The other nominees were Dr. Elton Berkman, John Martin, Truman Nix, Murrell Blassingame, and R. B. Baker.

The five new directors will serve three year terms, beginning in January.

Dr. Bridgford is a dentist and Bobby Lemons is Mitchell County agriculture agent.

They will take the places of Robert Aycock Jr., Postmaster Arlene Morris, Dr. H. Jene Steakley, Travis Turner and Manuel Rivera on the board.

Holdover members are Drew Ballard, Mrs. Edwin B. Carlock, John Billings (newly appointed to the board to fill an unexpired term), Dick Wistrand, George Witten, Wayne Shawn, Kenneth Rogers, Rev. Don Timberlake, Rick Perkin, and Vernon Lewis.

Houston Coach To Speak At Banquet

University of Houston chief defensive strategist will be speaker Saturday night when the Wolverines honor Colorado High's 1972 football squad.

The annual banquet will be in the high school cafeteria and will feature awards to outstanding players on Coach Weldon Brevard's 3-AAA team.

Melvin Robertson, 42, a long-time West Texan is the University of Houston head defensive and assistant head football coach who will be principal speaker for the banquet.

And he knows this area well, having coached at Stanton and Sweetwater before joining coaching staffs at Amarillo High and Odessa High, where he moved up to major college coaching in Houston.

Robertson is a graduate of West Texas State University and a veteran of 20 years of coaching.

Robertson took charge of the Houston defense in 1967 after serving as defensive backfield coach for a year, a position he still holds. While Houston's defense has been overshadowed by the offense for the past three years, Robertson's "Mad Dog" defense was one of the country's best last fall.

Cougar defender's have given up only 94 yards rushing per game five of the past six season's. In 1968 they were 10th in the nation in total defense, in 1969 they were 10th in rushing defense and 19th in total defense. Last year they were 19th in total defense and 12 in pass defense.

The Houston secondary, personally coached by Robertson, set a school record with 31 pass interceptions, also good for 3rd nationally. Robertson's 1966 UH secondary set the school record of 26 that was broken last fall.

A former backfield coach of the North All-Stars in the High School All-Star game, Robertson was a collegiate quarterback and trackman. He coached Stanton High School for four years, from there he moved to Sweetwater as backfield coach for six seasons, including a trip to the state finals. While at Sweetwater they stopped Abilene High's 54 game winning streak. During that time he coached with UH assistant Billy Willingham.

Robertson also coached under former UH staff member "Bum Phillips" now with the San Diego Chargers, at Amarillo High School. From there he went to Odessa in June, 1965.

CONVERSATION CORNER

HEARD the other day that the best way to be happy is just to learn to enjoy being miserable.

The world is full of people who enjoy being miserable and are not really happy unless they have something to be miserable about. Some people are born that way. Others acquire the art of being happy when they're miserable through long and constant practice.

Here in this merry season enjoying being miserable comes a bit harder. There is just something about Christmas which maketh the heart happy just being happy.

However, if you are absolutely determined to enjoy being miserable there are ways.

* * *

YOU CAN start by counting the shopping days 'til Christmas--just 11 as of today--then count the presents bought so far--exactly two.

Next you can count your money or credit cards. That's usually an infallible method to enjoy being miserable.

You can hunt last year's Christmas decorations, not find any of them any where you can think of and have a panic all over the place.

You can see Christmas trees all over town and wonder where in the name of glory you could put one this year except on top of the piano or maybe on top of the garage.

* * *

YOU CAN go into a complete decline remembering that the cards bought three years ago have still not been addressed and mailed.

You can scan the Christmas list then go price most of the items on it. Or you can take out a classified ad announcing to whom it may concern that you have decided to have Christmas the first Monday in February. Why not?

You might decide to forget about the whole thing until Dec. 24 and run yourself, plus all the stores, crazy that day.

You could make the holidays candy after bedtime. . .or even try to develop some strange ailment and tell everybody you're sick.

* * *

IF ALL, or any of those don't make you happy being miserable, you can do an about-face and be happy just being happy about the whole thing.

You can get excited and delighted. . .listen to the Christmas music. . .put the tree on the front porch if necessary. . . saunter through the displays of finery and come home with bath powder, ties, socks, and whatnots.

You can read fancy recipes and then convince yourself that ambrosia is easier and always has tasted pretty wonderful.

You can buy yourself a present, first, just to get in the mood. That's one of the happiest ways to start out being happy ever invented for this season.

* * *

YOU CAN entertain yourself by remembering other Christmases. . .the time the six-foot tree fell on top of you and the kitchen stool just as you attached the shining top star, for instance.

There was the time the girl helping to cook for company threw away ALL the turkey gravy and stock. The time the mince pie was dropped flat on the oven door and all over the waxed kitchen floor.

And the time one of the children's main presentes was hidden so well it was not located until after dark Christmas Day. And the year half the family got the wrong gifts because tags got mixed up all over. Wonder who ate up all the candy on the gumdrop tree after everybody was supposed to be in bed?

* * *

AND YOU can always write a letter to Santa Claus. Note that the Colorado City Record wants Christmas news and Santa Claus letters.

Main news around here is that nobody is ready--fully ready--for Christmas. Letter to Santa Claus has not been written, either. Being in a cooperative and increasingly cheerful mood here goes.

* * *

DEAR SANTA CLAUS--S.O.S., dear sir. Would you please send a few of your elves to finish the Christmas shopping?

Would you tell Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer, where all the littlest and poorest children live?

Would you please ask Mrs. Santa Claus if SHE remembers where the Christmas recordings are stored in this house? Or what went with that holly-trimmed tablecloth used the last few years at this house?

* * *

DEAR SANTA--Please do not bring my husband another electric razor. He won't use one. He doesn't like cuff links, either, and is funny about loud sports shirts.

Please do not bring me any more coffee pots or casseroles. A box of new books would be nice.

Do bring everybody's grandchildren some small or splendid surprise.

Bring every aching heart some measure of peace. Bring companionship to all the lonely.

Please bring every child, one way or another, the marvel of the story of the Nativity.

And to everybody, everywhere, bring the greatest gift of all--love from the ones they love and the comfort of the knowledge of God's eternal love. . .the true spirit of Christmas.

STORY BY MRS. DAVIS

Wesley Bible Class Hears 'No Room In The Inn'

"No Room in the Inn" was topic of Christmas devotion presented Tuesday evening to Wesley Bible Class of First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Dewey Davis was devotional leader for the Christmas dinner in church Fellowship Hall.

In telling the story of the first Christmas, Mrs. Davis said, "The point of my story is not merely to refresh our memories with the fact that there was no room in Bethlehem, but to call attention to the fact that there is far too little room for Christ in our lives. In many areas of our living today there is standing room only.

The Christmas road leads to an inn, class members were told. It is the inn of our lives. It may be today as 2000 years ago that the rooms are filled.

"The ancient hotel keeper first refused room to the Christ child but he has not been the last.

"Frequently in our lives we give Him standing room only. In one room we find self interest, in another pleasure and another indifference and so on until our inn of many rooms may not have room for love of Christ.

"And sometimes sad to say, we give Christ standing room only in the church."

Reasons for this, according to the devotional speaker, includes jealousy, prejudice, bickering and pride.

"In our personal lives we so often give him standing room only. We sometimes forget God when we become pre-occupied with our own little affairs.

"While God is not dependent on the things we can do for Him," Mrs. Davis explained, "we are dependent on things He can do for us. . .

"If we are always thinking about what God should do for us, but do not think what we should do for Him, we are placing ourselves in the position of one who expects someting for nothing."

Let us make room for him, Mrs. Davis challenged the group.

"Let us give Him permanent occupation that life may be cleansed and purified, redeemed and restored at Christmas time for all time."

In concluding the speaker asked "What does Christmas mean to you and yours? Do you have standing room only for our Christ?"

Mrs. Ed Putman sang "How Great Thou Art". She was accompanied by Mrs. Claude Hooks who also played as class members sang Christmas carols.

Hosting the dinner fete were Mrs. Davis, Mrs. L. K. Shaw, Mrs. L. A. Keith, Mrs. Luke Long, Mrs. O. F. Jones, Mrs. O. H. Majors and Mrs. Pearl Durham.

Dinner tables were decorated with miniature madonnas arranged in greenery, landinas and Christmas decorations.

Guests for the annual Yule dinner meeting were Mrs. H.L. Jameson, Miss Ruth Hightower and Mrs. C. A. Farmer.

Members attending were Mrs. Roy Dozier, Mrs. Wilma Reynolds, Mrs. J. P. Nunn, Mrs. A. J. Hooks, Mrs. Claude Hooks, Mrs. W. W. McElhannon, Mrs. Frank Andrews, Mrs. Ed Putman, Mrs. B. W. Womack.

Mrs. L. B. Elliott, Mrs. Mildred Morgan, Mrs. E. H. Winn.

Also, Mrs. Tom Grant, Mrs. Tom Glover, Mrs. H. H. Gainey, Mrs. E. M. Fisher, Mrs. Earl Brown, Mrs. R. P. Ware, Mrs. A. B. Carter, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Keith.

Self Culture Club To Clothe Needy Child This Christmas

Members of Self Culture Club are providing clothes for a needy child this Christmas.

Mrs. R. M. Reed and Mrs. Bertie Strain were appointed to select the clothing during a recent meeting of the club in Mrs. Reed's Home.

Mrs. E. L. Tiller was appointed to assist a nominating committee previously named by Mrs. Paul Beeman, club president, during the same business session.

Presenting the program concerning conservation were Mrs. L. A. Strain and Mrs. Homan Posey.

Mrs. Posey spoke of "Ecology of Today" and defined ecology as "the branch of biological science that deals with relations between living things and their surroundings."

Ecologists study the effect of the environment on the form, habits and spread of plants and animals. They also deal with the effect of plants and animals on each other and on their environment.

She explained that ecology is often divided into plant ecology, animal ecology and marine ecology, a study of life in the ocean.

She also discussed interstate highways in Texas and the possibilities that "most of Texas will end up being paved."

In discussing control of polution, Mrs. Strain listed many ways of de-polluting the earth as reported by Earth works, an ecology-oriented organization in Houston.

In the list she presented suggestions concerning re-usuable home items, gardening, cars, garbage, fireplace uses, water, educating youths, gas and electricity, street noise and birth control.

After the program refreshments were served to Mrs. A. H. Jackson, Mrs. Tiller, Mrs. A. A. Herrington, Mrs. Earl Brown, Mrs. L. A. Keith.

Also, Mrs. Bertie Strain, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Posey, Mrs. Beeman, Mrs. Billy Culwell, Mrs. Lester Watson and the hostess, Mrs. Reed.

Before you move in... know the facts about insurance

Fact 1: Fire insurance alone on home and contents is not enough. Your home could be destroyed by windstorm, explosion or other hazard.

Fact 2: Theft coverage of your possessions, at home and away, should be included.

Fact 3: A lawsuit judgment against you could cost you everything you own. You need liability insurance.

Fact 4: You get all this and more in one Homeowners policy . . . with one low premium!
