Cage Brothers Lay Ground Work For Pre-Stressed Beam Operation

NEW PLANT SITE—Graders were working this week clearing this 30-acre site for the new pre-stressed beam plant to be constructed and operated by Cage Brothers. Building of the plant proper is slated to start Monday. (Record Staff Photo)

Construction On Plant To Start Monday

Construction has begun on a $40,000 beam plant that will supply pre-stressed bridge beams for 40 million dollars proposed highway construction in this area.

Leslie Massey, West Texas superintendent for Cage Brothers Construction Company who is building the plant, said landscaping would be completed this week and construction of the plant proper probably would begin Monday.

Located north of Colorado City on the Snyder highway, the plant operations will require a 30-acre tract of land which Cage Brothers has bought where the permanent installation will be erected.

Massey said beginning operations would require a force of eight or twelve men with a payroll between $800 and $1200. About $400,000 worth of beams will be manufactured annually, Massey said.

"As production necessitates expansion, more men will be added to the staff," he said.

Cooperating with Cage Brothers in the plant construction will be Colorado City Contractor Harold Martin.

The plant will be ready to start production about June 20, according to Massey.

When completed, the plant will be one of five in Texas.

Massey said a similar plant owned by Cage Brothers was operating on a temporary basis at Corpus Christi and other outfits had plants located at San Antonio, Victoria and Dallas.

He explained that the concrete pre-stressed beams are being used in place of wide "I" steel beams because of economical reasons and a scarcity of steel structures.

"Concrete beams," he said, "consist of a number of cables under high tension load with concrete poured around them." Beams are stretched under a uniform pull of about 3000 pounds per square inch. When the beams have been 'cast', they must undergo a seven-day period of treating by steam and water, accord-

Fishing Facts By HOWARD BYNUM

Fishing continued to be good in most parts of Lake Colorado City this week. Bass are taking plugs in spite of muddy water and most anglers are fishing with 'shimy wigglers' or 'drag netters' for best results.

Frank Ginzel landed a seven and a quarter pound bass — largest one taken this week. The bass measured at 23 inches, was caught on a 'dragnetter'.

A number of bass weighing from two to four pounds also were caught.

Crappie, spawing when the nine-foot rise came, have not moved back to shallow water. Most good strings have been taken in water six to 15 feet deep.

Trotline fishing is still netting good results. Grady Brown of Midland landed a 15-pound yellow cat and Hardegree and Stanley Hamner caught a 23 pounder and a lot of small channel catfish.

Leonard Henderson and sons, Robert and Don, have caught a good many fish this week. Their largest prize was a channel cat that tipped the scales at eight pounds.

Fishing for panfish from the bank is paying off better than it has in recent years. Channel catfish are being caught from the shoreline with rod and reel.

If the weather is favorable and the lake clears, fishing should be better than it has been since the lake opened.

HOSTED BY BAPTIST WMS

Civic House Banquet Compliments Seniors of Colorado High School

Seniors of Colorado High School Friday evening were honored at a banquet hosted in Civic House by Women's Missionary Society of First Baptist Church.

Thirty-one members of the graduating class were present for the dinner.

Theme for the candle light affair was "Fantasia of '57."

Rev. Mack Cole, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Snyder, was guest speaker for the evening's program. He spoke on destinations of graduating seniors.

Bill Quimby was "dreamers' guide" or master of ceremonies. Rev. J. F. Selcraig, pastor of the local First Baptist Church, said "celestial dreams" or invocation.

The "singing cloud" included selections by a trio composed of Nell Webb, Joann Merket and Janet Yost and Curtis Baker, soloist. The trio was accompanied by Kathleen Wood. Mrs. Curtis Baker accompanied her husband.

"Goodnight, sweet dreams" (benediction) was said by Benton Cain, educational director for First Baptist Church.

Fantastic tidbits (menu) included love bird (cream chicken in patty shell, fluffy clouds (mash potatoes), essence of dreams (giblet gravy), stepping stones to aircastles (English peas), sentimental thoughts (combination salad), bubbles and star dust (hot rolls and butter), angel delight (angel food cake) and nectar (fruit and nut jello).

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Henry Doss, counselor for the Young Women's Auxiliary of First Baptist Church.

Fruit juice was served to guests as they entered by Mrs. J. F. Selcraig.

Mrs. Bennett Scott presided at a candlelighted table where bulletins, pamphets and booklets from Baptist colleges in Texas were displayed.

Backdrop for the speaker's table was a dark blue starry sky. Suspended in front of the backdrop was a replica of Jupiter. Star studded evening streamers extended from the background setting to the front of the room.

A half moon, holding a princess doll, was suspended over one table.

Tables were covered with white linen cloths and centered with dark blue streamers, bouquets of spring flowers and white tapers.

Programs of blue featured drawings and names of guests.

Following the benediction, balloons, bearing the names of Baptist colleges in Texas, were released from the ceiling. The balloons served as favors.

Honored guests attending were Jane Robertson, Janice Myers, Nell Webb, Joann Merket, Joyce Black, Joyce Rogers, Juanell Bynum, Danella Porter, Dolores Jones, Ruan Owen, Bertie Lou Dorn.

Donald Holman, Mary Ann Fisher, Joe Phariss, Charlene Franklin, Delbert Lewis, Donna Holman, Ann Padgett.

Bob Carpenter, Milo Gregory, Tommy Watson, Bennie Ray Hodges, Fredine Theis, Doug Chandler, Troy Maples, Rodney Oliver, Harvey Sherman, Billie True Powell, Billy Wood, Janet Yost and Barbara Grant.

Mrs. Paul Cooper of the WMS was general chairman for the banquet. Mrs. Curtis Baker, assisted by Mrs. A. L. McSpadden, was in charge of decorations. Mrs. Joe Salter and Mrs. Fred McKay planned the evening menu. Mrs. H. Jene Steakley arranged the program.

Jack Dempsey held the heavyweight boxing crown for seven years.

WEDDING DATE SET

Couple's Engagement Revealed at Dinner

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Mary Sue Dillard of Waco to Gilbert Larry Simmons of Waco were announced Saturday evening at a dinner in the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dillard, at 1335 Walnut Street.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Simmons of Lufkin.

Dinner was served from a buffet table laid with an ecru lace cloth over blue. Centerpiece was a replica of a large four-tiered wedding cake topped with a white ribbon nosegay. Blue carnations and white candy tufts encircled each tier. Nosegays, identical to the one on the top, and blue ribbon, tied in love knots, surrounded the base of the cake. A miniature bride and groom stood before the centerpiece. Streamers extending from the arrangement were inscribed with the couple's names and their wedding date, Aug. 31.

Foursome tables were centered with a replica of a small wedding cake, topped with artificial blue and white lilies of the valley. White place cards were inscribed in gold. Lilies of the Valley were tied to cards with narrow blue ribbon.

A crystal candelabra holding blue tapers marked the piano.

Menu for the evening included tomato juice cocktail, barbecue chicken, scalloped potatoes, congealed pear salad, relishes and hot French bread.

Those attending the announcement dinner were Miss Dora Bell Hanks of Lubbock, Mrs. Don Cutler of Dallas, Miss Billie Lois Lieb of Sweetwater, Coy Dillard of Waco, the betrothed couple and Mr. and Mrs. Dillard.

Wedding of the betrothed couple will take place in the First Baptist Church at 9 p. m.

Visits Mrs. Quinney

Visiting Sunday in the home of Mrs. Winnie Quinney were Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Vaughan and Miss Frances M. Vaughan of Sweetwater.

"Smoother by far than my flying carpet"

The '57 Chevrolet's got it and who's better qualified to talk about magic than KAN DU?

I, Kandu, say this: the sweet, smooth and sassy '57 Chevrolet is more magic by far than any flying carpet. Chevy's ride is so smooth, so easy. Chevy's handling is so crisp, with such immediate response.

And the magic does not stop there. Jay Adams Chevrolet is giving wonderful good deals. Why, the way the dollar-difference between your car's trade-in value and the price of a new Chevrolet has shrunk is nothing short of miraculous!

So take the advice of Kandu: go by camel, flying carpet or your present car—but go to Jay Adams Chevrolet. Be prepared for a deal that'll unwind your turban!
This deal can also include magic comfort with a Chevrolet Air-Conditioner.

Sox, Indians Win Tight Tilts

White Sox looked impressive in the Pony League and the Pirates looked equally good in the Little League as play opened here this week.

The Sox, reigned the defending Pony Champions, the Athletics, 6-5, in the seventh inning as Don Vest socked two home runs and twirled the winning game from the mound.

Cardinals blasted the Braves, 12-1 in the other Pony League game.

In the Little League, Indians edged the defending champions Yankees, 6-5, in an extra inning affair. The Pirates walloped the Giants in the other game.

Friday's schedule finds the Cardinals meeting the White Sox for the league lead in the first game and the Athletics take on the Braves in the second tilt.

In the White Sox's win over the Athletics, Tuesday, Curtis Scott gave up three hits for the Athletics in the first four innings.

Two of the hits he gave up were home runs by Vest with a man on base each time.

Biggers relieved Scott in the fifth.

The score was tied 5-5 as the teams entered the seventh. Sox rallied for one run off Biggers in bottom of the seventh to win the tight-fought battle.

Cards led all the way as they blasted their way to the 12-1 win over the Braves.

In the Little League battle between the Yanks and Indians, the score was tied 5-5 at the end of regulation play. The Indians rallied for the winning run in the bottom of the seventh to win.

Leroy White, 29, is a new auto salesman at Jay Adams Chevrolet Co.

White, who has been employed by the Mead Bakery Co. here since Dec. 1, joined the Adams staff this week as salesman for new and used cars.

A native of Abilene, White, attended Abilene Christian College and Hardin-Simmons University. He joined the Mead Co. after discharge from service.

The Whites and their three children reside at 1819 Colorado St.

SEVERAL KEY PLAYERS INJURED

Scrimmage Session Saturday to End Spring Football Training

Spring football practice ends Saturday night at Wolf Stadium with an intrasquad game.

Coach Bob Reily said the squad would be divided into teams again — the Reds and Whites and engage in regular game scrimmage.

The Reds came out victors over the Whites, 20-7, last Saturday night.

Reily said he would change a number of players on the teams to make them more evenly balanced.

The Red backfield of Don Powell, Don Black, Dickie Richardson and Bobby Caffey manufactured 20 points, mainly on the goalward gallops of the freshman Richardson.

Caffey looked equally good at his quarterback post and should give Richard Compton a run for his money this fall. Caffey scored one touchdown Saturday night.

The losing backfield was composed of Lucky Merket, Fred Womark, Bancker Cade and Compton. Their lone score came on a pass from Compton to sophomore end James Shoemaker.

The Red line consisted of Gene Blassingame at center; Joe Maddox and Bob Aycock at guards; Raymond Weaver and Don Dodd at tackles; Jimmy Richardson and Barton Smith at ends.

White line was composed of Hunter Mann at center; Paul Free and Mike Wheeler at guards; Kenny Simmons and Joe Carrasco at tackles; Shoemaker and Phillip Bates at ends.

Injuries hit the Wolf camp this week and several boys will miss the remaining days of practice and the scrimmage Saturday night.

Maddox, the 190-pound letterman guard, is out with a knee injury. He's wearing a cast on the injured limb and will be unable to play Saturday.

Mike Schoolcraft has a fractured thumb and Marion Flippin is out with a broken nose. Flippin hurt the nose last week and missed last Saturday's action.

Caffey suffered a fractured finger, and Cade injured his knee, but both boys will be ready to play.

Time for the scrimmage has not been set definitely, but will be either at 7:30 or 8 p. m.

Quarterback Club members will meet in the stands prior to the start of the scrimmage and elect officers for the coming year.

Windham Wins Fifth Spot in Shot, Discus

Colorado High's Jim Windham met stiff competition at the State Track Meet, Safurday, and came out fifth in both the class AA shot and discus events.

The burly senior fell below his usual performance in the shot, but still wouldn't have placed any higher if he had matched his best throw of the season.

He tossed the shot 52 feet 10 inches. Fourth place winner Charles Batten of Lamarque threw 54 feet 8 inches, which is better than Windham's best throw prior to the meet.

Jim Allison of Houston Lamar won the shot crown with 58 feet 7 inches. Jerry Mays of Dallas Sunset, whom Windham had beaten previously in the Dallas Invitational, took second with 57 feet 1 7/8 inches. Pat Holmes of Del Rio was third with 54 feet 9 3/4 inches.

Windham threw the discus 153 feet 10 inches for fifth spot.

Tech Frosh to Make Bid For Track Crown

Doyle Herring of Colorado City will be one of the key figures in Texas Tech's bid for the Lubbock's School's first Southwest Conference championship.

That championship could come this week end in Austin in the freshman division of the track and field meet.

Tech Coach Delmer Brown fears that the Picadors may show the effect of a layoff since the Texas Relays. Cold weather and rains at Abilene and Lubbock successively ruined the Picadors chances for a final meet with Abilene Christian.

Lack of sprint strength plus University of Texas points in the 880, shot put, discus, and javelin, is expected to cost the Picadors heavily. Also, Rice's 440-yard relay and 440-yard dash performers should slice heavily in Tech's point total, and the meet may well turn into a scrap between Rice and Tech for second place behind Texas.

Tech this year won the freshman division of the Southwestern Recreation Meet, with 35½ points, Baylor being the nearest SWC entry with 21; captured a quadrangular at Austin by scoring 53 to Texas' 51, Victoria's 40½, and Baylor's 19; and scored the most unofficial points in the Texas Relays with 35 to 26 for Baylor and 20 for Texas.

SOUTH AMERICAN NATIVE

Imported Fire Ants Called Major Threat

Imported fire ants, native South American pests, have become a present problem and a serious threat to Texas farmers.

The ants now live in the Southern states in a line from Florida eastward, infesting in their final course an area in Southeast Texas from the Louisiana border to Houston.

The imported fire ant is noted for the fierceness of its attack. Its painful sting can cause boil like sores on humans and severely injure animals. They aggressively attack small animals in numbers and have killed newborn calves on the farm.

Their damage extends from poultry, livestock and wildlife to all types of plant life. Feeding both above and below ground, they seriously damage many vegetable crops. They injure pasture grasses, cereal and forage crops, nursery stock, and fruit trees.

Easily Detected

Imported fire ants are easy to detect by the mounds that they build—reaching up to two feet in height and three feet in diameter. The huge, hard-crusted mounds mar lawns, damage pasture lands and interfere with cultivating, mowing, and hervesting machinery.

Entomologists have said the ants are at their worst as a nuisance, hampering all types of farm operations. In heavily infested fields, it is difficult for cotton pickers and other farm labor to work.

The tiny fire ants at present have covered only a relatively small part of Texas, but the continued growth of their population since introduction into this country some 30 years ago gives cause for alarm.

Spread of infestation is high in the springtime when the queens scatter to start new colonies. It takes only 8 to 10 days for the queen's eggs to hatch into dirty white grubs and another 6 to 12 days for these larvae to become active workers. Queen larvae become active in 9 to 16 days. The entire life cycle is completed in about 30 days.

Major Pest

At a recent meeting of the Southern Plant Board, the imported fire ant was termed a major pest of agriculture in the South and special federal aid was asked for cooperative control work with states heaviest hit.

Eradication measures are expensive but effective and necessary if infested land is to remain of any value.

Persons desiring control and eradication recommendations should contact the Division of Plant Quarantine, Texas Department of Agriculture, Austin 14, Texas.

BIBLE COMMENT

False Prophets Fade As Death Intervenes

The false prophet is exposed by the quality of his life. He professes to stand in God's counsel, but he has not turned from evil himself. He has not tried to dissuade the people from their evil ways.

The true prophet is morally upright.

The false prophet is the prophet of the immediate and the expedient. Jeremiah charges that this type has a limited view of God. His God is an immediate and a temporary one. As Jeremiah puts it, "Am I a God at hand, saith the Lord, and not a God afar off?"

The amazing thing about the true prophets of Israel was that they had a world vision. They prophesied to a small people in a small land.

There were no printing presses or radio to carry their messages abroad. Yet, though they spoke to their own people and in their own time, they are well known today. They dealt so with moral and spiritual values and with eternal principles that their words apply with keen insight and terrible force to our own world.

No false prophet in any age has lasted beyond his own time. He is gone with the falseness of the time to which he pandered.

The false prophet says pleasant and easy things. They err, as Jeremiah says, by their lies and their lightness. But God's word, as spoken by the true prophet, is like a fire and like a hammer.

There is something stern and terrible about truth, just as there is power in it to save men from the falseness of life. God's mercy must be strong to overcome God's judgments. The true prophet never minimizes the one or the other.

It is the mark of the true prophets of God that they speak to men in every age and under all conditions.

UPHOLDS LOWER COURT RULING

Naturopaths Get Sharp Setback As Supreme Court Rules Licenses Void

By VERN SANFORD,
Texas Press Association.

Texans will be a long time cleaning up from one of the greatest flood disasters in the state's history.

Nearly 10,000 persons were forced out of their homes and some 35,000 square miles were affected, according to official estimates.

State, national and private agencies are cooperating to help the flood victims. At the request of Gov. Price Daniel, Pres. Dwight D. Eisenhower designated the flooded counties as "major disaster areas." It brought an immediate flow of funds, equipment and supplies to aid State sisaster Relief Headquarters.

Governor Daniel also asked the Legislature for $20,000 to replenish the National Guard's fund for emergency work.

As waters receded in most areas, people began to take stock of the future. Though crop damage was estimated as high as $30,000,000, most farmers took a long range view.

Many missed the crop planting season and will have to switch to sorghum or some other crop. Others have put cattle back on dry feed after seeing the best pasturage in years ruined by floods. "But," they say, "at least it's wet."

Water conservationists point to the flood-ruined areas as "Exhibit A" in the case for more dams and lakes. Rampaging rivers could be held in check, they say, saving top-soil and water for future use.

Short Reign

Sen. Ottis Lock of Lufkin became Governor for a day and received all the honors customarily paid on such occasions.

May 3 long will be remembered by the 46-year-old lawyer who has served 18 years as a state official.

He issued a proclamation designating the day as Texas Interscholastic League Day; addressed the high school journalists assembled in Austin; served coffee and cake in the reception room of the Governor's office; and attended a banquet given in his honor by his many Lufkin friends.

As president pro tem of the Senate, Lock became Governor for a day when Governor Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey left the state on official business.

Longest filibuster in Texas Senate history brought only a "moral victory" for opponents of school segregation bills.

Sens. Abraham Kazen Jr. and Henry Gonzales teamed up to talk 36 hours and 2 minutes against a bill to allow school boards to assign pupils to certain schools. When they finally quit, their colleagues passed the measure and sent it back to the House for concurrence on a minor amendment.

Proponents agreed to delay for a few days taking up other segregation bills.

Previous filibuster record was 31 hours and 25 minutes set in 1949 by opponents of a medical bill.

Kazen and Gonzales were aided by prolonged questions from other anti-segregation minded senators. Those who opposed the bill included Sens. R.A. Weinert, Bruce A. Reagan, Hubert Hudson, Charles Herring, Carlos Ashley and Frank Owen III.

Senate ICT Committee's voluminous report had no kind words for those who had been connected with the $4,000,000 failure.

It said the company was founded contrary to law and operated in a negligent, haphazard and downright fraudulent manner. It sharply criticized Ben Jack Cage, one time ICT manager, and labor leaders who had helped Cage sell union people on investing in ICT.

Union officials, it said, had been compromised by "lavish entertainment" or payment of money. Their attitude was called "negligent or at least complacent."

Committee made 20 recommendations for tightening laws to prevent future ICTs. One would make insurance company officials criminally liable for false statements. Another would place insurance securities under supervision of a securities commission.

Set Back

Naturopaths are in a worse quandary than ever now that State Supreme Court has ruled their licenses to practice are no good.

This upheld a lower court ruling that the 1949 licensing law was unconstitutional.

Texas Naturopaths will be in court again next week when Ex-Rep. James E. Cox of Conroe comes to trial. Cox is charged with consenting to accept a bribe from a TNA member in return for killing a bill outlawing naturopathy.

Governor Daniel is riding a crest of triumph after House passage of his plan to reorganize the Insurance Commission. After weeks of wrangling and nip-and-tuck committee votes, final approval was by a lopsided 109 to 25.

House version calls for a three-man, full-time board all to be appointed by the governor. Senate already has passed a similar bill calling for a part-time board.

Both versions would remove from office John Osorio, the present commission chairman, and Member Mark Wentz. Opposition by their friends in the Legislature was one of the main obstackles to reorganization passage. Joe P. Gibbs, the third member of the commission, was appointed recently to serve temporarily.

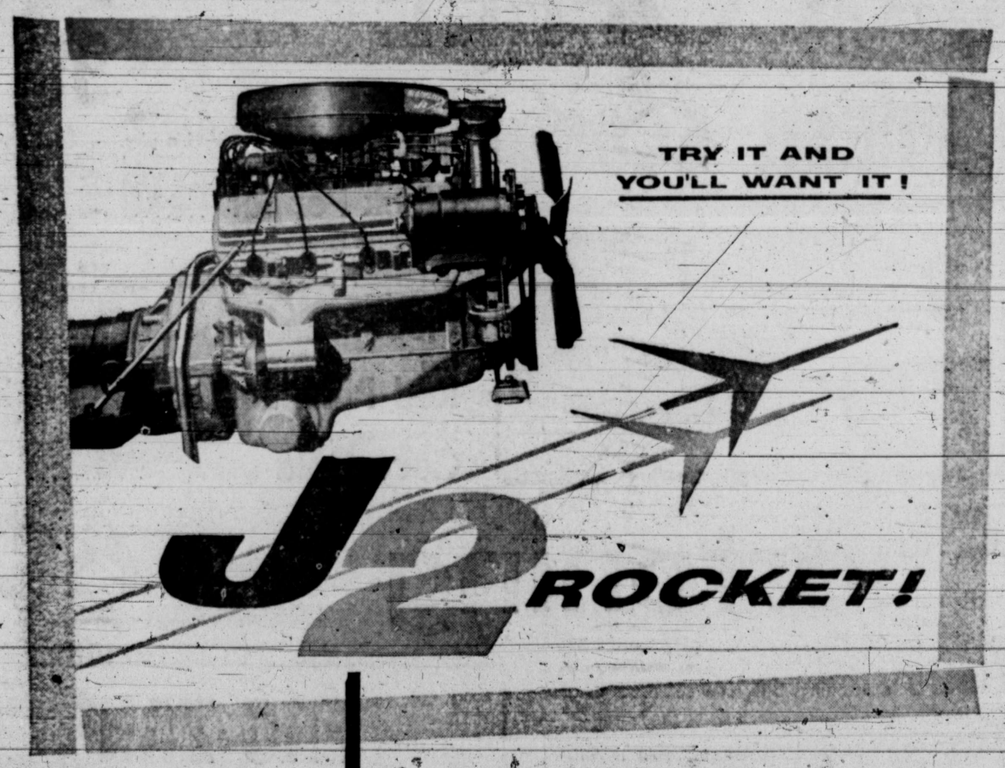

Thumbs Down

In the push to clear the Legislative calendars, a lot of bills are falling by the wayside. Measures which already have hit the dust include those to: Abolish the property tax on automobiles and substitute higher registration fees; provide for re-districting of county precincts; require county judges to be lawyers; allow cities on local option to elect officials for four years instead of two; raise the minimum age for senators from 26 to 30 and the minimum for representatives from 21 to 25; require persons over 60 years of age to obtain an annual exemption certificate to vote; prohibit cities from annexing property across county lines; and allow cities to issue bonds to build municipal parking lots.

Measures which apparently have made the grade: Allow use of tax money to advertise the state of Texas; levy penalties for tossing litter on public roads, parks and beaches; make it unlawful to carry a switch-blade knife; permit skipping of jury trials in lunacy cases; create a new Securities Commission to handle regulation now divided between the Insurance Commission and Secretary of State's office; create a system of full-time paid supervisors for paroled convicts; and define rights of REA co-ops to operate in areas annexed by cities.

Short Snorts

First six officials to file statements of their personal business interests under the new code of ethics bill were Reps. Joe Pool, Tom Joseph, Joe N. Chapman, Herman V. Puckett Jr., Rufus U. Kilpatrick and State Auditor C. H. Cavness. New U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough is slated as main speaker at a state convention of the Democrats of Texas May 18 in Austin. Identified with the liberal-loyalist block, the DOT has been sharply criticized by the Democrat State Executive Committee.
