SHADES OF

DIFFERENCE

Regardless of race, Midlanders have remarkably similar goals for themselves and their community — a high standard of living, opportunities for success and safe, comfortable surroundings. But citizens of differing ethnic backgrounds approach those goals from different perspectives.

In a three-day series beginning Sunday, the "Shades of Difference" will examine conflicts that still exist as well as the significant strides that have been made in race relations in recent years.

Weekend forecast

A cloudy, windy, cold day is on tap for Midlanders today, as the second cold front of the week blows through the region. A 50 percent chance of rain with a high only in the upper 40s is forecast, and the weather service expects gusty southwest winds of 20 to 30 mph to shift to the north by late in the day. Decreasing clouds and sub-freezing temperatures are forecast for tonight. Slight warming to the mid-50s under sunny skies is in Sunday's outlook. /4A

Pen-gun death

HAMBURG, Germany — A woman died after being shot by a gun disguised as a ballpoint, police said Friday. The woman's ex-husband told police he did not know the device was a weapon. The 54-year-old man remains under investigation, police said. He told police the shot was fired Thursday as he fiddled with the "pen," which he found on the street and did not recognize as a pen gun. The woman was shot in the chest, police said. The couple was celebrating her 48th birthday, police said.

HUD scandal

WASHINGTON — An assistant to former Sen. Edward W. Brooke pleaded guilty Friday to aiding and abetting false statements by Brooke to investigators in the HUD influence-peddling scandal. Brooke, R-Mass., who was the first black elected to the Senate since Reconstruction, was a private lawyer when he and Elaine Richardson were questioned by investigators in 1988. Brooke has not been charged. 12C/

U.S., EC end trade battle

Negotiators reach farm subsidy agreement

■ U.S. withdraws threat to impose 200 percent tariffs on $300 million worth of European products beginning Dec. 5.

Associated Press

WASHINGTON — The United States and Europe settled on Friday a bitter fight over farm subsidies that had threatened to set off a global trade war. Both sides expressed hope that the breakthrough would lead to quick completion of a 108-nation effort to rewrite the rules of world trade.

The agreement was announced simultaneously in Brussels, headquarters of the 12-nation European Community, and in Washington where President Bush said he was "exceptionally pleased" with the deal.

"I am hopeful that the breakthrough that we achieved today will spur movement across the board in the ongoing negotiations" to break down barriers to world trade, Bush said.

Successful conclusion of the broader talks, known as the Uruguay Round for the country where they were begun in 1986, has been Bush's top trade priority since taking office. He now has at least a chance of seeing the negotiations wrapped up before he leaves office.

With Friday's agreement, the United States withdrew its threat to impose 200 percent tariffs on $300 million worth of European products beginning Dec. 5.

Those tariffs would have tripled the price Americans paid for European white wine as punishment for subsidies that the Bush administration says were costing American farmers $1 billion in annual lost sales of soybeans and other oilseed crops.

Beyond the soybean fight, negotiators also reached agreement for across-the-board reductions of other European farm subsidies. Europe's previous refusal to go along with American demands for the broader farm subsidy cutbacks had stymied efforts to complete the Uruguay Round for the past two years.

The rewrite of world trade rules, being held under

Patrons make 'super' effort to get last issue

By Chris Van Wagenen

Gail Riggan got in line at 10:30 a.m. waiting for the doors to open at C 'n' H Cards, Comics and Hobbies in Midland.

"I could be shopping someplace else, but I'm here for my son... this is kind of like the Cabbage Patch (doll) craze," Ms. Riggan said.

What's all the commotion? Ask D.C. Comics. After decades of saving the planet, the popular comic book concern decided it was time to kill Mr. all-around good-guy Superman.

Superman? You remember him. Disguised as Clark Kent, the mild-mannered reporter was faster than a speeding bullet, more powerful than a locomotive and able to leap tall buildings at a single bound.

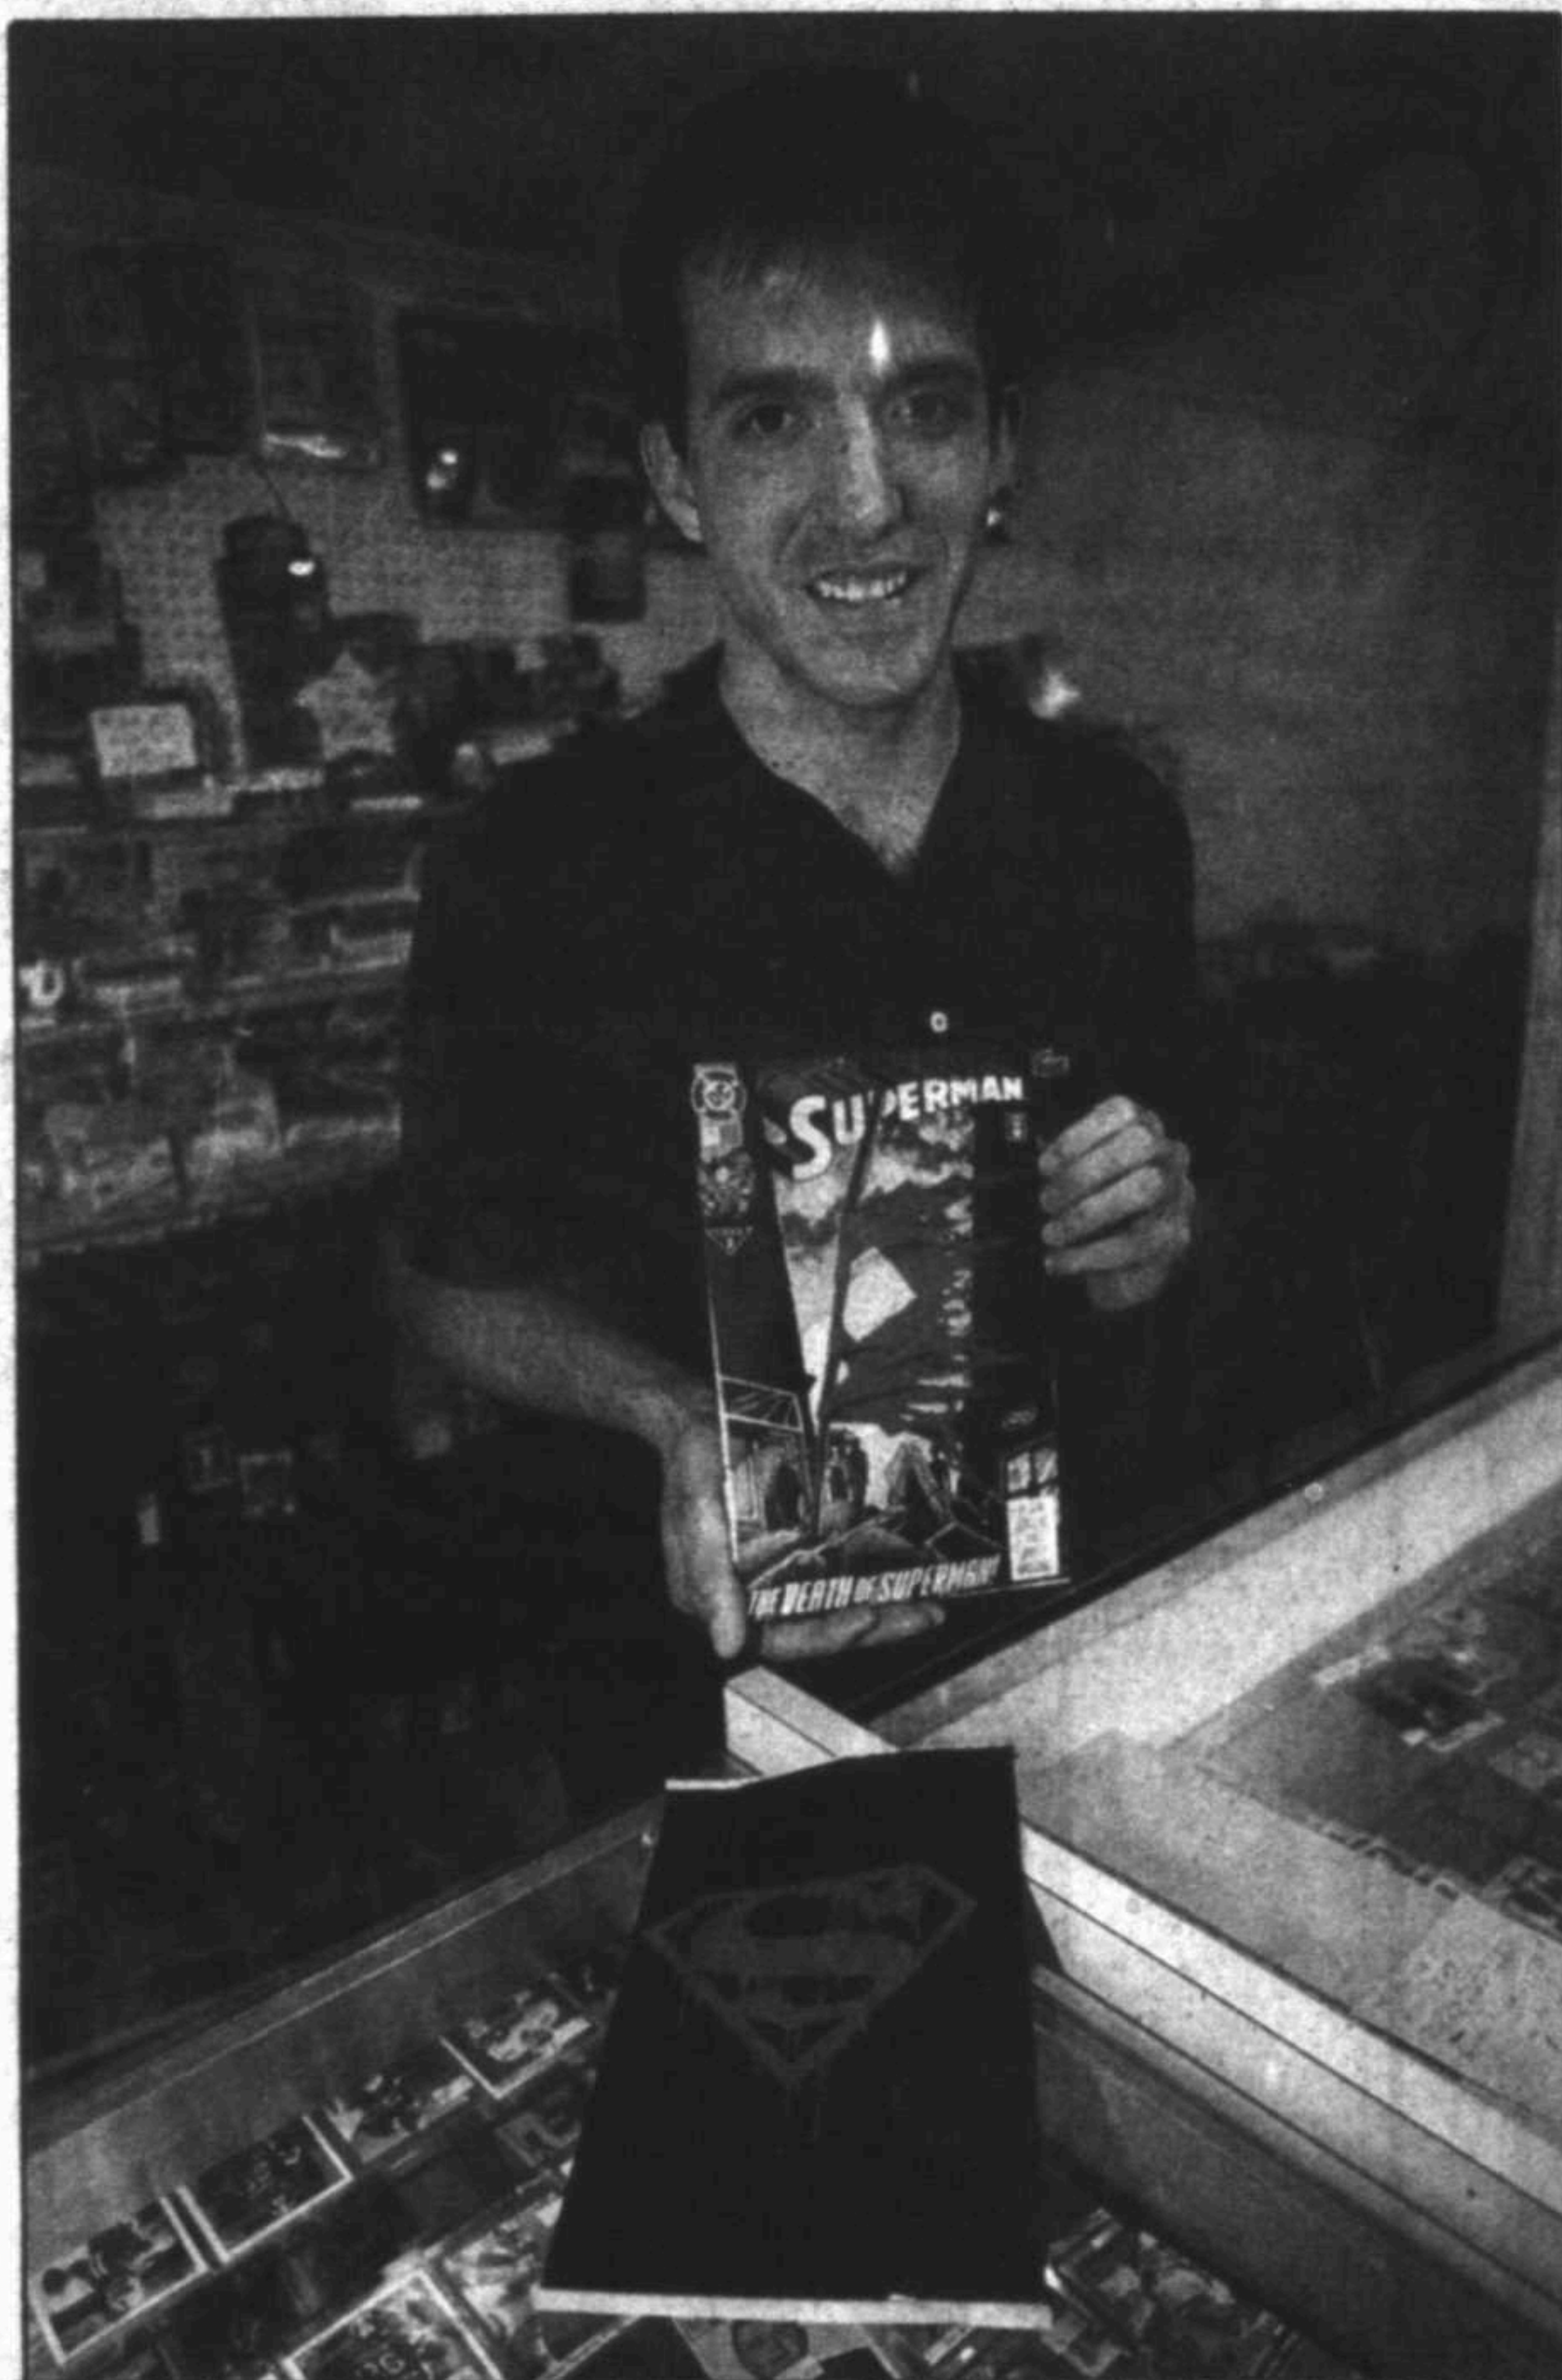

Oh, what will Lois Lane and Jimmy Olsen do now?

If you haven't heard the story line, you'll be saddened to know that Superman finally meets his match in a grand knock-down, drag-out finale.

"About five issues ago, Superman met this character named Doomsday who started terrorizing the nation. Doomsday has been making his way to Metropolis and Superman is trying to keep him out of there so he doesn't kill anymore people," according to C 'n' H owner Mike Dunn.

Get the picture? Dunn did. Dunn started receiving about 40 calls a day earlier this week when D.C. printed the last issue.

Although Dunn isn't a Superman fan, like others, he been following the big showdown with interest. "Doomsday is just a big bad guy. He's bigger than Superman and he's as tough as Superman."

Dunn started taking reservations from customers who started calling him two months ago when they first learned that Superman was going to be killed off. He kept 100 of what he received in reserve.

"But when I realized I was down to my last 20 (copies), I just told them (customers) to be here at 11 a.m."

And they were there. In addition to the 20 or so lined up outside his Andrews Highway business Friday morning, there were incoming calls from

Monahans gas pipeline explodes

Staff report

MONAHANS — A natural gas pipeline explosion rocked east Monahans Friday night, resulting in some families — who live near the south of Interstate 20 — being evacuated from their homes.

No injuries were reported.

About 6:30 p.m., a natural gas pipeline exploded ½ mile east of Interstate 20, according to Texas Department of Public Safety officials.

Due to some damage, the eastbound lane of the interstate was closed Friday night. Traffic was rerouted to Business Access Road 20. The gas was expected to dissipate.

The cause of the explosion was under investigation at press time.

Windsor Castle art escapes fire

WINDSOR, England (AP) — Royals and commoners joined Friday to rescue art treasures from a fast-spreading fire that severely damaged a historic banquet hall at Windsor Castle, the weekend home of the queen.

Queen Elizabeth II spent the afternoon of her 45th wedding anniversary surveying the damage and helping to evacuate treasures from the castle 20 miles west of London, a royal residence for 900 years and the oldest still in use.

Prince Andrew, who was at Windsor when the fire broke out, rushed to join hundreds of commoners who formed a human chain to take whatever artworks they could to safety.

Flames danced above the castellated roofs into the night, and the fanciful towers stood in black relief against fountains of sparks and billowing smoke turned orange by the fire.

"The queen is devastated, absolutely devastated," said Andrew, the queen's second son.

Lawmen jail Odessans on arson charges

Staff report

ODESSA — Two Odessa men were arrested Friday by special agents of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms for the March 1990 arson of the Fantasy Topless Nightclub.

The federal criminal complaint charges John Nicholas Skruck, 37, and John Patrick Barragan, 28, both of Odessa, with conspiracy to maliciously damage or destroy, by means of a fire or explosive, the Fantasy Nightclub. The building was used in interstate commerce.

The complaint states that Skruck, general manager for Circle "C" investment company — the Charles Cranford-owned corporation that operated five competing topless bars within the Odessa-Amarillo area — paid Barragan, a maintenance man for Circle "C" the Woman sues in hostage, chase incident

By Michael Kashgarian
Staff writer

After being taken hostage in February by two inmates, one of whom was killed following a high speed chase through three counties, a Big Spring woman filed a lawsuit Friday against the city of Big Spring and a prison management company.

Carmen Brooks claims the city and Mid-Tex Detention Center Inc. — which contracts with the city to provide facilities support management at the Big Spring Correctional Center — were negligent, according to the lawsuit filed in the 238th District Court.

On Feb. 17, Ms. Brooks, then 39, who had been teaching conversational English to inmates through Howard College, was abducted by Juan Ramirez, 37, and Pedro Sotello, 34, at the facility, which houses illegal aliens and prisoners.

The two men "convinced the prison guards to let them exit the premises of the compound. The perimeter guard, who had driven up in his patrol car, then turned over the vehicle to the escaping inmates with their hostage in tow," the lawsuit states.

Ramirez and Sotello led officers from seven area departments on an hour-long, high-speed chase on Interstate 20, police reported.

The 20-mile chase, with speeds in excess of 110 miles an hour, ended when police shot out two tires of the vehicle causing it to spin several times on the FM 307 overpass before striking a guard-rail and coming to a rest, police reported.

Upon their arrest, Ramirez continued to threaten the hostage before being fatally shot at about 10 p.m. by a Department of Public Safety trooper, authorities said.

"Officers surrounded the car, opened fire, and killed Ramirez, who was holding Plaintiff with the blade of a box cutter at her throat," the lawsuit states.

Both inmates were Mexican nationals who had been detained for illegal immigration into the United States and were serving time for importing and distributing marijuana and prison officials said.

The lawsuit claims Mid-Tex and the city were negligent for failure to provide a safe work place, failure to monitor and supervise inmates, failure to implement proper hostage response strategies after a breach of security, allowing the inmates to leave the prison and permitting officers to fire at the vehicle with Ms. Brooks inside.

An unspecified amount of damages are sought for physical and mental injuries.

Mike Thomas, Big Spring city attorney, said he had not seen the lawsuit but commented: "We have looked at it (the incident) previously and the city believes we don't have a liability."

Mid-Tex representatives in Brady were unavailable for comment on Friday.

The attorney who filed the lawsuit, Dicky Grigg of Austin, was not available for comment on Friday.

who said he had been inside St. George's Hall, where the monarch has hosted Ronald Reagan, Mikhail Gorbachev and other world leaders.

"It's a pretty nasty mess," he said.

Late Friday, the queen, who had planned to spend the weekend at Windsor, stood in the central courtyard surveying the tangle of fire trucks, hoses and ladders. More than 225 firefighters and 30 fire engines were at the castle.

At least eight people were taken to hospitals with minor injuries, police and fire officials said.

Dean Landsdale, 21, a decorator working at the palace who was treated for burns, said the chapel was an inferno.

"The curtains were on fire and walls were burning — it was all going up," he said after treatment. "We dragged paintings into the gallery. I dragged three or four out with other people, then I touched one and felt my hands burning."

"There were about 20 blokes trying to save the paintings, but eventually it got too bad," he said.

David Harper, deputy Berkshire county emergency planning and fire officer, said the fire had been contained Friday night, but could continue to burn until midday today.

"Our problem has been the collapse inside the building of ceilings and floors," he said. He added that the fire was "at the very rear of the building, it can go no further."

The fire, reported at 11:37 a.m. (7:37 a.m. CST), was spotted in curtains in a private chapel which workers were preparing for renovation work, Andrew told reporters.

"There were people in the room when it caught fire, wrapping up paintings," he said. "There is no idea how it started other than in the private chapel."

So why is the nicest superhero to ever hit the planet getting his death ticket punched?

"Superman hasn't sold that well in the last few years," Dunn said, "that's why he's dying. Actually, the general public killed Superman when they quit buying him."

Dunn said today's comic connoisseurs don't have a taste for good guy images. "They want more violence ... more vigilante-type answers to today's problems, whereas Superman was always the good guy that just took them to jail."

In 1992, the popular super heroes are guys like "The Punisher" and "Wolverine."

"The Punisher kills people. He's a good guy, but he kills the bad guys. The same with Wolverine. He slices up the bad guys," Dunn said.

And what will become of the planet now that Superman is headed for his final conflict?

"There's no telling whether he'll come back or not. D.C. isn't saying a word about it ... Of course, everyone is hearing the rumors that they'll bring Superman back ... All D.C. will say is that he's dead at least through next March."

Maybe there's still hope for Metropolis.

sum of $1,800 to burn the Fantasy Nightclub and therefore put it out of business.

The investigation was conducted by the bureau, the Ector County Sheriff's Department, the Odessa Fire Marshal's Office, the Texas State Fire Marshal's Office, and the Odessa Police Department. The investigation showed that the blaze, which caused a total loss of the business, was set using gasoline as an accelerant.

Both Skruck and Barragan were arraigned Friday before a U.S. magistrate in Midland on the charges. The two remain in custody pending a bond hearing set for Tuesday. Prosecutors have filed a motion to detain the men without bond.

They could face up to 10 years in federal prison and a $10,000 fine if convicted.

Scotland Yard ruled out any suspicion of terrorist involvement.

The castle was built by William the Conqueror in the 11th century and has been expanded and altered through the centuries. Henry II put up the Round Tower, one of the most photographed parts of the castle, while Edward IV began the construction of St. George's Chapel, where Henry VIII and Charles I are buried.

Andrew and hundreds of soldiers and workers on the grounds grabbed pictures, clocks, tables and all sorts of ornaments and rushed with them to safety. Books and other small pieces were handed out in a human chain, and a dozen or more soldiers groaned beneath the weight of a heavy carpet.

The queen later joined them. "She is helping to take stuff out of the castle — works of art — she has been in there for 30 minutes," Andrew told reporters.

Some art was lost, "but I think it was as few as six paintings," Andrew said. "Of course, there is also water damage."

Palace officials said three drawing rooms were damaged, and the ceiling had collapsed in St. George's Hall.

No damage estimate was issued. Royal palaces are uninsurable because of their value, so the multi-million dollar restoration bill is likely to be footed by the government's National Heritage Department.

The hall and the state apartments on the North Terrace are open to the public when the queen is not at Windsor Castle. The chapel is not public.

Smoke was visible miles from Windsor. In the town, hoses snaked from hydrants through the streets. The ceremonial courtyard inside, where the queen has greeted many world leaders, was strewn with firefighting equipment.

David Palmer, a carpenter working in the palace, said he heard a call for help and grabbed a fire extinguisher.

"We went into St. George's Hall with the fire extinguishers and we could see the fire was going to take hold any minute," Palmer said.

"It just burst through from the chapel area and the lads working there carried out the paintings which had been moved off the walls."

Palmer said he could see smoke coming out of the pipes of an organ that served both the hall and the chapel.

Sir Roy Strong, former director of the Victoria and Albert Museum in London, said the area of the castle affected was a superb example of Regency (1811-1820) decoration.

In the state apartments were works by Holbein, Rembrandt, Rubens, Van Dyck and Canaletto. There are important collections of furniture, porcelain and tapestries and drawings by Leonardo da Vinci.

But the Times of London reported the greatest concern was for the decorative works that form the fabric of the building, such as ornate woodcarvings in the King's Dining Room by Grinling Gibbons (1648-1720).

The castle was a favorite residence of Queen Victoria, who is buried nearby with her husband Prince Albert.

Windsor Castle ranks sixth among British historic properties as a tourist attraction, with 630,000 visitors last year.

Graham Pratley, leader of the Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead, said the fire could be a disaster for a town where 3,000 jobs rely on tourism.

"It's going to take years to put this right," Pratley said.

WEATHER SUMMARY

The Accu-Weather® forecast for noon, today.

Today should be colder

Staff report

Today's forecast calls for cloudy, windy and colder with a 50 percent chance of rain. The high is only expected to reach the upper 40s and winds southwest 20 to 30 mph and gusty, becoming northerly later in the day, according to the National Weather Service at Midland International Airport.

Tonight is predicted to have decreasing cloudiness with a low near 30. Sunday's forecast is for mostly sunny skies with a high in the mid-50s, the NWS said.

Friday's high was 68, compared to the record high of 83, set in 1942. The record low for today's was set in 1988, when the mercury dipped to 22.

STATE

A cold front that moved into Texas early Friday provided cloudy skies across most of the state, and more of the same, including frigid temperatures and some snow in the Panhandle, was expected for the weekend.

West Texas had cloudy to partly sunny skies with scattered showers over some areas of the Panhandle and Permian Basin. Afternoon temperatures ranged from the 40s and 50s northward to the 60s in the south. Winds were from the north at 15-20 mph with gusts to 38 mph at Guadalupe Pass.

Skies were also cloudy over much of north Texas. Winds blew at 5-10 mph with highs in the 50s and 60s.

NATION

Tornadoes belted Louisiana on Friday and heavy snow built up in Utah, Minnesota and Wyoming. Rain and some snow fell over the Mississippi Valley.

One injury, a broken arm suffered by a school teacher, was reported in Thibodaux, La., after a funnel cloud set down. No one was hurt when another twister damaged a trailer park in Bayou Blue.

Strong thunderstorms ranged across the Gulf Coast by afternoon.

DEATHS

Ethel Jackson

LAKE WORTH — A memorial service for former Midlander Ethel A. Jackson, 92, is set for 11 a.m. today at St. Ann's Episcopal Church in Lake Worth. Services are under the direction of Lucas Funeral Home of Hurst.

Mrs. Jackson died Tuesday at a Cleburne hospital.

She was born April 29, 1900, in La Junta, Colo.

She was a retired saleswoman. She was a member of St. Nicholas Episcopal Church in Midland.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Sam S. Jackson and one son, Donald J. Simon of Midland.

Survivors include: one daughter, Dee Ann Hurley of Wichita Falls; one sister, Opal Holt of Fort Worth; seven grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Ada Ross

Services for Ada Ross, 77, of Midland are pending with Baker-Jackson Funeral Home.

She died Wednesday at a local hospital.

Officials hope for rush on tickets

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Lottery officials, still looking for their first lotto winner, were hoping for a rush of sales as tonight's $10 million drawing nears.

"People will be realizing there's at least a $10 million jackpot there that could be theirs," said Andy Welch, spokesman for state Comptroller John Sharp.

About $1 million in tickets were sold by early afternoon Friday, said lottery spokesman Steve Levine.

Calling statewide sales "very brisk," he said tickets were selling especially well along the Texas-Louisiana border as Louisiana residents came across to play.

The drawing will be the third since the lottery began the pick-six numbers game a week ago.

No one won the drawings last Saturday or Wednesday. So those jackpots were rolled over into the current prize. Welch said the pot might go higher still if sales warrant.

"That's what we're thinking," he said Friday.

"With this pretty weather blowing through starting at lunchtime today through Saturday evening, there's a real potential for people to buy a lot of tickets."

In the lotto game, players must pick six numbers from one to 50 and hope that they match the six winning numbers selected at random.

Matching three wins $3, matching four or five wins more, depending on how many win and how much is bet. Wednesday night, 34 players matched five numbers and won $4,008, while 2,596 players matched four numbers and won $189.

Levine said that 500,000 lotto tickets were sold Thursday and that Lotto Texas sales had totaled about $13.2 million since the tickets went on sale Nov. 7.

With the jackpot building, Sharp said, "Saturday could be our first true 'lotto crazy' day."

Welch said lottery officials expect up to 50 percent of the tickets for today's game to be sold today.

"Players have played twice and feel more confident," he said. "Sales should start picking up this (Friday) afternoon and tomorrow they really start. That was certainly true on the first two drawings."

Among the lottery's early losers was Venessa Grandjean, who had been chosen to serve as hostess for the one-minute televised drawings. Sharp fired her from the $575 a week job, deciding that the position wasn't needed.

Ms. Grandjean, a Luling high school teacher, told the Houston Post she believes she was the victim of a misinformed public that thought $575 a week was too much for two 60-second on-air appearances.

"I had to commit nine months of my life, put my life practically on hold every Wednesday and Saturday night. That meant no travel, no vacations," she said. "I don't think the public realized I was being paid for more than 60 seconds on the air."

Wright takes students on Washington tour

N.Y. Times News Service

WASHINGTON — Former House Speaker Jim Wright, who represented Fort Worth in Congress for 34 years, returned to the U.S. Capitol on Friday — this time as a teacher and tour guide for 80 students from Texas Christian University.

Wright, who has taught political science at TCU since resigning as speaker more than three years ago, led his students through the chambers where he spent nearly half his life. For the students, it was a living civics lesson. For Wright, it was a kind of homecoming.

"It's a very exciting time to be in Washington," said the former Democratic congressman, referring to the upcoming inauguration of Bill Clinton as the first Democratic president in 12 years.

As he stood behind the House podium, the same place where he announced his resignation as speaker on May 31, 1989, he touched on the highlights of a congressional career that spanned eight presidents. Pausing at his portrait behind the House chamber, Wright quipped, "I had more hair back then."

In a brief talk that was part lecture and part personal reflections, Wright cited the upcoming transfer of power between President Bush and President-elect Clinton to illustrate one of the most distinctive features of democratic government.

"We have a changing of the guard in a peaceful way in this country that is very unique. . . the kind of government where one party's in power, another is elected, and they shake hands in a civil way," Wright said. As he spoke, a Capitol employee stood behind him on a ladder, putting up the names of the newly elected representatives.

Wright's return to the Capitol corridors was met with smiles and hugs. He greeted tour guides, police guards and former colleagues. Carol Sowls, a Capitol tour guide who led the students, said, "My proudest moment is always to say, 'Speaker Wright,'" she said.

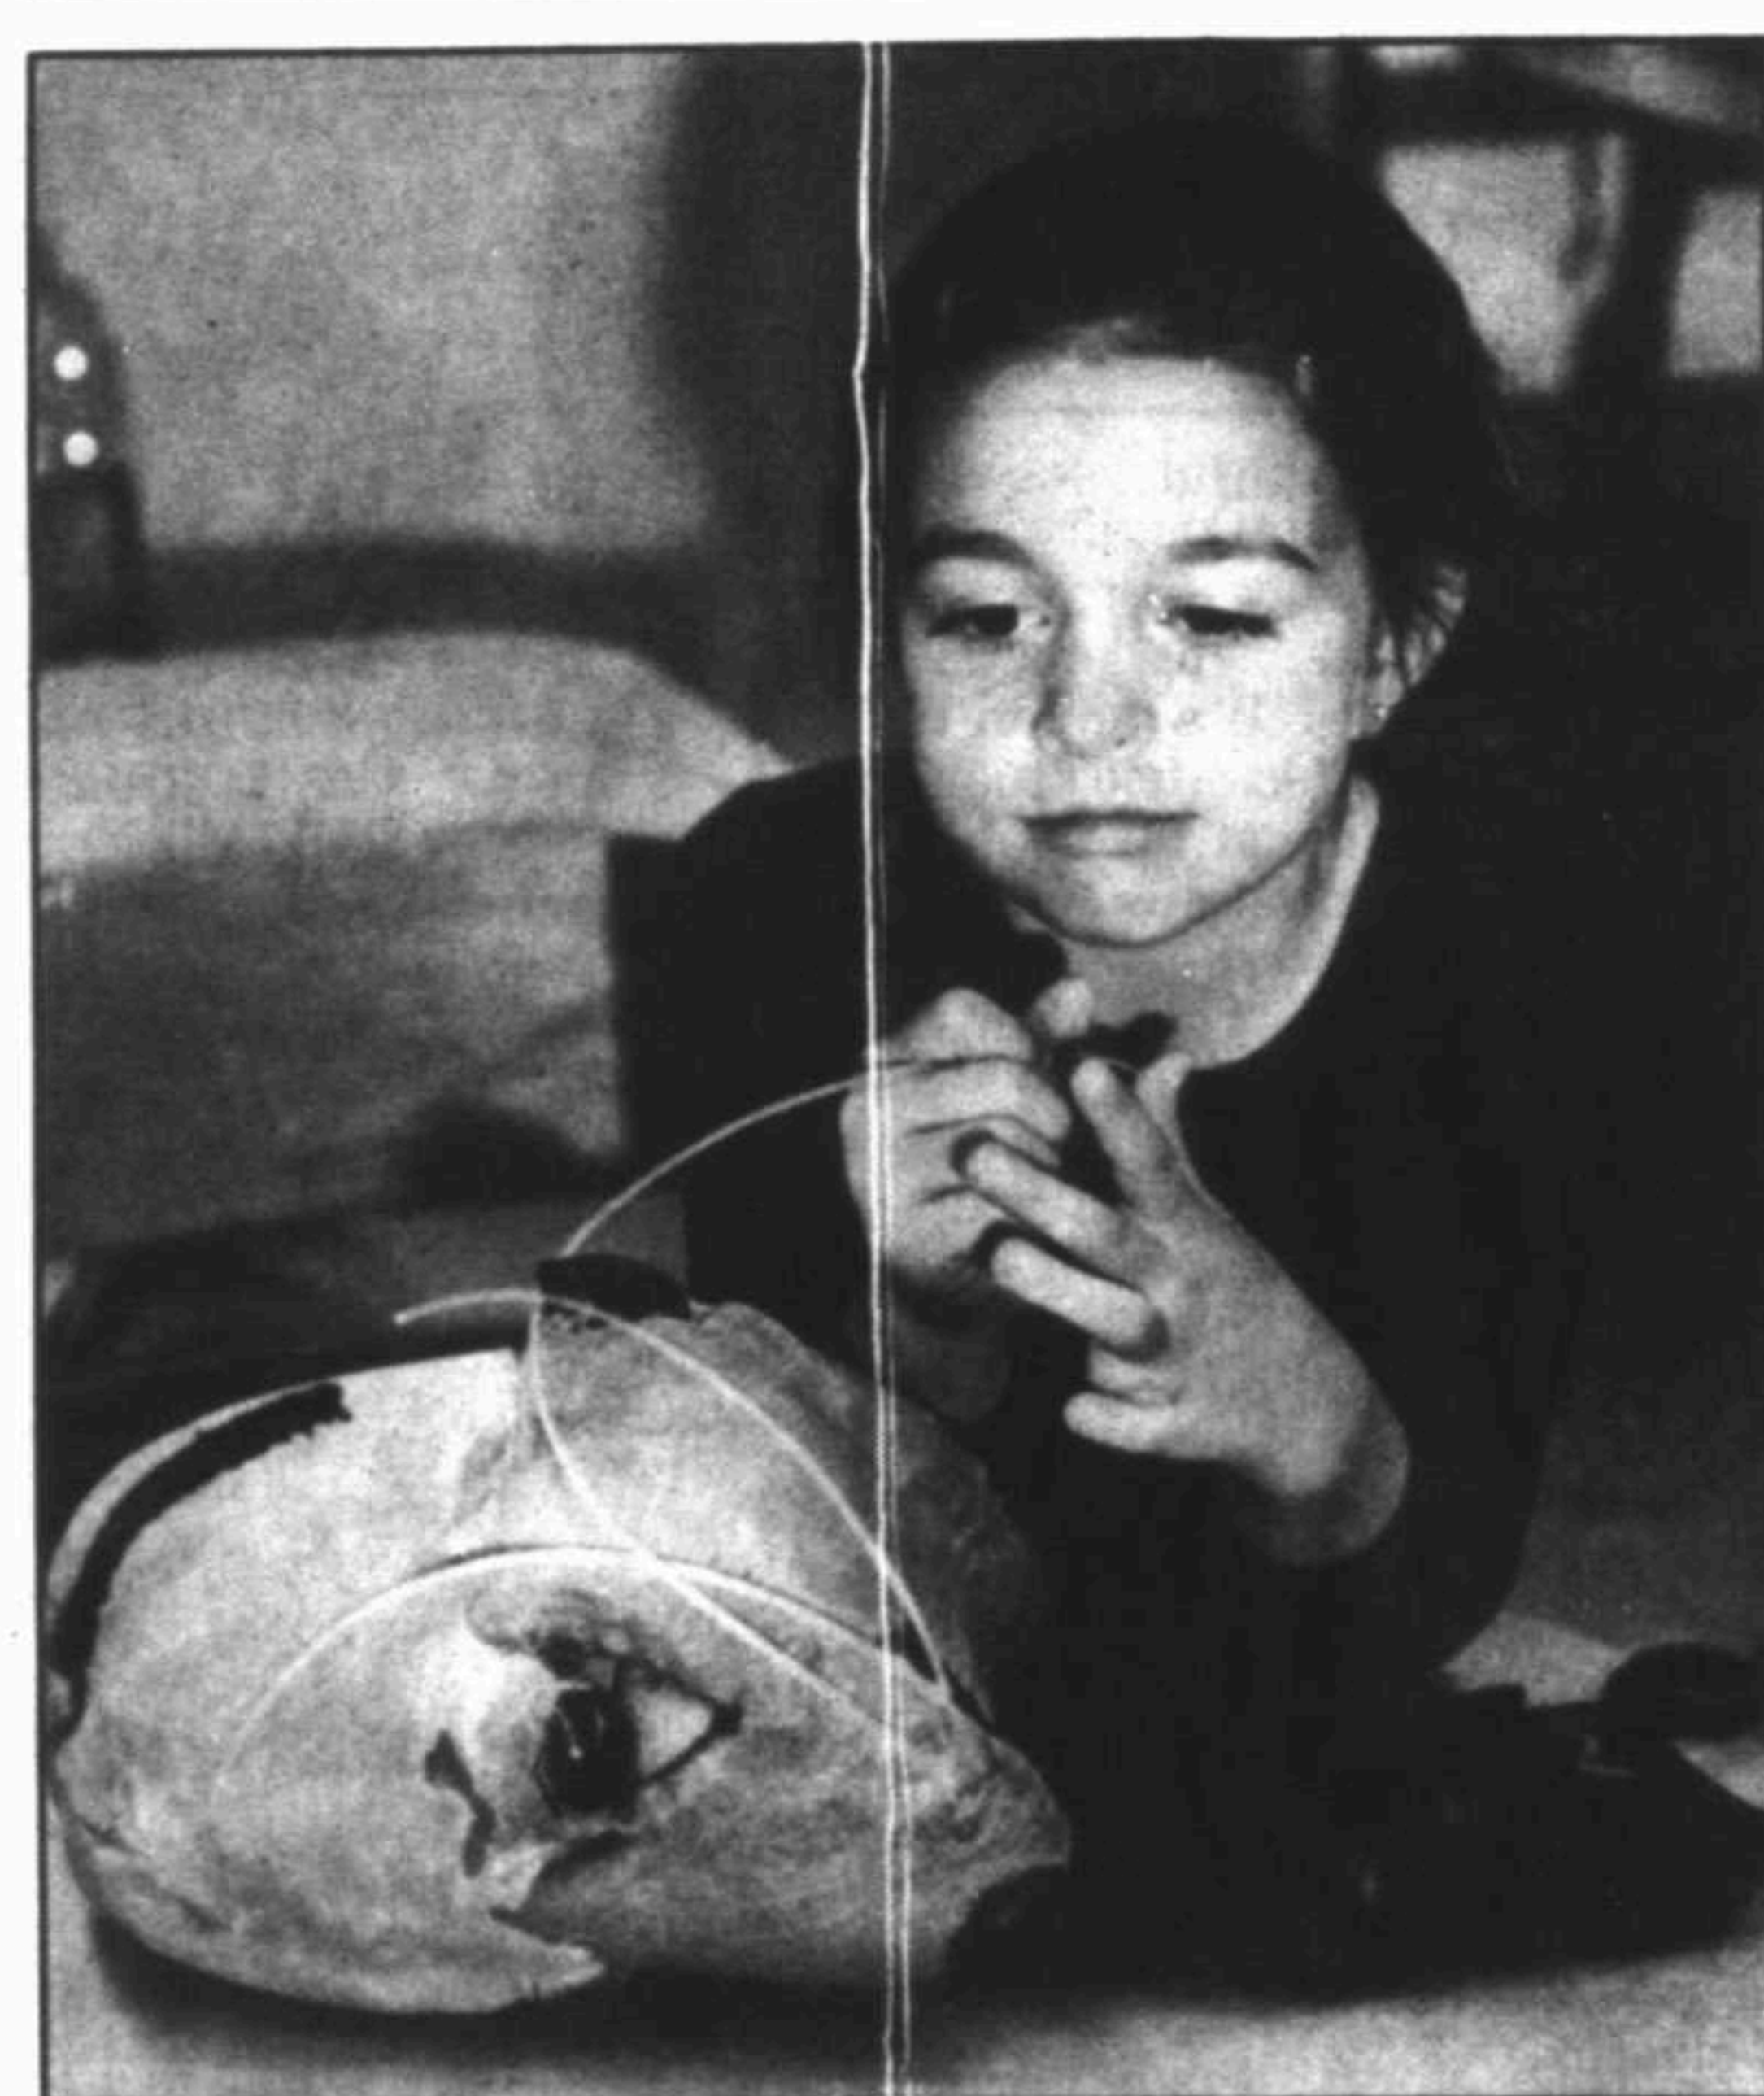

Some of his students expressed similar admiration. "He's a very personable guy; everyone loves him in Fort Worth. His class is so exciting because he knows so many people and he brings those stories into the classroom," said Carolyn Rickett, a fine arts major.

Wright reminisced about his days as a freshman member, when Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas took him under his wing. He also recalled an incident in 1954 when a Puerto Rican radical group opened fire on the House floor, wounding several colleagues and leaving countless bullet holes in the chairs, tables and rug.

"You used to be able to see a pock mark in the ceiling," Wright said, pointing up.

House Speaker Tom Foley, D-Wash., a close friend of Wright's, later joined the TCU students.

"The most productive Congress I've ever seen was under Jim Wright. We addressed so many issues, creating a consensus in the body and in the country," Foley said, describing Wright as "one of the great speakers of this century."

TRADE: EC members except France support agreement

the auspices of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, seeks to lower barriers across a broad spectrum.

The administration has estimated that a successful Uruguay Round agreement has the potential of boosting world output by $5.25 trillion over the next decade.

EC Trade Commissioner Frans Andriessen told reporters in Brussels he was hopeful that the major political decisions involving the Uruguay Round could be made by the end of December, although he said some of the technical details would not be wrapped up until sometime early next year.

GATT Director General Arthur Dunkel announced he would restart the negotiations next week in Geneva.

While the farm subsidy issue has received all the attention over the past two years, there are sizeable differences still remaining in many of the other areas under negotiation.

Even if this timetable is held to, the final pact could not be ratified by Congress until after Bush leaves office. Thus, it will be up to President-elect Clinton to guide the massive package through Congress.

Clinton, who was generally supportive of the Uruguay Round during the campaign, was guarded in his response Friday.

"I'm hopeful but we've got to look at it," he told reporters. "I've been fooling with farm issues for 20 years now. We've got to look at it, see the details."

The agreement was coming under heavy fire from European farmers, who had staged violent protests at the U.S. Embassy in Paris earlier in the week. France is the EC's biggest farm producer.

French Agriculture Minister Jean-Pierre Soisson said the agreement was "not acceptable" but he said his government would not decide whether to try to block the deal in some way until after consulting with the French parliament.

Germany, Britain and other big EC members had pressed for the agreement, but France could veto it.

"By coming to such an agreement, the (European Commission) is sacrificing European agriculture to U.S. endeavors to conquer world markets by whatever means," said COPA, a coalition group for European farmers who contended the proposal would cost millions of jobs.

The Uruguay Round has drawn opponents in this country as well, primarily from protected U.S. industries that would face greater competition.

Sen. Max Baucus, D-Mont., and chairman of a Senate trade subcommittee, complained that the Bush administration had compromised too much in its haste to get a deal with the Europeans before leaving office.

Dean Kleckner, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said that the soybean settlement would not limit European production enough to adequately compensate American farmers but would "help U.S. farmers recapture a portion of the trade they have been losing for many years."

Originally, the United States had sought elimination of all trade-distorting farm subsidies by the end of this century.

Under the agreement reached Friday, the goal was scaled back to a 21 percent reduction in the volume of export subsidies over six years and a 20 percent reduction in domestic supports.

26 MC students to be in 'Who's Who'

Staff report

Twenty-six Midland College students have been selected for inclusion in the 1993 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges.

A campus nominating committee and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, extracurricular activities, and potential for continued success.

They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,400 community and junior colleges in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations.

In order to be eligible, nominees must be full-time sophomore students or part-time students anticipated to complete requirements for graduation next spring.

Students named this year from Midland College are: Laura J. Brown, Damon Dublin, Carey L. Forsythe, Holly K. Hawkins, William Hollinger, Edward D. Johnson, Tracy D. Johnson, Donna J. Knotek, Mike W. Kreidel, Gana Y. Leggett, Nancy S. Martin, Tricia A. McInturff, Mark A. Monroe, Susan C. Mooney, Jeffrey C. Patke, Thelma W. Poole, John R. Poteet, Lyndell L. Sam, Elma R. Sims, Shannon L. Ward, Pamela D. Wittenhagen, and Karen E. Wolters, all of Midland.

Also Robert Arizmendi, Stanton; Jacquelyn D. Stewart, Odessa; and Amanda M. Carrasco and Esteban Viera, both of Kermit.

MEMO: Leak could undermine prosecution, lawmaker says

ment has launched its own investigation of the leak.

Another Democrat, Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Joseph Biden of Delaware urged Barr to wrap up the internal investigation quickly and "take appropriate disciplinary or criminal action against" those responsible. He asked Barr to report as soon as possible on the investigation to the Judiciary Committee. Biden promised the committee would determine whether further investigation was needed.

The case involves a government memo that was received by a lawyer defending one of the four police officers facing federal charges of violating King's civil rights in 1991 beating that was videotaped by a nearby resident.

Bush administration sources Friday confirmed reports that the memo, outlining strategy and strengths and weaknesses in the prosecution's case, was received by the defense lawyer in August. Conyers said, "Whoever leaked the memo may have effectively sabotaged the federal prosecution and may be guilty of obstruction of justice."

Administration sources, who insisted on anonymity, confirmed reports by National Public Radio and the Los Angeles Times that

'This casts such a shadow over the integrity of the Justice Department that I simply cannot discuss it.'

— John Dunne, civil rights division the memo was received by Michael Stone, a lawyer for Los Angeles Police Officer Laurence Powell.

The sources said the leak would not destroy the government's case, and the prosecution had not been derailed.

The sources said the matter is being investigated by the Justice Department's Office of Public Integrity, an internal watchdog unit. The Justice Department declined comment on the leak.

John Dunne, the department's civil rights division chief, was quoted as saying, "This casts such a shadow over the integrity of the Justice Department that I simply cannot discuss it."

The memo in question is known as an "order of proof," and lists what evidence prosecutors plan to use and witnesses they intend to call.

The memo also reportedly questions King's credibility as a possible witness because of supposed inconsistencies in his prior statements.

Some sources said Stone received the memo by mistake in the mail, notified the court and prosecutors, and returned it.

The civil rights case could be more difficult for prosecutors than the officers' state trial on assault charges, in part because prosecutors must prove the officers intended to deprive King of his civil rights during the March 3, 1991, beating.

Already, a federal judge has barred prosecutors from introducing evidence about alleged racist statements and past use of force by the officers, who are white. King is black.

Powell, Sgt. Stacey Koon, and Officers Theodore Briseno and Timothy Wind were acquitted of most state charges on April 29, sparking three days of rioting in Los Angeles in which 53 people were killed.

U.S. District Judge John G. Davies met in August and again last week with prosecutors and defense attorneys to discuss the leaked memo.

Attorneys on both sides have been ordered by the judge not to discuss the case publicly.

Harland Braun, who represents Briseno.

The prosecution memo also reportedly discussed the credibility of possible witnesses Bryant Allen, a passenger in King's car the night of the beating, and California Highway Patrol Officer Melanie Singer, who saw the incident.

In the state trial, defense attorneys attempted to portray Allen as a gang member with a criminal

Singer testified in the state trial that Powell struck King in the head with a police baton. Other witnesses disputed her claim.

Legal experts disagreed over the significance of the leak.

Professor David Binder of the University of California at Los Angeles questioned whether there was anything in the document that would help defense attorneys.

"I'm not sure there would be anything too surprising in it," Binder said. "A lot of this stuff... would be disclosed in pretrial conferences."

But Abbe Lowell, a former Justice Department official, said, "whoever leaked it is trying to help the defense team big time, either by exposing a weakness in the government's case, or just giving them a heads up."

Russia gives rights to plot owners

MOSCOW (AP) — Legislators took an important step in building a market economy Friday by giving property rights to owners of small land plots, laying the ground for what one lawmaker called a true real estate market.

"The law passed today gives real property to about 100 million Russian people," said Alexander Pochinok, chairman of the planning and budget commission of the Supreme Soviet legislature.

The law applies to the millions of small country land plots held by most urban-dwellers and nearly all workers of the huge state-run farms. The standard plot size is about 6,400 square feet.

City-dwellers often have country homes — known as dachas — on their plots. Rural workers use theirs for extra homes or to produce food. Many people also rent out the plots for use as gardens.

The plots account for about 30 percent of food produced in the former Soviet Union. Their output was believed to have softened the inflation shock for many people when Russia launched its market reforms this year.

The market value of the land plots is very high in coveted regions around large cities, he noted.

Existing law allows the sale of land only 10 years after it was acquired. Plots also could be rented, inherited or given as a gift.

The new law lifts the 10-year restriction and authorizes the sale of land. It allows holders of standard-sized plots to apply for ownership under the new law at no charge, but requires them to pay market prices for any land exceeding the standard size.

Pochinok said the law will make land plots more valuable than the recently introduced privatization vouchers, which are good for purchase of shares in newly privatized companies. All 148 million Russians are to get a voucher by the year's end under President Boris Yeltsin's market reforms.

The new law was to go into effect in the next few days. It is limited to the private plots and does not apply to urban real estate or other property.

The measure was passed after Democratic Russia, a pro-reform coalition, collected 1.8 million signatures supporting a referendum on a more sweeping land reform law.

The respected daily Izvestia commented that the legislature had been pushed into passing the law by the success of the referendum drive.

"The very fact of holding the referendum would mean an expression of no-confidence in the legislature," the newspaper commented.

Immigrant slaying sparks debate on racism

By Michael M. Phillips
Associated Press Writer

MADRID, Spain — For dozens of immigrants from the Dominican Republic, the crumbling shell of the Four Roses discotheque was another stop on the road of poverty and despair. For Lucrecia Perez Martos, it was the last stop.

On Nov. 18, four masked gunmen kicked in the door of a tiny room and opened fire. Perez Martos, a 33-year-old Dominican woman who had just lost her job as a maid, was killed, and one other person was wounded.

The attack, probably the worst case of anti-foreigner violence in Spain in years, brought the simmering issue of racism to a boil. Assaults on asylum-seekers have become commonplace in Germany, but until now Spain had seen relatively little violence towards the Moroccans, Dominicans, Argentines and others seeking economic opportunities.

"Spain has to be able to integrate people who come from other countries," Foreign Minister Javier Solana said after the attack. "Spain, which produced many emigrants itself, must be a nation that understands and welcomes immigration from other countries."

In the 1960s, Spaniards flocked

foreign minister to richer countries such as West Germany and France. Dictator Francisco Franco, who ruled from 1939-75, even gave them subsidies to move abroad and send their wages home.

But surveys show that many Spaniards look down upon minority groups, particularly Gypsies, Arabs, sub-Saharan Africans and Jews.

In one survey, 62 percent of Spaniards said they believed foreigners take work away from locals — some 15 percent of whom are jobless. That poll also indicated, however, that 90 percent of Spaniards thought people should be free to live where they please.

An estimated 600,000 foreigners live in Spain, legally or illegally. Large foreign communities include Moroccans, with about 60,000 legally in Spain and at least the same number here illegally.

The Dominicans, mostly women, make up a relatively small portion of the foreigners, with about 12,000 in the country.

Spanish politicians have unanimously voiced outrage over the Four Roses killing. But many Dominicans have criticized local officials for not doing enough to prevent the attack.

It had been evident that trouble was brewing in Aravaca, a wealthy suburb where some Dominicans work as live-in maids, earning about $500 a month, and the unfortunate sleep amid the rubble of the Four Roses.

For weeks, Aravaca residents had complained about the Dominicans' twice-weekly gatherings in a downtown park. They claimed the immigrants left the park a mess and attracted drug dealers and prostitutes.

The Dominicans said they had no other place to meet friends. They complained about police harassment and railed against city officials who barred them from using restrooms in the park's civic center.

More ominous were the posters around Madrid — "Stop Immigration. Spaniards First!"

On Nov. 1, the situation turned violent, as 200 Dominicans pelted police with rocks after officers tried to detain two women who allegedly did not have proper papers.

Less than two weeks later, Lucrecia Perez Martos was dead. On Friday, thousands of people, including Spanish Ambassador Manuel de Luna Aguado, joined in a funeral procession in her hometown of Vicente Nobel, where her husband and 7-year-old daughter live. Businesses and schools were closed.

Police are still investigating, but attention has focused on the possibility that right-wing extremists carried out the attack — a hypothesis apparently supported by the revelation that the bullets used were made in the government factory that supplies the police and military.

"We don't think this was an isolated incident at all," said Gina Gallardo, a 30-year-old Dominican doctoral student who studies Dominican women working in Spain. "It's something that's been growing for a long time."

Not everyone agrees that Spain is infected by widespread xenophobia.

Parliament votes against Dimitrov as Premier

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP) — Lawmakers on Friday rejected efforts by anti-Communist leader Filip Dimitrov to form a new government, prolonging a political crisis that has driven the economy further into turmoil.

The 124-104 vote against Dimitrov gives the Socialists, the second-largest party, a chance to piece together a governing coalition.

Since former Communist strongman Todor Zhivkov was ousted in a coup in November 1989, Bulgaria has had four governments. Its debt-burdened economy has struggled under high inflation and employment during the transition to a market-oriented system.

Dimitrov heads the anti-Communist Union of Democratic Forces, which won 110 of the 240 seats in Parliament in October 1991 elections. He resigned as premier last month following a no-confidence motion, but was asked by President Zhelyu Zhelev to try to form a new government.

The Turkish Movement for Rights and Freedoms, an ethnic Turk party, initiated the no-confidence motion and demanded key Cabinet positions in a new government. The Union of Democratic Forces refused.

Although the Turkish party holds only 24 seats in Parliament, it has a pivotal position because neither Dimitrov's party nor the former Communists hold enough seats to garner a majority without their support. The Socialists have 106 seats.

Iraq requests lifting sanctions; diplomats say no

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — Iraq's foreign minister on Friday said Baghdad was complying fully with conditions for lifting U.N. economic sanctions, but Western diplomats said the Security Council was not likely to agree.

Iraq's deputy prime minister, Tariq Aziz, and the foreign minister, Mohammed Said al-Sahaf, left Baghdad Friday for New York, where they will make their case before the Security Council on Monday.

Aziz, as quoted by the Iraqi News Agency, said he would discuss the council's "unjust position" toward Iraq, taken "under the pressure of the Bush administration."

The council imposed the sanctions to punish Iraq for invading Kuwait in August 1990. Baghdad was later routed from the emirate by U.S.-led forces in the 1991 Gulf War.

The Security Council periodically reviews Iraq's compliance with the U.N. demands and has repeatedly rejected Baghdad's claims to lift the sanctions. A major review, requested by Baghdad, is under way.

In a letter to the Security Council released Friday, Al-Sahaf said Iraq has "fully discharged the substantive obligations" imposed by the council at the end of the war.

A central demand was that Baghdad cooperate with U.N. experts in dismantling its nuclear, chemical and biological weapons programs, and missiles with a range greater than 90 miles.

On Thursday, Rolf Ekeus, the chairman of the U.N. Special Commission overseeing the disarmament program, told reporters Iraq has not furnished a list of the foreign suppliers of technology and expertise for its nuclear weapons program.

The International Atomic Energy Agency has said Iraq was perhaps only a year from industrial-scale production of enriched uranium for nuclear weapons when the allied force began bombing Iraqi nuclear sites.

Ekeus said this information must be disclosed if Baghdad wants the commission to certify that it is complying with U.N. demands.

Ekeus and Hans Blix, the director of the international nuclear agency, are to address the Security Council on Monday along with Aziz.

Because of Iraq's failure to disclose this information and its grudging cooperation with U.N. programs to provide relief aid to dissident Kurds in the north and Shiites in the south, Western diplomats said privately that they don't foresee an end to the sanctions. The spoke on condition of anonymity.

The Iraqi News Agency cited Aziz as saying he hoped the United Nations would be more sympathetic to his country once Bill Clinton takes over the White House.

But throughout the election campaign, Clinton generally supported the Bush administration's stand on Iraq.

Police strike at Mafia's wealth

PALERMO, Sicily (AP) — Striking at the Mafia's wealth, Italian authorities on Friday seized assets worth $385 million, police said.

The operation, code-named Unmasking and Cleaning-Up, targeted 32 members of the Madonia family, considered No. 2 in the Cosa Nostra hierarchy.

It came three days after the biggest organized crime sweep in nearly a decade put 75 people in jail.

In a stepped-up war on organized crime in recent months, authorities have been seizing assets of suspected mob members under special anti-Mafia legislation.

In the latest operation, Palermo police reported that judges signed orders to seize title to 200 properties, 62 companies, 250 automobiles, six boats and the bank accounts of 250 people.

With Friday's seizure, the total worth of property and other assets confiscated since June rose to about $780 million, police said. A new law in June made it easier to seize the goods.

Among the 32 people put under police surveillance were the father, two brothers and an uncle of Giuseppe Madonia, 46, considered the No. 2 figure in the Sicilian Mafia.

Madonia was arrested on Sept. 6 after eight years in hiding.

Bosnia

SARAJEVO, Bosnia (AP) — Bosnia is sliding into winter of weapons and leaders are stepping up a campaign for an end to the conflict.

Foreign Minister Predrag Jovic predicts public pressure on the U.N. Security Council to lift the ban.

"Either stop the war or let us stop it," he said.

"If not, hundreds of people will die," he said.

Dervio Harbinovic, a logistics officer, said the government "wishes to include tanks, anti-tank weapons and cold-weather clothing."

Bosnia steps up effort to receive supplies, embargo or no

SARAJEVO, Bosnia-Herzegovina (AP) — Bosnia's army is heading into winter desperately short of weapons and supplies, and its leaders are stepping up their campaign for an end to the international arms embargo.

Foreign Minister Haris Silajdzic predicts public pressure will force the U.N. Security Council to move to lift the ban.

"Either stop the aggression or let us stop it," he said in an interview. "If not, hundreds of thousands of people will be dead."

Dervo Harbinja, a Bosnian army logistics officer, said a Bosnian government "wish list" would include tanks, armored vehicles, anti-tank weapons, ammunition and cold-weather apparel. He described the shortage of winter gear as a potentially critical problem.

"They have everything," he said of the Bosnian Serb forces surrounding Sarajevo. "We have very little."

Silajdzic plans to attend a summit of Islamic countries in Saudi Arabia starting Dec. 1 to appeal for money and military backing from leaders who have voiced dismay about the sufferings of Bosnia's Muslim majority. He said several nations, Muslim and non-Muslim, are lobbying for the U.N. General Assembly to ask the Security Council to lift the arms embargo.

He singled out Turkey as prepared to "take action outside the U.N." if the embargo remains.

"Turkey, a moderate, cautious, constructive member of the international community, has come to the conclusion that the Security Council measures are wrong," he said.

Serb leaders have contended Bosnia's appeals to Muslim countries for aid are coupled with a shift by the government to Islamic radicalization.

This is dismissed in Sarajevo as propaganda. The city's Muslim culture remains a secular, tolerant one in which fundamentalism has little place. Women work and fight alongside men and consumption of alcohol is permitted.

A move to lift the arms embargo could be blocked by a veto from any of the Security Council's five permanent members. Silajdzic said China would likely abstain in any vote, and predicted President-elect Bill Clinton would support ending the embargo.

Regarding Russia, France and Britain, he said, "I believe that the pressure of public opinion is such that they will have to reconsider."

Sarajevo's defenders say they have been capturing much of their ammunition and equipment in commando raids on small units of Serb fighters.

"This isn't sufficient to meet our needs," Harbinja said.

The combination of the Serb siege and the Security Council embargo, which covers all sides in the Bosnian war, has made it virtually impossible to get foreign arms into Sarajevo, Harbinja said.

But he and Silajdzic suggested this situation could change, embargo or no, if foreign countries were intent on helping Bosnia. They did not elaborate on methods that might be used to get weaponry into Sarajevo.

"Even if the embargo is not lifted, we are ready to receive a limited contingent of defensive weapons," Silajdzic said. "It would not mean an escalation of the fighting, but the prevention of further civilian casualties. It will enhance the peace process."

He scoffed at naval blockade which NATO and the Western European Union plan to impose to enforce the trade embargo on Serb-dominated Yugoslavia.

"The ships will not stop genocide in Bosnia," he said. "The international community is not ready to fulfill its obligations. It has no right to deny us the right to defend ourselves."

Harbinja said the town of Jajce fell recently to the Serbs because Bosnian soldiers ran out of ammunition. He doubted this would happen in Sarajevo, but said its defenders are instructed to conserve ammunition for crucial situations.

Cmdr. Barry Frewer, a Canadian naval officer and spokesman for the U.N. peacekeeping force in Sarajevo, said the peacekeepers don't know how much weaponry is coming into war zone in violation of the embargo.

"This region is rife with stocks that could last a long time," he said.

Leaders, lawmakers stalemate on school finance

AUSTIN (AP) — Democratic state leaders met with Republican lawmakers Friday but didn't reach a deal on school funding.

House Speaker Gib Lewis, D-Fort Worth, said leaders were "not close at all" to an agreement that would turn around enough Republican votes to put a proposed constitutional amendment on school finance before Texas voters.

But he said a House Public Education Committee hearing on a Republican's school funding plan has been moved from Tuesday to Monday. Lewis said he wanted the committee to be ready to act if necessary.

A two-thirds vote is required in the Legislature to put a proposed amendment on the ballot. House Republicans have said they want passage of a specific school spending plan, which requires only a majority vote, before helping pass a constitutional amendment. They number 58 in the 150-member House.

More state news/8C

Gov. Ann Richards, Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock and Lewis, all Democrats, have backed a proposed amendment to allow local property tax money to be redistributed from wealthy to poorer school districts.

The current system of transferring money among districts within counties or groups of counties has been ruled unconstitutional by the Texas Supreme Court.

The court gave lawmakers until June 1, 1993, to come up with a constitutional system of equalizing money among rich and poor school districts. Public education is funded mainly by local property taxes and state aid.

"We are fulfilling our commitment, that if there are other plans that have some support out there, we want to entertain them," Richards said after Friday's meeting.

Rep. Tom Craddick of Midland, head of the House Republican caucus, said GOP lawmakers favor concepts behind a bill by Rep. Steve Ogden, R-Bryan.

The measure, scheduled for a Monday hearing, includes a countywide school tax rate up to $1, determined by local voters, with money to be redistributed among districts within counties. School districts could tax up to 40 cents more to enrich programs.

Ogden's plan also would take away most funding supplements that school districts get for students with special needs, leaving extra funding only for special-education students.

In addition, Rep. Kent Grusendorf, R-Arlington, said that generally Republicans also support requiring school districts to get voter approval to raise taxes. That's not in the Ogden plan as it was filed.

Craddick, who Thursday said he believed the Republican caucus was behind the Ogden plan, said Friday GOP lawmakers wouldn't necessarily favor that specific bill. He said it depended on the projected impact on individual school districts. Ogden said he couldn't count votes until lawmakers saw computer printouts showing the impact.

Senate Education Committee Chairman Carl Parker, D-Port Arthur, said of redistributing local taxes, "There are only three or four ways you can do it, none of them very pleasant when there is no new money."

State leaders have said they anticipate $650 million in new state aid for education over the next two years, less than the Texas Education Agency has said will be needed just to cover student growth.

Landry on money

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — Former Dallas Cowboys coach Tom Landry says there is too much emphasis on money in professional football today.
"All Walt (Garrison) wanted when he signed was a pick-up truck. Those guys who sign today need a pick-up truck to haul all their bonus money," Landry said.
Garrison was a running back for the Cowboys from 1966 to 1974.
Landry, a member of the Professional Football Hall of Fame, was in Chattanooga Friday to speak at a breakfast for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in Tennessee. He was to speak in Memphis later in the day.
Landry says most of the players he coached with during his 29-year career were Christians and solid role models.

Eastwood makes Mojo's day

Permian guns down second straight playoff opponent, 61-8

By Jeff Wilson
MRT Correspondent

ODESSA — Sam Brooks got tired of hearing about how great the El Paso Eastwood offense was. He had heard enough about quarterback Silas Garcia, receiver Jeff Patton and running back Kevin Ham.

So Friday night at Ratliff Stadium, the standout Permian defensive lineman, took matters into his own hands and led the Mojo charge that produce a 61-8 area round victory in the Class 5A Small School state playoffs.

"Their quarterback (Garcia) was kind of cocky," Brooks said after a game, in which he recorded four sacks for a minus 31 yards. "He said some things like they couldn't be stopped. No one could stop them. That got me motivated going into this game."

Not that the Panthers, now 10-1 on the year, needed much motivation. Permian's defensive dominated the entire game, allowing the Troopers just 180 yards of offense, 37 of that coming on the ground.

"I thought our defense played really well," Permian coach Tam Hollingshead said. "It was a big challenge and they did an excellent job. The entire defensive group, the whole group is seniors, took it upon themselves to get the job done." It didn't take long for Permian to do just that.

Permian, which rushed for 406 yards on its way to a 423 yard night, scored on its first possession and then kept Eastwood bottled up in its own end with turnovers and strong play. Permian picked off five Eastwood passes and at one point, every snap of the football for more than a quarter and a half was made in the Trooper end of the field.

"They put us in a hole early and it was hard to get out of," Eastwood coach Todd Ware said. "They had us backed up the whole game."

Part of Eastwood's problem came midway through the second quarter when Garcia suffered a broken collarbone on a play in which he was sacked by Brooks.

"He ran a little bootleg and I got some pressure on him," Brooks said. "When he stopped to throw, I hit his arm and he fell on top of it."

Garcia, who had thrown for more than 2,600 yards this season, was lost and at that point, so was Eastwood.

"We knew we couldn't run that much with Kevin out," Ware said. "Then we lose our quarterback and it's hard to come back and get something started. It hurts when you lose your star."

Reb treys bag Foxes

By Terry Williamson
Sports editor

You can forgive the Midland Lee Rebels if they happened to get off to a slow start against El Paso Jefferson Friday night in the basketball season opener for both teams. After all, they thought they were supposed to be in bed.

It wasn't exactly a Midnight Madness outing, but the game started at 8:55 p.m., almost an hour later than scheduled. But when Lee did realize it was OK to stay up that late, the Rebels won with ease, 78-39, hitting an amazing 14 three-point shots.

It was a thin crowd before this one was over with the late start due to two games that preceded varsity play, but the three-point show was worth watching.

Lee didn't score for the first 3:06 of the game, but the Foxes also had a tough time getting untracked, going scoreless for the first five minutes.

But David Wilson got Lee off dead center with an A-zone bucket and Lee was off to the races, hitting three-point shots like they were free throws.

Lee senior Martin Lattibeaudiere hit six three-point shots for 24 points while the senior Wilson added four.

Bulldogs open with 66-42 win

Staff report

Midland High's Bulldogs opened the 1992-93 basketball season at the MHS gym Friday night with a sound 66-42 win over Uvalde, a team that beat the Bulldogs last season.

The Bulldogs rolled to a 13-3 first quarter lead and never looked back while playing 15 players.

Senior Antwan Goodley led the attack with 14 points, all coming in the first half of play, while Justin Hobbs, who didn't score in the first half, had 11 second half points.

Senior Andre Gill had nine points for MHS while Donald Carter, Jumon Hailey and Philip Warlick each had seven points.

J.D. Trevino was the only Uvalde player to hit in double figures with 15 points.

MHS will now host El Paso Jefferson.

Rankin routs Anton

By Joe Wyatt

SEMINOLE — The Rankin Red Devils added another jewel to their brimming trophy case Friday night, mopping up the field with the Anton Bulldogs.

Roy Abalos exploded for 220 yards — 201 of them in Rankin's 34-point first half — and the Red Devils came away with a massive 55-6 victory and their fifth consecutive area playoff crown.

Rankin, 9-1, now moves into the regional round of the state football playoffs and will meet Hart on this same field next Friday.

Hart (11-1) downed Munday 19-0 Friday.

The Red Devils, meanwhile, were well on their way to such a margin as that after the very first play of this area tilt.

Abalos sprinted 83 yards straight through the heart of the Anton defense on the game's initial snap and Rankin grabbed the lead it would hold all night.

"The blocking was good tonight," said

No surprises.

That's what the first day of the Girls Tall City Basketball Tournament had to offer Friday at the Chaparral Center, as Midland High and Midland Lee, along with Lubbock Monterey, coasted to first-round victories.

MHS (2-0) closed the day's action with a 53-36 victory over El Paso Parkland, while Lee handily defeated El Paso Jefferson 73-40. Monterey also was able to give its bench plenty of action, taking a Saturday will be filled with thoughts of days gone by, hope for tomorrow and the chance to erase forgettable seasons in the Southwest Conference.

The day also will have a bit of anticipation for No. 4 Texas A&M, which could wrap up its second consecutive title with a victory over Texas Christian, coupled with a Baylor victory over Texas.

Grant Teaff is ending his 21-year reign as Baylor football coach and he'd like nothing better than to end it with a victory over the Texas Longhorns (6-3, 4-1), a team he's had a knack for upsetting over the years.

This time, the Bears are favored. Teaff will step aside to become athletic director at

UM facility named in Gibson's honor

■ The University of Minnesota, the alma mater of Midland geologist George Gibson, names its new practice facility after the 1928 All-American.

By Jimmy Patterson

It's been 64 years since George Gibson received All-American football honors for his play at right guard for the University of Minnesota, but the people at the Minneapolis school have never forgotten him.

Prior to this afternoon's kickoff of the Minnesota-Iowa football game at the Twin Cities' Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, Gibson, now an 87-year-old Midland geologist, will be honored when the school officially names its new practice facility the George R. all in the fourth quarter, to lead all scorers with 27 points.

Lattibeaudiere broke the game open in the second quarter, hitting three consecutive and unanswered treys for a 32-12 Lee lead and the Rebs were already 1-0 for the season.

If Jefferson had any inkling of making a fourth quarter charge, it went by the wayside when Wilson hit 14 unanswered points to open the period, including all four of his threes. Sean Low added a couple of treys while Undra Graves, out from football, hit one and Caesar Branon added another.

Lee was playing without football 6-5 tight end Ryan Tucker, who was off to California for a recruiting trip this weekend.

Jefferson got 15 points from Joe Rivas and 14 more from Ishmeal Gomez, but the Foxes were never in this one after the three-minute mark as Lee never trailed in the game.

Lee will host Uvalde, a 66-42 loser to Midland High Friday, today at 1 p.m. while the Foxes head for the MHS gym to face the Bulldogs.

In sophomore action, Lee won an 84-34 victory over the Roby junior varsity as De-Shawn Hicks hit 21 points. Jacob Russell had 19 while Jerry Stamford and Craig Sawyer each added 10 points.

The Lee junior varsity defeated the Roby varsity 73-62 with Michael Nunn hitting 29 points and Pat Finney 15.

Alpine eliminates Abilene Wylie

Staff report

Alpine, led by quarterback Oscar Lujan, raced to a 35-14 Class 3A area playoff victory over Abilene Wylie at Memorial Stadium Friday night.

Lujan rushed for 138 yards and three touchdowns while the Alpine attack generated 366 rushing yards.

Wylie scored on the opening kickoff of the game on a 94-yard return by Kyle Taylor, but Alpine answered by scoring on its next two possessions and never trailed again.

Alpine remains unbeaten at 12-0 while Wylie's season comes to an end with an 8-3-1 record.

Jackson's agent turns down Mavs' latest

DALLAS (AP) — Jim Jackson's agent has turned down the Dallas Mavericks' four-year $10.8 million contract offer, which reportedly included a $6 million signing bonus, believed to be the biggest ever in the NBA.

The Mavericks had hoped to sign their top pick by offering to pay him $7 million of the contract by Dec. 31.

Jackson would have received a $6 million signing bonus and $1 million salary for the 1992-93 season, with all money paid by the end of the year.

But Jackson's agent, Mark

Termini of Cleveland, who is seeking a six-year deal averaging $3.5 million annually, rejected Mavericks majority owner Donald Carter's proposal.

Termini didn't return phone messages. He has hinted that Jackson might sit out the year to try for a better contract with another team next year.

The rebuilding Mavericks had hoped Jackson, a 6-6 shooting guard from Ohio State, would be their new leader.

If Jackson were to sit out, the Mavericks would retain his rights until the 1993 draft.

yards from quarterback Andy Awtry, and took a 40-yard pass from Neal Truex into the end zone, as well.

The Mustangs piled up 413 total yards total offense while holding the Saints to 203, and gained 18 first downs to FWAS' eight.

MCS jumped out to a 21-8 lead at halftime, and put the game away by outscoring the Saints 16-0 in third quarter. Two more 'Stang touchdowns in the final period put the game on ice for MCS.

The MCS-Southwest Christian game will likely be in Abilene also, Mustang coaches said Friday night.

PERMIAN: Panthers host Lewisville next

(From 1B)

Garcia left the game after completing 4 of 11 passes for 46 yards with three interceptions. Sophomore Roy Torres came in and threw for 97 yards on 8 of 23 passing.

"They were handicapped," Hollingshead said. "It was an obvious disadvantage to them. But our young men got after them."

Offensively, Permian could do no wrong, except for throwing the ball.

Quarterback Dennis Graham struggled all night, completing just 3 of 11 passes for 10 yards and was picked off three times.

But when the passing game failed, the running game was there to pick up the slack. Permian rushed for 406 yards, led by backup Lonnie Jones, who picked up 100 yards on just four carries.

Permian fullback John Williams rushed 18 times for 98 yards, just the first time this season he has been held under 100 yards in a game.

Of the Panthers' nine scores, six were runs of at least 20 yards. Jones had a 44-yard scoring run while tailback Allen Strambler scored twice on runs of 24 and 20 yards. Tyree Ephraim added TD runs of 22 and 29 yards while Greg Pinkstaff recorded a 23-yard scoring run.

The Permian defense added a score of its own when Kelvin Calicut recovered a fumbled pitch in the endzone.

Permian now faces Lewisville next Saturday at 2 p.m. at Ratliff Stadium in a regional playoff game. Lewisville defeated South Grand Prairie, 48-28.

Permian, which has outscored its two playoff opponents 122-8, impressed Ware.

"Every Permian team I've seen has been pretty good," Ware said. "They have an excellent chance of going all the way."

RANKIN: Red Devils to face Hart for regional title

(From 1B)

Abalos, who finished the game with three rushing TDs on 16 carries and added another TD through the air.

"Coach (Raul Sanchez) told us to go out and try the middle and it was there."

And it stayed there. Rankin blasted through the Bulldogs for 394 yards on the ground and ended the game with a decisive 456-108 edge in total yardage.

So complete was Rankin's domination over Anton — which managed just five first downs all night — the 'Dogs got their only score when Rankin quarterback Jo Jo Guerra fumbled the ball away at the Red Devil 11-yard line. That set up an 11-yard TD flip from Jacob Flores to Deshon Jenkins which narrowed the score to 14-6.

But Rankin came right back with a 10-play, 67-yard drive that Guerra capped with an 11-yard TD strike of his own, hitting Abalos over the middle as he crossed the end line.

The Bulldogs were never in it after that.

"We got off to a great start by scoring on the first play of the game," Sanchez said. "That really put us up on a high."

"Even when they (Bulldogs) scored off the fumble and it was 14-6, I knew we could drive the ball and we took it all the way down the field on them."

"When we made it 20-6 I felt pretty good."

He would feel even better before halftime. Rankin marched 30 yards in 10 plays on its next possession, getting the final 11 yards on Abalos' third TD of the game. That came with 1:06 to play in the first half.

Then, following Jo'El Armentarez' interception just inside Anton territory, Abalos got loose again, this time on a 42-yard TD jaunt to give the 'Devils a 34-6 half-time advantage.

"Rankin's got a great ball club," said Anton head coach Jackie Stewart as his Bulldogs wrapped up a 6-5 playoff season just one year after a dismal 1-9 campaign.

"When we scored it looked like we had some momentum, but they took it right back from us," Stewart said.

And they kept taking it in the second half. Guerra, who was 4 of 8 passing for 64 yards and two TDs, hit Jeff Jones from 28 yards out in the third quarter to up the lead to 40-6.

Juan Bautista toted one in from 25 yards out and finished the night with 72 yards on eight carries. And Jimmy Low rambled 92 yards with Rankin's fourth interception, this one upping the score to 52-6.

Robert Guadarrama's 24-yard field goal with under five minutes to play ended the barrage of scoring.

"I think this game will give us a lot of confidence going into next week," said Guerra, whose one-yard plunge early in the game gave Rankin a 14-0 lead.

"This field has been good to us. It's almost like playing at home," he said.

In addition to his passing yardage, Guerra carried the ball 13 times for 67 yards.

Bautista and Abalos each turned in interceptions for the tenacious Rankin defense.

The District 8-A champion Red Devils will be seeking their fifth consecutive regional championship here when they take on Hart.

Documents say Lemieux present during alleged rape

Quinn, 27, a former Penguins player, has been accused of raping the woman Nov. 10 in a room at a Bloomington hotel. Quinn was arrested in connection with the alleged assault but is free on $30,000 bond and has not been formally charged.

Quinn has maintained that the sex was consensual. He is on leave from the North Stars.

According to the affidavit, the assault occurred after three women met a group of Penguins and North Stars players at a bar in the Mall of America and went with the players to their hotel.

The affidavit refers to the players only as "Mario" and "Dan," but says the alleged victim and witnesses identified Lemieux from a newspaper photograph as the "Mario" who was in the room during the alleged assault. Quinn identified himself by name to the women, the affidavit says.

"Mario" is mentioned only twice in the 1 1/2-page affidavit. He called "Dan" into a bathroom at one point during the alleged assault, the affidavit says, and later returned some beer-soaked clothes to the alleged victim and another woman who was in the room.

Hennepin County Attorney Mike Freeman is still considering whether to charge Quinn, according to Kate McPherson, a spokeswoman for Freeman's office.

GIBSON: Donation is school's largest ever ated with Nagurski," Gibson said. "I'm 87 years old. I don't have many friends left up there. I'm kind of like George Burns. But it's a great honor."

Gibson, who was Nagurski's roommate for two seasons in the late '20s, will make a $500,000 donation to the school to help retire the building's $2.9 million debt.

"We are certainly grateful to George," said McKinley Boston, men's athletic director at Minnesota. "When we receive the gift it will be the largest single gift ever given to the department. We're also excited about seeing the names of two such important figures in the history of Gopher football being on the building. George wanted to see Bronko honored, and we're excited about seeing George honored along with him."

Gibson said the naming of the building was made official only last week when the school's board of regents approved the item in their monthly meeting.

The Gibson-Nagurski Practice Facility is indoor. Iowa, Notre Dame and Texas Tech have similar facilities for working out in inclement weather.

Gibson received his B.A. in geology in 1930, as well as a Ph.D. from UM in 1934. After teaching stints at both Ohio State and Carleton College, Gibson began work as a geologist in the 1940s.

In addition to Gibson's half-million dollar donation, he has also made a $1 million donation to endow a chair in hydro-geology at the university's Institute of Technology.

at the end of the season. He'll take a 126-105-6 record at Baylor into the game.

"This is a good team," Teaff said. "They have a great sense of loyalty to each other and to the university. They're just the type of team one would hope to go out having in his last year coaching."

Baylor (5-5, 3-3) is a 2-point favorite over Texas; Rice is expected to beat Navy by 24 points; Texas A&M has a 24½-point bulge over TCU; Texas Tech is favored by 1½ over Houston and Arkansas is favored by 10½ over SMU.

Long-suffering Rice fans are remembering the glory years of the Owls (5-4, 4-2) football program and

SWC On Radio

The following Southwest Conference football games are scheduled to be broadcast on Midland-Odessa radio outlets:

SMU at Arkansas, 2 p.m., KKKK (99.1 FM).
TCU at Texas A&M, 2:30 p.m., KIOU (100.3 FM).
Texas at Baylor, noon, KCRS (550 AM), KQIP (96.9 FM).
Houston at Texas Tech, KCRS (103.3 FM).

hoping to begin a new era with a winning season if they can beat the Midshipmen (1-8).

Southern Methodist (4-6, 2-5) and Texas Christian (2-7-1, 1-5) anticipate new beginnings.

SMU closes its season at Arkansas and is completing its most successful season since the death penalty probation. Texas Christian's 23-14 upset of Texas gives first year coach Pat Sullivan a cornerstone for rebuilding.

Houston and Texas Tech are winding down forgettable seasons at Lubbock and trying to build momentum for 1993. Tech won a high-scoring shootout in the Astrodome last season 52-46.

The Aggies are off to their best start since 1975 when they started 10-0 and finished 10-2.

Victories by Baylor and Texas A&M would give the Aggies their second straight SWC title and the host berth in the Cotton Bowl regardless of the outcome of their Thanksgiving Day game against the Longhorns.

The Aggies are miffed at being leapfrogged by Florida State, which moved into third place in the AP poll.

"If we go 13-0, we'll be the national champions. I don't care what anybody else says or thinks," guard John Ellis said.

Aggie coach R.C. Slocum said: "There's no significance to scores. We beat Stanford, and Stanford goes back and beats Notre Dame 33-16, so if we're that bad, how bad is Notre Dame?"

Texas Christian solidified Sullivan's first season two weeks ago with a 23-14 upset of the Longhorns. The Frogs have played well enough to win the last three weeks with losses to Houston (49-46) and Texas Tech (31-28).

The Horned Frogs lost to Miami earlier in the season and now they're ready for the Aggies.

"I'm proud of our football team, in the attitude they've displayed the last month and a half," Sullivan said. "They were not intimidated going to Miami and they aren't intimidated going to College Stadium."

Quarterback Robert Hall likely will miss the game, Tech coach Spike Dykes said, meaning another start for Jason Clemmons.

That's no consolation for Houston coach John Jenkins.

"Here's a guy you'd think they would tail off but he plugs right in and keeps on going," Jenkins said. "I have to go sit in the whirlpool after watching him. He hurts you just watching."

Courier advances at ATP; will end year No. 1

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — A little friendly help from Boris Becker and Goran Ivanisevic, and his own victory, combined to produce a set of favorable circumstances that made Friday a big day for Jim Courier.

Courier became the first American since John McEnroe in 1984 to finish the year as the No. 1 tennis player in the world.

He also moved into the semifinals of the ATP Tour World Championship.

Courier began the last day of round-robin play by beating Michael Chang (6-3) 7-5, 6-2.

He then had to wait until the last match of the day to find out if he'd made it to the last four of the season-ending $2.5 million event.

When Ivanisevic took the first set against Richard Krajicek, Courier knew that he was in. Ivanisevic went on to win 6-4, 6-3.

In between, Becker helped Courier retain the top ranking by beating Stefan Edberg 6-4, 6-0.

Philadelphia beats the Heat in triple overtime

Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA — Tim Perry hit a driving layup with 14 seconds left in the third overtime to give the Philadelphia 76ers a 129-128 victory over the Miami Heat on Friday night.

Jeff Hornacek had 32 points for Philadelphia, which won its first home game of the season in keeping Miami winless at the Spectrum in 10 contests.

After Perry made the game-winning shot, Glen Rice, who had 35 points for Miami, was fouled with five seconds to go. He made his first shot but missed the second. Miami rebounded but Rice missed at the buzzer.

Hornacek, who forced the game into a third overtime with a jumper, made another jump shot with 1:14 to give Philadelphia a 127-125 lead. But Rony Seikaly, who had 26 points for Miami, then made two foul shots to tie the game with 31 seconds left.

Andrew Lang had 18 points and a career-high 20 rebounds for Philadelphia, while Hersey Hawkins added 17 points and Armon Gilliam 16. Vernell Coles had 16 points and Harold Miner 16.

Philadelphia scored the first four points of the second overtime to take a 114-110 lead, but the Heat scored six straight points, and two free throws by Seikaly gave Miami a 116-114 edge.

After Greg Grant scored for Philadelphia, Willie Burton made a jumper and Seikaly a layup to give the Heat a 121-116 lead with 18 seconds left.

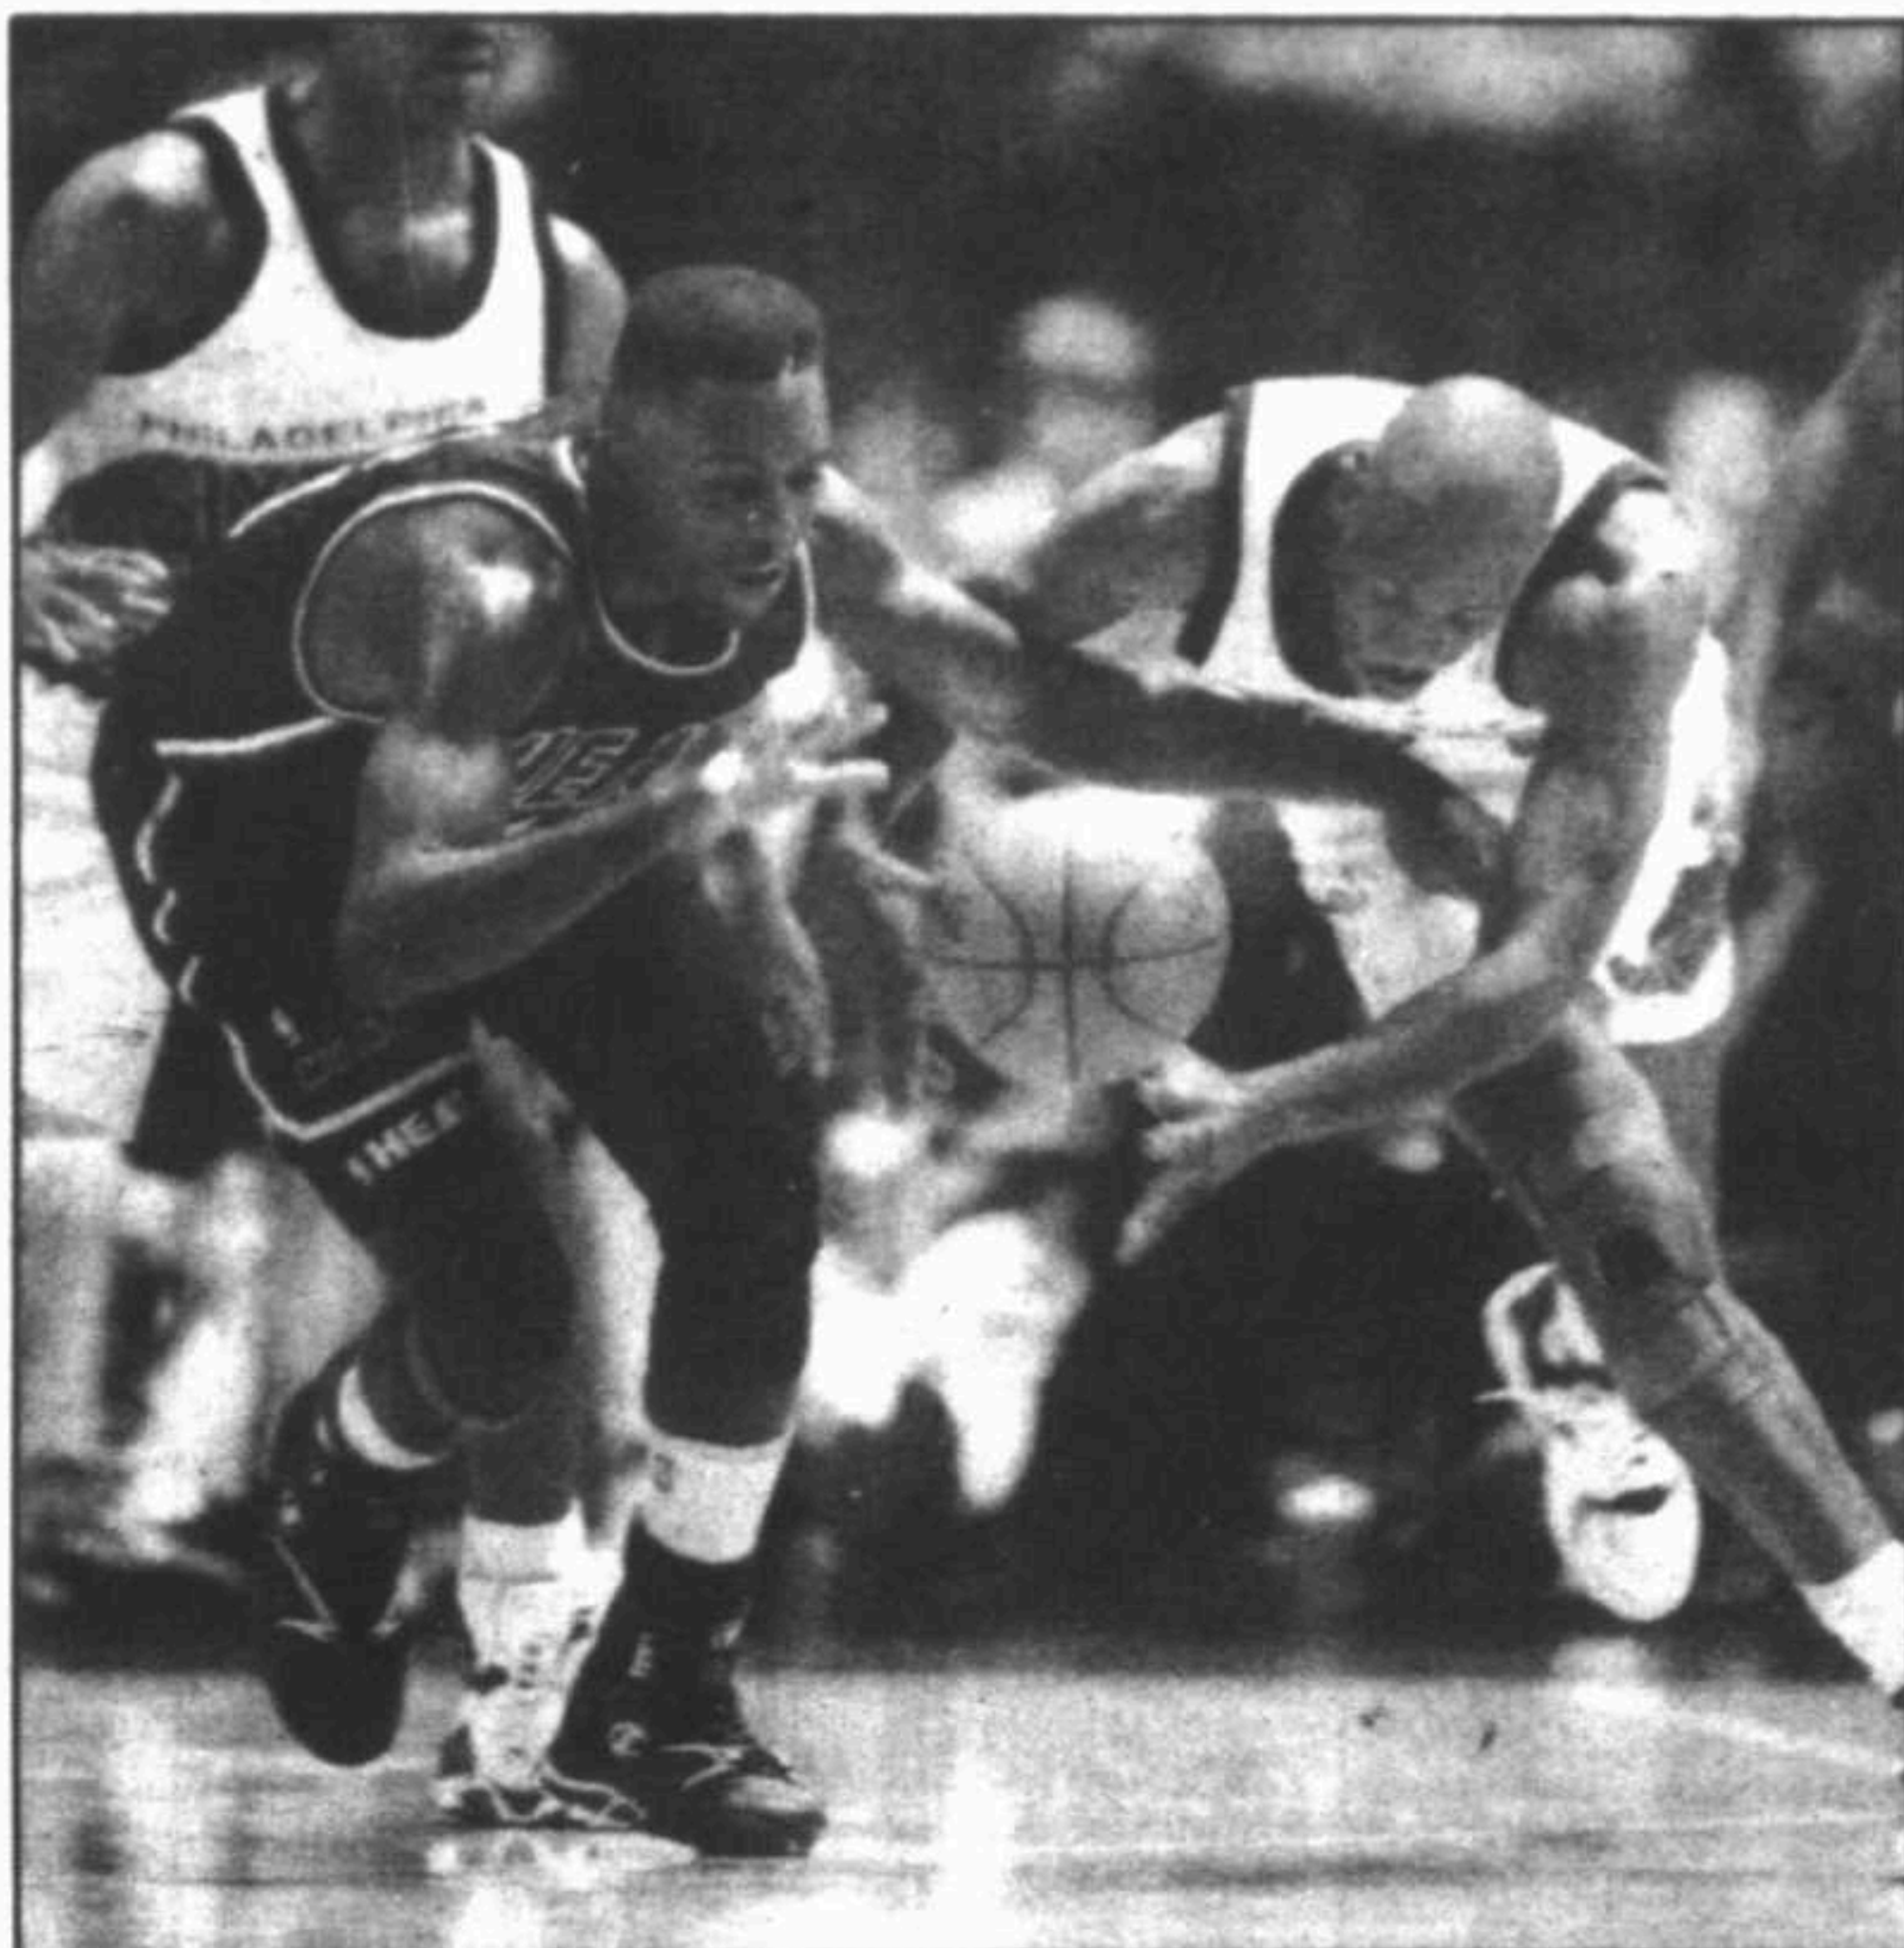

Hornacek hit a 3-pointer four seconds later.

The 6-foot-9 Perry was being guarded by 7-foot John Salley as he made his game-winning field goal.

"The big guy was pressuring me outside," Perry said. "He didn't want me to take a jump shot, so I went to the hoop as hard as I could. That was a real big win for us ... we really needed that one."

Philadelphia coach Doug Moe thought his team "should have had more points, but some of the guys had trouble handling the ball. The little guy (5-7 Greg Grant) did an unbelievable job, especially on Rice's last shot."

"I knew the foul shot was off. I saw them get the rebound and I saw Rice get his shot off. Grant ran right at him and probably caused him to double pump."

Miami coach Kevin Loughery called it "a tough loss."

"We helped ourselves in the first half, and hurt ourselves in the second half. A couple of missed fouls didn't help. Give Hornacek a lot of credit — he really made some tough shots."

Miner played 27 minutes, his longest stretch of the season, before fouling out.

"It really felt good to get into a groove," he said. "It also felt good to get some consistent minutes."

Hornets 117, Warriors 110, OT CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Dell Curry scored Charlotte's first seven points in overtime and rookie Alonzo Mourning had 34 points as the Hornets defeated the Golden State Warriors.

After Billy Owens' layup gave the Warriors a 102-100 lead in overtime, Curry made a long jumper to tie the score. He followed with a steal and layup and a three-point play resulting from another layup put the Hornets up 107-102 with 3:51 left.

Larry Johnson added 24 points for the Hornets and Curry had 23, 11 in overtime. Chris Mullin scored 46 points for the Warriors, losers in six of their last seven games.

Six straight points from Mullin put the Warriors up 98-96 with 1:42 left in regulation.

After Mourning tied the score with a free throw, Tim Hardaway missed a jumper from the top of the key and Mourning rebounded to give the Hornets the ball with 1:7 seconds left.

A 25-footer from Curry bounced off the back rim as time expired. Kendall Gill, the Hornets leading scorer, went down with a left ankle sprain early in the second quarter when he fell to the floor under the basket. The results of an X-ray weren't immediately known after the game.

Bullets 108, Timberwolves 100 MINNEAPOLIS — Harvey Grant scored 11 of his game-high 25 points in the fourth quarter to lead the undermanned Washington Bullets over the Minnesota Timberwolves.

Washington won its third game in four outings after an 0-4 start despite missing injured starters Rex Chapman and Pervis Ellison. The Bullets dressed just 10 players and have three on the injured list.

After a late 7-0 Wolves' run cut the Bullets lead to 102-100, Grant sank two free throws with 1:17 left to turn the momentum. Michael Adams hit four free throws in the final minute to clinch the victory for the Bullets, who are now 3-0 in games at the Target Center.

Adams finished with 24 points, including 3-of-3 from three-point range. Minnesota (2-5) went 0-for-7 in threes and was outscored 12-0 from three-point range.

Rookie Tom Gugliotta scored 24 points and Larry Stewart scored all 7 of his points in the fourth quarter for Washington.

Chuck Person scored 23 points and Christian Laettner added 18 points and a game-high 10 rebounds for the Wolves. Minnesota lost its third straight game and committed 21 turnovers. Minnesota was fourth in the league in fewest turnovers in 1991-92 but now has committed 20 or more turnovers in five of seven games this season.

Jazz 97, Pacers 95 INDIANAPOLIS — John Stockton hit an 18-foot jumper with 1.6 seconds to play, lifting the Utah Jazz over the Indiana Pacers and to their first win in Market Square Arena since 1985.

Indiana had three opportunities to break a 95-95 tie in the final

Trail Blazers 104, Kings 99 SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Cliff Robinson scored 21 points and the Portland Trail Blazers remained the only unbeaten team in the NBA with a victory over the Sacramento Kings.

The Blazers improved to 6-0. Sacramento had won seven straight home games, dating back to last season.

Portland took the lead for good in the opening minutes of the game. Mario Elie added 15 points for the Trail Blazers.

Wayman Tisdale had 23 points and eight rebounds for the Kings. Walt Williams scored 22 points and Mitch Richmond had 21 points, 19 in first half, for Sacramento.

The Kings went six minutes without a basket during the first quarter and had only four field goals in the period. Portland outscored Sacramento 15-4 during the streak, and led 48-39 at halftime.

Chaps blow out Snow, 106-80

ST. GEORGE, Utah — Demeitres Drew made a successful return to St. George, Utah, Friday night, scoring 31 points and grabbing 11 rebounds as the Chaps defeated the Snow College Badgers, 106-80, in the opening round of the Dixie (Utah) Classic.

Drew, who played his freshman season at Dixie College before transferring to MC last season, had 15 points and eight rebounds in the first half.

MC sophomore guard Terrence Rone had 25 points.

With the win, MC improved to 8-0 on the season. The Chaps will face Dixie, a school that will likely provide MC with its toughest challenge of the still-young season. Tip-off is 9 p.m., Midland time. In the first game tonight, Snow will play Pasadena (Calif.) College, at 7 p.m. CST.

Midland College (106) — Shawn Morris 1-0-2; Demeitres Drew 12-7-31; Terrence Rone 11-0-25; Richard Edwards 5-0-11; Corey Tubbs 1-2-4; Dominique Courney 0-0-0; Kirk Ford 5-0-2; Ar. Rodriguez 5-1-11; Steve Watson 3-1-17; Calvin Morris 0-1-2. Total: 42-15-106.
Snow (80) — Mike Welch 3-4-10; Shawn Wilson 2-0-4; Jason Lyle 4-1-12; Russ Nickel 1-0-2; Preston Johnson 6-7-10-21; Jason Torgerson 1-0-2; Greg Larson 2-1-2-5; Paul Barnes 4-0-0-8; Matt Hansen 1-0-2; Bernard Williams 5-0-11. Total: 31-13-80.
Halftime score: Midland 49, Snow 31. Total fouls: Midland 20, Snow 18. Fouled out: None. Three-point goals: Midland (5) — Rone 3, Edwards 2, Snow (5) — Johnson 2, Lyle 1, Perry 1. Records: Midland 8-0, Snow 1-5.

BOYS

Crane 95 Iraan 32
CRANE — The Golden Cranes improved to 2-0 with a 95-32 walloping of Iraan's Braves.

Crane, led by Robert Red-man's 20 points, fired off 90 shots and hauled in 54 rebounds.

Also in double figures for Crane, which scored at least 20 points in every quarter, were Michael Carrasco (14), John Argabright (14), Sean Abron (13) and Phillip Hambrick (11).

Shay Elkins led Iraan with 14 points.

Cran'e JV defeated Iraan's JV, 76-34.

GIRLS

Stanton 58, Grandfalls 30

The Stanton Lady Buffaloes rolled to their second win in as many games with a 58-30 win over the Grandfalls Cowgirls.

Sande Bundas led the Buffs with 13 points and 11 rebounds, while Sonja Hopper had 11 points, seven rebounds and six steals.

The Lady Buffs opened their season Tuesday with an 88-43 win over Crane.

Against Grandfalls, Stanton never trailed, leading 18-7 after one quarter and 33-17 at the half.

MCC hosts two aces

Not one, but two aces were holed Friday at Midland Country Club.

John Bettis fired the first one, using a 2-iron on MCC's 195-yard, No. 8 hole. Bettis' playing partners were Mac McGee, Harry Bettis, Pat Weaver and Mike Hochman.

Later, Bill Harris aced the 165-yard, No. 11 hole, with the help of a 4-iron. The hole-in-one was witnessed by Paul Davis, Jr., Ken Dean and Richard McMillan.

TCT: Today's championship game set for 8:30 p.m.

(From 1B)

57-27 decision over Pecos. Also in the first round, Lubbock Estacado snuck past El Paso Bowie, 50-49.

Today's lineup of games starts with the losers' bracket in the morning, as Pecos and Jefferson play at 8:30 a.m. and Bowie takes on Parkland at 10:15 a.m. Winners' bracket play begins when Lee (1-1) faces Monterey at noon, and MHS plays Estacado at 1:45 p.m.

The seventh-place game (the losers of the Pecos-Jefferson and Bowie-Parkland games) will be at 3:15 p.m., and the consolation championship (the winners of those two games) begins at 5 p.m.

The third-place game will have the losers of the Lee-Monterey and MHS-Estacado games at 6:45 p.m., while the victors in those affairs will play for the championship at 8:30 p.m.

MHS' undefeated Lady Bulldogs took an 8-7 lead after the first quarter, then fashioned a 28-16 halftime lead. Despite just shooting 30 percent (19-for-63) from the field, MHS led 39-25 after three periods and mopped up in the fourth quarter.

"I guess maybe we need to improve our shooting a little bit. Some nights you just don't shoot the ball well. That's basketball. It's sure nice to be able to shoot the ball poorly and still win, though," said MHS head coach Jim Raughton.

Parkland committed 31 turnovers to MHS' 21, and it was the half-court game that concerned Raughton most Friday night.

"I'm not complaining about the effort, but we didn't have any execution on the offensive end of the floor. Hopefully, we can play a little better tomorrow."

Leading the Lady Bulldog scorers Friday were Julie Chancellor with 18 points and Amy Alcalá with 16. Also, 6-1 senior Lisa Koss blocked five Matador shots. Kim Austin scored 15 points for Parkland.

Lee's easy win came over a Jefferson team shorthanded and just plain short. Facing a team with 5-9 Marina Licon playing center, the Lady Rebels dominated the Silver Foxes in the paint and repeatedly fed Teixeira Strambler (16 points) in the paint. Tanisha Mills added 13 points for Lee, and Susan Seay, who scored Lee's first eight points, ended with 10.

Licon was Jefferson's top scorer with 14 points, and Lorraine Mancha came in with 10.

A 48-point first half gave the Lady Rebs a 48-22 halftime margin and may have had Lee fans envisioning a triple digit outing. But the Lee bench played much of the second half, as 6-2 sophomore Krissy Woodard scored nine points in the last three quarters.

"We got to work on a bunch of stuff we had just been practicing against ourselves. I think this game helped our full-court game, definitely on our presses where we could do some thing things with people in different places," said Lee head coach Elise Kail.

For Monterey, Kim Sumrau scored 18 points, all in the first half, as the Lady Plainsmen cruised to a 32-16 lead at the intermission. An 18-2 Monterey run in the third quarter spelt doom for Pecos and set the stage for a relatively calm fourth period.

"Monterey's good. They have a lot of experience and one of the top players in the state in Kim Sumrau. She's going to get her points no matter what you do," Kail said of Lee's first opponent today.

Evette Perry scored 22 points for Estacado in a game decided in the final seconds. Maria Camacho led Bowie with 11 points.

No. 4 Indiana gets by No. 17 Tulane

Associated Press

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. — Alan Henderson scored a career-high 28 points, including two free throws that halted a 19-point Tulane streak in the closing minutes Friday night, leading No. 4 Indiana past the No. 17 Green Wave 102-92 in the second round of the preseason National Invitation Tournament.

Indiana (2-0) will play the Iowa State-Florida State winner next Wednesday in the NIT semifinals in New York.

The Hoosiers blew a 36-point lead midway through the second half after coach Bob Knight pulled his starters, including Henderson.

Tulane (1-1) immediately began to rally against the Indiana reserves. Two 3-point goals by Anthony Reed and one 3-pointer by Pointer Williams helped bring Tulane within 92-67. Then after a basket by Indiana's Todd Leary, the Green Wave started its 19-0 streak.

Knight sent the starters back into the game with 4:09 remaining and a 94-77 lead, but Tulane sliced it to 94-86 before Henderson's final two free throws with 2:13 to go. Greg Graham, Calbert Cheaney and Leary added two free throws apiece in the final minute to seal the victory.

Cheaney finished with 21 points and Graham 14. Tulane was led by Reed with 18 and Matt Greene and Carlin Hartman with 15 apiece.

Henderson, a 6-foot-9 sophomore whose previous high was 24 points against Ohio State last year, had 26 points before going to the bench six minutes into the second half.

Indiana built a 54-28 halftime lead to 71-36 on a slam dunk by Henderson and took its biggest lead at 79-43 two minutes later.

Henderson, who had 13 points in the Hoosiers' 103-80 first-round victory over Murray State, scored 12 of Indiana's first 18 Friday night.

The Green Wave had four turnovers and three fouls in the first three minutes, and a basket by Cheaney, two free throws by Henderson and three straight baskets by Henderson pushed Indiana's lead to 18-5 in the first seven minutes.

College Basketball

The Hoosiers did not allow more than three consecutive points by Tulane until eight minutes were left in the first half, when baskets by Hartman and G.J. Hunter and two free throws by Hunter cut a 17-point Indiana lead to 31-20.

Matt Nover then scored for the Hoosiers, and minutes later two free throws apiece by Pat Graham and Henderson started a 12-1 Indiana streak that pushed the lead to as many as 27 late in the half.

No. 9 Florida State 109, No. 19 Iowa St. 86

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Bobby Sura scored a career-high 34 points as ninth-ranked Florida State moved into the NIT semifinals with a victory over No. 19 Iowa State.

Doug Edwards, making his first appearance after missing the first game because of an academic suspension, added 22 points and Sam Cassell 20 as Florida State shot 60 percent for the second straight game.

Sura made 14 of 20 shots, including four from 3-point range to go along with a game-high 10 rebounds.

Florida State (2-0) will meet Indiana at Madison Square Garden in New York Wednesday.

Sura, a sophomore from Wilkes Barre, Pa., scored 20 of his points by halftime as the Seminoles took a 56-35 lead. The Seminoles raced to a 28-9 lead and Iowa State never mounted a serious challenge.

Iowa State (1-1) had four players in double figures, led by Ron Bayless' 16. Fred Hoiberg added 15 and Howard Eaton and Julius Michalik 14 apiece.

The Cyclones shot only 40 percent for the game.

Associated Press

While eighth-ranked Syracuse — or virtually any other team playing Miami — is the sentimental favorite, the top-ranked Hurricanes figure to get considerable backing Saturday from those who dream of great bowl matchups.

If Dennis Erickson's team beats the Orangemen, it will win the Big East title. But more important, Miami (9-0) will then have its pick of bowls.

And those who want Miami to win at Syracuse (9-1) also figure to be rooting for idle Alabama when the second-ranked Crimson Tide plays Auburn on Thanksgiving Day, and again against No. 9 Florida or No. 10 Georgia in the Southeastern Conference championship game Dec. 5.

That combination would give Gene Stallings' Tide a 12-0 mark, probably enabling Alabama to stay No. 2 and win the SEC's spot in the Sugar Bowl Jan. 1. That would set up a 1-2 matchup, with the winner claiming the national title.

The only other way two unbeaten and untied teams could meet would be for fourth-ranked Texas A&M (10-0) to win at home against outmanned Texas Christian (2-7) Saturday, beat Texas Dec. 5 and somehow leap over two teams. The Aggies could wrap up the Southwest Conference title and a Cotton Bowl berth if Texas loses Saturday to Baylor.

Miami at No. 1 and Texas A&M at No. 2 would put the Hurricanes in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1.

Got it?

If you do, hold on a minute. A loss by Alabama coupled with a victory by No. 3 Florida State (9-1) over Florida on Nov. 28 probably would make the Seminoles No. 2. If so, Miami would go to the Fiesta Bowl on New Year's Day for a rematch with Florida State, whom it beat 19-16 early this season.

But, if form holds up, this could be the bowl picture:

- Sugar: Miami-Alabama.
- Cotton: Texas A&M-Florida State.
- Orange: Nebraska-Notre Dame.
- Rose: Washington-Michigan.
- Fiesta: Colorado-Syracuse.
- Blockbuster: Penn State-Stanford.
- Gator: North Carolina State-Georgia.
- Citrus: Ohio State-Florida.
- Hall of Fame: Boston College-Tennessee.
- Liberty: Air Force-Mississippi.
- Freedom: Southern Cal-Wisconsin.
- Hancock: Arizona-Texas.
- Independence: Wake Forest-Oregon.
- Aloha: Hawaii-Kansas.
- Peach: Mississippi State-North Carolina.
- Holiday: San Diego State-Michigan State.
- Copper: Brigham Young-Iowa.
- Silver: Bowling Green-San Jose State.

But most will have to win this week, and in some cases beyond, to secure those berths.

In other games Saturday, it will be No. 5 Washington (9-1) at Washington State (7-3), No. 6 Michigan (8-2) at No. 17 Ohio State (8-2), No. 9 Florida (7-2) at Vanderbilt (4-5), Iowa State (4-6) at No. 11 Colorado (8-1-1), No. 25 Wake Forest (7-3) at No. 13 North Carolina State (8-2-1), No. 14 Stanford (8-3) at California (4-6), No. 15 Southern California (6-2-1) at UCLA (5-5), Arizona State (5-5) at No. 16 Arizona (6-3-1), No. 19 Boston College (7-2-1) at Army (4-5), Kentucky (4-6) at No. 20 Tennessee (6-3), No. 21 North Carolina (7-3) at Duke (2-8), No. 22 Kansas (7-3) at Missouri (2-8), and Pittsburgh (3-7) at No. 23 Penn State (6-4).

Here's a closer look at Saturday's games:

No. 1 Miami at Syracuse

A sellout crowd at the Carrier Dome will try to intimidate Heisman Trophy hopeful, Miami quarterback Gino Torretta. But with 27 straight victories, Miami seems oblivious to that sort of thing.

Texas Christian at No. 4 Texas A&M

R.C. Slocum says his Aggies don't want to be caught counting because they've beaten the Horned Frogs 19 years in a row.

No. 5 Washington at Washington State

With Washington set for a Rose Bowl rematch with Michigan and Washington State only a longshot for the Copper Bowl, this game is for bragging rights only.

No. 6 Michigan at No. 17 Ohio State

A loss would leave Buckeyes' coach John Cooper 0-5 against Michigan and probably in search of a job after the Citrus Bowl — win or lose.

No. 9 Florida at Vanderbilt

The Commodores are playing for pride, while Steve Spurrier's Gators need to win to meet Alabama in the SEC title game.

Iowa State at No. 11 Colorado

The Cyclones are coming off a shocking upset of Nebraska, the Buffs a hard-fought victory over Kansas.

No. 25 Wake Forest at No. 13 North Carolina State
The Deacons would like to give retiring coach Bill Dooley a victory in his final Atlantic Coast Conference game in this meeting of bowl-bound teams.

No. 14 Stanford at California

Bill Walsh's Cardinal, with an inside track to the Blockbuster Bowl, must be mindful of the 10th anniversary of Cal's bizarre lateral victory.

No. 15 Southern Cal at UCLA

Arizona State at No. 16 Arizona

No. 19 Boston College at Army

The Golden Eagles will use outmanned Army to practice for their Hall of Fame Bowl meeting with Tennessee.

Kentucky at No. 20 Tennessee
Retiring Johnny Majors may not coach beyond this game for Tennessee, which will be pressed by its traditional rival.

No. 21 North Carolina at Duke

After a long dry spell, the Peach Bowl-bound Tar Heels are beginning to return to prominence under Mack Brown.

No. 22 Kansas at Missouri

The Tigers would like to end another miserable season on a positive note with an upset of Aloha Bowl hopeful Kansas.

Pittsburgh at No. 23 Penn State

Others

San Jose State (7-3) would clinch a berth in the inaugural Las Vegas Silver Bowl with a victory over New Mexico State (5-5). Otherwise, Nevada will represent the Big West Conference against Mid-American champion Bowling Green.

Iowa (5-6) goes to the Copper Bowl with a victory over Minnesota (1-9).

Heisman Trophy favorite Marshall Faulk gets to play in the Holiday Bowl if San Diego State (5-3-1) beats Fresno State (6-4) to win the WAC. Michigan State (5-5) and Illinois (5-4-1) battle for the right to stop him.

Wisconsin (5-5) is in position to virtually clinch a Freedom Bowl berth by beating Northwestern (2-8).

Oregon (5-5) would remain the frontrunner for an Independence Bowl berth opposite Wake Forest with a victory over Oregon State (1-8-1).

In addition to Washington State, others with bowl hopes are Fresno State (6-4), Copper or Freedom; Utah (6-4), Freedom; Rice (5-4), Independence; Rutgers (6-4), Independence; Southern Mississippi (7-4), Independence.

Elway's status still uncertain for Sunday

Associated Press

ENGLEWOOD, Colo. — Denver Broncos quarterback John Elway's status was returned to doubtful after Friday's practice.

Elway was upgraded on the team's injury report from doubtful to questionable prior to Friday's practice, but his workout was limited. Coach Dan Reeves downgraded Elway's status after the workout.

Elway tested his bruised right shoulder but found it a bit stiffer and more painful than expected. The Broncos were hoping that Elway would do some throwing during passing drills Friday, but he did only some throwing on the sideline, grimacing with each toss, and did not take any snaps.

"I'm not real encouraged right now. I didn't feel as good as I was hoping I would feel. I'm just hoping with two more days, it will be ready to go," Elway said.

Coach Dan Reeves also was pessimistic about his quarterback's chances, but said he'd wait to make a decision on whether Elway would play against the Los Angeles Raiders until game day.

"If John feels good on Sunday, then there's a chance he'll play. If he doesn't, then we'll go with Tommy (Maddox) and Shawn (Moore). If he's not close to 100 percent, we won't play him. We're not going to jeopardize our season for one football game."

Elway injured his throwing shoulder in the second quarter of Sunday night's game against the New York Giants. Maddox, a rookie, took over and performed admirably in the 27-13 victory.

ated with Nagurski," Gibson said. "I'm 87 years old. I don't have many friends left up there. I'm kind of like George Burns. But it's a great honor."

Gibson, who was Nagurski's roommate for two seasons in the late '20s, will make a $500,000 donation to the school to help retire

the building's $2.9 million debt.

"We are certainly grateful to George," said McKinley Boston, men's athletic director at Minnesota. "When we receive the gift it will be the largest single gift ever given to the department. We're also excited about seeing the names of two such important figures in the history of Gopher football being on the building. George wanted to see Bronko honored, and we're excited about seeing George honored along with him."

Gibson said the naming of the building was made official only last week when the school's board of regents approved the item in their monthly meeting.

The Gibson-Nagurski Practice Facility is indoor. Iowa, Notre Dame and Texas Tech have similar facilities for working out in inclement weather.

Gibson received his B.A. in geology in 1930, as well as a Ph.D. from UM in 1934. After teaching stints at both Ohio State and Carleton College, Gibson began work as a geologist in the 1940s.

In addition to Gibson's half-million dollar donation, he has also made a $1 million donation to endow a chair in hydro-geology at the university's Institute of Technology.

Courier advances at ATP; will end year No. 1

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — A little friendly help from Boris Becker and Goran Ivanisevic, and his own victory combined to produce a set of favorable circumstances that made Friday a big day for Jim Courier.

Courier became the first American since John McEnroe in 1984 to finish the year as the No. 1 tennis player in the world.

He also moved into the semifinals of the ATP Tour World Championship.

Courier began the last day of round-robin play by beating Michael Chang (0-3) 7-5, 6-2.

He then had to wait until the last match of the day to find out if he'd made it to the last four of the season-ending $2.5 million event.

When Ivanisevic took the first set against Richard Krajicek, Courier knew that he was in. Ivanisevic went on to win 6-4, 6-3.

In between, Becker helped Courier retain the top ranking by beating Stefan Edberg 6-4, 6-0.

SWC: With A&M, Baylor win, Aggies would clinch

at the end of the season. He'll take a 126-105-6 record at Baylor into the game.

"This is a good team," Teaff said. "They have a great sense of loyalty to each other and to the university. They're just the type of team one would hope to go out having in his last year coaching."

Baylor (5-5, 3-3) is a 2-point favorite over Texas; Rice is expected to beat Navy by 24 points; Texas A&M has a 24½-point bulge over TCU; Texas Tech is favored by 1½ over Houston and Arkansas is favored by 10½ over SMU.

Long-suffering Rice fans are remembering the glory years of the Owls (5-4, 4-2) football program and

SWC On Radio

The following Southwest Conference football games are scheduled to be broadcast on Midland-Odessa radio outlets:

SMU at Arkansas, 2 p.m., KKKK (99.1 FM).

TCU at Texas A&M, 2:30 p.m., KIOL (100.3 FM).

Houston at Texas Tech, KCBS (103.3 FM).

hoping to begin a new era with a winning season if they can beat the Midshipmen (1-8).

Southern Methodist (4-6, 2-5) and Texas Christian (2-7-1, 1-5) anticipate new beginnings.

SMU closes its season at Arkansas and is completing its most successful season since the death penalty probation. Texas Christian's 23-14 upset of Texas gives first year coach Pat Sullivan a cornerstone for rebuilding.

Houston and Texas Tech are winding down forgettable seasons at Lubbock and trying to build momentum for 1993. Tech won a high-scoring shootout in the Astro-dome last season 52-46.

The Aggies are off to their best start since 1975 when they started 10-0 and finished 10-2.

Victories by Baylor and Texas A&M would give the Aggies their second straight SWC title and the host berth in the Cotton Bowl regardless of the outcome of their Thanksgiving Day game against the Longhorns.

The Aggies are miffed at being leapfrogged by Florida State, which moved into third place in the AP poll.

"If we go 13-0, we'll be the national champions. I don't care what anybody else says or thinks," guard John Ellis said.

Aggie coach R.C. Slocum said: "There's no significance to scores. We beat Stanford, and Stanford goes back and beats Notre Dame 33-16, so if we're that bad, how bad is Notre Dame?"

Texas Christian solidified Sullivan's first season two weeks ago with a 23-14 upset of the Longhorns. The Frogs have played well enough to win the last three weeks with losses to Houston (49-46) and Texas Tech (31-28).

The Horned Frogs lost to Miami earlier in the season and now they're ready for the Aggies.

"I'm proud of our football team, in the attitude they've displayed the last month and a half," Sullivan said. "They were not intimidated going to Miami and they aren't intimidated going to College Stadium."

Quarterback Robert Hall likely will miss the game, Tech coach Spike Dykes said, meaning another start for Jason Clemmons.

That's no consolation for Houston coach John Jenkins.

"Here's a guy you'd think they would tail off but he plugs right in and keeps on going," Jenkins said. "I have to go sit in the whirlpool after watching him. He hurts you just watching."

Philadelphia beats the Heat in triple overtime

Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA — Tim Perry hit a driving layup with 14 seconds left in the third overtime to give the Philadelphia 76ers a 129-128 victory over the Miami Heat on Friday night.

Jeff Hornacek had 32 points for Philadelphia, which won its first home game of the season in keeping Miami winless at the Spectrum in 10 contests.

After Perry made the game-winning shot, Glen Rice, who had 35 points for Miami, was fouled with five seconds to go. He made his first shot but missed the second. Miami rebounded but Rice missed at the buzzer.

Hornacek, who forced the game into a third overtime with a jumper, made another jump shot with 1:14 to give Philadelphia a 127-125 lead. But Rony Seikaly, who had 26 points for Miami, then made two foul shots to tie the game with 31 seconds left.

Andrew Lang had 18 points and a career-high 20 rebounds for Philadelphia, while Hersey Hawkins added 17 points and Armon Gilliam 16. Vernell Coles had 16 points and Harold Miner 16.

Philadelphia scored the first four points of the second overtime to take a 114-110 lead, but the Heat scored six straight points, and two free throws by Seikaly gave Miami a 116-114 edge.

After Greg Grant scored for Philadelphia, Willie Burton made a jumper and Seikaly a layup to give the Heat a 121-116 lead with 18 seconds left.

Hornacek hit a 3-pointer four seconds later.

The 6-foot-9 Perry was being guarded by 7-foot John Salley as he made his game-winning field goal.

"The big guy was pressuring me outside," Perry said. "He didn't want me to take a jump shot, so I went to the hoop as hard as I could. That was a real big win for us... we really needed that one."

Philadelphia coach Doug Moe thought his team "should have had more points, but some of the guys had trouble handling the ball. The little guy (5-7 Greg Grant) did an unbelievable job, especially on Rice's last shot."

"I knew the foul shot was off. I saw them get the rebound and I saw Rice get his shot off. Grant ran right at him and probably caused him to double pump."

Miami coach Kevin Loughery called it "a tough loss."

"We helped ourselves in the first half, and hurt ourselves in the second half. A couple of missed fouls didn't help. Give Hornacek a lot of credit — he really made some tough shots."

Miner played 27 minutes, his longest stretch of the season, before fouling out.

"It really felt good to get into a groove," he said. "It also felt good to get some consistent minutes."

Hornets 117, Warriors 110, OT CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Dell Curry scored Charlotte's first seven points in overtime and rookie Alonzo Mourning had 34 points as the Hornets defeated the Golden State Warriors.

After Billy Owens' layup gave the Warriors a 102-100 lead in overtime, Curry made a long jumper to tie the score. He followed with a steal and layup and a three-point play resulting from another layup put the Hornets up 107-102 with 3:51 left.

Larry Johnson added 24 points for the Hornets and Curry had 23, 11 in overtime. Chris Mullin scored 46 points for the Warriors, losers in six of their last seven games.

Six straight points from Mullin put the Warriors up 98-96 with 1:42 left in regulation.

A 25-footer from Curry bounced off the back rim as time expired. Kendall Gill, the Hornets leading scorer, went down with a left ankle sprain early in the second quarter when he fell to the floor under the basket. The results of an X-ray weren't immediately known after the game.

Bullets 108, Timberwolves 100 MINNEAPOLIS — Harvey Grant scored 11 of his game-high 25 points in the fourth quarter to lead the undermanned Washington Bullets over the Minnesota Timberwolves.

Washington won its third game in four outings after an 0-4 start despite missing injured starters Rex Chapman and Pervis Ellison. The Bullets dressed just 10 players and have three on the injured list.

After a late 7-0 Wolves' run cut the Bullets lead to 102-100, Grant sank two free throws with 1:17 left to turn the momentum. Michael Adams hit four free throws in the final minute to clinch the victory for the Bullets, who are now 3-0 in games at the Target Center.

Adams finished with 24 points, including 3-of-3 from three-point range. Minnesota (2-5) went 0-for-7 in three and was outscored 12-0 from three-point range.

Rookie Tom Gugliotta scored 24 points and Larry Stewart scored all 7 of his points in the fourth quarter for Washington.

Chuck Person scored 23 points and Christian Laettner added 18 points and a game-high 10 rebounds for the Wolves. Minnesota lost its third straight game and committed 21 turnovers. Minnesota was fourth in the league in fewest turnovers in 1991-92 but now has committed 20 or more turnovers in five of seven games this season.

Jazz 97, Pacers 95 INDIANAPOLIS — John Stockton hit an 18-foot jumper with 1.6 seconds to play, lifting the Utah Jazz over the Indiana Pacers and to their first win in Market Square Arena since 1985.

Indiana had three opportunities to break a 95-95 tie in the final

Trail Blazers 104, Kings 99 SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Cliff Robinson scored 21 points and the Portland Trail Blazers remained the only unbeaten team in the NBA with a victory over the Sacramento Kings.

The Blazers improved to 6-0. Sacramento had won seven straight home games, dating back to last season.

Portland took the lead for good in the opening minutes of the game. Mario Elie added 15 points for the Trail Blazers.

Wayman Tisdale had 23 points and eight rebounds for the Kings. Walt Williams scored 22 points and Mitch Richmond had 21 points, 19 in first half, for Sacramento.

The Kings went six minutes without a basket during the first quarter and had only four field goals in the period. Portland outscored Sacramento 15-4 during the streak, and led 48-39 at halftime.

Presented by LITTLE & COMPANY STOCKQUOTE HOTLINE

WHAT IS STOCKQUOTE HOTLINE?

Over 9,000 stocks are listed from NYSE, AMEX, and OTC sources; all available 24 hours a day.

HOW TO USE STOCKQUOTE HOTLINE:

1) Call the StockQuote Hotline at 560-2400; enter the category number which is 9988.

2) You will be asked to enter your stock ticker symbol. These are based on industry-standard symbols, which can be found in a Standard & Poor's Ticker Guide, or by calling your local stock broker.

3) Once you've entered the numerical code for the ticker symbol, press the Star Key (*) and you will hear the current price and net change from the last Associated Press update; this is a few minutes behind market activity.

4) After the stock is quoted, you will be asked to enter another stock ticker symbol. You now have 2 options: a) You may request a quote for another stock by repeating steps 2 & 3. b) You may request additional information on the stock just quoted by once more pressing the Star Key (*).

Now the volume, high and low will be given, and then you will be asked to enter another ticker code.

You may enter up to 10 ticker symbols per call.

5) To exit StockQuote Hotline, simply hang up the phone.

Lemieux present during alleged rape

Associated Press

MINNEAPOLIS — Witnesses told police that Pittsburgh Penguins star Mario Lemieux was present when Minnesota North Stars forward Dan Quinn allegedly raped a 19-year-old woman, according to a court document filed Friday.

The document — a police investigator's affidavit seeking a search warrant — does not indicate that Lemieux took part in the alleged assault, and Bloomington Police Chief Bob Lutz reiterated Friday that Quinn is the only person who might be charged in the incident.

Quinn, 27, a former Penguins player, has been accused of raping the woman Nov. 10 in a room at a Bloomington hotel. Quinn was arrested in connection with the alleged assault but is free on $30,000 bond and has not been formally charged.

Quinn has maintained that the sex was consensual. He is on leave from the North Stars.

According to the affidavit, the assault occurred after three women met a group of Penguins and North Stars players at a bar in the Mall of America and went with the players to their hotel.

The affidavit refers to the players only as "Mario" and "Dan," but says the alleged victim and witnesses identified Lemieux from a newspaper photograph as the "Mario" who was in the room during the alleged assault. Quinn identified himself by name to the women, the affidavit says.

"Mario" is mentioned only twice in the 1½-page affidavit. He called "Dan" into a bathroom at one point during the alleged assault, the affidavit says, and later returned some beer-soaked clothes to the alleged victim and another woman who was in the room.

The Penguins had nothing to say about the incident. Reached in East Rutherford, N.J., where the team was playing the New Jersey Devils, Penguins director of public relations Cindy Himes said:

"The Pittsburgh Penguin organization will have no comment on the incident in Minnesota. This is due to the fact that the investigation is still ongoing. We feel that it would be inappropriate to comment at this time."

Lemieux was approached by a

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A tearful Al Rosen resigned today as president and general manager of the San Francisco Giants, saying the team's incoming owners should pick their own management.

"It's been a great seven years," said Rosen, who led the Giants to two National League West titles and the league's pennant in 1989.

Rosen, 68, said he didn't think he would be "very far from the game" for long. "I'll be available," he said.

Giants owner Bob Lurie decided in June to sell the team after the fourth failed ballot proposal for a publicly financed replacement for windy Candlestick Park. Lurie agreed in August to sell the team to a Florida group, but that proposal was rejected last week by NL owners. Lurie now intends to sell to a Bay area group headed by Safeway Inc. chairman Peter Magowan.

"No comment." Asked if he was told not to say anything, he said:

"Exactly."

Meanwhile, Lemieux's agent, Tom Reich, had more to say.

"The alleged victim has a vivid imagination," Reich said. "And we will make an appropriate response at the proper time."

Hennepin County Attorney Mike Freeman is still considering whether to charge Quinn, according to Kate McPherson, a spokeswoman for Freeman's office.

Details of the case became public Friday when a search warrant and an affidavit by Bloomington Police detective Ross Swanson were filed in Hennepin County District Court.

The affidavit includes information provided by the woman who said she was raped by Quinn and two other women who were with her at times during the night.

According to the affidavit, the women met three professional hockey players at Hooters restaurant and bar at the Mall of America and later agreed to go with them to their hotel. All six drank beer and talked for 30-45 minutes in one room, then moved to a different room, the affidavit says.

Quinn then turned down the light, removed his clothes and began fondling one woman, who resisted, the affidavit says. The woman repeatedly told Quinn she didn't want to have sex with him, but he took her clothes off and had intercourse with her, according to the affidavit.

"At this time, Mario called Dan into the bathroom and (the) victim attempted to put her clothing back on," Swanson wrote. "She then called out to the remaining female witness, 'Let's go.' In less than a minute, Dan returned, pushed her back on the bed and pulled her clothing back down to her knees" and had sex with her again.

Later, the affidavit says, "the victim was able to put her jumpsuit back on to her waist and then crawled out of the room into a hallway."

The two women then knocked on the door to retrieve items they had left in the room. The affidavit says Lemieux answered the door and gave them back several items of clothing, which had been soaked in beer by the players.

The affidavit also quotes one witness as saying that "one of the players stated, 'You know what we do for a living and this could get us in a lot of trouble.'"

The alleged victim was later treated at a hospital, where she and one of the other women reported the assault.

In his search of the hotel room several hours later, Swanson said he found a credit card receipt with Lemieux's name on it, a condom and empty beer bottles.

Police have said it's not clear who occupied the room where the assault allegedly occurred.

Angels sign Yankee outfielder

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — Torey Lovullo, an infielder who played in the New York Yankees' organization last season, agreed Friday to a one-year contract with the California Angels for the minimum salary of $109,000.

Lovullo, who had 116 days of major league service in appearances with Detroit in 1988 and 1989 and the Yankees in 1991, hit .295 last season for Columbus of the International League with 19 homers and 89 RBIs.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

HOW THE BIBLE VIEWS OLD AGE

WHEREVER ONE COMES ACROSS A MENTION OF OLD AGE IN THE BIBLE, IT IS TREATED WITH GREAT RESPECT. TO BIBLICAL PEOPLE, ADVANCED AGE MEANT THE GAINING OF WISDOM. "...ASK THY FATHER AND HE WILL SHOW THEE, THY ELDERS AND THEY WILL TELL THEE." (DEUT. 32:7). TO THESE PEOPLE AGE WAS ALSO CONSIDERED BEAUTIFUL. "THE BEAUTY OF OLD MEN IS THEIR GRAY HEAD." (PROV. 20:29) AND OF COURSE....

...MOSES HIMSELF THUNDERED DOWN FROM THE MOUNT, THUS SAID THE LORD... "HONOR THY FATHER AND THY MOTHER THAT THY DAYS MAY BE LONG IN THE LAND WHICH THE LORD THY GOD GIVETH THEE." (EXODUS 20:12)

RELIGION IN BRIEF

■ Holiday services set

■ A public "Thanksgiving Service" is planned at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 1001 W. Tennessee Ave., at 10:30 a.m. Thursday.

As part of the service, a Bible lesson will be read by two lay readers which will include the following verse from Colossians: "And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him."

In addition to readings from the Bible and "Science and Health," time will be given for testimonies of gratitude by Christian Scientists.

No collection will be taken. Care will be provided for children too young to attend the service.

■ Royce Money, president of Abilene Christian University, will be the speaker at the Community Thanksgiving Celebration planned for 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Lee High School Auditorium.

Emcee for the celebration will be Dan Shields, pastor of Midland Christian Fellowship. City Council member Julius Brooks is to give introductory remarks.

Money

Proceeds from the celebration, which is sponsored and coordinated by the Golf Course Road Church of Christ, will go to United Way.

Money is the author of two books on family ministry: "Building Stronger Families: Family Enrichment in the Home, Church and Community" and "Ministering to Families: A Positive Plan of Action."

■ An area choir composed of singers from six West Texas Missionary Baptist churches will present the Mini-Musical "Thanksgiving Song" in a Thanksgiving Praise Service at 7 p.m. Saturday at Tall City Missionary Baptist Church, 3500 Anetta Drive.

The choir will be directed by Weeks DuBose, pastor of Westwood Baptist Church, Odessa.

The Rev. Bill Simpson, pastor of Tall City, invites the public to attend.

■ The Youth in Action of Mount Calvary Baptist Church will present a pre-Thanksgiving musical at 7 p.m. today at the church, 303 E. Shandon St.

The Rev. R. Lathan, pastor, invites the public to attend the production entitled "A Harvest of Songs."

■ Revival scheduled

MONAHANS — Jerry B. Walker will be leading "The Praise Celebration Crusades" revivals Nov. 29 through 3 and Dec. 4-6 here.

The first revival will be held at Ward County Coliseum, 1 mile south of 120 on Fort Stockton Highway. The second revival will be at Monahans High School Auditorium, 809 S. Betty. All services will be at 7 p.m. All seats are free.

Walker has been a featured speaker for the Full Gospel Business Men's World Conventions and was the first to be invited to conduct Miracle Services in St. Paul's Anglican Cathedral in Toronto, Canada. He has been called by the press the "20th Century Billy Sunday."

For more information call Grace Fellowship, 1-943-4447.

Walker

■ Pastor to be installed

The Rev. William Clark was installed Sunday at Grace Presbyterian Church by the Presbytery of Tres Rios.

Before coming to Midland, Clark was associate pastor at First Presbyterian Church, Sioux Falls, S.D. He is a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary and Austin College, Sherman.

Clark

Clark is a native of Odessa.

■ Church to show film

The First Free Methodist Church of Midland, 4712 Shady-lane Dr., is showing "Eye of the Storm" starring Connie Selleca, Jeff Conaway and Deborah Tucker at 6 p.m. Sunday.

No admission will be charged. "Eye of the Storm," from World Wide Pictures, addresses vital, timely issues happening in today's society.

World Wide Pictures is the motion picture ministry of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association. For more information call the church office, 694-7701.

■ Bible classes planned

■ Community Bible Study, a multi-denominational Bible study, has started its study of Hebrews. The study meets at Midland Bible Church, 2800 N. A St., Tuesdays from 7 to 9 p.m.

Members first meet in different "Core Groups" to discuss weekly lessons and later assemble for a short lecture given by a teaching director. The first lesson will be an overview of Hebrews given by Alan Meyers, evening class area instructor.

For more information call Bob Houser, 563-0465, between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. or Bill Holmes, 687-4822.

■ Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 5023 W. Princeton Ave. No. 2, has started a 10-week video and Bible class called "Renewing the Family Spirit" at 7:30 p.m. Sundays.

This course is based on the book by the same name written by Christian counselor Dr. David Ludwig. The course is designed to lead people into more Christian-centered relationships.

For more information call 694-9594 or 1-366-9311.

■ Holiday workshops set

■ A "Holiday Blahs Workshop" is planned for 1 to 2 p.m. today at Midland Lutheran Church, 2705 W. Michigan Ave.

Participants will be given tools to help themselves and others deal with the feelings of depression and isolation that the holidays often bring.

The workshop will be led by the Rev. Ron Meyer, pastor of Midland Lutheran Church. Meyer has a doctorate in pastoral care and counseling from Texas Christian University. He is the director of Pastoral Care and Chaplaincy Services at Glenwood Psychiatric Hospital.

The Holiday Blahs Workshop is sponsored by the Singles Ministry Cooperative, a ministry of nine Midland congregations. Singles Ministry Cooperative events are open to all members of the community.

For more information call St. Luke's United Methodist Church, 694-2571.

■ First Baptist Church, Louisiana Avenue at Garfield Street, is sponsoring a 9:30 a.m. to noon

When you decide to purchase a Rolex watch, be sure to look for the crystal prism that tells you that the jeweler has been designated by Rolex as an Official Rolex Jeweler.

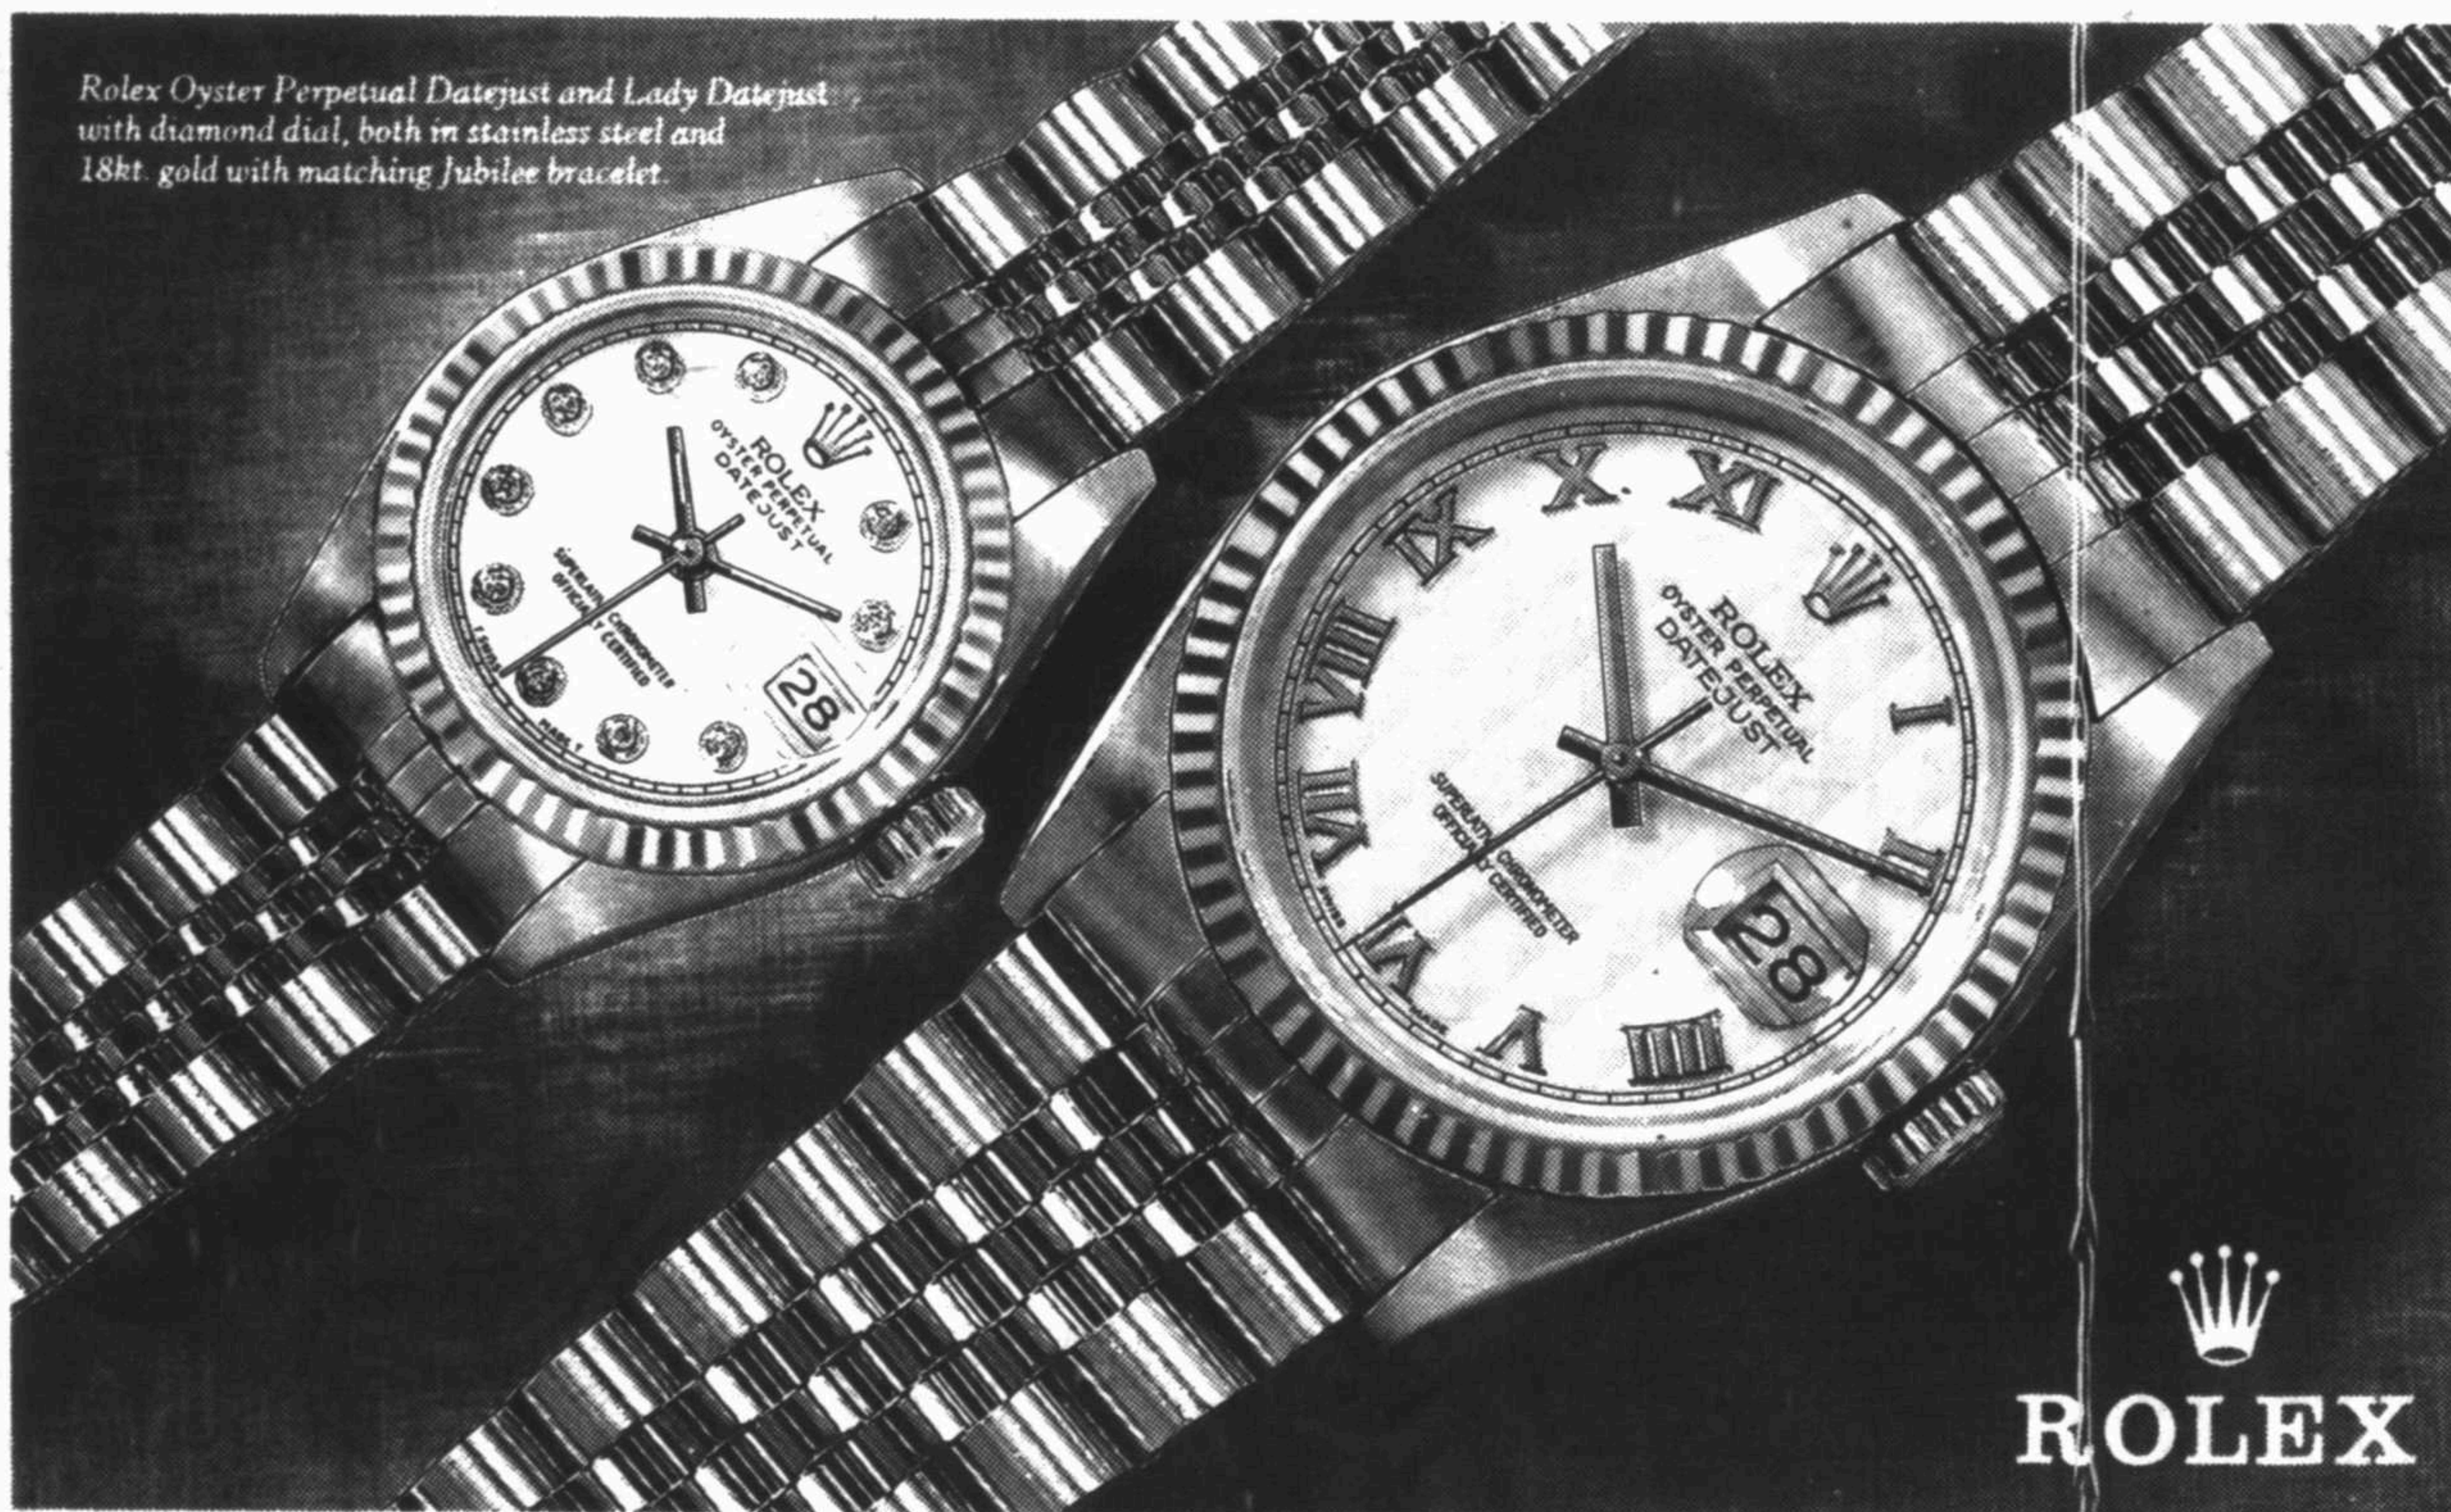

We are proud to have been selected by Rolex Watch U.S.A. to sell and service their timepieces. As an Official Rolex Jeweler, we give you the assurance that all parts and accessories, including diamond dials and bezels, will be genuine. In addition, we have the training and expertise to help you choose the timepiece that is right for you. And each new Rolex we sell is covered by an Official Rolex Warranty bearing our store name and backed by the Rolex Worldwide Service Network.

Be wary of buying a Rolex from an unauthorized dealer.

It could contain inferior or counterfeit parts, and it might turn out to be a refurbished watch made to look new. Or worse, it may be an illegal import subject to government seizure.

What's more, watches obtained from unauthorized dealers will not be covered by the Rolex Warranty. So be careful, it's just not worth the risk.

workshop today designed to help those suffering from the loss of a loved one during the holiday season.

Presentations of the grieving process and dealing with depression will be given. A panel of single adults will be available to answer questions about coping with the holidays alone.

The workshop covers loss by death or divorce.

No admission will be charged.

■ Medjugorje meeting set

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — A religious conference that will look into the daily appearances of an apparition of the Virgin Mary which continues inexplicably to appear to the Visionaries in Medjugorje, Yugoslavia, is scheduled here for Friday through Nov. 29 at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

One of the organizers of the conference is the Rev. Ben Franzinelli who has himself visited Medjugorje.

For registration or more information write Medjugorje Information Center of Las Vegas, P.O. Box 12569, Las Vegas, Nev. 89112-2569, or call 1-702-454-6279.

The group's style includes country, Spanish and contemporary.

■ Church marks birthday

ALPINE — The Presbyterian Church of Alpine is celebrating its centennial today and Sunday.

An open house is planned from noon to 4 p.m. today. Refreshments will be served in the Hospitality Room and historical displays will be located in the hallways and office areas. The Centennial Celebration will follow at 7:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary. Birthday cake will be served afterwards. The celebration will continue during the 11 a.m. Sunday service.

The First Presbyterian Church of Alpine was authorized by the Presbytery of Austin on Nov. 27, 1892, one of several in the area founded by the Rev. W.B. Bloys of Fort Davis.

■ Video program slated

The Unitarian-Universalist Church of Midland is hosting through Dec. 3 an adult religious education video tape program and discussion at 7 p.m. Mondays on "The Transformation of Myth Through Time" series by Joseph Campbell.

Each program is complete in itself and lasts an hour followed by a 30 minute discussion.

Friends, affiliates, and staff members all congratulate and applaud Dr. Kimery for these most recent professional accomplishments.

These achievements signify not only recognition by his peers in the field of Dental Implantology, but they also vividly demonstrate his aggressive and protracted commitment to post-doctoral studies. Signified here is the completion of written and oral examinations; as well as the successful defense of fully documented, and multiple, treatment cases before the examiners for Implantology.

A minimum of 300 post-doctoral credit hours of study were required for admission to the written phase, but Dr. Kimery far exceeded that. He currently documents 599 post-doctoral credit hours, with an emphasis on the advanced techniques for total rehabilitation via Dental Implants. While Dr. Kimery continues to offer treatment and consultative services for Periodontics and simple tooth replacement problems, he extends a special invitation to those whose needs are more complex.

Have you been told that you are not a candidate for Dental Implants, or that you have too little bone? If so, Dr. Kimery especially invites your call. He continues to maintain regular office hours at the same location in Midland, Texas where he has remained for the last 18 years.

Pain relief is priority

AUSTIN (AP) — Health workers who want to relieve cancer patients' pain are worrying about reprisals if they prescribe sufficient amounts of narcotics, such as morphine, to do the job.

Doctors and nurses told Texas and federal regulators that prescriptions for unusual amounts of narcotic pain relievers may lead to professional board investigations and possible legal action.

The state keeps copies of such prescriptions under its triplicate prescription law.

Dr. Reginald Ho of Honolulu, president-elect of the American Cancer Society, said the 79-year-old organization will make control of cancer pain its national priority for the 1990s.

"We know that most patients do not receive adequate treatment for pain," Ho said Friday in a keynote speech at the statewide conference of the Texas Cancer Pain Initiative at the Austin Marriott at the Capitol.

"Too many still experience pain needlessly and are dying in pain. Patients have a right to request relief from pain. We must have a regulatory environment conducive to a solution, he said.

The initiative is a 2-year-old group of doctors and nurses who seek to pass state laws to encourage control of cancer pain. They say they are fighting ignorance among peers, patients, law enforcement and professional boards about the effects of narcotics and the need for pain control.

"You are our adversaries, panelists," Dr. John Bonnet, a cancer specialist at Scott & White hospital in Temple, told the regulators. "Would you come meet with us so we can change the law and allow the drugs to get to the patient?"

Panel members included representatives of the Texas State Board of Medical Examiners, Texas State Board of Nurse Examiners and Texas State Board of Pharmacy.

Law enforcement officers of the Texas Department of Public Safety and the federal Drug Enforcement Administration also participated.

Fred Brinkley, executive director of the pharmacy board, said regulators sympathize with the pain issue and are not interested in harassing legitimate practitioners.

But illegal diversion of narcotics to abusers must be stopped, he said.

How To Turn Six Numbers Into Six Figures.

Nowhere in the history of the world has there ever been any real significance to the number six.

There were never SIX Musketeers. There was never any movie entitled the Magnificent SIX. Nobody ever says, "Hey, homeboy, slap me SIX." There are no mentions of the big SIX automakers, and so on and so forth.

So, for the first time in the history of the world, lowly SIX is about to be elevated to a much higher level. Elevated, in fact, to millions, in a new type of game. Read on, it gets easier.

LOTTO Texas is a new game from the Texas Lottery. It's fun, it's exciting and it's easy to play.

You pick six numbers from one to fifty, and should you happen to pick the same six numbers that come up during the drawings, then you could win millions of dollars.

Now, the long version on how to play LOTTO Texas:

Step number one.

Go to your LOTTO Texas retailer. You can only play where you see the red and yellow sign that says LOTTO Texas.

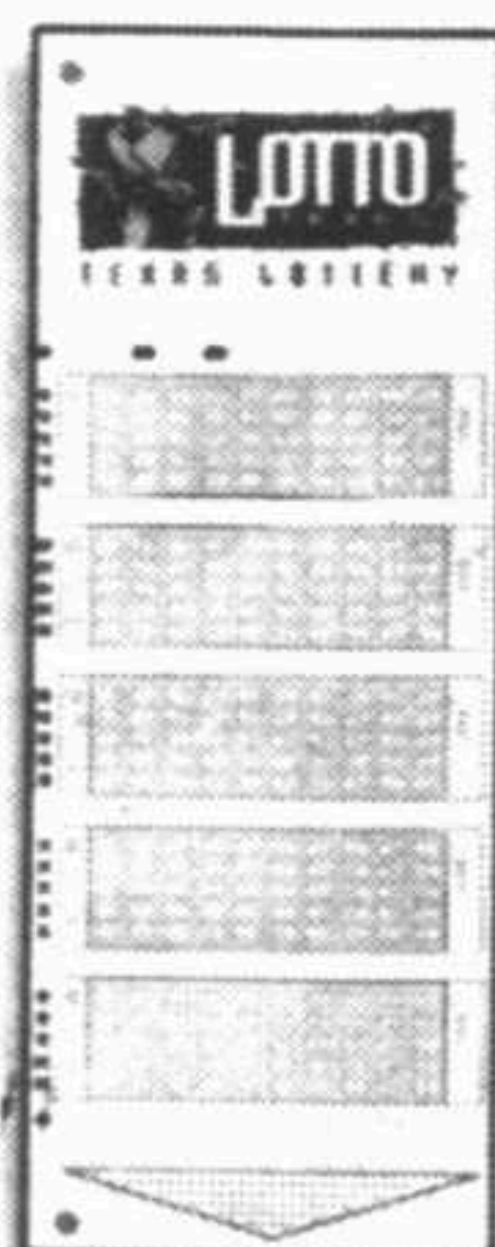

It shouldn't be a big problem.

There are thousands of LOTTO Texas retailers all over the state. Look at the lower right-hand part of this page. That is our new logo. (We're quite proud.) Wherever you see that sign, you know you can play LOTTO Texas.

Still with us? Great.

Step number two.

While you are at the retailer, pick up a playslip. There's a picture of it on this page. You may find the playslip in a stand called a play station. If not, just ask for one. Step number three. (My, we are moving right along now, aren't we?) Choose SIX of the numbers on the playslip from one to fifty. You can also play up to five times on each playslip. You must completely fill in the numbers you choose on the playslip with a BLACK OR BLUE BALLPOINT PEN OR A PENCIL ONLY. The pencil below is free, and it will work quite nicely.

Also, do not erase any of the mistakes you make. Just fill in the VOID box on that play and you will not be charged for it.

Step number four.

(Past the halfway mark.) Take a dollar (that's how much it costs to play LOTTO Texas) and give it and the playslip to the retailer. In just a few seconds, you will be handed a ticket that verifies which numbers you picked. Please remember: sign the back of your ticket so no one else can cash it in.

Step number five.

You can tune in to the televised drawings on Wednesday and Saturday nights at 9:58 p.m. CST to see how well you did. If you picked all six of the numbers that are randomly chosen on the ball machine, then you could be a millionaire. If you miss the drawing, those numbers will be posted the next day at all LOTTO Texas retailers and in your local newspaper.

The jackpots are paid out to the winners in 20 annual installments. You can also win second and third prizes by matching five out of six numbers or four out of six numbers. Match three out of six and you'll win $3 automatically. If you win up to $599, you can collect your prize at any LOTTO Texas retailer. All winnings of $600 or more can be claimed at any of the Texas Lottery claim centers in any of the cities listed on the back of a How To Play brochure for LOTTO Texas. (That list is a little long for this ad.) You will also find the odds printed in that brochure. You can claim prizes through the mail, as well, by using a claim form that you pick up from any Texas Lottery retailer. Please make copies of the front and the back of your ticket before you send it in. The Texas Lottery is not responsible for tickets lost in the mail. All prizes must be claimed within 180 days of the drawing.

Finally, LOTTO Texas can be played up to 10 drawings (five weeks) in advance. If you want to play the same numbers for several drawings in a row, fill in the multi-draw box on your playslip with however many drawings you would like to play. You must be 18 years or older to play. And when you are watching the televised drawings, your heart may pound a little. Your palms may sweat. Please do remember to have fun.

Latest survey shows increase in fatalities among asthma sufferers

CHICAGO (AP) — Childhood asthma causes 10 million missed days of school a year and 200,000 hospitalizations, according to a study released Thursday that provides the first nationwide look at asthma's effect on youngsters.

"Asthma is the most common chronic disease in childhood. It's the leading cause of days lost from school," said the lead author, Dr. William R. Taylor of the national Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

According to the study, 4.3 percent of children under age 18 suffered from the potentially fatal respiratory disease in 1988, the latest year of the National Health Interview Survey. That compares with 3.2 percent of children with asthma in 1981, the year of the previous survey, the researchers said.

That means 2.7 million children suffered from asthma in 1988, said Taylor and co-author Paul W. Newacheck of the University of California, San Francisco.

The study found that childhood asthma resulted in 10.1 million missed school days that year, 7.3 million days restricted to bed, 12.9 million contacts with doctors and 200,000 hospitalizations totaling 1.9 million days.

Black youngsters suffered more severe impairment from asthma and were hospitalized more frequently than others, the study found.

That may be because blacks, who lack insurance more often than whites, are more likely to go without a doctor and to wait until the last minute, relying on emergency room care, Taylor said in a telephone.

All children with asthma would benefit from earlier care, he said. Taylor said studies show educating both patient and family would help children get care earlier.

Thirty percent of all children with asthma had to limit their activity, the researchers said.

Black children suffered asthma at a rate 25 percent higher than whites. Also, almost 8 percent of black children with asthma were unable to perform major activities, five times the proportion of white asthmatic children unable to perform major activities.

Besides getting less routine medical care, black children are more likely than others to live where known asthma triggers exist, including pets, dust, pollution and household members who smoke, he said.

The CDC reported last month that the national rate of asthma deaths among all ages rose 46 percent during the 1980s, to about 4,700 deaths in 1989, the last year of the study. About 10 million Americans have asthma.

Dr. Kevin B. Weiss, an asthma researcher at George Washington University, said regional reports have shown childhood asthma on the rise, but that the Pediatrics study provides the first nationwide evidence.

Weiss, who was not part of the study, reported in March that the disease's total financial cost to the country is $6.2 billion.

Scientists are unsure why asthma is on the rise.

Agents stop Cuban aid caravan

LAREDO (AP) — After a scuffle and standoff at the border, federal agents agreed Friday to let a relief convoy for Cuba cross into Mexico.

Before the agreement was reached, three people were arrested as the approximately 50-member group was met by federal agents, including Customs, Treasury and border agents.

Agents arrested a woman accused of biting a federal officer, a Mexican television cameraman accused of assaulting a Laredo police officer and a minister.

The trio was taken to the Webb County Jail for processing, said U.S. Customs agent Leonard Lindheim. Laredo police would not immediately identify those arrested.

"We're trying to diffuse just a bad situation. We don't want anybody here hurt," said Lindheim.

Treasury Department spokesman Bob Levine said the activists could face civil or criminal sanctions for defying an embargo on exports to Cuba.

Under the civil sanctions, violators would be subject to fines of up to $50,000. The criminal sanctions include fines of up to $250,000 for individuals and up to 10 years in prison.

The activists had promised to circumvent the required licensing procedure to take the goods to Cuba and were blocked at the bridge by agents who scuffled over possession of the goods.

All of the goods seized by authorities were eventually returned to activists.

"We had not intended to move it this way. It was just incredible when we came down here (to the bridge) and literally saw an army of federal agents," said Tom Hansen, a coordinator of Pastors for Peace, a Minneapolis-based religious group.

U.S. Customs spokeswoman Judy Turner had said anyone caught successfully smuggling goods into communist Cuba could face criminal charges after they returned to the United States.

Treasury officials later told caravan leaders that they would be allowed to cross with their goods once they provided a detailed list of the supplies they were carrying.

Hansen said the rest of the caravan would present officials with a list and allow the vehicles to be inspected.

Report: Governor wants official fired

HUNTSVILLE (AP) — Gov. Ann Richards on Friday denied reports that she wants the chief of the Texas prison system's internal affairs division to resign because she and some of her key aides may have been targets of prison probes.

In a copyright story Friday, the Houston Chronicle quoted highly placed prison sources who requested anonymity as saying Jim Gant Jr.'s resignation is imminent.

"It's over. It's just a matter of when and how," one source said.

"That's not true," Richards said Friday, adding she has never asked Gant to resign or asked anyone to fire him.

"I'm supposed to choose people to serve on the board to run that prison system and I expect them to take appropriate action," Richards said. "The minute I hear about anything, I do exactly what I can do and that is get in touch with the people that do the operations and tell them, 'Here's what I've heard. Here's what is going on. Now you take some action and make decisions.'"

But Richards spokesman Chuck McDonald told the Chronicle the governor was upset by reports that she had been investigated and that her criminal justice adviser, former Travis County Sheriff Doyle Bailey, had been followed by Gant's investigators.

"McDonald said the governor ordered prison system executive director James Lynaugh and Gant 'to get to the bottom of whatever was going on' after hearing that internal affairs had looked into her background."

Bushes prepare for move to Texas

By Tony Freeman and William E. Clayton Jr.
Associated Press writers

HOUSTON — When President Bush and his wife Barbara leave the White House, they will stay in home owned by old family friend Jack Fitch while a retirement house is built on the vacant lot they own in the Tanglewood area.

After a brief search for new quarters following the president's unsuccessful bid for re-election, Bush and his wife have opted to build on the lot they own in the West Oaks community.

Mrs. Bush announced the building plans in response to shouted questions from reporters on Thursday while she was waiting to show president-elect Bill Clinton's wife, Hillary, around the White House family quarters.

"We are building ... on the lot you all said so rudely we couldn't build on," Mrs. Bush said.

The 5,280 square-foot lot at 9 West Oaks Drive South was sold to the Bushes about three years ago by Fitch, who lives next door. At the time of the sale, he said, the Bushes had an option to purchase an additional 4,320 square feet, and they are "in the process of exercising that option right now."

Mrs. Bush said she and her husband will rent a home while their new one is being built. Asked where, she said, "None of your business."

But Fitch said the Bushes will live in his old home, which is two doors down from the site they will build on.

Fitch said Barbara Bush stayed with him and his wife Bobbie over the weekend while house hunting in the area.

"The reason she was looking at other houses is that this (the need for shelter) came on fairly quick and the new house would not have been ready by the time they had to move," Fitch said. "Being old friends we said they could stay in our old house while their new one is being built."

The Fitches have recently moved into a townhouse they built on the same lot as their old house, leaving it vacant and available to the First Family.

Fitch said West Oaks is a small community of about 30 houses, which used to stand on fairly large lots. But the trend recently is toward smaller lots and self-standing townhouses, which is what Fitch believes the Bushes plan to build.

Fitch described the house he will rent to the Bushes as "substantial" and just a "regular house."

Arabs threaten to quit peace talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arab negotiators said Friday they may quit Mideast peace talks if the Clinton administration is unable to persuade Israel to come to terms over land and Palestinian rights.

At a news conference, the Palestinian and Syrian negotiators said their participation in the talks was not open-ended. "Our patience cannot last forever," Muwaffiq al-Allaf, head of the Syrian delegation, said. "We are the parties whose territory is under occupation, so waiting is not in our interest."

The Syrian diplomat said his delegation would return to the table Dec. 7 at the invitation of the United States and Russia, the cosponsors of the 13-month-old peace conference. And, al-Allaf said, Syria would give "reasonable time" to the Clinton administration to push for a settlement.

"Three or four months after the arrival of the new president to the White House, I think if the Arabs see the rounds are continuing without progress, then it would be time to reconsider the whole thing," he said.

Similarly, Haidar Abdel-Shafi, the chief Palestinian negotiator, said "we don't see ourselves engaged in an open-ended negotiating process, and certainly there is going to be a limit."

He called on the United States, Russia and other nations to "assume their role" with Israel on what he called absolute violations of principles of justice.

"Especially after the inauguration of the present administration, then really we have to evaluate the matter and see whether it is any more profitable to continue with this peace process," Abdel-Shafi said.

"Some pressure should be exerted on Israel," he said.

Syria has made no headway in the talks toward recovering the Golan Heights, a strategic enclave it lost in the 1967 war with Israel. The Palestinians, meanwhile, want Israel to begin transferring to them control of Jerusalem, the West Bank and Gaza for the establishment of a Palestinian state.

By contrast, Jordanian negotiator Abdul Salam Majali said his talks with Israel had been useful. The two sides have worked out an agenda to tackle such problems as water supplies and refugees.

Your Horoscope

By Jeane Dixon

HAPPY BIRTHDAY! IN THE NEXT YEAR OF YOUR LIFE:

New grounds for a closer collaboration between partners or associates will be found now. Forget past grievances and suggest a generous financial arrangement. Your career surges ahead early in 1993. Investments will require careful attention to detail in March. Consolidate your resources and wait until next June or July to forge a new business alliance. A September vacation proves especially delightful. A friend could become part of your household in late fall.

CELEBRITIES BORN ON THIS DATE: actresses Goldie Hawn and Marlo Thomas, actors David Hemmings and Laurence Luckinbill.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Continue to work at what you want to accomplish. If you do not give up, you will be successful. A good-neighbor policy pays nice dividends. Be subtle. Quiet diplomacy works miracles!

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Ignore any rumors and go ahead with a project that will produce needed income. Experience is the best teacher! Any "solution" that carries an element of risk is unlikely to work.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): The emphasis today is on protecting your assets. Try to think of every possibility while mapping out a policy for dealing with the unexpected. Tomorrow will be a busy day.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): You will breathe easier once you successfully evade a stormy confrontation. Those dearest to you can be counted on to provide both moral support and practical advice.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): A change of scenery will take your mind off a matter that is finished. Those close to you need a few pointers in connection with income and expenses. First, learn frugality yourself!

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): A good day to go with the flow. Let mate set your social agenda. A wedding or birthday party may be featured. New friendships are possible.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Your dreams could come true if you strive harder to make them materialize. Get friends to back you. Attend a gathering of people who share the same ideals and sense of purpose.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Dig up facts no one can dispute and you will persuade even the hard-to-convince! Although doing your own research can be an exhausting business, the results are great.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Travel plans fall neatly into place. There could be a lot going on socially this weekend. Cultivating new friendships helps you forge powerful bonds.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Keep reaching for that brass ring. Mixing business with pleasure has never been easier. Bargains seem to leap into your lap! You surge ahead of a competitor.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Join a special group today; you can talk your way into many hearts. Accentuating your social life makes work less confining. Call a halt if someone tries to manipulate you.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Those in commerce should be pleased with the pace of business today. Focus on healthy recreational activities. Sharing your dreams with those nearest and dearest to you creates new rapport.

Gen. Powell extends praise and gratitude at Gettysburg GETTYSBURG, Pa. — Gen. Colin Powell gave thanks at the Gettysburg National Cemetery for the Union victory and Abraham Lincoln's eloquent address.

"Father Abraham would be doubly proud," Powell said during a ceremony Thursday marking the 129th anniversary of the Gettysburg Address.

"His tireless efforts as commander in chief reaped great rewards, for America, for the world, for African-Americans and for all Americans who love this country."

Powell is the first black to serve as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the first black to speak at the event held since 1938 at the cemetery where Lincoln gave his address on Nov. 19, 1863.

Although 186,000 blacks fought in the Civil War, "our nation still gave them less than their due," Powell said.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Oprah Winfrey's father said he may give her peanuts for a wedding present.

"I don't know if she has any peanuts up there," Vernon Winfrey said Thursday, referring to Chicago where his daughter lives.

"She used to like peanuts. I might give her some peanuts."

Ms. Winfrey plans to marry businessman Stedman Graham, and that's just fine with her 59-year-old dad, a Nashville barber.

"We've met five or six times," he said of Graham. "He even stayed over at the house a night or two. Nice fellow."

Graham and the television talk show host haven't set a wedding date.

DALLAS — Radio host Morton Downey, Jr. won't be allowed to broadcast from the sixth floor of the former Texas school book depository.

Dallas County Judge Lee Jackson and several county commissioners said they were stunned to discover Thursday that Downey planned the show Nov. 23 without their permission.

The building, where authorities said Lee Harvey Oswald fired at President Kennedy, is owned by the county. The sixth floor, used by Oswald, is now a museum of artifacts about the Nov. 22, 1963, assassination.

Downey, a former trash TV host, set up the broadcast of his syndicated show through the Dallas County Historical Foundation, which operates the Sixth Floor Exhibit, and local radio station KGBS-AM.

"I understand the sensitivity of the assassination," said Don Walker, vice president and general manager of KGBS. "But if they're that sensitive about it, they should have never made a place called the 'Sixth Floor.'"

County officials initially denied Oliver Stone access to the floor for "JFK," but he made a $10,000 donation to the exhibit and was allowed to film there.

DES MOINES, Iowa — Willie Nelson, preparing for his sixth Farm Aid concert, said rural America needs help more than ever.

"The situation is worse than it's ever been," he said Thursday by telephone from Nashville, Tenn.

"Agriculture is just the bottom rung on the economic ladder. Once the farmers go under, then everyone over them starts," Nelson said.

Next year's 12-hour marathon concert is scheduled for April 24 in Ames.

Nelson said it's not difficult to persuade fellow performers to keep showing up. Neil Young, John Conlee and John Mellencamp have been with Nelson since the first concert in 1985 and will be back again next year.

BOCA RATON, Fla. — Michael Dukakis didn't get a first 100 days as president, but he'll teach a course about Bill Clinton's.

The former Massachusetts governor confirmed Thursday he'll return in January to Florida Atlantic University.

Dukakis, a Democrat defeated by President Bush in 1988, is working up a special course called "The First 100 Days: The Making of a New President."

"I'll be arriving just as the new administration takes over," he said. "It's a great opportunity to look at the transition — how Clinton is putting his administration together, how he is building his congressional relationship."

Dukakis taught at the school last year. In addition to the special course, he'll teach an undergraduate political science course and a course for the Lifelong Learning Society, a group of mostly senior citizens affiliated with the university.

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE:

U.S. senators experience first-hand problems with MIA search

RACH GIA, Vietnam (AP) — American senators who visited two prisons and a remote mountain area on Friday found no evidence of American POWs but came away impressed by Vietnam's new spirit of cooperation.

The senators also returned with an appreciation of how hard it is to track down the missing in a land of jungles, hills and tropical rice paddies, a quarter-century after they disappeared.

Two of them, Sen. John Kerry, D-Mass., and Sen. Hank Brown, R-Colo., flew to the wrong spot in pursuit of a tip that American servicemen had been seen there.

Despite the logistical problems, Kerry, Brown and Sen. Tom Daschle, D-S.D., said they sensed that the unprecedented cooperation they had obtained earlier in the week from officials in Hanoi was matched at the grass-roots level.

"I think in the last five days Vietnam proved its seriousness in answering questions and bent over backwards in showing its willingness to help," said Kerry, the head of a Senate committee on POWs and MIAs. "I think in every regard today our expectations were met," he said.

The three senators are visiting Southeast Asia to seek more information on the 2,265 Americans unaccounted for in Indochina since the Vietnam War.

Vietnam, which is seeking international help to rebuild its economy, hopes to end the trade and diplomatic embargo the United States imposed after the Communist north took over the south in 1975. Washington has said it won't change its poli-

After receiving cooperation from Vietnamese officials in Hanoi earlier in their trip, Kerry recommended that President Bush reward Vietnam.

The United States is not expected to normalize ties soon, but Bush could relax the trade embargo or do other financial favors for Vietnam.

Kerry and Brown flew by helicopter to the southwestern city of Rach Gia, where they spoke with officials and inmates of the local prison. No Americans were found, and there was no word that any had ever been seen.

Prisoners said they had heard of no American servicemen. A warden, Thai Cong Binh, also reported that the Briton and American had been held there.

Aide pleads guilty in HUD scandal

WASHINGTON (AP) — An assistant to former Sen. Edward W. Brooke pleaded guilty Friday to aiding and abetting false statements by Brooke to investigators in the HUD influence-peddling scandal.

Brooke, R-Mass., who was the first black elected to the Senate since Reconstruction, was a private lawyer when he and Elaine Richardson were questioned by investigators in 1988.

Brooke, who served in the Senate from 1967 to 1979, has not been charged. Brooke could not be

In her plea before U.S. District Judge Thomas Penfield Jackson, Ms. Richardson admitted she "knowingly and willfully" remained silent while Brooke lied.

She pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor that carries a maximum penalty of a year in prison and a fine of up to $100,000. No sentencing date was set and Richardson agreed to cooperate with investigators working for Independent Counsel Arlin M. Adams.

The plea agreement said that Brooke falsely stated that neither he nor Richardson tried to influence a HUD official to allocate housing units to an owner-developer who was Brooke's client.

Brooke also denied lobbying to have HUD units allocated to the Worcester, Mass., Housing Authority, for use by a client of the former senator.

Three individuals and a company have pleaded guilty in Adams' investigation. There are four pending prosecutions.

Man sues over Cosby's 'You Bet Your Life' title

By Will Tizard
N.Y. Times News Service

BURBANK, Calif. — A retired newspaper columnist has filed an $11 million lawsuit over the use of the title "You Bet Your Life" for Bill Cosby's new television show, court records show.

Leo Guild claims that he has had the rights to the title since the 1940s, according to the lawsuit, filed Wednesday in Burbank Superior Court against CBS, Cosby and producer, The Carsey-Werner Co.

Officials for Carsey-Werner disputed the lawsuit's claims.

"We feel confident that we have the rights," said Joella West, senior vice president for business and legal affairs for Carsey-Werner. CBS attorneys did not return calls for comment.

Cosby's spokesman, David Brokaw, said that he knew nothing of the case and that the comedian could not be reached for comment.

Guild's attorney, William Greene, said that the retired show business publicist and biographer

'We feel confident that we have the rights.'

—Joella West

wrote a column on statistics and probability, called "You Bet Your Life," first published in 1948.

Guild claims the name of the column is his intellectual property.

The CBS program features Cosby in a role made famous by the late Groucho Marx. Marx's quiz show of the same name was broadcast on NBC from 1950 to 1961.

Greene said that his client reached a cash settlement with NBC over the Marx version. Greene said that similar efforts to settle with CBS, Cosby and Carsey-Werner failed.

Oklahoma town sides with girl who killed her father

By Judy Gibbs
Associated Press Writer

CEMENT, Okla. — Pink ribbons decorate public buildings in this small southwestern Oklahoma farming town. It's the townsfolk's way of showing support for a 16-year-old girl who killed her abusive father.

Even the prosecutor called the case a tragedy and recommended it be handled in juvenile court. But a Caddo County judge ruled Wednesday that Billie Joe Powell, a quiet, dishwater blonde, will stand trial as an adult.

Special Judge Robert Gardner gave no reason for his ruling and declined further comment because the defense is appealing.

Support for Miss Powell appears to be unanimous in her hometown of about 600 people, where rumors of her abuse abounded.

"As far as the town is concerned, the division is between those who want to give her a medal and turn her loose, and those who just want to turn her loose and get her the help she needs," says Mayor Jerry Dallas.

Miss Powell was arrested at her family's dilapidated, one-story frame house Aug. 26 after her mother called authorities to report the shooting.

Dallas got one of the first calls, and was at the Powell home that morning before the police. He found Billy Ray Powell, 47, dead in his bed.

Miss Powell was sitting in a corner. "She was in a mild state of shock. She was coherent. She told me what happened," Dallas says.

According to Dallas and public defender Melody Brannon, the shooting followed a night of emotional abuse.

"It's been called an 'argument' but it was not. It was an unrelenting assault. He was literally on top of her" yelling in her face for hours, Ms. Brannon said.

The father was lying on his bed — "still yelling at her," Ms. Brannon said — when he apparently turned to reach for cigarettes on a nearby table. That's when Miss Powell stepped forward with a single-shot .22-caliber rifle, aimed and fired, Dallas said. Powell was hit once in the back.

At the recent hearing on Miss Powell's juvenile status, their grandmother testified she often saw the father fondle both Billie Joe and an older sister who has since left home. A neighbor said Miss Powell once ran to her home in hysterics, wanting to hide from her father's advances.

"We knew there was a family problem — a problem in the home. But I didn't know it was a father problem," says school Superintendent Jesse Middick.

Miss Powell got no special counseling or other help at school because "she didn't require any," Middick said.

"Her discipline file is completely empty. As far as I can tell, Billie Joe was never even corrected to the point of being told to be quiet," Middick said.

But the evidence was tangible enough to the Department of Human Services, which removed Miss Powell from the home in January 1989, the night she ran to her neighbor's for protection.

After 18 months in a foster home, a court returned her to her parents over objections of DHS case workers and psychologists.

According to Miss Powell's own confession, she was not physically abused again after returning home in 1990. She told investigators she killed her father because she was "tired of him being around" and "couldn't stand him any longer."

counts, she is quiet and polite. Cement High School Principal Dale Osborn calls her "just an average young lady. She never had a problem discipline-wise. Her attendance was good. Her grades were average."

Bill Harris, who owns the Main Street grocery store, said Miss Powell didn't dress well and after school, she went promptly to her home several miles east of town. He believes it was to appease her strict father.

Assistant District Attorney Richard Kirby said the girl has shown no remorse. Mayor Dallas doesn't find that surprising. "If what she's saying is true, I'm not sure I'd show remorse either," he said.

"In my opinion, she had no other alternative" but to shoot her father, said Middick. She had turned to the state for protection once before and was sent back home.

"This little girl had absolutely nowhere to turn other than becoming a street urchin. And in Cement, Oklahoma, we don't have street urchins," he said.

"We're not afraid of her," added Middick. "I don't think you'll find anyone in town who wouldn't say the same thing."

WHAT! NEWSPAPER ROUTES?

That's right...one of the best part-time income supplements around. Doesn't conflict with your "day job." Doesn't require day care. And it's dependable income.

Fact: 95% of our Distributors NOW are ADULTS supplementing their income with Route Distributorships!

Fact: Our Distributors make from $400-$800 monthly AFTER expenses, some even more!

The catch? You've gotta be able to handle early mornings and weekends! And when you take a few days off, you'll need to find a substitute for yourself.

So...are you serious about MOONLIGHTING, or what? If you are, and you have dependable transportation and can put up a $100 deposit.
