If it is more crowded than the past Saturday, City Manager George Patterson says he would prefer not to be around the State Fair of Texas this weekend. But of course that was only a warm-up for the 70th annual Texas-Oklahoma football game, which comes up at the mid-way point of the fair.

Tickets to that game were reported selling for around $150 each. In fact, people have been advertising for them for several months. There likely is a lot of scalping going on and probably will be right up till game-time. And, we are told, there is such a thing as a legal ticket scalper. He must be registered, or licensed, or something—sort of like a lobbyist at Austin or Washington.

Mickey Nunley says a person who claims to be knowledgeable about the situation told him that the best place to find tickets at the last minute to the OU-Texas game is at the Dallas jail. People who have bought tickets and then get themselves locked up on the eve of the game often will part with them at attractive prices, so the story goes. However, we would be reluctant to depend on that procedure for acquiring tickets, especially when it required a drive from Snyder to Dallas to find out.

Who has the cleanest thumb in America this week? It's bound to be George Allen, coach of the Washington Redskins team in the National Football League. Allen has a well-known habit of touching a thumb to his tongue as he watches his team perform from the sidelines, and the tougher the going on the field, the more the thumb gets licked. It got quite a workout Sunday afternoon before the Philadelphia Eagles finished with the Skins.

This is a good (or bad) time of year for rattlesnakes to be on the prowl and according to a veteran reptile authority, hunters and others who frequent the out-of-doors at this season can avoid rattlers by knowing their habits. Joseph Laszlo, head of the San Antonio Zoo's reptile garden, says rattlesnakes have set patterns of activity, which can be anticipated, depending on the weather, time of day and season of the year.

For example, rattlesnakes take cover during extreme hot and cold weather, but can be expected to be on the move at any time of day or night when the surface temperature ranges from 70 to 88 degrees. Also, the rattlesnake often moves around at about sundown, because that is his favorite time to search for food.

And if there are a lot of rats, mice and rabbits around, it is almost certain that rattlesnakes will be in abundance also.—WACIL McNAIR.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Tuesday, Oct. 7, the 280th day of 1975. There are 85 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1963, President John Kennedy signed the nuclear test-ban treaty with Britain and the Soviet Union.

On this date:

In 1765, the Stamp Act Congress convened in New York to draw up Colonial grievances against England.

In 1898, U. S. troops occupied the Cuban city of Havana during the Spanish-American War.

In 1908, the island of Crete proclaimed union with Greece.

In 1935, the League of Nations declared Italy an aggressor in Ethiopia.

In 1940, German forces occupied Romania in World War II.

In 1950, the United Nations General Assembly approved an Allied advance north of the 38th Parallel in the Korean War.

Ten years ago: Talks in London on Rhodesia's demand for independence reached a deadlock.

Five years ago: A leftist general, Juan Jose Torres, took power as President of Bolivia after a show of force that toppled his rightwing opponents.

One year ago: Racial tension was rising in South Boston as crowds attacked blacks.

Heritage Exhibit Launched

Work began this morning on the Heritage '76 Exhibit at the Scurry County Coliseum, planned in observance of the Bicentennial.

Rod Waller, owner of Arrow Construction Co., is furnishing a ditching machine to be used to lay the electric and water lines.

The Heritage '76 Exhibit is scheduled to be completed by the first of the year.

Delbert Downing, general chairman of the Bicentennial-centennnial observance, explained this morning that the exhibit would contain a variety of things.

"There will be boulders representing each state in the order they came in the union, a large fountain at about the spot Texas came into the union, and old farming equipment representative of long ago," he stated.

A small chapel will be located at the exit of the Heritage '76 Exhibit path, and boulders representing the 13 original colonies will start the walk through Heritage '76.

Downing added that much of the work is being done by people volunteering, such as Waller,

Revision Of Food Stamp Plan Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ford administration proposed today that the government eliminate the food stamp program's complicated system of calculating eligibility and benefits on the basis of loophole-prone itemized deductions from gross earnings.

Assistant Agriculture Secretary Richard L. Feltner told a Senate Agriculture subcommittee the department is proposing a standard deduction from gross earnings after taxes.

Feltner said the proposal would speed up processing, reduce paperwork and put a ceiling on eligibility for the $5.8 billion-a-year program so that "we can redistribute program benefits to the most needy and reinforce the original program objectives.

Feltner was the first witness as the subcommittee opened four days of hearings on charges by some senators and the secretary of the Treasury that the food stamp program is out of control.

He did not specify what size standard deduction the administration was considering or what the uniform purchase price might be. It is known, however, that he recommended to President Ford a deduction of between $50 and $75 per month and the maximum legal price of 30 per cent of net income.

The current average total deduction using itemization is $56.05 per month, he said.

Subcommittee Chairman James B. Allen, D-Ala., in his opening statement called the program "a financial nightmare" but promised that the hearings would be "neither a whitewash nor a vendetta."

Feltner returns to the hearings Thursday to present in detail the White House plan, which has not been formally approved yet by the President.

OUTLINED BY PRESIDENT FORD

Congress Working On Tax Cut Proposals

By EDMOND Le BRETON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chief tax law architect in the House challenged President Ford today to say where he wants $28 billion cut from government spending in exchange for his proposed $28 billion tax cut, saying it is "preposterous" to expect Congress to act otherwise.

Chairman Al Ullman, D-Ore., of the Ways and Means Committee delivered the message to Treasury Secretary William E. Simon as Congress went to work on tax reduction legislation, including the $28 billion proposal which Ford called "the biggest single tax cut in our history."

However, Simon, in a quickly arranged appearance before the committee, insisted that Congress pledge itself to a $395 billion ceiling on spending, thus promising the spending cut, and leave details to be worked out in discussions with the administration.

The $28 billion total for 1976, which includes tax cuts totaling $22.9 billion already in effect that Ford proposes to extend, does not contain any provision for rebates. But individual taxpayers would get about $2.6 billion more in tax reductions in 1976 than in 1975.

Tables provided by the White House show that, if Ford's individual tax reductions are enacted, a family of four with income of $15,000 would be able to reduce its taxes by $287 more in 1976 than it can this year.

If the President's proposal is approved, the effect would show in tax withholding from paychecks beginning Jan. 1, 1976, and on tax returns due April 15, 1977.

As the House Ways and Means Committee took up various tax-cut proposals, there were some Democratic doubts that the legislative branch can meet Ford's request for a $28-billion reduction in government spending to match his proposed tax cut.

But the President told Republican congressional leaders at a White House meeting he will veto 100 bills if he has to to cut government spending in exchange for the tax cut.

The Republican leaders listed future anticipated increases in medicare, medicaid, food stamps and categorical grants in aids possible areas for reduction in spending growth.

Ford used the word "fight" repeatedly and declared that he believes his tax cut-spending cut plan will succeed because the public wants a tax cut.

Rep. Robert H. Michel, R-Ill., told reporters after the White House meeting: "The President said if he has to veto 100 bills to hold down spending he'll do it."

"We obviously have a problem with a Democratic Congress," Michel added. "We have to do the best we can. With one-third plus one, we're making a point. Then let the people decide."

Huff Trial Begins Here

Jury selection began this morning in the trial of Freddy Charles Huff, 20, of Post, who is charged with attempted murder.

Huff allegedly struck Charles R. Sterling, 19, of Ira on the elbow with an axe July 18, on the parking lot at the Scurry County Coliseum following a rodeo dance. Huff had been released on $50,000 bond. He is being represented by Ernest Finney, an attorney from Lubbock, and Gene Dulaney of Snyder.

The case is being prosecuted by District Attorney Pete Greene. Presiding judge in 132nd District Court is Wayland Holt.

Testimony was expected to begin this afternoon.

PHONE COMPANY JOINS LINE-UP

One Rate Hike Okayed; Two Others Are Pending

The Snyder City Council last night approved one utility rate increase request, asked for an alternate proposal on another and then received a third application.

Texas Electric Service Co. was granted an increase in rates, which, the company advised, will increase its revenues here by approximately nine per cent. The request had been submitted to the council at its September meeting. The ordinance granting the request was approved on first reading last night and will be up for final action at the council's November meeting.

Lone Star Gas Company's request is for a rate increase, which the company said would result in an overall increase of 42.61 per cent and hike the monthly gas bill of the average consumer in Snyder by around $4.13 per month.

Members of the council raised several questions concerning the gas company's methods of determining values of its properties and other factors involved in establishing rates. Present to discuss the proposal with the council were Darwin Melton, local manager; C.C. Elliott of Abilene, regional manager, and Bob Redding of Dallas, who heads the company's rate-making staff. They told the council that an alternate proposal would be prepared immediately and that they would furnish any other information the council might need.

The council plans to discuss the Lone Star request further at a special work session.

Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. joined the rate increase request parade. Bill Gilliland, local manager, told the council that "continued inadequate earnings on our operations—in the face of today's high cost of doing business leave us no choice but to ask for this increase in local rates.

The new telephone rates requested in Snyder include a monthly increase in business one-party telephones from $12.85 to $15.75; residence one-party from $5.90 to $7.05; and residence two-party from $4.80 to $4.95. Business extensions would go from $1.65 to $2 monthly and residence extensions would increase from $1.10 to $1.50 each per month.

"Present rates in Snyder were established in April, 1972," Gilliland said. "Since then, taxes, salaries, wages and the

Petition Asks Ordinance To Curb Obscene Films

A group of Snyder citizens last night presented a petition to the city council calling for an ordinance "outlawing the commercial showing of obscene or lewd motion picture films" and "the sale of obscene or lewd magazines and books within the city limits. . ."

The group got a friendly reception and a pledge by the council that the city staff would work with a committee of citizens in any way possible in seeking a method to comply with the group's request. However, it was emphasized during the course of discussion that the proposal will require considerable study.

Ernie Armstrong, city attorney, told the group that for 3½ years he was involved in prosecution of cases involving alleged obscene motion pictures at Temple and he enumerated some of the problems. He said that the state penal code covers the subject and it also prohibits a city from adopting an ordinance which establishes a penalty for any offense which already is covered by the state law.

Moreover, he said that federal court decisions have drawn a line between "hard core" and "soft core" pornography, but that definitions are somewhat obscure.

The city council here could pass an ordinance prohibiting the showing of X-rated movies, but it could not prescribe a penalty, according to the state penal code, Armstrong said, and this obviously would be of little value in solving the problem cited by the petitioners. Also, he reminded that a city ordinance can only apply a maximum penalty of a $200 fine for any offense.

Armstrong said that the way is open for prosecution under the state penal code for the showing of "hard core" pornography. However, he said that the film which sparked the controversy here (Panorama Blue) had been shown without complaint throughout Dallas, even in neighborhood theatres, and Dallas probably had tried as many ordinances in this field as any city in the country. He said that, based on information he had, the film in question here would not be considered "hard core" pornography under the state penal code.

Don Gressett, who served as spokesman for the citizens' group, which had asked for a place on the council agenda under the name "Committee for Decency," said there were over 2,500 names on the petitions submitted to the council. He said all of those who signed the petitions were of voting age—18 years old or older.

Others named to a special committee to work with the city staff on the issue are Roy Carter, Sam Cross, Art Feinsod, E.M. Menges, D.V. Merritt Jr., Jim Morrow, Franklin Pruitt, Avon Rushing and Ned Underwood.

Armstrong said he would be interested in receiving any information the group had obtained from other cities who have been involved in similar proposals.

In response to a question concerning a U.S. Supreme Court decision which indicated that each community could determine its own standards on such issues, Armstrong said that in general this meant that in court trials of cases involving charges of obscenity, so-called expert witnesses could not be called in from distant cities to testify as to the social or artistic value of the material in question.

Mayor W.A. Vestal said the council was as interested in curbing pornography as anyone else and that the council and staff would work with the citizens committee in every way possible.

Titsworth Service Set

East Germany, Russia Ink Pact

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany and the Soviet Union formally put their relations on a new footing today, signing a revised treaty of cooperation, friendship and assistance that drops all reference to eventual German reunification.

The pact was signed in Moscow by Soviet Communist party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev and Erich Honecker, first secretary of East Germany's Communist party.

Virtually the entire East German party and government leadership was in the Soviet capital for the signing on the occasion of East Germany's 26th anniversary as a state.

For the first time, the day was called "National Day" instead of "Day of the Republic." With the leadership out of town, East Berlin conducted a low key observation of the anniversary except for a military ceremony at what once was Germany's Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. It is now a memorial to the victims of fascism and militarism.

As reported by the official East German news agency ADN, both Honecker and Brezhnev said the changed situation in Europe made it necessary to update a 1964 East German-Soviet agreement. It still had nine years to go.

ADN said the new agreement has these features:

—The inviolability of state borders is paramount to European security and the borders of the Warsaw Pact states are not to be changed.

—East Germany and the Soviet Union will maintain and develop what were called their "ties" to West Berlin on the basis of the 1971 agreement on Berlin signed by the Soviet Union, United States, Britain and France. This stressed the Communist view that West Berlin is not a part of West Germany and may not be governed by it.

—Dropped from all reference was the heretofore stated goal of a German peace treaty along with the possibility of the two Germanies one day coming together in a peaceful and democratic manner.

Sewell Rites Here Today

Graveside rites were set for 3 p.m. today at Hillside Memorial Gardens for Mrs. Bessie Jean Sewell, 74, who died Sunday at Snyder Nursing Home. Bell-Seale Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Sewell is survived by her husband, W.J. Sewell of Snyder; a daughter, Mrs. Rosemary Davis of Snyder; a son, Albert Luckinbill of Joplin, Mo., and one grandchild.

President Flies To Knoxville, Tenn.

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford is flying to Knoxville, Tenn., today to meet with Appalachian governors and address a domestic policy conference.

The trip marked the fourth time in less than a week the President has made out-of-town appearances.

White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen said the President planned [illegible] discussions of [illegible] with the governors of Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky, North Carolina, West Virginia, [illegible] and Mississippi.

Nessen said the White House had [illegible] whether two others who were invited, Govs. George C. Wallace of Alabama and Marvin Mandel of Maryland, would be present.

He said four governors would [illegible] because of other [illegible]. They were the governors of New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and South [illegible].

[illegible] scheduled meeting with the state executives, the President [illegible] slated to field questions from participants in a White House-sponsored conference on [illegible] and economic [illegible].

While in Tennessee, the President also will be interviewed for a television broadcast.

Ford appeared at a similar White House conference in Omaha last Wednesday and made two trips Saturday, one to Elkins, W.Va., for a forest festival parade and the other to Newark, N.J., for a Republican fund-raising dinner.

Nessen announced Monday that Ford will fly to Detroit for another GOP dinner on Friday.

The President is expected to make at least two trips out of Washington next week, but details of those trips have not yet been announced.

Grieving Hijacker Surrenders

MANILA, The Philippines (AP) — A Filipino grieving over the kidnaping of his 4-year-old daughter hijacked a jetliner today and demanded to be flown to Libya, but gave up at Manila airport without firing a shot, authorities said.

All of the passengers and airline employes were reported safe after the nine-hour ordeal aboard the Philippines Airlines jet.

The man, identified as Camilo Morales, about 25, surrendered after the government "guaranteed to help the hijacker in solving his problem," according to the constabulary commander, Maj. Gen. Fidel V. Ramos.

Authorities said Morales' daughter was kidnaped a few days ago in Davao, the Philippines' second largest city, 600 miles south of Manila. Ramos said the abduction had made Morales "mentally unstable."

Police said the hijacker — armed with a .45-caliber pistol, a grenade and 160 rounds of ammunition — seized the British-built BAC-1-11 in the final minutes of a flight from Davao to Manila by claiming he had hidden a bomb aboard.

It was not immediately clear why Morales, a Christian, wanted to go to Libya, a Moslem country which has been accused by the Philippines of aiding Moslem rebels in the Mindanao region around Davao.

Skunk Rabies Increasing

The Texas Department of Health Resources has been alerted to a recent uprise in skunk rabies in Snyder and Scurry County.

The department has notified Snyder and Scurry County officials of a potential for a rabies outbreak exists in skunk population which may result in human and pet exposure.

A community program sponsored by the City of Snyder, will begin to reduce the skunk population. Vaccination of all pets, dogs and cats is strongly encouraged. Any strange acting animals should be reported to the police department.

Bank Hostages Released Safe

NEW YORK (AP) — An eight-hour siege of a Greenwhich Village bank ended with the safe release of 10 hostages and the capture of a belligerent, rambling young gunman who said he was "sympathetic" to the Symbionese Liberation Army and a "fan" of Patricia Hearst.

Ray "Cat" Olsen of Merrick, N.Y., had fired one wild shot inside the bank where he held customers and employes hostage and alternately demanded $10 million in gold, a getaway airplane and the release of Miss Hearst and three radical companions from California prisons.

"Everyone's out, everyone's all right," Deputy Police Commissioner Frank McLoughlin said Monday night moments after Olsen was distracted by a police negotiator and grabbed from the rear by other policemen who had sneaked into the bank.

The last three of the 10 hostages — six employes and four customers — were freed after Olsen's capture. Others were released at intervals during the tense siege of the Bankers Trust Co. branch that had given lower Sixth Avenue the look of an armed camp.

Armed with a pistol and a shotgun, Olsen at first claimed affiliation with the SLA, the small terrorist band which kidnaped and claimed to have converted Miss Hearst. Later, he said the idea just "popped in my head."

"I wouldn't mind being affilated with them, you know," Olsen told Scott Muni of radio station WNEW-FM in a telephone interview. "I'm sympathetic to their cause."

In reference to Miss Hearst, he said, "I don't know her personally. I'm just a fan."

He also told Muni, "I was completely broke, man. I walked in here, with two cents in my pocket. When I get broke I do crazy things."

Assistant bank manager John Moriarty, one of the hostages, described Olsen as "apparently unstable."

Police were summoned to the bank about 3 p.m. by a silent alarm or by a woman's report to a delicatessen employe next door that a robbery was underway. Their arrival cut off Olsen's avenue of escape.

He led police to believe that he had an armed companion, and in telephone conversations with reporters he reportedly said, "This is the SLA, and we've got a bank under seizure. All the hostages are in the line of fire.... We're heavily armed. I may die but so will they."

Three hostages who were released about 5 p.m. told police that Olsen was alone.

Although more than 100 policemen in uniform and plainclothes stood by at the scene, the elite police hostage unit was at the center of the highly charged drama.

And as the minutes and hours dragged on, Lt. Frank Bolz, head of the negotiating team, coaxed and wore down Olsen, who had kept his guns trained on the doorway of the bank.

After Bolz gave Olsen some food and beer, some of the hostages were freed — and Olsen began to get weary.

At one sleepy moment after drinking some of the beer, the guns slipped from Olsen's hands. The remaining hostages then grabbed the weapons and police poised at a rear staircase seized Olsen.

Olsen was to be arraigned today on charges of kidnaping, possession of dangerous weapons and attempted robbery.

Bank Robbers Still At Large

By The Associated Press

Robbers held up banks in two Texas cities Monday, fleeing with a "considerable" amount of money from the Community National Bank in Austin and $4,700 from the American Bank of Commerce in El Paso.

Both robbers remained at large today.

Austin Police Lt. Bo Gregory said a gunman wearing sunglasses entered the Community National Bank bank shortly before 2 p.m. and asked to see the president, Ben Morgan.

"When he was seated, he pulled out a .357 magnum and said, 'Call in your head cashier,'" Gregory said.

Cashier Steve Watson entered Morgan's office, and the gunman ordered him to go to the vault and "get all the 10s and 20s." Watson complied, and was forced to accompany the robber from the bank.

"He was very calm, very casual.... He said if we cooperated no one would be hurt," Morgan said of the robber, believed 40 to 45 years old.

An undisclosed amount of money was placed in a cardboard box.

Gregory said the man took Watson's car and made Watson go with him. The robber released Watson unharmed at a shopping center across the street from the bank and abandoned the car a short time later.

In the El Paso holdup, a teller said the robber was armed with a gun and handed over a note demanding money. After the bandit was given a bag filled with money, he ran through the lobby and fled through a rear door. The man, described as being in his late 20s, was last seen running toward the Mexican border.

company's investment in Snyder all have grown to the extent that we must seek this increase. The present rates are simply too low to meet the company's cost of doing business today."

He said the company had been able to hold the line on basic rates over the last three years by increased sales activities and continued technological advances in equipment and facilities. These factors, he pointed out, allowed the company to meet some of the increased costs of doing business without asking for an increase.

"The company has done all it can to keep expenses here as low as possible," Gilliland concluded.

The request was referred to the city staff, which will make a report at the next council meeting.

The council approved on first reading an ordinance changing the zoning on Lots 5 through 10, block 5; Lots 7 through 12, Block 6, and Lots 7 through 20, Block 7, in Noble Heights from an R-1 zone (residential) to a C-1 zone (commercial). A request for the change was submitted by Perry Turnbow, who said he plans to operate a retail nursery there. Turnbow also requested that an alley in Block 5, Noble Heights, be closed, and this also was approved on first reading. The zoning change had been recommended by the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Approved on second and final reading was an ordinance closing an alley in Block 1, Bassridge Addition, as requested by Mrs. John Keller.

Approved on first reading were an ordinance establishing a speed limit of 25 miles per hour in Towle Park Road between College Avenue and Beaumont Avenue, and another prohibiting parking on the west side of the Post Office between the entrance and exit to the drive-in mail deposit boxes.

A net bid of $16,281.80 by Thomas-Stanfield, the lowest of three received, was accepted for the purchase of four automobiles for the police and fire departments. The firm had submitted its bid to provide four Plymouth Gran Fury sedans.

A request for water service for Cardinal Chemical Co. on U.S. Highway 180 west of town was presented to the council. The council agreed that water service could be made available, provided the firm furnished its own line. The request was submitted by H.S. (Duke) Sampson.

Economic Move

BROOKFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Lord Sparks, the lusty lion, has become too amorous for the economic good of Chicago's Brookfield Zoo.

That's why a vasectomy is in store for the potent Lord Sparks, a zoo spokesman said.

'He will be able to do his thing but will be unable to fertilize," said Dr. Gilbert Boese.

"Doing this to Lord Sparks is an economic move as well as helping in a space problem at the zoo," Boese said. "It costs $900 a year just to feed one lion."

Action Urged On Monitors

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger urged "prompt and positive" action by Congress today to approve stationing of American monitors in the Sinai Desert.

Without congressional consent, he said, there will be no interim accord effective between Israel and Egypt.

Kissinger urged the Senate Foreign Relations Committee not to link the Sinai accord to any other undertakings by the United States. He said that for the most part, the other undertakings are statements of intention and not all are legally binding.

Kissinger said the administration's particular concern is "that statements of intention not be given a legally binding character which was not intended." Kissinger's appearance before the committee was to be followed by testimony from form Sen. J. William Fulbright, onetime chairman of the panel. The committee then may vote late today.

Kissinger assured the committee that a congressional vote for sending up to 200 American technicians to early warning stations in the Sinai "will not commit the Congress on any other issue."

Firemen Called

The Snyder Fire Department was dispatched yesterday at 12:20 p.m. to a fire in a neumatic roller three miles East of Snyder on Highway 180.

Damage to the roller, owned by Price Construction Co., was confined to the engine compartment.

Opening lead—Q♠

By Oswald & James Jacoby

It doesn't require any trouble at all to go set at three notrump. All South has to do is to win the spade lead in dummy and go right after diamonds. East will show out. West will take his ace and clear the spades and there will be no way for South to gather in nine tricks.

It is bad luck to find all four diamonds in the West hand, but a careful declarer won't be hurt by this bad luck. He will look over dummy and see that he can always score four diamond tricks unless West holds all four against him. Four in the East hand will be no trouble at all since in that case the 10 spot will be finessable.

Therefore, the careful declarer will win the first spade in his own hand and lead a low diamond.

West will be between Scylla and Charybdis. If he goes right up with the ace of diamonds he will only have one diamond trick and South will make four diamonds, three hearts and two spades. If he ducks, dummy's queen will win. South will leave diamonds to knock out the ace of clubs and make his game with three club tricks.

Ask the Jacobys

A Louisiana reader wants to know if there ever was a reward for being void of trumps.

The answer to this one is that in "Bridge" the first game of the Whist family that allowed for any bidding a player was given a small score in the honor column for "chicane" (notrumps) while "double chicagne" (both partners void) was given double that bonus.

(Do you have a question for the Jacobys? Write "Ask the Jacobys" care of this newspaper. The most interesting questions will be used in this column and writers will receive copies of JACOBY MODERN.)

Drying Is A Way Of Preserving Food

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

A good cool-weather project for do-it-yourselfers who have built everything else, perhaps, might be equipment for drying foods — oven-drying trays, dehydrators, sulfuring boxes or solar dryer.

Such equipment might be particularly useful in the event of shortages of canning-jar lids, a problem experienced recently in some areas during the height of the growing season, and it may be even more economical than freezer storage. In any event it might be fun as an experiment.

Before investing time or the money needed for building materials, one could have a trial run of drying foods in the home oven, suggests the Farm Journal's "How To Dry Fruits and Vegetables." The book provides directions for building dehydrators and other equipment as well as the instructions for drying and storing foods.

To test the idea, they advise making oven-drying trays by covering oven racks with one layer of cheesecloth. It should be pinned to the four corners, then to the front and back edges as you stretch it. Sides should be pinned around the first rung in from the edge to allow air circulation at the edges.

If you enjoy the foods you dry, you may want to use a more efficient method which might be as simple as a frame with screen. That kind of frame — a screen stapled or tacked to a butt-joint frame — can be made from almost any clean, dry, 1 by 2 scrap lumber (which is ¾ by 1½ when it is bought) that is free of pitch. Do not use yellow pine.

Aluminum screen material might be used, although some foods discolor and corrode it, but stainless steel hardware cloth (⅛ inch to ¼ inch mesh) is better although more expensive. Galvanized screen is not recommended by the farm group because the zinc and cadmium in it could cause "dangerous reactions" in contact with acid foods, they maintain. It is suggested too that screens of vinyl, copper and synthetic materials are unsuited for this purpose.

Wood slats (or dowels) may be used for the bottom of trays. Thin wood lattice, one-quarter-inch thick and about one and a half inches wide, may be nailed to frames with one-half-inch spaces between them. When small pieces of food are to be dried, the slats can be covered with cheesecloth.

A small family may need no more than that kind of tray. From 1 to 2 pounds of fresh prepared food may be spread on each square foot of tray space. A load should be no more than 4 to 6 pounds at a time and it should be distributed over two or more trays. An oven 18 inches high may hold four trays with 2½ inches of space between each tray and a minimum of three inches free at top and bottom. If an oven holds only two racks, additional trays could be used by stacking and separating them with small wood blocks. A framework to hold all trays could be built and used instead of oven racks.

The average oven temperature for drying is about 140 degrees, although different foods require different temperatures. Thermometers are needed as a check and the door must be propped open as a careful eye is kept on the food to see that it doesn't scorch.

That is one reason why people may prefer a portable electric food dehydrator. One made with half-inch plywood and 1 by 1 wood strips, 18 inches wide, 24 inches high and 24 inches deep holds five trays and is heated by nine 75-watt light bulbs, drawing "a little less than 1 kilowatt-hour of power each hour." Designed by Dale E. Kirk, agricultural engineer at Oregon State University, it uses five aluminum window screens for trays, thermostat, electric fan, aluminum foil, copper wire, butt hinges and door latch, among other things. It might cost more than $75.

There are directions also for a natural draft dehydrator which requires no thermostat.

Do-it-yourselfers in a low temperature area with dependable sunshine might enjoy building a solar dryer. The box resembles a cold frame and uses either plexiglass or glass with a single 4 by 8 foot sheet of ½ inch exterior plywood. It has vents that can be covered with nylon mesh to protect foods from insects.

Food drying may seem like a lot of work until one gets into the routine. It is easier perhaps to blanch some vegetables and toss them into the freezer or to can foods in the traditional way. But food drying has advantages — more food can be stored in less space, it travels well and it can be economical.

Cosmetics Geared To Black Skin

By Ellie Grossman

NEW YORK (NEA)—The Polished Ambers is here. No, it's not a singing group from the fifties. It's Revlon's new makeup collection geared to the black woman, who is part of a market estimated at 8 million and accounting for roughly $500 million in retail sales.

Tempted by these fresh, green numbers, cosmetic companies which traditionally catered to the white woman are dishing up shades of mocha, mahogany and toasted almond.

California-based Max Factor, for example, is planning to introduce the Rich Deep Shades into its Geminesse line in December and the Beautiful Bronzes as part of its moderately-priced UltraLucent line in January.

Even Avon is knocking on doors with a Shades of Beauty collection.

Until fairly recently, the black woman whose skin was too dark for cosmetics designed for Caucasian coloring was out of luck.

BEFORE AND AFTER— Black women of all ages are going to model and make-up seminars such as those held by Flori Roberts. Before (left) and after shots here show effectiveness of a new hairdo, use of proper eye make-up and correct cosmetics for this woman's skin tone.

"Black women were not wearing cosmetics until a few years agobecause there were no products for them," says Barbara Walden, a black dancer and actress who heads Barbara Walden Cosmetics in Los Angeles. "I have very sensitive skin and my friends kept approaching me for the cosmetics I'd had made up for myself.

"I thought, can you imagine what I can make if I sell them?" So Barbara Walden Cosmetics went into operation in 1968, and now the line, which is directed to white women as well, is carried in 35 leading department stores (and many branches) across the country.

Flori Roberts, Inc., a white-owned, black-oriented company, claims to have pioneered the business in department stores 10 years ago. "We started as a small company in New Jersey," says Dorothy Beil, public relations director, "and growth has been phenomenal. We're represented in more than 500 outlets in the country."

BARBARA WALDEN

Possibly the newest black company is Fashion Fair Cosmetics in Chicago, owned by John H. Johnson, the publisher of Ebony and Jet magazines. "We're two years old and carried in more than 300 fashion stores nationally," says director of public relations Bernadette Carey, "and we came into being because Johnson's wife saw the need for the line. Each year she travels with an Ebony fashion show and she became aware of the difficulties black models had in obtaining cosmetics on the road."

According to the experts, there are definite reasons for black cosmetics.

"There's a white pigment called titanium dioxide in most make-ups," says Diana Niles of Revlon, "that will cause them to turn gray on a black skin. This was one of the things we corrected."

And the oil in a black woman's skin (she's likely to have up to 60 per cent more oil glands in her face — but not her hair — than a white or Oriental woman) which protects her from early wrinkling, also serves to clog pores and create blemishes. So cleansing is important. And moisturizing.

"Even oily skin needs moisturizing," Barbara Walden says, "because oil glands are located well beneath the skin and the outer layers, even if oily, must be kept from drying out."

Water-base foundations tend to streak on oily skin, she explains, "because oil and water don't mix, so foundations must be formulated with this in mind."

And, although black women come "in all shades, the undertones are primarily orange and that must be reflected in foundations, blushers (to highlight cheekbones) and powders.

"My chemist and I though we had reached every tone of black skin until we came across a woman who was so dark we couldn't make her up," Miss Walden continues. "So we worked with her and found she had a lot of blue in her skin. We brought out the blue tones and when she was made up, she looked like black velvet."

Bernadette Carey of Fashion Fair says, "A woman with a dark skin needs a very intense color for it to show up. We've created colors whose intensity can be controlled by the way they're applied -- smokey shadows, deep, clear reds and burnished shades."

Lips, too, are often a problem. For each woman one lip may be lighter, or pinker, than the other and, in some cases, both lips will be darker than the rest of the complexion. Without a lip lightener or darkener to even the color, lipsticks and glosses will appear blotchy.

Now that she's being courted by the beauty business, the black customer may eventually face the question white women have had to deal with for years: why is this lipstick, or eye shadow, or whatever, different from every other? But for now, this customer is nibbling at once forbidden pastries, and the richness of the diet is probably welcome and long overdue.

Prisoners Are Learning To Sing

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — Prisoners "singing" at Oregon State Penitentiary could be dangerous business, but not in this instance. They are not squealing on fellow inmates; they are 13 men learning to sing folk songs.

Helmut Plant, professor of German, leads a group of volunteers from the University of Oregon's language department in teaching "International Folk Singing," a course developed to expose the prison students to the sounds of various languages.

At each class meeting one folk song is learned in each of four languages: French, German, Italian and Spanish. After a short break, it is request time, opportunity to review previously learned foreign songs and enjoy some American folk songs.

"They are very good. Some are excellent singers; the emotion they put into songs is tremendous," said Plant of his inmate students.

Speech Stickler Refuses To 'Have Sex'

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1975 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Someone wrote to say that he was irritated by people who used the expression "making love" when they meant "having sex." The complainer pointed out that the couple who met at a cocktail party and went to a motel to "make love" did NOT "make love"; they had sex, and "love" had nothing to do with it.

Well, now it's my turn to complain: They did not "have sex"; they had "sexual intercourse."

Everybody has sex. A newborn baby has sex. The sex is either male or female.

Sex is not something one DOES. It is something one IS!

STICKLER IN OTTUMWA

DEAR STICKLER: You're right, of course. But some people are hung up by the graphic (though correct) terminology, "sexual intercourse." "Had sex" is easier to say and communicates the same message, so let's live and let people have sex or make love—and who cares?

DEAR ABBY: Herewith a suggestion that "dirty old man" be retired from further use and "dirty young woman" be substituted.

I walked into the local supermarket yesterday and found myself surrounded by a forest of bare legs, bare backs, bare bellies and halter tops. They were all women and girls who seemed to be very proud of every inch of exposed flesh.

The men in the store were reasonably well covered. If a man were to expose that much of himself in public, he would be quickly placed in confinement and labeled a "dirty old man."

Why not women?

YOURS FOR EQUALITY

DEAR YOURS: Your letter was marked Iowa City, Iowa, where it's hot enough in summer to fry an egg on the sidewalk, so I can't fault the women for their bare backs, legs and bellies. If a man chose to expose that much (and some men do), I'd call him sensible, not "dirty."

DEAR ABBY: It was a help to me to read your recent letter from the lady who was disillusioned by the delay in repayment of a small debt.

I recently had a somewhat similar experience. My solution was to reinstate a policy I formulated years ago and had partially forgotten.

To wit: Grant a loan only when you are secretly able to consider it a gift. Then, when the borrower pays it back, you will be pleasantly surprised. And if it's not repaid, you will be less hurt.

NOVATO, CALIF.

DEAR NOVATO: Sorry, but a loan is a loan and a gift is a gift, and very few people can afford the luxury of making a gift of a loan. Also, consider the recipient's pride. The burden of gratitude can be too heavy for some. Not everyone will accept a handout.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

TEXANETTE TENNIS TEAM—The women's tennis team from South Plains College won two doubles matches Saturday (Oct. 4) against Texas Tech University in the first competition of the season for the Texanettes. Members of the 1975-76 team are (standing, from left) Toni Germany of Brownfield, Cynthia Hathcock of Artesia, N.M., Donna Cox of Lubbock, Debbie Fields of Snyder, Janet Winstead of El Paso, coach Jeanelle Spears, and (kneeling, from left) Maggie Thompson of El Paso, Vivian Farmer of Tuscola, Sheryl Ellis of Brownfield, and Jana Cummins of Levelland. The Texanettes will play in a four-way match Friday and Saturday (Oct. 10-11) hosted by Howard College at Big Spring.

ROYAL SINGS BLUES

By JACK KEEVER
Associated Press writer

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas Coach Darrell Royal's mood darkened Monday after he watched film of Oklahoma halfback Joe Washington dazzling Colorado with a 74-yard punt return for a touchdown.

"I'm really nervous about not having any height on our kick," Royal said at a news conference. "We've just got to get it up in the air. If that guy (Washington) gets it with any kind of cushion ...."

Touchdown, was his unfinished thought.

Royal had appeared optimistic on his Sunday night television show, saying a victory over No. 2-ranked OU was "long overdue .... With a good week's preparation. I think we've got a shot at it."

But his optimism apparently vanished Monday after he got a glimpse of Washington, the elusive senior, and OU's quick, strong defense led by brothers Dewey and Leroy Selmon, against potent Colorado.

The Selmons, said Royal, were "fantastic .... Nobody's come close to blocking 'em."

Texas ranked No. 5, matches OU's 4-0 record this season, and the Longhorns go into Saturday's game in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas with the best rushing average in the nation, 395 yards per game.

Colorado, however, had the nation's best rushing-passing yardage in the nation until it's 21-20 loss to OU last Saturday, and Royal said the OU defense was so tough, "it was 1-2-3-kick, 1-2-3-kick, 1-2-3-kick. I don't see how they (Colorado) stayed in the ball game."

On 10 first half possessions, Royal said, Colorado's best offensive effort was two first downs in a row, and the Buffaloes made one yard or less on 30 plays in the game.

On offense, Royal said, Washington "is phenomenal. He has the greatest reactions I've ever seen in football. I've never seen anyone who comes even close to him in reactions.

"He's the thing that pulls 'em out" of close games."

Royal also praised Sooners quarterback Steve Davis as a "good operator," but he added, "I don't think he's any better operator than ours. Both of 'em are outstanding."

Texas quarterback Marty Akins has run for 385 yards and passed for 117, without an interception, in four games and also dealt delicate pitchouts to his teammates for several scores.

Two Longhorn starters—defensive end Travis Couch and offensive guard Will Wilcox—apparently will miss the OU game with injuries.

Royal said Texas will emphasize wind sprints this week to get in better condition for the Sooners, who have 25 straight games.

Pavlik, Beard Are Leading Tacklers

Greg Pavlik holds a slim lead over Ricky Beard for most tackles for the Snyder Tigers during four non-conference games and one district game. Pavlik has a total of 70 tackles for the five games while Beard has 66.

Beard got the most tackles against Lamesa. He made 16 tackles in that game while Pavlik and Mike Freeman each made 13. Darrell Lester turned in 11, and Sam Kitching made 10. Pat Dryden and Richard Willis each had 8.

For the season, 17 Tigers have 10 or more tackles, led by Pavlik and Beard. Others with 10 or more tackles are Billy Allbritton (47), Darrell Lester (46), Pat Dryden (44), Mike Freeman (43), Charles Hammond (34), Sam Kitching and Doug Morrell (27 each), Bobby Thompson (26), Tim Flynn and Kelly Ragland (22 each), Steve Green and Richard Willis (18 each), Larry Gee (14), Brad Stoker (11) and Rudy Rodriguez (10).

Bobby Thompson is the team's leading ball carrier with a net of 314 yards on 38 carries for an 8.3 yard average. Mitchell Smith has gained 194 yards on 53 carries for a 3.7 yard average. Larry Gee has 163 yards on 34 carries for a 4.8 yard average, and Steve Green has gained 109 yards on 14 carries for a 7.8 yard average. Tim Flynn has gained 89 yards on 26 carries for a 3.4 yard average, Pat Dryden has 33 yards on 3 carries for an 11.0 yard average, and Rudy Rodriguez has 14 yards on four carries for a 3.2 average. Ricky Beard has 16 paces on 5 efforts for a 3.2 average, and Kelly Ragland has 10 yards on 19 carries.

Ragland is the leading passer with 17 completions in 28 attempts for 378 yards and four touchdowns. None of his passes has been intercepted. Green has completed 7 of 17 for 72 yards with one interception.

Kenny Thompson is the top receiver with 9 receptions for 208 yards and three touchdowns. Bobby Thompson has caught 6 passes for 121 yards and one touchdown. Larry Gee has snared three aerials for 71 yards, David Rice has 2 for 18, and Tim Flynn has 1 for 5.

Dane Witherspoon has punted 16 times for a 37.4 yard average, and Doyle Browning has punted once for 39 yards. Witherspoon also has kicked 1 of 4 field goal attempts and 12 of 15 extra points.

Flynn is the leading kickoff returner with 5 returns for 155 yards and a touchdown. Bobby Thompson has returned 4 for 78 yards while Doug Morrell has returned 3 for 25. Gee is leading in punt returns with 6 for 70 yards while Flynn has 3 for 35 and Bobby Thompson has 2 for 19.

Bobby Thompson is the leading scorer with 30 points while Kenny Thompson has 18, Witherspoon 15, Flynn 12, and Gee, Beard, Smith, Ragland and Green, 6 each.

Seven different Tigers have come up with fumble recoveries—G.G. Miller, Flynn, Beard, Allbritton, Freeman, Pavlik and Kitching.

Ragland is leading in interceptions with 2 for 22 yards while Gee has 1 for 14, Bobby Thompson 1 for 1 and Beard 1 for 0.

Booster Meet Set

The Tiger Booster Club will meet at 7:30 tonight in the high school cafeteria.

Bill Sikes, club president, said members will see a film of the Snyder-Lamesa football game and hear a scouting report on Lubbock Estacado, this week's opponent.

He urged all members to attend and said anyone interested in the athletic program at the high school is welcome to attend.

A's Reign Could End Tonight

By ERIC PREWITT
AP Sports Writer

OAKLAND (AP) — For the Oakland A's, whose three-year championship reign could end tonight, it's time to gamble.

"I might be really sharp, or I might not be able to throw the ball 60 feet," admitted Ken Holtzman, the left-hander who lost the American League playoff opener in Boston and will be pitching against the Red Sox tonight with just two days rest.

"The more I thought about it, the more I felt we just had to go with our best," said A's Manager Alvin Dark, whose world champs are down 2-0 in the best-of-five series.

"If we lose now, there's no tomorrow," he added, using baseball's most worn-out postseason axiom.

He chose 18-game winner Holtzman over right-hander Dick Bosman, 11-6, who was the tentative third-game starter as of late Sunday.

Holtzman, who will face Rick Wise, 19-12, was knocked out in the seventh inning of Saturday's 7-1 loss at Boston. Bosman's last start was 10 days ago and he made a brief relief appearance in the playoff opener.

Boston Manager Darrell Johnson watched his team go through a relaxed and restricted workout Monday at the Oakland Coliseum while Dark wrestled with the A's pitching dilemma.

"We didn't know until four minutes before game time Sunday who they'd be pitching. So why should I worry 24 hours in advance?" Johnson asked as his players played catch and ran in foul territory and the outfield.

The infield remained covered to protect it from a light, steady rain. Neither team took batting practice and only a handful of A's loosened up.

"At this point in the season, missing one day of batting practice isn't going to make much difference," said Johnson. When asked if he would feel the same way if his team was behind in the playoffs, he just smiled.

No team in either league has ever won a playoff after losing the opening two games.

"They're favorites now. There's no doubt about that," said A's captain Sal Bando. "But I honestly feel we can win three in a row."

The weather forecast called for the possibility of more rain today.

"We're set to play. We don't want a rainout,' said Johnson, who spent Monday night at his off-season home in the Oakland suburb of Pinole. "I want to get back to Boston as soon as possible."

The World Series will start in Boston on Saturday if the Red Sox can claim a third victory over the A's, who went into their fourth consecutive American League playoff as slight favorites over the relatively inexperienced Eastern Division champs.

A crowd of about 40,000 was expected here to see if the A's finally can outplay the Red Sox.

Buckeyes First, Texas 5, A&M 6

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

Barry Switzer, coach of the defending national champions, says Oklahoma is "not the team we were in '74" and it showed today when the Sooners dropped from first place to second behind Ohio State in The Associated Press college football ratings.

The Buckeyes of Ohio State impressed the voters and a national television audience with a 41-20 rout of UCLA and received 47 first-place votes and 1,178 of a possible 1,240 points from a nationwide panel of 62 sports writers and broadcasters.

Meanwhile, Oklahoma, which was hard-pressed to beat winless Miami of Florida 20-17 a week ago, had an even closer battle with Colorado, winning 21-20 when the Buffs missed an extra-point kick with 1:23 to play. The Sooners received 14 first-place votes and 1,072 points.

Last week, Oklahoma received 30 first-place ballots to Ohio State's 26 and outpolled Woody Hayes' Buckeyes 1,086 points to 1,065. Ohio State was No. 1 a year ago until the closing weeks of the campaign when the Bucks bowed to Michigan State and surrendered the top spot to Oklahoma, which kept it the rest of the way.

"I'm not disappointed we're No.2," Switzer said. "I'm disappointed with the way we played and the mistakes we made. If you go on Woody Hayes' point system, I guess they deserve to be No. 1. I read where he said they ought to be No. 1 because they scored more points than we did."

Southern California held onto third place by defeating Iowa 27-16. The Trojans received the other first-place vote and 975 points. Nebraska remained fourth with 858 points following a 31-16 triumph over Miami, Fla.

Texas moved up from seventh to fifth by routing Utah State 61-7. The Longhorns supplanted Missouri, which dropped from fifth to 12th in the wake of a 31-7 loss to Michigan. Texas A&M stayed in sixth place with a 10-0 blanking of Kansas State.

Alabama, continuing to work its way back toward the top, climbed from ninth to seventh following a 32-6 victory over Mississippi and Michigan's whipping of Missouri elevated the Wolverines from 12th to eighth replacing Notre Dame. The Irish skidded to 15th after losing to Michigan State 10-3.

Penn State rose from 10th to ninth with a 10-3 decision over Kentucky while West Virginia, which meets Penn State this weekend in an Eastern showdown, went from 11th to 10th by beating Southern Methodist 28-22.

The Second Ten consists of Arizona State, Missouri, Colorado, Oklahoma State, Michigan State and Notre Dame tied for 15th, followed by Arizona, Florida, Tennessee and Miami of Ohio.

Last week, it was West Virginia, Michigan, UCLA, Arizona State, Oklahoma State, Tennessee; Arizona, Baylor, Colorado and Florida.

UCLA's loss to Ohio State knocked the Bruins out of the Top Twenty while Baylor suffered the same fate by losing to South Carolina 24-13.

Cowboys In Lead After 36-10 Win

By LARRY PALADINO
AP Sports Writer

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Pontiac Stadium's majestic air-inflated dome didn't spring any leaks, but the Detroit Lions' bubble was burst by Roger Staubach's shotgun offense and slingshot arm.

A near-capacity crowd of 79,784 gave the Dallas Cowboys resounding boos when they were introduced before Monday night's National Football League contest against Detroit.

But the boos that reverberated off the newly raised fiberglass roof of the plush $55.7 million stadium at the end of the nationally televised 36-10 Cowboy victory were for the Lions.

Detroit seemed helpless as Staubach turned a 10-9 third-period Lion advantage into a Cowboy runaway.

Meanwhile, his defensive mates, led by 250-pound tackle Jethro Pugh, sacked Lion quarterback Greg Landry so many times he almost got artificial grass stains on his Honolulu blue pants.

The youth-infused Cowboys ran their record to 3-0 and sit alone atop the Eastern Division of the National Conference.

Detroit, considered a cellar candidate in preseason by most critics, had beaten Green Bay and Atlanta but now is 2-1 and second in the Central Division behind unbeaten Minnesota.

Sunday the Lions host Chicago while the Cowboys will be at New York against the Giants.

"I was impressed with the Lions," Dallas Coach Tom Landry said, obviously trying to ease Detroit's pain. "They played us real close in the first half and, except for hitting a couple big plays, the game could have been much closer."

The "couple" big plays included:

—A bad Detroit snap on punt formation that set up Dallas' go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter.

—A 29-yard draw play by Charles Young of the Cowboys, followed by Young's circus catch for a 42-yard touchdown pass from Staubach on the first play of the fourth quarter.

—A 46-yard halfback pass from Robert Newhouse to Drew Pearson for another stunning Cowboy fourth-period TD.

—A 37-yard scoring aerial from Staubach to Pearson after the Cowboys recovered a Landry fumble at the Lion 16 and lost 25 yards on penalties.

"That bad snap was the turning point as far as I'm concerned," Lions' Coach Rick Forzano insisted. "We had momentum up to that point. We had 'em. But that snap turned the whole thing around."

Richard Hicks, the center on kicks, snapped low and punter Herman Weaver was run out of bounds at the Lion 33, automatically turning the ball over to Dallas. Pearson, who caught six passes for 188 yards, grabbed a 30-yard toss from Staubach and two plays later Young, a No. 1 draft choice last year from North Carolina State, plunged over from the one.

Young's 42-yard TD catch came on the next Dallas possession. He tipped it with one hand, bobbled it for a few yards and then hauled it in over cornerback Levi Johnson, who was burned several times by Staubach.

The TDs after that were just frosting on the cake.

Stengel Eulogized

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn eulogized Casey Stengel as "more than great, he was total."

"He made more friends for baseball than anybody who has lived."

At Monday's funeral for Charles Dillon "Casey" Stengel, who died a week ago at 85, Kuhn said: "I doubt if anyone was more loved in this country than Casey Stengel. Most of his players, maybe not all of them, loved him. Some adored him."

Reds Can Clinch NL Title

By GARY MIHOCES
AP Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds can clinch their third National League title of this decade here tonight and take another step toward the World Series triumph that has eluded them for 35 years.

"World Series? I'll think about that if we get there," Reds' Manager Sparky Anderson said as he awaited the third and perhaps final game with Pittsburgh.

The Reds, who'll pitch Gary Nolan against Pirate rookie John Candelaria, dominated two games in Cincinnati, 8-3 and 6-1.

They pounded the ball at a .348 clip, allowed just 13 Pirate hits, and stole 10 bases in 10 tries. Joe Morgan's four steals and the Reds' team total are already records for a league playoff.

The Pirates, league leaders in home runs, have yet to hit one in the playoffs. They're batting .203 as a team, and none of their pitchers has lasted more than four innings.

"We expect that to change here," Manager Danny Murtaugh said Monday from his rocking chair,

A reporter asked him what was so special about playing at home. Can Babushka Power make that much of a diffence?

"I'm stretching that because we did horse manure out there," said Murtaugh.

"Give me another excuse and I'll use it too. We're running out of excuses and time."

Cincinnati won its last World Series in 1940. That was seven years before Reds' catcher Johnny Bench was born.

"The series is the goal of every team, but there's no way we can look past the Pirates," said Bench, one of the few Reds without a hot bat. He has one hit so far in the playoffs.

Matadors, Tigers In Showdown

The season is half over, and Snyder's Tigers and Lubbock Estacado's Matadors collide in a showdown battle in the second week of District 3-AAA action this week. The two teams clash at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Lowrey Field in Lubbock.

Snyder, Estacado and Lake View currently share the district lead with 1-0 records. The Tigers whipped Lamesa last week, 20-8, and the Matadors zapped Brownfield, 39-20. The Chiefs put down Sweetwater, 34-0. Dunbar doesn't open district action until this week. The Panthers meet Sweetwater there at 7:30 p.m. Friday. In the other district game this week, Lamesa entertains Lake View at the same time in Lamesa.

Lake View still has the best overall record of any of the teams in the district with a perfect 5-0 mark. The Chiefs also are leading in scoring with 130 points, and they have the best defense with only 12 points yielded.

Estacado has the next best record with only 1 loss in five outings. Snyder also has won more games than they've lost with a 3-2 mark. Dunbar is batting .500 with a 2-2- record while the other teams have lost more than they've won. Brownfield is 2-3 for the campaign, Lamesa is 0-4-1, and Sweetwater is 0-5.

Estacado has scored more points in district (39) than any of the other teams, but the Chiefs have the best defense, not having yielded a point.

Glance At Tax-Cut Proposals

By The Associated Press

Here are major features of the proposed $28 billion in permanent tax reductions proposed by President Ford Monday:

For individuals:

—Raise the personal exemption taxpayers can claim for themselves and their dependents from $750 to $1,000. Estimated savings to taxpayers would be $10.1 billion.

—Replace the minimum standard deduction and the maximum standard deduction with a single standard deduction of $1,800 for a single taxpayer and $2,500 for married couples. Estimated savings, $4 billion.

—Reduce tax rates for taxable incomes up to $10,000 for married taxpayers. Estimated savings, $6.6 billion.

—Over-all reductions for individuals would be $4 billion more than relief from the 1975 rebates and reductions.

For business:

—Reduce the maximum corporate tax rate from 48 to 46 per cent. Estimated savings, $2.2 billion.

—Extend 1975 corporate rate and surtax exemption changes benefiting small business. Estimated savings, $1.7 billion.

—Permanently increase the investment tax credit from 7 to 10 per cent for most businesses and 4 to 10 per cent for utilities. Estimated savings, $2.5 billion.

—A six-point program of tax relief for electric utilities. Estimated savings, $600 million.

Jaworski Says Upheaval Aided Court System

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Former Watergate prosecutor Leon Jaworski said Monday that national upheaval breathed new fire into the court system and helped erase a generation of cynicism.

"The Watergate days were not very good times for the country but now that they are over I think we are a better and stronger nation," he said in quoting from a letter he received from an 11-year-old.

Shobek Is Granted 11th-Hour Reprieve

NASSAU, Bahama (AP) — A Wisconsin man who was to have been hanged today for killing three fellow Americans here "had trouble understanding the news" and "just shrugged his shoulders" when he was told the execution had been postponed, a U.S. official said.

A. Stephen Vitale, U.S. consul in Nassau, said he told Michiah Shobek, 22, late Monday that Bahamian officials had accepted the U.S. Embassy's last-minute request for a review of the death sentence.

"He looked stunned and a little groggy," Vitale said. "I had to repeat what I said, that the appeal had been accepted and he wouldn't be executed Tuesday."

Bahamian spokesman Cyril Stevenson said the 11th-hour reprieve was granted by Darrell Rolle, Bahamian minister of home affairs, after a law firm hired by U.S. officials applied for an appeal.

Stevenson said the application stated that important information had not been heard by the court which earlier ruled against a life sentence for Shobek, making the death penalty automatic.

Shobek's lawyer at the time of the hearing withdrew evidence of insanity when the court ruled it contained errors, the application said. And it said Shobek had sustained brain damage as the result of a viral infection he suffered as an infant.

The court that will hear the appeal is not scheduled to meet for 30 days, but Stevenson said it might convene sooner because "this is a temporary respite. In cases like this, they usually try to hurry it up."

Shobek, son of a Milwaukee school system charwoman, pleaded guilty to killing Irwin Borstein, a New York accountant whose body was found on a remote beach. He also admitted killing Paul Howell of Massillon, Ohio, and Katie Smith, 17, of Detroit.

At his trial, Shobek said he was ordered by "my father, God" to slay the three, whom he described as "angels of Lucifer."

Shobek's mother, Juanita Spencer, had asked officials in the United States to intervene in her son's behalf.

Community Residents In Drama Production Roles

Community residents have once more joined students at Western Texas College for the drama department's production of "The Matchmaker," set to run Oct. 8-11 in the college Fine Arts Theatre.

Curtain time for the family comedy is 8 o'clock nightly.

Joining the students in the "Matchmaker" cast for the season opener are Phyllis Davis, Trina Taylor, Layton Lynch and Carroll Brush. Mrs. Davis, an employe of the college book store, will be appearing as Mrs. Malloy. She operates a millinery shop in New York City, and longs for "just a little adventure."

Mrs. Taylor is cast as Miss Van Huysen, who explains in one scene that "everything in life is illusion," which accounts for the fact that she can't tell the boys from the girls due to mistaken identies. Mrs. Taylor is a music teacher at Northeast Elementary.

Appearing as the barber is Layton Lynch, field representative for an Alabama construction company. He expounds his philosophy of life, and in one episode opines that "people who's et onions is bad judges of them that's et onions!"

Carroll Brush, head bookkeeper and an assistant cashier at West Texas State Bank, will be appearing as the cab man who persists in being jolly in spite of the zany events which involve him.

"The Matchmaker" will be WTC's entry in the American College Theatre Festival in a five-state region. Charles Holland, WTC drama director, points out that all major colleges and universtities as well as junior colleges may enter the festival and that there will be very few junior college entries. Seven plays will be chosen to go to Fort Worth for the semi-finals.

WTC was the only two-year college to win an outstanding achievement award during the 1974-75 season. That award went to Glenn Polk for his role in "The Last of the Red Hot Lovers."

Three judges from the Theatre Festival will come to WTC to judge "The Matchmaker," but they do not announce the date of their arrival in advance. "Since all actors perform better in front of a live audience, we would really like to have a full house for each performance," Holland said. "Judges in the past have been extremely impressed with the response of Snyder audiences."

New sets have been built for "The Matchmaker," and a new revolving stage will be in use for the first time this season.

Tickets, priced at $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students, are on sale at Snyder National Bank, Snyder Drug, West Texas State Bank and on campus at the book store and the Fine Arts office.

After the many changes for you in the past year, look for your new friends to bring you not only financial gains, but a more active social life.

Quake Jolts Remote Islands

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP) — A major and potentially destructive earthquake struck the remote Santa Cruz Islands in the south Pacific Ocean on Monday, the National Earthquake Information Center reported.

The Santa Cruz Islands are located about 1,500 miles northeast of Brisbane, Austrailia.

A spokesman for the center said the magnitude of the quake was potentially damaging to populated areas, but said no damage reports were received immediately. The Santa Cruz Islands have a population of about 5,000.

The earthquake, which was recorded at 6:24 p.m. EDT Monday, measured 7.2 on the Richter scale, the Earthquake Information Center said.

The Richter scale is a measure of ground motion as recorded on seismographs. Every increase of one number means a tenfold increase in magnitude. Thus, a reading of 7.5 reflects an earthquake 10 times stronger than one of 6.5.

Estrogen Reduces Baldness

CHICAGO (AP) — A lotion made from the female hormone estrogen reduces baldness in men when it is rubbed into their scalps, according to a New York City physician who says he has successfully experimented with the treatment for the past decade.

Estrogen cannot be taken by men internally without certain undesirable side effects, such as enlarged breasts. But Dr. Edward M. Settel says when estrogen is applied externally, it reduces hair fallout in men and stimulates hair growth in bald areas.

Settel reported the results of his experimentation in a scientific exhibit at the annual meeting of the American Academy of Family Physicians this week. He said the treatment is still in the experimental stage and is not ready for commercial distribution.

Of the 748 men he has treated in 10 years, 90 per cent had "markedly less fallout" after using the estrogen lotion and 68 per cent showed improved hair growth, he said.

"I don't make the claim that you're going to grow back as much hair as you had when you were 15 years of age," Settel said in an interview. But he said some hair does grow back on the heads of men with a hereditary condition called pattern baldness.

He said 45 per cent of American males have pattern baldness, caused by an oversupply of the male hormone androgen. His treatment tries to balance the androgen excess with the female hormone.

Estrogen, which does not get into the bloodstream when applied in a topical cream, is related to growth of hair on the scalp, while androgen is responsible for facial and body hair, Settel said.

That's why balding men may have an ample crop of chest hair.

Settel's estrogen cream, which has a lanolin base, is massaged nightly into areas of the scalp where hair has disappeared but which still have living follicles. A shampoo designed to reduce hair breakage is used three times a week.

He said younger men in his study showed a greater increase in growth of hair, with 74 per cent in the 17-30 age group showing improvement.

Dr. Lamb

Vitamin E won't thin blood

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—I am 62 years old. I have had some trouble with my thyroid gland since my late 20s. I have taken iodine prescribed by a doctor. I have heard that kelp was good for the thyroid. How much and how often should this be taken?

Also, I would like to know if wheat germ oil is good to keep the blood from becoming too thick.

DEAR READER—Kelp contains iodine and if you need iodine it would be a good source. You should rely on your doctor to decide if you need iodine. If you do he will give you a proper amount without relying on an inconstant intake.

There was quite a flap about 25 years ago about using vitamin E. to prevent blood clots. It even made the medical journals with some surprising names on the articles. But the decreased blood clotting mechanisms observed were related to other factors, and there was no effect at all from vitamin E. The use of wheat germ oil for this purpose is based on these old, long since discredited concepts. It won't help at all.

For more information on vitamin E write to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. Send 50 cents, a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope, and ask for The Health Letter number 4-12, Vitamin E: Miracle or Myth.

DEAR DR. LAMB—I have heard that one should not eat more than three or four eggs a week as any more than that could cause high cholesterol which increases the possibility of heart attacks and strokes. I find that the only type of diet I can stick with is one that is very high in protein – with lots of meat and eggs. Sometimes I have as many as 20 eggs a week. Is there any age that you should start watching your cholesterol intake? I'm only 20.

DEAR READER—The American Heart Assn. has recommended that men should not eat more than three egg yolks a week, including those used in cooking. The Inter Society Commission on Heart Disease recommended limiting the total daily cholesterol intake to 300 milligrams. An average egg yolk contains from 225 to 275 milligrams of cholesterol.

You can be on a high protein diet and still limit your cholesterol intake. Fish, chicken and beef all contain only about 70 milligrams for each three and one-half ounces (100 grams). Usng lean portions of these foods will work fine. You can also use as many egg whites as you like. And, you might like some of the new egg products that are very low in cholesterol and fat or contain no cholesterol at all.

When do you need to watch your cholesterol and diet? Some children have high cholesterol and if detected should begin a program then. The best way to train people to like the right food is to begin training during childhood.

Prolonged use of high protein diets that are high-fat, high-cholesterol diets is often associated with a high rise in cholesterol levels to undesirable levels. You should change right now.

Remember that the fatty-cholesterol deposits in the arteries begins in early life. About three-fourths of the young men who were killed in Korea and later autopsied showed fatty-cholesterol deposits of their heart. About 10 per cent of them had obstruction of more than 70 per cent of the opening of one of their arteries. So, don't think this is a disease of old age. It begins in young men and can and does cause early heart attacks.

Your cost for electricity is below the national average.

And the gap is widening.

Today your electric bill is much lower than it would be in most other parts of the country. And while electricity costs are rising everywhere, your cost isn't rising as fast.

That's because Texas Electric is doing everything possible to keep the price of electricity down. For one thing, we're using the supplies of low-cost natural gas we acquired many years ago for fuel. And as our cost for gas goes up, we're building power plants to use cheaper lignite and nuclear fuels.

At Texas Electric, we're working to supply the electricity you need — at the lowest possible cost.

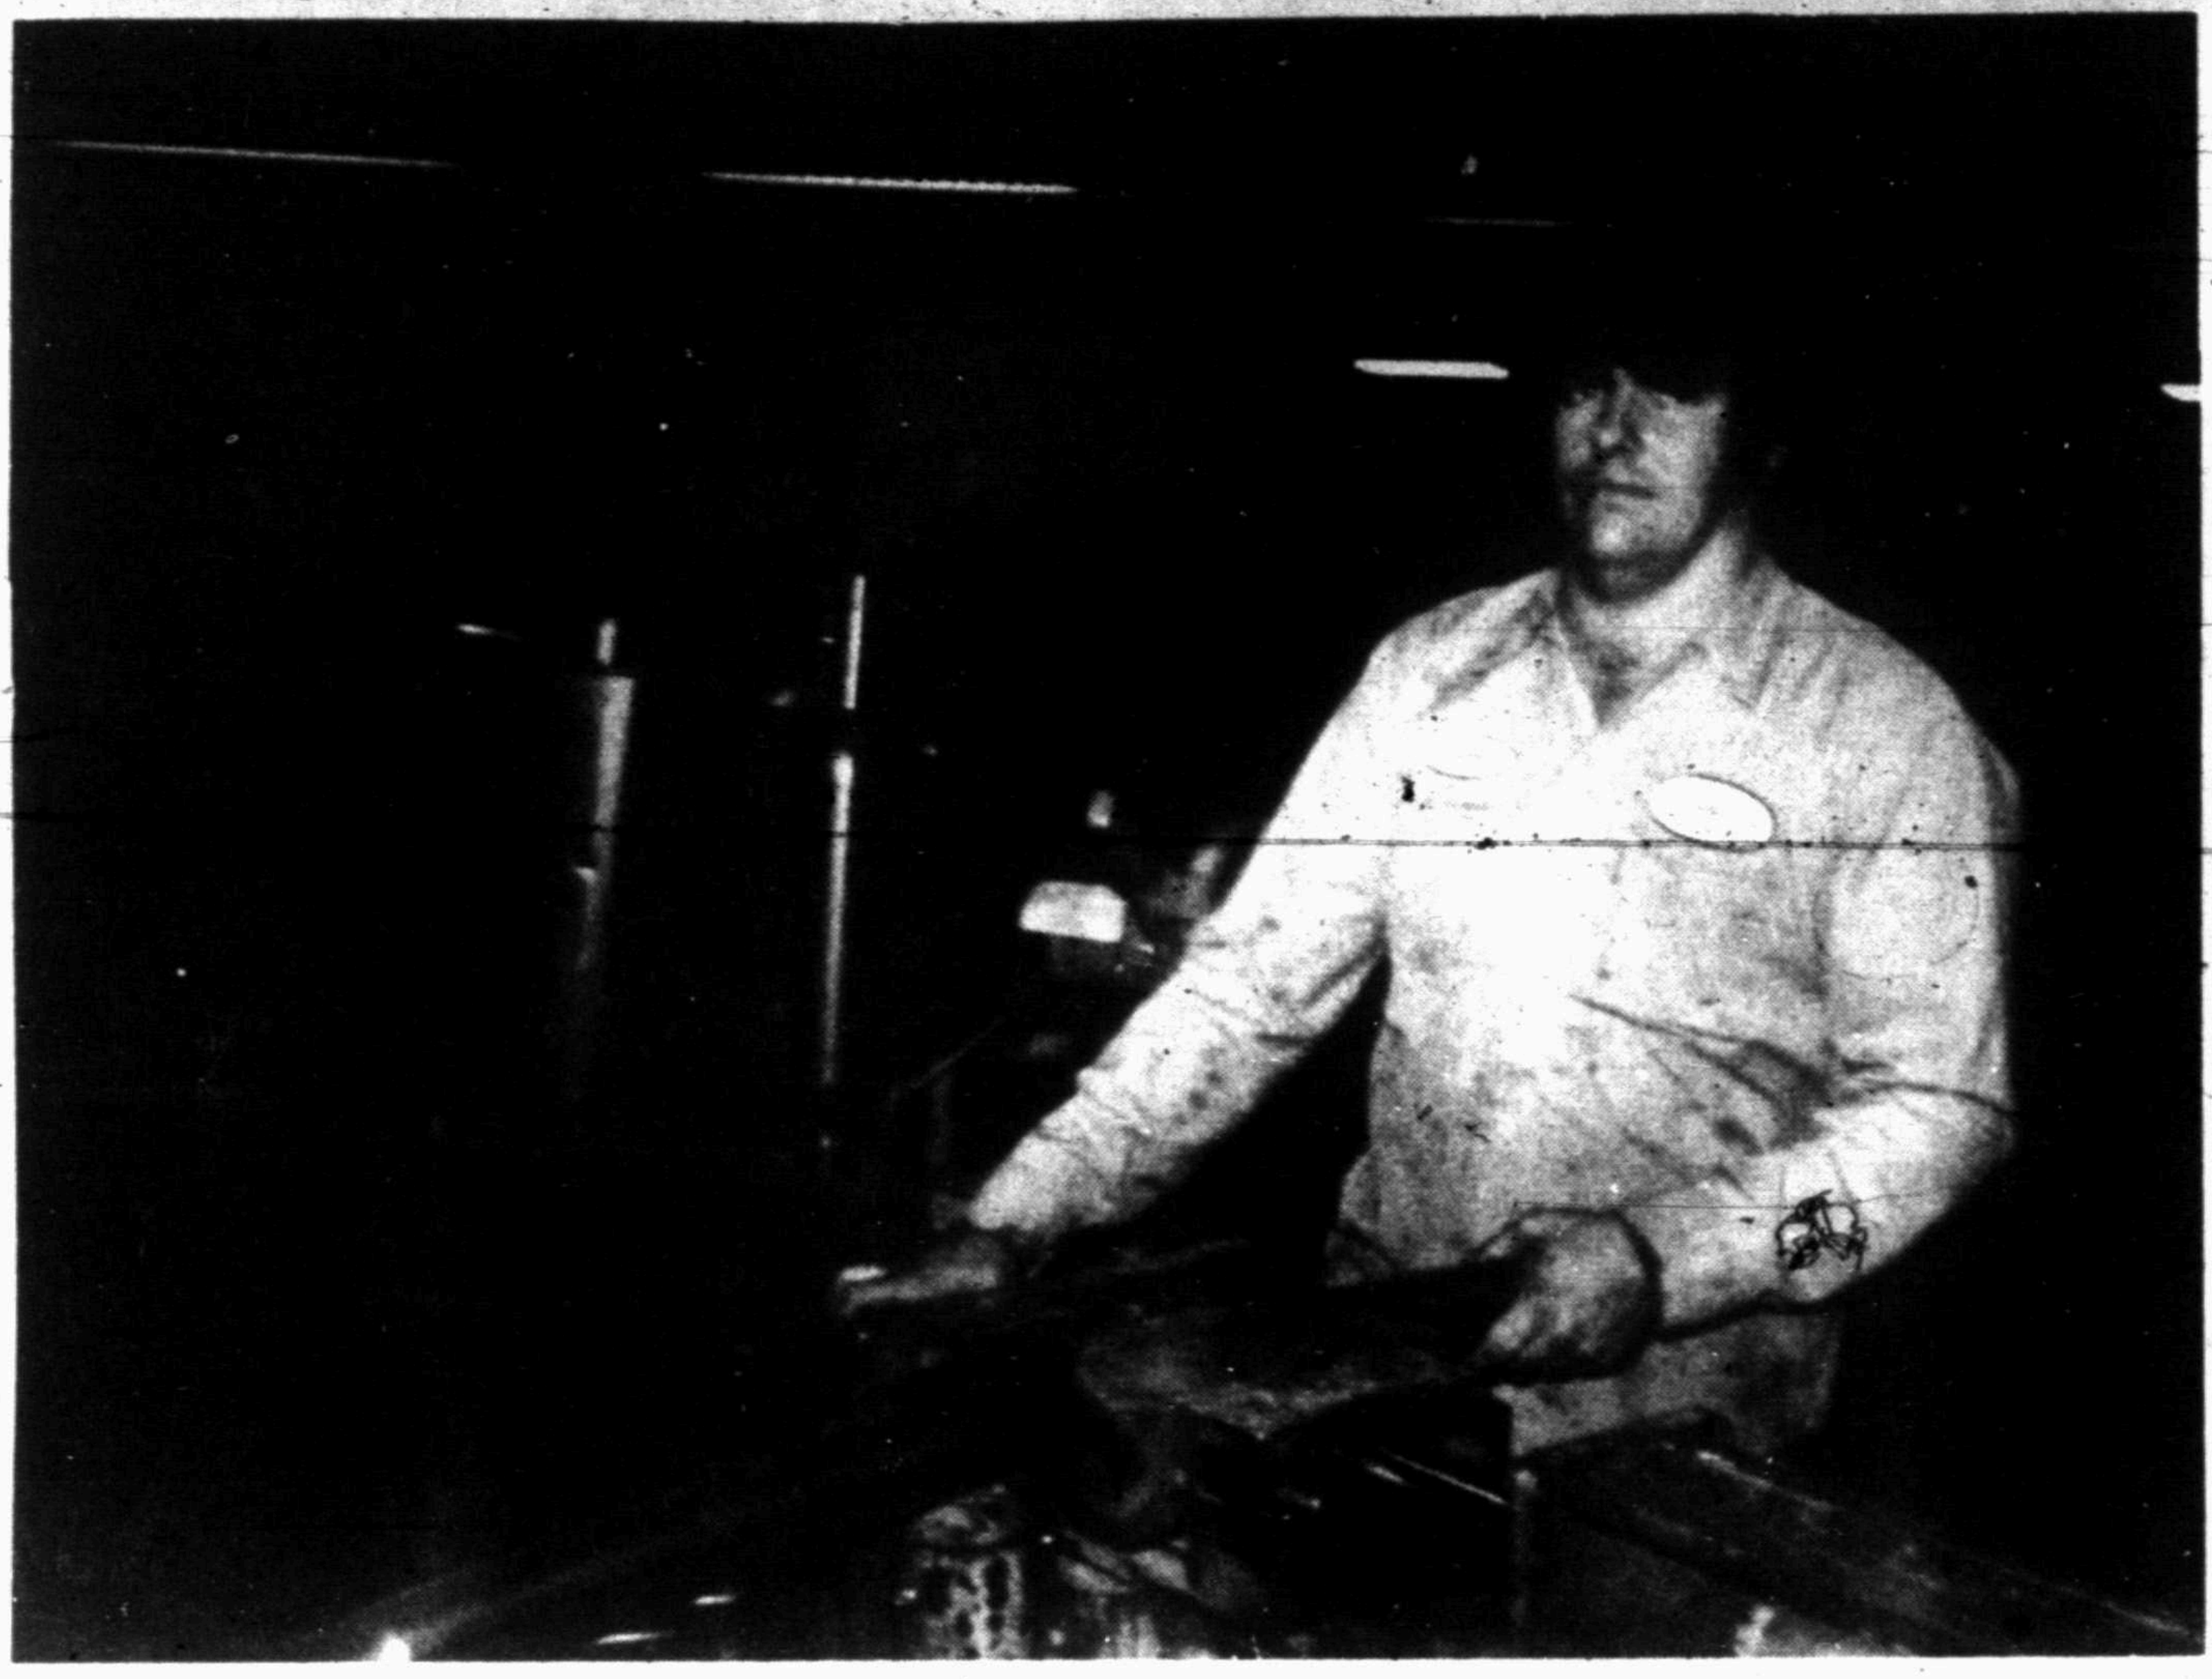
BUSINESS & INDUSTRIAL NEWS



MAKING IT FIT—Jimmy Nix an employe of Central Tire is bending a tailpipe to fit underneath the car he is working on. Central Tire has a pipe bending machine which will bend 1¾ inch pipe up to 2½ inch pipe. They are now carrying "Big Daddy" glass pack mufflers which let you come on loud and strong on the street.

Central Tire Service Installs Custom Mufflers And Tailpipes

Central Tire Service located at 1510 Twenty-fifth Street has been custom installing tailpipes and mufflers of all types for about 15 years.

"We have mufflers and adapters to fit all models of old type cars," stated Stanley Noah, owner of the firm.

Central Tire has a pipe bending machine which can handle a variety of pipe. It handles pipe of one and three-fourths inch thickness up to two and a half inch thickness.

In addition to its complete stock of original equipment specification mufflers, Central Tire also has a complete stock of "Big Daddy" glass pack mufflers.

Big Daddy has an aluminum steel core which makes it last much longer than most glass pack mufflers.

It's four different core sizes allows it to fit most any car...even custom jobs.

The Big Daddy has long strand fiberglass to withstand high engine temperatures which stops blow outs. It has advanced computer engineering to reduce back pressure.

Only Big Daddy lets you come on loud and strong on the street with almost the same roar of performance you hear on the strip or track.

Central Tire also carries superior road wheels. These include Superlug Mag Wheels, Chrome Reverse Wheels and Typhoon Superlug Wheels.

They carry new and used tires in just about any size you could want. One brand of new tires which Central Tire carries in Michelin. It has recently been selling big in the United States.

They can give you a motor tune-up or a Nitro 9 treatment.

If you really want to fix up that old car, stop by Central Tire and get a couple of Big Daddys installed with a set of shiny chrome wheels.

Johnston's No-Roach Does Just Exactly What Its Name Implies

The manufacturers of Johnston's No-Roach are not bragging or boasting...they are just stating a face - No-Roach means exactly that...no roaches!

This claim is made with knowledge obtained through twenty years sales experience, thousands of laboratory tests, and millions of satisfied customers.

Johnston's No-Roach (comes in a brown amber bottle with brush attached), is different...and it's different for many reasons. No-Roach eliminates the need for frequent application of messy, unsafe sprays and powders...No-Roach is clean and easy to use and is effective for months.

When you use Johnston's No-Roach, simply brush this odorless, colorless liquid around baseboards, sinks, tablelegs, behind cabinets and appliances...on shelves and inside cabinet doors. Use Johnston's No-Roach in bathrooms and anywhere else cockroaches may breed. No-Roach dries fast to form an invisible path of death that kills cockroaches, ants, silverfish, spiders, all crawling insects-and best of all it continues to kill effectively for months.

To keep ants out of the house, brush No-Roach across window frames and door sills. Ants will not cross the coating. No-Roach is available at: Furr's, Piggly Wiggly, R&B, Safeway, Everybody's, Rainbow and all grocery stores.

GOODBYE ROACHES—Roach traffic will come to an abrupt halt here where Johnston's No-Roach is brushed on. The odorless, colorless liquid protects against crawling insects for months.

Construction Up In Texas

DALLAS (AP) — Construction surged upward in Texas last month but still was below that of September 1974, the current issue of Texas Contractor magazine says.

Construction awards totaled $179,172,488 in September, compared with the all-time September record of $199,227,358 established last year.

The increase in September over August seemed in keeping with an improving economy although it was apparent the wounds of recession have not completely healed, the magazine said.

Texas Contractor cited these as among the top construction jobs in September: Spaw-Glass Construction Co. of Houston, $16,629,000 at the University of Texas-Houston Medical School; Marathon Pipeline Co. for its own pipeline construction, $14,500,000; and Western Builders Inc. for construction of a new bank at Amarillo, $13,000,000.

Amin Surprised At Moynihan Comment

KAMPALA, Uganda (AP) — Ugandan President Idi Amin said he was surprised that Daniel P. Moynihan, the U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, called him a racist murderer.

"President Amin was commended by everyone he met in the United States, including Jews, because nobody had ever before told them the truth about Zionist policy," official Uganda Radio said Sunday.

Moynihan made his comment in San Francisco on Friday, denouncing Amin for proposing the "extinction" of Israel.

Parents Will Fund Schools' Programs

By The Associated Press

The parents of Texas schoolchildren eventually will have to foot the bill for many extracurricular activities or see their children do without school programs such as band, driver education and field trips.

Such extracurricular activities bore the brunt of an opinion issued last week by Texas Atty. Gen. John Hill at the request of State Education Commissioner Marlon Brockett.

Hill said it would be up to the legislature to allow schools to charge fees for such activities as driver education, pep squad and band. But Brockett said after the ruling he was not inclined to ask the legislature to approve such fees.

In Texas' largest city, Houston, the ruling means about $10 million per year, says Houston Independent School District Supt. Billy Reagan.

Reagan said the district will receive $400,000 for class workbooks, $245,000 for driver eduction and $100,000 for field trips.

Most districts charge between $25 and $50 per student for driver education alone.

Palestine Independent School District Supt. Dr. Evans Hood estimated the overall cost of the ruling to his district would be more than $15,000.

Marlin School Supt. Sam Gray said the opinion "opened up a can of worms" and "would create chaos." Gray said it would mean a hefty tax increase in his district unless the programs and activities are greatly reduced or possibly eliminated.

The implication of the ruling is that parents will either have to give their children money to pay fees when school starts, pay it when taxes are raised or suffer a cutback in the schools' programs.

Ector County School Supt. Bill Holm said money for activities will have "to come from somewhere, and it could eventually mean a tax increase."

Abilene School Supt. Dr. Harold Brinson said Abilene taxpayers can look for higher tax rates if the school's budget cannot absorb the cost of the extracurricular programs.
