STANDING ON THE CORNER

... With P. J.

The reason that some people cannot find opportunity is because it goes about disguised as hard work.

Just like the man out north of town who rejected the idea of cleaning out his cesspool—no telling what opportunities might have come pouring down on him.

It's a good thought, anyway.

The News had a letter from an old friend of many of ours this week. Mrs. G. B. Hopper (you will remember her as Dale Hogan) now lives in Trenton, Mich., where she is recovering from a heart operation for rheumatic heart disease. She says her husband is a navy flier.

Her grandfather, the late G. E. Hogan, operated a dry goods store here for many years in the building now occupied by Bennett Variety Store.

Dale said she would like to visit in Tahoka again, and undoubtedly would like to hear from some of her old friends. Her address is 2904 Rosewood in Trenton.

It's been a long time since we threw mud pies at each other.

The complaints made recently to Mayor Clint Walker about people burning trash while washing hands on the clothesline next door reminds me of the woman who complained because the neighbor's children were barking at her dog.

Did you know that Dave Philby of the Chicago White Sox is Mrs. Ivan McWhirter's fourth cousin?

One of America's first customs, which is fast becoming extinct, is being revived in Tahoka this summer.

The neighborhood in the vicinity of the O. L. Kidwells, N. M. Wyatts, and Johnny Rainolds get together once each month for a barbecue, picnic, etc. On the Fourth 40 neighbors converged on the Ivan Catharts for a picnic in their back yard.

We'd all probably love our neighbors more if we knew them better.

"That speech was great. You certainly made yourself clear on the farm question."

Senator: "I did! Gad, what a blunder!"

Rev. Milton Gardner is going to fill the pulpit for the first time as an ordained minister Sunday in Aspermont.

Probably no single event in Tahoka has ever touched the heart strings of so many people as his recent decision to enter the ministry following the surgery of the Gardner's little one year old girl, Tommy Jan, for a malignant tumor.

It goes to prove that actions speak louder than words.

Jan has recovered from her operation splendidly and is now walking. There have been no signs of other malignancy since that time.

The people of Tahoka would like to wish the Gardners great success in their new field.

Mr. and Mrs. "Sonny" Roberts are still plugging away. Sonny is determined to get that football team. They're doing pretty good for a start too, since the birth of their new son brings the total up to four boys.

In just about eight years, a string of Roberts boys are going to start through high school that will burn the turf off the football field for about 10 years if they are anything like their Pa was.

The things we failed to do last year, last month, yesterday, are still with us. The man who thinks the things he didn't do can be forgotten, is only fooling himself. They will be waiting for him somewhere along the road ahead.

Mrs. Alton Kelley underwent an appendectomy in Tahoka Hospital Thursday of last week and was released Tuesday.

Austrian Student Will Spend Two Months In Tahoka This Summer

Another college agriculture student from Europe will be a guest of Tahoka Rotary Club members for nine weeks this summer.

Last year, the club brought over Bernard Debonne of Paris, France, whose visit the club and the county found pleasant and profitable.

This year, the guest will be Gottfried Mauhart, age 22, from Upper Austria, son of a farmer and a college graduate majoring in agriculture. He plans to become a farm manager, is an Austrian 4-H club member, and is interested in sports.

Gottfried will arrive in Tahoka about July 25, and will remain in Tahoka until about September 21. While here, he will be a guest in homes of Rotarians, and will visit various farming operations over the South Plains. He will also likely be available for talks before clubs of the county.

Visits of European students to America are sponsored by the International Research Fund, Inc., American Summer Program of New York City, furnishes the youths transportation from their homes to New York City. Tahoka Rotary Club will pay the rest of the visitor's expenses. The program is designed to promote better relations between nations of the world.

Other Rotary Clubs in this area will have guests from Europe (Cont'd. on back page)

Farmers Buy Thomas Gin

A group of Grassland farmers have formed a cooperative and bought the Thomas Bros. Gin, long one of the better gins on the South Plains.

The new association has been chartered as the Producers Cooperative of Grassland.

Officers and directors of the new organization, elected at a meeting last week of about 30 or 40 farmers of the area, are: L. B. Burk, president; Carl Jones, secretary; Dick King, C. B. Gregg, Sam Edwards, O. E. Eubank, and Claude Thomas.

Thomas Brothers who have been operating the gin more than thirty years, expect to devote their full time to their farming interests.

New Home Girl At SMU School

Martha Roper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Roper of New Home, is attending a one-week National Alcohol School being held at Southern Methodist University in Dallas July 7-14.

Miss Roper, who is secretary of the Northwest Texas Conference Methodist Youth, is one of two selected from the conference to attend the school, the other being Marsha Cockerell of Hereford. The Alcohol Problem will be subject of study by the MYF this fall, and young people from all over the nation are attending the SMU School to become better prepared to bring the program in their own areas.

Miss Roper expects to enter McMurry College as a Freshman this fall.

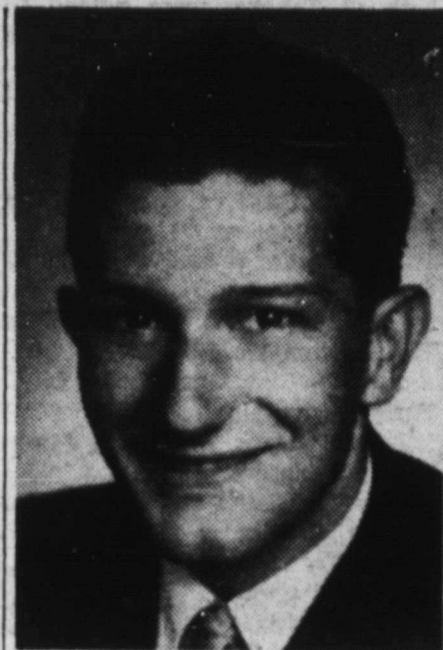

New Home Citizens Called To Meet

All people of New Home community are urged to attend a meeting Monday night, July 16, in the Community Center for a round-table discussion of projects and organization for participation this year in the Neighborhood Progress Contest.

Dr. Per G. Stensland of Texas Tech will be present to take part in the discussion and offer suggestions.

Similar meetings are also planned for August 20 and September 17.

E. R. Blakney is chairman of the community committee, and Mrs. Dick Turner is secretary.

New Directors Named To Bank

Three new directors of the First National Bank of Tahoka were elected at a meeting of the board Tuesday afternoon.

The new directors are: Elbur Slaton of Lubbock, vice president of the Plains National Bank of that city; Mrs. Ethel M. Slaton, wife of W. B. Slaton; and Charles A. Verner, vice president of the bank.

Other directors are W. B. Slaton, who is recovering from a stroke he suffered in March, L. O. Sparks of Lubbock, E. E. Ellis of Kansas City, Fred B. Hegi, and W. H. Eudy, both of Tahoka.

Mrs. Slaton reports that Mr. Slaton is showing slow but continued improvement. Almost every day he has been riding over the county viewing the crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Slaton, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Slaton, left Thursday for Mineral Wells to spend a few days.

Mrs. Wilmer Smith Gets 4-H Award

Mrs. Wilmer Smith of New Home was presented the Silver Spur award as the woman who has done the most for 4-H clubs of District 2 the past year. Jack Creel received the men's award.

The presentations were made at a guest night program at the annual 4-H club camp at the Fair grounds in Lubbock.

Mrs. Smith is state vice president of District 2 of the Home Demonstration Association of Texas, and was honored for aid to the 4-H clubs of her 20-county district.

Showers Help, Hail Damages

Spotted rain and showers continued to fall in Lynn County this week to boost prospects for a fairly good crop year.

Heaviest fall Tuesday afternoon in the county was near Midway at the Welch Flippin place where three inches was reported. Flippin lives five miles south and two miles east of Tahoka. One mile south at Midway, however, the official rain gauge measured a little over one inch.

Clint Walker reported 2.60 inches on the Gaignat place he farms six miles south of town. Buck Martin, two miles west and one mile north of Draw had one-half inch, but said at the Bethel Church four miles west and one mile north of Draw, two inches of rain fell.

K. E. Williams, who lives 10 miles southeast near the Redwine community, measured 1.20 at his home, while the farm adjoining him received .70. Draw only had a trace of rain. John Thomas had .30 on his farm five miles east and four south of Tahoka.

Newmoore received a shower early Tuesday morning.

Dan Curry had only a shower that afternoon on his place near T-Bar, and West Point reported only sand. However, up to a quarter of an inch was measured in the West Point area Monday.

Tuesday night the weather bureau in Lubbock reported a "tail" appearing on their radar somewhere west of Tahoka. However, a check with West Point Store, Charles Bragg, Tom Hale, and W. W. Hagood, showed that no one in that area saw a funnel, if one actually existed.

The rain in the Midway area brought much needed moisture to the area, where very little rain has fallen this year. Mrs. Flippin said the water was standing in the fields following the deluge, but reported that in spite of the hard fall, no damage was done to crops.

Tahoka only had a shower mixed with the sand that preceded the cloud, and New Home received a shower early Monday morning. Damage by hail was done to crops on the Leonard Crawford, L. M. Nordyke, C. B. Earley, and one of the G.M. Stewart farms. Tahoka received only .02 inch, bringing the total for July to .36 inch in town. Total for the year in Tahoka is now 6.64.

Miss Sue Appling of Salinas, Calif., who was injured in a car wreck recently, is improving in Tahoka Hospital, where she is reported to be in good condition.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wyatt have had as their guests this week, her nieces, Misses Janis and Patsy Hunt of Irving.

Grassland, Tahoka Districts Will Vote On Consolidation

New Oil Well In Sunniland Field

Another good oil well has been developed by Hancock Oil Co. in the Sunniland-San Andres and Glorieta area of northeastern Lynn county, eight miles east of Wilson.

It is the No. 1 Clarence Basinger and flowed 140.23 barrels on a 24-hour potential test on 11/64 inch choke from 4,138-48 feet. Oil gravity tested 36.1 degrees and gas-oil ratio was 300-1.

Location is 990 feet from the north and 330 feet from the west lines of the southeast quarter of section 1274, block 8, EL&RR survey.

Huban and Wagner have abandoned as a dry hole the No. 1 C. B. Bryant test six miles northeast of Wilson in section 8 block L. BS&F survey, and moved the rig for a new test to be known as the No. 1 Scott, four miles east of Wilson on section 6, block L, BS&F survey.

Wilson Farmer Meeting Tonight

The Wilson Farm Association will hold a meeting in the Wilson high school cafeteria tonight at 8:00 p. m.

The meeting is being held to go over the rules and regulations for the operation of the association, according to Guy Smith of Wilson.

Smith also said that anyone who is planning to use bracers for farm labor this year must have his membership list in triplicate copy by August 1. He said that these must be on file August 1, with the Texas Employment Commission.

Any farmer in Lynn County is eligible to file for bracer labor. Smith says that this county is in the clear on back pay for bracer labor. Last year the prevailing wage was $1.50 and in other counties in the area, disputes have arisen as to whether this prevailing wage was paid. However, Lynn County paid $1.55 last year, five cents over the wage.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas returned last week from a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Von Roeder in their cabin at Cloudcroft, New Mexico. The Von Roeders live at Snyder.

Absentee Voting Starts Off Slowly

Only four absentee votes in the July 28 Democratic Primary election had been cast Tuesday, Mrs. Beulah Fridmore, county clerk, reports.

However, she had received 39 requests for ballots mailed out.

Absentee votes may be cast at the office of the county clerk through Tuesday, July 24.

Mrs. E. F. Bagby Is Buried Here

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Mrs. Edward F. Bagby, 72, of route 4, who died at 4:20 p. m. Saturday in a Fort Worth hospital.

Rev. J. B. Stewart, pastor of the First Methodist Church here, and Rev. Elmer Crabtree of Slaton conducted the services which were held in the Tahoka Methodist Church, of which she was a member. Burial was in Tahoka Cemetery.

Mrs. Bagby was born March 8, 1884 in Alabama and was married to Edward F. Bagby on December 25, 1900 in Hill county. They moved to Lynn county in 1914, where they have since resided.

Survivors include her husband of route 4, Tahoka, three daughters, Mrs. Elsie Lee Jones, Fort Worth; Mrs. Ernell Van Bramer, Jal, N. M.; and Mrs. Schula Weaver, Slaton; three sons, Raymond of Tahoka; Milton of Wilmington, Del.; and Frank Ovid of McNeill, Ariz.; one sister, Mrs. Pearl Sullins of Waco; one brother, Rev. Marvin Daily of Mexico; 12 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

O'Donnell Rodeo Now In Progress

The 12th Annual O'Donnell Rodeo got underway yesterday and will continue through Saturday.

There is expected to be a parade through downtown O'Donnell with the theme this year consisting of "story book" stores and characters. The parade will be led by the Eagle Band and is expected to be filmed for the "Texas In Review" television program.

A rodeo queen will be selected from four candidates for the title. Candidates include Miss Helen Hoffman, sponsored by the Lynn County Sheriff's Posse; Miss Sue Wheat, sponsored by the American O'Donnell Fire Department; and Legion; Miss Donna Rogers, Miss Patsy Young, O'Donnell Rotary Club.

For the tenth year, "Goat" Mayo of Petrolia will furnish the stock for the event.

John Ellis is president of the rodeo association, and directors include C. R. Burleson, Claude Schooler, Dallas Vaughn, and J. T. Middleton, Jr.

NEW HOME BOYS TO CAMP

Rev. Robert Clements, New Home Baptist Church pastor, is taking a group of junior boys to Plains Baptist Camp near Floydada this week. The group will stay from Wednesday through Friday.

HAS HEART AILMENT

C. C. Dwight, local photographer, was told this week by a Lubbock heart specialist that he has a bad heart condition and must remain off his feet much of the time.

Mrs. Jim Bob McAttee of Henrietta, Okla., is here visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hagood and Walt.

Petitions were circulated this week in Grassland and Tahoka school districts calling for an election on the consolidation of the two districts.

The Grassland board, in a meeting Tuesday night, voted unanimously in favor of an election on the consolidation issue. Members of the board are: C. W. Roberts, president; Kelley Laws, secretary, Ted Aten, Ted Dockery, L. B. Burk, R. M. Thomas, and Glenn Norman.

Two weeks ago, Grassland voted down 49 to 28 a proposal to consolidate its district with Graham, Close City, Southland, and Garolia to form a new school district. Garolia also voted against the proposal 29 to 27.

Grassland now teaches through the seventh grade, and most of its eighth grade and high school students transfer to Tahoka.

Tahoka board, faced with rising costs of education, last year assessed Grassland $67.00 per student transferring to help equalize the cost to the local district above the funds received from the state. This year, the Tahoka board estimates it will have to charge Grassland district about $93.00 per student to equalize the cost per student. This does not include bonded indebtedness of Tahoka district, which is not charged against the transferring students.

The Grassland school and its board are also up against problems. With only about 25 sections of land, enrollment in the elementary school has dropped to about 26 students, the minimum for a two-teacher school. The district had to raise tax valuations last year, and may have to raise them further to meet the cost of transferring students. Furthermore, the Grassland school building needs repairs badly, and this will require more money, a citizen of that community told The News.

Furthermore, the trend is toward centralization of schools, and the State is making it increasingly difficult for a small school to operate.

A representative of the Tahoka schools told The News that there is little difference in valuation of farm land in the two districts. In fact, some Grassland land is valued higher for taxes than is comparable land in the Tahoka district.

In case of consolidation, The News is informed, the Grassland teachers might be transferred to Tahoka and the Grassland elementary school bus operated from that community as it is now so that younger children could get home earlier.

Voters of both districts will have to approve the consolidation. Petitions were presented County Judge W. M. Mathis, who will call the elections.

Mrs. C. E. McClellan Injured In Wreck

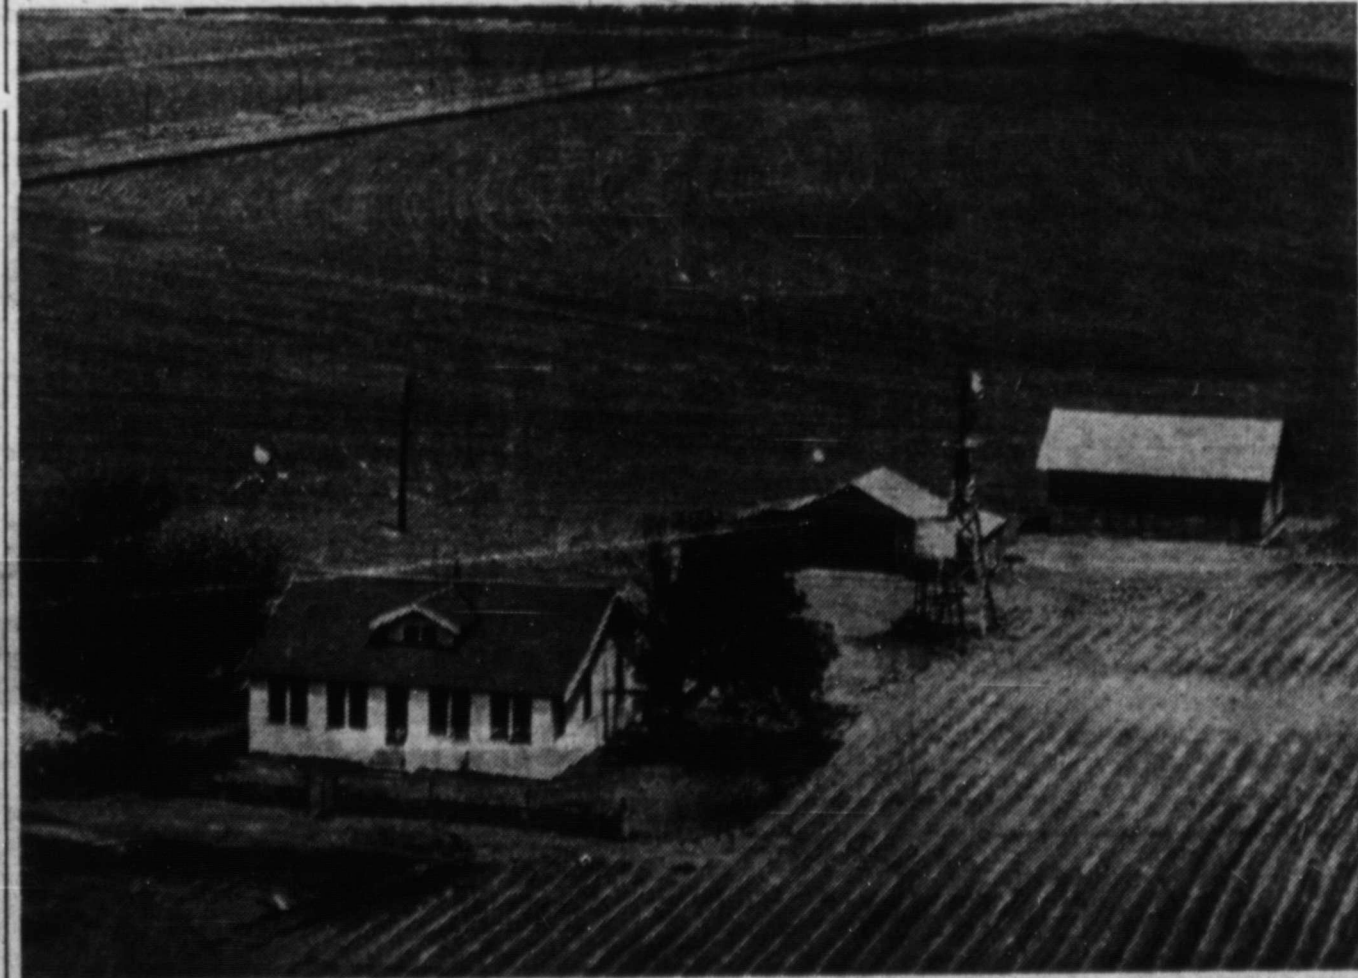

Mrs. C. E. McClellan was injured Saturday when the car in which she was riding with Mr. McClellan overturned about 4:10 p. m. one-half mile west of O'Donnell on a curve at the intersection. Mr. McClellan and a son, Douglas, was not injured.

She was taken to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where she is recuperating from a broken collar bone and fractured rib. She is reported to be in good condition.

The couple was enroute to Odesa to visit their daughter, Mrs. V. W. Parr. Mr. McClellan said he took his eyes from the road for a moment and when he looked back he had already reached the curve and the front wheels of the car were off the road. A culvert was directly in front of him and when he attempted to swerve away from it, the car overturned.

Scotch Foursome Planned Sunday

Another Scotch Foursome tournament will be held at T-Bar Country Club Sunday afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, President A. N. Norman announces.

All golf players of the county, especially the ladies, whether members of the club or not, are invited to participate.

The golf course continues to improve. The No. 9 fairway was recently reseeded to grass, and the No. 8 green has been reseeded and retopped. All other greens and fairways are in good shape.

Negro Ball Game Here Next Sunday

Tahoka Braves, Colored baseball team, will be at full strength when they meet the Crosbyton Chiefs here Sunday afternoon on the diamond north of Dunbar school, according to Johnny Martin.

The Braves lost to Crosbyton there 11 to 5 last Sunday, but all their players were not present. Billy Boy was winning pitcher, and Lefty Brown was the loser.

The local team has now won 9 games and lost only two.

Final State and Federal clearance of the first locally initiated Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act projects was announced on June 8 by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson. Three Texas projects, Cummins Creek, Upper Brushy Creek and Lower Brushy Creek, are included.

Little League Play Advances

The Giants, winners of the first half of the Little League season, are again leading the second half as the result of a 6 to 4 win over the Yankees Wednesday afternoon.

This was a make-up game. The two teams started play Tuesday of the scheduled game, but the umpires called the game in the third inning because of dust and rain with the Yankees leading 2 to 1.

However, the last two innings of Wednesday's game have been protested by John Houk, Yankee manager, until a ruling is made on an umpire's call on a play. With two out, a Yankee batter hit a ball that bounced over the outfield fence, a ground rules double. A man on first went to third, and Houk believes he should have been allowed to come home. The next batter struck out to retire the side, though.

The Yankees scored all four runs in the second, two of them on an over-throw at third. Larry Thomas sparked the Giants into the lead in the fourth when he doubled with two men on.

Robert Hood was the winning pitcher, Billy Nance the loser.

Cubs Surprise Yanks
Thursday of last week, the Cubs opened their second half play with a surprising one-sided 28 to 11 victory over the Yanks behind the pitching of Marlow Rudd (3-4). Finis Rogers (2-3) went nearly four innings on the mound for the Yanks, Grayam George part of three, and Roy Stice one. Bobby Curry and Fred Hegi paced the Cub hitting attack with one home run each.

Giants Nose-Out Cards

Friday the Giants barely nosed-out the hard-luck Cardinals 6 to 5. After getting off to a shaky first inning start, Andy Bray (5-1) went the distance pitching for the Giants, with Curtis Harvick (0-2) hurling for the losers. Larry Thomas singled in the fifth to pace the Giants five run uprising and was sensational in his play at second base. Steve Ellis, Rusty Hensley, Billy Davis, and Jim Robinson each collected two hits for the losers.

Cards Win Over Cubs

Monday, the Cards came from behind to defeat the Cubs 13 to 9. Catcher Billy Davis went to the mound in the fifth with the bases loaded and struck out two Cubs to retire the side. With the score tied 6-6 in the sixth, he sparked a seven run uprising with a double, and then set the Cubs down in the bottom of the inning. A. G. Cook made the fielding play of the day by robbing Gary Grogan of an extra base blow in the last of the sixth. Bobby Curry

Mexican Mission Revival Planned

A revival meeting will be held at the Mexican Baptist Mission here beginning Friday, July 13 and ending July 22.

Services will begin at 8:00 p. m. each day when Rev. Salvador Rivera, an evangelist from Plainview, will bring the messages. Rev. George Young, pastor of the mission will lead the singing.

Everyone is invited to attend the services which will be conducted in Spanish. The mission is especially urging farmers of this area who have Latin American laborers to make it possible for them to attend the revival services.

A new roof has recently been put on the mission building and the Mission Committee extends its appreciation for those who helped with the project. These include Pantalon Rocha, Rev. Gutierrez, Rev. George Young, Ray Nevill, Clyde Allen and Lynn West.

Elmer Blankenship Owns Farm Home Near Wilson

The above farm house belongs to Elmer L. Blankenship, and is located about two miles south east of Wilson.

First town reader to identify it was Mrs. Denny Polk, and first rural reader was Mrs. J. R. Hamilton.

Many people recognized the place, and among those calling The News were: Mrs. JoAnn Steinhauser, Earl Cumming, Mrs. E. L. Walker, Charlene Riddle, Norris Rayborne, Carl Gene Spears, Carolyn Edwards, Don Spears, C. W. Stone, Clarence Church, Mrs. Ward Eakin, Mrs.

Martha Crooks, Mrs. D. R. Adamson, and Velma Jean Hagler.

Mr. and Mrs. Blankenship bought their home place of 123 acres in 1938. They also own a section in Yoakum county in partnership with her father, H. B. Crosby, and farm a half section of rented land at New Home.

Elmer drilled his first well in 1951, and he now has three little wells on his home place, four on the New Home farm, and five on the Plains farm, where a sprinkler system is used. On the three farms he has 733 acres of dry land. Mr. Blankenship is serving the third year of a five-year term as a member of the Board of Supervisors of the Lynn County Soil Conservation District, of which board he is secretary. He is also a Lynn committeeman of the High Plains Water Conservation District.

All his dryland is terraced and farmed on the contour, and he is thoroughly convinced this is the way to farm the dry plains land. In his irrigation, friends say he gets the maximum results from his small wells by working every means available to make every drop count.

Mr. and Mrs. Blankenship (she is the former Miss Natalie Crosby) were married June 6, 1938. A daughter, Judy, 17, was president of the Wilson FHA club last year and editor of the Corral, Wilson High School annual, and expects to attend Hardin-Simmons University this fall. Their son, Jimmy, 15, has been in 4-H club work several years and now is in FFA work at Wilson High School.

One peculiar fact about the family is that Mrs. Blankenship and Judy are active in Wilson Baptist Church, while Elmer and his son are active in the Wilson Methodist Church.

Elmer is a member of Wilson Lions Club, and belongs to the Slaton Masonic chapter, while Mrs. Blankenship is a member of the Eastern Star at Slaton. She has been a teacher in the Wilson schools a number of years.

New Home Church Sets Meeting Dates

The adult class of the Bible School will be taught by McCoy. The subject will be "Christ, the Center of Christianity."

COOKE COUNTY REUNION

The annual Cooke county reunion will be held Sunday, July 29, on Mackenzie Terrace on top of the hill after passing the Fair Grounds on Broadway in Lubbock. Lunch is at 1 p. m. and prizes will be given the oldest, youngest, largest family, and persons coming the greatest distance.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Shanks, Mrs. Myrtle Patterson of Brownfield, and Mrs. Pat Warren of Soper, Okla.; and three sons, Allen Males of Oklahoma City, Charles Males of Houston, and Ray Males of Hobbs.

Congratulations:

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Scott of Prentiss on the birth of a son named Stephen Blain and weighing 7 pounds 15 ounces at 3:47 a. m. June 28 in Kingsville Hospital. The father is employed by Sun Oil Co. The mother is the former Sue Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blain Ramsey of West Point.

He has three big brothers, Chris, Steve and Ladd. Mrs. Beulah Applewhite is the maternal grandmother and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Culbertson Roberts are the paternal grandparents.

MOVE TO SAN ANGELO

Gottfried Mauhart was born and reared at Linz-Ebelsberg, Austria, attended elementary school there; spent one year in the Secondary School in Kemsmunster, attended College at Kemsmunster 1945 to 1953, where he was a group leader of boys, has visited in Rome and Venice, Italy, Denmark, Sweden, Finland, and Norway to study farming methods.

He is now in his sixth term in the Institute of Agriculture at Vienna. He has studied English four years, and has had opportunity to use the language.

Of his personal life, Gottfried writes:

"I am the second one of five boys and two girls. Charles, 23, is leader of the Austrian 4-H Club in Ebelsberg; Max, 21, is clergyman in the monastery of Benedictine Fathers in Kemsmunster; Rudolph, 18 is apprentice of commerce; Ernest, 17, is finishing the agricultural practices at my father's farm; Ann, 12, attends College of Ursulines in Linz; and Margaret, 10 will finish this summer the Elementary School.

"My father's farm is 60 ha large. Besides the farm work, my father is dealing with public affairs and he is Landwirtschaftskammerat (Government of Upper Austria) as well as President of the Austrian Association of Farmers in Linz.

"Therefore, already by family background I became interested in the questions of political and vocational problems. My intention is to become a farmer. I hope as an educated farmer to become able to help solve a great many of the urgent problems and questions regarding the education of a modern farm youth with open eyes for the international problems."

CARD OF THANKS

Thank you for your kindness during my recent illness. We appreciate your prayers, flowers, and those of you who sat up at the hospital. May God bless you all.—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Polk and family.

Trading At Home Benefits Area

(By Nashua (Iowa) Reporter)

If every car, new suit of men's clothes, new hats, dresses, etc. for milady, shoes, radio sets, television sets, drugs, gasoline and tires, hardware, heating plants, produce and feed, groceries, printing and other items used or needed in everyday living and business were to be bought from local suppliers, you would notice some of these things begin to happen:

Your local printer would have to add a man or two to handle the printing; your clothing dealer would need an extra clerk, maybe more; your filling stations would put on more men; your radio and TV dealers would need more help, and could offer even better service; your hardware and other hard lines dealers could and would expand their services; your auto dealers would sell more cars, more cars would require more servicing, and more mechanics—and so on down the list.

All these workers would come from the age bracket which is in the family-raising era. The average family, the census people say, is 4.2 people. So multiply each extra job by 4.2 and you have a sizeable increase in our population.

Bigger And Better Schools

More population means more students in our schools and the opportunity to add more courses and instructors, thus making the schools more attractive than ever. More population adds to the opportunities of our doctors and other professional people and merchants.

All by trading at home! Think about this, you people who save a few dimes, or even a few dollars—or think you save them—when you buy or order away from home. A little of the Golden Rule applied right now, right here at home, would be the greatest shot in the arm the town could have.

So easy to do. So much good it would do! The dollar spent away from home does the community no good. Let the home fellow make a dollar. Eventually it benefits everyone. Forget the grouches and gripes about 'the other guy' for six

Dryland Farming Has Advantages Over Irrigated, Huffaker Declares

Some of the advantages of dryland farming over irrigation farming were presented by Calloway Huffaker in an interesting talk at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week.

He declared, according to reliable estimates, there are 1,340 irrigation wells in Lynn county watering 65,000 acres of cotton. This represents only one-third of the county's 184,600 allotted cotton acres. Therefore, Lynn county's prosperity still depends to a large extent on dryland farming.

He gave illustrations to indicate that dryland farming is not so bad, as compared to irrigated farming—given a little rainfall at the opportune time.

Intensive irrigation of 320 acres requires two tractors and six wells, costing an estimated $27,000. For the same investment, the dryland farmer can buy six tractors and other equipment for farming 3,200 acres, or ten times as much land.

The irrigation farmer needs two hands most of the year, while the dryland farmer on this acreage will need six hands a part of the year; the irrigated land must be poisoned two or three times at least, the dryland does not have to poison every year; the dryland must be hoed once, the irrigated possibly two or three times; the irrigated farm requires more butane, gas and oil than is required for farming 3,000 acres of dryland; and, then, one hail can wipe out the irrigation farm, while a man farming 3,000 acres is unlikely to get it all hailed out.

Cotton Quiz

WHICH FIBER DO AMERICANS PREFER?

ALMOST 70% OF ALL APPAREL FIBERS CONSUMED TODAY ARE COTTON.

From the landlord's standpoint, a dry section can be bought for about the price a quarter section of irrigated land will cost.

Irrigated land will average a bale per acre, while the dryland will average a quarter bale.

Except for the poor years of 1953, 1954, and 1955, Huffaker was not so sure but that dryland is a better investment than irrigated land.

Incidentally, he farms both irrigated and dryland.

Frank Hill made a talk on "Some of the Rotary Clubs I Have Visited," in which he told experiences on visits to clubs at Denver, Durango, and LaVeta, Colorado, and Washington, D. C.

Wynne Collier was in charge of the program.

John Reasonover, new club president presiding at his first meeting, outlined some of his objectives for the year and expressed the hope the over-all program for the year would help "put more Rotary in Rotarians."

First issue of the improved Rotary Club bulletin, now called "The Stemwinder," was distributed by Rev. J. B. Stewart, the editor.

GRIDER GOES TO WORK

G. C. Grider says he has gone to work for the first time in thirty years. He recently bought the old "Doc" G. W. Williams home in south Tahoka, and is completely remodeling the home. Seriously, he says carpentering is really work.

"Doc" Williams, now living in Cleburne with a sister, is in very poor health, Grider says.

BURIAL AT KNOX CITY

C. G. Stephens, 79, of Knox City, and father of Mrs. Wilbur Barton of O'Donnell, was buried Sunday. Attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Oliver of Tahoka and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Barton of O'Donnell, route 3.

Jesse A. Ward, who lives over in the northeastern part of the county, was in last week end to pay his subscription and stated that he had been in Lynn and Garza counties for 40 years. He had with him two coins he inherited from his father, one a penny mined in 1858 and the other a 50 cent piece made in 1861.

Workers Should Check Records

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Tahoka on July 20, 1956, at 9:00 a. m. at the Courthouse and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to Social Security.

John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock District Office, urges all workers to check their social security record to see that all their 1955 wages have been reported and credited to their account. He especially urges all farm workers who were paid cash wages of as much as $100.00 from one employer in 1955 to check to see that each of their employers reported their wages. Because valuable retirement and insurance protection is based on covered earnings, every worker should know the status of his account and what he and his family can expect from this protection. Hutton further advises that a special printed postcard, used to request the earnings statement, may be obtained from the local office, located at 1616 19th street, in Lubbock.

When your earnings statement is received from the social security accounting office in Baltimore, Md., check it against your personal records. If the statement is not complete or correct, contact the local social security office so that immediate action can be taken to correct your account.

Failure to take this action may reduce the amount of monthly benefits payable to you or your survivors since all benefits are based on your "average" earnings.

Hutton states that the local social security office has pamphlets which will help you estimate the amount you and your survivors will receive. Other informational material of interest to farmers and farm workers, household workers, employees of state and local governments, the self-employ-

Crutcher Tells Of Big Haul of Fish

O. P. Crutcher, Newmoore store operator and farmer, takes off at least once a year for a little fishing and a few days ago he was telling about his success on this year's trip, made last April.

While fishing in the Gulf at Port Aransas, O. P., or "Pete" as he is known to many, caught a 70 pound pefish, an 8-pound redfish, a 5-pound mackerel, and a 4-pound speckled trout, all about tops in weight for each species.

He brought home about 250 pounds of fish to put in his deep-freeze for all-year eating.

Slogan and motto of the State of Indiana is "Crossroad of America."

(By E. I. The Elder)

In the days of Andrew Jackson and Sam Houston, about whom we have been writing recently, the savage practice of dueling had not entirely died out, though the death sweat was on its brow. Dueling was a hangover from pre-Colonial centuries when the vicious habit was tolerated and even approved by "The Church," that is, by the Roman Catholic Church, which regarded that totalitarian religious organization as the only one fit to be called a "Church." It regarded itself as "The Church," in fact, as it claimed and still claims to be the only "Church." Dueling is said to have been practiced in ancient times and became common in the middle ages, when it was practiced often with the consent and even approval of the Roman Catholic Church, which, however, practiced worse things than that. It practiced persecution, and put thousands of people to death for their refusal to comply with its edicts and decrees. It is a pity that dueling survived the reign of terror that was characteristic of the Dark Ages.

The World Book says that the duel became most common in France during the sixteenth century, "where, within eighteen years," it declares, "4,000 persons were killed in such encounters. In England and France laws were enacted forbidding dueling, but the laws were not rigidly enforced."

and the Northwest Territories.

I remember that in the course of time, Thomas Jefferson saw the opportunity to purchase the far-flung Louisiana Territory for a mere song and stretched his powers under the Constitution to make the purchase.

Sam Houston turned his eyes toward and saw a great expanse of rich territory yet uninhabited and largely unexplored, which was some day to be occupied by uncivilized Mexicans or by progressive civilized men, and I can not blame him if he coveted it for Uncle Sam or other white races. The Austins and Whartons and others were already here planting colonies, and I am glad that Sam Houston stepped into the gap and saved them and modern civilization from extinction—yes, and saved Texas for a great destination, even though our whole being does revolt at some of the things he did after becoming a resident of Texas.

Let me add that before this week ends, if present plans materialize, Eva and I, her sons and her daughters and their families and other relatives will be in Cameron Park in Waco, above the cliffs that overlook the Brazos and the Bosque Rivers, enjoying the annual re-union of herself, her children, and their families, a few other relatives and friends. One of these families comes from California near the shores of the Pacific, another from Virginia on

I am sorry that Sam Houston did many other things that were wrong. I am sorry that after he became a mature man and a successful politician and had served a term as governor he made the mistake of asking an 18-year-old girl to become his wife, their marriage breaking up a few days after it was consummated; that he then gave up everything that seemed to be worth-while and went to live with the Indians and for years lived a disgraceful life—and yet, if all this had not happened, the chances seemed to be that he never would have come to Texas, achieved its independence and built here a new and wonderful republic which he developed into the Texas that we have today. If he had not gone to the dogs as it were when he did, could he ever have built the empire of Texas? I don't know.

There are folks who say that even back in the days of Andrew Jackson, Sam Houston began looking toward Texas with envious eyes and hoping some day to win it for a rich possession of this great Union of states. Some say he sought it in order to extend slavery and to make of it one or more new slave states. Some say that when he gave up the governorship of Tennessee and went to the far West to live among the Cherokee Indians, he went plotting to retain the friendship of the Cherokees and other Indian tribes with the purpose of using them as a powerful army some day with which to snatch Texas away from the sovereignty and power of Mexico and to make of it an independent empire over which he might rule as a mighty emperor.

I do not know whether Sam Houston hatched up or entertained any such plots or not, but who could have looked upon the great expanse and the rich plains and pines of Texas and not have envied them for habitation and use by civilized men—by Anglo-American farmers and their families?

I remember that in pre-Revolutionary days, Englishmen and Frenchmen fought each other bitterly to determine whether the English or the French should become the rulers of this American continent. I remember that the English finally prevailed and settled the woods and the prairies of the region of the Great Lakes

Your key to Blue Chip values

Now-GMC gives you

a bonus of up to 3 gallons in every tankful!

Talk about low-cost GMC ownership! With its new high-ratio cruising axle, a Blue Chip GMC pickup now gives you up to 17.8% better gas mileage. That's 3 gallons' worth of bonus miles in every filling!

And you get far better road speeds, too, from an easy-stroking, unstrained engine. In short, from a mere $10.50 axle option, GMC now gives you the advantages of a $125 overdrive.

Add this new gas-stretching ability to the super-efficiency of a GMC 180 hp V8 engine—to the moneysaving advantages of Hydra-Matic Drive*—and an important fact is clear:

The operation and maintenance savings of Blue Chip features can bring the overall cost of a half-ton GMC down to the level of—or below—the cheapest stripped-model truck on the market.

Of course, you'd always have preferred a Blue Chip GMC to any other truck. But now—with cost so strongly in its favor—there's no need to step down. Come in and tell us what colors you want on your GMC.

ELMER BLANKENSHIP

The fall damage to the planting of Sesbania on Theo Campbell's farm does not appear to be too severe. The stalks that were broken entirely in too are sprouting and making growth. The buds are making growth from the top when stalks were broken and also along the sides of the stalk. Indications are that the breaking off has forced those buds to grow.

There is now another planting of Sesbania up to a stand on Weldon Bailey farm north-west of Wilson. Weldon made this planting on a plot where he was unable to obtain a stand of Indian grass. Sesbania is a prolific germinator and the young seedlings are vigorous enough to break through some soil crusting. The potential seed yield is not known.

Mrs. Earl Morris Tells of Recent Trip To Old Family Home In Tennessee

Five daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dyer, prominent early day farmer settlers east of Tahoka, returned last week end from a trip to Tennessee, where they visited relatives and their father's old home.

Mrs. W. A. Guinn of San Angelo took her four sisters and a friend, Mrs. W. L. Buntyn, on the trip. The sisters are Mrs. S. W. Hawthorne of Morton, Mrs. W. T. Shepherd of Houston, Mrs. E. E. White of Tahoka, and Mrs. Earl Morris of Gordon community.

The following accounts of the trip is by Mrs. Morris.

The ladies left Lubbock at 6:00 a. m. Monday, June 25. They reached Nashville the second day.

Wednesday morning, they did some sight-seeing, including a visit to The Upper Room Chapel. The Upper Room experience, memorable to all Christians, was "the last supper." As one enters the chapel, his attention is focused on the yelpohome wood carving of the "Last Supper," said to be the largest in the world. A visit to this chapel is very impressive, as you listen to an explanation of everything, and anyone going through Nashville will be well paid for the time taken out for a visit to this chapel.

The ladies went on to Lenoir

City, where they were guests of two cousins and families. They ate from a dining table over 100 years old that their grandfather had made by hand from walnut trees grown on the farm. Some other things over 100 years old were: Old walnut bedstead, marble top dresser and wash-stand with bowl and pitcher which sat in the company room, a small iron pot with legs which the gentlemen of the family used to heat water for a shave, an old piano, Jackson press, coffee grinder, caster set, fruit cups, dairy and button pattern, silver butter dish, teapot, sugar bowl, cream pitcher, fire tongs, sausage mill, hand irons made by Colored slaves in shop on farm, half pound butter mold, preserves jar, bean pit, syrup pitcher, a powder horn, muzzle loading rifle that had belonged to an old Colored slave who had returned to the Dyer family after the war.

The ladies visited an old cemetery where their great grandparents, grandparents, and hosts of other relatives were buried, with the old slaves buried to one side.

Possibly the most thrilling experiences of all were visits with two living sisters of their father. Mrs. Joe Browder, 89, lives with her son and family on the farm she went to as a bride She is a partial invalid, but her memory is good. Mrs. Bobt. Hunter, 95, of Johnson City, came over with three daughters for the week end. She is still spry and quite active.

Dinner was served on tables in the garage. The Methodist pastor and wife from Lenoir City attended this dinner. At the close, Mrs. Hunter sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

On Monday, these sight-seeing Texas women watched the old watermill grind flour and meal. Then, they made a trip to the top of Old Smoky Mountain, which lies on the Tennessee-North Carolina border.

Tuesday, they began their journey home, went by Chattanooga and visited the famous Rock City Gardens atop Lookout Mountain, went through Fat Man's Squeeze, braved the Swing-Along Bridge, and strolled through Fairyland. They drove to Birmingham, Alabama, that afternoon, where they spent the night.

On the morning of the fourth, they turned toward home, crossed a toll bridge over the old Mississippi, drove down highways bordered with pine and numerous other trees, hanging moss, kudzu vines, and other things that were quite interesting to these West Texas reared women.

The last night was spent in Texarkana, and they drove to Lubbock Thursday, where the crowd separated with thanks to Mrs. Guinn for such a lovely 10-day outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Slover and family of Fort Worth visited here Saturday through Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Slover. Claude is an engineer at Convair Aircraft at Fort Worth.

NOTIFY DRAFT BOARD OF EXPECTED BIRTH

Selective Service officials are warning young fathers that they must advise their boards about children or an expected child. Failure to do so leads the board to proceed on the idea such a man is childless and he is therefore ordered for service.

Mrs. Perle Price of Napa, Calif. was here the early part of this week visiting friends and relatives. She was on a two-weeks vacation and planned to visit other relatives in the area before returning to California.
