NINETY PEOPLE BURN TO DEATH

RESULT OF FIRE IN MOVING PICTURE THEATRE IN ST. PETERSBURG.

OTHERS WERE INJURED

Many of the Victims Were Women and Children Patrons of the Show.

By Associated Press.
St. Petersburg, Russia, March 6.—Ninety persons were burned to death and about forty others were injured in a fire which destroyed a moving picture show at Bologoye in the Southern part of Novgorod province Sunday. Many of the victims were women and children and the scene was one of the most horrible in the history of this country.

The fire started without warning and the people were entrapped before the danger was realized as a result of inadequate facilities for escape from the building.

Pirates Off for West Baden.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 6.—The advance guard of the Pittsburg National league team, including seventeen pitchers and one or two of the catchers signed for the coming season, departs tonight for West Baden, which is to be the scene of their preliminary training for the pennant race. The remainder of the team will follow next Saturday and after spending a week lumbering up at the Indiana resort the entire outfit will depart for Hot Springs.

Reduction in Cotton Rates.

Columbia, S. C., March 6.—A reduction of approximately 20 per cent in the rates charged by the railroads on cotton piece goods from the interior manufacturing centers of South Carolina to the port of Charleston came into effect today. The reduction follows a long struggle between the railroads and the cotton mill men of Columbia, Greenville, Spartanburg and other centers of the cotton manufacturing industry in South Carolina.

SHEEHAN STUBBORN ATTACKS GOVERNOR

New York, March 6.—After consultation with his Tammany supporters, William F. Sheehan has issued a statement in which he accuses Governor Dix of obstructing the election of the regularly chosen candidate of the party for United States senator, and says he will not withdraw as the Democratic caucus nominee.

Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, said Mr. Sheehan's statement spoke for itself. He would not add to it.

The general belief of Tammany leaders is that Sheehan will still hold seventy-eight votes when the full effect of Governor Dix's letter has made itself felt.

Friends of Martin W. Littleton pointed out today the real significance of Mr. Littleton's recent self-announced candidacy. They say Mr. Littleton realized fully that as matters now stand no United States senator can be elected without the support of Murphy and Tammany Hall, and that therefore in his open letter, having antagonized Mr. Murphy, he does not expect his support and consequently does not expect to be elected senator. What he does expect, they say, is in the event of a revolt against Murphy's leadership he may be able to say that he contributed to it.

BARNEY OLDFIELD IS ROBBED OF $50,000

Mr. McIntyre was a lover of fine livestock and bought a number of fine horses to Wichita Falls.

BOYS APPLYING FOR SEED CORN

Much Interest Is Being Manifested Throughout the County in Clubs.

More than forty contestants in the Boy's Corn Clubs in Wichita county have applied at the Chamber of Commerce and have been given their allotments of seed corn.

Everywhere throughout the county there is great interest in the contest and it is urged that merchants and business men who contemplate offering additional prizes do so at once.

Secretary Day of the Chamber of Commerce reports Boy's Corn Clubs organized at Iowa Park, Holiday, Bowman, Mable Dean, Kemp and that clubs are now being organized at Burk Burnett and Clara. Already there have been more than a dozen entries here and a Wichita Falls Corn Club will be organized at an early date.

It is planned to call a meeting of all the clubs in the county in the near future, when the members will be addressed by practical corn growers relative to the best methods of cultivation.

THE LEGISLATURE IS TOUCHOUS

RESOLUTIONS IN ORDER THIS MORNING BUT FELL BY THE WAY.

THANKS HERE PROPOSED

Resolution As To Culberson's Attitude of Lorimer Expense Was Voted Down.

By Associated Press.
Austin, Tex., March 6.—In the House this morning Representatives Terrell of Cherokee and Shannon introduced a resolution inviting Senators Bailey and Lorimer to address the Texas Legislature on the subject of civility in politics. The resolution designated these two Senators as the "greatest living champions of civil virtue." The Bailey men protested and the speaker assured them that a second reading of the resolution would not be permitted. Representative Hill of Denton moved that both the resolution and the authors be sent to the insane asylum.

In the Senate Senator Vaughan introduced a resolution thanking Senator Culberson for his share in defeating the bill to reimburse Senator Lorimer to the extent of $25,000 for the expense incurred in the investigation. The motion was tabled by a vote of 13 to 12, with five present and not voting.

Toward noon Senator Vaughan again introduced his Culberson resolution. A long debate followed in which Senator Vaughan asserted that the Bailey supporters who voted against it would not be re-elected. Senator Hudspeth reflected on Senator Culberson's career. The Senate adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon when the discussion was resumed.

The last week of the regular session of the Thirty-second legislature began today with enough bills to keep the calendars of both houses to keep the solons busy for another month, at least, even with the customary pyrotechnics cut out. It is, therefore, considered safe to predict that there will be no adjournment sine die next Saturday.

Some of the house members who voted for the resolution to close the session March 11 are understood to have changed their minds lately and urged senators not to support it. They have not yet succeeded in having passed bills in which they are interested and do not care to return to their constituents with that kind of a record to their credit.

Among the prohibition senators there is disagreement over the proposition to quit the drive March 11.

Vaughan, Townsend, Terrell of Waco and Bryan are understood to be willing to work on for a couple of weeks longer at $2 per day. Sturgeon, Hatfield and Perkins are, however, credited with a desire to close up shop March 11.

The anti contingent talks as if it intended to insist upon staying here until the general appropriation bill and the legislative and senatorial redistricting bills, at least, are passed. With regard to the two last named the prohibitionist senators are in a quandary.

If they are not passed the west will continue to suffer the injustice of inadequate and inequitable representation, and it is a question with the prohibitionists whether they can afford to shoulder responsibility for this at this time.

CELESTE SUFFERS FROM BIG FIRE

By Associated Press.
Celeste, Texas, March 6.—Seventy-five thousand dollars damage resulted from a fire which at 4 o'clock this morning started in a restaurant, sweeping through six brick store and office buildings.

The State Bank of Celeste and the Courier newspaper office were among the heavy losers.

JUDGE EDGAR RYE.

JUDGE EDGAR RYE RESIGNS POSITION

WILL RETIRE AFTER ELEVEN YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE CITY.

SECRETARY AND RECORDER

Resignation Will Be Laid Before City Council Tomorrow Morning.

Judge Edgar Rye has filed his resignation as City Secretary and Recorder, and the resignation will be presented to the City Council at its regular meeting to be held tomorrow morning.

Asked regarding the matter this afternoon, the judge stated that he had nothing to give out further than was contained in the resignation, a copy of which is reproduced herewith. Judge Rye has been in the service of the city continuously for eleven years and has not only been faithful in the performance of his duties, but has been efficient as well, even to a degree characteristic of the career of few men in a like position.

Always courteous and considerate to the esteem of those who had but casual business with the city, while they were, supplemented by a devotion to duty and a conscientious regard for his oath of office, secured for him the admiration of those who were more closely associated with the city's affairs.

His resignation will be read with sincere regret by a host of friends who were pleased to know that the city was so fortunate as to have a man of Judge Rye's ability in this important position.

The judge has made no announcement as to his intentions as to the future.

The resignation as filed, is as follows:

To The Honorable City Council, Gentlemen:

In justice to myself, I have decided to submit to you my resignation as City Secretary and Recorder of the city of Wichita Falls, to take effect at your first meeting in April 1911, or as soon thereafter as the appointment and qualification of my successor in office.

I would be ungrateful, after serving in an official capacity for eleven years, if I failed to show my appreciation when retiring from the position, of the confidence reposed in me, of the withstanding I have held the office.

I realize that my tenure of office has been extended from term to term on a business basis of performing the duties of City Secretary and Recorder according to law, under the conditions and circumstances attending the growth of our city.

In the performance of these duties I am conscious that at all times I have tried to measure up to the responsibilities of the office, without favor or prejudice.

Whether I succeeded to the end of the day is a question for you to decide.

Walters has accepted the vacant reception place because of the fact that Colonel Roosevelt had restored Davis name to Little John Bridge.

FIRST CONVICTION IN JUVENILE COURT

HERMAN VOSS CONVICTED ON CHARGE OF DISTURBING THE PEACE.

SENTENCE IS SUSPENDED

Young Man Placed on Good Behavior Under The Care of Probation Officer.

County Judge C. B. Felder sat as Judge in the first juvenile court ever held in Wichita county this morning when Herman Voss was convicted on a charge of disturbing the peace. His punishment was assessed at not less than two nor more than five years in the State Institute for Training Juveniles at Gatesville.

Sentence was suspended however, pending the good behavior of Young Voss and he was placed under the care of probation Officer Webster.

The regular sessions of the juvenile court will be held hereafter at ten o'clock each Saturday morning in Judge Felder's office at the court house.

The law relative to juvenile court cases reads as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the sheriff or other officer executing the process to serve notice of the proceedings upon the parent or parents of the child."

"and the sheriff or officer executing the process may accept the verbal or written promise of such person so satisfied or any other proper person to be responsible for its appearance at the hearing of such case."

"In case such child shall fail to appear at such time or times as the court may require, the person or persons responsible for its appearance as herein provided for * * * may be proceeded against as in cases in contempt of court, and punished accordingly."

Chapter 109, Section 1:

Provides for the punishment of any person who in any way contributes to the delinquency of a child as follows:

"In all cases where a child shall be a delinquent child or a neglected or dependent child as defined in the statutes of this state, the parent or parents, legal guardian or persons having the custody of such child, or any person responsible for or who by any act encourages, causes or contributes to the delinquency of such child shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1000."

EVERYBODY WALKS IN OKLAHOMA CITY

THE STREET RAILWAY COMPANY MAKES NO EFFORT TO OPERATE CARS.

FREE OF TURBULENCE

First Real Labor Trouble in New State Metropolis Being Watched With Keen Interest.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 6.—Every car on the system of the Oklahoma City Street Railway company was stopped Sunday morning promptly at 10 o'clock, when the strike of the car men became effective, according to notice that had been given the company yesterday. The inauguration of the strike was attended by no scenes of violence and the cars were taken to the barns, where they will stay until the next development in the strike.

It had been said by the representatives of the company that new men would manage the cars and take them out directly after the strikers quit. An attempt was made to take out two of the cars after the time for the strike to begin, but striking car men good-naturedly took possession of the cars and asked the men to leave, which they did. In less than an hour after the strike was started every car had been run to the car barns.

A crowd of possibly 5,000 people gathered to witness the inauguration of the strike, which is the first of the kind for Oklahoma City and really the first strike of any importance in the history of the city.

The company declared this evening that it would not turn a wheel until it had been afforded ample protection by the city, county and state. What is to be done then is left to conjecture. The franchise held by the company from the city provides that one car shall be run each way over every line in the city every twenty-four hours, and does not make any provision in case of strikes.

A feature of the situation is that apparently the sympathy of the people is with the men, and hundreds of citizens are wearing "We walk" badges.

LARGE AUDIENCES HEAR PROH SPEAKERS

Attendance Larger and More Interest Manifest Than Ever Known in Prohibition Campaign.

The meetings held at the different churches and the union meeting at the Wichita Theatre conducted by the Anti-Saloon League yesterday, were characterized by larger audiences and more interest than any prohibition meetings held in Wichita Falls in recent years.

R. C. Dial of Clarendon, Rev. G. W. Eichleberger, of Fort Worth, Judge Blanton, of Abilene, Attorney Cummings of Fort Worth were the speakers.

At three o'clock in the afternoon a mass meeting was held at the Wichita Theatre which was attended by an audience of more than 400.

Attorney Cummings delivered the principal address.

His discourse was in the form of an indictment by the State of Texas vs. King Alcohol, his argument being presented in the form in which a prosecuting attorney makes out his case.

In addition to the out of town speakers, Judge A. H. Carrigan delivered an address at the Church of Nazarene Sunday evening.

Judge Edgar Scurry left this morning for a week's trip to St. Louis.

OLD SOLDIERS REVIVE CAMP

ORGANIZATION PERFECTED AT A MEETING HELD AT COURT HOUSE SUNDAY.

TWENTY-EIGHT ENROLLED

The Organization Will Be Known as "John C. Breckenridge Camp, U. C. V."

Pursuant to call the old Confederate soldiers held a meeting at the court house Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of passing resolutions on the death of Gen. W. I. Cabell and to perfect the organization of a camp of veterans at this place.

Major R. Cobb called the meeting to order and announced the purpose for which it was held, whereupon Judge Edgar Scurry was requested to read a draft of resolutions which were adopted as follows:

Dear Comrades:

Our Loving Heavenly Father in his goodness and wisdom has seen fit to take from our midst and gather unto himself our Beloved Brother—Gen. W. I. Cabell.

Be it resolved, That in the death of Gen. Cabell, his children have been deprived of a kind and loving father, and that in this hour of their great bereavement and sorrow, we extend to them our tenderest sympathy, and may the same Loving Father who to his infinite wisdom has taken from them their loved one, comfort and keep them, and bring peace to their bruised hearts, and

Be it resolved, That in the death of Gen. Cabell, the State has lost a wise councillor, and

Be it resolved, That in his death, we, his comrades in that great, but dearly loved cause of our beloved Southland, have lost a brave Comrade in the time of war, and an affectionate brother and a wise councillor in times of peace, and while it is with great sorrow that we hear of his death, it is a pleasing duty to add our testimony as to his sterling worth and greatness in every walk of life to which he was called.

Be it resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be handed the papers for publication and that a copy be sent to each of his family.

W. E. BROTHERS
R. COBB
H. C. YOUNG

Taking up the matter of the organization of a camp, Major Cobb suggested that the former camp, in existence some years ago, be revived, which sentiment met with the approval of the Comrades present and action was taken accordingly.

The matter of selecting a name for the camp was discussed by those present and it was decided to call it the "John C. Breckenridge Camp," after the well-known and popular Kentucky general.

NEW CONGRESS SESSION PLANS

CONFERENCES ARE GOING ON AND WORK TO BE DONE BEING OUTLINED.

MR. TAFT'S PROBLEM

Tariff Matters Are Sure to Come in For Much Consideration but Fate of Board Doubt.

Washington, March 6.—Assured of an extra session, the leaders Saturday night in congress arranged for a series of conferences to plan work that is to be done.

Tariff revision first and foremost on the program and the democratic members of the next ways and means committee will sit almost continuously until April 4 when the next congress meets. "We will immediately begin a revision of the tariff schedules downward," said Representative Underwood, chairman of the committee. "I believe that President Taft's reciprocity scheme will prevail, but it will not be the first thing on the calendar."

The committee has already practically completed the scheme for revising of the wool schedule and it is generally believed it will be the first point of attack. There will be a series of bills revising separate schedules and among the first to be passed will be bills placing the necessities of life on the free list.

The democrats will be more than busy from now on until the extra session meets, for in addition to the tariff work they must organize the house. An impromptu conference last night decided that within a week or two a caucus of the members of the next house will be called to officially endorse the work of the ways and means committee as a committee on committees. The committees have been practically completed and the ways and means committee wants to get them established so it can devote its whole time to the tariff.

On the question of giving Taft's tariff board bill a new chance, the democrats are doubtful. As a majority of the house democrats joined the Fitzgerald filibuster against it today, it is generally believed that the issue is a dead one for the next congress. The democrats do not relish any executive interference with their right to revise the tariff.

The democrats succeeded today in cutting down the appropriation bill for the present tariff board to $225,000 and limiting its use to the next fiscal year. This defeated President Taft's attempt to give the present board $400,000 to run it for the two years of the present democratic house.

Resolutions of Respect.

To the Officers and Members of Panhandle Lodge No. 341 I. O. O. F. We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions of respect on the death of our beloved Brother Suddith, beg to submit the following:

Whereas, Our beloved Father and Superior Officer has seen fit to remove from this earth and subordinate lodge our Brother W. H. Suddith, and that our lodge has lost a good, true Odd Fellow, one who not only wore the three links on his left breast but that he was ever ready to relieve the distressed, visit the sick and to practice the principals of friendship, love and truth, therefore be it

Resolved, That this lodge has lost a good and true Odd Fellow and the family a good father and in this sad hour of bereavement we can only point to our Father above, who alone can heal our sorrows and dry our tears.

We, as a lodge bow to the will of our Father, the Father of all men, and say, "Thy will be done," and hope to meet our Brother in the Grand Lodge above.

That we as a lodge extend to the family our sympathy in their loss, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the bereaved family and a copy be spread on our minutes and a copy be furnished the morning and evening papers for publication.

INTEREST CONTINUES IN CORN CONTESTS

Contestants Have Filed from One Hundred and Twelve Counties in the State.

Dallas, Texas, March 6.—Interest continues unabated in the competition for the valuable cash prizes aggregating $10,000 offered to the farmers of the state by the Texas Industrial Congress for the best yields of corn and cotton, and the Dallas headquarters of the Congress are deluged daily by a flow of applications.

The territory represented in the contest extends from the crimson waters of Red River, to the tawny current of the Rio Grande, from the "Llano Estacado" to the western boundary of Louisiana, contestants from 112 counties having tendered to date.

Collin county leads in the number of contestants, with fifty-one entries to date, Dallas county is second; Kaufman third; Johnson fourth; Falls fifth and Hill and Limestone counties are tied for sixth place. Entries in the contest will not be received after April 1st, and as but a few weeks remain until the date, those who intend trying for the rich prizes, ranging from $100 to $2,500, are urged to send in their names at once to the Industrial Congress at Dallas. SOCIETY NEWS.
Many Women Now Doing Without False Hair.

Hair and other false paraphernalia for the upbuilding of woman's thinning hair may be necessary, but the sight is far from pleasing.

With care nature can supply to most women all the hair necessary for attractive dressing.

Many thousands of women, refined and educated, have learned that it is not hard to have and to keep an abundance of lustrous hair, if Parisian Sage the hair grower is used daily.

Since its introduction into America, Parisian Sage has become a prime favorite with women who desire luxuriant hair that will not fall out or turn gray, used daily it will keep the scalp immaculately clean; will stop itching and falling hair, and remove every particle of dandruff.

It causes the hair to grow because it is able to penetrate into the roots, where it besides nourishing the hair, destroys the dandruff germs. O. F. Marchman and druggists everywhere guarantee Parisian Sage to do exactly as advertised, or money back. A large bottle only costs 50 cents, and it is a most invigorating and refreshing hair dressing. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

Wichita Falls, Texas, March 6, 1911.

Senator Bailey has recalled his resignation. This is no surprise to his enemies, and is of course, pleasing to his friends, some of whom, no doubt, will flatter themselves by believing that the distinguished gentleman was influenced or over-persuaded by the flood of telegrams they sent him asking and insisting that he reconsider. Of course the telegrams were sent, perhaps thousands of them, but it was all just a waste of money.

Senator Culberson not only voted against the resolution to exonerate Lorimer, but also was instrumental in defeating the appropriation of $25,000 to pay Lorimer's expenses while making the fight to retain his seat. His course should be endorsed by the Texas legislature in this matter, and would be, no doubt, were it not that such an endorsement might be construed as a slap at Senator Bailey. Senator Bailey's friends are in the majority in this legislature, and though Culberson was elected as a Democrat and has been in line at all times with the National Democracy, the same legislature which re-elected him without a dissenting vote, will refuse to endorse his acts for the reasons as above given.

The Texas Commercial Secretaries Association is authority for the statement that the uncultivated area of Texas exceeds the total area of the thirteen original states with two exceptions—Georgia and South Carolina, and is in excess of all states bordering on the Atlantic Ocean from Maine to North Carolina inclusive, and is sufficient to support all the people in the United States, using as a basis two acres of cultivated land per capita, the average for the world. This land is not lacking in fertility, but in farmers to cultivate it. As proof that Texas soil is rich and produces well, her soil produces one bale of cotton annually for every man, woman and child in the State, and leads all States in the production of cotton, cattle and mules. Stands third in horses and hogs and fourth in wheat. Come to Texas.

The cotton mill proposition to come up before the people of Wichita Falls on Wednesday night at the court house is one that should appeal strongly to every citizen of this city as well as to the farmers. In order to secure this enterprise, it will be necessary to raise by stock subscriptions one-half of the capital stock of $400,000. This mill, if secured, will run 20,000 spindles and furnish employment to at least 250 people. There are many cotton mills in Texas that are being successfully operated, some of them paying as high as 30 per cent annually on the investment. Last year Wichita county produced about 11,000 bales of cotton and the capacity of this 20,000 spindle mill is said to be 7,000 bales annually. The Times' object in mentioning this is to show that cotton crops of Wichita county alone will more than justify the establishment of a cotton mill in this city and the fact that this city has cheap fuel—both natural gas, coal and fuel oil, is an item not to be overlooked in the operating of a large manufacturing enterprise. The mass meeting called for that purpose should be well attended, and nothing that can be should be left undone that will land the proposition. Keep the meeting in mind, and if you are a friend to Wichita Falls, attend it. Even if you are unable to subscribe for stock yourself, you can encourage the enterprise by your presence.

APPROPRIATION BILL HAS BEEN PREPARED

The Bill Shows a General Advance Over That of Two Years Ago.

Austin, Tex., March 6.—The totals for the various departments of the State government that will appear in the general appropriation bill have been announced by joint committee of the House and Senate which has been preparing the bill.

As has been heretofore announced the bill shows a general advance over that of two years ago. This is specially true of the appropriation for the University and Agricultural and Mechanical College. The University for two years gets $800,000, as against $590,000 two years ago. The Agricultural and Mechanical College gets $536,550, as against $314,000.

As a whole, the bill shows a general advance over the previous bill and would be larger than the bill reported out of the committee in the Thirty-first Legislature were it not for the fact that that bill carried an item of more than a million dollars in the miscellaneous column, which was cut out by the governor and which is not in this bill, the miscellaneous appropriation being only about $12,000.

Educational Body Incorporates.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 6.—The Pennsylvania State Educational Association, which for many years has ranked among the largest and most influential State teachers' organizations in the country, today made application to the Daughlin county court for incorporation. The object of the association in incorporating is to give it the necessary legal status in creating and collecting funds to be used in the betterment of the school system of the State. President C. A. Herrick of Girard College and Dr. Nathan C. Schaeffer, State superintendent of public instruction, are among the incorporators.

HUMOR OF THE DAY.

Voice over Telephone—Hello, is that you, darling?
Miss Coquette—Yes; who is talking.

Tom—It was a case of love at first sight with me.
Jack—Then why didn't you marry her?

Tom—I saw her again on several occasions.

Sufferer (to lady in front)—Madam, if you were to remove your hat I could see the play.

Lady (with manifestation of surprise)—Yes, but you could not see my new hat.

"Love your neighbor as yourself," said the minister with great earnestness.

"Thomas," said the lady who lived next door to a pretty young widow to her husband, "come away; this is no place for you."

Teacher—Johnny, what part of speech is nose?
Johnny—Tisn't any.
Teacher—Ah, but it must be.
Johnny—Maybe your is, because you talk through it; but the only part of speech I've got is my mouth.

The grocer's boy was lumbering up the kitchen stairway with his arms full of packages. "Boy," said the mistress of the house somewhat sharply, "are your feet clean?"
"Yes'm," he answered, still climbing the stairs; "it's only me shoes that's dirty."

A Sermon on Advertising

The Rev. Dr. Frank Crane contributed to the Chicago Evening Post a most scholarly and philosophical analysis of the Chapman-Alexander revival. There was not a line in Dr. Crane's article which was not valuable to the one who read it. The particular paragraphs which we marked for comment were these:

"He aims at the Religious Feeling. But there is nothing wild or the orotic nor haphazard about his aim. He goes at it as a man goes about running for office. He knows every element that enters into the matter. He profits from the evangelistic experiments of a hundred and fifty years. He makes no mistakes. Every move, every word, every detail is calculated.

Before he comes to town the affair must be carefully planned. All the churches of the evangelistic order are enlisted. Committees are appointed. Finances are concisely figured. There are captains of tens and of fifties. The battle host is a disciplined army, not a mob.

Advertising is liberally provided for. Signs and banners are painted. The newspapers are enlisted. There is not an advertising agency in Chicago or elsewhere that could not learn something from J. Wilbur Chapman."

Further along in his article, Dr. Crane says of Rev. Mr. Chapman: "He organizes his meetings as a gigantic piece of machinery, all adjusted to bear upon one point, the Will, as influenced by the Religious Feeling."

Now let your eyes go back and re-read the paragraphs we quoted first, and when you come to the line: "There is not an advertising agency in Chicago or elsewhere that could not learn something from J. Wilbur Chapman," you, with us, will say, "Amen."

The thought that came to us, moreover, is that there is not an advertiser who can not profit by the study of ways and means of this wonderful revival. The marshaling of the forces, the awakening of public interest, the attracting of crowds and the convincing of the hearers—all this wonderfully complete system is recognizing human nature and its wants and needs and then appealing to men from those vantage points—all this is, if we may be permitted to say so, the highest type of advertising. It is the science of advertising put upon the noblest plane. It is not only advertising happiness in the life to come, but advertising peace and content in this, is it not?

So! Well, then, let us agree with you that there is a difference between business and religion. All right. But there isn't any difference in the right way of convincing a man of the merits of goods and the right way of convincing him of the merits of right living. Chapman knows humanity, because he has studied it on the spiritual side and not on the financial side. He knows that when you appeal to a man's reason, to his impulse, to his hope, you are going a long way toward convincing him.

He knows, also, that the mere appeal isn't enough. There must be concerted effort, organized work. A cumulative influence must be exerted—so that one man tells another and the other tells another, and so on till there is a wave of interest.

One word more, Mr. Advertiser. Chapman believes in what he advertises. There is nothing so contagious as belief. Enthusiasm is catching, but enthusiasm wilts. Curiosity may be aroused, but curiosity is fickle. Belief grows.

So this is our little sermon on advertising, using the Chapman revival as a text: Study the field, deploy your forces, be ready to care for the inquirer, be sure you satisfy the inquiries, be prepared to meet the bills, instruct your lieutenants, be ready when you begin—and show by every word and action that you believe in your campaign. And, first, last, and all the time, believe, for belief makes believers.

LEADERSHIP IN NEW CONGRESS

PASSING OF NOTED FIGURE HAS ENFORCED NECESSITY FOR FRESH SELECTION.

WARREN IS IN LINE

For Republicans He May Assume That
Role in Ranks of Democrats
There is Uncertainty.

Washington, March 6.—An immediate issue as to leadership in the new Senate is raised by the fact that an extra session has been called. As there will be a complete transformation in the opinion of the membership marked by the rise of progressives, selection will have to be made from members who have had a minor part in the direction of affairs.

While Aldrich was in the Senate there was no concern about the question, because the Rhode Island Senator personally conducted the Senate and dictated practically all action. With him, however, have gone his lieutenants, Hale of Maine, Keane of New Jersey, Burrows of Michigan and Scott of West Virginia.

Dictators Are One.

There is, of course, no possibility of another dictator, but it will be necessary to organization with leaders to get results. Warren of Wyoming, it is generally believed, will be made chairman of the committee on appropriations and made head man of the shattered Republican ranks of the regulars. Gallinger of New Hampshire, Penrose of Pennsylvania, Smoot of Utah, Lodge and Crane of Massachusetts will be the cabinet of the standard-bearers.

They will not go far, it is believed, without considering the progressives, who a few years ago were regarded by the Aldrich crowd as strong-minded rebels whose wishes were of no consequence. They will hold the balance of power in the new Senate and no important action can be taken without their consent. As to the progressives they all are regarded as leaders, and as they stand together for all progressive legislation they are expected to get along well without coaching.

Bailey Is Passing.

Bailey of Texas had been the democratic leader of the House before coming to the Senate and he is familiar with every turn in the maze of parliamentary procedure. He is now the floor leader of the democrats, but he can not unite his forces.

Bacon of Georgia, who is the senior democrat, will have much to do with the direction of party affairs even though he is not made the titular leader. Culbertson of Texas, Stone of Missouri, Williams, the new senator from Mississippi, Owen of Oklahoma, Clarke of Arkansas and Overman of North Carolina will have leading places in the organization. Shively of Indiana would shine if it were not that he is handicapped by ill health.

Interested in Newcastle.

Last Sunday there was a special train here from Wichita Falls bringing all the officers of the Coal Company and also the officials of the Wichita Falls & Southern Railway Company. They had nothing to give out, but we are told by those who claim to know that they were here purely for the purpose of inspecting the mines and taking in the situation generally. The only thing that they gave out was that they were highly pleased with the working of the mines and growth of our town and that they were ready to get behind us with the money on any proposition which was worthy and plausible. Kemp, Kell and Perkins are town builders and everyone who knows these gentlemen personally know that when they get behind a proposition it goes. —Newcastle Register.

Supragists to Storm Legislature.

Chicago, Ill., March 6.—Members of the woman suffrage organizations of Chicago and vicinity are going to Springfield tomorrow to find out why the State legislature in session there does not enact the necessary legislation that will enable them to vote. It is expected that at least five hundred women will make the trip. Women of national reputation are to head the party, among them Miss Jane Adams, Mrs. Catherine Waugh, Mrs. Hannah G. Solomon and Mrs. M. Heenroth. The trip to Springfield and return will be made in a special train and it many of the principal towns along the route rear-end platform speeches will be delivered by the equal suffrage leaders.

ALFALFA SMITH WILL GIVE BIG BARBECUE

Much Interested in Work of Texas
Industrial Congress in This State.

Dallas, Tex., March 6.—Col. R. E. Smith of Sherman, perhaps better known throughout the State as "Alfalfa Smith," because he is the largest producer of alfalfa hay and seed in the South, is taking an active interest in the efforts of the Texas Industrial Congress to better agricultural methods, and besides entering the $10,000 corn and cotton growing contest himself, he is also encouraging his tenants to compete for the prizes by offering additional prizes to any of them who may be successful in the State contest. At an early date Col. Smith will give a big barbecue on his farm to the members of the boys' corn clubs in Grayson County, and will entertain all of them for two days and a night. The program will include speeches and lectures by expert corn and cotton growers, music, various amusements, an inspection of the land where Col. Smith's tenants will grow prize corn and cotton, a full discussion of the methods to be used in raising these crops, the kind of seed and the fertilizers to be employed. As entries in the Industrial Congress contest will close April 1, the barbecue will be held this month in time for contestants to enter for the State prizes. From five to six hundred boys will be Col. Smith's guests, the occasion will mark a "red letter day" in the history of the Grayson County Corn Clubs.

"This Is My 54th Birthday."

Hon. Horace Archambault, judge of the court of appeal of Quebec, was born in L'Assomption, Quebec, March 6, 1857, and received his education at L'Assomption College and Laval University. Soon after leaving the last named institution he was called to the bar and began the practice of law in Montreal. He attained high prominence in the legal profession and in 1882 he was appointed professor of commercial and maritime law in Laval University. From 1897 until 1905 Mr. Archambault served as attorney general of the Province of Quebec and in 1908 he was appointed to his present position as a judge of the court of appeal.

ALL THE WRITING ALWAYS IN SIGHT

(The biggest order ever placed by any firm or corporation for typewriters for their own use) because their own mechanical experts, sitting as a jury, said it was unquestionably the best.

They examined all competing makes, tested them under every condition of stress and strain, and voted unanimously in favor of the L. C. Smith & Bros. The Duponts thus rendered you an invaluable service. Lacking mechanical experts of your own you can safely rely upon the decision of these five engineers, at the height of their calling, who were willing to stake their professional reputation on the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter. Many large concerns have already been guided by this expert opinion and have standardized, as the Duponts did, with the typewriter that stood the test. There could be no test more thorough, or more unbiased decisions.

TODAY'S BEST STORY.

British politics and politicians are very much to the fore just now, and a careful index of the daily papers would probably show that Mr. Asquith is the most talked of man at the present moment.

The house of commons from the first recognized in him a great master of debate, and for this he has largely to thank his training as a lawyer. His speeches are careful, precise, and polished and he rarely makes mistakes. Once, however, in the midst of an unusually eloquent speech he informed his hearers that his party would not abate its just demands—"no, not by one tit or tottle."

A delightful chuckle came from some one near. Mr. Asquith glared at the offender, recognized the blunder and proceeded to correct himself. "I mean, of course, not by one tit or tottle."

Then he hurried on, lest a worse thing should happen.

After some years of absence a very wealthy merchant returned to England from one of the hottest parts of India. As soon as he arrived he complained of the cold and from that time on he could never keep warm.

Some months afterward he was taken ill, and at last life was pronounced extinct. As he had expressed a wish to be cremated, his body was forthwith taken to a crematorium and placed in the oven. The time having arrived for the ashes to be removed the attendant opened the door. To his surprise he heard a voice exclaim:

"Shut the door, you idiot! This is the first time I have been warm since I came home."

Announcement.

Having succeeded Dr. Waller in the practice of dentistry in this city, I desire to announce that my dental offices are the best equipped in this end of the State. Everything absolutely clean and sanitary and I always have a lady attendant in my office. My prices are as reasonable as in consistent with first-class material and workmanship.

All my work absolutely guaranteed. And the very best of reference can be furnished as to my reliability, gentlemanly conduct and proficiency in dentistry. I solicit your patronage in my line. Dr. R. M. Garrison, Dentist, office over First National Bank—Phone 49.

Insurrectos Control Road.
El Paso, Texas, March 5.—Colonel Rabago and 500 federal soldiers left here Sunday to attempt to reopen the Mexican-National railway to Chihuahua. No trains have been operating since January 28. Colonel Rabago only came in Friday from a week's trip down the same line.

Chihuahua is short on provisions, with the railroad cut north and south, and a desperate effort is being made now to open the line from here. Insurrectos declare it will never be opened until after Chihuahua has fallen into their hands. They claim to have enough "flying squadrons" to cut the track and keep it cut. The track is now repaired south from Juarez to Montezuma, 111 miles. Chihuahua is 225 miles.

Despite the assertion by federal officials that the city of Chihuahua has provisions sufficient for two months, El Paso merchants in close touch with conditions of the Mexican city say that the food situation of Chihuahua is rapidly becoming serious.

El Paso is the base of supplies for all imports into Chihuahua, and merchants here are appalled that coffee is selling in Chihuahua at $4 a pound and sugar at $1 a pound, with other staples in proportion.

The Mexican Central railroad is apparently under complete control of the insurrectos both north and south of Chihuahua, and no supplies have passed the blockade since the latter part of February. Passenger traffic is at a standstill from Juarez south, and the Wells Fargo Express company has instructed its agent at Juarez to receive no shipments for points between Juarez and Zacatecas, on the Mexican Central, a distance of nearly 1,000 miles.

Officials of the Mexican Central and Mexican Northwestern railways say that both roads have been com-

THE NEW CITY CHARTER

Should provide that all female manufacturers learn English and take a bath on Tuesday after the first Monday in June each year, that the city maintain a shot gun quarantine to prevent an epidemic of the foreign townsite artist who is out to sell the dear "peepul" a lot in Podunk on the great northern carpet bag and valise railroad from Nasen to Nowhere, and give them a chance to draw one of the west-coast counties, and that the street jewelry grafter reduce the price of his solid gold watches to eighty-nine cents the dozen in order that the unwise may get soaked with a stuffed club instead of getting laid out with a lead pipe.

And should provide in addition to the heretofore mentioned that when you get ready to unbelt and get frisky with the coin don't overlook that fussy pill plant, where you can cut from your cash with more system and less noise than any place in this beautiful world. We do different.
