IN THE EYE

NEW BISMARCK OF GERMANY

Germany has another Bismarck. He is Alfred von Kiderlen-Waechter, who is secretary of foreign affairs and who is the big man in Germany's foreign relations. It is he who set Europe by the ears over the Morocco situation.

Kiderlen-Waechter has been secretary of embassy at St. Petersburg and Paris and councillor of embassy at Constantinople. He is a linguist, speaking the leading languages of the continent and being as proficient in English as in his own native German.

Two years ago Herr Alfred was a comparatively little known member of Germany's diplomatic corps, holding the post of minister to Roumania. He was rated as a man of ability and force with a more salient and sharply defined personality than that of the average government official, but the public heard little of him. Recently he has been the man of the hour in Germany and probably the most talked of statesman in Europe. For the events that precipitated the international crisis with its menace of impending war he more than any one else was responsible.

CHICAGO BANKER ON PAROLE

John R. Walsh of Chicago, who has been paroled from the Levensworth prison, was convicted in 1906 of a violation of the federal banking laws, the technical charge being that of making "false reports with reference to the financial status of the Chicago National Bank, of which he was president."

The liberated financier is now 74 years old. He was born in Ireland in 1837, and came to Chicago when he was 10 years old, beginning life as a newsboy. In 1861 he established a news agency which later developed into the Western News company supplying railway trains and country towns with periodicals, books, maps and current literature. In 1882, having been successful in various business ventures and investments, including a large interest in the Chicago Herald, Mr. Walsh, together with others, established the Chicago National Bank. After disposing of his interest in the Herald in 1895 he founded the Chicago Chronicle, which paper suspended publication following the closing of the Walsh banks. In addition to his banks and the newspaper, Mr. Walsh was heavily interested in a large number of propositions.

NEWPORT SOCIAL INSURGENT

During the past season there has been insubordination in the ranks of Newport socialism which started a new party in the ranks of the "old guard." The leader of the social insurgents was Mrs. John R. Drexel, who is here pictured, and the captain of the standpatters was Mrs. Ogden Mills. Newport is to select society what Mexico is to the Mahomedans, or Benares to the Hindus, or Jerusalem to the Jew and to the Christian—the holy of holies of the idle rich, whose bible is the social register duly stamped with the dollar mark. Mrs. Drexel would widen the ranks of the select and admit many now barred from the social paradise, where nobles with decayed fortunes matrimonially browse. Mrs. Mills would none of this. She stands for a close corporation, so to speak, and would limit to 100 or even fewer those who would be entitled to enter the elect set of Newport.

Thus these two women, who are taken seriously enough by their followers, entered into a battle royal for social supremacy. Supporting Mrs. Drexel are scores of families, financially powerful but hitherto barred from the Eden of the elect. Upholding Mrs. Mills are all those already within the inner sacred precincts.

DESCENDANT OF THE PROPHET

Will there ever be a holy war declared by Islam against her enemies? One often meets with references to such possibility and since the declaration of war against Turkey by Italy these references have been more frequent than for many years before.

But there is little probability of such a crusade by the Mohammedans against the Christians, unless in the event of a European coalition having for its object the dismemberment of Turkey in Europe and her expulsion from the continent. The authority for this is Mohammed Ali, whose portrait is shown, a descendant of the great prophet who founded the Mohammedan religion. Mohammed Ali is now in this country and he says that a holy war will never be declared unless the dismemberment of the Ottoman empire is threatened. Then, he says, there will be an uprising of the 75,000,000 Mohammedans scattered throughout the world.

These are dwellers in Asia and Africa, principally many of them living under the British flag in India and others under the tri-color of France in northern Africa.

TALES OF GOTHAM AND OTHER CITIES

Painted Meat and Aged Eggs in Gotham

NEW YORK.—Since the first of this year the state bureau of food inspection has condemned 10,486,778 pounds of food as rotten or adulterated. Most of the food condemned was in New York city.

The other day the first of the group of offenders were arraigned and must appear for trial. Most of them were dealers from the lower part of the city, and the charge against them alleged the possession of decayed chickens, soured condensed milk, spoiled corned beef, dyed chopped meat, spoiled meat of all kinds, rotten eggs, bad butter and decayed fruits.

According to reports there are even worse articles in restaurants and stores, such as painted fish, spoiled meat dipped in formaldehyde and reddened so as to look fresh, ice cream containing wood alcohol, candies containing poisonous dyes and soda strips made of coal tar.

"We have found bad butter—sassa," says Dr. McMillan, chief of the inspectors, "that was a mixture of good and bad butter or oleo and bad butter and good butter all mixed and treated so that it looked palatable. In one of the cellars of a restaurant I found some that he had bought at a navy sale of rejected foods, and he had, in addition, many pounds of rotten tomatoes. On the stands of street vendors we have found a goodly amount of decayed vegetables and fruit, which, strangely enough, people buy."

"As soon as rotten food is discovered by inspectors it is denatured by methylene blue or some like acid, unless it is needed for chemical analysis."

"Meats can be treated effectively with formaldehyde. A piece of tainted meat, black and malodorous, is often washed in the acid, we find, and is then sold for good meat, red and fresh looking, as its treatment makes it."

Indianapolis Has a Municipal Market

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—Believing that Indianapolis commission firms combined to maintain high prices by keeping down the supply of farm products, Mayor Shank brought a car load of potatoes from Wisconsin and sold them at cost, plus a small sum for buying, handling and delivering. In less than a week the price of potatoes dropped 50 per cent as a result. The mayor has now proposed to the council that he authorize the employment of a municipal buyer to follow the sale prices of the dealers and the prices charged by producers.

"I am convinced," the mayor said, "that if 25 of our leading cities would do this the combines that maintain high prices could be broken. There are thousands and thousands of bushels of pears and apples going to waste in the orchards of Indiana because the commission firms plan to keep the visible supply down and keep up the prices. The same conditions exist in other states and cities."

The mayor had charge of the first car load of potatoes, and there was a remarkable scene at the city market when the first car was sold. It had been announced that any one person could buy as much as a bushel for 75 cents, a peck at 20 cents or half a peck for a dime.

As early as three o'clock the crowds began gathering. Customers went there on foot, horseback, in carriages and automobiles. When the first wagon load arrived and the mayor announced the sale was on, there was a continual clamor for potatoes until ten o'clock, when the car load had been sold.

The potatoes were sold by weight and not by measure. There are 60 pounds to a bushel and it was found that 60 pounds always heaped high a bushel measure. So with the measure of less denomination. One man remarked he could buy potatoes at 75 cents by weight, sell them at 75 cents by measure and make money.

Prison Warden's Novel Experiments

TOPEKA, Kan.—A new plan, intended to give Kansas convicts a new idea of life, has been put into effect at the Kansas penitentiary, according to the report of Warden J. R. Coddling to Governor Stubbs. Every man that is sent to the prison is given six months' work on the farm just previous to his release. The men get out in the open. They are tanned and sunburned, have more liberty, less discipline, get close to nature and leave the prison with the hatred of men and laws gone and really wanting to live better lives. Since the new system has been tried not one released convict has come back. Warden Coddling believes that through this system Kansas may gain a record for a minimum number of second-term men which will be lower than that of any other state.

Many years ago an island in the Missouri river was sold to the state by some political sharpers, who made a lot of money in the deal. The island has never been used, and the lands owned by the state around the prison have never been used to any great extent for farming.

Warden Coddling began work two years ago and the first thing he did was to give the prisoners half an hour's liberty each day in the prison yard. The men can do anything they wish during that half hour. They can talk to each other and the guard, play ball, pitch horse shoes, play croquet or a dozen other games.

Finds a $1,000 Pearl in Clam Shell

CHICAGO.—A $1,000 pearl, found in a clam bake and subsequently forfeited taken away by the dealer who supplied the shellfish was taken into custody the other day by Capt. Max Dunner of the police department, pending a decision by Municipal Judge Caverly of a question equally perplexing as that of the egg laid by the famous Maywood hen. As a result Judge Caverly was expected to give the correct answer to the following question:

"If a clam dealer is ordered to supply clams for a church dinner and gives some of them to a carpenter, who finds a $1,000 pearl in one of the shells, does the gem belong to the church?"

Our Lady of Lourdes church, Leland and North Ashland avenues, recently gave a clam bake and ordered the clams for the feast from Frank J. Dugget, 70 South Water street. While carrying the clams into the church Dugget gave half a dozen to Elmer Thesen, a carpenter, who was at work to the building.

Thesen opened one of the shells and found the pearl. Thereupon Dugget claimed the gem as his property, and an argument regarding the ownership followed, resulting in the dealer forcibly taking possession of the pearl. Thesen then had Dugget arrested on a charge of larceny and the case was called before Judge Caverly.

After pondering over the details, the judge suggested that the pearl should rightfully belong to the church which had purchased the clams. Immediately Thesen and Dugget joined ranks against their common opponent, the church, and refused to listen to any terms of settlement by which they both would "lose out." Accordingly, the judge continued his ruminations.

COMBINED PENCIL AND LIGHT

Will Be Found of Great Convenience in Making Notes or Plans in Dark Basements.

ed, says the Popular Electricity. By turning the screw at the top the light is switched on. When the pencil attachment is removed the device may be used like the ordinary pencil. In fact, many instances arise where the electric pencil shown in the illustration would be useful in giving a little light and that only where needed.

ELECTRIC POWER FROM WIND

Economical Plants Can Be Used by Providing Gasoline Motors Whenever Nature Takes Rest.

There has never been a time when the forces of nature were subjected to such searching scrutiny to determine their availability for the development of mechanical power as they receive at present. This arises mainly from the progressive use of electricity.

Among other things it is believed that the wind can be utilized to a far greater extent than in the past, especially for electric lighting. With this object in view the average state of the wind has been investigated in England. It is found that for approximately half the time the mean wind velocity is very light, and for about one-third of the time it is higher. The great difficulty arises from the calm periods, which may last days, or even a week, but it has been shown that economical lighting plants can be based upon wind power by providing gasoline motors to take up the work whenever the wind falls.

MUCH HAND LABOR IS SAVED

Electric Valve-Grinding Tool Has Just Been Placed on the Market by American Company.

A line of electric valve-grinding tools, for grinding valves of the lift or poppet type, as in automobile engines, compressors, etc., or any form of globe valve, or air or gas cock, has been placed on the market by an American tool company, says the Popular Mechanics. These tools take the place of hand labor in grinding valves which require to be resorted periodically.

gines, compressors, etc., or any form of globe valve, or air or gas cock, has been placed on the market by an American tool company, says the Popular Mechanics. These tools take the place of hand labor in grinding valves which require to be resorted periodically.

Furnaces of Niagara.
The abundant supply of electric energy derived from the falls of Niagara has produced the hottest furnaces in the world. The melt clay to form the precious metal aluminum, the most fusible of all elements—the most infusible of all elements—to produce the curious new compound calcium carbide; they produce graphite, which is almost as hard as the diamond, on the turn out vast quantities of phosphorus, and they cap the climax by manufacturing the invaluable carborundum. It is said that the diamond kingdom is the only one left for the furnaces of Niagara to conquer.

Corporation With a Soul.
An Illinois electric light company is making an effort to show its patrons that corporations are not without heart, and during the past summer it has been supplying free, on the recommendation of physicians, electric fans and the necessary current to drive them, in the sick rooms of persons who are unable to pay for the service and who would be benefited by the presence of the fans. In many cases where houses were not wired the company did the necessary work without cost.

LATEST IN LIFE PRESERVERS

Useful Device, Which May Be Introduced Into German Navy, Has Electric Light Attachment.

A new life preserver, which has been successfully tried, may be introduced into the German navy, writes the American consul from Brunswick. The apparatus, which weighs five and one-half pounds, consists of two swimming cushions bound together by straps. The cushions lie upon the breast and back. The apparatus is provided with a small lamp fed by a battery. The lamp can be fastened around the head with a band worn on the forehead, so that in an accident at night the position of the person in the water can be seen at a considerable distance. The small electrical lamp burns three to four hours, and with a reflector added, throws the light several hundred yards at night. In several recent tests of life saving at night the victims of the supposed shipwreck, by aid of the lamp, have been easily discovered. The life preserver can be buckled around the body in five seconds. The lamp begins to shine as soon as the buckle is fastened.

In case of catastrophes to warships the worth of the life preserver cannot be overestimated, though in case of war its use would not be advisable.

HANGING WIRE FROM A TREE

from being placed where possibly it would be hard to keep them standing, especially in swamps, says Telephony. Be careful to run the wire that branches and leaves cannot even touch it when they swing in the wind.

FOOT OF ELECTRIC MOTOR.

A remarkable performance of an electric motor is noted in a recent issue of an electrical paper. The motor was doing service in a mine geared to a pump, and because of the high temperature prevailing at the spot the motor was not enclosed, as they often are. During last winter the mine was flooded, submerging the pump and the motor to a depth of two feet. It was necessary to continue the operation of the pump the motor was not shut down, and for two hours it ran without interruption, though completely submerged, until it had actually pumped itself clear of water. The motor was then run for two feet, and was stopped only long enough to clean off the dirt and chips around the motor, after which the bearings were oiled, and it was started again. Since then it has been running steadily for an average of 20 hours a day.

ELECTROLYTIC IRON.

Iron is now being produced electrolytically by a method devised by a German scientist and tried out at a large electrochemical plant at Leipzig. The iron obtained is said to be exceptionally pure, and is formed in a bright, very solid and easily worked sheet on the electrode. By selecting electrodes of suitable shapes, tubing and even very complicated forms of sheet iron may be readily made. The electrolytic iron is said to be magnetized and demagnetized much more rapidly than ordinary soft iron, which it is believed, will give it a wide field of usefulness in the construction of electromagnets.

ELECTRICAL NOTES

There are at present eighteen recognized systems of wireless telegraphy. An electric motor has been invented for measuring the flow of steam in pipes.

A new electrical office device will seal, stamp and keep a record of 150 letters per minute.

A machine has been invented to paste paper labels on bottles. It is driven by an electric motor.

An attachment has been invented to make an alarm clock turn on and light a gas jet at a predetermined time. Up to date the motor vehicles that have been constructed by the London county council number more than 57,000.

The Paris department stores use storage battery driven electric tricycles to deliver purchases to customers.

To a Massachusetts man has been granted a patent for an electric lamp and reflector for inspecting the inside of shoes.

In the kitchens of the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., practically all the work is done by electricity. Cinematograph theaters are very popular all over Great Britain. The United States supplies 60 to 75 per cent. of the films used.

A new insulator for use in electrical work is made by condensing phenol and formaldehyde. It is said to resemble Japanese lacquer.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

Let onion atoms lurk within the bowl.

And half-suspected animate the whole. —Sidney Smith.

VALUE OF THE ONION.

The onion has wonderful properties and is both a food and a medicine. For colds and coughs it is a remedy popular through many generations.

A few onions sliced and sprinkled generously with sugar, put into the oven and baked until the onion and sirup is brown is a cough medicine hard to equal.

Raw onions are said to cure bronchitis and throat affections.

The only drawback to the full enjoyment of this homely vegetable is the odor which it leaves on the breath. Fresh parsley eaten after eating onions is the best remedy to counteract the onion odor.

Raw onion is more stimulating than cooked ones and they are said to have a beneficial effect on the complexion. So the onion eaters have some compensation.

Creamed Onions on Toast.—Peel onions all of one size and put to cook in a little stock with a blade of mace and cook gently until tender. Drain and keep the onions hot, then add a half cup of milk to the onion liquid. Add a little flour and butter cooked together. Roll and season. Prepare a piece of toast for each onion. Add a roll of egg to the sauce, lay an onion on each piece of toast, pour over some of the sauce, sprinkle with chopped parsley and serve hot.

Chopped onion seasoned with a bit of mustard, salt and olive oil and vinegar makes a very appetizing filling for sandwiches. Serve them for Sunday night lunch—after church.

The delicious flavor of the onion is used in countless dishes and eaten with relish by many who profess to dislike the flavor.

Stuffed Onions.—Parboil large-sized onions and remove the centers. Fill with seasoned sausage or a filling of nuts and crumbs. Bake and serve with soup stock or butter and water. Serve as a garnish for pork roast, chops or steak.

Beauty.—If I were asked what was the greatest gift to beauty in both man and woman, I would say, not errors in diet, but a very appetizing filling for sandwiches. Serve them for Sunday night lunch—after church.

AUTUMN DISHES.

Pears and Rice.—Cut six pears in half, remove the cores and peel thinly. Put them into a saucepan with a sirup of sugar and water and cook until the pears are soft. Put a pint of milk into a saucepan with the thinly peeled rind of a lemon and a tablespoonful of butter. When boiling hot add three tablespoonfuls of rice and cook until the rice is tender. When done, cool. Add the beaten yolks of two eggs and a half cup of cream. Sweeten to taste. Serve the rice in the center of the dish with the pears around it. Pour the sirup over all. Serve hot.

Another delicious way of serving the pear is to wash, halve and core them, leaving the stem on. Put into a baking dish and dot each core with butter, sprinkle with sugar, add a little lemon juice and water and bake slowly for several hours in a slow oven. The sauce will be a rich brown caramel.

Apple Meringue.—Peel and core six apples, being careful to keep them unbroken. Put them in a sirup made of two tablespoonfuls of sugar and two cups of water and bake until tender. Butter a baking dish, put the apples into it and fill the centers with apricot jam. Beat the whites of two eggs, add a tablespoonful of sugar and cover the apples completely with the meringue. Put back into the oven to brown.

Melting Potatoes.—Pare and cook in boiling salted water enough potatoes for the meal. When done, drain and place in a buttered baking dish, cover with a half pint of soup stock (which is most savory), put a piece of butter on each potato and bake until the potatoes have absorbed the stock. Serve hot.

Orange Pudding.—Scald a pint of milk in a double boiler and add a tablespoonful of cornstarch which has been mixed with a little cold milk, then add the yolks of two eggs and a cupful of sugar. Cook until smooth, then remove from the heat. Peel and slice thin two oranges, sprinkle with sugar, then pour over them the chilled custard. A meringue may be added and browned in the oven. Chill and serve cold.

Lamb Chops With Cucumbers.—Cook the chops until brown on both sides. Peel a good-sized cucumber and cut into small dice, slather in boiling water until almost done, drain and season with butter and cook until quite tender. Add salt, chopped parsley and pepper. Arrange the chops around the edge of the platter and heap the cucumbers in the center.

Orange Pudding.—Scald a pint of milk in a double boiler and add a tablespoonful of cornstarch which has been mixed with a little cold milk, then add the yolks of two eggs and a cupful of sugar. Cook until smooth, then remove from the heat. Peel and slice thin two oranges, sprinkle with sugar, then pour over them the chilled custard. A meringue may be added and browned in the oven. Chill and serve cold.

Soldiers' Pet Armadillo.
While hunting in the Virginia woods near Bailey's crossroads, in Alexandria county, a few nights ago a park of dogs belonging to John Monroe and a colored man named Mortimer Wiggins ran down and killed an armadillo. Believed to be an armadillo. The dogs were after opossums and coons, but getting on the scent of the animal toiled in it for an hour or more before they landed their quarry. Later it was learned that the armadillo belonged to one of the troops of cavalry at Fort Myer. The men had secured a number of the animals while on duty on the Texas border and had brought them to the fort.

The one that was killed had escaped and the men had been hunting the woods for it for several days when they learned that it had been killed. This is possibly the only armadillo hunt that ever took place in the vicinity of Washington—Washington Star.

GIRL'S HAIR IS CUT OFF WHILE ASLEEP

Revenge by Playmates Thought to Have Been Motive Prompting Deed.

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Revenge by playmates is said to have been the motive that prompted some one to reach through a window of the home of Claude Weaver, an attorney, during the night and cut off the locks of Barbara, his fifteen-year-old daughter, as she lay asleep. When the girl awoke in the morning her long braids lay on the floor near the bed.

Mr. Weaver has hired a detective to work on the case. Recently Miss Cuts Off Girl's Hair.

Weaver has been taunted by her playmates who resented what they termed her tendency to be "stuck up." Cynthia Powell, a girl friend, also had received a letter threatening her with dire punishment unless she continued to speak to certain boys of the neighborhood. The police suspect that one of these boys cut off Barbara's tresses.

LION CLAWS A LITTLE GIRL

An Eye Gouged Out, an Ear Torn Off and Her Face Terribly Mangled.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Clawed and bitten by a huge lion in a side show at the state fair here, Laura Burns, aged seven years, of Morrisville, N. Y., howls between life and death. The girl was frightfully mangled when she failed to keep back of the ropes and came within reach of the monster beast.

The lion caught her with one of his massive paws and while he held her fast he clawed her with the other paw as he tried to pull the child into his cage. Attendants rushed to the child's aid, but the animal had her fast in his grip, and infuriated by the taste of blood refused to let loose until prodded with heated irons.

When finally it released the child it was found that the lion had gouged out one of her eyes, torn off an ear, and lacerated her face and the upper part of her body. The great throng and the shouts of the crowd frightened the rest of the beasts in the tent, so that keepers had to guard them with loaded weapons.

SHOT BY PEEPING NEGROES

Circus Watchman Is the Victim of Blacks Looking in Women's Dressing Room.

Louisville, Ky.—Thomas McCormick, aged 36, watchman for the Barnum & Bailey circus, was fatally shot during the performance here one night recently. Will Arny, a negro, is under arrest for the crime.

McCormick found two negroes peeping into the tent used by women performers for a dressing room. He remonstrated with them and they went away. A second time he caught the peepers and calling an assistant made ready to eject them from the inclosure. One of the negroes then drew a revolver and shot McCormick.

Christian Art of Getting Mad

By Rev. INGRAM E. HILL, Pastor of North Star Baptist Church, Chicago.

TEXT—Be ye angry and sin not.—Eph. IV, 26.

It is a great thing to know how to get real angry without making a fool of one's self. Not everybody knows how to do it. It is an accomplished art, the ability to get mad like a gentleman. To know when to get angry is a criterion of character. It is an accomplishment which is not learned in the schools. It is acquired in the relentless training of practical experience.

It is not a sin to get angry. Any man with half an ounce of ginger to his system ought to get angry occasionally. Temper is the impress of God upon the soul. It is the mark of personality and intellectual stamina. The scriptures say that God is angry with the wicked every day. Jesus got angry. Can you not see him standing at the temple door? Can you not see the market scenes which were enacted there? Can you not see his eyes kindled? Can you not see his illumined countenance blaze fierce and glorious? Can you not see the miraculous energy of his personality as he cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple and said unto them: "My house shall be called a house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves."

Christianity is something more than a religion of love. Jesus said: "I came not to send peace, but a sword." Passivity may be all right for weaklings, but action is the hallmark of heroes. The man who tries to be sweet with everybody will find some day that he is nothing but a lemon. It is very easy, however, to get angry foolishly. Sometimes it is proper to get angry, and sometimes it is not. It may be proper at times for a man to get angry with the janitor. It may be proper at times for a man to get angry with the umpire. It may be proper at times for a man to get angry with the family upstairs. But it is never, never proper for a man to get angry with his wife. There is many a man who will say many things to his wife that he would not think of saying to his chauffeur.

Temper is good. A bad temper is what you have made of a good thing. A rifle is a good thing in good hands. But when it has become rusted and out of repair it is going to explode some day in the hands of some cheerful idiot who did not know it was loaded. If your temper gets the best of you what you need is to go off to the repair shop and be made over. These fits of temper, this sour disposition, this iceberg atmosphere, this spiteful spirit are as contrary to the Christian as light is opposed to darkness.

Tell me, what do you get mad about? That is the practical question. A man calls you a liar and you retort in similar language. But men are making God a liar every day and you do not get angry. Wherever there are wrongs to be righted, wherever there are evils to be trampled under foot, wherever there is justice to be meted out, wherever there is iniquity in high places or low, there is your opportunity to show of what stuff you are made.

Somebody treads on your corn and you get mad at him. This very night a courtly and attractive son of perdition will lure a girl in her teens to one of the wineries of this prodigal city. He will give to her a drink that will inflame every passion and deaden every moral sense. He will lead her forth to her ruin and laugh like a devil over the havoc he has wrought. If you are going to get angry, in God's name get angry at something worth while.

We are in the midst here of a society which is fond of wine and joy rides and clandestine flirtations. A society that is rotten to the core. Glittering resorts or doubtful character flaunt their disregard of all morality. Friends in human shape are stalking the streets and outrages are committed at our very doors. There is a time to be angry. There is a time for Christian men to speak out and that time is now. When the good people wake from their lethargy and begin to tackle something that is really worth their mettle, then shall right be triumphant and justice win the day.

The Law of Love.

The consecrated Christian brings to the lowliest duties the loftiest motives. His consecration to Christ carries with it consecration to the service of his brother men. The law of Christ is the law of love. We fulfill it in doing well our part of the world's work as well as in direct acts of sympathy and burden bearing. The holy man is the more energetic to business on account of the fullness of divine life in his heart. As Christ came into the world to do the Father's will, so he sends us into the world to do his own will, which is always the Father's will. Business becomes ministry when it is inspired by identity to Christ. The salvation of society, the redemption of business, the subordination of power to principle and love, can only come through the law of love, which is the law of Christ.

Herodism.

Christianity alone seeks and secures both happiness and holiness.—Eph. I, 2. T. Root, Congregationalist, Proving.

Minister Who Shot Negro

Rev. H. H. Friar, Baptist minister, missionary, evangelist and state law enforcement officer, at little before six o'clock last night (Wednesday, Nov. 29) was bound over to the district court by Justice of the Peace Mel Bailey on the charge of murdering Bill Allcorn, an alleged negro "jointist" at Boynton, Okla. Monday afternoon.

At seven o'clock Judge Allen, of the district court, without a hearing and without argument, admitted Friar to bond of $5000. In granting the bond, Judge Allen said:

"Gentlemen:—I care to hear no further evidence in this case. When a man who has had the reputation on which Rev. Friar has enjoyed kills a low down black guard bootlegger no further evidence is needed. Bail is granted." Friar secured his release on a habeas corpus proceeding. County Attorney Disney had notified the sheriff and attorneys Crump and Garrett that hearing would be held at eight o'clock. Judge Allen then set it for 6:45.

Friar's bond was quickly made wealth of more than $500,000 being represented by the signers. When word that Rev. Friar was in dire trouble spread to Coweta, Pryor and other towns where he had been conducting crusades before he came to Boynton, leading men of these cities hurried to Muskogee to lend him aid. Last night fifteen of them anxiously signed his bond and many more were prohibited from doing so.

Prominent men from Boynton in Muskogee last night prayed that Friar does not return to that town. "If he does there is sure to be a murder," one of them said and others acquiesce. "It is not trouble among the negroes we fear but trouble among the white people."—Wagoner (Okla.) Sayings.

Rev. Friar, it will be remembered, conducted a very successful revival in Junction last year, and has many friends here.

'The Gem' Self-Heating Flat Iron

Here is what you have been looking for, a good self-heating flat iron. The "Gem" is the most artistic and durable iron on the market. It is highly nickel polished and is the only practical self-heating iron made. It is so simply constructed that anyone could learn to operate same in a few minutes.

No Dirt, No Smoke, No Danger

No more burnt cheeks and fingers. The heat can be regulated for any class of work, from coarse plain ironing to the finest linens.

Housewife! Think of the hot summer days when you must stand near a hot stove, if you use the ordinary iron, or if electric, you must stay indoors, near the electric light socket, but with the "Gem" Self-Heating Iron you can take your work out on the lawn under the trees, where you can get the cool breezes from all sides.

And Another Feature, The Cost

The cost of operating the "Gem" Self-Heating Flat Iron is only a few cents per hour. Can you afford to be without the "Gem?"

All parts are handsomely and durably made, and with the ordinary care will last a lifetime.

Weight about 7 pounds. Price.....$5.00

THE TEA PENALTY.

A Strong Man's Experience.

Writing from a busy railroad town the wife of an employee of one of the great roads says:

"My husband is a railroad man who has been so much benefited by the use of Postum that he wishes me to express his thanks to you for the good it has done him. His waking hours are taken up with his work, and he has no time to write himself."

"He has been a great tea drinker all his life and has always liked it strong."

"Tea has, of late years, acted on him like morphine does upon most people. At first it soothed him, but only for an hour or so, then it began to affect his nerves to such an extent that he could not sleep at night, and he would go to his work in the morning wretched and miserable from the loss of rest. This condition grew constantly worse, until his friends persuaded him, some four months ago, to quit tea and use Postum."

"At first he used Postum only for breakfast, but as he liked the taste of it, and it somehow seemed to do him good, he added it to his evening meal.
Then, as he grew better, he began to drink it for his noon meal, and now he will drink nothing else at table."

"His condition is so wonderfully improved that he could not be hired to give up Postum and go back to tea.
His nerves have become steady and reliable once more, and his sleep is easy, natural and refreshing."

"He owes all this to Postum, for he has taken no medicine and made no other change in his diet."

"His brother who was very nervous from coffee-drinking, was persuaded by us to give up the coffee and use Postum and he also has recovered his health and strength." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

HEDGES, WALLS AND FENCES IN THE RURAL DISTRICTS

A NUMBER of different factors have contributed directly or indirectly during the past few years to the appearance of American farms and rural estates as viewed from the highways and railroads. It is safe to say, however, that nothing has been more influential in this direction than the improved means introduced for marking the boundaries of fields and estates. Nor has the provision of better facilities in this respect been confined by any means to the wealthy folk who have taken up country life as a fad and have the means to indulge every caprice in that connection. The common-sense, every-day farmer is fully holding up his end of the responsibility of providing a more orderly countryside.

Until comparatively recent years in most sections of the United States and even yet in many of the more newly settled districts, farm fences were considered solely from the standpoint of utility. This was perfectly natural. A homesteader establishing an agricultural domain
or a sheep and cattle ranch in territory recently opened to settlement has other things to think of besides providing ornamental boundary
markers for his acreage.
And anyway he has numerous heavy drains
upon his pocketbook at such a time and probably can ill afford to go in for anything fancy at such a juncture, even though he have the strongest inclinations to have everything about the place in apple-pie order.

These considerations
explain how it has been that as each section of the United States has in turn been settled the pioneers have availed themselves of the most economical means of indicating boundary lines.
The farmer wants to have his lines, as you
ed for by a surveyor, marked clearly, since
that forestalls trouble later on and he wants to keep cattle, etc., out of his cultivated tracts, even if he has no stock of his own that he wishes to restrict to a given area.

But in the old days no farmer felt that he could afford to lay out much money in fixing such limitations. Almost invariably the pioneer or early settler in any community was anxious to find material for his fences on the place. This will explain the almost universal use in our whole broad farm domain of the old familiar type of zigzag rail fence. And just here be it noted that it is an admirable type of fence, too. Cheap to construct, easy to keep in repair, substantial and enduring; it is calculated to yield excellent service. This is the type of fence that Abraham Lincoln constructed and its fame may go down to posterity through the rails which are treasured as precious relics because he split them.

The early settlers in stony districts, such as New England and certain sections of New York, including the famous Mohawk Valley, in many instances made their first fences of stone. In this respect they were in one sense ahead of their times because stone fences are constructed nowadays because of their artistic and picturesque attributes and are preferred by people to whom expense is no object. As a matter of fact a fence of loose stones was never a cheap form of construction. On the fact of things it has always been an extravagance as compared with the rail fence, but the consideration that lends to its selection in many localities was that the land had to be cleared of stones or it could be tilled. It was no more trouble to pile the stones thus collected in the form of a fence than in a pile which would serve no good purpose and it took less time to thus arrange the stones along the boundary lines than to cart them to some distant dump.

So the average farmer working such land kilted two birds with one stone, so to speak, and set up fences that in most localities have endured to this day.

The appearance of the wire fence and particularly the barbed wire variety marked a new era in fence building in our rural districts. Nobody has ever contended that the average wire fence was anything very beautiful to look upon, but it has proven a boon to thousands of farmers in the

ORNATE IRON FENCE ON A

west where timber was too scarce to be wasted on rail fences and where there were no stones to be cleared. The wire fence has proven an even greater boon to stock raisers, many of whom must needs fence large tracts and who are not disposed to quibble over cost if they can get a fence that can be put up quickly and will stand hard usage.

Of course the dramatic incidents of "wire cutting" days in the cattle country proved that the wire fence was as easy to destroy as it was quick to build, but of course that turbulent condition is not one that has continued.

And while we are on the subject of the wire fence it may be noted the regeneration of the wire fence has been one of the most marked features of the present era of more presentable farm fences. The treatment that this fence has accorded many of the old wire fences reminds one—in its ingenious expedient for covering up old material with new—of the scheme now so frequently followed in coating old brick houses with a layer of stucco or concrete that gives them a pristine freshness. In some instances ivy, roses, or rapidly-growing vines of one kind or another have been planted at frequent intervals along a wire fence—say at each post—and in a surprisingly short time the fence becomes a trellis for a luxuriant growth that is bound to charm even the most fastidious person and one to whom a wire fence unadorned would prove a perfect eyesore.

Another present day ruse for making the wire fence unobtrusive and yet retaining all its virtue as a boundary is to have the fence serve as a core for a hedge. The bushes, shrubs or other hedge-making vegetation may be planted on either or both sides (alternately) of the fence and in a few years the presence of wire strands and their supporting posts would be a complete surprise to a person who attempted to pass the barrier, so completely will they be hidden. Indeed, a close growing hedge reinforced by a wire fence has a twofold value as a preventive of trespass by man or beast and many persons of wide experience declare that it is the ideal form. The and there is, of course, no necessity for a farmer to keep such a hedge trimmed in symmetrical fashion as is done with those in the formal gardens of the rich.

The hedge, close-cropped, beautifully rounded and with no wire fence concealed is seen much more frequently than formerly as one traverses the most traveled roads in America. Such hedges, however, usually bespeak the indulgence of some wealthy land holder who is willing to spend freely for the sake of appearances. The invasion of the country districts by this leisure class, retired men of means and so-called gentlemen farmers, has also resulted in the appearance of great numbers of stone and concrete walls of course such barriers, like wires the ivy-covered brick walls, are costly and particularly so when we take into account the massive gateways which have usually been provided in such connection. There is no doubt, however, that such walls add much, in the estimation of most persons, to the beauty of our rural landscapes. Indeed, it is the walls and hedges more than anything else which cause returned travelers to grow enthusiastic over rural England.

The iron fence has shared in the stimulated activity but the iron fence, unlike the stone wall, calls for a pretty heavy outlay, although if it is kept painted it will endure for so many years that it is rendered fairly reasonable in the long run. The picket fence, preferably painted white or white and green, continues to have many staunch friends among the farming class and the running board fence which is said to have originated in New England has secured to many other sections of the country and thence on a few frills suggestive of the designs of "barred pie." Rustic work when well done is always mighty effective in any rural surroundings and the picturesque appearance of the logs with the bark on is heightened by the introduction of some bright-hued post. Another latter day development is seen in the latitude now manifested in the height of the fences in the rural districts. A generation ago pretty much all the fences were about the same height. Nowadays they vary greatly. In some instances where the fence or hedge is purely ornamental its height is very much restricted whereas on the other hand it is not unusual to encounter a wealthy land owner whose desire for privacy has prompted him to erect—at least in the immediate vicinity of his dwelling—a wall so high that a man on horseback cannot see over it. A comparatively low stone wall surmounted by a high iron fence is another form of construction that has been introduced extensively.

HE KNEW.

Sometimes the proverbial "small brother" proves himself amazingly well informed if tactless person. The brother of a certain confident daniel thus recently addressed a shy and shrinking sister.

"Mr. Jones, are you going to marry Sister Ruth?"
"Mr. Jones (blushing and disconcerted)—Why, sonnie, I er—I really don't know, how know!"
"Sma! Brother (with a giggle)—That's what I thought. Well, you are!"

Ruskin Pities Americans.
It is not only the half million bricks of Tattershall that have been numbered for transportation across the Atlantic. Ruskin, who he was a boy, pined the Americans for being so unhappy as to live in a country that has no castles. They will have a castle now, and no nation likes to be pined. But the other impression made by Mrs. Gardner as an addition to her Italian villa near Boston, was that of an entire chapel as it stands, with all its interior furnishings, even to the half-burned candles in the altar. The monks who served the chapel had been scattered by the strong hand of the law, and the building was to be devoted to the pick ax. The courageous American lady had it packed up in a Venetian hill country, where it stood, and carried down preceval and embarked—

More English Humor.
The first night Walter Kelly, known to vaudeville as the "Virginia Judge," walked up the Strand he complained to his English companion that the fa-nine o'clock. "Why," said he, "at this hour Broadway is as bright as day. There is one sign alone. The Charlot House, in which there are 50-000 electric lights." "But I say, old top," said his English friend,

"wouldn't that be rather conspicuous?"

A Bad Sign.

WEALTHY FARMER IS ATTACKED BY AN OWL

Suffering From Wounds Inflicted in Br.-ad Daylight by In-furiated Bird.

West Alexander, Pa.—His furious fight with a huge owl may be fatal to Philip Cruzan, a wealthy farmer, who is suffering from terrible wounds inflicted in the battle at his home. Cruzan, who is very feeble, while walking across his front yard was struck in the face by the owl, which in its blind night apparently collided with him unintentionally.
The big bird fastened its talons in Cruzan's collar and aimed a vicious attack with its beak at the aged man's face. Cruzan was unable to tear the bird, which was a tremendous one of its species, from its hold. The owl appeared unusually ferocious in its attack and soon had Cruzan blind from the blood which coursed over his eyes. Exhausted, he finally sank to the ground, where he was completely at the mercy of the owl. He was found some time later unconscious, with the owl still pecking and clawing him with beak and talons.

MAN IS BLINDED BY HORNETS
May Lose Sight of Both Eyes as Result of Trying to Exterminate Nest.

Millville, N. J.—With sight of both eyes lost and his hearing probably permanently impaired, William Ford is in a serious condition as a result of striking a nest of hornets on Cruzan's New farm, near Pine Grove. The hornets had been bothering cattle and Ford resolved that he would destroy the nest. With a stout club he set out to accomplish the task. He hit the nest once and in a second the hornets swarmed about him. His features are unrecognizable.

CHOPS TREE TO CATCH THIEF
Woman Fails, However, to Capture Peach Loving Lad. Who Scampers Off.

Alton, Ill.—Rather than lose the fruit of a peach tree by boys stealing Mrs. John Buford chopped down a tree in which a boy sat on a branch grinning at her. The boy munched peaches during the razing operation.
Her plans to let her peaches remain on the tree were not answered by the neighborhood boys. When she saw a boy on the topmost branch, she ordered him down. He did not obey. When she began whacking on the tree trunk with an ax the boy climbed to a lower branch.
"Now I've got you," she shouted as the tree fell.
She was mistaken, however, as the boy scampered across the yard when the tree and its fruit struck the ground.

5. She prepareth a cold snack for me, then maketh a bedline for an old society supper. She maketh my head with the rolling pin occasionally. My arms runneth over with bundles before she is half done her shopping.
6. Surely her dressmaker's and millinery bills shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of my wife forever.—Exchange.

BABY'S TERRIBLE SUFFERING

"When my baby was six months old, his body was completely covered with large sores that seemed to itch and burn, and cause terrible suffering. The eruption began in pimples which would open and run, making large sores. His hair came out and finger nails fell off, and the sores were over the entire body, causing little or no sleep for baby or myself. Great scars would come off when I removed his shirt."

"We tried a great many remedies, but nothing would help him, till a friend induced me to try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment but a short time before I could see that he was improving, and in six weeks' time he was entirely cured. He had suffered about six weeks before we tried the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, although we had tried several other things, and doctors, too. I think the Cuticura Remedies will do all that is claimed for them, and a great deal more."
(Signed) Mrs. Noble Tubman, Dodson, Mont., Jan. 28, 1911. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a sample of each, with 25-cent book, will be mailed free on application to "Cuticura," Dept. 18, K, Boston.

SYNOPSIS.
The French Canadian always has trouble with the aspirate "h." At a debating club in the Province of Quebec members were required to draw a slip from a hat and debate upon the subject they received. A young countryman arose.
"I have drew the word 'bat.' I must tell you, gentlemen, it is no ordinary kind of bat. Here is de bat vot you play de baseball wit, de bat vot fly in de air at night and also de bat where you tako de swim."—Success Magazine.

The ingredients, as attested under oath, are Stone root (Coffeasteria Canadensis), bloodroot (Coffeasteria Canadensis), Indian root (Coffeasteria Canadensis), Queen's root (Coffeasteria Canadensis), Black Cherrybark (Prunus Virginiana), Mandarin root (Coffeasteria Canadensis), with triple refined glycerine, prepared in a scientific laboratory in a way that no druggist could imitate.
This tonic contains no alcohol to shrink up the red blood corpuscles; but, on the other hand, it increases their number and they become round and healthy. It helps the human system in the constant manufacture of rich, red blood. It helps the stomach to assimilate or take up the proper elements from the food, thereby helping digestion and curing dyspepsia, heart-burn and many uncomfortable symptoms, stops excessive tissue waste in convalescence from fevers; for the run-down, anemic, thin-blooded people, the "Discovery" is refreshing and vitalizing. Stick to this safe and sane remedy, and refuse all "just as good" medicines offered by the druggist who is looking for a larger profit. Nothing but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do you half as much good.

Weak Heart
Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may experience shortness of breath on exertion, pain over the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred, their heart is not sufficiently strong to pump blood to the extremities, and they have cold hands and feet, or poor appetite because of weakened blood supply to the stomach. A heart tonic and alternative should be taken which has no bad after-effect. Such is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which contains no dangerous narcotics nor alcohol.
The ingredients, as attested under oath, are Stone root (Coffeasteria Canadensis), bloodroot (Coffeasteria Canadensis), Indian root (Coffeasteria Canadensis), Queen's root (Coffeasteria Canadensis), Black Cherrybark (Prunus Virginiana), Mandarin root (Coffeasteria Canadensis), with triple refined glycerine, prepared in a scientific laboratory in a way that no druggist could imitate.

For a Cold
the doctor prescribes a gentle purgative, or bowel and liver cleanser, to free your blood from the poisons that cause the trouble. He realizes that cleanliness, inside the body, is necessary for health, and prescribes a laxative the first thing.
At the start of any sort of an ailment, from a common cold to the more dangerous diseases and fevers, a safe and reliable treatment, always, is Thedford's Black-Draught. There are really very few diseases that would not be benefited or relieved by the use of this great liver medicine—

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT
Mrs. G. Nussbaum, of New Orleans, La., says: "In the winter, I had the measles and then the grip, which left me in a bad state. I could not rest, day or night, and could not eat much, as I could not keep it on my stomach. I was almost crazy. They thought I was going to die. At last I took Thedford's Black-Draught, and now I weigh more than I ever did before, and feel like a new woman." Pleasant and simple to take. Gentle but certain in action. Try it. Sold everywhere. Price 25 cents. CCA 4

Sheep and Goat Men, Will You Act Now!
Capt. Charles Schreiner, president; Alfred Gilles, acting secretary; Capt. B. L. Crouch, Oliver J. Woodhull, directors, and others have been giving their time and money to help the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association. They want to send one or two influential men to Washington to stop free wool and mohair.
We ask all merchants in sympathy with us to join us and to get this before the sheep and goat men, to help before it is too late.
Sign coupon below and mail with your check or postoffice order to

Very Unpopular
Sheriff I. O. Weldon advises that the practice of running horses through town, also that of riding bicycle on the side walk is becoming very unpopular in fact anyone doing these things is now looked upon as a "back number."
Moral—These things will have to stop. Public please take notice and thus save trouble. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Wins Fight For Life
It was a long and bloody battle for life that was waged by James B. Marshall, of New York, N. Y., of which he wrote: "I had lost much blood from lung hemorrhages, and was very weak and run down. For eight months I was unable to work. Death seemed close on my heels when I began three weeks ago to use Dr. King's New Discovey. But it has helped me greatly.
It is doing all that you claim." For weak, sore lungs, obstinate coughs, stubborn colds, hoarseness, laryngitis, asthma, hay fever or any throat or lung trouble it's supreme. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by J. A.

Sayman's Vegetable Wonder Soap is the best soap for the bath and toilet purposes ever sold in Junction. It is an absolutely pure natural soap containing the root of the soap plant, Nature's substitute for soap. Is made without the use of animal fats, fillers or coloring matter and is matchless for the skin, scalp and complexion. Endorsed by the medical profession and public. Sayman's Healing Salve is the best and purest that money can buy. It is an antiseptic salve possessing remarkable healing powers and purifying properties that we can recommend to the most skeptical and especially to those afflicted with various forms of skin diseases and old sores.
Price of salve or soap, 25c per
box. For sale by

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA
DIARRHOEA
POWDER
A few doses of this remedy will variably cure an ordinary case of diarrhoea.
It can always be depended upon even in the most severe cases of diarrhoea and cholera, and is equally effective in the treatment of children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.
Every man of a family should have this remedy in his house. Price, 25c.
