WESTBROOK'S FIRST PARADE in modern history took place Saturday before streets lined with spectators. Wheeled devices, from this unique chuck wagon (top) to ultra modern mini-tractors, passed in review for more than 30 minutes in a parade which included about 200 persons.

Vandals Damage Heavy Equipment

A $100,000 piece of county road equipment was discovered in a ditch 3.9 miles northeast of Buford after it was reported stolen by County Commissioner Paul Logsdon at 8:45 a.m. Saturday.

Logsdon contacted Deputy Sheriff Bobby Calloway to report the missing maintainer after a local farmer reported it had been moved from its parking spot about one mile off of Highway 208, northeast of Buford.

When Calloway located the maintainer, it was parked in a ditch with all six tires flattened, windows shattered, fuel filters punctured, the mole board was broken, 7 boots, one valve stem and a control arm were destroyed.

After extensive investigation, charges of criminal mischief were fil-and wound up in a ditch 3.9 miles northeast of Buford, slightly worse for the wear and tear, according to a report made by Sheriff Wendell Bryant.

Dog Trial Attorney Fees Stir Controversy In City

City Manager Brenda Tarter dropped a small bombshell on council members Tuesday evening during her "City Manager's Report."

In a move which brought such comments as, "I don't appreciate being put in a position like this," from Councilman Macca Findley, Mrs. Tarter presented a proposal that the council approve, by consensus of opinion (no actual vote is taken), the payment of $2,000 in attorney fees for City Officer Billy Ray Williamson.

Williamson was tried and acquitted April 10 on charges of cruelty to animals after he destroyed a dog while working in the employment of the city.

Mrs. Tarter repeatedly commented, "We should support our people," as she explained the request for payment of the attorneys' fees.

She noted Attorney Frank Ginzel had contacted her to ascertain if the city would pay his fees for defending Williamson in the case. She noted the $1,500 he was asking for his services was much less than he would normally charge for such a case.

She explained that $500 of the $2,000 was to be paid to City Attorney Pete McKinney (who was absent from the meeting) for what she termed additional services.

Mrs. Tarter noted the $500 was also much less than McKinney normally charges for services.

Councilman Jesse Munoz's reaction was immediate. He asked if Ginzel had been brought into the case by the city attorney or by Williamson.

Mrs. Tarter noted Williamson had wanted the best defense possible and had hired Ginzel.

She noted that she and Chief of Police Jimmy Roundtree had been aware of the decision from the beginning and had, in fact, held conferences to discuss the issue with Ginzel.

Councilman Macca Findley asked Mrs. Tarter if Ginzel had been told the city would pay his fees.

Mrs. Tarter replied "no," she did not have the council's authority to make such a statement.

Councilman Don Bennett made a motion that a vote be taken on the matter, to which Findley replied, "we can't vote, this thing is not on the agenda."

Each council member was next asked to give an opinion.

Councilman Ray Mason questioned Williamson, who was in uniform and present for the discussion, if he had been on duty the night of the incident, to which Williamson replied, "yes."

The question was put to Williamson as to why Ginzel's fees were so much greater than McKinney's fees.

Williamson replied "because criminal law is Ginzel's field of expertise."

Mason commented he believes the city should back employees also, but he pointed out, Williamson hired Ginzel on his own.

Councilwoman Nina Crout said the city should pay Ginzel be-

Westbrook Plays Host To Spectacular "First" Parade

Westbrook held a spectacular parade, the first in recent history, through the downtown streets Saturday.

More than 200 persons participated in the parade which boasted floats horseback riders, bicycle riders, tractors, trucks, a chuck wagon drawn by mules, clowns, Indians and many more attractions.

The parade passed in revue for 30 minutes, lead by Units from the Mitchell County Sheriff's Department and a Volunteer Fire Truck with sirens blaring.

Participants came from surrounding towns to help make Westbrook's first parade a great success.

Children filled the streets and more than 100 adults enjoyed this Centennial Spectacular.

Spectators enjoyed a 4-H Dress Revue in which seven girls participated including Sherry Putman, Angie Griffin, Jeran Ware, Lisa Putman, Stacie Smith, Elizabeth Barnett (first place winner) and Tammi Putman (second place winner).

Winners were presented with jewelry boxes.

Saturday's parade winners were presented with Susan B. Anthony Dollars. Randall Veach placed first in the bicycle riders and J. J. Ellett placed second.

A two way tie was awarded in third place between Jeffery Conaway and Gregory Conaway.

Spectators experienced a moment of apprehension when one of the mules slipped and fell in the wagon traces and the driver was unable to bring it to its feet for several minutes.

But, in the end, the mule was uprighted and the parade went on as scheduled.

A Centennial Dress Revue was presented to the delight of audiences.

Amid cheers and applause, Maggie Hamrick (first place winner), Mime Anderson, Bessie E. Shaw, Ann Duran and Lona Doss (second place winner) displayed handy work and antique costumes.

Centennial dolls were awarded the winners.

Magic figures and magic bows were next on the agenda for Sunday's celebration as a real old fashioned fiddlin' contest got underway.

Eight entries from Odessa, Snyder, Sweetwater, Colorado City and Westbrook, performed to hand clappin' and foot stompin' with each fiddler playing three tunes. Each program consisted of a breakdown, waltz and any tune of the fiddler's choice.

Man Escapes Injury After Pickup Plunges To Colorado Riverbed

A Midland man miraculously escaped injury Saturday when the pickup in which he was driving crashed through a guard rail on the Colorado River Bridge and plummeted to the riverbed 30 feet below.

Rollins Jones, 56, of 1414 Chestnut St., Midland was westbound on Interstate 20 at about 2:04 a.m. when he lost control of the 1975 Chevrolet Pickup he was driving.

The pickup crashed through the guardrailing on the Colorado River Bridge and fell to the riverbed below, coming to rest on its hood and top.

A truck driver who had been following behind the pickup stopped and assisted the driver from the wreckage.

Jones was shaken but apparently uninjured by the accident.

Members of the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department and Texas Highway Department assisted in removal of the wreckage. A portion of the guardrailing was removed to allow Dossey Wrecker Service to haul the pickup back up to the roadway.

Jones was transported to Root Memorial Hospital by ambulance. He was treated and released.

Texas Highway Patrolman Frank Constabile investigated the accident.

Sunday at 4 a.m. two young girls were involved in a one vehicle accident in the construction zone three and one-half miles west of Colorado City.

Lana Barber, 17, of 400 Dallas St., Big Spring, was driving a 1976 Ford westbound on

Head Librarian Resigns Position, New Librarian Appointed

Mitchell County Library will soon have a new Head Librarian.

During the regular monthly session of the Mitchell County Commissioners Court Monday, a letter of resignation from Head Librarian Geneva Jones was read and approved.

Mrs. Jones will be replaced by current Assistant Librarian Gladys Oden.

Mrs. Oden's appointment to that position was recommended by the Mitchell County Library Board, represented by Marion Bassham.

Mrs. Bassham reported she had been in contact with Mrs. Oden in regard to the position. Mrs. Oden has obtained her librarian's certificate and is interested in the position.

Mrs. Jones' resignation is effective July 1 and Mrs. Oden's appointment is effective on that date.

Commissioners voted to accept applications for an assistant librarian.

City Manager Brenda Tarter appeared before the court to request $7,500 to $8,000 in funding to be used to purchase 15 pagers and five radios for the volunteer fire department personnel and trucks.

She estimated the entire cost of replacing the existing equipment with new high-ban equipment to be about $18,000.

Sheriff's radios will require a converter to operate on the same frequency as the city.

Mrs. Tarter estimated installation of the equipment by August.

Commissioners voted to fund the project.

County Extension Agent Bob Benson requested a new pickup for his office.

He asked for a three-quarter ton, super cab. Commissioner Paul Hunter asked if the larger pickup was necessary. He suggested it might be possible to sell the gooseneck trailer. Benson pulls and buy a smaller one, which could be pulled by a smaller pickup, thereby saving on gas mileage.

Benson noted the gooseneck trailer is safer than the smaller one when pulling livestock.

Commissioners voted to advertise for bids on a three-quarter ton pickup and a conventional half-ton pickup. Bids will be opened July 13 at 2 p.m.

Bids will also be taken on up to eight miles of sealcoating on county roadways. These bids will be opened June 22 at 9 a.m.

Commissioners renewed an easement for 25 years with El Paso Natural Gas Co.

Loraine Senior Citizens requested roof repairs on the building used as the Senior Citizens Center. A contractor will be asked to investigated needed repairs for that building and the county buildings on the west hill.

County Clerk and District Clerk were granted permission to attend the annual three day conference in Abilene June 16.

An increase in the county trapper's funding was noted by court members during the meeting.

He will receive $700 as the county's portion of his salary.

Commissioners voted to purchase a new chair for the Mental Health Clinic. Cost of the chair is estimated at $140.

County Judge Bill Carter read from a letter which stated the three County Justices of the Peace have completed a 20 hour course which is required annually.

Commissioner Johnny Shackelford requested some dirt be placed behind the library building to eliminate a ditch which has filled with water from recent rains.

Commissioners will fill the ditch.

Chris Hubbard presented the proposed guidelines prepared by the Library Board for the next 25 years of operation of the county library.

These guidelines will be reviewed by commissioners and action will be taken on the proposal July 13.

Tax Collector Assessor Mike Burt presented information on mineral valuations for the coming year. At 100 percent valuation, $390,000,000 is anticipated. Last year $276,000,000 was listed as the valuation. Included in the new figure is $34,400,000 in new values.

A demonstration was given by Olivetti and IBM Corp. on a new electronic typewriter.

The machine prints 17 and one-half characters per second; prints left to right and right to left and writes in five languages. It is very quiet and has a memory bank. The cost of the machines ranged from $1,867 to $2,790.

The Office of the District Attorney had requested the new machine. No action was taken by the court on the request.

Loraine Council Seeks New Police Chief

Loraine City Council assembled Monday night and accepted the resignation of Chief of Police Jim Eggleston which was effective May 15.

The Council agreed to accept applications for the position of Chief of Police, specifying the applicant must be certified before consideration by the Council.

A salary was decided upon of $850. The city will provide a home for the officer, however, will not be responsible for the utility bills on the home.

It was also decided to rent the old Police Office building to Rogers Exploration Co., at a rate of $35 monthly.

Lions Tamed By Blue Sox, 17-7

Colorado City Minor League is in full swing in its baseball season and teams are battling with as much determination and drive to gain and hold that number one position.

During Saturday night's action, the Cubs fought a good battle but came up short as the Steers ramrodded them 22-6.

In the second game of the night, the fierce king of the beasts, the Lions, were not so fierce as they were defeated by the Blue Sox, 7-17.

Regardless of Ranger's efforts, they fall short of a victory.

Indians Take Win In Monday's Action

The Indians did not run to the south from the Yankees, as they got behind, but battled to the finish and were finally defeated 21-14 Monday night in Freshman League baseball action.

In the first game Tuesday night, the Dodgers proved to be the winning team as they took the Astros 22-3.

The Pirates took what seemed to be an easy win over the Rangers with a score of 35-16, in the final round of the night.

Public Invitation Given For Field House Facility

An open invitation has been extended to the public to utilize the facilities at the Wolf Field House, Coach Tom Ramsey announced.

The field house is open from 7 a.m. until 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

It will be opened for "evening" athletes on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The use of the weight equipment, track and practice field is encouraged according to Coach Ramsey, who also noted the showers can be used by the public but no towels will be supplied.

Ramsey noted the school has not control over the baseball field next to the stadium and it is not included in the invitation for use by the public.

Ramsey said only two rules must be respected while enjoying the facilities, no alcoholic beverages will be brought on the premise or used there and the public must stay off of the football field because of possible damage to the grass.

Ramsey said most of the time there will be two coaches there for safety purposes and they will be repairing, painting or supervising during the open hours.

Students may use the facilities without coaches guidance, however, no organized workouts are allowed under University Interscholastic League rules.

Ramsey noted parents are welcome at any time to watch activities, however, no pictures or press personnel are allowed without his supervision and expressed permission.

Lowriders Beat By Clutch Team

City League Softball action continues as it is too early in the season to determine the final standings, but Fullers and the Rejects seem to be the favored teams in the men's division. The Lady Rejects have an edge over the other two contending teams, the season is young and has a lot more games to be played. It's still anybody's ball game.

On Monday night, the Lowriders were run over by Fullers 14-2. The second game of the night went into extra innings but Clutch put the pedal down and came out on top of the C. City A's, 19-18.

Tuesday night's rounds were competitive and close as Bojo's and Little Chicago battled with Bojo's losing 1-16.

Spade Ranch Lifesavers showed no mercy on the Red Rebels in the ladies' division as they beat them 9-8.

In the final game of the night, the Rejects pulled another win out of their lucky bag, as they won over the Warheads 14-3.

"Reflections Of His Life" To Be Shown Sunday Night

Reflections Of His Love," a new film highlighting the life and ministry of Joni Eareckson, will be shown Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Colorado City at 7 p.m.

Miss Eareckson is the star of a recent theatrical motion picture, "Joni," which relates the story of her diving accident, as a young girl, which left her paralyzed from the neck down. It chronicles her struggles to piece together her life and her faith in God, in spite of the devastating circumstances.

In "Reflections Of His Love," Miss Eareckson, who is also the author of two best-selling books, "Joni" and "A Step Further," tells of the great transformations that have taken place in her life because of her willingness to accept all the things that have happened to her.

According to Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, pastor, the movie introduces the viewer to the real Joni Eareckson as you are able to meet her parents, sisters and friends.

Rev. Roenfeldt added that "the determination and the depth of trust and faith that this young lady has developed can serve as an inspiration to us all. Although she is a quadriplegic and does not have the use of her legs or arms, we actually witness her drive a van in this film. It's much more than a physical and technical feat– it's a credit to her inner spirit."

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the moving film of the life of Miss Eareckson.

Rev. Hamby Is Re-Appointed

The re-appointment of Rev. M. Donald Hamby, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Colorado City, was made official on June 2 as Bishop Louis Schowengerdt declared and distributed the appointments for the Northwest Texas Annual Conference at the meeting at Lubbock.

The appointment year runs from June 1981 to June 1982 for the Northwest Conference and this will mark the third appointment year at Colorado City for Rev. Hamby.

He and his wife, Jeannie, who is an LVN at Root Valley Fair Lodge, have a daughter, Juli Anna, who will be a sixth grader at Colorado Middle School. He has formerly served pastorates in Abilene, Sweetwater and Lubbock and at the present also chairs the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry for Northwest Texas.

During Sunday morning service, a special service called "A Celebration of Convenant in Ministry, will mark the congregation and pastor's mutual acceptance of each other and agreement to enter into ministry together.

According to Rev. Hamby, "It is a joy and pleasure to be re-appointed pastor of such a strong, faithful United Methodist congregation as this one. We look forward to completing our centennial year in grand style and then moving forward to be even more faithful as we begin our second hundred years."

Couple Exchanged Wedding Vows Saturday Afternoon

Saturday, during a candlelight double ring ceremony, Vikki Lynn Uselton became the bride of Terry Lee Culbertson. The wedding vows were exchanged in the First Baptist Church of Colorado City with Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie L. Uselton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Culbertson, all of Colorado City.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line empire gown fashioned of slipper satin and organza which was designed by her mother.

The church was decorated with candelabra forming a heart, accented with greenery. Large Boston fern in tophats completed the facade. Pink satin bows and streamers accented the center pews.

The bodice, hand embroidered in French alencon lace and seed pearls, featured a sweetheart neckline. Modified Victorian sleeves, accented in lace appliques and wide lace cuffs, tapered to petal points over the hands.

The A-line skirt was accented with hand embroidered appliques of French lace complimenting back panels which swept from the fitted bodice and fastened with tiny satin buttons to an extended chapel train of organza ruffles. A fingertip veil of illusion edged in lace fastened to an organza and lace capulet complimented the gown.

She carried a cascade of white roses accented with baby's breath and pink sweetheart roses atop a white Bible.

For something old and borrowed, the bride wore a string of pearls belonging to her mother and her garter represented something blue. Her wedding gown was something new.

Sherri Uselton, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a pink satin gown featuring a bodice of matching pink lace. She carried burgandy and pink carnations with matching satin streamers.

The bridesmaids were Gail Sheen of Colorado City, Robin Ralson of Blooming Grove and Cindy Manning of Teague.

Kerry Culbertson, brother of the groom of Midland, served as the best man. Groomsmen were Randy Uselton, brother of the bride of Colorado City, Scott Gassiott of Amarillo and Stephen Kimmel of Colorado City.

Serving as flower girl was Amy Moore of San Angelo and Kelly Ramsey of Colorado City was the ring bearer.

Featured vocalists were Cecile Hubbard singing "We've Only Just Begun" and Mark Cook singing "The Wedding Song." Both of them sang a duet, "Author Of Love" as the bride and groom lit the unity candle.

Accompanying on the songs were Mrs. Hubbard and Mrs. Ginger Chandler of San Angelo.

Registering guests was Anne Marcon of Colorado City.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Colorado High School and are presently attending Texas Tech University in Lubbock where they plan to make their home.

Thrips Are Problem

By BILL JANY

Besides, the Jumbo grasshopper, another early season pest to be watching for are thrips. Thrips rarely, if ever, cause economic damage to seedling cotton, but when cool wet weather slows cotton growth and seedlings are being damaged by rain, wind, blowing sand and seedling diseases, thrip damage may be the stone that broke the seedlings stalk.

Thrips are hard to see, but their damage is fairly easy to recognize and distinguish from sand burn. Thrips feed on leaves and leaf buds causing the underside of the leaves to turn a silverly color followed by wilted, deformed and crinkled leaves that curl upward. Under conditions unfavorable for seedling growth, heavy thrip populations may reduce stands, stunt plants and delay fruiting and maturity.

If you just got a new pair of glasses and want to prove to your neighbor that you can see beyond the end of your nose, you will see that thrips looks like tiny cigars, less than one-eighth inch long, slender, agile insect that vary in color from yellowish brown to orange tan. Adult thrips have narrow wings fringed with long hair.

Nine times out of ten, plants usually recover from thrips infestation, once favorable growing conditions return. Because of this recovery of seedling cotton plants, it has been very difficult to show any significant yield increases from thrip control.

Because of our unusual weather patterns favoring seedling disease, and general slow seedling growth, this may be the year to watch for severe damage from thrips.

FORD, From Page 1

Interstate 20. She was accompanied by Beverly Wilkerson, 21, of Big Spring.

The Ford was apparently attempting to pass a truck when it left the paved surface and drove onto the median. The driver attempted to drive back up onto the paved surface, causing the car to roll over one time, landing upright on its wheels.

Both girls were reportedly transported to Malone and Hogan Hospital in Big Spring by private vehicle.

Dossey Wrecker Service removed the wreckage.

Trooper Costabile investigated the accident.

Four construction workers were involved in an accident Saturday at about 6 p.m., while westbound on Interstate 20 near the access road at Trucktown.

Charles Smith, 37, of Lancaster, was driving a 1977 Chevrolet Suburban, towing a 1979 Ford Pickup in the westbound lane of Interstate 20 when he lost control of the vehicle and slid sideways into the median.

Smith and two other occupants of the vehicle were transported to Root Memorial Hospital. A fourth occupant who received only minor scrapes and bruises remained at the scene of the accident.

The four men were reportedly on the way to California to do construction work.

Trooper Tom Johnson investigated the accident, assisted by Trooper Costabile.

City Police Officers Billy Ray Williamson, Elias Franco and Police Chief Jimmy Roundtree assisted with traffic control, divering traffic onto the access road for several minutes until Dossey Wrecker Service could remove the two wrecked vehicles cause Williamson would not be in this trouble if he did not work for the city.

Councilwoman Gene Rowe suggested the matter should be decided in the presence of the city attorney and with his advice.

Findley said he resented being placed in this position, the item was not on the agenda and he believed any "outside" money should be paid by Williamson. "We are showing support by paying Pete (McKinney)."

Munoz voiced the same opinion.

Mrs. Crout pointed out that this was the first time anything like this had happened and there was no precedent to follow.

Munoz pointed out that the council sets the budget and if such a charge were to be paid, the council should have been made aware so provisions for the money could have been made. As it is, he commented, the money will have to come from some place and some other item would have to be left out.

Findley said "Our liability and support stops with Pete (McKinney)," and he noted, the council should have known beforehand.

"I try to be supportive of the police department and this makes me look like I'm not," he said.

He commented he had previously had a conversation with Chief Roundtree about the bad conduct of his officers and had heard only good things about the department in recent days.

Councilman Bennett asked Mrs. Tarter if there was any reason to rush a decision. She replied, "Frank wants his money."

In the end, Mayor Elmer Martin suggested the council make no decision until the city attorney had voiced his opinion.

Several other items of business were briefly discussed during the meeting including a report from Mrs. Tarter on the possibility of placing four-way stop signs at the intersections of Sixth and Chestnut Streets and Sixth and Elm Streets.

She reported a survey conducted by herself and the city secretary indicated, according to state recommendations, no additional stop signs were needed at the intersections.

The matter was not brought to a vote.

Findley suggested when the new budget is prepared, the possibility of placing a caution light at the intersections be discussed.

Bids were presented from two local body shops for repair of damages to the 1980 Chevrolet patrol car which was involved in an accident on East Highway 80 during last week's rainy weather.

Thompson Body Shop bid $2,254.74. This bid, according to Chief Roundtree included no engine damage repairs and would be accomplished with used parts.

Tom's Paint and Body Shop bid $2,753.48. This bid, according to Chief Roundtree, included engine repairs and all new parts.

Council members voted to accept the bid from Tom's Paint and Body Shop.

School Votes For Communication System

A new communications system will soon be installed within the Colorado Independent School District.

During Monday evening's regular board meeting, trustees voted to lease a two way communication system on an annual basis from H & H Systems Co., at a rate of about $8,000 for the first year (to include installation) and about $5,000 annually there after.

The system will be installed at the Administration Office, Bus Barn, and all three school buildings.

The units will be transportable to allow bus drivers access to weather warnings or pending hazards.

No bids were submitted on the building trades house, located at 113 East 22nd St. Trustees voted to reopen bidding with the same minimum bid acceptable ($55,000) to be opened July 13 at 7 p.m.

Board members contributed the lack of bidding to current high interest rates.

Several teachers' positions were discussed during the meeting.

Dorthea Hunter, Hutchinson Elementary teacher, requested and was granted a one year leave of absence for health reasons.

Mike Herrington, Life and Earth Science teacher at Middle School, submitted his resignation to accept a position as Loraine Vocational Agriculture Teacher. The board accepted his resignation.

Bill Gordon Shipp was approved for appointment as band director and his wife, Jamie Shipp, was accepted for the position of music teacher in Kelley Elementary School.

Melody Stubblefield was appointed as school nurse.

Uselton reported on the status of the delinquent tax suit against Lo-Vaca Gathering Co.

District Judge J. H. Starley, who heard the case, sent a letter in regard to his findings in the suit.

"It is not a final judgement, that will be filed in our local District Court at a later date," Uselton reported.

However, Uselton noted, the judge has indicated his findings are in favor of Lo-Vaca Gathering Co.

"In talking with McCreary and Huey (attorneys for the CISD), we have two ways we can go. That is, take the money that is offered by Lo-Vaca based on the final judgement or file an appeal in a higher court," Uselton stated.

Trustees voted to appeal the verdict.

A review of progress in an energy audit program was presented by Tax Assessor-Collector J. S. Craddock, Jr.

Craddock reported he had been in contact with several companies in regard to an energy audit.

He noted all references he had contacted in regard to the companies had given good references.

Colt Energy Management, Inc. of San Diego will determine the energy needs and program for the CISD for $27,200.

Fanning, Fanning and Agnew, Inc., of Lubbock, will perform the service designed to conserve energy for 10 cents a square foot.

BGR, Inc., of Lubbock would contract for eight cents a square foot.

Jack Hollis, Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce Manager and former public relations expert with Texas Electric Service Co., in Midland, spoke to the trustees on the subject.

He suggested the trustees appoint a committee to survey the energy usage in the system. He said common sense would possibly do as much good as hiring a company to locate places to save money. He offered his assistance and noted the best way to go about the program was to instruct teachers and employees on conservation measures. "If you turn off the switch, you are not using the energy," he said.

Trustee Billy Bruce Bridgford noted he was in favor of the suggestion and believes that using nature is the best way to conserve energy

He said he was against closing off windows and noted the need to insulate hot water lines.

Trustee Dickie White stated he was in favor of the committee and would only contact a company to do a survey if the system could not save at least 25 percent on its own.

Board members voted to appoint Uselton to select and head a committee to make a survey of the energy usage

Mitchell County Tax Apraisal District requested the CISD furnish office space and a parking lot in front of the administration building for the District.

A plan for remodeling was presented to the board which gave approval to the request.

The CISD must select a depository for school funds.

Bids will be requested for a depository pledging a one and one-half million dollar bond. Board members renew such contracts annually.

Board members discussed new components for the Title I program and gave approval of a proposed application.

Uselton reported that Bill Walker of the Education Service Center will be here on June 18 to assist with the application for funding.

In 1981-82, Title I funds received by the CISD totaled $152,890. The 1982-83 allocation is $117,477.

During the meeting, several board policies were amended or deleted. One policy changes the grading system on report cards from letters to numbers.

A program of equivalent letter and number grades will be distributed to allow correlation of the two grades by parents.

American Families Needed By Students

Homes for foreign high school students, wanting to come to the United States and learn about middle income American family life, are being sought by area representatives of the Youth Exchange Service (YES).

Rev. and Mrs. Don Jeffreys of Trinity Baptist Church in Sweetwater are Texas representatives of YES stated they would like to place one or two students in homes in the Colorado City area. "We are looking for homes to provide temporary lodging, meals and love," they said.

The students are carefully screened by the YES home office, using only the top qualifying students.

Single adult homes may also be acceptable to host one of the students between the ages of 15-18.

Most of the students come from South America and Europe and YES tries to match as nearly as possible the likes and dislikes, hobbies, interests and personalities to the same characteristics of the host families.

For more information on the program, contact the Jeffreys at 235-4822 or 235-2991.

In order for students to arrive for the Fall school term, host families need to apply by June 15 and in order for students to be here for Spring semester, October 1 is the deadline set.

Taxpayers who asked for an automatic extension to file their Federal income tax returns must file the complete return and pay any remaining tax due by midnight, Monday, the Internal Revenue Service says.

The taxpayer must attach a copy of the extension request, Form 4868, to the completed return. If a taxpayer is entitled to the automatic extension because he or she was outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico on April 15, a statement to that effect must be attached to the return, the IRS adds.

TABS Results Show Improvement In Student Learning At All Levels

Colorado Independent School District Board of Trustees heard a report from Superintendent of Schools Charlie Uselton Monday evening indicating CISD students are showing progress in basic skills.

Uselton reported results indicate, from Texas Assessment of Basic Skills testing at the Fifth Grade level, nine out of 12 objectives in math testing are up over scores made last year.

A four percent overall increase in score is indicated in reading. Writing tests indicate one point higher this year than last year.

At the Ninth Grade level, Uselton reported students tested higher than last year in 10 of the 11 objectives in math. Overall, students tested 18 percent higher than last year and of the 11 objectives in reading, scores in five are up. Writing at this grade level is three points down from the previous year's score.

Since the Third Grade was not tested last year, there is no comparison figure given, Uselton noted.

Of the 117 students tested at the Third Grade level, 38 percent were Hispanic, nine percent were Asian and 53 percent were white. Of this number, 50 percent were participants in the free or reduced price meal programs.

Only five percent of the students at this grade level had limited English speaking ability.

At the Fifth Grade level, 106 students were tested and of that numbe,r six percent were black, 40 percent Hispanic and 54 percent were white.

Of that number, 4[illegible] percent participated in free or reduced price meal programs and four percent had limited English speaking Ability.

At the Ninth Grade level, 95 students were tested with one percent of that number being Asian, six percent being black, 51 percent Hispanic and 42 percent white.

Of this number, 51 percent participated in free or reduced price meal programs and 14 percent had limited English speaking ability.

Of the students taking the test and not passing it at the Ninth Grade level last year, 57 students were retested at the Tenth Grade level.

Of this number, 60 percent mastered math; 46 percent mastered reading and 79 percent mastered writing.

Donna Burnam assisted Uselton in the scoring presentation. She noted there are some definite strengths and weaknesses indicated by the score of elementary students.

"At the Third Grade level in the subject area of mathematics, the strengths were evident in multiplying whole numbers (89 percent mastery) and in identifying fractional parts (88 percent mastery). Weaknesses in the math area showed up in order of whole numbers (44 percent mastery) and in selecting units of measure (45 percent mastery). The results of the reading section showed that students had some difficulty in understanding word structures (54 percent mastery), but showed mastery in following written directions (87 percent). On the writing test, spelling was shown to be mastered with 86 percent of the students. On the other hand, punctuation was low with only 48 percent mastering that area," she said.

"At the Fifth Grade level, the strengths in the mathematics area were in dividing whole numbers (83 percent mastery) and in units of measure (86 percent mastery). Weaknesses were in interpreting place value (42 percent mastery) and in identifying equivalent fractions (41 percent mastery). In reading, the students were able to use context clues well (88 percent mastery), but seemed to have trouble with distinguishing fact and non-fact (54 percent mastery) and with drawing conclusions (51 percent mastery). In writing, spelling was a strong area with 92 percent mastery, along with capitalization (87 percent mastery). The main weakness was in the area of correct English usage with only a 60 percent mastery," Mrs. Burnam said.

"The results for the Ninth Grade indicated definite strengths and weaknesses in several areas. In the area of mathematics, there were 95 percent demonstrating mastery in the area of adding and subtracting whole numbers and 93 percent mastering the objective of reading and interpreting charts and graphs. Weaknesses were noted in the following areas: solving personal finance problems (only 37 percent mastery); using ratio, proportion, and percent (37 percent mastery)," she said.

In the subject area of reading, the strengths were in the areas of following written directions (85 percent mastery) and using reference skills (89 percent mastery). Weaknesses were apparent in two areas. Students seemed to have difficulty in distinguishing fact and non-fact (53 percent mastery) and in making generalizations (44 percent mastery), Mrs. Brunam said.

"The results of the writing test showed that the students excelled in spelling (87 percent) and in capitalization (85 percent). They seemed to have some problems with punctuation (54 percent) and with correct English usage (57 percent)," she noted.

Electricity's costing a lot more this summer.

Live warmer and help hold down your bills.

You may not feel quite comfortable at first when you set your thermostat at 80° or higher, but most people adjust very quickly to living warmer. At the same time, if you dress cooler and use a fan, you may not even notice the difference. But it will help hold down your electric bill.
