Worth

By Nanalee Nichols

Early Sunday morning Thomas and I decided to take our niece and her little two year on a trip to see what kind of animals we could locate.

Before our hour journey was up we had encountered an astonishing number of critters.

We started out with llamas. We also found about a dozen little lambs, gamboling and jumping around.

We pulled over on the side of the road enough times to have caused traffic jams if there had been any traffic to jam.

We pulled over to let the little boy watch newborn calves wobble by their mother's sides. We parked on the shoulder for a long time to watch three ostriches wander around in their pens with that strangely graceful walk they have.

On a dirt road we watched two pigs rush to the front of their pens, thinking that we were bringing them their breakfast.

There was a mule to discuss, and a donkey to watch with it's long-eye-lashed eyes and wooly face.

A Vietnamese pot bellied pig, of rather amazing proportions wandered by the roadside rooting around.

Then we paused to observe several goats jumping around, peering through a metal gate.

A herd of horses provided some moments of observance, as did "Wed Kardnals" (the toddler's exact words) feeding on rotting bois'darc apples, a shrike, catbird, great blue heron, ducks, geese and blue jays.

We couldn't find a rabbit, but that was about the only thing the child mentioned that we didn't find.

All in all it was almost as satisfying as a trip to a zoo!

What was so astonishing to me was the number of different types of animals running around in the area!

I don't believe I had realized that there are so many types of things to be seen on a short jaunt through the countryside.

The weather's fine, the days are sunny, take a mini-excursion of your own, keep you eyes open, and it's almost as good as a drive-through game park!

Kids Get Chance To Put Their Stamp On The World

Young people in Bogata will have a chance to put their stamp on the world by participating in an environmental postage stamp design contest announced February 28 by the Postal Service and McDonald's family restaurants. Postmaster Ron Thurman is looking forward to helping kids get involved in the contest. "I hope this effort opens a new world to our youth," said Postmaster Thurman. "Combining kids' interests in the environment and stamp collecting promises to be fun for everyone. I hope that many of our local youth participate in the contest, and who knows, maybe someone from Bogata Elementary School will be the winner!"

The contest invites kids from the 50 U.S. states and the District of Columbia, ages eight through 13 as of April 30, 1994, to design an official U.S. postage stamp depicting ways to protect, preserve or restore the environment.

Contest winners will join a small, select group of internationally acclaimed artists whose art has appeared on U.S. postage stamps. This contest marks the first time this generation of kids has had the opportunity to enter such a competition.

Two finalists will be selected from each of the states and the District of Columbia. Each will receive a $100 U.S. Savings Bond (value at maturity) and a framed copy of their artwork. Four winners selected from the 102 finalists will receive the finalist prize and an additional $3,000 in U.S. Savings Bonds (value at maturity), and a trip for three people to Washington, D.C. to attend the first day of issue stamp ceremony. Best of all, their design will be printed on millions of the U.S. postage stamps.

Contest rules and entry forms will be available beginning March 4, at post offices and participating McDonald's restaurants nationwide. In addition, the Postal Service and McDonald's have sent environmental education kits to elementary and middle schools across the country. The kits include environmental education activities for teachers to use in the classroom.

Students can participate in the contest if they are legal U.S. residents and are ages eight through 13 as of April 30, 1994. Individuals unable to visit a post office or McDonald's may obtain official contest rules by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to "Stamp Rules," P.O. BOX 689, Gibbstown, N.J. 08027-0689. No purchase is necessary. All entries must be mailed and received by April 30, 1994. Children of Postal Service or McDonald's employees are not eligible to participate.

Both the Postal Service and McDonald's have been recognized for their environmental achievements. The Postal Service operates the largest compressed natural gas (CNG) alternative fueled delivery fleet in the nation and recycles nearly 345,000 tons of waste each year, generating about $1,350,000 million in revenue annually. McDonald's purchases approximately $200 million worth of recycled products each year as part of an overall effort that earned the company the President's environmental and Conservation Challenge Award in 1991.

Country Cooking

By Judy Screws

Our cook of the week is a lady who is quite well known in this part of the country. Joyce Alexander and her husband, Wayman, live in Talco. Joyce was a long time employee of the newspapers. She was the editor of Talco Times for many years. Mr. Alexander is a retired Oilfield worker. I understand that one of his claims to fame is that he has the most beautiful garden in Talco each year. Of course this means that Joyce has much produce to put up.

The Alexanders have 2 daughters, Brenda and Beverly, who both graduated from Rivercrest High School, and two grandchildren.

Joyce is an active member of the First Baptist Church, of Talco. She is active in WMA and is Church Clerk. She is reputed to be at church every time the doors open. This is a nice reputation to have.

Joyce's recipes which she has chosen to share with us this week look wonderful. They are: Never Fail Crunchy Salmon Patties, Banana Nut Cake, Fruit Salad and Sweet and Sour Meat Loaf.

I thank Joyce for letting us feature her and her recipes this week. Hope you enjoy them.

Mr. and Mrs. Greg Russell

Martin - Russell Exchange Wedding Vows

Tracy Lynn Martin and Gregory Dean Russell exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at 2 P.M., Saturday, March 12, 1994, in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church, Savoy. Rev. Joe Cruse, from Corpus Christi, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Eddie and Debbie Martin, of Tyler, and granddaughter of Leon and Jean Hughes, of Savoy.

The groom, son of Jerry and Barbara Russell, of Talco, is the grandson of Josephine Mankins, of Mt. Pleasant.

Altar rails in the chapel were trimmed in evergreen garlands interspersed with burgundy roses and ribbons. Heart-shaped candelabra entwined with ivy, burgundy roses and bows, and white doves were placed on either side of the arch with matching decorations. Baskets of ivy and burgundy flowers with live ferns completed the bridal setting. Burgundy satin bows marked the family pews.

Traditional wedding music was provided at the piano, followed by the wedding march and recessional at the organ, by Mrs. Phyllis Neely, of Bells. Soloists were Mrs. Karen Cruse Adams, of Rowlett, Miss Janie Cruse, of Rowlett, and Mrs. Jog Cruse, of Corpus Christi.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's floor length white satin gown was adorned with chantilly lace, beaded pearls, and sequin designs. The full skirt fell to a cathedral train outlined with chiffon puffs. The cascading bridal bouquet of white and burgundy roses, created by Carol Leake, of Talco, was interspersed with burgundy and mauve flowers and accented with pearls, ribbons, and baby's breath.

Deanna Martin, sister of the bride, from Tyler, served as maid of honor, and Jerilyn Russell, sister of the groom, from Talco, was bridesmaid. Each carried a long-stemmed burgundy rose tied with burgundy and mauve streamers and bows. Their gowns were green floor-length brocade satin.

Flower girls were Emily Reynolds, of Savoy and Tiffany Gilliam, of Bells, both cousins of the bride. They wore identical burgundy dresses and carried baskets of rose petals decorated in burgundy and green.

The groom and his attendants were attired in black tuxedos. Best man was Edison Hughes, of Savoy, uncle of the bride. Groomsman was Mark Moreno, from Irving.

Junior candlelighters were Courtney Hughes, of Savoy, and Bradley Gilliam, of Bells, cousins of the bride. Serving as ushers and also candlelighters were John Easley, from Bogata, and Joe Don Gipson, of Sachse, cousin of the groom. Ring bearer was Heath Gipson, of Sachse, cousin of the groom.

Following their honeymoon to Lake Tahoe, Nevada, the couple will be at home in Denison. The groom is a Texas Utilities employee, in Sherman, and the bride is a student at Grayson County College, Sherman.

To honor the newlyweds, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. The bride's cake decorated with burgundy and green was a seven tier confection of satellite cakes. A traditional two layer chocolate cake decorated with fresh strawberries was served from the groom's table. Members of the house party included Sherry Reynolds, Brenda Brooks, and Lena Hensley, of Savoy; Lee Harland and Margie Hensley, of Denison; along with Donna Branch and Glenda Gilliam, of Bells.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Russell, parents of the groom, hosted a barbecue dinner in the church's fellowship hall for the wedding party on Friday evening before rehearsal. At this time the bride and groom presented gifts to their attendants.

I would like to express my feelings that no higher honor can be placed on an individual than to be entrusted with the government of the people.

During the next four years, I will strive to live up to receiving such an honor.

Neither I, nor the commissioners have all the answers; your suggestions and input will always be welcome. The County Judge's door will remain open to receive suggestions and criticisms alike.

Chili Cookoff Has Old Favorites, New Things To Offer!

The Fifth Annual DePort American Legion and DePort Volunteer Fire Department Chili Cookoff is rapidly approaching.

The first event in the fundraiser will be on Friday night, April 1st at 5:30 p.m. with a chili and stew supper at the DePort American Legion Building. Adults and children over 6 years old will pay $3 for chili, stew and all the trimmings. Children under six years of age will eat free.

At 7:30 p.m. that same night a big auction will kick off at the DePort Fire Station next to the Legion Hall.

The auction will have items from baked goods to farm equipment and lots of items in between. Special homemade fried pies will be featured as well as a number of other items.

The Saturday schedule of events is as follows:

Booths for arts and crafts, fun and activities will go on most all day. Games for children and adults will be going on all morning, from basketball tosses to "fish pond", with prizes and other games of skill will lighten the day.

A concession stand will be open to provide a variety of food items (like that delicious brisket) and soft drinks, chili cookoff tee shirts, and to sell raffle tickets and duck race tickets. This year's tee-shirts will feature the State of Texas, a big ribbon and the traditional symbol of this cookoff, the cotton and chili pepper. It will be a one-of-a-kind custom design, which will not be found anywhere else.

Buttons bearing the logo will also be on sale.

The raffle items are always very nice and tickets will be $1. There should be three items so there are three chances to win.

New this year will be classic cars. Everyone will have the opportunity to vote on their favorite old car, which will be awarded a trophy.

Competition among the chili cooks will be intense. There will be a People's Choice Award, which all attendees can vote on, a showmanship award, a fire department division, a Bean competition and Local and CASI divisions for the chili.

The Duck Race will be at 2:00 p.m. with tickets $5 each. Tickets are available from Fire Department members, at the concession stand and at local businesses. First Place will be $150; 2nd place, $75; 3rd $25.

It's fun to watch the little plastic "racing ducks" scooting down the creek, so come watch and root for YOUR duck to win!

At 2:30 there will be a bed race. If you haven't seen a bed race, you really should. Teams of nightshirt and nightcap clad racers push a bed, complete with occupant, down the street in front of the Legion Hall. The races are absolutely hilarious. Entry fees are only $5 and first and second places will pay according to the number of entries.

Chili judging will be from 3 to 4 p.m. with awards given at 4:00 p.m.

There will be all kinds of arts and crafts booths set up on main street.

Anyone wishing to set up a booth may contact Dawne Darden at Darden-Sparks Department Store at 652-4515 or at home at 652-9292.

Booth fees are only $5 and all sale proceeds are kept by the booth holder. They should bring their own booth displays and tables.

No outside food sales will be allowed. Food and drink can be purchased through the concession stand. Anyone who would like to sign up to cook beans or chili (or both) may do so. Entry fee is $15, bean fee is $5.

Call Marilyn Glover at City Drug at 652-3456 or Don Denison at 652-2425.

The whole day will be filled with fun, as the CASI (Chili Appreciation Society International) cooks are a grand and whacky bunch who keep things rolling. It's worth a trip just to see the showmanship these people come up with, and purchasing a tasteful cup in the afternoon to sample their concoctions is worthwhile too.

This year trophies will be a pseudo newspaper titled the Chili/Cotton Chronicle and will be different from those in the past.

Local cooks are urged to enter the chili and bean contest. They follow the same rules and receive the same awards and have as much fun as the CASI "professionals". Trophies will be given in the local division, bean division, CASI division and for People's Choice and Showmanship.

Come out to DePort and have a dandy day!

David Hudson,
New Division Manager

David Hudson Named Northern Division Manager

Texas-New Mexico Power Company recently announced the appointment of David Hudson as division manager in its Northern Division. Hudson, whose appointment was effective February 28, replaces Bobby Burchfield, who retired.

Hudson began his career with the Company in his home town of Bogata in 1952. His most recent assignment was as Area Manager in the Company's Perryton area office. He also held positions with the Company in Nocona and Talco. He interrupted his service with the Company to serve two stints in the U.S. Army from 1957-59 and 1961-62.

Hudson has been active in community affairs throughout his years with TNP. In Perryton, he was a member of the Rotary Club and served on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

He and his wife, Fredrika, have three children and two grandchildren.

TNP is a Fort Worth based electric utility which serves about 212,000 customers in its Texas and New Mexico divisions. The Northern Division is headquartered in Lewisville.

Caution Around Power Lines Is A Safe Bet.

Avoiding contact with power lines is a safe bet for preventing accidents. Whether the contact is direct or indirect - through something you're holding - you could be seriously injured. Make sure that you stay clear of power lines when you're working outdoors with ladders, television antennas or anything that could touch the line. Also, remind your children to keep kites away from power lines and to stay out of trees that could come into contact with a line. For more information about electrical safety, call or visit your local TNP office and ask for your free brochure, "Straight Talk about Electrical Safety."

Homecoming Is April 9

This is official. Bogata Homecoming is April 9. It doesn't matter what you may have read or heard, there is no other date.

The theme for the program will be "A Song Remembers When".

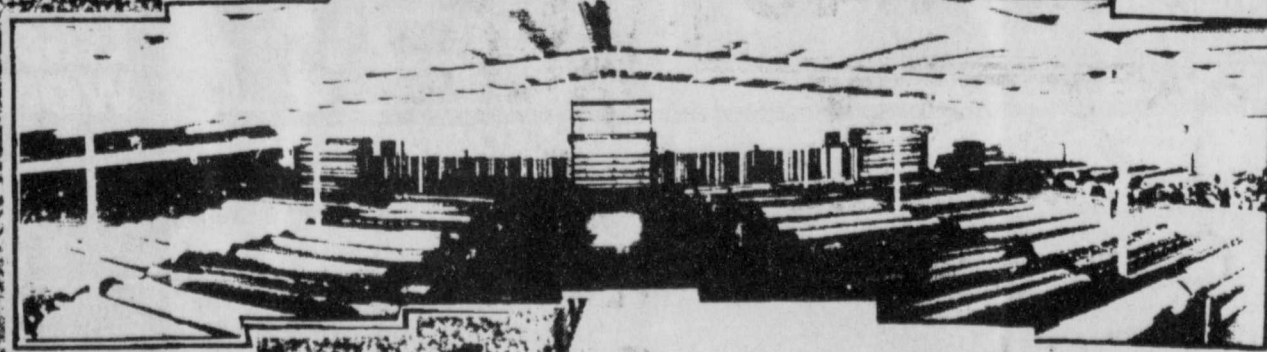

The Bogata Lions Club will serve the Barbeque and all the trimmings meal at the Bogata Cafeteria, after which the business meeting and program will follow.

There are to be several class reunions on the day of the Homecoming. One of those is the class of 1944 who will be celebrating 50 years since they graduated. They will meet from 2-4 p.m. at the Fellowship Hall of the First Assembly of God Church. The class of 1956 will meet from 2-4 p.m. in the fellowship hall of The First Baptist Church. The class of 1964 has decided to not have a private reunion at this time but will do so in July. They will just enjoy the general Homecoming at this time. There will be more information forthcoming about that reunion.

Be sure to make plans to attend all the festivities. You can't help but have a good time.

Little Dribblers Hold End-Of-Season Tourney

The Talco-Bogata Little Dribbler boy and girls teams ages fourth through sixth grades, competed in an end-of-season tournament at Rivercrest High School on March 18-19.

Several teams suffered the loss of players to chicken pox, forcing them to play shorthanded.

First Baptist Youth Give Spring Break

Inner City Houston is a dangerous place to be, you hear of crimes being committed daily on television or read about them in the newspapers.

With this in mind, and fully trusting in the Lord, the youth of First Baptist, Bogata, spent their spring break at a mission in Inner City Houston. The name of the mission they stayed at was "Joy".

Coming from a small town like Bogata, and going to Inner City Houston is quite a change. In Bogata you don't have to worry about drive-by shootings, don't have to worry about your van being stolen during the night while you sleep, and we don't have to be concerned about gangs. But in Inner City Houston, you do and many more things. Where we stayed you couldn't go outside by yourself at all, we had to keep the mission locked almost all the time we were there. The work done at the mission is very hard but it is rewarding also. While we were at the mission, we held Bible club for four year olds through twelve year olds. The youth, along with adult leaders led the children in Bible stories and did a craft with them on Tuesday. The youth also sorted clothes that had been donated to the mission and were given to the needy, on Thursday the boys spent their time getting groceries ready to be distributed to those in need. There were over 100 bags of groceries given out. The girls spent their time working in the nurseries, they have one for birth through 12 months and one for the children who are one year old through three years old. The girls were in charge of 27 children. There is always something to do at the mission, but as was said earlier, it is such a blessing to be able to help the needy.

Those attending were Steven Thomas, Melanie Woodlee, Karen Harper, Melissa Baer, A.J. Lee, Andy Speir, the leaders who accompanied the group were Bryan Baggett, Paula Speir and Linda Eilers.

Daingerfield State Park Is Destination For Camp-Out

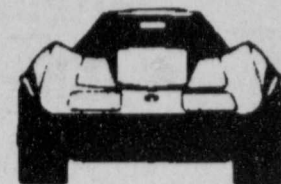

Daingerfield State Park was the destination for a two and one-half day camp out of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. They left right after church Sunday, with Bob and Tallie Bush in the church van and trailer. It was an easy trip, arriving with plenty of time to pitch tents and set up the kitchen.

The nights were cold and a campfire felt good. Days were clear and sunny, good for hikes, canoeing, fishing. The time was also used for planning and goal setting; officers elected were: Brooke Belcher, president; John White, secretary; LaTasha Brown, chairperson, committees for activities and services will be appointed later. The group chose "Young Followers" as their name. Other than the new officers, campers were Krisha Allums, Brandon Cantrell, Jeremy Cantrell, Craig Combs, Craig Eudy, Jill Foster, Carey Gable, Brandi Gaddis, Aubrey Herring, Carlos LeClaire, Amanda Mullin, John White and Linda White.

Before returning to Bogata, the group visited Natural Food Associates Center in Atlanta and were shown around the organic farm by director Bill Francis. He told the group they need to set goals for their own futures now, and the growing need to be better stewards of the earth will create a demand for workers in "Bioremediation" careers. A whole new field is opening up for today's children to plan for jobs in their futures.

After stopping for pizza in Mt. Pleasant, they got home before dark on Tuesday, tired, dirty and happy with the trip.

Poison Prevention Week Being Observed

The third week in March is designated as Poison Prevention Week. This annual event is designed to raise awareness of the dangers of accidental poisoning, and to inform people of the necessity of keeping potential poisons, including medicines, away from children at all times.

The number of pediatric poisonings reflects a need to focus poison prevention efforts on toxic substances found in the home. People should always: Keep all medicines out of the reach of children. Never assume that Child-Resistant containers are child PROOF containers.

Carefully store drain openers, solvents, anti-freeze, kerosene, gasoline, pesticides or other toxic material out of the reach of children.

There are Poison Control Centers throughout the United States that maintain information for health care professionals and the public on recommended treatment for the ingestion of household products and medicines. They are familiar with the toxicity of most substances found in the home, or know how to find this information. Their phone number can be found on the inside cover of the yellow or white pages of the phone directory. Advise all of your patients to post this number on their telephones. If they need to call a Poison Control Center in an emergency, they will need to give the following information.

The victim's age and weight
Existing health conditions or problems.
The substance involved: was it swallowed, inhaled, absorbed through the skin or splashed into the eyes?
If any first aid has been given
If the victim has vomited
Their location and how long it would take them to get to a hospital.

Parents could call their Poison Control Center or physician immediately if children ingest medicines. For household chemical products they should follow first aid instructions on the product label, then call their Poison Control Center or physician. If unable to reach either of these they should call 911.

A one-ounce bottle of syrup of ipecac is a good thing to keep on hand for each child or grandchild in a home. But, before administering ipecac, Poison Control or physician should be contacted as it is not recommended for every poisoning situation.

Poison Prevent

The Texas Dept. of Health will hold Immunization Clinics on the first, second, and third Thursday of each month. Hours are from 9-11:30 am and 1:00 - 2:30 pm. The clinics will be conducted at 1300 Highway 37 north in Clarksville. Parents are reminded that all children must be accompanied by an adult and bring the child's immunization records and Social Security Number if it is available.

An Ounce of Prevention ...

- Keep household products and medicines out of reach and out of sight of children, preferably in a locked cabinet or closet.
- Never leave children alone - even for a moment - with medicines or household products.
- Store medicines and poisonous household products in their original containers - never in cups or soft drink bottles.
- Read a product's label before using it, and pay special attention to instructions regarding poisoning or harmful exposure.
- Always turn on the light before giving or taking medicine.
- Refer to medicines by their proper names, not as candy.
- Try not to take medicine in front of children, and never take liquid medicine directly from the bottle. Children imitate adult behaviors.
- Get rid of old medicines periodically by flushing them down the drain, rinsing the containers with water, and then discarding them.
- Dispose of hazardous household products in accordance with local ordinances. Always call your local recycling center for instructions on how to properly discard hazardous household chemicals.
- Ask for and use household substances which are available in child-resistant packaging. Insist on safety packaging for prescription medicines.
- Keep a bottle of ipecac syrup on hand. In the event of accidental poisoning, call your poison control center or physician. Do not use ipecac until instructed to do so.
- Have the numbers of your local poison control center and physician near the telephone at all times.

Bogata Lions Have Stew At Meeting

The Bogata Lions Club met Thursday March 17, at the Community Center.

Vice President, Kenneth Vickers Presided.

David Rozell led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Mr. Raymond Franklin gave the invocation.

The group voted to help the City of Bogata help pay for the riding lawnmower they will purchase. It was reported that the $283.72 raised with the concession stand at the auction of Everett Garrett's property, was donated to the Bogata Cemetery Association in honor of Mr. Garrett, who was a long time Lions Club Member.

The body voted to help with the Fish Fry to be held April 16, at the American Legion area across from the fairgrounds in Clarksville. The fish fry is to benefit the Child Protection Agency and is an annual event.

Stew was served by Carl Wood and Buford Hervey; Robbie Hawkins contributed the Melt in your mouth Butter Roll, for which she is noted.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
