Stenholm representatives talk with all concerned

Aides answer hospital questions

Bill Longley and Dale King of the Abilene office of Congressman Charles Stenholm were in Colorado City, Thursday, to talk to hospital personnel, doctors and citizens, who had been writing and calling the Congressman's office concerning the discontinuance of Medicare service, effective August 1st. Included was Gus Armstrong of Loraine, spokesman for the senior citizens of that community. Armstrong asked them if it were possible for them to intercede at the federal level to prevent termination of Medicare on August 1st. "No," they said, "that's already been done. What we can hope for now is a speedy resumption of Medicare to Mitchell County." They could not predict when service would be restored. "You're doing what you need to do to get Medicare restored," King said, "that's asking for recertification and cleaning up the deficiencies in the hospital." King said that the whole community needs to stick together until the problem is solved. "Doctors, the hospital administration, the hospital board and the people of the county. They should all back each other up until we get Medicare back. Then, if there's some things that need to be done, then would be the time to do them." Hospital Administrator Ray Dillard says that the application for recertification went in two or three days ago, and all the deficiencies have been cleared up. "All except," he said "the certification of the abilities and training of the doctors." Dillard said that doctors must be certified as to the training they've See HOSPITAL, Page 2

Clean up campaign set, August 5-11

Plans are in the works for operation "Sparkle Colorado City," August 5-11, a week set aside each year for the beautification of our town.

The organizational meeting was held Friday morning at City Hall. Mildred Free was appointed project chairperson.

Ideas were tossed back and forth as the committee sought ways to involve the entire community in the project and to cover as much area as possible.

Of special consideration is the four entrances to town and Brenda Tarter, City manager, made the suggestion that the City enlist the help of four community-spirited youth groups (or more if possible) to be responsible for the roadside cleanup. If your group would be interested in helping out, call Mildred Free at 728-8445.

Mrs. Free is also asking for volunteers who would commit themselves to involving their neighbors in a mutual neighborhood beautification awareness. Plan a block party to get it all done and help each other.

If you would be responsible for enlisting the help of your block, let Mildred know.

The City will be helping in every way possible to assist the community in their endeavors. You might as well make it Spring Cleaning Week and really make use of the extra run the Sanitation Department will make through the city. Everything will be picked up if placed in a routine pick-up places, or you can phone 728-3436 for a large load.

Further, for Sparkle Colorado City Week the dump will lift their gate fee for those who choose to haul their own trash off. To encourage maintenance of property beautification, the dump will continue to offer a "free" day the first Monday of each month. See CLEAN, Page 2

Gramm to visit here next Sunday

U.S. Rep. Phil Gramm, candidate for the U.S. Senate, will attend a public reception for Mitchell County residents at 5 p.m. at the Lone Wolf Electric Co-operative reception room in Colorado City on Sunday, July 29.

Gramm is best known for co-authoring the Reagan economic recovery program, and for resigning from Congress and winning re-election as a Republican after Tip O'Neill stripped him of his Budget Committee seat in reprisal for his successful efforts to control spending.

Bob Reilly, local Republican County Chairman, said today the visit by Gramm would be an excellent opportunity for Mitchell County residents to visit and meet Phil Gramm. "There is a world of difference between him and Lloyd Doggett," Reilly said.

The congressman, who won the Republican nomination with an extraordinary 73 percent of the vote against three opponents who spent a total of $4 million, said Texans deserve an issue-oriented campaign in the general election race for the U.S. Senate this year.

"The people of Texas face a clear choice between two dedicated advocates of distinctly different philosophies of government," Gramm said. "I have spent six years in Congress working for a balanced budget, lower taxes, greater economic opportunity for the working people of this country and a strong defense. My opponent has consistently demanded higher taxes, more spending and less defense."

Where Congressman Gramm introduced a balanced budget amendment to the Constitution on his first day in Congress-January 3, 1979-Lloyd Doggett voted against the resolution adopted by the Texas Legislature which urged approval of the balanced budget amendment. Voters conservative on Ferraro issue

By KATHY HAMMOND Staff Writer

The Colorado City RECORD polled local voters during the National Democratic convention this past week to see how they felt about having a woman receive the nomination for vice-president. The results were unpredictable to say the least.

Men and women, representing roughly 10 percent of the registered voting public, were polled. Men were more reluctant to express their views than women but tended to be more moderate in their opinions. Women as a whole were decisive and surprisingly conservative on this issue.

Women polled expressed the opinion, overwhelmingly that however they vote, whatever they think about Ferraro's qualifications, they believe (three to one) that her nomination for vice-president is purely a political ploy to gain votes from the minority sector including the bloc of women voters.

Only 25 percent believed that she was chosen to extend leadership and representation to that bloc of voters.

Another confusing element to the poll is the number of women voters who believed that having a woman in the office of vice-president would elevate the issue of women's right and yet by a majority (69 percent) the same women expressed the opinion that the time was not ripe for a woman vice-president.

Sorting through the reasons for this hesitation we find the fact that many women are opposed to the "right of abortion" and "homosexual rights" proposed in the Equal Rights amendment which Mondale declared to push through Congress if elected.

Other reasons include Ms. Ferraro's immoderate stance on marriage and tradition and the question in the back of everyone's mind was whether she could handle the top position if something happened to the president. Others had favored Hart and had not committed themselves to Mondale.

Women were more than fair when asked whether they would vote for Ms. Ferraro to open doors for other women to be chosen for top government positions: they said (7 to 1) that their votes would not depend on gender alone but on qualifications, position and political views.

Sixty-two percent of women polled felt that Ms. Ferraro was qualified for the position as far as education and political experience, and many said they will vote for the Democratic ticket-Ferraro or no Ferraro. The give-away was the doubts expressed that they can beat Reagan.

A few women went so far as to change from confirmed Democrats to reluctant Republicans on Ferraro's account.

One surprising thing our poll revealed is that older women were more open and enthusiastic about Ferraro's nomination because she was a woman and it was their opinion that "it's about time."

Men in Colorado City were moderate in most phases of the poll questions but were divided 50-50 on the issue of whether this is the right time for a woman to be nominated to the top positions: many simply said, "Why not?" That was a more liberal attitude than most women had.

Out of the "no" group, Ferraro got two "yeses" and a "maybe" as to her qualifications for the job. Out of the "yes" group, 3 in 4 men felt she had the necessary qualifications; 1 in 4 felt a woman vice president would be acceptable but that Geraldine Ferraro didn't fit the bill.

Men felt, unanimously, that Mondale was making a play for votes when he nominated Ms. Ferraro but again men were divided, although See VOTES, Page 2

The neighborhoods near College and Hwy. 208 will be invited to show the rest of the city how it's done as a picnic lunch and ice cream will be provided for kids involved in the project Saturday, August 4. Let the kids lead the way," Joy Culwell said. Property owners are encouraged to evaluate old, falling down houses and unused fire-trap buildings and call the City to demolish these eyesores. "These houses are dangerous to children who play around them," Mrs. Culwell said. It was also stated that due to the dry weather, the buildings falling into this category are a fire hazard which endangers the rest of the city. Brenda Tarter said that a release will have to be signed before the City can do anything.

The City Council will also be doing some evaluating during these weeks prior to Sparkle Colorado City Week as they will personally view blighted areas and make recommendations for City assistance. Buzz Rich, public works director, said that he will have a crew painting curbs and parking stripes downtown. Also the committee asked him if there was a possibility of placing trash barrels in the downtown area and when assured that it could be done, they decided to go with that idea and further to have them painted in the CHS colors of red and black to show our pride in our schools as well as our town.

The Chamber of Commerce will present awards to the most improved sections of town.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor
and fellow taxpayers of the Mitchell County Hospital district:

Isn't it ironic that the same two "Doctors" who, by their outright refusal to sign their medical records, caused the loss of Medicare benefits to our hospital, are now telling us what good care they can give us at Rolling Plains Hospital in Sweetwater?

Our tax money doesn't go to Rolling Plains Hospital, it goes to Root Memorial Hospital. But, thanks to the flagrant disregard for rules and regulations, the very people who have paid most of these taxes since the organization of the hospital district are now being told, "Sorry about that! You will just have to go somewhere else!"

Never mind some people won't make it somewhere else. Never mind some can't afford even one trip out of town and the extra expense.

What a shame it is that two outsiders can come here and destroy what some of our people have spent 20, 30, and even 40 years to build.

We had a hospital any community could be proud of. We had specialists who came several times a month for our convenience. We had a hospital where care was given on a personal level. No one was just a room number and diagnosis. We were cared for by people who knew us by our first names and who were concerned about our welfare.

But, friends and fellow taxpayers, all that is gone unless we demand that those who are responsible make restitution, if possible. If they cannot, or will not, then perhaps they should look for "greener pastures" and let us try to put back together that which a few people seemed determined to run and ruin.

To The Editor:

AN OPEN LETTER TO MR. LEMONS AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MITCHELL COUNTY HOSPITAL DISTRICT
Dear Mr. Lemons, President, and Board Members:

I am writing this letter with the hope of getting some answers to some questions concerning the extremely serious position the people of this county, young and old, find themselves in as a result of the suspension of Medicare funds for services after August 1, 1984. Of course, a suspension of "ONLY" thirty days will probably do irreparable harm to the district financially, but the harm done to the people who want and should use the facilities can be catastrophic. Therefore, since you, by your oath of office, are committed to protecting the interests of the people in the proper operation and administration of the hospital, I feel you are obligated to us to answer the following questions:

1. Was the Board informed as to the deficiencies found in the inspections as they occurred, and if so, were plans formulated for correcting them?

2. (a) Were the doctors given ample opportunity for signing the records?

(b) Did any doctor or doctors refuse to sign the records and if so, what were their names?

(c) Were the doctors informed of the seriousness of not complying with all Medicare regulations in return for the privilege of remaining on the staff?

3. What steps have you taken to correct the problems that have led to this critical situation and to see that it cannot happen in the future?

Mr. Lemons, the information that the public has received appears to be based on rumors and we are entitled to more than that. It seems that one man, Mr. Dillard, has, through his inept administration of the hospital, placed us, the Senior Citizens, as well as the young, in an intolerable situation of which we knew nothing until the radio and the RECORD informed us last week.

All of the deficiencies seem to have been administrative. If some had required a large sum of money to correct, then I could understand problems in compliance. But under the circumstances I feel that there is no excuse, and the Administrator, Mr. Dillard, should be immediately suspended or dismissed and an investigation conducted by the Board with the possibility of replacing others who are at fault. If this were done, it is possible that Medicare might be a little more receptive to please for re-instatement.

I write this letter with the utmost respect for you, Mr. Lemons, and the Board of Directors and hope that it will be considered as coming from a very concerned citizen who feels that some of us just might have been dealt a mortal blow by not being able to use the facilities of the Root Memorial Hospital at a critical time.

Very truly yours,
August (Gus)

Flag, patriotism special to AARP

The pledge to the flag is a regular feature of the meeting of the American Association of Retired Persons but it seemed rather special following Margaret Ann Conaway's presentation of "What is an American" at the July 16 meeting.

Following a covered dish luncheon in the C. Thompson Room of the City National Bank and a brief business meeting during which "Anthony Dollars" (donated by Fuller Foods), were awarded by a draw out of the hat to ten lucky members. Michael Brown's poem was read to the group.

"It is appropriate that at this time we let our thoughts dwell on our American heritage, our way of life and the statement "just what is an American..." as we pay tribute to the millions who have sacrificed their lives for our freedoms and commemorate our country's birthday." Mrs. Conaway went on to say.

And speaking of the esteem with which we hold the American flag, she continued, "An American finds nothing at all unusual about getting cold chills when his flag passes in review, for his flag has always been a source of inspiration: when the smoke cleared over Fort McHenry, when it's sheen was reflected on the sands of Iwo Jima, and when the colors glistened on the side of the craft which took the first man to the moon."

She addressed the freedom that is symbolized by the flag as she added, "An American sees nothing strange about getting a lump in his throat when the National Anthem is played, or weeping unashamed when taps is played for one who paid the ultimate price for his freedom. He realizes that the only thing that exceeds that price is the freedom itself."

Mrs. Conaway told the group that an American should never forget the indebtedness he has because of that sacrifice, for without it, his freedom would only be "an unreachable concept in some philosopher's mind."

She closed her talk by sharing with the group an essay entitled "I Am an American" by Elizabeth Ellen Evans.

The following attended the meeting: Jeanette Lemons, Lona Pritchett, Annie Dixon, Lorie Pruitt, Pearl Wood, Anna Steger, Eleanor Jeffries, Juanita Coker, Emery Nunn, Velma Pond, Eddie Barclay and Angie and Bill Harris.

Also attending were Arnel Smith, Willie Brooks, Juanita Schafer, Dewey Davis, Betsy Davis, Garvice Craghead, Allie Hammans, Ruthie Lindley, Thelma Matlock, Ivan Barber, Velma Moseley, Rochelle Smith and Elnora Barber.

Others present were Ruby Cawthron, Bonnie Rurt Margaret Oyler, Lewis Elliott, Elizabeth Elliott, Marie Feaster, Nelda Garrett, Ethel Hardegree, Wilma Womack, Linnie Williams and guests, Judy Williams, Margaret Ann Conaway, Sallie Rogers, and Blanche Bell.

President of the club is Lona Pritchett.

Couponing class new at center

The Wallace Center is offering a new class to help those persons desiring to save money on their grocery bill.

The class will meet twice a month in August. The first meeting will be on Thursday, August 2, at 9 a.m. The second meeting will be on Tuesday, August 21 at 9 a.m. There will be a $5 monthly fee per person for this class.

Doris Dockrey, the instructor, will teach you how to save money by using coupons and refund forms. With only a little effort you will be able to go home and make your $5 back and hopefully much more.

Time will be available for exchanging unwanted coupons with others. Information will be given as to refunds available by mail.

A minimum of 20 persons is needed to start the class. All interested persons are asked to register at the Wallace Center before July 31. For more information call 728-2392.

BEAUTY LAWN SERVICE OF WEST TEXAS

GRUB WORM PROBLEMS:

From around the middle of July until the first hard freeze, grub problems can occur.

Diazinon is still the most effective insecticide for our area. We include Diazinon in our mix during this period, but since it is a systemic insecticide, it will grow out through the grass in about 3 weeks. So there are periods where there is no insecticide protection.

There is no season-long protection in chemicals, so we do the best that is offered.

With the Beauty-Lawn program and proper watering, your lawn should be healthy and beautiful during the growing season.

First Assembly Of God

Rev. James Menges

WHAT DOES GOD EXPECT FROM YOU?

There are many people trying to figure out what is good or reasonable to give God. I subject this to your thought from Romans 12:1&2 "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God."

Are you looking for what pleases God? I find that we can actually become a living sacrifice for him and that is good and acceptable to God. How do you become a living sacrifice? This means all that we say or do or how we act all needs to be conformed to God and his word. If we let him transform our minds to think and act like he would, then we will seek after his will and not our own. The more we become like him, the less we are us. "He must increase and I must decrease."

Being BORN AGAIN means we are crucified with him in a spiritual death, and we must take up our cross and follow him.

What does God Expect? All what you have and are.

Cooks Corner

Rose shares pie recipes

Cooking seems to come naturally for Opal Rose.

At a very young age she learned to cook by watching her mother.

The unusual thing about Mrs. Rose is, she never uses a recipe.

"I would stand on a box and watch my mother cook. She would just put a little of this and a little of that, in what she was fixing so that's how I would mix up whatever I was making."

"I would put a little of this and that until it looked like I wanted it to and it always came out. I've never had anything not turn out by not using a recipe.

"I tried using a recipe once and whatever I was fixing didn't turn out. So I just went back to my way of cooking."

At the age of 15, she married Sylvester Rose.

She knew how to cook when she married, which was a good thing, because having six children, Mrs. Rose had to cook quite a bit of food for her family.

In 1949, Mrs. Rose started cooking for ranchers in Scurry County.

She was the cook at Loraine Nursing Home for 10 years, worked at Root Memorial Hospital for five years and now owns her own cafe—Westbrook Cafe.

Mrs. Rose's specialty is baking desserts and she never measures ingredients, and always comes out with a perfect dessert.

Mrs. Rose has six children—Louis, Brenda, Emma Louise, Flora Jean, Jackie and Leslie.

Today Mrs. Rose is sharing her coconut and pecan pie recipes with RECORD readers.

COCONUT PIE

For Four Pies
4 cups of sugar
1½ cups of flour
12 egg yolks

1 cup butter
3 tablespoons of vanilla

10 cups of milk

Mikow & son attend christian camp

John Mikow, pastor of First Christian Church and son, Jacob attended Chi Rho Alpha camp at Lake Brownwood Christian Retreat July 8-14. John served as a counselor and Jacob was a camper. Seventy-five 6th-8th graders from the Central Area participated.

Election '84 was the camp theme. Eight Old Testament persons were candidates for the presidency of the United States. After super-hype, rousing campaigning and electioneering Joshua was elected.

Activities of the camp included singing, worship, swimming, Bible study, volleyball, skits and canoe races and wars.

Youth of the community interested in such experiences and having fellowship together are invited to contact the Rev. Mikow.

Your Stars Above

BY EVE EWING

ARIES (3-21/4-19) A voice from the past will be heard from soon. This could lead to something good if you do not expect too much. Build anew, trying to avoid past misunderstandings.

TAURUS (4-20/5-20) Some personal relationships need a little attention. Be smart and take the time to smooth things over. You have room in your life for many friends, and they need you.

GEMINI (5-21/6-20) Money may be a bit tight right now, but it won't stay that way. Just pull in your horns and sit it out. Don't give in to those who caution abandonment of your dream.

CANCER (6-21/7-22) Is it a new romance, or renewal of an old flame that teases you? Either way, your stars are definitely in position for an enriching emotional experience.

LEO (7-23/8-22) Although you don't like being alone, now is the time for you to seek solitude. Take advantage of it to think through some nagging problems which you have foolishly ignored.

VIRGO (8-23/9-22) Don't be pushed into a romantic situation just because you are lonely. Start slowly, get to know the person. It may be right for you, but a little time won't hurt if it is.

LIBRA (9-23/10-22) Stop trying to top yourself. Usher Gulch is right around the corner if you keep up at your hectic pace. You've enough credits to afford to slow the pace for awhile.

SCORPIO (10-23/11-21) Just because you don't get a pat on the back for every move you make doesn't mean you are not appreciated. You are admired, but do things because you want to, not to impress others.

SAGITTARIUS (11-22/12-21) You are about to fall head over heels in love — again! However, tie up the loose ends of the old romance before embarking on this latest adventure. You owe it to both the old and new.

CAPRICORN (12-22/1-19) A business deal may benefit you, but will leave hard feelings in others if you don't take care to put them in your confidence. Put aside your sense of privacy on this occasion.

AQUARIUS (1-20/2-18) New faces, new places beckon once again. Answer the call with a high heart as usual. Your sunny nature is proof against possible disappointment.

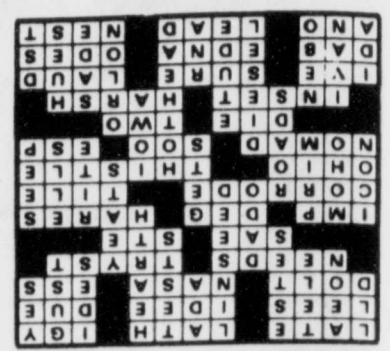

PISCES (2-19/3-20) Don't expect others to do what you yourself are hesitant to try. Examine all the options, then make a decision on your own. You can't lay off the blame forever.

RULES — There are three parts to THE WORD CAGE: (1) clues and (2) quiz, which lead to (3) the final answer, the MYSTERY WORD. The clues and quiz are hidden in the grid — up, down, across, backward or diagonally. First circle the clue words (we've found the first word for you). You may find the same letter in more than one word; so circle each letter clearly. Next, circle the quiz words; the first letter and number of letters are given for each. When you have circled all the clue and quiz words, the remaining uncircled letters will spell out the answer to this week's WORD CAGE.

DRUG DOPE — If you're puzzled about the difference between brand name drugs and their generic counterparts, experts say that the brand names are patented. They claim generics are chemical equivalents, manufactured after the initial patent on a new drug expires. Some drugs are not available in generic form, but when they are, they are usually less expensive. Check for a generic substitute when you fill a prescription.

DRAWER DATA — Heat can cause bureau and chest drawers to stick. Don't break nails — prevent sticking by rubbing bottom runners or edges with a block of paraffin wax or candle stub. Still stick? Remove drawers, apply paste wax to bottom. Tuck a piece of lemon peel in every drawer to banish musty odor.

POLISH PERFECT — For a professional home manicure, file nails in one direction, side to center. Work on underside of the nail. Apply basecoat, and then add 2 thin coats of polish. Seal with a clear acrylic topcoat to stop chipping. Leave a strip bare on sides of nail for a long lovely look.

MEAT MIX — Buy meatloaf mix at the supermarket and make up a large size batch of sloppy joe sauce for quick summer meals. Chop an onion and a green pepper for two pounds and brown in skillet with the meat. Drain excess fat and stir in a pound can of tomatoes with juice (break up tomatoes with a fork) and 2 cans of tomato sauce. Season and serve mix over rice, noodles or other pasta. You can freeze remainder for sandwiches later. You can also bake and freeze individual meatloaves. Heat them later; add sauce for another fast entree.

COMPLAINT FORCE — If your community lacks a complaint organization to help consumers help themselves, you could organize one. Look into it — the Consumer Federation of America has information on how to start and what to do. Write for Data: Consumer Federation of America, Suite 901, 1012 14th Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005.

Barbecue chicken is favorite across U.S.

By DEBBIE CHRISTIAN
Texans enjoy backyard barbecuing and eating as much as anybody in the U.S., and chicken barbecue is an all-time favorite.

A few simple steps will enable you to enjoy mouth-watering chicken barbecue to your heart's content.

Chicken barbecuing involves four basic steps: First, split the birds in half and sprinkle each half generously with salt and black pepper before placing on the pit. To shorten barbecuing time cut halves in parts.

Second, make sure coals are white hot before cutting the chicken on the grill. Any type of cooker can be used, but keep the coals eight to 12 inches from the cooking rack for best results.

Another basic step for top-notch chicken barbecue is to use a basting sauce during the cooking process which contains no tomato product or sugar because such sauces burn easily. A basting sauce will keep meat moist and juicy and add a desired flavor. Apply basting sauce and turn chicken halves frequently.

These ingredients are suggested for a basting sauce: 1 tablespoon salt, 1 teaspoon black pepper, 1 stick butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire Sauce and a few drops of hot sauce or red pepper. Heat the mix over a low flame until the butter or oleo melts; then add the juice of one lemon (vinegar may be substituted). Next fill the pan with water and heat but do not boil. Spices such as garlic salt or lemon pepper can be added to suit personal preference.

To top off the barbecue

ing process, apply a finishing sauce to the chicken about the last 20 to 30 minutes before cooking is complete. This is the most critical time during the entire cooking process. Check the meat carefully and turn it frequently to avoid burning the finishing sauce.

Several types of finishing sauce are available and vary from mild to hot. To prepare your own sauce (for 10 chicken halves), use the following: 1 cup cooking oil, 1 cup vinegar, 1 cup catsup, 1/4 cup sugar and 1/2 cup water. Add salt, worchestershire sauce, hot sauce, garlic and other seasonings to taste.

Chicken barbecue should be complete in about 1 1/2 to two hours. Cooking longer with less heat usually results in the most flavorful, juicy and tender barbecue. Placing the cooking rack closer than six inches to the coals will reduce barbecuing time, but the meat will be drier and less tender.

A test for doneness is to twist the drumstick which is connected to the thigh. If the joint between the thigh and drumstick is loose, the chicken is ready to eat. Another test is to cut into the meat at this joint. The moisture in the joint will run clear if the meat is done.
