Racial Disorder Erupts In White House Vicinity

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The fires and thrown rocks and bottles of racial violence struck Washington, D.C., today in a 2½-hour-long disturbance that brought roaming bands of Negroes to within a mile of the White House.

A police charge and a heavy rainfall broke up the groups who had surged north and northwest of White House, Capitol and other landmarks, breaking windows and in at least one case looting a liquor store.

A brick heaved through the windshield of a car seven blocks from the White House caused minor injuries to a fireman. There were reports of gunfire, but police later attributed the blasts to firecrackers exploding in garbage cans.

In Detroit, Gov. George Romney today called off the curfew that had been in effect in the city and some of its suburbs since July 23. Although a state of emergency remained in effect, restrictions on the sale of liquor, gasoline and public assemblies were also lifted.

The Washington outbreak came as violence in Milwaukee and ortland, Ore., subsided and charges grew that politics had played a role in the handling of the Detroit riot.

In Milwaukee, some 4,000 National Guardsmen appeared to have a firm reign on the disturbances that brought two shooting deaths and more than 100 injuries and 260 arrests Sunday and Monday.

An alleged sniper was arrested Monday night and a 34-year-old Negro woman appeared to suffer a heart attack as she fled from a fire-bombed building.

A curfew on the city was lifted temporarily but will be restored tonight.

Police in Portland, where the worst racial disturbance in Oregon's history blazed Sunday and Monday, reported the streets quiet. Negroes were ordered off corners by a loudspeaker truck and they complied within moments.

Some 30 arrests were made in Washington. Most of the violence was concentrated in a predominantly Negro district.

Other incidents hit Providence, R.I. and Erie, Pa., where racial disturbances flared two weeks ago.

In Providence, a man was shot and another stabbed but not seriously injured before a Negro section was closed off during a series of rock and bottle-throwing incidents. No arrests were made and police reported the disturbance "pretty well broken up" by midnight.

Police and firemen were called into Erie's tense Negro East Side neighborhood when bottle-throwers and two suspicious fires were reported. Benny Wall, a Negro liason man between antipoverty officials and the city, was arrested and charged with inciting a riot and attempted arson.

Reds Big Losers In Mekong Delta Drive

By GEORGE ESPER

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese forces have killed 350 Viet Cong in the largest allied assault of the war in the Mekong Delta, field commanders in the operation reported today.

The U.S. Command in Saigon announced the massive ground and river operation by an estimated 10,000 troops was launched last Friday to clear out Viet Cong whose mining of the main highway from the delta has raised food prices in Saigon. The announcement of the operation was withheld for five days for security reasons.

The U.S. Command said it had reports of 200 Viet Cong killed and that U.S. casualties were 16 dead and 59 wounded. Unofficial reports from the field said 28 South Vietnamese troops had been killed and 50 wounded.

Elsewhere in South Vietnam, only light ground action was reported.

The air war in North Vietnam jumped back to normal scale Monday as the weather cleared and Navy fliers resumed full operations after the disruption caused by the fire aboard the carrier Forrestal.

U.S. fliers flew a total of 136 missions, 46 more than the 90 flown Sunday. Many of their targets were in the Hanoi-Haiphong area which had been protected by bad weather in recent weeks.

Two more American warplanes were lost, raising to 627 the number of U.S. combat planes reported lost over North Vietnam. Three crewmen were listed as missing.

Two U.S. Army helicopters also were destroyed in a collision which killed eight men near the coastal city of Tuy Hoa, 250 miles northeast of Saigon.

Troops of the U.S. 9th and 25th Infantry divisions, South Vietnamese rangers and Marines and a U.S. Navy task force were taking part in the big delta sweep centered about 14 miles west of My Tho, one of the largest cities in the rich rice-producing area.

Lt. Gen. Fred C. Weyand, commander of Field Force II, said the force is trying to root out Viet Cong who have been mining Highway 4, the main road over which rice and other farm products move to Saigon.

In the past 10 days, Weyand said, the Viet Cong cut the road eight times, raising food prices in Saigon.

Snyder Man Dies In Ship Fire

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rodgers, 212 Elm Street, have received word that their son, Jerry Paul Rodgers, died in the fire on the aircraft carrier Forrestal last Saturday. At first, he was believed to be among the missing.

Another son of the Rodgers, Bobby of Colorado City, called Jerry's wife, the former Charlotte Batton of Colorado City at her home in Oceania, Va. Monday night. He talked with her father and learned that Jerry Paul officially has been listed as dead by the Navy.

One-hundred and twenty-nine sailors perished and 64 were injured in the worst U. S. naval tragedy in a combat zone since World War II. The huge 76,000 ton carrier had been in Vietnam waters only four days when the fire occurred.

Jerry Paul is a 1963 graduate of Snyder High School. He enlisted in the Navy in October of 1964 and attended aviation school for six months at Memphis, Tenn. prior to a year's tour of duty at Guantanamo Bay Naval Base in Cuba. Jerry was an aviation structual mechanic, second class.

Also included among survivors of the Snyder sailor are four sisters.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Charge 'Demeaning' Claims Mansfield

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield rebuked Michigan's Republican Gov. George Romney, saying political statements about riotting are "demeaning and utterly useless."

Romney asserted Monday that President Johnson "played politics" when rioters took to the streets in Detroit and the governor sought federal troops to deal with them.

Neither Johnson, the White House nor Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark would comment directly on the Romney accusation. Thus, Mansfield became the top-ranking Democrat to counterattack Romney but he did not absolve his own party as he urged an end to political talk about cities in turmoil.

"I think both sides are guilty of playing politics with an issue that is too explosive to handle in that manner," Mansfield said in an interview. "The playing of politics should not be tolerated and will not be appreciated by the American people."

Earlier at a news conference, Johnson avoided challenging Romney. A reporter said the Michigan governor had become increasingly critical of the way the administration handled his request for federal troops.

Johnson said he had asked his new commission on civil disorders to determine what happened in Detroit, why it happened, and what can be done to prevent a recurrence.

"Basically, I do not have knowledge of the whys and the wherefores and causes," he said. Johnson also said, "I don't think anything is to be gained by trying to justify or explain" his troop decisions. The White House said the President has no intention of criticizing Romney.

"I refer you to the record," White House press secretary George Christian said when newsmen asked for comment on the Romney charges.

Christian said he did not know what Romney referred to in his assertion of "complete and absolute distortion by the White House.

Clark, an administration contact man with Romney during events preceding troop deployment, declined comment on the governor's charges.

Henry Ford Blames Riots On Minority

DETROIT (AP) - Auto maker Henry Ford II blames "rabble rousers" for last week's rioting in Detroit and says political differences among officials kept the outbreaks from being halted more quickly.

Speaking at the dedication of a new Ford parts depot in suburban Carrollton, he declared that the rioters and looters must be arrested and tried.

"We didn't have a race riot as such, in my opinion," he said.

"In Detroit, we had a complete breakdown of law and order . . . but I don't think, as citizens of this country, any of us can allow these things to go on.

"These small minorities — these rabble-rousers, whether they be black or white have to be taken to task. They seem to want to take the law into their own hands. I think these people must be apprehended. I think they've got to be tried for their respective crimes, whatever they may be, in the courts of law. And I think thy should then be judged on whatever they may have done.

"It is my feeling that this country may turn out to be the laughing stock of the world .be cause of situations such as we've had in Detroit. I don't think there's much point in trying to sell the world. . .our system and our way of life if we can't even put our own house in order."

The Ford board chairman continued: "We have everything going for us in this country."

He cited a fantastically high standard of living and an American citizenry "that wants to do the right thing always."

"This. . .is true democracy," Ford said. "But the situation in Detroit was not brought in hand as quickly as it might have been because of political differences.

"And I say a plague on both politicr' parties in such a situation.

"We can't have the breakdown of law and order that has happened in Detroit and that has happened in other places on a continuing basis in this country."

In an interview following the speech, Ford said his company might undergo a strike this fall. "There are lots worse things than strikes," he added.

Commenting on current labor negotiations in the auto industry, he said that the United Automobile Workers had "made fantastic demands upon us."

"I can tell you this much," he said, "they're going to cost an awful lot of money and we are going to resist some of them."

Toll Mounts In Venezuela Quake

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The toll from earthquakes that rocked Caracas and northwest Venezuela rose to 120 known dead today with thousands injured and 100 to 300 estimated missing.

Eight of the approximately 15,000 Americans living in Venezuela were killed in the devastating quake Saturday, the U.S. Embassy said. A minor quake struck battered Caracas Monday but the only death reported was that of a man who leaped in panic from his third-floor apartment.

Tired rescue workers kept sifting through the rubble of buildings that crumpled Saturday, searching for victims. Damage was estimated at $100 million.

The earthquake Monday knocked down a garment factory and 10 persons were trapped in the wreckage. Panic spread temporarily among some of the 1.7 million Caracas residents, but the tremor was not felt in some sections of the city.

The U.S. Embassy said American citizens killed included Ronald Regis Zediak, 26, of McKeesport, Pa., a representative of the U.S. National Chatholic Welfare Conference; Bonnie Spiller, 26, and her mother, Mrs. Tania Braun, 47, both of Houston, Tex., and Emilia Cabrera, a Cuban-born pianist.

Four other Americans whose hometowns were not known were Keith, Lyn and Alida Kaplan and Eduardo Parra Neff.

U.S. military forces in Panama flew 11,000 pounds of relief supplies to Caracas.

The Caracas Airport reopened Monday and airlines sa[illegible]ghts were back to normal.

President Raul Leoni ordered the Venezuelan pavilion at Expo 67 in Montreal closed until Friday out of respect for the earthquake's victims.

Lightning Kills 9 Japanese Students

NAGANO, Japan (AP) — Nine Japanese high school boys were killed and 10 injured by a bolt of lightning which struck a party of mountain climbers in the northern Japan Alps 31 miles southwest of Nagano today.

Police said the bolt flashed out of low clouds and slammed into a party of 50 high school students descending 9,514-foot Mt. Nishi Hodaka because of an approaching thunderstorm. The students had got down to about 8,200 feet.

Airline Office Robbed By Two Gunmen

NEW YORK (AP) — Two gunmen forced their way into the KLM Royal Dutch Airlines cargo office at John F. Kennedy International Airport early today, and firing a shot into the ceiling, stole two gold bars valued at $23,376.30, police said.

The theft was the second to hit KLM this year. In April, a 40-pound gold bar worth $40,000 vanished after it was said to have been placed on board a flight from Kennedy to the West Indies island of Aruba.

Police said the two bandits burst into KLM's export office in Kennedy's cargo loading area and announced, "This is a stickup."

Clerk John Parker laughed at one of the men's long-barreled revolvers and replied, "Quit kidding." His remark drew a quick shot into the ceiling.

At that moment, according to detectives, manager Earl Erickson saw Parker, clerk Hans Brinkhouse and the gunmen and ran to a car where he said he knew there was a hunting rifle.

One of the gunmen reportedly cried out, "We're spotted let's hurry!" and using an auto jack handle, ripped open a gate to a 4 x 4 foot cubicle where the gold was stored.

The robbers grabbed two wooden boxes containing the bars and fled before Erickson could return. The boxes weighed 19 and 29 pounds, but police could not specify the weight of the gold.

JULY'S LAST FLING TOPS HEAT RECORDS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heat records went toppling at one place after another across Texas Monday, and more appeared certain to fall today although showers cooled parts of the Panhandle-Plains sector and the Red River Valley a bit.

Afternoon marks ranged up to a scorching 109 degrees at Wichita Fallas as many cities chalked up their hottest weather ever for the last day of July.

Two spots on the coast—Galveston with a 86 and Palacios with an 89—were the only regular reporting stations whose top readings fell short of 100.

Highs for the day elsewhere included Childress, Cotulla and Presidio 106 degrees, Alice, Dallas, Mineral Wells and Waco 105, Fort Worth, Laredo and San Angelo 104, Del Rio, McAllen and Wink 103, Abilene, Austin, Perryton and San Antonio 102 and Junction, Midland and Tyler 101.

Showers during the night and early morning brought .18 inch of rain at Dalhart, .13 at Amarillo and .11 at Perryton. Lubbock received a trace of moisture.

Near Daylight shower activity also developed along the Red River from Denison to Paris.

Thanks to the rainfall, temperatures sank to 67 degrees at Perryton, 68 at Dalhart and 71 at Amarillo.

Overnight readings stayed well into the 80s at many places downstate.

Weather Bureau observers looked for a cool front edging southward from Colorado to stir up a few thunderstorms along the northern boundries of Texas tonight and Wednesday, and occasional showers were expected in the southwest part of the state.

Forecasts indicated little cooling could be expected, however.

Advocate Of Black Power May Lose US Passport

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department is moving to revoke the passport of Stokely Carmichael but the Justice Department says only that it is investigating activities of the militant Black Power advocate.

Carmichael recently went to Cuba via London and Prague and was quoted from that Communist country as saying, "We are preparing groups of urban guerrillas for our defense in the cities."

He also predicted a "fight to the death."

Carmichael, 26, has been cited by some congressmen as the object of a House-approved bill which would ban movement across state lines to incite riot.

The Associated Press asked the State and Justice departments about Carmichael. The Justice Department would say only that Carmichael's "activities are under investigation. The department does not make public details of pending investigations."

The State Department was asked: Has the State Department decided to revoke Carmichael's passport?

A. Yes. There is an established procedure for taking this action. Taking the action will depend on the timing of his return to the United States.

Q. On what ground is his passport to be withdrawn?

A. The basis of action is his failure to obtain validation of his passport to go into the prohibited area—Cuba.

Q. What is the established procedure?

A. The procedure is that the department sends a registered letter of notification to his last known address and also notifies the authorities at possible ports of entry in the United States. The notification states hat his passport is "being tentatively withdrawn." The letter to Carmichael is sent to his last known address in this country.

Q. Did Carmichael actually use his passport in going into Cuba?

A. Whether he displayed his passport to Cuban authorities or had a Cuban visa stamped in it is not known here. But he has violated travel restrictions by using his passport on the journey to Cuba.

DEAR ABBY: I am a single girl, recently employed by a large firm. Since coming to work here, a co-worker and I have become very good friends during office hours. He is a happily-married man the the father of two, and I am engaged.

Because of the way we have hit it off together, we've been getting the cold shoulder from many of our co-workers, and I understand some ugly talk has developed about us.

I don't believe in breaking up an innocent friendship for no good reason at all, but I would like your opinion on this matter.

CHICKY

DEAR CHICKY: I don't believe in breaking up an innocent friendship "for no good reason at all" either, but if ugly talk has developed, perhaps that's good enough reason to pay a little attention to the false impression you are creating. If only to spare the wife needless humiliation about how well her husband has "hit it off" with the new girl down at the office, the advice from here is to cool it.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I read your column. The question of whether or not the minister's wife should receive an invitation to the weddings at which her husband officiates interested me, since I am a minister.

Just as the doctor's wife is not invited to the operation, nor the lawyer's wife invited to the trial, a minister's wife is not of necessity invited to each wedding at which her husband officiates. The minister is there in his official capacity, not as a guest.

Very truly yours,

W. A. H.; Sao Paulo, Brazil

DEAR REV. H.: "Muchas gracias por su carta. Es verdad!

DEAR ABBY: My husband has been running around with a 16-year-old girl. I have had this kind of trouble with him before but never with anybody so young. Is there anything I can do because of this girl's age? I know there is a law against fooling around with minors.

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: There is plenty you can do, and I suggest you ask your lawyer how to do it. I don't know what you mean by "running around," but if it can be proved that your husband has had relations with his girl, he can be locked up.

DeGaulle's Words Please Separatists

OTTAWA (AP) — Many in Canada today rejected President Charles de Gaulle's pledge of France's help in the "liberation" of French Canadians from domination by the English-speaking provinces. But the separatist minority was overjoyed.

Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson and his aides had no comment while they studied the statement issued in Paris on De Gaulle's behalf after the president reported to his Cabinet Monday on his controversial visit to Canada last week and his cancellation of his visit to Ottawa.

The statement said De Gaulle "recognized among the French Canadians the unanimous conviction that after the century of oppression which followed British conquest, the second century under the system defined by the 'British North American Act' of 1867 had not assured them, in their own country, liberty, equality and fraternity."

France, he declared, means to aid the French Canadians "to reach their objectives of liberation which they themselves have fixed." However, he added that "France has no designs of direction over, or even more so of sovereignty over, all or part of the Canada of today."

In Montreal, Pierre Bourgault, president of the separatist Rassemblement Pour l'Independence Nationale, acclaimed De Gaulle's statement as an "example for all Quebecers" of "a sovereign government which stands up and which goes to the very bottom of things which it has started."

Crude Production Shows Increase

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Production of crude oil and lease condensate eased up an additional 2,795 barrels a day last week to an average of 9,047,430, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

States with gains included California, up 1,900 per day at 983,200 barrels, and Oklahoma, up 325 at 631,515.

Figures were unchanged for Texas at 3,294,475, Louisiana at 2,129,700 and New Mexico at 344,800.

De Gaulle Vacations

Ft. Benning Trains New 'Instant NCOs'

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP) — Stripes on the sleeve, instead of bars on the shoulder, will mark the "90-day wonder" of the Vietnam war.

A new term, "Instant NCO," will be the nickname for noncommissioned officers trained through 12-week classes at Ft. Benning under a program designed to produce thousands of new noncoms to lead fire teams and rifle squads.

The program is patterned after the "90-day wonder" course which filled a shortage of officers in World War II.

Officially titled the NCO Candidate Course, the new program is expected to turn out about 8,000 noncommissioned officers in 41 classes within a year.

GIFT TEA — Miss Evelyn Kay Martin of Snyder, bride-elect of Mr. Randy Allen of O'Donnell, was honored with a gift tea Friday in the home of Mrs. Wilson Bright, 2610 Thirty-sixth Street. Pictured above from left, Mrs. Fleta Allen and Mrs. A. F. Allen, both of O'Donnell, grandmother and mother respectively of the groom-to-be, the honoree, Mrs. Irvin Martin and Mrs. C. D. Franks of Snyder, mother and grandmother of the bride-to-be. The couple will exchange vows on August 26th at 8 p.m. in Thirty-seventh Street Church of Christ. The bride is a 1964 graduate of Snyder High School and attended LCC and ACC. Her fiance is a 1965 graduate of O'Donnell High School and 1967 graduate of LCC. The couple will enroll at Oklahoma Christian College at Oklahoma City, Okla. this fall.

Veal Cutlets Can Be Cooked With Bouillon

Veal round steak or cutlets are often prepared with tomato sauce, paste or other types of tomato. However, if a homemaker wants to supply the moisture for braising from bouillon, this, too, gives interesting results.

The delicate flavor of this meat requires moist heat cooking so that it can be developed.

As seasonings to go with the beef bouillon, there's a bit of garlic salt and soy sauce along with onions, mushrooms and olives.

Veal 'Round the World

2 pounds veal round steak or cutlets, cut ½ inch thick
1-3 cup flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
4 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 beef bouillon cube
½ cup hot water
¼ teaspoon garlic salt
2 tablespoons soy sauce
2 medium onions, sliced thin
¼ cup butter or margarine
½ pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
¼ cup sliced stuffed olives

Combine flour, salt and pepper. Dredge meat in seasoned flour. Brown meat in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Dissolve bouillon cube in water. Add bouillon, garlic salt, soy sauce and onions. Cover tightly and simmer 30 minutes. Melt butter or margarine and cook mushrooms in it for 5 minutes. Add mushrooms last 5 minutes of cooking time. Add olives before serving. 6 to 8 servings.

ASPARAGUS MALTAISE — This delightful combination is made with fresh asparagus and an orange-flavored variation of Hollandaise Sauce called Maltaise.

Asparagus: A Summer Treat

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

EVEN A TIMID cook can make a fabulous sauce for fresh asp ragus if she has a detailed recipe in hand. And that's just what we're offering. If directions for this Sauce Maltaise are followed to the letter, you should have no trouble turning out a luxurious offering.

We served Asparagus Maltaise at a supper party along with baked ham and the combination made a hit.

When you prepare the asparagus, please peel them. Do this by using a swivel-blade vegetable peeler to remove the outer fibrous covering of the spears just up to the tips. If the tips are at all sandy, wash the asparagus in scalding hot water, then rinse at once with cold water. To cook the two bunches of asparagus called for in the recipe, we use a 12-inch deep skillet, a quart of boiling water and a teaspoon of salt. To have the spears tender - crisp, cover the skillet and boil hard for about six minutes, turning the spears midway.

ASPARAGUS MALTAISE

¾ cup(1½ sticks) butter
6 egg yolks
3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
6 tablespoons boiling water
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
2 tablespoons orange juice
Fresh asparagus (2 large bunches each about 2¼ pounds), cooked

In a small mixing bowl, at high speed of electric mixer, cream butter thoroughly. Add egg yolks one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Continue beating at high speed and very gradually add lemon juice, then water and salt. (Mixture will thin out.) Transfer to top of double boiler.

Cook over hot (not boiling) water, stirring constantly for about 15 minutes or until thickened — consistency will be less thick than mayonnaise. Stir grated orange rind and the orange juice (1 tablespoon at a time) into sauce. Makes about 1¾ cups.) Serve at once as an accompaniment for the hot cooked asparagus spears. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

If any of the sauce is leftover, turn it into a jar, cover tightly and refrigerate. When ready to use, turn the sauce into the top of a small double boiler; set over the bottom part of the double boiler filled with a generous amount of very hot water — but do not place over heat. Stir sauce up from bottom a few times while it is warming over the hot water, then serve at once. Warm no more than 1 cup of the sauce at one time.

For even slices of corned beef hash, chill the hash in the can. Cut top of can completely away with can opener; cut away bottom of can but leave round of metal in place. Press against the metal round and empty hash; cut hash into four slices.

President's New Congress Stirs Concern In Authority

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — There is heat in Congress over the increasing authority of the President, the diminishing grip of Congress. It's too soon to say whether it will end in smoke.

So it was no accident when Sen. J. W. Fulbright, Arkansas Democrat and President Johnson's severest critic on the Vietnamese war, got up and expressed concern about the power of the President in foreign affairs.

In a resolution he offered for approval, Fulbright proposed the Senate take the position a national commitment in foreign affairs is valid only if Congress joins with the President in declaring it.

This, he explained, will be the basis for a broad study by the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee, of which he is chairman, on the nature and extent of foreign commitments abroad.

Fulbright's concern is shared by others. Earlier this year a Senate Judiciary subcommittee was established to make a full study of the separation of powers among the executive, the judicial and the congressional branches of government and the manner in which power has been used by each branch.

Last month, when the subcommittee began hearings, the chairman, Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., North Carolina Democrat, acknowledged that in these critical days some look upon separation of powers as outmoded when all governments are "crisis governments."

He admitted a government without checks or balances can be more efficient than this one. But he asked if inefficiency is not a small price to pay for the "individual freedoms that are bought with constitutional principles."

Fulbright said the resolution he proposed is not intended to restrict the constitutional responsibility and power of the President or to revoke any past decisions.

But he complained the role of Congress, and particularly the Senate, in the determination of national secutity is steadily being eroded.

All this by Fulbright on the Senate floor was mild compared with the stand he took when testifying before Ervin's subcommittee last month.

He said the erosion of congressional power in foreign policy has been going on since 1940 but he does not believe the President has wilfully "usurped the constitutional authority of Congress."

Nor, he said, does he believe Congress has knowingly given away its traditional authority. "The balance before us is whether and how the constitutional balance can be restored."

The Constitution, put together when the world was much simpler, says very little about presidential power in foreign affairs, merely noting the President "shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to make treaties, provided two thirds of the senators concur."

But nowadays the President is involved in far more than treaties and Fulbright commented that since World War II the United States has "fought two wars without benefit of congressional declaration and has engaged in numerous small scale activities without meaningful consultation with Congress."

That's a nice phrase—"without meaningful consultation with Congress"—but it is made of rubber, for anyone, including Fulbright, would have trouble explaining it and then getting someone to agree with him.

While Congress voted no declaration of war for Korea, President Harry S. Truman consulted with the members of the Foreign Affairs committees of House and Senate before announcing he was sending in U.S. troops to stop the aggression from North Korea.

They endorsed the move unanimously. Next daz in Congress he was praised by his Republican critics. And both houses voted to extend the draft.

Junior Editors Quiz on REFLECTIONS

QUESTION: Why do I see myself upside down on the inside of a spoon?

* * *

ANSWER: Light rays stream away from objects in all directions. They are absorbed by many surfaces, but when they hit a smooth, hard shiny material like glass or metal they are suddenly bounced back. They hit such a surface at a certain angle, and they bounce away at exactly the same angle, even if in a different direction. Think of light rays coming off from the boy's chin in lower left. The ray in black is hitting the mirror so that as it bounces off, it just comes to the boy's eye. Result, the boy sees his chin below the mirror's center and his head appears upright. But now curve the mirror (lower middle). In this case the black chin ray coming from the top of the mirror is the only one it is possible for his eye to pick up. Result: the boy sees his chin on top. In the same way, he sees the top of his head on the bottom, and so the image looks upside down. When you look inside a curved spoon, it's just the same as a curved mirror. Looking at the back of the spoon the situation is like a straight mirror, and the outward curve makes the image look distorted. 8-1

A Typical Conversation Of Future:

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — This may be a typical conversation in the future:

Guest: "My, what a delicious stew. Where do you get such wonderful beef?"

Hostess: "Oh, it's not made of beef. I simply put in parts of our old automobile."

Guest: "The fenders?"

Hostess: "No. The fenders on that particular car model are a bit tough, so I ground them up as hamburger for our dog. For the stew I used mostly the dashboard and choice filets from the brake bands. They are ever so much more tender."

Sounds far-fetched? Well, at the moment it is. But perhaps not for long.

According to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, scientists of the Ralston-Purina Co. have raised the possibility of making airplanes and spacecraft with edible portions made of soybean products.

They would keep from starvation astronauts marooned on the moon or plane pilots stranded after crash landings in remote areas of the earth.

The idea is fascinating. But why limit it merely to parts of aircraft and space capsules?

As most husbands who have ever eaten a precooked and frozen television dinner know, practically anything can be made edible today. Modern chemistry can make almost any substance palatable, particularly if you salt it enough and cover it with a few inches of catsup.

This raises the possibility of solving forever one of the biggest problems facing today's civilization: how to keep it from being covered up by its own debris.

We are in danger today of being strangled by the things we don't consume but can't seem quite able to get rid of entirely.

Our wastebaskets and garbage cans are stuffed with paper wrapping and nonreturnable bottles, those cardboard sheets the laundry puts in shirts, that clinging filmy plastic the cleaner puts around suits and dresses.

Our closets are full of wire clothes hangers that breed and multiply in the dark faster than we can throw them away.

Discarded plastic detergent containers bob in our lakes and rivers. Millions of worn-out automobiles, in sad cemeteries of the machine age, despoil our lovely countryside. Beer cans litter shoulders and ditches bordering every highway.

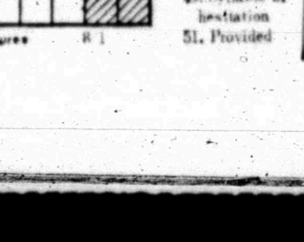

Why? Simply because it isn't edible.

Why can't science concentrate on making them out of a low-caloric, tasty protein fiber? All that would be required would be the shifting around of a few molecules here and there to change one substance into another.

Clock Watchers Fatal In Majors

By DICK COUCH
Associated Pess Sports Writer

Clockfancier Mike McCormick isnt missing a tick in his second time around for the San Francisco Giants.

Bo Belinsky, never much of a clock-watcher, finally is making time for the Houston Astros and they figure it's better late than never.

McCormick, who shifted his collection of antique timepieces from Washington to San Francisco when the Giants reacquired him in a winter trade, became the National League's first 14-game winner Monday when Jack Hiatt's grand slam pinch homer gave him an 8-4 victory over Pittsbugh.

Belinsky, whose watch stopped several times in Los Angeles, Philadelphia and Houston when the midnight curfew was at hand, held the New York Mets to two singles and beat them 3-2 Monday night with ninth-inning help from Larry Sherry as the Astros stretched their season-high winning streak to seven games.

The St. Louis Cardinals, meanwhile, ran their league lead to 4½ games by drubbing the Chicago Cubs 9-2; Atlanta trimmed Cincinnati 5-2 and Philadelphia downed Los Angeles 4-2 in 11 innings.

The Chicago White Sox topped Cleveland 4-2 in 10 innings; Boston blanked Minnesota 4-0 and Kansas City outscored the New York Yankees 8-6 in the only games on the American League schedule.

McCormick, who started with the Giants in New York 11 years ago at the age of 18 and made his way back into their starting rotation after stopovers in Baltimore and Washington and a long bout with arm trouble, fought the Pirates to a 4-4 standstill through eight innings.

In the bottom of the eighth Hiatt pinch hit for McCormick and cleared the bases with his homer off reliever Eloy Face.

McCormick, 14-5 is tied for the major league victory lead with Jim Lonborg of the Red Sox.

The 28-year-old southpaw has 30 clocks on display in his suburban San Francisco home.

Belinsky, who was out of time after being drafted by the Astros from San Diego of the Pacific Coast League last Novemberl brought his record to 3-6 and lowered his blown-up ERA to 4.76 by stymying the Mets despite a shaky start.

The flamboyant left-hander was clipped for two runs in the first inning on two walks, an error, Tommy Davis' single and a bases-loaded wild pitch.

Belinsky issued a two-out walk in the second, then set down 19 straight batters before Davis singled again leading off the ninth. Afte walking Ron Swoboda, Bo was lifted and Sherry came in to snuff out the threat.

Ron Davis' leadoff homer triggered a two-run Houston burst in the first inning and Bob Lillis' run-scoring single in the fourth broke the 2-2 tie.

Lou Bock and Orlando Cepeda knocked in four and three runs, respectively, powering the Cards to their sixth straight victory. Right-hander Ray Washburn was the winner with relief help from Hal Woodeshick.

Brock smacked a three-run homer, Cepda hit a two-run blast and each stroked a sacrifice fly in St. Louis' 13-hit barrage.

The Braves struck for three runs in the fourth inning and added two more in the fifth on Clete Boyer's 15th homer in snapping a three-game losing string and moving past Cincinnati into third place. Knuckleballer Phil Niekro went the distance for Atlanta, scattering nine hits.

Pinch hitter Tony Taylor singled home the tie-breakig run in the 11th inning at Los Angele and pinch hitter Billy Cowan's sacrifice fly gave the Phillies an insurance run as they ended the Dodgers' four-game win string. Gene Oliver homered for Philadelphia and singled to start the 11th inning rally.

Travelers Laugh But Lose Anyway

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There were a few snickers on the Arkansas bench during Monday night's Texas League when Albuquerque pitcher Leon Everitt hung his cleats on the rubber and fell flat on the seat of his pants.

The Travelers weren't laughing at the end of the game.

Everitt survived the first inning tumble and shut out Arkansas 2-0 on two hits. The Albuquerque Dodgers also won the first half of a twin bill 6-5.

Everitt struck out nine batters and singled just ahead of Willie Crawford's fifth inning homer. Crawford also homered in the first game as the third-place Dodgers moved within three games of second-place El Paso.

Amarillo nicked El Paso 5-4 and stretched its league lead to six games. The 10th inning victory came on an unusual play when Nate Colbert raced home all the way from first base on Mick Sinnerud's hit-and-run single.

The Dallas-Fort Worth Spurs leapfrogged into fourth place ahead of Arkansas with a 10-2 rout of cellar-dwelling Austin. Sterling Slaughter went the distance on a five-hitter as Mike White drove in three runs with a double and bases-loaded single.

In Tuesday's games, Austin again is at Dallas-Fort Worth, Albuquerque at Arkansas and El Paso at Amarillo.

Stange's Fast Ball Is Most Effective

BOSTON (AP) — Veteran Lee Stange of the Boston Red Sox figures the fast ball and the slider are his bread and butter, but he throws a curve ball just enough to keep opposing batters honest.

The 30-year-old right-hander had the fast ball and slider working to perfection and retired the first 20 batters in order before settling for a thre-hitter Monday in a 4-0 victory over the heavy-hitting Minnesota Twins.

Stange needed only 94 pitches —64 of them for strikes—in fashioning his fourth straight victory and second shutout of the season. He fired 56 fast balls, 30 sliders and eight curves.

"I go with the fast ball and slider most of the time," he said. "I throw the curve intending only to keep the ball down, even in the dirt. I use the curve only to give baters something to think about."

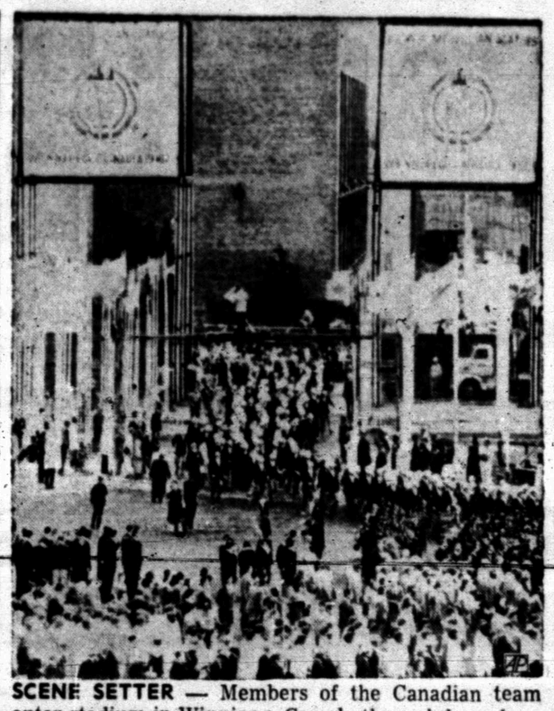

Ironically, the curve spoiled Stange's no-hit bid. With two out in the seventh, Harmon Killebrew looped a line single to left. The only other Minnesota hits were a topper down the third base line by Sandy Valdespino and a soft single by Zoilo Versalles in the ninth inning.

"The curve to Harmon was the only bad pitch I made," Stange said after hiking his season record to 7-6. "I wanted to keep it down and got it up to high—several inches above the knees."

Dumas On Comeback Trail In Football

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Dumas, which once won two state championships in a row, appears on the comeback trail this year and might well take the Class AAA schoolboy football crown.

There are 13 letermen, the backfield is experienced and speedy and there's a big line at the West Texas powerhouse.

DOWN GLORY ROAD?

Taylor, Saints Start Marching

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Taylor's legs begin a run for further glory this week. Larry Morris' legs have carried him to the end of a career.

Taylor will be running from his familiar fullback position Wednesday night in the National Football League's first preseason exhibition, but his uniform and teammates will be different.

For the first time since turning pro in 1958, Taylor will not be playing for powerful Green Bay, but for the New Orleans Saints, the expansion team which acquired him from the Packers during the off-season.

Morris, who starred as a linebacker with the Chicago Bears, before going to the Atlanta Falcons last year, told the Falcons Monday that he was retiring because his legs weren't in top shape and he didn't have the speed and quickness needed to help the club. He missed most of 1966 season with a leg injury.

Saints' Coach Tom Fears named eight other NFL veterans besides Taylor Monday to start on offense Wednesday night against the Los Angeles Rams at Anaheim. The two rookies will be halfback Don McCall of Southern California and guard Del Williams from Florida State.

The career of another veteran, defensive tacke Riley Gunnels of Pitsburgh, apparently has ended. The 30-year-old Gunnels, a seven-year veteran, was hospitalized last week in Pitsburgh for a kidney disorder, and Monday was transferred to an Atlanta hospital for further treatment.

The NFL Cleveland Browns put two of their five holdout players—offensive tackle John Brown and linebacker Sid Williams—on waivers. The other holdouts are fullback Leroy Kelly, Mike Howell and John Woten.

Atlanta asked waivers on defensive back Carl Silverstri and flanker Tom Hutchinson.

Defensive tackle John McDowell was waived by the NFL St. Louis Cardinals, then the New York Giants cut linebacker Stan Sczurek, flanker Al Snyder and defensive end Bill Matan.

Baltimore of the NFL wavied running back Jim Todd, while San Diego of the American Football League dropped safety John McGeever and the AFL New York Jets wavied defensive back Arnie Simkus and flanker Earl Christy.

Snyder Will Compete In Coleman Playoffs

Snyder's Junior Teenage League champions will begin a four day, eight team, double elimination District Tournament Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Coleman.

The Braves, as they were known in the local teenage league, won the right to represent Snyder in the playoffs early in July, and this will be their first test in playoff warfare this season.

Snyder was allowed to pick up three players, as long as they are pitchers or catchers, from the other four teams in the local league. Jim Patrick, Merce Hernandez and Randy Levens got the call.

Colorado City, Sweetwater, Stamford, Clyde, Eastland, Commanche, Coleman and Snyder will be competing for the tournament championship.

Manager Jack Rhodes reported that the team staged a warmup game last night in Towle Park, and said he felt they would be ready for the tournament.

Snyder Boys Win Tourney

Max Falls and Bruce Almond, Snyder tennis standouts, won the regional crown in the boys 14 year doubles at Lubbock this weekend.

The regional meet is a prelude to the TAAF tournament. The regional tourney included Lubbock, Snyder and Amarillo.

Falls and Almond defeated Bruce Tilley and Rocky Chase of Amarillo 6-1, 6-4 in the first round, and won the tournament by downing Mark Philbrick and Wayne Robins of Lubbock 6-0, 6-1.

Falls finished second in the boys 14 year singles by defeating Bruce Tilley of Amarillo 6-0, 6-1 before losing to Mark Philbrick of Lubbock 6-4, 6-4.

This qualifies Falls and Almond for the State Amateur Athletic Federation Tennis Tournament, which will be held in Waco Aug. 9-12.

The New York Mets drew the best 1967 spring crowd in the National League on May 28 when they played a double header against the Atlanta Braves in New York. A crowd of 48,548 turned out.

Post End Will Miss SA All-Star Clash

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The injury situation eased somewhat in the ranks of all-star footballers preparing for Thursday's annual game of the Texas Coaching School, and all indications were that each squad will be minus only one man.

Those two were lost the first day of practice—Fay Fabianke, Rosebud guard, going out with a knee injury in a South workout and Doney Windham, Post end, reporting with a back injury suffered in baseball.

Both squads had others on the ailing list but none was hurt enough to miss the game.

Coach Gene Mayfield of the North welcomed Randy Stout, San Angelo tackle, back to hard work although he was hampered some by an ankle sprain.

Mayfield was pretty well set on his starting offensive backfield with Monty Johnson of Amarillo Tascosa at quarterback, Jack Faubion of McKinney shifted from end to fullback and Randy Cooper of Dallas Woodow Wilson and Billy Dale of Odessa Permian at halfback.

The North coach said, however, that Faubion would play end on defense.

Mayfield hadn't decided on his line but South Coach Bill Brashier of San Antonio Lee had picked both backfield and line.

Brashier will go with Jim Shefield of Houston Waltrip at quarterback, Steve Worster of Bridge City at fullback and David Elmendorf of Houston Westbury and Charles Speyer of Port Arthur at halfback.

His line will have Bill Zapalac of Austin McCallum and Calvin Hinderman of Beeville at end, Mike Tighe of San Antonio Lee and Roger Roitsch of LaGrange at tackle, Tommy Matula of Boling and Russell Westmoreland of Magnolia at guard and Jim Achilles of Spring Branch at center.

Basketball squads due to clash Wednesday night went through tapering off workouts Tuesday.

Heat took its toll of the North squad as three players came up with blistered feet but these were not considered of serious nature. Coach Drue Smith of Lake Worth cut practice short because he didn't want to aggravate the situation.

Smith found his tall boys, Tommy Dingham of Grand Prairie and Lynn Blair of Carthage, hitting the boards better and things didn't look quite so dark despite an acknowledged height advantage of the South.

It seemed, howevr, that it wasn't just height that the North had to worry about. The South was showing some nifty outside shooting in an effort to counteract the North's likely advantage there. Nat Salazar of South San Antonio did a tremendous job hitting from the outside.

Ticket sales boomed for the ootball game with 9,000 already sold, and a capacity crowd of 21,000 for Alamo Stadium was indicated.

Tickets weren't even placed on sale for basketball until today. Alamo Gym can seat only 6,488 and there are almost enough coaches to take up all the space.

McAllister In Finals In Logan Tournament

Ken McAllister, Snyder tennis coach, has reached the finals in the Logan Tennis Tournament in both singles and doubles.

In the singles division, McAllister defeated Charles White 7-5, 7-5 to move into the semi-finals.

In the semi-finals, McAllister upset the number two seed of the tournament Joe Balnch 6-2, 6-3.

McAllister will meet the number one seed of the tournament today for the championship. The number one seed is John Wells, McAllister's doubles partner.

Wells and McAllister also reached the finals by defeating Richard Hurren and Dennis Baird 6-1, 6-0 to reach the semi-finals. In the semi-finals, they beat Craig Yeates and Mark Minkler 6-3, 6-0.

Today they will meet Charles White and Charles Vajasoonatorn of Thailand in the championship bout.

McAllister is doing graduate work in Logan, Utah, this summer. He will return to Snyder Aug. 20.

Violence Spurs Arms Demand

NEW YORK (AP)— The demand for arms, particularly handguns, has increased in some of the cities struck by violence this summer. A few dealers say they've temporarily halted further sales.

In an Associated Press survey, many of the dealers said their new customers were predominantly white. In the words of one store owner: "I think they're the type who get them for home protection."

Two nationwide retail firms—Sears Roebuck and Co. and Montgomery Ward & Co.—said they had halted over-the-counter arms sales in a number of cities where violence is occurring.

Many sporting good stores in New York City reported what one owner described as "a great increase" in the number of rifles and rounds of ammunition sold since the Newark, N.J., riots.

"We are not in the hunting business at present," said a spokesman for one firm. "We have stopped selling rifles entirely and we won't open again until September. There are no guns in the windows. We don't want to contribute to the mess."

Abercrombie & Fitch Co., the nationwide chain of high-priced sporting good stores, said police in all its branch cities asked that guns be removed from display windows following the Newark violence.

In Newark, where 25 persons died during July rioting, dealer Stanley Senkewicz said: "Summer is usually a dead time where I am located. Usually I can go on a fishing trip and never lose a dime."

"But this year my business was good," he said. "Some people said, 'This is a national emergency, this is not the time to ask for a permit.' A few men came in here crying, saying they had to have a gun."

Senkewicz said his sales were "mostly to whites."

In suburban Detroit, gun shops reported a heavy demand for weapons at the height of last week's conflict.

The California Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, part of the State Justice Department, reported an upsurge of handgun sales during July.

From ..400 sold in the first week the number grew to better than 3,750 in the fourth week. The figures were not broken down by geographical ara or race.

In Iowa, two Des Moines dealers reported minor increases in sales during the past week and the county recorder's office said it had received 36 — three times the normal — gun sale reports one day last week.

In Waterloo, scene of disturbances in early July, one major retailer said there was a temporary increase in sales to white persons following the violence.

A popular sporting goods store in Minneapolis noted a definite increase in sales to persons the owner described as ordinary citizens wanting guns for protection.

A big Chicago firearms outlet, however, reported no increase in sales. A survey in St. Louis indicated some additional in arms buying but the most pronounced increase was in ammunition sales.

Atlanta, Houston and Dallas distributors all noted seasonal increases. A similar report came from New Orleans but white buyers in Baton Rouge had pushed up sales 50 per cent in one big store.

At another outlet the manager noted: "We haven't sold many guns but a hell of a lot of ammunition. We've sold one box of shells to a Negro. All the rest have been white."

QUIET PRACTICE — Texas Tech Sophomore Judy Fay Penn, left, of Littlefield, Tex., takes an electronic piano lesson from Bonnie Jo Apple. Miss Apple, a Tech honor graduate soon to receive her Master's Degree, goes to Texas Wesleyan College, Fort Worth, this summer as an instructor in an experimental teaching program using electronic pianos. The electronic piano allows teacher and student to monitor work on headphones without disturbing other practicing students in the classroom. (AP Wirephoto)

Harvesting Ahead Of Last Year

AUSTIN (AP)—The cotton harvest has moved northward to the Southern Blacklands and is about three weeks ahead of last year, the U. S. Department of Agriculture says.

The department's weekly crop-weather geport said the harvest is 5 per cent complete.

Improved weather conditions have boosted the outlook for the High Plains, the report said.

The report said ranges in the Cross Timbers, Northern Blacklands and Northeast Texas are providing "better than average summertime grazing."

But "except for a few isolated areas, the Edwards Plateau, South Texas and South Central Texas remain critically dry with only old dry grasses remaining. Culling of herds is common in these areas."

Sorghum harvest has moved northward into the Cross Timbers and nears completion in South Texas and the upper coast, the report said.

Corn harvest is about 20 per cent complete and is about two weeks ahead of last year. Rice harvest is half complete.

Vegetable harvest was active on the high plains, with shipments of onions, potatoes, carrots, cabbage and cucumbers moving out.

In the lower Rio Grande Valley, land preparation and seeding of fall vegetables were under way.

Estate Left To Late Star

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A will of lawyer Samuel S. Brody, killed with actress Jayne Mansfield a month ago in an automobile accident, disinherits his wife and their two children and leaves the entire estate to the late blonde performer.

The will, handwritten and dated 18 days before Brody and Miss Mansfield died on a New Orleans, La., highway, was filed Monday by Matt Cimber, third husband of the actress.

"I hereby bequeath and give all my estate, whether personal or otherwise, to the only person in the world I love, Jayne Mansfield," the will states. It was found in Miss Mansfield's safe deposit box.

A 1958 will filed by Mrs. Brody leaves the entire estate, about $185,000, to Mrs. Brody.

Brody, 40, and his wife were estranged at the time of his death, June 29.

Hall Criticizes Lt. Gov. Smith

By JACK KEEVER

AUSTIN (AP) — Time is being wasted, says Rockwall Sen. Ralph Hall, because Lt. Gov. Preston Smith has failed to appoint senators to "the two most important" interim legislative committees.

Hall, amid some joking on other subjects, took a serious jab Monday at Smith's failure to name senators to committees on economy in state government and on law enforcement and administration of justice.

Hall, a strong possibility to run for lieutenant governor next year, said: "People are going all over the state making speeches on economy and law enforcement, but the appointees from the Senate are still outstanding, not appointed. It doesn't make sense."

The Rockwall senator made his remarks to the Senate Contingent Expense Commitee, which met to approve budgets of a few interim commitees and chat about senators' new $1,000 a month expense allotments, lumpy carpets and secretaries' stockings snagging on old furniture.

Smith, as proposed by two resolutions adopted by the legislature, was to have appointed all five members—including three senators—to the economy committee and two senators to the seven-member law enforcement committee. Neither Gov. John Connally nor Speaker Ben Barnes has made his appointments.

Sen. Jack Hightower of Vernon, chairman of the Contingent Expense Committee, said he sent letters to all senators telling them of Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin's opinion that senators could pay for travel expenses "incurred while transacting Senate business" from their $1,000 a month allowances for when the Legislature is not in session.

The money, the opinion said, also may be used for salaries, stamps, telephone service, office rent, office equipment and supplies "and other reasonable and necessary expense. . .during any period the Legislature is not in session."

Hightower raised the question with Martin when Lufkin Sen. Charles Wilson asked to be reimbursed for a trip to talk to the Big Thicket Association about creating a national park in the thicket. He was joined by Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., and Supreme Court Justice William Douglas on the trip.

Hightower also sought an answer to whether Sen. Joe Christie, El Paso, could rent a dictation machine, transcriber and pay for renting an office and parking space.

Budgets were approved, beginning today, for the vocational-technical education, hospital and accident insurance, return of the flag of the Alamo, slum problem and lieutenant governor's portraits interim committees.

White House Entertains

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, the nation's Frist Lady, had 50 Texas women to tea Monday in the White House family quarters.

The guests from Mrs. Johnson's home state had a chance to admire 5-weeks-old Patrick Lyndon Nugent, Mrs. Johnson's new grandson, son of her younger daughter, Luci.

Among the guests were Mrs. Tom Connally, widow of the former senator from Texas, and the wives of 26 House members.

President Johnson dropped in, chatted, made the rounds and kissed a few cheeks. Then, Luci came in with her new son, Patrick Lyndon.

Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, chairman of the board of the Houston Post, first commander of the Women's Army Corps and first secretary of the Health Education and Welfare Department, was another guest. So was Miss Alden Smith, a friend of Luci's.

Harewood, Ex-Model Are Wed

NEW CANAAN, Conn. (AP) — Lord Harewood, Queen Elizabeth's cousin, has wed former model Patricia Tuckwell on a 440-acre private estate.

The marriage between the divorced member of the British royal family and Miss Tuckwell, who is the mother of his 3-year-old son Mark, was approved earlier this month by the queen.

Harewood is 17th in line for the British crown, and he was required under Britain's Royal Marriages Act to have her permission to marry. So far as was known no one so close in line to the sovereign has been divorced.

A justice of the peace performed the ceremony Monday in the garden beside a lily pond at the mansion of oil heiress Ruth Lapham Lloyd.

It was also the second marriage for the 38-year-old Australian bride, who has a 17-year-old son by her first husband, Athol Smith. Smith remarried in Melbourne last month.

Harewood has three children by his first marriage, to Marion Stein, daughter of a Viennese pianist.

Mail To Solons Reflects Concern

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Obviously disturbed and concerned by urban rioting and looting, citizens by the thousands are expressing their views to senators and representatives.

Most congressional offices report their riot mail as moderate to heavy in volume.

There isn't a great deal in the way of proposed solutions or constructive suggestions, congressional offices say. Most people simply express their thoughts and feeling, often with strong emotion.

To sum it up, several members of Congress said, "The folks are against riots."

Most of the letters appear to be from whites, particularly those with Southern postmarks. But there are some from Negroes.

Mail from the South generally is heavy with criticism of President Johnson and with something of an "I told you so" and "You brought it on yourself" point of view.

Numerous letter writers called for something to be done about such militantly outspoken Negro leaders as Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown. Many others suggested that money required for the Vietnam war might better be spent in the United States.

Most members of Congress decline to permit their correspondents to be quoted by name but do permit quotations from letters so long as the writer is not identified.

On that basis, The Associated Press obtained many of the riot letters. Here are samples of what Mr. and Mrs. America are writting their senators and representatives about the matter:

From Tennessee—"I am not a racist. Neither are the people for whom I speak, Negro as well as white. We are outraged and frightened parents who believe the time has come for firm, startling and immediate action by the government. A stop has to be put to rioting and pillaging, flagrant disrespect of our country, our flag, our rights, our lives."

Seattle—"These rioters act like mad dogs. If people act like that, the police should be allowed to use machine guns on them."

Seattle—"I wish to add my protest to others who feel these devastating race riots would not have occurred had Congress been thinking of the welfare of the American people."

Spokane—"All looters and snipers should be shot on sight when caught in the act. These people have no right to trial. Either you people in Congress take immediate steps or we the people will do the job. We have guns, we have ammo and we have the will."

Mississippi—"Send them all back to Africa and give them 160 acres and a tractor."

Michigan (a Negro)—"My people are not responsible for this. We believe in law and order and we are just as heartsick about it as you are."

FOOD FOR RIOT AREA RESIDENTS — Negroes gather around panel truck distributing free food in Detroit, Mich., riot area. Now that area is heavily damaged, organization known as "The Crisis Council" aids stricken residents. (AP Wirephoto)

TAX ANSWERS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — My son graduated from high school in June and has started work. If he stays home with us can we still claim him as a dependent?

A — Generally, you may not claim as a dependent anyone who earns $600 or more during the year. However, the earnings test does not apply to your child if he is under 19 years of age or is a full-time student during any part of five calendar months of the year.

You must, of course, meet the other dependency tests. This includes the requirement that you provide more than half his total support for the entire year.

Q — If I take a course in shorthand as my boss wants me to, will that be deductible? He hasn't said he would pay for it.

A — If your employer expressly requires you to take the course to retain your present position then the cost would be a deductible expense. Even if the course is not required by your employer the cost would still be deductible if it is necessary to improve or maintain the skills needed for your job.

Books, supplies, laboratory fees and tuition fees are covered if the course qualifies.

Q — We had to sacrifice some of our furniture for practically nothing when we moved. Can we deduct this loss?

A — No. The law does not allow losses on the sale of personal property to be deductible.

Q — I've got asthma and the doctor says I should air condition our house. Can I deduct the cost as a medical expense?

A — If air conditioning is recommended by a physician for the treatment of a specific condition or illness and the air conditioning is installed primarily for this reason, it is an allowable medical expense. However, only the excess of the cost over the increase in value of your house resulting from the installation of the air conditioning is an allowable expense.

To avoid any question about this expense, be sure to obtain a statement from your doctor explaining why he recommends air conditioning for you.

Q — I'm a student and am banking my summer earnings. The bank wants my tax account number. What is that?

A — This is your Social Security number. The law requires financial institutions to ask the depositor for his number and to use it when reporting to IRS the interest payments on all savings accounts earning $10 or more during the calendar year.

Q — Will I get any "tax breaks" when I reach 65?

A — Yes, there are several changes which could reduce your Federal tax liability. You are entitled to an additional $600 exemption when you become 65 and you may be entitled to a retirement income credit.

"Tax Benefits for Older Americans," IRS Document No. 55-69, describes these and other benefits for persons 65 and over. A free copy may be obtained by sending a post card to your IRS District Director.

Q — I paid a lawyer to fight a speeding ticket I go. Are his fees deductible?

A — No, legal fees for this purpose are considered a personal expense and not deductible.

Two More Texans Among Viet Casualties

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department Monday listed two Texans among 40 servicemen killed in action in the Vietnam Warm.

The victims were Sgt. Domingo Munoz of Odessa and Cpl. John Carey Jr. of Somerville. Both were Army men.

Munoz was the husband of Mrs. Mary C. Munoz, 910 Edport Drive, Odessa. Carey was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carey Sr. of Route 1, Box 89, Somerville.

Chinese Diplomat Stages Border Scene

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — A Red Chinese diplomat screamed at startled customs officials Monday when they refused to clear a consignment of 40 cases sent to the Chinese Embassy from Peking.

The diplomat, a first secretary, accused the Burmese government of "deliberately blocking the consignment to continue its policy of opposing China and persecuting the Chinese."

The reason for holding up the cases was not known.

Gulf Tells Plans For New Plant

PORT ARTHUR (AP) — Gulf Oil Corp. has announced plans to construct a new cumene plant at its Port Arthur refinery and also will expand the existing cumene facility at the company's Philadelphia, Pa., refinery.

Completion of these projects is expected to double Gulf's total cumene capacity, bringing it to 700 million pounds per year. Cumene is an additive to motor fuels.

NEWARK SLUM AREA

Patrols Check Police Methods

By JOSEPH SWEAT

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — A band of Negro volunteers, led by an antipoverty agency official who has been urging Newark slum dwellers to arm themselves, is prowling the city streets at night, looking for evidence of police brutality.

The volunteers are members of the Community Black Patrol, an outgrowth of the rioting that took 27 lives and destroyed millions of dollars worth of property two weeks ago.

Their leader is Willie Wright, national president of the United Afro—American Association. He also is a member of the board of directors of the United Community Corporation. The corpoation, funded by the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity, is the official antipoverty agency in Newark.

The 35-year-old Wright, who lives with his wife and five children in the riot area, has been calling upon Negroes to prepare "for the next time."

Wright said in an interview: "This is what I am advocating around my town: Get yourself a piece of gun and put it in the bottom drawer or something and have it fully loaded and then if some joker breaks into your house like they broke in Plainfield let him have it."

At Plainfield, just west of Newark, state police cordoned off the Negro neighborhood and searched houses for a cache of 36 stolen rifles. They didn't find the guns.

"The next time them cats come into our community with that kind of stuff, we're going to be well prepared," said Wright.

"The next time the white man walks into the black community he had better damn sure be right."

He was referring to city and state policemen and to the National Guard troops who reinforced civil authorities in the five-day battle with rioters.

Wright, who claims a membership of 2,000 for his Afro—American Association, says more than 30 young men have enlisted in the Community Black Patrol and "more are joining every day."

They are observers, Wright said, and do not carry arms.

"Not yet," he said. "But I would not rule it out. Unless conditions change in a very few weeks I plan to test the law in all kinds of ways as far as arms are concerned."

Wright said he informed the Police Department of the patrols, and told authorities his men would not interfere with arrests. He said patrol members could be identified by their dress: white shirt, black tie, and pith helmets, with "CBP" stenciled on the front, "UAAA" on the sides." Wright said he received no reply from the department.

Police Director Dominick Spina confirmed that he had received a telegram from Wright, and said he hadn't answered it yet. He refused to comment on the patrols.

Wright said there is a deep-seated belief among the Negro community that police and troops fabricated most reports of sniping during the riot as an excuse to shoot up the slums.

Asked for comment on Wright's accusation, a police spokesman said the department still is compiling incidents and doesn't know how many persons ware arrested as snipers. He suggested the prosecuting attorney's office might know.

"It is very hard to say, since sniping is not a legal term," said Prosecutor Brendan Byrne. "We had people arrested for carrying weapons and assault with a deadly weapon, but not very many."

Mother, Son Die In Hillsboro Crash

HILLSBORO (AP) — A collision of their station wagon and a pickup truck killed the wife and a son of a San Antonio surgeon four miles south of here on Interstate 35 Monday night. Seven other persons suffered serious njuries.

Doris Williams, wife of Dr. Williams, and their son Paul, 7, died in the crash.

The injured, all at a Hillsboro hospital, are Dr. Williams and five other children in the family —Philip, 3, Benjamin, 5, Daniel, 6, Grace, 10, and Faith, 11—and Fred Horn of Hillsboro.

State police said Horn was driving to Fort Worth, his former home, to where another of his children has been visiting relatives.

Gov. Romney Ends Restrictions, Curfew

DETROIT (AP)—Gov. George Romney today ended the curfew which had been in effect in Detroit and some of its suburbs since riots erupted in Detroit July 23.

Romney also terminated emergency restriction which had been put into effect on the sale of liquor, gasoline and on public assemblies.

Marshal Chu Joins Mao's Bandwagon

TOKYO (AP) — Marshal Chu Teh belatedly tottered onto Mao Tse-tung's shaky bandwagon Monday night after being humiliated, criticized and then apparently making his peace with Mao.

The 81-year-old marshal, a cofounder with Mao of the Chinese Red army, appeared with his former colleagues at a reception in Peking honoring the army's 40th anniversary. It was his first appearance at a major event in eight months.

Chu's evident conversion to Mao's side in the power struggle with President Liu Shao-chi gave the 73-year-old party chairman a 7-3 margin in China's top Communist power organ, the Politburo's standing committee. But the massive absence of distant military chiefs from the Peking reception— only four of the 13 area commanders attended — indicated the army remains divided and uncertain.

The most immediate fruit Mao may be able to harvest from Chu's return to his fold could be the convening of the National People's Congress to oust Liu from the presidency. Chu, as chairman of the standing committee of the Congress, reportedly blocked all attempts to call it into session.

INSURE WHAT YOU HAVE

Search For Beneficiaries Sometimes Full-Time Job

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — There are few financial pleasures in the world greater than receiving money unexpectedly.

Among those who will testify to this are 300,000 taxpayers who last year shared $381 million returned by the Internal Revenue Service cause of accidental overpayment.

A distant second to the IRS in dispensing this pleasure are banks and insurance companies, which often spend years tracking down forgetful owners of passbooks or unsuspecting insurance beneficiaries.

Public awareness of these searches often is limited to the sight of an infrequent advertisement listing unclaimed bank deposits or a tiny ad in the personal columns seeking the whereabouts of a missing heir.

But in many institutions, the search for beneficiaries is the full-time job of special departments.

Aetna Life & Casualty submits this example:

"A Baltimore claim representative found himself visiting cemetaries, a long-shot last chance in a heretofore vain effort.

"The claim man meticulously scanned hundreds of headstones and finally found the one he was looking for. The policy holder had been dead 20 years.

"The next step was to locate the next of kin, to whom the money belonged. This appeared hopeless because there was no record of any relatives, and the cemetery attendant said no one ever visited the grave."

As you might suspect, this story has a happy ending.

"Two weeks later," the insurance man continued, "the attendant telephoned excitedly. A Georgia woman had just been at the cemetery, identifying herself as the policy holder's daughter.

"The company verified her story and paid her."

Not all companies search so hard for heirs, and not all strive to go beyond the letter of the law in fulfilling their contractual agreements. But the efforts aren't entirely selfless.

"You have no idea how much our locating missing beneficiares and policy holders enhances our image and public relations," said a man from the claim department of Equitable Life Assurance.

Many companies also would prefer to deliver the money to their customer than to have it come under the escheat laws, which in about 30 states calls for the state to become custodian of unclaimed funds.

How does this happen? Most people who need every dollar bill they can find wonder how money can be lost in savings accounts and insurance policies.

The answers sometimes are difficult to believe. Some people simply forget old passbooks, especially if they move frequently. Others, recluses sometimes, leave bankbooks in old trunks when they are removed to nursing homes.

With insurance policies, the cases develop generally in these ways:

—An old paid-up policy is forgotten by everyone, including the holder.

—A policy holder lives so long the policy's face value becomes payable, although the holder fails to recognize this.

—The beneficiary is dead, unknown or missing.

—A person changes jobs without notifying the insurance company, not realizing he may be eligible for benfits from contributions made to a company pension plan.

—The policy holder simply doesn't understand the terms of the policy, believes he has nothing coming, and so fails to keep in touch with the insurer.

Failure to pay doesn't always mean a policy lapses; it may become extended term insurance, with the cash value maintaining the policy for years.

These are the commonest reasons for insurance company searches, many of which have surprising endings.

One company, believing it was bringing unexpected joy to a beneficiary, received instead an unexpected rebuff. The beneficiary, a recluse, declined to accept a $6,900 endowment. She said she might get robbed.

Red Means Wrong Way On Freeway

Red means wrong on Texas freeways. The Texas Highway Department has installed red reflectors on many Interstate and other controlled access highways to warn drivers that they are going the wrong way.

A broken red line of reflectors indicates to the driver that he is traveling the wrong way on the freeway. A red arrow pointing at the driver from the pavement as he begins to enter a freeway ramp indicates that he is entering the wrong way.

These reflectors, in extensive use for about a year, are made of acrylic plastic — red on one side and white on the other. A driver going in the right direction sees the white side. A wrong-way driver sees the red. So red means "wrong way."

Thousands of these markers have been installed on such high-volume traffic highways as Interstate Highway 10 through Houston and Interstate Highway 35 through Austin, as well as on many others in the state.

Installation of the markers is the Highway Department's second major innovation within the year to minimize wrong - way movements on freeways.

Earlier the Department began supplementing its "Do Not Enter" signs along freeways with "Do Not Enter Ramp" signs and "One Way" signs.

The reflective pavement markers are an effort to cut wrong-way accidents even more.

The lane lines in most cases are limited to metropolitan areas where there are high volumes of traffic. The reflective markers are placed at 40-foot intervals with 15-foot lines of white non - reflective button markers centered in between.

The arrows are placed on exit ramps to two-way frontage roads, exit ramps that have any history of wrong-way entry, and exit ramps where the design of the connection with the cross street or highway is such that traffic may have an easy access to the exit ramp for wrong - way movement.

A big advantage of these markers over paint or other devices, says a Highway Department spokesman, is that they are just as good when wet as when dry. This means the reflectors can be seen during rainstorms.

"The Texas Highway Department is concerned about wrong - way accidents on our freeways," explained State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer. "We hope these new markers will help by warning motorists that "Red means WRONG."
