Forty men have reported for practice, Duncan reports, including one four-year letterman, two two-year lettermen, and fifteen men who lettered last season.

"These boys are looking good in their early work-outs, and we believe that spring practice is going to turn up some mighty strong grid

NEIGHBORS PLOW LAND OF ILL CROSS ROADS FARMER

D. S. Morris of the Cross Roads community has been sick for the last year, suffering from heart trouble, and this spring he was not able to plow his land. Knowing this, neighbors gathered at his home one day recently with 11 tractors and listed 190 acres of land and put it in shape for planting. At noon women of the community brought dinner. At the time, Mr. Morris' son, Bill Morris of the Navy, was serving aboard a tender in the Pacific, 10,000 miles away, returning homeward at 6 miles per hour. Last week, he reached Pearl Harbor. Men who helped with the plowing are shown above and include, standing: Wallace Smith, A. V. Jones, Walter Needham, Martin Winegeart, W. L. Sweeden, I. V. Morris, Wayne Cummings, Bill Harwell, C. A. Redecorating Of Palace Drug Store Now Under Way

Redecorating of the Palace Drug Store has been under way during the last week, and plans for further improvements were announced on Monday by Jack Hurst, owner.

The ceiling and walls have been repainted and new fluorescent lights have been installed.

Within the near future additional fluorescent lighting will be put in the display windows and well cases. A new air conditioner will be put in, and probably other improvements will be made later in the spring, the owner said.

"All this is going to make our store a more pleasant and a more attractive place for our friends and customers, and we feel that with these improvements we can serve you better and more efficiently," Mr. Hurst added.

The Wellington Kiwanis Club will give its annual Easter entertainment, a free show, for the boys and girls of Collingsworth County Saturday morning, April 20.

The show will be given at the Ritz Theatre, beginning at 10:00 a. m. and will consist of a series of comedies lasting for approximately an hour, J. W. Holder, president of the club, announced.

Every child in the county is urged to attend this entertainment, which for more than a decade has been the Kiwanis' treat for the children each year at Easter-time.

"We hope that all parents will bring their children for the beginning of the show. In the past we have found that those who missed part of the entertainment were most disappointed, and it is our hope that every child will get every bit of pleasure he can out of the presentation," Horace Clark, manager of the Ritz said.

Approximately 1,500 children are expected to attend the show.

Members of the Kiwanis Club will be on hand to care for the children during the performance.

Rocket Band Wins Honors At Plainview Meet

The outstanding performance of the Skyrocket Band won for that group four ratings of superior or excellent in the district band contests held in Plainview Friday, April 12.

Under the direction of W. R. Faifer, instructor, the band as a whole won a rating of excellent, the second highest given in the contest.

Teddy Joe James, outstanding young high school musician, received the highest rating, superior, for his French horn solo, and also placed excellent in student conducting.

The brass sextet was rated superior in its performance. In this contest it competed with all schools entering the event. Members of the sextet are V. C. Saied, first cornet; Rosemary Strong, second cornet; Jeanne Way, trombone; Louie Beam, bass; and Johnny Cooper, baritone.

The Skyrocket Band this year entered the Class B contests, one grade higher than they have entered heretofore. They competed with bands in towns of from 5,000 to 10,000 population.

"The criticism was most constructive and complimentary," Supt. Logan Cummings announced. "We feel that these boys and girls have done and are doing a grand piece of work and that not only should our school be proud of them, but the entire town as well."

All indications are that the school will have an even better band next year, Mr. Cummings said, since only one member of the Skyrocket band will be lost by graduation this year. A number of students now in the B band will be (Continued on Page Five)

Rev. H. H. Kinkeade, pastor of the First Baptist Church here for the last three and one-half years, is leaving here May 20 to enter the Baptist Bible Institute, a theological seminary in New Orleans, La. The church accepted his resignation Wednesday evening, April 10, at a regular meeting of the deacons.

Student Pilot Cracks Plane Wings Wednesday

The need of a longer landing field on the Wellington airport was shown Wednesday morning, according to Porter Loving, at which time Mrs. Deskins Wells cracked the wings of her plane and damaged the landing gear in landing.

Her motor died on the last gliding turn into the field and the plane was too high to land on that length of field. Mr. Loving said that she did an excellent job of keeping her head. The plane was stopped by the high posts on the north side of the field.

Mrs. Wells was not injured and plans to resume flying as soon as the plane is repaired.

By the overwhelming vote of 286 to 25, voters of the Wellington Independent School District approved the issuance of $100,000 in bonds to build a new ward school for Wellington.

"The vote surprised even those of us who were working closest with it, and we are gratified to know that we have such whole-hearted support of the people of the school district in our plans for school improvement in Wellington," Supt. Logan Cummings said Wednesday morning.

The final figures show an approval of more than 11 to 1.

Mr. Cummings said that the regular course would be pursued in selling the bonds. Upon the expiration of the limitation time, the State Board of Education will be requested to release the bonds which it now holds, and these will be refunded along with the new bonds. Evidence will be presented the board of the need of a new building.

The bonds will then be printed and sold on the open market, subject to the approval of the attorney general and state comptroller.

Although this will take a little time, Mr. Cummings believes that if no hitches come up, this work can be cleared up within two months.

Actual construction will begin as soon thereafter as materials and labor can be secured.

In the meantime an architect will be chosen to draw up plans and specifications for the new building.

Scout Hut Fund Grows

A fund raising campaign last week brought nearer to reality the long wanted Scout Hut for Wellington Boy Scouts. Sandy Parsons Jr., reported this week that $518 was contributed by Wellington business men interested in seeing the hut built.

Arrangements were made last year to build the hut in Ellison Park. All materials are now on the grounds except windows, which are not available at present, and the foundation has been dug. Actual construction work is due to begin late this week.

The building will be 24 by 40 feet in size, constructed of native rock with double walls and concrete floor. A large fireplace in one end will add to the attractiveness of the room, and lockers will be installed for equipment.

"While the Boy Scouts of Wellington will use the building principally, the hut will be for every Scout in the county and each one will always be welcome. It's going to give our boys a real home for their Scouting activities, and those of us who are working with them feel that it will greatly increase the interest of the boys of the area in Scout work," Mr. Parsons said.

Approximately $500 more is needed to finance the completed building. Mr. Parsons estimated, and residents of the various communities of the county, as well as other Wellington citizens are urged to contribute to the fund.

In addition to money, several local men have volunteered to work on the building.

Rocket Trackmen To Regional Meet

Two Skyrocket athletes, Ted O'Neil and I. D. Russell, will participate in the regional track meet in Lubbock Thursday, April 18, representing Wellington High School. Russell, who broke the district record in the pole vault event at the district meet in Panhandle, will compete in that contest, the shot put and discus throw.

O'Neil will enter the high jump, pole vault and high hurdles contests.

Gospel Of Christ

(Rom. 1:16)

EASTER

Easter has come to stand for the resurrection of Christ, but it should be a matter of concern that it does not have its origin with Christ or his apostles, nor with Judaism.

If Easter came at the time of Christ's death, it would fall on the 14th of Nisan, which is very rare. It fell on this day (the 1st day of the Passover) in 1825 and the two dates will not coincide again until 2000—if then.

Easter is the anglicized form of a Teutonic goddess, Eostre, the goddess of dawn. The Saxon tribes held a feast to this goddess at the same time the Church of Rome observed Christ's resurrection, and missionaries from Rome's Church borrowed the pagan term for their holiday.

The uninformed will argue that "Easter" is found in the Bible. It is only a faulty rendition, or a love for variety that retains it, and that only once. At this place the word "pascha" is translated "Easter." "Pascha," according to Thayer's Grk.-Eng. Lexicon, means "to passover by sparing."

The Bible knows nothing of Christmas, Palm Sunday, Good Friday, of Easter. Christians demonstrate a more sincere piety by remembering the Lord's death each first day of the week, as He commanded.

THE CANADIAN RECORD front-pages three important yarns this week: Foster Williams is the city's new football coach; the chamber of commerce will survey the city to determine fees for trash collection; and the Canadian Hospital is now open.

MATADOR county commissioners burned up $80,000 in bonds last week and made ready to spend $175,000 for a new courthouse. The first issue was no good; the WPA outlived them a few years ago so the burning was legal—Matador's iron lung fund is only $40 short of its goal, and by press time Matador will wager you they are over the top.

THE HALE CENTER AMERICAN is crowded with front-page news this week. Its Lions Club received its charter; an unscheduled blackout plunged the city into darkness when its power went blooey; contracts were signed for use of its cooperative hospital; and farmers agreed to boost sugar beet acreage by 95 acres.

HOOKER, OKLA., launches a drive for a $40,000 Veteran Memorial building this week with one-tenth of the goal pledged the opening day.

MULESHOE'S new school building will be under construction within six weeks. Its Fat Stock Show is slated for March 16.

CROSBYTON'S $100,000 bond election for civic improvements will be held March 1.

THE LAMB COUNTY LEADER of Littlefield front-pages a pix of its new fire truck and fire fighting equipment this week, and also announces an addition of 10 families to survey many counties of the district as a seismograph crew.

BRYAN and Cecil Waggoner have leased The Claude News, effective as March 1.

SNYDER is participating in the $8,000,000 Texas Electric Power Co's expansion program with an enlarged power system.

PHILLIPS buys six blocks in Dumas this week for housing expansion.

SHAMROCK takes the spotlight this week in announcing 1,000 feet of oil in a wildcat oil well; and then announces March 16 as the date to vote on an $80,000 hospital bond election issue.

CHEYENNE, OKLA., votes March 15 on a $15,000 water works improvement bond issue.

DENVER CITY will, in all probability, be located on the new super highway originating in New Mexico. This city also announces a new airport site for private fliers.

MAYOR W. A. WARREN of Canyon warns his city must vote bonds to build an adequate water plant and expansion system if this West Texas State College headquarters wishes to show progress.

TUCUMCARI, N. M., will vote March 19 on a $40,000 hospital bond issue and on a $99,000 issue for sewers, and at the same time elect five commissioners on the same ballot.

DUMAS proudly announces Cactus units will be used to relieve housing problems of that city, and that the city and Lions Club will study a municipal park program this week.

IN THE CATTLE BUSINESS, same as anywhere else—a ranchman may have a wonderful-looking bunch of cows and good-looking bulls. If they do not nick, the results are apparent both in the show ring and in commercial auction sales. That is, even with good pasture, chemicals, water and feed, it takes proper handling and management.

The same conditions apply to the electric business. Miles of well-constructed transmission lines, neatly-kept substations and impressive generating stations do not complete the service of an electric company to its community. It takes folks seasoned in the "know how" of their business to render proper service and steeped in the customs of this section to sell this section's advantages to the nation.

Employees of this company are proud of their West Texas ancestry, and of their part in rendering, in addition to electric service, community service worthy of this great section.

YOU WOULDN'T BUY AN ELECTRIC LAUNDRY WITH A QUARTER OF IT MISSING...

Yet inadequate wiring can rob appliances of that much performance!

... IN POST-WAR PLANNING—

Wire Ahead

You may spend a good deal on future electrical comforts... a new refrigerator and range, de luxe laundry equipment, advanced heating, perhaps air conditioning, and a host of appliances. Don't undermine this investment. Realize that out-of-date electrical wiring in the house can cut equipment performance 25 per cent to 50 per cent. If you anticipate an increased electrical load on your wiring, make sure you have enough circuits, service devices and outlets. In other words, check up on your wiring plans now and avoid expensive changes later.

Cowboy Reunion Dates Confirmed

Directors of the Texas Cowboy Reunion, Inc. confirmed the tentative dates of July 2nd, 3rd and 4th for the 17th Annual Texas Cowboy Reunion which were set at a meeting last fall. The annual affair, held in Stamford, exceeded all previous attendance records in 1945.

W. G. Swenson, president, presented a plan for a special calf roping event for servicemen and ex-servicemen which was accepted unanimously by the directors. Winner of the event will receive a hand tooled saddle. The ten low roping servicemen and ex-servicemen in the previous two day go-around will compete at the night performance on July 4th for the saddle. All servicemen and ex-servicemen of World War II will be admitted free except for government tax at that performance to witness their buddies successes and failures. Roping is an event that requires constant practice, a deft touch and split-second timing, something the boys in service the past four years have missed.

In attendance at the meeting were: W. G. Swenson, president, L. M. Hardy, vice-president, K. K. Francis, A. M. G. Swenson and A. C. Bishop, secretary.

We've been operated on so often that we'll probably have 'em engrave on our tombstone, "Gone to join his appendix, adnoids, and tonsils."

New Fords Pass 200,000 Mark

DEARBORN, Mich.—Production of cars and trucks by the Ford Motor Company since last July 3 has passed the 200,000 mark.

The total number of units made in the Ford plants is 201,829. This total is made up of 102,114 automobiles and 99,715 trucks.

M. L. Bricker, vice-president in charge of manufacturing, said that Thursday production alone was 1,850 Fords, 281 Mercurys, 56 Lincolns and 1,044 trucks.

He said numerous obstacles still remained, including procurement of steel, threat of a coal strike and the fact that many Ford vendors still are closed due to labor difficulties.

J. R. Davis, director of sales and advertising, has forecast Ford production of 100,000 units in May if there is no halt in output.

AAA Announces Crop Insurance, Cotton Sales

A series of announcements, important to the farmers of the county, were made this week by Millard Brown of the county AAA office.

April 25 is the deadline for signing applications for cotton crop insurance, Mr. Brown said.

"If you are interested in covering your cotton crop with all-risk Federal Crop Insurance, please contact this office or your committeeman before the deadline date," he continued.

Application for dairy feed payment of the January, February and March production must be made by May 31. The rates are 17 cents per pound on butter fat and 70 cents per hundred weight on whole milk.

All 1944-crop cotton still under loan on July 1 will be pooled for the producers account and sold by the commodity credit corporation. Meanwhile, the producers may repay these outstanding loans and redeem their cotton under terms of the loan program.

Based on the present market, farmers should be able to sell much of this cotton at prices that will net them substantial profits, Mr. Brown said. Producers may either sell their equities or redeem the cotton and sell it in the open market. They are urged to market the loan cotton before it is placed in pools.

After final liquidation of all cotton in the pools, the net proceeds, after deduction of all advances and accrued costs, will be distributed among producers in proportion to their interest.

W. Tucker of Los Angeles, Calif. Other survivors are a brother and sister, L. O. Tucker of Hollis and Mrs. Lucy Terry of Reed, 13 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at the O. M. Church Tuesday afternoon with Min. Earl Brochee in charge, assisted by Min. Thomas S. Cunningham. Pall bearers were Frank Thomason, Roy Thomason, Grady Carter, John Kizer, Carr Scott and Otis Royal. Flower bearers were Mrs. John Kizer, Mrs. Elton Conway, Mrs. Otis Royal, Mrs. Grady Carter, Mrs. Emma Adkins and Mrs. Joe Orr.

Federal Approval Required For New Building Now

A nation-wide network of 71 Federal offices was created recently to administer a sweeping new order restricting many building activities to scarce materials can be channelled into lower cost homes for veterans.

The Civilian Production Administration order, effective now, requires advance Federal approval for all types of construction—dwellings, industrial and commercial buildings and repairs; all except small jobs.

Swiftly following this move to free the materials for the veterans housing, OPA announced that all new construction field offices were expected to be opened soon.

The CPA forbids the start of construction unless each new store, factory or dwelling is approved in advance by one of the CPA offices. This means that factories and expensive homes may be banned wherever the materials are needed to provide shelter for homecoming servicemen and their families.

The 'clamp-down' was similar in many respects to the wartime controls over non-essential building. Almost simultaneously with its issuance, a $253,000,000 housing appropriation bill reached the floor of the House, which passed it almost unanimously and sent it to the Senate.

Besides funds for more than 102,000 temporary dwelling units for veterans, the measure contains money to hire about 4,000 government employees to man the new CPA offices and build up the Washington staffs of CPA and the National Housing Agency.

Veterans' housing, which already gets priority and air, will be authorized promptly, it was stated, but other dwellings will be approved only if materials are available. Construction actually under way as of Tuesday, April 2, may be completed without authorization.

An advisory committee of prominent citizens will work with each CPA field office, small announced, and will review each project "in the light of the peculiarities of the local situation."

The CPA administration gave assurance also that "certain necessary new construction activities will be permitted to go forward side by side with veterans' housing."

These include essential farm, industrial and commercial projects which cannot be postponed, as well as "unusual hardship" cases of civilian approval, but blanket exemption is given to repair, alteration, construction or installation jobs whose cost does not exceed these sums:

1. Houses for five or fewer families or other structures, such as a garage or residential property; also farmhouses—$400 a job.
2. Hotel, apartment or other residential building for more than five families—$1,000 a job.
3. Commercial or service establishment, such as office, store, theater, radio station, gas station—$1,000 a job.
4. Farm buildings, except farm houses—$1,000 a job.
5. Church, hospital, school, public buildings, charitable institution—$1,000 a job.
6. Factory or industrial plant; logging and lumber camp; airport building or bus or train terminal; railway or street car building; research laboratory; motion picture set; utility building, such as telephone or telegraph; gas or petroleum refining or distribution plant—$15,000 a job.

Elizabeth Antoinette Gulley

Who is that stately, dignified girl of the senior class who always has a wark of kindness for everyone? Oh, don't you know? That's Nettie Beth Gulley. Nettie Beth was christened Elizabeth Antoinette when she was born on February 1, 1929 at Wellington, Texas. She is the daughter of Mrs. Frank Gulley.

Nettie Beth has attended school at Wellington only one year. Prior to this she attended school nine years at Samnorwood and one year at Altus, Oklahoma.

Her hobbies are stamp collecting and horseback riding. She chooses English, civics, and economics as her favorite subjects.

While attending school at Samnorwood, Nettie Beth participated in the F. H. T. Club and the Glee Club. Since coming to Wellington she has taken part in the Sub-dub Club.

Though Nettie Beth's plans for the future are incomplete, we know that she will find an abundance of happiness in the years to come.

Ruby Lawanda Scarberry

On December 16, 1927 Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scarberry of Fort Worth Street became the proud parents of a bundle of joy. They named her Ruby Lawanda. Ruby has spent her twelve years of school here at Wellington. During this time she has been a member of the F. H. A. for two years, pep squad two years, and the Dramateer Club, one year.

Being the artist of the class Ruby served two years as art editor of "The Skyrocket" and one year as art editor of the annual. She seems to find a certain fascination in collecting and drawing pin-up pictures, which she says is her hobby. Texas history, speech, and English interest her the most.

She is undecided as to what college she shall attend but is sure the major will be are. After finishing college she plans to choose commercial art, or designing clothes as her profession.

We know by the good work Ruby has done in high school that her art will carry her for toward the top.

Rachel Bethine Adkins

Do you know the girl who really loves to go to school? It is Rachel Bethine Adkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Adkins of Loco, Texas. She proved this by attending for six years without missing a day. Bethine was born August 10, 1930 at Childress, Texas.

Post card collecting, which is a hobby with so many people, is also the hobby of Bethine. She also keeps scrapbooks.

She has shown her activeness in school by being a member of the pep squad for two years, F. H. A. for one year, and the sub deb and service club for one year. She has been a piano student for seven years. Whenever anyone wants anything typed, "Bethine will do it." Because of her good work she was chosen to be annual typist this year.

Bethine seems to be interested in nature and all that concerns it. She shows this by revealing her plans to attend West Texas State Teacher's College where she will major in science. She then plans to become a science teacher.

With her love for nature and the interest she has shown in science while in high school we know she will get a success.

Mary Lou Crouch

Mary Lou Crouch was born September 5, 1927 to Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Crouch in our neighboring state of Oklahoma in a little town by the name of Valliant. She attended Wellington High School only two and one-half years. Prior to coming to Wellington she attended Roosevelt and Classen, both in Oklahoma City. While at Oklahoma City she was a member of the Latin Club and the K. E. Y. Sorority.

Texas Tech has been chosen by Mary to be her place of higher learning. She plans to major in chemistry, after which she will take up research work.

Maybe in the years to come we shall see that Mary has made a discovery to equal or even exceed the splitting of the atom. Good luck, Mary!

Betty Jean White

That little ray of sunlight that entered into the home and hearts of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. White on March 23, 1929 at Quail, Texas, was called Betty Jean.

Before coming to Wellington schools five years ago, Betty attended school one year at Canyon and five years at Quail.

Of her many hobbies Betty especially enjoys sketching and kodaking. Art and history are her favorite subjects.

Being very active in the social life of the school, Betty has taken part in the Glee Club, Sub-Deb Club, F. H. T. Club, and the Spanish Club.

Next year Betty plans to attend W. T. S. C., where she will major in art or business administration.

We know she will be a great success. Wellington wishes the best of everything for one who is really tops.

Evelyn Gay Reeves

Remember the beautiful blond of the senior play? Well, that is one of our most outstanding seniors, Evelyn Gay Reeves.

Gay was born May 6, 1930 at Wellington, Texas, and shortly afterward became known as Evelyn Gay Reeves, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reeves.

Before coming to Wellington four years ago for her high school education, Gay attended school one Gay's hobbies are taking snapshots, attending the movies, and eating. Her favorite subjects are speech and music.

Gay has been a very active student since coming to Wellington. She has been a member of the F. H. T. Club and the Glee Club. She was a piano student for six years. She served as representative on the Student Council for one year and also worked on the school paper for one year. This year Gay is editor of the annual. And—football fans will not soon forget the swell job she did as pep squad leader for two years.

Get The Facts On Social Security, Advice Of Board

It's much better to get the real facts on your questions concerning social security than it is to rely upon the word of some one not familiar with the law. Social Security Board field offices furnish facts on many problems, such as:

Why is a social security account card necessary?

What jobs are covered under the law?

Why benefits may be endangered by a worker having more than one account card?

What the account number means to a wage earner?

What are survivors' benefits and who gets them?

What are retirement benefits and to whom are they paid?

How may a wage earner find out about his wage record?

How much will "my own" benefits amount to at age 65?

How may a wage earner get a correction on his wage statement?

Answers to these and many other similar questions are contained in Social Security Board pamphlet No. 35 which may be obtained by calling at or writing to the Social Security Board Field Office, Amarillo, Texas. Also, the personnel in the Amarillo office are always glad to answer any questions of persons calling at that office.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

Now... no wheat used in beer or ale

And wheat alone can solve the problem of feeding the world's hungry

Actually wheat has never been a large item in the brewing process—only $\frac{8}{10,000}$ of the entire U. S. wheat crop was used in 1945:

In accordance with United States Government policy, the brewing industry has used no wheat whatever since March 1, 1946.

OTHER MATERIALS CUT 30%

The other grains used have been reduced by 30%—that is, to 70% of the 1945 amount.

Wheat alone can solve the problem of feeding the hungry. The grains to which the industry is now restricted, are of a variety and grade not normally consumed by the people of the world as food.

LESS BEER AND ALE

Altogether, the brewing industry is using 30% less materials than in 1945. This results in a proportionately lower production. But since the current demand for beer and ale is about 25% greater than a year ago, the real shortage is nearer 50%.

Consequently, your dealer will not be able to supply you with all the beer and ale you would like. We know you will understand the reason for this.

Your attention is earnestly directed to the recommendations of President Truman's Famine Emergency Committee, which are summarized in the box below.

This statement tells in clear, simple terms what each of us individually can do to help during the emergency.

What the President's Famine Emergency Committee asks us all to do

1. Save and share wheat and fat products . . . Go light on all foods that take wheat, fats and oils—save breads, macaroni, cakes, cookies, pastries and deep-fried foods. Use drippings for pan-frying. Save salad oil—use boiled dressings.
2. Buy and serve more plentiful foods . . . Balance diets with the more plentiful foods, such as potatoes, fresh fruits and vegetables.
3. Waste NO food . . . Dress up today's leftovers for tomorrow. Make every crust count with melba toast, crumb-toppings, bread puddings and stuffings. Take no more than you can eat. Clean your plate. Turn in unusable fat salvage promptly.

Deck's DIDACTICS

Another correction: The story run about H. C. Morrow buying a farm in Collingsworth County was correct with the exception of one detail. He did buy it through the Farm Security Administration. But to get in the interesting fact that he was the first veteran to buy a farm with any type of Federal loan, I wrote: "He is the first veteran in Collingsworth County to buy a farm under the GI Bill of Rights." Even this sentence is half correct. He is the first veteran to buy a farm; but he bought it exclusively through the Farm Security Administration. There was no connection with the loan plan of the GI Bill of Rights. FSA set aside 25 million dollars for loans to veterans.

Our Winnie Fain, formerly of Wellington, is going to town as manager of national advertising on the Amarillo Globe-News. This is what Paul Allingham, advertising manager, told me in Amarillo last week. He also told Jimmie Gillentine that to him the two most interesting weekly papers in the Panhandle were The Wellington Leader and The Hereford Brand. To which Jimmie replied: "Where in the hell did you think I learned some of my stuff. I worked for Deck for over six years."

Mr. Allingham also told me another item that will be interesting to many Wellington people. Cal Farley, who wrestled here in the twenties and who has made a number of Rotary speeches in Wellington, has just about abandoned his business in order to devote his entire time to Boys Ranch at Old Tascosa. He told his executives and employees that he would come by once in a while to check up and advise with them. He is going to spend his time going over this area seeking boys that could be helped at Boys Ranch, and in directing the affairs of the Ranch. Cal Farley got his inspiration from Dutch Mantell.

Cal Farley's work is all to the good. But is there not a need for something similar for girls? Boys Ranch is for boys who were raised in unfavorable environments. Even though they have fallen into bad ways, there is a means of raising them to the stature of useful citizens. The question I ask the Panhandle is why not do something about the boys' sisters? Nothing is done for them. They walk the streets and drift into the channels of commercialized vice. Some of the more decent go to maternity homes; but there should be something done for unfortunate girls long before they become pregnant and have to go to a maternity home—some of which are not too good.

Little Celia Ray Anderson, age 3, ate dinner at our house Sunday before last. Her description of the meal gave me some embarrassment. She said that Marian gave her a glass of milk; but that Deskins Wells took it away from her. Her parents could not believe it; but she was more or less correct. She was eating cake and seemed to be enjoying it so much. She seemed to hesitate on the milk. I set her glass in the middle of the table and gave her a glass of ice tea.

Sandy Parsons Jr. was around last week raising funds for the Boy Scout building at the park. He received fairly good support. The point I want to make is this: If he needs more money, let's get it into his hands promptly.

Bura Handley says that there is going to be a story on the future plans of the city. This will concern plans for the swimming pool, the water system, the air port and an overall bond issue that concerns the whole development of the town. Congratulations, Mr. Handley. It is about time that the people learned about some of these things.

Austin O'Neil Sr. has been over to consult with me about tickets and methods of raising funds for an enlarged building to take care of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. It has not been decided as to whether there will be a building exclusively for the VFW or whether this will be a joint building with the American Legion. The real decision will rest with the younger men; but the old ones are ready and willing to help.

Merritt James of the Lewis and James Grocery told me of something of the problems they are up against. He says that OPA has ruled that no meat market can sell any meat unless it is graded and stamped by a government grader. The hitch to that is that there is no government grader in Collingsworth County. What this means is that the present OPA regulations are channeling more and more foods into the black market.

Mrs. Percy Wells came by with a long document on OPA which concerns dresses. But what she brought me may explain why you are not receiving the kind of dresses you would like to have at something like the price you would like to pay.

Here is part of the testimony of one dress manufacturer: Under the Maximum Average Price regulation I am not permitted to sell as many $6.95 to $14.95 dresses as I could produce because I cannot obtain sufficient material for $2.95 to $4.95 dresses to average out against the $6.95 to $14.95 dresses. This regulation then curtails my production of $6.95 to $14.95 dresses, even though its supposed purpose was to increase their supply. The same type and quality of material that I cannot manufacture into the dresses of this price range is sold in $19.95 and $29.95 dresses, and even in those selling as high as $49.95, with the OPA's blessing. Some manufacturers are free to produce these higher priced dresses because they had ceased to manufacture the lower price groups by 1943, or manufactured only one price line instead of several in 1943, or they come under contractor's regulations, or they are new in the business, or they escape the Maximum Average Price regulations for other reasons.

Here is to a lighter subject: Our Wellington band won second place in class B in the District meet at Plainview. That is no small honor.

Editorial

It is downright refreshing in these days when prices are skyrocketing on every hand to find some important commodities and services are still "holding the line"—and some even being reduced.

We don't give a "hoot" why Texas Electric Service company announced a reduction of rates for electric current. We don't care whether our bill is 1 per cent or 50 per cent less than it was before the rates were reduced—what makes us happy is to know that there are still some concerns—whether the Texas Electric Service company or the Roscoe, Snyder and Pacific railroad—who can and will, in the face of rising costs, reduce the charges for its services or commodities.

This newspaper wants to express its appreciation to J. B. Thomas, or Beeman Fisher, or T. P. Johnson, or all three, or to whoever is responsible for permitting us to cut Reddy Kilowatt's wages.

If Texas Electric can manage its affairs so it can reduce the cost of its services, it follows that other firms, corporations, or individuals could do likewise, if they so desired, and still make a good return on the investment.—Nolan County News.

There is a bright side to the unusually large number of divorces current in Hollywood. It indicates a sizable crop of June brides.

Other Editors Say

• Compulsory Training

The army is confident that Congress will eventually pass the bill providing for compulsory military training. To our way of thinking it is going to be tragic when the 18-year-old boys are taken overseas to do police duty instead of being allowed to continue their education. Why not have military training in all colleges? Let youth get the fundamentals of military training while it goes to school. That was the practice before World War I, and it proved efficient. Whatever of military knowledge they learn today will be obsolete tomorrow. All they will get is military discipline, and in college it will not be handed out by tough sergeants who make outlaws of the boys.—The Canyon News.

• The 36th

I do not believe that Mark Clark should be court-martialed. I do not believe he can be legally held responsible for tactically erroneous judgment. But he has proved that he is not the capable officer that the higher-ups have promoted him to be. His advancement has been based more on his exceptional personality and diplomatic ability—both of which are undeniable—than upon his ability as a military leader. He is headed to be the chief of staff of the army unless someone like Miller Ainsworth, Carl Phinney, and Fred Walker can stop him. They should. I believe they will.—Vincent Lockhart in The Canadian Record.

• Night Hawks

Reports in the press that in some towns irresponsible people are destroying property in the dark hours of night just for the heck of it seems to be a recurrence of the same kind of vandalism that followed World War II with a hangover that was evident again during the first years of the depression. A vacant or unguarded house and premises is left a shambles when one of these little forays finishes. Generally youngsters get the blame. In Floydada recently the outbreak took the form of a street light crashing crusade. It appeared that one night's performance called for another the next night or two in a sort of contest. During the lamp shortage the matter got to be a sort of serious one, aside from the heavy expense involved. Gangs that have that kind of complex just have to be rounded up and stopped, but that is sometimes easier said than done.—The Floyd County Hesperian.

• Modernity

Modern girls don't care if their hair does look like a mop—they don't know what a mop looks like.—The Paducah Post.

LETTERS FROM MEN IN SERVICE

Pvt. William D. H. Lucas of the Motor Transport Company in the Sixth Service Depot of the Marines wrote the following letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lucas of Wellington.

Pearl Harbor, Oahu

Dearest family,

How is everything at home now? I hope everything is coming along swell. I suppose you must have been worried half to death by not hearing from me in so long. Well, the next day after I wrote you last I was called to the Co. office with seven other men, as we had been chosen to go to Main and pick up 51 ducks (amphibious ducks) and take them to Tsientsin, China. We were guards on board ship. It took us 36 days to reach China, and what a trip! Some of the boys were seasick, but I guess I was lucky. After we delivered the ducks, we had to stay there for almost a month. The Lieutenant in charge was really a swell guy, and we had liberty almost every day and night. But I'll tell you more about the Chinese when I get home.

We flew back in a B-24 bomber and stopped at Iwo Jima, Guam, Saipan, and several more of the Islands. Iwo Jima sure looked different from what I saw the last time I was there. We also stopped at Tokyo, Japan.

Lights go out in five minutes so I'll have to hurry and get this finished. I guess I'll get all my back mail soon and I should as I have over two months mail that I haven't gotten. Have you ever made any pictures yet? Please make some of all the beautiful scenery around home, and this includes the cottonwood trees, and the Salt Fork River. I want to show these Yankees how beautiful Texas is. I'll be sending some pictures home soon myself.

I must close. All I can say now is I love you, Don't forget it.
Your son,
Buster

empty stage where days of childhood once danced. * * * * *

On the safe side of the strange and mighty river, Canadian rises with the hills to view vast prairies cut with cattle trails through forgotten years. The Panhandle's most picturesque town looks down on the dry river and sees written in the sands the unmistakable message of progress. Echoes of vanished spurs are muffled in silence when the moon swings high above enchanted hills and old Canadian sleeps to dream rich dreams pillowed in the lap of certain destiny. * * * * *

Webs of concrete entangle the sandals of those who have tasted the sweet and treacherous wine of too much wondering. * * * * *

Nature conducts classes in such strange places that I frequently forget to be sufficiently alert and fumble the answers. High wind drove the scurrying tumbleweeds against bright strands of wire, taut between the posts. They formed a brown hedge that continued to grow. Fate seemed to have settled on the little weed that moved faster than the others; it would become an unknown element in the mass of weeds caught against the wire. Instead, it bounced over the fence on other weeds, like a man touching lightly on the shoulders of fallen friends, to gain an objective. * * * * *

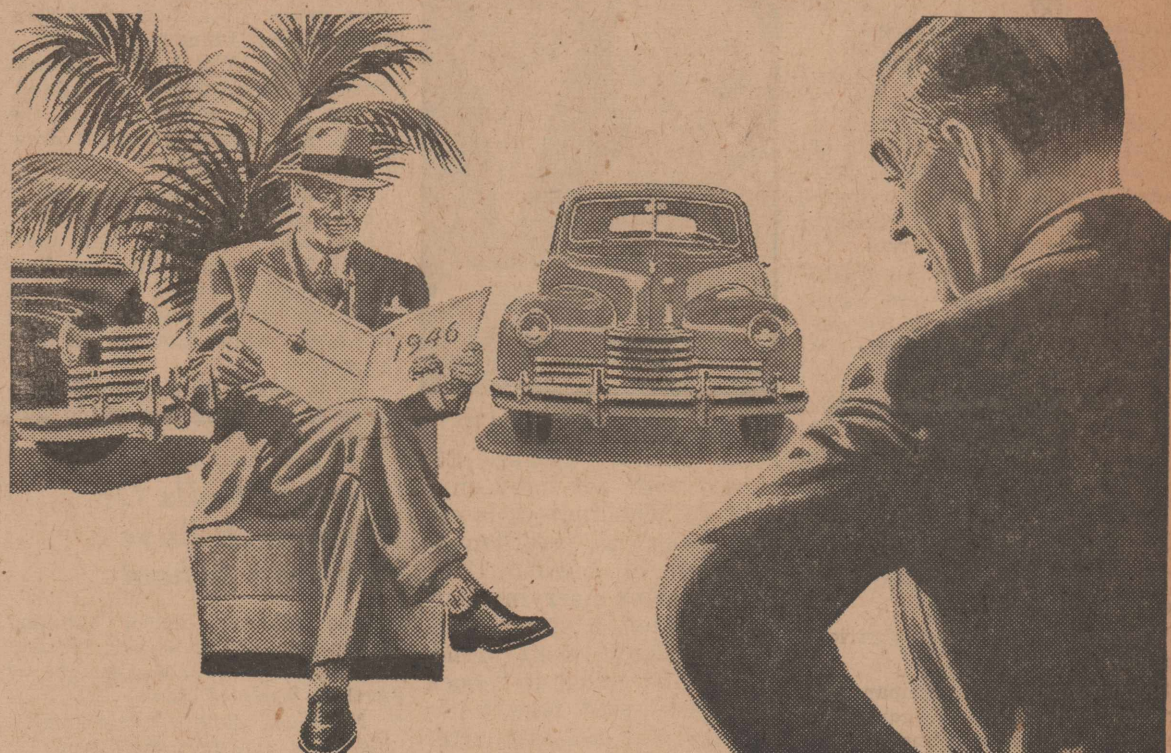

It is pleasant to live in a country where a man can carry a coil of new lariat rope down the street without becoming an object of curiosity. * * * * *

Life hides much of its pain; scars from wounds that are deepest never show.

Perhaps it is well that I shall never paint or attempt to capture the beauty of a golden windmill, motionless in garments of crimson cloud-cloth at the altar of a Texas sunset. Some splendor is too fierce to tame. * * * * *

Laughter is a tonic that feeds the famished soul; tears wash the panes of our eyes that we may more clearly see the truth.

"Okay, just so the engine's OIL-PLATED!"

"This one is . . . and you're 101% right," the car salesman agrees. He goes on to explain, "We want this car to show you real engine endurance—which means the least carbon, sludge, and upkeep you can have. That's goodwill for us. And all it takes to keep your engine's insides OIL-PLATED is Conoco Nth motor oil. . . . Say, this time you're figuring to treat your new car right!" . . .

Many of the oldest cars, too, are being kept in the running by having their engines OIL-PLATED. This internal wear-fighter—OIL-PLATING—is created by magnet-like action. That comes from Conoco Nth oil's added ingredient—surfacing your engine's insides with durable OIL-PLATING. There's your barrier against lots of wear. You can have it in any car—any model or year—by driving around to Your Conoco Mileage Merchant's station. You'll get your correct Spring grade of Conoco Nth oil—and an OIL-PLATED engine. RECONVERSION DELAYS?

NO! It's ready now

THE "Quonset 40"

This is one big item that the Navy bought to the tune of 154,000—the "Quonset" many-purpose building used in winning the war in the Pacific.

It has proved its value on every island hop between here and Tokyo . . . has taken more abuse in war than it will ever receive in peace, and has proved to be as rugged, durable and flexible as our fighting men themselves.

Now, the "Quonset 40"—big brother of the famous "Quonset Hut"—is ready for peacetime industry. It may be the answer to some of your building needs, permanent or temporary.

It is 40 feet wide, and can be built in any length. All-steel, it will not rot, sag or warp; and it's fire-safe. It is easy to erect, with Stran-Steel framework—and the outer wall is nailed to the steel structure. It is roomy, too—all clear space inside.

See us today for information about this economical, all-purpose building.

• Build it as large as needed—the "Quonset Multiple" makes possible any width or length desired by standard-sized additions.

• The famous "Quonset 20" returned to civilian life, modified to meet peacetime need; 20 feet wide; length whatever you desire.

• Solid, low-cost construction for standard-type buildings. Use Stran-Steel framing with the patented nailing groove in studs and joists; supplied complete to blueprint specifications with all necessary joining devices.

"Quonset" buildings and Stran-Steel framing are products of Great Lakes Steel Corporation, a unit of National Steel Corporation

BABY BRINGS SIGHT

Mrs. Shirley Vetter, 25, shown with her baby on a visit to Washington, is experiencing a providential blessing. In August 1944, shortly after marrying Bernard Vetter, a serviceman, she suddenly went blind. Physicians called it "shock blindness," said they knew no cure. But last July, after giving birth to her baby girl, sight began to return. Gradually she saw the baby's outline. Now her eyes are normal again.

Lindsey Notified Of Winning In Bantam Show

V. H. Lindsey, local fancier of bantam chickens, last week was notified that seven of his birds were winners in a show which they entered from January 19 to 23.

The Fort Worth All Bantam Show, in which they were entered, is the largest of its kind in the world, and this year's event drew 1534 birds.

Mr. Lindsey won first on a white crested black Polish cockrel, which was judged the best male Polish in the show. He won first and second on hens, second and third on pullets and second and third on white Cornish bantam hens.

He is unable to account for the delay in notifying him of his winnings.
