School Tax Collections Report 'Best On Record'

A full agenda greeted the board of trustees of Olton Schools when they met in regular session Monday night, for the last time before school begins this year.

Teachers were hired, one resignation accepted, teacher aides employed, attendance officer okayed and official budget adopted among other duties performed.

First order of business, following the reading of minutes and approval of accounts payable was a report from Tax Assessor-Collector, Virginia Moss. Mrs. Moss stated that at the persent time 97.41 per cent of 1973 taxes were collected, which is the "best year ever on record." The board reviewed the personal property tax scheduled, presented by Mrs. Moss, which established values of new personal property in accordance with inflationary costs of such items. Depreciation values were set accordingly.

Resignation of kindergarten teacher, Shelley Emery was accepted and the employment of Jerry Wilson from Stinnett as a teacher of math and assistant coach was okayed.

Discussion of adjusting coaches salaries followed but no action taken because of a lack of motion.

Auditors for 1974-75 were approved. The same company from Muleshoe, Williams and Faver, were employed.

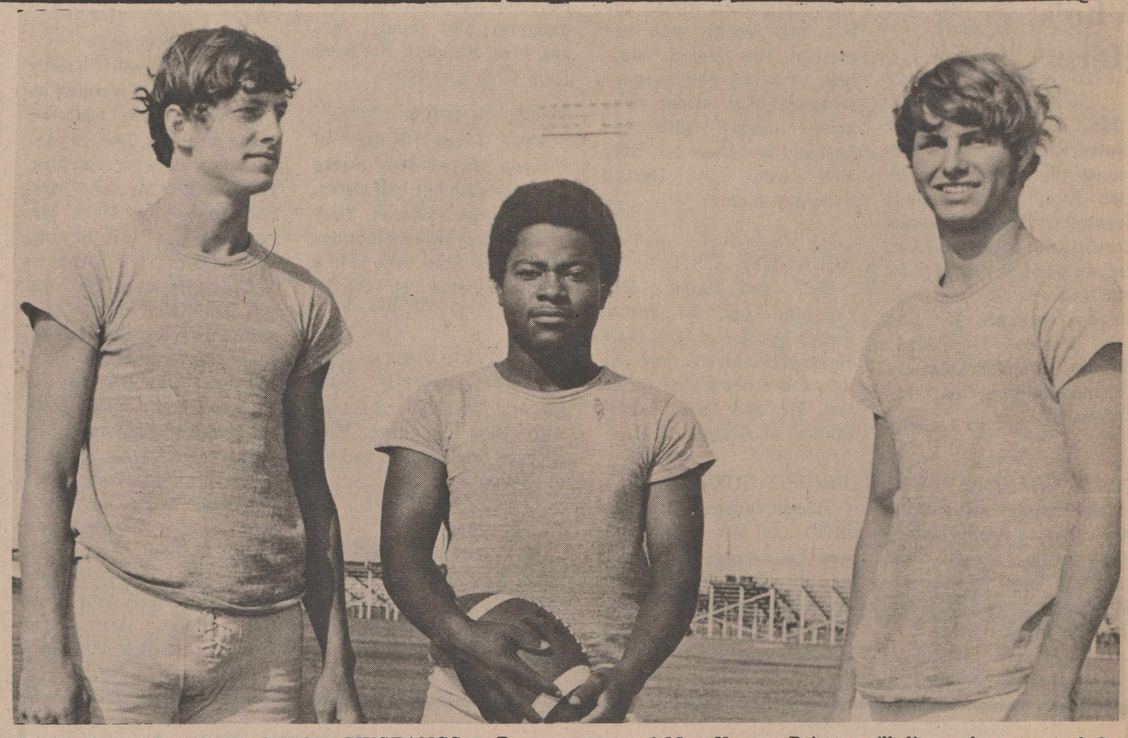

Additional money became available for the school from the Federal Government through Title I funds and the board approved the uses of it.

V.L. Smith Jr. was named attendance officer and Mrs. Olin Smith and Miss Wanda Spradlin were hired as third grade teacher and migrant teacher respectively.

Handbooks for junior high and high school were approved.

Teacher aides, Retta Snider, Helen McClure, Enid Givens, Mary Escamilla, Nadine Casarez, Amelia Casares and Catherine Stroebel were hired for the school year 1974-75.

The official budget was adopted by the board and milk and gasoline bids were reviewed. No gas bids were presented. Milk bid went to Bordens at 10½ cents for one-half pint of chocolate milk and 9¾ cents for white.

Lunch Tickets On Sale Monday, Type A Lunches To Be Offered

Lunch tickets for students in Olton Public Schools will go on sale Monday for the convenience of parents who wish to avoid the confusion and waiting lines of the first day of school. Lunchroom personnel will be at the lunchroom Monday through Wednesday to sell lunch and milk tickets.

With school's beginning Thursday, the staff will once again be preparing Type A lunches which include foods from the four basic food groups. Included in the daily menus are meat, vegetables and fruits, enriched breads, butter (served with meals and in cooking) and one-half pint milk.

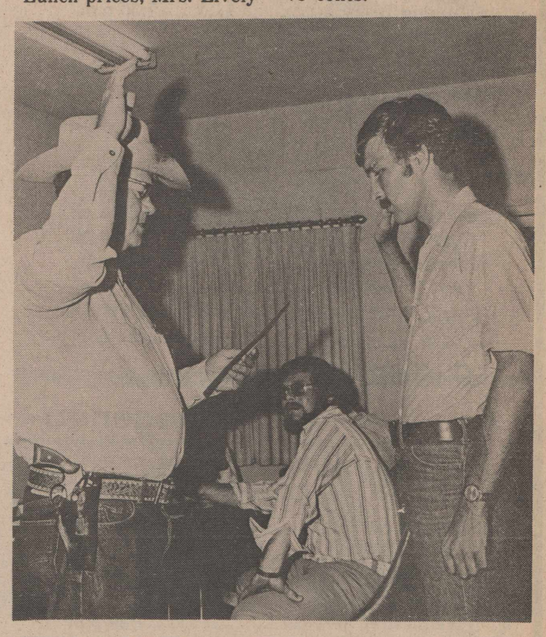

"American school food service motto, "You Are What You Eat," is challenged daily when menus are planned to tempt the eager eyes and hungry tummies," says Mrs. Norma Lively, lunchroom supervisor.

Among the favorite foods served, she says, are beef tacos, French fries, hamburgers, corn dogs and brown beans. Chalupas, a relatively new item at school, are also well received.

Members of the cafeteria staff, serving full time or part time are Jewell Jong, Jewell Huggins, Alice Sherry, Mabel May, Winnie Sweatt, Pauline Jones, Florence Frazier, Margaret Gallagher, Merle Sharp, Sandy Kersh, Mary Austin, Mildred Caudle, Mary Sanchez, Dorothy Holt, Jolene Burgess, Mrs. Lively and J.D. Reserved seats will be held for regular ticket holders until Monday, Sept. 2. Reserved tickets, not claimed by that date, will go on sale to the general public.

Bun Combest Named 'Chief'

Glenn "Bun" Combest was named Olton's new Chief of Police, effective August 15 at the Tuesday night meeting of the city council.

Combest, who has served as "fill in" officer since 1968, accepted the position at a salary of $550, for six days a week.

A night patrolman, Jim Baggett, was hired by the council for a six night week at $500 per month, also effective August 15.

Baggett, 22 year old, is from Dallas, where he has been attending Southern Methodist University. He plans to enroll in Wayland for the fall term and will major in law. He had formerly been employed by Baker Security and Patrol in Dallas and has also served in the U.S. Marine Corp.

No other business was brought before the council.

Have Camera - Will Photograph

By Mozelle Trotter

"Say cheese" may have been the directions spoken to the customer before the bright studio lights back in February, 1959 when Mrs. Marshall Stone opened Olton's first photography studio. Regardless of the instructions Mrs. Stone may have given her first customer, those well-worn words have been uttered many times over through the years that have intervened for the business that is now operated as Enterprise Studio.

Mrs. Stone opened her shop in a small frame business across the street from the elementary school building and only steps away from her home. It marked a "first" for Olton.

Bill Turner, owner and publisher of the Olton Enterprise, purchased the studio business from Mrs. Stone in March, 1965 and moved it into the news office across the street from Olton High School. When the Enterprise moved into new quarters on Main Street, the studio was also moved.

Turner, who earned a master's degree in photography from State University in Iowa, discontinued finish work at the studio, choosing rather to process the film and send the customer's selected negative away for finishing. Time demands of publishing newspapers for Olton, Hart and Kress have made it necessary to continue that practice.

Sue Cannon became managing editor of the Enterprise in July, 1967 and assumed the operation of the studio. She became owner of the business in January, 1972.

During recent years the studio has grown into a full-time business itself. Today finish work is still sent off and the processing and finish of all color photography.

Enterprise Studio specializes in candid wedding photography and Mrs. Cannon has "shot weddings" out of town as well as locally. She has photographed brides and grooms in Hart, Hart Camp, Littlefield, Sudan, Hale Center, Plainview, Halfway, Canyon, Friona, Earth, Amarillo, Lubbock and as far away as Artesia, N.M.

Toting her trusty camera along to an out of town wedding of a friend of her daughter's "just to get a few personal photos," Mrs. Cannon was the "answer to a prayer" when the booked photographer, in a haze of intoxication, failed to arrive. Happily the bride did get photographs of her very important day to cherish through the years to come. And the Studio received a valued order.

NOT ON CANDID CAMERA - Sue Cannon photographs Dale Cary, newly named vice president of Olton State Bank, this week for his introduction to Olton.

Memory Mates have been especially sought by mothers of young baseball, basketball and football players, track participants and band members.

Mrs. Cannon has shot Memory Mate photos for groups from a number of area schools. The keepsake photos have not been the limit of her photographic service to schools other than Olton. She has also made candid photos for high school year books at both Hart and Spade and studio portraits for their candidates for honors such as "Most Beautiful" and "Most Handsome."

Despite ever increasing costs in photo supplies and processing, the Enterprise Studio is still able to offer photography at prices all brides can afford. A number of "package plans" are available for the bride's selection.

Bridal candids are the biggest item for Mrs. Cannon's "on the spot" photography although she is also available and an experienced photographer for reunions, informal family pictures, anniversaries, parties and for any occasion where people want a pictured history.

Coordinating the pictorial work of the three newspapers she publishes, reprints of news pictures are also available from the Enterprise Studio. Most school and civic functions are covered by an Enterprise photographer.

Following the policies of other photographer businesses and newspapers, negatives of pictures made by both the newspaper and studio are kept on file and remain the property of the business. Additional prints or reprints are always available for order.

Custom made and stand frames are also sold by the studio. Orders are made for those not in stock. Albums are also available.

Unlike photographers or studios of larger town, Mrs. Cannon or some member of her staff is almost always available for on-the-spot picture making of those spur-of-the-minute happenings. The slogan might be a pun of that old television series - "Have Camera-Will Photograph."

Free Lunches Available

Free school lunches will be available for those meeting requirements as set by the federal government, according to an announcement by Joe Turner, superintendent of schools.

1907 Olton School Roll To Be Called At Reunion

The 25th Annual Lamb County Old Settlers Reunion is on tap for Tuesday, Aug. 27, at Littlefield.

Annually held the fourth Tuesday in August, this year's meeting will feature registration at 2 p.m., program and visiting throughout the afternoon and bar-b-que supper served at 6 p.m. at Community Center. F.E. Yohner, Littlefield, is president of the organization this year. Directors are Ray Smith, Spade, Fred Lichte, Littlefield, Lauis Hair, Olton, Buck Ross, Littlefield and A.B. Brown, Spade.

Prizes will be given to the oldest pioneer present, the one who has traveled the greatest distance, and one with longest continuous residence in the county.

Twenty-five years residency constitutes a pioneer.

Of special interest to Oltonites this year will be the calling of the roll from a school register for "Olton School" dated 1907. Mrs. Flora Bess Boone, early day Lamb County teacher, will call the names. Those students present will be honored.

The register, which has been lost for 20 years, has recently come to the attention of authorities. Twenty-four names appear on the roll, according to L.D. Rochelle, first county superintendent of Lamb County.

Rochelle described the 'Olton School' as the first school in the county, which was then a part of Castro County. Located two miles west and two miles north of the city, the session ran from May 6 to July 6. Two months salary, at $40 per month for the teacher, was all the money available that year.

Persons knowing the whereabouts of any of these early day students are asked to notify them to be present for the roll call.

Ammo-Phos® Fertilizers

30-40 Wheat Fertilization Program

Where wheat yield is expected to exceed 15 bushels per acre, 30 pounds of nitrogen per acre is the minimum recommended by your Extension Service. On soils with medium or above phosphorus level, 40 pounds of additional phosphorus will fulfill all your wheat crop requirements.

Apply at Planting Time

200 pounds of Ammo-Phos fertilizer 16-20-0 incorporated into your soil before or at planting establishes your fertility program. Then follow the Olin 30-40 wheat program to determine if supplemental nitrogen is needed. If so, apply it at topdress time. Soil moisture and anticipated yield are your guide.

AMMO-PHOS FERTILIZERS

Ammo-Phos fertilizers are chemically combined with the ammonium form of nitrogen. They are highly water soluble and most grades contain sulfur. Place your order early for Ammo-Phos fertilizers and let us explain the new 30-40 wheat program from Olin—you'll be glad you did.

Mr. Keeth, Miss Britton Exchange Wedding Vows

The marriage of Miss Janet Britton and Tony Keeth, both of Earth, was solemnized Friday, Aug. 9, in First Baptist Church of Earth. The Rev. David Hartman, pastor, officiated the twin ring vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Britton. Mrs. Roger Lamcke of Liberal, Kan., is mother of the bridegroom. Mrs. F. Hollingsworth is maternal grandmother of the bride, W.K. Britton is paternal grandfather.

Arched candelabra, entwined with tropical greenery, fitted with white cathedral tapers and accented with white satin bows formed the background for the nuptial setting. Bows and candles marked the bridal aisle.

Miss Sharon Tunnell, organist, presented traditional selections, and accompanied Mrs. Marie Slover, soloist, as she sang "The Wedding Song," "The Twelfth of Never," and "Wedding Prayer."

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of copy-of-silk satin and dacron lace styled along Empire lines and featuring an A-line skirt. The fitted bodice with its scoop neckline, was overlaid with lace re-embroidered with seed pearls. The long full sleeves, also of lace re-embroidered with seed pearls, terminated in deep lace cuffs closed with tiny self-buttons.

Her elbow length veil of silk tulle fell from a caplet of lace and appliqued daisies enhanced with seed pearls.

Bridal attire was fashioned by the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Hollingsworth.

Atop her white Bible the bride carried a cascade arrangement of white and pink roses accented with stephanotis and centered with an orchid.

The white Bible, property of her matron of honor, was both "old" and "borrowed", her attire was "new" and she wore the traditional "blue." In her shoe she carried pennies minted in the years of each of their births.

Mrs. R.R. Daniel III of Levelland, served as matron of honor. Other bridal attendants were Miss Beverly Britton, Plainview, and Mrs. Jim Allison, Petersburg, both sisters of the bride.

Feminine attendants wore carpet length gowns of mint green floral print. The fitted Empire waists featured scoop necklines and butterfly sleeves. They carried nosegays of white and pink mums scattered with stephanotis.

Eddie Alair of Springlake served as best man. Groomsmen were Kenny Keeth, Liberal, Kan., brother of the groom and Brian Britton, Earth, brother of the bride. Candles were lighted by Stan Runyon of Earth, cousin of the groom.

Little Miss Shannon Curran of Allen, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Blayne Smith, Lazbuddie, cousin of the groom was ring bearer.

Guests were seated by Jim Allison, Petersburg, and Chris Brock, Earth.

The young couple was honored, immediately following the ceremony, with a reception held in Fellowship Hall of the church.

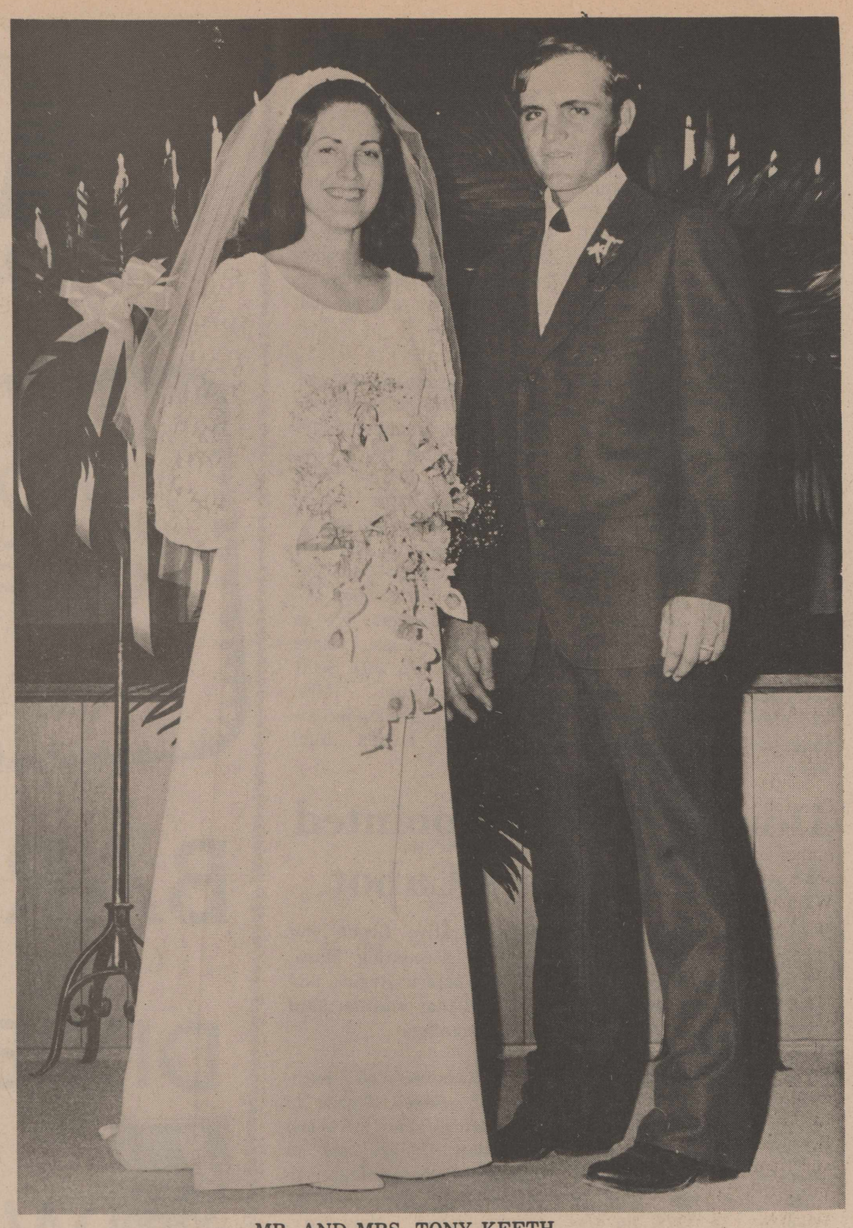

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth, overlaid with a white crocheted cloth made by her paternal grandmother, the late Mrs. W.K. Britton.

Highlighted by the traditional two-tiered wedding cake, the table also featured attendant's bouquets, crystal and silver appointments.

The groom's table was covered with a green cloth and centered with a dried arrangment contained in a copper bucket. A double ring chocolate cake and coffee were served.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride selected a two piece pink suit styled with full skirt and short jacket closed with gold buttons.

Both bride and groom are graduates of Springlake-Earth High School. The bride received an associate degree from South Plains College, Levelland, in May. She is presently employed with Cook Memorial Hospital of that city. The groom will be attending SPC.

MRS. STANLEY GRAIG PARKER

Mr. Parker-Miss Gallaway Recite Twin Ring Vows

Wedding vows were solemnized at 7 p.m. Saturday in St. Peter's Catholic Church for Miss Margaret Ann Gallaway and Stanley Graig Parker.

Father Clarence Huber officiated the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli flanked with brass candelabras holding white cathedral tapers. A memory candle at the center of the altar and a white satin kneeling bench completed the nuptial setting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gallaway are parents of the bride. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Parker of Omaha, Neb.

Jenny Lynn Gunter, organist, presented nuptial selections and accompanied Jimmie Graham as she sang "Time in a Bottle," "Follow Me" and "United We Stand."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white organza over satin fashioned with a natural waistline and full sweeping circular skirt which swept to a chapel train. Venise lace adorned the bodice in a bib-effect. The stand up collar and deep cuffs of her long full sleeves were of matching lace. Flowerettes of Venise lace encircled the hemline.

Lace ruffles enhanced her sheer white picture hat and her illusion veil fell waist length. She carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies and red roses. Her gown was "new" and she wore a wedding band belonging to her maternal grandmother for the traditional "something old." She wore a blue garter and "borrowed" a St. Christopher medal from her brother, Kenny Gallaway. She carried, in her shoe, pennies coined in the years of her birth and wedding.

Kay Crowell of Lubbock was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Rita Gregory of Bethany, Okla., and Marilyn McMillen of Canyon.

Heidi Parker, sister of the groom, and Kathy Langley of Lockney cousin of the bride, were flower girls.

Candles were lighted by Jill Parker, sister of the groom, and David Higdon of Plainview, cousin of the bride. Guests were registered by Linda Neibaurer of Denver, Colo., sister of the groom.

Dean Crowell of Lubbock was best man. Groomsmen were Wes Parker, brother of the groom, and Kenny Gallaway, brother, of the bride.

Feminine attendants wore formal length gown of red dotted Swiss styled with midriff waistlines and scooped necklines accented with white lace edged ruffles. They wore picture hats of red satin lace and carried nosegays of red carnations and daisies.

The groom wore a white formal jacket with black trousers, white shirt and black velvet tie. Fathers and male attendants wore black dinner jackets and trousers with white shirts and black velvet ties.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gallaway wore a formal gown of red and white with a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Parker chose a formal gown of blue and white and a white carnation corsage.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was laid with a white satin cloth fashioned with ruffled tiers and scalloped with red roses, made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Jim Higdon. The bridal bouquet and attendants' nosegays provided the centerpiece and were flanked with silver candelabras.

Made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Neil Langley, the three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with daisies, forget-me-nots and red carnations between the tiers and atop the cake. Presiding at the table were Barbara Tollett of Hart, sister of the bride, Judy Burt of Seagraves and JoEllen Spain.

The groom's table, laid with ecru lace over red, featured a chocolate cake and coffee. Serving were Ann Cobb and Pam Gallaway.

Members of the house-party were Mmes. Higdon, Langley, Bob Covington, Clyde Dameron and R.E. Womack.

For a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the bride wore a white dacron dress with red check trim and red rose corsage lifted from the bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home at 1903 Gregory, Apartment #4, Amarillo.

A graduate of Olton High School, the bride attended Texas Tech University and is a senior student at West Texas State University where she is majoring in kindergarten education. She has been named to the dean's list her three years in college.

Parker is a graduate of Central High School In Omaha. He graduated from Them Thermoking Refrigeration School in Bloomington, Minn. He is employed with Amarillo Truck and Refrigeration.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ken Parker, Jill, Heidi, Jeff and Wes and Mr. and Mrs. Deryl Crowell, Kathryn, Keith and David, all of Omaha, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Bubla and Rod of Schaller, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Brian Neibauer of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Teghtmeyer, Odebolt, Iowa; Ann Cobb, Elmer Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Langley, Mary, John, Martin, Sara and Ralph Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, Mrs. Sau Jeraldean Sayles and Pat, David Eppinette, Mr. and Mrs. Finis Nabors and Janice, all of Lubbock; and Mr. and Mrs. W.H. YOSHIAKI TAKIMOTO

Cook Of The Week

A touch of the Orient is reflected in the recipes shared this week by a young Japanese visitor, Yoshiaki Takimoto. Sixteen-year-old Yoshiaki, a guest in the Leon Noack home, is participating in the Lions International Youth Exchange Program.

Yoshiaki brought part of the ingredients for his special dishes from Japan but they may be purchased locally or in food specialty stores in larger cities. Substitutions may also be made.

Back home in Sappora, Yoshiaki says that sukiyaki would be cooked over "gas table" - a low table with a gas burner in the center. The family would eat from the utensil as the sukiyaki simmered and ingredients would be replenished as they were eaten.

Yoshiaki cooks by "feeling" -- his way of describing our method of cooking to taste. He cooks by frequently tasting and uses chop sticks rather than a fork or other kitchen gadget in his preparations.

During his visit with the Noacks, Yoshiaki has taught the Noack sons to play "Seven Bridge" and they've taught him "Monopoly." Mutually they were acquainted with and enjoy "Crazy 8" and "21."

Yoshiaki has also taught the Noack sons oregami, paper art, and they have become adept at the Oriental craft.

SUKIYAKI
1 lb. sirloin, sliced very thin
2 lg. onions
6 to 10 green onions
2 cans bean sprouts
¼ c. soy sauce
½ c. water
3 T. sugar
Chinese cabbage

Place small amount oil about 2 T. or enough to barely cover bottom of large skillet.. Add thinly sliced beef and cook for few minutes, add water and simmer for few minutes before adding soy sauce and sugar. Stir to one side and place other ingredients in separate places in skillet (do not mix or stir together). (To prepare other ingredients - drain and rinse bean sprouts and drain again. Cut onions in quarters, slice green onions using small portion of blade sections, wash and separate leaves of Chinese Cabbage). Simmer only until crisply tender.

(Yoshiaki says "is good" served in small bowl over raw egg. Americanized it is usually served with rice.)

CHAWANMUSHI
(pronounced cha-wan-mushi)
5 eggs
2½ c. water
¼ c. soy sauce
Cooked ham, cut in small cubes
diced potatoes

Beat eggs, add water and soy sauce. Place cubed ham and potatoes in mugs or custard cups. Add egg mixture equally into 5 or 6 servings. Place cups in large pan containing water to level of one-half to three-quarters of cup's depth. Cover pan and boil five minutes. Turn off heat and let set five additional minutes before removing lid from pan.

(Yoshiaki says potatoes are substitute for fresh bamboo sprouts. Canned bamboo sprouts are available at many stores)

If we had no teachers . . .

Welcome, Teachers

To The New Teachers In The Olton School System And To The Teachers Who Return Again This Year, We Wish You All A Pleasant Year In Olton !

IF WE HAD NO TEACHERS

If we had no teachers . . . Our children could not learn to read or write...they could not benefit from history...the experience of mankind through centuries.

If we had no teachers . . . Our children would not enjoy the great literature of the world's writers...the music of the composers...the art forms created by its artists.

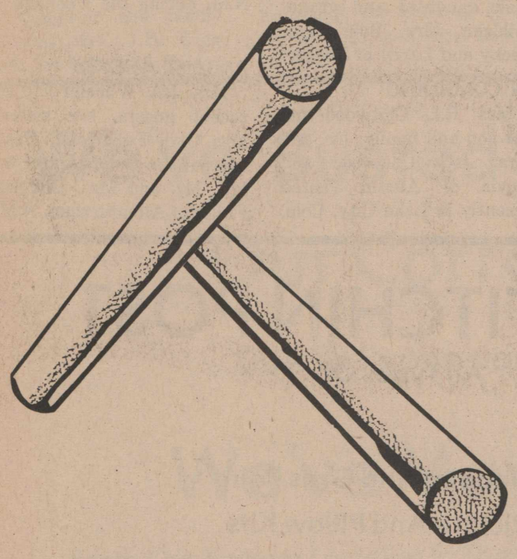

If we had no teachers . . . Our children would live in a world of ignorance and misunderstanding. The people of the world would exist in intellectual darkness...a darkness shrouding the present...preventing a brighter tomorrow.

If we had no teachers . . . Our children would not enjoy the thousands of scientific and medical discoveries that have brought civilization to its highest point of perfection.

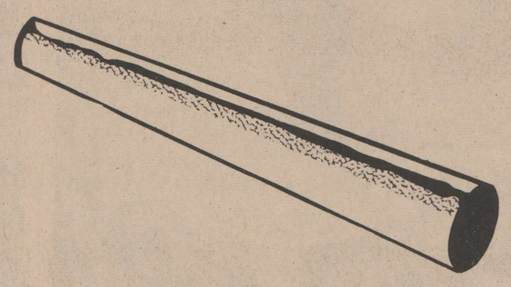

For all that man has accomplished . . . In the years since the beginning of time...he has accomplished through the basic of knowledge provided by others...the teachers of the past and present.

If you're so rich, why aren't you smart?

So you're making a good salary. But you're not saving any of it. Instead, you want to go after the "big deal" that's going to make you a cool million. Maybe.

What happens if your big scheme goes sour? You've still got to get through the future. And, let's face it. Nobody can afford to take tomorrow for granted.

So maybe you'd better join the Payroll Savings Plan now. Just sign up at work. An amount you specify will be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

That way, you can still afford to take a few financial risks, if that's your bag. But you'll always have a solid cash reserve to fall back on. And that's being smart.

Now E Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (4½% the first year). Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America.
