WANTED

The Hart Beat is seeking writers for a teen column and also a sports editor to cover the Hart football games and take pictures.

Youth interested in the positions should contact Mrs. Alva Henderson.

Schools Adopt Dress Code; Drug Policy Established

Hart schools have adopted a dress code and drug policy. School administrators believe that students in Hart schools are basically governed by their own values and realize that pride in themselves and their personal appearance is most important.

Most students are aware, administrators believe, that each is representing his home, his fellow students, his community and his school.

The dress code guidelines specify that a student shall be dressed in such manner that he or she will not distract from a good learning situation for the group and that each will reflect a proper and decent appearance at all times.

Girls will not be allowed to wear shorts nor excessively short dresses or skirts, including the "mini-skirt". They may not wear tight pants.

Boys must wear shirts buttoned and shirt tails tucked in. Pants which are designed for belts must be worn with belts.

Students will not be allowed to wear other students letter jackets and letter jackets from other schools are also forbidden.

Hair should be neatly combed and groomed at all times. Boys' hair lengths may not extend down the back of the neck, over the ears or eyes. Sideburns shall reach no longer than the bottom of the ear and boys must be clean shaven at all times.

Cooperation in the dress code could earn Hart students the "distinction of being the neatest dressed and cleanest looking student body in Texas", administrators believe.

The drug policy adopted by the school specifies that any student known to have a dangerous drug, alcohol or narcotic drug in his or her possession or known to be under the influence thereof, while in school or while participating in a school sponsored function, will be given due notice to appear for a hearing before the board of trustees. If found guilty, the student shall be expelled for the balance of the semester and no credits shall be given for the semester.

School Needs Bus Drivers

School bus drivers were employed for the new school year at the regular school board meeting Monday night. Two drivers are still needed.

Those employed are J. V. Wescott, Thomas Taylor, J. C. Box, C. T. Cunningham and Tom Ed Benton.

Superintendent Ted Averitt is taking applications of any interested man or woman.

School board members also adopted the Federal guidelines for the lunch program. A resolution was also passed that lunches would not be sold on a credit basis except in cases of extreme emergency.

Trustees voted to accept bids on a band building. Bids will be opened Sept. 13 at 8 p. m.

Elementary Boys Get Head Gear

Elementary boys will receive football headgear Friday morning as long as the supply lasts. It will be issued on a first come, first served basis.

Interested boys are to meet early Friday morning in the north stands of the football stadium.

New Lunch Policy Provisions Approved By Hart Schools

A free and/or reduced price lunch policy has been adopted for school children in the Hart Independent School District. The policy is designed for school children who are unable to pay the full price of school lunches.

Family size and income determines the eligibility of students in receiving the free or reduced price lunches. A chart is printed on page Families falling within these scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children. Application may be made by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school.

Applications for the lunches may be submitted any time during the school year. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches.

Information provided on the applications will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy, the principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official, he may make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision. Ted Averitt, superintendent, has been designated as the Hearing Official. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification of discrimination against any student unable to pay the full cost of a lunch.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in each school and in the office of the superintendent where it may be reviewed by any interested patron.

$104 Million Disbursed For Drouth Victims' Loans

The Farmers Home Administration has disbursed $104 million in loan funds to 9,346 drouth-affected farmers and ranchers in Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, according to a report to the President released today in Dallas by the Federal Interagency Drouth Committee.

The report has been sent to President Nixon by George A. Lincoln, chairman of the committee, established at the President's direction to accelerate and coordinate federal assistance to the four dry Southwestern states.

The FHA loans were made in three categories: emergency, operating and farm ownership. Emergency loans are being used to pay for production or living expenses and to replace livestock and equipment needed to restore operations affected by the drouth.

Operating loans are being used by farmers and ranchers to buy livestock, equipment, feed, seed, fertilizer, poultry and supplies for farm and home operations. They also may be used to refinance certain debts or to pay interest on them, pay depreciation on equipment, make minor real estate improvements, improve forest lands, or establish farm-based business enterprises to supplement farm income.

Ownership loans are being used to refinance drouth-related debts, buy lands, construct or improve buildings, improve farm land, develop water facilities, and establish farm-based business enterprises to supplement farm incomes.

The report noted that the Small Business Administration has approved its first economic injury loans for businesses in the Southwest area that have suffered losses because of the drouth. Three such loans were approved in Texas for $39,200 and two in Oklahoma for $120,000. Thirteen applications, totaling nearly $700,000, are pending in Texas.

The federal government also has been subsidizing the purchase of feed grains to assist drouth-affected stockmen in the four-state area. Thus far, 13,493 farmers and ranchers in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona have purchased 62,403 tons of the grains at about half the current market price.

In a companion program to the livestock feed grain aid, 67,778 tons of hay were transported by Southwest ranchers with two-thirds of transportation costs -- up to $20 per ton -- paid for by federal funds. To date, 2,363 farmers and ranchers in the four-state area have applied for and received this assistance.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture, working with the Drouth Committee, has filed a request with the Interstate Commerce Commission that six additional Texas counties be eligible for lower freight rates on incoming hay. The counties are Bell, Bosque, Collin, Colorado, Freestone and Wise. The provision previously applied to 11 counties in Arizona, 28 in New Mexico, 13 in Oklahoma and 166 in Texas.

USDA also requested that ICC extend to March 31, 1972, the eligibility for lower rates to the Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma counties.

Additionally, over 35,000 applications have been accepted for a newly initiated emergency conservation program in the Southwest drouth area. The program permits the federal government to pay up to 80 percent of costs for such conservation practices as water development, deep plowing, pipeline installation and water storage facility construction.

The report notes a favorable reaction from livestock men to a recent authorization allowing Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service county committees to reimburse approved livestock owners for transporting grains from Commodity Credit Corporation stocks where commercial transportation is not readily available.

In another program change, eligible livestock owners now are authorized to purchase supplies of hay, while available, to meet their needs through April 1, 1972, and to receive transportation assistance for eligible quantities at the time of purchase.

Dalton-Davis Wedding Vows Pledged In Home Ceremony

In a Saturday evening ceremony, Aug. 7, in the home of the bride's parents, Miss Patsy Ann Davis became the bride of David Dalton. Vandery Zachery of Lubbock officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dalton.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length A-line dress fashioned with whitebridalsatin accented at the waist line with a satin bow. The full length sleeves, fitted at the wrists were of lace. Her shoulder length veil fell from a pearl tiara.

The bridal bouquet, white carnations encircled with pink rosebuds, was carried atop a white Bible.

For "something old" the bride carried in her shoe an Indian head penny minted in the year 1875, property of Mrs. Aubrey Myers, sister of the groom, having been given to her by her great-grandmother, Mrs. Duck Rainey. "Something new", was symbolized by her shoes and wedding ring. She wore the traditional blue garter.

Serving as her sister's matron of honor was Mrs. Joe Kennedy of Dumas. Her semi-formal A-line dress was of pink bonded knit. A pink pill box headress held a short net veil in place.

Thomas Jim Dalton of Edmonson attended his brother as best man.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Thomas Dalton.

A reception honoring the young couple was held in the home immediately following the ceremony. The serving table, laid with a white lacecloth over pink, was centered with an arrangement of pink roses.

The traditional four-tiered wedding cake, frosted in white and touched with pink accents, was served by Mrs. Jerry Davis and Miss Lisa Coleman. Crystal and silver were used in appointments.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 411 Ave. E in the city. The bride plans to attend Hart High School as a senior student. The groom, who also attended Hart schools, is presently employed at Farmers Grain Company.

What is the appeal of coin collecting?

The obvious appeal of coins is the beauty. Coins are miniature works of art crafted by highly skilled artists. They reflect history, important events, portraits and places. But a collection offers the chance to savor the beauty of the product.

For history buffs, coins are souvenirs of the past. Coins have been where we will never be able to go. To possess them is to hold a small part of history, a handful of the past.

A coin collection leads the owner into broader interests. Our personal knowledge is enhanced by way of investment in a coin collection.

The owner of a good coin collection has many hours of pleasure at his fingertips. There are good times ahead gathering, studying and arranging his collection. There are friendships too, with people sharing the same interest.

TEXAS HOG NUMBERS UP-- Hogs on Texas farms on June 1 totaled 1,656,000 head, up 51 percent from a year ago, says the Texas Crop & Livestock Reporting Service. Nationally, hog numbers were up only 2 percent. Breeding hogs in Texas were up 43 percent but nationally, the number was down by 8 percent.

MEASURING FLOUR -- Don't shake the cup! Instead, spoon flour lightly into the measuring cup, then level off with a spatula, say USDA specialists.

CUT BACK SUGGESTED IN EGG PRODUCTION-- To avoid the extremely depressed prices of the first half of 1971, the U. S. Department of Agriculture is recommending that egg production for the first half of 1972 be reduced by 3 percent. Output at this level would result in per capita supplies near 1970 levels but below the first half of 1971 production.

CASTRO CO. H.D. AGENT

This week I've been home on vacation. My folks are here and it has been nice being off.

I know many of you have had many frustrating times trying to telephone the office. Our phone has been connected but our office is still in such a state that we can't get in to answer the phone! Please be patient. We are getting tired of all the confusion and inconvenience but it'll be worth it for us all.

Last week we had about 70 4-H'ers, leaders and parents to attend the "Fun Day" at Palo Duro Canyon. We were rained out about 2 p. m. but everyone had fun anyway. I hope we can do this every year. The 4-H Jr. Leaders were in charge and they all did an excellent job.

Those of you who need any canning or freezing bulletins may come pick them up.

Here is a recipe you may want to try. A watermelon treat that will surprise your family is watermelon rind pickles. These are the ingredients:

- 4 qts. prepared watermelon rind
- 1 c. salt
- 2 T. whole cloves
- 2 pieces gingerroots
- 8 c. sugar
- 1 qt. water
- 2 qts. cold water
- 3 sticks cinnamon
- 1 lemon
- 1 qt. white vinegar

Trim dark skin and pink flesh from thick watermelon rind; cut into one inch pieces or as desired. Dissolve lime or salt in 2 quarts water; pour over rind. If needed, add more water to cover rind. Let stand 2 hours if lime is used, or 6 hours if salt is used. Drain, rinse and cover rind with cold water. Cook until tender; drain. Tie spices in thin cloth bag, add with other ingredients and simmer 10 minutes. Add watermelon rind and simmer until clear. Add boiling water if syrup becomes too thick before rind is clear. Remove spice bag. Pack boiling into hot jars, leaving 1/8 inch head space; close. Process in boiling water bath for 5 minutes. Start to count processing time when water returns to boiling. Makes 6 pints.

The Living Bible' Slated For Release In August

"The Living Bible" will be on the market in August. This is a paraphrased version of the Bible, understandable to "ordinary people" and to children. Clergymen, Bible teachers and students have also found helpful the single volumes of portions of the larger work already published.

Kenneth N. Taylor began paraphrasing the Bible rather casually about 14 years ago. Dr. and Mrs. Taylor had family devotions with their children each evening after supper. The children had difficulty understanding the meanings in the King James Version. In preparation for one of these devotional periods, Dr. Taylor paraphrased portions of II Timothy in a simple flowing way. The family could understand the paraphrased account and became excited about it. He continued his work through all the letters of Paul - simplifying the structure shortening the sentences, replacing colons and semi-colons with periods, substituting modern words for many obsolete words used in 1611.

Dr. and Mrs. Taylor have 10 children. The family encouraged him to continue his work. He worked on it each day while commuting on the Chicago & Northwestern line, between his Chicago office and his suburban home in Wheaton. After seven years and seven complete revisions, he had about half of the New Testament completed.

Publishers refused to publish his version of the Scripture. Undaunted, he had it privately printed on credit. From a timid first printing of 2,000 copies in 1962, his orders have grown to the point at which he routinely runs printings of 100,000 copies of various portions of the Bible. The first volume, "Living Letters," was first offered in 1962. This was followed by "Living Prophecies" (1965), "Living Gospels" (1966), "Living Psalms" (1967) "Living Lessons of Life and Love" (1968), and "Living Books of Moses" (1969). These volumes sold at $2.95 to $4.95 each, according to length.

THE LIVING BIBLE, to be available in bookstores in August, is a handsomely bound volume, published jointly by Tyndale House and Doubleday.

Taylor's work is especially appealing to the more conservative Bible student. As a paraphrase of the Scripture, it is interpretative without apology. Doubleday is basing its promotional campaign on the endorsement of Billy Graham. In 1963, the Billy Graham organization used a special edition of the work. This was the impetus needed to popularize Mr. Taylor's paraphrased version of the Scripture. Although conservative Christians have embraced its use, the text is also being widely used among the new wave of "Jesus People". The Hollywood Free Paper, the printed voice of the West Coast, "Jesus Freaks", uses THE LIVING BIBLE when Scripture is quoted in its pages.

Mr. Taylor supplies ample interpretive footnotes. For example, in John 1:1, where Mr. Taylor uses "Christ" instead of "Word", he adds this footnote, "Literally, THE WORD meaning Christ the wisdom and power of God and the first cause of all things; God's personal expression of Himself to men."

This modern paraphrase of the Bible makes use of the idiom of "dollars" instead of traditional "talents". The parable of the man going into the far country and entrusting his servants with varying amounts of money (Matthew 25:14-30) has one servant receive $5,000, another $2,000 and another $1,000.

The 54 year old Wheaton, Illinois, resident used the American Standard Version of 1901 for his paraphrasing. Most scholars recognize the ASV as being responsible to the older known texts.

Mr. Taylor receives no royalties from the sale of the Bible he publishes. Profits go to a foundation which supports translations in 51 languages, from Arabic to Zulu.

Lanny Tucker Attends Meet

Lanny Tucker attended a vocational agriculture teachers in-service conference last week in Dallas. Approximately 1100 vocational agriculture instructors from throughout Texas attended the conference.

Workshops were held on various topics relating to vocational agriculture teaching and the State Vocational Agriculture Director gave the keynote address, "Agriculture Education for the 70's".

Tucker's son, Jim, made the trip with his father and visited Six Flags Over Texas.

LEAKY MEAT PACKAGES -- "Why can't meat be packaged without dripping?" consumers often ask. Dripping can result from meat warming during the cutting and packaging process, from the refrigerated display not being cold enough, or from the package warming between the time of selection and refrigeration at home.

'Encounter Crusade' Begins Sunday Night In Plainview

Encounter Crusade, an area-wide effort of Baptist churches will be held in Plainview's Bulldog Stadium beginning Sunday, Aug. 15 and continuing through Friday, Aug. 20.

Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Dallas, will be the evangelist. Lee Roy Till, minister of music at the Dallas church, will be song leader.

Services will begin at 8 p.m. each evening. The Crusade is one of the largest meetings to be scheduled in the Plainview area in history and everyone is invited.

One of the most dynamic preachers in the country, Dr. Criswell has just completed a preaching mission to the Holy Land. He has written many books and articles and is recognized as one of the great exponents of the literal interpretation of the Holy Bible.

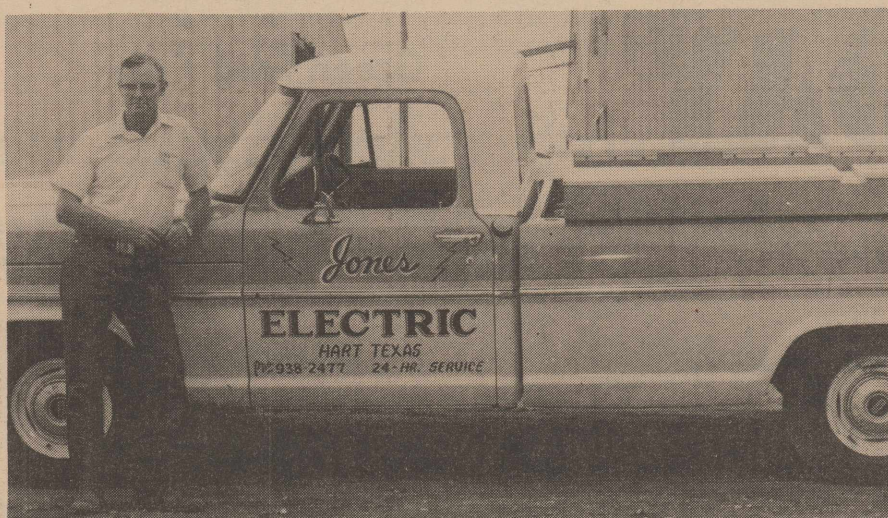

Till has achieved a reputation as one of the most effective directors of religious music in the United States and has led singing and mass choirs at revival meetings throughout this country and in Europe and the Orient. He is an accomplished tenor vocalist.

In addition to special music by Till, the Crusade will also feature singers well known to audiences in this area. A giant Crusade choir is planned.

Personalities will give their testimony and the meeting promises to be one of anticipation and excitement.

You'd probably love to have a car like this to fool around with. But suppose you had to drive it day in and day out?

We Americans are used to having the latest, and we don't like to live with what seems out-of-date to us. For that reason, a good many of us don't go to church. We tell ourselves that church was great for Grandma and Grandpa, or maybe even for Mom and Dad, but it has no place for us in this jet age.

If we believe this . . . then it is we who are out-of-date! The Church today is a modern institution in touch with the world around it. It helps us cope with the problems of modern life, teaching us to change with a changing world. Let's catch up with the times. Let's attend church.
