STRIKE AT LOCKHEED AIRCRAFT—Pickets of the International Association of Machinists parade in front of a main automobile gate at Lockheed Aircraft Corporation's Burbank, Calif., plant after the union struck the plant in a contract dispute. Picketing was orderly and cars of non-striking workers were permitted to enter. The union said about 20,000 union members are taking part at various Lockheed plants. (AP Wirephoto)

Swift Action Could Halt Strike In Week

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—President Kennedy's swift recourse to the Taft-Hartley Act raises the probability that the strike against Lockheed Aircraft Corp. will be halted soon — perhaps within a week. In the meantime, says the union, work on the vital missile and plane projects has been halted. But the firm says work is continuing. Only hours after the International Association of Machinists struck the giant aerospace firm Wednesday, the President invoked the labor act, saying the strike would "impair the national health and safety" if permitted to continue. Kennedy appointed a three-man board to look into the dispute and report to him no later than Monday.

Friday with Lockheed and union representatives. The principal unresolved issue is whether Lockheed employees in California, Florida and Hawaii will be permitted to vote on a union shop proposal. Under a union shop, all eligible workers have to join the union to keep their jobs. A special board appointed by the President earlier this year recommended that union shop elections be conducted at aerospace firms. But Lockheed refused to allow such an election, saying it was unilaterally opposed to any form of compulsory unionism. The machinists said they would accept no contract until a union shop election was held. President Thomas McNett of Machinists District 727 said Wednesday that "when the (Taft-Hartley) injunction is invoked we will make every effort to obtain the type of contract that we sought in our prolonged negotiations and, if unable to obtain it, we will strike again." Lockheed Vice President John Canaday said the company would "welcome use of Taft-Hartley." If a Taft-Hartley injunction is issued, Lockheed's latest contract offer could be submitted to a compulsory vote of workers in the bargaining unit represented by the machinists. Both union and non-union workers would vote. Lockheed called for such a vote last Saturday, when it submitted an offer providing for wage increases of about 25 cents hourly, spread over three years. Average pay under the old contract was $2.95 an hour.

Santa Coming To Snyder Tomorrow

Santa Claus is coming to town! Straight from the North Pole, with his bright red suit and his jolly "Merry Christmas" Santa himself will arrive in Snyder tomorrow.

Santa Claus talked to the people at the Chamber of Commerce, and told them that sometime tomorrow afternoon he would fly in in his airplane (he's saving the reindeer for their big night) and look the town over just to make sure he has every little boy and girl's house spotted. Then he'll land at the airport, and a big red fire truck will bring him to town. Santa asked the Jayceettes to fix him a place where he could talk to all the Snyder children who wanted to talk to him. So the Jayceettes decided to fix up an "office" for Santa in the Community Room of the West Texas State Bank. Santa will probably get to his office about 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. He told the Chamber of Commerce people to tell all the little boys and girls and their mommas and daddys too, to come to see him there because he wants to talk to just as many as he can. Santa didn't know just how long he could stay, but he knew that almost all the boys

3 Killed As Crane Falls

NEW YORK (AP)—Three Transit Authority workmen were killed when a 66-ton crane toppled 40 feet from an elevated subway track near Coney Island. Two men perished inside the cab and the third was killed in a fall to the ground. The crane's 60-foot boom buckled while hoisting a load of prefabricated sections of track—rails with ties already affixed—for installation on the Independent Division subway line. Victims who died in the wreckage of the crane were George Graves, 53, of Brooklyn, and Carmine de Meo, 57, of Bellmore, N.Y.

Utah Youths Held Here

Two Utah youths are to be given over to the custody of Utah authorities by Snyder city police today. The pair, Ralph G. Jex, 19, and Ronald W. Smith, 18, are both from Spanish Fork, Utah. Red McCreary, local service station operator, became suspicious of the pair Monday when they offered to sell him one of six new tires they had in their possession. He summoned city police. The police held the pair and checked with the police in the boy's home town. A warrant for their arrest was wired to local authorities. The warrant charges them with stealing seven tires. They told Snyder police that they threw one away "because it wasn't a white one." They will be returned to Utah for trial.

India, Red China Continue Their Efforts For Support

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru received a letter from Premier Chou En-lai of Red China today as both sides maneuvered on the diplomatic front for support in the Himalayan border conflict. India continued to send troops to the battlefronts, quiet since a Chinese-imposed cease-fire. A Foreign Ministry spokesman declined to disclose what Chou had said in his letter to Nehru. But the spokesman told newsmen that he previously received Chinese cease-fire proposals have become more confusing. The spokesman was referring to clarification for which India had asked last week. He said India still is considering the proclamation that halted the fighting but was unable to clear up points under which the Red Chinese proposed to withdraw from Himalayan positions as a forerunner to peace talks. The Chinese proposed both sides pull back 12 1/2 miles from what they called the actual line of control in November 1959. This is the line they presently hold in Ladakh, in northwest India, and would give the Chinese control of a considerable amount of territory. The Chinese suggested that civil police keep guard in the area from which the Communist forces withdraw. The Indian spokesman said the confusion in the Chinese proposal centers around the areas where the civil police would be stationed. He said India feels the police would be on "Indian-claimed territory." India prepared to send more diplomatic teams abroad in a battle with Red China for the moral support of nonaligned nations.

An Indian spokesman announced that in addition to two special diplomatic missions now in Africa and Asia, India will send teams to other parts of the nonaligned world as needed. Their purpose will be to convince neutralists that India is right and cannot accept the Chinese terms for a settlement of the Sino-Indian border war. The Communist Chinese, at the same time were rushing their own diplomats and diplomatic messages to Rangoon, Cairo, Jakarta and Colombo to counter the Indian campaign. In the military field all eyes will be on the Himalayas Saturday. The Chinese have promised to withdraw their troops that day from substantial parts of the areas they have seized. Some Western military observers find it hard to believe the Chinese actually will pull back.

Mikoyan Flies To Capital For Talks With Kennedy

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet first Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan flew here today for follow-up talks on the Cuban crisis and U.S.-Soviet relations with President Kennedy and other U.S. officials. He said he hoped the discussions would be "pleasant and possibly useful." President Kennedy reportedly hopes to get some indications from Mikoyan as to whether Russian Premier Khrushchev wants to move beyond the easing of the Cuban crisis into some general improvement in U.S.-Soviet relations. But even as Mikoyan's Russian plane touched down at Andrews Air Force Base it was learned that Kennedy administration leaders were not optimistic on the basis of talks which Mikoyan and U.S. officials had held in New York Wednesday. Informants did not disclose any details of the discussions but said they showed that on various issues the differences between Washington and Moscow were still very wide. Soviet informants said that Mikoyan will leave the United States Saturday morning to return directly to Moscow. He is on his way home from a long series of conferences with Cuban Premier Fidel Castro. Mikoyan is to see Kennedy late today.

The Soviet trouble-shooter invited him to lunch Friday and Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall will host a dinner tonight at Udall's home. Mikoyan was one of Udall's hosts last summer when the secretary toured the Soviet Union. The President was expected to emphasize to Mikoyan that the United States will either get international safeguards for the removal of Soviet nuclear weapons from Cuba or it will continue its surveillance indefinitely. He was also expected to stress heavily that his non-invasion pledge does not mean U.S. acceptance of or protection for the Castro regime. It means, officials said, that the United States does not choose to try to destroy Castro by military means but will use such means if necessary in response to any Cuban aggression. Khrushchev sent Mikoyan to Havana Nov. 3. He came back to New York last Monday, having spent a little more than three weeks on a mission he never explained to U.S. officials and about which they are still mystified. It was trying to get Castro to accept international inspection in Cuban territory, he failed. While he was there, however, the Soviet government did remove 43 nuclear missiles from Cuba under partial U.S. scrutiny and Khrushchev promised a week ago that in 30 days he would take out nuclear-capable IL28 jet bombers. There are 30 or more of these aircraft in Cuba.

It was indicated that Kennedy would decide as he went along now to handle the Mikoyan conference. The talk could prove to be of considerable importance, particularly in its direct bearing on future U.S.-Soviet relations over Cuba. Mikoyan, for example, has given public support to Castro's demand that the United States get out of its Guantanamo Naval Base and, in effect, drop opposition to his regime. The United States, officials said, has no intention of considering such a demand and in general feels the Cuban situation is about back to where it was before the Soviets shipped their missiles and bombers into the island. When Mikoyan was on his way to Cuba, it is understood, he told U.S. officials in New York that he would like to talk with Kennedy, at least if he was expected to visit Washington only a few days. One mystery about his trip is why he stayed so long. When he finally was preparing to leave Havana the Soviet officials at the United Nations were told that if he wished to visit Washington the President would see him. Presumably he decided to come here upon instructions of Khrushchev. Since he was forced to back down in Cuba, the Soviet premier has thrown out a number of hints or comments about extending an improvement in U.S.-Soviet relations into other fields. But there has been no concrete moves. Khrushchev, for example, has talked a great deal about the need for arms control, and Soviet officials have been talking particularly about some kind of end to nuclear testing. None of their comments or plans, however, has given Western policymakers any real hope of breaking the deadlock over inspection. The failure of Khrushchev to make good on his promise of U.N. inspection in Cuba is seen here as a discouraging fact in relation to disarmament prospects. Thus the big problem for Kennedy and his advisers is to try to learn whether the Soviet talk of improving relations means anything on any specific problem or whether it is a propaganda cover for the Soviet retreat from Cuba—and possibly for an intensified Soviet arms buildup. In a television interview on the impact of the Cuban crisis on world affairs, Secretary Rusk said Wednesday night that he thought "the patterns of the world are changing," and possibly "men's approach to them will change."

and seaborne invasion. The Navy has said it had 183 ships—including eight aircraft carriers—in the force that blockaded Cuba. That fleet, with 85,000 men aboard, could have been used to bombard the Cuban shore with missiles and guns. Hundreds of Navy and Marine jet fighters and bombers were poised on fleet carriers to knock out whatever moved in Cuba and to cover amphibious and helicopter landings by thousands of Marines. About 7,000 Marines were dug in at the Guantanamo Naval Base, prepared to hold the 26-mile perimeter. Other thousands of Marines were believed afloat in assault transports and other amphibious craft and standing by in Puerto Rico. The Air Force's Tactical Air Command has said it moved nearly 1,000 high-speed fighters, bombers, aerial tankers, and other planes, into bases in the southeastern United States within easy range of Cuba. Reporters with Kennedy on his tour Monday counted about 450 Air Force, Marine and Navy planes—many bristling with rockets—standing ready at two of the many bases in the Southeast. Home-stead Air Force Base near Miami, and the Boca Chica Naval Air Station at Key West, Fla.

Plane Crash Toll May Include 105

LIMA, Peru (AP)—Police digging through the wreckage of a Boeing 707 crashed today indicated that 105 persons perished, even though the Brazilian air line insists only 97 were aboard. Many of the bodies were burned or mutilated beyond recognition when the Boeing 707 smashed into La Cruz peak, 15 miles south of Lima, Tuesday while circling for a landing. Commander Demetrio Tovar of the Civil Guard (police), director of salvage operations, said he counted 105 bodies. Ramon Cridao, head of the morgue, said, "There were at least 100 bodies." There was speculation that some passengers—possibly children—boarded the plane at the last moment in Rio de Janeiro before the airliner took off on a flight to Los Angeles and were not included on the list registered beforehand with Varig. Nineteen of the passengers were American. The Brazilian airliner crashed against the 2,400-foot mountain while circling and waiting for the Lima control tower to give it permission to land. Three minutes after being told to wait for another airliner to take off, the pilot radioed, "This is an emergency." The nature of the emergency was not explained.

Five Divisions Were Poised For Invasion

By FRED HOFFMAN WASHINGTON (AP) — Five of the Army's paratroop, infantry and tank divisions were ticketed for possible invasion of Cuba before the crisis cooled off, it was learned today. About 100,000 Army men were involved in the preparations. Hundreds of Navy and Marine jet fighters and bombers were poised on fleet carriers to knock out whatever moved in Cuba and to cover amphibious and helicopter landings by thousands of Marines. About 7,000 Marines were dug in at the Guantanamo Naval Base, prepared to hold the 26-mile perimeter. Go Edition Is Scheduled Dec. 9

The fabulous "Snyder on the GO" issue of the Daily News will be distributed Sunday, Dec. 9, Publisher Herbert Feather announced today. It's the 75th anniversary issue of the Snyder Daily News and it will be the largest and most colorful issue ever produced in Snyder. The issue presents a comprehensive cross-section of historical bearing on the area's growth as well as some compelling vignettes of people behind the story. The feature material includes pictures and feature stories which provide a thorough Scurry County through the years. There are several special sections which devote exclusive attention to some of the most dominant pursuits in the area. "Snyder on the GO" promises to be the best-remembered issue of News ever has produced, because advance sales of the edition are nearing 1,000 copies, and the present rate of orders indicates the issue may be a sellout before the final pressrun. All persons interested in ordering extra copies should telephone the circulation department of the Daily News in the next day or at no extra charge. Because of the press of time, the circulation department will accept orders by telephone to be filled after the issue is distributed. Extra copies are 50 cents apiece and they will be mailed anywhere in the U.S. after the issue is distributed but must be mailed at your expense. Final deadline for advertising and news copy for the issue will be Monday, December 3. The contest for a copy of the oldest Snyder newspaper still is open. The earliest we have received thus far is 1885. — and there's the possibility of beating it, because the newspapers date back to 1887 in Snyder.

Clouds Back Over State

By The Associated Press Gloomy weather took over in most of West Texas again Thursday after a single day of sunshine. Misty rain fell at Amarillo and Lubbock. Patches of fog hugged the ground at Dalhart and Childress. It was cloudy elsewhere in Northwest Texas. Skies were clear to partly cloudy in other sections of the state. Early morning temperatures were in the 40s and 50s—a bit lower than the day before but still mild for this time of year. Although a weak Pacific cold front was edging toward the Texas Panhandle, the Weather Bureau predicted no big temperature changes and no rain overnight or Friday. High temperatures Wednesday afternoon ranged from 58 degrees at Amarillo and Mineral Wells up to 75 at Laredo and Presidio and 76 at Brownsville. Readings early Thursday varied from 40 at El Paso to 57 at Laredo.

Physicians Keep Pope In Bed For Treatment Today

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII is suffering from a stomach disorder that the Vatican said today has "provoked a rather interminable" hospitalization. The Pope also has suffered for years from a prostate condition, and there had been reports surgery might be necessary. One medical authority here said the term "gastropathy" could mean a simple stomach disorder or a serious ailment, such as an ulcer. The authority said the general term "gastropathy" would not include a prostate condition—an indication that the stomach disorder was a separate ailment. The communique made no mention of a prostate condition. Pope John was 81 just last Sunday. The medical authority said anemia could be serious in a man his age—but not necessarily. Apparently Pope John himself has been concerned about his health for some time. On Sunday, after celebrating a birthday mass, he said: "We are at the start of our 82nd year. We are at the end of it? We will not be excessively concerned. Any day is a good day to be born and any day is a good day to die." The night before his birthday, he revealed he had been reading a prayer from the Roman Catholic Office of the Dead. At another time during the past month he also spoke of his advancing age and his readiness to meet death. Vatican sources reported that prelates here for the council were being told informally that they might have to remain in Rome after the council recesses Dec. 8. These reports underlined the apparent seriousness of the Pope's condition. So did the very publication of the communique and his statement that Roman Catholics had an "obligation of special prayer" for the Pope's speedy recovery. But the communique itself did not say how serious the Pope's condition was. A Vatican communique said that "everything leads one to hope that the treatment now underway" will enable the Pope to resume his normal activity as soon as possible. "Since last Tuesday," the com-

Shopping Days Till Christmas

Shopping Days Till Christmas. A Vatican source said the Pope's personal physician, Prof. Antonio Gasbarrini, spent 40 minutes with the pontiff today. He had seen him for an hour Wednesday. One report said Gasbarrini had advised the Pope he must take things easier from now on, reserving himself for such necessary religious functions as communications. Such restriction would curtail the frequent trips Pope John likes to take outside the Vatican, to visit churches, jails, hospitals and religious shrines.

CHRISTMAS CAKE from Kentucky is rich with pecans and flavored with bourbon and nutmeg. This version also adds candied orange peel.

Kentucky Cake Is A Delight

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
KENTUCKY CLAIMS a fabulous cake, and around holiday time it's often made in that state. Ever taste or hear tell of a mammoth concoction of pecans, raisins, bourbon and rich cake batter flavored with plenty of freshly grated nutmeg? All we can say is that it deserves its fame. Every person to whom we have served this offering has thoroughly enjoyed it. We suspect this cake derives from the whiskey fruitcake recipes given in Southern cook books published at the turn of this century. In recent years, Mrs. Marion Flexner—longtime resident of Louisville—put a modern version on the map when she included a recipe for such a cake in one of her delicious cook books. Since Mrs. Flexner's introduction of the rule, there have been other adaptations, and the following directions are some that came out of the oven.

A few words to prepare you, should you decide to bake this extravaganza. All the cakes of this sort tried in our kitchen come out of the oven with a cracked top—just as do angel food cakes made from mixes—and with a tendency to crumble. However, if the cake made by the following recipe is tightly wrapped and thoroughly chilled, it may be sliced into attractive thin pieces. To do this we use a long serrated bread knife and a sawing motion, and we strongly advise you to follow suit.

KENTUCKY PECAN CAKE

- 1 1/2 pounds pecan halves
- 1 package (15 1/2 ounces) seedless raisins
- 1/2 cup finely cut candied orange peel
- 2 cups sifted flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 4 teaspoons nutmeg
- 1 cup butter
- 2 1/4 cups sugar
- 6 eggs (separated)
- 1 cup bourbon

Cut each of the pecan halves into 3 crosswise slices. Rinse raisins in hot water; drain; dry on a towel. Mix pecans, raisins and orange peel with 1 cup of the flour. Sift the remaining 2 cups flour with the baking powder, salt and nutmeg. Cream butter and sugar, using a very large mixing bowl. Beat egg yolks until thickened and lemon colored; beat into creamed mixture. Add sifted dry ingredients, alternately with bourbon, mixing until smooth each time. Gradually fold in the pecan mixture. Beat egg whites until they hold stiff peaks and fold in. Turn into a greased 10-inch angel food cake pan that has been lined with brown paper greased on both sides; let stand for 10 minutes. Bake in a slow (300 degrees) oven for about 3 hours or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Place cake in pan on wire rack until partly cool; turn out; turn rightside up. Cool completely. Leave brown paper on cake; wrap tightly; store in refrigerator for a few days before slicing; continue refrigerator storage as long as cake lasts.

Marzipan Goes With Christmas

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
HERE'S WHERE kitchen sculptors take over. With a can of almond paste and other good things, you can make a batch of marzipan to mold into the sweet decorations traditional at holiday time.

Fruits are easy and easy to create from marzipan. They may be painted with food coloring diluted with water, using a small water-color brush.

Or you can work food coloring into portion of the marzipan and go on from there. Yellow marzipan, for instance may be used as the base for bananas, pears and strawberries.

Minture bananas will need brown markings of cocoa dissolved in hot water, and tips of green coloring.

A yellow pear can have one of its sides painted a rosy pink. A whole clove will make the pear's blossom end and tiny green leaves cut from angelica will finish off the stem end.

The strawberries will need to be painted red. Then after you use a toothpick to make seedlike markings on their surface, the yellow base will show through and look most realistic. Angelica can make pretty tulips.

Vegetables are also fun. Try molding and coloring tiny pumpkins, peas in an open pod, carrots. Potatoes are traditionally rolled in cocoa; if you do this, keep them strictly apart from the other marzipan decorations because their skins will brush off.

MARZIPAN

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup light corn syrup
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 pound confectioners sugar
- 1 can (8 ounces or 1 cup) almond paste

Cream butter blending in corn syrup, salt, and vanilla. Add sugar, about one-third at a time, mixing well after each addition. Knead with hands as mixture becomes stiff. Knead in almond paste. Work vegetable food coloring in to portions of the marzipan of your like. Shape miniature fruits and vegetables; let stand uncovered to dry surface partly before painting with food coloring and embellishing. Makes about 1 1/2 pounds candy.

Starts In 10 By 10 Nirvana

SHELA
By Aubrey Menen

It seems that Buddha was sitting under the tree in his 10 by 10 feet Nirvana one day when along came the Angel Michael and the Devil.

Michael delivered a message from the Commander-in-chief (Jehovah) that the current reincarnation of the Dalai Lama had been located. As the Devil pointed out, Michael was a little short of the truth—two had been found. One behind the "iron curtain" and the other in a Tibetan refugee colony in Switzerland. The odd circumstance was that the latter happened to be a girl.

With this beginning, Menen spins out a fluffy satire about the Communists and the West conducting a cold war over the He-Lama and the She-Lama. Known for short, as HeLa and SheLa, Menen takes at American politics and at egghed experts in the White House, and then comes up with a burlesque of a conference between the American President and the Soviet ambassador. When SheLa arrives in New York, he has an opportunity to caricature her mentor, an American millionaire who has gone nutty over exotic religions.

The whole affair makes an international stir at the United Nations when the Russians produce HeLa, and of course the two Lamas start romancing.

Meanwhile the author gets in a few licks regarding the Westernization of the East and the greedy opportunism of the new African politicians.

Satire of this type has to maintain a thoroughly airy tone or it falls flatter than a pancake. Menen has avoided this misfortune. He has kept his book sufficiently nonsensical to make it a palatable entertainment.

Come to think of it, probably could be turned into an amusing Broadway musical.

Hip fashions among the male teenagers are slacks that include hidden combs, and double-breasted, brass button jackets.

ARE YOU IDEAL?

BY PATRICIA RUSAK
TORONTO (Sp.)—"Why don't my clothes ever look like those I see in the fashion magazines?"

Many women, both those who spend a great deal of time designing and sewing their own clothes and those who spend hours shopping for them, have asked themselves this question.

And the answer is simple. Perhaps they have never taken the time to analyze their figure (its good points and its defects), their skin color and their personality. These factors in order to choose styles that are becoming to her, says Mrs. Lorraine Scott, an instructor in the fashion department at the Ryerson Institute of Technology.

"The ideal figure is balanced in all directions and you should choose your clothes with the aim of bringing your figure back to the ideal." For example, if you are bottom heavy, you should choose clothes that will make you look broader in the shoulders to detract from the heaviness.

The structural lines of any garment are most effective for bringing the figure back into balance. "With lines, you can lead the eye up and down or across the figure to any point you may wish to emphasize."

Fabric Important
Long straight vertical lines and panels and the softer more feminine S-lines extending from neckline to hem lengthen the figure. The woman with the short figure should look for these lines in styling, while a tall woman should look for horizontal and oblique lines which make the figure shorter.

Structural lines should be designed within the silhouette that best suits your figure. The tubular silhouette, such as that given by the straight sheath dress, looks best on the average balanced figure, while the bell silhouette, which widens at the bottom, looks best on the figure that is heavy through the hips.

A woman must be careful not to choose a fabric that will counteract the effects of the line and silhouette she has chosen. A plump or overweight person should stick to smooth-surfaced fabrics. Piles, shaggy materials and heavy tweeds, plaids and prints all add weight to the figure. Sheen surfaces such as satins, which catch the light and reflect it, also add weight to the figure and point up those features which are already prominent.

"Any fabric designs, plaids, stripes or prints, should be in proportion to your figure size." For example, a tall, rangy figure looks smart in a large plaid while a petite figure, in the same plaid would look out of balance.

Color Adds Weight
Colors, just as fabric textures, can make the figure look larger or smaller. The figure looks larger in light, bright colors and smaller in dark, dull colors and this principle can be used to cover up figure faults, says Mrs. Sept. You can minimize the fact that you are top-heavy by wearing dark tops and blouses and minimize the size of your hips by wearing dark skirts with light tops.

difficultly in wearing the yellow and yellow-green shades.

Neutral shades—black, white, brown and their related shades of grey and beige—often tend to drain the color from a person's face and therefore good makeup and accessories are important if these colors are to look smart.

"Personality plays an important part in clothing." If a woman wants to emphasize her gentle feminine characteristics, she will choose clothes of soft fabrics and colors with curved structural lines. If a woman wishes to stress her aggressive competitive side, she will choose heavier tailored garments with straight structural lines.

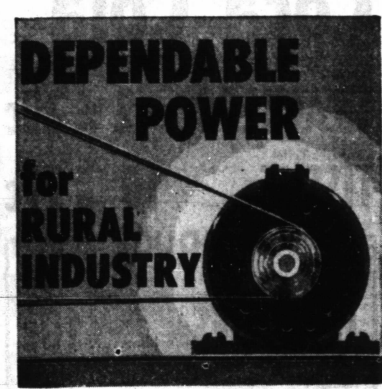

Glove Apples

- 2 pounds medium-sized cooking apples
- 8 whole cloves
- 1 cup light corn syrup
- Core, pare and quarter apples; slice each quarter into thirds. In a saucepan, bring the apples, cloves, and corn syrup to a boil. Simmer, uncovered, until apples lose their opaque look and are tender—15 to 20 minutes. Some of the slices will retain their shape. Remove cloves, if you like, before serving. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

There was a time when rural industry consisted of the saw mill, the cotton gin, and little else. Then the rural electric systems were organized and rural industry began to hum. Industries native to the rural area were joined by a host of manufacturing, industrial and processing projects, attracted by the steady, dependable, efficient electric service furnished by these member-owned electric systems. Farms and ranches became more productive and a billion dollar a year market for electric appliances was created.

The electric cooperatives of Texas have been good for everybody, warming the hearts and homes of rural citizens, creating a billion dollar a year market for home town merchants and furnishing dependable power for rural industry.

Thant May Be Kept In Chair

By WILLIAM N. OATES
 UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union and the United States were reported today that U Thant of Burma should be kept as U.N. secretary-general until late in 1964.

State sources said the Security Council would meet Friday to recommend Thant's election, and the General Assembly would meet later in the day to elect him.

Thant will be elected for a full five-year term, but in accordance with his stipulation the term will date from the day he took office as acting secretary-general, Nov.

3, 1961. Thant reportedly wants to retire in 1966—when he will be 57—for personal reasons.

Thant, formerly Burma's chief U.N. delegate, was elected last November to be acting secretary-general until April 19, 1963, the date of the expiration of the second five-year term of the late Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld of Sweden. Hammarskjöld had been killed the previous Sept. 17 in a plane crash near Ndola, Northern Rhodesia.

The diplomatic sources said the Burmese diplomat wants to uphold the statutory title of secretary-general and the statutory principle of a five-year term but does not want to serve another five years in the office.

The informants said Soviet-U.S. agreement to Thant's election was reached Wednesday at a meeting of American and Soviet negotiators on the Cuban crisis. They said the Soviet had held up their consent previously in the hope of first getting an agreement to settle that crisis.

The meeting was held at Soviet delegation headquarters. Attending were Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan and First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov; Chief U.N. Delegates Valerian A. Zorin of the Soviet Union and Adlai E. Stevenson of the United States; and Chairman John J. McCloy of President Kennedy's Coordinating Committee on Cuba.

A move is under way to raise Thant's pay, which now totals $55,000 a year. This includes his $20,000 salary, $20,000 for entertainment, $10,000 for house rent and $5,000 for house upkeep.

The advisory committee on administrative and budgetary affairs was to consider the matter today and the assembly's budgetary committee will take it up tomorrow.

The budgetary committee by an 84-1 vote Wednesday endorsed employment policies Thant said he would follow to provide ultimately an equitable geographical distribution of jobs in the secretariat and at least five for each of the member nations.

The committee vote buried the Soviet Union's latest version of the troika plan—to head each department of the secretariat with three persons—one each from the Communist, Western and neutral countries.

The Soviets earlier had backed off from their original proposal to replace the secretary-general by a three-man troika board. Had they pressed it, they would have had to veto Thant in the Security Council.

Texas Solon Eager To Head Banking Panel

By EDMOND LEBRETON
 WASHINGTON (AP)—A Democratic congressman who believes too many banks are lying down on their job and the Federal Reserve System is getting out of hand will become chairman of the House Banking Committee in January.

Rep. Wright Patman will be achieving, at 69, an ambition burning since he first came to Congress in 1929 from an East Texas farm district: to head the committee that can dig into the operations of lending institutions, the Federal Reserve System and the currency, as well as draft legislation affecting them.

Patman brought to Washington with him a reputation as an economic maverick. His efforts to win a place on the committee were rebuffed for eight years—a severe setback in the seniority-bound House.

"I wasn't orthodox enough," Patman says without rancor today. "Otherwise, I would have been chairman of this committee 18 years earlier."

The retirement from Congress this year of Chairman Brent

Spence, D-Ky., who at 87 was the oldest member of the House, finally cleared the way for Patman.

Owning behind his dark-rimmed glasses, Patman smiles readily at witnesses or reporters. But he somehow gives the impression of a foxy professor of economics who likes to ask stumping questions.

"The last of the old-time Populist burn burners," one admiring colleague called him. Other assessments range from "reformer" through "sawdust-floor economist" to "funny money man."

Patman disclaims, without heat, the more extreme descriptions, insisting he stands for sound money and has always opposed inflation.

His basic quarrel with the Federal Reserve System derives from his conviction that, as it now operates, private bankers have too much say and the Treasury not enough say in shaping policies that determine the national supply of money and credit.

His contention that recent policies of "the Fed" have been unduly tight has produced a running controversy with Federal Reserve Chairman William M. Martin Jr. It is enthusiastically renewed whenever Martin appears before one of the committees on which Patman serves. (While waiting for the main chance, Patman has advanced to the chairmanship of the House Small Business Committee and the Joint Senate-House Economic Committee.)

As for banks in general, Patman says greed and an obsession with playing it safe have distorted the roles of too many of them.

"Bankers are the only people who can manufacture money without going to the penitentiary. They are supposed to use this money to take care of the credit needs of their communities—make loans to business men, farmers, individuals on fair terms—not invest it in tax-free municipal bonds."

"I am on the side of the small banks, the medium-size banks and all other banks who are not pursuing a greedy policy."

"I am against those who would have a nation of only a few banks with branches, and those who think a few select people should have a franchise on the economy."

His complaints perhaps reflect memories of life on a tenant farm and of the 30-to-50 per cent interest his father had to pay on crop loans.

Patman's views of course are well known to the national financial community, but, by and large bankers and Congress members who share their viewpoint do not seem unduly disturbed by the prospect of a banking committee headed by the outspoken Texan.

For one thing, Patman has not appeared vindictive against the institutions he criticizes, though he has on occasion introduced sweeping legislation. He successfully pushed veterans' bonus payment bills in the 1930s—a success to which he attributes in part his long exclusion from the banking committee.

He fought but lost a battle in 1938 for government ownership of Federal Reserve banks. He co-authored the Robinson-Patman Act curbing some competitive practices deemed to be detrimental to small business.

But in later years his legislative record has been comparatively moderate and his more advanced proposals have not moved far in the House.

He was a close friend of the late Speaker Sam Rayburn—no radical—and Rayburn respected his views on economics.

Patman's recent one-man study of possible abuse of the tax advantages enjoyed by non-profit foundations was controversial, but it has been praised as valuable by some publications reflecting the business viewpoint. The Internal Revenue Service conceded some of Patman's points and said it will henceforth check foundation operations more closely.

A Republican source close to the banking committee said, "Frankly, I'm looking forward to seeing this committee more active than it has been in years."

"Wright is vigorous. As for his ideas—well, responsibility has a way of sobering people."

Patman himself has said—in an interview with Banking magazine—"obviously to be a chairman is a handicap in a crusade."

Patman's influence as chairman certainly will be thrown on the side of holding interest rates down and closely scrutinizing the Federal Reserve System. He can be expected to push legislation for closer integration of the system's policies with those of the government—perhaps as a first step for rearranging the Federal Reserve chairman's term to coincide with that of the President.

Another likely project is an amendment of present law to permit—and therefore judge—banks to pay interest on demand deposits, such as checking accounts and the government's big tax and loan accounts.

Red Planes Didn't Fire, Say Pilots

By LARRY OSIUS
 WASHINGTON (AP)—Two U.S. pilots who flew surveillance missions over Cuba say they were spotted in the skies by Red fighter planes but were not attacked.

They made their statements Wednesday as 25 medals were presented by high ranking Air Force and Navy officers to pilots who flew over Cuba on reconnaissance missions. Eleven more medals are to be presented.

Lt. Col. Clyde B. East, commanding officer of the 29th Tactical Reconnaissance Squadron, said at Tampa, Fla., that he had spotted three types of Soviet MIG jet fighters while over Cuba.

He said one type—the MIG 21—was faster than his RF101 Voodoo reconnaissance plane, rated at more than 1,000 miles an hour. The Soviet planes, he said, "were fired on by us, they just highlighted it."

East, 41, a native of Chatham, Va., who received his fourth Distinguished Flying Cross Wednesday, also said U.S. planes were fired on from the ground but "no one was hit or hurt."

In Omaha, Neb., Air Force Maj. Richard S. Heysler said he had seen Cuban planes on several occasions. Asked if he tried to intercept him, he hesitated then replied, "not that I was aware of."

Heysler wouldn't say what kind of plane he was piloting, but he did remark that he flew so high he wasn't worried about anti-aircraft fire.

Heysler, 35, is a member of the 400th Strategic Wing of Laughlin Air Force Base, a Strategic Air Command unit which defense officials previously have said includes high flying U2 aircraft. These planes have an estimated altitude of 70,000 feet or more.

Heysler said U.S. pilots were brief on what to look for and "fortunately we found it." He said information gathered by his unit by visual sightings and by equipment enabled other pilots to fly low level reconnaissance missions over Cuba.

The flier from Apalchicola, Fla., said he got his first look at the surveillance photographs Wednesday, but had seen his newspaper reproductions previously.

Heysler talked with newsmen briefly following ceremonies at the Strategic Air Command headquarters at Offutt Air Force Base, Omaha, in which he and nine others received Distinguished Flying Crosses or Oak Leaf Clusters.

Gen. Thomas S. Power, SAC commander, pinned on the medals and credited the pilots with showing "exceptional flying skill and personal bravery during a period of great crisis."

Lt. Col. East and 14 other air force pilots of the 388th Tactical Reconnaissance Wing of Shaw Air Force Base, Sumter, S.C., received Distinguished Flying Crosses from Adm. Robert L. Dennison at MacDill Air Force Base, Tampa. They were cited for low level missions over Cuba from Oct. 23 through Oct. 29.

Dennison, commander of the Atlantic Fleet and chief of all military operations during the Cuban crisis, was to present DFCs to six Navy and four Marine pilots at Cecil Field in Jacksonville, Fla., today.

The Defense Department said Wednesday that a medal also will go to an Air Force captain who has been transferred to Laon, France.

Maj. Rudolf Anderson Jr. of Greenville, S.C., killed while on an aerial surveillance mission over Cuba, has been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal posthumously.

Three Texans Get Air Force Awards

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three Air Force pilots from Texas have been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross in recognition of "their outstanding skill" in low level photographic missions over Cuba.

Adm. Robert Dennison, chief of the U.S. Atlantic Command, presented the awards to Capt. Arthur Beckstrom of Houston and Capt. Bobby Martin of Throckmorton, Tex., Wednesday.

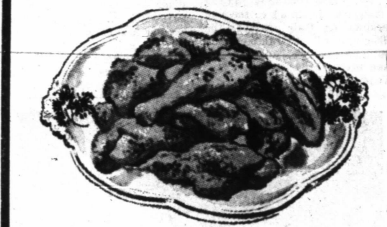

The DFC will be presented overseas to Capt. Edwin Aterbury of Dallas, who has been transferred to Laon, France.

All were members of the 63rd Tactical Reconnaissance Wing, stationed at Shaw Air Force Base, S.C.

Dave Hynes, Clemson's 231-pound tackle and captain, comes from Atlanta.

Sir Winston To Turn 88 Friday

By EDDY GILMORE
LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill will celebrate his 88th birthday Friday probably more quickly than any anniversary of his long public life.

As his years upon this earth have lengthened, each birthday anniversary has generated a swelling flood of presents and greetings from well-wishers all over the world.

Thousands come in from people he doesn't know—people who've never seen him but who look on him as the living image of an incomparable fighter.

Over the last 10 years—by special messengers, squads of telegraph boys and postoffice trucks—presents and greetings have poured into his London home.

Friday is expected to bring another avalanche of greetings but Churchill plans a quiet day.

"He will see only his family and very close friends," said his private secretary, Anthony Montague Browne.

Asked if Sir Winston would make his traditional birthday visit to the House of Commons, Browne replied:

"No, I'm afraid not."

Sir Winston is very feeble. He is far from senile, but he walks with considerable effort, is deaf and has good days and bad days.

On a bad day, his mind often isn't clear.

On good days, it's splendidly lucid.

One of his close friends—a former military man—visited him recently and later confided to friends:

"It's all very sad. He could remember almost everything about World War I but very little about World War II, the one he did so much toward winning."

Yet on other recent occasions—when he was enjoying a good day—he not only discussed World War II but the present state of the world as well with clarity and wisdom.

A birthday dinner is planned for Friday, but it'll be a small one. Mrs. Maria Floris, who for 21 successive years has baked a cake for Sir Winston, will do it again.

A professional baker, she plans a light fruit cake.

Her cakes are usually saturated with brandy—one of Sir Winston's favorite drinks.

At 88, he's still the unpredictable Churchill.

In 1960 and this year, he suffered serious falls.

With each mishap, he broke a bone.

When people all but gave up hope for him, he made great gains, rose from his injuries and got well.

NEW VOICE—Jim Pruiett, 18, is shown as he assumed his duties as a new announcer for radio station KSNV. Pruiett came to Snyder from KTAT in Fredrick, Okla. Previously he had worked at KBWD and KHPG-FM in Brownwood. The new announcer has been self-supporting since he was 10 years old. A graduate of Brownwood High, his interests lie in the field of drama, and he is a member of the National Forensic Society.

Communist Party Banned In Algeria

ALGIERS (AP)—The Algerian government has banned the Communist party.

Information Minister Mohamed Hadj Hamou told newsmen Premier Ahmed Ben Bella's government decided on the ban several days ago. He gave no further details.

Wednesday night the Arab language Communist party paper Al Hourya was banned.

The information minister said it had not been decided what, if any, action would be taken against the leaders of the party. Head of the Algerian Communist party is Henri Alleg, a European.

Ben Bella has been studying with his Cabinet for several days the question of the Communist party and internal problems.

The Communist party's membership has never been published, but some unofficial estimates put the figure at about 50,000 in a country of 10 million population.

During the seven-year nationalist revolution the Communists at first did not support the rebellion, then reversed their stand, but never took an important role in the fight.

The Algerian rebel organization had close ties, however, with the Soviet Union, Communist China and other Communist countries.

Rusk Says Cuban Incident Is No Reason For Optimism

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — Back to the salt mines.

For several weeks, since the Cuban crisis died down, there has been a kind of national sigh of relief and perhaps even elation in the hope now maybe things would get better because they couldn't have been much worse.

But now Secretary of State Dean Rusk has squirted some ice water on any notion that the world ought to begin getting better now. Rusk, who is usually bland and seldom says anything startling, wasn't startling in an interview televised Wednesday by CBS.

He tried to be practical, as he put it, and urged caution about optimism. In fact, he said, the Cuban experience has made both the West and the Communist world more cautious.

"That caution has to take three directions:

1. The Russians were caught trying to slip a fast one over with their missiles in Cuba. They will be viewed with renewed suspicion no matter what they say, particularly since they lied about the missiles.

2. The missiles, among other things, gave the Russians a chance to see whether President Kennedy was tough enough to do anything about it. He was. They'll have to be cautious about testing him again.

3. The Russian retreat in Cuba, a bad place for them to get into a war, doesn't mean they'll back down somewhere else, if it's more to their liking. So the United States will have to be cautious in any future showdown.

And Rusk, in the hour-long interview, said this country has even "cautioned our friends from drawing too many conclusions from the Cuban experience."

"He said: 'It would be, I think, wrong to say that because this situation in Cuba came out the way it did that therefore a lot of other questions are going suddenly to take a new shape and new form in fundamental respects.'"

"I do think that this experience has caused an element of caution on all sides—in Moscow as well as elsewhere."

One by-product of the Cuban affair — an indirect result that could not have been planned by the Kennedy administration and perhaps was not even thought of at the time—is the increasingly bad blood between the Soviets and Red China.

The latter denounced the Russians for yielding so readily to American warnings to pull their missiles out of Cuba.

The Sino-Soviet split could lead to one of the greatest breaks the West ever got. A real split between the two Communist allies. This, too, is pie-in-the-sky stuff. Rusk reduced this to practicality, too.

He acknowledged "very serious and very reaching" differences between Moscow and Peking. But he mentioned that the differences are not on halting world revolution but only on how to bring it about.

Even on this one he said: "Let's see how the story comes out."

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY — Every once in a while the Lady from Puebla gets out the dress that still fits her and starts checking the length and width in the mirror and of course you know what this means.

Naturally, I do the only intelligent thing which is to hide all the money except maybe five pesos and then hold my breath until I get purple in the face and collapse in the doorway of the bedroom.

Maybe gasp a little and mutter, "Call the doctor. I think I'm having a heart attack."

Well, the other night when I did this she looked amused and said, "You mean call the number you gave me last time when I asked for Dr. Henriquez?"

And I gasped, "That's him."

She just nodded and said, "I saw Dr. Henriquez in the butcher shop where the bum works so don't think you can pull that again just because he puts on a clean white coat to come over and tell you to stay quiet."

"He is only working his way through medical school," I said. "Any outside employment he might have is incidental and a means to an end."

So the Lady said that was the end of shoving off a butcher's assistant as a doctor and to get up and put on my suit that wasn't patched because we were going somewhere. Just short and choppy.

It always happens when I get home from a vicious day at the office and any hardworking man likes to have his slippers brought around and supper served him on the couch and then light up a good cigar and hear Marshal Dillon speak Spanish on television.

But just mention this and you get snide answers like, "Oh those bar stools at the club must be terribly uncomfortable" and "You must be terribly tired from pushing chess pieces around the board all afternoon."

Anyway, she sat on me and took off the shoe I had my money in. I don't know how she does it but she never misses. And then she pulled out my unpatched suit and tossed it to me and said, "Now you're going to take me places like other husbands do."

Well, it was only an idea so I said, "Gee, I didn't know other husbands took you places."

Probably would have been better if I hadn't said it because she got upset and said it wasn't at all funny and that she was simply demanding her rights about going to nice places and having a pleasant time.

So I said, "What about last week when I took you through the Tiger Cement Plant? And last month I showed you all around the slaughter house?"

"Oh sure," she said in such a nasty tone. "Next thing you'll offer me is a picnic at the glue factory."

She always keeps you on such a spot you don't know what to do but finally she said she didn't feel like fixing supper. She wanted somebody else's food and to hear music.

"Okay, I'll go get some tacos at the corner and we can play a few Louis Armstrong records."

But no, she shouted that she wanted to go to exotic places and see strange sights.

So I said, "I thought you were tired of strange sights after growing up watching your relatives sit in trees and peel bananas with their feet."

All I got was a look. "And what about the other day when we walked in your aunt's house and she was hanging from the curtain rod scratching her ribs?"

Well, the Lady from Puebla blew up. "You leave my family out of this and put on that suit. And remember I got the money now."

We wound up in a place where the waiters are dressed like ambassadors and I'll be on dime cigars for a month. She always wins.

The Texas Highway Commission has set next Wednesday as the day for the hearing on the proposed widening of the Big Spring highway here to four lanes from the Deep Creek bridge to the curve near Cogdell Hospital.

Members of the county commissioners court, some city representatives, and a chamber of Commerce representative will go to Austin for the hearing.

FBI Arrests Two Gunmen

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—FBI agents said today that they had arrested two of three gunmen who staged a daring shotgun robbery of a Perth Amboy, N.J., bank branch Nov. 27.

The bandits escaped with $102,176. A shotgun blast one robber fired into the bank floor ricocheted and wounded a woman bank teller.

Late Wednesday night agents arrested two Maryland men, both identified as escapees—in a hotel on the Las Vegas Strip.

Agents said they found two pistols and $20,000 cash in the men's room.

The pair made no resistance. They were identified as William Louis Schech, 28, and Doyle Delmar Royal, 27.

They were booked at the Clark County jail on warrants charging bank robbery. Royal was additionally charged with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution, and Schech with unlawful flight to avoid confinement.

New Causes Of Death Reported

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—In his weekly news letter to constituents, Gov. John Dalton of Missouri listed some causes of death, as reported to the state vital statistics bureau.

They included: "Don't no (sic). Died without the aid of a physician." "Died suddenly, nothing serious." "Deceased died from blood poison, caused by a broken ankle, which is remarkable, as his automobile struck him between the lamp and the radiator."

Gail Braces For Booker

GAIL—Gail's Borden County Coyotes, with a bi-district championship tucked safely under their belts, go for the "big one" in Childers Friday night against the Booker (Lipscomb County) Kiowas of District 3-B. The plum waiting to be plucked in the 7:30 p.m. battle is the regional, eight-man title.

Gail, a 2-B outfit, is undefeated in 11 games this season, and the school has won 67 of its last 70 games. The Coyotes experienced little difficulty in brushing aside 1-B kingpin Three Way in bi-district play last week, 36-6.

The Kiowas are 2-1 for the year, an advance to the regional round on a bye. Their only loss was to an Oklahoma team that is playing for the state championship, and they have amassed 283 points to their opponents' 94. Gail has scored 363 total points in its 11 encounters and allowed its first 74.

Coyotes Put Quintet On All-District

The District 2-B eight-man all-district selections have been announced following tabulation of votes from each coach competing in the district.

Champion Gail nailed down five positions on the two teams named, with offensive and defensive units being selected.

OFFENSE
Ends — Tommy Burrus, Gail, Jr.; Gayland Airheart, Klondike, Sr.
Guards — Larry Davis, Dawson, Jr.; Floyd Halbrook, Loopst, Jr.; Center — Dwight Hill, Wellman, Sr.
Quarterback — Ronnie Sullivan, Wellman, Sr.
Halfbacks — Mike Stephens, Gail, Sr.; Clois Morton, Wellman, Jr.

DEFENSE

then six-man championship of its district.

The Coyotes will be vastly out-weighted when they take the field, averaging only 155 pounds to the performer compared to Booker's 178.

Standouts for Coach Ray Robinson's Kiowas are back Donnie Eccles and lineman Ronnie Eccles and Tom Mounsey.

Turner Will Coach Stars

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — Clyde "Bulldog" Turner of the American Football League's New York Titans will coach the Southwestern All-stars in the Southwest Challenge Bowl game here Jan. 5.

The coaching staff of 10 members of the Southwestern All-star squad were announced Wednesday by Charles Coffey of Southwest Sports, Inc., sponsor of the bowl.

The opposing National All-stars, selected from colleges and universities in other parts of the country, will be coached by Sid Gillmore of the AFL's San Diego Chargers. Selection of Gillman and about a dozen members of his squad was announced earlier.

Rice Testing Florida
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Rice will meet Florida in the opening game of the Gator Bowl Basketball Tournament Dec. 27. Defending champion Rice, coached by George Tech will clash with Georgia Tech the same night. The championship will be decided Dec. 28 in a game between the first night winners.

Hoak Traded To Phillies

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)— Second baseman Bill Mazeroski of the Pittsburgh world championship team of 1960 today following the trade of third baseman Don Hoak on the heels of the departure of first baseman Dick Stuart and shortstop Dick Groat.

The Pirates Wednesday night shipped Hoak, 34, to the Philadelphia Phillies for outfielder Ted Savage and first baseman Pancho Herrera, who was assigned to the Pirates' Columbus farm club in the International League.

Thus, within a space of 10 days, the Pirates acquired five players, all of whom figure prominently in Manager Danny Mortaugh's plans for 1963. Besides Savage, the Pirates acquired five players, all of whom figure prominently in Manager Danny Mortaugh's plans for 1963. Okay, So We Goofed Attention of Snyder News Football Contest participants of this week is called to an inadvertent boo-boo which has Southern Cal taking on UCLA.

The simple truth of the matter, of course, is that those two teams played LAST week, but due to an error that game was misplaced and turned up in this week's contest.

In grading the upcoming entries, it will necessarily be "stricken from the records."

Worries Face Foss

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — With the annual draft meeting scheduled in just two days, troubles, problems and headaches continued to beset American Football League Commissioner Joe Foss today.

As Staubach Goes, So Goes Middies

By HERB THOMPSON
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Navy will peg its offensive hopes against Army Saturday on a sophomore quarterback who watched last year's game from the stands with butterflies fluttering in his stomach.

Roger Staubach says the butterflies will still be there, perhaps more active than ever.

"I have them before every game," he said. "But after the first play I'm all right."

The Cincinnati, Ohio, youngster, 20, is one of the most highly rated sophomores Navy ever has taken into the service classic at Philadelphia.

But both Staubach and his coach, Wayne Hardin, have no doubt about his ability to get the job done.

"Staubach probably has proven himself under fire more times than any other sophomore I've coached," Hardin said this week.

He moved ahead of senior Ron Kliemick and junior Bruce Abel after Navy had lost two of its first three games, in which Staubach played only three minutes.

Since then he has proved to be a dangerous runner as well as one of the best passers the Academy has had among a string of five quarterbacks.

In Navy's money upset of Southern Cal two weeks ago, Hardin installed new pass-run option plays to take advantage of Staubach's running ability. He was the top ground gainer with 113 yards rushing in 19 carries, most of it picked up after he appeared trapped.

Staubach, a 6-foot-2, 190-pounder who is still growing, knows that yardage will come tough against Army.

Walker To Augusta

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)— Albert (Rube) Walker, who managed the Amarillo Gold Sox in the Texas League last season, has been named general manager of the Augusta, Ga., club.

Walker, 36, of Lenoir, N.C., was named to the New York Yankees' farm club post at the minor league baseball meeting.

Among Others

Pittsburgh newcomers included right-handed pitchers Don Schwall and Don Cardwell, catcher Jim Pagnaroni, and infielder Julio Goaly.

Murtaugh said he planned to give Savage, 25, a right-handed hitter who batted .266 in 127 games last year a chance to break into the outfield, now comprised of Bob Skinner in left, Bill Virdon in center and Roberto Clemente in right.

Murtaugh plans to give Bob Bailey, 20, the Pirates' rookie flash, who received a record $175,000 bonus two years ago, a shot at third base. The rest of the infield will be comprised of Donn Clendenon, at first base; Mazeroski at second and Dick Schofield as shortstop.

Philadelphia's Gene Mauch predicted the acquisition of Hoak would end the Phillies' third base problem.

"What a guy like Hoak contributes you're not going to find in the record books anywhere," said the young pilot. "He's the kind of inspirational leader who helps everybody on the ball club."

"Hoak completes our club as having a solid man in every position. I think now the Phillies have the best team they have had in a long, long time."

Hoak dropped off 57 points to 241 in 121 games last season. He was the acknowledged leader of the Pirate infield for four years following his acquisition from the Cincinnati Reds.

Featuring All-Senior Cast
Powderpuff Tilt Scheduled Here
Football with a definite air of femininity is on tap in Tiger Stadium tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock when the senior girls stage their Powderpuff grid extravaganza.

The contest — a first-timer locally — is one which may be established as a tradition in years to come. It is sponsored by the Student Council, and admission will be 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults.

The venture is geared for the seniors, with all participants being of that classification.

Tiger gridders are serving as coaches of the opposing teams. Guiding the Golds will be Kenny Welborn, Gail Read and Tim Hardin, while directing the Blacks are Glen Banks, Dalton Walton and Jerry McDowell.

Referees named to serve are Pete Greene, Riley Boothe, Darrell Raines and Jimmy Laster. Chosen for the cheerleading brigade are Malcolm Bolger, Jimmy Taylor, William Robinson, Carl Bailey, Stuart Long, Bob Carroll, Gene Shelburne, and Tommy Shelburne.

Injuries have already dipped into the Black ranks since workouts began Tuesday, forcing Sue Tree and Paulette Jones to the sidelines.

A pep rally boosting the game has tentatively been planned by the sponsoring group.

The public is issued a cordial invitation to attend the unique contest.

Irving, Berger In Clash Of Unbeatens

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer
Undeclared, untied records go on the line this week in the Irving-Berger game that headlines the start of state schoolboy football playoffs in the upper classes.

Irving topped the 1961 champion, Wichita Falls, from its throne. And Berger long has been one of the top-rated teams of Class AAAA.

This is the lone contest in Classes AAAA and A matching teams with perfect records.

Class AAA and A head into their second round with the defending champions facing rugged fights to stay alive.

Donna, the Class AA titlist, nudged Free last week to the surprise of most critics. But it only convinced them that Donna was pulling another 1961-going into the playoffs picked to lose every game because of early season reversals.

Donna lost three games and tied one in the district campaign, but two of the losses were to Class AAA teams and the tie was with another. Donna started moving as the district race opened and now looks as good as ever.

Albany, the defending king of Class A, meets Monday, a team with a better record and one that poses a real threat to the Lions' bid for a third straight title.

Class AAAA sends El Paso Austin against San Angelo, Sherman against Lubbock, Fort Worth Easters Hills against Dallas Samuell, Houston Bellaire against top-rated Spring Branch, Beaumont South Park against Galena Park, Austin against Brownsville and San Antonio Highlands against San Antonio Brackenridge.

Saturday: San Angelo over El Paso Austin, Berger over Irving, Lubbock over Sherman, Brownsville over Austin (night).

It's important for Foss to create a good image of the future of the league by the time the draft meetings get under way in Dallas on Saturday because the collegians will weigh the merits of both the AFL and NFL before they jump into the pro fold. Many of them will be drafted by both leagues—the NFL draft is scheduled for next Monday in Chicago—and then the annual price battle will start.

Right now, Foss is trying to solve the following problems:

1. What to do with the New York Titans, who have been on the block for five weeks, losing money hand over fist, and in dire need of a fresh bankroll.
2. How to solve the Oakland Raiders' difficulties. The franchise has been up for sale, but negotiations to sell were suspended on Wednesday when a civic campaign was started to keep the team.
3. How to get the San Diego Chargers on an even keel. They are up for sale, but a prospective buyer has pulled out.
4. How to fight off stories that the Dallas Texans are going to be transferred. He got an assist from Texan owner Lamar Hunt Wednesday. Hunt denied he planned to shift the club.
5. What to tell both New Orleans and Kansas City, both of which are angling for franchises. New Orleans had hoped to get the Oakland or Dallas franchise and Kansas City still hopes to nab

New Zealander Leading

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Bob Charles of Christchurch, New Zealand, shot a 3-under par 68 to take the lead in Wednesday's first round of the National Left-hand Golf Tournament.

Bill Flynn of Peabody, Mass., followed with a 71 in the $10,000 event.

Tied for fifth place with a 77 was Sandy Smith of Andrews, Tex.

QBC Meets Tonight

The final Quarterback Club meeting of the 1962 season is scheduled for tonight at 7:30 in the high school cafeteria.

A review of Snyder's 14-12 Thanksgiving Day district win over Lake View will be given, and the film of that game will be shown for the benefit of members in attendance.

Tiger game coach Ned Underwood will also appear on the program of the evening in order to brief the club on its upcoming prospects for the 1963-63 campaign.

THE THOUGHT OCCURS—

Architect Credits Birdhouse With Launching His Career

BY INEZ ROBB

Architectural prizes and or-plums have dropped steadily into the lap of Edward Durrell Stone since he built his first house in Payetteville, Ark. The Athens of the Ozarks (almost a half-century ago).

That structure was a birdhouse (designed for bluebirds), entered in a birdhouse contest. It won him top prize, which was $2.50. The prize and the tremendous sum involved forever seduced Stone into building via architecture.

Now one of the world's most-distinguished architects, thanks to that faraway birdhouse, Stone has just written his first book, "The Evolution of an Architect." It is distinguished by the same Arkansas drawl, laced with wit, kindness and never a dull moment, that distinguishes his conversation.

The architect who has won one of the greatest architectural prizes of the century, the creation of the National Cultural Center on the banks of the Potomac in Washington, D. C., has definite ideas not only about buildings, but about cities and the creation of beauty and comfort for poor, old Homo Sapiens — too often abandoned amid urban sprawl.

"I," Stone said the other day at his elegant midtown Manhattan office — "if the private automobile could be abolished from the streets of New York we would be living in paradise. That goes for other great cities, too.

"Venice is heaven, the dream city of millions of urban tourists from all over the world, because it has no automobiles. We all admire the old palaces, churches and museums, and we love the canals.

But the real reason modern man falls in love with Venice is because, as a pedestrian, he is in no danger of sudden death at every crossing.

"And he doesn't have to hunt for thirty minutes for a place to park. It is sheer paradise because there are no motorcars.

"The Grand Canal is Venice's rapid transit system just as the subway is the rapid transit system of other great cities. Venetians either ride the speedy little motorboats, which are their buses, or streetscars, or subway, or they walk," continued the architect whose beautiful pavilion for the United States at the Brussels World's Fair created a sensation in 1958.

"If American cities would have the courage to banish automobiles from their centers and insist that private automobiles be parked on their respective peripheries, the lives of city dwellers would be immeasurably enriched — and lengthened.

"The idea of building great garages in the middle of a city is only compounding madness.

"I believe in a new Cabinet post to be called 'The Secretary of Environment' rather than the 'Secretary of Urban Affairs.'" continued Stone who, in his black astrakhan-collared topcoat, looks like a successful Shakespearean actor who has spent a lifetime dog-ing Macbeth and may start in on

Pensionitis
Hits Today's Middle-Aged

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Sidewalk observations by a Pavement Plato:

The two most widespread ailments among mankind are tooth decay and the common cold.
But the most prevalent disease among American middle-aged men today is a comparatively new one known as "pensionitis."

Tooth decay can be treated and the patient with a common cold can at least be made comfortable while his malady runs its course.
But so far there doesn't seem much that can be done for a person in the throes of pensionitis.

Pensionitis is characterized by an acute delusion that life is better without work. The victim bab-bles endlessly about how much greener the pastures will be when he is 65, gives up his job, and no one will tell him what he has to do. Usually he also makes wild and impossible plans about how he is going to enjoy his final freedom.

The disease is mildly noticeable in men of 35, deepens in intensity in those over 40, and in men past 50 or 55 often becomes a kind of frenzy.

However, in recent years pen-sionitis has spread rapidly among younger segments of the population. Personnel directors report more and more young college graduates are as interested in the company's pension program as in its opportunities for executive advancement.

Except among the rock 'n' roll set — no one really can understand what they talk about, or cares — pensionitis are by far the most popular conversational topic anywhere in the land. Yes, far more popular than old standbys like baseball, politics, the weather, and whether the man next door beats his wife.

If you doubt this, the next time you go to a cocktail party step to the center of the room and announce in a loud, clear voice:
"My company has just put in a whopping new pension program and, boy, is it a good one!"

You will find this is a far better way to become the life of the party than had you merely stood on your head or sat down to the piano and ripped through a Mozart concerto. Everyone will flock up to hear your good news.

The present preoccupation with pensionitis is a rather sad reflection of something basically wrong with our times.

Man has always yearned for security in an insecure world, and for too long he feared old age because for many it meant making the lonely journey over the hill to the nothingness dependent on the charity of his children.

Social Security and the spread of pension programs throughout our economic system are doing much to wipe out that fear and to give the elderly financial independence.

But the trouble with pensionitis is that it makes a pension not an end reward but the actual goal of life.

Junior Editors Quiz on THE AIR

QUESTION: Why is it that the higher the altitude, the less the air pressure?

ANSWER: You'll understand about this if you realize that air has actual weight, as Jack is proving when he drinks pop. In the left hand bottle, the air's weight is pressing down inside it, but nothing happens. In the large bottle you can see what happens when Jack puts it in a straw and begins to suck. The sucking takes the air up out of the straw; now there's no air to press down through it. But the air is pressing down on the liquid and the liquid's own weight starts some of the liquid up through the straw. Since there's nothing to hold it down, the extra weight given by the air pushes the pop up into Jack's mouth. At the right, we show some different air pressures. Boy A looks squashed down, as we might expect him to be with nearly 15 pounds pushing down on every square inch of his body. He really isn't squashed; he's like boy B. The reason is there are pressures inside us which push out to equal the ones which press down.

FOR YOU TO DO: Ride your bike slowly, then suddenly go as fast as you can. You will find that the air resists you a bit, that you have to push your way through it. This should help to prove to you that air is a substance, that it has weight.

Says DeGaulle To Step Down In 1965

PARIS (AP)—A French minister said unofficially Wednesday President Charles de Gaulle had told the cabinet he does not plan to ask for re-election when his term ends Dec. 31, 1965.

The minister, who asked not to be named, told members of Parliament that De Gaulle had told this at a cabinet meeting Wednesday.

De Gaulle would be 75 at the end of his seven-year term.

Cubans Sentenced In 'Economic Crimes'

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Eight Cubans have been sentenced to prison terms ranging from five to 30 days for "economic crimes."

Havana Radio said Wednesday. Offenses included slaughtering livestock without permission, peddling goods on the street and possessing more than 25 pounds of farm products.
