Dr. Frank Means To Preach Sunday At Baptist Church

Dr. Frank Means will fill the pulpit of the First Baptist Church Sunday at both services. The pastor will be in a revival at the First Baptist Church of Hereford, it was announced.

Dr. Means is a graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He has been professor of missions at Southwestern Seminary since his graduation. Dr. Means has accepted the position of educational secretary of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention with offices located in Richmond, Va. He will assume full duties there after the present summer school session and an extensive tour of Europe in the late summer.

"The First Baptist Church is happy to have such a splendid personage to present to the congregation in the absence of the pastor," the church announcement said.

Water Testing Gets Underway Here This Week

Testing water from the source of supply is well under way this week as farmers of Hall County are urged to bring in samples to County Agent W. B. Hooser for chemical analysis.

Several samples have been received here this week and are being shipped to the State Board of Health for testing.

J. L. Robinson, district engineer of the State Board of Health, visited the Memphis chamber of commerce Tuesday and conferred with Hooser in planning the water survey.

The chamber of commerce has launched this survey not only to secure official data and certification of the county's water but also to afford each farmer a certificate from the State Board of Health, giving the chemical analysis of his well.

Gallon glass jugs should be used in submitting the water sam-

Presbyterian Services Feature Dr. Everheart

In a series of evangelistic services beginning Wednesday, June 18, at 8 p. m. and continuing through Sunday, June 29, the First Presbyterian Church will open the first phase of a new life movement which is being carried out in all the Presbyterian Churches throughout the nation, according to a church announcement.

Dr. Joe N. Everheart, pastor-evangelist of the First Presbyterian Church of Clarksville, will be the speaker. He was pastor of the Presbyterian church at Kerens for 22 years before going to Clarksville.

"Dr. Everheart is a great preacher and I am sure he will bring us beneficial lessons," Rev. B. L. Peacock, pastor, stated. "The public is invited to hear this series of gospel messages."

Interment will be in the Newlin cemetery, with Womack Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Spruill was born February 2, 1880, in Grapeland, Texas. She was married to W. H. Spruill in 1899. He preceded her in death several years ago. Mrs. Spruill came to Hall County from Grapeland, and had lived here since 1919. She had been a member of the Baptist church since she was 18.

Shipment Of Wheat Begins Here

Wheat shipments got underway here yesterday when Hill and White sent a 60-ton carload to Galveston. They had loaded a second car, and were expecting to get it on the way Thursday morning, it was reported.

The Farmers Union Co-op Company were also finishing up a carload, and expected to ship it out about the same time.

From reports from farmers in the county, the harvest is expected to get underway on a big scale next week.

J. J. McMickin, local Fort Worth and Denver agent, said that more cars from here north in the Panhandle continued to roll on to side tracks. He said he had noted there were 50 at Clarendon, 40 or 50 at Claude, and that he was bringing in a number of cars here this week.

He said that harvest estimations here were running almost one-third above the estimate of a few weeks back until the storm here last night. The fact that areas south are only approximately 75 per cent finished with the harvest as the harvest begins here, may pose an added difficulty.

Farmers May Be Classed Small Businessmen

Governor Beauford H. Jester has spearheaded the way for farmers to be defined as "small business" operators, according to Hall County Agent W. B. Hooser and Pat Flynn, chamber of commerce manager who met with the chief executive last week in Austin.

Governor Jester wired both the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the War Assets Corporation asking such designation be made in order that the farmer may compete with private enterprizes in securing war surplus buildings for emergency grain storage facilities.

Flynn and Hooser had first met with WAA officials in Grand Prairie where they were told it was impossible for them to assist farmers unless RFC designated Broome purchased the cattle from an Amarillo commission company, the cattle being brought from a ranch south of Houston, it was reported.

He has been joined here by Mrs. Armstrong. They are the parents of three sons. The two oldest, Bill, lives in Anson, C. C. Jr. is employed as a civil engineer in Shreveport, and Jesse, the youngest, is a student at S. M. U., it was reported.

To Replant Cotton On Farms In Area

Hail, wind, and rain starting shortly after 7 o'clock last night blasted hopes for a bumper wheat crop in many sections near here as large stones falling just north of Memphis to be yond Hedley pounded wheat for almost 100 per cent damage. Rainfall in Memphis was 2.03 inches last night.

Hedley seems to have been the storm center, the most heavily damaged area running from two or three miles northwest of Memphis to beyond Hedley, according to reports from J. J. McMickin, Fort Worth and Denver agent.

A twister early in the evening struck on the Ott Bevers farm near Lakeview, demolishing a rent house and other buildings. The occupants, J. H. Langhan and family, escaped injury by going to the storm cellar when they saw the storm approaching.

Lynn McKown, ACA secretary, said about 50 per cent crop damage had been reported northeast of Lakeview.

From Brice north heavy damage was reported.

Charlie Crow, who lives about three miles northwest of town reports cotton and wheat in that area are ruined, and that his house was badly damaged. He said a twister struck in the open near his place, uprooting mesquite trees. Jess Dennis, J. R. Mitchell, Burl Smith, and others in that neighborhood lost practically all their wheat. Burl Smith reports that hailstones were so large they went through the roof and ceiling into the house.

G. W. and Robert Sexauer, who live eight miles west of Memphis, report a heavy rain, windows broken through screens by hail, and stripped fruit trees. They said that cotton in that section will have to be replanted. Frank Finch and Troy Broome both report heavy wind, hail, and

Cotton Growers To Receive '43 Crop Pool Pay

The Department of Agriculture announced that the Commodity Credit Corporation will begin immediately a pro rata distribution of $6,183,388.25 among 393,359 cotton growers who have a financial interest in the proceeds from cotton which the coropration pooled from the 1943 crop, Lynn McKown, ACA secretary, announced this week.

Upon completion of these payments, the CCC expects to begin distribution of the proceeds from the 1944 and 1945 crop pools, probably by the end of September this year.

The distributions announced from the 1943 pool are in addition to earlier payments this year amounting to $3,131,672.82 to 173,215 producers interested in the 1941 crop pool, and $1,948,650.71 to 680,011 producers interested in the 1942-crop pool, McKown said.

Since 1938 the cotton loan programs have provided for the pooling of unredeemed loan stocks at the expiration of each loan period. These stocks were placed in a pool to be sold by the CCC, with the stipulation that any proceeds above all costs to the corporation would be pro rated among producers whose unredeemed cotton was placed in the pools. Costs include all advances under the loans plus storage, interest, and handling charges, it is reported.

Motorcyclist Thrown 50 Feet In Accident Near Clarendon Sun.

G. M. Hoffman of New Castle was thrown 50 feet and severly lacerated and bruised when he lost control of his motorcycle just north of Clarendon about 3 p. m. Sunday.

He was brought to a Memphis hospital for treatment, then moved to the Veterans' Hospital in Amarillo after examinations and treatment here, according to a hospital report.

To Play Canyon Saturday Night

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to be on hand Saturday night at the local diamond when Memphis clashes with the strong Canyon nine in the rubber contest of a three-game series.

Jupiter Pluvius played havoc with the game Wednesday night from which proceeds were to go to Herschel Stewart, Memphis third baseman who was injured by a thrown ball recently. The contest was expected to be a colorful fray between the local nine and the Memphis "Try-outs," a team composed of young fellows attending the Yankee training camp here.

Battery for the Try-outs was to have been Burleigh Grimes, immortal major-league hurler, and Dutch Lorbeer, former Texas League standout and manager of the Beaumont Exporters. Adding to the color provided by the imported talent, Jim Smith local banker, had agreed to bat for Grimes and boasted that he co[uld] play any position on the diamon[d].

Saturday night's game will produce a winner of a three-game series. Canyon thumped Memphis earlier in the season 11 to 3, but the Lions came back last Saturday night to even the count by shutting out Canyon 6

Dew Trail Betrays Memphis Felon

An Associated Press story Monday, under a Paris, Texas, dateline, carried the following concerning John Weldon Akard, a former Memphis boy:

A tell-tale trail through morning dew led today to the recapture of a trusty who walked out of the Bonham jail and stole the sheriff's car, badge, and pistol and escaped. The 22-year-old, former Memphis boy was serving a jail term for passing worthless checks. He escaped about 11 o'clock Sunday night.

He wrecked the car stolen from Sheriff Dick Wait, and flagged down Junior Lowery of Dodd

DDT, Sulphur Mix Saves Alfalfa From Pea Aphids

DDT and sulphur mixture can mean dollars saved to West Texas alfalfa growers this year, judging from the experience of Hale Center farmers.

Hale County Agricultural Agent M. W. Ayers reports that the DDT and sulphur mixture now has the nod of approval from several farmers who had a severe infestation of pea aphids on alfalfa recently. Before the aphid poisoning could get underway, however, the insects had slowed down alfalfa growth to the extent that some farmers lost their entire first planting.

A local insecticide dealer cooperated with the county agent and a few farmers in running some field trials in an effort to find the best poison to use against the aphids on alfalfa. Their best results were obtained with ten percent DDT and sulphur, applied at the rate of 20 to 30 pounds per acre. Most of the poison trials were done by airplane.

The farmers who have used the treatment are well satisfied that it will pay dividends, says County Agent Ayers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norman and daughter Lynda Jon and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brewer and daughter Glenda Lou of Wellington were in Memphis Tuesday night to attend the Wellington-Memphis baseball game and visit in the Herschel Combs home.

Control Measures Cited for Polio

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following statements and suggestions concerning the control and prevention of poliomyelitis which is now occurring in certain sections of the State.

At one time it was generally believed that this infection was transmitted primarily by discharges from the respiratory tract. It is now believed that poliomyelitis may be another of the several gastrointestinal infections. Therefore, control measures must include clean-up campaigns and improvements in sanitation.

Stringent efforts should be made to eliminate house-flies, mosquitoes, and rodents to destroy their breeding places. Every effort should be made to institute approved garbage collection systems, and secure safe water supplies. Where adequate municipal sewage disposal systems are not in operation, it is necessary to install and maintain sanitary septic tanks and outdoor privies.

All swimming pools should maintain those standards approved by the Texas State Department of Health. This includes maintenance of proper chlorine level. Where such standards are not maintained, those pools should be closed to the public.

All raw foods and vegetables should be washed thoroughly before use and proected from filth and insects. All food handling establishments should adhere strictly to the State law concerning the sterilization of dishes and utensils. Those restaurants with insufficient personnel to maintain approved sanitation, should close one or two hours a day so that employees can assist in maintaining cleanliness and high sanitation standards.

Approved milk supplies, rodent control measures, high sanitation standards, and strict personal hygiene are all important. Polio cases should be quarantined for 14 days and excreta from cases and contacts should be handled and disinfected with the same scrupulous care as in typhoid fever or bacillary dysentery.

Over - exertion in children should be avoided. Children should not visit homes where there is illness. It is advisable to reduce to a minimum all human contacts, especially in children during an outbreak of this disease. It is not advocated that schools, churches, and theaters be closed.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headache, fever, vomiting, drowsiness, followed by stiffness in the neck and back. When suspicious symptoms appear, a physician should be called immediately.

Homemaking Is Feature of 4-H Girls' Program

Valuable incentives to rural girls who aspire to become successful homemakers are offered in the 1947 National 4-H Girls' Record program. In this activity, which is conducted under the direction of the Extension Service, participants learn all phases of homemaking through 4-H Club projects which serve to develop housekeeping skills and home management ability. To buy wisely and use farm and home resources intelligently are featured in their training.

A typical 4-H girl's record in homemaking shows that during eight years in club work she prepared and served 5,081 dishes for family meals; sewed, made over or mended 107 garments; canned 3,292 jars of fruits and vegetables; also made 80 home improvement articles, raised 12½ acres of garden, prepared 2,771 pounds of food for freezing, gave demonstrations, and served as junior leader. In addition to home grounds beautification achievements won state honors.

As incentives for outstanding achievemens in homemaking, Montgomery Ward awards are offered. This fifth consecutive year awards include medals and trophies to county winners, an all-expense trip to the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago to the state champion and $200.00 college scholarships to six national winners.

Last year's state champion in Texas was Margie Gail Hall of Mt. Enterprise. County champions were named in 61 counties.

They sent a large box of bed covering, clothing, and canned food to Crowell when it was destroyed by a tornado. They sent a similar box to Higgins. They assist many families in their vicinity who suffer from a fire or any other calamity. The members of this club utilize the materials they have for their work: many of the garments are made from feed bags.

Early in January through the suggestion of C. C. Hodges, the club became interested in Boy's Ranch. They have sent several boxes of clothing, tea towels, games, quilts, pillow cases, magazines, etc. On February 13, Mrs. Ernest Lee, president of the club, received an invitation from George S. (Pinkey) Vineyard: "We are most anxious to have you and as many of your organization as you would like to bring with you to visit Boy's Ranch." On April 7, she received a letter of thanks for a box from Cal Farley and another invitation: "If you haven't visited the Ranch recently, we invite all of you to do so at your convenience. Go out and meet the boys and the people in charge and see just what we are trying to do out there. Thanks again." On June 4, the club received another letter of thanks and an invitation from him: "Just a note to say thanks to you and the other members of your club for the fine box of clothing that you recently sent to the boys at Boy's Ranch. . . . Again we invite all of you to visit the Ranch and get acquainted with the boys."

Of course, these invitations have increased the interest of the women in the work and a large number of the membership is planning to go to Boy's Ranch some day between July 1 and July 10.

Recently through Horace Tarver they learned that the boys are needing horse-drawn farming implements and the Salisbury community has collected a dozen or so of these including go-devils, cultivators, listers, and turning plows. Some of the citizens giving these tools are: Mrs. T. K. Wilton, Charles Williams, Jess Mitchell, Ernest Lee, Alfred Hutcherson, and Sam Moore of Wellington, who has converted his large ranch and farm in New Mexico into a power-driven organization, donated a full truckload of horse-drawn implements. T. D. Weatherby will haul the implements collected here to Amarillo, free of charge, and an Amarillo truck-owner will take them on to the ranch. This is the sort of cooperation the club is receiving on every hand and it is most grateful.

The present roll includes: Mesdames Ted Barnes, George Bass, L. I. Davis, Kittie Gammage, Ed Hutcherson, Alfred Hutcherson, Felix Jarrell, D. W. Lawrence, Ernest Lee, Cecil Lockhart, M. C. Martin, W. B. McQueen, Ira McQueen, Ervin McQueen, W. B. McQueen Jr., J. R. Mitchell, C. L. Mixon, M. P. Moore, D. C. Messick, E. W. Solomon, C. F. Stout, Neal Sweatt, T. K. Wilton, Charles Williams, Rhubert Wynn. Members are never elected. Any woman living in the Salisbury community or any woman who has a definite interest in the welfare of the community is considered a potential member of the club.

Rodeo "Posse" Sternly Warns Local Tenderfeet

Un-western renegades, who hesitate to don items of cowboy regalia, will be fined $1 and furnished ribbons designating them as "tenderfeet," Leon Brown, head of the Rodeo Sheriff's Posse, announced this week.

The ribbon will provide immunity from further payments, Brown said, if it is worn in a conspicuous place.

The posse will begin their drive to stimulate interest in the rodeo around 10 days before the rodeo is scheduled, Brown said.

It was also announced that courtesy tickets for the rodeo would be given visiting pilots, who are scheduled to participate in the dedication of the local airport the last day of the rodeo, July 26.

At a meeting of the VFW Tuesday night, Lewis Foxhall was named service officer. He will attend a two-day course at Lubbock, around July 1, being given to acquaint service officers with filing claims and similar duties.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. N. R. Simmons of Hedley, Mrs. Owen McInroe of Idalou; one son, Dan Bell of Clovis, N. M.; one brother, W. V. McCauley of Lelia Lake; eight grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Burial was in Idalou Cemetery, with Womack Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Says Bindweed May Be Spread By Combines

As a precaution against the further spread of bindweed, also often called possession vine, all itinerant combines should be thoroughly cleaned before going into clean fields, County Agent W. B. Hooser said this week. This is especially important with combines coming from other wheat states where the bindweed is quite prevalent, and where it has become a serious pest, he said.

"The machines should not be cleaned in fields or on highways, as there is danger of the seed germinating and the plants spreading from those spots to the fields, Hooser said.

"It is likely that a good deal of the spread of bindweed has been caused by itinerant combines which had some of the seed in the machines.

"As an added precaution never use grain seed for planting from fields where there is bindweed, as the seed often matures at about the same time as the small grain crops, and gets mixed with the grain.

"A good many of the infestations were no doubt caused by planting wheat or other grain seed that contained some bindweed seed.

"Precautions should also be used not to spread bindweed seed with combines in grain fields where seed of this pest is maturing.

Bindweed is very difficult and expensive to eradicate because of its extensive and deep root system and the fact that the seed can live in the soil a number of years, Hooser emphasized. It is easier to keep it from coming on the farms by proper precautions than to eradicate it, he said.

CLAUDE'S COMMENTS

By J. C. W.

An old Memphis boy who went astray—that is, he strayed to Childress a few years ago—is now president of the Golden West Broadcasting Company which operates radio station KCTX at Childress. On last Wednesday evening Malone Hagan, the stray mentioned above, spoke over KCTX and paid a fine tribute to a Memphis old-timer. The tribute was so good that I asked Malone to furnish me a copy. It is given in full below:

"I wish that I could say to you as did the bards of old that much have I traveled in the realms of gold that many stately kingdoms and treasures have I seen. I cannot do this, but I can say that in our own immediate realm, of our own acquaintance that there are good men and good women whose lives are worth more to us than all the traveling in the world. During the late twenties and the middle thirties while I lived in Memphis it was my good pleasure and my good fortune to know W. P. Dial. Mr. Dial today at the age of 83 is still actively in pursuit of the varied interests of farming and ranching and does a full days work every day.

"Born in Georgia in 1864, he moved by covered wagon with his family to Fannin County, Texas, in 1870. In 1890 he moved to Hall County with his wife and small daughter, driving before him 13 head of cattle. He settled around Newlin where he bought a whole section of land for $750. At that time there was in existence only one fence between Memphis and Childress. During the panic of '93 Mr. Dial suffered similar reverses to all others throughout this territory, but was helped by a neighbor and started buying grain to eventually become known as the Cane Seed King of Texas. In 1905 Mr. Dial moved to Memphis, continuing his grain business along with the farming of several sections of land which he had acquired to that time.

"He made a practice of buying another farm as soon as one was paid for and continued this process until he acquired 48 sections of land. He says that now he has only 3,000 head of cattle on hand and expects to reduce his activity in this field before very long. Mr. Diel during his long lifetime has helped a large number of young men and young women to get an education by financing them in college and likewise by financing deserving young people in the purchasing of land and financing of businesses.

"I heard him say one time that if a person is able and does nothing to help others when they need help that he considers them complete failures in life. In other words when we come before the great judge to give the tenor of a well spent life it matters not that we have won or lost but how we played the game that counts. To me, Mr. Dial comes very near exemplifying the great philisophy that's taught by the poem Rabbi Ben Ezra which says in part, 'to come along and grow old with me, the best is yet to be, the last of life for which the first is made.' He has, for all of his life, been a deacon in the Methodist church, and on every Christmas has sent a $1 Christmas present to each member in the Methodist Orphan's Home in Waco, Texas. His check last Christmas amounted to $500.

"His I call a good life well lived."

Church Ceremony in Los Angeles Unites Miss Clarene Easley and John Hughes

Softly glowing candles, with floral displays massed against a gold and silver background formed the setting for the candlelight service which united Miss Clarene Easley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Easley of Los Angeles, and John Robert Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hughes of Paris, Ark., at the Lincoln Heights Foursquare Church, Los Angeles, Saturday, May 17. Rev. Mildred Poole officiated at the impressive church ceremony.

Beautiful in a white satin gown and fingertip veil held in place by a halo of lace, the bride carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and carnations.

Attending her as matron of honor was her twin sister, Mrs. Earlene Harris, dressed in a pink taffeta, and carrying pink sweet peas and carnations. Bridesmaid was Miss Betty Vawter, cousin of the bride, in a yellow taffeta and with yellow and lavender flowers in her bouquet. Little Nina Jane and Marion Gilkerson, dressed in blue taffeta, led off the procession as flower girls.

The couple mounted a dias of gold steps to stand before a background of a rising sun in gold, with slender silver rays coming [illegible] to exchange their vows. Candelabra and floral arrangements enclosed the setting. Appropriate musical selections were played by Organist Jerry Martin and Thelma Matthems sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Following the service, over 150 guests attended the reception in the Crusader chapel of the church.

The bride is a graduate of the Beaumont High School; however, she received most of her schooling in the Memphis schools. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parks Mitcham, who live near Memphis.

Forestry Head To Consider Hall As Nursery Site

D. A. Anderson, chief of the Texas Forestry Department, Texas A. and M. College, will be in Hall County within the near future to test soils, water supply, and potential sites for a West Texas nursery, he told county agent W. B. Hooser and chamber of commerce manager Pat Flynn in College Station last week.

The Texas Legislature recently allotted approximately $80,000 with which to establish a West Texas free seedling nursery whereby residents of this section of the state may purchase seedlings at cost.

Anderson told the local men the funds had not been transferred to his department as yet but expected to receive the green light soon. He added several counties had requested the nursery but no decision would be made until sites had been examined.

Hooser outlined the soil conditions of Hall County and pointed out the Southwest's first experimental shelter belt had been started here, proving the feasibility of tree growing.

Anderson stated he had requests from West Texas for more than 1,500,000 trees "even before we have announced any plans for such distribution or having publicized the program," he said.

The East Texas nursery now has approximately 20,000,000 trees growing, Anderson said but the varieties there are particularly for East Texas and the Rio Grande Valley.

So impressed was the forestry chief with Hooser's picture of Hall County, he promised to make a personal survey of Hall County claims.

Mrs. Berner Phillips returned home Tuesday after visiting her brother in Fayetteville, Tenn., friends in Nashville, Tenn., and Huntsville, Ala., and her daughter in Greenville.

What Is Wrong With Our Schools?

(Editor's note—this space is open to all readers of The Democrat for the purpose of expressing their opinions on any and all subjects. All signed letters will be printed here upon request, so long as they carry clean, unlibelous, material The following should be considered the opinion of the writer, in no manner reflecting on the editorial policies of the newspaper.)

In 1933 the Hall County school census was 4,114; today it is 2,650. This is more than one-third loss. Some say this was caused by the farm program and some say mechanized farming, but wheatever the cause we are still short of pupils. We are allowed one teacher for each thirty pupils and the State Department of Education says that this teacher must meet state standards and have a major or minor in the subject she teaches. This is most difficult for small schools. We are not getting hurt on the subjects we teach, but are are suffering a great loss on the subjects we can't teach; we can't teach them because we don't have enough teachers to teach a full program. What we really need is a teacher for each grammar grade, which is eight teachers and then we need English, history, mathematics, commercial work, music, science, agriculture, home economics, athletics, and the superintendent. This would require fifteen or sixteen teachers.

The state department advocates that we disband and form a larger school district of enough pupils to carry on this program. Newlin, Gilpin, Estelline, and Parnell have 441 scholastics for 1947-48 besides a few transfers from Tell and Carey districts which would guarantee fifteen and maybe sixteen teachers. This new program the state offers is to form a rural high school of all districts which are interested in a better school and a better program. All school board members would resign and form a new district, and then the county school board would appoint seven new board members representing the new district giving each district their representation, and then drop all valuations back to state and county renditions at the end of this tax year.

By pooling our school pupils and having teachers enough to teach all subjects required, and pooling our entire indebtedness into one district indebtedness, and then pooling all our resources we should operate at a great deal less expense to all concerned.

Last year, Newlin, Gilpin, Estelline, and Parnell had 19 teachers, and all sent their high school students to Estelline, but Estelline by not having enough pupils could not possibly offer chemistry and had to drop home economics at mid term; now there is a threat that vocational agriculture may have to be dropped in 1947. By forming this new rural high school district we can offer more subjects than they have ever had offered in any of the old districts.

Newlin owes $18,800 bonded indebtedness on $322,800 tax valuation, which is about six per cent of their valuation. Estelline owes two and one-half per cent, $31,600 bonded indebtedness on $1,203,000 valuation, and has $2,900 in the sinking fund. The buildings and transportation equipment of Estelline have an estimated value of $110,000.

The pooling of all resources belonging to all four above mentioned school districts would make a very nice rural high school, but this must be done by a vote of the people of these districts. The Newlin board of trustees and the Estelline board have met together and realizing they cannot carry on a program the State Department of Education prescribes, have decided to let the people vote their sentiments. Gilpin and Parnell have not asked the county board to include them in this program. If you are interested in a better school program for your children and your grandchildren, please ask your board members to ask the county board to include your children in the new rural high school district.

The entire county of Motley has already been voted into three rural high schools. Quail and Sam Norwood in Collingsworth County, two very large rural high schools, have operated successfully for several years. Eleven new districts have been formed on the South Plains recently, and there are six new districts between here and Henrietta.

Please think this over seriously; the patrons in small districts have to do something immediately or disband entirely, leaving all decisions in the hands of the State Department of Education. At present we can vote our sentiments and plan things for the best interest of all concerned. A continuation of our present system is paralyzing the high school we have to use at present.

THE LITTLE CUB THAT FOLLOWS ME

A careful man I ought to be,
A little cub scout follows me.
I do not dare to go astray
For fear he'll go the self-same way.

I can not once escape his eyes,
What ever he sees me do, he tries.
Like me he says he is going to be.
The little cub that follows me.
He thinks that I am good and fine
And believes in every word of mine.

The base in me he must not see,
The little cub that follows me.
And I must remember as I go,
That cub scout days he'll always know,
And that I am building in the years to be
In the little cub that follows me.

Harry Montgomery Is Named Editor Of Arizona Papers

Harry Montgomery, Associated Press chief of bureau in New Mexico since August 1, 1945, has resigned to become executive editor of the Arizona Republic and Phoenix Gazette, at Phoenix, it was announced Saturday in a news story by the Associated Press at Albuquerque.

Montgomery will take over his new assignment July 1.

For ten years, 1934 to 1944, Montgomery was in charge of the Associated Press in Arizona. His last assignment before going to New Mexico was in Minneapolis where he directed the service for Minnesota and North and South Dakota. He returned to the Southwest and was assigned to New Mexico because of illness in his family.

His resignation ends 16 1-2 years of service with the AP, the world's largest news-gathering organization. Once the youngest chief of bureau in the organization, only four men now with the cooperative news service have headed a bureau longer.

Montgomery, who attended school at Texas Tech, began his newspaper career in the Texas Panhandle. He once edited The Democrat. He founded The Toreador, campus newspaper at Texas Tech, and had worked four years for the Globe-News in Amarillo when he was employed by the AP to open a bureau there.

Montgomery is a brother of Herschel Montgomery of The Democrat.

May's banner production record represents an even 32 per cent increase over the previous high set in April when 7,846 cars rolled off the twin K-F assembly lines. Mr. Kaiser said that a stepped up production tempo at K-F's Detroit engine division and improved engine deliveries from the Continental Motors plant in Muskegon, Mich., contributed greatly to the sharp upturn in Willow Run output.

As of May 31, Kaiser-Frazer had produced a grand total of 48,754 cars, 37,165 of them since January, 1947.

Salvation Army Launches Appeal For $260,000

The Salvation Army state headquarters in Dallas has launched a state-wide appeal for $260,000. This announcement was made by Colonel H. Dodd, divisional commander, from the Dallas headquarters this week. Nathan Adams, chairman of the board of the First National Bank at Dallas, is serving as treasurer of the fund and other state-wide committee members are to be announced at a later date.

Included in the overall campaign is $50,000 toward a new state-wide hospital for unwed mothers in San Antonio; also $25,000 for better facilities at the State Youth Camp at Irving. A portion of the fund will be used for rehabilitation of Salvation Army buildings in war-torn Europe. Part of the fund will go to retirement allowances for Salvation Army officers who reach the age of 65. Some of the money will be used for disaster work in Texas. The Salvation Army prison and parole work will benefit as well as the training program for Salvation Army officers.

It is hoped that before the campaign is finalized, which will not be until some time in 1948, that every resident of the state will have an opportunity to give something, the announcement said. Checks may be made payable to The Salvation Army and mailed to Nathan Adams, treasurer, at the First National Bank, Dallas.

HEADS CANCER PROGRAM

Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins of Eastland has been named state commander of the Field Army of the Texas Division, American Cancer Society. Serving at present as the only woman member of the State Board of Education, Mrs. Perkins has been selected to direct the permanent year-round educational and service program of the Field Army in all sections of the state. She hopes to bring to every home in Texas the message that "cancer can be cured" if recognized and treated in time.

Mrs. Perkins is well-known throughout the state for her work as a clubwoman. Immediate past president of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, she served in 1938 as president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Local Firemen Attend State Convention

Approximately 2,000 firemen and fire marshals from Memphis and all over the state registered for the 71st annual convention of the Firemen's and Fire Marshal's Association of Texas which convened at the municipal auditorium at Amarillo at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

On the morning program, the invocation was given by Rev. J. C. Felger, state chaplain from Victoria. President Royce Hogg of Gilmore declared the convention opened and addresses were given by Mayor Lawrence Hagy, Police Chief Sid Harper, Fire Chief E. R. Wilson, Sheriff Bill Adams, Mason King, and Wes Izzard.

Wednesday morning's session included an address by Jay Stevens, assistant manager, National Board of Fire Underwriters, San Francisco; a discussion by Col. H. R. Bravton of the Firemen's Training School—"Water Wetters—A New Wrinkle in Fire Fighting"; a report of the National Fire Chiefs convention by Royce Hogg; entertainment by the Dixie Dice school and a solo by Mrs. Gammage.

Memorial services were scheduled Wednesday afternoon. A memorial sermon was given by State Chaplain Felger. The nomination of officers and the next meeting place followed the pumper races, which were held at the north side of the auditorium. A John Snider barbecue followed.

Those attending the convention from Memphis were Mr. and Mrs. Hooper Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brisco, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Sturdevant, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Aspgren, Bill Kesterson, Lloyd Ward, Lester Grimes, W. T. Baten, and Lester Huggins.

On Sunday, Memphis will trek to Childress to meet the improved down-river boys in an important league game. Childress thumped Quanah 4-3 last Sunday and is now in second place in the league standings. Memphis can climb into the runner-up slot by downing Childress.

Water Testing-

ples, Hooser said. The jugs should be rinsed at least twice with the water to be tested thus insuring a clean container and rinsed by the same type of water to be analyzed. A full gallon jig of water is needed for the analysis. The water should be taken from the well as it is pumping and not from a storage tank or barrel, Hooser warned.

If a cork is used for the stopper, it, too, should be cleaned by the same type of water to be tested and under identical condition. If a screw-type cap is used, farmers are urged to make certain the wax-paper liner of the cap is clean and intact. Engineer Robinson explained this was most important in taking samples for test as one minute particle of foreign substance, or a different part of water may change the entire finding at the laboratories and thus fail to give the proper and correct analysis.

Hooser now has sampling forms which will be attached to each jug of water. These forms may be had from his office or the chamber of commerce.

Other water and sanitation engineers will visit Hall County soon to make surveys as to rate of flow, and attempt to determine commercial, industrial, and irrigational possibilities of this area.

rain damage. Mrs. O. Waites reports barns lost by wind damage.

Clifford and Barney Burnett lost several hundred acres of wheat southwest of town, as well as practically all their cotton crop, and similar reports have come from their neighbors, from Plaska northeast toward Memphis.

Southeast of Memphis the rain was heavy and some hail was reported, and much of the cotton will have to be replanted.

The Friendship community south of Memphis was the center of a lot of crop damage from hail.

Dot Webster, just northeast of Memphis, had one of the best wheat crops in the county, and after the storm it was a total loss, he reports. The roof of his house and Brice Webster reported similar damage.

Estelline reported light rain, heavy hail with wheat damage running to 25 per cent west toward Hulver.

Wind jerked transom lights out of the Thompson hardware building in Memphis.

R. L. Jordan, keeper at Brookhollow Lake, reported heavy rain and hail at the lake—five feet more water in the lake today; roof of his home ruined; and all crops between the lake and town ruined.

conversion from battery to regular current. Conversion cost was estimated at $100. The local department is applying for an operating license, and the set should be in operation during the fall, Sheriff Earl Hill and Deputy Grant Evans estimated.

With the set, communication may be made with stations as far away as Vernon and Amarillo, it was announced.

was rushed to Amarillo after an examination and treatment at a hospital here. Nine X-ray pictures were made in Amarillo and an operation was performed Tuesday. The doctor who performed the operation is reported to have said that if the blow had been a fraction higher it would have been fatal.

The operation was reported as successful Wednesday. Although the first report was that Stewart would be in the hospital for at least two weeks, he returned to Memphis Wednesday night.

The Memphis Lions baseball team announced Wednesday that it would turn all proceeds from the Wednesday night game over to Stewart. The West Texas Utilities Company announced that it would donate light expenses for that evening.

Young Lowery notified officers and Sheriff Wait, accompanied by Highway Patrolman Ross Kemp of Paris, went to Dial, Texas, where Akard was known to have relatives.

A trail through the morning dew led the officers to nearby woods where Akard was found sleeping. He offered no resistance.

Fannin County Attorney John Farmer said Akard's case would come before the grand jury which convened Monday. New charges, he said, would include kidnapping and robbery with firearms.

in Dallas July 15 to complete exhibit plans by those associations in Memphis.

All clubs, churches, scouts, and organizations that want concessions in the Cotton Carnival October 3-4 are urged to contact H. J. Howell immediately.

Every man, woman, and child in Hall County is urged to write friends over the nation inviting them to Memphis for this occasion, Smith said. "This will be a celebration depicting the natural resources of West Texas in both an educational and entertaining program," he explained.

State and regional officials estimate the publicity alone such a celebration will bring to the county will be worth countless thousands of dollars.

Each community within each of the 40-odd counties of the cotton region of West Texas is being invited to participate in the gala attraction.

Present plans call for street shows, street dances, athletic programs, band concerts, and a host of other amusing events to be presented as free attractions for the thousands of visitors expected for the carnival.

"We propose it to be the Mardi Gras of West Texas and are promising 48 hours of fun and educational attractions," the chamber of commerce president declared.

In a game between the try-outs and Wellington Tuesday night the youngsters proved the quality of the try-out material as they took Wellington 18-3, with a number of men rotating in the playing slots.

A game scheduled for Wednesday night between the try-outs and the Memphis league team was canceled as the heavy rain and hail began. The proceeds from this game were to have gone to Herschel Stewart, injured Saturday night in a warm-up before the game with Canyon.

Practice and try-out sessions were held from 10 a. m. Monday to about 2:30 Wednesday afternoon.

The visiting Yank scouts appeared on Lion and Rotary programs Tuesday. In their heavy schedule while here they included recordings for radio broadcasts, interviews with out-of-town reporters, and talks with many of the promising players.

Harold Gatlin of Lakeview, who assisted with the try-outs here, said the Yank officials expressed their appreciation for the way the camp was set up here, that they were well satisfied with the attendance and the material, and hat they hoped a camp would be set up here again next year.

Ouida and LaVerne Orr of Plaska spent the week-end with Margarite McCoy.

The Bookshelf

New books at the Carnegie Library, as announced by Mrs. W. V. Coursey, librarian, are:

CITIES OF AMERICA
By George S. Perry

Through this book is woven the excitement that comes from rediscovering the cities of America. Here is a magic modern journey through America's big towns, among such variegated groups of men and motion as Detroit, with its production-line views: Denver, with its magic mountains; Hollywood, wearing its chrome on its sleeve; San Antonio, daubed with khaki and flushed with sun. The whole atmosphere of twenty-two great cities of America rises from these pages as do the characters of a fine novel.

THERE WAS A TIME
By Taylor Caldwell

"There Was a Time" is the story of a man of genius and of the struggle between the demon and the angel in a human soul. It traces the curious destiny of Frank Clair through the storm and stress of young manhood wrestling with hate and poverty to the time of his meeting with the lost dream-girl of his childhood, the lovely Jessica who ultimately brings him peace and fulfillment.

THE CLEVER SISTER
By Margaret C. Banning

This is the story of two women—one a girl who earns her living in the business world, the other a woman who says categorically, a woman's business is men—anything else is just a substitute. Which is the clever one? In the pattern of which life does a woman find happiness and self completion? Is it Hester, the beautiful, professional wife who expects men to take care of her, or Nell, the girl who has a good job and competes with men in offices and on platforms? No one takes care of the career woman, but she is as helpless emotionally as her sister. "The Clever Sister" is a brilliant social comedy of post-war America.

THE ROOSEVELT I KNEW
By Frances Perkins

When Frances Perkins first met Franklin D. Roosevelt, at a dance in 1910, she was a young social worker just out of college, he an attractive, rich young man making a modest debut in state politics. Over the following 35 years she watched his whole career unfold. She became an intimate family friend, and during the last 17 years was his close political associate. As Secretary of Labor, she served in his cabinet from his first inauguration until his death and was one of only two cabinet members who spanned the entire administration. She tells the story as no one else can tell it in this warm and affectionate memoir.

Estelline 1932 Culture Club Closes Year with Dinner Honoring President

Complimenting the out-going president, Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson, Mrs. Hulen Clifton entertained the 1913 Culture Club of Estelline and several guests with a dinner in her home Tuesday evening of last week.

The house was attractively arranged with small tables and cut flowers carrying out the club colors. Officers were seated at a large table set on a pastel cloth, with appointments of crystal and sterling. Marking each place was a book marker, presented by Mrs. Wilkinson to show appreciation to each club member for her faithfulness during the past year.

Members answered roll call with tips to the homemakers. Mrs. Leon Phillips gave a most interesting talk on the subject, "New Ideas for the House Beautiful," in which she stressed attractiveness, comfort, and allowing one's home to express the personality of the family instead of being stiffly correct.

Mrs. Elbert Johnston, club historian, summarized the year's work, restating the theme for the year, "The Challenge of the New American Literature." Mrs. Johnston stated that the year had been well spent and could in the opinion of all members be said to represent one of the best years since the organization of the club, of which she is a charter member.

Announcement was made that the club had begun a fund to re-equip the stage in the high school auditorium. Money for this was gained through a sale of cook-books sponsored early in the year.

Mrs. Kilkinson expressed her appreciation to club members and especially to her officers, and then asked Mrs. E. F. Kennedy to install new officers. This was done in an impressive candle-lighting service representing the help that can come from the National and State Federation of Women's Clubs to a small organization, and also showing how a small club as a part of the whole can be of help in assisting the nation to better world conditions.

Officers installed were: Mrs. Frank Cooper, president; Mrs. Ronald Davis, vice president; Mrs. Billie Bob Davidson, second vice president; Mrs. Jerrel Rapp, secretary; Mrs. Hulen Clifton, treasurer; Mrs. J. A. Ballard, historian; and Mrs. J. B. Riddle, reporter. Two members at large elected to serve on the executive board were Mesdames E. F. Kennedy and Lester Phillips.

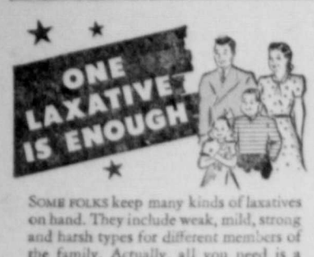

Announcement was made that Mrs. Lester Phillips would become a regular member to fill the vacancy made by Mrs. J. W. Coppedge who moved to Memphis.

On behalf of the club, Mrs. Ben Jackson, chairman of the civic committee, presented Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson with a beautiful crystal bowl and reflector. Mrs. Jackson expressed the opinion of the club that the out-going president had been an excellent executive and that the club had made great progress under her guidance and leadership.

Members present other than those mentioned above were Mesdames Albert Bailey, Thurman Hutchins, Fred Meadows, C. L. Sloan Jr., Walter Whaley. Guests were Mrs. Walter Labay of Spur, Mrs. Janice Morgan, and Mrs. Dave Waldron.

Officers of Turkey Chapter of OES Installed in Impressive Ceremony

In an impressive "Harbor Lights" ceremony, officers for the ensuing year of Turkey Chapter No. 569, Order of the Eastern Star, were regularly installed Thursday evening of last week at the high school.

Mrs. Lee Gregory acted as installing officer, Mrs. Laura Campbell, installing chaplain, Mrs. Roy Cooper, installing secretary, Mrs. J. V. Mohon, installing marshal, and Mrs. C. L. Sloan of Estelline, installing organist.

Red roses, the flower of the newly-elected Worthy Matron, were used throughout the decorations. The tea table, presided over by Mrs. C. A. Russell and Mrs. Howard Castleberry, was covered with a lace cloth and was centered by miniatures of the outgoing and incoming Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons. Mrs. Jack Barnhill served at the registration of the guests and members.

Officers entered the chapter room with an elaborate march and formed a cross in the center. Mrs. Castleberry sang "The Old Rugged Cross" during this formation.

Mrs. R. C. Green, the retiring Worthy Matron, welcomed the guests and paid a beautiful tribute to her officers of the past year. The officers then retired.

As soft music was played, the elect-officers entered the room as Mrs. Bert Degan introduced each in her reading. The properly lighted room and the solemnity of the occasion added to the usual dignity of the installation.

The following officers were installed: Mrs. Jim Guest, worthy matron; Beryl Blackshear, worthy patron; Mrs. Carl Gilmore, associate matron; Ollie Nall, associate patron; Mrs. Tom Salem, secretary; Mrs. Laura Campbell, treasurer; Miss Katherine Russell, conductress; Mrs. Howard Castleberry, associate conductress; Mrs. Georgia Meacham, chaplain; Mrs. Lewis Eudy, marshal; Mrs. Lee Gregory, organist; Mrs. David Guest, Adah; Mrs. Guy Smith, Ruth; Mrs. Virgil Blakeney, Esther; Mrs. Jay Russell, Martha; Mrs. Baryl Blackshear, Electa; Mrs. George Ray Colvin, warder; George Ray Colvin, sentinel.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Guest expressed her appreciation of being selected to lead the chapter for the next year and asked the cooperation of all officers and members. She then presented Mrs. Green with a past matron jewel and complimented her on her untiring efforts for the good of the Order during the past year. Mr. Blackshear presented Mrs. Guy Smith with a past patron jewel for Mr. Smith, who was unable to attend the meeting.

A social hour was enjoyed by about 140 members and guests.

The degree of acidity of the soil, and the kind of plants to be grown, determine whether or not the land needs lime. Soil acidity is expressed in terms of pH. For most legumes, soils which have a PH of less than 6.5 need enough lime to bring the PH to that figure.

Game Schedule

Saturday night, Canyon here; Sunday, Memphis at Childress, Amarillo Superior Mfg. here for game with VFW; Tuesday night, an Amarillo team here.

Other league games set up for Sunday are Quanah at Quail, Wellington at Clarendon, and Kirkland at Mobeetie.

The most regrettable baseball accident of the season occurred Saturday night just before game time when Herschel Stewart, a veteran Memphis ball player, was hit on the upper jaw near the temple with a thrown ball. The bone was broken, and Stewart was rushed to Amarillo after an examination here. It is supposed that Stewart could not see the ball because of a light glare at that angle.

The batting averages for the Memphis club, from league and other games, not including Wednesday night, are running as follows: Moyer .250, Coppedge .437, Gibson .361, Parker .304, Barnes .285, Stidger .340, McKnight .270, Howard Stewart .256, Hoover .235, Herschel Stewart .289.

League standings after the week-end play:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Mobeetie	7	0	1.000
Childress	5	2	.714
Quanah	4	2	.666
Memphis	4	2	.666
Quail	4	3	.571
Wellington	2	5	.400
Kirkland	1	6	.143
Clarendon	0	7	.000

It's about time someone pinned a medal other than a stray coke bottle on the hard working umpires in the RRV league. They have been cussed, yelled at, they have resigned, have been drafted back in the game. Most of us will agree that, game by game, they are doing a good job. Plays cannot be called from the bleachers or from the dugout. If they could, that's where the umpires would sit. Ten-minute arguments during the middle of a game are not likely to help anyone. The time to discuss umpire qualifications is not during the game.

For best results in feeding lambs, each animal needs about one linear foot of trough space.

Edge Pampa 8 to 7 In Sunday Game

Memphis put on an eighth inning rally in the game with Pampa Sunday to come from behind a lead effective from the first inning.

The score stood 4-3 at the first of the fifth. Hoover went in to pitch as Bond's arm began giving him trouble. Pampa took two runs that frame, then Memphis made one as Hoover came in on Berryman's double. Pampa ran in one more in the seventh, on two errors and a single, to bring the tally to 7-4, their favor.

In two more times at bat Memphis brought in four scores and the winning run as Hoover scored again on a Berryman hit in the seventh, Stidger, Barnes, and Dennis coming in in the eighth.

Doubles: Gibson, Barnes, Hoover, Berryman twice; for Pampa, Conner, and Arthur twice.

Bond and Hoover struckout 6 each for Memphis; Conner fanned 6 for Pampa.

At the first of the seventh Watkins was tranferred from third base to short, Stidger from right field to third base, and Barnes from short to right field.

Canyon Loses 7 to 0 Saturday

The WTSC Buffs from Canyon went down 7-0 Saturday night as Gibson hit a home run in the fourth, came first up to bat in the sixth and hit another to lead off two more runs to put Memphis out in front.

Three Canyon errors and Keller's single accounted for three more runs in the eighth.

Keller's performance held the visitors to three hits as he hurled 15 strikeouts across the plate.

Watkins and Moyer hit triples, Keller got a double. Ford, Canyon pitcher, struckout 10.

BUREAUCRACY IS STATIC

The problem of better health is not a matter which can be simply and quickly solved by the passage of a law. It is a long range problem, whose ultimate solution lies largely in the medical laboratories.

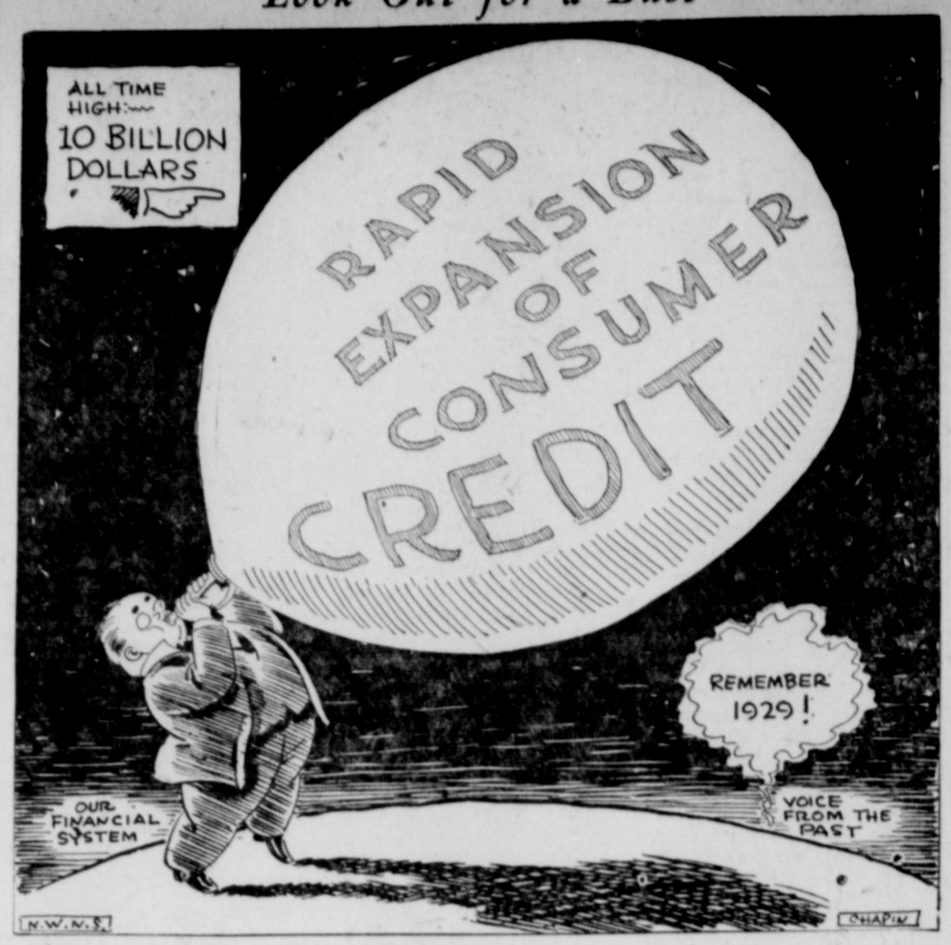

Certainly, no country has made more significant progress in this direction than ours. Diseases which once were frequently fatal, such as smallpox, are now treated almost as simply as the measles. In 40 years the death rate from tuberculosis has been reduced 75 per cent. The discovery and application of new healing elements, such as penicillin and the sulfa group, have almost completely prevented the once-dread danger of fatal infection, and are nearly totally effective in preventing septicemia and gangrene when proper treatment is applied in time.

So it goes, down the long list of past killers which are no longer lethal. These are a few of the achievements of free medicine—precisely as our achievements in the economic sphere are those of free industry.

There are sound grounds for believing that governmental domination of medicine would slow, and in some cases stop, this fine progress. Bureaucracy is always static. It is deadening to the imagination, to the ambition. The doctor whose career depended upon political favoritism would not look ahead.

This does not mean that government should not assist the indigent to receive better medical care. A bill sponsored by Senator Taft, which would acheive that and also place the responsibility in local hands where it belongs, seems the best answer yet proposed to that problem. But government should not dominate or regiment the practice of the healing arts.

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Ochiltree Wheat

Harvest operations in Ochiltree County are expected to get underway about June 23 this year, a full three weeks later than in 1946. Wheat is headed and the kernels are filling rapidly. Hot dry weather would advance the harvest date, while more rain and cool weather would retard it.

Hood Willis, county agent, estimates that there will be 1,500 men and 300 outside combines needed to harvest this crop if it turns out as well as expected. The most common estimate of the crop yield seems to be a 25 bushel average, which would mean an 8,500,000 bushel crop. —Ochiltree County Herald.

New Baseball Loop

A new baseball league, the Western Panhandle Association, was formed Tuesday night in a meeting at Friona. Seven teams will make up the loop, including the Hereford VFW nine, the Friona Chiefs, Portales, Dora (N. Mex.), and two Clovis teams, the Blue Jays and the Blackjacks, a negro team.—The Hereford Brand.

Ship Out Wheat

. . . Up to 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the grain elevators in Crowell had received 372,385 bushels of wheat and a steady stream of trucks lined the highways waiting to be unloaded. It is estimated that about 200 carloads have been shipped out.—The Foard County News.

BOYCE HOUSE "Gives You Texas"

Did you ever wonder whether newspaper reporters lead as interesting and as exciting lives as you've heard they do? Well, I was inclined to doubt it but I've just finished reading the proofs of a book which will be off the press most any time now and after reading the book, which is entitled "Cub Reporter," I'm inclined to believe that newspaper folks do have experiences as varied and thrilling as the novels and the movies proclaim.

"Cub Reporter" is not fiction but tells about some of the events a police reporter on a city daily "covered" as a part of his daily work. The author, who was then just out of high school (this was back in 1916 and 1917) tells about Revinsky, the "one-thumb slayer" and "scar-faced killer," as he was known. Revinsky, convicted of murder, escaped and, as a posse unwittingly approached his hiding place, he drew a bead on the cub reporter but was dissuaded from shooting by a companion.

Then there was Wild Dan, who killed six people at one time. Wild Dan threatened to kill the cub reporter and, 10 minutes later, Wild Dan was dead. Of course that's not the whole story.

And the book tells of the man who arose from the dead; of grizzled police officers and the tales they told around headquarters at midnight when things were quiet, and there are word-pictures of old time reporters, a colorful crew, and of Bud the bloodhound officer; C. J. J. Mooney, a great editor, and the climax is the story of Frank, the lovable little office boy.

"Cub Reporter" was written by—let me see, what was that fellow's name? Oh, yes, I remember now. "Cub Reporter" was written by Boyce House.

Tax Cut Still Worry To Party Leaders

WHEN the house and senate have finally finished the tax bill for this session and when and if it is signed by President Truman, this year's cut in the average person's income taxes will amount to approximately 10 percent, since the cuts are effective this year only after July 1.

The question now is whether or not the President will sign the bill when he receives it sometime after the middle of June. Some of his advisers are urging him to veto it on the theory that government costs will still remain high and that now is the time to apply the high income to debt retirement. They also argue that the distribution of the tax cuts is relatively unfair in that it gives the folks with incomes of $5,000 and under insufficient relief as compared to those with higher incomes. On the GOP side of the picture, there seems to be little worry about whether the President vetoes the measure or not. The GOP leaders are proceeding on the theory that the people voted for a tax cut at the last election and that if the President vetoes the bill, that will be his worry.

As a matter of fact, however, with only about another 30 days to go for this congress, the GOP leadership has thus far failed to come anywhere near cutting expenditures in the amount promised . . . $6,000,000,000 by the house and $4,500,000,000 by the senate. The actual total cuts run nearer the $2,000,000,000 figure and Democrats claim that there is almost a billion dollars in this figure which is "phony" and will have to be replaced if necessary. They particularly point to the 800 million dollars in tax refund slashes included in the GOP cuts which must be put back in if taxpayers are entitled to the refunds estimated by the Treasury.

Whatever the final outcome of the controversies over the various attempts in several measures to solve the problems of the wool industry, it appears as though the consumers and the taxpayers are due to lose.

Here's how the picture looks. In the first place about 90 percent of the members of congress know nothing about wool and care very little about it. Only four or five wool gathering states are particularly interested, although most farmers

The sow also helps on the farm. She uses up the waste slop and garbage to raise her pigs that furnish meat and lard for the family. She also furnishes some extra money for the purchase of other things. She gathers the waste grain from the fields. This saves the farmer from hiring it gathered. One sow can raise eight pigs. The farmer can fatten them on skimmed milk, slop, and waste grain. Four of the pigs will furnish meat and lard enough for home use, the other four may be sold at a profit. Besides the sow and her pigs will add fertilizer to the soil.

The little hen with her merry cackle is also necessary in a farmer's home. She furnishes the family with nice fresh eggs. She uses up the waste grain about the barn. She eats the scraps from the table and the skimmed milk She raises her brood and furnishes fried chicken for the family besides a few extra ones to sell. She can in this week feed herself and help feed the farmer. She also furnishes valuable fertilizer for the farmer.

Urge Entries In "Oldest Truck" Contest By June 15

Only a few days remain before the close of the search to find the oldest Chevrolet truck in the United States, whose owner will win a new advance-design Chevrolet truck, Tomie M. Potts of the Potts Chevrolet Company, said this week. Entries must be filed by midnight, June 15.

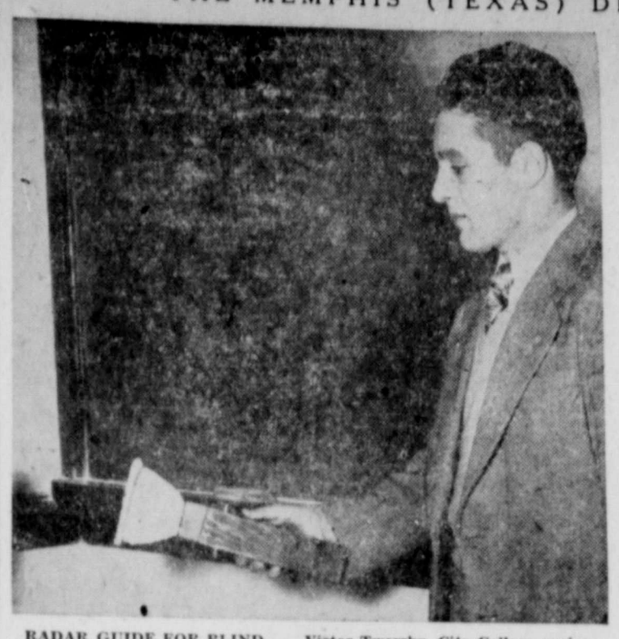

"Nominations for the oldest truck should be submitted without delay," Potts said. "Winner will be announced on or before June 20, and may select a new vehicle of his choice from any standard model in the current line of Chevrolet commercial cars and trucks."

Trucks entered in the search must carry 1947 license plates and be driven to the Chevrolet dealership, where official entry blanks may be obtained.

McKown Talk Features County Soil Practices

"What has been done in Hall County is only a small beginning of what can be done in the Upper Red River Valley. There are hundreds of thousands of acres of good farming land in this area which can be materially benefitted by being properly terraced," said Lynn McKown, ACA secretary, in a radio address at Childress Saturday morning. His subject was "The Cooperative Terracing Program in Hall County."

McKown cited the efforts of all farm agencies in Memphis and in Hall County, but he said it was the farmers themselves who had led the way in team work and cooperation in terrace construction.

"Tenants, without exception, have contributed their conservation allowance to enable the landlord to terrace his farm. Many farmers have built systems of terraces with twice the volume required by our specifications and others have exceeded their footage approved for payment. Whole communities have cooperated in watershed development by terracing adjoining farms for mutual protection against the common enemy, erosion. The gospel of 'save the soil and you save all' has been carried to every farmer in the county by those apostles of experience, the men who have farms which were terraced in former years and who know from personal experience the value of what they preach."

A program will be presented at 7:30 o'clock Saturday morning over KCTX by Dee R. Green of the Paducah Production and Marketing Administration, it was announced.

Six-Inch Sermon

† REV. ROBERT H. HARPER †

The Fall of the Southern Kingdom.

Lesson for June 22: II Kings 25:1-12.

Memory Selection: Proverbs 14: 34.

Jehoiakin, son of Jehoiakim, had reigned but three months when he was forced to surrender to the Assyrians; his household and prominent men were carried away into Babylon.

Jehoiakin, son of Jehoiakim, had put on the throne as a vassal of Babylon. In his eleventh year he rebelled, and the Assyrians brought Jerusalem to utter ruin. Zedekiah slipped away from the city before it fell but was captured by the foe. In Riblah he was forced to see the slaying of his sons, then his eyes were put out and in fetters he was carried to Babylon. Soon afterward the captain of Nebuchadnezzar's guard razed the walls of Jerusalem, burned every great house, and left the city worthless as a fortress. All but the poorest of the people, vinedressers and husbandmen, were carried into Babylonian exile.

Gedaliah, an upright man, was made governor of what remained of Judah. He was soon assassinated by an agent of the king of the Ammonites, and the terrified people fled into Egypt, compelling Jeremiah to go with them. Tradition tells that he was at last stoned to death.

Jeremiah's name shines with a strange luster against the dark background of general moral corruption. One of the bravest men that ever lived, he gave up all that life holds dear in the effort to save his people from impending ruin. Men like him are needed now.

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

Scout News

(By Reporter)

Eighteen scouts of Troop 35 will leave for Camp Kiowah Sunday morning at 10 o'clock for a week's encampment which is held annually by the Adobe Walls Council for scouts in this area.

The camp is located 18 miles east of Canadian at Lake Marvin. This camp has been operating for a number of years and the scouts of Troop 35 have attended for several years. Last year 14 of the boys attended camp. About 400 boys in this area attend every year. We would appreciate it very much if we could find two cars to take the boys to camp Sunday, and two more cars to come up after the boys Saturday, June 21.

Last year Robert A. Wells and George Payne furnished the transportation. This is our biggest problem of the year and we still have not found cars to take the boys. A pickup truck would be large enough to carry the boys to camp. Please contact Asst. Scoutmaster Winfred Messer or Scoutmaster Ted Myers if you will take the boys. We will furnish the gasoline and oil for the car.

Boys who will go to camp are Jack Gilbert, Donald Payne, Freddie Vinson, Foy Stone, Omer Johnsey, Max Kennedy, Allan Pierce, Troyce Rhudy, Raymond Clark, Carl Lee, Tom Messer, Donald Corley, David Corley, Ben Fred McCreary, Billy West, Leroy Green, R. Meet the boss!

MEET BABS BROWN, the Boss. We don't mean Mister Brown's boss, either. We mean our boss—and a very nice one, too.

Sound odd to you? Well, it isn't. It's a solid fact that your electric light and power company is owned by a lot of people like Babs Brown—and Bob Brown—yes, and yourself.

Housewives, doctors, teachers—industrial workers, craftsmen, farmers—mechanics and milkmen—people from all walks of life have put some of their savings into electric companies such as ours. They're the direct owners.

But there are countless indirect owners, too—and many of them have no idea of their stake in the electric industry. They are the people who have savings accounts or life insurance policies—and that means nearly everybody. It works like this: When banks and insurance companies accept your money they must invest it safely, wisely. And because business-managed electric companies have a long record of faithful public service, much of this money is invested in utility companies on physical property installed and dedicated to the public's service. So you, too, are probably one of our bosses.
