and assembly, breakfasts, luncheons and annual banquet. Safety equipment manufacturers will be on hand to show the new developments in their fields. Besides

On page 3 is a list of "Important Dates to Remember." These tell farmers when to pay income and social security taxes, file returns, and meet other tax requirements. New items in this edition are also listed on this page.

The booklet was written primarily to help farmers prepare their 1964 tax returns. It is also useful as a tax reference guide throughout the year. The Internal Revenue Service has prepared a fee booklet of tax advice for farmers. Called "Farmer's Tax Guide," it is available from county agriculture agents or the nearest Internal Revenue Office.

Mr. John J. Sloan, Administrative Officer of the Lubbock office of Internal Revenue said the booklet is written in non-technical language and contains numerous examples showing how tax rules apply in actual situations. A sample filled-in return form is included.

The section meetings, several awards luncheons will be held. Among presentations are awards for women's activities, industrial safety achievements, fleet operations, farm and ranch home safety programs. The Farm and Ranch Heroism Award, sponsored by the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, also will be presented. J. O. Musick of Austin, general manager of the association, has announced.
