First Load of Milo Harvested by Wright

Leonard Wright brought the first load of 1955 milo to the Perryton Equity Friday afternoon, beating the rest of the county by several weeks. His was an early maturing variety of milo, of good quality, and he sold it for $1.55 per hundredweight. The milo harvest will not begin in earnest until about the first of October, and despite the dry condition of fields, there is still hopes for some sections of the county if moisture comes soon.

Ranger Band Is Invited to State Fair Festival

The Perryton high school Ranger Band has been invited to participate in the eighth annual Cotton-Bowl Music Festival on Tuesday, October 11, at the 1955 State Fair of Texas.

There are only 22 bands in the State of Texas invited to this event, considered one of the top honors in high school music circles.

The Ranger Band won the coveted Sweepstakes Award in the regional music competition last spring by placing "Superior" in concert, sight reading and marching.

"This Is Your Music," will be the Festival's theme for the free show in the stadium at 8 p. m. Familiar music from nursery rhymes to symphonies will be played.

There will be 10 orchestras and 14 choruses presenting concerts in addition to the 22 top bands of the state that day. The musical program will be topped off by a fireworks display that night.

Ranger band director B. D. Walker said arrangements are being made for the band to take part in the State Fair show and that he expects another fine band this year.

Rangers Open Grid Season Friday Night With Panhandle

Game Time Set For 8 p. m. In Opening Tilt

The Rangers will open the 1955 football season at Ranger Field Friday night against the Class A Panhandle Panthers, a team expected to be a title threat in their district. Game time is 8 p. m.

Last year the Rangers hammered out a 45-18 victory over the Panthers, but lost most of the players who handled the victory. Panhandle, on the other hand, returns most of last year's team and will be considerably stronger than a year ago.

The Rangers have been working out since August 23, but have a long way to go before they approach the perfection the coaching staff desires. The team will be short on reserves and thus far a quarterback has not been definitely selected, although Tommy Johnson is leading the race for that position.

Backfield power is provided by Jimmy Todd and Dempsey Gyger, both of whom are nursing leg injuries this week. Charles Bulls, Wayman Epp and Howard Mooneyham are capable ball carriers.

One big weakness is the passing attack which has thus far failed to sparkle. Gone are last year's star ends, Bill Farrington and Bill Thrasher, and quarterback Shorty Dear, one of the best passers in the region.

The Rangers of 1955 will be big, have plenty of hustle, but the reserves lack size and experience. Much depends upon the physical condition of Todd and Gyger.

The Rangers will field a line averaging 166 pounds and a backfield averaging 150 pounds. The Panhandle team is about the same size, with a line averaging 162 pounds and a backfield averaging 142.

The Ranger starting lineup will have nine lettermen and four regulars. Probable starters are Bob Beck or Mike Wright and Hobart Buxton at ends; Glen Simpson and Bob Williams at tackle; Bill Jines and Neal Flathers at guards; Danny Myers at center; Jimmy Todd, Tommy Johnson, Dempsey Gyger and Charles Bulls or Wayman Epp in the backfield.

RANGER TRI-CAPTAINS—These three players have been elected tri-captains of the Rangers for the 1955 season. They are, left to right, halfback Jimmy Todd, tackle Bob Williams and tackle Glen Simpson. All three were regulars on the 1954 team and all have earned two letters.

Special Red Cross Drive Is Ended

The local Red Cross chapter has been advised that more than $10,000,000 has been reported in contributions and pledges to the disaster flood relief fund for the six northeastern states. No further contributions are necessary, according to a telegram received by Mrs. J. F. Cox, home service secretary. Red Cross President Ellsworth Bunker said, "This was the speediest and most generous responses from the American people in Red Cross history." Completed surveys showed 34,527 families suffered loss of one kind or another and will be given outright grants by the Red Cross to meet needs if they do not have resources of their own. A collection was taken in Perryton, but the amount will not be known until the coin containers are collected over town.

Second Round of Golf Matches Are Completed

Most second round matches in the fall golf tournament of the Perryton Country Club have been played and some third round contests have been decided. Officials of the club ask that no player pick up his trophy until the presentation ceremonies at the end of the tournament.

In the championship flight, the field has narrowed to four players, defending champion Carroll McClung, Frank Ferguson, Bob Leatherman and O. C. Rogers.

During the week, Ferguson defeated Garland Redfern; Rogers beat Bill Gray; and Leatherman beat Scobey.

In the consolation side of the top flight, Aldon Bell will meet Dan Faries and Charley Pyles meets the winner of Donald Ellis and Bob Turner in the semi-finals.

During the week, Bell beat Ervel Hoots; Faries beat Otis Burk; and Pyles beat Arch Talley.

Second round matches in the other flights include the following:

Ranger B Team Plays Tonight

Coach Joe Ogden will take his Ranger B team to Follett tonight, Thursday, for the opening game of the season. Game time is 8 o'clock under the lights at Panther Field.

Follett, for many years a power in 6-man football, will be playing their first 11-man in a number of years.

Doyle Pendergraft is the coach of the Panthers.

Ogden has been working with his squad for a couple of weeks, but the team has worked very little as a unit.

Red Cross Has Good Clothing

There is a large quantity of good clothing available at the Red Cross Room for those who need it, reports Mrs. J. F. Cox, home service secretary.

There are a lot of coats, good work clothing, and all of it is in good condition, Mrs. Cox said.

The Red Cross chapter needs some more space and will send this clothing to other areas unless those who need it call for it within the near future, Mrs. Cox pointed out.

Two Killed In Car Accident Near Town

Two Perryton men were killed and two others injured last Thursday in the third fatal automobile accident for the Perryton area in recent weeks. Dead are Neal Thompson, 26, and J. W. Sims, 77, both of whom were long time residents of the Perryton area.

Injured are Harry Barlow and Bobby Hall, also of Perryton.

The accident occurred about a mile west of Perryton following a test run of Sims' 1953 Pontiac which had been recently repaired by Thompson. Investigating officers said that the Sim car, with Sims, Thompson and Barlow in it, was traveling west on highway 15, when an attempt to make a U-turn on the highway was stopped when the car was hit broadside by a 1950 Ford driven by Bobby Hall.

Barlow had taken Sims to the garage to pick up his car and was reported to be riding in the back seat.

Barlow suffered a brain concussion, multiple cuts and bruises. Hall suffered a concussion, cuts, and a fracture of the left arm.

Mr. Sims was apparently killed instantly in the impact. Thompson died 25 minutes after arrival at Sanford Hospital.

Both automobiles were a total loss.

In July, an automobile accident took the lives of five persons 17 miles south of Perryton and two weeks ago, a collision at Bryans' Corner 17 miles north of Perryton, killed three persons.

Funeral services for Thompson were held Saturday and services for Sims were held Sunday in Perryton.

AT WRECK SCENE—O. C. Rickard, left, and city police chief Arlie C. Binion, are shown putting out a fire which broke out in the wrecked automobile which took the lives of J. W. Sims and Neal Thompson, both of Perryton, last Thursday. Prompt action with the fire extinguisher averted what could have been a serious blaze. Injured in the wreck were Harry Barlow, a passenger in this car, and Bobby Hall, driver of the other car.

North Plains Fair In Black For First Time In History

Preliminary reports show that the 1955 North Plains Fair wound up in the black, first time since its inception in 1952 that the fair had a "profit".

Fair manager John Mayfield said Wednesday that it appears that the fair will have about $700 to start the new fair year, something never before accomplished.

Last year the fair ended with a deficit of $135.00.

This would indicate a balance of $1,087.69, but additional bills have come in since then which reduces the figure to about $700, Mayfield said.

New King Size Coke Bottles Are Here Today

The familiar Coca-Cola bottle now has a "big brother."

New, king size bottles of the famed soft drink will go on sale today in stores here, J. W. Sammons, manager of the Perryton Coca-Cola Co., revealed yesterday.

"Perryton is one of the first cities in the country to have the new bottle," Sammons said. "This is the first change Coca-Cola has made in its package in 40 years."

In announcing the new-size bottle, Sammons pointed out that the present standard Coca-Cola bottle will continue to be the company's mainstay.

"Our aim in providing the king size bottle," he said, "is simply to make it more convenient for people to buy and serve Coca-Cola. For several years we have been doing extensive research on buying habit relating to soft drinks. Our surveys show the majority of the public prefer the standard-size bottle, since it is the ideal size for individual drinks.

"The surveys also show, however, there is a potential market for other size bottles. The king size, for example, is ideal for refreshment in the home."

School Opens With Increase In Enrollment

The Perryton schools opened the 1955-56 term Monday with an enrollment of 1,087 students, an increase of 53 over the opening day enrollment a year ago.

A number of students have enrolled since Monday and superintendent Gilbert Mize says he is certain the enrollment will reach 1,100 this week.

Enrollment was completed Monday and the entire school began classes Tuesday morning.

High school enrollment also showed a jump, with 249 enrolled as compared with 220 a year ago.

There are 527 students in the elementary school; 311 in junior high, and 249 in high school.

Junior high enrollment is broken down into the following:

Sixth	93
Seventh	107
Eighth	111

Elementary school enrollment is broken down as follows:

First	99
Second	107
Third	127
Fourth	105
Fifth	84

There are 52 teachers on the faculty, including 14 new members of the faculty.

TERRIFIC IMPACT—This picture shows the impact that caved in the side of the 1953 Pontiac in which two Perryton men lost their lives September 1 on highway 15 a mile west of Perryton. Killed were J. W. Sims and Neal Thompson in the car at the right. Injured in the same car was Harry Barlow, while Bobby Hall, high school senior and son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hall, was injured in the car at the left.

New Coca-Cola Bottle Another Step In Long Company History

Perryton this week will help launch a new bottle that may well go round the world eventually.

The 12-oz. king-size Coca-Cola bottle, now going on sale here, is a "big brother" to the present 6½-oz. bottle, which is known from Perryton to Bangkok and back again.

Its fame is such that, during World War II, a German prisoner stepping off the gangplank at an American port spotted a familiar red sign and, turning to an MP, said: "I see you have Coca-Cola here, too."

The soft drink is sold in over 70 countries, according to J. W. Sammons, Manager of the Perryton Coca-Cola Bottling Co. "Just about everywhere," he added, "except behind the Iron Curtain."

But in at least one instance the Curtain was pierced, Mr. Sammons pointed out. That was when General Eisenhower, sent Marshal Zhukov a case of Coca-Cola after the Soviet military leader enjoyed a bottle during the Potsdam Conference.

Mr. Sammons said definitely the "big brother" would not replace the standard-size bottle, designed in 1915 at the recommendation of a bottling official who urged: "We need a Coca-Cola bottle which a person will recognize even if he feels it in the dark. (It) should be so shaped that, even if broken, a person could tell at a glance what it was."

Although about 80 percent of all the Coca-Cola sold is in bottles, the man who invented the drink never intended it to be more than a soda fountain beverage. In 1886 John S. Pemberton, a druggist, prepared a soft drink syrup in his back yard in Atlanta, using a three-legged iron pot heated by a wood fire.

He took a jug of the syrup to Jacob's Pharmacy at the historic Five Points, where soda water was added and the new drink put on sale.

The first year only 25 gallons were sold, bringing in $50. Of this, Pemberton spent $47 on advertising. Most of it consisted of oilcloth signs pinned to drugstore awnings.

When Pemberton died two years later, rights to Coca-Cola were bought by a 37-year-old wholesale drug salesman, Asa Candler. "Back in Candler's day The Coca-Cola Company changed offices several times," Mr. Sammons said. "One time when it moved, a one-horse wagon carried all the firm's equipment and furniture."

Candler was a keen merchandiser. He originated the Coca-Cola poster and calendar, using Lillian Russell's picture on one of them. He was the first to use the slogan, "Delicious and Refreshing," which appeared in 1889. And to get the public acquainted with the new drink, he gave away millions of tickets for free Cokes.

"They tell me in Atlanta," Mr. Sammons said, "that even today someone comes across one of these tickets in an attic. If they send it in, they get a free case of Coca-Cola."

It was 13 years after Pemberton invented Coca-Cola before the drink was bottled. A young Chattanooga lawyer, Ben Thomas, who had come across a locally bottled soft drink in Cuba during the Spanish-American War, hit upon the idea. He and another lawyer, Joseph Whitehead, went to Atlanta and asked Candler if they could bottle Coca-Cola.

Candler, busy with his soda fountain sales, gave them the bottling rights to practically the entire country. This was one of the most amazing contracts in history—Thomas and Whitehead didn't pay a cent. And the man who had given them a letter of introduction to Candler didn't think enough of the product to ask for even a single share for himself.

Mr. Sammons pointed out the early bottling equipment was far different from today's. "Bottles were washed by dropping buckshot in them and whirling it in water. They also used those old equipped with a brush to scour the bottles.

Coca-Cola was the first soft drink company to use coolers. "The early ones were actually wooden barrels, sawed in half," said Mr. Sammons. "The first electric cooler came out in 1933."

Mr. Sammons thinks the secret of Coca-Cola's success is best summed up in the way the trademark is phonetically translated from Chinese. In China, where Coca-Cola is a popular drink, it means: "Make man mouth happy."

Mrs. Buchner Dies Tuesday

Funeral services have been set for today, Thursday at the Spearman Methodist church for Mrs. Gladys Close Buchner, 60, who died in the Perryton Hospital Tuesday following a brief illness.

Mrs. Buchner was a former resident of Spearman and Perryton and had made her home in Follett since 1949.

Rev. Charles Ellzey, pastor of the Follett Methodist church, will conduct the final rites, assisted by Rev. Aubrey Haynes of Spearman. Eastern Star rites will be conducted at the graveside.

Mrs. Buchner is survived by her husband, L. M. Buchner of Follett; two daughters, Mrs. James Sparks of Spearman and Mrs. John Gill of Canyon; two sons, Eugene L. Buchner of Amarillo and Donald R. Buchner of Lubbock; a brother, John Close of Spearman, and nine grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McGarraugh of Denver, Colo. visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McGarraugh and family, last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Tidwell Tidwell and her mother, Mrs. Rosalie McDowell of Cherokee, Okla., spent the Labor Day holiday in Perryton visiting with another daughter, Mrs. Edna McDowell.

Eye Care Is Essential To Good Vision

AUSTIN — If Johnny should come home crying, "Mom, I got something in my eye!"—what would you do?

The sensible thing would be to follow this 3-step procedure recommended by the State Department of Health for just such emergencies:

Lift the upper lid and pull it down over the lower lid. This will allow the tears to wash out the offending speck. Tears are nature's own eye wash.

If this doesn't work, wash the eye with drops of luke warm tap water, using an eye dropper and holding Johnny's head so the water will flow away from the nose, toward the side.

If the speck still doesn't dislodge, bandage the hurt eye lightly to prevent Johnny from rubbing it, and take him to a physician.

"Remember," the Department cautions, "trying to rub the speck loose can cause infection that may scar the cornea, resulting in partial blindness."

Ever heard someone remark their eyes were "simply worn out"? That's sheer nonsense, says the Department. It's impossible to wear out healthy eyes by overuse.

Then why do your eyes feel strained? It could be because you need glasses or are wearing improperly fitted glasses. Or it could be that you are failing to follow the rules of good lighting and proper eye use. Or the strain could be due to an eye or body disease.

Under correct conditions you should be able to use your eyes as much as you want to without strain. Healthy eyes give the best and most comfortable service when you sit erect with your work arranged at 45 to 70 degrees from the horizontal and from 14 to 16 inches from your eyes. Tilt-top desks or book easels are best for children.

Reading in bed is perfectly all right, providing you stick to the rules of good lighting and good posture. But it's never wise to read in sunlight, even if your book or magazine is shaded.

What about television? It doesn't harm the eyes if the picture is clear and steady, and if there is enough light in the room to prevent too great a contrast with the screen. Avoid sitting off-center or too close to the set.

It's smart, the Department says, to protect your eyes from long exposure to bright sunlight. But don't make the mistake of wearing sun glasses just to look Hollywoodish. Indiscriminate wearing of colored glasses reduces your tolerance to light.

"Man," the health agency concludes, "is normally a far sighted creature. So from time to time as you read or do close work, give your eyes a break by closing them for a moment or by looking into the distance."

Mr and Mrs. Mahlon Neal and nieces, Janice and Susie Clark, all of Tulsa, Okla., were guests over the weekend in the Paul A. Harbaugh south of Perryton. The Harbaughs are parents of Mrs. Neal and grandparents of Janice and Susie.

Cigarettes are up a penny a pack and gasoline also took the 1¢ tax increase Tuesday. However, some cigarette machines still hand out a package for a quarter. Most grocery stores are now selling regular non-fliter smokes for 23¢ and the take for the super-filter, almost non-cancer, almost approved by AMA and almost worth smoking is 26¢. Many drug stores are staying at 25¢ for the regulars and 30¢ for the filter kings.

Clyde Fry, new pastor of the Waka Church of the Brethren, has accepted his new church duties with good grace, but he's a bit concerned about the non-paying title of "Secretary of the Waka Chamber of Commerce." Ownerless Bridge

LYONS, Mich. (AP)—This village wants to repair a 74-year-old bridge, but can't find out who owns it. To determine ownership, Village President James Kistler started friendly lawsuits against the village, county and state.

School buses have been ordered to stop on one side of the weakened structure, let the children walk across the bridge and pick them up on the other side.

The bridge was built in 1881, repaired in 1901 and again in 1930. But a search of records has failed to show who built the bridge and who's going to pay for repairs.

'House of Bamboo' "Set In Orient

A movie with a post-war Japanese setting is "House of Bamboo" which comes Sunday and Monday to the Ellis Theatre. Starred in the production are Robert Ryan, Robert Stack, Shirley Yamaguchi and Cameron Mitchell.

In the teeming life of Tokyo the story of "House of Bamboo" is unfolded, giving it a background never before used for a melodrama. Harry Kleiner's script deals with a band of American gangsters—the offscouring of military prisons—who remain over in Tokyo and start criminal operations under the leadership of Robert Ryan. Robert Stack, acting as a secret agent of the American authorities, poses as a discharged army prisoner and worms his way into membership in the gang. With the aid of Shirley Yamaguchi, as a music hall girl whose American husband was killed serving as an accomplice of the gang, he sets out to trap the mobsters. Tension, swift action and gripping emotion mount as the melodrama progresses to its gripping climax.

Richardson Farm Home Identified In Mystery Series

The V. W. Richardson farm home, located 12½ miles southwest of Perryton, was identified as last week's Herald Mystery Farm of the Air. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barnard and family live on the place. The farm consists of 5 sections of farm land and grass and was bought by J. W. Richardson in 1906. It was railroad land when Mr. Richardson bought it.

Bill Richardson bought the farm from his father in 1947.

Wheat and grain sorghums are the principal crops and the best crop year was 1944 when the farm made a 35 bushel average on wheat. Poorest year was 1950 when the greenbugs ate the crop.

Mrs. Richardson is the former Norma Carroll, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Carroll.

Richardson went to school at Ochiltree and graduated from Perryton high school in 1931. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge, Khiva Temple, Farm Bureau and Methodist church. Since his high school days he has been a baseball player, and is currently the manager of the Perryton Blue Sox.

The house was built in 1939 and has five rooms and basement. It is of stucco construction.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson have been Herald subscribers since 1936.

Crockett Bear Delayed

OAKVILLE, Ill.—Davy Crockett didn't kill a bear when he was three, according to one of his nearest living relatives. The first killing by the famed Indian fighter and frontiersman didn't occur until he was eight.

Contrary to song and story, that is the word passed on by Mrs. Margie Ree Cohn.

According to family legends, Mrs. Cohn said Davy Crockett was responsible for obtaining meat for the family when he was eight because his father and older brothers were too busy with the crops.

To do this job, Davy was given one bullet a day. If he shot and missed he still had to get the meat. In a short time, he rarely missed.

Officials of the 1938 Texas Centennial compiled a genealogy tracing Mrs. Cohn's relationship to Crockett.

Crockett and his first wife had three children, two boys and one girl. The daughter, Margaret Finley Crockett, married Wiley Flowers. They were the parents of Mrs. Cohn's grandfather, David Flowers.

David's son, Thomas, was Mrs. Cohn's father, making Davy Crockett her great-great grandfather.

MARILYN MONROE AND TOM EWELL co-star in "The Seven Year Itch", the 3-year Broadway sensation, that opens at the Ellis Theatre Tuesday, September 13. Critics say its the hilarious yarn of a guy, a gal and a yen.

Luscious Marilyn Monroe Is Seen In 'Seven Year Itch'

"Seven Year Itch," a well publicized comedy with Marilyn Monroe, comes to the Ellis Theatre on Tuesday-Thursday. Tom Ewell, who played in the successful stage production of the same name, has his same role again.

As the temporary summer-bachelor whose wife and family have gone to the seashore, Ewell is a joy to behold as he goes about his elaborate daydreams and extravagant contemplations of infidelity. Later on he discovers it's common for husbands in the seventh year of marriage to itch a break in the pattern of conformity, only to learn it's even more common for the wistful urge never to be fulfilled.

As The Girl Upstairs who supplies the basic incentive for Ewell's imaginary high-living when she accidentally drops a pot on his head from above, then gets more deeply involved in the man's fancies, Marilyn Monroe is the vision of a summer romance. His hearty endorsement of the good neighbor policy is understandable.

Though Ewell and Miss Monroe dominate the proceedings, and do so delightfully, there are choice spots for a number of other performers. Evelyn Keyes makes a charming impression as the wife Ewell's conscience is constantly reminded of; Sonny Tufts pops up in Ewell's jealousy fantasies as a guy on the make for his wife; Robert Strauss is the snoopy janitor on the premises; Oscar Homolka is a sympathetic psychiatrist who clarifies the Ewell urge; Marguerite Chapman is Ewell's secretary; Victor Moore a plumber who has one sock scene with Miss Monroe; and the beauteous Roxanne another victom of Ewell's over-active imagination.

Elevators For Bridge

ST. IGNACE, Mich. (AP)—The 100 million dollar Straits of Mackinac Bridge, which will link Michigan's two peninsulas, will have two elevators. Each will travel the equivalent, up and down, of an elevator in a 47-story office building. The elevators, to carry service crews, will be in the bridge's two main suspension towers, which will rise 552 feet above the water.

Chairborne Education

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Although she has been confined to a wheel chair since 1940 by polio, Iris Mabel Kiem of Miami, Fla., hasn't let it interfere with her education. This year she received her master of public health degree from the University of Pittsburgh. In 1948 she received her bachelor's degree from the University of Miami and four years later was awarded a master of science degree by the University of North Carolina.

QUEEN OF WOOL WORLD—Reigning over the dominion of little lambs and the vast industry of fleece is Jan Turbeville, of Lockhart, Texas. The 22-year-old University of Texas senior was crowned "Miss Wool of 1955" at the Wool Fiesta Week in San Angelo, Texas. Jan will model a $4,000 wool wardrobe in the nation's fashion centers during the next 12 months. (AP) Wirephoto)

Machine Aids Gridiron Refs

Luke Sloane operates his yard measuring machine at a high school football game. The machine rolls along the sidelines keeping track of the downs and yards needed for a first down.

(NEA) Newsfeatures

BURBANK, Calif.—A stranged out into the bright lights at a high school game and began winking downs and yardage at the stands.

It was Luke Sloane's yardage measuring machine getting an official tryout—after 25 years of planning and eight years of engineering. It worked, too.

"It was quite accurate," an official said.

"My quarterback kept his eye on it," a coach said. "It really helped him."

"I knew it would work," said Sloane, a Burbank salesman, "because it's fool-proof."

The machine measures yards to go and keeps track of the down. The figures, in light reflecting tape, flicker past open windows on the side of the flat, black device as it rolls along the sideline.

"It's accuate to within a fraction of an inch," Sloane said. He tested a prototype at professional games in Los Angeles in 1946, decided on some changes, and re-worked it.

When he decided it was perfected, he arranged to try it out at the Burrough-Arcadia game.

Sloane says his Yard-O-Meter can replace both the referee's measured strides and the 10 yard chain traditionally used as the arbiter of scrimmage inchage. He says it showed up frequent half-yard errors in the Burroughs game.

A crucial yard inspired Sloane to invent the machine.

A referee at a state high school championship game in Oklahoma in 1929 made an obvious mistake in pacing off a penalty, and 2,000 fans promptly rioted. The rioters were right and the official was wrong, Sloane said. So he went home and drew up a set of plans.

His yardage device, mounted on wheels, is equipped with a telescope and two sighting mirrors. Gears inside, run by the wheels, do the measuring.

"The telescope has a cross-hair you line up with the nose of the ball," Sloane explains. "The mirrors give you a sight along the sidelines to the right and left so you can be sure that the 'scope is pointing at the ball at exactly 90 degrees."

The light-reflecting numbers subtract the yards gained from the yards to go at the beginning of a series of downs. If the ball goes backward, so does the machine—adding ground lost to the total to go.

Sloane, who is 58, got help in producing his 1954 models from two partners—his brother, Ted, a 1927 Navy star, and Russell D. Cook, who engineered it.

"This one weighs about 30 pounds," Sloane said. "The next one will weigh about 18 pounds—so it'll be light enough for the operator to get out of the way quick if it looks like he's going to get bowled over."

Bluejacket Added To Undesirable Wheat Varieties

COLLEGE STATION— Because of its inferior milling or baking qualities, bluejacket wheat has been added by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to the previously announced list of undesirable wheat varieties. This brings to 24 the varieties designated for a 20-cents-per-bushel discount in 1956 wheat price support rates.

The USDA announcement said the variety was added to the list as a result of strong recommendations from state agricultural leaders. It is in the Hard Red Winter Class and is grown in Texas and 12 other states.

The 20-cent-per bushel discount is designed to discourage the planting of the 24 varieties, and thus lessen the possibility of U. S. wheat of inferior quality finding its way into domestic and export channels. The 24 varieties listed as undesirable accounted for an estimated 45 million bushels of 1954 production or about 5 per cent of the 1954 acreage.

USDA officials said that because of the nearness of the planting season for winter wheat, no further additions will be made to the list.

Seed Laws Aimed At Protecting All Farmers

COLLEGE STATION—Read the label or tag which is attached to every sack of planting seed before making a purchase, advises Associate Extension Agronomist Lee C. Coffey. The information carried on the tag is for the protection of the buyer and must list the content of noxious weeds if any.

With the small grain planting season at hand, the specialist offers tips which may aid in keeping your arm free of weed enemies. Among the weeds often found in small grains are cheat or chess, jointed goatgrass, wild morning glory, field bindweed, curled dock, Johnson grass and wild oats.

Once a field is infested with primary noxious weeds, the job of cleaning up may require years and considerable expense. Crop damage from lower yields and perhaps dockage because of the presence of some weed or from soil mad unproductive through the use of chemicals for control.

Coffey says much of the trouble can be avoided by planting certified seed. They are not only pure as to variety but must be free of noxious weeds. Under Texas laws every sack of planting seed sold, whether certified or not, must be tagged or labeled. The tag carries information which should be read. The State Department of Agriculture administers the seed laws of the state and make a diligent effort to protect the buyers of seeds by testing and inspection programs.

Planting seed containing nutgrass or field bindweed cannot be sold in Texas. Ne seed containing more dodder, curled dock, Canada thistle or John per pound of seed. Seed ing more than 100 John seeds per pound can marked—pasture mixtu

Cadillac

No Doubt In His Mind This Time!

This happy gentleman has just taken title to his seventh motor car.

And while he would probably have difficulty recalling all the different makes and models he has purchased through the years, there is one thing he knows with absolute certainty: He never felt like this before when he took the keys and made for the open road.

For this is his first Cadillac! And what a glorious feeling it is to know he has chosen the "car of cars"!

Gone are the doubt . . . and the worry . . . and the wonder. This time he knows he's right!

And how quickly the evidence will assemble in support of his sentiment!

First of all, there will be the eloquent testimony of the car itself—its magnificent performance . . . its marvelous comfort and ride . . . and its incredible ease of steering and handling.

And then, as he travels the boulevard, there will be those quick glances of approval from his fellow motorists to tell him that he is not alone in his judgment.

And, finally, there will be that assembly of family and friends that awaits him at journey's end . . . offering final confirmation of the wisdom of his choice.

* * *

Of course, the man who takes title to a new Cadillac today enjoys the double satisfaction of having made the wisest possible choice at the wisest possible time.

Because of Cadillac's increased year-end production, for instance, he will find that he can have surprisingly prompt delivery on his new Cadillac.

And, as if this were not sufficient in itself, we are also in a position—because of our low inventory of used cars—to offer him a most generous allowance on his present automobile.

Why not come in soon—and spend an hour at the wheel—and let us acquaint you more fully with this unique opportunity?

A Painless Way To Build

Welcome news indeed was the announcement by the county commissioners court last week that the bonds for the proposed Wolf Creek Dam rebuilding will be paid out of current funds at the present tax rate.

The county set the tax rate at $1.25 per $100 valuation and this includes the 30 cent farm-to-market road levy. The bonds will be retired from a sinking fund set up from the funds brought in on this tax rate.

This is all the more remarkable when you consider that only last year the county reduced the tax rate by 30 cents on the $100 valuation.

We know that you never get something for nothing, but this method of financing the rebuilding of the wolf Creek Dam is pretty close to it. At any rate, this will be the most painless way, as far as taxes go, that we know of.

And this action of the county pretty well deflates the argument of the opponents of the dam, who said, "we can't afford the tax increase. "It turns out there won't be any tax increase, and this is welcome news, indeed.

Another Advantage To Education

In this day and time a high school education is a necessity for a youngster to make a living worth more than a bare existence, but there are still those who quit school, not because they have to do so, but because they want to enjoy making money.

There is a sound economic reason for continuing through school. Measured in cold cash, it means about $20,000.

The U. S. Department of Labor figures that the cash value of finishing the last year of high school, measured over a period of 40 working years, resulting in earnings of about $20,000 more than those who failed to finish.

One of the findings of the 1950 census was that men over 24 who had completed eight years of grade school averaged $2,533 per year. Those who graduated from high school, however, averaged $3,285 a year, an increase of over $700.

The same study showed that those who had four years of college received an average annual wage of $4,407, proving perhaps that education pays in more ways than one.

In every town and city there are successful men who did not go to college, perhaps did not finish high school or even grade school. But these exceptions are few and far between and even these men are the strongest boosters for education in their community.

The youngster who has quit school should make every effort to return this fall. Measured in dollars and cents, the argument for a high school diploma is pretty convincing.

From the SIDELINE

with HAROLD HUDSON

This department arrived home Saturday, refreshed and joyable time, the weather was cation, and we were surprised to learn that things went on pretty much the same without us. But we did have a very enjoyable time, the wether was good, the sights were worth seeing, and the expenses were not too high.

We spent several days around Colorado Springs, where we visited one day at the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo, certainly a surprise to us. This zoo, one of the largest in the nation, is exceptionally neat and the facilities are superb. Sons Jimmy and Johnny had to be hauled away by force, long after mama and papa were tired. We think the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce should advertise this tourist attraction a bit more—or perhaps they do and we havent' noticed it.

Other tourist attractions were much the same as we remembered them from before the war. We visited the Garden of the Gods, the Cave of the Winds, Seven Falls, the Cliff Dwellers, Cripple Creek, Ghost Town, and the dog races. The latter spot is where we learned we are no dog handicapper. We would have liked to bet on the rabbit, but they have some sort of silly rule against that.

One thing we noticed on this trip was that the speed limit of 60 miles per hour is definitely observed in Colorado. Between Colorado Springs and Pueblo, we noticed five cars getting a ticket from state patrolmen, and while we drove an even 60, no one passed us. And we seemed to arrive at our destination at about the same time. If we had driven 60 and everyone on the road had passed us, like they do in the Texas Panhandle, there would have been a natural tendency to speed up.

After spending a while in the mountains, we visited in Amarillo with the H. I. Hudsons, and loafed. All of us went to visit the Panhandle Plains Museum in Canyon and we can certainly recommend this as an interesting trip. Actually, the exhibits contained in this museum will stack up with almost any museum in quality, and the things they have on display are of special interest to those of us in the Panhandle. We haven't been in the museum in several years and we were amazed at the way it has grown.

We can hardly believe that the football season opens this week. But Coach Pete Peterson and his assistants have been putting the squad through their paces for two weeks now and the players have no trouble in realizing that the season is here. Development of a quarterback and reserve strength seems to be the main problem of the Rangers this year. They are not lacking in the most essential ingredients, however, that of desire. If this team plays as hard as the 1953 and 1954 teams did, we will be satisfied with them, win or lose.

It does look like it would have rained while we were gone, but all that happened was a dirt storm and .11 inch of rain, so we hear. We could certainly tell the difference in the looks of the feed crop in the week of hot weather that transpired while we were away. One day last week we took a trip from Amarillo to Tulia, Dimmitt, and on to Farwell, through the heart of some of the finest irrigated land on the South Plains. As far as the eye could see were fields of milo, with long, fat heads. Irrigation wells seemed to be on every quarter section and all were pumping.

In Farwell, we visited briefly with fellow editor Sonny Graham of the State Line Tribune and he took us around the town to see the new homes. Farwell has less than 1,000 people in it, but we went through one section of town where there must have been 25 new homes, all new, in what would appear to be in the $25,000 to $50,000 class. The folks in the irrigated country are feeling no pain—it appears about like it did here in 1947 and 1948 when this country was making big wheat crops.

They are counting on a bale of cotton or more per acre, and while we don't know a thing about cotton, Sonny explained that this was about like a 30 or 40 bushel wheat crop. And that we understand. The maize is expected to run from 70 to 100 bushels per acre, and it seems that everyone who farms has some of it. Business is good in the irrigated country and we were certainly impressed by the tremendous difference a bit of water can make.

Well, give us time up here. It may be that irrigation will become the common thing up here, although we doubt if the wells ever reach the density they do in the shallow water district. We remember the remark made by a local wheat farmer a year or so ago, who said, "It looks to me like we have a choice—of sitting on dry land farming and starving to death; or putting down an irrigation well and working ourself to death. Personally, I'm not going to trade my tractor for a lantern."

A few more dry years and maybe even this hardy individual will go shopping for a lantern.

For Gorilla Feet

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — The zoo is doing something about its gorillas' aching feet, says Dr. Charles S. Schroeder, director. A resilient rubber floor has been installed in the cage on top of cement which, Schroeder says, was hard on the flat feet of the shoeless gorillas.

Aid to RH Babies

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—A physicist, whose six-year-old son was an Rh-negative baby, has developed a device that may give other infants born with the wrong type of blood a greater chance for life.

His development is a blood-warming device to be used in the type of exchange transfusion that saved his son from possible death. It was the result of an over-the-fence conversation between the physicist, Dr. Volney C. Wilson of the General Electric Co., and pediatrician, Dr. Stewart C. Wagoner.

Dr. Wagoner told Wilson it should be possible to decrease the death rate of Rh-negative babies if some suitable way could be found to warm the blood during transfusion. About 10 per cent of such infants do not live.

The device consists of a stainless steel water container, a single four-way stopcock and heating element and controls to raise the water temperature to the proper level.

The device lessens the shock to infants during such transfusions.

Wolf Creek Philosopher

Autumn Plans Leave Him Cold

(Ed. note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher has gotten an inkling that fall is on the way, but while the season's change, he doesn't.)

Dear editar:

Now that September has arrived and you can sense a promise of more invigorating weather on the way, I know the natural tendency of man is to fill his lungs with air, beat his chest, and make up his mind to work harder.

It never has affected me that way.

The reason I didn't work any harder during the Summer wasn't because I was laying off to make up for it in the Fall. I was taking it easy because that's the way I operate the year around.

Understand, I'm in favor of people working harder when they feel like it, as long as they aren't obnoxious about it, but my observation has been that the harder a man works the more work there is that gets piled up in front of him, and he winds up trying to make every year more exhausting than the last one, and it can't be done.

Most people live in the hope of a brighter tomorrow, but my notion is that somebody ought to use up today too, and out here on this farm while I'm in favor of a brighter tomorrow, I'm also interested in a comfortable now.

Looking back over the past summer, I can call to mind many things I didn't get done, and so can nearly everybody else, but the difference between me and them is that I don't spend any time regretting it. Also, I probably don't have as many things left undone as others, on account of I never planned to do them anyway.

A lot of people want to roll up their sleeves in the Fall and get to work, but I've found that the Fall is the time to start thinking about rolling down your sleeves and getting adjusted to cooler weather which can't be more than a month or so away.

There are a lot of things I don't know, but I do know when to roll my sleeves up or down.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

The following is the 25th in a series of messages by ministers of this trade area. This week's message was written by Clyde Fry, Pastor of the Waka Church of the Brethren.

KNOWLEDGE THAT CAN MAKE US LIVE

Once again the doors of our schools have opened and the words, "Back to School," can be heard on every corner. Nowhere on the face of the eart hhave those words been made more common than in our country. Our people have been givn the opportunity to know and to understand the great storehouse of accumulated knowledge which have been passed down to us through the centuries. Human thought has progressed from the ignorance of the Stone Age to the fascinating ability of the Atomic Age. And yet, though the progress which we have attained in our physical understanding is obvious, our spiritual and social character remains in the taint of human unrest and struggle of centuries past.

The call of our day is for men, not only of knowledge, but also of intelligence whose underlying principles and ideals rest in a dynamic relationship with God. We need men who are willing to dedicate themselves to the most significant way of life which humanity has ever seen—the way of Jesus Christ.

Our schools present us with experience which train our minds and tune our hearts to a democratic way of life. And in our homes and in our churches we must harmonize the material progress of our day with a spiritual outlook on life. Without a spiritual outlook and a dynamic relationship with God, man does not have the ability to handle himself regardless of how much knowledge he has. An intelligent man is a spiritual man and an intelligent man is a man who can apply knowledge effectively to the god of man-kind.

God has given us minds which are capable of preceiving and understanding the great physical and spiritual truths of the universe. But let us remember that the ingredients for ruman fellowship come not from the cold intelect of the mind, but rather from hearts which are brightened and warmed by the power of God working in and through life.

Teach Youngsters to Handle Their Guns Before Hunting

By DION HENDERSON

(AP) Newsfeatures

This is an ideal time of year for taking up the subject of hunting weapons with the young marksman. If you don't help him to learn, his ownership of a weapon could be sad.

Tell him how to shoot what he wants to, and how to avoid shooting what he doesn't. Including himself.

About one-fourth of those wounded by gunshot wound themselves.

Guns or rifles left loaded in a car, closet or a gunrack could prove fatal. The old gun fan, and the young one who plans to age unscathed, will follow the rule that no loaded guns ever are put down for any reason. However, he should act as though they all are loaded by checking them on picking them up.

For some reason, the bow and arrow seems to bear some sort of enchantment against injuring human beings. At least such accidents are exceedingly rare. The reason may be that you have to know quite a lot about the weapon before you can make it work.

The young man who learns about his rifle by taking it apart and putting it together again would be similarly fortified with knowledge and respect, but if dad isn't a home workshop man such a course is impractical.

Next best step may be a good book on the machanics of fire arms, or a course in target shooting and rifle handling as offered by some schools, sportsmen's clubs and any National Rifle Assn. chapter.

Practice is the thing, and the boy whose first gun is a BB gun

—air rifle, CO2 pistol etc.—may be the lucky one. With little noise or concussion, and with safe indoor target devices readily available, the basement can become a practice range.

However, a note of warning! You can get more shooting experience in a week at this sort of thing than in any many a day of hunting. And if dad plans any competitive shooting or demonstrations of skill, he'd best get in some practice himself.

Applications for Patrolmen Are Sought by State

AUSTIN—Applications are being received by the Texas Department of Public Safety for appointment as Driver's License Examiner, according to a statement released today by Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the State Safety Department.

Young men between the ages of 21 and 35, inclusive, may apply between now and September 20th, closing date for receiving applications, according to Garrison.

In addition, applicants must meet the following qualifications: be not less than 5 feet 8 inches in height; weigh not less than two nor more than three pounds per inch of height; have a high school education; be of good moral character and subject to rigid character and physical examinations. Also, they must have resided in Texas for at least a year.

Garrison said that examinations will be given late in September to fill 23 existing vacancies in the Driver's License Division caused by resignations, promotions and transfers.

Student examiners are paid $275 monthly during the first month of training. They are then raised to $306 per month for the initial three months of their first field assignments. After that they receive the maximum pay scale of $315.

Additional benefits are: two weeks paid vacation annually; and both retirement and social security provisions.

Application blanks may be secured at any State Driver's License District Office or by writing directly to A. F. Temple, Chief, Driver's License Division, Texas Department of Public Safety, Austin.

Poor Milling Varieties Of Wheat Named

COLLEGE STATION—A list of 23 wheat varieties designated as undesirable because of inferior milling or baking qualities has been released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Because of their undesirability, a discount of 20 cents a bushel in 1956 price-support rates will be made to discourage the planting of the listed varieties.

The varieties were designated by the Agricultural Research Service after consultation with state agricultural experiment station personnel, agronomists, cereal chemists and other qualified technicians on state and Federal staffs.

The price-support regulations for 1956 will provide for producer certification, that is, the identification of the variety of wheat going under price support will be the responsibility of the producer. It will be based on his knowledge of varieties seeded and harvested. No protein content premium will apply to any of the undesirable varieties.

The 23 varieties listed accounted for only 31 million bushels of the 1954 production and 3.7 per cent of the '54 wheat acreage. The varieties shown on the list included seven which are planted in Texas. All are hard red winter wheats and are Red Chief, Red Jacket, Kanking, Chiefkan, Early Blackhull, New Chief and Yogo.

USDA officials state that this change in the price-support program for wheat is designed to encourage the production of more desirable varieties and lessen the possibility of U. S. wheat of inferior quality finding its way into domestic and export channels. Strong backing, say the officials, has come from crop improvement associations.

Hybrid Grain Sorghum Seed Is Available

COLLEGE STATION — Hybrid grain sorghums are here and seed in limited quantities will be available for planting next year. The expected 20 to 40 per cent increase in yields from the hybrids plus grain sorghums' ability to out-produce corn in dry years is apt to push the grain sorghum belt eastward from the Great Plains.

U. S. Department of Agriculture experts credit experiment stations in Texas, Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma with doing most of the research work which has resulted in the new hybrids. They received assistance from scientists of the Department's Agricultural Research Service, notably J. C. Stephens working with Texas personnel at the Chillicothe substation, and Dr. John H. Martin, the Department's long time leader ingrain sorghum research.

The crop has been gaining in popularity for feed following small grains in the South. During the past decade the harvested acreage has averaged near 7.2 million acres annually. Last year approximately 10.8 million acres were harvested and the 1955 acreage is estimated at 13.2 million acres with a probable yield of 266 million bushels.

Grain sorghums are a major crop in Texas, Kansas, Nebraska Oklahoma and Colorado and considerable acreage in California, New Mexico and South Dakota is devoted to the crop.

The grain is used in mixed feeds, especially for poultry and more recently in the production of such food items as starches, dextrose.

First Caterpillar

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—White-haired Henry Wacker every year takes out a battered bundle of yellow cloth and gives an airing to a famous old parachute. It's the chute in which Wacker jumped for his life from a burning blimp in July, 1919, and thus became Caterpillar No. 1—first of the club of fliers who have parachuted to safety from disabled aircraft.

Wacker, an aviation mechanic for the Goodyear Tire & Rubber co., was aboard the firm's blimp "Winkfoot Express" over Chicago when it burst into flames. He was the first to jump with his crude, British-made chute, and pilot Jack Boettner followed.

It was the only leap for Wacker, now retired. "I gave the parachute an airing out of gratitude every year," he says. "It's half scorched from the flames that enveloped the bag that day."

Budget Furs Take to the Campus

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Something new has been added to the U. S. campus scene.

It is the college fur coat, scheduled to show up in even greater numbers this fall, as manufacturers concentrate on new young styles in furs with budget price tags.

There's a wide variety of pelts and styles available to the college girl this year, at prices ranging from about $125 to $500. Included are such furs as mouton, muskrat, mole, sheared raccoon, dyed squirrel, French rabbit.

Processes and styling have been so much improved that even the inexpensive mouton now is so supple and lightweight that it could pass for beaver at 50 paces.

The college furs are shown in all lengths, from boleros to full-length greatcoats. New styling details include low-placed back belts, low pockets, hip cuffs or tabs, a slimmer silhouette, accent on hip-hugging jackets, many big collars and many versions of the A line.

Little furs carry big importance this season. There are lots of shorter stoles and cape stoles.

A note strictly new this season as shown by the Associated Fur Manufacturers, is the campus fashion of fur cardigans or vests dyed to match a dress or skirt. Newest colors as charcoal gray, caramel and rosy beige and high shades such as burgundy, cardinal red, bottle green.

FOLLOW THESE EASY STEPS TO BETTER LIGHT FOR HOME STUDY

Good study lighting reduces eyestrain and fatigue ... aids concentration ... helps make homework easier. Here are five easy steps to better study lighting:

1. Select a table lamp tall enough to light entire work area. Lower edge of shade should be 15" from desk top.
2. Shade should be 16" in diameter and should be light in color, but not too transparent.
3. Use a 150-watt bulb with a diffusing bowl to soften the light. (If lamp has no diffusing bowl, use a 150-watt white indirect bulb which has its own built-in diffusor.)
4. Place lamp 15 inches to left of work center and 12 inches from front of desk.
5. Cover desk with a large pastel blotter to absorb indirect glare — and place desk against a light-colored wall to reflect more light on the work.

See your lighting equipment dealer or come by our office for the lamps and right-sized bulbs you need for better light for home study.

New Peach Types

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich. (AP) — Sunhaven and Richaven—two new varieties of peaches developed by Stanley Johnston at the South Haven Agricultural Experiment Station—were introduced this year. Both originated from crossing the Redhaven and SH-50.

Both varieties are bright red and gold, averaging 2¼ to 2½ inches in diameter. The Sunhaven ripens 10 days earlier than the Redhaven, currently the first Michigan peach of commercial importance.

Johnston says the Sunhaven tends to be clingy until it is fully ripened and is intended only for fresh market channels. The Richaven is a dual purpose peach, rated excellent in commercial canning tests. A tough, thick skin protects it well in shipping.

Trees are large, vigorous and self-fertile. Some of them weathered a freeze of November, 1950, which killed off about half southwest Michigan's peach trees.

Highest Gas Prices

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP) — The man in charge of a Montana Legislature-ordered investigation of gasoline prices said his preliminary studies show that gasoline prices in Montana are the nation's highest, exclusive of taxes. He said Missoula's gas prices, exclusive of taxes, are the highest of any city in the United States.

John Vance, counsel for the Montana Trade Commission, said, "Maybe there is a satisfactory explanation. That's what we are trying to find out." The Legislature appropriated $20,000 for the investigation.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ellis vacationed in Colorado last week end.

Birds Come Back

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Like the swallows at Capistrano, but with less romance, the sooty terns always come back to Bush Key.

An estimated 71,000 of the ugly, black and white sea birds swarm down on the scrubby little island at the western end of the Florida Keys and raise families. With them come a sprinkling of Noddy Roseate terns to what is believed their northernmost nesting grounds.

Bird men believe the sooties stay in the air almost continously during the six months they are gone from Bush Key.

Joseph C. Moor, bird biologist from the federal government who counts the terns each year, is often attacked by the quarellsome birds as he goes about his work. One tern, he said, nests in the same spot year after year and for the last three years has pecked him as he came near to take the census.

Ochiltree Soil CONSERVATION District News

Carson Altmiller, cooperator of the Ochiltree Soil Conservation District, has recently completed leveling of some 80 acres of land on his farm which is about 11 miles east of Perryton.

A topographic map was made of the land by the assistance of local Soil Conservation Service personnel prior to leveling to better determine the general lay of the land so as to facilitate maximum leveling benefits at a minimum cost to Altmiller.

The land will be watered in very slightly graded borders to make for more efficient distribution of irrigation water.

Altmiller plans to install sufficient underground concrete pipe to permit irrigation of the 80 acres directly from the pipe into each border and thus eliminate the necessity of an open ditch irrigation design where large quantities of valuable irrigation water is lost due to evaporation and below ground seepage.

H. C. Brillhart, Jr., whose farm is five miles east of Perryton, has contacted the local SCS for assistance on location of an irrigation well.

Brillhart's plans are to irrigate some 130 acres which will be devoted to Sudan grass and other forage crops to effectively carry out a mother cow livestock operation which he thinks will pay larger dividends than the commonly recognized cash crop method of farming.

There seems to be a great deal of interest throughout the district in diversified farming since several cooperators have herds of either cattle or sheep and others have purchased small herds or plan to do so in the future.

This is particularly true with farmers who have sufficient water for irrigation of forage crops in sufficient quantities to make livestock operations profitable.

Generally speaking, farms on which a diversified system is in operation are not only more profitable to the operator on the dollars and cents basis, but also have a marked tendency to the encouragement of proper land use in treating it in accordance with its needs for protection and improvement.

Land resources, when properly treated, as mentioned above, will not only make living more pleasant for the present operator but will also make it more pleasant for operators who use it ten or twenty years form now.

The board of supervisors held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, Sept. 1, at 8 p. m.

Present were Matrin McCartor and Harlan Hawk, members; Herman Hargrove, secretary-treasurer; Ross Tucker and Marvin J. Whitmire, local representatives of the SCS.

Normal district business was transacted and the meeting was adjourned at 11 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Ellis, Roxy and Patti of Dallas are visiting in the Carl Ellis home. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will vacation in Colorado the latter part of the week. Roxy and Patti will visit with their grandparents while their parents are away.

A Second Look Is Suggested For Rangelands

COLLEGE STATION—A heavy growth of weeds is nature's way of conserving rangeland soil. By filling in bare areas caused by reduced grass cover brought on by the extended drouth, the weeds are the first plants to show up after rains, says Garlyn O. Hoffman, extension range specialist.

Generally, he explains, weeds do more harm than good. They do provide grazing when young and tender but livestock prefer good grass. Many of the weeds are poisonous to livestock and can cause death. Weeds reduce grass production because of their early growth and use of vital moisture; by creating a dense shade and occupying soil space needed by desirable plants.

Hoffman suggests either controlling range weeds with chemicals if there is plenty of soil moisture or susceptible crops are not endangered or by using a mower or shredder for cutting the weeds. He recommends cutting the weeds at a height of from 10 to 12 inches in order not to disturb the grass.

The specialist says there is lots of pros and cons about pricklypear. Some want to keep it while others are using control practices. Hoffman observes that anyway you take it, good perennial grasses are the more desirable plants. He adds that the pears do provide some protection to grass plants and permits them to make a seed crop.

In discussing trees on the range, Hoffman points out that trees require about four barrels of water to produce a pound of dry matter while grasses do the same job on a single barrel of water. Fewer trees on the range mean more grass and less hay to buy and the increase will take care of control costs.

Soil on slopes, he says can be given some protection by piling cleared brush and trees. This aids in controlling erosion and top soil and grass seeds held makes a good seed nursery. The young plants are protected from grazing animals and can produce seed.

The local county agent can give hints and information on other items which should be included in the second look, says Hoffman. Give him a call.

Medical Science Hopes To Cure Heart Disease

AUSTIN—There is hope on the horizon for the thousands of Texans who are suffering from heart disease, says Dr. Henry A. Holle, Commissioner of Health. Such tremendous advances have been made by medical science that some forms of heart disease, once incurable, can now be effectively remedied. Eventually a way will be found to prevent some forms of heart disease.

Heart disease is the leading cause of death in Texas. Last year 20,211 Texans died of diseases of the heart, 31 per cent of all deaths. There are 21 known types of heart trouble, but the three major types are rheumatic heart disease, high blood pressure and coronary heart disease.

Rheumatic heart disease is the damage done to the heart valves by rheumatic fever. Rheumatic fever is a disease of children and young adults, and often follows a "strep throat" or some other streptococcus infection. Medical science has given us new and better ways of treating these infections. As a result fewer hearts are being damaged and fewer persons are dying from rheumatic fever. With modern medicine, doctors can, if given a chance, prevent rheumatic fever by curing strep infections in the early stages.

Doctors do not know all the causes of high blood pressure, or hypertension as it is sometimes called. Sometimes it is caused by kidney disease, and sometimes by hardening of the arteries, nervousness, an overactive thyroid gland, or excessive weight. If a person with high blood pressure follows his doctor's advice, he may live happily and busily to old age. To hold down his blood pressure he must watch his weight, not work too hard or play too hard, and follow closely any special instructions of his physician, as to diet and other matters.

Many people think, mistakenly, that nothing can be done for coronary heart disease, the greatest heart killer from middle age onward. It is a disease of the arteries which supply blood to the heart muscle itself. These arteries may become hard and thick, allowing less blood to get to the heart muscle to nourish it. A much more serious condition, coronary thrombosis, develops when a clot forms in a thickened artery cutting off the blood flow. With proper treatment and rest, however, a person may recover completely.

According to Dr. Holle, work in the prevention of heart disease is moving ahead on many fronts. So far, medical science has been unable to prevent high blood pressure and coronary heart trouble, but has found ways of treating their aftereffects. But such treatment is allowing many persons to enjoy many years of added life.

Crockett Sells Furs

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The man of the year among St. Louis dealers in raw fur is Davy Crockett, who died at the Alamo 120 years ago.

The demand for Davy Crockett hats and other frontier garb created by the current craze over the King of the Wild Frontier has enabled fur dealers to sell skins that had been taking up warehouse space for years.

"We have sold a lot of lemons that had been around for a long time—anything that had a tail on it," said one dealer. "And raccoon tails, which until recently had been almost worthless, went for $4 to $5 a pound."

Winter Legume Planting Time Drawing Near

COLLEGE STATION—Farmers should be making plans now for the seed and fertilizers which will be needed for winter legumes plantings. In most areas of the state, says Ben R. Spears, extension agronomist, the best time for fall planting is from mid-September to early November.

For fall plantings in the East Texas Timber area, Spears recommends hairy vetch, Singletary peas, Austrian winter peas and crimson clover. For the southern half of the area, the less winter hardy common and Williamette vetches and Dixie Wonder peas are also adapted.

For the Blackland, Grand Prairie and South Texas regions, Spears suggests Hubam and Madrid sweetclovers because of their deep root system for soil building and ability to reduce the damage from cotton root rot. The clovers can be fall planted from Waco south but north of this line should be spring planted, says Spears. Hairy vetch and winter peas are also adapted to the regions.

For the West Cross Timbers area, hairy vetch is the most dependable legume. However, winter peas and the sweetclovers are also adapted.

For the High Plains and the El Paso and Pecos Valleys, the principal adapted legume is alfalfa under irrigation. The biennal sweetclovers, hairy vetch and Austrian winter peas can also be grown if irrigation is available.

Finally, Spears suggests that the local county agent be contacted for details on legume varieties as well as on fertilizing, inoculating and seeding operations.

Mrs. Haskell Holland took her granddaughters, Barbara and Bobbie Burns, to their home in Amarillo Monday to enroll in school for the year. Barbara and Bobbie spent the summer with their grandparents.

Football Fans Will Notice Several Rule Changes This Year; Few Affect the Game

By Harold V. Ratliff
Associated Press Sports Editor

The football season is upon us and it is well to review the rule changes although only a few will affect the game as far as the spectator is concerned.

The substitution rule has been liberalized somewhat but still is far from the unlimited plan a the professionals. Last year a game had six segments. A boy could play only once in the first and third quarters; he could play twice in the second and fourth because he had the privilege of returning four before the half ended and four minutes before the contest ended.

This year if he starts a quarter he can be taken out and put back in during that quarter. If he isn't a starter he can play only once in the quarter. This change means that an entire team can be substituted in a period and in that way the regulars can be rested. In other words the rule was fixed to allow the 11 good players—the starters—time out. It also was designed to allow a player who may be hurt to return upon recovery. Under the old rule a player hurt early in the first period couldn't get back in until the second period and if hurt early in the second period he couldn't return until the final four minutes.

Another change that will be noted gives the holder of the ball for a place-kick the right to put his knee on the ground, catch the ball and pass it, run with it or kick it. Under the old rule when the player's knee was on the ground as he received the ball it made him "dead" as an advancer of the ball. All he could do was hold it for his kicker.

The hideout play has been virtually eliminated. Under the old rule the hideout couldn't be used immediately following a substitution but could be used any other time. Now every player must be within 15 yards of the ball when it is declared ready for play.

The tackle eligible play has been fixed so there can be no shenanigans. Now the tackle must be the "outside" man. The end will have to come around behind the tackle and be at least one yard back to make the tackle eligible. All the backs except the one at the other end must be inside the tackle.

While there was little of the fake injury situation last season, in view of the adverse publicity given this maneuver the preceding year, it has been fixed so there can be little advantage to fake an injury now. On excess timeout (timeout other than that set for specifically by the rules) only the referee may grant it and then only upon the captain's request.

Another rule that won't be noticed much but should be mentioned is that which eliminates waving the hand for a fair catch.

CARD OF THANKS

My family and I would like to express our appreciation to the good people of Perryton and the surrounding trade territory for their many acts of kindness and friendship during our stay in this community. We have truly enjoyed our two periods of residence in Perryton. We have moved to Dallas, Texas, where I will open my office in the Marsh Lane Shopping Village for the practice of Internal Medicine.

Coal for Promotion

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Gov. William C. Marland, courting new industries for the state, passes out small gifts to industrialists.

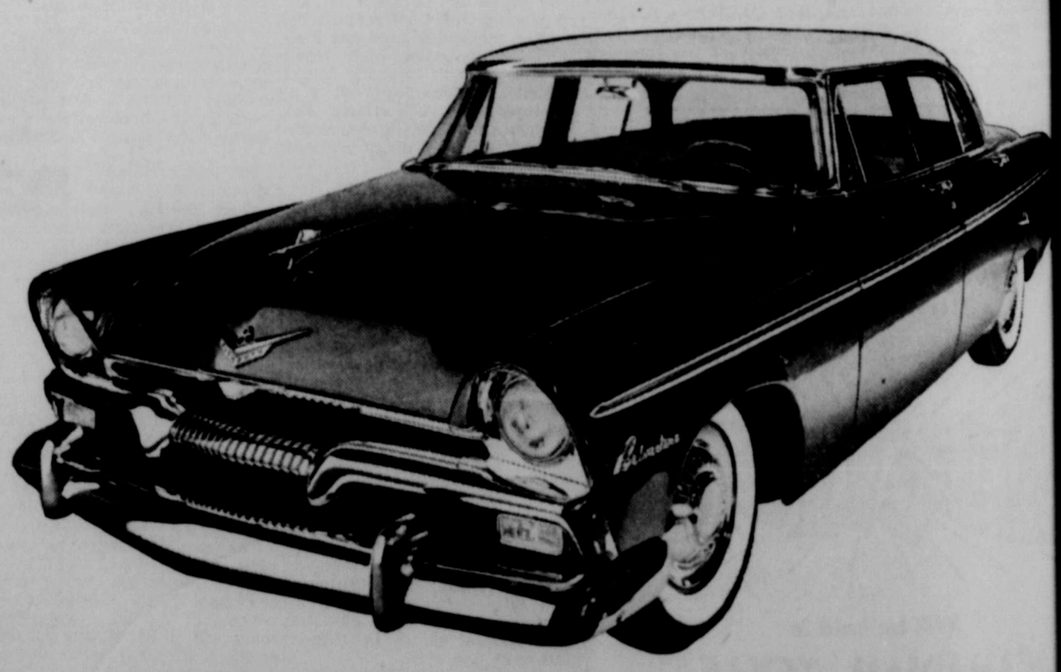

They're cuff links manufactured by inmates of the Federal Women's Reformatory, centered with a dime-sized piece of coal.

Coal is West Virginia's industry.
