95 Vacationers Perish In British Liner Crash

By BORIS BOSKOVIC

LJUBLJANA, Yugoslavia (AP)—A British airliner carrying 117 persons on a vacation to Yugoslavia crashed and burned today as it came in for a landing and 95 persons perished.

Officials here said 80 persons died when the plane plunged into a woods shortly after midnight in cloudy weather near the airport of this mountain city.

The other victims died in hospitals or on the way. Officials said that of the 22 survivors, two were in serious condition but the others were out of danger.

Rescue workers said those who survived had nearly all been seated in the back of the plane.

When the first rescuers appeared, about a dozen survivors were stumbling about, weeping in shock and hysteria.

It was the worst air diaster in Yugoslav history.

The four-engine Britannia turboprop crashed shortly after midnight on a flight from Luton Airport, 30 miles north of London.

The plane had just cleared the snow-covered peaks of north Yugoslavia's Julian Alps which rim this prosperous and modern capital of Slovenia. It was coming in for a normal landing when it crashed in a field near the runway.

The passengers were British tourists coming to Yugoslavia for a late summer vacation.

Survivors were rushed to the Ljubljana hospital, which issued an immediate appeal for blood donations.

Authorities in Ljubljana, 80 miles northeast of Trieste, rushed an investigating commission to the crash site.

Ljubljana police said 80 persons were killed in the crash, five others died en route to hospitals, and five other after admission to hospitals.

The plane was flown by Britannia Airways, which operates charter flights for British travel agencies. It was the company's first accident since it was fromed five years ago.

The Britannia 102 plunged into a field near Ljubljana's Brnik Airport in the vicinity of the village of Modemnda.

There was no immediate word on identities of the dead and the survivors.

Britannia Airways sent an emergency flight from Luton to bring company officials here.

The last major crash involving a British-owned airliner was on March 5 when a British Overseas Airways Corp. Boeing 707 jet crashed near Tokyo with the loss of 124 lives.

The last Britannia to crash, also a charter plane, came down in the mountains near Innsbruck, Austria, in February, 1964, killing 83 persons.

Among the injured survivors were Arthur Rowcliff of Dunday, Berkshire, his wife Margaret and daughter Pania.

From his hospital bed Rowcliff said:

"We were all sitting together in the back of the plane when I suddenly felt the plane starting to fly slower. At the same time it started to vibrate. A few seconds later we crashed. The plane bounced back into the air and then hit down again.

Thant Turns Down New Term At UN

By MILTON BESSER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U Thant rejected today a new five-year term as secretary-general of the United Nations.

"I have decided not to offer my self for a second term as secretary-general," Thant said, "and to leave the Security Council unfettered in its recommendation to the General Assembly with regard to the next secretary general."

Thant's statement, contained in a message to the 117 delegations of the U.N., gave no indication he was willing to stay on for an indefinite period while the Security Council tackles the job of finding a new secretary-general. His term expires Nov. 3.

The statement of the soft-spoken, popular Burmese, issued after heavy pressure from U.N. members to persuade him to stay on, reflected his disillusionment and dissatisfaction with the arduous job.

He said he had to "confess to a sense of dissatisfaction with the fact that the organization has not yet achieved universality of membership." This was a reference to the continued absence of Red China as a member.

The Thant decision raised the prospect of new East-West wrangling over a successor, similar to that in 1961, before the Burmese was chosen.

It also threatened to raise once again the Soviet issue of a 'troika" — or three-pronged — directorate which theoretically would represent East, West and neutrals.

There still was a possibility of a movement among Security Council members to draft Thant for the job, and even a possibility that he might succumb to the pressure being applied by many nations, including the United States and the Soviet Union.

However, there seemed a note of finality in Thant's words.

Thant said he had been touched and overwhelmed by the appreciation of his services expressed by heads of government and added:

"If I have not found it possible to accept their urging to be available for a further term of office, it is not for lack of appreciation and gratitude for their sentiments.

'It is my belief, as I have said more than once in the past, that a secretary-general of the United Nations should not normally serve for more than one term.

DeGaulle Claims US Delays Talks

By DAVID MASON

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — French President Charles de Gaulle said today there was no chance of peace negotiations to end the Viet Nam war until the United States agrees to a timetable for the withdrawal of its armed forces.

He told 60,000 cheering Cambodians that, although the time was not yet ripe for a negotiated settlement, "short of the universe rolling toward catastrophe, a political agreement alone could bring back peace."

De Gaulle did not call for withdrawal of American forces as a prelude to negotiations — as North Viet Nam and its Communist supporters have demanded — but said:

"The possibility and even more, the opening of such a vast and difficult negotiation (to end the war) would obviously depend on the decisions and commitments which America would previously have chosen to take and enter into to repatriate its forces at an appropriate and fixed period of time."

No matter how long the war goes on, De Gaulle said, "France holds as certain that it will meet with no military solution."

There was no immediate comment from the State Department in Washington.

Requests For Concessions At Fair Due

Another reminder has gone out to clubs and organizations planning to operate concessions stands at the Scurry County Fair Oct. 6-7-8.

Applications for concessions space should be submitted as soon as possible to Mrs. Roy Hanson at the county extension office. The telephone number is 3-3282.

The Scurry County Fair Association is now in the process of allotting space for concessions and clubs who plan to operate stands should make their requests immediately.

Service clubs will be allotted space for three days for a fee of $7.50. Others will receive space as it is available on allotted days at the rate of $2.50 per day.

Jaycees To Operate Holiday Rest Stop

The Snyder Jaycees will operate a Labor Day Rest Stop at Rip Griffin's Skelly truck stop on US 180-84 Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights. Horace Caldwell, chairman of the Jaycee committee, said coffee and soft drinks will be made available to motorists passing along the highway during the Labor Day holidays.

"If we can encourage one weary motorist to rest and prevent an accident, then we figure the project will have been worthwhile," he said.

RAINS IN MEXICO

Presidio Expects More Flooding

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More rain fell at flood-plagued Presidio in the Big Bend country and fresh showers and thunderstorms kept a broad stretch of the state farther north and east under siege today.

Up to four inches of rain drenched rural areas near Memphis in the lower Texas Panhandle overnight. The measurement in Memphis was 1 inch.

Moisture amounts at other points included Alpine 1.84 inches, Lufkin .81, Childress .42, Wichita Falls .38, San Angelo .37, Beaumont .35, Amarillo .10 and Midland .09.

Presidio, where the swollen Rio Grande has blocked the auto toll road to Mexico and washed out a railroad bridge, received only .12 inch of rain in a nightlong electrical storm.

Reports of still more downpours in northern Mexico, however, raised concern over possibly a four-foot rise in the flooding stream by about Friday.

Shower activity meanwhile spread eastward in early morning from near Midland in West Texas, growing into occasional thunderstorms from around Wichita Falls and Breckenridge past Jacksboro. A broken area of showers up to 50 miles wide extended northward into Oklahoma.

At the same time mostly light showers dotted an area 20 to 50 miles wide south of a Fort Worth, McKinney, Tyler line.

Late Wednesday Farwell, in West Texas near the New Mexico line, measured 1.20 inches of rain within an hour. Hail accompanied the storm.

Thunderstorms also rumbled through North and East Texas in the evening and showers fell everywhere except in the south part of the state.

Mexican rivers pouring into the Rio Grande above Presidio sent the stream out of banks Monday. Its level dropped to slightly under 18 feet today but another rise was expected.

Presidio's official weather reporter, Oliver Harper, said there were vague reports by Mexican radio "and the grapevine of a 10-inch cloudburst two days ago on the San Pedro River.

Lake Catches More Water

Moderate to heavy showers which fell in western Scurry County and in Borden County yesterday were sending more water into Lake J. B. Thomas.

Bull Creek was flowing a brisk stream into the lake this morning and apparently more water was on the way. Both Bull Creek and Gavitt Creek were out of their banks at U.S. Highway 180 crossings late Wednesday.

The lake elevation at midmorning today was 2243.90. That represents a gain of about 1½ feet since Sunday and the rate of gain in elevation early today was .08 of a foot per hour.

The Colorado River, which had flowed for a time earlier in the week, had subsided to a trickle this morning. However, the Bull Creek flow raised hopes that another substantial gain in elevation would be logged today.

Attack Launched On Mosquitoes

The recent rains could provide excellent breeding places for mosquitoes, according to Louie Vaughan, county sanitarian.

Local health authorities are not worried about an epidemic of encephalitis or sleeping sickness occurring here, but they are doing everything they can to eradicate mosquitoes. There have been no official reports of the disease here, although the culex type mosquito, a carrier of sleeping sickness, has been discovered in the area.

A young high school graduate at Loraine contracted the disease, according to information received here, but she will recover from the sickness. A few cases have been reported in Lubbock County. None have been reported in Scurry County, according to the health unit.

With one spraying truck and crew, City and County officials devote most of their mosquito control efforts to the larger ponds and bodies of stagnant water where the pests breed. They urged private home owners to check their property for stagnant water or places where mosquitoes breed.

"It's best to eliminate the water," said Vaughan, "However a cup of kerosene or any solution with an oil-base will prevent mosquitoes from breeding."

Water standing in evaporative coolers, old tires, and cess pools often make ideal breeding grounds for the pests, according to local health authorities.

They suggested that local residents confine their outdoor activities to a minimum. A person who remains inside behind screened doors and windows between dusk and sunrise is less likely to be bitten, they pointed out.

Any good mosquito repellant or spray is a handy item to keep around the house. The city-county crew must spend most of its time sraying the breeding areas since this is more effective than trying to kill adult mosquitoes. Officials feel that it is better to kill million of the pests in the breeding stage than try to eliminate a few hundred after they have reached the adult stage.

They asked that home owners try to eliminate breeding places on their own property so they can take care of the larger ponds. However, the spraying crew will inspect and spray larger areas called to their attention by local residents.

"If you think there may be a spot we aren't spraying, then let us know where it is and we'll be glad to have it checked," said Vaughan.

The local officials emphasized they want to do and are doing everything possible to keep the mosquitoes under control.

"We're not worried, but we want to take every precaution," said Vaughan, "and we appreciate the cooperation of the public."

Bombers Batter Infiltration Route

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers hammered suspected Communist infiltration routes in the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam Today.

The planes from Guam unloaded tons of explosives on two target areas in the buffer strip where North Vietnamese regulars were seen infiltrating into the South.

Other U.S. planes continued the pounding of North Viet Nam.

Air Force pilots reported so many hits on an ammunition depot that it "looked like a fireworks display."

A week-long lull in ground fighting persisted another day in South Viet Nam. The U.S. command reported no significant fighting. South Vietnamese headquarters listed only one engagement of any size.

The allied commands announced that enemy casualties dropped sharply last week while U.S. and South Vietnamese combat losses remained about the same.

Allied spokesman said 1,009 Communists were killed and 101 captured last week. This was an unexplained drop from 1,829 Communists reported killed and 247 captured the previous week.

The U.S. command said 87 Americans were killed last week, compared with 91 Aug. 12-20. However, the number of wounded rose more than 40 per cent from 425 to 599. Only one American was reported missing, a decline of seven.

A South Vietnamese spokesman reported 205 government troops killed last week, nine fewer than the week before, and 78 captured. Other allied forces reported five killed and 14 wounded.

The U. S. command disclosed that the arrival of 3,000 more troops this week brought American strength in South Viet Nam to 303,400. The United States is expected to expand its forces here to 400,000 men by the end of the year.

Growing Red Ink Burden Slows Black Power Group

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The financial problems of civil rights organizations are being compounded by the northward shift of integration campaigns, by Negro riots, by the emergence of black power and by a feeling that federal laws have solved basic racial problems.

A continuing decline in income this year has been reported by the Congress of Racial Equality and other civil rights organizations have said they too were operating in the red.

Contributions have dropped steadily since enactment of the 1964 civil rights law, said Don Smith, a New York leader of CORE, which has been running a $200,000-a-year deficit.

"Ideological issues in the civil rights movement and the way the press has interpreted black power have contributed to this downward trend," Smith said.

CORE has allied itself with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in adopting the militant black power line.

Leaders of both groups have acknowledged that their new ideology, widely interpreted by opponents as antiwhite, contributed to sagging donations. But CORE's deficit and SNCC's financial situation was described last January by a top official as 'desperate" — five months before Chairman Stokely Carmichael first raised the black power banner.

Carmichael has said SNCC must build a base of support within the Negro community because funds from white sources have virtually dried up.

A tax lien has been filed against CORE by the Internal Revenue Service for $22,500 in employment taxes which the agency claims were collected from employes but not remitted to the government.

Drivers Reminded Of School Zones

City Police Chief Chester Simons today reminded motorists to be especially careful wi driving in school zones.

"Several youngsters ride their bicycles to school, and sometimes they don't exercise proper caution on their bikes," he observed.

"We can eliminate accidents if motorists drive slowly and carefully," he concluded.

Nominee's Sons Enroll

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Jim Johnson, the Democratic party's nominee for governor in Arkansas, thinks school desegregation guidelines are illegal, but he has enrolled his twin sons in a class that will have Negro students.

"I promised that I would obey the law," Johnson said. "I still believe the federal school desegregation guidelines are [illegible] because they go beyond the civil rights law."

Johnson's wife Virginia enrolled the twins, Danny and David, 6, in the first grade of the Conway elementary school Wednesday. The boys' teacher said she understood there would be three Negro children in their class.

Johnson, running against Republican Winthrop Rockefeller, came to prominence in state politics as a spokesman for segregationist groups.

He said 93 persons from this area have contracted the disease since the epidemic began. Two died.

CHECK YOUR HOME STUDY LIGHTING NOW

For proper study light from a table lamp, use at least 150-watts of illumination. The lamp should be tall enough to spread light evenly over the work area and should be properly shaded to shield the eyes from the light source. A diffusing bowl is recommended to soften the light and prevent glare. If your children's study light doesn't meet all these requirements, visit your dealer's and see the new study lamps. Good home study light protects against eyestrain and fatigue... makes learning easier because seeing is easier.

Safety Bill Near Final Approval

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — A landmark safety package that would give the government broad authority to deal with slaughter on the nation's highways is one short step from final congressional approval today.

Both houses gave unanimous approval Wednesday to the bill that would grant the government power to set mandatory safety standards for all cars, buses and trucks starting with 1968 models. Power to develop standards for automobile tires and, eventually, the sale of used cars also is included.

The House action came on a 365-0 vote, and two hours later the Senate acted by voice vote.

The House also passed 360 to 3 a highway safety bill that would provide $322 million in federal aid to help states and communities establish safety programs covering such things as vehicle inspection, driver education, improved highway design and maintenance and traffic control.

Final approval of the highway bill is expected in the Senate today, sending it to the White House. Some congressional sources said they expected President Johnson to sign both bills on Labor Day — next Monday — in the auto capital of Detroit. But the White House has not announced definite weekend travel plans for the President.

The signing will cap more than a decade of congressional debate on how the federal government can reduce accidents, which last year took nearly 50,000 American lives and injured some 250,000 persons.

Final approval would mean that starting with 1968 models, new cars manufactured or sold in this country would carry as standard equipment such safety features as head rests, shoulder harness anchorages, dual braking system, retractable steering columns, safety door latches and additional interior padding.

Some car makers already have announced plans to make some of these features standard equipment in 1967 models.

The major impact of the legislation may not be felt for a number of years, however, until (1) The state safety programs take effect, (2) Millions of new cars are manufactured with safety features and (3) The safety standards are extended to cover used cars as well.

The two bills, which contain total authorizations of $381.8 million over three years, would set up this timetable for federal action:

Jan. 31, 1967 — Secretary of commerce must issue initial auto safety standards, effective for 1968 models.

Jan. 31, 1968 — Revised safety standards are to be issued for 1969 models.

One year after enactment of the legislation — the secretary must issue a report, including new legislative proposals if necessary, on the need for used-car standards.

Two years from enactment—Secretary must issue used-car standards and tire labeling and performance standards.

Dec. 31, 1968 — Any state not having a highway safety program in operation faces loss of 10 per cent of its federal highway aid. The secretary of commerce can waive this provision, however.

If Congress, as expected, completes action to set up a department of transportation later this year, the entire program would be placed in that dept. ment. The bill would provide for a national traffic safety administrator to direct the safety programs.

Connally Meets Marchers; Nixes Special Session Plea

By JACK KEEVER

NEW BRAUNFELS, Tex. (AP) — Gov. John B. Connally warmly hugged Rio Grande Valley farm wage marchers then turned down cold their plea for a special legislative session to pass a $1.25 minimum wage law.

Connally's move — driving out Wednesday to meet the marchers who were walking 400 miles to see him — was sudden and dramatic.

The marchers were awed and nervous, at first. Some even rehearsed what they would say to him after they learned he was on the way.

But after the governor rejected the special session, and told them he would not see them at the end of their long hike in Austin Labor Day, the smiles, hugs and handshakes turned to rude shouts.

The chant — "Viva Connally!" —stopped, and some of the marchers picked up the cry, "Viva la huelga the strike!" "$1.25 an hour!" and "on to Washington!".

And as he walked away from the meeting in the hot sun, Texas AFL-CIO President H. S. Brown promised labor's full support to the march, which began July 4 in Rio Grande City, Tex., just across the border from Mexico.

"I don't think the problem was solved by this meeting," said Brown, who listened but didn't talk as Connally spoke to the leaders of the march — Eugene Nelson, an organizer for the National Farm Workers Association, and the Revs. James Novarro and Antonio Gonzales, both of Houston.

Connally, flanked by Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, Democratic nominee for the U.S. Senate, and House Speaker Ben Barnes, walked into the midst of the marchers alongside Interstate 35 just outside New Braunfels, about 45 miles from Austin.

Connally said he was worried because marchers in other parts of the nation had caused "riots, bloodshed, loss of life and property."

"You don't need a march to see me," he added. "The door of my office is open and was open July 4."

The 40-50 marchers, mostly Mexican-American field hands who say they make from 30 cents to $1 an hour, have been orderly since they set out on foot for Austin.

"While we were pleased that Governor Connally, Attorney General Carr and speaker of the House Ben Barnes came to visit with valley farm marchers, their statements did not, however, alleviate the problems of Texas workers who are living at a poverty level without any protection of the law," said a statement by the march leaders.

It added, "They said nothing that would even indicate their support of the problems."

Connally said: "We are not sitting idly by. We are trying every way we know how to do something about this."

Banker Is Sentenced

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—W. R. Koehler, 31, former vice president of a bank at Dalhart, Tex., pleaded guilty to misuse of bank funds totaling $829,330 and got a three-year probated prison term.

Koehler told U.S. Dist. Judge Joe B. Dooley that to this day, I am unable to account for these actions." He also said his law violations caused his family and himself great embarrassment and that he had been getting professional help.

Judge Dooley sentenced him Wednesday to three years in prison on each of two counts, the terms to be probated and to run concurrently.

Koehler was ordered to work with co-trustees of the bank in disposing of his assets.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I wish they would outlaw baseball! My husband is such a big sports fan he has two TV's going at separate rooms, and he carries a transistor radio around to keep track of a third game. When we go out for an evening he has to have the transistor plugged in his ear to keep up with a baseball game somewhere.

We can't go to bed at night until he finds out how the teams did all over the country. He ignores me completely, and we have been married only four months. I am not an old bag either. I am 36-24-36.

STRIKING OUT

DEAR STRIKING: If Sports Fan ignores you during the seventh inning stretch and after the scores are all in and the lights are all out, he could have bigger problems than you. Let me hear how you wind up the season.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who just loves to write letters. I think she must be a frustrated novelist. She will start a letter on Monday, add to it on Tuesday, keep adding to it every day until she finally closes on Friday. One of her letters can be 15 or 16 typewritten pages—single spaced.

She never has any news, it's just a lot of drivel. But what really gets me is this. She works for a doctor, and she uses his business stationery, his envelopes, and I'm sure his stamps and his TIME. To me, it's out and out stealing. Is there some tactful way to bring this correspondence to an end?

HATES TO WRITE

DEAR HATES: Yes. Don't answer.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter was married on the spur of the moment and we didn't have time to order formal announcements, so I wrote letters to our immediate family telling them about our new son-in-law. I also inclosed a picture of the couple taken on the day of their marriage.

Of the 11 letters I wrote, nearly five months ago, only one relative bothered to send my daughter a wedding gift. I have sent dozens of lovely gifts to those relatives for graduations, weddings, etc., so naturally, I was stunned.

My husband says they are under no obligation to acknowledge our daughter's marriage because we sent no formal announcements and had no wedding. Don't you think a handwritten announcement should have brought some acknowledgement?

SHOCKED

DEAR SHOCKED: An "acknowledgement," yes. A gift, no. Gifts are ALWAYS optional.

Hike Looms In Hospital Charges

By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN

CHICAGO (AP) — With doctors' fees and hospital charges on the rise, private patients in some hospitals are facing the possibility that a medicare cost squeeze could develop to boost their bills still higher.

A cost-squeeze showing hasn't developed yet, with the medicare program only two months old, but officials attending the annual meeting of the American Hospital Association indicated in interviews and speeches that it might.

Dr. Philip D. Bonnet of Boston, immediate past president of the AHA, predicted nurses' strikes for higher pay in various parts of the country, prospective wage boosts for other hospital employes, minimum wage legislation and unemployment compensation coverage could boost patient fees by as much as 25 per cent in the next year.

Hospital rates went up 7.7 per cent in the last 12 months while physicians' fees went up 5.7 per cent.

Robert M. Ball, Social Security commissioner, said the one-millionth medicare patient is expected to be admitted to one of the nation's hospitals next week but the costs and government reimbursement features of the program still are under study.

Ball told the hospital administrators, however, that the government's formula for reimbursing hospitals "was keeping abreast of the times" would be re-evaluated promptly as experience is gained under the program.

A major issue is the current formula under which the government pays hospitals operating under medicare 2 per cent of their operating budget as a cost-plus feature. Such funds, for example, would be used to train personnel to operate a kidney machine or other technical equipment which could become obsolete in a few years.

The new AHA president, George E. Cartmill, president of Harper Hospital, Detroit, said in an interview:

"We feel we could live with the 2 per cent formula but too many factors have been knocked out. We believe it will be shown that hospitals have been losing money. If the reimbursement is insufficient to cover costs, hospitals will have no alternative but to raise their bills to cover these additional costs."

He said Blue Cross and other health insurance policies would be hiked in such event.

AHA spokesmen take the position that costs uncovered for medicare patients should not have to be passed on to patients footing their own medical bills.

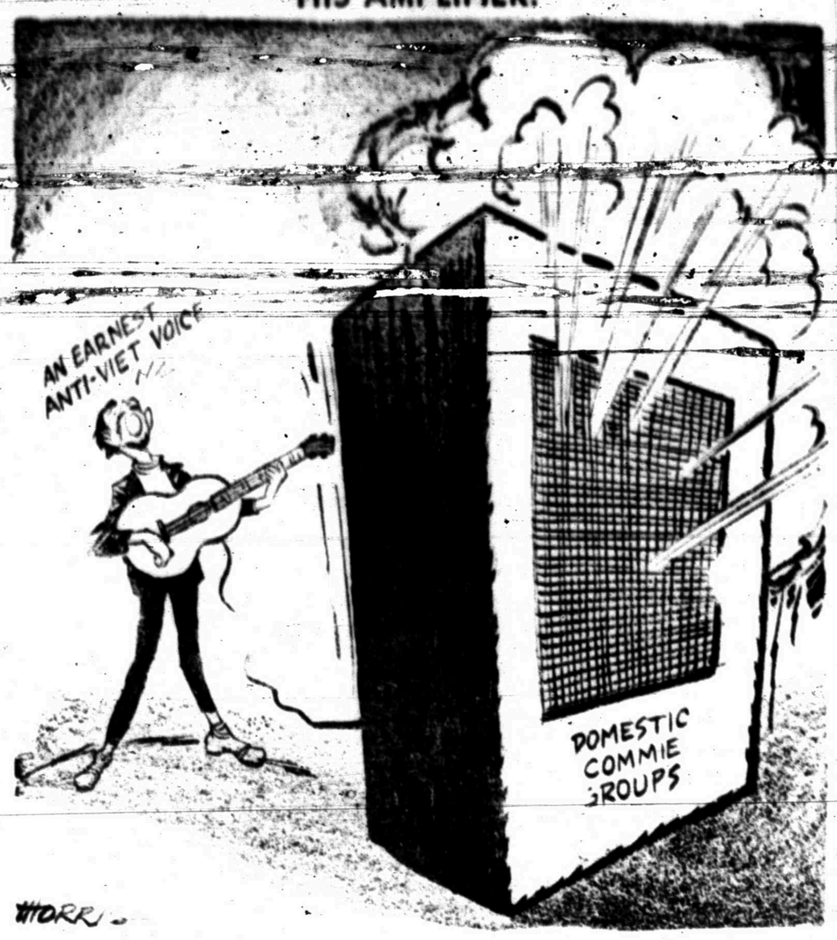
HIS AMPLIFIER!



Outspoken Sen. Mansfield Follows His Own Advice

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Years ago, before he became the Senate's Democratic leader, Mike Mansfield of Montana said a man in a job like that should speak out and up as his conscience tells him.

He has been following his own advice ever since, sometimes in ways that must gall President Johnson who may ignore Mansfield's proposals but never quarrels with him in public.

These have been three of Mansfield's main themes:

He aches to see the Vietnamese war ended, never gives up thinking a meeting between President Johnson and French President Charles de Gaulle might do some good and wants a big reduction in U. S. forces in Europe.

Johnson has been all for peace in Viet Nam, too, but he has been cool on a meeting with the Frenchman and is against pulling troops out of Europe.

Johnson had been the Senate leader until the 1960 elections made him vice president. Then in 1961 Mansfield succeeded him. Except for that, there is not much resemblance between the two.

The President, a tough egotist, handled the senators two ways — rough and sweet. Which he used depended on which he thought was needed.

At 63 Mansfield is retiring, modest, cautious, gentle; an ex-professor, ex-soldier, ex-sailor, ex-marine, ex-miner who prefers logic and reason to the whip and is tolerant of an antagonistic view.

He didn't have any illusions about what lay ahead when he became Senate leader. One of his first statements after being chosen was: "I look forward to a period of harmony and unity."

But he also said: "Actually, the leadership is a headache. You can't please everyone. Every senator is a prima donna in some way."

Nevertheless, while the harmony may seem subdued and the unity often invisible in a place where Democrats have far outnumbered Republicans for years, senators under Mansfield have managed to avoid much fuss and feuding.

And the Republican leader, Illinois' Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, who can exude great quantities of brotherliness, said on Mansfield's 62nd birthday: "Mike, we love you."

But, while Mansfield's heart may be in the right place, some of his most persistent hopes and proposals have landed in the refrigerator.

Just this week, with De Gaulle making a world tour, Mansfield suggested a Johnson-De Gaulle meeting to discuss the restoration of peace in Viet Nam and the future of all Southeast Asia.

Johnson isn't particularly happy with De Gaulle who undermined the North Atlantic Treaty Organization by ordering out of France all NATO troops—mostly American — who weren't under French command.

Still, Mansfield suggested that when De Gaulle, on his way home, reached Guadeloupe, a French island in the Caribbean, this would be a "most convenient" place for Johnson to meet with the French president.

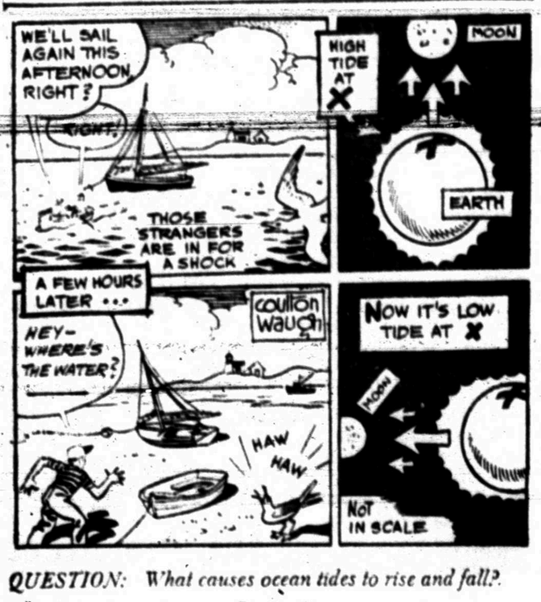
The White House heard this idea calmly but stiffly, and Wednesday in Cambodia a spokesman for De Gaulle said there are no plans for such a meeting and before there was one De Gaulle would want some indication it might be fruitful.

Johnson hasn't given any.

Mansfield repeatedly has suggested a big U. S. troop withdrawal from NATO. His idea is that Europe is far better able to defend itself than it used to be, and so many Americans are not needed. Wednesday, with 12 other Democrats, he proposed it again. Republicans denounced the idea.

And the White House froze it, probably to death, by saying: "In the administration's view this would not be a helpful step at this time."

Junior Editors Quiz on OCEAN TIDES



QUESTION: What causes ocean tides to rise and fall?

ANSWER: The boys rowing back from a pleasant sail in the harbor of Provincetown, Mass., in the upper picture, are originally from the Great Lakes region. They are unacquainted with the rise and fall of ocean tides, which are very strong in Provincetown. So when they come back for another sail, the boat they rented is resting on the sand, for now it's low tide.

Tides are caused (right) mainly by the pull of the moon's gravitational force on the ocean (scalloped area surrounding the earth). It is high tide at X on top because the moon is pulling the ocean out toward it. It is also high tide on the opposite side because the moon also pulls the solid earth a little way toward it, leaving a little more water on the farthest side. In this picture, the two sides of the earth have low tides. But the earth spins around every 24 hours. When it's low tide at the place marked X (lower picture), the moon is pulling a high tide up on the place where it was low six hours before. The shape of the sea coast makes a great difference in how high the tide rise is.

FOR YOU TO DO: There are 26 "spring" and 26 "neap" tides during the year. Find out the difference between these and ordinary tides. 9-1

Middle-Aged Also Enjoy Freedom

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Freedom isn't just for the birds. It's [illegible]

In some ways there is no freedom quite so enjoyable as the freedom middle age brings — if one is simply wise enough to realize it.

For example:

In middle age you are apt to tell the truth, because you probably wear glasses and therefore are less likely to get slammed in the nose.

Nobody calls you a sissy if you carry an umbrella on a cloudy day. At your time of life it's the proper thing to do.

You are free to leave a cocktail party before midnight. Everyone realizes that you simply must get your sleep.

It is no longer necessary for a husband to greet his wife's friends with a real kiss, usually more of a chore than a thrill anyway. A quick peck on their faded cheeks will satisfy them just as well — and think of the head colds you avoid!

You are free to read naughty books without fear of being corrupted. History records few cases of a man over 40 being led astray by a bad book.

The range of interesting diseases you can acquire widens appreciably. Compared to them, the ailments of youth seem maudlin or picayune. Who wouldn't rather listen to a mature man discuss his gout than a callow youth rant against his acne?

You feel free to give advice. Giving good advice is unquestionably one of the greatest human pleasures, and it is widely accepted as an inalienable right of the middle-aged and the elderly. It is unimportant whether the advice is followed. In fact, it is better if your advice is disregarded. Then, when disaster inevitably ensues, you are free to indulge in another satisfying middle-age luxury, saying "Well, I told you so!"

After 40 or 50, you are at liberty to become more tolerant. Hatred, bigotry and prejudice tend to elevate the blood pressure, and you can discard them as health dangers. Why burst an artery hating an enemy? That would only give him satisfaction. It is far, far better to forgive him — and let him bust a blood vessel in frustration.

Your are free now, because of a higher income, to eat and drink all the things that would probably have killed you if you could have afforded them in your youth. But you probably don't want them anymore.

Middle age is the time to be bold and unconventional and experimental and a breaker of patterns. For then, no matter how big a fool you make of yourself, a charitable world will probably only say in judgment: "Poor fellow, and at his age — he must be getting senile."

Aqaba, in Jordan, will have wide, palm-fringed boulevards and a new town of 40,000 next to the old mud-brick village of [illegible] inhabitants.

Safety Tips For Holiday Drivers

NEW YORK (AP) — Plan to be driving during the Labor Day weekend? Like some tips on how to avoid becoming a highway slaughter statistic?

The tips come from traffic experts of the National Safety Council, the Greyhound Bus Lines and the American Trucking Associations, Inc.

Harry Porter Jr., manager of the National Safety Council's traffic department, offers these:

"The need to drive defensively — trying to outguess the other guy — is greater over holiday weekends because there are so many more cars on the road driven by more or less amateur drivers.

"Every driver has to worry about his car as related to the car ahead, the one behind, those approaching from the sides at an intersection, the one he is passing.

"Of these, passing is the most dangerous maneuver because that is the time your car is closest to another. The defensive driver pulls out to pass well behind the car ahead so that if he sees he can't pass he can slip safely back into the right lane.

"Seat belts are life savers but they're useless unless they are being worn. On Labor Day weekend, at fairgrounds and race tracks all over America, there will be automobile races. You can bet none of those professional daredevils will be driving without their seat belts fastened.

"Many people who worry about waiting an hour after eating before going in swimming think nothing of climbing behind the wheel to drive right after drinking alcholic beverages. If you can't do without drinking, at least allow your physical system time to dispose of the alcohol."

Robert Forman, director of safety and personnel for Greyhound, has distributed a Labor Day precautionary poster to drivers containing this advice:

"Doublecheck your own driving to stop possible bad driving habits before they stop you.

"Watch your following distance, particularly in heavy traffic.

"The best way to let people know where you are is to use your horn. Even if the fellow you honk at turns around and shakes his fist at you, at least he knows you're there."

Forman added to an interviewer:

"If I could get the rest of the driving public to follow these precautions I think we would all come through Labor Day just a little better off."

Marichal Wins 20th, Pirates Nip Dodgers

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pittsburgh's fans fanned the Pirates and the Dodgers but Juan Marichal enjoyed anything but a breeze against the New York Mets.

Some 31,00 spectators were on hand with their paper fans Wednesday night as the Pirates nipped the Dodgers 4-3 while Marichal sweated out his 20th victory as San Francisco nipped the Mets 2-1.

The results left the Pirates and Giants tied for first place in the National League with the third-place Dodgers falling three games back.

The fans who came to watch the Pirates play received free fans as they entered the park. They put them to use in the fourth inning after Roberto Clemente reached first base on Jim Lefebvre's error.

When everyone in the stands started waving the fans, the Dodgers complained to the umpires. And while the umpires waited for the breeze to stop, the game was delayed for five minutes.

Once it resumed, Willie Stargell singled off Don Drysdale, but Donn Clendenon lined out, ending the inning.

The spectators didn't wave the fans much in the next inning, but quite a few — of the paper kind —were tossed onto the field as the Pirates erupted for four runs.

One of Marichal's problems, on the other hand, was that the Giants didn't do any erupting at all. They trailed 1-0 until the seventh inning and didn't go ahead until the ninth as Marichal waited to gain his fourth consecutive 20-victory season.

Another problem for the ace right-hander was the backstrap muscle he pulled in his right shoulder while striking out Ron Hunt in the ninth inning.

"I felt something pull," Marichal said after the game. "It worries me, but I hope it's nothing serious."

Elsewhere in the NL Philadelphia whipped Houston 10-5, Cincinnati trimmed Chicago 7-5 and Atlanta defeated St. Louis 8-5.

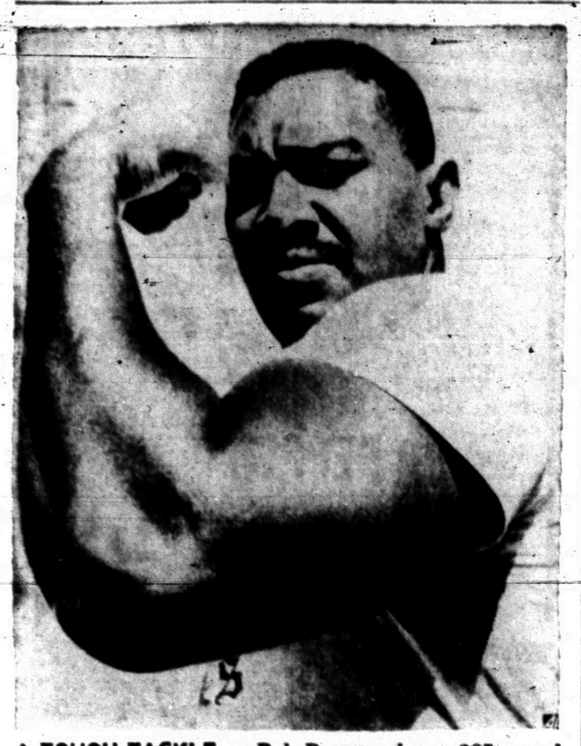
In the American League, Baltimore downed Cleveland 5-1, Minnesota walloped Boston 11-2, Chicago swept Detroit 7-6 in 12 innings and 3-1, Washington blanked Kansas City 3-0 before being blanked 4-0 and California stopped New York 5-2.

The Pirates loaded the bases on singles in the fifth inning, and Gene Alley drove in the first two runs of the game with a two-out single. Clemente and Stargell then singled across the other two runs. The Dodgers rallied for their three runs in the sixth on Willie Davis' homer.

Rich Allen sparked the Phillies past Houston, collecting four hits, including a two-run homer in the first inning. John Callison, Bill White and Cookie Rojas also drove in two runs each as Chris Short gained his 16th victory against eight defeats.

Bill Hands blanked Cincinnati through six innings, but the Reds exploded for their eighth straight victory on Gordy Colemen's three-run homer in the seventh and Art Shamsky's pinch-hit, three-run homer in the eighth. Shamsky's blow climaxed a four-run rally with all of the runs being unearned.

Joe Torre, Rico Carty and Mack Jones hit homers in Atlanta's triumph over St. Louis. The Braves went ahead 6-5 in the sixth inning when Felipe Alou singled home Clay Carroll and scored on Ed Mathews' double.



A TOUGH TACKLE — Bob Brown, above, 295-pound offensive tackle of the Philadelphia Eagles, flexes his arm muscle at Eagles' training camp in Hershey, Pa. His coach, Joe Kuharich ,says Brown is the best tackle in the National Football League. Brown disagrees, saying his goal is to become the best. (AP Wirephoto)

Unseeded Stolle Voices Complaint

NEW YORK (AP) — A look at who failed to be seeded showed the United States Lawn Tennis men's championships starting at Forest Hills today have almost as much quality as quantity.

Defending champion Manual Santana of Spain ranks first, followed by Roy Emerson of Australia. Dennis Ralston, Arthur Ashe, Cliff Richey and Clark Graebner of the United States, Tony Roche of Australia and Cliff Drysdale of South Africa are the other seeds, although not in that order.

Fred Stolle of Australia a finalist three times at Wimbledon and at Forest Hills in 1964, was among those unseeded and he complained about it. But he he has plenty of top-notch company.

Waiting with him for the top eight to make a slip are such veteran stars as John Newcombe of Australia, Rafael Osuna of Mexico and Chuck McKinley of the United States.

Newcombe, of the Australian Davie Cup team, shared the Wimbledon doubles title in 1965 and this year; Osuna was the U.S. champion in 1963 and McKinley won at Wimbledon in 1963.

The United States entries will be trying to bring the title home for the first time since 1955.

In the women's competition, Mrs. Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., will be seeking to end the 4-year reign of Maria Bueno of Brazil. Mrs. King is top-seeded, followed by Miss Bueno.

Margaret Smith of Australia, who beat Mrs. King in last year's final, bowed out with fatigue.

Cool Kel Leads Field

SOUTHPORT, England (AP) —The broad-shouldered farmer with the pork-pie hat grinned a little and said:

"There's still a long way to go."

That's the cool way Kel Nagle of Australia, now 47 but still a mighty figure in professional golf, viewed the rest of his trip in the 72-hole Carling Championship worth $35,000 to the winner.

The former British Open champion who keeps his hand in by playing the American circuit never looked younger when he spun a five-under-par 68 over Royal Birkdale's 7,037-yard seaside links Wednesday.

He went into the second 18 holes two shots up on Peter Thomson, his fellow Australian, Bob Charles of New Zealand and Peter Butler and Hedly Muscroft of England.

At 71 were nine others, including Americans Jackie Cupit, Terry Dill, John Lotz and Rex Baxter.

Altogether 24 of the huge field broke par and another 14 equaled it in remarkably good playing conditions for an area notorious for suddenly miserable weather.

Richardson Will Retire

NEW YORK (AP) — Second baseman Bobby Richardson of the New York Yankees said on a taped television program Wednesday night he is retiring from baseball at the end of this season.

"This will be my last year as far as playing baseball with the New York Yankees," Richardson said on the WOR program, "Ladies of the Press."

Richardson's retirement has been the subject of much speculation since the start of the season. It was expected he would announce his plans Sept. 17 when a day in his honor will be held at Yankee Stadium.

The 31-year-old infield ace is in his 11th year with the Yankees. He took a .368 lifetime average into this season and currently is hitting .261. He has played in seven World Series, batting .305.

Golf Girls Keyed Up

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The six women competing in the first Ladies' World Series of Golf have one characteristic that makes it crystal clear they are members of the weaker sex.

They don't agree on very many things.

Particularly when it comes to picking a favorite in the two-day 36-hole medal test on the 6,504-yard, par 72 Springfield Country Club course.

"Everyone is all keyed up for this one," said Mickey Wright, one of the lady professional circuit's all-time top players. "I don't think you can pick a favorite . . . but if you have to, try Sandra Haynie. She's been playing so well lately."

TONY TRACKS THE BALL — Tony Oliva, slugging outfielder of the Minnesota Twins baseball team, became first rookie in history to win major league batting title when his .323 average led all hitters in 1964. Last year he won the crown again with .321, and currently he is hitting well over .300, perhaps well enough to win the batting championship three years straight. (AP Wirephoto)

Kaat Aids Own Cause For 21st Victory

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The people who write those baseball dictionaries may not completely agree, but Jim Kaat says pitching can be defined as allowing the other team fewer runs than your team is getting for you.

And that may explain why Kaat's interest in the Minnesota run production is so intense that he often participates in it himself.

Several times this year, the Twins' lefty has had a hand in his team's scoring and Wednesday's 11-2 victory over Boston, Kaat's 21st, was more of the same.

He led off the third with an infield single and scored shortly thereafter on a single by Tony Oliva. In the fourth, he blooped a single into short left and in the sixth he singled once again and came around on Cesar Tovar's triple.

In the eighth, Kaat struck out, but by then it hardly mattered; he had enough runs to protect two victories.

In expostulating on his pitching theories after becoming the league's winningest pitcher and tying Sandy Koufax for tops in the majors, Kaat said he's pitching no better now than he ever did.

"You can't classify a man who wins 20 games as any better than a man who wins 17 or 18," he said. 'I guess it is sort of a pitcher's luck. But scoring and defense aren't luck entirely and they're the difference. And you've still got to hold them to less runs than you get."

Elsewhere in the American League, Chicago took a pair from Detroit, 7-6 in 12 innings and 3-1, Washington and Kansas City split a doubleheader 3-0 and 0-4, Baltimore took Cleveland 5-1 and California bounced New York 5-1.

In the National League, San Francisco beat New York 2-1, Pittsburgh edged Los Angeles 4-3, Cincinnati took Chicago 7-5, Atlanta clubbed St. Louis 8-5 and Philadelphia bombed Houston 10-5.

Kaat wasn't the only one swinging the big bat for the Twins. In all, there were 14 Minnesota hits including Bernie Allen's two-run homer, Tovar's two-run triple and Harmon Killibrew's two-run double. Tony Conigliaro hit his 25th homer for Boston.

Detroit hit four homers in the opener, but they all went for nothing when Tommy Agee scored an unearned run in the 12th for the Chicago victory. In the nightcap, Gary Peters fired a three-hitter and Pete Ward hit his first homer of the season.

Mike McCormick pitched his second straight shutout for the Senators in the first game, a four-hitter. Frank Howard hit his 17th homer. In the finale, Paul Lindblad and Jim Nash teamed up for the triumph. Joe Noosek drove in two runs with a triple.

Frank Robinson's 43rd home run, his fourth hit of the game, put Baltimore ahead in the eighth inning after Sam McDowell had held the Orioles to four hits. An error, a wild pitch and a single got Baltimore three more runs in the ninth.

Homers by Jose Cardenal and Joe Adcock and the five-hit pitching of Dean Chance took care of the Yankees and ended a three-game California losing streak. The Angels got two more runs in the sixth on an error by Bobby Richardson and a walk to Jackie Hernandez with the bases loaded.

Kerry Way Posts Record

DUQUOIN, Ill. (AP) — The filly Kerry Way put the big boys in their place in the $100,000 Hambletonian Wednesday and set a world record.

The big, strong daughter of famed Star's Pride, sire of the last three winners of the historic classic for 3-year-old trotters, won in straight mile heats and set a world record.

Kerry Way became the 11th filly in the Hambletonian's 41 years to win the trophy and the first since Emily's Pride in 1958.

"She has to be the greatest filly I've ever driven," said 62-year-old Frank Ervin. "After all, she set a world record. We got the job done with Kerry Way's grit and determination.

Kerry Way, 2the 2-year1old trotting champion of 1965, had a slow start this year when a new boot infected her ankle. Her record now is five victories in 10 starts and she will go for more at Indianapolis next week.

Kerry Way, owned by Gainesway Farm of Lexington, Ky, sped the two opening heats in 1:58 4-5 and 1:59 3-5 for a combined time of 3:58 2-5—a world record for 3-year-old trotting fillies on a mile track. It erased the old mark of 3:58 4-5 by Elaine Rodney at Lexington in 1960. Ervin, a native of Pekin, Ill., captured his second Hambletonian in 15 appearances and now has 101 drives of two minutes or lower.

Polaris, the Yonkers Futurity winner reined by George Sholty, finished second in both heats, being defeated by 3-4 length in the first and a neck in the second in a thrilling stretch battle that brought some 23,000 fans to their feet.

With a field of 12, the Hambletonian grossed $122,540, fourth largest. Kerry Way boosted her two-year earnings by $60,044 to $207,186.

Polaris collected second money of $30,022 for owners Patrick Digennaro and Anthony Lecesse of Scottsville, N.Y. Shatter Way, at unofficial odds of 25-1 for the betless race, was a surprising third after a 4-3 finish. He was shipped from Sweden for owner Kurt Hellberg of Mellerud, Sweden.

Fourth place, worth $9,607, went to Carlisle with 3-7, and fifth money of $6,004 went to Armbro Gazelle, 6-4. The other finishers in order were Brokers Choice 7-5, Governor Armbo 5-11, Rocket Rodney 12-6, Ou Rainbow 8-9, Carcless Vlado 9-8, Starlight Way 10-10 and All American 11-12.
