Burn On, O Hot and Almost Endless Flame

Sheriff Bill Lance says this is true, and he has Hardy Hulsey for a witness, though whether the two can convince skeptics of their tale is a matter for speculation. The sheriff swears that when he and Hulsey went to prepare the barbecue pit for the buffalo barbecue last week at the Peace Officers meeting, they raked sand from coals which were still blazing from the annual barbecue prepared for the Perryton Celebration on Aug. 21. The fire had therefore been burning for over seven weeks if we are to accept this story at face value.

Funeral Today For Pioneer of Beaver County

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at the Perryton Church of Christ for R. E. Retherford, retired Beaver county farmer, who died in a local hospital Sunday night.

Survivors include his wife, Minnie; four daughters, Mrs. J. R. Pearson, Mrs. J. O. Renfrow and Mrs. Glen Wright, all of Balko and Mrs. O. C. Retherford of Toledo, Ore.; three sons, R. R. Retherford, Sioux City, Ia., L. F. Retherford, Toledo, Ore., and Clyde Retherford, Anchorage, Alaska; 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Judges Name County Farm Bureau Queen

Miss Nell Peckenpaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Peckenpaugh, was selected Ochiltree Farm Bureau Queen at a contest held Tuesday night. She will represent the county at the district Farm Bureau meeting to be held in Amarillo Friday, where she will compete with other Panhandle county winners in the district contest. The district queen will go on to San Antonio for the state contest.

The selection was made by three newspaper publishers, Bill Miller of the Spearman Reporter; Vincent Lockhart of the Canadian Record; and Van W. Stewart of the Ochiltree Herald.

Other queen candidates were Miss Cavita Thurman and Miss Peggy Luthi.

Fire Destroys Hay Stack at Floyd Fike Home

Fire destroyed a stack of baled prairie hay Friday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fike, located in east Perryton on farm highway 377. The hay was owned by Jack Todd.

A fairly strong wind from the west threatened to spread the fire to adjoining outbuildings, but the firemen got the blaze under control. After trying unsuccessfully to put out the blaze with portable water supply carried on the truck, the firemen had to unroll enough hose to hook on to the fire plug at the intersection of highways 83 and 377, over two blocks away.

The fire was reported to have been started by a small boy playing with matches near the stacked hay.

Legion Potluck This Week Will Be Different

The joint American Legion-Auxiliary potluck supper next Monday night will be something "new and different," promises Mrs. Ann Suitor, Auxiliary president. For one thing, it will be a "Levi and slack" party, no dressing up allowed.

Besides that, there will be music and entertainment for everyone.

To Kill Prairie Dogs in County Late This Month

Ochiltree farmers and ranchers who are having prairie dog troubles are requested to contact Hood Wills, county agent, for assistance in getting rid of the pests this month.

Carl Jacobs of the Division of Rodent and Predator Control, Department of the Interior, will be in Ochiltree county around Oct. 20, and will kill prairie dogs for all local farmers and ranches who desire his services. The services of this specialist cost nothing, all the rancher pays for is the cost of materials.

Jacobs uses two methods, primarily, stated Wills. One method is the use of 1080 poison, a powerful substance that can be handled only by an expert. This is distributed in oats for killing the prairie dogs as they feed. To kill them in their holes, cyanide flakes are used, and this substance, also very poisonous, is recommended only for expert use.

There are large areas of good ranch land, as well as wheat fields, being destroyed by prairie dogs, stated Wills, and those who want to wipe out their prairie dog towns are urged to contact the county agent for arrangements with the Department of the Interior specialist.

Lions Work on Big Halloween Carnival Show

Lion committees, under the general chairmanship of Elliott Lee, are making prepaartions for an outstanding show at the second annual Halloween Carnival to be held on Saturday night, October 30. There will be at least sixten carnival attractions, with numerous merchandise prizes.

All proceeds from the carnival will be used by the Lions Club for various youth activities of Perryton, such as the Boy Scout program and Teen Town. Last year the club netted approximately $300 from the first Halloween carnival and used the money on the Cub Scout program.

This year's carnival will be considerably bigger and the club members are certain it will be better.

There will be horse races, penny pitches, bingo, baseball throws, cigarette pitches, wheel spinning, ball board rolling, fortune telling, weight guessing, glass pitching, a bowling contest, dart game, along with a number

First Group of Registrants Go

The first contingent of men to leave for pre-induction physical examinations will go to Lubbock Thursday morning. There are three men in this first group, one each from Ochiltree, Hansford and Hemphill counties.

The three are Joe Frank McCrory of Spearman; Hubert Edwin Paslay of Perryton and Buddy Ray Wright of Canadian.

A quota of three has been set for local board 99, which includes Hansford, Ochiltree, Hemphill and Lipscomb counties.

Of the registrants classified thus far, a total of 33 have been classified in 1-A, stated Mrs. Irvin Williams, clerk of the board.

Hall, Wright Win Trophies, Cash Prizes

Dickie Hall, Ochiltree 4-H Club boy, and Leonard Wright, county wheat grower, brought back second place trophies and cash prizes from the State Wheat Contest at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo last week.

Young Hall was crowned "Texas 4-H Wheat Prince," when his Westar wheat sample placed second in the contest, right behind the champion Wayne Howard of White Deer. The Ochiltree youth won an attractive trophy, a $50 cash prize and an all-expense trip to Ft. Worth to study the marketing and processing of grain at various terminal elevators. The trip is given by the Texas-Oklahoma Wheat Improvement Assn.

Wright's Triumph sample placed second to the champion in the open class, Wilbur Axe of Hereford, who submitted a Westar sample. He received a handsome trophy from the Tex-O-Kan Flour Mills and a $25 cash prize.

The selections were made at the end of a long and hard series of tests for the samples. The top samples were placed originally on a basis of exterior appearance by Claude Goodnight, senior wheat inspector for the Amarillo Grain Exchange. To make the tests scientific, the samples were sent to a Kansas City grain laboratory, where the wheat was milled, made into flour and baked. The laboratory report was the final hurdle and the winners were named on the basis of these tests.

In making the final selections the grain itself counted 25 per cent; 15 per cent for the milling and 60 per cent for the baking results.

Absentee Voting Starts; 3,000 King Size Ballots Printed

There have been 3,000 ballots printed and absentee voting started Wednesday for the November 2 general election. The ballots this time are practically as large as an ordinary newspaper page, being 15 by 22 inches.

Voters will mark their choices for a full slate of national, state and county candidates and will also vote on eight proposed constitutional amendments.

For the first time, the presidential nominees in the various parties are listed by name, instead of naming the electors as has been the case in the past.

The ballots are seven parties wide and 35 names deep. The parties listed include the Democratic, Republican, State's Rights, Prohibition, Progressive, Socialist and Independent. There is also a column for write-in votes.

Some Results are Shown in Petition For Mail Route

A letter has been received by the Chamber of Commerce from V. E. Jones, district Railway Mail Service superintendent, in answer to the petition submitted last week by Perryton merchants asking for re-establishment of the Canadian-Perryton mail route.

Jones stated in the letter, "I am giving the request careful consideration and believe that I will be able to work something out that will give you a dispatch to Train 2. Will keep you advised of progress made."

Train 2 is the morning train that goes through Canadian, and is the train that the Star route carrier formerly placed outgoing mail before the route was discontinued last May.

REA Officials to Attend Meeting in Austin This Week

The progress of the 13-year-old movement to electrify America's farm home through rural electric cooperatives will be reviewed in Austin next week when representatives of more than 100 electric cooperatives in Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona gather for their annual meeting.

Representatives of the North Plains Electric Co-Op who will attend the meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waide, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Archer and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kershaw.

More than 600 are expected to attend the three-day meeting on October 18, 19, and 20, where plans will be laid for the future extension of electricity to all rural people who are still without lights, and to hear their special guest, REA Administrator Claude Wickard.

Tom Craddock of Seymour, Texas, President of the National REA Co-op association will be present.

Since the first REA-financed line was built at Bartlett, Texas, in 1937, farm electrification in Texas has risen from 2.3 per cent to 66.9 per cent as of October 1, 1948. More than 260,000 rural subscribers now have electricity through their rural electric co-ops. During the past fiscal year Texas led the nation with 43,000 new consumer s connected.

Guymon Man Elected President of Five-State Peace Officers Association; 150 at Meeting

Pete Walsh, Oklahoma State Highway patrolman stationed in Guymon, was elected president of the Five-State Peace Officers association for the coming year at the annual meeting held in Perryton last Thursday. He succeeds Sheriff W. H. Lance of Perryton.

Pete Garrett, sheriff from Tucumcari, N. M., was elected vice-president and Perry Keller city manager of Guymon, was elected secretary-treasurer. Keller is an associate member of the association.

Approximately 150 sheriffs, deputies, highway patrolmen, and FBI men attended the meeting. Registrants were from the five states of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, New Mexico and Colorado.

Among the distinguished peace officers present were Sheriff Ira Frantz of Pratt, Kansas, president of the Kansas Peace Officers Association; H. L. McConnell, FBI Agent in Charge, Dallas; Lou Richter, director of Kansas Bureau of Investigation; Robert Massengale, Texas Department of Public Safety; and Joe Fletcher, assistant director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

At noon the peace officers were served an old-fashioned buffalo barbecue at the Ochiltree county park. Special guests at this noon barbecue were the Rotary and Lions clubs of Perryton, and the Lions and Rotarians assisted in serving the barbecue.

Rangers Have Open Date This Friday

The Rangers have an open date this week and are preparing now for their second conference clash of the year which will be on October 22 at Hereford. Starting with the Hereford game, the Rangers will play five all-important conference games, winding up district play on November 19 at home against Phillips. No injuries were reported from the 39-0 rout of Canadian last week, and the squad is going thru spirited practice sessions, getting ready for the five conference games ahead.

Local Red Cross Chapter to Have Hospital Program

The Ochiltree county chapter, American Red Cross, will present the devotional message and special religious songs at the Veterans Hospital, Amarillo, on Sunday morning, October 24, from 10:00 to 10:45 a. m., Mrs. J. F. Cox, service chairman for the local organization, states.

The chapter would like very much to have a good representation in Amarillo for these services, and anyone who wishes to make the trip should contact Geo. M. Parker, county chairman, or Mrs. Cox.

The program has been tentatively arranged.

Each chapter in the group which composes the hospital council has been assigned a Sunday on which they are responsible for the religious services at the hospital.

Perryton Juniors, B Team to Play Liberal, Amarillo Today

Although the Rangers are idle this week, Perryton football fans will have a chance to see the other school teams in action. This afternoon, Thursday, the junior high team will attempt to keep their undefeated record intact when they play the Liberal juniors at Ranger Field. Tonight, the B team will meet the Amarillo Yannigans.

The Perryton juniors will face their stiffest opposition of the year from the Liberal youngsters. Liberal's junior high team takes boys through the ninth grade, one more than Perryton does. Still, the locals can be rated no worse than an even choice in the game. They have spilled Canadian, 32-6, and dropped Phillips last week 6-0.

The B team, made up for the most part of inexperienced boys, has played but one game this year, losing last week to the Phillips B team by a 39-0 count. Coaches Murry and Emerick plan to spike the B team with a few A squad reserves to make it a more equal contest against the tough Amarillo seconds.

RARE BOOK—One of the first pocket size books ever printed has been given to Colgate University. It is a copy of Horace's "Poemata," published in Venice nearly four and a half centuries ago by Aldus Manutius. Manutius also coined the phrase "printer's devil" and invented modern punctuation, italic type. Above, the book is shown compared with size of hands.

"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 17, 1948.

The Golden Text is: "The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many" Mark 10:45).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following passage from the Bible: "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving" Colossians 2:6,7).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christ hath rolled away the stone from the door of human hope and faith, and through the revelation and demonstration of life in God, hath elevated them to possible at-one-ment with the spiritual idea of man and his divine Principle, Love" (page 45).

It's Corny, But Funny, Anyway

For those who like to be amused, without learning any great moral lesson, "Feudin', Fussin, and Fightin'," is recommended. Starring Donald O'Conner, Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride, the picture comes to the Ellis on Fri. Sat., Oct. 15-16.

O'Connor is seen as a fast-talking salesman of hair tonic who stops for lunch when his stage-coach halts at the pioneer Western village of Rimrock, where Miss Main is mayor. Kilbride is her bashful boy friend and where the citizens think of nothing but winning the annual marathon with their hated rival, the town of Big Bend. Of course, Miss Main has a beautiful blonde niece, in this case Penny Edwards, who can also sing and dance, which comes in handy when romance with the nimble-heeled, happy-voiced O'Connor, runs its head.

Watchman, What Of the Night?

CARMI, Ill. (AP)—A pair of trousers and an empty wallet found on a river bank led authorities to investigate the case as drowning. But when they went to the address given in the wallet, they found the man feared drowned. The trousers, wallet and $30 were stolen while he had been sleeping. At the time, he said, he was on duty for an oil firm as a night watchman.

Oldtimers Laugh at Present Pitchers; Grove Thinks Feller Changed Delivery

By FRANK ECK
(AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

NEW YORK—Retired baseball players, including a few who pitched in the last 10 years, laugh when the pitchers of today complain about the lively ball.

Robert Moses (Lefty) Grove, who won 300 games during 17 years in the American League, believes the ball used today is the same as it was 20 years ago.

The ball is no livelier than it was in 1925," says Grove. "Why, when it was hit to the outfield in those days it would bounce all over the place. The pitchers nowadays lack control. They always seem to be behind the batter and it's only natural for them to throw down the middle. When they do that there's no stuff on the ball and it gets quite a ride."

Grove was one of the former hurlers who were guests of the Philadelphia Phillies during a recent gathering of former big league stars. Others on hand included 81-year-old Cy Young, 511-game winner in 22 years; Harry Coveleskie, the Giant Killer; Lefty Gomez of the Yankees; George (Moose) Earnshaw and Rube Walberg of the Athletics.

They were in Philly for a series (which was rained out) with the Pittsburgh Pirates. Naturally the only thing to do was sit around and talk over "the good old days."

Grove, now white-haired and the owner of three bowling alleys in Lyconing, Pa., drew many listeners when he talked about Walter Johnson's fast ball and Bob Feller's failure to win regularly.

"I think Feller changed his delivery," said Grove. "He's been fooling with a slider. He had a good fast ball and a fine curve. That's all you need in the big leagues.

"Why the greatest pitcher in baseball, Walter Johnson, never had a curve. I was the same way. We always depended on our fast ball. When Johnson or I threw a curve we made the batter happy."

"I remember the first time I pitched against Christy Mathewson," chimed in Harry Coveleskie, brother of the Stan of Cleveland who beat Brooklyn three times in the 1920 World Series. "I beat Matty 3 to 2. He had an off day. We bunted on him."

The oldtimers turned to Denton True (Cy) Young who was getting a going over by Gomez, the delightful screwball.

"No wonder you won so many games," said Gomez. "Why when you pitched you stood 55 feet from home plate and you used the same ball three days. Now they use a ball for three pitches, it gets a spot on it and the umpires throw it out."

"Listen, Lefty," returned Young a guy who can go along with a gag. "Jimmy Foxx hit one of the longest home runs on record off you. Shame on you. Why when I pitched I never allowed more than one home run a game."

"No wonder," came back Gomez. "Frank Baker here wasn't called Home Run Baker for nothing. He once led the league with 9 homers."

"Why, one time I went 23 innings without anybody getting a hit off me," said Young. "My pitch out was a pitch in. I threw under the batter's chin when I wanted to waste a pitch."

"Talking about throwing at a batter," piped up Earnshaw. "I hit only one batter I threw at. He was Goose Goslin.

"Goose had been hitting me pretty hard and one day I told him he would learn to respect me. 'I think I'll loosen you up a bit,' I told him. 'Now, Old Moosey wouldn't do that to Old Goosey,' he said. But I did, hit him right in the leg."

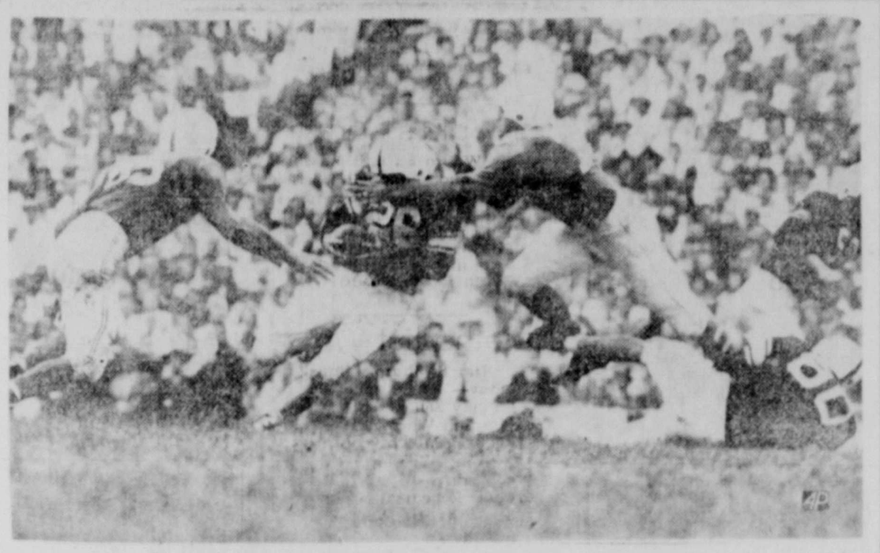

"I never threw at a batter's head, either," said Grove. "I used to throw at their feet, I liked to see 'em dance."

"Aw lets talk about the young fellows," said Gomez to Grove. "Look at Max Bishop here. He's got the best job in baseball coaching the Naval Academy team at Annapolis. He's been there 11 years. Four more years and they'll make him an admiral."

It was midnight and the chinfest broke up.

"What's the matter, Lefty, getting tired?" asked Young.

"No," shouted Gomez. "It's that pipe you're smoking. I think it puts me to sleep and keeps you awake."

OKLAHOMA GAINS—Oklahoma's Jack Mitchell (26), goes through right tackle for a 12-yard gain in the second quarter of the Oklahoma-Texas game in Dallas, Tex., while Texas tackle Gene Vykukal (70) (right) and end Lou Holder (85) go up to stop him. On the ground is OU's end Bobby Goad. Oklahoma won 20-14. (AP Wirephoto)

WHAT IT MEANS:

Internationalizing Antarctic

By ROBERT E. GEIGER

WASHINGTON — The United States has proposed international control of the Antartic continent, twice as large as the United States.

The proposal was made to the seven nations now claiming pie-wedge slices of the ice-covered continent, coldest on earth.

The State Department says the United States never has made any formal claims to a portion of Antaretica but reserves rights.

These are based on discovery and exploration. An American, Capt. Charles Wilkes of the U. S. Navy, was first to identify the great mass of ice and snow at the South Pole as a continent. That was 110 years ago. The other seven nations—Great Britain, Chile, Argentina, France, Norway, New Zealand and Australia—have made clams based on exploration or administration. They left one wedge of the continent unclaimed.

What international control may mean the State Department has not explained. Does it mean the setting up of some sort of control commission representing all the nations of the world? Or would only the seven claimants and the United States be included in the commission? Would Antarctica's treasures be divided among the nations?

The State Department said only that an agreement is necessary to promote scientific investigation and research. Officials say the proposal is exploratory and that if a plan is approved in principle the details will be worked out at conference.

There have been rumors that precious materials such as uranium and gold have been found in Antarctica, and the continent is believed to have vast coal deposits. American officials have denied uranium has been discovered. They add that even if there are coal and mineral deposits Antarctica is so far from civilization shipping costs might be prohibitive.

But world distances have shortened. Antactica, beyond the tip of the South American continent, might become a strategic war base. If the Panama Canal were closed, the only sea route from the east to west coast of the United States would be by way of the Horn. A foreign power with bases in Antarctica might disrupt such a supply line.

Great Britain has announced she approves in principle the U. S. proposal for internationalization, but Argentina and Chile are reported to have raised objections. Claims of Chile and Argentina overlap that of Great Britain. The Latin-American countries have said they will not recognize European colonies in the inter-American defense zone, which runs from the North to the South Pole.

These are some of the issues that will be debated if the U. S. proposal reaches the conference stage.

FATEFUL BEGINNING—A romance between Barbara Stanwyck and Burt Lancaster leads to murder in "Sorry, Wrong Number," which plays at the Ellis on Sun.-Tues., Oct. 17-19. The movie, which has been widely acclaimed in national magazines, utilizes many suspense creating maneuvers to build up to a terrific climax.

'Isn't it Romantic' Gay, Tuneful Film

All the infectious gayety of youth is contained in Paramount's tuneful, delightful comedy, "Isn't it Romantic," which comes to the Ellis on Wed.-Thurs. Oct. 20-21, starring Veronica Lake, Mona Freeman, and Billy DeWolfe.

Set in a small town, "Isn't it Romantic", tells the love-in-bloom tale of three attractive sisters, whose romantic problems are complicated by domestic difficulties rising out of their father's belief that to work would be conduct unbecoming a gentleman of the Old South.

Billy De Wolfe, as the bashful swain, is side-splitting, and the comedy moves through its fast-paced scenes in a manner to delight every type of theatre-goer.

There'll be Less Demand for Wheat in '49; Caution Needed

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 13—What's ahead for wheat, ask Texas farmers. Here's the answer. Facts and figures in the government wheat outlook sound a note of caution. Now that fall seeding is under way, here are the facts as they are seen by E. A. Miller, extension agronomist, and C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist of Texas A. & M. College.

Here's what the wheat growers like. The continued strong demand here in this country should take up 750 million bushels of this year's big crop. This would mean only 20 million bu. less than what we used last year. The European Recovery Program will use around 450 million bus. The wheat price support for the 1949 crop is 90 percent of parity through loan and purchase agreements.

And here are a few gloomy facts. The carry-over of wheat stocks next July 1, is expected to be up nearly one-fifth above the prewar level. European wheat production has improved, and will approach the yields they had before the war, if they don't get a stack of bad weather. The United States acreage goal has been set 8 percent below last year's goal, and Texas, recommended seeding goal is down 10 percent. The storage bins are heavily loaded with this year's big wheat, grain sorghum and corn crops.

All in all, it looks like the United States and world supplies have improved quite a bit. Next year's carry-over certainly will be up, and the situation could look a little tough if average yields are had from the acreage goal. The acreage goals are 71.5 million for the U. S., and 6.5 million for Texas. And another bumper wheat crop in 1949 would probably require marketing quotas for all growers in 1950.

So, it looks like good business to face the facts, says Bates and Miller. If some marginal acres have been in crops that should be returned to pastures, better plan now to begin re-sodding now. Increase your summer fallowing and erosion control practices, say these extension specialists, and plant soil-building legumes wherever they are needed.

Plan ahead, plant wisely, and give your soil a break.

All America FUTURE BOOK

GEORGE TALIAFERRO
Hoosier Hotshot

Off their marks fast in the annual race for All-America team honors are these two backfield aces.

George Taliaferro, Indiana ace tailback, did most of the running, passing and kicking as the Hoosiers knocked over Wisconsin in their opener and again when the forces of new Coach Clyde Smith dropped Iowa. Taliaferro scored three times against the Badgers. In the Iowa tilt his booming punts were instrumental in keeping the Hawkeyes from crossing the Indiana 25-yard stripe during the game.

JACKIE JENSEN
Bear Blaster

The Indiana star has hit his real stride this season after a campaign in which injuries kept him from scaling the peak.

Jackie Jenson, powerful Calif fullback, ripped off three long scoring runs in the Golden Bears' opener, and was a large part of the offense of the California squad in their first three wins. Against Navy, Jensen was a twisting, driving runner who tore off huge hunks of real estate.

Both aces will be tough to top when it comes time to fill the four All-America backfield slots.

Selective Service Forum

Q. If the classification of a man is not possible on the basis of his questionnaire alone, just what will further procedure be?

A. In such cases as this, the registrant will be called before his local board for personal inquiry. All additional information secured in this manner must be reduced to writing.

Q. How will the registrant know how he has been classified?

A. The local board will notify him of his classification on the date on which it is done.

Q. Will local boards order a physical examination for registrants?

A. Within the full and usually accepted meaning of the term, there will be no physical examinations conducted by or at local boards. The armed forces will conduct physical examinations for inductees which generally will be final for purposes of the Selective Service Act.

Q. What if a registrant claims in his questionnaire that he has a mental or physical defect which he believes would be disqualifying?

A. In that case, he will be ordered to appear before the medical advisor to the local board for interview. This medical advisor is appointed by the President on advice of the governor. After the interview, the medical advisor will recommend for or against sending the registrant for final examination by the armed forces.

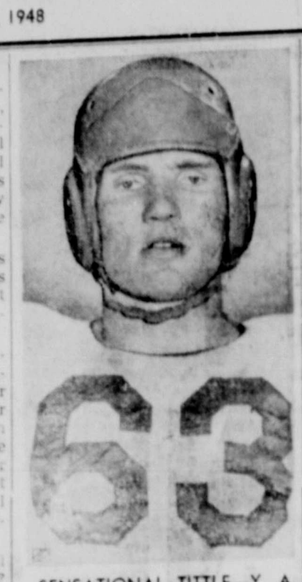

Q. Can the registrant appeal from the action of a local board?

A. Yes. If the registrant is not satisfied with the classification he receives from the local board, he may carry his case before the state board of appeal. If there is a dissenting vote on this board of appeal, the registrant may appeal to the President of the United States in certain restricted cases.

Q. How long will a registrant have in which to make an appeal?

A. He will have 10 days with in which to appeal from any determination by a local board, except that he cannot appeal from a medical determination. The filing of an appeal will not operate to delay the armed forces physical examination. On the contrary, when an appeal is noted, the registrant will be required to have an armed forces physical examination before the case is forwarded to an appeal board.

Chinese Factories Warned on Chiseling

HONG KONG (AP)—Hong Kong Chinese manufacturers have been advised to improve the standard of their goods if they wish to compete with reviving Japanese industry.

"If Chinese manufacturers would only learn to deliver goods according to sample and thus inspire confidence in their products, they need have no fear of Japanese competition," say exporters in Hong Kong. One exporter said the reputation of some Hong Kong Chinese manufacturers had been impaired because of their carelessness and indifference. "Complaints are being received from buyers with almost every shipment I make," said one exporter. "The shipments are either short delivered or not delivered according to sample."

How to Celebrate Your Wedding Anniversary

The "Dutch" Millers celebrated their Tin Wedding Anniversary Saturday. Everything had to be tin. Folks even ate off tin plates, and drank coffee out of tin cups.

When it was time to drink a toast to the "bride and groom," out came the final touch: ice cold beer in cans. And come the Millers' 15th anniversary (Glass) I expect we'll be toasting them with sparkling beer in bottles!

And I couldn't help thinking that there was a lesson for married folks in the way Dutch and his missus have got along together—in their policy of live-and-let-live with never a criticism of each other's differences in taste.

From where I sit, it's due to two things: Temperance—as that moderate preference for beer suggests—and Tolerance—for their own differences of opinion—and for the tastes of others, whether applied to beer, to politics, or how to celebrate an anniversary.

Rangers Break Scoring Drought With 39-0 Victory Over Hapless Canadian Wildcats

The Rangers, troubled all year by a weakness in goal-line crossing, broke loose against an outclassed Canadian team Friday night and buried the Wildcats, 39-0. Practically everybody got into the scoring act, with Raymond Powell scoring three touchdowns, Jerry Key one, Earl Olmstead one, and Don Rogers one. Louis Flowers kicked two extra points and Powell booted one.

It took the Rangers most of the first quarter to strike paydirt, after fumbling once and being penalized twice in the early part of the quarter before they got their attack rolling. Finally, they started on the Wildcat 45, where Olmstead scampered down to the 19. Jerry Key then hit the line on a quick-opener and scored standing up, a 19-yard sprint. Powell's kick split the uprights and the score was 7-0.

A few plays later, Bobby Fry, Canadian halfback, punted to the Ranger 35, where Powell was waiting. Powell shook off John Parra, had a couple more Wildcats cleared out of the way by Larry Slaughter, Dean Maberry downed another, and Powell pounded the whole 65 yards for the second Ranger score. His extra-point try was wide.

In the second quarter, the Rangers started a drive on their 38, marching down to the Wildcat 3-yard line, featuring the running of Powell, Key and Olmstead. Powell blasted over the goal line from the 3. Powell missed the extra point and the score was 19-0.

After a halftime rest, the Rangers came back strong in the third period to score on the second play from scrimmage. After Key returned the Canadian kickoff from the 10 to the 33, the Rangers uncovered a second long distance scoring play. This one was a pitch-out lateral from Rogers to Powell, and the Ranger ace galloped 67 yards for the fourth Ranger score. Powell's kick was wide once more, and the score was 25-0.

Another touchdown gallop, a 32-yard sprint by Olmstead, was called back in the third period because of a holding penalty assessed against the Rangers.

In the opening minutes of the final period the Rangers made another score, on the first play after receiving the ball from a short kick by Fry. Don Rogers, the short man in the T-formation, slipped through the line on a quick opener and scooted 39 yards for the fifth Perryton touchdown. This time Louis Flowers booted a perfect extra point, making the score 32-0.

The final Ranger score came toward the end of the game, after the Rangers had worked the ball down to the 5, where Olmstead broke over tackle for the touchdown. Flowers again kicked the extra point, making the final score 39-0.

This was the third lop-sided defeat Perryton has plastered on Canadian in as many years. For the six years previous, the Wildcats had by far the best of it in this traditional rivalry, but the 37-6 defeat in 1946; the 50-0 runaway in 1947; and the 39-0 win this year hae been among the most one-sided wins in the long-standing series.

Prominent figures in the Ranger victory were Powell, Key, Olmstead, Rogers, Maberry, Slaughter and Flowers. For Canadian, Fry, Farnsworth and Parnell stood out for the losers.

Juniors Take Phillips, 6-0

The Perryton juniors continued their winning ways this week, taking a 6-0 victory over the Phillips juniors Thursday afternoon. The Perryton score came in the second quarter, when J. B. Langwell broke thru left tackle to score from the 9 yard line. An attempted plunge for extra point by Dietrich failed, and that was all the scoring in the ball game.

However, in the second quarter, Perryton drove down to the Phillips 10 but were held for downs before they could rack up another touchdown. Again in the final period, Perryton marched from their own 18 down to the Phillips 7, but were held outside the goal line again.

The Phillips juniors never threatened, failing to get past midfield during the entire game. They did drive to their own 40 on two occasions.

Perryton made 7 first downs to 3 for Phillips, and gained 137 yards to 56 for the visitors.

This was the second consecutive victory for the Perryton juniors.

Stettin Makes A Comeback

SZCZECIN, Poland (AP) — This Oder river port which under the Germans was called Stettin is doing a rapidly increasing business. Cargo landings in the first five months of 1948 totalled 1,000,000 tons. That compares with 723,000 tons loaded during all of 1947.

Eight Proposed Amendments On November Ballot Explained

Eight proposed constitutional amendments, to be voted on in the general election in November, will appear on the ballot in the following order, and will provide substantially as follows:

County Insurance

1. Authorizes counties to provide workmen's compensation insurance, including the right to provide its own insurance risk, for all county employees.

County employees are not now covered by insurance for injuries they may sustain while so employed as are employees in other state agencies and private industries. If this proposal is adopted, the legislature is authorized to enact appropriate legislation providing for the administration of such insurance and for the payment of the costs, the rates and premiums of said policies, together with the benefits to be paid thereunder.

Would Re-District State

2. Creates a legislative redistricting board to apportion the state into senatorial and representative districts in the event the legislature fails to make such apportionment.

This proposal, if adopted, would become effective Jan. 1, 1951. It provides for the re-apportionment of the state into such districts by the legislature after the publication of each United States decennial census and further, that if the legislature does not act, then the board, comprised of the lieutenant-governor, speaker of the House of Representatives, the attorney-general, comptroller and commissioner of the General Land Office, is to make the re-apportionment.

Its adoption may bring about a delayed re-apportionment of the state. No re-apportionment into legislative districts has occurred since 1921, although the present constitution provides that it shall be done each 10 years. The population increase in certain areas of the state, particularly in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and in West Texas, brought about this proposal.

Community Property

3. Provides for changes in the community property law authorizing partition of community property for the limited purpose of preventing both husband and wife being taxed for federal estate taxes.

This proposition is the result of an amendment to the United States Internal Revenue Code adopted in Oct. 1942. The code since has been changed in this particular respect by Congress; hence, the apparent reason for this amendment no longer exists. Present community property rights are well-established in Texas, much to the envy of those states which do not have such a law.

Successor to Governor

4. Clarifies succession to the office of governor.

This proposal apparently comes as a result of the situation which arose in Georgia after the death of the governor-elect in the latter part of 1946.

Taxes and Homesteads

5 and 7. These proposals will be considered together, since they are more or less interdependent. The first to appear on the ballot is known as HJR35, designed to preserve the $3,000 of the assessed taxable value of residence homestead exemption from all state taxation purposes. The other, known as HJR24, provides for the abolition of the ad valorem tax for state purposes and authorizes counties to levy, not to exceed 30c on each $100 valuation, for the construction of farm-to-market roads, or for flood control, under certain conditions.

Salaries for Sheriffs

6. This proposed amendment provides for the mandatory compensation of sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and county law enforcement officers, including sheriffs who also perform the duties of assessors and collectors of taxes, on a salary basis in counties of less than 20,000 population, according to the last federal census.

Whether these officers shall be paid on a salary or fee basis is optional with the county Commissioners Court in such counties under the present provisions of the constitution. This proposal, if adopted, simply means that henceforth sheriffs will be paid on a salary basis.

Judge Retirement

8. This proposal authorizes the legislature to provide for the retirement of judges and commissioners of the appelate courts and for the judges of the district and criminal district courts, based on the length of service, age or disability.

The effect of this proposed change would be the provision of security for those attaining a certain age, or those who hold office long enough to come under its protection. Texas now has 179 judges on the state payroll who might be affected by the proposed changes.

Series Has Produced Only Seven 1-0 Games

NEW YORK (AP)—Almost every World Series game is a thriller yet there have been only seven 1-0 games in the history of the Classic.

Two of these have been turned in by Art Nehf of the Giants. He beat the Yankees by those scores in the 1921 and 1923 Series. Other 1-0 Series victories were scored by Walter Mails of Cleveland against Brooklyn 1920; Bill James of the Boston Braves against the Athletics 1914; Mordacai (Three-Finger) Brown of the Cubs against the White Sox, 1906, and Joe McGinnity of the Giants against the Athletics, 1905.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ellis are spending two weeks visiting in Dallas and Ft. Worth with their son, Donald, student at TCU and with other friends.

Veterans' NEWS

Ochiltree county veterans are served by county service officer Tom Davis, whose office is in the courthouse annex. The daytime phone number is 36 and at night or in an emergency, the phone number is 427. Veterans who need assistance in any way are urged to make use of the services provided by the county service officer.

Some American citizens who served with the Royal Canadian Air Force and are eligible to receive "War Service Gratuities" from the Canadian Government have not applied for those payments although the RCAF has been trying to locate them since the end of the war.

The men, many of whom joined the U. S. Air Force after serving with RCAF, are entitled to a bonus of $7.50 for every 30 days service in the RCAF plus 25 cents for every day of overseas service. In addition, for each period of 183 days of overseas service in the RCAF, an amount will be paid equalling seven days' pay and allowances computed on the rank held at the time of discharge from the RCAF.

Those eligible to receive the payments may apply in writing to: The Air Member, Canadian Joint Staff, 1760 N. Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.

More than five and one-quarter million World War II veterans had taken some type of training under the GI Bill from the inception of the program until September 1, 1948, the Veterans Administration reports.

On that date, 1,553,000 were still in training and 3,742,000 had completed or discontinued their training.

The number of veterans of all wars reached 18,744,000 on May 1, 1938, VA said. Of these, 14,887,000 served in World War II. The remainder were veterans of World War I and other wars.

When the nation's population of veterans and members of their families reaches its expected peak in 1955, VA predicts that the number of veterans of all wars will be 17,200,000 and the number of persons in their families, 42,900,000.

Veteran Forum

Q. I am a disabled veteran. Am I entitled to increased compensation because of my dependents?

A. If your disability rating is 60 per cent or more, you should submit to Veterans Administration documentary evidence of the existence of a wife or child or evidence of dependency of your parents so that you may qualify for increased compensation payments under Public Law 877 of the 80th Congress.

Q. My father is supporting a large family. May I claim him as a dependent while I am in training under the GI Bill?

A. Dependency will be held to exist if your father does not have an income sufficient to provide reasonable maintenance for himself and members of his family under legal age, or members of his family otherwise dependent by reason of mental or physical incapacity.

Q. I am going to college under the GI Bill and would like to know whether I will have to refund the tuition if I leave school before the end of the school year?

A. If you drop out of college before the end of the period for which tuition has to be paid by Veterans Administration, you will have to pay VA for the time you did not attend school or you will lose the training time covered by the payments.

Q. Is the amount of disability compensation in any way affected by the amount of money I earn or receive from other sources?

A. No.

DUCK'S THE ISSUE—A Gundagai hunter says this thing is a bunyip but others insist it's only a dead musk duck. The Australian bunyip is a legendary fearsome, man-eating swamp creature with a preference for aborigines. So everybody was quite excited when some hunters said they had a bunyip. Now everybody is all calmed down, but still confused.

Roman Rampart Found in Canterbury

CANTERBURY, England (AP)—A thirty-foot rampart thrown up by the Romans to meet the threat of Saxons has been uncovered in excavations on the southeast side of Canterbury. It is believed to have been constructed about 290 A. D.

Several coins have been unearthed, of which thirty have been identified as of the third century. Two are rare types issued by Carausius (290 A. D.) in honor of the Second Legion which supported him when he seized power in Britain about 287 A. D.

Let's Do Something About It

The Texas State Legislature has refused for the past 27 years to do something it is required to do by law, and voters will have a chance to remedy the situation this November.

This failure on the part of state lawmakers has been the failure to redistrict the state as provided by the State Constituion. There are legislative districts particularly in West Texas, that have been discriminated against for years because of the failure to redistrict.

The Constitution provides that the state shall be re-districted every 10 years, after the regular census is completed and compiled. But it was in 1921 that the state was last re-districted. How many people did the Panhandle have when Perryton, for example, was two years old?

As the situation now stands, a district with less than 25,000 people has the same representation as a district with 125,000.

The amendment which faces the voter this year provides that in the event the legislature fails to re-district the state, a commission shall have the power to do so. The commission consist of the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the House, attorney general, state comptroller and land commissioner.

It's time the people of Texas were fairly represented in every section of the state and the opportunity to correct the situation will come to the voters in the general election on November 2. Remember his amendment No. 2.

Babson Discusses "Free Power"

ROGER W. BABSON, Editor-in-Chief

NEW BOSTON, N. H., Oct. 8—Many readers of this Column who have seen references in TIME MAGAZINE (Aug. 16) and NEWSWEEK (Aug. 23) to my interest in "Gravity" are asking what it all means.

Sir Isaac Newton

For forty years I have been giving much study to the writings of Sir Isaac Newton (1642-1727) who was the world's greatest scientist. His Law of Action and Reaction is the basis of the Babson chart which has been such a wonderful guide to me and my clients. His actual library has been moved from his London home to the Babson Institute. Mrs. Babson has one of the world's best collections of Newtonia.

Among other Laws which Newton discovered were the laws of Gravity, upon which our life, health and happiness depend. This free power of Gravity now operates in connection with the circulation of our blood, with every step we take, as well as with every heartbeat. We are constantly defying Gravity whether walking upstairs, traveling in an airplane or getting high blood pressure. Hence, as Newton's Law of Action and Reaction has been so good to me, I have now determined to give time and money to his Gravity Laws.

Lessening Gravity Handicaps

We needed a location for the laboratory which would be 100% safe in case of World War III. Such a location has twelve requirements. (Any reader interested therein will be sent these twelve free on request). The place which fulfills these is the little town of New Boston, N. H. Here we have bought a building for our experiments directed along three lines. These should get underway by next Spring.

(1) The First will be to test the thousands of animal, vegetable and mineral products to see if one of these serves, to any extent to insulate Gravity. Every other form of energy — light, heat, noise, electricity and even atomic rays can be insulated against. But there have been no systematic tests of all these thousands of materials to insulate against Gravity carried out in the manner of my friend the late Thomas A. Edison.

We may fail to find any such insulating material; but if we do find it, it will be one of the world's greatest discoveries. It might provide almost free power everywhere. (Any reader, on request, will be sent gratis a description of how this might take place).

Accidents and Health

(2) Our Second line of endeavor will be to urge hospitals, police departments and insurance companies to keep an accurate record of all accidents (from broken hips to auto collisions), noting the date and hour of their happening and how they correlate with the phase of the moon and sun. Newton showed that this force of gravity effects us differently according to the Earth's nearness to the moon and sun on different days. Throughout the centuries people have believed that the moon affects the germination of seeds, the action of livestock, variations in sales and business, and even the health, judgment and habits of humans. Hence the words "luny" and "lunatic." Yet no accurate statistical studies have ever been made to ascertain whether these ideas are imaginary or based upon facts.

(3) Now for our Third line of endeavor. This free energy evident in tides, water powers, and in a hundred other ways—is tremendous. But why bother about these indirect and cumbersome ways of using Gravity? As this free field of energy is constantly being generated from the terrific fires burning within the planets, why not harness this energy direct? Why burn coal, oil or gas to get electricity? Why not use directly and universally this Gravity field of energy which already operates all water powers? Only the lack of an insulator prevents such use and this brings us back to paragraph (1) above.

We shall also keep records of all Gravity experiments by others and encourage those who are now working on similar projects. In short we are prepared to serve as a clearing house for all Gravity research and are determined to be experts thereon. If only in part successful, we will bring to each reader of the Column untold personal blessings and thru the conservation of coal, oil and gas—reduce the price thereof and make them available for other uses, reducing electric rates to consumers and increasing earnings for utility stockholders.

Wolf Creek Philosopher

J. A. Can't Agree with Dewey's Inflation Cure

(Ed. Note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher apparently has found out a presidential campaign is underway, which proves that campaign publicity reaches everywhere.)

Dear Editar,

I knew a lot of big city papers in Texas have come out for Dewey for President and while I am followin my policy of not statin my opinion in any election, local or national, as long as there's a chance left of gettin a cigar from both sides, as my experience has been that most candidates do more for me before they are elected than after and I guess a cheap cigar is better than nothin, I was readin in a copy of a paper which I borrowed out of my neighbor's mail box and will return it if he misses it and starts this way where Thomas Dewey has a method of endin high prices.

According to Dewey, what this country should do is send to Washington a man who is able and honest, for example him, who "has the courage to tackle this problem of high prices and inflation, and to tackle it effectively."

Now that's what I been wantin to hear, and I read on. But how do you reckon Dewey wants to "tackle" the problem of high prices?

He wants to tackle it by havin the country produce more. "A great upsurge of production" is what he favors.

I cooled off right quick. Tacklin a problem by having somebody else work harder and produce more is all right providin I'm doin the tacklin, but when you're on the producin end, the story's different. High prices is bad in some respects, but thunder, workin harder is worse. There may be folks who'll do it, but swappin high prices for hard work, windin up with low prices and yourself played out, ain't my idea of gettin anywhere.

However, if Mr. Dewey can do it, I may get on his band wagon a certain extent and start tacklin a few problems myself. Will tackle the bindweed in my abandond wheat patch by gettin somebody else to fight the stuff for me. Will tackle the wood pile by gettin my wife to chop harder.

A great upsurge of stove wood is what we need, I'll tell her. Will tackle the food problem by urgin my neighbors to produce more. May even tackle my readin problem by urgin you to produce a bigger paper and gettin it out this way.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

New Floor for Garden

NEW YORK (AP)—Famed Madison Square Garden has a new floor—a $150,000 one. The floor was completed in four weeks by a crew of 200 working night and day. It would ordinarily have taken five months.

Thirteen miles of pipes form part of the floor. They make the ice for hockey games and ice shows. Twenty-one thousand square feet of protective zinc underlay the bed and over it was poured 75 truckloads of cement. A top layer of pink terrazza marble completed the job.

Polish Reds Back Molotov Welcome

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—They've got a phrase in Poland that gets a stiff workout. It's "Serdeczny Witamy." It means heartiest, or sincerest welcome. The Polish press and radio, controlled by the Communist-led Warsaw regime, liberally splashes the words everytime a diplomat comes from one of the "peoples democracies" of Eastern Europe.

The press and radio splurged their welcome to Soviet Russia's Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov at the recent conference here of the foreign ministers of Eastern European countries on what to do about settling the "German problem." Thousands of Polish tommygunners guarded the route of Molotov wherever he went. Whole blocks and sometimes series of blocks were closed off to the public by cordons of militiamen. The few Poles who saw Molotov's automobile go by exhibited no enthusiasm.

When Molotov left for Moscow, the press and radio said 50,000 Warsawians voluntarily, spontaneously, and enthusiastically raced to the nearby Okecie airport to see him off. To aid the demonstration Government and factory workers were told by Communist organizers and high government officials that it would be advisable if they did go to see Molotov off. They had time off from work to do it.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Slaughter, Raymond Powell, Billy Lynn Conner and Larry Slaughter left Wednesday to spend the weekend visiting the Slaughter's son, Lloyd Dean, a student at Wentworth Military Academy, Lexington, Mo. Friday is Dad's Day at the college, and the group will participate in these activities as well as attend the academy's first conference game against Graceland College, Lamonia, Ia. Lloyd Dean is halfback on the Wentworth team.

Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Neel and Miss Kathleen Churchman, Guymon, Okla., were weekend guests in the home of Mrs. Neel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cox.

Judge and Mrs. Jack R. Allen were in Dallas for the weekend to attend the Texas-Oklahoma game and attend the State Fair of Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Allen and Bill Allen, students at Texas U, met their parents in Dallas and Mrs. Allen accompanied them to Austin where she will visit her sons, and her daughter, Mrs. G. K. Oil Reserves Running Out

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The Southwest is draining off its oil reserves so rapidly that we may live to see the horse and buggy replace the automobile.

The warning is from Green Peyton of San Antonio, writing in the autumn edition of Southwest Review, quarterly magazine published by Southern Methodist University's University press.

Peyton says the public, by demanding faster planes and bigger cars, is as much to blame as oil men for the "carefree pillage" of oil supplies. "Proven' reserves will be gone by 1960 at the present rate. He admits that "proven" reserves do not constitute the total supply but declares "there is obviously a limit somewhere close at hand."

Associated Press Aviation Reporter

WASHINGTON — Flying filling stations are going into business for the trans-global bomber. Just when and how is an Air Force secret. The military acknowledges, however, that refueling-in-flight experiments have shown three points:

1. It is useable in long-range bombing operations.

2. It will add from 40 to 75 per cent to normal bomber range.

3. It probably can be done high over the artic wastes.

Many B-29 and B-50 bombers now are being modified for aerial refueling.

The standard B-29 bomber can strike 5,000 miles or more. Its husky off-spring, the B-50, probably will develop a 6,000 or 7,000 mile straight-line reach. Conservative appraisals indicate 8,000 miles and eventually perhaps 10,000 miles for the B-36.

Add up to 75 per cent to those figures and you get a mighty long arm. By great-circle or airline route, the farthest spot in the world is 12,500 miles. Bombers will have such range in the foreseeable future with mid-air refueling.

Present refueling systems are improvements on the methods used by endurance fliers 12 to 25 years ago.

Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, retired chief of the airforce, commanded the "Question Mark," one of the most famous of the endurance planes, which stayed aloft 150 hours in 1929.

Six years later Fred and Al Key of Meridian, Miss., pushed the record to 653½ hours (27 days), and there it rests. Such flights no longer receive official recognition in sporting aviation.

Fueling usually was done by hose, but in one stunt an automobile sped along under the low-flying plane and a man on the roof handed up cans of gasoline. That would not do, of course, for today's behemoths. They use gasoline by the thousands of gallons.

A bomber uses a tremendous amount of fuel from takeoff to the point of leveling off at its cruising altitude, say 25,000 feet. A B-50, for example, would use around 800 gallons just for the climb. A B-29 would use about three-fourths as much and a B-36 might use twice as much.

But once altitude is reached, the bomber can be throttled back and cruise at an economical speed. A bomber with full tanks at altitude has much more range than one with full tanks at takeoff.

Refueling in flight can be used in another important way. A bomber can take off with less fuel and more bombs. Then, having reached altitude, its fuel tanks can be filled.

The Air Force withholds details of its refueling method, but it is believed to be similar to that used by the British in experiments on trans-Atlantic passenger flights.

The British used four Lancasters modified for the tests.

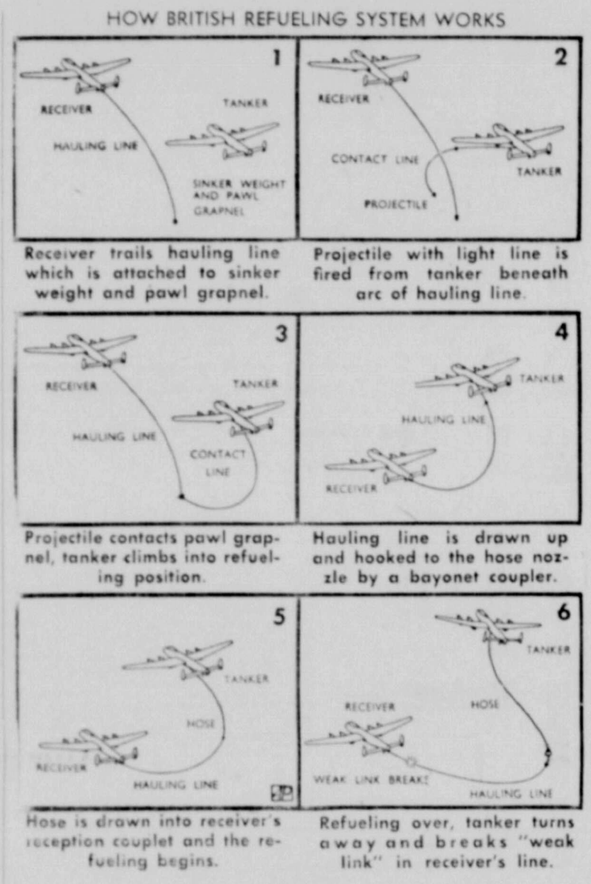

Here is how the British did the job:

The tanker takes a position to the rear and right of the receiver. The receiver plane releases from a housing under its tail a steel cable, tipped by a cone-shaped weight and a grapnel, or hook. As that hanging line trails out behind, a light steel contact line is fired from the tanker. It falls across the hauling line, which then is pulled aboard the tanker.

The refueling hose is connected to the hauling line and the hose is pulled down to the receiver plane. Meanwhile the tanker has climbed to a position above and slightly behind the receiver. The fueling hose is 250 feet long.

When fueling is completed, the receiver plane feeds the hose coupling out on the hauling line. This line has a weak link which breaks when the tanker plane turns away.

HOW BRITISH REFUELING SYSTEM WORKS

Receiver trails hauling line which is attached to sinker weight and pawl grapnel.

Projectile with light line is fired from tanker beneath arc of hauling line.

Projectile contacts pawl grapnel, tanker climbs into refueling position.

Hauling line is drawn up and hooked to the hose nozzle by a bayonet coupler.

Hose is drawn into receiver's reception couplet and the refueling begins.

Refueling over, tanker turns away and breaks "weak link" in receiver's line.

MADRID (AP)—One fourth of the population of Spain is illiterate but the percentage is dropping steadily each year, according to official published statistics. The most illiterate regions of Spain are the Basque and Navarre provinces, the report stated. Ave Gardner Says She's a Mess But You'd Hardly Tell by Looking HOLLYWOOD—"I," said Ava Gardner, "am a mess." Ten million admiring, movie-going males will chorus, "Ava! No!" Ava was showing me at least a dozen scars on her tanned, glamorous legs. Her glamorous gams are actually, she pointed out, slightly bowlegged—"from learning to walk at seven months"—unless she makes an effort to hold her knees together.

A mark above her right knee was where her nephew accidentally dropped a red-hot poker. "We used to heat a poker and put it in water to hear it sizzle." Another scar was "a cut on tin—I was jumping a ditch and didn't quite make it." A big scar was from climbing through a broken schoolhouse window. Oh, she was a tomboy!

"I have a million defects," Ava said. "I'd like to change everything about me. She said her collar bone is so prominent it creates problems in lighting. Her shoulders are unusually broad, her arms thin unless she lets her weight get to about 130 pounds. Despite her self-criticism, green-eyed, dimple-chinned Ava Laninia Gardner, 25, is the sexiest thing on the screen today. Being called sexy doesn't especially please her. What does please her is to be told—as is true—that she also has brains. She's about to follow her filmily clad role as Venus-come-to-life by playing a lady gambler opposite Gregory Peck in "The Great Sinner."

But her sincerest ambition is not to be a great actress and win an Oscar. It's "to marry the right man and have four children." Ex-husbands Mickey Rooney and Artie Shaw are "both very nice people, but we just didn't get along." Ava has sultry eyes, a husky, sultry voice, and dark brown hair that she wishes were straight instead of curly. At her West Los Angeles apartment I found her stepping out of Actor Howard Duff's convertible (no romance blossoming with him or anybody, Ava said).

Ava was born on Christmas Eve, 1922, on her father's tobacco farm near Smithfield, N. C. As a girl she helped store tobacco in the barn, and "it smelled wonderful." A photo taken by her brother-in-law, a New York photographer, reached an M-G-M talent scout. I was hoping Ava would have some advice to other girls along the lines of how to be a modern Venus. But no, just the usual health rules. Being a tomboy may have helped her, she admitted. At least, climbing trees and water tanks helped her develop a strong physique.

The incident occurred, she relates, in the early 1920s when Babe Ruth visited Iron Mountain and gave one of his slugging exhibitions at the stadium here.

"I carried a fine old shiner for some time after that, but I finally came to be proud of it—and I still am."

Antiques Hobby Builds Old Sturbridge Village

(AP) Newsfeatures

STURBRIDGE, Mass.—Old Sturbridge Village is a lesson in what can happen when one starts to collect antiques.

Years ago Albert Wells, Southbridge, Mass., business man, and his brother, Cheney Wells, began to collect old New England furniture and clocks. When the collections grew so big it come evident that either the clocks or the Cheneys would have to move, the brothers started Old Sturbridge Village to house them.

Today it is a kind of a "poor man's Williamsburg," —a living museum which portrays a typical 19th century country town of central New England.

On a 500 acre tract are 28 buildings—houses, barns, general store, grist mill, blacksmith shop, inn, church, etc. Some were built more than 100 years ago and moved to the village. Others are copies. They house collections of furniture, glass, pewter, copper, brass, locks and even a few surreys and fire engines.

Men and women dressed in 19th century garb and portray the life and work of the common man in a Yankee village of that day. In the old grist mill a flour-dusted village miller grinds grain. In the blacksmith shop the village anvil rings. In the weave shop a smiling woman throws the shuttle of an old loom.

The village, which charges a dollar admission fee, is owned and operated by the Wells family as a hobby. It is directed by Mrs. George Wells, daughter-in-law of Albert Wells, chairman of the board of trustees of the American Optical Co. of Southbridge.

Skunk Catching Is Easy, He Says

(AP) Newsfeatures

BREWER, Me.—Want to catch some skunks—safely?

It's no trouble at all, says 17-year-old Robert Pooler. He's an old hand at it, with close to 200 to his credit. This is his technique:

"You approach them very, very slowly from the side. You never move quickly, and you pick 'em up by their backs, like a cat picks up a kitten. When their feet are off the ground, there is practically no danger. I've been catching them ever since I was about eight years old."

The system isn't 100 per cent foolproof. "My mother hates me when I come home fragrant," said Robert.

Uncle Sam Says

Regardless of the heat wave, you can't afford to be lazy about your future, because the future holds for you what you hold for the future. Ben Franklin didn't make this statement, but any United States Savings Bonds payroll saver who works with you could claim this bit of advice as his or her own. All he has to do is to sign his name once on the card for the United States Savings Bonds payroll savings plan. His employer does all the rest. Three dollars saved through the payroll savings plan get Mr. Summertime Lazybones four dollars 10 years hence. U. S. Treasury Department

Czechs Find Tuxedos 'Unhealthy'

PRAGUE (AP) — Waiters in Czechoslovakia are getting a uniform of their own. New grey mess jackets are being adopted by the waiters, and in some cases white mess jackets are worn in the summer. They will continue to wear black trousers, but tuxedo and frock coats have been ruled out as "unhealthy."
