Veterans honored by area school students

It was a day to remember, to cry, to pray and to pay honor and tribute to all the veterans who have served or are presently serving in the armed forces.

In a ceremony that lasted almost two hours with more than 700 in attendance, veterans were honored with presentations by students from Colorado Middle School, Colorado High School, Loraine ISD and the Westbrook ISD, and with two guest speakers, Colonel Jack Wylie of Dyess Air Force Base and motivational speaker Jon Randles of Lubbock, that stirred the audience with their speeches.

The seven local area veterans and active duty members honored for their service to their country were John Ladd, Adon DeLoera, Ricky Molina, R.J. Lloyd, Mike Burt, Julio Garcia and Julio Garcia Jr.

Colonel Wylie was introduced by his son Chase, an 8th grade student at CMS.

"Thank you so much Colorado City for the honor of asking me to be one of your speakers today," said Col. Wylie who is the base IG at Dyess. "Today is a day that we honor all of America's veterans and active duty military members and to pay tribute to those that paid the ultimate sacrifice for their country."

Colonel Wylie said that Dyess has contributed greatly in today's war against terrorism and crews have flown in more than 300 combat sorties. Dyess also has more than 100 members deployed to Afghanistan and other regions. There are currently members from Dyess on a 90 to 180 day rotation at this time.

Motivational speaker and Lubbock minister Jon Randles told the audience that if we end up with a war against Iraq, the war would not be won with guns and battleships.

"Character is what is going to win the war for us," said Randles. "We may have a chance to not only win the war but to change society for the better right now."

Randles told the young people to see the program, page 3

Williams is selected to replace Ratliff as CISD business manager

Dobie Williams

After a 30-minute closed session, the Colorado ISD Board of Trustees unanimously selected longtime Colorado City resident Dobie Williams to replace the retiring Geneva Ratliff as CISD Business Manager. Ratliff, who has 37 years with CISD, will retire effective the end of December, but Williams is expected to work with her through mid-term.

Williams will receive a base salary of $50,000 that will be prorated for the number of days this school year that he actually works.

Colorado ISD School Superintendent Jim White said after the board meeting that there were several excellent candidates, but Williams emerged as the most qualified.

"We have hired a new business manager, a local fellow by the name of Dobie Williams," said White. "He is going to come aboard, hopefully, pretty soon. He will be working with our outgoing business manager Geneva Ratliff, who has announced her retirement after 37 years in the education business, which is remarkable in itself. Dobie will be working with her over the next few weeks or up until the time of Geneva's retirement to learn as much as he can about school finance."

Superintendent White said that Williams has a college degree in finance and a minor in real estate and has about 10 years of experience in the banking and savings & loan business and three of those years was with FDIC.

"Even though he doesn't have any experience in school finance he has an enormous

City to buy two new police cars

During an hour-long meeting Tuesday night, the Colorado City Council approved a bid for the city to purchase two new police cars from Big Country Chevrolet in Snyder. The total cost of the vehicles will be $41,000 or $18,950 each for the 2003 4-door Chevrolet Impalas with a Police Package.

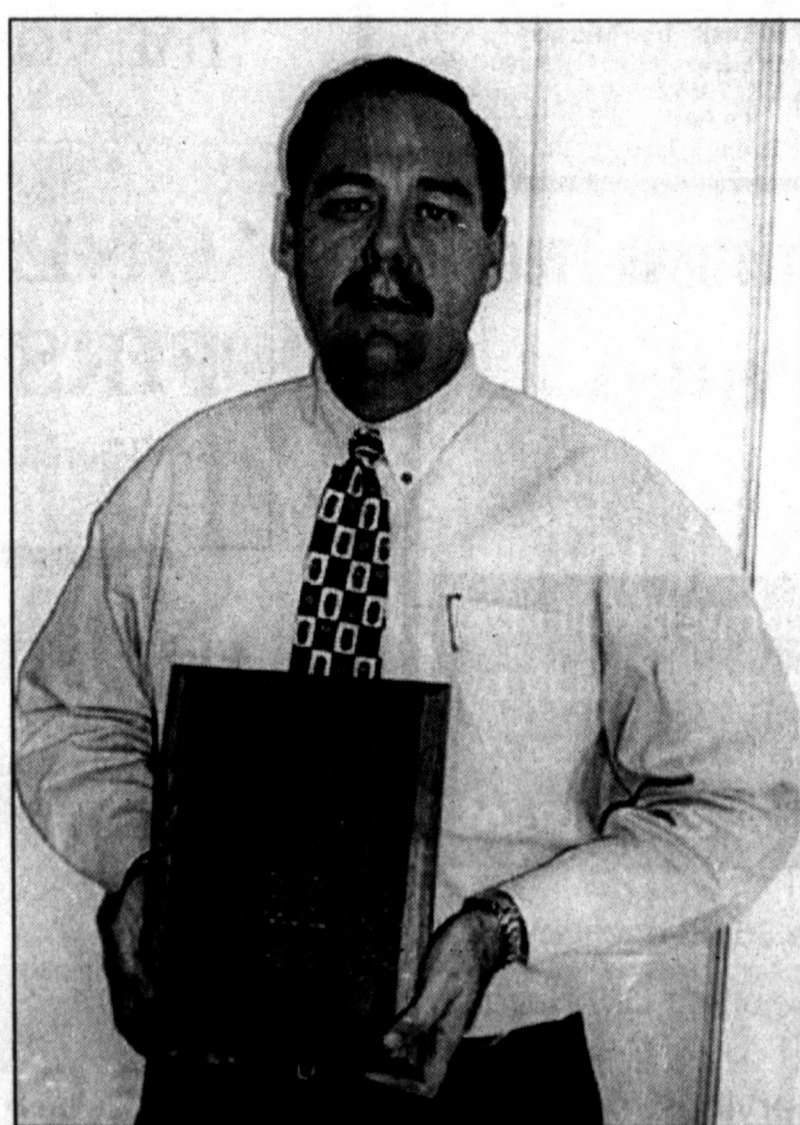

The total price includes a 6-year, 100,000 mile warranty that will cost an additional $1,550 on each vehicle with a $100 deductible.

The city has almost $50,000 in drug seizure money that will help offset the costs of the vehicles. They will have to be ordered but according to city manager Steve Shutt, the vehicles can be delivered in two to three months from the date the order is placed.

Action was also taken on a piece of property that the CISD has been holding in trust. It had been seized for non-payment of back taxes.

The property, located at 1819 Plum Street, has been valued on the 2001 tax roll at $350. Bids have been taken in the past but

Wolves play-off bound against Shallowater

By Carl Graham

The Colorado City Wolves head into the Division I (Big School), Class 2A playoffs for the third consecutive year this Saturday night and will face a 4-2A opponent in the first round once again but with hopes of coming away with better results.

The Wolves win the distinction of playing as the "Big School" due to an ADM of 316 to Crane's 315. ADM is just another word for average daily attendance. By virtue of that, the Wolves will face off against class 4-2A District Champion Shallowater who is in their first year of playing in class 2A, down from class 3A with an ADM of 336.

Shallowater is coached by Keith Kitchens, an ex-Herford quarterback, who is in his 17th year as a head coach at the South Plains school. He has notched 114 wins during his tenure there.

Last year, in class 3A, his team ended up at 6-5 on the season, losing to Lake Worth 14-12 in the bi-district round. They return four offensive and five defensive starters from that squad including two all-district were rejected due to being too low.

After discussion by council members it was suggested that the bid submitted by Louis and Diana Franco for $100 be accepted in order to get the property back on the tax rolls. Sammy Contreras made the motion to accept the bid and Verta Hardegree seconded the motion.

Bluegrass Festival organizer Edith Womack addressed the council and reported that the festival was able to break even for the first time since it's beginning three years ago. She told the council at its inception that it would probably take at least 5 years to break even but the goal was accomplished in just 3 years. She reported that the event brought in approximately $13,993 of revenue to the city. That figure is slightly low she stated due to a lot of people not turning their receipts.

No action was taken on the agenda item concerning a fence ordinance until further study can be done.

Mayor Bob Reilly addressed the council about his attending the Texas Municipal League (TML) meeting in Ft. Worth from October 16-19.

He told the council he had some very interesting discussions with various council members from across the state with population similar to that of Colorado City. He was particularly interested in continuing to correspond with a member of the council from Granbury he stated.

Citizen of Year nominations sought

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2002 Citizen of the Year. The award will be presented at the 94th Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet Saturday, February 8, 2003.

Nominating rules for Citizen of the Year are as follows:

- Any Mitchell County resident may be nominated as Citizen of the Year, however, they must have lived in Mitchell County for the entire 12 month period they are being nominated for.

- Each nominee will be evaluated on the activities he/she has done in the previous 12 months only. The award will not be given to anyone who is employed in the job he/she is being nominated for.

All nominations must state explicitly why each person is being nominated. Individuals will be judged on the reasons they are being nominated, and not on the number of nominations they receive. Please submit information, in writing, to the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce, 157 West 2nd Street or mail to PO Box 242. Deadline for entries is 5:00 pm on December 2, 2002. ## PROGRAM

ple gathered that there were three things they need to do and have in order to set examples for others to follow.

"First of all be in the pursuit of excellence," said Randles. "Always strive to be the best that you can be. Secondly, discipline yourself. Without self-discipline you will never be able to reach the goals you have set. And that brings up the third thing, set high goals for yourself. If you reach those goals then set another goal even higher. Even if you never achieve the goal you have set your goals high and if you strive for those goals, chances are you will reach them."

The program concluded with the playing of the TAPS by David Jones and the retirement of the colors.

TxDOT offers military, veteran plates

As Texans observe Veteran's Day this month, the Department of Transportation (TxDOT) and the Mitchell County tax assessor-collector's office are featuring military and veteran special license plates to honor members of the United States Armed Services and surviving family members.

There are more than 20 types of military and veteran special plates available for motorists who have served in all major branches of the military including the Texas Guard and Civil Air Patrol, veterans of World War II, Korea, Vietnam or the Gulf War; Purple Heart recipients; Congressional Medal of Honor winners; Former POW's; Legion of Valor honorees; and disabled veterans. There is also a Gold Star Mother special plate available for mothers of people who died while serving in the United States Armed Services.

"Military or veteran special license plates are a great way to display pride in one's military service," said Faye Lee, tax collector-assessor for Mitchell County. "These special plates are also symbols of patriotism."

TxDOT and the Mitchell County tax assessor-collector's office can help those who qualify to display one of these plates. Fees differ and individuals must meet certain eligibility requirements for military or veteran special plates.

Motorists can get applications, eligibility requirements and fees for military or veteran special plates at their county tax office, on TxDOT's web site (www.dot.state.tx.us) or by calling the TxDOT help desk at 512-465-7611.

TxDOT introduced the special cialty license plate program in 1965. Today, TxDOT has more than 100 different plate designs, with many of them benefiting a particular group or organization.

For more information, call Faye Lee, Tax Assessor-Collector at 915-728-2606.

Lloyd remembers cruelty of war

In honor of the Veteran's holiday, each week in November, a local veteran will be featured in a story written by Colorado Middle School students.

By Kelly Morris, Shante Kreis, Axel Lewis

World War II actually began September 1, 1939, when Germany invaded Poland. The United States tried to remain neutral during the European conflict. However, they found it necessary to aid their allies for financial reasons. The United States was coming out of the Great Depression and Germany was in a state of political unrest. A charismatic German, Adolf Hitler came to power by way of political propaganda, mob violence and intimidation. He made many promises to the German people to re-unify the "fatherland."

Hitler's armies were on the move terrorizing villages and Jewish people. Moreover, to add insult to injury, Hermann Goering was ordered to carry out the "final solution".

In September, 1941, approximately 34,000 Jews were murdered by mobile killing squads in the Ukraine. On the other side of the world, Japan began an imperialistic move to conquer Southeast Asia, Korea, China, and Manchuria. Additionally, the first group of German and Austrian Jews were deported to ghettos in Eastern Europe.

October 12, 1941, 19,000 Odessa Jews were massacred. December 7, 1941, the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor. December 8, 1941, Chelmo, Poland, (the first of the "death camps" to use gassing and the first place outside of soviet territory opened 47 miles west of Lodz) began gassing prisoners that were brought to the camp the previous day. Some 32,000 Jews were killed at Chelmo.

Additionally, on December 8, 1941, the United States declared war on Japan, because of the attack on Pearl Harbor. December 11, 1941, Germany and Italy declared war on the United States. The U.S. fought back.

R.J. Lloyd was born August 6, 1916 in Abilene, Texas. He is the son of the late Thomas and Annie Lloyd. Mr. Lloyd grew up in Mitchell County along with five brothers and one sister. Today he is retired, married, and father of twins and grandfather to four boys and one girl. He and his wife currently live in Colorado City, Texas.

After volunteering for the United States Army, Mr. Lloyd was inducted January 29, 1941. He was assigned to the Medical Department of the 36th Division, and received training at Camp Bowie, Brownwood, Texas. He helped set up medical units in Camp Adair, Oregon; and Camp Shelby, Mississippi; and Camp Young, Georgia before shipping out.

During night duty as a medic, Mr. Lloyd tells the story of young soldiers coming to the hospital asking for a shot to help them sleep. (Only nurses were allowed to give medicated shots.) He would make attempts to dissuade them from taking unnecessary medicine.

However, Mr. Lloyd did not want the young soldiers to have a restless night and wake up feeling poorly. He would accommodate their request and give each a shot. They would see him the next morning, as he was coming off duty, and tell him how well rested they were. He would smile and listen as one soldier would tell another about his secret shot. Little did they know, the special shot was distilled water.

Mr. Lloyd also served in the European Theater of Operations as a Supply Sergeant. When Mr. Lloyd was serving in France, he drove a Dodge Carry All. Sergeant Lloyd traveled approximately 1,200 miles on narrow roads to get food supplies to his division during his tour of duty in Europe. Sometimes, only moving a mile or two a day, or traveling in circles.

"Fighting was everywhere. Moreover, Patton kept his tanks moving, even going against General Eisenhower's orders. As long as Patton had fuel, troops gained ground. Patton kept the German soldiers pushed back because he cut off their supply lines. Although General Patton was diligent in containing the opposition, he sometimes caused his own troops to be without supplies because Patton used all the fuel in the pursuit of German soldiers."

"Sometimes my division had to wait for new rations and supplies, because of fuel shortages. There were times the troops also had to wait for supplies because passwords were changed every day at noon. If you left camp without the password for the next day you could not re-enter camp without the correct password."

The Germans kept the roads mined, and Sergeant Lloyd once had to jump out of his vehicle and hide behind a tree to keep from being killed by Germans. Another time a big rock saved his life, because he hid behind it. He explained, "the Germans even mined the ground around the base of the trees. It was necessary to use extra caution."

The three words Mr. Lloyd uses to describe his military experience are, "War is Terrible!" Mr. Lloyd is hesitant to discuss the horrible conditions of war. There are not enough years to erase the graphic images of war etched in his memory. At one concentration camp, he observed the cruelty delivered to Jews, and Yugoslavians. This camp was 80 miles outside Paris, France.

"The Jewish people were whipped when they did not work hard enough. When these people didn't serve a purpose any more they were lined up and shot or gassed or burned alive just because they were Jews."

He viewed the mass burial grave and the horrors that were inflicted upon Jewish people. He remembers that American soldiers were given the task of trying to identify those left outside the mass burial. He witnessed bodies layered in lime, one upon the other in the burial chamber, (a hole dug out of the ground and thousands upon thousands of bodies pushed in the hole one on top of another, covered in lime).

"The Germans were not humane, even the lime to help destroy the bodies was not done for the benefit of the dead. It was to prevent the spread of disease to Germans." War is terrible! The photographs Mr. Lloyd took serve to remind us exactly what price was paid.

Fourteen days was a lifetime to the men in Mr. Lloyd's platoon. Mr. Lloyd survived his first 14-day encounter with the enemy and six additional battles. Additionally, his feet were frozen three days during one of those seven battles. R.J. Lloyd was awarded seven battle stars and the good conduct medal.

Staff Sergeant Lloyd served five years, ten months, and eight days, before separating from the Army. It is because of the men and women like R.J. Lloyd that we record and share their stories in an effort for all to know how "Terrible War Is!" and to give them the thanks and recognition they earned.

R.J. Lloyd

Pain May Be Eliminated For Millions

(SPECIAL) Pain relief is now possible without the potentially harmful side effects of expensive prescription medications. For an average of less than $20.00 monthly you can experience the beneficial results that over one million Americans have enjoyed. Arthur Itis is being called "the best external analgesic on the market", by many, in the treatment of debilitating pain associated with arthritis, bursitis, sports injuries, painful muscles, joints, backaches, bruises and more. Arthur Itis has a unique formulation that works like a "Smart Bomb" to target and destroy the messenger chemical that sends pain signals to the brain. A man from Virginia said Arthur Itis is the only product of its kind that works for him. A woman from Minneapolis said Arthur Itis helped her pain tremendously. A woman in West Virginia said she had used other arthritis medications but, nothing helped her as much as Arthur Itis. Over one million patients can't be wrong. Arthur Itis is available without a prescription in a 4 ounce penetrating cream or equally powerful roll-on. Due to the demand, supplies are sometimes limited.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

I have a complaint against the City Manager. I was told by a reliable source, that in order to address the City Council I must call the City Secretary 72 hours in advance of the City Council meeting and request to be placed on the agenda. However, when I called the City Secretary, she informed me she could not do this without an okay from the City Manager. I requested she obtain an okay and call back. When she called back she said the City Manager refused to place me on the agenda. He further told her to have me write a letter to him and he would discuss the matter with my councilman. In my opinion, that is exercising dictatorial power.

I was born and raised in Mitchell County. I have represented Colorado City and Mitchell County through all three wars of my lifetime: WWII, Korea and Vietnam. Enclosed find documentation to affirm the above.

I have dedicated a lifetime of service to defend life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, unfortunately, I have encountered a dictatorship of policy, contrary to all common sense.

Is our City Council a rubber stamp, or does it exist to formulate policy, then promulgate it? In my opinion, the duties of the City Manager should be only to comply with policy and then enforce that policy without personal alterations. If this is not true, why have a City Council anyway? If there is any backbone in the City Council, then some should ask a few "why's - how comes."

selections, Kiel Kitchens and Tanner Wilson.

Kiel Kitchens, son of coach Kitchens, was the MVP of district 4-2A. He is a two-way starter at quarterback and line-backer, and the key to defeating Shallowater is stopping Kitchens. The other all-district holdover is Tanner Wilson, a 6'1", 260 pounder who runs the 40 yard dash in 5.0.

Others of the 12 returning lettermen holdovers and starters last year are Eric Morris at flanker and safety, Eric Von-Berg at running back and line-backer, Steven Gauna at split end, Johnny Rodriguez at offensive guard/defensive tackle, Celso Garcia at offensive guard/linebacker, and Rusty Baker at line-backer.

Kitchens passed for more than 1,500 yards, ran for more than 600 last season and is on course to surpass that this year. He threw for 17 touchdowns.

Morris led all receivers with 31 catches for 368 yards. Shallowater defeated the Wolves last season bi-district opponent, Post, by a score of 21-0. Post was picked to repeat as the district champions but the Mustangs derailed the Antelopes who enter the playoffs as the number two team.

Head Wolf Coach Frank Johnson said to beat Shallowater the defense must put a lot of pressure on the quarterback Kitchens.

"From what we have seen and heard they are a very good football team," said coach Johnson. "They are very balanced in both their running game and passing game. We believe if we come out and establish our running game, control the ball, and play good defense, we have a good chance of moving on to the next round."

After last week's thrashing of Forsan it appears the Wolves are ready to "get that monkey off their back" and move on to the regional round.

The Fenoglios of Montague County

By Tumbleweed Smith

Antonio, Jack and Barney Fenoglio arrived in the US from Italy in 1872 and worked in coal mines in Illinois, Kansas and Oklahoma before saving enough money to come to Texas and buy land in Montague County.

"They had a rough time," says Robert Fenoglio, a former justice of the peace and now a city councilman in Nocona. "When they went into the town of Montague, they always went two at a time. They were not well received because they were Italian and Catholic, both rare species in Montague County at the time."

The Fenoglios couldn't speak English when they first arrived in America. "My grandfather quit school in the third grade," says Robert. "His name was Andrew Jackson Fenoglio. He quit school because one of the teachers whipped him because he couldn't speak English. He swore at that time that his children would never learn the Italian language because they were Americans. That was a disgrace."

The Fenoglios farmed, bought more land, got into the oil business and now there are about 200 Fenoglios in Montague County involved in all facets of the community. Several hold political office both locally and statewide. Some made names for themselves on football teams in high school and college.

Robert's father married a red haired Irish lady who was vivacious and well loved. "That kind of broke the ice between the Italians and the rest of the community. We're very well accepted now and we're proud of our heritage."

Robert demonstrates the Italian lawn game of Bocci at fairs and festivals around the state. He says Bocci is now played mostly in backyards.

Robert likens the Fenoglios to Johnson grass. "They tried to kill us out, but we persevered and now we're here to stay."

The people of Montague are known for their tenacity. "My uncle Tony, the ex-state representative, says you could build a twelve foot fence around Montague County and not let anybody else in and the people would survive better than any place on earth."

The Fenoglios left Italy because of poor living conditions. "In 1860 all of northern Italy was controlled by Austria. They had a civil war and won their independence. Then they had a depression. My grandfather told me about his father's family sleeping five in a bed sideways and no job and no land to buy. So they decided to come to the new country."

One brother stayed in Italy and lives in a small town at the base of the Alps near the Swiss and French borders. Robert went over there in 1997 and says it's the most beautiful place in the world.

"My great grandfather died when he was 58 years old. When I came back from Italy I told my dad that I thought I understood why his grandfather died at such an early age. After he came to Texas from that beautiful place in Italy, he must have thought he was in hell and he just couldn't stand it any longer."

West Nile "booster" may be needed for some horses

By Keith Hiser
County Executive Director
Mitchell County FSA

Cooler temperatures will bring a welcome break from mosquitoes, which this summer have transmitted West Nile Virus (WNV) to more than 800 of Texas' nearly one million horses. Few areas of the state have been spared from the spread of this disease that was introduced into the U.S. in 1999 and made its way to Texas in June 2002.

Laboratory tests, most run at the Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory (TVMDL) have confirmed infection in horses in 149 Texas counties. WNV, a "sleeping sickness" disease, can be harbored by more than 70 species of birds. Mosquitoes are responsible for spreading the disease from an infected bird to a horse or human.

"For more than 14 months, we've urged owners to get their equids (horses, donkeys and mules) vaccinated against West Nile Virus," said Dr. Linda Logan, state veterinarian and executive director of the Texas Animal Health Commission (TAHC), the state's livestock health regulatory agency.

Although WNV is not a regulatory disease, TAHC veterinarians and animal health inspectors have worked to increase awareness about the disease that can cause equids to suffer swelling of the brain, develop high fever and muscle tremors, or become unable to rise. According to national statistics, WNV infection can lead to death in up to a third of infected equids, Dr. Logan noted.

"Now owners should talk with the private veterinarian about a 'booster' shot for equids that were vaccinated at least six months ago. This is particularly important if the animals reside in or will be traveling to areas where temperatures are warm enough to support mosquitoes through the winter," said Dr. Logan. "This booster shot can strengthen the animal's immunity, enabling it to fight off development of clinical disease."

WNV vaccine is produced by Fort Dodge Animal Health and is conditionally licensed by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), explained veterinarian Terry Conger, TAHC's state epidemiologist. Aside from mosquito repellents, he said the vaccine, available through veterinarians, is the only protection available against the disease that has affected nearly 12,000 horses in 38 states in 2002.

"Studies on the effectiveness of the vaccine must be completed before the vaccine gains final approval," said veterinarian Terry Conger, TAHC's state epidemiologist. "However, preliminary reports on the vaccine's safety and effectiveness looks good. Of the 20,000 equine animals vaccinated properly in 2001 in Florida, only one was known to have developed WNV infection."

"Adequate supplies of WNV vaccine are available from the maker, but many owners have procrastinated about getting their horses immunized," said Dr. Conger. "On October 28, we talked with representatives of Fort Dodge Animal Health and were told only 750,000 doses of the vaccine have been ordered by Texas private practitioners. That's enough vaccine for only 325,000 of the state's one million horses, because the immunization process requires two doses of the vaccine, with the second administered three to six weeks after the first injection. Maximum disease immunity doesn't occur until three or four weeks after the second shot. To maintain disease protection, the animal needs a 'booster' shot yearly or in warmer climates every six months."

Dr. Logan said getting rid of mosquito breeding sites will help reduce the risk of disease transmission to both animals and humans. She urged equine owners to drain sources of stagnant water and to keep troughs cleaned and filled with fresh water.

"In all likelihood, WNV will continue to spread, but in making a diagnosis in equids, we need always to consider rabies or other diseases that can cause animals to be disoriented," explained Dr. Logan. "Although fairly rare, rabies can strike livestock, and owners who handle an animal stricken with rabies should contact their physician immediately. It's important to follow through with your veterinary practitioner to get a diagnosis confirmed when livestock become extremely sick or die, especially if they exhibit signs of neurological distress, such as inability to rise, stumbling, head swinging or disorientation. You should notify your veterinary practitioner or the TAHC at 1-800-550-8242."

Additional information about WNV can be accessed on the internet at www.tdh.state.tx.us/zoonosis/diseases/arboviral/westnile/

Railhead Trade Days post another successful event

Despite wind gusts up to 44 miles per hour on Saturday, the Colorado City Railhead Trade Days weekend was another huge success according to Chamber of Commerce Manager Leigh Ann Erwin who estimated that more than 6,000 attended the two-day event.

"The crowds appeared to be about the same as usual," said Erwin. "Saturday was really slow outdoors because of the weather, but our inside vendors were doing well." A few vendors packed it in early Saturday with the hope the winds would subside by Sunday. Indeed the wind died down after some early Sunday morning gusts of 15 to 20 miles per hour.

One of offshoots of having a good Trade Days is that it not only affects the vendors but also our local antique shops and other local businesses. Wilma Prater, co-owner with husband Leo of Wilma's Collectibles & Etc., said business for them was very good both days but extremely good on Sunday.

According to Erwin, that is not unusual to do better on Sunday than Saturday.

"We are kind of known for that here," said Erwin. "Our vendors have told us that Sundays are usually better than on Saturdays. They say people come and look on Saturday and come back to buy on Sunday. Our November Trade Days is typically one of the larger ones with Christmas so close."

A couple of new things were added this time that appear to have been a huge success as well. One was the Grandparents Brag, a contest to find the cutest grandchildren. Their photographs were placed in one of seven categories.

The winners were Seth Chaney in the newborn division. Seth's grandparents are Bruce and Marsha Dockery and Claudine Chaney. In the one year-old division Mason Gage was the winner. The proud grandparent is Diana Garza. The winner of the two and three year-old division was Jordan Grimes, grandson of Brenda and Troy Grimes. In the four and five year-old division, Tyler Bruce Wood was the winner. Tyler's grandparents are Don and Leda Wood, Carolyn Hawthorn and Barry Jones. Taking the six and seven year-old division was Madison Smith whose grandparents are Don and Dot Smith. The eight and nine year-old winner was Lindsey Pebey and her grandparents are Nancy Crow and Cecil and Sue Crow. The group shot winner went to Sydney and Lauren Aguilon, grandchildren of Brenda Aguilon.

Another new activity added to this month's Railhead Days was a karaoke contest which was well attended and well received. In the 10-and-under division, Allison Burrola placed first. Second place was won by Lachresha Johnson and third place went to Leslie Martini.

Krystal Sanchez, a 15 year-old student at Loraine took the first place honor in the 11 through 18 year-old group, with Amber Rose Ring receiving second place and Zach Smith and Channing Zant tied for the third place spot.

In the adult division it was C-City Opry singer Tim McCally winning first with another Opry singer, Tommie Wright of Loraine, garnering second place. Third place went to Bobby Hataway.

A $100 savings bond given by City National Bank was won by Belinda Toland of Snyder and the winners of two $50 savings bonds donated by First National Bank were won by Betty Bagwell and Pee Wee Russell, both of Colorado City.

The next Railhead Trade Days is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, March 1 and 2, 2003.

COOK'S CORNER

Cooking supper becomes a quick, easy process when you use foil packets. Not only is it a quick way to prepare a meal, but it makes short time of the clean-up as well.

Chicken Parmesan

2 sheets heavy duty foil
2 boneless, skinless chicken breast halves
1/2 cup spaghetti sauce
1 medium zucchini sliced or 1 cup broccoli florets
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Preheat oven to 450° or grill to medium-high. Center one chicken breast half on each sheet of heavy duty foil. Spoon spaghetti sauce over chicken. Top with zucchini. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese.

Bring up foil sides. Double fold top and ends to seal packet, leaving room for heat circulation inside. Repeat to make two packets. Bake 18 to 22 minutes on a cookie sheet in oven or grill 12 to 14 minutes in covered grill. Sprinkle with Mozzarella cheese before serving.

Easy Pork Chops & Rice

2 sheets heavy duty foil
1 cup instant rice
1 can cream of mushroom soup, undiluted
1/4 cup water
2 tablespoons soy sauce
2 boneless pork chops, about 1/2" thick
1 medium green bell pepper, cubed
1/2 small onion, thinly sliced

4 ice cubes

Preheat oven to 450° grill to medium-high. Spray foil with nonstick spray. Combine rice, soup, water and soy sauce.

Center half of rice mixture on each sheet of heavy duty foil. Arrange pork chops on top of rice mixture. Top with pepper, onion and ice cubes.

Bring up foil sides. Double fold top and ends to seal packet, leaving room for heat circulation inside. Repeat to make two packets. Bake 24 to 26 minutes on a cookie sheet in oven or grill 12 to 14 minutes in covered grill. Remove pork chops; stir rice mixture before serving.

Cheesy Turkey & Broccoli

4 sheets heavy duty foil
1 can cream of chicken and broccoli soup
1 1/2 cups sliced fresh mushrooms or 1 jar sliced mushrooms, drained
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
1/2 cup light sour cream
1/4 cup water
1 1/2 teaspoon dried basil
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 cups chopped cooked turkey
4 cups cooked broccoli florets
4 cups hot cooked rice

Preheat oven to 450°. Combine soup, mushrooms, cheese, sour cream, water, basil and pepper. Center 1/2 cup turkey on each sheet of heavy duty foil. Top with broccoli. Spoon 1/4 of soup mixture over top.

Bring up foil sides. Double fold top and ends to seal packet, leaving room for heat circulation inside. Repeat to make four packets.

Bake 15 to 18 minutes on a cookie sheet in oven. Stir to blend sauce. Serve over rice. Garnish with shredded cheddar cheese, if desired.

Beef & Potatoes with Mushroom Gravy

4 sheets heavy duty foil
1 pound boneless beef sirloin steak, 1/2" thick
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon pepper
4 medium red potatoes, cut in bite-size pieces
1 small red or green bell pepper, cut in strips
1 can cream of mushroom soup, undiluted
1 1/2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce

Preheat oven to 450° or preheat grill to medium-high. Cut steak lengthwise in half then crosswise into 1/8" thick strips. Sprinkle beef with garlic powder and pepper. Combine beef, potatoes, red pepper, soup and Worcestershire sauce.

Center 1/4 of mixture on each sheet of heavy duty foil. Bring up foil sides. Double fold top and ends to seal packet, leaving room for heat circulation inside. Repeat to make four packets.

Bake 25 to 30 minutes on a cookie sheet in oven or grill 15 to 18 minutes in covered grill.

Easy Grilled S'Mores

4 sheets heavy duty foil
4 graham crackers, broken into halves
2 milk chocolate candy bars, divided in half crosswise
4 large marshmallows

Preheat grill to medium or preheat oven to 450°. For each S'more, top one graham cracker square with one candy bar half, one marshmallow and another graham cracker square. Repeat with remaining graham crackers, candy and marshmallows.

Center one S'more on each sheet of heavy duty foil. Bring up foil sides. Double fold top and ends to seal packet, leaving room for heat circulation inside. Repeat to make four packets.

Grill 4 to 5 minutes in covered grill or bake 4 to 5 minutes on a cookie sheet in oven.

WIC offers free cooking class

Beginning this fall, Outreach Health Services (OHS) is offering a free cooking and food education program in communities across the state. Called "Neighborhood Cafe", the quarterly classes will provide helpful information for everyone in the community.

"Those who attend the class will learn to use the USDA Food Pyramid to plan, select and prepare delicious, healthy and economical foods," said Ann Latham, registered licensed dietitian and an assistant director for the OHS Women, Infants and Children (WIC) program. "An OHS nutritionist will lead the classes, which will last 90 minutes."

Each quarterly Neighborhood Cafe class will focus on a particular food group. "Grains: the Foundation of Eating Well" is the topic of the first class. A "grains" dish will be prepared, and participants will leave with recipes, spices and confidence to practice their new cooking skills. Future class topics are "Meats, Fish and Protein Foods," "Dairy Foods/Calcium Rich Foods" and "Variety with Vegetables/Cooking with Herbs."

To learn when the Neighborhood Cafe is coming to your community, call the Outreach Health Services Colorado City WIC Clinic at 915-728-2146.

WIC is a well respected, federally funded program that gives children a healthy start by encouraging optimal nutrition during the critical stages of development. WIC participants have access to vouchers for healthy foods, ongoing nutrition education classes, meal planning assistance, immunizations and breastfeeding instruction and support.

Each month Outreach Health Services offers WIC services to more than 33,500 clients in 58 Texas counties. Free WIC services are available to middle-to-low-income women who are pregnant, breastfeeding, postpartum or have an infant and/or children younger than five years of age. Income and residency requirements may apply. For information on WIC services, contact the Colorado City WIC Clinic at 915-728-2146 or visit www.outreachhealth.com.

Lady Wolves lose Speaking of Sports... Volleyball Season over

The Colorado City Lady Wolves volleyball season came to an end Tuesday night when they lost both games to the Alpine Lady Bucks 8-15, 14-16 to the state ranked Alpine Lady Bucks.

The contest was held in the high school gymnasium at Imperial Buena Vista, a small six-man school located in far West

Wolf JV teams combine to blast Forsan in finale

The Colorado City JV Red and Black squads teamed up last Thursday against Forsan and blasted the hapless Buffaloes by the score of 41-6.

It didn't take the locals very long to get rolling as Brandon Beights picked off a Forsan pass on the Buffs first possession. Eric Martinez ran the ball in from there, putting the Wolves up 6-0 after Brik McGuffin's PAT kick was blocked. Only a minute and 40 seconds had expired off the clock.

On the Wolves next possession McGuffin bobbled the snap from center, picked it up and ran 40 yards for the Wolves second touchdown with 6:31 left in the first quarter. The PAT was again no good, leaving the Wolves up 12-0.

On the ensuing kickoff none of the Forsan players would touch the ball after Erick Martinez raced down the field and fell on it at the 4-yard line. From there, Otis Johnson carried it to the 2-yard line, where an illegal procedure call moved it back five yards. Johnson carried to the 1-yard line. On the next play, Carlos Leonos put the ball into the endzone for a touchdown. The PAT was good this time, putting the Wolves up 19-0 with 5:17 to go in the first quarter.

After Forsan failed to move the ball beyond their own 14-yard line, the Wolves took it over from that point. Johnson used two carries before taking it in from the 12-yard line. The PAT run by Hann Ollison was stopped short. But, with 2:42 left in the initial quarter, the Texas.

The ladies had earned the right to play Alpine by defeating the Marfa Lady Short-horns last Thursday night 15-4, 15-8 in two games.

The games were played in Odessa at the gymnasium of the University of Texas, Permian Basin (UTPB).

The Lady Wolves were playing for the right to proceed to the regional tournament being held this weekend in Abilene.

Head Lady Wolf coach Gail Keeton said the girls played Alpine tough.

"These girls played one of the best games of the season tonight," said coach Keeton. "We thought we were going to be able to take them to a third game but just came up short. I am extremely proud of the girls. They never gave up and always played hard."

Congratulations Lady Wolves on a very good season.

By Carl Graham

For the first time all season all three Mitchell County football teams posted big wins over their opponents, in fact Colorado City, Loraine and Westbrook all scored more than 50 points with both the Wolves and Bulldogs scoring 56 points and Westbrook rang up 50 points. It may be a long time before that happens again, so we congratulate each team on finishing out on a strong note.

Loraine and Westbrook will pick up the roundball now, while the Wolves will be tied up for a while we hope with the pigskin to toss around.

Our Lady Wolves continue with their volleyball play as well which keeps them from working out with the roundball.

Just as I said, Abilene would honor their hometown hero John Lackey, winner of the 7th game of the World Series, which they did last Saturday.

They didn't name a street after him but did give him a key to the town. Don't know if he can get into anything with it but it would be worth a try, I suppose.

It was worth making the trip last Friday to Forsan just to watch senior offensive tackle B.J. "Refrigerator" Graham score a touchdown from the 1-yard line that put the Wolves up 14-0. Who would want to take on a 280 pound fullback anyway, let him go.

What with all the overtime periods now it's very unusual to still see teams end up with a tie. The Pittsburgh Steelers and the Atlanta Falcons battled to a 34-34 tie on Sunday though, the first tie in several years since the start of overtime play.

Hey, let's get behind our Wolves this Saturday and make the short trip to Odessa and watch our Wolves defeat Shallowater and proceed on to the regional round of the playoffs.

Have a great week and remember, be a good sport!

Wolves blast Forsan 56-0 in final season game

How Bout Those Wolves!!
The Colorado City Wolves waited until the final regular season game last Friday night in Forsan to put all together and play two total halves of football in what was the best football performance of the season.

And it couldn't have come at a better time, just before the beginning of what is anticipated as a long road through the playoffs.

Despite the 56-0 blowout the Wolves handed Forsan, the Wolves actually got off to a sluggish start using 10 plays on their opening possession, starting at their own 34-yard line and moving it to Forsan's 30-yard line before the drive died on a fourth and ten, turning the ball over to the Buffs on downs.

With 2:01 left in the initial quarter the Wolves finally got on the scoreboard when Forsan fumbled the ball on the snap from center and the Wolves recovered the loose ball.

The Wolves started at their own 5-yard line with Jacobie Russell carrying the ball for a yard gain and then for another 3 yards before busting one for 71 yards. He was finally brought down from behind by all-district defensive back Wes Longoria at the Buff 20-yard line. From there it took 4 more plays before Russell carried the ball in from the 5-yard line. The PAT kick was good by Anthony Matos leaving the Wolves up by 7-0.

It would be the second quarter before the Wolves would tack on another touchdown. It came with 10:31 to go in the quarter. It was set up by a brilliant punt return by David Salazar who returned the Buffalo punt all the way to the 1-yard line. Senior all-district lineman B.J. Graham then got to fulfill a linemans dream as he lined up as a blocking back and took the handoff from Jonathan Spear and plunged into the endzone "Refrigerator" style. Matos missed the PAT but the Wolves lead had increased to 13-0.

The Wolves got on the scoreboard one more time before the half when Russell culminated a 7-play drive with 2:21 to go in the half on a 4-yard touchdown. This time the Wolves went for a two-point conversion on a pass from Spear to Anthony Munoz and it was successful to put the Wolves up 21-0, a lead they would take into the locker at halftime.

Seldom used senior back Kinji Johnson scored his first touchdown of the season to open up the Wolf scoring parade in the third quarter when he caught a Spear 15-yard pass and took it to the endzone. Matos was true on the extra point attempt putting the Wolves up 28-0 with 10:03 left in the third quarter.

On the Wolves next possession Spear hooked up with Salazar on a 52-yard touchdown pass, the longest of the season, and the Wolves had extended their lead to 35-0 with 7:36 left to go in the third period after Matos had added the PAT.

Russell, who carried the ball 27 times for 212 yards on the night, scored his third and last touchdown with 2:20 left to go in the third period on a 22-yard touchdown run on the Wolves next possession. This put the Wolves up by a comfortable 42-0 lead and head Wolf mentor Frank Johnson began to empty his bench and play his reserves.

Of course, that did not stop the vicious Buffalo slaughter the Wolves were putting together.

Reserve tailback David Leanos got into the act with a 19-yard touchdown run with 6:39 to go in the game. This time Munoz was called in to substitute for Matos who had injured his kicking leg and Munoz kicked the PAT, putting the Wolves up 49-0.

After a 20 or 30 minute delay in the game while the officials waited for an ambulance to return to Forsan after carrying a Buffalo player to the hospital in Big Spring with neck injury, the Wolves' attempt at running out the clock was foiled. Reserve fullback Fidel Silva refused to be denied his chance for a touchdown as he blasted for a 21-yard gallop across the goal line with 46 seconds left in the game. This improved the score to the final of 56-0.

Coach Johnson said the score was not an attempt at running up the score on Forsan.

"We had some fresh legs in the game and everybody who touches the ball wants to get a touchdown in," said Coach Johnson. "Fidel got that opportunity and made the most of it. All these kids have played hard all season and waited their turn. Kenneth (Scott) had another great game as did all of our running backs. I don't think we were trying to run up the score, it just kind of happened."

The Wolves thus finish out the regular season at 8-2 and 4-1 in district play, finishing second behind Crane who defeated them 14-6 last week in the mud.

The Wolves now have a week to prepare for the Shallowater Mustangs in the bi-district round of the playoffs this Saturday, November 16. The game will be played at Ratliff Stadium in Odessa with the kickoff scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

"They are a very good football team," said coach Johnson. "We are going to have to play good defense, establish our running game and throw the ball to mix things up a bit. They have a great little quarterback and we need to put some pressure on him to see if he can throw the ball with somebody on him."

Wolves stats impressive, Russell leads in rushing

With the regular season finishing up last week with a 56-0 win over Forsan, we thought we would give a few interesting stats through the 10-game season.

In non-district action, the Wolves offense averaged 17.2 points per game and the defense yielded an average of 8 points per game.

Once district started, the Wolves produced an average of 27.6 points per game and only yielded an average of 4.4 points per game.

For the season the Wolves averaged 22.4 points per contest and only gave up an average of 6.2 points per game.

Jacobie Russell ended the regular season with a total of 1,245 yards on 193 carries for an average carry of 6.45 while freshman Kenneth Scott ended up in second with 449 yards on 62 carries, an average gain of 7.24 yards per carry.

Senior quarterback Jonathan Spear ended the regular season completing 41 passes on 121 attempts for 676 yards and 4 touchdowns.

Senior wide receiver David Salazar wound up as the leading receiver with 16 catches for 309 yards. Bo Williamson, the Wolves fullback, ended up with 7 catches for 94 yards while Patrick Spear, a junior wide receiver, was just behind with 6 catches for 93 yards.

Defense is where the Wolves have shined all season and linebackers Jeremy and Andrew Regalado have been the leaders in tackles most of the season. Jeremy collected 54 solo tackles and 38 assists while big brother Andrew was collecting 51 solos and 26 assists.

All-district tackle B.J. Graham collected 27 solo tackles and 21 assists but missed several games due to an injury. Patrick Spear, a defensive back, ended district play with 37 solo tackles and 14 assists, while standout defensive end Josh Ritchey collected 35 solo tackles and another 25 assisted tackles. Ritchey was the leader on behind the line of scrimmage tackles with 12.

Senior defensive back David Leanos collected 29 solo tackles as well as 17 assists.

Leading the team in interceptions with two each were Jeremy Regalado, Patrick Spear and Chris Spear. Others picking off passes were Jonathan Spear, David Salazar and Jacobie Russell.

Another interesting stat is that the Wolves averaged 11.8 first downs per contest with an average of 237 yards per game rushing and 74 yards through the airways. They averaged 311 yards of total offense. That is compared to only allowing 7.7 first downs to their opponents and an average of 114.8 yards on the ground and 66.6 yards per contest through the air.

Great job Wolves! Let's corral those Mustangs this Saturday!

The Loraine Jr. High basketball team took no prisoners in their season opener against Hermleigh Monday night.

Hi readers! Hooray! The election is finally over. Now maybe we won't get all that political mail plus the candidates' phone calls. Last Monday night, I settled down to sleep and the phone rang. Sure enough it was a political message, a canned message from Barbara Bush. I told Barbara it was too late for any candidate to be calling and not call back unless she was giving away money or Maine lobster. I'm still waiting to hear.

Remember, if you like music and if you like chili, then plan to attend the Chili Supper/Musical Friday night, November 15. The food and music get underway at 5:00 and will go until 8:00. The cost per person is $5. Plan to have fun! Be at the Senior Center at 5:00.

Mary Helen Motley sold her house in Loraine last week. We hate to lose a long time Lorainian but glad to hear she is happy living in Colorado City.

Buying Mary Helen's house are Dan and Nita Giesler. They are from Blackwell and are retired. We are pleased they chose Loraine for their place of residence.

Diane and Jim Sanders along with Jack Hollis attended the Colorado City Opry and enjoyed all the great music. The three had a late dinner at Hidalgo's. Later, Diane discovered there was a fish tank out back of the restaurant with fish galore.

Jeff and Sissy Woodell have taken over the Loraine Cafe from Kelly Mitchell. They had a nice dinner for the public after church last Sunday. Check it out. Please patronize the Loraine Cafe.

Bringing Sunday morning service at First Baptist Church was Pastor Derrel Baldwin, Area Missionary from Snyder. Bro. Baldwin filled in for Bro. Brian Waddell who was not feeling well. By Sunday night, Bro. Brian Waddell felt well enough to take part in Bible Study. We hope he continues to improve.

Joan and Narl Long ate breakfast at the Wallace Center Saturday morning and viewed the arts and crafts plus getting to visit with old friends made it an enjoyable time.

Millie Rose enjoyed having the company of her son, Sylvester Rose, from Wichita Falls Sunday. He was happy to put his feet under his mother's table. You know she fed him well.

A guest in the home of Betty Chandler over the weekend was Nadean Martin from Stephenville. The ladies enjoyed going to the Railhead Trade Days in Colorado City. Then Sunday night they attended a gospel singing in Big Spring. It was a fun and interesting weekend.

We have concerns for Leona Linam at this time. She is now residing at Valley Fair Lodge in Colorado City. I'm sure she would enjoy company.

Here and There
Narl and Joan Long went to Abilene last Friday to keep a doctor's appointment for Narl.

Millie Rose thinks that since the newscasters have rested after the election she thinks Peter Jennings might come to Loraine. She voted to elect him for everything or anything.

Frances Richburg fell at the Roscoe Post Office and it took seven stitches to close the wound on her head. She is alright now but bruised badly.

Danny and Pam Butler took mom (Juanice) out to eat lunch at a local eatery after church Sunday morning. She enjoyed it all.

Elnora Mitchell says she and Grady went to the Colorado City Opry last week and enjoy it a lot everytime they go.

New residents, Dan and Nita Geisler, visited the Loraine Senior Center last Wednesday.

Senior Center
Monday, November 11 was Veterans Day and the Center has many veterans that frequent the Loraine Senior Center. Those attending on the 11th were all recognized and received words of gratitude. Each veteran told how old they were when they were inducted into their branch of service and where they were stationed. The attendants and veterans stood and in unison gave the Pledge of Allegiance. In closing the program, Ina Vay McAdams sang the Statue of Liberty song.

Jack Compton from Midland was a visitor last week. He looks well.

Nora Galvan is scheduled to sing on November 13. She always sings a nice selection of songs.

November 15th is Joke Day. For instance, two little dogs were playing in a city park. They came upon a white bench with a sign that read "wet paint". So they both did!

Last Friday, Dub Woodell, Charles Dunn and Vida Mac McDaniel pleased the audience with good music and singing.

The Snyder Aubrey Wilson Band will delight everyone on Monday, November 18 before lunch.

Out of town visitors were Kenneth Jackson, Loree Muck and Jack Compton. Susan Farr visited the Center with Pauline Smiley on Monday.

Iris Preston and Sassy Furlow of Abilene visited Friday and had lunch.

The Goldenair Choir was at the Center last Wednesday. We loved their singing!

Loraine blasts Hermleigh 56-13 in season ending match

The Loraine Bulldogs closed out the 2002 football season on a positive note by downing the winless Hermleigh Cardinals in Hermleigh last Friday night 56-13.

Loraine scored in every quarter with several Bulldogs getting in on the scoring parade.

Loraine jumped ahead 8-0 early in the game on a George Davila 7-yard run and the PAT by D.J. Vanderpool.

Hermleigh came back to close the score to 8-6 when they scored on a 15-yard pass play. That however would be as close as the game would get as the Bulldogs scored six unanswered touchdowns to run up a 40-6 lead.

The points came on a 46-yard touchdown run by Anthony Esquivel, a two-point safety, a Michael Walker 16-yard touchdown run, followed by a Walker 27-yard touchdown pass reception from Ryan Lucas.

Lucas then got on the scoreboard with an 11-yard touchdown run that put Loraine up 40-6.

Hermleigh then broke their drought and kept the game alive with a 1-yard touchdown run and tacked on another point with a successful PAT.

Sophomore Steven Wooddell was on the other end of an Anthony Esquivel 14-yard touchdown pass that put Loraine up 48-13 and then Esquivel scored the last Bulldog touchdown when he caught a 27-yard touchdown pass from Davila. With Vanderpool putting up the PAT the final score went in the books as 56-13.

Defensively Lucas had 15 tackles and an interception, Elias Martinez chalked up 11 tackles, Junior Delgado accounted for 10 and Davila was credited with 7 tackles and a fumble recovery.

The win moved the Bulldogs season record to 5-5 and 2-3 in district with losses to district winner Highland, district runner-up Ira and cross-county rival Westbrook.
