SCHOOL BOARD ELECTS PROF. CARTER AS SUPERINTENDENT

Everything Portends to A Successful School the Ensuing Term, which is Scheduled to Begin on the First Monday in September

At a recent meeting of the Wellington Independent School Board the resignation of Supt. W. C. Wills was accepted and at the same time Prof. C. S. Carter's application for the vacancy was accepted.

Prof. Wills left immediately for Altus, Okla., where he has a position in the normal at that place during the summer. His friends here regret that he is to leave Wellington, but wish for him the great degree of success to which they feel he is entitled.

Prof. Carter comes to us as one of the best educated and most successful school men in the state, and thus considering his unquestioned ability together with the efficiency of the balance of the faculty, we seen no reason why Wellington should not have the best high school the coming term she has ever had.

In fact, it seems that there is but one thing needed now to assure us the excellent school that we should have, and that is for the board of patrons to give to the Superintendent and teachers their hearty cooperation. And we believe that the experience of the citizens and patrons of this community is such that they realize this, and will all join hands for better school, which will do more for the upbuilding of our city than anything else.

B. W. M. U.

Met in regular session at the Baptist church on Tuesday eve at 4 o'clock. 16 members were present. We read 3rd chapter of 1 Timothy, each member commenting on said chapter, then we took up our Bible questions which was very interesting then president called for business.

The society will send a box to the orphans home, will appreciate any little thing our members of society and church will give. Will you stop and think for a moment of those six hundred orphans that Father Buckner feeds and clothes. Any little thing they will appreciate.

I feel if you ladies would attend on Tuesday afternoon meetings and hear of these things and learn more of our work and what we are doing you would understand how much we need you. Next Tuesday is our Mission meeting, will meet at 3 o'clock. We want to get our box ready to send off and we urge each lady of church and society to be present and hear our program and bring something to put in this box. Press Reporter

R. L. TEMPLETON

Collingsworth County's Candidate for the Legislature

Wilson's Attitude.

The Telegraph is not for much that Wilson represents, but it is for the Democratic party and its leading principles. As for Governor Wilson's attitude after the convention met and since the hour of his nomination, there is room only for approval and praise. Decorous, honorable, restrained and independent are the terms that suggest themselves. He was content to leave the convention in freedom and did not seek to force himself forward.

And when the nomination was announced he did not say that he felt like a bull moose, or that "we'll knock 'em through the ropes," or eat 'em alive" or "beat 'em to a frazzle." He behaved like a gentleman and sober citizen. In the midst of his glad hour his mind was occupied with becomingly serious reflection. Almost his first utterances was that he was overwhelmed by a sense of the tremendous responsibility resting upon him and that he hoped his party would never have cause to regret its action.

This is the attitude of a statesman with a wholesome lack of supreme self-confidence that furnishes a pleasing contrast with the antics and babbling of the self-seeking political adventurer to whom we have indirectly referred.—Macon Telegraph.

Texas Steer Bring High Price.

East St. Louis, Ill., July.—A steer weighing 1,530 pounds was received at the stockyards here the 10th. It was shipped from the Lasater ranch near Falfurrias, Texas, and sold for $137.70.

Drives Cattle to Canadian.

Frank Green of the Green Dry Goods Firm left for his fathers stock ranch near Memphis, from whence they will drive a large herd of cattle through to Canadian to be shipped from that point. Mr. Green will not return to Wellington till Monday.

See C. B. Ingram of Aberdeen, for hail Insurance.

Public Library Notes.

We would say to the members of Wellington Public Library that the library has been moved to T. A. Glenn's office in the Court house in east side of building. Mr. Glenn has very kindly agreed to keep the books in his office and attend to the library on Tuesdays and Fridays, regular library days.

There are a few books out that have been out several months, which is strictly against the library rules. If any member has a book belonging to the library and has had it over time please return them at once, as can not keep correct record without knowing where all the books are. We heartily insist that those who are not members of the library should join. One dollar entitles you to one years membership and you have the right to read as many books as you choose. You will find rules of the library pasted in the office. We have nearly 200 hundred books. Among this collection you will find "The Harvard Classics." Having read this set of books it is said is an education within itself. We have three sets of histories which are worth your while to read. Besides these we have a miscellaneous collection of standard books. You will find membership cards at the library.

One thing I wish to impress upon the minds of the members of the library is that you are not supposed to let any person, not even a member of the same family read a book from this library. All who want to read the books must become a member. One dollar a year is but very little for good literature and we need the money to buy more books. All money paid in goes to buy new books. Let every person get interested in this library work. It is a help to the town and county.

If thought makes the man, and we have the authority of Holy Writ at once, then the man that is not p

A RATTLING GOOD TIME AT THE DOZIER PICNIC SATURDAY

One of the Most Harmonious Occasions Ever Held in the County. Everyone Bent on Enjoying the Day, and Surely were Not Disappointed

One of the best and most successful picnic that was ever held in this county, was pulled off at Dozier last Saturday. There was a large crowd in attendance, and each and everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion very much.

The program was begun in the forenoon with an excellent address by County Judge R. H. Cocke Jr., on the question of education in this county, and in which he very truly pointed to the advanced and improved condition of same since the beginning of this his first term as County Judge and Ex-officio School Superintendent.

The last speaker of the occasion, was a speech by Hon. C. C. Small, who spoke in behalf of Judges S. P. Huff and H. G. Hendricks, who are candidates for places on the Amarillo court of Civil Appeals. His speech was to the point and well received.

The next item on the program, was the announcement that dinner would be spread under the beautiful grove on the school campus, and that each and every one present was invited to partake of same. And to say that this was a most magnificent and delicious spread is putting it very mild, for never in our life did we see a bigger and more delicious feast upon any occasion. In fact the dozier people are unexcelled when it comes to serving good things to eat and making a fellow have a good time every minute he is among them.

After the serving of the above mentioned excellent dinner, Hon. R. L. Templeton, our candidate for the Legislature delivered an excellent address, which wound up with the assurance from the audience that Templeton bid fair to get every vote in that community.

The last and best item on the program was the joint discussion between Hon. R. E. Underwood, of Amarillo in behalf of Judge Ramsey and Hon. Reece Tatum, of Dalhart, for Gov. Colquitt. This discussion proved to be the most interesting feature of the program, and resulted in the majority feeling that Mr. Underwood got considerably the best of the argument.

Thus ended one of the best and most successful picnics ever held in the county, and each guest went away feeling that there was no better or bigger hearted people in the land than are the Dozier people.

LUTIE TO GIVE A BIG CELEBRATION

An Interesting Featured Program Arranged For the Affair on August Tenth

On Saturday August 10, there will be a picnic at Lutie, in the north part of the county, and those having the matter in charge promise a good time for all who attend. Among the principal features of the occasion will be tournament riding, bronco riding, a sack race, potato race, wheelbarrow race, a ball game between the team at Wellington and the Lutie team, and infact there will be amusements for both the old and young. There will also be speaking by prominent speakers, plenty of refreshments, plenty of good ice-cold cistern water, also shade and feed in abundance for your team.

So if you want to have a genuine good time attend this occasion.

Died.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hawkins who resides about six miles northwest of town and took from them their year old baby boy on July 23rd. We understand the little fellow had only been sick but a few days, and his sudden taking away was indeed sad to the fond parents. We join a host of friends in extending deepest sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

County Treasurers office at the court house and Mr. Glenn will have charge of the books. The club then extended Messrs McMinn and Glenn a rising vote of thanks for their kindness in caring for the books free of charge. The club then adjourned subject to the call of the President. Reporter.

CATTLE SHIPMENTS TO KANSAS CITY

Fourteen Cars Loaded Out Last Saturday. Several Different Parties Consignors.

One of the biggest shipment of cattle ever made from Wellington was made last Saturday. There were 14 cars in all, which went to the Kansas City market. The shipment was made by the following gentlemen: J. H. White, one car; J. W. Loter, three cars; W. A. Hunter, three cars; John Henard, two cars; C. W. Roberts, three cars; Mr. Terry two cars.

The shipment was accompanied by Messrs Loter, Henard, Hunter, Roberts, Crawford and Terry.

home is complete that is lacking in a reasonable supply of the kind of literature that informs, inspires and induces correct thought habits. Some of us are not financially able to supply our homes with the needed books, but in the public library we find some of the best books, and anyone can read at such a cheap rate. Knowing the tremendous influence of good reading and both children and grown-ups, not from information alone, but what is still better and of really most benefit the inspiration. It seems that as a rule we do not realize the importance of these great instruments "books" in shaping lives and characters. Many of the worlds best men and women have told of the splendid impressions certain great books made upon them in their youth which in great measure, shaped their lives and characters. It has been said that one is known by the company he keeps, it is when referring to the Sec. of Library Club.

PROTESTS ON FIRE INSURANCE LAW

General Disatisfaction With Fire Rating Monstrosity and Specie Should be Abrogated

Austin, Texas, July 23.—News of the action of the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce in adopting a resolution asking for the repeal of the Fire rating Insurance Law, reached the Commissioners today and was commented on in official circles at the capital. Many stricken cities have appealed in vain to the Commissioners for relief and the Board now realizes that they are standing upon the crater of a volcano.

The principles of this law are so out of harmony with our anti-trust legislation and our accepted theories of government, that it has raised a continual disturbance ever since it entered the statute book. In fact, this law quarreled so viciously with its numerous neighbors, that Governor Campbell was compelled to call a special session of the legislature to quell the riot, but the legislature decided that these warring elements must dwell together in the same vessel, and the Fire Rating Board has been compelled to sit on the lid while the Fire Insurance Companies in many localities fry the fat out of the people.

The legislature appears to afford the only avenue of relief for the people, and the next session will undoubtedly deal with this difficult problem in a drastic manner.

Prof. Cousins Endorses Wortham

John L. Wortham, candidate for Railroad Commissioner, Endorsed.

Personally I am deeply interested in the success of my old friend and neighbor, Hon. Jno. L. Wortham, in his candidacy for railroad commissioner. He and I have never been on the same side of the prohibition question, but that does not effect his qualification for railroad commissioner of Texas. I am gratified to say that he has been endorsed in his race by scores of men in the prohibition ranks, among them. Thos. H. Ball of Houston, Hon. M. M. Brooks of Dallas, and Judge R. W. Hall of Amarillo, each of whom is an uncompromising prohibitionist.

I have known Mr. Wortham intimately for twenty years and can speak with authority when I say that he is pure in his private life, sincere in his political convictions, moved by an exalted purpose to serve his country well. He has borne more burdens not his own and has contributed more of his private earnings unselfishly to objects of pure charity than any other man I have ever known. He measures up to the Jeffersonian standard of a good democratic officer, namely, he is honest and capable. Intellectually he is the equal of any man in the public service, and in exalted patriotism he has no superior, even among his canting critics, if they be the most patriotic among us. Texas needs such men as Jno. L. Wortham in the public service and she would wrong herself if she should fail to keep him in public life. He is an unselfish friend, a good neighbor, an up-

Wellington continues to expand.

The town that never tries never accomplishes.

The columns of a good newspaper are the best index of the towns enterprise.

Have you done anything for your town? If not, you'd better get busy, your help is needed.

The way to win the respect and patronage of some men is by opposition and downright abuse.

Tomorrow the battle of ballots. Go to the polls and put a lick in for Ramsay—the white man's hope.

Patronize your home merchants, thereby keeping your money at home. You will profit the same as they.

Remember that every dollar you spend for the betterment of Wellington will be like bread cast upon the water.

The man who spends his money in his home town, and talks and works for it can look any man in the face any time.

Do your shopping early in the season. You will therefore get the best in the market before it has been handled and soiled.

You should, before investing your money in Western property, investigate Wellington, the coming city of this great Panhandle.

Salt River Packet No. 13 has steam up 'most ready to go. The gong in sounding, the gang plank will be drawn in immediately; all sorrowful candidates bound up-stream, get aboard!

The Leader force keenly realizes that we only have another day after today to enjoy those good cold drinks and cigars at the expense of the candidates. The Collingsworth candidates buy good cigars and first class soft drinks.

The man who craves a home all his own, and yearns for a reasonable profit upon his labor—we speak of the man who earns his money by the "sweat of his face"—cannot afford to miss the splendid opportunity that awaits him in the famous Wellington country with cash enough to make the first payment on 80 or 160 acres of land you can come here and in a few years own your home.

When a prospector comes within the portals of our city, attend him with happy greetings and good cheer, and proceed to show him the beautiful town, fertile fields and the class of citizenship the equal of which in standard of excellence cannot be surpassed in any country.

No need to plant trees this afternoon or tomorrow, because it is summer time now and they wouldn't grow, but please take note that the sun shines every summer and that there is a time in each year made especially for tree planting and that several have already passed. Let's get a shade committee to work on raising funds and deciding on the kind and quantities of trees to be planted and when to plant them.

Shade trees are what we need to make our town more beautiful. They are the cheapest, the most lasting, the most beautiful, the most sensible way we could adorn our streets. What's the use in running around in the sunshine getting freckled when a very little expense will save so much cream? By all means let's be saving and plant trees.

Now is the season of the year when the house fly does the most damage. Extra efforts should be made to keep them reduced in numbers to where they are of least danger. With the present unsanitary conditions among us in regard to the open closets and etc., it is difficult to take any effective precautions but we would advise the free use of common coal oil in the closet and upon all places where there is any likelihood of flies breeding. It doesn't take much coal oil to do the work and if it is applied regularly it will be found to be very effective. Remember there has already been a number of cases of typhoid fever in this town which have been very dangerous.

Mother had found the busy morning trying and in consequence had scolded a little. At noon, however, she had forgotten all about her nervous irritation and walking to Sunday school with her family, quietly regretted that her clothes were not nice as she might desire. Mabel, seven years old, regarded the speaker gravely.

"I don't see but you look quite as nice as other ladies, mother," she remonstrated with an air of gentle reproof. "and your face is just lovely. I guess all that ails you is that you're too spunky for your age."

Changes Date to August 10.

The date set for the meeting of the school trustees has been changed from Saturday, July 13 to the second Saturday in August which comes on the tenth of the month. The change was made on account of the fact that on the first date there is to be a picnic at the Salt Fork school house.

In the meantime I wish those trustees who have not already done so would secure from my office a copy of Bulletin No. 15 treating upon the rural schools and give its contents a thorough reading as it contains a great many points that will be very helpful to you in relation to your work in this line.

Let us keep in mind the date of the next meeting and make arrangements to be present for there is to be some very vital matters treated upon then.

R. H. Cocke, Jr.

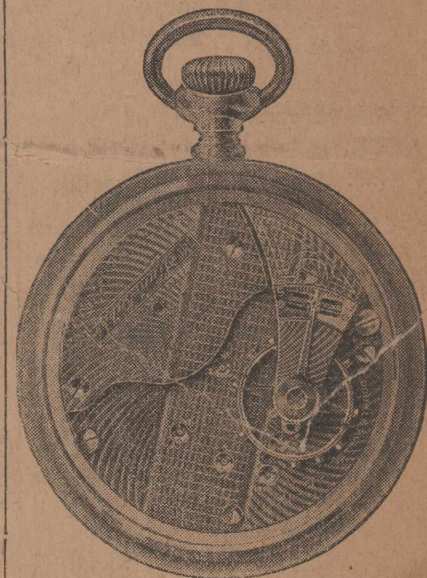

Thanks Awfully.

Harry Purcell of the Ochiltree Investigator, one of the ablest newspaper men in the Panhandle gives a spell with the caption, "Fine Paper," then continues:

"The Wellington Leader, an excellent paper, found its way to our exchange table last week. We note that Mr. L. L. Ladd, formerly one of the leading newspaper men of the North Panhandle and late publisher of the Miami Chief, has just recently acquired an interest in the Leader. Durham & Ladd, the publishers, are a strong team, and a bright, able edited paper might naturally be expected."

Must Disinfect.

Texas has wisely passed a law requiring that all public halls and buildings shall be swept with disinfectants before a gathering after being used. It also prescribes that private residences may not cast the dust from its rooms and halls to the "four winds of heaven" to be swirled to a neighbor, endangering health and may be life, thus carrying disease germs about. To conveniently and cheaply meet these sensible sanitary requirements sweeping compounds have been made. These practically destroy any germs. While at the same time, making sweeping easier by preventing any dust from following the broom. Every home should have this sweeping compound. The law compels every church, school house, theatre, etc., to use such and to sprinkle with a prescribed disinfectant and to put same in cuspidors. It is a wise precaution. Let us all comply with the law and not only save from a penalty but prevent disease spreading.—Arlington Journal.

His Reason.

Mr. Editor:

If you had eleven children looking to you for a living, you would get anxious too, when it got hot and dry, and if the present weather holds out I will get to take two on the editor. If it rains I may make my barn full of feed, for it is small. As to the bank account, I am from Arkansas, and you will have to "show me" I am glad my friend is going to stand pat to what he has said. I want the readers to take notice to what he has said. My friend said he was almost a mind to go me one better. I don't know what he meant by one "better," unless he thought he was doing me a favor by not publishing my "big oat crop," which turned out seven bushels per acre.

J. B. Rhodes.

Yes friend Rhodes, you have a noble good cause to be anxious to make a big crop, and we will admit that if the present dry weather continues long enough you are sure to make a small crop. But we still have faith in the rain coming in time, which with your efficient methods of farming you will yet come out ahead.

Of course your oats were a little short, but it is likely that you have planted your stubble in sorghum and peas, or some other feed stuff that often times makes a big yield in this county, and if that is the case, you are likely to fill your barn with feed grown on the same land where your oat crop was a failure.

Not All a Dream.

A writer in an exchange says: "I read of a boy who had a remarkable dream. He thought that the richest man in town came to him and said, I am tired of my house and grounds; come take care of them and I will give them to you. Then came an honored judge, and said, I want you to take my place; I am weary of being in court day after day; I will give you my seat on the bench if you will do my work. Then the doctor proposed that he take his extensive practice and let him rest, and so on. At last up shambled old Tommy and said, I'm wanted to fill a drunkard's grave; I have come to see if you will take my place in the saloons and on the streets.

"This is a dream that is not all a dream. For every boy in this land today who lives to grow up some position is waiting, as surely as if rich man, judge, doctor or drunkard stood ready to hand over his place at once. Which will you choose, boy? There are pulpits to be filled by God fearing ministers and thousands of other honorable places, but there are also prison cells and drunkards' graves. Which do you choose

Mrs. O'Connell Entertains.

A large number of young people were invited together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Connell yesterday evening to enjoy a social hour in honor of Joe O'Connell of St. Louis, nephew of the host and hostess. Everyone seemed to have a jolly good time and all are desirous that Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell shall see fit to entertain again in the near future.

A. M. Nason, farmer near Cannan Me., was badly crippled with sciatic rheumatism due he says to uric acid in his blood. The 1912 Club Met at the home of Miss Lola Bengé last Thursday evening at 4 o'clock.

The following was the program: A beautiful piano solo by Vern Thomas, Lola Bengé gave the story of the book of "Two little Knights of Kentucky," which was very interesting and Elsie McDaniel the pretty little story of the "The Bird's Christmas Carol." Lola Bengé concluded the program with a piano solo.

The next meeting, Thursday July 25, will meet with Vern Thomas. Refreshments of lemonade and wafers were served.

Home Burned.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Wiles in the east part of the city was destroyed by fire last night about 11:30 o'clock. It is reported that the fire was caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove. Mrs. Wiles is out of town, and Mr. Wiles and brother-in-law, Ed Blair, cooked supper and likely left the stove burning. But little of the household effects were saved. We sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Wiles in their loss.

In these days of high cost of living, a medicine that gets a man up out of bed and able to work in a few days is a valuable and welcome remedy. John Health, Michigan Bar, Cal., had kidney and bladder trouble, was confined to his bed, unable to turn without help. "I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once." His example is worth following. Joe Hardy Drug Co.

Large Ranch Deal.

One of the largest land deals of recent record has been closed. Mrs. Sanborn widow of the late Col. H. B. Sanborn has sold the 120,000 acres of Panhandle land in Oldham and Hartly counties which was known as Bravo ranch.

Col. C. T. Herring of Amarillo and Landergerin Brother of Vega are the purchasers. It is understood the price was $3.25 an acre or approximately $450,000 for about 120,000 acres.

This is said to be an excellent ranch by cattle men, it being watered by numerous springs and while slightly rolling is an excellent ranch proposition.

It lays near Nira Visa, New Mexico which is just over the line from the western border of the Panhandle.

The price paid is considered a very low price for Panhandle ranch land.

E. P. Litchfield Back Again.

E. P. Litchfield who has been with his brother, W. A. Litchfield Station Agent on the Denver at Harrold for the past few months has returned to Wellington and is again in the station at this place. There is no one here but who are glad to welcome 'Big' Litchfield back again.

Clean Groceries

The all absorbant topic discussed over the world today is sanitation—more attention to be given to cleanliness. It is being vigorously urged in every home, and especially in the stores where food for the homes is being sold. More human lives are being saved daily from the strict attention given to sanitation. This store is going to score "perfect" in that line, if possible.

HOWELL & ADAMS

Make it a special point to keep their store in a most "cranky" sanitary condition. No dirt is allowed to collect—no material that will contract flies is allowed. Such perishable goods as butter is kept in a sanitary glass refrigerator—dust proof. Pickles are kept in sanitary jars especially made for the purpose. Fancy cakes are housed in dust proof cans.

Phone No. 6

Six Per Cent Loan on Cotton.

Dallas, Texas, July.—B. B. Cain of this city, President of the Texas Commercial Secretary and Business Men's Association, has received several hundred replies to his circular letter appealing to bankers to lend money on distress cotton at six per cent.

The plan has received such a generous reception from the bankers that Mr. Cain estimates the $40,000,000 required to finance distress cotton is in sight.

President Radford of the Farmers Union is urging the local unions to prepare their warehouses for the sorting of cotton and to build new warehouses where none now exist. For the first time in the history of the cotton industry in Texas, the farmer has the facilities for holding his cotton until such a time as the price suits him.

City Building Notes.

A town is as dead as it looks. There is a reason for a city's growth, it is usually co-operation.

Commercial Clubs create confidence.

It soon gets monotonous when one man does all the boosting.

Trades excursions will bring more results than a million circular letters.

It may be tiresome pounding the same proposition all the time but success comes from sticking to what you start.

Prosperity follows publicity.

Some men are born great, others achieve greatness by striving for the welfare of their community.

Fast freight facilities enable the Texas jobber and manufacturer to fill rush orders without confusion or trouble.

It's easy enough to be pleasant when you are a booster.

Be modest in all things except city boosting.

It takes big pay rolls to build a city, for the pay roll usually stays at home during the summer months, while the bank account spends the hot season at the seashore.

A man with a number twelve shoe and a number three hat, usually leaves the smallest footprints on the sand of time.

What You Ought to Have Known.

One of the saddest things in connection with the purchase of real estate is what you "Ought to have known." The Supreme court of Texas says: A party will always be charged with knowing whatever, by the diligent use of what he knew and the means in his power he ought to have known. (21 Texas Sup Reports 743.) The only reliable means of inquiring into your title is by abstract. Let R. H. Templeton make you an abstract and correct your title.

An increasing number of people report regularly of the satisfactory results from taking Foley Kidney Pills and commend their healing and curative qualities. Foley Kidney Pills are a carefully prepared medicine, guaranteed to contain no harmful or habit forming drugs. They can have only a beneficial effect when used for kidney and bladder troubles, for backache, rheumatism, weak back lumbago. Joe Hardy Drug Co.

All Over the Panhandle

Over 60,000 pounds of wool was shipped from Tulia last week.

The Panhandle Magazine at Amarillo has suspended publication.

The Herald says over 100,000 bushels of wheat will be marketed at Plainview.

One farm in Ochiltree county estimates his wheat crop at seventeen thousand bushels.

The Tulia Herald last week issued a twelve-page "Swisher County Anniversary Edition."

The South Plains Odd Fellows Association will hold their annual convention at Lubbock Aug. 1 and 2.

At Washington the bill providing for an experiment station at Plainview has been reported favorable.

It is estimated that 70,000 bu. of wheat will be marketed at Miami, Roberts county, this season. The average per acre yield is about 25 bushels.

The sum of $307.30 was allowed at a recent session of the Commissioners court at Lubbock for bounty on rabbit scalps at 4c each, or paying for a total of 7,680 rabbit scalps.

JUDGE FAWCETT'S CONCLUSIONS

Drawn From 2,700 Cases

The testimony of a Brooklyn judge to the power of the church in curbing crime seems to the editor of The Congregationalist (Boston) to be a pretty satisfactory answer to those who are harping upon the present day ineffectiveness of our churches.

Judge Fawcett's words as this paper quotes them, were "Approximately 2,700 cases have been brought before me in my five and a half years service on the bench. During all this time I have never had to try a man who was at the time of the alleged offense, or ever had been, an active member of the church."

This we are told, was a deliberate statement, and the judge had even more to say on the Church's restraining power in the community. Like this, too, recalls The Congregationalist, "was the recent testimony of a Chicago judge who had tried many divorce cases. He said that rarely, almost never, were the parties to a divorce suit active church workers." Judge Fawcett, it seems, has such confidence in the efficiency of church organizations that the boys he puts on probation are ordered to attend Sunday school and church. As he says:

"I have asked each defendant if he was a member of or an attendant at a Sunday school, and I have never been answered 'Yes' I believe in Sunday schools. When by means of suspended sentences or merciful devices, I have seen fit to give young prisoners opportunities to lead better lives in freedom, I have in every case insisted that the first thing they must do is to join a Sunday school." Such words as these, writes the approving editor, "are peculiarly valuable as medicine for scoffers and critics of the churches." At least, the churches are 'restraining' their adherents from crime." He comments further:

"Not long ago a certain hater of Roman Catholicism in a factory-town said that if he could have his way he would close the Catholic church, where hundreds of Poles and Slovaks worshiped. Whereupon his friend said, 'Then you would have hell here in six months.'"

"It really looks as tho the Christian Church quite sufficiently justified its existence to the nation merely as a preventive of crime, a barrier against relapse into barbarism, a police agency in preserving order, a preservative of common virtue and decency. We believe any careful student of sociology and morals will sustain Judge Fawcett's statement that the Church is a great curb on crime. Furthermore, we believe he would agree that it is the wall which holds the race from falling back into primeval habits and criminal instincts. There is as much truth as picturesqueness in the habit of calling those towns 'holes' where there are no churches and several saloons."

"This being true," certain of the conclusions which necessarily follows are thus pointed out:

"First of all, this: Most of our respectable, attractive communities of high moral tone are so because the Church of Christ is there. Our beautiful towns are what they are, instead of being hotbeds of vice, drunkenness and crime, because the Church is there. Church-members are not usually criminals, whatever else they are. Neither are all non-church-members criminals, but the vast majority of criminals come from their class. Were not the towns predominantly Christians, crime would make it impossible as a home. Therefore every man in the community owes gratitude to the church. It is better burglar insurance than the insurance companies. It makes the street safe for his daughters. The stronger the Church is, the cleaner, healthier, safer, happier, more respectable the town. If every man was in the church, it would save most of the expense for police, judges, lawyers and courts. Judge Fawcett tells us that crime now costs us $700,000,000 a year. It would cost us ten times that if there were no churches. It would cost us hardly any of that if all were in the churches. Really, the man who is living in our crime-free, respectable towns and does nothing for the Church is living on charity. He is profiting from the Church's curb of crime, but is giving nothing in return."

Then there is a lesson for parents in Judge Fawcett's remarkable statement.

"Notice that he always insisted that boys on parole should join a Sunday school class. In his experience they rarely relapse after doing this. The streets of the cities are full of idle boys all day on Sunday. From these are recruited our future criminals. Close to any group of them is a Sunday school with many boys. They are our future citizens. Judge Fawcett says they never appear in his court. The implication for parents is too plain to need enlargement."

The chief work of the Church, we read in the final editorial, "is not, indeed, the curbing of crime, the protection of society, the preservation of order, the sustaining of civilization, or the warding off of barbarism." It is rather "nurturing children into the likeness of Christ, the redemption of men from sin, the inspiring of men to the imitation of Christ, the preaching of the gospel of God's goodness and the brotherhood of man, the pointing of men to divine ideals, the building of the new society of Christ on earth." But this writer is "inclined to believe that testimony to the efficiency with which she is doing these things could be found to match Judge Fawcett's witness to her curb on crime."—Literary Digest, June 15, 1912.

Printype — OLIVER Typewriter

The Only Writing Machine in the World
 That Successfully TYPEWRITES PRINT
 —17 Cents a Day!

The Printype Oliver Typewriter which has crowned ten years of typewriter progress into the space of months is now offered to the public for 17 Cents a Day.

—Offered at the same price as an ordinary typewriter—payable in pennies!

The commanding importance of Printype is everywhere conceded.

For who does not see what it means to make the world's vast volume of typewritten matter as readable as book or magazines. The Printype Oliver Typewriter is equipped with beautiful Book Type, such as is used on the world's printing presses.

Printype is distinguished by marvelous clearness and beauty. It does away with all strain on eyesight which the old outline type imposed. Printype puts life and style and character into typewritten correspondence. It makes every letter, every numeral, every character as "plain as print."

The complete story of Printype has never been told. Here it is:

The Real Story of Printype

The idea from which "Printype" sprang resulted from the success of type experts in equipping a typewriter used in our offices to write "The Oliver Typewriter" in our famous trademark type just as the name appears on the outside of the machines and in all Oliver publicity.

The beautiful appearance and the marvelous clearness of the reproduction of our "ebony" trade-make type disclosed the possibilities of equipping the Oliver Typewriter to write the entire English language in shaded letters!

We worked for years on the plan and finally succeeded in producing, for exclusive use on the Oliver Typewriter, the wonderful shaded letters and numerals known to the world as "Printype."

The Public's Verdict

That the public is overwhelmingly in favor of Printype is impressively shown by this fact:

Already over 75 per cent of our entire output of Oliver Typewriters are "Printypes."

The public is demanding Printype in preference to the old-style type.

Within a year at the present rate 90 per cent of our total sales will be "Printypes."

Thus the Oliver Typewriter which first successfully introduced visible writing, is again to the fore with another revolutionary improvement—Printype, the type that prints print!

To Corporations

The Oliver Typewriter is used extensively by great concerns in all sections of the world. Our "17-Cents-a-Day" Plan is designed to help that large class of typewriter buyers who want the same typewriter that serves the great corporations, but prefer the easy system of purchase.

The masses want the Oliver Typewriter because it stands the test of the largest corporations.

Meet 'Printype' You'll Like its Looks

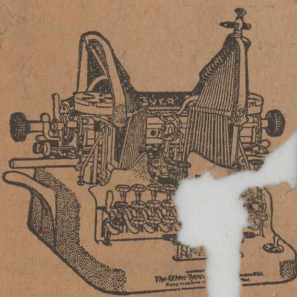

Ask for the specimen letter and 17-Cents-a-Day Plan. Make the acquaintance of Printype, the reigning favorite of typewriter-ordom. Ask for a letter written on The Printype Oliver Typewriter, which will introduce you to this beautiful new type.

Kept His Old Mother Happy.

In the August Woman's Home Companion appears an article entitled "The School for Grand-mothers." One of the interesting points in it is that women of sixty years and over who have led active lives ought not to have everything done for them by prosperous sons and daughters. The idea is that a certain amount of activity and responsibility will preserve happiness in the old. It is not a good thing to relieve the old of all cares.

A practical man of wealth is quoted as follows on the subject of how he took care of his own mother.

"I know there is much unkind criticism of the fact that, instead of giving my widowed mother a home in my house, I have yielded to her wish that she should remain in the cottage she has occupied for fifty years. I was born there, and my father died there ten years ago. I see to it that she has every comfort she could desire. A woman who has been her maid of all work since I was a boy is with her. Her house is furnished to her taste; she has every pleasure she will accept from me, I visit her every day, and always find her cheerful and well. Her domestic duties supply occupation for mind and body; she has the neighbors and friends who made her social life in the old time. She has enough to do to keep her from moping and has none of the worries she would have had had she accepted my earnest invitation to spend the rest of her life with my wife, my children, and myself in a totally different sphere from that in which she has lived for three quarters of a century. A livelier, brighter, busier bee I never saw. I hope she will live to be a hundred!"

"I subjoin to the wish, that she counted her ninety-sixth birthday before closing her eyes upon a world she enjoyed to the last."

Judge Pressler Here.

Associate Justice Pressler of the court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo was circulating among friends in Wellington on last Tuesday, and addressed the citizens in behalf of his candidacy at the court house Tuesday night. His address was well received and the logical presentation of his claims convinced all who heard him. While in the city he is the guest of his relative and our estimable fellow townsman, Walter Campbell.

Judge Pressler is a member of our present court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo, composed of Hon. Jas. A. Graham, Chief Justice; Judge R. W. Hall, Associate Justice and Associate Justice Pressler. This court was created by the last Legislature, the district comprising 51 counties, commencing operation the first Monday in October 1911 with a crowded docket and insufficient facilities and library. The records show that they have disposed of as much work as either of the other eight courts of Appeals, and place this court upon an equal footing with the other courts Civil Appeals of Texas, and we think it is only fair to these judges to continue them in the position they now hold for one term at least.

While the question of prohibition should not effect the selection of these judges as the offices are not political but judicial and this court has nothing to do with the enforcement of prohibition, still this question has been brought into this campaign and we deem it but fair to state that all of the elements of our population are fairly represented up this court. Judge Hall being a pronounced State Wide prohibitionist, Judge Pressler a consistent Local-Option Prohibitionist with a record of over twenty years service in the cause, and Chief Justice Graham, a conscientious anti from conviction, who has never attempted to conceal his views on this subject. It will thus be seen that prohibition has a majority of the court as now constituted.

Judge Pressler's opponent is Judge Hendricks of Amarillo, who has made no sacrifice to go on this court, while Judge Pressler on the contrary, has given up his practice in Fisher County and moved to Amarillo and made a good record as a judge on this court, and in view of the fact that he has only served a few months, we are unable to see any good reason for displacing him at this time, and we solicit the votes of the Democratic citizens of this county for him in the primary.—Contributed.
