Brady Begins His Three-Year Term

Former Judge Enters The "Walls" Of Texas Prison

(By The Associated Press)

HUNTSVILLE, Jan. 27.—John W. Brady, former judge, entered the "walls" here at 6:06 p. m. today to begin his three year sentence for the murder of Miss Lehlia Highsmith, in Austin November 9, 1929.

Commitment papers arrived from Sheriff Hal Hood of Dallas county at 5 p. m. and Warden W. W. Waid went for the former magistrate at his hotel.

Sitting in a chair in the lobby looking worn and haggard, the former judge said: "Well, I had just as well start right now as any time," when approached by the penitentiary official with the papers relative to his commitment.

Brady then turned to the hotel porter and instructed him to bring his suit case to the walls, which are about a block from the hotel where he has been stopping for the past three days.

Walks To Prison

In company with the warden, Brady then walked the short distance to the walls that will be his home for the next three years.

He was dressed in gray prison denim and ushered to his cell a few minutes past six o'clock. Tomorrow morning he will be given a thorough physical examination by the prison physician and assigned to his duties.

"I don't want any favors of any of the prison officials. I will serve my sentence like a man and not complain," he said as the door was shut.

Prison Manager Lee Simmons said his work would be clerical.

Mrs. Brady, who had remained loyal to her husband through his two trials, when his allegedly illicit relations with Miss Highsmith were brought out, left to return to her home in Austin.

It was sundown in Brady's career at 61. While still a young lawyer, he became a county prosecutor at Austin and the brilliance of the record he made there—in the same court room where first he was tried for murder—reflected itself later in

Urge Payment Of School Tax By February 1

Board Of Trustees Of Lubbock Independent School District Issues Statement Of Financial Condition

Urging citizens to pay school taxes in full by February 1, a statement of "the financial conditions and problems" faced by the board of trustees of the Lubbock independent school district was issued Tuesday night following a meeting of the body at city hall.

Teachers can not be asked to teach without pay, operation of the Lubbock schools through a full term is desired, and the board of trustees is not empowered to grant an extension of time for payment of 1930 school taxes without penalty, the trustees pointed out in their statement.

Major points in the statement included:

1. More than two-thirds of the money required to operate the Lubbock schools is derived from local taxes.

2. Money to operate the schools from September until the taxes are collected in January is borrowed each year by the board of trustees, and such loans aggregating $80,000 are due February 1.

3. Operation of the schools through the remaining four months of the academic year will require about $100,000, and in addition, about $65,000 has been set aside for interest and sinking fund to handle bonds already issued.

"We know that every taxpayer of this school district has the best interest of the schools at heart, and we know that to continue our schools, the school taxes must be paid," the trustees' statement concluded.

Members of the board of trustees whose names appeared at the bottom of the statement were:

Dr. J. T. Hutchinson, C. E. Maedgen, W. B. Atkins, S. C. Wilson, E. L. Robertson, Neil H. Wright and R. F. Bayless.

Gandhi Not To Halt Campaign

Civil Disobedience Drive To Continue Unabated; Woman Crushed To Death As Crowd Fights To See Leader

(Copyright, 1931, by The Associated Press)

BOMBAY, British India, Jan. 27.—Mahatma Gandhi, toothless shriveled, wraith of a man, sat cross-legged on a stone floor today, serving notice on the British empire that India's campaign of civil disobedience would continue unabated, while outside a frantic crowd, mad for a glimpse of him, struggled so furiously a woman was crushed to death.

Naked but for a homespun loin cloth, he leaned against a hay mattress in the center of a circle of newspaper men, an expression of deep melancholy on his ascetic face, but an almost spiritual light in his eyes.

"We can suspend judgment on Prime Minister MacDonald's statement to the round table conference at London," he said, "but we cannot suspend the activities of the Indian congress party."

Regardless of MacDonald's proposals and of the approaching peace talks with delegates returning from the round table conference, he said, all activities of the nationalists—the boycott on foreign cloth, the refusal to pay taxes, the picketing of shops—will continue.

No Verdict Is Reached In Trial Of Whit Latta Here

The jury before whom Whit Latta was tried in ninety-ninth district court on a charge of possession of whisky retired Tuesday night without returning a verdict.

Judge Clark M. Mullican placed the case in the hands of the jurors at 3 p. m. and they were escorted to their quarters at 8 p. m., having failed to reach an agreement.

Retirement of the jurors to their quarters without reaching a verdict was the first such occurrence during the January term of court. Thus far not a single acquittal has been won in criminal cases of the January term, which is in its third week and second of jury trials.

Bill To Be Sent To Lower House For Consideration Today; Committee Chosen To Adjust Differences

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 27.—The house and senate having failed to get together on tax relief measures, the senate today passed a bill postponing the delinquent tax date until February 21 to give the legislature time to enact deliberate legislation. The bill was passed out from the comimttee and acted upon on the floor of senate within a few hours.

The senate bill will be sent to the house tomorrow. Several representatives already have expressed approval of the bill, drawn by Senator O'Neal of Wichita Falls. It was believed necessary to postpone the due date owing to the refusal of the house to pass the O'Neal split tax bill and refusal of the senate to concur in the house amendments.

Committee Named

A free conference committee has been apopinted to adjust the differences between the houses but the committee met only a short time, adjourning to attend a war dance in the senate by Pale Moon and Iron Eye, Cherokee Indians. After the dance the committee was unable to get together.

The O'Neal bill as sent to the house provided for postponement of one-half the state and county taxes until June 30 provided one half was paid by February 1. The house struck everything out of the O'Neal bill and substituted one by Representative Weinert of Seguin which would post pone collection of all taxes until October 15, the tax payer to pay interest at 10 per cent from February 1 but no penalty.

The senate appointed Senator O'Neal, Purl, Woodward, Parrish and Holbrook to the free conference committee with the house represented by representatives Weinert, Barron, Young, Gilbert and Moffett. The committee was to get down to

Bullet Hole Found In Head Skulls Of Both Man, Woman Found Near Rio Grande; No Clues Are Uncovered

(By Associated Press)

LAREDO, Jan. 27.—Discovery of two skulls today, in a burlap bag on the south side of the Rio Grande, started Mexican and American officers on an investigation that tonight had led them nowhere. The skulls were those of a blonde woman and a brunet man, hair remaining on the scalps, and a bullet hole in each.

They were found in a patch of chaparral bush near the Mexican bank of the river. Two boys playing along the waterfront found a new burlap bag, which rattled when they kicked it. Opening it, they found the skulls, apparently of persons recently killed. Mexican authorities were notified and came to the scene, finding the bullet holes. A post-mortem was held at a hospital, but no further information was revealed. The bones were then ordered buried.

Record Crowds At Second Lecture Of Charm School

Nancy Earle Talks On "Down Petticoat Lane" Tuesday Night; Styles Shown

By BLANCHE E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

WITH many people standing during the entire evening, a record-breaking crowd was in attendance Tuesday for the second lecture in the Avalanche-Journal Charm school, which is in progress this week at the Uptown Dance Palace.

Miss Nancy Earle's lecture "Down Petticoat Lane" was accompanied by a showing of fashions for day and evening wear. This was the only evening lecture of the school and there were many men in attendance. Today's lecture, which is to be on "Face Facts", will start at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and doors of the Dance Palace will be open at 2 o'clock in order that those who attend may have an opportunity to register and get to their seats before the talk begins.

Five young women modeled clothing last evening in the showing of styles. They were Misses John Anna Boyd, Johnnye Jo Whitley, Mary Geniece Hardberger, Rosemary Leaverton and Mary Ellen Sargent. The costumes, which went around the clock, beginning with sport frocks for morning year, and continuing into the evening dresses, were a parade of color. Mrs. Jerome Merrell accompanied at the piano during the evening.

The costumes were used as a demonstration of dressing for personality and emphasized points in

Plans To Expedite Paving Of College Avenue Approved; Automobile Parking To Be In Rear Of Building

MEMBERS of the board of directors of Texas Technological college met at the college at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Officers were elected and routine business transacted. The meeting adjourned at 3 p. m.

The directors were guests of the administrative staff of the college at luncheon at noon in the Home Economics building. Home Economics students prepared the luncheon. The business session again was entered at 1 p. m.

Would Expedite Paving

Plans for expediting paving of College avenue were approved by the Technological college directorate, and plans adapted for automobile parking at the rear of the administration building instead of in front. The street immediately in front of the administration building will be closed it was decided.

Expenditure of two-third of the cost of constructing a 20-foot pavement on College avenue, which corresponds to a strip of state highway No. 7, was authorized by the state highway commission last Thursday at Austin. City and county commisisons have been attempting also to expedite start of work on the project.

Plans for an addition to the power plant at the college were approved. Bids will be opened in the office of Business Manager Gaston at the college, February 18 it was announded. An appropriation of $20,000 has been given the college for the powerplant addition, plans of which were drawn by Mr. Hedrick, designer of most of the buildings on the Matador campus.

SMEDLEY D. BUTLER

Italy Demands Explanation Of Butler Speech

American Government Might Have To Make Formal Apology To Italy As Result Of Remarks About Mussolini

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—A formal demand by the Italian government for an explanation of a recent speech he made in Philadelphia had pased tonight through the regular channels to Major General Smedley D. Butler of the marine corps.

In it lay a possibility that the American government might make a formal apology to Italy.

Butler, at Quantico, Virginia, where he is commandant of the marine post, declined today to comment on the newest storm to arise in his path. Later officers at Quantico said the general was "absent from the post" and could not be reached by telephone.

The formal protest came from Ambassador De Martio of Italy on the grounds that the remarks Butler is said to have made were derogatory to Premier Mussolini. The ambassador in a formal statement described them today as "untrue and slanderous."

The Italian ambassador protested to the state department after he had been informed that General Butler had quoted Premier Mussolini as saying "what is one life in the affairs of a state" after the premier's automobile had struck a child.

The department assured the ambassador the affair would be investigated, and Secretary Stimson discussed it with Secretary Adams whose department has charge of the marine corps.

Terry County Grand Jury To Convene Next Week To Take Up Investigation Of Case; Hugh Walker Released

ALL efforts on the part of defense attorneys to obtain bond for Mrs. J. Hugh Walker, of Lubbock, held in the Terry county jail at Brownfield on a charge of assault with intent to murder, will be opposed by state counsel, District Attorney T. L. Price, of Post, declared last night.

Mrs. Walker is being held in connection with a shooting at Brownfield Monday night in which Miss Beatrice Carr, 19, also of Lubbock was critically wounded. Her condition was reported unchanged last night.

"I will not agree to bond on any condition," Mr. Price said, "until the condition of Miss Carr is definitely known.

Speedy Trial Seen

"Furthermore a speedy trial is now in prospect and we expect immediate attention from the court.

The Terry county grand jury will convene next Monday morning and the case will be taken up for consideration by that body at this time. Mr. Price said last night that a date for trial probably would be set and that he would make every effort to have the case scheduled for the latter part of next week or the week following.

Questioned at Brownfield last night, Mrs. Walker refused to make a statement. "I would rather not say anything at all until I have talked with a lawyer," she coolly replied when asked concerning details of the affair. "I would like to see my lawyer in the morning."

Confirmation Of Baldwin Opposed

AUSTIN, Jan. 27. (AP)—Three former colleagues of Frank Baldwin in the house of representatives tonight argued against senate confirmation of his appointment as a member of the state board of education.

Representative Ray Holder of Dallas, presented a protest against the appointment signed by 25 members of the house. Holder stated it was not questioning the Waco newspaper editor's honesty or integrity, but that he believed Baldwin would be a "hampering force in education in this state."

It was predicted that if he should be unable to dominate the board of education, he would refuse to work with the members.

Rep. Coke Stevenson of Junction said he was opposing the confirmation on behalf of large numbers of people in West Texas. "To many people of West Texas, his appointment is objectionable," Stevenson said.

Man Hunt For Lost Rancher Is Under Way

More Than 150 Men Comb Area Where Automobile Of Wes Marchbanks Found; Missing Since Last Sunday

(By The Associated Press)

RANGER, Jan. 27.—One of the most intensive man hunts in the history of this section tonight had failed to disclose the whereabouts of Wes Marchbanks, Ranger ranchman, who disappeared Sunday from his ranch southeast of here. More than 150 men took part in the search today and thoroughly combed the county on foot for miles in all directions from the spot where his automobile was left in acorral. Nearly 30 men on horseback penetrated greater distances from the ranch without finding any clues.

Deputy Sheriff John Barnes who returned here from the ranch late today said a line of men, stationed 40 feet apart combed thoroughly the country within a two-mile radius of the point where Marshbanks' car was located, in addition to the men on horseback, who covered a wider territory.

Dog In Search

Today the rancher's favorite dog was taken to the car, in the belief he might pick up a trail scent. The animal, however, seeming to sense something was wrong, would only whimper, dart away from the car and run back.

Tracks believed to be those of Marshbanks were traced to a stock watering tank yesterday. The tank had been dragged after this, but today searchers, to convince themselves the rancher's body was not in the water, broke the dam and drained the tank.

Other clews traced today proved fruitless.

Selection Of Jury Starts In Emmett Thompson Trial

VERNON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Selection of a jury for the trial of Emmett Thompson, charged with the murder of Homer Crabtree, Gray county ranchman, began here this afternoon, after Judge W. N. Stokes in district court overruled a motion for continuance. The case was brought here on a change of venue. Only one talesman had been selected before court recessed.

A heated debate was the climax of almost two days of legal maneuvering over a requested continuance of the trial. Special Prosecutor J. F. Weeks of Wichita Falls sharply criticised the defense for what he termed the delay in the trial. He attempted to show that persons listed in the defense motion as absent material witnesses were important to trial of the case.

Negro Suspect Arrested In Attack On Brownsville Girl

LAREDO, Jan. 27. (AP)—A negro whose name officers refused to reveal was held incommunicado in the Webb county jail today as a suspect in the attack a week ago upon a Brownsville girl, 17 years old, as she knelt at the grave of her mother.

Officers said the negro was arrested Sunday, but they did not make the fact public, fearing a possible disturbance among lower Rio Grande residents.

Brownsville authorities notified officers here the girl was enroute to Laredo to attempt to identify the negro.

Stanley Found Guilty, Given Life Sentence

Defendant Convicted Of Murder In Connection With Torch Slaying Of Hawthorne Last July 26

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Jan. 27. (AP)—Convicted of murder, Herbert A. "Hub" Stanley, 30, was given a 99-year penitentiary term tonight in connection with the "torch slaying" of Roy Hawthorne last July 26.

FORT WORTH, Jan. 27. — The fate of Herbert A. Stanley regarding his share in the murder of Roy A. Hawthorne, whose beaten and bruised body was set afire near Lake Worth, July 26, was given tonight to a jury that listened to testimony such as seldom has been given in district court here.

Late today, Hugh D. "Hop Toe" Butler, charged also with Hawthorne's death, as are two other men, A. E. Stanley, father of the man on trial and James L. "Speck" Casstevens, told his story to the jury.

Beaten With Pistol

It was an account that Hawthorne was beaten with a pistol and bottles in the Stanley home on the north side, that he then was pushed under water in a bath tub "to make sure he was dead," that the body was tied, was wrapped in bed clothes and then taken to a pasture where gasoline was poured over it and then set afire. Butler said he was a witness to most phases of the killing but was not in the pasture where the blazing body was found.

The motive for the slaying, as outlined by Butler, was that Hawthorne had reported to officers what had appeared to be a case of cow theft in the local stockyards against the elder Stanley. He was charged with theft, but the charge later was dismissed.

Three Students Burned As Chemicals Explode Tuesday

GAINESVILLE, Jan. 27. (AP)—Three students were burned, one seriously, when chemicals exploded today in the high school laboratory here. Miss Athulla Thompson, daughter of Egbert Thompson, secretary of the chamber of commerce, suffered serious burns on her face, neck, and chest and was taken to a hospital for treatment.

Miss Helen Horn and J. H. Strait were less seriously injured.

The explosion resulted when Miss Thompson accidentally poured sulphuric acid into a bottle of ammonia.

Liquor Traffic Committee Of House Favors Resolution To Pledge Support Of Legislature To Prohibition Laws

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 27. (AP)—After removing objectionable references to several members of the Wickersham law enforcement commission, the house committee on liquor traffic today voted out favorably a resolution endorsing the 18th amendment and pledging the support of the Texas legislature to stringent prohibition enforcement. The resolution was to be taken up on the floor tomorrow.

Introduction of the resolution last week started heated debate in which several members objected to the language of the resolution. Introduced by Representatives Forbes of Weatherford and Farmer of Fort Worth, the resolution indicated dissenting opinions were filed to the Wickersham commission report by members who were biased or per-

Fort Worth Votes In Favor Of Municipal Gas Ownership

FORT WORTH, Jan. 27. (AP)—Fort Worth voted overwheimingly in favor of municipal ownership of the gas distributing system today in the first election on public ownership ever held here. Complete returns from the city's 64 voting precincts showed proponents of the proposition to have a majority of nearly two to one.

Complete tabulation from all of the boxes, many of them official, showed the following results:

For municipal ownership—8,075.

Against Municipal ownership—4,511.

Wholesale Arrests Seen In Bombing Of Red River Span

TEXARKANA, Ark. 27. (AP)—The arrest of ten or fifteen men in various sections of the south in connection with a dynamiting plot that resulted in wrecking of the Garland city span over the Red river on Sept. 3, at a loss of $250,000, was predicted by authorities here tonight.

They said ramifications of the plot were "so far-reaching it is impossible to handle it without the utmost secrecy."

GALVESTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Lieut. Frank L. Skelton, 24, third attack group pilot, was seriously injured when a plane in which he was riding, piloted by Lieut. C. E. Causey, jr., crashed and burst into flames just after taking off from the Fort Crockett airdrome today. Causey was slightly injured. The plane was destroyed.

Lubbock Chapter Of The American Air Cadets Expected To Be Organized Here

ORGANIZATION of a Lubbock chapter of the American Air cadets is being supervised here by Maynard Jacobson, of Dallas, who today expects to confer with civic club heads, the chamber of commerce, and public school officials in connection with the movement.

The American Air cadets is a national organization of boys from 8 to 20 years old, inclusive. Purpose of the air cadet movement is "to coordinate the aircraft model clubs of the nation in a practical manner for the benefit of all, and the advancement of aviation." There is no membership fee, although kits for making model planes cost 50 cents each.

Col. W. E. ("Bill") Easterwood, jr., millionaire Dallas sportsman and sponsor of the Paris-New York-Dallas flight, is chairman of the national advisory board of the American Air cadets.

Upon registration, each boy receives a membership card and a button. He is awarded other insignia after completing various types of model planes which fly. Third and highest rank is that of "ace."

American Air cadets are eligible to compete in local model

San Angelo Audience Pays $7,000 To Hear Will Rogers And Aid Depression

(By The Associated Press)

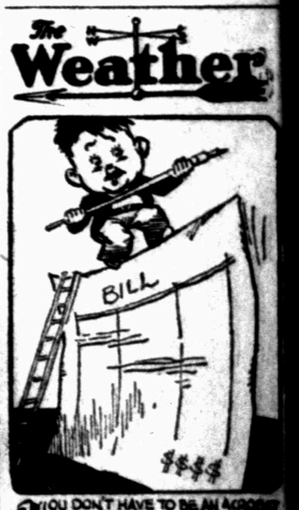

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 27.—Will Rogers drove here through the rain today on his tour to relieve depression in the southwest and was greeted by an audience of more than 2,500 persons who paid $7,000 for the privilidge of hearing him. Chester Byers, rope artist, and Jimmy Rodgers, yodler, accompanied him. Eery available seat in the auditorium was taken and extra chairs on the platform barely accompanied the overflow.

Will said he recently congratulated Al Smith on dodging the presidency and its responsibilities in these hard times and said Al told him, "they'd have shot me." He described the Democratic candidate in 1928 as a most likable fellow, "why he would even go to Waco and clean up," he said.

He said that the independent oil operator needed relief these hard times more than anybody unless it was a cattleman. "I met W. T. Waggoner in Fort Worth the other day and Amon G. Carter was asking him for a donation for something or other. He told him that the oil man was sure hard hit these days; the only fellow that was hit harder was the cowman and "I'm both of them," Waggoner

Three Culture Clubs Of Lubbock Meet In Program Hours On Tuesday

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

HERE are some items concerning Miss Nancy Earle, who is conducting the Avalanche-Journal Charm school here this week.

For one thing, she practices what she preaches. There were two instances. Yesterday, while we were out together, we stopped by a drug store for a drink and she ordered milk. "Do you suppose it is pasteurized?" she questioned, while it was being prepared. "Perhaps I am biased through telling people of the advantages of pasteurization, but I'm afraid to drink any other kind of milk," she continued.

That was one instance. We went up to her room and she had not prepared for me as she had not known that I was to be there. But the cosmetics she tells about in her charm school were sitting around on her dresser with every evidence of having been used.

She practices her charm off stage too—or perhaps it isn't practice at all and is a very natural sort of thing. But she evidences the qualities which she suggests for other people and I'm sure she had no more native characteristics than many of us.

THE NEW RINGS

IN case you go in for rings, choose those with the setting sunk well into the metal or set high on big, coarse prongs. Either way you'll be in style.

YOU ASK ONE

THE other day a Long Island hostess, probably at a loss in entertaining her 25 house guests, gave them a so-called intelligence test—a list of 39 questions to answer. She asked everything from identity of George Santayana to "what eunuch successfully conducted a great military campaign?" She listed authors I had never heard of asking what they wrote and books I had never heard of wanting to know the autors. She wanted to know who such men as Tillman Reimenschneider, Tycho Brahe, Sir Henry Vane, A. S. Eddington, and the Piccolomini were.

Of the thirty-nine questions I had heard of three or four. I had some idea about what chromium is. I attempted to list three compositions by Brahms and gave up on Stravinsky and I knew I had heard of the federal reserve system so that I could wave my hands and say "well, it is a system whereby—" and then stutter through an explanation of sorts.

Here are some more of the questions and I don't think you can answer more than one or two of them:

Name one book by each of the following: Rachilde, Pio Barajo, Paul Rosenfield, Martin Hume, Francis Carco, Oswald Spengler.

Describe a painting by Pablo Picasso.

What is meant by Baroque?

Who said "Truth alone is the daughter of time?"

What is meant in finance by Gresham's law? (A Tech economics student knew this one.)

Who discovered the circulation of the blood?

For what is Abu Simbel noted?

What is the Newlands act?

Name two kings of France who were taken prisoner in battle.

Who is the author of "What Price Glory?"

Those are not all but they are representative, and if they indicate intelligence or even general knowledge, I think I had better enroll in the kindergarten and start all over. All the things I know are different from these.

I tried them out on a half-dozen people and the average was about four each and the general opinion seemed to be "Who cares?"

I have the answers to some of these question. They may be right.

MY QUESTION

HERE is a question of my own: Why can't a man pass a curb when a woman is backing a car out without standing around making gestures with his arms and advising one to "turn a little more to the right" or "now, now—just a bit more to the left and you'll make it." That is one of my pet peeves. The only way I ever backed a car out of a place was through looking where I was going and the side-line instructions have always proved futile and the men remind me of children imitating windmills.

THE NEW STYLES

IF New York and Paris would get together on spring style forecasts, it would be a great help to their followers—such as I am. For instance, the other day I quoted a New York correspondent to the Hotel Astor style revue as saying that ensembles are as good as ever.

Today Paris says that the matching ensemble idea which has been a favorite with the smart set for the last three seasons, was tossed into the discard by Paris couturiers at an exhibit.

That may just be an indication of how fast styles change but it is a little hard on those of us who are trying to keep up with the latest thing. The Paris note continues by saying that "the spring costumes include coats and frocks combining two or three colors, one generally somber and the other bright."

Lectures, Talks Are Given At Meetings For Women

Athenaeum, Sorosis Clubs, And Twentieth Century In Meetings Here Learn Of Various Cultures

Regular lessons were conducted by three culture clubs among women of the city Tuesday afternoon. Programs were based on various author's lives and works, decorative accessories and the Pueblos. The three clubs were the Sorosis, Twentieth Century and Antheneum.

Study, Edith Wharton

The life and works of Edith Wharton, American writer, formed the basis for discussion at a meeting of the Sorosis club in the home of Mrs. William Dingus, 2502 21st street.

Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw was leader of the program and reviewed two of the writer's stories, "The Mission of Jane" and "The Other Two."

Mrs. E. L. Banks related main facts in Edith Wharton's life; Mrs. T. C. Root told of the peculiar field that she chooses to write in and Mrs. R. T. Campbell discussed "Wharton's Attitude Toward Her Heroines."

Accessories Are Studied

"Decorative Accessories" was the subject discussed by Miss Jean Dorrel before members of the Twenteth Century club in a meeting at the Tech home economics building.

After a business meeting Miss Mabel Erwin lectured on hand made tapestries and displayed three tapestries which are on exhibit at the college today.

Ten Are Present

Ten members of the Athenaeum club met with Mrs. S. B. Haynes in her home at 1912 Broadway.

A lecture of "Governmental and Economic System of the Pueblos" was given by Dr. W. C. Holden, of Texas Technological college. Mrs. J. F. Hankins directed the program.

Mrs. Moses Is Party Hostess

Twenty Guests Are Present For Affair And Games Of Bridge, Forty-two Furnish Diversion

One of the lovely parties of the early week was given by Mrs. C. W. Moses in her home at 905 Avenue R on Tuesday afternoon. Guests included members of El Martes club and several visitors.

Five tables were arranged for games of bridge and forty-two. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served a salad plate.

Members present were Mesdames E. L. Martin, H. T. Bartlett, J. W. Story, Jr., S. A. Beard, E. Paul Carter, Paul Reed, Frank C. Coombs, M. M. Brown, D. A. Forbes, Roy W. Sheppard, Joe H. Caldwell, Amy Reed, C. M. Oakley and J. F. Anthony.

Others in attendance were Mesdames E. D. Cook, Hugh Wallace, Dan A. Bennett, Pink L. Parrish, J. L. Young, J. Allen Moses and J. Wesley Woodard.

Studio Recital Is Given On Monday

A group of pupils were presented in studio recital by their teacher, Miss Blanche Garner, who is connected with the Tech piano department, Monday evening. The program was given in Miss Garner's studio at 1919 14th street.

In addition to the solo numbers, the theory class sang "Good Pierrot" and gave a rhythm drill. Ernestine and Estaline Herring played a duet, "The Palms" by Faure and the remainder of the program was as follows:

"Chimes" and "Hopscotch," Laura Jean Renner; "My Pets" and "Pussy in the Corner," Betty Jane Cross; "The Breeze," "The Boat Son," and "Song of the Brook," Mary Menon Stangel; "Farewell to the Piano" (Beethoven), Estaline Herring; "Cabaletta" (Lack) Ernestine Herring; "General Lavine Eccentric" (Debussy) and "Butterfly Etude" (Chopin), Mrs. Paul Both.

AIR DOESN'T WEIGH MUCH

WHEN you buy soap, the only way you can tell how much you're getting for your money is by the weight of the package. Size means nothing. A large carton full of soap flakes or bubbles can contain actually less soap than a carton of White King Granulated Soap half its size!

That's because White King Granulated Soap is condensed. It packs closely in the carton, like sugar. And it's absolutely pure and safe . . . for blankets, dishes or lingerie. It's made from fine vegetable and nut oils.

White King Granulated Soap is not only the safest but the most economical soap you can buy. A little of it goes a long way. A teaspoonful to the basin of water, or a cupful to the tub—no more! Your grocer has it.

Collars And Sleeves Lend Distinction To Clothing

Left, cowl neckline used on winetone crepe frock; next, blouse with dolman sleeve trimmed with buttons; third, dress of cocoa brown flat crepe trimmed with velvet bows in a darker brown; blouse of white satin for formal wear.

By LUCY CLAIRE
Fashion Writer for Central Press

By their collars, sleeves, buttons, seaming treatments, and other little marks of distinction ye shall know them—the new styles—as well as by the length of skirt, normal waistline and general silhouette. There is, for instance the cowl collar. Perhaps it is not so new, but women simply will not give up the cowl neckline. We find it everywhere on both daytime and evening frocks.

Then there are the buttons. "Who's got the button?" You remember the game? Nowadays the answer is, "Everybody is wearing them." They button up your overblouse. They run down your sleeves from neckline to cuff, and they trim skirts, dresses, coats in myriad ways. As for sleeves, all the smartest new models have something interesting, the leg o' mutton, the dolman effect, a snug sleeve with an unexpected puff at the elbow, and so on. But the smartest of these fit snug at the wrist for wear with the popular eight-button gloves.

Distinctive Touches Sketched

Each of the four models sketched illustrates one or more of trese distinctive touches. The frock at the left interprets the cowl neckline, as well as a scallop cut to the sleeve which ties up with the bolero. This frock is of winetone crepe, and is here shown worn with winetone kid shoes. In the second dress model you will note the coat frock with a tunic front. This is shown in cocoa brown flat crepe with bows of darker brown velvet ribbon at shoulder and cuff. Note the diagnol closing with buttons on both skirt and bodice. The buttons are in the darker brown and are actually used to button the frock in place. Brown kid shoes are worn with this costume.

There is a noted return to the overblouse in fall fashions, doubtless inspired by the return of the tunic to fashion's favor. The blouse at the left is of the dolman sleeve variety, with button trim extending from the neckline down the outside of the sleeve to the wrist. Here, of course, the buttons are used for trim only. In the blouse at the right we have an interpretation of the formal satin overblouse buttoned up the front in a diagnal closing. This is smart, in white satin for wear with a black suit.

Beading is being used on many of te new frocks, according to Paris. It is used at the neckline and on the cuffs, as well as around hemlines. Designs are usually in conventional figures and rather small. Designs are, in fact, so simple that any woman clever with the needle could easily bead her own frock. The pattern concerns are carrying transfer patterns for this beading.

Charged with murdering her husband, Mrs. Mary Ann Sproule Castlederg, Ireland, the thirty-eight year old mother of five children, is to undergo a third trial, juries in the two previous cases having disagreed.

Plans for two benefit parties which will be given on February 27 and 28 were made with details to be announced at a later date. The first affair will be a bridge party and will be in the home of Mrs. E. J. Parsons on 19th street, and the second party which will be forty-two, is to be given in the home of Mrs. C. E. Maedgen, 1823 Broadway.

Those present at the meeting were Mesdames Allen T. Stewart, Madeline Larmer, Maedgen, J. P. Giles, Peters and Bob Russell.

Two Entertain At Bridge On Monday

Misses Mattie and Clara Randolph entertained with a bridge party in their home at 1406 Avenue Q Monday evening in honor of Miss Ruth McCormick.

High scores were made by Miss Evelyn Richter and Bob McNeil and a guest gift was presented to Miss McCormick.

Others in attendance were Misses Ruby Penney, Bernice O'Neal, Ruby Marie Douthit, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heim, Jr., Messrs. Joe Atchison, James Upton, Clifford Randolph, James Wilcox, Graden Ausmus and Paul Randolph.

Curls are again in style in Paris.

Kotex stays soft longer

One of the many reasons why you should demand this sanitary pad

KOTEX is soft, and it stays soft. It does not pack into chafing hardness after use. Millions of women have discovered that fact, and they are particular to specify Kotex.

One of the reasons why Kotex stays soft is the way in which it absorbs — quickly, scientifically over the entire length of the pad. Many other pads absorb in one concentrated area which soon becomes uncomfortable.

Kotex is guaranteed to last longer, stay soft longer, than any other sanitary pad. You can wear Kotex on either side, with no chance of possible embarrassment, with the same degree of efficiency. It deodorizes. It is shaped to fit. And it is, of course, disposable.

WOMEN DO NOT TALK MUCH
about feminine hygiene
.. but they know these facts

Even when they say little, most women know that feminine hygiene is a healthful and necessary part of the toilette. Modern standards of dainty living demand a real, surgical cleanliness.

This much the woman of today does know. But usually she is not so clear about the choice of an antiseptic for the purpose. This question has now been solved by the new preparation called Zonite. This antiseptic is fast replacing caustic poisons such as bichloride of mercury and compounds of carbolic acid. No woman need fear to use Zonite herself or to recommend it to her friends, for it is absolutely non-poisonous. Zonite is as safe as pure water and far more powerful than any dilution of carbolic acid that may be allowed on the body.

All druggists sell Zonite. Get a bottle and read the directions.

NANCY EARLE... famous lecturer on Charm and Health.. recommends Zonite for:
The complexion
Hair and scalp
Teeth and gums
Mouthwash
Finger nails
Breath odors
Cuts and scratches
Bleaching skin
Blisters
Boils and pimples
Foot odors
Body deodorant

Here's the Way to Treat Those Miserable Colds So Prevalent Here Now

WITH scattered cases of flu breaking out in this locality, don't take chances with colds NOW—it's too dangerous! Unless checked quickly, colds tend to pull down the body resistance and may pave the way for an attack of flu with all its serious complications.

1 At the first sign of stuffiness or irritation in the nose or throat, snuff some Vicks VapoRub up the nose several times a day. This will often check a cold at the start.

2 If the head is all "stuffed up"—clogged with mucus or phlegm—or there is much coughing, melt a teaspoonful of Vicks in a bowl or kettle of hot water and inhale the steaming vapors for five minutes at a time. This treatment has a remarkable effect in clearing the air passages, easing the breathing, soothing the irritation, relieving the cough, and helps to prevent the cold from spreading.

3 At bedtime, in order to get the benefit of its long-continued stimulation and inhalation effect, rub Vicks vigorously over the throat and chest and cover with warm flannel.

4 If possible, stay at home until the cold is broken. Complete rest helps the body to throw off the cold more quickly.

(Mother!—treat children's colds promptly, but avoid "dosing." Too much internal medicine often upsets the child's digestion and lowers the vitality. Being applied externally, Vicks does not upset the stomach, and can be used freely and as often as needed without the slightest harmful effect.)

DON'T TAKE CHANCES WITH COLDS NOW!

Dr. Graydon Mason Of Lamesa Invents Quickway Parachute; Opens At Once

LAMESA, Jan. 27. (Special.) —A quickway parachute which its inventor believes will save life within a hundred feet of the ground has been designed by Dr. Grayson Mason Terry, of Lamesa.

Doctor Terry has explained the parachute to George F. Smith, of Snyder, a representative of Col Bill Easterwood, Dallas millionaire sportsman and air enthusiast.

The new invention will open instantly after jumping from a plane and will, according to Dr. Terry, "save life even as close to the ground as 100 feet." Dr. Terry states, "it is so simple that I cannot understand why some of our fliers and air men have not already discovered it." The attachment can be placed on any standard parachute and consists of a small rubber tube and compressed air tank. When the rip cord is released after jumping a valve is thrown open automatically and air from the tank rushes into the rubber tube which is bound in the hem of the parachute. The principle of inflating the tube forces open a side of the chute into which natural air rushes thereby insuring instant opening and checking of the falling body.

Story Interesting

The story of the invention is an interesting one, according to Dr. Terry who is a dentist of this city. He states that early in the spring of 1930 he read an account of two fliers jumping from a plane in East Texas near Nacogdoches and meeting their deaths by reason of the parachutes failing to open. Then he made up his mind that thought should be given to a device to make air travel safer. He and his wife began immediately to work on parachute models and many a night they were found up past the midnight hour scheming and planning the present invention. Then the idea was perfected and Dr. Terry set about to get his friends interested, not having the finances to put the project over himself.

He left his dental offices and took his idea to many large cities in Texas, Oklahoma and Washington, D. C. where he sought the criticisms of the men of the air. The same day September 19, 1930, Dr. Terry was in Washington, where he made application for patent, Thomas A. Edison in an interview with aviators in Newark, New Jersey, in which the parachute was the subject of comment said, "Airway travel will never be safer than the parachute and some one ought to now be busy perfecting a safer parachute." Edison was surprised to learn that present parachutes were not absolutely safe, according to press dispatches of this interview. Dr. Terry interviewed government fliers while in Washington and told them of his invention. They told him, "for God's sake if you have something better than what we have now let us have it."

Will Be Welcomed

Dr. Terry has talked and explained his invention to outstanding fliers of the nation. They all state that he has a workable project and that it will be welcomed into aviation. Among the fliers he has talked to are Joe Glass flier from Dallas to Atlanta; E. G. Rhenstrom, Fort Worth aviation department of the Chamber of Commerce and connected with A. P. Barrett of Fort Worth air lines; Jack Lapham, capitalist and flier of San Antonio, Texas; L. H. Reagan, general manager, Webster Engineering company of Tulsa, Oklahoma; Harald Beecher in charge of the air port at Midland, Texas, and Carl Bentsen in charge of the air port at Lamesa and World war flier. All of these have lauded Terry's invention and urged its testing by government officials.

Through L. H. Reagan of Tulsa, Dr. Terry has assurance of a government test. If found all it is recommended by Terry all who have seen the invention declare that there is no doubt but that aviation will have in this project a much safer medium from emergencies than at present.

Dr. Terry has an inventive mind. Before the present open glass vision gasoline pumps, Terry was the first man to invent such a pump. He failed however to carry his idea over, having it taken from him by others patenting the same pump and following closely on his heels.

Dr. Terry formerly practiced in Lubbock.

BLACK ELECTROCUTED

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Jan. 27.—(AP)—Will Biggers, a negro, was electrocuted at the state prison farm here today for the murder of Frank B. Marlin in Atlanta in 1929. Marlin, a former railroad engineer, was slain in a wood near his home. Biggers later confessed to police he killed him and robbed him of his watch and fifty cents.

Germ-Processed Oil won't fail you these cold days"

CONOCO GERM PROCESSED PARAFFIN BASE MOTOR OIL

The multitude of motorists who have switched to Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil know what a great oil it is for summer use. Maybe they are wondering how it will act in cold weather at zero and below.

The makers of Conoco know. Better still, thousands of users know, from their experiences of last winter. In Canada, Montana, the Dakotas ... in Denver ... with temperatures far under zero, Conoco Germ-Processed did not congeal. It remained fluid and continued to furnish efficient lubrication.

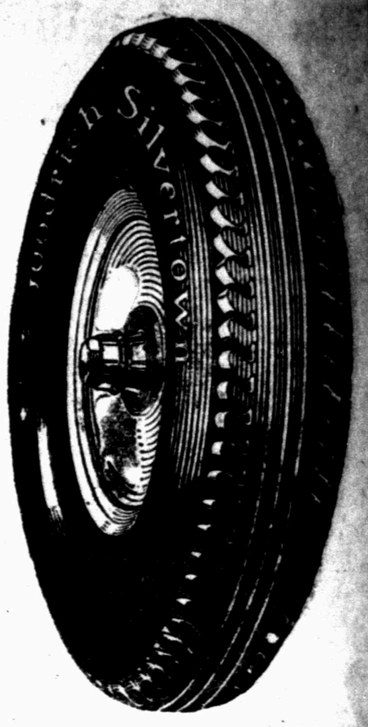

This accomplishment is no surprise. Conoco Germ-Processed is easy starting, non-congealing at sub-zero temperatures, because it is a thoroughly de-waxed paraffin base oil. The Penetrative Lubricity of Germ Process makes certain an ever-present lubricating film in your motor, even after long periods of idleness... particularly valuable at starting time, when 40% to 60% of motor wear occurs.

Save this wear on your motor... your battery... your nerves. Drain and refill now with the proper grade of Conoco Germ-Processed oil at the sign of the Conoco Red Triangle. All grades, 35¢ per quart.

YOU CANNOT DODGE THIS SMASHING FACT

---Goodrich Silvertowns, Quality Road-Proven Tires, Cost You No More Than Unproven Tires

1931

South Plains' finest and largest service station, home of Goodrich Tires, announces the largest tire stock in West Texas.

1931 finds the prices of Goodrich tires standing on a new low level, resulting from the latest national market sagging. The prices are lower than ever before in the history of the tire industry.

It is wise to buy now. In every field the selling prices are far below normal and the unprofitable selling, due to over production, will not continue—the prices will soon climb back up. The sub-normal conditions are now quickly readjusting themselves.

Last year the car owners of America did not buy a new set of tires—they made the old ones do, and this year the American car owners will purchase over 71 million tires, making this year the greatest tire year in the tire industry.

Prices of rubber will climb up and thousands more men will be employed; the wheel of prosperity will gather greater speed. This fact is true for thousands of other industries. 1931 will be a greater year of service and economy for South Plains' largest and finest service station.

The Prohibition Muddle

CRITICISM which has attended the report of the Wickersham—facetiously called the "Lickersham"—commission was not unexpected but it is being based upon an unlooked-for foundation.

For months the rabid drys have been girding for battle against the report in case it were wet, while the rabid wets have likewise been coiled to strike if the report were dry. But a bombshell was thrown into both camps when the commission, unable to reach a common agreement, turned in a report that is yet unintelligible, even to a Philadelphia lawyer.

The Hoover-appointed commission is "getting it in the neck" from both radical camps—from the wets because the report was not wet; from the drys because it was not dry. The other hundred million citizens are standing on the sidelines, scratching their heads and wondering what it is all about. Where the end will be, nobody knows.

The Morning Avalanche never had much confidence in the theory that the Wickersham commission would solve the problem of prohibition. We expected nothing short of an unsatisfactory report, no matter how it came out. We did expect, however, that a commission of intelligent citizens would reach an agreement or resign without making a report rather than add more chaos to any already chaotic condition.

The forthcoming Presidential derby, scheduled for 1932, will likely see an appreciable touch of the wet-dry controversy but in 1936 the storm will really break. Judging from present conditions the national elections in 1936 will be based almost entirely on the prohibition question, with the populace split almost as badly as it was over the slavery question.

Recently a great national magazine published an article in which the author declared that the man who could solve the prohibition problem would be elected President of the United States. The declaration is correct in theory, but we're happy that we don't have to go without a President until some such modern Moses shows up on the political horizon!

In other words, the disagreement over prohibition is going to be exceedingly hard to placate and much water will run over the dam before Dr. Clarence True Wilson and John J. Raskob, like the lion and the lamb of the millenium, lie down together. If you don't like to discuss prohibition, pro or con, better hie away to a desert isle or buy some sound proof ear muffs!

BUYING

The art of selling may be enlarged, but in perfection of style, in variety of persuasion, it hardly needs addition. Not merely goods, but villages, cities, states are "sold"—so put before the eye and ear as to be irresistible.

Not so well developed, however, is the art of buying. We don't know how it is with the women, but simple, ordinary man is more or less dazed and powerless as a buyer. If he fails to see what he wants, he takes something else, irrespective of quality or price.

Even the housekeeper too often lacks discipline and restraint. Though prices of goods are plainly marked in most shops, some of these impulsive souls will go elsewhere and buy the same product for more money.

What man, no matter how prudent ordinarily or even "mean" he be, hasn't bought again and again something he didn't want, missed again and again the opportunity to buy something he pined for? Does this come from deficiency or will? Does it come from alternate states of liberality and parsimony? Is want of logic and instability of temperament the cause? Or does good salesmanship explain it?

Granted that many customers are subject to haste, timidity, nervousness, the superior art of the seller might overpower the unpreparedness of even the bold, calm and deliberate on the other side of the counter. The need is for an art of buying developed to the high plane of the art of selling.

Practical Health Problems

DIABETES MORTALITY GAINING IN SPITE OF INSULIN REMEDY

Increase In Number Of Cases Is Blamed For Higher Death Rate Among Older Victims

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine

Since the introduction of insulin in 1923, medical men generally have realized the great importance of this remedy for the saving of life and for the conferring of usefulness on numerous persons who would previously have been invalided by the disorder.

Recently Drs. L. F. Wendt and F. B. Peck have reviewed more than 1,000 cases studied from 1919 to 1929. Thus there is a comparison possible of what has been accomplished by the new method of treatment introduced in 1923. Of the 1,073 cases, 315 were treated with insulin.

By proper control of the diet it is not necessary to use large amounts of this substance, and these investigators believe it is better to use smaller doses, repeated at more frequent intervals if necessary.

The investigators find that there has been an increasing mortality from diabetes because of the fact that there are more cases of the disease and that they are more severe in recent years than formerly.

The general death rate from diabetes still continues to rise in spite of insulin, but there has been a decline in the death rate of persons below the age of 19. The total number of deaths below 40 years of age also shows a slight decline.

However, from 40 years onward the death rate is rising for the simple reason that hardening of the arteries and gangrene, as complications of diabetes, make the condition very serious. Particularly serious to a diabetic is increased weight. The age of obesity, the investigators say, is the age of diabetes, of hardening of the arteries and gangrene.

Hardening of the arteries is the most difficult problem and is responsible for most of the rising death rate.

If the patient with diabetes comes promptly under the care of a physician, if he follows the instruction as to diet and hygiene, and if he is treated properly by means of insulin and other available methods, his opportunity for life and for a useful existence is greater than ever before. But he must remember that insulin is not a cure for diabetes; it is a method of treatment which must be rigorously followed.

Raskob Attack Opportune

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—That there was anything deliberately thought-up in what occurred, to take the wind, at least temporarily, out of Franklin D. Roosevelt's, Al Smith's and Owen D. Young's sails, just as Albert C. Ritchie's Democratic presidential craft was due to loom officially on the political horizon, under a magnificent press of canvas, I have no means of knowing.

All I can say, with certainty, is that, if it was engineered intentionally, it was wonderful.

If it was a mere coincidence, it was equally extraordinary.

CONSIDER the circumstances.

Mr. Ritchie has been, ever since the 1928 campaign, a 1932 Democratic presidential possibility, but rather secondarily so hitherto.

January 14 was the date set for his fourth inaugural address as governor of Maryland. It obviously was the ideal occasion for him to proclaim his White House candidacy, not necessarily in so many words, but in terms that there could be no mistaking.

He did it and he did it with tremendous effect.

Of course he would have missed the effect if he had bungled the job, but he could have done fully as well as he did do and still missed a good deal of it, had not the opportunity for him been as wide open as it was.

THERE IS no mystery as to the reason for the opportunity's wide openness.

It was opened for the governor by Frank R. Kent of the Baltimore Sun.

Kent is the Sun's star Washington man—has a column of politics on its front page five mornings a week.

Besides being maybe the most interesting writer in the capital, he is one of the best informed and rates (with due allowance for his Bourbon Democratic prejudices) among the country's ablest authorities on his specialty. I mean to say that he counts. No character in public life is too exalted to squirm when Kent puts him on the pan.

OF AN EVENTFUL morn, ten days or thereabouts before the time for Governor Ritchie's fourth inaugural, Frank devoted his column in the Sun to a story of what he described as John J. Raskob's virtual ownership of the Democratic party, through his financing of its national committee, and concluded with the plain intimation that it will be Mr. Raskob's to nominate whomsoever he may favor, on the Democratic ticket in 1932, if he has any choice at all.

John J. is accustomed to attacks from Republican sources and probably does not mind them a bit. He also cannot be unaware that certain southern Democrats disapprove of him, but doubtless classes them as Hoovercrats and is not worried by their kicking either.

Frank Kent, however, is the real thing in Democracy, and more influential than any dozen of average leaders.

FROM THE FACT that as consequential an individual as Chairman Raskob decided he must answer the Kent criticism, it may be judged that it hurt like everything.

Accordingly he replied to it, to the essential effect that he has no notion of dictating Aunty Democracy's candidate in 1932.

It was a reply which called for a response from Frank, and the latter furnished one that was far from a retraction. Whether or not Mr. Raskob exacts full value for his political investments, he will be in a mighty strong position to insist on it, repeated the Baltimorean, adding that, as a Democrat, he considers this a very unfortunate thing.

WITHOUT SUGGESTING that Chairman Raskob in reality is boosting for any particular presidential aspirant, it immediately becomes apparent that his correspondence with Kent (a correspondence already broadcast far and wide) will prove disadvantageous to any aspirant for whom the motor magnate is suspected of having boosted; such aspirant will be regarded by many as Mr. Raskob's pick, not the Democratic party's, and it will handicap him badly.

And it unquestionably is true that John J. and Al Smith are generally thought to have been friendly to Governor Roosevelt of New York for next year's Democratic nomination—with Owen D. Young (some say) as an alternative favorite—and with Al himself, mayhap, as a contingency.

The best it is possible to conclude, then, is that the Kent-Raskob correspondence has not done Al, Governor Roosevelt or Mr. Young any good, and the worst is that it has deflated them considerably.

IN BRIEF, we find the non-Maryland contingent of Democratic presidential possibilities in a state of decided disorganization as of January 14, the identical date set for Governor Ritchie to make a humdingin' speech over a nation-wide hook-up, announcing his own presidential candidacy.

It couldn't have been better timed if Frank Kent had done it with a stop-watch.

Frank and the governor are brother Marylanders and fellow townsmen, too.

Still, it may have been a mere accident that Frank chanced to write his Raskob "story" for the Baltimore Sun just when he did.

Pedestrian has a right to kick when two cars try to get him at the same time.

Britisher who says America has no poets never studied the names of our sleeping cars.

We don't believe that there is as much demand for an automobile that can be controlled by the human voice as there is for a horn that will respond to "Sh!"

Then there is the entirely too common type of U. S. Senator who is appointed to an important committee to fill a vacancy, and there still seems to be a vacancy.

Under television: "See here, Central, I keep asking you for Main Double-O-Seven-O and you keep giving me the wrong face."

All anyone can reasonably expect of a costly Oriental rug is that it looks as beautiful as a piece of linoleum in the ad.

In spite of an enormous increase in recent years in the number of closed-top cars, the derby hat is again at the height of fashion.

Today's One-Minute Sermon

Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.—Hebrews, ii, 17, 18.

OLD MAN MOUNTAIN:—On the summit of a mountain forming part of the Colin Range in Jasper National Park, rising abruptly from the lake, is a natural formation which gives the identical appearance of an upturned face. It is familiarly known as "Old Man Mountain", though in some books it is referred to as "Le Bon Homme" (Tht Good Man). According to a charming legend of the region, this is the old man who built the mountains, and having done so, lay down on top of them and went to sleep.

Murder At Bridge

by ANNE AUSTIN author of "THE BLACK PIGEON" "THE AVENGING PARROT" and "MURDER BACKSTAIRS"

©1930 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JUANITA SELIM is murdered at bridge; four days later DEXTER SPRAGUE is also murdered when he disappears mysteriously from a bridge party at the TRACEY MILES home. SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR DUNDEE, believing that Nita and Sprague, coming to Hamilton after Nita recognizes someone in a group picture, were partners in blackmail, has six suspects who could have killed both.

All six could have gotten the gun, and hidden it after Nita's murder on a secret shelf in the guests' closet. Nita's will and the fact that she had Sprague contrive a bell near her bed to summon LYDIA, her maid and heir, show she feared death. The police think that both were killed by a New York gunman. Their theory is that Nita and Sprague were partners in some racket in New York, that Nita came down first, under her married name and Sprague followed, bringing down the money, accounting for the $10,000 Nita banked, and that the were tracked by a gunman.

Dundee thinks the second murder was framed to look as though a New York gunman did it. POLLY BEALE and CLIVE HAMMOND, after being engaged a year, suddenly marry the morning after Sprague's death, and Dundee wonders if they are marrying because they fell safe from the threat of blackmail. A telegram is delivered to CAPTAIN STRAWN which apparently confirms his theory.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXXIX

The telegram which triumphant chief of the homicide squad passed to Dundee had been filed an hour before and was from the city editor of The New York Evening Press:

"WORKING ON YOUR THEORY OF NEW YORK GUNMAN RESPONSIBLE MURDERS OF JUANITA LEIGH SELIM AND DEXTER SPRAGUE THIS PAPER HAS DISCOVERED THAT SELIM WOMAN WAS SEEN AT NIGHT CLUBS SEVERAL TIMES DURING JANUARY FEBRUARY WITH QUOTE SWALLOW TAIL SAMMY UNIQUE UNDERWORLD NAME FOR SAM SAVELLI STOP SAVELLI TAKEN FOR A RIDE TUESDAY, APRIL TWENTY SECOND TWO DAYS AFTER SELIM WOMAN LEFT NEW YORK STOP POLICE HERE WORKING ON THEORY SAVELLI SLAIN BY OWN GANG AFTER THEY WERE TIPPED OFF SAVELLI WAS DOUBLE CROSSING THEM STOP IN EXCHANGE FOR THIS TIP CAN YOU GIVE US ANY SUPPRESSED INFORMATION IN YOUR POSSESSION STOP SAVELLI HAD BROTHER WHO IS KNOWN TO US TO HAVE PROMISED REVENGE SWALLOW TAIL SAMMYS MURDER STOP BE A SPORT CAPTAIN."

"Well, that puts the lid on it, don't it?" Strawn crowned. "I'll send Sergeant Turner to New York on the five o'clock train . . . Pretty decent of that city editor to wire me this tip, I'll say!"

"And are you going to reciprocate by wiring him about the $10,000 Nita banked here?" Dundee asked.

"Sure! Why not? There's no use that I can see to keep it back any longer, now that no one can have any excuse to think as you've been doing—that it was blackmail paid by a Hamiltonian."

"Then," Dundee began very slowly, "if you really think your case is solved, I'll make one suggestion: take charge of Lydia Carr and put her in a very safe place."

"Why?" Strawn looked puzzled.

"Because, when you publish the fact that Nita and Sprague got $10,000 for tipping off Savelli's gang that he was double-crossing them, and that Nita willed the money to Lydia, the avenger's next and last job would be to get Lydia, since his natural conclusion would be that Lydia had been in on the scheme from the beginning," Dundee explained.

"God, boy! You're right!" Strawn exclaimed, and his heavy old face was very pale as he reached for the telephone, and called the number of the Miles residence. "I'm going to put it up to her that it will be best for her to be locked up as a material witness, for her own protection."

Five minutes later Strawn restored the receiver to the hook with a bang. "Says she won't budge!" he explained unnecessarily. "Says she aint afraid and the Miles kids need her . . . Well, it's her own funeral! But I guess you are convinced at last?"

Dundee slowly shook his head. "Almost—but not quite, chief!"

"Lord, but you're stubborn! Here's a water-tight case—"

"A very pretty and a very satisfactory case, but not exactly water-tight," Dundee interrupted. "There's just one little thing—"

"What do you mean?" Strawn demanded irritably.

"Have you forgot the secret shelf behind the guest closet in the Selim house?" Dundee asked.

"I can afford to forget it since it hasn't got a thing to do with the case!" Strawn retorted angrily. "There's not a scrap of evidence—"

"Of course it does not fit into your theory," Dundee agreed, "for Swallow-tail Sammy's' avenging brother could not have known of its existence, but there is one thing about the secret shelf and its pivot door which I don't believe you can afford to forget, Captain!"

"Yeah?" Strawn snarled.

"Yeah! . . . I refer, of course, to the complete absence of finger-prints on the door and on the shelf itself! Carraway didn't even find Nita Selim's fingerprints. Since Nita would have had no earthly reason for carefully wiping off her finger-

Rain Blankets South Plains

Precipitation Here Guages .15 Of An Inch Tuesday; To Be Some Benefit, Says Don L. Jones

Precipitation here Tuesday to 5 p. m. gauged .15 of an inch at the state experiment station. A light rain which began shortly after midnight had produced .07 of an inch at 7 a. m. and an additional .08 of an inch fell thereafter.

After daybreak, the rainfall consisted principally of a fine drizzle, which continued through noon. Although light, the day's precipitation will be of some benefit, said Don L. Jones, superintendent of the experiment station.

"Usually the latter part of January and early February we lose a lot of the moisture in the ground but with that which we already have from late fall and early winter rains, and with the weather we are experiencing at this time, we will retain a big majority of that which has fallen," he commented.

Rejoice Over Shower
(By Staff Correspondent)

CROSBYTON, Jan. 27.— Residents of the East Plains today rejoiced over a good shower that began falling here about 4:30 o'clock this morning and continued until late in the afternoon.

Wheat farmers reported the moisture was needed in many instances to start growing wheat. While there is considerable subsoil moisture the wheat had not been growing much recently because of cold weather.

Roads were slick and motor traffic seriously delayed. The rain fell over the East Plains and Crosby county, extending west to the county line.

LAMESA, Jan. 27, (Special)—One inch of slow rain fell here in last twenty-four hours. The added moisture to the plowing season already had, makes crop prospects and early spring pastures bright, according to business and farming interests here.

DIES OF INJURIES

ODESSA, Jan. 27, (AP)—Miss Bessie Carl, 30, died here today from injuries she received when struck by an automobile while walking in the south part of town yesterday She never regained consciousness after the accident. A small nephew was injured.

WOULD FORBID PRACTICE

AUSTIN, Jan. 27, (AP)—The governor's office today received a letter from a pastor in an East Texas town who wanted a law passed by the legislature to forbid basketball practice or games on Sunday. He said such activities interfered with Sunday school.

TWENTY-EIGHT INJURED

MEDELLIN, Columbia, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Twenty-eight persons were injured last night in a riot between political factions campaigning for the congressional election next Sunday.

NEGRO EXECUTED

RAIFORD, Fla., Jan. 27. —(AP)—Clayton Bell, 26-year-old negro was executed in the electric chair, at state prison here today, for killing P. D. Edmunds, grounds superintendent at Stetson university, Deland. Before the current was applied, Bell confessed.

On one of the first railways in America, the Mohawk and Hudson, horsepower was used at night and steam in the day. It was not considered safe to use steam after dark.

Where Red Cross Is Aiding Drouth Victims

This map, reproduced from one prepared by the Red Cross, shows the extent of the "hunger belt" now resulting in rural communities from the drouth of last summer. Every dot on the map represents a Red Cross chapter that is giving food and similar relief in its territory, Arkansas and Kentucky being the principal sufferers. Such aid is now being given in 552 counties, with more being added daily. On January 1 relief was being extended by the Red Cross to 224,834 persons; before the new year was three weeks old, the number had jumped to 517,774, and is still rising. Already the number of persons being helped approaches the Mississippi flood figure of 600,000 and Red Cross officials say the peak is ahead.

LIMIT EXTENDED

Sign Owners Allowed Until Feb. 1 To Remove Them

Owners of signs on city property will be allowed until February 1 to remove the structures, it was announced Teusday at city hall. Extension of time for removal of signs so posted modified a previous order that the signs be moved immediately.

The announcement was made following an agreement between city officials and a number of property owners. Recently the city declared all signs on city property to be a violation of the encroachment ordinance and order was made for all owners of such obstructions to have them removed immediately.

City officials said Tuesday morning that utilities companies and others who have made breaks in alley paving are being urged to care for these at once. Nine such breaks have been reported to the city hall, all caused by the laying of gas lines, plumbing, etc.

Tenth Texas Open Golf Meet Starts Today At Santone

Shute Arrives In Defense Of Present Title

Big Bugs Of Golfdom Center Hopes On Texas Open; First Rounds Begin Today When Players Qualify

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 27.—Denny Shute, defending Texas open golf champion, rolled into San Antonio this afternoon to defend his title won last year in a brilliant 72-hole score of 277.

Two days of rain, while affecting practice rounds of the visiting golfers, brought predictions of a pleasant week-end for the championship. Golfers were arriving on all trains.

The first event of the tenth Texas open program is scheduled for Wednesday when the amateurs get under way over Willow Springs course in a qualifying tournament for places in the pro-amateur event Thursday. The pro-amateur best ball will be run off over Brackenridge, the Texas open layout.

Favored to win the amateur event is John Dawson of Chicago, who arrived with the gold army from the West Coast. John will meet plenty of opposition in such golfers as Jack Speer of San Antonio and Jack Dold of Houston along with 175 other amateurs.

Weather Holds Up Golf Tournaments At Country Club

Unfavorable weather conditions prevented a showing of interest in the proposed golf tournament at the country club so far as actual playing was concerned, but, as members of the tournament committee point out, the nice thing about this tournament is the fact there is no definite date for the playing. If bad weather prevents a trip over the course the player may wait for brighter atmosphere. There is a time limit, however. The first 18 holes of the proposed 72-hole ladder tournament should be played by February 1.

The ladder tournament, which goes on indefinitely and which is for the purpose of determining the status of each player at any time as well as to give high score a chance to usurp the rung above them, has a time limit on the 72 holes as February 22, at which time a driving contest will be staged as the first of the early spring tournaments.

Five other tournaments will follow this spring and summer, including a business men's tournament, "chicken dinner" tournament, a club championship play, city open, and "Roman Holiday" on July 4.

Lions Club To Be Host Here

Members Of Other Of Lubbock Service Clubs To Be Guests At Luncheon February 10; G. S. Rogers To Speak

Members of other Lubbock service clubs will be guests of the Lions club at luncheon at the Hilton hotel, February 10, when Gardner S. Rogers, city plan expert of the United States chamber of commerce, will address the clubmen.

The joint-meeting was announced Tuesday following the noon luncheon meeting of the Lions club at the Hilton. Dr. S. S. McKay, president, presided at the meeting.

To Enter League

Lions voted to enter the proposed city volleyball league and elected Doctor McKay, a former volleyball coach, as chairman of a committee which will arrange for participation of the Lions sextet in the league.

Paul Sherrod, who was a guest at the meeting of the Dallas Lions club last week, reported activities of the the Dallas club. Major activity of that club is work in behalf of underprivileged children, Mr. Sherrod said.

Lubbock sanitarium and West Texas hospital have agreed to cooperate with the Lubbock Lions club in giving free medical and surgical attention to underprivileged children, it was announced Tuesday night by Arthur L. Brown, chairman of the Lions committee on underprivileged children. A minimum fee will be charged the club only when a hospital stay of considerable length is necessary, according to agreement of the two hospitals with the club, Mr. Brown indicated.

Free examination of eyes of underprivileged children and fitting of them with glasses has been furnished through the Lions club the last several months.

Matadors Prepare For ACC Contests Thursday, Friday

Coach Crip Golightly is whipping his Matadors back into playing condition, physically and mentally, after a loss to the Simmons University Cowboys and reports that by Thursday night when the Crimsons sally forth onto the Tech floor to meet the Abilene Christian College Wildcats that they will be in mood for victory.

It is the general belief out Tech way that the hardest games of the season have been played with the passing of the Simmons and Canyon teams. The Matadors have to meet the Buffaloes again, this time at Canyon, but dope points to Matador victories in the remainder of home games.

The Bullfighters slapped over the Abilene Christians last week in Abilene and they are due to repeat that performance on their own court. Pippen, Wildcat forward, is one of the leading scorers in the T. I. A. A., and his running mate is another high rater on the scoring calendar. The Abilene horde will not be easy victims, but in a pair of tough battles the Tech collegiates are due to win.

Simmons Cowboys Defeat Austin College, 37-21

SHERMAN, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The Simmons University cagers from Abilene continued their victorious Texas Conference basketball march here tonight by defeating the Austin College Kangaroos 37-21. The Hoppers threw a scare into the Cowboys, trailing by only five points, until two minutes before the final whistle.

Neeley, Cowboy forward, was high scorer with 15 points, being closely followed by Connelly, Austin center with 12.

Howard Payne Wins Over Trinity In Extra Period

WAXAHACHIE, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Scoring three points in an overtime period, the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets defeated the Trinity University Tigers, 31-30, here tonight.

Worley and Gibbs accounted for the Jackets points in the extra period, while Grand scored a field goal for Trinity. The score was 28 all at the end of the regular scheduled game.

Wright's Men Show Improvement In Spanking Lubbock High; Westerners Off Form Though Slaton Earns Victory

Slaton High school's Tigers showed a further reason why they are worthy of being in Class A rating last night when Paul Wright's smooth team took the lead in the first quarter and held it throughout by a comfortable margin to paddle the Lubbock Westerners, 27 to 15 on the Tech floor.

The Westerners were off form but the Tigers came to Lubbock to win. They fully earned the victory in a fast battle but the uncanny eye of Henry Johnson, the fine floor and defensive work of Demp Canon and the quick forming offense of the whole team proved too much for Keeling's inexperienced charges.

It was the second invasion of Lubbock by the Tigers. Two weeks ago they were humbled in the last minute of a thrilling game when three personal fouls were called on them, all of which were converted into scores by Lubbock. At that time the Tigers had been at work only about two weeks and were playing their second game of the season. Last night they showed a vast improvement. They rarely bungled a play, and they fought like the jungle beasts their name signifies.

Lubbock Weak On Scoring

The Westerners had plenty of chances to score but their eyes were dimmed. Captain Knight, tossing his long shots as usual, failed to score a single field goal. He turned a pair of fouls into counters and played a fair defensive game. Gene Brown, perhaps the best player on the team, led his team in scoring with three field goals and a free one. Little Quinlan sank a pair from scrimmage—one that was from mid-court and never touched the iron. The other was a crip but played fast and under fire.

Johnson, Number 1 man for Slaton, hogged all scoring honors when he shot seven from the floor and a single from the foul line. His scoring equalled the total of Lubbock's. Slaton had developed a play that worked nearly every time. Johnson would be at the same spot on the same side of the court and would receive a short pass from Canon who was faking at the other side. The Westerners never caught on and Johnson tossed at the basket twice as many times as he made them count.

Even an uninterested spectator would have marveled at the classy work of Canon. Short, but built like a gladiator, the all-district Class B quarterback that led the Tigers to district and bi-district honors last fall on the gridiron, Canon figured in nearly every toss of the ball. He covered the floor like a roof and passed the ball with bullet-like speed.

Poutz, a new-comer, made a good beginning when he scored three field and three free goals, taking second scoring honors of the evening. Two of his shots were long and hazardous but they found the loop.

The box score:

Commerce Players Defeat S. F. Austin

COMMERCE, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The East Texas Teachers college basketeers tonight drubbed Stephen F. Austin college cagers from Nacogdoches 42-27, in the first Texas intercollegiate Athletic Association game of the season in which the East Texas Teachers have participated. The Teachers led throughout, never being in danger, and at the half the score stood 19-16 in their favor. O. Stringer of Commerce and Donnell of Nacogdoches tied for high scoring honors with 15 points each.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh National League baseball club management has purchased Catcher Edward Phillips from the Philadelphia Americans, it was made known today.

Daniel Baker Victorious Over Plowboys, 32 to 30

STEPHENVILLE, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The John Tarleton College Plowboy cagers were nosed out 32-30 here tonight by the Daniel Baker college Hill Billies, from Brownwood. The game was the first deefat of the Plowboys this season in seven starts. The Plowboys led 18-16 at the half and continued in the lead until the last few moments of play.

Detroit Tigers To Be In Race This Season-Harris

BY MERLE OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer.

DETROIT, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Manager Stanley Harris believes the Detroit American League baseball team "will be hard to beat" this year with a supply of young outfielders to choose from and a pitching staff probably better than last season when the Tigers finished in fifth place.

The outstanding weakness of the 1930 team was the hitting of the outfield which turned in an average of about .285. To remedy this, four good prospects were purchased — Walker brothers, Gerald and Harvey, from the Evansville club of the Three Eye League, and Eckhardt and Shiver, from the Beaumont, Texas, club.

Johnson, Funk, Stone and Doljack remain from last year's outfield. Stone batted .310 and Doljack joined the club in September after hitting .391 at Wheeling, W. Va., Johnson batted .273 and Funk .276.

Discussing the four recruit outfielders, Harris said "judging from their records last year, I feel confident they will improve out outfield. "The four had an aggregate batting average of .354.

Whitlow Wyatt, fast ball pitcher who joined the Tigers last spring, showed plenty of stuff until his arm failed him. "I only recently received a letter from Wyatt," Harris said. "He stated his arm felt fine. I honestly think he will be a real good pitcher."

STANLEY HARRIS

Earl Whitehill, southpaw who finished with 17 victories and 13 defeats after losing his first nine starts, is expected to have the best year of his career. Whitehill is said to have conquered a handicap of temperament which made him blow up easily.

Class B Teams In Tournament HereTomorrow

Six Schools Send Ten Teams To Lubbock For County Meet In Tech Gym Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Ten South Plains basketball teams will play 20 games in Lubbock this week when the second division of Class B schools of Lubbock County holds its annual county basketball tournament at the Texas Tech gymnasium.

Six schools will be represented, four of them sending both boys' and girl's team while one school sends only a boys' team and another a girls' aggregation.

The tournament starts tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock, with the Hardy and New Hope schools opening the calendar with a boys game on the local college floor. The games will be played tomorrow. At 6 o'clock the Grovesville and Foster boys will play.

G. G. McWhorter, county athletic director, announces that teams appearing as much as fifteen minutes late for scheduled games will lose by forfeiture.

A similiar tournament for schools in the first division of Class B will be held here next week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. All games will be played during the day time and will not conflict with high school and college schedules of Lubbock. The winner of the division playing here this week will play next week's winner for the county Class B championship.

Schools taking part in the meet this week are Hardy, New Hope, Grovesville, Foster, Union and Posey. Union is represented only by a girls' team and Grovesville by a boys' team. The others bring both sexes for the play. The championship of the division will be decided on a percentage basis.

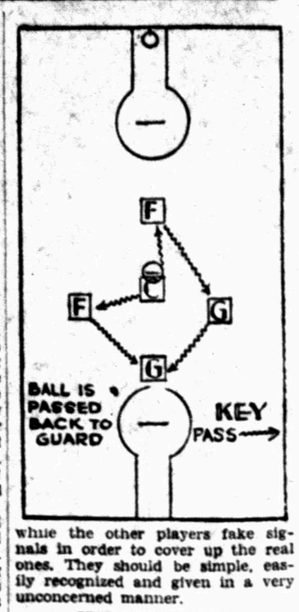

BASKETBALL PLAYS and PLAYERS

If the proposed rule change of abolishing the center jump should be passed there would be no need for center plays. At present, however, center plays have a two-fold use.

Some teams play for possession of the ball at center jump while others sure of the jump use a set of fast breaking plays from center ring. Play for possession at center jump is most commonly used now. After getting the ball it is passed or batted back to the guards where they put it in play by slowly advancing the ball up to the set defense. The diagram shows a good formation for possession.

If a team has a very tall center, it should have some established center plays. Baskets scored from center jump are very demoralizing to the opponents because it is done so easily. Center plays should be simple and few in number. They should be of the same type as other offensive plays and should be well balanced as to offense and defense.

The more plays the more signals! One player gives the real signal while the other players fake signals in order to cover up the real ones. They should be simple, easily recognized and given in a very unconcerned manner.

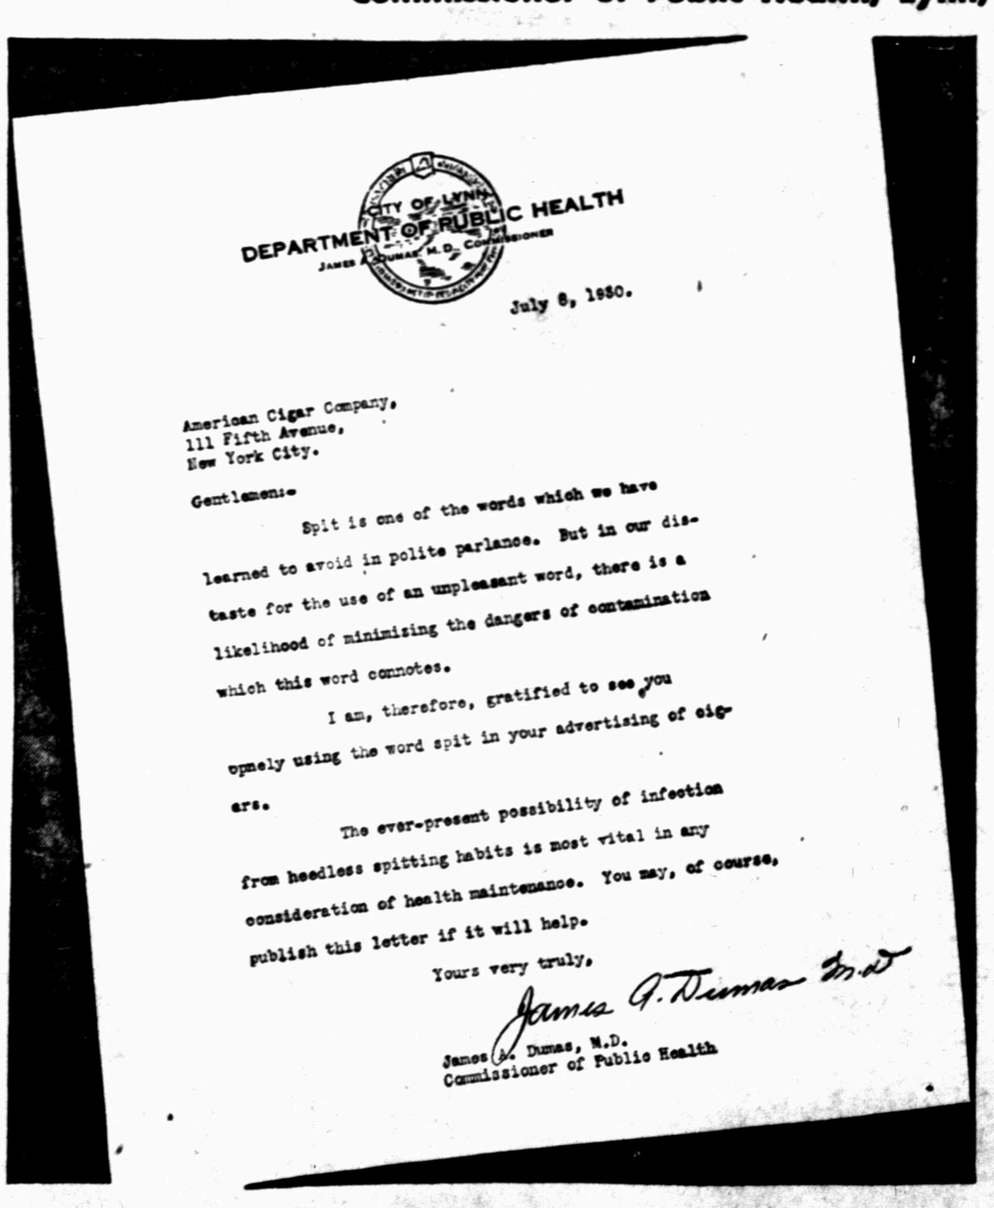

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Mrs. Helen Reed, 72, charging her husband, Edward George Reed, also 72, punched her in the face, loosened several teeth and split her upper lip, obtained a divorce here yesterday. She was ordered to pay Reed $500 for a quitk claim to her property.

"I Am Gratified to See You Openly Using the Word 'Spit'"

CITY OF LYNN
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH
JAMES A. DUMAS, M.D., COMMISSIONER

July 8, 1930.

American Cigar Company,

New York City.

Gentlemen:

Spit is one of the words which we have learned to avoid in polite parlance. But in our distaste for the use of an unpleasant word, there is a likelihood of minimizing the dangers of contamination which this word connotes.

I am, therefore, gratified to see you openly using the word spit in your advertising of cigars.

The ever-present possibility of infection from heedless spitting habits is most vital in any consideration of health maintenance. You may, of course, publish this letter if it will help.

Yours very truly,

James A. Dumas M.D.

Every smoker, every wife whose husband smokes cigars, should read Dr. Dumas' letter.

"Who are the friends of 'Spit'?"

YOU MAY WELL ASK THIS QUESTION WHEN 56 IMPORTANT HEALTH OFFICIALS HAVE WRITTEN SO STRONGLY AGAINST THE EVILS OF SPIT OR SPIT-TIPPING.

Dr. Dumas writes: "The ever-present possibility of infection from heedless spitting habits is most vital in any consideration of health maintenance."

The war against spit is a crusade of decency. Join it...Smoke Certified Cremo—a really wonderful smoke—mild—mellow—nut-sweet! Every leaf entering the clean, sunny Cremo factories is scientifically treated by methods recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Legislative Acts Designed To Improve Position Of The Farmer Suggested At Meet Of Texas Cotton Committee

HOUSTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Legislative acts designed to improve the position of the cotton farmer were suggested today in a meeting of the Texas cotton committee here.

Dr. A. B. Cox of the University of Texas at Austin, chairman, was empowered to apopint a committee of five or seven to ask the legislature for action agreed upon.

Law Suggested

One resolution suggested a law enabling Texas to "cooperate with the federal government to have all cotton classes by districts wanting same, by a federally licensed classer at the time it is sold by the grower, and a grade and staple report made each day on the receipts."

Another suggested a law to set up "one variety cotton communities to be protected in growing and ginning of the variety agreed upon by the community or district."

A third suggested establishment of a conservation commisison "to function similarly to commissions new existing, which supervise the activities of the railroads, insurance companies and banks, which have, after several years of operation, demonstrated their merits and which have endured to the general welfare of Texas citizenship."

More Uses Sought

A fourth recommended that the legislative committee "encourage the program of more uses of cotton in every way, and that they give serious consideration to the practicability of using cotton for the wrapping of our bales."

The committee also went on record as again endorsing state certified cotton seed "as produced under the complete supervision and control of the state seed and plant board," urged the planting of one variety of cotton in each gin community and recommended that "where such community cooperation is not effected each farmer be urged to plant at least ten per cent of the 1931 cotton crop with state certified seed, to the end that sufficient seed may thus be produced in 1931 to plant such farmers entire cotton acreage in 1932."

CITY LIGHTENS DEBT

Indebtedness of the city of Lubbock was lightened to a marked extent Monday when there passed across a desk at city hall vouchers totalling $37,726.67. The amount represented principal of $29,000 and interest of $8,726.67.

HURT TO STAND, WEAK, NERVOUS

"Cardui Seemed to Build Me Up and I Was Rid of Pain," Says Virginia Lady.

Roanoke, Va.—"Some years ago, I was in a very run-down condition," writes Mrs. T. B. Akers, of 533 Nelson Street, S.E., this city. "I suffered a great deal with pains in my sides and back. Standing on my feet hurt me so much, that I would get very weak and nervous.

"I knew that if I didn't get something to help me, I would have to go to bed and stay there, which is hard to do for a woman who has small children. So I kept dragging about, until one day, when feeling unusually bad and discouraged, I happened to pick up a little book with a Cardui advertisement. I decided I would try it.

"Cardui seemed to build me up at once, as I was able to do my work with ease, and was rid of the pain by the time I had taken six bottles.

"I have taken Cardui since then, whenever I felt that I needed a tonic, and it always helped me. I recommend it to my friends." Get a bottle today. s-28

CONVOCATION PLANS MADE

The complete program for the all-women's convocation today at 11 o'clock in the gym has been arranged, and practically every woman in the college is expected to attend. Stunts, songs, speeches and other forms of entertainment are on the bill and the Tech Women's band will furnish the music.

Classes which come at 11 o'clock will continue, but all Tech women will be excused to attend the gathering. Flora Goforth, Lubock, is in charge of the program.

VOTING CONTINUES

Today is the last day for members of the junior class to vote for their queen and as students strilled through the halls yesterday they were asked whether or not they were a junior every time they turned around. Groups gathered in the halls and in the rotunda discussing the campaign which is somewhat like a political race.

Candidates are Mary Lois Gamel, Catherine JaJmison and Virginia Murray, all of Lubbock, and Kathleen Harmon, Lampassas. No announcement will be made of the winner until the junior class meeting next Tuesday night, according to Bill Collins, president of the class. The one selected will be crowned at the annual Junior prom which will be held next term.

Members of the 1931 senior class will be guests of the juniors at the ball.

IS TECH PROSPECT

Among the recent visitors on the Tech campus was young Jack Griggs Sams, two-year-old son of Ted Sams, 1928 graduate of the Tech mechanical engineering department. Jack Griggs was the first child born to a graduate of Texas Tech. The elder Sams is now working at Chattanooga, Tenn., and expects his son to be a member of the 1949 class at Tech.

AGGIES TO ENTERTAIN

Faculty members of the Tech school of agricultural will be entertained Saturday night by students in the agriculture schol. The affair, which starts at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, will be held in the stock pavilion, southwest of the administration building.

The main feature of the program will be the faculty impersonation which is being arranged by Colonel Sparkman. Hal Yoder has been namer fight propoter and is arranging several bouts for the night. Jim Williams will be master of music.

WORK IN SAN ANTONIO

Thomas Taylor, graduate of Texas Technological college last spring, is working in San Antonio, according to word received here this week.

WORK ON CONSTITUTION

Whether Texas Tech needs a new constitution for the student body will be determined by a committee composed of Jack Durham, Floyd Wooldridge, W. B. Holden and Bill Collins who recently were apopinted by the president of the student council to make a study of the matter. Constitutions from other colleges and universities will be considered by the committee and a report be made within a short time.

The present one was adopted in 1929 and those who have made a study of it state it is incomplete and indefinite in several places.

Some consideration of student government also is being taken up by the student council. The council is composed of a president, vice-president and secretary selected by student body, and of the president of each class, and a class representative from each of the four schools. Wayne Castleberry, Eastland is president; James Dallas, Brownfield, is vice-president, and Lizzie Belle Clements, Lubbock, is secretary.

RELATION CLUB MEETS

Meeting of the International Relations club is scheduled at 11 o'clock this morning in room 312 of the administration building.

The club membership is made up of students studying government and other social sciences is discussing the policy of free trade among nations, in the meetings this term.

Alvis Ellis, Anton, is president of the organization.

CONSIDER GIRL'S RIFLE CLUB

If enough girls in Tech are interested, Captain H. E. Killin, head of the Tech military science department, will organize a co-ed rifle club, which will hold practice regularly. The class would meet once each week for practice in basement of the administration building. No credit will be given for the course, but ammunition and rifles will be furnished.

CALL PRE-LAW MEET

Officials of the Tech Pre-law club are calling a special meeting tonight in room 217 of the administration building. The meeting will be the first regular one since the Christmas holidays and much business is to be brought up, officals report.

It is probable that a few more cases are on the docket for mock trials. Last fall the club tried one of its members for embezzlement of $3.51. He was found guilty, but attorney for the defense entered a plea of insanity.

Orders from Russia have boosted iron and steel production in Czechoslovakia to greater heights than last year.

Sued By Women

Colonel B. R. Pierson, above former western plainsman and associate of Buffalo Bill, has been sued for $75,000 by Vera Redpath and Katherine Miller, both of Chicago, who charge him with breach of promise. Colonel Pierson's attorney says counsel for the women "admits both are married."

O'Donnell Chest Group Is Formed

O'DONNELL, Jan. 27 (Special.)—An O'Donnell Community Chest association was formed at a meeting of the chamber of commerce called Tuesday by M. J. Whitsett, president. Object of the Chest is to provide means to care for persons temporarily in need.

The meeting was held in the First National bank. C. H. Doak founder of O'Donnell and leading citizen, acted as chairman, and M. B. Hood acted as secretary. The meeting was attended by practically every business man in the town.

The Community Chest was the plan finally decided upon. Mr. Doak was elected president of the association; J. L. Shoemaker, jr., cashier of the First National bank, was elected secretary and treasurer, and Rev. W. O. Farr, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, chairman of the soliciting committee. Mr. Shoemaker, B. L. Davis and B. J. Boyd compose the disbursing committee.

To Probe Cases.

Funds were raised by popular subscription, with the mutual agreement that calls for help be referred to the above-named committee. Such applications will be investigated and passed upon by the committee, and any aid will be supplied in the form of an order for supplies to be presented to a local store, which will then present a bill to the treasurer for payment.

Plans were also formulated to assist in securing for the farmers in this territory all possible state aid for the coming year.

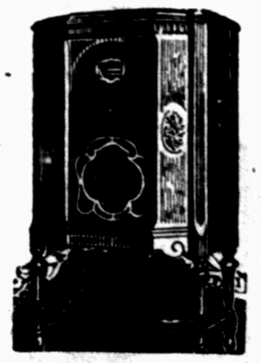

TRIAL DELAYED

MIDLAND, Jan. 27. (AP)—Inability to collect all the witnesses said to number 30, today delayed the examining trial of Buck Jones charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting Sunday of Weldon L. Russell, Abilene business man. District Attorney W. R. Smith said a hearing scheduled in the afternoon would be postponed indefinitely.

KEEP THAT YOUTHFUL FRESHNESS ... that radiant smile

In this advertisement is the expert opinion of thousands of dentists as to the best type of dentifrice to protect your teeth

A WOMAN is as young as she feels? She is also as young as her smile. And how greatly that depends upon teeth and gums!

But what is the best way to care for them? You read so many conflicting theories. There are dozens of different dentifrices. Which is right?

That the question might be answered by the highest authorities, E. R. Squibb & Sons asked a world-famous research institution to make an investigation among 50,000 American dentists. Here is the summary of the replies received:

95% of the answers stated that germ acids most frequently cause tooth decay and gum irritation;

95% of the answers agreed that the most serious trouble occurs at the place where teeth and gums meet;

85% stated that the best product to prevent these acids from causing decay and irritating the gums is Milk of Magnesia.

Surely this is overwhelming evidence that Squibb Dental Cream will protect your teeth and gums. For Squibb's is made with more than 50% Squibb Milk of Magnesia.

Squibb Dental Cream cleans beautifully—and without grit or astringent or anything which might injure. Begin using it morning and night and notice how soon your teeth sparkle . . . how healthy and refreshed your mouth feels . . . how much freer from even tiny troubles your teeth and gums keep.

Lubbock Group Returns Home

Delegation Back After Successful Meeting Of Carlsbad Caverns Road Association At Altus, Okla.

Home from one of the most successful road meetings held in recent years, the Lubbock delegation to the Carlsbad Caverns U. S. 62 Highway association returned Tuesday from Altus, Okla.

The meeting, attended by 248 registered delegates from towns beside Altus, was the scene of the starting of what is said to be the first international highway connecting more than two nations.

To Extend Route

Before the next annual convention scheduled for Quanah, in January, 1932, the highway will extend from Montreal, Que., to Chihuahua, Mexico, R. A. Singletary, Oklahoma City, told the delegates Monday afternoon.

M. C. Mireles, personal representative of Governor Andres Ortes of the state of Chihuahua, announced after the close of the meeting that "work will begin on our highway between Juarez and Chihuahua." The program has the personal endorsement of Governor Ortes, who is a noted engineer in Mexico and who has given considerable of his time as well as money appropriated by the government for the work.

Actual registration for the meet showed 156 delegates from 14 towns in Oklahoma besides the host city, which had 50, making a total of 206; 58 delegates from 10 Texas towns; 28 from Three New Mexico towns and one from Old Mexico.

Bitter Fight Staged

Adoption of the constitution drafted by a committee headed by P. B. Ralls of Ralls as chairman, was the bitter fight of the convention. The second paragraph of the constitution, which was designed to give to Quanah, the "daddy" of the association, recognition on the official route, was the center of a determined attack by a number of Oklahoma towns. Final vote on the adoption of the section was 125 for and 97 against, but Altus, chief proponent of a substitute, moved to make the action unanimous. This action was received with applause.

Resolutions thanking the officers of the pate year, the government of the state of Chihuahua, Texas newspapers as well as newspapers from other states and the host city, were adopted unanimously.

Hankins Re-Elected

Officers named were: J. H. Hankins, Lubbock, reelected president; C. W. Snyder of Altus, vice president for Oklahoma; Luke Roberts of Lovington, vice president for New Mexico and Governor Ortes of Chihuahua, vice president; J. J. Kirkpatrick, Oklahoma City, treasurer.

Directors and officers later will select the secretary. A. B. Davis of Lubbock has held the office the past year.

New officers were called on for a few short remarks. Mr. Mireles, on behalf of his chief executive, read letters appointing him and Captain E. H. Simmons of El Paso as delegates from the state of Chihuahua. After the letters had been translated by Captain Simmons, Mr. Mireles expressed his personal appreciation of the courtesies extended him as well as the honors for Governor Ortes.

Committees Named

Four committees were announced by President Hankins at the morning session. Those, on which Lubbock and South Plains men held important places, were: organization to write the constitution, P. B. Ralls, chairman; M. C. Mireles, of Chihuahua; C. E. Hunt of Lubbock, for Texas; Luke Roberts of Lovington for New Mexico and C. W. Snyder, Altus, for Oklahoma; route extensions R. A. Singletary, Oklahoma City, chairman; M. C. Mireles, Mexico; E. H. Simmons, Texas; Victor Minter, Carlsbad, N. M., for New Mexico, W. G. Jones, Westville, for Oklahoma; Resolutions, Eugene V. Smith, chairman; M. C. Mireles, Mexico; C. L. Glenn, Matador, for Texas; F. L. Deaman, Carlsbad, for New Mexico and J. M. Walker, Oklahoma; nominations, L. Carl Giles Oklahoma City chairman; M. C. Mireles Mexico; E. H. Simmons, Texas; W. M. Snyder of Lovington for New Mexico and Watt Long for Oklahoma.

Luncheon was served at noon in the New Orient hotel convention headquarters.

Frank Rush, Cartersville, Okla., owner of Cartersville park, a resort two miles off the highway and Victor Minton of Carlsbard, spoke. Both men lauded their respective resorts and pledged support of the new association program.

To Ask Markers

Texas, it was pointed out, was the only state on U. S. highway 62 not showing markers for the road. It was decided to urge the state highway commission to order marking.

R. A. Singletary of Oklahoma City, made an extended report of his work in securing federal designation for the highway from Maysville, Ky., to El Paso. Through an error on the part of a clerk in the federal highway board, the designation was made last May to Lubbock, with a conditional designation to Carlsbad instead of to El Paso he explained. The conditions included completion of the road paving program and this has been done.

Women Outnumber Men On Honor Roll For Fall Term At Texas Tech College

Women outnumbered men on the fall term honor roll at Texas Technological college, although men at the school constitute a marked majority, offical records show.

The honor roll of the college showed 165 women and 126 men included and a percentage of 57 to 43. Estimates place 19 per cent of the women in Tech on the honor roll and only 9 per cent of the men. Eleven of the women on the roll were married.

The roll, which is issued at the college following term examinations, contains the names of students making at least a B average. Seven students made all A's while an A average was made by many others. Two of those making all A's were taking six or more subjects.

According to college officials, no particular reason can be assigned for the better average of women unless it is the fact that men sign up for more difficult courses. No women are enrolled in the Tech engineering school which is usually admitted to be the hardest school of the college. Approximately 500 men are registered in this division.

No women are enrolled in the Tech school of agriculture, according to records.

CHINESE ARRESTED

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 27. —(AP)— Dispatches from Tampico to the newspaper El Universal today said a Chinese named Jose Wong was arrested there with a quantity of counterfeit United States bills of small denomination. The arrest followed an investigation of the recent appearance in Tampico of counterfeit American money.

"Better times are coming," says Sir Arthur Dorman, eighty-two-year-old head of the firm that built the Sydney Harbor Bridge, in Australia, the newest engineering wonder of the world.

before she steps out.....

We hesitate to relate such intimate details of Alice's private life. But Alice has such a radiant personality—such a vivid complexion — such a happy self-assurance!

Now, don't bother reading any further if you are looking for a new and mysterious formula for self-beautification. The truth is, Alice doesn't use anything more than soap, hot water and a bath towel! BUT—she knows how and when to use them — always, before stepping out, she takes time for a dip in the tub.

It's a great mistake to assume that frequent bathing is a lot of applesauce. Even the dullest skin glows when fresh-coursing blood is stirred into activity; when pores are thoroughly cleansed; when left over powders and creams are entirely removed.

Does lack of a convenient hot water supply hamper frequent bathing in your home? If so, by all means do what Alice's parents have done—install a thrifty Self-Action Gas Water Heater and have enough for all your needs—for a few pennies per day per person.

Call us for further information.

"We Certainly Must Give Due Credit to The General Electric Refrigerator"

—Says Miss Nancy Earle

"Because fresh, crisp salads, perfectly pure and sanitary foods, are a safeguard to the health and an aid to beauty."

So while attending Miss Earle's lectures in Lubbock this week, come in and let us explain the many features of the General Electric Refrigerator that make it the foremost electric refrigerator on the market today.

For a few cents a day the General Electric Refrigerator will add immensely to the attractiveness of your table. What woman does not wish to receive the praise of her husband upon the appetizing quality of the food he eats. So take this opportunity to let us explain about this helpful aid to a finer home.

Murder At Bridge

by ANNE AUSTIN author of "THE BLACK PIGEON," "THE AVENGING DAGGER" and "MURDER BACKSTAIRS"

(NEA SERVICE)

rints after she removed the papers he burned on Friday night, it's a ead sure fact that someone else ho had no legitimate business to o so, touched that pivoting panel nd shelf, and carefully removed all races that he had done so! . . . . nd"—he continued grimly—"until find out who that someone as, I, for one, won't consider the ase solved!"

Fifteen minutes later Dundee as sitting at Penny Crain's desk n her office of the district attor-ey's suite, replacing the receiver pon the telephone hook, after hav-g put in a call for Sanderson, who as still in Chicago keeping vigil the bedside of his mother.

"Did you find out anything new hen you questioned the crowd this orning?" Penny asked. "Besides e fact that Polly and Clive got arried this morning, I mean . . . wasn't surprised when I read out the wedding in the extra. It's ctly like Polly to make up her ind suddenly, after putting Clive f for a year—"

"So it was Polly who held back," ndee said to himself. Aloud: "No didn't learn much new, Penny. re a most excellent and accur-e reporter . . . But there were ne or two things that came out. or instance, I got Drake to admit o me, in private, that Nita did ive him an explanation as to here she got the $10,000.

"Yes?" Penny prompted eagerly.

"Drake says," Dundee answered rly, "that Nita told him " was back alimony' which she had suc-eeded in collecting from her form-r husband. Unfortunately, she did ot say who or where the mysteri-us husband is."

"Poof!" scored Penny. "Don't you ee? She just said that to satisfy ohnny's curosity. After all, it was he most plausible explanation of ow a grass-widow got hold of a ot of money."

"So plausible that Mr. Drake may have thought of it himself." Dun-dee reflected silently. Aloud, he con-inued his report to the girl who had been of so much help to him: "Among the other minor things hat came out this morning, and which the papers did not report, was the fact that Janet Raymond tried to commit suicide by drinking shoe polish. Fortunately her father discovered what she had done al-most as soon as she had swallowed the stuff, and made her take ipecac and then sent for the doctor."

"Oh, poor Janet!" Penny groaned. She must have been terribly in love with Dexter Sprague, though what she saw in him—"

Dundee made no comment, but ontinued with his information: another minor development was hat Tracey Miles admitted he and lora had quarreled over Sprague after all of you left, and that Flora took two sleeping tablets to make sure of a night's rest."

"She's been awfully unstrung ever since Nita's murder," Penny efended her friend. "She told us all Monday night at Peter's that the doctor had prescribed sleeping edicine. . . . Now, you look here, onnie Dundee!" she cried out harply, answering an enigmatic mile on the detective's face, "if ou think Flora Miles killed Nita elm and Dexter Sprague, because he was in love with Dexter and uspected he was Nita's lover be-ause of that silly note—"

"Whoa, Penny!" Dundee checked er. "I'm not thinking exactly that. But I've just remembered some-hing that had seemed of no im-portance to me before."

"And what's that, Mr. Smart leck?" Penny demanded furiously.

"Before I answer that question, will you let me do a little theoriz-ng?" Dundee suggested gently. "Let us suppose that Flora Miles was not in love with Sprague, but that she was being blackmailed by Nita for some scandal Nita had heard gossiped about at the Forsyte School. . . . No, wait! . . . . Let us suppose further that Nita recog-nized Flora's picture in the group Lois Dunlap showed her, as a por-trait of the girl whose story she had heard; that she was able, some-how, to secure incriminating evi-dence of some sort—letters, let us say, Nita tells Sprague about it, and Sprague advises her to black-mail Flora, who, Lois has told Nita, is very rich. So Nita comes to Ham-ilton and bleeds Flora of $10,000. Not satisfied, Nita makes another demand, the money to be paid to her the day of the brodge lunch-eon—"

"Silly! Penny scoffed furiously. "The only evidence you have against poor Flora is that she stole the note Dexter had written to Nita!"

"That's the crux of the matter, Penny darling!" Dundee assured her, in a maddeningly soothing voice, at which Penny clenched her hands in impotent rage. "Flora, having Nita receive a letter written on her husband's business station-ery, jumps to the conclusion that Nita has carried out her threat to tell Tracey, or that Nita has at least given Tracey a hint of the contents of the messenger note is, let us say, a con-firmation of an appointment sug-gested by Nita. . . . Very well! Flora goes to Nita's bedroom at the first opportunity, knowing that Nita will not be there to make-up for the latter's arrival. Let's suppose Flora has brought the gun and silencer with her, intending to frighten Nita, rather than kill her. But having had proof, as she believes, that Nita means business, Flora waits in the closet until Nita comes in and sits down at her dressing table, then steps out and shoots her. Then she unfolds step by step, until her foot catches in the slack cord of the bridge lamp, causing the very thing or bump' which Flora her-self describes later, for fear some-one else had heard it.

Her first concern, of course, is to hide the gun and silencer. She remembers Judge Marshall's tale of the secret shelf in the guest closet, and not only hides the gun there, but seeks in vain for the in-criminating evidence Nita had against her. But she also remem-bers the note she believes Tracey has written to Nita, and which, if found after Nita's death, may give her away. So she goes to the closet in Nita's bedroom, finds the note, and faints with horror at her per-haps needless crime when she real-izes that the note had been written by Sprague, and not Tracey. Of course she is too ill and panic-stricken to leave the closet until the murder is discovered—"

"But you think she was not too panic-stricken to have the presence of mind to retrieve the gun and silencer and walk out with them, under the very eyes of the police," Penny scoffed.

"Yes, I think she was!" Dundee amazed her by admitting. "And that is where my sudden recollec-tion of something I had considered unimportant comes in! Let us sup-pose that Flora, half suspected by Tracey, confesses to him in their car as they are going to the Coun-try Club for their long-delayed din-ner, as were the rest of you. Tracey, loyal to her, decides to help her. He tells her to suggest, at dinner, that Lydia come to them as nurse, so that he can go back to the house and get the gun and silencer from the guest closet hiding place, if an opportunity presents itself—as it did, since I left Tracey Miles alone in the hall while I went into Nita's bedroom to talk with Lydia before I permitted her to go with Tracey."

"You're crazy!" Penny told him fiercely, when he had finished. "I suppose you are going to ask me to believe that Tracey was a big enough fool to leave the gun and silencer when Flora could get hold of it and kill Sprague last night."

"Why not let us suppose that Tracey himself killed Sprague to protect his wife, not only from scandal, but from a charge of mur-der?" Dundee countered. "Tell me honestly: do you think Tracey Miles loves Flora enough to do that for her?"

Suddenly, inexplicably, Penny be-gan to laugh—not hysterically, but with genuine mirth.

AssertsLifetime IllnessRelieved Thru Argotane

Mrs. Robert Allert, of Galves-ton, Texas, Expresses Her Appreciation Of Wonderful Remedy

A remarkable account of a life-long illness relieved through the use of Argotane was given a representa-tive of the Argotane company re-cently by Mrs. Robert Allert, of 905 Twentieth Street, Galveton, Texas.

"I have always suffered from stomach disorders," asserted Mrs. Allert, "and this trouble made my life perfectly miserable. I was of-flicted with dizzy spells and bilious-ness. My liver was torpid, which made me feel sluggish, tired and worn out all the time. I suffered greatly from sick headaches that would sometimes last for hours, and, on the whole, my condition seemed more than I could bear.

"Naturally, I was always on the lookout for some medicine or treat-ment that would bring me some re-lief from my suffering, and so it was that I heard of Argotane and came to begin the treatment. In spite of the fact that it was very highly recommended, I never dream-ed that it would do what it has done for me.

"I am no longer troubled with those terrible bilious spells, and my sick headaches are things of the past, for they have disappeared entirely. My liver has become active again, and I get around now feeling much better in every way. I am once more able to enjoy life.

"I have tried lots of preparations, but never have I found one that has given me the relief that Argo-tane has. I am too glad to endorse this wonderful medicine, so that other folks suffering as I did may use it and get the same relief that I obtained."

Genuine Argotane may be gought in Lubbock at the Bowen drug store.

Lubbock Citizens Will Attend Sale

Several Lubbock residents today will attend a registered Hereford show at Hereford—the first sale of 1931—under auspices of the Texas Hereford association.

Efforts will be made to create interest in a similar sale which will be held here Mar. 27 in connection with the first annual Panhandle-South Plains Fat Calf-Pig-Cured Meat show. The latter event is scheduled for March 27 and 28.

Other Hereford sales at Albany, March 4, and in connection with the Southwestern exposition and Fat Stock show at Fort Worth, March 11, also will be visited by Lubbock representatives to gain contact with breeders and buyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Arnett and Mrs. Tom Ivey, whose husband will have Herefords at the show, left Lubbock, Tuesday, to attend the sale. Others who probably will be present include:

Dr. I. E. Barr, France Baker, J. Jones, George Boles, W. L. Stanley, W. T. Gaston and Bob Crump.

Cotton Cotton Trade Is Far From Active Livestock Active Demand In Livestock Market Grain Fair Demand For Light Offerings

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 27. (AP)—Altogether cotton here today was far from active, prices developed a firmer tone owing to some trade buying and price fixing. Generally more favorable foreign political news, more demand in the cotton goods trade and a better inquiry for spots caused ring traders to bid prices up developing a scarcity of contracts.

After opening unchanged to 3 points up, prices gradually improved throughout the morning until around noon active months all showed gains over the previous close of 14 points. In the early afternoon the market eased off 3 to 4 points from the top on some realizing by earlier buyers and realizing by scalpers.

The market continued rather quiet in late trading and any tendency to advance was checked by straddle selling by Liverpool in the northern market. Only the two nearest months were active at the end, the market closing steady at nets gains for the day of 8 to 9 points.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Jan. 27. (AP)—Cotton was higher today on covering combined with a moderate trade and commission house demand which appeared to be prompted by fairly steady cables and the failure of advances to bring in more active selling. May sold up to 10.66 or 11 points net higher and closed at 10.64; with the general market closing steady at net advances of 9 to 12 points.

The best prices of the day were reached during the afternoon when March sold at 10.43 and July at 10.69 making net advances of about 11 to 13 points on the old crop positions.

Liverpool cables said hedging had been taken by covering and Bombay buying in that market, and reported an improved cloth inquiry from South America and the British home trade. It was reported that employers in the Lancashire weaving section had accepted an invitation to meet the prime minister in London on Thursday to discuss the labor situation. Exports today 7,820, making 4,436,039 so far this season. Port receipts 26,375 U. S. port stocks 4,000,131.

Stock Market Refuses To Budge From Area Of Restricted Price Movements

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
(Associated Press Financial Writer)

NEW YORK, Jan. 27. (AP)—The stock market, with its mind on the meeting of the U. S. Steel directors, refused to budge today from an area of restricted price movements.

Leading shares maintained a heavy undertone and points of strength elsewhere were none too numerous. Merchandising shares started a boom rally, but it was promptly squelched by the Studebaker dividend reduction. Late covering kept final prices off the bottom and net declines in utilities and industrials largely were fractional. Sales totaled 1,601,720 shares.

Utilities Heavy

U. S. Steel traveled a one-point path, selling off by a major fraction and then rallying at the close under covering by professional traders who were taking no chances on the earnings statement. The stock closed at 42 3-4 up 1-4. Some of the utilities turned heavy. American Telephone, Consolidating Gas, American and Foreign power, Electric Power and Light and Columbia Gas lost about a point. Rails were mixed and quiet. Union Pacific dropped 2.

There was isolated strength in the Twin Cities rapid transit issues, which anticipated a favorable 1930 earnings statement with a 10 points rally in the preferred and 4 point rise in the common. Byers, Auburn Auto, Paramount, and Erie fared reasonably well. Studebaker dropped 2 points.

The steel corporation's report gave striking evidence the depression had struck the industry with full force in the final quarter of 1930. Although net income from all sources was equal to 70 cents a common share, earnings from operations amounted to little more than 27 cents, which meant the corporation failed to earn the three months dividend by nearly $1.50.

Legislature

business tomorrow morning.

Thirty bills were introduced today, 19 in the house and 11 in the senate.

Senator Martin of Hillsboro introduced a bill limiting commercial vehicles to a load of 5,000 pounds. Martin also introduced a bill to permit officials to try persons charged with the sale or delivery of liquor either in the county where the sale was made or in the counties through which the liquor was transported.

Presidents of state colleges appeared before the house and senate appropriations committee to ask emergency appropriations for summer schools totaling $422,700.

A resolution endorsing prohibition and pledging support of the 18th amendment was voted out favorably by the house liquor traffic committee after being altered materially to remove objectional references to members of the president's Wickersham committee who dissented from the majority report.

A bill expected to be the center of a heated controversy was introduced today by Rep. Metcalfe on San Angelo. It provided for redistricting the state into 21 congressional districts, the state now having 18. The bill would split up the district now represented by Harry Wurzbach, only republican in the Texas delegation by placing San Antonio in a separate district. Comal county, one of Wurzbach's strong-holds was placed in the 10th district. Wurzbach drew a large portion of his strength from Comal county and San Antonio. He has not denied stories that in the event his old district was split up, he would move to San Antonio and be a candidate for reelection from that district.

Bills introduced in the house proposed the preferential primary system; construction of a $500,000 state highway building; abolishment of the three day requirement of the marriage license law; nomination of of the judiciary by the convention system; fire, tornado, wind storm and hail insurance for schools; licensing of chiropractors and establishment of a state chiropractic board; creation of the office of building and loan commissioner.

A bill was passed in the senate setting the maximum compensation of Dallas county officers at $10,000. It was introduced by Senator Purl.

Livestock

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 27. (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—Livestock trade around the eleven market circuit was featured by a fairly active demand for fat lambs at prices unevenly steady to 25 higher. Choice fat lambs in Chicago cashed up to 9.40 while at Omaha and St. Joseph the best offered made 9.00. The supply numbering around 51,400 was 21,000 short of a week ago and 11,500 less than the corresponding day last year.

Lighter weights of hogs, 220 lbs. down, sold on a steady to 10 lower price basis while butchers scaling above 220 lbs ruled weak to 25 lower. The day's extreme top of 8.30 was paid at St. Louis. Offerings were around 123,200 against 127,448 last Tuesday and 119,675 a year ago.

Several points around the loop reported strength on better steers and yearlings, but packers were very bearish towards any advance on the general run of short feds and at some markets were able to obtain slight concessions on steers selling downward from 9.00. Difficulty also was encountered in maintaining steady values on light yearlings and fat she stock. Medium weight steers at Chicago and Omaha cleared up to 12.00 while best heavy steers at Chicago brought 11.85. Stocker and feeder classes were comparatively scarce and prices held mostly steady. Aggregate receipts estimated at 31,200 were 7,000 less than a week ago and 5,500 under a year ago.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH, Jan. 27. (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—Hogs—1,000; 500 direct. Steady; truck sales 5 lower; top 8.05; 2 loads good to choice 170-230 lb rail butchers 8.00; bulk better 170-250 lb truck hogs 7.95-8.00.

Cattle— 2,800; including 800 calves. Slaughter steers and yearlings 15-25 lower; numerous loads small cattle value to sell 7.75-8.50; slaughter steers 6.00-7.00 Butcher cows 3.00; slaughter calves, heavies, 7.50 down.

Sheep—400; lambs and wethers steady; good wooled lambs 7.75; fresh shorn lambs 7.25; 2 year old wethers 5.50.

Tech Directors

sult of approval by the directorate of plan for using funds accumulated by student publications.

A pageant slated for presentation here May 15 when the West Texas Chamber of Commerce holds its annual convention here was approved by the college board of directors.

Clifford B. Jones, of Spur, was re-elected as president of the board of directors. Mrs. F. N. Drane, of Corsicana, was elected as vice-president unanimously after R. A. Underwood, of Amarillo, had declined to be re-elected to the post.

Mrs. Drane is the only woman in the state holding such a position on an educational board and is believed to be the first to fill such a post in Texas history.

Roscoe Wilson, of Lubbock, was re-elected treasurer. W. T. Gaston, of Lubbock, was re-elected secretary and business manager of Technological college.

Other members of the board present at the meeting were Riley Strickland, of Amarillo, and Thomas Johnson, of McKinney.

Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of Technological college; Mr. Gaston, and Wyatt C. Hedrick, architect, of Fort Worth, also attended the session.

Unable To Attend

Frank E. Clarity, of Fort Worth; John W. Carpenter, of Dallas, and Houston Harte, of San Angelo, were directors absent.

Total enrollment of 2,228 students thus far this academic year with 1,904 now, attending the college, was reported by President Horn.

Enrollment this year virtually is the same as that of last year and 183 Texas counties are represented, he said. Students at Technological college are from more than two-thirds of the counties of the state, President Horn pointed out in characterizing the school here as state wide rather than sectional in scope.

The financial report showed that the college was not indebted, excepting in the athletic department. The board of directors agreed to underwrite a deficit in that department.

A belief that the athletic department should affiliate with a conference before the end of the year—either an established or new circuit—was reaffirmed by the directorate, which agreed that Technological college would pay its proportionate part of the cost of a survey of athletic conditions in the state.

Extension department of the college was reported as self supporting. A similar report was made on the college bookstore and cafeteria.

Charter for the Student Memorial Loan fund was approved to meet requirements for the $35,000 student loan fund established by the will of Will C. Hogg, of Houston.

Work Approved

Work done by the pre-medical department of the college was approved.

The directorate also voiced approval of "Alkali Trails" by Dr. William C. Holden, professor of history, and of books by other members of the Technological college faculty.

Next meeting of the college directorate will be held here Commencement day, Monday, June 8, it was decided. Outlining of duties of standing committees was deferred until the next meeting.

Action Of Summer School To Be Taken

AUSTIN, Jan. 27. (AP)—Final action by the senate and house appropriation and finance committees on requests of Texas colleges for $247,-200 addition appropriations with which to hold 1931 summer schools is not expected until Thursday.

On Thursday the committee will hear an appeal from the University of Texas and Texas A & M. college for additional appropriations.

According to a report made before the committee today $343,500 has been appropriated for the summer schools.

The amount appropriated to each school is shown first and the additional amount asked second in the table below:

University of Texas, $75,000, $40,000.

Texas A and M., $20,000, $25,000.

John Tarleton, $8,000, $17,200.

North Texas Agricultural college, $7,000, $10,000.

Prairie View Normal $6,500, $5,000.

College of Mines, none, $10,500.

College of Industrial Arts, $20,000, $20,000.

Texas Tech, $15,000, $35,000.

College of Arts and Industries, $13,000, $22,000.

North Texas Teachers College $40,000, $65,000.

Sam Houston Teachers College, $25,000,$30,000.

East Texas Teachers College $30,000, $40,000.

Southwest Texas Teachers College,$30,000, $35,000.

West Texas Teachers College, $25,000, $25,000.

Stephens F. Austin Teachers College $20,000, $25,000.

Sul Ross Teachers College, $10,000, $18,000.

Grain

FORT WORTH GRAIN

FORT WORTH, Jan. 27.—(AP)— Fair demand continued here today for the light offerings on the cash grain market. Prices showed little change from Monday's close. No. 1 hard wheat of any protein probably was worth 78 1-2-80, delivered Texas common points.

Quotations on coarse grains ranged as follows, basis carloads delivered Texas common points, freight paid:

Corn, No. 2 mixed 73 1-2-74 1-2; No. 2 white 76-77; No. 2 yellow 76 1-2-77 1-2.

Oats, No. 2 red 43 1-2-44.

Sorghums, No. 2 milo per 100 lbs 1.23-1.25; No. 2 kaffir 1.21-1.23.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 27. (AP)— Reports of drouth surpassing in places the severity even of last year's disaster carried grains upward today. Central Illinois advices said creeks and springs never before known to have gone dry had failed, and that more wells were empty than at any time last summer. Unusual absence of moisture was noted over the spring wheat belt in addition to dearth in winter crop sections.

Corn advanced faster than wheat, and closed unsettled, 5-8, 1 1-4 cents higher. Wheat at 1-8, 2-8 gain, oats 1-4, 1-2 up, provisions unchanged to 10 cents off.

Increased buying of corn was partly due to statements by a trade authority that official estimates indicated less than 1 per cent reduction of feed grains was 11.9 per cent less and hay production 16.5 per cent less.

Firmness of hog values helped the provision market to absorb hedging sales.

Closing quotations—Wheat: May (bids) 81 7-8; July 65 3-4, 67 1-8 Corn: March (offers) 65 1-2; May 65 3-4, 7-8, 67 3-8, July 66 1-2, 5-8, 68 1-8.

however, and arrange for bail."

Walker Released

Husband of the woman, Hugh Walker, who also figured in the case, having been the young girl's companion at time of the shooting, was released by Terry county officers Tuesday night on his own bond to appear as a witness before the grand jury next Monday. The man was lodged in jail Monday night and held for investigation until Tuesday.

Questioned by District Attorney Price, Walker expressed deep regret that the affair occurred. He expressed concern over the condition of Miss Carr. He said he had been separated from his wife for a period of about six months.

"The only thing I hated," he told the district attorney, "was that I couldn't go with her (Miss Carr) to the hospital and see that she was properly cared for."

Told that the girl had asked for him at various times during the day he replied that he wanted to see her and would see her.

Walker further told the district attorney that he and Miss Carr had been going together for several months and that he figured he had a right to go with her in view of his separation from his wife, although no divorce action had been taken.

"We left Lubbock Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock and talked to her twice before leaving town," he said. "She made no threat at that time and I had no idea she would follow us. She had known for months that we were going together."

Condition Serious

Condition of Miss Carr, who was brought to the Lubbock sanitarium last night was reported as serious. Physicians conceded her only a slight chance for recovery.

The shooting occurred in front of a Brownfield hotel about 7:30 o'clock Monday night as Miss Carr sat in a small coupe in which she and Walker had driven up. Mrs. Walker was said to have parked her car several feet to the left of the coupe. Alighting, she stepped onto the sidewalk and walked toward the other car. Witnesses stated that Miss Carr spoke to Mrs. Walker and told her she wanted to talk to her to which Mrs. Walker was said to have replied, "I don't want to hear anything you have to say."

One Shot Fired

With this remark she was said to have fired one shot, from a German Leuger pistol. The bullet entered immediately below the right breast, angled downward through the right lung and top of the liver and emerged from the right side opposite the chest.

Mr. Walker, at time of the shooting, was at the rear of the coupe but was said to have rushed to the front and held the girl when he heard the shot.

Officers said yesterday that preceding the affair, Walker had signed a hotel register, under an assumed name, for man and wife, giving his address as Hobbs, N. M.

FATE WITH JURY

the informal lecture given by Miss Earle. Correct costuming for early and late afternoon, morning and evening wear were shown.

Questions which were placed in a box at the registration table were answered by Miss Earle at the close of her lecture. These questions are a feature of the school and are invited daily.

Laws for correct dress and the fitting of a personality into the home were stressed in the talk. "The law in dress is appropriateness", Miss Earle pointed out, using her models as demonstrotions of costuming according to types. One should use imagination in dress in order to develop a true personality, she said, and this personality should then be reflected in one's surroundings—one's home.

"Home Is Condition"

"A home isn't a place but is a condition," she stated, suggesting that color and arrangement and the expressions of the people living within a place are parts of a composite personality which has a tangible evidence there.

"Self-consciousness is ingrown thinking," according to Miss Earle who believes that this condition can be alleviated by "beginning to express something" so that one's interest is drawn away from self. In the school last evening and through the remainder of the week, she expects to answer the questions that every woman has concerning the expression of personality, the attainment of true charm and health and a consequent beauty. Exercises for developing the figure will be demonstrated in the school on Thursday afternoon.

To Talk Make-Up

Make-up and a discussion of corrective cosmetics will be featured in this afternoon's talk. She will introduce Miss Ura Hatcher, noted dermatologist who is to arrive today, to assist in solving beauty problems of those who attend the school.

Real charm is salesmanship, she pointed out last evening, and this is accentuated in the perfect costume which follows the laws of rhythm in line and color.

More than one thousand registered in the school Tuesday. Every seat was filled before time for the talk to start. Many stood throughout the show and lecture and some turned away when they found that seats were not available. This is the second annual charm school that has been sponsored by the daily newspapers here.

the search have worked and hunted in the territory being combed, and they have concluded Marshbanks is not in the vicinity.

The country east of Marshbanks' ranch is heavily wooded, and cut by sharp ravines, many of which are almost canyons. The area is almost inaccessible and abounds in pitfalls, one of which is an abandoned mine 700 feet deep. Searchers will go into this territory Wednesday.

Members of Marshbanks' family said today they could give no possible reason for his disappearance. It was believed improbable that he became lost, due to his knowledge of this entire section.

Six Men And Women Indicted In Murder Of Jerry Buckley

DETROIT, Jan. 27. (AP)—The Wayne county grand jury's list of persons it believes participated in the assassination of Radio Announcer Jerry Buckley last July 23 was enlarged by returning of an indictment naming six men and a woman.

The indictment named Ted Pizzino, Joseph Bommarito, Angelo Livecchi, Pete Licavoli and three persons designated only as John Doe, Ricard Roe, and Mary Roe.

Pizzino, Bommarito and Livecchi already are under arrest.

British Aviatrix Slightly Injured As Ship Overturns

BALTIMORE, Jan. 27. —(AP) — Slightly injured today when her plane overturned here as she neared the end of a trip around the world, Mrs. Mildred Bruce, British flier, decided to forego a reception at the British embassy at Washington tonight.

She escaped with a bruise over the left eye and a cut on her right hand, but was badly shaken, and she said she would remain at a hotel here overnight, while repairs were made on the plane.

sonally prejudiced.

Representatives McGill of El Paso and Satterwhite of Odessa charged this was a reflection on the honesty and sincerity of the dissenting members.

All reference to dissenting opinions was eliminated, the resolution citing that since the report was "unanimous the state of Texas shall express through the house of representatives the views of the majority of the citizens on the 18th amendment."

The committee argued at length about striking out a clause of the resolution which listed "a great increase in the saving accounts at the banks" as one of the blessings of prohibition. This clause evoked considerable discussion. Mrs. N. R. Strong, of Slocum saying this was not true during the present depression. Representative Richardson of Grand Saline opposed striking out the clause saying the trouble with the country was there was too much money in savings accounts which people were unwilling to spend.

The clause was voted out, the committee deciding it might have a detrimental effect on relief legislation if the resolution contained a clause saying there were great increases in saving accounts.

Among the benefits enjoyed by the state through prohibition, the resolution stated, were "greater sobriety; advanced learning in the colleges and universities; greater attendance at the public schools; higher moral progress; decrease in drunkenness; better efficiency; greater social benefits and improved domestic relations."

Man Robbed Of $155, Then Forced To Swallow Poison

PAMPA, Jan. 27. —(AP)— Isaac L. Miller, who came here recently with his wife from Douglas, Missouri, to look for work, was in a hospital here tonight recovering from effects of a poison which he was compelled to drink this morning by a robber who took $155 from him. Hospital attendants said he would recover.

Miller told officers he had started out to look for work, driving his car, and was hailed by a man walking. He stopped to give the man a lift, the stranger produced a gun and commanded him to drive to a cross road. The man then took $155 from him and marched him to a place some distance from the road, where he commanded him to drink the poison or he would be killed.

Conner Pleads Guilty In Extortion; Gets 15 Years

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 27. (AP)—J. B. Connor, one of three men charged with extorting $75,000 from R. W. Morrison, San Antonio capitalist, May 17, 1930, pleaded guilty in two cases of robbery by assault with firearms here today and was given 15 years in the penitentiary by a jury in one case and five in another.

Connor had already been convicted of a filling station robbery and given fifteen years, and District Judge W. W. McCrory pronounced sentence to run concurrently.

his appointment to be an assistant to the state attorney general. Here again, he had a distinguished career, and finally he was elevated to the appeals court bench.

Prominent Figure

Once a member of scholarly clubs about the University of Texas, and a prominent figure socially, he gradually lost his earlier contacts and at the time of the girl's death, according to friends, was earning only a modest living as a practicing attorney.

His trial in Austin was a spectacular one. Held for months in the very jail to which he had sent many men as a prosecutor, he finally was brought in to the familiar court room in January, 1930. Friends of long years represented him, while the son of his former partner, Young Henry Brooks, was the prosecuting district attorney. The youth Brady had known as an infant so vigorously conducted the case that ten jurors held out for the death penalty and one for life imprisonment. The twelfth, however, the foreman, insisted on an acquittal and a mistrial was declared. The verdict of conviction was returned by a Dallas jury.

Claimed Insanity

The defense theory was that Brady stabbed the girl, who was set upon as she left the automobile of a young escort in front of her rooming house, through temporary insanity caused by excessive use of bootleg liquor.

The state sought to show, however, that it was only the angry jealousy of an old man who feared he was losing her to younger rivals that motivated him.

Relief Measures Are Piled High

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—The spring log jam fashion, relief legislation piled high in committee tributaries of the house today while members attempted to blast loose some of the proposals to flat them into the main stream for early action.

The house appropriations committee continued its hearing on the senate's proposal to give the Red Cross $25,000,000 for food distribution.

The agriculture committee laid plans to consider tomorrow the senate plan of diverting 20,000,000 bushels of farm board wheat to the needy. The administration is opposed to these suggestions.

Religion Held Defeat Reason

Issue Injected In The Last Kentucky Campiagn, Louisville Newspaper Man Tells Senate Funds Committee

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Injection of the religious issue into the last Kentucky campaign was blamed today for defeat of former Senator Robsion and at least one representative.

Gordon Huff, Louisville newspaperman, told the senate campaign funds committee thousands of copies of a special edition of the Fellowship Forum, a Ku Klux newspaper published in Washington, were distributed.

Regarding previous testimony that Robsion himself ordered 125,000 copies of the paper to be paid for by friends, Huff said he did not know who ordered or paid for them, but was certain every Republican leader in the state except Robsion "bitterly opposed" their circulation.

Huff said he served as publicity director for the Republican state central committee during the campaign and "everybody at headquarters" including himself regarded the forum editions as "so bad" that 70,000 of 100,000 copies received by the committee were burned—40,000 before and 30,000 after the election.

"Why did you consider them so vile?" asked Chairman Nye.

Prejudice Charged

"Religious prejudice," Huff replied. "They revived the religious issue of the 1928 campaign and religion was not an issue in Kentucky."

Huff said the Democrats also distributed the paper evidently for "boomerang" purposes; that the fourth district was "knee deep" with copies; that Representative Craddock, Republican, was defeated on that account, and Representative Katherine Langley, another Republican, virtually lost reelection due to their circulation in the tenth district.

Railroads Report Incomes Decline

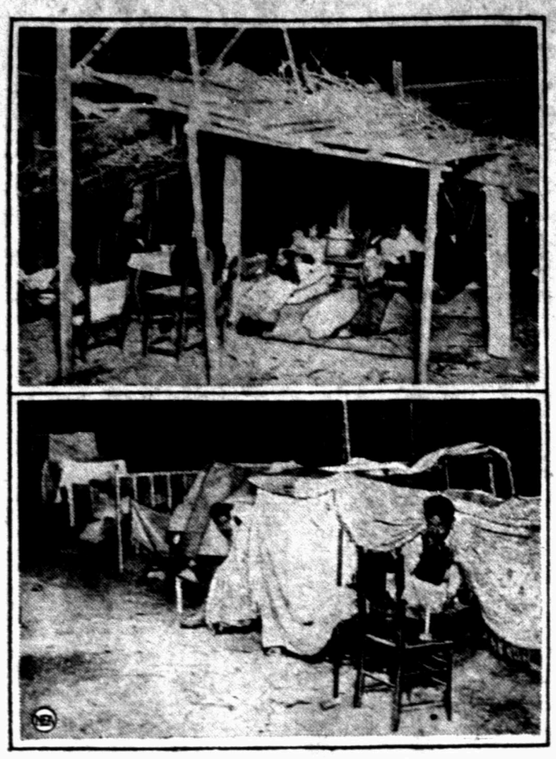

New York, Jan. 27. (AP)—The first 33 railroads reporting December earnings had net operating income of $19,256,000, a decrease of 36.4 per cent from 630,312,000 reported by the same railroads for December, 1929.

The compilation includes the report of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois, which included charges of $4,700,000 for special retirement of equipment in its December report, net operating deficit for that month for the road amounting to $4,815,441.

Excluding the D. & E. I. figures, the 32 roads had a December net operating income of $24,071,000, a decline of 20.3 per cent from their figures for December, 1929.

India expects a heavy deficit in its railroad budget.

Death Claims Swedish Flier

Captain Einar-Paal Lundborg Who Rescued General Nobile Dies Of Injuries Suffered When Plane Crashes

Stockholm, Jan. 27. (AP) — Death today closed the adventurous career of Captain Einar-Paal Lundborg, Swedish airman who rescued General Umberto Nobile after destruction of the airship Italia on an ice floe in the Arctic.

He died this evening from injuries suffered a few hours earlier in the crash of a plane he was testing at Malmslatt flying field for the Swedish government. Both arms and legs were fractured.

Captain Lundborg had many adventures and served as a soldier under four flags, but his major achievement was the rescue of General Nobile.

He was a member of the Swedish rescue expedition and on the night of June 24, 1929, set out in a Fokker machine to seek the survivors of the Italia disaster. He managed to land his machine, an exceptionally difficult task under the wind and ice conditions prevailing, took the Italian commander on board and returned to his base safely.

Later when he returned to the Italia floe to rescue the remaining survivors his plane upset on landing and he was marooned with them for twelve days. A brother officer, Lieut. Birger Schyberg, finally took him to safety in a small machine.

Appointment Of Baldwin Opposed

LAMESA, Jan. 27. (Special.) — Upon motion of Carl Roundtree, former legislator from this district, the business men of the city in regular luncheon session here today voted unanimously to request the senate of Texas through Pink L. Parrish senator from this district to vote against confirmation of Frank Baldwin of Waco for place on the state board of education. In Roundtree's remarks he assailed Baldwin as prejudiced against West Texas and being entirely sectional and unfit for a place of government recognition and appointment. He particularly cited Baldwin's opposition to Texas Technological college, the pink boll situation and his assailment of West Texas asking for drouth relief.

Cash For Vets Seen As Tonic

Redemption Of Certificates Proposed To Senate Committee As Aid For Ills Of Business Depression

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Cash for veterans bonus certificates was proposed to a senate committee today as a tonic for the ills of business depression.

Paul C. Wolman, Baltimore, commander-in-chief of the veterans of foreign wars, told the senate finance committee the certificates given World War veterans should be cashed. He added they would "not only be a distinct aid to the welfare of the disabled and needy ex-service men, but also act as a marvelous stimulant to existing economic conditions.

Veterans Administrator Hines appearing before the committee for the second day, testified, however, that some of the measures now before congress looking to the cash redemption of the certificates would take so long to administer they would do no good toward relieveing present distress.

Hines said the quickest measure to carry out would be one calling for cash redemption of the certificates on their face value as of 1945. He testified this also would be the most expensive and would cost the government $3,400,000,000.

Several bills providing for this procedure are pending in both houses. Cash redemption under this plan would take about a year to complete but could begin almost at once, Hines said.

He testified the bills providing for redemption of the certificates on the current value, including the extxa 25 per cent credit authorized by the original bonus act, would take too long to administer to do any good. Bills of this kind have been introduced by Representative Garner, of Texas, minority leader, and Senator Connally, Democrat, Texas.

CHECK HOUSE NUMBERS

Corrections Are Planned At Meeting Of Citizens

Correction of house numbers in Lubbock was planned Tuesday at a meeting of local citizens with city officials.

In some sections of the city house numbers have become badly mixed and are incorrect and city officials are anxious to have this condition remedied.

Those at the meeting included Postmaster John L. Vaughan, W. O. Daniels, Tom A. White, H. L. Allen, M. R. Smith, and J. Bryan Miller.

German Courses May Be Offered

Courses in German, including beginners' reading and advanced reading, may be presented by the extension department of Texas Aechnoligical college, it was announced late Tuesday by J. F. McDonald, extension director.

As a result of requests, the German department has consented to give a rapid reading course in beginners' German, preparatory to preliminary examinations for a higher degree, if as many as 10 persons wish to take the course. The class would meet at night, once or twice a week, at an hour convenient to all concerned, Mr. McDonald said.

The German department at the college also has been asked to give an advanced reading course in German literature, including plays. The course will be scheduled when as many as five list their names and choice of nights for the work with the department of extension.

Fee for each course would be $10. Those interested in either of the courses in German should communicate with the extension department. The courses would be open to citizens of Lubbock and other interested persons, according to Mr. McDonald.

"The Artistic Ability of Your Florist Has a Lot to do With the Success of Your Social Functions," Says Miss Earle.

"You should select a florist who has at least one person employed to oversee and attend to all design work and floral decorations. This one person should possess a natural ability to arrange flowers in an artistic manner.

"The person in charge of this work should devote their entire time to the study of flower arrangement. A JACK-AT-ALL-TRADES CAN NO MORE MAKE A SUCCESS OF FLORAL DESIGNING THAN IN ANY OTHER PROFESSION.

"I have seen many a hostess greatly humiliated just because the florist did not know his business and delivered flowers that were not at all suited for the occasion."

We are proud of the fact that we can offer you the kind of service that Miss Earle outlines above.
