Street Sweeper Purchased; Housing Project In Offing

Bids were opened Tuesday night by members of the city council for a street sweeper.

Appearing before the council, asking if city water and sewer lines could be made available north of the city was Dewey Hukill. He explained that negotiations were going on for a housing project on the Mitchell land north of town but information about the sewer and water was necessary before any further steps could be taken.

He was told that a two inch line was north of the highway and six inch up to a fire plug on the Leo Smith property and that it could be piped on out to the project in the event that it was needed. However, because of the fall of the land, sewer lines could not be connected without a lift station also.

Other questions about sewer lines on 10th Street were asked and water superintendent Orian Hacker was instructed to make a survey of the area to determine if lines could be tied onto.

An interview with a prospective night patrolman was held by the council. Following the meeting, discussion was held on the hiring of the man and it was agreed that if he met all qualifications, that the job would be offered to him.

Raymond Powers then told the council that a grant from SPAG was available for a set of walkie talkie radios if the city wanted to pay 25% of the $800 cost for them. Since it was agreed that the city and fire department could use them, he was given the go ahead for preparing an application for them.

It was brought to the attention of the council that an inspection of the inside of the water tower was needed and they agreed to such inspection by the city engineer and a company that repairs water towers.

Drug, Crime Prevention, Reading Program Told

Members of the board of trustees of Olton schools met Monday night in regular session and approved the school audit as presented by Creston Faver of Muleshoe.

In other action, they heard a report from Superintendent Joe Turner on attendance... which was down and on the lunchroom... which was operating "in the black, once we get the federal money owed us."

Junior High Principal Carl McClure reported on a drug and crime prevention program which has been approved by legislature for schools.

Working with other schools in the area, with a total of 81,000 students, the state regulated program will make a total of $73,000 available for crime and drug prevention training.

McClure stated that it would be primarily teacher training to help the students develop values, sense of right and wrong and help them to make right decisions.

The local board will have final approval of the program, once it is set up by the cooperating schools.

A team from each of the 53 schools involved will have a training period and then they will in turn train the remaining teachers in the district. The program should get underway in the fall of 1976.

Ray Kinnison, principal of H.P. Webb Elementary, reported to the board on a reading program which is under way in the lower grades.

Called the "Right to Read" program, it is designed to teach a child how to read what he is capable of grasping, rather than teach, for example, a third grade student from a third grade book if he is not capable of reading that material.

"It's good for the slow reader and also good for the above average reader," Kinnison said. "A child in, say the third grade, that can't read third grade material is tested to see what level of reading he is on and we begin with him there."

This enables a child to develop his reading skills, when he is reading on his level. When he is reading something he doesn't understand, he just gets further behind.

Supt. Turner reported to the school board that a section of Title IX of the HEW guidelines for the schools had been challenged and has been removed from the guidelines pending further review. The rule had reference to appearance code in the schools. It has been ruled that local boards still have authority to designate such a code.

In discussing policies, the board agreed that a self-evaluation program looking over the board's policies would be worthwhile. They agreed to look over the policies with a committee made up of a man and woman from the community, teachers and students.

D.Y. Ray Services Held Here Monday

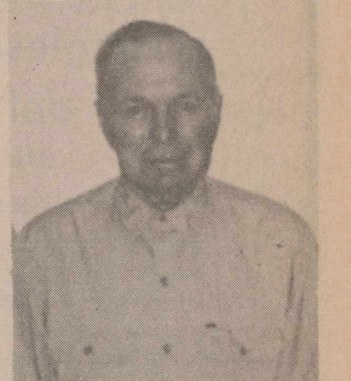

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Monday in First United Methodist Church for Dumas Y. Ray a longtime resident.

Officiating was Milton Caraway, minister of Main Street Church of Christ. Masonic graveside rites were conducted at Olton Cemetery. Funeral directions were by Parsons Funeral Home.

Born June 17, 1894 in Dell County, he was married to the former Velma Gaskins July 23, 1921 in Rule. He was a veteran of World War II, a member of the Methodist Church, and a former mayor of Olton.

Ray was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Khiva Shrine Temple of Amarillo and Scottish Rite of Lubbock. He had lived in Olton since 1948.

Survivors include his wife,

D.Y. RAY

Velma; three sons, Kenneth Ray, Lowell Ray of Hale Center and Gerald Ray of Claude; nine grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Doris West of Rule and Mrs. Florence Burk of Seymour and one brother, Clarence Ray of Rule.

Grandsons were pallbearers.

Special Service Set By United Methodists

Members of First United Methodist Church are planning special commemorative services for Sunday, Nov. 23.

New stained glass windows, recently installed, will be dedicated at the morning worship hour. A special guest will be Fred Griffin of Griffin Stained Glass Studio in El Paso. Griffin and his wife, Nancy, designed, made and installed the faceted glass windows.

The special day also marks birthday observance of the church. Nine persons organized the first congregation of Methodists of Olton in November, 1902.

An old fashioned covered dish dinner is planned for the noon hour. Former members and pastors are especially invited.

Open house is slated for 2 to 5 p.m. with a cordial invitation to all persons to stop by and view the new windows and to learn of the religious designs used in the windows.

The special day will be climaxed by community-wide Thanksgiving services to begin at 6:30 p.m. The Rev. Elton Wyatt and members of the church extend a warm and friendly invitation for all to join in any portion of the special occasion.

Girls Open Basketball Season

OHS opens the basketball season this year with a girls' varsity game with Lubbock Cooper here Saturday night. Game time is 5 p.m. for J.V. and 6:30 for varsity.

Coach Larry Ledbetter said he was expecting a good season with the girls. "Although we are short both defensively and offensively, on guard end, we are quick. Of the six one is just as good as the other. We have pretty good depth," he commented.

Curtsinger Ties McClure For First In Contest

Former OHS basketball coach and a consistent contestant in the Enterprise football guessing game, Jim Curtsinger takes top winnings for the week and moves into a tie in the season standings with leader Carl McClure.

Curtsinger was one of three contestants who missed just three games. His tie-breaker prediction of 30-10 was just 14 points off and earned him top spot for the week.

Mildred Nafzger and grandson, Wade Nafzger, were also one game losers. Mrs. Nafzger edged her grandson for the largest share of winnings however. Missing by 23 points on the tie-breaker, her prediction was 18-15. Wade was off 24 points with an 8-6 guess.

For the season, Curtsinger and McClure hold 124 correct guesses each. McClure's young son, Caleb, is close back with 123 points. Contestants with 116 or more points are listed elsewhere.

A grading error was made last week affecting third place. Bill Bruder of Plainview should have been the announced rather than McClure. Bruder's tie-breaker prediction was just five points off the actual score; McClure missed by nine.

At least three more contests remain to be counted (more if the Mustangs are victorious in their bi-district battle. The contest continues as long as the Mustangs are in competition) and season standings are subject to change with each week. Any of those contestants listed in the standings (and perhaps a few not listed) could still be the season winner. The only ones certain of not winning are the ones who give up.

Keep trying. If you've enjoyed the contest, remember to tell the sponsoring merchants you have, thank them for making the contest possible.

Thanksgiving Service Set

Annual community-wide Thanksgiving services will be held at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 23 in the First United Methodist Church.

Everyone in the community is invited to join in the union service. A choir, composed of members of the various churches in town, will join with the Mustang Band wind ensemble to present special music.

The community-wide observance was begun in 1960 and has been held annually since that time.

Summer Baseball - Dying?

An important meeting has been set for 7:30 p.m. Monday in the PCA party room for all supporters of the summer baseball program in Olton. Parents of boys who participate in the program and all persons who are interested in keeping the baseball program for young Oltonites are asked to attend.

Officers need to be elected for the upcoming year so that mailings from headquarters, which will begin soon after the first of the year, may be sent to the proper persons. A number of other important issues are slated for discussion.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sue,

I am sending the boys' addresses to the paper if you still print them. They all have new ones and thought some of their friends might like to write to them. Greg is in boot training and I know he doesn't have time to write everyone. Kurt is on sea duty and will be at sea until March of 1976. Gary is going to William and Mary College in Norfolk, and is still in Navy. He re-enlisted for four more years. They are all fine and are in good spirits even if Greg and Kurt can't make it home for the holidays.

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

One advantage of being shut-in with the old flu bug is that you have plenty of time to watch the "boob tube" - - the fare matters not.

Some of the game shows are fun - and a number of others would be except they have gotten too racy.

Have you noticed what shows are getting "the ax" because of poor ratings? According to the note I read, the networks "attempted" to give the viewing public "family time viewing" and those shows were failures. Bah, humbug!

"THEY" schedule the programs that have the greatest appeal against almost impossible odds - - opposite established programs such as "Wonderful World of Disney" and others. AND, they schedule the better ones when churchgoers are not at home to be potential fans. All those little gimmicks are carefully considered, I believe.

One of the latest items, is the news about that war-wager who doesn't believe in resting on her laurels. With one battle won, she's off to win another. The following was handed to me by a friend and we thought it best shared with as many as possible. PLEASE READ IT - - perhaps you'll want to "pass it on."

Madeline O'Hare is at it again. Several years ago she succeeded in making it illegal to read the Bible or to pray in public schools. Now she has presented a petition to the Federal Communications Commission with 27,000 signed letters.

Christian radio and television is being threatened by Petition #RM2493 that has been recently presented to the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, D.C. This petition is an effort to make religious programming on radio and television illegal in the United States. If this petition becomes law, people will no longer have the privilege of choosing whether or not to hear religious programs. The basic issue is not whether or not people should be forced to listen to the Gospel but whether or not they have the option and privilege to do so. Every American citizen should oppose this matter because to make it law violates our Constitutional right of Freedom of Speech and Religion.

Use the letter below to express your objection by completing and sending to the address in the upper left hand corner. Do it now.

Just one signature to a form as each letter is counted and not each name. Also, you do not need this form; you can write out a copy or send a letter in your own words.

EVERYONE'S HELP IS NEEDED.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

It has been called to my attention that Petition #RM2493 has recently been presented to the Federal Communication Commission, Washington, D.C. in an effort to make religious programming on radio and television illegal in the United States.

I am taking this opportunity to express my opposition to Petition #RM2493 because I believe that the choice of what program I listen to or view is mine and a basic part of my constitutional right of freedom of speech and religion. Therefore, I want to go on record through this letter opposing Petition #RM2493.

Thank you for your help and cooperation in maintaining the constitutional rights of the individual.
Sincerely,

Plan Holiday Wedding

Mrs. Paula Rodriguez announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her granddaughter, Delia Moreno, to John Nelson Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thomas, Okmulgee, Okla. Plans are being made for a holiday wedding in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Plainview.

Miss Moreno is a 1970 graduate of Olton High School, attended Southwest Business College, Plainview, and is presently employed by the department of HUD in Dallas.

Thomas attended Oklahoma Baptist University, Texas Christian University and is presently employed by U.S. Postal Service, awaiting reassignment to Washington, D.C. for further training.

Christmas Card Fund

To Help Cemetery Assn.

The Annual Christmas Card Fund has again begun and is open to community citizens as a means of sending Christmas Greetings to local friends in a practical-special way.

Established through the years by Olton Cemetery Association as a fund raising project, the operation allows donors to make contributions to the worthwhile efforts of that association, in lieu of sending Christmas cards to local friends.

Memorials given in memory of loved ones and friends; Christmas card funds and regular donations have enabled the association to keep a caretaker, who has been faithful to care for the cemetery, and purchase necessary equipment needed to maintain the grounds.

A living memorial is always appreciated and a card is mailed by the association to the family of loved ones.

The Christmas Card Fund donors names will appear in a Christmas Greeting to be published in the Olton Enterprise before Christmas and a complete list later in the year.

Contributions for any fund may be left at the Olton State Bank or with Mrs. Tom Sluder, secretary of Cemetery Association, 614 Main St. or Drawer H, Olton

Tex. Checks should be made to Olton Cemetery Association and clearly marked to which fund desired applied so proper credit can be given.

'Best' Recipes Are Solicited

Young Homemakers organization has made plans in which the entire community is invited to participate, according to Mrs. David Britton, president.

Work is about to begin in compiling a "Cookbook" to be made up of favorite recipes of all area cooks.

Area homemakers are requested to submit "best" recipes to be included in the volume. Five to ten recipes will be accepted from any contributor.

Recipes, with name and address of donor, are asked to be mailed or given to Mrs. Gary Turner or Mrs. Britton as soon as possible. Each recipe used must carry the name and address of contributor.

MRS. AUBREY F. SMYTH

Cook Of The Week

"Pretty as a picture in a cookbook is a true description of foods prepared by our Cook of the Week, Mrs. Aubrey F. Smyth. Friends and family attest the fact that her culinary arts also taste as good as they look.

This year, as in past years, Eleanor's beautiful and delicious coconut cake for the United Methodist Women's bazaar and bake sale has been bought long before the event which is coming up this Saturday.

The recipes she shares with Enterprise cooks are family favorites. The pecan pie is made by a recipe belonging to her sister-in-law and, after hearing her husband declare it was the best he'd ever tasted, Eleanor decided that was good reason for "borrowing." The Boston Cream Pie recipe, she says, is taken from an old "White House Cook Book" which was given to her mother when she was a young bride.

"You can tell by the way it's written that it's old," Eleanor says. The instructions are different from the more concise directions of today's cookbooks.

Eleanor and Aubrey (to Eleanor, he is Frank) have lived in the Olton area most of their married life. They have lived at their home farm since January, 1957.

The Smyths are parents of three daughters and two sons. Sarah, the eldest, is Mrs. Greg Sweatt and lives in Denver, Colo. Paul and his wife Kay and their children, Sean and Tracy, live here. David lives at home and helps his father farm. Martha is a student at McMurray College and will be married the day following Thanksgiving. Mary Lee is a sophomore at Olton High School.

Members of First United Methodist Church, Eleanor and Aubrey have been active in the work of the church, holding various offices. Eleanor is past president of United Methodist Women and is a former Sunday School teacher.

Eleanor declines having hobbies but says she loves to read when she "has the chance." A talented seamstress, she loves to sew but describes that art as a necessity rather than hobby.

Growing up at Denton, Eleanor met Aubrey there when both were students at North Texas State. She was an art major; Aubrey received his degree in industrial arts.

It is from a sincere heart that Aubrey humbly says "But, I know my calling in life is what I'm doing, being a farmer. I believe that's what God wants me to be."

Children! Listen!

BY REX BOYLES

A mother tries to get the attention of her four rowdy sons to get them off to school in time while they are held spell bound by the morning comedies . . . "Boys! LISTEN!"

A teacher tries to give instructions about going to the pep rally to her fourth grade class while they squirm anxiously to get to the gym . . . "Students! LISTEN!"

A high school English teacher tries to explain adverbial clauses Friday to her sixth period class while they chatter excitedly about the night's game . . . "People! LISTEN!"

Coach tries to congratulate his players for just winning the District Championship while they laugh and holler about being the Champs . . . "Fellows! LISTEN!"

A Bible School teacher tries to get started on his Sunday morning lesson while his class refreshes Friday night's game and Saturday night's movie . . . "Folks! LISTEN!"

And God tried to give instruction and explanation to a world full of people busy with themselves: some were sleeping, others were walking; some were singing, others were crying; some were working, others were playing; some were trying, others were quitting; some were cursing, others were caring; some were winning, others were losing; some were loving, others were hating; some were sinning, others were saving; some were dying . . . "Children! LISTEN!"

They were listening all right. They had an ear for all kinds of words and voices. They could hear poets, priests, prophets, philosophers and parents, but they were just too preoccupied with the excitement of life to listen to God. He spoke from heaven to get their attention, and he told the world clearly, "This is my beloved Son: hear him." (Mark 9:7)

Hebrews 1:12, tells us that God in "days gone by" had spoken to men in many different ways, but in these last days he has "spoken unto us in his Son". Since the day the beloved Son began to speak there has been a voice that demands or deserves our hearing as does the voice of that Son.

There have never been any words written by men that are as significant to the eternal destinies of men as are the words written by the Son of God through his disciples.

There have never been any verses penned that instruct the daily faltering steps of mankind as do the verses that were penned from the mouth of Jesus the Son.

There have never been any sonnets sung that soothe the troubled spirits of men as does the song of redemption that was sung by the voice of the beloved Son of God, Jesus of Nazareth.

The words of Jesus are of "eternal life" (John 6:68). The words of Jesus carry with them all the demands of the judgment of God, for Peter says of things spoken by Jesus, "every soul that shall not hearken to that prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people" (Acts 3:20-23). In fact, the words spoken by Jesus will be the very standard of the judgment of God on every one that rejects those words (John 12:48).

The words of Shakespeare

Once Was Not Enough, Ponies Stomp Cats

"Once is not enough", their T-shirts said, referring to last year's victory over the Littlefield Wildcats. Maybe the shirts meant "One break is not enough", because the Olton Mustangs took advantage of seven Wildcat turnovers enroute to a 26-0 win at Littlefield, in their big district showdown. In fact, the Mustangs won just about everything except the toss of the coin.

Littlefield's Steve Cruz returned Jimmy Parker's opening kickoff to the 24 yard line before Kent Pittillo brought him down. Halfback Bill Turner picked up five quick yards for the Wildcats to the 29. Then, on the next play, the Mustangs got their first big break of the game. The Wildcats fumbled the ball and Ray Rodriguez was there to recover at Littlefield's own 29.

Parker picked up one first down on the drive before facing a third and nine from the 18. He then tried to loft a pass to Mark Stroebel, but Lonnie Twitty was there to break it up. On fourth down, Parker tried the same pass to Stroebel and this time it worked as Stroebel made the grab at the one. That set the stage for Glenn Johnson, who carried it in to put the Mustangs out in front of the Wildcats. The PAT attempt was no good, and with 8:03 left in the first quarter, the score stood 6-0 in favor of Olton.

Both teams then had time consuming drives, but they could not cash them in for scores and the score was still 6-0.

In the second quarter, the Wildcats started a drive from their own 33. On first down, Edward Garcia stepped Cruz for no gain. On second down, Littlefield tried a little trickery as the QB pitched the ball to Bill Turner, who looked downfield to pass. But finding no one in the clear, he decided to run, and was run out of bounds at the 36. Then, Wildcat QB, Ronald Parmer, ran the ball to Olton's 48 yard line. Parmer passes to Danny Martinez and runs by Blake Wood, brought the Wildcats to Olton's 16 yard line.

But the Mustang defense dug in and held, to give the ball back to the offense at Olton's 22 with 4:28 left in the half. The Mustang offensive line and Johnson began to do their things as Glenn, running the ball almost every time, followed his blocking and tore big holes into the Wildcat defensive line.

Then, at Littlefield's 33 yard line, Coach Ed Miller reached into his bag of tricks and pulled out a "tight-end reverse-pass" from Michael Franks to Buster Lloyd, who was waiting all alone at the goal line. On the conversion try, Franks was on the receiving end of a Parker pass, and Michael made a knee-cap catch to put the Mustangs out in front 14-0.

Littlefield tried desperately to score before half-time but Mark Stroebel intercepted a pass to kill the Wildcat's hopes, and at half-time, the score was still 14-0.

After the second half kickoff, the Mustangs just about dashed any Wildcat dreams of a district championship into the ground. Again, Olton threw Johnson at the Wildcats, and the Mustangs drove to the 47 before facing a punting situation. Once again, Miller turned to his bag of tricks, and the Mustangs ran a fake punt-screen to Leslie Gary who picked up the first down at the Wildcat 36. With 3:59 left in the third quarter, Parker capped the drive with a three yard pass to Stroebel, to make the score 20-0.

Littlefield continued their flurry of turnovers in the fourth quarter. Parker picked off two passes, one, a beautiful diving grab, and Kevin Workman picked off one. Steve Johnson and Pittillo each grabbed one fumble, Pittillo's resulting in a Glenn Johnson score to finish the scoring at 26-0.

Roundup With The Cosmic Cowboys

Larry Kirk
J.D. Caudle

This is your local Snuff Dipping-Bull Riding Reporters. This year we will try to inform you of the school events and gossip. We hope you enjoy our column. First we will start off with the events.

In chute #1 is the Dimmitt Speech Tournament this Saturday. We hope you, who are participating, do well in the tournament.

In #2 is the girls first basketball game against Cooper at home. We wish the girls all the luck in the upcoming season and ask the town folks to support the girls this Saturday. The games begin at 4 p.m.

In #3 is the Science Club meeting on Nov. 18. They ask new members to participate. This year's officers are Chris McClure, pres.; Alan Williams, vice-pres.; Marla, sec.-rep.; Big Ed, parl.; Watt, tres. and sponsored by Mrs. Reed.

Time out for a snuff break. As Uil Gibbins would say, "Its just as good as fresh cow manure." Now for the main events. The good ole fashion gossip.

S. Hasha - Who's next?
J. Parker - Huh?
M. Brown - You're not an angel.

M. Pyle - Keeping up with your books, huh?
J.D. - Hil J.R.

M. Franks - Roger Staubach
M. Criswell - Getting glasses?
D. Johnson - Get a little hot?

Want of the week - Chris McClure - A new car and a 12 string guitar.

Gripe of the week - General Mechanics.

Mr. Hancock, we don't like to stink.

Teacher of the week - Mrs. Taylor

By the way we're glad you're back. If you even think of getting sick again we're going to give you a big dose of castor oil. Then, we'll give you some - well let's keep that a secret.

Class of the week - Senior English

Give her all she can take. Famous Love Letter of the Week! To: Cindy M. from: J.D.

Dear Sugar Plum:
Boy, it sure was fun at the show last weekend. I bet the show would have been good if the windows hadn't have got so fogged up. I hope your parents didn't get mad at us. There was no reason really. I told them I would have you home early: I was sure proud of myself, we made it home a good hour before sunup.

Oh, yea, before I forget. We are going to have to stop smooching so much in the halls. We seem to loose all track of time. Mr. Sivley sure got hot when we missed 4th period and were late to 5th.

What was that in your last letter about not running off to get married with me? I thought we have been dating long enough. You didn't think two weeks is long enough? I thought Spade would be a good place for a honeymoon, too, but I can see going to a larger town like Springlake though.

We will have to just talk it over.

I guess I had better go, see ya around. This is your snuff-dipping windshield-cowboy saying I love ya a bunch.

Love Ya
D.
Students of the Week: Sr. - Kathy Ahrens, Jr. - Lorenda Couch, Soph. - Doniece Quigley, Fresh. - Chris DeBerry.

And now for the Grand Finale - Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, when are you going to buy him some golf clubs? The football team wants to thank the cheerleaders and fans for all the support during the Littlefield ball game. Keep it up.

Well, your local snuff dipping, bull riding reporters just ran out of snuff and were bucked off. So until next week. Stay out of trouble and watch out for the unidentified flying cow chip. You may be the next victim.

TO LUBBOCK

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bean of Needmore and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Chaney were in Lubbock Saturday evening.

IN LITTLEFIELD

Mrs. Jim Hyatt and her father, Mr. O. Lewis, made a business trip to Littlefield Monday.

FROM BRYAN

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Cowart of Bryan visited during the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cowart and Mr. and Mrs. Don Spain.

IN SLATON

Mr. and Mrs. C.T. Lokey were callers Friday of his sister, Mrs. Beadie Elliott of Slaton who is a patient in Mercy Hospital because of a broken arm.
