SACRED HEART THRIFT SHOP BEGINS FOURTH YEAR

With the beginning of another school year in September, the Sacred Heart Thrift Shop began its fourth year of operation.

The Thrift Shop originally began as a twice yearly rummage sale for the benefit of the school, but as the need arose more and more often between sales for clothing and household articles and when the space became available in the old hall, it was decided to try to open every Saturday for one year. This proved so successful for all concerned that it has been open every Saturday morning since.

The shop is staffed by the Mothers Club, under Mrs. Joe Valdez this year. Every Thursday afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m. the shop is open to receive clothing and household articles from anyone wishing to donate.

The Mothers Club feels that the Thrift Shop has become a community necessity since it has enabled many families to purchase needed clothing for a token sum.

A PUDDLE PADDLER. Yes, Virginia, it sometimes does rain even in sunny California. In fact, a sudden downpour in Riverside created this puddle that bore a striking resemblance to a lake. Rockport was given major coverage in a special Fall and Winter Tour of South Texas edition of the "South Texan" magazine with six pictures and coverage in a story on South Texas attractions.

The magazine is devoted to attracting autumn tourists to the area through direct mail distribution and through highway information stations and to encouraging South Texans to visit other parts of their own area.

Absentee Voting Started Friday

Absentee balloting opened in Texas Friday for the Nov. 2 election on 10 proposed changes to the state constitution.

The proposals range from controversial changes in the terms of the governor and state house members to complicated measures affecting college construction and teacher retirement financing.

Absentee balloting ends Oct. 29.

The latest development in the campaign for adoption of the amendment to double the governor's present two-year terms was Tuesday's statement announcing the state Democratic Executive Committee "will actively support" the proposal.

Committee Chairman Will D. Davis of Austin said the committee will conduct "a state-wide campaign to alert voters to the benefits" of the proposal, which also affects the lieutenant governor, attorney general and several other officials elected statewide.

Davis said the amendment, which is strongly supported by Gov. John Connally, would allow state officials to devote more time to running state affairs and less time to campaigns for re-election.

Other proposals call for: Doubling two-year terms of state House members.

Revising the veterans land program with permission to issue $200 million in state bonds.

Establishment of a loan fund for college students by issuing up to $85 million in bonds.

Allowing the state to conduct all programs required for participation in the federal medicare program.

Mandatory retirement of district and appellate judges at age 75 and establishment of machinery for their removal from office for misconduct.

Extending the investment authority of the teacher retirement system.

Doubling the state property tax to 10 cents each $100 valuation to finance state college building construction.

Allowing the Legislature to set the salaries of the lieutenant governor and speaker of the House.

Exempting from local ad valorem taxes any hospital which spends $1.5 million yearly on free hospital care for the indigent.

65 Auto Accidents In Aransas County Through September

R. R. L. Brown, highway patrolman for the Rockport area, reports that his records reflect 65 automobile accidents have occurred during the first nine months of this year involving 98 drivers. Forty-five of these drivers were from Aransas County.

Fourteen of the drivers involved were teenage males and five were teenage females. There were 205 persons involved in these 65 accidents. Forty-three of these were injured and seven were fatally injured. Three of the fatalities were from Aransas County and the other four were from Nueces County. Of the seven fatally injured, three were drivers and four were passengers. Ages of those deceased ranged from 5 years to 73 years.

The automobile damage was estimated to be about $37,040, not including personal effects. Thus far in October there have been six wrecks in the county compared to five for the month of October in 1964.

Brown states that Rockport is a two man station and that Patrolman Carr was transferred in April, thus his records were not available for the first four months of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Scott returned Tuesday after a 10-day vacation and sight seeing tour to Las Vegas, Nev. They visited the Hoover Dam, went on sight seeing tour in Arizona, made sight seeing trips to the border towns in Mexico.

A CAUSE OF CANCER? The federal Government and the state of New York have announced plans to study whether increased use of pesticides in farming could be the cause of the growing number of cancer deaths in our nation. Raw Chlorine Gas Truck Hits Partly Opened Drawbridge

A one vehicle accident occurred shortly after 4 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 12. According to a report given by investigating officers, Sheriff Joe Earl Hunt and his deputy, Joe de la Garza, a southbound Texas Transport Co. truck-tractor from Corpus Christi hit the partially opened drawbridge at Copano Bay causeway. The truck lost its brakes when a bolt came loose holding the air compressor.

Joseph Harris, Jr., 46, driver of the truck, was not injured in the accident. He told investigating officers that he had no brakes at all when he attempted to stop for the bridge gate and the truck continued on the bridge.

A near tragedy was averted by the quick action of Brady Traweck, operator of the controls of the drawbridge. The bridge was about 10 feet high when Traweck saw that the truck could not stop. He then began lowering the span and it was about two feet high when the impact occurred.

Sheriff Hunt estimated the damage to the truck at $2,000. Traffic was halted for over an hour until the truck could be removed.

Hunt also advised that the truck was loaded with 10 large partly filled containers of raw chlorine gas, the same gas that caused so much anxiety near Baton Rouge recently in a barge sunk by Hurricane Betsy. Fortunately, none of the containers were ruptured.

S. A. Man Drowns Friday Evening

A San Antonio woman spent a chilly night on a reef in the Aransas Bay Friday night after her husband swam away earlier to retrieve their small boat. His body was found washed ashore near Goose Island Saturday morning. Dead is Frederick W. Nute, 66, San Antonio, an independent oil operator.

Mrs. Lorene Nute was discovered standing alone on Half Moon Reef by a shrimp boat captain, Leon Bateman of Rockport, around dawn Saturday. She was treated for exposure and returned to San Antonio Saturday night.

Mrs. Nute, according to Sheriff J. E. Hunt, was on an extended vacation with her husband when the accident occurred.

According to Hunt, the Nutes had left Rockport around 4 p.m. Friday in the small motorboat to do some offshore fishing in the bay. The couple reached Half Moon Reef, got out of the boat and began fishing.

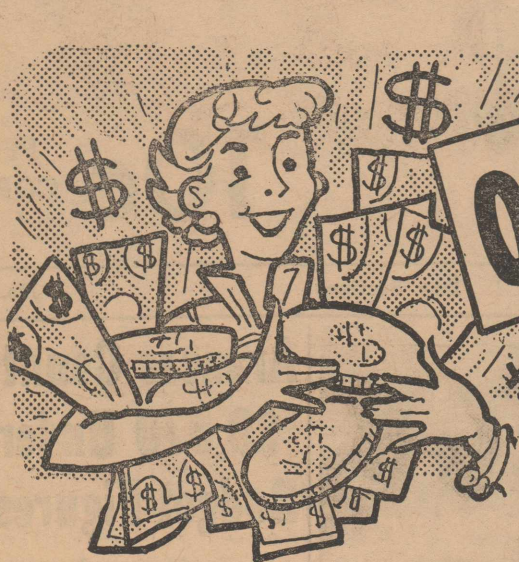

When Nute realized their boat had drifted away from the reef, he dived in and began swimming to retrieve it. Mrs. Nute said she watched him for about an hour until he disappeared from sight.

Around dawn Saturday, Bateman, an independent commercial shrimper, was on a trawling course when he spotted Mrs. Nute on the reef.

Bateman took the grief-stricken woman aboard his vessel and arranged to have her transferred to a faster boat to be taken ashore.

Hunt notified the U. S. Coast Guard air detachment at Corpus Christi who sent out an amphibious plane to search for Nute's body. He was found in about a foot of water on the northwest tip of Goose Island, near Lamar.

Hunt said the body was some three to four miles from where Nute had entered the water. His body was transferred to a funeral home in San Antonio.

CRUSADE AT HOUSTON POSTPONED BY GRAHAM

Houston — Evangelist Billy Graham has postponed his Houston crusade for the second time.

The crusade was originally set Oct. 8-17 and had to be delayed a week because of Graham's slow recovery from removal of stones from his prostate gland Sept. 9.

Graham called crusade officials in Houston last night to tell them he was postponing the crusade again on advice of doctors.

(Twelve bus loads of Corpus Christi residents as well as many persons in private cars were planning to attend the meeting this weekend. The Rev. W. H. Colson, head of the Baptist Missions, estimated that 2,000-3,000 would have gone to the opening sessions from Corpus Christi.)

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jones have returned after two months vacation in Connecticut, New Jersey, Long Island, and Florida.

Tourist Film To Be Shown About South Texas

A colorful new tourist movie, "This Way to South Texas," will be shown at 1 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 17 on KRIS-TV, Channel 6, Corpus Christi. The 25 minute film will be telecast in color.

The film, which depicts the wide tourist advantages of the South Texas area, is narrated by Kathryn Grandstaff Crosby, wife of singer Bing Crosby. Mrs. Crosby grew up in West Columbia and Robstown and still has a deep interest in Texas.

The new movie was underwritten as a public service by Central Power and Light Co., General Telephone Co. of the Southwest and Rio Grande Valley Gas Co. All three firms supply utility service in the South Texas area featured in the film. The joint project by the three companies is part of a comprehensive effort to stimulate the tourist business and help business and help improve the economy of the entire South Texas area.

The movie shows scenes from the Texas Hill Country near Leakey to Monterrey, Mexico and includes scenes in the Rio Grande Valley, Laredo, Victoria and Corpus Christi areas. The Aransas Wildlife Refuge has a big play in the movie, with Padre Island getting the major share of the limelight.

The movie is also available for group showings throughout South Texas. Reservations for use of the film may be made by contacting any local office of Central Power and Light Co., General Telephone Co. or Rio Grande Valley Gas Co.

REMARIED WIDOWS CAN RECEIVE SOCIAL SECURITY AGAIN

One of the recent changes in the Social Security law eliminates remarriage as a basis for ending payments to widows in some situations, according to H. M. Cleveland, district manager, of the Corpus Christi Social Security office.

Formerly, payments to a widow who was receiving benefits on her deceased husband's account were stopped when she remarried.

Now, under the 1965 provisions of the law, she can receive either one-half of the amount figured on her former husband's account, or one-half of her present retired husband's primary insurance amount, whichever is higher, Cleveland said.

To illustrate, suppose that Mrs. Jones received a widow's payment of $82.50 a month after she was 62, when her husband died a few years ago. At age 64, she married again, and her checks were stopped.

She may now receive $50 a month, one half of her former husband's amount, Cleveland explained. Later, if her present husband becomes entitled to retirement benefits of more than $100 per month, her checks can be raised to one-half of his.

In this area, anyone who is affected by this change, should get in touch with the Social Security Administration, 1802 South Staples Street, Corpus Christi.

SCOUTMASTER RONNEE SCHULTZ HONORED

Scoutmaster Ronnee Schultz was honored with a surprise barbecue at the Live Oak Country Club by the committee of Troop 49. Mr. Schultz, a biologist with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, is leaving this weekend to assume similar duties with the federal government at Woods Hole, Mass.

Eighty-two scouts, explorers and parents attended the farewell party held Monday night. Committeemen L. W. Tuer and Felipe Salazar were the chefs for the outdoor banquet.

Committeeman Cecil Lang gave the invocation and later led the group in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Assistant Scoutmaster H. F. Elliot presented Mr. Schultz a framed certificate for outstanding service as scoutmaster and an engraved lighter. Senior Patrol Leader Bobby Jackson presented a scout statuette inscribed "Ronnee Schultz, Our Scoutmaster Troop 49, Rockport, Texas."

Following the barbecue, the boys and parents each said goodbye to a man who has given much time to the youth of our community.

CLASSROOM CRISIS. October and November are the most critical months in the year for school dropouts. At the start of the school term last fall, more than 3 million U.S. youngsters had left school without a high school diploma. U.S. Secretary of Commerce, John T. Connor, calls school dropouts, "The most disruptive development in our society since the war," adding that "Our youth is our most precious resource, the strength of our country's future." It's estimated 750,000 students will drop out of school this year alone, and in 10 years there will be 32 million adults in the labor force without a high school diploma. — WFS Photo.

HELP, HELP! GEESSE RAID CRANE SAFE

Austwell—Completely unrelated to public handouts, new experimental feeding areas have been completed for the migrating Whooping Cranes at the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge near here on the Texas Coast.

R. H. Shields, refuge manager, told the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, a second 98-acre "food lot," designed to supplement the marine diet for the rare birds, has been readied.

It's success was assured, he said, when the earlier arriving sandhill cranes and wild geese immediately began "mooching off" the Whooper's area.

"We didn't have any 'keep off' or 'private' signs to fit the emergency," said Shields, "so we have had to very rudely use scare guns, or rockets, to rout the intruders lest they denude the areas before the Whoopers arrive."

Shields said the second plot was provided this year after a test tract was planted last year to include such crane goodies as sweet potatoes, the grain sorghum and plain field corn. He said emphasis this year is on grain sorghum which the precious cranes seemed to prefer.

The refuge manager said the giant cranes, equipped with a monstrous bill, like to probe in the soft earth and therefore prefer tubular varieties. A new species called chufas, a sage type plant, is being tried this year, he said.

All of this is very jolly for the early-arriving slate-colored sandhill cranes, themselves very large and ordinarily chummy with the all-white Whoopers. But the honeymoon simply does not include both board and room, said Shields.

All Shields has to do is to shoo away the usual low-priority winter guests, including 60,000 ducks, 14,000 geese and 2,500 sandhill cranes and permanently convince them they definitely must not imitate the Man Who Came to Dinner.

Any time now, the royal ritual will begin as the Whoopers, mysterious travelers all, begin dropping in by the twos, the three or even fours (the latter two groupings family size) and assume the throne on their ancestral winter grounds.

Last year the first regal crane arrived Oct. 11. The median arrival time is Oct. 15.

But the pathfinder has been known to reach Black Jack Peninsula as early as Oct. 4. And since there has been an early fall 2,500 miles away in the Great Slave Lake nesting area, Manager Shields expects the first resounding north to bring in Whoopers.

Then until migration time comes next April, Shields will be airborne daily in his puddle jumper, keeping a close check on the huge birds whose personal responsibility does not always measure up to magnitude of their characteristic call.

West Oso Registers Win Over Rockport

West Oso scored two touchdowns within a space of two minutes during the first period, but had to fight doggedly to make them stand up for a 14-0 victory over a Rockport in The Caller-Times "Game of the Week" here Friday night.

The undefeated Bears, posting their second District 30-2A win in a row and extending their season record of 5-0, scored on their first two possessions and, for a short period of time it looked as if a rout was in the making.

However, Rockport came off the mat fighting, much to the joy of a highly partisan crowd of 1,500, and threatened repeatedly to spoil the Bears' spotless record.

West Oso, led by heralded Larry Sims, marched 63 yards in only six plays and came right back a short time later after Kenneth Veal had returned an intercepted pass to the Pirate 7-yard line.

Sims reeled off a 25-yard run to launch the first surge and finally bolted through right guard, cut back to his left and went over standing up for 21 yards away. Sims also kicked the first two extra points to give the Bears a 7-0 lead with 5:47 left to play in the first period.

Rockport had the ball for only two plays before Veal picked off an errant pass from sophomore quarterback Chris Edwards and returned it 39 yards to set up the second touchdown.

The Bears got the touchdown in only two plays, following Veal's fine runback, as Sims let Veal take it in. The wingback smashed through right guard twice, once for four yards and then for three to stop the clock with 3:35 remaining.

Rockport suddenly came to life on the first of three interceptions by safety man Bart Rozzell and had its first opportunity to score early in the second quarter.

Rozzell's timely defensive maneuver gave the Pirates possession at the West Oso 27 and a fourth-down pass from Edwards, who did a remarkable job of throwing the ball the rest of the way, slipped off the fingertips of end David Nava near the goal line.

Later in the same period the Pirates marched from their own 30 to the West Oso 4-yard line in 10 plays, but Rozzell, offensive left halfback, fumbled at 2 as he darted into the end zone and Veal recovered for the Bears to end that threat.

The Pirates drove 55 yards in 12 plays, advancing to the West Oso 12 this time, on their first possession of the third quarter, but again Nava was unable to find the handle on two more passes from Edwards, and Rockport was forced to give up the ball.

West Oso fullback George Williams displayed some nifty running and was primarily responsible for the Pirates' being unable to secure decent field position during the latter stages of the game.

Defensive standouts for Rockport, aside from Rozzell, were tackles Rocky Sanders and Thomas Lewis, end Bryan Barnard and linebacker Eric Henderson.

On the other side of the line, it was tackles Jerry Jackson and Will Jackson, and linebacker Eddie Calderon, along with Veal, that kept the determined Pirates from pulling off a possible upset.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITAL

By: Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Austin.—Campaigns now are underway for and against the 10 proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on Nov. 2.

However, little is being said on behalf of perhaps the most controversial of all the proposals—extending the terms of office of the governor and other statewide officials to four years. Gov. John Connally promised an all out drive for it. Organized labor strongly opposes the term stretch-out.

A 46-member committee of leading citizens, headed by Dallas banker Ben H. Wooten, is pushing Amendment 1 to increase the state college property tax levy for college building purposes from five to 10 cents. Opposition to the tax increase is developing in San Antonio.

State Bar Association is battling for Amendment 8. It provides for automatic retirement of over-age judges and sets up a commission to recommend disciplinary action against misbehaving judges.

A variety of groups have kind words to say for Amendment 2 to increase the Veterans' Land Fund to $200,000,000 and revive the program of long-term, low-interest loans to veterans for farm-ranch land buying. But there is opposition here, too.

Other amendment proposals: Permitting Texas' participation in cooperative federal-state programs of assistance to and medical care for aged, needy and handicapped; clarifying investment authority for the board of trustees of the teacher retirement system; Authorizing the Legislature to set up an $85,000,000 student loan fund; exempting certain hospitals from local property taxes; permitting the Legislature to raise salaries of Speaker of the House and Lieut. Governor and to increase lawmakers' expense allowances from $12 to $20 a day; and lengthening terms of state representatives from two to four years. Many observers have expressed concern that opposition to the four-year-terms amendments may spread over to other less controversial measures. A light voter turnout is forecast.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Eich from Houston visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Huckabee and family over the weekend.

P&WD Prods Hunters On Safe Steps

Austin — Comparative success in regularly cautioning outdoor recreationalists about water hazards, prompted the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to apply similar educational tactics to the fall hunting season.

And, just in time, according to J. B. Phillips, law enforcement coordinator, whose wardens already have reported four gun fatalities.

"We confidently believe that the average person, exuberant and sometime overly tense on an outdoor holiday, can be influenced by pre-trip briefings through publicity," said Phillips. "Our records indicate that the 193 water recreation deaths reported to the Department this summer were substantially lower than recent years, especially since boating sports have become so popular."

Phillips said the very nature of the first four accidents indicate that "the gun safety program is still wide open."

One hunter was killed by his own gun when he crawled through a fence without first carefully placing the weapon through the fence ahead of himself.

Two hunters were killed by others in almost identical accidents. They were struck in the back of the head by shotgun blasts, at close range. One involved two teen-age dove hunters. One lad's gun failed to fire. As he lowered it to determine the trouble, it went off, the charge striking a companion.

A man was killed when he stood up as a companion fired at a dove.

The fourth killed himself when he pulled a shotgun muzzle first from a car.

Phillips said too many hunters do not realize the dealiness of a shotgun at close range. "When a shotgun strikes a human being before the charge has distance enough to scatter, the inevitable result is tragic," said Phillips.

TEENAGE MARRIAGES ARE INCREASING

College Station—Parents of pre-teens, here's a question for your consideration: Will your youngster soon join the ranks of married teenagers?

Not much chance with your youngster, you may say. But you had better look again if your teenager is a girl, says Mrs. Patsy R. Yates, extension family life specialist at Texas A&M University.

"Studies show that you have almost a 50-50 chance of a teenage daughter marrying before she is 20," says Mrs. Yates.

In 1960, 48 percent of all Texas girls—or some 156,000 young women between the ages of 14 and 19—were or at some time had been married.

This high rate of teenage marriages isn't likely to go down a great deal, Mrs. Yates predicts.

"You can help your daughter or son for the responsibilities of marriage and a home by encouraging them to enroll in high school economics courses which teach management in the family and consumer buying. You can also urge them to take courses which may be offered in family relationships or family living."

These courses may not prevent teenage marriages, but they do afford a chance to prevent some teenage divorces. A frequent cause of marital problems is money. Parents can give their youngsters sound preparation for the future by teaching them to do the family grocery shopping or keeping the family business records or paying the family bills, Mrs. Yates adds.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bradley attended the football game at the University of Corpus Christi Saturday night.

GOSSIP AS USUAL. As massive Chinese troops gathered ominously along the borders of the Indian protectorate of Sikkim, and as statesmen in the United Nations sought feverishly to put an end to the undeclared war between India and Pakistan, life continued as usual in Calcutta. A New Boy Scout Handbook

New colorful cover for the seventh edition of the Boy Scout Handbook, out September 15, gives the flavor of Scouting which serves all boys. With this new edition the Boy Scout Handbook attains a total printing since 1910 of 21,175,000 copies. It is undoubtedly the single book with the largest circulation of any book produced for young people anywhere in the world.

The Boy Scout Handbook has introduced millions of boys to their first knowledge of nature lore, first aid, proper respect for the flag of the United States, and a wide range of know-how supplementing school courses.

Bearing the subtitle of "a handbook of training for citizenship through Scouting," the Boy Scout Handbook is the "spokesman" of the Boy Scouts of America. It interprets Scouting which, since 1910, has affected the lives of 40 million American boys and leaders.

Army More Than Trebles Officer Candidate Training

An expansion of the Army's officer candidate training program from an annual input of 3400 to an input of 11,700 was announced today by the Department of the Army. Increased input will begin during October 1965.

The U. S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga., where some 2,000 candidates were trained in FY 1964 will receive a total of 3,600 candidates in FY 1966. At Fort Sill, Okla., the U. S. Army Artillery School will receive 2,700 candidates as compared to the 1,200 trained in 1965.

Three officer candidate schools will be established at Fort Belvoir, Va., Fort Knox, Ky., and Fort Gordon, Ga. At Belvoir, 1,900 engineer candidates will be trained during FY 1966. Fort Gordon will begin signal training for 900 candidates.

At the U. S. Army Armour School, Fort Knox, a total of 2,600 candidates for quartermaster, transportation ordinance and armor branches will be trained in FY 1966. All candidates will receive 13 weeks of branch immaterial training at Fort Knox. During the following nine weeks, armor candidates will remain at Fort Knox and the others will attend appropriate branch schools.

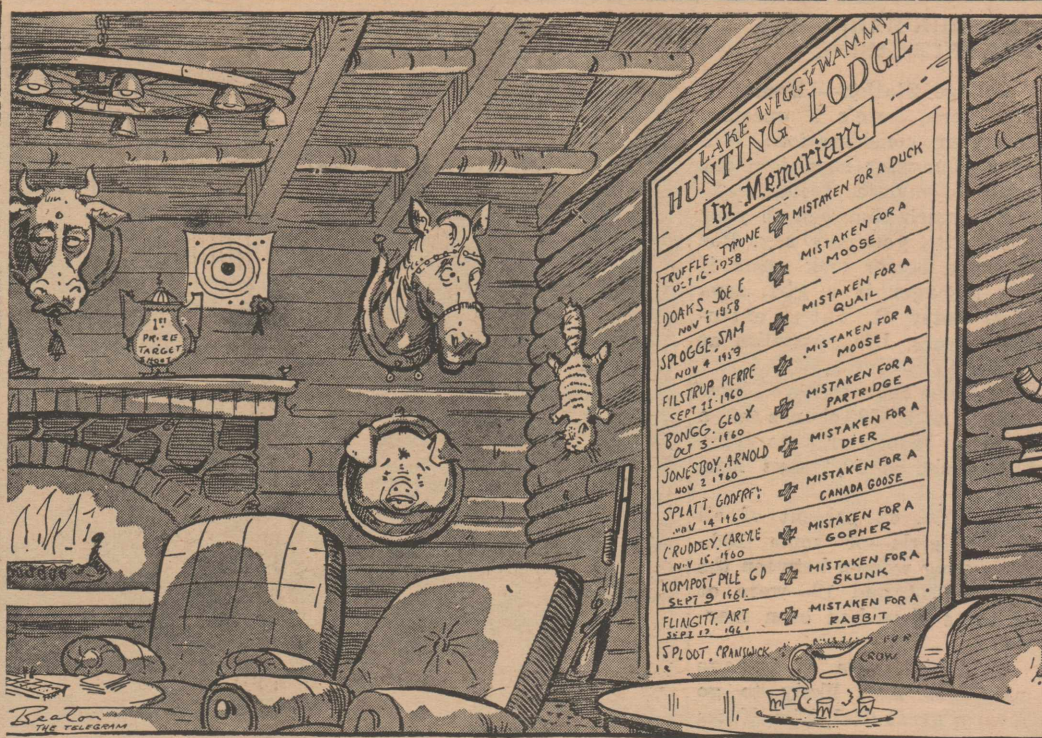

Officer candidates in military police, intelligence, chemical, medical service corps and finance branches will attend infantry OCS at Fort Benning, Ga. Following commissioning the new lieutenants will attend appropriate branch basic officer courses as required.

Graduates of officer candidate schools, which are approximately 23 weeks in length, are commissioned second lieutenants in the United States Army Reserve. Outstanding soldiers in the upper tenth of their class may be designated military graduates and may apply for a regular army commission.

Male college graduates between ages of 18½ and 28 years may enlist in the Army for the purpose of attending officer candidate school after the completion of basic combat training. They must meet the same prerequisites as enlisted men or warrant officers already in service. Interested civilians may inquire at their local recruiting stations.

Expanded OCS classes will be continued as long as necessary to meet the additional requirements of the Army for junior officers.

Mrs. Clifton Tidd recently returned from Madison, Wis., where she spent some time with her father, H. T. Nowack.

Census Indicates Texas Industries Up 40 Per Cent

Texas industries reported a 1963 value added by manufacture of $7.05 billion, an increase of 40 per cent over the value added for 1958, according to a preliminary report of the 1963 Census of Manufacturers just issued by the U. S. Department of Commerce Bureau of the Census.

"Value added by manufacture" approximates the value of products shipped minus the materials used to manufacture the products.

Chemicals and allied products led the State's industries with a value added figure of $1.7 billion, an increase of almost 57 per cent over the value added for 1958, last previous year of the Census.

In second place was petroleum and coal products, which reported a 1963 value added of $956 million, more than 61 per cent higher than in 1958. Food and allied products climbed 30 per cent in the five-year period of a 1963 total of $823 million.

Fourth place went to transportation equipment, which reported a 1963 value added of $610 million, less than one per cent higher than 1958.

Industries of the State employed 508,539 persons in 1963 compared with 478,251 in 1958 and the payroll climbed from $2.29 billion to $2.85 billion in the same period.

The report, "Texas", MC63 (P) S-44, is for sale by the Bureau of the Census, Washington, D. C. 20233 and U. S. Department of Commerce field offices. The price is 10 cents.

Parks Crack 10,000,000 'Gate' Mark

Austin.—By the margin of a comparatively few patrons, Texas parks just missed reaching the 10,000,000 attendance mark this year for the first time, reports the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Total for the state fiscal year ending was 9,837,364 as compared with 7,910,691 for last year, said W. M. "Mark" Gosdin, assistant director for parks.

He credited the approximately 2,000,000 gain to availability of new parks at Falcon and Martin Dies, Jr. and to expanded facilities generally throughout the state-wide system, particularly at Lake Whitney State Park, Inks Lake State Park, Lake Corpus Christi State Park, Garner State Park and Huntsville State Park.

1231 TEXANS TO BE DRAFTED IN NOVEMBER

Austin—Draftee-age men who married before Aug. 27 may be called by some Texas draft boards in November to help fill a quota of more than 6,000 men for physical-mental examinations, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Friday.

Currently, men in the 19-25 age range who are single and those married on Aug. 27 and since are being tapped, in accordance with an executive order issued by President Johnson in late August.

The Johnson order provided that married men who married before Aug. 27 would not be processed for armed forces services unless single men and men married since Aug. 27 are not sufficient to fill quotas. The order did not pertain to married men with children, who are deferred for dependency if boards are advised of a child or expected child in the family.

The decision to permit the forwarding of men married before Aug. 27, Colonel Schwartz said, was made because some local draft boards may not have enough available men unless the move is authorized.

"If calls are kept at their present level," the state draft director said, "the men who married before Aug. 27 likely will be needed for induction about January. We have to take preparatory steps in view of the expected situation that will face us about the first of the year."

Colonel Schwartz said that he understood from his contacts with other state directors that the move also is being made in other states.

Texas local boards are scheduled to be sent their November induction quotas Friday involving a state call for 1,231 men. This compares with state quotas of 1,504 and 1,459 for October and September, respectively. The November quota of 6,245 men to be examined is also scheduled for mailing Friday.

The November state quota of 1,231 for induction is the Texas share of a national call for 32,450 men, 28,400 for the Army, and 4,050 for the Marine Corps. An earlier request by the Navy for 4,000 men was deleted in an amended call on the states.

Colonel Schwartz also said his office had received calls for 62 physicians, 15 dentists, and six veterinarians, to be supplied in January.

Local boards already have been instructed to forward doctors, dentists, and veterinarians for examination preparatory to filling these quotas.

Mrs. Myrtle Dietrich and son, J. B. are in Galveston this week. J. B. is undergoing tests at John Sealy Hospital. While in Galveston, Mrs. Dietrich is staying with her daughter, Mrs. L. L. Lowery.

CARE Celebrates 20th Anniversary

To "Share with CARE" ... anyone purchasing such well-known household products as Bayer Aspirin, Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, Fletcher's Castoria, Midol and others, during this period, will have these products or medical supplies equivalent to the amount of his purchase donated to this distinguished American relief agency by Sterling Drug's Glenbrook Laboratories Division (or just "by this manufacturer"). Complete information is available in Roaten drug store.

"Share with CARE" is a way to salute this organization on its 20th Anniversary, in recognition and appreciation of its help in making friends for our country over seas. I hope that everyone will take advantage of this unusual opportunity of supporting CARE," Roaten stated.

EISENHOWER ONCE COACHED AT ST. MARY'S

A little-known fact about St. Mary's University, in San Antonio, is that Dwight D. Eisenhower, who later became a general and president, once was on the St. Mary's faculty at coach of its football team.

That was back in 1916 when St. Mary's still had a football team and Eisenhower was a second lieutenant, stationed at Fort Sam Houston.

He used his free afternoons to coach—aided from the sideline by his bride, Mamie Eisenhower, Ike's 1916 team at St. Mary's University lost but one game all season.

St. Mary's still proudly claims Eisenhower as its own.

Mrs. Charles Fake and daughters and Miss Linda Sadler visited in Groesbeck over the weekend with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Sadler.
