WHAT A NICE WORLD it would be if there were nothing but ocean where the Soviet Union and the Soviet bloc countries are located.

But unfortunately there is a Soviet Union, and once again the Russian "Bear" has risen up to remind the world about what an un-Godly group they are; and about what little regard they hold for human life.

It is hard to realize how the Russians could shoot down a defenseless passenger plane, containing women and children, and show no remorse for the act.

It is too bad that such a cold-blooded act has to be done, but this gives the citizens of the world a reminder of what kind of people the communists are, and how they think and rationalize.

The event should also be a reminder to our leaders about the type of people with which they are dealing in such matters as arms control, anti-nuclear agreements, etc. The only kinds of deals the Russians will ever make are the ones which will bind the United States and its allies, while they (with fingers crossed, as you would do as a small child) continue right along with business as usual on whatever it is they "promise" to curtail.

The United States has to proceed with a certain amount of restraint and caution in the airplane matter, lest the Russians use the event to start a nuclear war. Our leaders would do anything possible to avert such a war, but you get the idea that Russia would just as soon start such a global conflict tomorrow as not—in fact, probably sooner.

This makes for a very tense situation in global relations. As long as the communists like to show their brute strength, our world must continue to be "on edge," with the rest of the world having to walk a tight rope and cow-tow to the bullies.

There had been a period in recent years when the Western allies thought that perhaps Russia was calming down somewhat in its announced goals of ruling the world.

But events such as the airplane incident of the past week serve as a reminder that they're the same old Soviet Union, and just itching to get something started.

WE HAVE BEEN seeing and hearing about some of the latest bumper stickers, and have jotted down the following, which we enjoyed:

This one was evidently displayed on a dentist's car: "Ignore Your Teeth and Someday They'll Go Away."

Then, this must have been on an automobile owned by a country music fan: "E.T. Still Means Ernest Tubb To Me."

Those who love the South would appreciate: "Keep Texas Beautiful—Put a Yankee on a Bus!"

VS AMHERST FRIDAY

Mustangs Hope To Eliminate Mistakes

Bovina's Mustangs will be out to correct their opening game mistakes when they host the Amherst Bulldogs in their second game of the season Friday at Mustang Stadium.

Church To Host Gospel Series Meet

Bovina Church of Christ will host a gospel meeting September 11-14.

Guest speaker will be "Tex" Williams of Lubbock. Williams, an instructor at Sunset School of Preaching of Lubbock, is active in foreign mission work, and will be leaving for mission duty in Africa following the gospel meeting in Bovina.

Service times on Sunday are 9:45 a.m. for Bible classes; 10:45 a.m. for morning worship and 6 p.m. for evening worship.

Services Monday through Wednesday will be at 7:30 to 8 a.m. and at 8 p.m.

The public is invited to attend this series of services, according to Author Judd, local minister.

The Mustangs' luck was mostly bad in the opening game, where the Happy Cowboys scored a 28-20 win, thanks to two long touchdown runs from punt formation by Happy's Pat Johnson.

"We're just going to try to correct our mistakes, and feel that the scoreboard will take care of itself," said Mustang Coach Larry Helton, who said the team broke down on assignments in a place or two in the opening game.

Happy had the ball at their own 18 early in the game, and was in deep punt formation. Johnson noticed that he wasn't being rushed from one side, and decided to run with the ball. He ran...and ran...and ran, 82 yards for a touchdown.

In the third quarter, Happy was again seemingly forced to punt, when the snap from center went over Johnson's head. He recovered the ball, and again figured he might as well run. This time it resulted in a 63-yard touchdown.

The two very unusual plays were easily the difference in the Mustangs' eight-point deficit.

Just to make the punting game a complete disaster, Bovina turned the ball over to Happy in the third quarter after a high snap from center went over their own punter's head, giving Happy the ball at the Bovina eight. That led to a six-yard TD burst by Johnson.

Johnson's running overcame an outstanding effort by Richard Shepherd in his first game as Bovina's signal-caller. Shepherd passed for two touchdowns and one two-point conversion—all three to his cousin, freshman Michael Shepherd.

Richard Shepherd also scored a Bovina touchdown on a six-yard run. His run and a 23-yard scoring strike to Michael Shepherd gave Bovina a 14-8 lead in the first quarter.

But the third quarter punting game

Election Officials Named By Court Commissioners

Election officials for 1983 were appointed at the regular meeting of the Parmer County Commissioner's Court on Monday, August 24.

Those appointed, for the various precincts, were as follows, with presiding judge listed first, and alternates in parenthesis:

Black (1) Mrs. Martha Hamilton (Mrs. Joan Euler); Friona (2) Mrs. Linda Black (Mrs. Martha Bates); Friona (2-1) Mrs. Pat Fleming (Mrs. Bruce Shafer); Friona (2-2) Danny Kendrick (Mrs. Mary Ford); Bovina (3) J.E. Sherrill, Jr. (Mrs. Marie Venable).

Farwell (4) Mrs. Billie Blain (Phil Garrett); Lazbuddie (5) Alton Morris (E.A. Parham); Oklahoma Lane (6) Clarence Johnson (Harold Carpenter); Rhea (7) Raymond Schuler (Carl Schlenker); Lakeview (8) J. Dee Willard (Mrs. Russell O'Brian).

In other business, Jerry Lewis, Friona City Manager, Clarence Monroe, Friona mayor, and Mike Chaney, Friona city councilman, met with the court to discuss rural fire calls. It is the group's contention that the Friona Fire Department makes more rural fire calls than the other departments, but that the matter is not taken into consideration by the county, which makes equal allocations to fire departments at Friona, Bovina, Farwell and Lazbuddie. The item was tabled for further study.

At the suggestion of Benna Felts, county treasurer, a motion was passed to reinvest Farm to Market funds in two certificates of deposit of $100,000 each, plus $150,000 from the general fund in a separate C.D., all three to mature September 13, 1983. These funds are from maturing short term C.D.'s which have been re-invested about four times to generate added income for their respective accounts, and also keep the funds available in case of quick need.

FIRST WINNER....Lynn Read is presented his check for being the first week's winner in the Bovina Businesses Football Contest. Read was the only one of the 122 contestants entering the first week's event to correctly pick 11 of the 14 games. Presenting the check is Blade staff member Tami Kunselman.

A motion was passed to pay a printing bill for the District Attorney's office in the amount of $33.65, and also to pay the expenses of a visiting district judge, in the amount of $36.35.

County Extension agents Laura Jacobs and Seth Ralston reported that in record book judging at Lubbock, ten books competed from Parmer County. Also, Miss Jacobs reported that eight county students competed in the 4-H fashion show, and won six blue ribbons and two reds.

The County 4-H Camp was held at Palo Duro Canyon, with 40 participants attending, and seeing the "Texas" production. All 4-H Clubs are in the process of organizing for the new year.

Soil conservation work was approved, subject to availability of county machinery and reimbursement for its use, on the farms of Don Teague in Precinct 2, and Fred Chandler and Bert Williams in Precinct 3.

Pep Rally Set Friday

The Bovina High School cheerleaders' weekly pep rally will be held from 3-3:30 p.m. Friday at the high school, to give the Mustangs a good sendoff.

The public is urged to attend all pep rallies.

Dress-Up Winners Announced By B.H.S.

"ROCK N ROLL with a little soul," was last week's theme and carried out by elementary, junior high and high school students to support the Bovina Mustang football team.

Students wore group t-shirts, bandanas, party hats, colored glasses, heavy make-up, faded blue jeans and really hammed it up in general.

Prizes were presented to the best dressed and last week's winners were Mrs. Cooley, a teacher, and Rebecca Hodnett, a student, both receiving gift certificates.

Read Is Winner In First Contest

Lynn Read was the first week's champion in the Bovina Businesses Football Contest.

Read proved his mettle by correctly picking 11 of the 14 contest games. He was the only contestant to miss only three games on the opening week's schedule. He was presented a check for $7.50 for winning the weekly event.

Second place for the week went to Mike Morris, who was one of six contestants correctly picking ten games. Morris claimed the runnerup spot on the basis of the weekly tie-breaker score prediction.

Morris predicted Happy would outscore Bovina, 28-14, missing the actual score by only six points. He hit Happy's score (28) on the nose, and was six points shy on the Bovina side of the ledger. Morris was awarded the weekly second prize of $5.00.

Third place went to Danny Guerra, who missed the tie-breaker score by 18 points, picking Bovina to win, 16-14 (missing Bovina's score by four and Happy's by 14). He was awarded the weekly third prize of $3.00.

Other contestants to correctly pick ten games (and their tie-breaker difference) were Dickie Clayton (21), Bobby Cumpton (22), Jean Morgan (27), and Jan Smith (48 --failed to enter a tie-breaker score).

Read's misses were in picking UCLA over Georgia; Texas A&M over California and the Giants over the Rams.

Morris mis-fired on Plains-Farwell; River Road-Friona; A&M-Cal and Pittsburgh-Denver.

Guerra had to eat crow over Springlake-Amherst; WTSU-North Texas; A&M-Cal and Pittsburgh-Denver.

In addition to weekly prizes, contestants are shooting for a grand prize of $100 in cash, to be awarded at the close of the 14-week period.

Sponsored by 16 area businesses, a full page advertisement will appear in the Blade each week for 14 issues. In each of the sponsors' advertisements will be listed a game being played that week.

Contestants must choose a winner and write his or her choice on the entry blank. A tie-breaking score must be predicted for the weekly contest.

Contest rules are listed on the contest page. Only one entry blank may be submitted by each contestant. Deadline for entering is 5 p.m. on Fridays.

Entry blanks may be brought by the Blade office on Third Street or mailed. Entries that are mailed must bear a postmark of Friday, and must be received by the Blade by Monday to count for the week's prizes.

Larry Wiseman was the 1982 contest winner. Larry, either led or was tied for the lead for twelve weeks during the contest period, held on to claim the championship in the Bovina Businesses' Football Contest for 1982.

Duo Jailed Following Holdup

Two men were in Parmer County Jail early this week, charged with aggravated robbery, in connection with the knife-point robbery of the Allsup's Convenience Store here early Sunday morning.

Police Chief Rodney Bachman said two men walked into the Allsup's store at 2:50 a.m. Sunday, flashing a knife, and ordered Mary E. Wallace, store employee, to give them the money out of the cash register.

Clovis police were alerted, after the two fled by car toward New Mexico. They put up a road-block at Texico.

Shortly after sunrise, a farmer in the Texico area saw the two individuals walking and contacted the Curry County Sheriff's Department. The pair had apparently turned back from the roadblock, and then abandoned their car. They fled into a nearby cornfield and eluded law officers for a time but were in custody by 1 p.m. They were apprehended on the Texas side of the state line.

Assisting Parmer County Sheriff's officers and Bovina city officials were the Curry County Sheriff's Department, the New Mexico State Police and the Texas Department of Public Safety troopers.

Names of the men involved were not available at press time due to the Labor Day holiday, and charges were expected to be filed on Tuesday.

ROCK & ROLL....Students at Bovina High School dressed in a Rock 'n Roll theme last Friday as a spirit-booster. The above group of young ladies were in typing class. The instructor is Margaret Durben.

New Musical Comedy Comes To Amarillo

"Show Your Spirit," the exciting new musical comedy production, will appear at the Amarillo Civic Center Theatre Thursday, September 8 through Sunday, September 11.

The lively, family-oriented stage show was adapted from the book "Gumwrappers and Goggles" (The Tale of a Jet) by author Winifred Barnun Newman, and is scheduled for a thirty city tour of Texas, California, Nevada, Oklahoma, Colorado, Missouri, Louisiana, Arkansas and New Mexico.

The musical is produced by Incredible Productions of Dallas, and adapted for tour by Sarnoff Entertainment Corporation of Los Angeles.

Presented by Southwest Airlines, "Show Your Spirit" is the happy story of a little plane with lots of determination and courage who wins the struggle to fly amidst seemingly insurmountable odds.

With full sets, musical score, costumes and choreography, the two-hour production features a cast of sixteen energetic singers, dancers and actors.

A special attraction in "Show Your Spirit" is the performance by six local children, in addition to the regular permanent cast.

Auditioned at dance schools in each city by show choreographer Bonnie Piedmonte, these wonderfully talented youngsters ranging in age from seven to ten years are selected on the basis of their dancing and acting ability.

In Amarillo, these local children

Irene Highfill, 82, of Mooreland, Oklahoma, died August 13 and services were held August 16 at the First Baptist Church in Mooreland, Oklahoma.

She is survived by five children, several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Also, one brother, Claud Miller of Amarillo; and four sisters, Maesie Flynn of Bovina, Grace Parr of Friona, Opal Leir of Mooreland, and Martha Cummins of Enid, Oklahoma.

will appear in all scheduled performances. Names will be announced in the next few weeks.

There are ten production numbers in "Show Your Spirit." The original music and lyrics by James Gaertner have been widely praised as has been the exciting and inventive choreography.

The rousing courtroom scene in the Second Act gets the audience clapping and enjoyably caught up in the fulfilled action on stage.

The star of the show, of course, is T.J. Love, who is sort of "The Little Engine That Could" of the airplane world. His charming friend Amelia, the good air fairy, always encourages him and shows her belief with T.J. that he will see his dream come true.

The technical staging of "Show Your Spirit" includes actual flight by the plane, which measures eight feet in length, across the stage and into the audience. The flying rigging was designed by the master of stage flight, Peter Foy, who engineered the flying for all Broadway productions of "Peter Pan" including the original starring Mary Martin, and the latest with Sandy Duncan.

Thomas Volz, executive producer for Southwest Airlines, says, "Show Your Spirit" is for the child in all of us. It is the story of free enterprise and realizing our own potential, as expressed in one of the musical numbers, "The Magic Is In You."

There will be five performances of "Show Your Spirit" at the Amarillo Civic Center Theatre: Thursday, September 8 at 7:30 p.m.; Friday, September 9 at 7:30 p.m.; Saturday, September 10 at 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. and on Sunday, September 11 at 2 p.m.

Ticket prices are $4, $5 and $6 with one-half price for children 12 years and under. Information regarding location of ticket outlets will be announced soon.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

The Abilene Reporter-News had an article in their sports section that we thought was worth sharing. It was written by Ken Brazzle and the article is about our Don Cumpton who coaches at Abilene High.

The newsmen says he is convinced that Don Cumpton could sell Bourbon Street to the Pope. He goes on to ask if you have seen Bourbon Street lately, then asks if you have seen the Abilene High roster.

He says that one hundred seventy players on Don's team have devoted their bodies to playing football at Abilene High because of this man, Don Cumpton. The newsmen was puzzled, as many others, as to how Don can generate so much interest in a mediocre program.

Brazzle says that Don is a firm believer in getting his kids involved.

Says some coaches are phony but Don Cumpton is sincere in his efforts to involve kids in athletics.

Cumpton says, according to the article, that most Texas youngsters want to play football, but it was the coach's job to help them in any way that they could.

Don says that a lot of times people are interested in a young man only as a football player, but they hoped to be interested in their kids in everything they do. He said, "I think if you get to know them, you learn what makes kids tick, and you'll have a better chance of communicating with them."

This is what makes Cumpton so unique. He knows having 170 players around is more work and time consuming. But having a large number in his program has proven successful during his career. The newsmen pointed out that Cumpton's program has proven successful during his career and the record shows it.

When Don coached at Muleshoe, his first year's record was 1-9, the next year's team was 9-1.

In Hereford, the first year they won three games and the second year they won five. The third year, won eight and the fourth year they won 13.

Don is quoted as saying, "We just want a youngster to feel like he's welcome and he can be a part of our program. I think there are some things they can learn in an athletic program that they can't learn anywhere else, and I'm a firm believer that I think it's a great thing!"

Cumpton has sold 170 youngsters on just that!

Don is the son of Bobby Cumpton and the late Allen Cumpton. We in Bovina are proud indeed to know that this young man is one of ours!

A large group of people entered our first week's football contest and to you we want to say thanks and also to the sponsors of the football contest. We appreciate the support of all sixteen businesses who sponsor the football page in the Bovina Blade.

We congratulate our winners: first place, Lynn Read; second place, Mike Morris; and third place, Danny Guerra.

We want to express our sympathies to Maesie Flynn, whose sister, Irene Highfill, 82, passed away August 13 and services were held in Mooreland, Oklahoma on August 16.

Sisters living in our area are Maesie Flynn of Bovina and Grace Parr of Friona.

Joe Jones has been hospitalized in the West Plains Medical Center in Muleshoe for observation. He entered the hospital Tuesday of last week.

Brother J.J. Terry entered the Clovis High Plains Hospital a week ago last Sunday for minor surgery and had tests run. He came out of the hospital last Thursday and said he was feeling better.

Elmer Patton of Ballinger has been in Bovina for several days visiting his daughter Juanda Murphy and her family. Juanda took him back to Ballinger Tuesday of last week.

Sue and Joe Fowler have had a good visit with their daughter and granddaughter, Nancy Hardin and daughter Ashley of San Diego, California. Nancy and Ashley left for California a week ago last Thursday. They were in Bovina visiting Sue and Joe and Ashley's uncle Robert, for twelve days. The family had a good time being together.

Karen Welch was a patient at Lubbock Methodist Hospital for tests and stayed in the hospital for two weeks. She came home from the hospital and was home for a day and a half, then entered the Clovis High Plains Hospital. Her mother said so far they have not found the cause for her illness. Karen is the daughter of Lloyd and Irma Nabors.

Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Hoppingardner have been in Bovina visiting his mother, Mrs. R.L. Hoppingardner and also his brother "Hop" who lives in Clovis. W.J. said he flew his two step daughters and a grandchild from California and all the family enjoyed being together. The W.J. Hoppingardners are from Hollister, California.

Our sympathies to Jim Guest, whose sister, Roberta Williams, 64, of Woodward, Oklahoma passed away a week ago last Monday in the Presbyterian Hospital in Woodward, Oklahoma. She was survived by one brother, Jim Guest of Bovina; her husband John; two sons, Jack of Sharon, Oklahoma and Michael of Oklahoma City.

Jim and Anita Guest attended services which were held last Friday.

Lilly Fuller underwent surgery in an Amarillo hospital last Monday for the removal of cataracts. Her daughter Elaine said she is getting along fine.

Lawrence and Erra Jamerson attended funeral services in Vernon for Erra's and Sandy Ware's aunt Ludie Crowner. Erra said she was 91 years of age and was survived by one son. She said two of Mrs. Crowner's children had died in the past year.

Marion and Dixie Carson attended two family reunions in Chickasha, Oklahoma over the weekend. About sixty people attended the Nunley family reunion, which was held at the home of Marion's uncle, Luther Nunley, with folks attending from Texas, Kansas, California, Nebraska and Oklahoma. This family reunion was Saturday.

Saturday afternoon and Sunday the Carsons attended the Malcom family reunion which was held at Dixie's niece and her husband, Bob and Pat Morris. Forty people attended this reunion and they were from Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado and Tennessee.

Sheila and Gary and family went with Marion and Dixie and their other children attending were Richard from Copperas Cove and Joan from Austin.

Dixie said they came home Sunday but waited until they saw Butch and Ben on television in Oklahoma before leaving.

Visiting with the Carsons in recent days was his mother Gertrude Stephan of Henderson, Nevada. She came last Monday and the Carsons took her on to Oklahoma when they attended the reunions.

Alvay and Louva Kersey returned home August 29 from a trip to Washington state.

They flew August 3 to Everett, Washington, and attended the Griggs family reunion. Three of Louva's brothers and three of her sisters were at the reunion, and only one brother and sister were not able to be with the family.

The family met at the home of Louva's sister, Mary Hillis. They brought a gift back for their daughter Alva and her husband Don. It was a 12½ pound salmon.

While there they did alot of sightseeing. They went on up into Canada and saw lots of sights in British Columbia. They visited the Queen Elizabeth Rose Garden and the planetarium in British Columbia. They also toured the Ice Caves in Washington and the Apple Orchard Capitol which is in Wanicchai, Washington.

On their return trip they stayed overnight in Amarillo with daughter Reita and her family. Their other daughter, Alva Lou and family from Boise City, Oklahoma, met them in Amarillo and they had a nice visit.

THE ABC'S OF CHILDREN'S VISUAL PROBLEMS

There are many signs which can alert parents to a child's vision problems. Some of the signs are subtle and hard to discern. But they have been summarized in these "ABC'S"--

APPEARANCE: Frequent styes and red or swollen eyelids may be caused by eyestrain. Drooping eyelids, pupils of unequal size or very large pupils may call for an examination by your Optometrist.

BEHAVIOR: Restlessness and irritability may result from a child's inability to perform a difficult visual task. Excuses for not studying and misbehavior to avoid being found to be a poor reader may simply be caused by faulty eyesight.

COMPLAINTS: Fatigue and discomfort from use of the eyes can be signs of a severe visual problem. Other clues are double vision, itching or burning of the eyes, blurred vision, headache or dizziness.

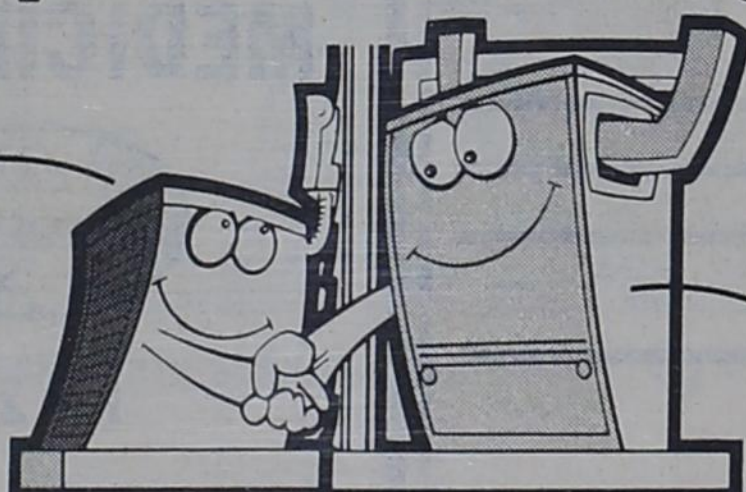

Have your child's eyes examined at least once each year by your Optometrist.

This message is brought to you in the interest of better vision by Drs. Armistead & Smith, Optometrists, Littlefield, Texas.

A broken air conditioner can be the best thing that ever happened to your household budget.

The add-on heat pump is an efficient air conditioner that cools your home when it's hot. But that's not all.

In cold weather, the add-on heat pump works with your present furnace to help heat your home.

When your air conditioner breaks down, you have several choices. Repair. Replace. Buy a whole new system. All major investments.

Southwestern Public Service Company suggests that you consider a more efficient alternative, for much less than a new heating and cooling system: the electric add-on heat pump. The add-on heat pump is a very special air conditioner that works with your present furnace. Besides cooling your home in the summer, it helps heat your home in the winter.

As one of the most efficient ways to heat and cool, the add-on heat pump can really make a difference. And helping you manage electricity efficiently is one way we're working to justify your trust.

Local WT Students Earn Scholarships

More than 400 beginning freshman students at West Texas State University from seven states have been awarded a $200 Don and Sybil Harrington Scholarship for the 1983-84 academic year.

Scholarships are awarded each year to students who will attend WTSU as freshmen and who were members of high school National Honor Society chapters or similar organizations.

Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholarships were begun in 1979 with an endowment from the Don and Sybil Harrington Foundation of Amarillo. Additional grants have grown to a total endowment of $1.2 million and students are eligible to retain the scholarship for four years at WTSU.

The scholarships are renewable each year if the student maintains a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale.

Don and Sybil Harrington honor scholars may receive an additional President's Honor Scholarship if they score 28 or more of a possible 36 on the American College Test of 1,220 points of a possible 1,600 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test college entrance examinations. They receive an additional $100.

A competitive scholarship of $200 or more at WTSU waives out-of-state tuition which often is ten times greater than in-state costs.

Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholars from Bovina High School are Andy Alexander, son of Dr. Robert Alexander of Friona and Sarah Owen of Bovina; Grisella Ortiz, daughter of Manuel and Felipe Ortiz; Lisa Gayle Schilling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Schilling; Patti Dawn Sherrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Sherrill, Jr.; David Villarreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zeferino Villarreal; Bret Whitten, son of Earl and Norma Whitten; and Joe Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Wright.

Receiving the scholarship for the second year is Mark Teague, son of Don and Dona Teague.

Receiving the scholarship for the third year is Karen Hughes, daughter of Joyce Snell of Bovina.

Bond Sales Are Up

Sales of U.S. Savings Bonds in Texas for the period January-May 1983 were $113,012,014, up 36.2 per cent over the same period a year ago, John W. Dixon, chairman of the board and CEO of E-Systems, Inc. in Dallas and volunteer state chairman for Texas, announced this week.

These sales represent 50.2 per cent of the state's 1983 assigned dollar goal of $224,700,000.

Sales of Series EE Bonds were $3,661 in May 1983, for a total of $13,758 for the first five months of 1983 in Parmer County, Charles E. Allen, volunteer county chairman, said. These sales result in 21 per cent of the county's assigned dollar quota.

Since November 1, 1982 new issues of Series EE Savings Bonds, held five years or longer, earn 85 per cent of the average return on five-year Treasury marketable securities during the holding period, with a minimum guaranteed return of 7.5 per cent for at least five years. Outstanding Series E and EE Bonds and Savings Notes that are still outstanding and earning interest on and after November 1, 1987 will earn market-based interest effective November 1, 1982. The average rate for the first two six-months market-based periods is 9.87 per cent.

Luncheon To Fete Farmers

The Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church and United Methodist Church pastors invite all area farmers and businessmen to their monthly "Prayer and Share" fellowship luncheon on September 24 at 1 p.m. in the Oklahoma Lane United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

Rev. Wyatt Carpenter and Rev. Joel Ware share a common concern in that they feel it has been a rough year for the farmers and hope that in this setting there will be a sharing of concerns as well as a pleasant time of fellowship with friends and neighbors. Rev. Carpenter will bring this month's devotional.

breakdown allowed Happy to take a 28-14 lead.

The Shepherds combined on another 35-yard scoring play in the fourth quarter for the final margin of 28-20.

The Mustangs played without the services of linebacker Terry Glasscock, out with an illness.

"We out-blocked them and out-defended them most of the game. We saw a lot of good things on the film. We were particularly impressed with Danny Silva's plan on offense, Martin Contreras on both offense and defense, Richard Shepherd and Michael Shepherd," Helton said.

Silva was Bovina's leading rusher with 76 yards. Richard Shepherd completed four of eight passes for over 100 yards. Happy led in total yardage, 314-221.

Amherst beat Bovina's District 5-AA stalemate Springlake-Earth, 12-0 last Friday, so apparently has the ability to be a tough competitor.

Bovina had some players out with illness or slight injuries, but all were expected to be ready for play Friday, with the exception of Glasscock.

MHR To Sponsor Golf Clinic

Troubled by a wicked hook? a mean slice?

Friona golfing enthusiasts will have an opportunity to brush up on the techniques of the game during the First Annual Benefit Golf Clinic and Exhibition to be held at Colonial Park Country Club on Saturday, September 17 in Clovis, New Mexico.

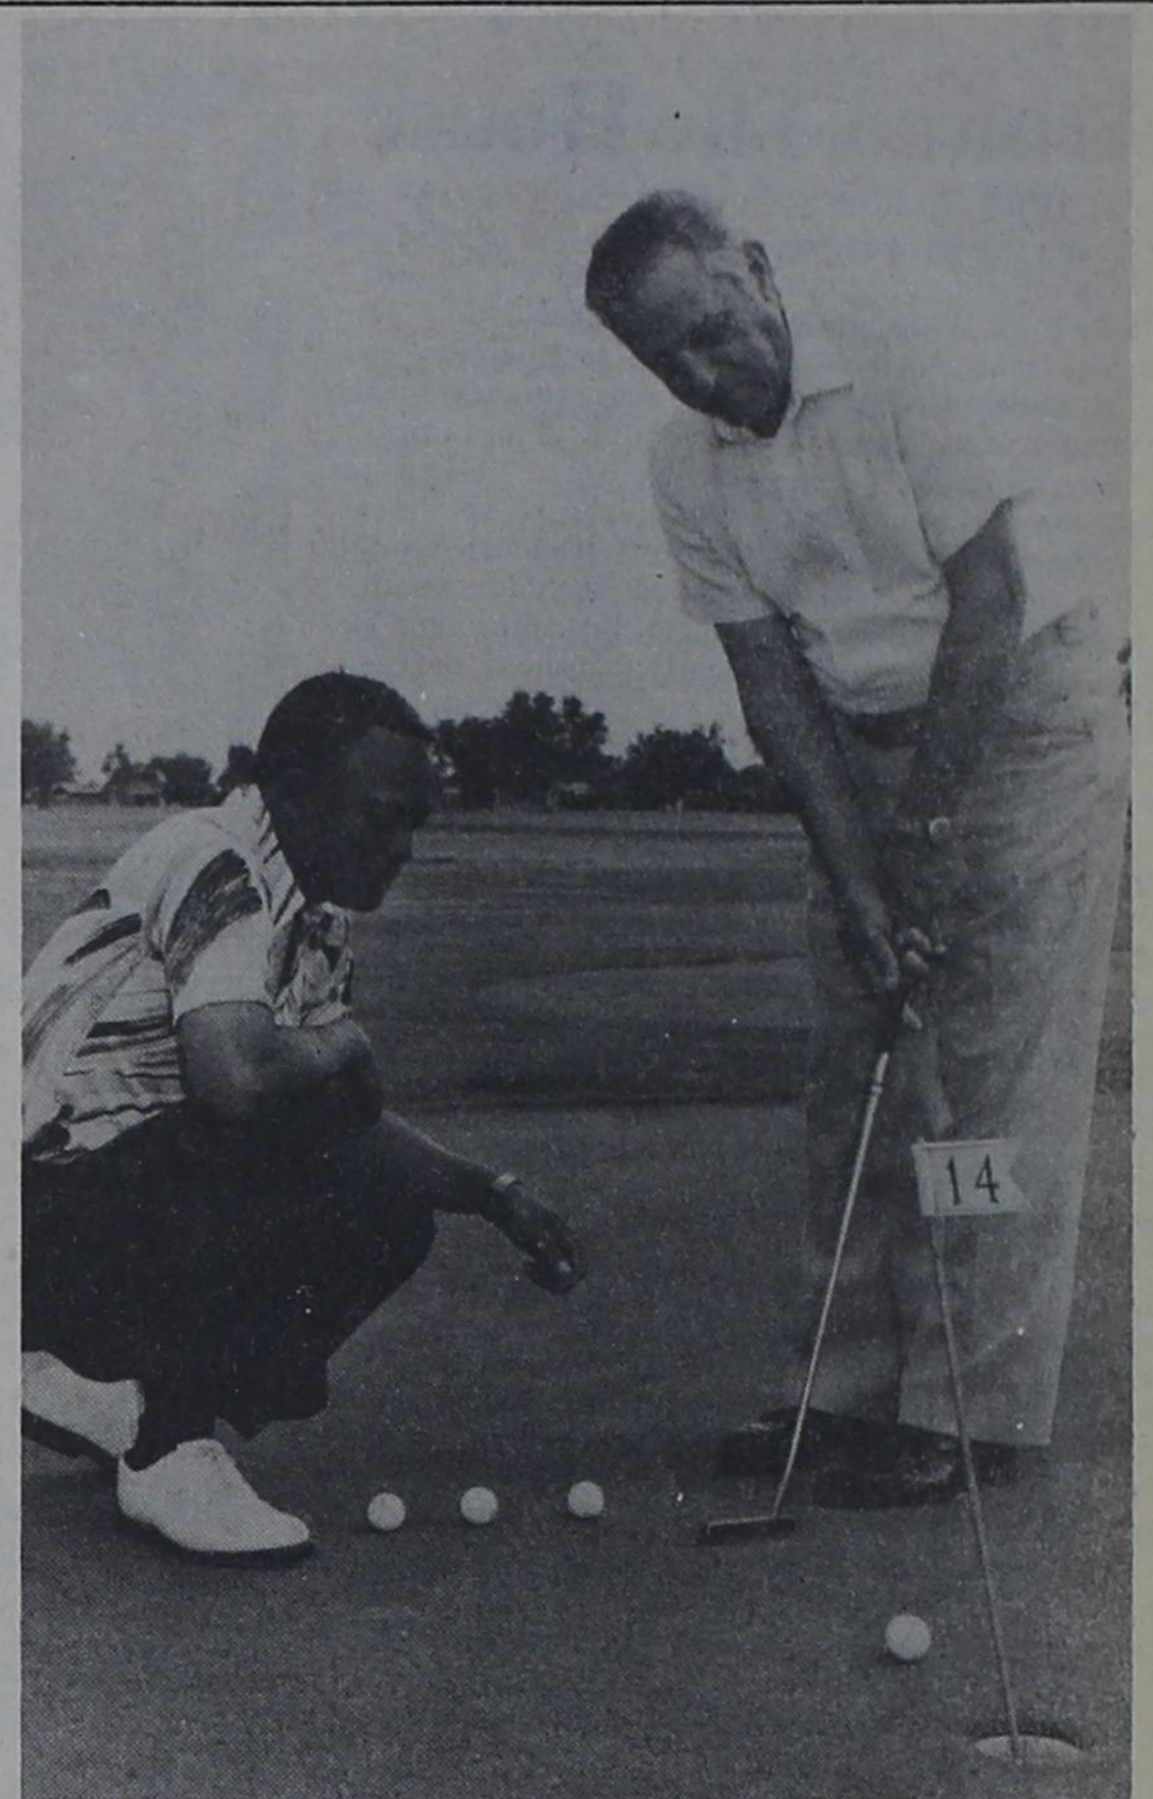

The exhibition, which is sponsored by Mental Health Resources, Inc., will be conducted by golfing professional and ABC sportscaster Dave Marr. Marr, who won the 1965 PGA Championship, is best known today as "color man" for the network's golf coverage. His background on the professional golf circuit has given substantial credibility to his commentary for televised golfing events.

The one-hour clinic will begin at 10 a.m. MDT with Marr demonstrating a variety of swings, shots and techniques of golf. Bleacher seating will be provided for the gallery. Beginning at 11:30 a.m., following the clinic, an 18-hole exhibition round will be played by Marr and the clinic's Gold Sponsors, with the public invited to follow the play.

General admission tickets for the event are $5 in advance or $7 on the day of the exhibition. Ticket outlets are located in Clovis at Colonial Park Country Club, Clovis Municipal Golf Course, Wade's Sporting Goods, Sport About, Southwest Sales and Mental Health Resources office in the Memorial Service Center in the 1200 block of Thornton.

Primary support for the clinic and exhibition is being provided by sponsors who have made contributions on one of five monetary levels. These sponsors will also attend a Friday evening dinner at Colonial Park Country Club with Marr as the featured speaker, and a Saturday morning breakfast.

Proceeds from the event will be used for mental health services as a method for decreasing dependency on state funding. A comprehensive community mental health center, MHR serves seven counties in Eastern

I, Ron Procter, Tax Assessor-Collector for Bovina ISD, in accordance with the provisions of Sec. 26.04, Property Tax Code, have calculated the tax rate which may not be exceeded by more than three percent by the governing body of the Bovina ISD without holding a public hearing as required by the code. That rate is as follows: $1.10 per $100 of value.

The estimated unencumbered fund balance for Maintenance & Operation fund: $222,282. The estimated unencumbered fund balance for Interest & Sinking fund: $49,639.

Around The House

By LAURA JACOBS

Probably the only limiting factor in collecting materials suitable for making winter bouquets is the imagination of the collector. Proper preparation of the materials will determine the success one has in using the stems collected. The following plants produce excellent flowers for use in winter bouquets if properly prepared: cockscomb, globe amaranth, baby's breath, strawflower and statice.

Choose only the best flowers for drying, selecting those with the longest stems. If possible prepare twice the number of flowers needed so you can discard any that are damaged in the drying process. An airy attic with little or no light is an ideal place for drying the specimens. Tie the material in small bundles and hang upside down from a line or rafters in a comparatively dust-free dimly lit attic or storeroom. After the material is thoroughly dry, store loosely in large dust free boxes until ready to use.

The ornamental grasses, as well as many of the native grasses, produce attractive plumes which can be used in winter bouquets. Cut the flowering grass heads just as they mature, but before they expand or shed. Tie them in small bundles and dry them in the same manner as the flowers discussed above. Pampas grass and Fountain grass are excellent for this purpose. Many of the native grasses produce smaller heads, but when gathered and used in arrangements look very attractive.

Many flowers are too delicate to be dried by hanging but can often be successfully cured by using a drying agent such as one-half cornmeal and one-half borax mixed together thoroughly. Since we are interested only in the flower, the foliage should be stripped from the stem before drying. Place a layer of the drying agent in the bottom of a box, then lay the flowers in the box and gently fill in around the individual flower heads with additional material. The drying agent should be carefully packed between the petals to hold them apart while they dry. Large, double flowers are difficult to dry successfully.

After drying in this way, the flowers must be handled very gently or they will not survive long enough to use.

Considerable practice is required to learn the technique of packing the drying agent around the more delicate specimens. Flowers often dried in this manner include anemone, single chrysanthemum, clematis, cosmos, daffodil, dianthus, marigold, pansy, sunflower and zinnia.

Many of the more attractive flowers and leaves which cannot be preserved by drying can be cured with glycerine. Using the glycerine treatment, many of the fall leaves will retain their bright colors and last a long time. There may be some color change when using this method, however, the dark, silky appearance of the leaves makes them even more attractive in many instances. When properly cured, the material will last indefinitely and is usually less brittle, making it easier to arrange. Plant materials which can be preserved with the glycerine method include: bamboo, chestnut, magnolia, English ivy, elaeagnus, iris leaves, oak leaves, sea grape and sansevieria.

When using the glycerine method, the bottom four to five inches of the stem should be placed in jars containing a solution of one part glycerine to two parts of water. The absorption of the glycerine can be facilitated by crushing the ends of the more woody stems before placing them in the solution. The effect of the solution is noticeable on the leaves as it rises through the foliage. The material should be allowed to remain in the jar until the entire leaf is cured. After the glycerine solution has penetrated the entire surface, remove the specimens from the container and hang them upside down until they are thoroughly dry. Leaves preserved in this way can be used with either fresh flowers or in dry arrangements.

In using dried materials for winter bouquets, the individual is restricted only by his imagination and good taste. Since dried arrangements need not be placed in water as fresh materials do, their use is unlimited.
