

Grand Jury Returns 16 Indictments

After two days of hearings the Scurry County Grand Jury returned 16 indictments against seven men late Tuesday afternoon.

Eight of the indictments were returned against one man. Each indictment was on a separate charge of forgery. The man is not in custody, and officers are searching for him.

Another man was indicted on two theft charges. He also is still at large.

The Grand Jury also returned an indictment of forgery against Zeno Green. Green's indictment was filed under the habitual criminal statute. He is in jail.

Sammie Eugene Terrell was indicted on a DWI charge as a second offense. Terrell is presently free on bond.

Another DWI second offense indictment was returned against Louis Gonzales, Jr. Gonzales is presently in jail.

J. B. Koon of San Antonio was indicted on a swindling with worthless checks charge. Koon has a number of similar charges pending in county court. He also is presently in jail.

Charles Climer of Amarillo and Kermit who was indicted by the Grand Jury during their August term had the previous indictment confirmed. Climer is charged with kidnapping. He is presently free on bond.

The Grand Jury also indicted a man on failure to support a child. That man is presently being sought by officers.

Polish Bishops To Attend Vatican Council

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—State authorities have issued passports to 31 Polish bishops including Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński to attend the Vatican Council, a Roman Catholic Church official said Tuesday.

An official at the Warsaw Curia said it is hoped that more of the 48 bishops who applied for passports will receive them in time for reconvening of the council on Sunday in Rome.

Thirty-one bishops would be the largest delegation from Poland or any other Iron Curtain country ever to travel abroad but the number is still less than half of Poland's total of 65 bishops.

Civil Rights Bill Adds More Bans

By JOHN BECKLER
WASHINGTON (AP)—A sweeping ban on racial discrimination in places of public accommodation has reportedly been added to the administration's civil rights bill by a House Judiciary subcommittee.

An authoritative source said the action was taken Tuesday but was not made public at the request of the administration because of the crucial vote coming today on President Kennedy's tax cut bill.

The votes of Southern Democrats are needed to defeat a Republican amendment that would block the tax cut unless a lid is placed on federal spending for the coming year.

The revision the subcommittee is reported to have accepted tentatively goes beyond the administration's original proposal by giving the attorney general additional authority to intervene in cases of racial discrimination in places of public accommodation, based on the 14th Amendment to the Constitution.

In its proposed bill the administration pinned its basic authority

Frantic Effort Made To Get U. N. Monies

By TOM HOGE
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

—Racing against an Oct. 1 deadline, the United States and other Western nations today sought General Assembly action to raise $25 million to keep the U.N. peace force in the Congo until next June.

The move won support from the 32-nation African group. It is framed as an appeal to Secretary-General U. Thant to extend for six months the Dec. 31 target date for liquidating the U.N. force.

The problem of raising money to keep the force in the field was the prime concern as the assembly's 111-nation finance committee gathered for its first meeting of the 18th session.

Thant has warned that he will pull out the 7,000 troops in the Congo by year's end, unless the assembly approves maintenance costs within the next week.

Thant explained in a report to the Security Council last week that action must be taken by Oct. 1 because "supplies for the Congo force are no longer being fed into its logistics pipeline in anticipation of its termination by Dec. 31."

The United Nations has run into financial difficulties in the Congo because some nations, including the Soviet Union and France, have refused to pay their share of the peace-keeping operation.

Thant conferred Tuesday with members of his Congo advisory council after he met with U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson.

The United States has been carrying on talks with other U.N. members on means of raising a stop-gap fund to keep U.N. funds in the Congo.

Thant has expressed some misgivings about complete withdrawal of the U.N. Congo force. But he contended the United Nations costly three-year involvement provides a solid basis from which the Congo should be able to move toward a peaceful future.

The United States and Britain have questioned how solid this basis will prove if U.N. military supervision is removed.

Belgium also has expressed doubt whether its former colony can move ahead without U.N. troops. Belgium recently agreed to give the Congo one billion dollars in financial aid.

Premier Cyrille Adoula of the Congo has asked the United Nations to keep 3,000 U.N. soldiers on Congo soil at least until the first half of 1964. Thant insists that if U.N. troops are left, there must be a minimum of 6,000 to protect their own bases and lifelines.

At the peak of its peace-keeping effort, the United Nations had 21,000 soldiers in the Congo. It has been paying $120 million a year for the operation.

Dominican President Overthrown

SANTO DOMINGO (AP)—The Dominican Republic armed forces and police overthrew President Juan D. Bosch today and summoned leaders of opposition parties to pick a "respectable man" to succeed him. Military leaders charged Bosch's administration was chaotic.

Members of Bosch's Dominican Revolutionary party and their allies were not invited to the session aimed at setting up a provisional government.

Communists and leftist organizations supporting Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro were outlawed, their signs and slogans torn down by white-helmed riot police and many left-wingers arrested.

Leaders of the coup were men involved in the plot that ended the Trujillo family rule here.

The armed forces were setting up a lawful state. Bosch, first legally elected president of the Dominican Republic in 1962, governed for only eight months in an atmosphere of increasing economic unrest and political discontent. His one-year term had been predicted for weeks.

Mrs. Carmen Bosch, wife of the president, said in Puerto Rico she had talked to him by phone at 4 a.m. at which time he said he was surrounded in the presidential palace but would not give up. After that, telephone communications with the palace were cut.

RFK Says Crime 'Biggest Business'

By G. MILTON KELLY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate probe into the dark workings of a national crime syndicate opened today with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy telling of its secret meetings, assassinations and the chance of a major underworld power struggle in New York.

As the first witness, Kennedy set the stage for the Senate investigations subcommittee's hearings into organized crime which he called "one of the biggest businesses in America."

Getting a look at its clandestine operations is difficult because of the curtain of fear, he explained.

"This is one reason" the disclosures made by Joseph Valachi are significant," he said. "For the first time an insider—a knowledgeable member of the racketeering hierarchy—has broken the underworld's code of silence."

Valachi, 60, the convicted narcotics peddler and murderer who has been singing to federal agents since he heard the syndicate had issued a death warrant for him, has brought the jigsaw picture of organized crime into sharper focus, said Kennedy.

The hearing opened with a statement by Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., suggesting new federal law "to prohibit membership in such a criminal and secret organization as Cosa Nostra."

Cosa Nostra, translating as "Our Thing," is the crime combine whose blood oath Valachi broke. The hearings, McClellan said, have the objective "to give the law enforcement officials whatever additional tools they may need" to destroy such outfits as Cosa Nostra and to combat the illicit international traffic in narcotics.

McClellan said the hearings will trace the drug traffic, from the opium poppy fields in the Middle East to clandestine laboratories in Europe where it is refined, and into the hands of American addicts.

Valachi himself is scheduled to be one of the star witnesses later in the investigation.

Because of information from Valachi and other sources, Kennedy went on, the government has learned that Cosa Nostra—also known as the Mafia and the Black Hand—is run by a commission of nine to 12 active members.

The leaders of Cosa Nostra in most major cities are responsible to the commission which "makes major policy decisions for the organization, settles disputes among the families (gangs) and allocates territories of criminal operation."

Referring to the imprisoned New York mobster Vito Genovese, whom Valachi is reported to have portrayed as the chief of Cosa Nostra, Kennedy said that because of his power and the fear in which he is held in the New York organization, "no move has been made to take over the top spot while his appeal of a narcotics conviction is pending in the courts."

Kennedy warned if Genovese loses his appeal and stays in prison "we anticipate a major underworld power struggle in New York."

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL—Franz Strycharczyk, 26, a German seaman rescued by the U. S. Coast Guard after 14 hours in Atlantic waters, is shown at news conference in Rotterdam, Netherlands. He holds a souvenir, a shirt, from the rescue vessel. Strycharczyk, third engineer aboard German motor vessel Freiburg, went topside about 10 P.M. Sept. 12, without wearing a life preserver. The 327-foot ship rolled heavily and he went into the briny about 800 miles from Bermuda. The Freiburg missed him about two hours later and radioed for help. (AP Wirephoto)

Northeast Again Feels Early Chill

By The Associated Press

Unseasonably cool weather again today chilled broad areas in the Northeast and into parts of the Southland.

Freezing weather was reported in sections of New England, upstate New York, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. The mercury edged near 32 degrees in Asheville, N.C., and Richmond, Va., dropped to the 40s over much of the Carolinas.

Record low marks for Sept. 24 were reported Tuesday in many sections of the Northeast, with several cities reporting readings under 20 degrees.

Today's low marks included 31 in Albany, N.Y., and Elkins, N.C., and 32 in Philadelphia, Pa. Generally clear weather was reported in most of the cool belt.

The mercury soared to 103 Tuesday in Phoenix, Ariz. More rain fell in Florida, with heavy amounts in some areas. Gale warnings remained posted from Vero Beach northward. Tides were three feet above normal. A line of showers or thunderstorms broke out in a narrow line along a weak cold front which extended from Minnesota to the Texas Panhandle.

Armadoillo-Skunk Race Ends A Real 'Stinker'

FORESTBURG, Tex. (AP)—The armadoillo-skunk race here turned out to be about as wild as Mark Twain's jumping frog story.

The race was held in this Montague County town Monday. Frank Tolbert of the Dallas Morning News related today. The animals were placed in a 32-foot circle. First shot of the circle was the armadoillo.

The armadoillo-burrowed instead of running. The skunk raced over the line and tried to escape.

So another race was run. "This time the skunk arched its tail deliberately, then hit the armadoillo on the ear. The armadoillo naturally got out of the circle in nothing flat, while the skunk remained in the circle."

It being a two-out of three test, the third race was won by the skunk.

GOPs Eye Margaret Smith As Possible Veep Candidate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Margaret Chiles Smith is once again being talked about as a possible Republican vice presidential candidate, as she has been at intervals ever since she first was elected to the Senate in 1949.

Maine's champion vote getter, Mrs. Smith says she is startled by the mail she has received urging her to run on the GOP ticket next year. But she also says she is realistic enough to know she doesn't have a chance.

Regardless of how much she may discount her chances, associates said today a fairly steady stream of mail flows in suggesting her for the No. 2 spot—particularly as a running mate for Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona if he becomes the Republican nominee.

When Mrs. Smith joined Goldwater Tuesday in voting against ratification of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, some political observers saw this as a sign she might be moving in that direction.

When newsman asked her about it, she pointed out that the day before she had voted against Goldwater's reservation to delay the effectiveness of U.S. ratification until the removal of Soviet nuclear weapons and military personnel from Cuba had been verified by the United Nations.

Aides of Goldwater said he has not made overtures to Mrs. Smith or anyone else about the vice presidential nomination. They emphasized he hasn't even announced whether he would be a candidate for the presidential nomination.

Despite the absence of any declaration from Goldwater, he got a boost Tuesday from Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., who called a news conference to announce his support of the Arizona senator for president.

The administration can better afford to lose Democratic votes on passage of the bill. Many Republicans are expected to vote for it, whether or not the limitation is attached. But the GOP ranks are practically solid in support of the spending curbing amendment.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the Ways and Means Committee which wrote the tax legislation, was reported to have advised Democratic House leaders to let him handle the job of persuading Southerners.

But passage of the bill intact in the house would still leave a long hard road ahead.

The Senate Finance Committee may not begin hearings on the tax legislation before mid-October and an expected protracted civil rights fight could delay the tax bill almost indefinitely.

Democratic leaders were heartened by the apparent willingness of many members of the party's Southern wing to go along in opposition to the spending limit.

See Defeat Of Spending Lid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats are confident they can defeat a Republican effort to nail a government spending lid onto President Kennedy's $11-billion tax reduction measure when the bill comes up, for a House vote today.

"We are optimistic," said Rep. Albert W. Ottolenghi, D-Ill., Democratic leader.

If both the House and Senate approve the measure, the proposed cuts would begin to be felt in paychecks next January. The tax cuts would range from $100 and $200 a year for most taxpaying families—more in the upper brackets. Two-thirds would go into effect next Jan. 1, the rest a year later.

But passage of the bill intact in the house would still leave a long hard road ahead.

The Senate Finance Committee may not begin hearings on the tax legislation before mid-October and an expected protracted civil rights fight could delay the tax bill almost indefinitely.

Democratic leaders were heartened by the apparent willingness of many members of the party's Southern wing to go along in opposition to the spending limit.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: A neighbor asked me to write for her, as she can't write English. Here is her problem. Her husband is 76 and she is 62. Last May they attended a convention. Her husband is such a playboy, she had to shift for herself while he ran after girls young enough to be his daughters. Her question is should she go to another one of these conventions scheduled in October? She doesn't know whether to go and be hurt again, or to stay home and let him go alone and have the good time he doesn't deserve.

A FRIEND: DEAR FRIEND: A 76-year-old playboy is only running for the exercise. Tell your friend to go along. She'd be more miserable at home wondering what the old coot was up to.

DEAR ABBY: I feel like a highlight on the local sight-seeing tour. My husband and I have a lovely new home, of which we are very proud, but his mother has gone overboard about it. She brings all the visiting friends to go through my house without even calling to tell me they are coming. I have small children and the usual chores to do, but that doesn't bother her. She appears with the sight-seers at all hours. Should I sell tickets, or tell her that appointments must be made in advance, or what? Please don't print my name, or my HEAD will be on display with the rest of the house.

"HATES SURPRISES" DEAR "HATES": Tell your mother-in-law that you don't mind being an attraction on her sight-seeing tour, but you don't like surprise visits. Ask her please to give you at least three hours' notice.

DEAR ABBY: You always say that a wife should not convict her husband on circumstantial evidence. Just because she happens to find a hairpin in his pocket, or lipstick on his handkerchief, you say is no reason to lose trust in him. Well, I sure disagree with you 100 per cent. Where there's smoke, there's fire. My old man swore on his mother's grave that he was true to me. I found out

Administration Hopes Krush Will Talk On 'Second Steps'

An AP News Analysis
By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Diplomatic Affairs Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—With the test ban treaty safely through the Senate, administration leaders were reported cautiously hopeful today that Soviet Premier Khrushchev will be ready soon to negotiate on a "second step" to reduce dangers of nuclear war.

The same pressures believed to have influenced Khrushchev's decision to sign the limited ban on nuclear weapons testing are still present. This U. S. experts think Khrushchev may see further need to improve his relations with the Western powers.

These pressures include the bitter and growing differences between the Soviet Union and Red China and the apparently severe crop failure in the Soviet Union this year, which makes Khrushchev partially dependent on Western sources for wheat and other food grains.

Furthermore, U. S. officials believe that after the Cuban missile showdown last October Khrushchev decided the danger of nuclear war had been so great that steps toward minimizing future risks of worldwide destruction were necessary.

Possible next steps include proposals which Khrushchev himself has made for an East-West non-aggression pact and for the stationing of observers on both sides of the Iron Curtain to guard against surprise attack.

Of the two propositions, U. S. authorities think agreement on the observer plan is more likely because the nonaggression proposal has been tied by the Western powers to counterproposals for greater security for West Berlin.

The test-ban treaty cleared the Senate Tuesday by a 69-19 vote. It will prohibit all but underground testing.

President Kennedy, called the pact "a simple but substantial step in the direction of peace."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk has characterized it as a "first step" with the implication there must be other steps if Soviet-Western relations are to continue to improve.

So far, Khrushchev has shown no pressing interest in proceeding with further measures. Several reasons have been advanced for this in official Washington.

Khrushchev may have wanted to be sure the treaty would win Senate ratification before proceeding with further measures. He may also have decided that urging "consideration of other issues during the Senate debate might complicate matters."

Another and more generally accepted reason is that Khrushchev intended to assess the impact of the nuclear test ban, particularly on his struggle with the Red Chinese for leadership of Communist parties in Asia, Europe and Latin America.

Denning's 'Best Seller' Release Seen

LONDON (AP)—The British government unveils its best seller of the year tonight — Lord Denning's 30,000-word report on the Profumo scandal.

Politicians sharpened their knives for a new round in the long battle over former War Minister John Profumo's affair with prostitute Christine Keeler.

The government's pricing office made unprecedented arrangements to open its headquarters in central London half an hour after midnight for early buyers. The cost will be seven shillings sixpence — $1.05.

Denning, 64, a High Court judge, produced his report after a 12-week investigation, including interviews with more than 140 witnesses ranging from Prime Minister Macmillan to prostitutes.

Denning's chief task was to determine if the Profumo-Keeler affair involved any security leaks. Christine at the time was sharing her bed also with Capt. Yevgeny Ivanov, an assistant Soviet defense attache.

Tomorrow...Jet-smooth Luxury '64 CHEVROLET

'64 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan—one of 15 Jet-smooth luxury Chevrolets.

Chevrolet was luxurious before, but you should see it now. With smart new styling, the '64 Chevrolet looks even longer (but isn't). There's even a whole new series this year—the Impala Super Sports—with front bucket seats as standard equipment. (The new Impalas and Bel Airs are more luxurious, too. Even the lowest priced Biscaynes have new foam-cushioned seats front and rear and are fully carpeted.) Of course, you expect more than just luxury from Chevrolet. A choice of 16 power teams, for instance—a 6 and six V8's up to 425 hp (optional at extra cost). And quieter transmissions. Jet-smooth ride with Full Coil suspension. Flush-and-dry rocker panels, Delco

Take your first look at the first CHEVELLE!

CHEVELLE! by Chevrolet

New Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe—one of 11 models in three great series.

You've never seen anything like this totally new line of cars before. Chevelle is new in everything but Chevrolet quality. Chevelle is a good foot shorter than the big cars, so it parks easily. Yet the interior of its Body by Fisher gives you a generous supply of passenger and luggage room. The ride is surprisingly smooth with a rugged coil spring at all four wheels. And not so surprisingly for Chevrolet, the new Chevelle offers a choice of engines ranging from an economical 120-hp 6 to a 220-hp V8 (optional at extra cost). Choose the Chevelle you like best from the three series—the Malibu Super Sport, the Malibu and the 300 Series, eleven models in all—at your Chevrolet dealer's. (This good-looking Malibu Super Sport maybe?)

GIFT TEA—Mrs. Ray Hailey, the former Miss Gwen Groves, director of nurses at Cogdell Memorial Hospital, was honored with a gift tea Monday evening at the Nurses Home, Cogdell Drive. A pink and white color theme was carried out, with appointments in crystal

Zeta Lambda Holds First Meeting

In the first meeting of the year members of the Zeta Lambda Chapter of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society, an international honorary organization for women educators, heard reports from the State Convention held in San Antonio June 7-9, 1963. The reports were given by Virginia Grove, chapter president; Maydelle Burns, Vestal Mauer, first vice-president; and Mrs. Travis Boudes, State Chairman, Committee on Professional Affairs.

At the state convention Mrs. Ethel Sloan, Alpha President, presented results of a year of work, projected ideas for planning of a further year of work, evaluation, and other programs in inspiration. Dr. Dorothy Johnson, International Member, at Large Washington, D. C. spoke on "Beyond What We Are" at the President's Dinner. Using the story of an Indian chieftain of her native state, Dr. Johnson pointed the story to the fact that people find it necessary to strive more than once to accomplish their desires and ambitions. They learned through defeat; they used humility and the courage to work toward accomplishment. They learn that self is not the stuff of which leaders are made, but rather the service to others for which the individual can work long, hard and diligently to achieve that of which she can be proud.

"Spiral Upward Out of Circles" was the challenging subject of Miss Madge Budd, speaker for the Founders Dinner. She stated that the teacher who fits into today's pattern, has kept abreast of what is being planned, and is ready to share with her class as the event is taking place.

The speaker urged the atmosphere of welcome for new ideas. She said perhaps there is security in remaining with the circle, "that is doing the same thing" in the same way brings such comfort that one does not want to explore the possibilities of spiraling thought.

The woman who spirals to unlimited heights will be the woman who dares to be ahead of her time and be counted among those whose wisdom through the ages is still challenging mankind.

Members attending the meeting were: Ruby Anderson, Maydelle Burns, Carol Miller, Barbara Bigman, Rita Carter, Joyce Gorman, Virginia Groves, Lillian Jones, Eva Nelson, Lida Rhodes, Mabel Boudes, Lela Kinkadee, Bess Johnson, Mrs. Lela Kinkadee, Bess Johnson, Dorothy Miller, Maurye Scott, Mary Davenport, Dorelle Gorman, Hazel Gorman, Hazel Holliday, Vestal Mauer, Vella Bell, Zaida Brown, Sally O'Rear, and Esther Boren.

The meeting was held in the community room of Snyder Savings and Loan with Ruby Anderson, Dorelle Gorman, Hazel Holliday, and Agnes Kinkadee, hostesses.

ACCESSORY CLOSET—This closet was lined with vinyl stick-on plastic paper in a green and pink leaf pattern. Then shoe, hat, glove and scarf boxes were covered with the same paper and placed on the side walls. Covered hat boxes were nailed to the door and purses filed on the shelf.

Move The Clothes Out

By VIVIAN BROWN

The average American closet is a big joke and long has furnished inspiration to cartoonists and comedians.

It is crammed to the hilt in the smallest or largest house. The bigger the house, the more we have to store. Many people in very large homes resort to using unused bedrooms.

Small home owners and apartment dwellers are always apologizing for their closets, knowing that a glimpse of the untidy mass of objects crammed into closet shelves, doors and hangers.

Most closets are planned badly to begin with and there is not much that can be done about the blind space above and on the sides of the average closet. It is just poor design. We often forget what is stacked on shelves or hangers in an area we can't see without a flashlight.

Some people add portable wardrobes to bedrooms, for dresses, suits, coats, sometimes in a way that makes it look built-in, using the room's trim, in the doorway, for accessories. If one has a few feet of space for the additional unit, it is an ideal solution.

One homeowner utilized the small closet as an accessory closet, lining the entire closet and shelves with a vinyl stick-on plastic paper.

The back wall was imbedded with a series of upholstery tacks with colored heads (or you can get some of the larger fancy tie-back knobs) to hold necklaces, bracelets, earrings, rings that are worn from day to day. A cushion was nailed to the wall to hold ornamental pins, hat pins, etc.

Shoe boxes were covered with the stick-on paper and arranged on inexpensive shelf units on the side walls within the closet. Hat boxes were covered also and nailed to the closet door. The section of the lid placed next to

Women Look Forward To The Interlude Under Hair Dryer

BY INEZ ROBB

On my desk there is a letter written more in sorrow than in anger by a Massachusetts matron. Just one too many push-button gadgets to "save" the housewife and ease life's strains has come on the market. And my correspondent wants none of it.

What man hath wrought that distresses her so is a "Walk-Wear Home Hair Dryer," electric of course, that enables the push-button slave in a push-button-home to "dry and pretty her hair while she works."

This message for the day is taken from an advertisement for this mobile hair dryer enclosed in her letter by my outraged correspondent. The advertisement goes on to boast "extra long cord assures mobility, lets her dry her hair while she works."

"That's what I object to," writes the critic from Gloucester. "When my hair is drying, I don't want to be mobile; I want to be supine, recumbent, horizontal! (Ed. note: That's Massachusetts for you!) under a dryer in a beauty parlor. "I don't want to be up and working, attached by a cord, no matter how long and extra, to an electric outlet, the modern umbilicus of the world. I am not frightened by the thought that the mobile hair dryer cord and the cord of the vacuum cleaner or the electric mixer or the toaster might, with the cunning of inanimate objects, short-circuit and end all my problems instantly.

"What annoys me is that some man — no woman would do such a thing — has invented a gadget to deprive me of the only 30-to-40-minute period each week when I enter nirvana; when, under the dryer at the beauty parlor I am freed of all earthly cares and know the peace that passeth understanding."

Amen! The eloquent matron from Massachusetts has alerted me to a grave danger. Peace must be preserved; the peace under the dryer that to millions of women is the only time interval in the week when they can call their respective souls their own.

Terrorists Arrested

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Terrorists exploded about 20 small bombs in three Colombian cities Tuesday night. Damage was slight and no casualties were reported. Two persons were arrested in Bogota, where 14 bombs went off. One exploded 20 yards from the main entrance to the presidential palace, shattering some palace windows. Officials blamed Communists.

Pay no heed to the woman who protests that she hates to "waste" time under the dryer; she is filling in her teeth. Go into any beauty shoppe and note the look of beatific calm on the faces of women snug under the dryer where nothing, not even thought, can disturb them for a moment in time. It is a symbolic return to the womb, the world forgot.

Or, to get down to brass tacks, it offers to women the same kind of blissful, other-world interlude that men enjoy in the barber shop when their faces are swathed in the anonymity of steaming towels. Both experiences offer, in a way, an instant retreat in lives too complex to take advantage of the more formal retreats offered by religious orders.

I look forward to those 30 minutes under the dryer each week as the earned interlude when I can turn off my mind and revel in the women's magazines, with emphasis on the slicks that specialize in fashion. I can let down the gears, idle the motor and wonder why all fashion models today are basically contortionists. At the times, the clothes or the models out of joint? Those are the big kinds of problems suitable to dryer contemplation.

So I cast my vote with the lady from Massachusetts. No semi-attached mobile dryer for me that permits me to do and dry! Me for the 30 minutes of vegetative life under the beauty shop dryer once every seven days!

I don't want to do and dry; I want to dry as I lie relaxed under the dryer at 11a, with a card around my neck reading: "Do Not Disturb. Woman Recharging Batteries."

Redecorating Entails War Of Books

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—I don't know what's going on in your apartment, but in our apartment, we have our four-room tenement castle repainted, whether it needs it or not.

Every three years or so — to please the landlord and annoy the spiders — we have our four-room tenement castle repainted, whether it needs it or not.

Over a quarter of century my wife, Frances, and I have developed a formula to divide the chores. For example, by an unwritten code of our marital code, she takes down my library books and dusts them before the painters come. After the painters leave, it is my job to put the books back on the shelves.

As anyone who has gone through this procedure knows, my wife has the better of this bargain. Any child can pull down books. That's easy. It is putting them back that is hard work.

First, there is the big argument about which books can be discarded. When our place was repainted not long ago, my wife filled up four boxes of volumes which she denounced as "useless trash."

After carefully reviewing her choices, I said, "Okay, you can throw away three."

"Three boxes?" she asked hopefully.

"Of course not! Three books."

"But you've got more than a thousand books. The way they're piling up, they'll crowd us out of house and home."

"Then throw out the sofa," I told her. "Throw out the television set."

The trouble with putting back books is that for every five you place back on the shelf you find one that you must sit down and thumb through. Not later. Right then.

Recently my wife issued an ultimatum after finding no place to put down the breakfast dishes except on a collection of speeches by Daniel Webster and a copy of Taine's "History of English Literature."

"This isn't a home—it's a literary junkyard," she said. "I want you to promise that this weekend you'll do nothing but put back your books—and really concentrate on it."

I reluctantly put down a life of Jesse James I was browsing in, held up my hand in the Boy Scout pledge, and promised that on my honor I would do my best.

At bedtime next Sunday night my wife found me lying on the floor looking at illustrations in a purple-covered old book, "Sins of New York."

Jumping up guiltily, I showed my wife the weekend hadn't been wasted. During the two days I had managed to fill up one entire shelf with books.

Somehow this failed to impress Frances.

False Loan Statements Bring Two Indictments

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—A federal grand jury has returned two indictments involving allegedly false statements in connection with home loans in Lubbock. Indicted on seven counts Tuesday were Frank Lancaster and Donald Lewis. The cases involve statements filed concerning Federal Housing Administration home loans.

The indictments were high on a list of 43 returned by the grand jury, empaneled by U.S. Dist. Judge Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas. It is the first grand jury to meet here in more than 20 years.

U. S. Atty. Barefoot Sanders said the jury will continue deliberations into next week.

Junior Editors Quiz on STAMPS

HOBBY NUMBER ONE

QUESTION: How did stamps come to be used for postage?

ANSWER: Stamps were in use for other purposes before they were adopted for postage. Stamps on documents, etc., were used by governments had been paid. We show an upper left one of the stamps which England forced the American colonists to use. The colonists bitterly resented this—it was one of the causes of the Revolution. In the 1860's, postal services began to improve. In 1840, Great Britain began issuing stamps which could be placed on letters to prove the postage had been paid. The first stamps, the "Penny Black" and another selling for two pence, were issued May 6, 1840. Several other countries began to use stamps shortly thereafter, but it was not until 1847 that the U. S. began to issue them. We show one of the first American stamps. By 1864, a stamp catalog had been published, which shows that the great hobby of stamp collecting must have started. Stamps tell of many romantic places and occupations. And, there's always the possibility of making some rare find.

FOR YOU TO DO: A very pleasant way of getting stamps from foreign countries is to exchange American stamps for foreign ones by corresponding with a foreign friend, or pen pal. You can find lists of foreign boys and girls who would like American pen pals in newspapers and magazines.

(Ted Bachta, Jr., of Auburn, N. Y., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, and you may win a set too.)

Africans Alarmed By Eased Tension

By ANDREW BOROWIEC.
TUNIS (AP)—Unlike leaders on other continents, a number of African statesmen show increasing concern because tensions between the West and the Soviet bloc appear to be easing.

Since the signing of the limited nuclear test ban, many African officials have expressed fear privately that the two power blocs may reach an agreement that would reduce East-West competition in Africa.

That struggle for influence is a main source of income for most new African nations. Much of Western and Communist aid for Africa stems from the fear that "if we don't do it, the other side will."

Most African nations get money from both East and West and don't hesitate to play one against the other.

Many Africans fear that reduction or elimination of the big power competition would throw them back on the mercy of their former colonial masters.

Tunisian Foreign Minister Mongi Slim, one of Africa's top spokesmen, warned in a talk with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko in New York that there should be no easing of East-West tension "at Africa's expense."

Slim's statement was broadcast by the Tunisian radio which also quoted him as saying any international entente should be used to speed up decolonization in Africa. A number of editorials and comments have accused representatives of the major powers at the U.N. General Assembly session of a lack of interest in Africa.

A Tunisian radio commentator stressed with bitterness that President Kennedy and Gromyko devoted only fractions of their U.N. addresses to African problems. The African nations want to make the current assembly session an "African session." Officially the liberation of Portuguese territories and of South Africa from white rule are the aims. But many observers believe some nations are using the campaign to divert attention from overwhelming problems at home.

Ionosphere Probe Said Satisfactory

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP)—An Aerobee rocket carrying an 185-pound instrument package of United States - Japanese experiments was fired 129 miles into the ionosphere today.

The eight-minute flight was "considered good," said the National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman. The payload splashed down in the Atlantic 80 miles from NASA's launching station here and the spokesman said, "a preliminary look at telemetry from the flight indicates all experiments functioned."

The rocket was launched at 2:45 a.m. NASA said the second flight in the series is scheduled for Thursday and will be a day-long launch.

Today's shoot was designed to measure electron density and temperature simultaneously by different methods. Measurements made by a Langmuir probe, supplied by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Goddard Space Flight Center at Greenbelt, Md., were to be compared with measurements made with a radio-frequency resonance probe developed by the Radio Research Laboratory in Tokyo, Japan.

The Aerobee payload also carried equipment for two secondary NASA experiments. One was a microwave receiver for a study of radio wave propagation at very low frequency (vlf) and the other was a small sodium lamp to measure the sodium gas content in the lower ionosphere.

The current U.S.-Japanese experiments are designed to obtain data from higher altitudes than previous experiments.

Another international experiment, a planned rocket loop-shot around the Canadian Alouette satellite 630 miles above the earth, is scheduled here Saturday night.

Wife Brings Evidence

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A housewife brought into court a pair of her husband's shorts, dyed pink, in pressing her suit for $33 against a coin-operated laundry.

Mrs. Robert Wallen complained also that shirts, socks and towels were dyed pink in the public washer.

She said she had gone to do some shopping and could only guess that someone had tossed a red rug, or such, into her laundry for a free wash.

The laundry owner denied responsibility. The judge took the claim under advisement.

Trojans Are Picked To Derail Sooners

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—There's a great deal of difference between a touchdown and a touchback. But this corner was totally confused in 15 of 45 decisions in last week's major college football inaugural and is handicapped by a 62 average heading into this week's predictions.

With that burden, here are this week's winners:
Southern California over Oklahoma. Equip your television set with a shatterproof screen for this meeting of the nation's No. 1 and 3 teams. The Trojans' Four Buses—Beathard, Brown, Bedole and Banno—will squeak through over the Sooners' Jim Grisham. Alabama over Tulane. The Tulane losing streak goes on and on and on. Joe Namath, Alabama quarterback, is the reason.

Colts Down Bears, 14-0

The Colts pushed over touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters to decision the Bears, 14-0, in the Boys Club Free Wee Football League opening game Tuesday afternoon.

Mark Gilstrap scored from 5 yards out in the second period and then ran over the extra points. Billy Bowden went 5 yards for the fourth quarter score.

Bowden and Cliff Voss were top ground gainers for the Colts. Defensive standouts for the winners were Lou Capote, Bill Wilson, Cliff Voss, John Ellis and Jamie Boren. Leading ground gainers for the Bears were Don Light, Stewart Sims and Darrell Ross. The same trio, along with Duane Fagan, Darwin Belt, Gary Smith and Ronald Zubisch were the leading tacklers in the Bear defense.

Next Free Wee action will be Thursday at 4:30 when the Hot Shots tangle with the Frogs.

JAY WILLIAMSON
Know The Tigers

Jay Williamson is a 150-pound junior who is up from last year's B Team. He has lived in Snyder since 1956, having moved here from Big Spring. Jay's number 21 will be seen quite a lot this year on both offense and defense.

With that burden, here are this week's winners:
Southern California over Oklahoma. Equip your television set with a shatterproof screen for this meeting of the nation's No. 1 and 3 teams. The Trojans' Four Buses—Beathard, Brown, Bedole and Banno—will squeak through over the Sooners' Jim Grisham. Alabama over Tulane. The Tulane losing streak goes on and on and on. Joe Namath, Alabama quarterback, is the reason.

Texas over Texas Tech. Tech surprised last week with its victory over Washington State but if the Raiders win this one it will be an out-fight miracle.

Navy over William & Mary. All those off-season rumors about the Middle powerhouse turned out to be true—in the 51-7 slaughter of West Virginia—there actually are 10 other starters in Navy line-up besides Roger Staubach.

Northwestern over Indiana. Notre Dame over Wisconsin. Going against the odds but in the belief that the Irish will go all out in their effort to start new coach Hugh Devore off on a winning season.

Arkansas over Missouri. A neighborhood brawl that will have national repercussions. Missouri, which suffered huge graduation losses, needs another month to be considered solid.

Penn State over UCLA. Clemson has nothing to compare with the Billy Lushridge-and-Billy Martin combination of the Engineers.

Georgia Tech over Washington. It is hard to believe that the mighty Huskies of the Pacific Northwest could lose two in a row, but the coin came up heads.

Penn State over UCLA. Coach Rip Engle's Larry Z offense isn't lay at all.

Minnesota over Nebraska. Minnesota still has Carl Eller as the backbone of its line.

Princeton over Rutgers. These two teams started it all back in 1869. But this time fullback Cosmo Iacavazzi is in the Tiger line-up.

Skipping over the others:
FRIDAY NIGHT
Detroit over Northern Michigan.

After sitting out the William and Mary game, Staubach got in two minutes of action in a 21-0 loss to Minnesota.

For the third game this season, Staubach was moved ahead of senior quarterback Ron Klemick and responded by completing 11 passes for 99 yards and carrying the ball 8 times for 89 yards up a 41-0 victory over Cornell.

Playing as first-string quarterback, Staubach finished with a total offense of 1,231 yards. This was only 117 short of the Naval Academy record set by George Welsh in 1955, a season in which he played more than twice as much as Staubach did last year.

Staubach also was the nation's most accurate passer last year, completing 67 of 98 passes for an average of 64.4 per cent.

Navy Coach Wayne Hardin says the Cincinnati athlete "is destined to be the greatest quarterback that has ever played for Navy."

Fogor is a deadly passer and dangerous runner," he said. "He never ceases to amaze even our people who watch him every day."

Tigerette League Meet Set Tonight

The Tigerettes Ladies Bowling League will hold a meeting at 7:30 p.m. tonight at Tiger Bowl.

They will begin bowling immediately after the meeting, and sponsors are urged to bring their teams and sign up.

The grandstand and clubhouse at New York's Aqueduct race track cover seven acres.

Junior High Teams Have Full Slate

Fresh from a full slate of victories, all six Snyder junior high football teams will return to action Thursday.

Three games will be unrehearsed on the local junior high gridiron, beginning at 5 p.m. when Lamar 7th meets Sweetwater.

Lamar 8th will play Sweetwater 9th here at 6:30 p.m. and Travis 9th will face Big Spring Goliad 9th here at 8 p.m.

On the road will be Lamar 8th at Sweetwater for a game beginning at 7:30 p.m.; Travis 8th at Big Spring Goliad at 5 p.m. and Travis 7th at Colorado City at 5:30 p.m.

The local junior high teams are undefeated for the season, the only blemish on the record being a 0-0 tie between Lamar 9th and Goliad in their first game of the season two weeks ago.

Gunderson Is Final Hope For America

NEWCASTLE, Ireland, (AP)—JoAnne Gunderson, 24-year-old Curtis Cup golfer, today moved into the last 16 of the British Women's Amateur Golf Championship—the sole American survivor.

Miss Gunderson, now of Providence, R.I., defeated Margaret Nichol of England, 6 and 5, in the third round.

Two other United States women—Judy Bell of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Mrs. Anne Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio—lost their third round matches.

Julia Greenhaigh of Britain, recent winner of the New Zealand title defeated Miss Bell 1 up and Irish champion Philomena Garvey knocked out Mrs. Stranahan, 2 and 1.

The fourth round will be played this afternoon.

Miss Gunderson, 24, had a first-round bye and then swept into the third round with a 5 and 4 victory over Elizabeth Curtis of Britain.

Miss Gunderson has won the United States title three times. She is a member of the U.S. Curtis Cup team at Lindrick, England, in 1960, struggled to a 2 and 1 victory over Ireland's Johnny Lambert in the first round and then sank a two-footer for a one-up victory over Ita Burke of Ireland in the second round.

SOUTH: The Citadel over Davidson, Florida over Mississippi State, Furman over Georgia Washington, Georgia over Vanderbilt, Mississippi over Kentucky, Purdue over Miami, Texas Christian over Florida State, South Carolina over Maryland, North Carolina State over Southern Mississippi, Tennessee over Auburn, Duke over Virginia, Virginia Tech over Wake Forest.

MIDWEST: Ohio University over Dayton, Illinois over California, Iowa State over Virginia Military, Iowa over Washington State, Syracuse over Kansas, Michigan over Southern Methodist, Michigan State over North Carolina, Villanova over Toledo, Ohio State over Texas A & M.

SOUTHWEST: Baylor over Houston, Louisville over North Texas State, Louisiana State over Rice, West Texas State over Pacific.

PACIFIC: Air Force over Colorado State U., New Mexico State over Arizona State, Brigham Young over Arizona, Utah over Idaho, North Dakota over Montana, Oregon State over Colorado, San Jose over Kansas State, Oregon over Stanford, Utah State over Wyoming.

The deal was triggered by the Giants' first regular season shut-out loss in 10 years, Sunday's 31-0 rout by Pittsburgh. Guglielmi was ineffective as the replacement for injured quarterback Y. A. Tittle, and defensive halfback Allan Webb came out of the rugged battle with a twisted knee that probably will keep him out of next Sunday's game at Philadelphia.

Guglielmi, 29, was the top draft choice of the Washington Redskins in 1955 and was with the club through 1960, with two years out in the Air Force. He spent 1961 with St. Louis, then was swapped to the Giants.

Dove, a 28-year-old former Colorado star, was a first-string defensive back for the 49ers for three years, but was dropped to reserve last season. He had earned the NFL in 1959.

For the third game this season, Staubach was moved ahead of senior quarterback Ron Klemick and responded by completing 11 passes for 99 yards and carrying the ball 8 times for 89 yards up a 41-0 victory over Cornell.

Quarterback Club In Jovial Session

A jovial atmosphere prevailed at the Quarterback Club's weekly meeting last night.

Victory after victory was the report of the coaches of the various teams, the lone exception being the B Team, and that aggregation played well enough to reap some plaudits from the coaching staff.

"They didn't play nearly as well as we expected," Head Coach Horace Bostick said of Leveland, the Tigers' opponent of last Friday night.

Thus, the Tiger mentor indicated that nobody around the Tiger practice field was planning to rest on laurels of last week.

Bostick said the Leveland team just hadn't been able to click, and that the Lobos were capable of a far better performance than they exhibited here last Friday. That was a round about way of warning that Big Spring, this Friday night's Tiger foe, will be tough. The Longhorns downed Lamar, 14-7, in the season opener, and then took last week off, enabling their coaching staff to make copious additions to their scouting notes on various opponents, particularly the Snyder Tigers.

Bostick said he was pleased with the way the Tigers moved the football against Leveland, but he reasoned that Big Spring would be tougher to handle. He reminded that the Steers have had two solid weeks to iron out their rough spots since their opening game—and they were good enough to decision a good, big Lamar team two weeks ago.

Wayne Tyrone presented a scouting report on Big Spring. He said the Steers will present a prototype offense with an end split wide to one side and a flanking back wide to the opposite side. They'll get plenty of power, as well as tricky pass patterns off that lineup, he said.

"But they went ahead and printed it. Actually, it was more a misunderstanding of the situation," Bostick said. "It was real embarrassing to me and my wife."

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced Tuesday night in New York that the league's investigation of Coach's transactions determined the league involves repayment of loans and had no connection with gambling.

Bostick said his chief investigator, Jim Hamilton, had returned with copies of checks and records that supported Conery's contention that he had loaned money to Lewis as a friend in need.

Hamilton reported that interviews with 15 businessmen and law enforcement officials in Clarksville and Memphis had established that "they had never heard of Lewis having an interest in anything other than normal business activities until his indictment Jan. 8."

Lewis was indicted by the State County, Tenn., grand jury on football gambling charges and is awaiting trial. The Memphis Press-Scimitar disclosed last Friday in a copyright story that five checks from Lewis to Conery turned up during recent bankruptcy proceedings.

No Pain For Alston Today

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Walt Alston was feeling no pain today.

It happened this way. Walt's dentist took care of his teeth, the Chicago Cubs took care of the St. Louis Cardinals and the champagne took care of everything else.

The champagne put the finishing touches on the 1963 National League pennant chase—some nine hours after Alston's Los Angeles Dodgers had clinched their first flag since 1959 without even so much as lifting a bat or throwing a pitch.

Alston had just left his dentist's chair Tuesday when the news was broadcast in Los Angeles that the Chicago Cubs had defeated second-place St. Louis 6-3 in a day game, eliminating the Cardinals and wrapping up the race for the Dodgers.

"Anybody who says we backed into the pennant missed our five games last week," said Dodgers pitcher Don Drysdale before taking the mound in a night game and holding his own pennant celebration by posting his 19th victory in a 4-1 victory over the New York Mets.

Notified even before they reported to the ballpark that they were the National League champions, the Dodgers players reacted as expected—except for catcher John Roseboro.

Veteran-Wally Moon said, "I'm happy." Tommy Davis said, "It's a great feeling." Moose Skowron called it "real wonderful."

Roseboro's wife told him she had heard of the Cardinals' loss on the radio. She said Roseboro yawned, and went to take a nap.

The Dodgers had little opportunity to nap during the season until they moved into St. Louis last week with a one-game lead, swept a three-game series from the Cardinals and returned to Los Angeles with the pennant all but officially clinched.

The American League champion New York Yankees began final preparations for the opening game of the World Series, Wednesday, Oct. 2 by trotting out the entire first string for the first time since June 5—and bombing the Los Angeles Angels 8-1.

For those who had forgotten what the Yankees' regular lineup looks like, here's the batting order that likely will open the Series: Tony Kubek ss, Bobby Richardson 2b, Tom Tresh lf, Mickey Mantle cf, Roger Maris rf, Elston Howard c, Joe Pennington 1b, Cleve Royer 3b, Whitey Ford p.

1964 Chevrolets To Go On Display

The new Chevrolets for 1964 will go on display here Thursday at Lamb Chevrolet Co., Twenty-fifth Street at Avenue H.

Chevrolet will introduce 43 new models in five distinct sizes, 10 more than in 1963 and the greatest number the division has ever offered in a single year.

Included will be the industry's only all-new car for 1964 — the Chevelle. This much discussed combination of beauty, quality, performance and distinction is sided between the regular Chevrolet and Chevy II.

All Chevrolet's five lines of 1964 cars have styling and engineering improvements which teamed with the increase in models and options — allow the customer to tailor a car to his particular requirements as never before.

"Car buyers today like diversity," Semon E. Knudsen, Chevrolet general manager, declares. "They like to be able to choose cars from a wide selection of sizes, styles and performance characteristics."

"We expect the broad diversity in our 1964 cars to win the customer votes needed to continue Chevrolet's traditional industry leadership."

Following are the highlights of the five members of Chevrolet's 1964 "family."

REGULAR CHEVROLETS — Extensive new styling is evident in the regular Chevrolet line, again stroking the big car luxury which has made it so popular.

A Super Sport series featuring bucket seats and special interior and exterior appointments in both a convertible and sport coupe has been added for 1964, bringing the total models of regular Chevrolets to 15 in four series.

Although over-all dimensions are the same as in 1963, the regular Chevrolet has a longer, wider look created by new flowing side lines and a smooth, broader styling of front and rear ends.

Crisp, distinctive exterior moldings and interior appointments distinguish between the Super Sport, Impala, Bel Air and Biscayne series.

The 1964 Chevrolet models feature new interior trim styling and materials, yet retain the built-in comfort, convenience, luxury and durability traditional with Body by Fisher.

All of Chevrolet's advanced 119 inch wheelbase chassis features are continued for 1964, including X-built, Safety-Girder frame, Full Coil suspension, self-adjusting master brakes, high capacity electrical system with Delcotron generator and long-life exhaust system.

Seven engines ranging from 140 to 425 horsepower will be offered. Optional for the first time in 1964 on 409 cubic inch engines is a full transistor ignition system. Four transmissions will be offered and the four-speed Synchro-Mesh includes refinements for smoother shifting and greater durability.

CHEVELLE — Chevrolet's new automobile line for 1964 embodies a distinctive styling and will be offered in 11 models in three series — the top-of-the-line Malibu Super Sport, the Malibu and the 300.

Quality and vehicle width are stressed in the front end design which makes use of dual headlights and horizontal grille bars. Side treatment is clean and a peak line which carries throughout the car gives a look of length.

The rear end design accents car width with tail-and-backup lights at the extreme ends of the rear back panel. A textured molding extends the full width of the car.

A special feature of the Chevelle body is the use of curved side windows to give a lower look. A strikingly wide instrument panel is part of the distinctive interior styling which includes trim styles and materials color-keyed to the new exterior colors.

The classic is completely new, featuring a perimeter frame. Front suspension makes use of coil springs and rear suspension is of the off-spring four link type.

Fourteen inch wheels, self-adjusting Safety-Master brakes and a high capacity Delcotron generator are standard equipment. Four engines — two six-cylinder and two optional V8s — are offered on all Chevelle models. Four different transmissions are available.

CHEVY II — In its third year on the market, the Chevy II continues its popular blend of small car handling, roominess, economy and good taste in a total of 6 models in two series — the Nova and the 100 series.

The basic styling personality of the Chevy II is continued in 1964, but there is added beauty through refinements in the grille, side moldings, emblems and hub caps and more luxurious interiors.

A V8 engine will be offered for the first time as an extra-cost option on all models. With the V8, which will be Chevrolet's 203 cubic inch 195 horsepower model, the customer may choose either standard three-speed, optional four-speed or Powerglide transmissions.

Two six-cylinder engines at 120 and 135 horsepower will be available in all Chevy II models. The economical four-cylinder 90 horsepower engine will continue to be available in the two-and-four-door sedans of the 100 series.

An important mechanical feature on all Chevy II models will be the new, larger 9.5 inch self-adjusting brakes to give greater margin of stopping safety.

CORVAIR — Entering its fifth year, the Corvair will continue its important place in the Chevrolet lineup by appealing to a group of buyers who like something sportier and less conventional in a small car.

A Monza Spyder series composed of a top-of-the-line convertible and club coupe is added for 1964, bringing the total models to seven in four series — the Monza Spyder, Monza, 700 and 500 series, plus two Greenbrier Sports Wagons.

Corvair styling for 1964 retains the clean, classic theme with new identification through emblems and ornamentations. All models except Greenbrier feature a slender new front body molding with colorful plastic-emblem insert. The word "Corvair" extends across luggage and engine compartment lids in bright block letters.

All Corvair models will feature a new larger displacement 164 cubic inch engine that delivers economy. This new engine retains the six-cylinder air-cooled design. Horsepower ranges from 95 to 110 to 150.

Improved brakes and a new suspension design will enhance handling characteristics of all Corvair models.

CORVETTE — America's only sports car — fresh from its most successful year in 1963 — continues the famed design of its two Sting Ray models, the convertible and the sport coupe for 1964.

Offering broader appeals to more kinds of buyers, the 1964 Corvette combines the driving and handling enjoyment of a genuine sports car with the luxury and convenience most fine car owners want.

Lone Negro At 'Ole Miss' Expelled

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — The University of Mississippi has again become an all-white school with the ouster of Cleve McDowell.

McDowell, 21, was a second-term law student until Tuesday when the school expelled him for carrying a gun.

Asked about the decision as he left campus for his home at Drew 69 miles to the southwest, the Negro replied: "I have no emotions about it whatsoever."

McDowell faces a justice of the peace trial on Saturday on charges of carrying a concealed deadly weapon, a loaded 22-caliber revolver. Maximum penalty would be three months in jail and $100 fine. He is free on $250 bond.

Officers arrested him on campus Monday.

The Student Judicial Council held a hearing Tuesday on charges that McDowell violated a university regulation against carrying arms on campus. McDowell and his attorney appeared before the council.

The student group recommended expulsion to Dean L. L. Love, who passed the recommendation to Chancellor J. D. Williams. Both the dean and the chancellor concurred.

The decision may be appealed to the State College Board of Trustees.

Charles Evers of Jackson, state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said he thought the university "went by the policy of the school."

Earlier, Evers had said he hoped that McDowell would get off with a strong reprimand.

McDowell had been the only Negro at Ole Miss since James H. Meredith graduated last month. Meredith, 26, was not protected by federal marshals while on campus. Meredith's enrollment last fall set off rioting.

Chinese Nationalists Accepted As Members

ROME (AP) — Screaming Red Chinese delegates tried in vain Tuesday to block the admission of Nationalist China to the 17th International Medical Conference of the fight against tuberculosis.

More than 3,000 delegates from 77 countries are attending the three-day meeting.

During a session of the council's directorate, several nations proposed the admission of the Formosa-based government.

The Red Chinese delegates, shouting and screaming, left the room after the Nationalist government was voted in as a member.

Not shown is the Corvette Sting Ray which sports a 98-inch wheelbase.

Hopes For U. S.-Soviet Grain Deal

OTTAWA (AP) — A spokesman for a team of American grain merchants indicated today his group hopes to make a huge sale of U.S. grain to the Soviet Union, similar to the deal recently concluded by Canada.

Burton Joseph, president of I.S. Joseph Inc. of Minneapolis, said his group is in Ottawa to sell wheat but it is "far premature to talk of a trade between these two countries" — the United States and the Soviet Union.

Joseph said he has not met with the head of the Soviet group that bought $500 million worth of Canadian wheat and flour last week. He declined to say whether a meeting is scheduled.

"We just don't know what we have here ourselves," said Joseph. "We're way ahead of ourselves."

He added that possibly he could say more "in a few days."

The Soviet delegation is still in Ottawa although it concluded its dealings with the Canadian government last week. It is headed by S. A. Borisov, first deputy minister of trade.

With Joseph in Ottawa are two other Minneapolis grain men, Charles Ritz, board chairman of International Milling Co., and Ralph Bruce, a vice president of Archer Daniels Midland Co., and Leopold Stern, director of the Louis Dreyfus Corp. of New York.

Joseph said there are "a few more" representatives of the American grain industry in Ottawa but would not identify them. Activity among the American wheat men was intensive. They

Say Castro Plans To Parachute Guerrillas

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Exiles say Cuba intends to parachute Cuban, Venezuelan and Panamanian Communists into their own countries by the end of October to wage guerrilla war.

The Cuban Revolutionary Student Directorate, an anti-Castro exile group, said 600 such paratroopers have been trained. Brazilians, Peruvians and Bolivians also are practicing jumps and tactics, the directorate said.

A directorate spokesman said Tuesday it had been advised by underground sources that three drops have been made — two in Venezuela and one in Panama.

"No weapons, only men landed," the informant said.

Test Your Skill...Win CASH PRIZES

HERE ARE THE RULES OF THE CONTEST

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played in the country this week-end. Get an entry blank from one of the merchants who are helping sponsor this contest and whose message is on this page. Fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only ... opposite the name of the firm on the entry blank. Then send your complete blank to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, THE SNYDER DAILY NEWS. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 12 o'clock noon, Friday. Games ending in a tie score must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

If there is a tie for first-place the winners will divide the cash money of $12.50 and no second prize will be given. If there is a first-place winner and a tie for second place, the second prize winners will divide the money for the place. If more than two persons tie for second place, no second prize money will be awarded and the cash will be added to next week's prize. Tie for perfect score will split $25.00. There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted from any one person. More than one will disqualify all of the person's entries. Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing on the choice of the winner. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number — and watch for the story on next Wednesday's front page for the winner. Hurry now, and get your entry blank from one of the merchants on this page. The contest blank must be in your own handwriting. Employees of The Snyder Daily News and their families are not eligible to enter.
