MUENSTER ENTERPRISE

VOLUME XXXI — MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 — NOVEMBER 17, 1967 — NUMBER 52

There are grounds for suspicion in the much publicized release of the three American soldiers a few days ago by officials of North Vietnam. From what you know about communism you can safely bet the incident was not prompted by kindness on the part of the enemy. The real motive is to help their own cause by the flood of accompanying propaganda and the anti-war statements they are depending on from the released prisoners.

Communists have their fiendish way of getting results, and they are not inclined to take chances of a backfire from this kind of sensational stunt. They were confident that the trio would serve the red purpose. You can be sure of that.

Another detail about the incident also is likely to be significant. The man who accompanied the three from the war zone is identified as Thomas Hayden, a member of the anti-war American Peace Committee, who was there on his second traitorous trip of conferring with the North Vietnamese. He has been working for the enemy all along, here and abroad. If he engineered the release it's natural to suspect that he chose men who he feels certain will support him over here.

Regardless of any inclination to give the three men the benefit of a doubt, we are confronted by the fact that the reds specialize in Trojan Horse tactics. This trick is intended to serve them. The GI's are being used, willing or unwillingly. We hope our top officials will keep that in mind and manage to nullify the intended ill effects.

We'd like to think, for instance, that a close watch will be maintained over the three and that they will be taken out of circulation promptly if they begin the subversive talk. Also, we'd like to think that news people will refuse to publicize any unfavorable propaganda from them. One would think that our government and our news media should find a way to keep our enemies at home and abroad from exploiting this incident.

Another disappointing development of the past week was President Johnson's repeated invitation for negotiations with the reds. He said he's ready to meet them any time on any neutral location, and implied that a settlement can be worked out to the mutual benefit of both sides.

On the basis of peace at any price that proposal seems all right. Killing and destruction can be halted. But, unfortunately, it does not bring an end to the job we set out to do.

From the beginning we have claimed the two fold purpose of stopping red aggression in South Vietnam and halting continued conquest of communism in Asia. Perhaps the first objective can be achieved to a limited degree as it was in Korea, by separating the hostile forces and keeping our troops there to enforce the agreement. But do we want another deal like that? Maintaining an army around the world for sixteen years, or longer? That would leave the Vietnam problem unsolved and serve only to add a burden to us. After that how long would it take the reds to repeat aggression elsewhere and get us involved again?

Korea should have taught us that police action is not the answer to red aggression. We can't afford to police the globe. Nor are we physically able to move in wherever and whenever the reds choose to make us commit our men and resources.

The history of the world and of our own country tells us plainly that there is only one way of dealing with aggression. That is to defeat the aggressor. The only way to achieve our purpose in Vietnam is to win. A draw, such as Korea, is equivalent to defeat.

A review of the situation over there plainly suggests what should be done. After the French pulled out of Vietnam it divided into two parts, reds in the north, free Vietnamese in the south. In keeping with the communist global plan reds prepared for a takeover of the south. It was the old favorite method of red aggression which, also according to custom, they called civil war.

We responded to South Vietnam's request for help. So North Vietnam called us the aggressor. Reds everywhere, are repeating that charge. But free people everywhere know

Jr. Elite Owners Express Pride in Local Operation

Over two hundred persons gathered Sunday to see the new and expanded operation of Jr. Elite's dress factory in Muenster. The occasion was an open house from 1 to 4 p.m. in the location recently occupied by the company.

Mingling with the visitors were the owners of the business, Lou Kreditor, Sy Thum and Jerry Frankle and their wives of Dallas. Kreditor and Thum spoke briefly telling that they are pleased and proud with their location, their employees and their management here and are looking forward to a payroll of 150 persons.

Mrs. Ola Roberg, plant manager, also spoke briefly. Ernest Jaska, representing the Chamber of Commerce and the Muenster Industrial Foundation, was master of ceremonies.

Before and after the speeches visitors toured the plant seeing finished and part-finished dresses and materials. Most interest centered around the cutting demonstration by Charlie Pagel. Very few had seen the method of cutting material for 100 dresses at one time.

During all of the open house visitors were served cookies, coffee and cold drinks.

A special visitor for the event was the machinist and his wife from Jr. Elite's Hubbard plant. It was their first time in Muenster and they inspected the town as thoroughly as the factory.

The company has been in Muenster since May 1966. Recently it bought equipment of the Raden Company and occupied the former Raden location. Since then it has increased its personnel list from 65 to 75.

Tigers Take Hot 8-6 Contest from Windthorst High

A thrilling punt return of 67 yards by Lee Roy Hess early in the second half plus a plunge for the bonus points by Chris Walter squeezed out an 8-6 win for Sacred Heart's Tigers at Windthorst last Friday night.

The final count was a bitter pill for the home town Trojans. They led 17 to 11 in first downs and 243-174 in total yardage but two of their three drives failed to keep moving.

The Tigers had three similar disappointments, the first of which came early in the game. Starting from their 12 after kickoff, Sacred Heart had to kick on the first series, however Stan Endres' recovery of Windthorst's fumble on that play kept the Tigers in business. That was on the Tiger 32.

Eleven plays from there plus 5 yards free on an offside penalty advanced 58 yards to the Trojan 10, but the next four tries failed to make the final yardage. The Tigers lost possession on the 3.

The Trojans snapped back with a drive that gained 42 yards before it suddenly ended in a fumble.

For the rest of that quarter and most of the next the teams were locked in a defensive contest. Shortly before intermission the Tigers started from their 9 and made three first downs in a row but failed on the next series and had to kick.

The victory play for Sacred

Clear Creek Board Of Directors Meet

Board of Directors of the Clear Creek Watershed Authority held their regular meeting in Muenster with Chairman J. M. Weinzapfel presiding.

The board reviewed and considered outstanding land rights easements needed to complete this watershed project and made plans for obtaining the remaining easements.

Members also set an election for the second Wednesday in January 1968 to elect three directors.

Attending with Chairman Weinzapfel were H. D. Field and J. C. Donnell of Saint Jo, Tom L. Muir and H. K. Armstrong of Sanger, J. W. McCall of Nocona, George Berry of Rosston, Dr. C. H. Saunders of Denton and J. A. Stovall of Era.

Don King Resigns Local Deputy Job

Since Monday, Muenster has no law enforcement officer. Sheriff Bill Pratt announced then that Deputy Don King, who was assigned to Muenster, quit the job to accept an appointment as security manager for Montgomery Word & Co. of Fort Worth.

King had served as deputy at Muenster for about two years under an arrangement in which the city and the sheriff's department share equally in paying his salary.

Mayor Earl Fisher said that the matter of getting a successor will be considered by the city council next week. The members will decide whether to continue the deal with the sheriff or hire a city officer. After that the city or the sheriff will start looking for an officer.

Tigers Brace for Mighty Struggle With ND Knights

A big job confronts the Sacred Heart Tigers Saturday night as the close out of their season with the rugged Notre Dame Knights of Wichita Falls. With a 4-4 record up to now, Tom Williams and his Tigers have very definite notions of beating the .500 average for the year.

That will not be easy, Williams says. The Knights are better than their 2-7 record indicates, especially in regard to Class B standards. Most of the teams they have played so far are Class A, and the Knights have kept the scores close even though they did not win. One common foe Sacred Heart and Notre Dame have met to date is Windthorst. Notre Dame won that one 16-0, Sacred Heart barely won, by an 8-6 count.

Williams also noted that the visitors are possibly stronger this week than most of the season. They have had many injuries and will be close to full strength this week.

The indication, according to Williams, is that the Tigers will have lots of competition, perhaps too much, but they certainly are not conceding anything. They are all in good physical condition and convinced that hard work will give them a good ending for their season.

The game will be on Sacred Heart's field starting at 7:30.

Open House Marks Local Rest Home's 3rd Anniversary

About two hundred people attended open house and a rededication program Sunday afternoon at Golden Years Rest Home observing its third anniversary. The home opened here Nov. 9, 1964. It is owned and operated by Mrs. Dick Cain.

Residents of the home and staff members joined visitors in the living room where Rev. Clyde Bell of Saint Jo, a frequent visitor at the home, emceed a program in which he was joined by Father John Walbe of Lindsay and the Rev. Lonny Taylor of Muenster Baptist Church. Each gave a short sermon and rededication prayer.

There was a moment of silent prayer offered in memory of Dick Cain and residents who have passed away.

Father John reminded the assemblage that each of those who have gone ahead left something to remember.

The group joined in singing hymns before the program closed. Mrs. Dexter Dennis of Gainesville was song leader and Mrs. Edna Orrell of Nocona was piano accompanist. "Grandma" Mitchell, 91, a resident of the home, and her daughter, Mrs. Jack Hogan, presented a number of special piano selections.

Jack Hogan and his band furnished music during the social hour and Mrs. Cain served homemade cookies and pink Hawaiian punch in crystal service from a table covered with a white cutwork cloth in the dining room.

Hornets, Panthers Will Clash Friday In Football Feud

The biggest game of the season for Muenster High's Hornets was last week, but the strain did not necessarily end there. This week is another tough one, says Coach Glenn Richardson. The Hornets will need to repeat with their top effort to win.

Richardson does not agree with those who say Muenster can coast for this one. In spite of its 1-4 record in the district, Saint Jo has the potential, as shown by its decisive win over Valley View. And it has a record over many years of being tougher than usual for its game with Muenster.

Assuming that the Hornets can keep the fire burning, Richard is confident about Friday. He has seen his boys make improvements since the start of the season. And they are all in good physical condition.

Richardson also sees a possibility of ending the season in a three way tie for second place, and certainly does not wish to miss that opportunity if it develops. The opoprtunity can develop if Alvord, now in second place with a 3-2 count, is defeated by Valley View, which shares a 2-3 standing with Muenster and Callisburg. Wins by Meunster and Valley View would give a 3-3 final standing to those teams and Alvord.

Callisburg has a chance to do likewise, however the chance is slim because the opponent will be Era, which has the title cinched with a 5-0 record.

The remaining teams are Chico, which has finished the season with a 2-4 record, and Saint Jo, now standing at 1-4.

In last week's action Era beat Muenster 22-6, Chico beat Alvord 13-12, Callisburg beat Saint Jo 22-0.

'67 Thanksgiving Clothing Drive Successful Here

Sacred Heart Parish Tuesday ended a successful clothing campaign for the Vatican storeroom to help the world's needy. This is the bishops' annual Thanksgiving clothing drive.

Muenster citizens contributed generously and St. Anne's Society, Third Order and CDA members sorted and packed 42 boxes — many of them large boxes — of clothing and bedding and sacked up three large bags of shoes. All are tagged for shipment to Catholic Relief Services, San Francisco, Calif. This agency tends to overseas shipment.

Nothing has been weighed at this time so total weight is not known. It will be weighed when picked up later this month by Central Freight Lines for transportation free of charge to the west coast.

The local campaign was a quickie again this year and all concerned are grateful for cooperation and help that made it possible to complete the drive in two days.

Inspired Hornets Bow to Champs In Classic Battle

Muenster Hornets were at their season's best Friday night when they played the 7-B champs of Era on even terms for three quarters and finally settled for a 22-6 loss.

As they had promised before, they gave the Era fellows a big tussle. They matched tons and tons of extra effort against the speed and polish of their slick opponents and they came away with a record that looked fine in statistics even though it was not so good on the scoreboard.

The teams broke even on first downs with 17 each and Muenster Hornets barely nudged the other Hornets with 261 over 259 on total yardage.

As the game opened Era quick kicked on third down and set Muenster back to the 10. Herbie Sicking made gains of 6 and 27 but the next series bogged down and Sicking's fine kick set Era back to the 9.

The champs uncorked a blitz there. Six plays covered the 91 yards and the big gainers were a 34 yard blast up the center by Selby, a 47 yard pass from Kindiger to Southard and a 13 yard scoring pass to Southard. Kindiger's run was good for bonus points and Era led 8-0 about midway in the first quarter.

Following that Muenster made a first down and had to kick on its second series. From its 6 then Era made 34 yards in 3 first downs and quick kicked on the next series to the 26.

Muenster started its only scoring drive from there with Sicking and Don Hartman crashing the line repeatedly for gains. Thirteen plays were used in covering the 74 yards and the touchdown was a 10 yard scoot by Sicking. A run for bonus points failed. Muenster trailed 8-6.

For the rest of the half Era made three scattered first downs and Muenster none.

Opening the third period Muenster came back strong

Monsters Maul Saint Jo 38-0 for 7-0 Season Record

The Little Monsters of Muenster Public School ended their football season at Saint Jo Tuesday night with a decisive 38-0 romp over the Panther Kittens. The win gave them a perfect record in seven games and the champ title for the junior division of District 7-B.

Action was one sided all the way as Muenster kids, with advantage in weight and speed, moved the ball almost as they pleased but allowed little to the Saint Jo boys. Total gains were 254 for Muenster and 46 for Saint Jo.

Muenster failed to score on its first possession but did it promptly the next time it got the ball, just after the second quarter opened. Bobby Tuggle made 15 and Henry Knabe 23 in the quickie drive and Mike Trubenbach ran for two more points.

Minutes later they used four plays going from the 28. Jim Endres made 12 and 11, Tuggle made 4 and Trubenbach made the last yard. A kick by Endres

SAYING IT OPENLY

Enough whispering. Let's say it out loud. In certain cities across the United States our citizens are preparing for war. Not a war to be fought on foreign soil. Not a war against an alien enemy, but a war of American against American. A racial civil war.

Absurd as it may seem, literally thousands of our fellow citizens are setting the stage to thrust this country into a state of anarchy and civil war. No one race is solely responsible, and the blame must rest on both races. This newspaper believes in the right of the citizen to own a firearm. Owning is one thing. Stockpiling is another. In Detroit, one is told of meetings where literally hundreds of white people met and were told where to buy guns, how to modify them for effective usage, and how to use them. In Columbus (Ohio) arms are reportedly being stored by both races in anticipation of a racial conflagration. In Southern California, white people have stockpiled every conceivable weapon in anticipation of armed confrontation with the Negro community, which is equally armed.

Rational Americans will find this a staggering situation. It means that many of our fellow citizens have lost faith — both in the concept of this country and in the ability of our civil authorities to control violence. These citizens have adopted the code of the frontier and the vigilante. They fear that only they and their weapons stand between them and death.

Racial civil war, if sparked, would spell the destruction of our Negro citizenry, for the Negro it, after all, a hopelessly outnumbered, minority. But it would also spell the destruction of our country. Police and other civil authorities would have to quell disorder on both sides. Effective government would disappear. And Moscow would love nothing more. It would delight to see the United States rent asunder by a racial war in the streets.

The Negro who marches behind the rabblerouser decrying our system in the United States needs to ask himself what system is to replace it? And the white man who prepares to take the law into his own hands is as surely an enemy of our country as an invading soldier.

But the most despicable is the quivering public official, local, state or federal, who knowingly tolerates this preparation for street battles. If a visitor to the areas mentioned can learn these things, local officials obviously know the conditions which prevail. If local officials don't act, the Governors of the three States should.

And don't spueal "civil rights," please. The civil right of every one of our citizens is at stake.

—U. S. Press Assn.

GRASS ROOTS OR WEEDS?

"Who are the "Grass Roots?" asks state Sen. John G. Schmitz in his weekly "State Roundup" of news. The question arose from a League of California Cities meeting at which he had been asked to participate in a panel discussion on the topic, "Coping with the Grass Roots."

The senator had campaigned as a "grass-roots candidate." He said he never before had thought of grassroots" people — "the quiet, unpublicized, hardworking citizens — as a problem to be 'coped with'."

He learned at the convention, however, that the panelists and most of the audience had a different concept of the "grass roots."

"They were not interested in, and appeared to have given no thought whatever to the good citizens who make their own way and pay their own taxes. By the 'grass roots' they meant organized minority groups prone to large-scale political demonstrations and criminal violence."

But they are wrong, said the senator. "These people," he declared, "are not the grass roots of our society. They are its weeds."

The senator's defense of the American middle class — from whence comes its strength, its wealth, its ideals — is an eloquent plea for fairness and justice:

"Without the productive citizens of America there would be no accumulated earnings to support the parasites; there would be no wealth to share. Without their patient willingness to bear the burdens imposed upon them by government, and continue producing, there would be no government.

"It is time, and past time, that we paid heed to the wishes of these people, the real grass roots, the source of all the strength America has left. The middle-class American, productively employed, living in a suburb, commuting to an office or industrial plant, is everybody's target. He is fair game for tax collectors, political agitators and tax-supported professors. He is raided by court-protected criminals. Everyone wants something from him; few recognize that they owe him anything in return.

"If ours is a nation where the majority rules, middle-class Americans — not demonstrators and minority groups — should have the greatest influence on law-making and government. If ours is a nation of justice, these people who sustain themselves should not be forced against their will to sustain more and more others who, unlike the much-derided 'bourgeois', will not take responsibility for the conduct of their own lives.

"Sometimes I think that our decent middle-class Americans are too good for their own good. They are too long-suffering. They listen too respectfully to strident voices demanding leaglized plunder as a "right" and speak up too hesitantly for their own true rights. They are taken for granted by friends and enemies alike.

"There is endless talk of 'revolt" nowadays. What we need most of all is a revolt by the taxpayer."

NOBODY EVER WINS

A SHOCKING THOUGHT

What a shocking thought, to impeach one of the nation's highest officials!

But after all, impeachment is only removal from office and disqualification. A supreme court justice is appointed for life and if he is found unfit for office there is no way to remove him except by impeachment.

Is Chief Justice Warren unfit for office?

According to figures compiled by the Senate Judiciary Committee, James O. Eastland, chairman from 1953 to 1961, Justice Warren participated in sixty-five cases involving communist subversion and voted in favor of the communists sixty-two times.

In a little known report of a subcommittee of the Senate judiciary Comittee in 1958, some of the conclusions are as follows:

(1) In the paralytic effect of its pro-communist decisions on state and federal agencies of internal security ,the U.S. Supreme Court is the most powerful instrument of communist global conquest by paralysis.

(10) In view of (b) its persistence in aid and comfort to the enemy, the U.S. Supreme Court has disqualified itself for appellate jurisdiction in all areas concerned with American security and American survival.

The conclusions of the committee were much more detailed but this is a fair example of its findings.

Nor has the pattern changed in recent years. The pro-communist record continues to grow and recently the court has decreed that school boards can no longer require loyalty oaths to their employees nor can they refuse to hire a teacher because he is a communist.

If this isn't enough, I recently read of three convicted murders and one armed robber turned free because the Warren Court decided that their confessions were not valid evidence for conviction.

How much more will the American people permit? Will we let Chief Justice Warren and his pro-communist cohorts continue to take our liberty from us piece by piece, or will we take action, write to our congressmen, tell our friends that if we are to preserve our constitution Earl Warren must be impeached.

Mrs. Joe Hoenig Gives Program at HD Club Meeting

Members of Muenster Home Demonstration Club had their November meeting in the home of Mrs. Bruno Fleitman with Mrs. Joe Hoenig as program leader.

Her topic was "How to Live Happily with Your Family." The speaker's good advice was spiced with humor.

Another program feature was a comedy skit on the subject. It was enacted by Mrs. Gus Lutkehnaus and Mrs. Bill Lutkenhaus.

Members went to the meeting with gifts for patients at Wichita Falls State Hospital. These items will be shipped to bring Christmas cheer to the patients. This is an annual project of the club.

Mrs. Bill Lutkenhaus, president, conducted the business session. Mrs. Ray Klement and Mrs Alois Rohmer reported visiting local senior citizens during the month. Mmes. Gus and Bill Lutkenhaus volunteered for visits this month.

Mrs. Henry Pick directed games during the recreation period. Prize winners were Mrs. Rudy Hellman and Mrs. Alois Rohmer. Mrs. Earl Robison won the door prize.

Mrs. Fleitman, the hostess, served heavenly hash, angel cake and coffee to 14 members and one guest, Mrs. Ed Knauf.

December meeting will be a Christmas party with Mrs. Paul Fisher hostes in the Joe Fisher Sr. home.

SH High Students In Wichita Falls At Speech Tourney

Members of Sacred Heart High Speech and Drama class were in Wichita Falls Friday to participate in a speech tournament at Midwestern University.

Linda Rohmer and Laurie Truebenbach entered the poetry reading division and Margaret Kralicke and Cynthia Bindel entered the prose reading division.

Sister Richard, instructor, and Mary Koesler, Varerie Voth and Mary Jane Swirczynski, other members of the class, accompanied them.

Hubby: "It's queer, but the biggest idiots seem to marry the prettiest women."

Wife: "Now you are trying to flatter me."

College Night Is Planned for SHH Students Jan. 23

Plans for college night at Sacred Heart High School have been completed for January 23, 1968. At this time Sacred Heart seniors will be presented a brief preview of facts concerning college classes.

Representatives from colleges including Cooke County Junior College and the University of Dallas have sent word they will be present to discuss classes and subjects offered and other information concerning college life.

Parents are invited to attend the conference with their children.

There ought to be a better way to start the day than by getting up in the morning.

Christmas Cheer For Shut-ins Is CD of A Project

Court St. Mary, Catholic Daughters of America, will again take Christmas cheer to local shut-ins. Members voted unanimously in favor of the project at their November meeting. In lieu of a Christmas party for themselves they'll go to the December meeting with homemade goodies, fruits and nuts and pack baskets they'll deliver to the homes.

In other business members set their meeting date for Thursday before the second Friday of each month until March and set the time at 7:30 p.m.

Tentatives plans were made for a Christmas dance for members, escorts and guests. That date will be set by the entertainment committee.

Mrs. Paul Fisher, grand regent, presided and introduced Mrs. Rudy Hellman who presented the program. She showed color slides of her trip to the Holy Land and furnished her own commentary.

Misses Dorothy Hartman and Helen Hess served refreshments to 29 present.

Mrs. T. L. Anderson's name was drawn for the seven dollar door prize. As she was absent, next month's door prize will be eight dollars.

Artists Have 100 Works on Display In Art Show Here

Muenster's fourth annual art show Sunday afternoon drew more than 200 art lovers to view some 100 entries in the Parish Hall.

Students of Sister Roberta's Sacred Heart High art class had an interesting display of ceramics, the largest exhibit on the floor.

Barbara Schmitt had a group of four original oils, Sheila Hennigan had an oil and ceramics, Blondie Fleitman entered two oils, Marilyn Walterscheid had an eight-piece exhibit — oils, a pastel and an Indian Ink.

Steve Hess entered a conte drawing and ceramics. Billy Taylor, 17-year-old artist from Nocona, entered nine paintings. Mrs. Ernest Cunningham and Mrs. S. C. Roach, both of Saint Jo, displayed their hand painted china.

Father Andrew Wewer, shop instructor at Sacred Heart High, had some of his own woodwork and ceramics on display. And Sister Roberta had some of her own ceramics on display with her students' many entries.

Alex Lutkenhaus, local artist, was judge and tagged entries with blue, red and white ribbons. He had a large collection of his own oils on display and showed an assortment of rocks and gems from his hobby collection.

There was no admission charge but a box was handy for free will offerings to benefit Sacred Heart School's art department.

Assisting Mr. Lutkenhaus in sponsoring the show were Mrs. Oscar Detten, Mrs. Alex Lutkenhaus and Miss Linda Lutkenhaus.

The setting was an autumn scene with fall foliage furnishing the decor.

Out of town visitors attended from Gainesville, Saint Jo, Noocna and Fort Worth.

Family Entertains For Houston Kin

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Otto have returned to their home in Houston after a five-day visit with Gainesville and Muenster relatives. They headquartered with his brother Ben Otto at Gainesville and were entertained also by another brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Otto, and his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Wolf in Muenster.

One day the visitors joined Ben Otto and son Jim of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Wolf on a trip to Wichita Falls where they spent the day with another brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Otto. Nephews and nieces of the Steve and Ed Otto families joined them in the afternoon.

Also there was Mrs. Tony Otto of Muenster who was spending the week in Wichita Falls with her brother Tom Martin and sister Mrs. Emma Mason.

From Cooke County the Henry Ottos went to Dallas and other points to visit her relatives enroute home.

Cacti, Succulents Program Topic at Garden Club Meet

Members of Muenster Civic League and Garden Club hear a lecture on "Cacti and Succulents" at their November meeting Monday night. Miss Bettye Dodds, speaker, illustrated her talk with charts and drawings.

She discussed principally ornamental and rare cactuses that are adapted to use as house plants and are not winter-hardy. She listed many blooming varieties, common varieties and rock garden varieties and gave instructions on planting and care and included indoor culture of dish gardens.

Mrs. Pat Stelzer and Mrs. T. S. Myrick were co-hostesses in the former's home and served refreshments as members arrived at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Stelzer conducted the business session during which committee reports revealed that the church door collection for cemetery maintenance on Nov. 1 amounted to $419.55. Cemetery upkeep is the organization's major project.

The home was festive with floral arrangements, three of them made by Mrs. Joe Luke. On the refreshment table a Thanksgiving theme prevailed in a massed autumn design of yellow mums and coleus.

An abstract arrangement using five large white mums and three sheared unmbella plant stems in a black footed-container held a vantage spot. And Mrs. Luke showed a red rose specimen in a vase suitable for a desk.

Other arrangements included Mrs. Stelzer's dish garden of ornamental cacti and a single cactus growing in a rock. Fifteen members were present.

Before leaving, members looked through cook books Mrs. Stelzer had arranged on a table. These books are being sold by Muenster High FHA chapter.

For the meeting in December Mmes. Tony and Ted Gremminger will be hostesses, the program will feature a display and a discusion of Christmas ideas, and members will take small potted green plants to the meeting. These plants will be delivered to the local rest home as gifts for residents.

Local News BRIEFS

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alfons Reiter over the weekend was her sister, Sister Benedict Knabe of Arlington. She came especially to be with her father, Albert B. Knabe, a patient at Muenster Hospital. Other visitors Sunday were the Reiter children, Mr. and Mrs. Don Reed of Dallas, Larry Reiter of Houston and Miss Gloria Reiter of TWU, Denton. The children helped their parents celebrate their 29th wedding anniversary which was on Nov. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jetzelsberger were among guests at a birthday party and dinner for their grandson Robert Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jetzelsberger of Fort Worth. The celebration was held in the home of the little boy's other garndparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cannon at Collinsville. Robert Wayne was two years old on Nov. 11. Other relatives gathered at the Cannon home in the afternoon for birthday cake and ice cream.

Weekending with Mrs. Dick Cain were her daughter and family, the Jimmy Christians and Richey, Kevin and Chad of Lewisville. Little grandsons Troy and Scott Cain of McKinney are spending this weekend with their grandmother Cain. They were with their grandparents, the Norbert Klements, last week. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Cain have been moving and getting settled at a new location in McKinney.

Donald Rohmer of the University of Dallas and a college boy friend drove over Sunday afternoon to visit Donald's parents, the Arnold Rohmers and had supper with the family before returning to Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Felderhoff and sons Ross and Kenny and nephew Mike Felderhoff spent the weekend about 20 miles west of Mineral Wells on a deer hunt. Fourteen-year-old Ross was the champion hunter of the group. He came home with a six-point buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Randy Wimmer and daughter Shawna will be leaving Muenster this weekend, moving to Lewisville. He has a job at Texas Instruments.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Dunham and two daughters of Fort Worth spent the weekend with her parents, the Frank Herrs, and Sunday afternoon joined them and other family members at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Denis Walterscheid for a get-together. Others present were the Melvin Herrs and children of Denton, the Ronnie Herrs and children of Gainesville and the Tommy Herrs and children, for a total of 36. Mrs. Walterscheid served lunch.

Meeting Held by Rest Home Staff

Mrs. Dick Cain, administrator, and her staff members of Golden Years Rest home held one of their regular meetings Tuesday night at which time they drew names for Christmas gifting and made plans to have covered dish dinners occasionally for the staff and guests.

They also favored a suggestion box for the next meeting on Dec. 5. This is a project to promote better understanding and cooperation between administration and staff. One suggestion will be drawn from the box each month and discussed.

Refreshments of cookies, coffee, lemonade and mixed nuts were served after the meeting.

3rd Order Meets

Members of the Third Order of St. Francis, Sacred Heart Parish, met Sunday afternoon for prayer service and a brief business meeting. Mrs. Leo Henscheid, prefect, led the office and Mrs. Herb McDaniel read a sermonette, "Stark Poverty." Some 20 members attended.

Tigers - - -

Heart came early in the second half when the Trojans kicked after stalling on their first series. Lee Roy Hess took it on the Tiger 33 and used some timely blocks along with fancy footwork on his sprint to the goal. He was not touched by a tackler.

Then came the two points which made the final big difference. Chris Walter crashed over left tackle for it.

After that both teams had to kick on their first series, then Windthorst launched a drive that gained 36 yards to the Tiger 21 in six plays but bogged down and gained only 6 on the next four tries.

Taking possession on the 15 the Tigers put on their only drive of the second half. It made 50 yards to the Trojan 35 in four first downs and fizzled out as the last series made only 5 yards.

Windthorst then made two first downs and lost the ball on Sacred Heart's 43, but regained possession on a Tiger fumble on the next play.

That recovery inspired the Trojans' only sustained drive of the night. Passes for 15 and 16 and an interference ruling took them to the 5, A penalty set them back to the 10 and Don Osterman went all the way from there. A stubborn stand by Sacred Heart prevented the extra points that might have tied the game.

making 46 yards to the 17 in eleven plays. But the effort suddenly went sour and lost 9 yards in the netx series.

The remainder of the quarter included a first down and a kick by Era, a kick by Muenster and loss of possession on a fourth down gamble by Era.

As the final period opened Muenster quick kicked on its first series. Kindiger went back to the 25 for the ball, headed goalward and got beautiful blocking as he went all the way.

That TD, plus bonus points on a pass to Robeson put Era ahead by the comfortable count of 16-6.

After the kickoff Muenster made two first downs and kicked on its third series and Era started its last drive from the 10. Principal gains on the 91 yard push were passes of 10 and 15 and two penalties for 21. Kindiger made the last five around left end.

In the 3:50 minutes of remaining time Muenster managed a first down, Era kicked on its first series, then Muenster made two more first downs and was stopped by Robeson's interception.

Shortly after intermission Knabe scored from the 26 and Endres ran for two points.

Early in the fourth period Knabe went in from the 7 and Tuggle made bonus points. Finally Endres passed to Claude Klement for a 47 yard scoring play and Endres kicked his second point after TD.

Penalties galore featured the game. Another feature was three interceptions by Jim Endres.

"Speaking of 'billions,' we're all accustomed in this inflated age to reading about 'millions' and billions.' But do you really appreciate the difference? Try this one on for size: If the lady of the house goes shopping for 40 hours a week, spending $1,000 an hour, it will take her 25 weeks to spend a million dollars. If she followed the same schedule, spending a billion dollars would take her 481 years! That's one way to tell the difference between a million and a billion. Using hr chargeplate, at the rate suggested, it would take her 158,009 years to spend the equivalent of the U. S. national debt!"

Firefighters Fought More Than Fires

As dangerous as home fires can be today, consider the plight of the American living about 125 years or so ago. The odds were against them all the way.

Their first problem was the telegraphic fire alarm box on the corner. It was locked. To prevent false alarms, the key to the box was kept in a nearby store.

Then there was the fire department.

According to the Federated Insurance Companies of Owatonna, Minnesota, the first half of the 19th century was the heyday of volunteer fire brigades. The system was a colorful one, and remarkably effective. But it did have a few weaknesses.

In their struggle to be the first and the best at every fire, firefighters as well as the "crackers-and-cheese boys" who ran alongside every truck, were sometimes harder to control than the fires they fought.

Two brigades in New York, for example, were suspended after a free-for-all over the use of a fire hydrant. Two others got the same treatment when they fought over which would go first on a narrow street. They never did make it to the fire.

Occasionally a water hose was sliced or a tire flattened, and one or two firemen rushing into a building to rescue a victim were knocked out by other volunteers with similar intentions.

The incidents made for good stories at the lavish Firemen's Ball, but in 1853 the city fathers of Cincinnati decided this type of rivalry was not the most effective way to fight fires. They established the first permanent, paid fire department, and most other major cities followed suit during the next 20 years.

The idea of paying firemen had been tried on a small scale by Boston almost 200 years before, when bucket brigades proved ineffective against devastating fires.

But most American cities relied on their volunteer firemen. In 1736 Benjamin Franklin took the first step toward the glorious days of the fire brigades when he organized Philadelphia volunteers into a trained group, giving each man a specific assignment at the scene of the fire.

Prime consideration of the volunteer firefighter was always the honor and reputation of his company. But he had another incentive — also thanks to Ben Franklin in his capacity as founder of the first American fire insurance company. Like the English firm on which it was modeled, Franklin's "Philadelphia Contributionship for the Insurance of Houses from Loss by Fire" placed a distinctive metal "fire mark" on the buildings it insured.

Firemen soon learned that preventing total loss of a marked building meant rewards from the insurance company.

Today's firefighters are professionally trained. Their equipment is a far cry from the old hand-pumped water tubs used as late as the 1860's. And they aren't afraid of sabotage from another engine company at the scene of the fire.

But there's one part of the volunteer fire brigade's operation that might be viewed with a little more nostalgia. Jobs for the crackers-and-cheese boys included keeping a plentiful supply of liquid on hand for the hard-working volunteers.

Water? Nope. Whiskey, gin and brandy.

Eye Test Advised For Texas Drivers

AUSTIN — Drivers must see well enough to recognize danger in time to avoid accidents, and high speed driving makes the best of vision an absolute necessity.

These basic facts were emphasized today in a news release by the Texas Safety Association and Texans for Traffic Safety when they pointed out that thousands of licensed drivers may be driving in today's heavy traffic with defective vision.

"Each year in Texas more than two million drivers licenses are renewed without benefit of an eye examination. Visual capabilities often change, and sometimes rapidly. Advancing age, disease and eye injuries can adversely affect a person's vision," Dr. Otto Lippmann, Austin, Chairman, Texans for Traffic Safety, said.

"It is not unusual for a 40 or 50-year-old driver who had good vision 20 years ago to have some visual problem now that calls for correction or treatment," he said.

"Some drivers with failing eyesight are aware of their problems, but many others are not. These drivers with unknown defects may endanger all other users of the streets and highways."

Both the Texas Safety Association and Texans for Traffic Safety strongly advocate vision re-examination at the time of driver license renewal. They also recommend all drivers, who think that their vision might be deteriorating, have competent eye examinations.

"They owe it to themselves, as well as others — for the unseen traffic hazard can kill or cripple," Dr. Lippmann concluded.

A beauty contest is an event where the judges crown the winners and the losers want to crown the judges.

Lone Star Gas Co. Reports Increase For Fiscal Year

Directors of Lone Star Gas Company announced Thursday in Dallas a net income of $21,271,071 for the 12-month period ending September 30, up from $19,018,049 for the same period in 1966.

Twelve-month common stock earnings correspondingly rose from $1.30 per share in 1966 to $1.45 in 1967. Directors for the Dallas-based utility and its subsidiaries also declared the regular quarterly dividend of $0.28 per share of common stock payable on December 11, 1967, to share-holders of record on November 24, 1967.

The announcements to stockholders came as construction of the largest pipeline ever undertaken by Lone Star drew near a scheduled completion date of November 15. The 219-mile Katy pipeline interconnecting Dallas with Katy Field near Houston will transport natural gas slated for initial consumption in the Dallas Metropolitan Area. Maximum purchases from Katy Field will supply approximately 20 percent of the company's peak day requirements when transmission facilities are completed. The acquisition by Lone Star of reserves totaling more than 1.6 trillion cubic feet of natural gas represents the largest single reserve acquisition in the utility's history.

Salvation Army to Send Truck Nov. 20

Cooler weather increases clothing needs at the Salvation Army, reports Major Byron A. Freeman, commanding officer for the Salvation Army Men's Rehabilitation Center for the North-North Central Texas area.

"Families outfitting their children for school from Salvation Army supplies appreciate any type of clothing", he added. The Salvation Army truck will be in Muenster on November 20 and 21. Residents who wish the Salvation Army truck to stop by their homes may call 759-4311.

"Recent natural disasters have lowered considerably the stocks of clothing, furniture, small appliances, and heaters, so the need this fall is above that usually experienced", concluded Major Freeman.

Of all Texas wells drilled in 1966, about 36.5% were dry.

Then there were the two fellows who were stranded on a desert island when a bottle was washed ashore. In it was a note that almost drove them crazy. It was a message from two girls stranded on a desert island.

A farmers wife had become mentally deranged. As they carried her out of the house in a straitjacket he said: "I sure don't know what got into her — she ain't been out of the kitchen in 25 years."

It happende in Moscow: A 500-mile championship auto race was held with only two cars entered — an American Ford and a Russian Moskovich.

The Ford won easily. The next day Pravda reported:

"The Soviet Moskovich placed second while the American ran next to last."

Annual Staff Has ZIP Code Book Sales as Project

Miss Bettye Dodds, faculty advisor for the Muenster Public School annual, HORNET, announced this week that a new ZIP Code directory is being offered by the senior girls to every household and business office in Muenster.

The directory lists the correct ZIP code numbers for every post office in the country, almost 40,000. The Post Office is urging everyone to use the correct Zip Code number on every piece of mail to speed delivery. It saves transit time and reduces errors.

Purchase of a ZIP code directory at only $1 each helps the mailer and the Post Office, and it helps the Muenster Public School annual staff raise funds. This directory makes a wonderful gift that will be used constantly.

If anyone is missed by the 18 workers, they may phone the public school at 759-2281, giving name and address, and a copy will be delivered.

DEFERRED GRAZING IN CONSERVATION PLAN ON HAVERKAMP RANCH

A conservation plan was developed Nov. 7 on the Leo J. Haverkamp Ranch located 2 miles north of Sivells Bend along the Red River.

Haverkamp has deferred the grazing this growing period on 328 acres of ranchland.

Many of the Blue stem Grasses have produced a good seed crop. Haverkamp will graze the pasture during the dormant season. In addition, he has planted about 100 acres to Coastal Bermuda Grass. Another 45 acres will be planted to Coastal in the spring of 1968.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS — Anthony (Andy) Granatelli, president of Studebaker Corporation's STP Division, and no midget himself, is honored here with the world's biggest racing trophy, presented by pretty Elaine Harrison, Miss American Hot Rod Association. Trophy, 10-feet tall, was made in Texas by Texans, and presented to Texan Granatelli, who was born near Fort Worth. Award for Andy's "outstanding contribution to motor sports," including his development of sensational and controversial STP-Turbocar which led Indianapolis race for 197 laps, then was barred from further competition.

The man's son had gone to college and his allowance having run out, he wrote home for more money. Feeling nervous about the impression his request would make, he ended his letter with:

"PS — I did not like writing to you. In fact I ran after the postman to get this letter back."

A week later he received the following reply: "You will be glad to know I did not receive your letter."

Settlers Guessed About Medicine

American medical tradition stems from an age very different from the one in which we now live, points out TODAY'S HEALTH GUIDE, the American Medical Association's manual of health information for the American family.

The early settlers, living remote from civilization, turned to the traditions of their ancestral homelands and to the methods of the Indians, and came up with a medical lore all their own. Their ideas of prevention and treatment were not all wrong, but often they did more harm than good. Some of the common misconceptions of the frontier era have carried over into modern times.

TODAY'S HEALTH GUIDE lists the facts about some of these misconceptions—

- Blood pressure of 100 plus the individual's age is not the normal value.
- Red meats and alcohol are not necessarily harmful to those with high blood pressure.
- Fish is not a brain food, it is simply a good food for all parts of the body.
- Sweets, while possibly detrimental to the teeth, are not the sole cause of tooth decay.
- There is no reason of health why one should not eat shellfish and ice cream at the same meal, provided neither of them is spoiled.
- Lemons, oranges, tomatoes and grapefruit do not cause "acidity" of the body.
- Fat people are not necessarily carefree and jolly.
- Being fat and 40 and feeling well does not constitute a good reason for declining to lose weight.

- It is not necessarily unwise to drink water with your meals, if you don't gulp it.
- Gargles and mouthwashes do not kill the germs in the mouth or throat.
- Boils are not due to impure blood.
- Punctures from rusty nails are no more dangerous than punctures from shiny nails; the danger lies in the germs that either one may introduce.
- Night air is not unhealthful. However, it is not necessary to open the windows of your bedroom wide at night, especially when it is cold.
- Whiskey with aspirin is not a good remedy for a cold. The cold might improve in spite of it.

Sister Fortunata 79, Lindsay Native Dies at Convent

A requiem Mass for Sister M. Fortunata Zimmerer, 79, of the Congregation of Divine Providence was concelebrated Friday, November 10, in the Annunciation Chapel of Our Lady of the Lake Convent, San Antonio.

Sister Fortunata, a native of Lindsay, died in San Antonio, November 9, after failing to recover from injuries received in an accident which occurred on month ago in Alexandria, Louisiana.

Professed in religion sixty-three years, Sister Fortunata served the congregation in the various roles of education, administrator, and religious superior. She taught mainly in Texas schools, having spent twenty-three years on the staff of the former St. Joheph's School in San Antonio.

Other Texas assignments included teaching in Fredericksburg Yoakum, Dallas, El Campo, Olfen, and Castroville. She also taught 12 years in Alexandria, Louisiana; and Enid and Tulsa, Oklahoma. She would have been 80 on Dec. 9.

Concelebrants of the funeral Mass were two priest-nephews of the deceased, Rev. Alcuin Kubis, OSB, of Sacred Heart, Muenster, and Rev. Sylvester Schad, OSB, of Corpus Christi Academy, Corpus Christi. Burial was in Providence Cemetery at Our Lady of the Lake Convent, San Antonio.

Survivors include two borthers, I. A. and Herman Zimmerer, both of Lindsay; one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Kubis, Muenster. Among surviving nieces are nine Sisters in the Divine Providence Congregation: Sisters Florence Marie, Liboria, Alma Sophie, Mary Vera, Helen Margaret, Mary Rose, Herman Mary, Barbara James, and Dorothy Theresa.

Surviving nephews in religious life are Rev. Francis Zimmerer, Tomah, Wisconsin, and Brother John Schad, OSB, Subiaco, Arkansas.

Relatives at the funeral from Cooke County were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zimmerer, Albert Kubis and Mr. and Mrs. Billy Zimmerer of Lindsay, Mrs. Adam Wolf and daughter Margie of Muenster, Mrs. A. J. Felderhoff and daughter Cindy of Gainesville.

the score. The plain fact is that Ho Chi Minh is the only aggressor and the only solution to the conflict is to defeat him — and allow the people of all Vietnam to set up a government of their own choice.

World history presents many cases similar to this one. Greedy rulers have reached out for other people's possessions. In every case, until Korea, there has been an understanding that anyone who reached out his hand also stuck out his neck. The same understanding ought to apply now. Ho got greedy and deserves to be kicked off his throne.

While putting out peace feelers in Hanoi, President Johnson has been feeling out the American public for approval of his method of conducting the war. His response is reported as not pleasing. That's understandable. Most Americans hold to the traditional opinion that we should fight to win. And they are very much concerned about what will happen if we fail to stop the red conquest.
