ANOTHER BIG crowd turned out last Sunday morning to attend the annual Kendrick family Easter Pageant at their farm midway between Eastland and Cisco. The program ended as the sun came up. There was something rather unusual this year — perfect weather.

The J. H. Kendricks family has been sponsoring an Easter Pageant for a good many years now. They work most of the year to add to their equipment, which includes an amphitheater with enough stages to permit continuous action.

Friends and neighbors play parts in the authentic biblical scenes and help with the many stage hand chores. Every one of the Kendrickses contributes in many ways to the success of the program As the years go by, the Kendrick Pageant is gaining more and more recognition. Folks come many, many miles to attend.

The pageant represents a pretty substantial financial matter each year. The Kendrick family bears this cost as their contribution to the Lord's work. The family is well known throughout the state for many years of quartet singing.

We're sure that you'll want to join us in an expression of appreciation to the Kendrick family for their annual contribution through the pageant. This fine family helps make Eastland County a better place in which to live.

IT'S SPRING alright, and hordes of wasps are buzzing about (Assistant County Agent Bob Cohen recommends a spray mixture) . . . Willie Speaker says he's already seen horned toads up and about — but Dusty Rhodes still hasn't seen a mesquite budded out yet . . . Maybe after Sunday: that's the day we're likely for a frost, by the way, if the ..thunder in February" theory holds true.

TERRY TREADWELL had a nice write up in the Reporter-News Sunday: one page was a feature about his winning streak and his attitude to win; another page had the account of latest big tennis win . . . Did you also see Former Eastlander Larry Goldston

LAUGH-A-DAY

A woman went to the doctor to complain about her husband's delusion. "It's terrible," she said. "All the time he thinks he's a refrigerator."

"Well," consoled the medic, "that isn't too bad. Quite a harmless delusion, I'd say."

"The delusion I don't mind, doctor," replied the woman, "but when he sleeps with his mouth open, the little light keeps me awake."

A REMINDER — Eastland's Annual Spring Clean-Up, sponsored jointly by the Civic League and Garden Club and the City of Eastland, is underway and with the Chamber of Commerce's continuing beautification project going on, it's a perfect time to spruce up, sweep up and make our town shine.

The annual Spring Clean-Up Campaign, sponsored by the Eastland Civic League and Garden Club, is underway. Each resident is asked to plan projects for cleaning and improving his own property.

City Manager Lewis Tiner said the city trucks will begin special pick-ups for the campaign on Tuesday, April 15. The campaign is expected to be completed by May 1.

Mrs. Pat Crawford, chairman of the campaign, offered suggestions for improving the appearance of our town:

"We should check our property and see what needs to be done," she said. "Trees and shrubbery near the streets and corners need to be trimmed. The city is very cooperative in this endeavor and we should try to have our trimming done and everything ready for the trucks."

Latin Literature Is Topic For Los Leales Meeting

Mrs. Aileen Raymond, English and Spanish teacher at Eastland High School, presented selections from Latin American literature for the Las Leales Club meeting Monday night at the Woman's Club.

Explaining that any literature tends to lose something in translation, Mrs. Raymond said, "The beauty of poetry, the depth of emotion, and the intense feeling of Latin American literature is often missed when the poems and stories are read in English." She read "Indian Boy of the Plains" both in Spanish and English to illustrate this.

The lives of several Latin American authors were sketched. Mrs. Raymond reviewed these selections, "Intimate", "Ecstasy", "To the Hebrew People", "Shrine of Our Lady of Solitude", "The Negro", "The Cylinder", "Curious Ant", "An Achievement," "The Gift", and "God Created Man".

Mrs. Raymond was introduced by Mrs. John Hart, hostess. Quotation for the meeting was "A constant friend is a thing rare and hard to find." Plutarch.

Mrs. J. T. Gregory, president, conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Gene Rhodes, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting. Mrs. Floyd Robertson invited members to the Community Fine Arts Festival luncheon at Lone Cedar Country Club April 16.

Members answered rool call with "The trouble with folks is . . . ".

Present were Mmes. Gregory, Rhodes, Raymond, Hart, James Smith, Robertson, Gene Boney, Ruth Poe Herring, Don Kinnaird, and Miss Verna Johnson.

The club will meet April 21 for a meeting titled "All Because a Woman Enjoys Humor". Mrs. Smith will present "American Humor".

History Of Eastland County Goes To Press

The first large-scale, comprehensive history of Eastland County since the Langston book was published in 1904, will be off the presses in May. This 400-page book, with its broad, extensive scope, covers the county as a whole and then develops the history of each town and village from its earliest settlement.

Early chapters cover topography and description, organization educational development and social and economic growth. Later chapters include history of each of the cities, an all are replete with biographies of many pioneers and their descendants.

The book has twenty-five illustrations scattered throughout, each one carrying its own point of interest. Published in hard binding with an attractive dust jacket, this book will be treasured for years to come by those who wish to preserve not only the history of their homeland, but also that of many families of the area, including, perhaps, their very own.

The author, Mrs. Pearl Ghormley, and her children are fourth-generation residents of the county. This is her second book. The first, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow, was published in December, 1966, by the Naylor Company of San Antonio. Although primarily a genealogy of family relationships with a four-color production of eight family crests, it contained many pages of Eastland County history as well.

The author has long been involved with the printed word. For fifteen consecutive years before her retirement in 1964, she was Night Supervisor of Publications of the University of Texas college newspaper, the Daily Texan. She has written articles throughout the years; is the mother of two sons and the grandmother of nine youngsters.

Mrs. Ghormley grew up in Cisco where she reared her family. Fresh out of an Abilene business college, she became legal secretary for the late Judge J. J. Butts at the age of eighteen, and later worked for several other attorneys there. She is a former employe of the Cisco Daily News, where she acted as circulation manager, United Press Operator, and bookkeeper, her two sons carried papers. When the Daily News sold, the family moved to Breckenridge where the boys graduated in 1943 with honors. In that year Mrs. Ghormley accompanied her son, Wayne, to Austin, where he was enrolled in the University as a pre-medical student and she became associated with the Daily Texan.

Copies of the new history may be reserved by addressing orders to this newspaper.

and his bride-to-be, discussing plans for their up-coming wedding?

AN IMPRESSIVE salute to men in uniform and those who died for their country was a feature up at First Baptist Church Tuesday night where a revival in progress runs through Sunday. JoAnn Baker and Randy Beskow did a superb job on "Taps", from a distance . . . Youngsters, 6 to 9, are invited to a feed Friday night at 6:30, and a Youth Talent Night will follow services on Saturday evening.

THE ANNUAL Lions Club Light Bulb Sale will be Tuesday next, with Tip Arther in charge. All Lions will be vested during that day, and start delivering bulbs at 5:30. You'll want to expect them for your annual part in their sight and youth programs, made possible through the sale of the bulbs. It's a big assortment of eight bulbs for $2 . . . The Lions District Convention will be May 9 and 10 in Graham, President E. O. Moore reports . . . Guests at the meeting Tuesday were John McQuire of Abilene and Buford Jordan of Eastland.

STRONG DEMAND for concrete products is credited with a 67 per cent increase in net income for Texas Industries, according to Local Manager Charlie Martin of Texas Lightweight Aggregate, a subsidiary . . . If you read the comic strip Sandy MacDivot, you'll be seeing the Munsingwear Penguin insignia prominently displayed on the sport shirts of that golfing hero.

OUR CofC's survey showed that there are many aspects of community improvement. Industralization is certianly a key one, as is evidenced by Eastland's recent successes in that category. Other areas can't be neglected the experts say. For instance the Texas Highway Department reports that 16.6 million out-of-state automobile visitors poured $1 BILLION into this state's economy last year. What are we doing, as a town, to get our share of this year's crop? Shouldn't we be busy Prettying a Park, Staking a camp ground by a little lake, or getting our billboards up advising 1969 visitors of all the wonderful things to enjoy in Eastland?

IDLE WONDER: Do you reckon Ford named their newest sports entry, due out Thursday, April 17, after the local, Eastland Mavericks?

WASN'T SUNDAY the most beautful day you ever recall for Easter?

The temperature was around 70 and there was only a light breeze blowing. The sun was out nice and bright.

The fish were biting, golf playing was good, a number of boats were pulling water skiers and just about everybody had company. Local churches had probably their best crowds of the year.

Front to rear: Kingswood Estate Wagon, Concours Station Wagon, Sportvan and Suburban.
No other wagons have such a capacity for enjoyment.
Show you what we mean.
Say you're in a Chevrolet Kingswood or Concours Walk-In Wagon, when suddenly the road becomes nothing but chuckholes and ruts.
Only you can't tell it's rough.
You see, Chevy wagons float along on computer-selected coil springs that smooth even the meanest road.
Maybe you're a bit more serious about the great outdoors. So are we. That's why we offer the Chevy Sportvan and Suburban. To an outdoorsman, they're like clear skies and no mosquitoes.
So before you head out to see the U.S.A., better stop by your Chevrolet dealer's.

Lone Star Gas

The 30% faster T-bone

Compliments of gas infra-red broiling.

Gas infra-red concentrates its heat directly onto the meat...searing the outside so all the juices stay inside! You broil up to 30% faster, yet with reduced shrinkage. And the results are tender and delicious! That's the beauty of gas infra-red. Just one more reason why a gas range is made for good cooking...and for folks who love good cooking.

THE GORDON SPOT

By DE GORDON, County Agricultural Agent

Now that spring is here the outdoor work really begins. Most homeowners have more yard work to do than they can possibly get to.

Cool season broadleaf weeds and grasses seem to be causing everyone trouble including myself. There are three different treatments recommended to control cool season plants before the lawn grass starts growing.

Ammonium nitrate dissolved in water will burn all vegetation. Dissolve one pound of ammonium nitrate fertilizer in one gallon of water and spray the weeds and grasses. One gallon is enough to spray 1000 square feet. The nitrogen will also benefit your lawn grass. There is, however, a problem in spraying with ammonium nitrate. It's hard to get all the fertilizer to dissolve causing the sprayer to clog. The nitrogen al corrodes the sprayer if it is not cleared real well.

Endothall is another material that can be sprayed on cool season weeds before the lawn grass comes out. It should be sprayed on two or three days after a close mowing.

Paraquat is the third material that may be used on the weeds. It kills all vegetation it contacts. So more precautions should be followed when using paraquat. It should not be used after the grass comes out.

Bagworms, damaging insect pests of evergreens and occasionally of broadleaf plants, will soon be making their spring time appearances.

Evergreens should be closely examined, and if newly hatched bagworms are found, control measures should be applied.

The worms immediately spin a bag of silk around themselves and attach bits of foilage to the outside of the bag as they feed. The larvae carry these bags wherever they go with only the front part of their bodies protruding for feeding and movement. The bags enlarge as the bagworms grow. A heavy infestation can completely strip that plant of foilage. When this happens, the plant may be lost.

The effective "camouflage" presented by the bags makes the insect hard to detect and damage may be extensive before they are noticed. They are much easier to control while they are still young.

If bagworms were present on a plant last year and control measures were not applied chances are good that an insecticide will be needed this spring.

Recommended control measures are outlined in L-199 "Texas Guide for Controlling Insects on Ornamental Plants" Copies are available from my office.

Chemical shearing of sheep and goats will be demonstrated to Texas producers April 17 at the Sheep and Angora Goat Field Day planned by Texas A&M Agricultural Research Center near McGregor.

Chemical fleece removal now only in the testing stage, will be done by Dr. Maurice Shelton, sheep and goat geneticist at McGregor. Shelton will discuss the possibilities and limitations of this method for producers use in the future.

Several other interesting topics will be discussed at the field day which begins at 9 A.M.

Now that pecan trees are budding out there is increased interest in budding and grafting the new improved varieties on native an undesirable stock. If you would like to learn how to do the budding or grafting, be sure to attend our propagation school at Cisco Junior College, April 18.
