Nation Today Pays Tribute In Ceremonies

Wreaths Placed On Tombs; Sports On Afternoon Card

(By The Associated Press)

Shells burst anew over veterans' cemeteries in Flanders field today as Americans once again paid Memorial day tribute to the unknown soldier and his thousands of fellows who died just 22 years ago in the war to end all wars.

Much of the nation paused to observe the holiday and place wreaths on graves of the dead of all wars buried at home. But war and fear of war sent President Roosevelt into conference with his new national defense commission and denied Congress its usual holiday.

Smith Acts For FDR

The president, who customarily places a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier, designated his military aide, Maj. Horace B. Smith, to lead the nation's observance in Arlington national cemetery. Major Smith fought in France in the World war.

Congress pored over several bills to strengthen the national defenses.

After Major Smith's visit to the tomb, veterans' organizations were to place wreaths there every two minutes until 12:25 p. m. Boy Scouts decorated the graves in Arlington and Paul V. McNutt, past national commander of the American Legion, delivered the principal address there.

Parade Is Scheduled

Other Washington observances include a parade on Constitution avenue by veterans organizations and patriotic groups.

The present European war brought startling developments in Detroit and Philadelphia plans for the day.

In Detroit, Herbert Busse, German submarine commander in the World war and commander of the German veterans' post, said his group had withdrawn from the pa-

County Population Figures Announced

Population figures for two counties, showing a loss for Crosby and a gain for Haskell, were made public this morning by Robert H. Bean, district census supervisor.

Figures were preliminary, it was pointed out, and are subject to revision.

Crosby county's population was given as 10,050 as of April 1 this year, compared to 11,023 ten years before. Decrease was 973 or 8.8 per cent.

Haskell county's population was 3,050 this year compared to 2,632 April 1, 1930, a net gain of 418 persons or 15.9 per cent.

Lubbock county is the only other county with population announced. Figures were 51,490, an increase of 12,386 in the decade.

Cousin Of Britain's King Dies In Action

LONDON, May 30 (AP)—Lord Frederick Cambridge, a first cousin of King George VI, has been killed in action, it was learned in London today.

Lord Frederick, a captain in the Coldstream Guards, was the second son of Queen Mary's oldest brother, the last Marquess of Cambridge.

He was reported Sunday as missing in action.

Rains Are Reported For Some Sections

Light rains fell Wednesday night northwest and west of Lubbock according to a report this morning by Santa Fe railroad dispatchers.

Rainfall was as follows: Texico, .06 of an inch; Muleshoe, half inch; Sudan, three quarters; Amherst, half; Anton, quarter; Shallowater, eighth; Whiteface, half; Lehman, half; Bledsoe, eighth; O'Donnell, light shower.

TO IMPOSE PENALTIES

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—Congress has voted to impose penalties up to a $500 fine and a year's imprisonment on stowaways caught aboard ships in American waters.

WILBUR SHAW

Wilbur Shaw Wins Classic

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, May 20—Wilbur Shaw, Indianapolis, won the 500-mile automobile race today to the acclaim of 142,000 spectators. It was his third triumph.

Rex Mays of Glendale, Calif., was second, 2 1-2 miles behind.

The race was stopped then on account of rain.

Averages 114.277 Mph.

Shaw covered the distance in 4:22:31.16 to average 114.277 miles an hour.

Mauri Rose, Columbus, O., was given third position; Ted Horn, Hawthorne, N. J., fourth; Joe Thorne, Tucson, Ariz., fifth; Bob Swanson, Los Angeles, sixth; Frank Wearne, Pasadena, seventh; Mel Hansen, Los Angeles, eighth; Frank Brisko, Chicago, ninth and Harry McQuinn, Indianapolis, tenth.

Nineteen of the original 33 starters remained when the red flag was hung out stopping the race. They were given the positions which they held at the time.

Dodgers Get But One Hit Off Of Hubbell

BROOKLYN, May 30 (AP)— Carl Hubbell, the New York Giants veteran southpaw, allowed the Dodgers only one hit today, a single by John Hudson in the third inning, to gain a 7 to 0 shutout over the National league leaders. He walked none and faced only 27 men in nine innings. A capacity crowd of about 35,000 was present for the doubleheader.

YANKS BLANK SOX

NEW YORK, May 30 (AP)— Red Ruffing allowed only two hits, none until the eighth inning, as the New York Yankees shutout the league leading Boston Red Sox 4 to 0 today in the first game of a doubleheader. It was the world champions' sixth straight victory and third of the season for Ruffing.

REDS BEAT CUBS

CHICAGO, May 30 (AP)—Driving in three runs with a triple and double, Harry Craft led Cincinnati to a 4 to 2 triumph over the Cubs before 29,000 spectators in the first game of their holiday double header today. Paul Derringer minimized ten hits for his fifth victory.

PHILADELPHIA WINS

BOSTON, May 30 (AP)—Philadelphia won the opening game of a double header from the Boston Bees today by a 5 to 1 tally. Kirby Higbe held the Bees to five hits. Chet Ross hit a homer in the fourth inning.

INDIANS DOWN CHICAGO

CLEVELAND, May 30 (AP)—A double and a single in the fifth netting one run and three hits in the eighth for two more enabled Cleveland to defeat Chicago, 3 to 1, in the first game of a doubleheader here today. Kreevich hit a home run in the ninth for Chicago's only tally.

TIGERS BEST BROWNS

DETROIT, May 30 (AP) — Rudy York's double that scored Hank Greenberg from first base in the ninth inning gave the Detroit Tigers a 2 to 1 decision over the St. Louis Browns in the opening game of a doubleheader today. Greenberg hit a homer in the seventh.

End Of World For Drowsy Dunkerque

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The "end of the world" has come to the drowsy port of Dunkerque and the English channel.

History of warfare never before has put together such a picture of savage chaos on land and sea and in air as has developed from the Allied attempt to salvage what lives they can from the hundreds of thousands of their troops who had been trapped by the Hitlerites.

Air And Sea Battle

For the first time we have a major battle between the German forces of the air and the Anglo-French ships of war as the Allies struggle to perform the all but impossible task of getting their broken troops embarked for withdrawal. It is the initial test of strength on a large scale between the air and sea.

German reports claim the sinking of British warships and transports. That's not surprising. We know without being told that many vessels will go down in the fury of the conflict, and that a great number of airplanes will be destroyed.

We know too that thousands of men must be struggling in the choppy waters of the channel almost within sight of their beloved cliffs of Dover.

Major German Victory

So we haven't reached the end of the blitzkrieg which the Germans say will finish the war. The battle of Flanders is just one phase of Hitler's great gamble. So what next?

First we must note that the gallant stand made by the Allied armies of the north in Flanders has enabled the French to consolidate a line right across northern France from Abbeville on the channel eastward along the Somme river and clear to the Maginot fortifications.

Halted In Rush

This means, by the way, that the Nazi forces have been halted in their rush a very considerable distance short of the territory which the kaiser overran in the early days of the World war.

That line is not only for the defense of Paris, but for the far more vital purpose of preventing a disastrous break-through by the Germans in their avowed effort to crush the entire French army. The line also provides the kicking-off place for offensive operations against the invaders.

Hitler now would seem to have two lines which he can pursue. He can attempt his project of invading England, now that he has won the battle of Flanders, or he can try to smash southward to Paris and knock the French out.

Seek More Neutrals

In this connection the German press today is charging that Britain and France are trying to persuade Switzerland and Portugal to accept Allied protection. The Nazis say the Allies are making "another effort to bring more neutrals into the war."

That sort of comment having preceded all the recent German invasions of neutral territory, one naturally wonders whether Herr Hitler is getting ready to try to take over Switzerland in an effort to turn the French right wing where the Maginot line ends. If that is his purpose, then presumably he will try the assault on France before he essays the English channel.

However, we shall have to wait a bit to see, for there is no present indication of the fuehrer's plans.

Civilian Plight Pitiful

This detonation of great bombs as they rip at the foundations of empires tends, I fear, to make us overlook the plight of civilians in the fighting zone. The speed of mechanized warfare turns peaceful

Nazis Claim Trapped Men Are Destroyed By Monster Attack

As The Germans Tell It

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, May 30.—British and French armies in the Flanders-Artois trap have been destroyed, the German high command announced today, and the German air force has sunk three Allied warships and 16 transports trying to effect withdrawals from the pocket.

British and French troops able to reach the channel coast through the raking bombardment of the German air force and artillery were said to have plunged into the sea, trying to swim to the small British boats lying at anchor to carry them away.

Boats Are Targets

These boats and protecting warships were the particular targets of the German fighter and destroyer units in the air.

More than 60 ships were said to have been hit by the rain of bombs, including the three warships and 16 transport vessels reported sunk.

Ten warships and 21 merchant ships of "all sizes" were reported "seriously damaged or fired."

The high command said the battle of Flanders and Artois is "nearing an end with destruction of the English and French armies fighting there."

The British expeditionary force, caught with French forces in the Flanders-Artois trap after the Belgian surrender, is "in complete dissolution," said the high command.

Are Fleeing To Sea

Leaving "enormous" quantities of war material behind, the British are fleeing to the sea, according to the Germans.

Anti-aircraft artillery, firing point blank at Allied boats seeking to remove the shattered forces from the channel shore, was credited with sinking one patrol boat and damaging 10 others, including five speed boats.

Pursuit and destroyer plane units protecting the "monster attack" of the German land forces shot down 68 Allied planes, the high command said.

Mrs. Burleson Gets 12 Years

(By The Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, S. C., May 30. — Judge G. Duncan Bellinger sentenced Mrs. May Walker Burleson of Galveston, Texas, to 12 years in the penitentiary today. She was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the slaying of the second wife of her divorced husband, Col. Richard C. Burleson, of the U. S. army.

The judge said in passing sentence, he would have given the 51-year-old defendant the maximum of 30 years permissible under the verdict if the jury had not recommended mercy.

Branded Assassination

"If the jury had not recommended mercy in this case, I would have given her the limit. This was an assassination." Bellinger said of the slaying, in which Mrs. Burleson shot Mrs. Isabel Knowlton Burleson in the back as she sat in a hotel cafeteria March 8.

Mrs. Burleson gave no sign of emotion as she heard the sentence pronounced.

Bellinger termed the shooting "a sordid case" and asserted:

"The laws of this state shall be restricted by those in the higher

BELGIANS FIGHT ON

PARIS, May 30 (AP) — A Belgian government spokesman said today seven groups of Belgian soldiers still were fighting with the Allies despite King Leopold's orders to surrender. The number of men was not known.

The War In Brief

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN—Battle of Flanders reported "nearing the end with the destruction of the English and French"; German air force says it sank three Allied warships and 16 transports in smashing at channel withdrawal, damaged 10 warships and 21 merchant ships; artillery credited with sinking one patrol boat and damaging 10 other small craft; 89 Allied planes reported destroyed.

ROME—Italian cabinet summoned for important session next Tuesday, may send Italy to war; Americans speed up homeward flight.

LONDON — Royal Air Force reports 52 German planes shot down, including 25 bombers, and 17 damaged in attacks over French and Belgian coasts; Nazi seaplane base raided, supply ship set afire at Bergen, Norway; press warns public against German campaign to split Allies over causes of defeat in Flanders.

PARIS — French report violent fighting in Flanders, along Yser river and near Cassel; Allied warships and planes cooperate to cover retreat from trap.

STOCK HOLM — German troops withdrawing from Allied-occupied Narvik in danger of being trapped by Norwegian forces guarding frontier.

Americans Stranded And Without Funds

LONDON, May 30 (AP)—Several hundred Americans are stranded in Great Britain and Ireland without the $300 each asked for passage to the United States on the liner President Roosevelt sailing from Galway, Ireland, next week.

United States lines officials said "about 300" Americans already have booked passage.

Although the state department forwarded "a small sum of money" to Joseph P. Kennedy, ambassador to London, to assist in the removal of Americans, no regular fund exists for repatriation of Americans in Europe.

Duce Summons His Cabinet

(By The Associated Press)

ROME, May 30.—Premier Mussolini has summoned his cabinet for next Tuesday to discuss "important matters" and some foreign quarters believed that action might be taken then to plunge Italy into war.

The possibility that a war decision might be announced that day or shortly afterward, however, was only a matter of conjecture.

Unusually Important

The cabinet decided on the June 4 meeting when it last met, May 1, but publication today by most newspapers of a reminder that the meeting had been arranged was considered an indication that the session would be unusually important.

United States consular officials received instructions to advise Americans seeking to leave Italy but unable to get accommodations on the United States liner Manhattan to go to Bordeaux, France, and board the liner Washington.

Fascist Italy worked feverishly today preparing for the moment to which Premier Mussolini has been looking forward for nearly two decades—when the nation should go to war for her "aspirations."

While foreign and Italian observers expected a decisive step by Italy within a few days, the United States liner Manhattan began to take passengers and freight aboard at Genoa.

U. S. lines officials hoped the ship could leave for home tomorrow, a day ahead of schedule, but this was

Defense Fund Hiked Another Billion Dollars

Tanks, Guns, Planes And Munitions Are To Be Turned Out

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 30. The administration raised the nation's armament bill by more than $1,000,000,000 today, while President Roosevelt conferred with the new defense commission on methods of spending swiftly a $4,300,000,000 war chest for national defense.

The billion-dollar addition was decided upon by Mr. Roosevelt after conferences with army and navy officers on changes in warfare disclosed by the recent fighting in Europe.

Send Message Friday

Stephen Early, White House secretary, said in disclosing this that the chief executive hoped to send a message to Congress tomorrow asking for the new funds, which would be used to supply critical needs for tanks, guns, planes, munitions and material reserves.

In his previous defense message, last week, Mr. Roosevelt requested $1,182,000,000. The Senate wrote part of this into the regular army appropriation bill, raising the total to $1,823,000,000, and the rest into the regular navy bill, raising funds for that branch of the armed forces to $1,473,000,000.

Thus addition of another billion dollars would mean a total defense outlay this session of $4,300,000,000.

The president, Early reported, also will request legislative action to permit expanded training of men for both combatant and non-combatant purposes.

Would Train CCC

Almost simultaneous with Early's disclosures, Senator Byrnes, acting with approval of President Roosevelt, proposed that the pending relief bill be amended to provide for training Civilian Conservation corps enrollees in non-combatant activities essential to the army and navy in wartime.

Regarding the defense commission meeting, the White House said that all members of the cabinet, except Secretary Hull and Postmaster General Farley, had been invited to sit in on the meeting so the new commission could become acquainted with them and so the cabinet would have the necessary background.

There was no immediate explanation as to why Hull and Farley were not invited, although there was unofficial speculation that they would not be directly concerned with the commission's work. It was also reported that Secretary Perkins would be unable to attend.

Others Are Invited

Also invited to the meeting were General George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations; Harold Smith, budget director; Sen-

12 British Fighters Blast 37 Germans

LONDON, May 30 (AP)—A single squadron of 12 British Defiant fighting planes shot down 37 German planes yesterday, the air ministry announced today.

On morning patrol the squadron shot down 17 fighters and a dive bomber and in the afternoon 19 and possibly 21 German bombers, the ministry said.

One British gunner, believing that his plane was vitally hit, took to his parachute over Belgium, but with that exception every man and machine returned safely.

Wheat Growers Hold Meet At Plainview

PLAINVIEW, May 30 (AP)—Resolutions approved by wheat producers in seven Plains counties were dispatched today at Attorney General Gerald C. Mann's fact-finding committee on discriminatory rates.

H. S. Hilburn, chairman of the committee of the Plainview Board of City Development, sent the resolutions after a meeting attended by 47 wheat growers.

Growers pointed out that since 1913 wheat rates from the Plains points had been increased 75 to 133 per cent while the nation over had received only a 45 per cent increase.

Mann was asked to investigate existing grain rates and to be prepared "to defend the producer's interests" in basic rates, as well as grain transit privileges so that "any rate revisions will be clean-cut, fair and equitable saving to producers and shippers of wheat and coarse grains."

America Keeping Close Touch On Her Many War Veterans

BY EDDY GILMORE

WASHINGTON, May 30—The nation's honors on this Memorial day go to the unknown soldier whose marble tomb rises on the Arlington hills across the Potomac—a wreath from President Roosevelt . . . a program of soft music, word tributes . . . an unending line of hushed, respectful visitors.

But in government forces, case after case of records tells of a host of known and unknown soldiers . . . A study of America and its wars . . . a picture of death and dollars.

Over at the veterans administration, for instance, a statistician can tell you in less than it would take to dodge a bomb that 119 American veterans will die before midnight.

Ninety-one, on the daily average, will be survivors of the World war.

Twenty-three will be Spanish American veterans.

Wave Of Support For New Defense Taxes Sweeping Over Congres

Slight Delays Are Expected

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 30.—A wave of support for new defense taxes swept through Congress today but arguments over the directly-related subjects of the federal debt limit and economy raised the possibility of indefinite delay.

Suggestions came from both Democrats and Republicans that Congress should return in August after the political conventions to work out general tax legislation.

Concern Is Expressed

House Republicans expressed concern that Mr. Roosevelt might use part of the proposed $3,000,000,000 increase in the $45,000,000,000 debt limit to meet general government expenses, rather than devoting it entirely to national defense purposes.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House ways and means committee said, however, that there was a definite plan to earmark the money for defense.

"Congressional tax experts are drafting a bill to increase income, excise and amusement taxes to provide new revenue to get out of the hole it has got itself into," said Rep. Treadway (R-Mass), ranking minority member of the ways and means committee.

Should Cut Expenses

"If we're going into all these things we ought to include, say, a 10 per cent cut in all government expenditures."

Considerable sentiment was developing for separation of the debt limit and tax questions, rather than lumping them together in a single bill. Republican ways and means committeemen said that they would insist on the procedure, and Senator Van Nuys (D-Ind) said that many in the Senate agreed.

The tax program struck its first snag in the Senate yesterday when Chairman Harrison (D-Miss) failed to get the finance committee to accept in principle the fairly simple bill which the House is expected to pass. Members apparently sought more detailed information.

rade "to avoid any embarrassment to other foreign groups." All but two of the post's 86 members are American citizens and the other two have their first papers toward naturalization.

Services Are Guarded

Philadelphia police were assigned to guard services at Fort Hill, near Fort Washington, Pa. American Legion officials reported they heard that the German-American bund planned to hold a "special meeting" simultaneously with Memorial day services.

New York City parades attracted an estimated 75,000 marchers. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt spoke on "peace and the significant challenge of Memorial day this year" at services in Fernclliffe cemetery, Ardsley, N. Y.

Gov. Arthur H. James of Pennsylvania spoke at Gettysburg battlefield.

With most memorial services scheduled in the morning, Americans turned generally to sports in the afternoon. Spectators crowded the Indianapolis speedway for the annual 500-mile automobile race and baseball parks throughout the country for doubleheaders in major and minor leagues.

Quiet Observance Is Scheduled In City

Lubbock participated today in a very quiet observance of Memorial day.

Banks, the postoffice, most federal offices and that of the Texas Unemployment Compensation commission 1207 Thirteenth street, were closed. City and county offices were open as usual.

A memorial service to which the public is invited will be held in the home of Allen Bros. post of the American Legion at 5 p. m. Services will be held in Lubbock cemetery at 6:30 o'clock after which the graves of all former service men will be decorated. Rev. Jack M. Welch, adjutant of the American Legion post, will officiate at the 5 o'clock service. George W. Dupree will speak at the cemetery, where a firing squad will function.

Reminder was given that those with flowers they wish to give for the decoration of graves should be left at the American Legion home before 5 o'clock. The Legion post Veterans of Foreign Wars and their auxiliaries are sponsoring the observance.

Texas Bar Will Be Asked To Lubbock

Members of the Lubbock County Bar association will lay preliminary plans in a meeting Saturday noon at Lubbock hotel for extending an invitation to the Texas Bar association to hold its 1941 convention in Lubbock, Vaughn Wilson, president, said today.

A large delegation of lawyers from Lubbock is planned for the 1940 convention in Fort Worth, July 3, 4 and 5 at which the invitation will be extended, Wilson said.

Lubbock has never been host to the state association and that will be one of the talking points in the invitation, it was said.

Ropesville Studes Back From Trip

ROPESVILLE, May 30. (Special)—Twenty-four senior students of Ropesville High school have returned from a 16-day trip into Old Mexico and to points of interest in Texas.

Their itinerary was Big Spring, Del Rio, Villa Acuna, San Antonio, Austin, Houston, Galveston, Huntsville, Dallas, Fort Worth and return.

Supt. Billy Key, Joe Turner, Miss Lola Beth Green and Miss Leota Lightfoot, senior sponsor, accompanied the students.

Allied Armies Said Shattered

line, on the southern fringe of the Flanders pocket, German forces were reported to have converged from the west, east and south, thereby encircling and cutting off "numerous strong enemy groups."

On the southern front—along the lower edge of the German salient through northern France to the channel—an Allied tank attack was repulsed on the lower Somme river. South and southwest of Amiens troop concentrations in forests were bombed, according to the daily communique.

In all, the high command said 89 Allied planes were destroyed yesterday, including the 68 shot down by pursuit and destroyer groups. Seventeen were said to have been picked off by anti-aircraft gunners and the remainder of the 89 destroyed on the ground.

The Germans acknowledged that 15 of their own planes were missing.

The fighting around Narvik, far northern Norway port which British, French and Norwegian forces entered yesterday, was said to be continuing "unabatingly." The German garrison driven from the town proper, took up mountain positions outside the ore port and, the Germans said, "are being reinforced."

In connection with the war in Norway the Germans said "several planes were destroyed on the ground."

German chasseurs pushing northward from Trondheim, 400 miles from Narvik were reported to have taken Fauske east of Bodo and a German submarine was credited with sinking seven Allied steamers totaling 38,480 tons, apparently off the Norwegian coast.

Bodo is about 165 miles southwest of Narvik.

France Next Objective

Meanwhile the Nazi press hinted that France rather than Great Britain would be the objective of the next major drive.

(A broadcast in German on the Berlin wave-length heard today by CBS proclaimed that "now the German people has started to finish up forever this eternal disturber of its peace"—France.)

The German press extremely responsive to the official state of mind, has thundered at England stridently asserting that alleged British night bombings of undefended towns and non-military objectives soon would be punished. It was claimed these bombings were continued last night over western Germany.

But for the last two days the press has shown a sudden and rapidly-increasing resentment toward France. The alleged abuse and even the reported slaying of German prisoners in France has caused some observers to express the belief there would be prompt retaliation in that direction with a drive on Paris, instead of the long-threatened invasion of England, as the next Nazi aim.

centers into sloughs of slaughter without warning.

The death toll must be terrible as these helpless folk are torn by bombs and shells and even ground beneath those monster tanks which are like creatures of frightfulness out of a nightmare. But maybe those who die quickly are the more fortunate, for the position of a host of the living is pitiable.

The American Red Cross the other day estimated that 5,000,000 Belgian and French refugees were fleeing from the path of the storm. Just so we saw them streaming out of this self-same cock-pit of Europe in the World war, only not so many as now are struggling to escape for the second time in a brief quarter century.

county farm agent, indicate, they reported, that the workings of the stamp plan might mean approximately $500,000 in additional business per year for Lubbock retail stores.

Work For ROTC Units

Shinkle also reported that Senators Tom Connally and Morris Shepherd and Congressman George Mahon are "working vigorously" in behalf of the long pending Texas Technological application for additional R. O. T. C. units.

Tech has received numerous assurances, it was disclosed, that it holds the No. 1 place for any additional units which may be established in the eighth corps area. The reason given until recently for the authorization of such units has been lack of funds, it was disclosed. The reason now given, Shinkle advised, is lack of officers.

In regard to various airline applications in which Lubbock is interested, he reported, extreme uncertainty exists as to dates when hearings may be set. He quoted officials of the Civil Aeronautics authority as being desirous of going ahead with the hearings and of being hopeful that settings may be announced within the next two weeks. However, he advised, there is definite opposition from various groups in Washington to the holding of any hearings concerned with civil aviation until matters pertaining to the national defense are settled or well under way.

Confers On Air Training

Shinkle advised also that he had conferred with ranking army officials in regard to possibilities of obtaining an air training school for Lubbock. He was advised that the army definitely opposes the establishment of primary training centers in areas with altitudes in excess of more than 2,000 feet, or at distances of more than 40 to 50 miles from centers already established.

Lubbock cannot meet either of those requirements, officials said, but they are hopeful that regulations will be revised as development of the national defense program gets under way.

Guns Of Fleet Cover Retreat

is protecting the retiring forces and has allowed an orderly backward movement.

The sharp fight of the Allies also has blocked the Nazi push on the Allied flanks.

Flood Sluices Opened

Once deciding that the fight in Flanders was lost, the Allies opened the flood sluices around Dunkerque and let the water into an area criss-crossed by canals and streams to cover their retreat.

Locks were opened southwest and northwest of Dunkerque on the great canal that flows by the city and follows the coast for many miles.

The French are defending the region between St. Omer and Cassel while the British are fighting in the general direction of Bruges to Dunkerque.

The British also are holding off strong Nazi attacks in the Yser canal regions.

Strong Allied Defenses

Strong Allied defenses were established along a "line of mounts" which rises above the Flanders plain from the vicinity of Cassel to Ypres, a Belgian city which was the center of three huge battles during the World war.

This line separates the Lille region from Dunkerque.

In this zone, Allied troops, mostly British, fought off repeated German attacks on both the southwest and northeast areas.

Protected on two sides by flanks toward the sea, the French troops under General Rene Jacques Adolphe Prioux were slowly retiring northwest, protected by furious rear guard actions.

The Allies were using naval units "of all tonnages" to remove troops and bring fresh supplies to those still fighting.

Under Constant Fire

Dunkerque was under constant artillery and aerial fire by Nazis hoping to wipe out the remnants of the defeated forces, whose plight became hopeless after the surrender Tuesday of the Belgian army under King Leopold III.

Official communiques gave only a meager picture of the actual scope and ferocity of the fighting attending this operation. Such communique phrases as "struggle of exceptional intensity" and "at the cost of the hardest fighting" were used to describe actions which it is taken for granted are costing many lives.

The Allies were abandoning to the Germans a strip of territory approximately 200 miles long and of an average width of 50 miles, its southern boundary lying along the Somme and Aisne rivers from the channel to a point near the Luxembourg frontier. It includes a rich industrial section and important channel ports.

Hold Triangular Area

Temporarily they held a triangular area around Dunkerque, in which the entrapped armies were withdrawing. The southern side of the triangle ran inland from a point near Calais to the Lille area, and its eastern side extends roughly northward to a point just south of Ostend.

The French reported that a rear guard action was being fought in Lille, important industrial capital of this region, and it appeared that a small Allied force was trapped southeast of the city. (The Germans claimed the capture of Lille.)

The chief peril today to removal of the remaining troops through Dunkerque seemed to be a German thrust from the south against Cassel, whose heights, commanding the Flanders plain, William of Orange vainly stormed in the seventeenth century.

Cassel is about halfway between Lille and Dunkerque on the southern side of the triangle. A successful drive northward there presumably would cut in two the trapped Allied forces.

News Briefs

Daughter Is Born—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huffman of Midland, both former students of Texas Technological college, are parents of a daughter born Wednesday morning in Midland. Huffman was business manager of the student body at Texas Tech during the 1938-39 session. Mrs. Huffman, the former Miss Nelda McElroy, is the sister of Mrs. Lawrence Banks of 2202 Seventeenth street.

Daughter Is Born. Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Wood of Tahoka are parents of a daughter weighing 9 pounds 14 ounces, born Wednesday night at 8:35 o'clock in West Texas hospital. She has been named Idalia. The father is an implement dealer.

Graduate Gets Job— William P. Walker, jr., of Crosbyton, who is to receive a degree in chemical engineering from Texas A. & M. college this week, has been employed by Sinclair Oil company in Houston, his parents reported Wednesday.

Contempt Hearings In Progress—Judge E. L. Pitts early this afternoon was hearing a contempt case naming Russell Ercambrack and others, said court officials. The state charged violation of a court order issued recently when a temporary injunction against sale of beer was issued. The injunction will be an issue again Sept. 2, when the case comes to trial on its merits. A contempt hearing naming L. L. Ford and others probably will be tried later in the afternoon, officials said.

Boy Struck—A negro boy on a bicycle was struck by an automobile occupied by four Lubbock youths, but police said the mishap evidently was unavoidable. The accident was in 2100-block East Avenue B Wednesday night, reports indicated. I. O. Stone of two miles north of Lubbock found a bicycle Keith Black of 2413 Twenty-sixth street had reported stolen.

Wink Coach Here—Bryan Henderson, backfield coach of Wink High school, has arrived to attend the summer session at Texas Technological college. Mrs. Henderson was here for the 1939-40 long session and will attend the summer school, as well. Henderson formerly attended Austin college and has been described by Tech Coach Pete Cawthon as "one of the finest fullbacks I ever trained."

Car Not Found—Authorities of the South Plains continued today to watch for a stolen 1939 dark blue Ford two-door sedan, license 808-305. The machine, owned by Ellwood estate, was stolen in Littlefield, according to records of the highway patrol, Tuesday night.

Horne At Kiwanis—Cecil Horne, head of the journalism department of Texas Technological college, spoke on West Texas of the future at a Kiwanis club luncheon in Lubbock hotel at noon today. Dr. Fred W. Sparks and C. V. Bullen were co-chairmen of the program.

ate Majority Leader Barkley and House Democratic Leader Rayburn.

Immediately following the defense parley, Early said, Mr. Roosevelt will hold a press conference, taking the place of that usually held Friday morning.

The rest of Mr. Roosevelt's day and evening will be devoted to work on the new defense message to Congress, which Early said would ask the "quickest possible action by the Congress on new and urgent recommendations the president has received in the light of world events, from the war and navy departments."

The defense message, Early said, will be a three-way request covering needs of the army, the navy and the training program. The guns, tanks, and mechanized equipment, as well as planes, to be asked, Early indicated, will be turned over chiefly to the army. The navy's end of it will consist, he said, "mostly of guns and munitions."

Reserve supplies for both the army and navy also will be sought.

The training program is that which will be handled largely by Sidney Hillman, labor member of the defense commission. Early said, so far as non-combatant forces are concerned. The army and navy, he said, will train combatant personnel, aviation ground crews, mechanics, cooks, and so on.

Hillman was unable to be present for the defense conference today because of illness. But there were indications the commission would meet again next week, when its full membership was expected to be on hand.

Preceding the defense meeting, the president conferred with William Martin, president of the New York stock exchange, but Early said he saw no intimations that the exchange might be closed. The conference with Martin, he said, was just part of the general defense picture.

Barkley and Rayburn were asked to attend the defense meeting largely so they would be advised of what was being done and would know what might be coming up in the way of legislation.

It was reported that the supplementary request also would contain provisions for a 3,000-warplane order to help the currently expanding aircraft industry toward the projected 50,000-planes-a-year goal.

The reasons appropriations for these items were omitted from Mr. Roosevelt's $1,182,000,000 emergency defense requests, officials explained, was that the army had insufficient time to prepare its estimates. An additional three quarters of a billion would boost defense spending to $4,047,011,352.

Third Line of Defense

Part of the Fascist preparations centered on perfecting what spokesmen refer to as the "third line of defense," consisting of an estimated 10,000,000 women and minors who would have non-combatant roles in wartime.

An announcement said 27,000 volunteers were being trained to take over various jobs left by men called to arms, 12,000 in special industrial jobs, 3,000 minors who will be employed on railways, and 12,000 women being trained for numerous other positions.

Reunion Being Staged Today

(Special To The Journal)

CROSBYTON, May 30—Old time residents of Crosby county and their descendants and friends gathered here today for a second annual reunion at Emma, better known as "Old Emma," the former county seat.

Mrs. J. J. Spikes who has resided in the county since in the early 1890's, is sponsoring the affair. There is no formal organization.

This morning the group was to meet here and go to Emma in a body, as far as possible. At noon a basket picnic dinner was to be held, with a visit to the cemetery in the afternoon.

To Extend Welcome

R. L. Travis of Ralls, a former county commissioner and a pioneer of the county, was to welcome the party at Emma. No scheduled addresses were planned, but a number were expected to relate experiences of the early days in the county.

Several hundred persons were expected. The county was organized in the late 1880's with Estacado the first county seat. After a few years it was discovered that Estacado was actually in Lubbock instead of Crosby, so a new location was selected. Emma was nearer the central section of the county. It remained county seat until about 30 years ago when, in an election, Crosbyton was chosen.

Nazis Stage Raid On Hospital Ship

LONDON, May 30 (AP)—A hospital ship arrived today at a south coast port, carrying British expeditionary force wounded. The portholes had been smashed by machine gun bullets and the funnels were riddled.

British sources said German planes attacked the vessel in a French port yesterday while it was taking on wounded men.

Sensation Promised In Trotsky Inquiry

MEXICO CITY, May 30 (AP)— The Mexican communist party announced today that "sensational declarations" concerning the attempted assassination of Leon Trotsky would be made at a special meeting the party is holding here tomorrow.

Party sources said speakers would seek to establish through an analysis of the Trotsky case that the communist party had no part in the assault on the former Russian war commissar.

College Students To Leave Rome Friday

ROME, May 30. (AP)—The entire student body of the North American college, consisting of 106 student priests, will leave Rome tomorrow morning and return to the United States aboard the liners Manhattan and President Harrison.

Bishop Ralph Hayes, rector of the college, on May 17 cabled to the home bishops of the students advising them of the consular warning to Americans to leave Italy.

Incredible Mistakes

Asserting that "incredible mistakes" were committed by both countries, the Express commented that "the people of Britain lingered long in slothfulness while France was fully mobilized for war."

Facing the possible entry of Italy into the war, British diplomacy gave increasing attention to Spain and also to Russia.

While Sir Samuel Hoare hastened to Madrid, where he has been assigned the task of improving relations with Generalissimo Francisco Franco's government, the British government was reported to have decided to give Sir Stafford Cripps, who is en route to Moscow on a trade mission, full ambassadorial rank.

Sir Stafford was sent to Moscow to explore the possibilities of a trade pact. While he was on his way, the Moscow radio announced yesterday that the Soviet government was unwilling to receive him as a trade envoy, and then it was reported Sir Stafford would be made ambassador.

Writ Application Of Chadwick Withdrawn

Phillip H. Chadwick of Fort Worth, whose application for a writ of habeas corpus was considered Wednesday by Judge T. Whitfield Davidson in United States district court and later withdrawn by his attorney under an agreement with government attorneys, probably will begin today to raise the bond, Howard Dailey, Dallas attorney, said last night before going back to Dallas.

Dailey conferred with District Attorney Clyde O. Eastus and his assistant W. P. Fonville, in chambers with Judge Davidson. Dailey had filed the suit in Fort Worth and it was agreed to hear the application here. Brought up at the morning session of court, Judge Davidson suggested attorneys get together on an agreed statement of facts.

Charge Not Pressed

Chadwick was arrested in Chicago and it was there, Dailey explained, a bond of $15,000 was set, which he and his attorney felt too high. Eastus said the bond for two cases filed in Fort Worth was $10,000 on 42 counts alleging violation of the Harrison anti-narcotic act and $2,500 on a charge of conspiring to harbor a fugitive from justice. It was agreed that these bonds would be satisfactory to the defendant.

"I think we can raise the bonds in Fort Worth," said Dailey after the hearing.

The attorney also said that a charge, filed in Fort Worth, alleging Chadwick was fleeing from justice, due to a complaint having been filed on the West Coast, would not be pressed for the present and that Chadwick would be released on his own recognizance in this case.

Contract For School Addition Is Awarded

Contract to build a two-room addition to Dunbar negro high school was awarded to Robert E. Maxey of Lubbock at a meeting of the city school board in the music room of Senior High school Wednesday night.

McElroy Ray, teacher in Roscoe Wilson school, was named principal of George M. Hunt school to succeed Miss Mary Meador, who resigned at conclusion of the past term.

Other teachers elected were Miss Neville Wren of Hereford, Mrs. Mozelle Dobbs and Miss Ruth Griffith, both of Lubbock, and Edfred Shannon of Stillwater, Okla. Mrs. Marye Kincaide Casey was named Senior High registrar.

Maxey's low bid for work on the negro school building was $6,025, nearly $275 below the next lowest bid. Other bidders were V. D. Shell, J. B. Maxey, John T. Glover, Cooksey, Morgan and General Building company.

Work will be started soon, school officials said.

Attending the meeting were W. B. Atkins, vice president, who presided in absence of Dr. J. T. Hutchinson; R. F. Bayless, secretary; W. G. Alderson, Maple Wilson and E. J. Parsons.

Colonial Club Party To Be Held In Parks Home

Colonial club members are to attend a forty-two party Friday night at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Roy Parks, 2206 Eighth street. They have postponed a picnic planned at Mackenzie State park.

G. Hindman Is Gift Honoree

Miss Gladys Hindman, who is to become the bride of Lovell Abbott Saturday morning at a ceremony to be read at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton, was honored with a party and shower given Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. William H. Younger, 1513 Eighteenth street. Hostesses were Misses Jane Rogers, Melba Reik, Rosaline Mitchell and Anita Seay.

Miss Seay greeted guests and Miss Reik presided at the bride's book. Miss Mitchell presided in the dining room, assisted by Miss Rogers. During the evening Miss Erma Dell Flood played piano selections.

Miss Hindman's mother, Mrs. W. H. Hindman, and her sister, Miss Ruth Hindman of Spur and Miss Earlene Abbott, sister of the bridegroom-elect, were included in the guest list.

Local Persons Will Attend Big Pageant

Representatives of the Panhandle-South Plains fair and the West Texas Museum association will be in the audience Saturday night at the presentation of the performance of the Coronado cuarto centennial pageant in Albuquerque, N. M. according to information given at the chamber of commerce this morning.

Those planning definitely to make the trip are Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Settle. Davis is manager of the fair association and a director of the museum association. Settle is secretary of the museum group.

Their primary purpose in attending, it was explained, will be to ascertain what advance preparations must be made for the presentation in Lubbock of the pageant, which is scheduled to be the night grandstand attraction at the fair next fall. It is to be brought here under auspices of the museum association, according to the announced plans.

First presentation of the pageant took place in Albuquerque Wednesday night. From there it is to be taken on a tour of the southwestern states visited by Coronado 400 years ago.

No Elementary Work In Summer Classes

No elementary work will be taught in summer classes in Lubbock schools this summer, Principal R. W. Matthews announced today, after enrollment in the grades failed to justify the work.

Enrollment in high school work totaled 147 and in the high fifth, sixth and seventh grades 22 students enrolled. Enrollment for the summer work last year totalled 150.

Students may continue to enroll for summer work during this week, Matthews said but none will be admitted after Monday.

Mrs. Earl Martin Will Be Auxiliary Hostess

Carpenters auxiliary will meet at 7.30 o'clock tonight with Mrs. Earl Martin as hostess in the home of Mrs. David Martin, 1507 Arnett.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. White and sons Van and E. G. jr., 601 Avenue O, have gone to Kansas City and Lee Summit, Mo., and the Ozarks for a three weeks' visit. At Bronson, Mo., they will visit Mrs. White's mother, Mrs. Minnie Stone, and her brother, C. L. Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sherrod left today for Abilene where they will attend commencement activities at Abilene Christian college where Paul, jr., and Winifred, are students.

Political Rally Slated Friday

Ushering in the political campaigning season, Hop Halsey manager of Mark Halsey's No. 2 store at Broadway and College avenue, will stage a political rally for state candidates in connection with formal opening of the expanded store Friday night at 8 o'clock. The rally will be broadcast over KFYO.

Halsey himself a candidate for the state legislature, extended an invitation to all candidates for state offices to attend the rally and this morning had received acceptances from eleven. He said he would more than likely receive additional acceptances today.

Several Have Accepted

Heading the list of speakers will be Col. E. O. Thompson of Amarillo and O. B. Carlone Davis jr. candidates for governor. Lieut.-Gov. Coke Stevenson of Junction and an opponent Alton Mead have also accepted bids to speak. Clyde Smith, John D. Copeland, Walton D. Hood, Pierre Brooks and Olan Van Zandt all candidates for the railroad commission, have accepted as have Tom L. Beauchamp, justice of the court of criminal appeals and State Treasurer Charley Lockhart.

Broadway will be roped off to provide room for a crowd in front of the store. Halsey said, and a public address system will carry the talks to the crowd as well as over the air. Halsey said the broadcast would be continued until all speakers have been heard, there being no scheduled time for closing. H. Doug Stone Cowboys will furnish music at intervals throughout the program.

The expansion store is almost double its former size and gives the college neighborhood a drug store of metropolitan class. The store now has a total of 6,000 square feet of floor space as compared to 3,200 in the original store.

Farm Boys To Turn In Essays Today

Essays by vocational agriculture and 4-H club boys on a cow, sow and hen program for the farm in the third annual Sears Roebuck & Co. contest were to be in the hands of vocational teachers and county agents of five counties today.

Counties were Hale, Crosby, Hockley, Lynn and Lubbock. Four club boys and four F.F.A. boys were to be selected in each county to receive a registered gilt, based on their essays.

The papers will be judged by a group selected by W. C. O'Mara, local store manager. In June O'Mara plans a banquet for the winners and their fathers and past winners at which the awards will be announced.

Boys receiving animals agree to supply one gilt from the litter to the concern to be distributed next year. Animals given away this year will be from gilts distributed last year.

CLUB MEMBERS SEW

Mrs. E. C. Pool, 2012 Twentieth street, was hostess to S. O. W. club members Wednesday afternoon.

The club will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. M. F. McDaniel, 2302 Twentieth street.

Grizzly bears are able to attain a speed of 35 miles an hour.

American Ambulance Driver Tells Story Of Systematic Slaughter By Germans

NEW YORK, May 30 (AP) — An American ambulance driver with the American field service, in a broadcast over the French radio from his hospital bedside Wednesday, saind he had witnessed "one of the most systematic slaughters anyone could ever see," when German planes attacked a town near the northern front.

"Wave after wave of German bombers were raking the entire valley," said 32-year-old Francis P. Hamlin of New York and Boston, in the broadcast picked up by CBS.

Hamlin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Nason Hamlin of Bedham, Mass., suffered a broken ankle during service at the front on May 22 and was taken to the American hospital in Paris.

Were Not Molested

"Bomber after bomber appeared on the horizon," Hamlin continued, "bombing" strafing, laying complete waste to everything below them. The Germans seemed unmolested until shortly we could see one, lone French pursuit plane appear from nowhere and attack all those German bombers singlehanded. It seemed a matter of minutes from the time he attacked one bomber until it burst into flames."

Hamlin described how 20 ambulances and 37 men traveled to the scene in convoy, spreading out in open country, closing up in the towns, and darting under clumps of trees when planes appeared.

"Some times these German planes don't even dive when they attack," he said. "They have guns trained downwards from the bottom of the fuselage which they can use from a considerable height."

EDUCATOR URGES REASON

CLEVELAND, Ohio, (U.P.)—Reason must be "kept in the saddle," during the European crisis believes Dr. Winfred G. Leutner, president of Western Reserve university. "We must avoid propaganda which mixes truth and fiction," he said. "Most adults remember how we were fed such material in the years of the last war."

Growing children should consume at least one quart of milk daily; adults at least a pint.

Lindbergh Offers His Home For Orphans

TRENTON, N. J., May 30 (AP) — Governor A. Harry Moore said today Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh had offered to New Jersey as a gift the home of Hopewell from which the infant Charles A. Linrbergh, jr., was kidnapped March 1, 1932.

The governor said he was "all in favor" of the state accepting, and added that he was advising Lindbergh to that effect.

Moore suggested that the big gabled, white house, once occupied by the famous flier and his wife, the former Anne Morrow, could be converted into a state children's home.

New Names Given In 1940 Who's Who

CHICAGO, May 30 (AP) — The names of Alice Marble, Gov. Harold Stassen, Elmer Layden, Vivien Leigh and Elliott Roosevelt were printed for the first time today in Who's Who in America.

The 1940-41 edition of the register of persons of prominence or position contained 2,862 new biographical sketches.

Elliott, incidentally, was the twentieth Roosevelt mentioned in "Who's Who's Who" since the first book was compiled in 1899.

Other facts and figures: Shirley Temple (11) is the youngest and youngest "retired" celebrity in the columns . . . Oldest is Brig. Gen. William Henry Bisbee, retired . . . He's 100 . . . Longest biography is that of President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university . . . Wendell L. Willkie, aspirant to the Republican presidential nomination, now records himself as Republican instead of Democrat.

Hubbers Open Two-Game Series With Pampa Tonight After Win Over Bor

Sportometer

Plenty Baseball Tonight

By Collier Parris

INTERESTING BASEBALL on two Lubbock fronts tonight.

The Hubbers, who snapped back into the win column last night with a fine victory over Borger's Gassers, open a two-game stand with the powerful Pampa Oilers. If the Hubbers keep up the hustling pace they set last night, it should be an entertaining series.

It's "ladies night" over at Fox Park, where four teams of the Lubbock County baseball league (not softball) engage in a double-header. The opener will pit the tough Ropesville outfit against the Wholesale Grocery nine. Ropesville beat out the tough Lubbock Dr. Peppers in a recent contest to lay claim for recognition in the amateur league. In tonight's nightcap, Sudan plays the Lubbock Co-Op team, and the folks are interested to see how Ernie Minyard will do after hurling his no-hit masterpiece last week. He struck out 16 men in a five-inning game, which is one for the books.

Teams in the amateur league are playing for the right to represent the district in the Texas Amateur Athletic federation tournament at San Antonio later this summer. After a schedule of league play, which is a TAAF requirement, the teams will compete in a district tournament, winner to play in the state tournament. The teams play every Sunday afternoon and every Thursday night at Fox Park, and they don't fiddle around. It's pretty nice baseball, with all teams hustling like the dickens.

IN THE MAIL is a copy of the Coffeyville (Kansas) Daily Journal, and on the sports page is a story about and a picture of Demp Cannon, who used to do a lot of jitterbug quarterbacking for Slaton High and Texas Tech. The story follows:

"Demp Cannon, an instructor in Roosevelt Junior high school and a former driving force on one of the Coffeyville Junior college football teams several years ago, will be assistant junior college football coach next year, concentrating his activity on the backfield candidates.

"According to the arrangement worked out by Coach Warren Littrell, Dean W. M. Ostenberg and Supt. K. W. McFarland, Cannon will continue to teach in the junior high school, will coach junior high school basketball and will coach the college football backfield."

Looks like old Demp has let himself in for a job. In his off hours maybe he'll direct traffic on the old college corner.

SHORT, SHORT STORIES — Marshall Brown, the Texas Tech basketball and baseball sensation, is going to join the Lamesa Loboes for a professional debut. . . . He was offered a job in the White Sox chain, but told that he probably couldn't make the Lubbock team this season. . . . Maybe not, but he sure would pull a lot of Texas Tech students and downtown fans through the turnstiles. . . . Salty Parker, manager of last year's pennant winning Hubbers who was "stolen" by Shreveport and sent to Marshall to manage the Sports' East Texas league farm, has the Marshall Tigers on top of the circuit and sitting pretty, although pushed by the Longview club. . . . He is quoted in the Marshall News-Messenger by Sports Editor Spencer Jones: "Gee, I'm glad I got this job instead of having to go with the White Sox hands to Waterloo. . . . that club is having plenty of trouble."

And just as we were reading that and copying it from the Longview paper, there came a letter from Jones, which reads, in part: "Salty has the local team at the top, but the boys are having a merry time staying there because of Longview's doggedness to be there, too. Fans here are sold on Salty. . . . His team is composed largely of rookies and for that reason he's called 'the teacher,' because he shows them how to do it and they follow. . . . He's hustling the club to the top. The team has seven hurlers four of whom are lefthanders and, of all things, the lefthanders are the aces."

Umpires of the West Texas-New Mexico league are having their troubles, besides the natural ones caused by the players and "wolves" . . . Benny Levine, the little feller who says "Stroo-oo-ike threeeee" in such an impressive manner, and who really was a good ball-and-strike umps, was forced to quit because of ill health. . . . In fact, he had to enter the Veterans Hospital at Amarillo. . . . Steve Smith had to leave for several days because of illness in his family, and last night Earl Cartwright, whom we have for two seasons considered the best umpire in the league, was struck out by old man Flu and forced to take a vacation. . . . Otis Gunter, well known in these parts, is temporarily on the WT-NM staff, and may have a job there for the season. . . . Otis is one of the few umps we know who really likes to work, and, despite his blunders, he's one of the most conscientious. . . .

But why can't umpires be more light-hearted about their work? . . . More cheerful, maybe. . . . What we mean is: They are paid to "take it," as well as to call 'em. . . . They should make their decisions stick, to be sure, but when an argument comes up, why not "laugh it off" and keep in good humor with the squawking boys, rather than get so double-tough and high-behind. . . . If the kids don't squawk and raise the devil about decisions they think go against them, they aren't worth the tape on their bats—and if the umps don't make their decisions stick they aren't worth having around . . . but there's such a thing as reasoning things out, in a human way. . . . The umpires have the upper hand; they rule the game, according to the rules, and can do anything they wish. . . . but they would be a lot more popular if they took the chip off their shoulders and discussed situations in a fatherly manner, rather than flying off the handle and getting tough and plastering fines and ordering offenders out of the park. . . . Good-natured, able-to-take-it, but stick-with-your-decision umpires surely could make big hits with the fans and players, and improve the entertainment of baseball no end. . . .

Ladies And Children Night Is Scheduled At Fox Ball Park

It's "ladies and children's night" at Fox Park tonight.

Heading into a season of regular competition in earnest, the Lubbock County Amateur baseball league takes the limelight at the College avenue and Fourth street diamond with a pair of contests, either of which might produce a repetition of last Thursday night's no-hit, no-run masterpiece.

As a matter of fact, the same veteran hurler—Sudan's Earnest Minyard—will be on the mound for the Lamb county crew when it tackles the Lubbock Co-Op in the night's concluding number. A fine hurling duel is in prospect here with the locals' Red Dillard starting mound chores.

Opening the night's program at 8:30 o'clock, the strong Ropesville machine, victor over the classy Lubbock Dr. Peppers, will roll against the Wholesale Grocery nine, another local nine.

Also listed among probable hurlers on the evening's card is the Lubbock High sensation who had a trial with the Hubbers and Jonesboro this spring, Frank Smith.

Power At The Plate Required In Texas

(By The Associated Press)

Power at the plate counts in the Texas league.

Swatters on the eight clubs yesterday pounded out 83 safeties to settle the five games played.

The league leading Houston Buffaloes, second place San Antonio and second division Dallas tied with eleven hits each.

With all but two outfielders getting at least one bingle, the Buffaloes rolled over fourth place Tulsa 6 to 2.

San Antonio split a doubleheader with Dallas losing the first 2 to 6 and copping the abbreviated game 4 to 3.

Fort Worth edged past Shreveport 5 to 4 in a tight one tha tsaw ancient Fred Marberry credited with his first victory of the season.

Beaumont slammed out 10 hits to whip Oklahoma City 6 to 1.

Thrills Promised In 500-Mile Speedway Class

Wilbur Shaw Is Favored To Cop Top Cash

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30—America's largest thrill-seeking crowd, undaunted by a forecast of possible showers, swarmed to the Indianapolis motor speedway today watch 33 intrepid drivers vie for the cash and glory which go to the winner of the 28th international 500-mile race.

Thirty-three low-slung, shark-nosed speedsters, tuned to piano wire pitch, were ready for the 10 a. m. (CST) starting bomb to send them roaring around the two-and-a-half-mile brick and asphalt track before a crowd expected to range from 125,000 to 140,000.

Shaw Is Favorite

Wilbur Shaw, dapper Indianapolis pilot who won the 1937 and 1939 races, was an outstanding favorite but Rex Mays of Glendale, Calif., was rated his most dangerous rival. Shaw's mount is the same eight-cylinder Italian car he drove to victory at 115.035 miles an hour a year ago.

The drivers battle for $100,000 in prizes, with the triumphant pilot getting $25,000 to $35,000, depending upon the number of laps he leads during the race. The winner of each of the 200 laps collects $100.

Since the first race 38 lives have been lost. Even before qualifying trials began this year George Bailey of Detroit was burned to death when his speedster crashed into a restraining wall.

Teams In Semi-Pro Playoffs Doubled

PORTLAND, Ore., May 30 (AP)—The National semi-pro baseball congress announced plans today to double the number of teams playing in most state and the national championships.

President Ray Dumont of Wichita, Kan., said Oregon, which starts its state tournament July 4, and a majority of the other 47 states will play 32 instead of 16-team brackets.

Most state tournaments will be double elimination, with two defeats necessary to put any team out.

Other 32-team bracket playoffs will include the Texas tournament at Waco.

The national tournament at Wichita, August 16 to 28, also will utilize the expanded bracket idea, Dumont added. Winning teams will distribute approximately $20,000 in prize money and the United States champion will enter the semi-pro world's series in Puerto Rico.

Four Games Are Set For Twilight Loop

Four games send the Business-Professional twilight softball chase off on the week's second half of competition this afternoon—one division leader and three fast moving hopefuls taking the spotlight.

Risking its unblemished record will be the loop leading Jaycees aggregation, playing its second engagement of the week.

National division competition sends the Jaycees against the hustling Union Carpenters aggregation, the game to be played on Field No. 4. On Field No. 3, the up-and-down and up again Lions delegation tangles with the A B C ten.

The Doctors and Lawyers, two bitter rivals in the American division tee off on Field No. 1, while the Christians and Baptists tangle on Field No. 2 to round out the afternoon's schedule.

Hub Laundry Rides At Head Of Softball League; Plenty Of Power Shown In Victory

Oozing power with every inning, Hub Laundry today rides the crest of the city's softball association tens—displaying convincing superiority Wednesday night to crush the strong Home Lumber crew, 18 to 4, scoring almost at will.

The farce, the Laundry boys collected 12 base blows and cashed in on 10 Lumbermen errors for the rest, was the finale to a two-tilt program that found Sherrod's measuring Sears in an opener, 7 to 4. The scheduled fray between Robinson Grocery and Lubbock Poultry and Egg was forfeited to the Eggers when the Grocers were unable to field a full team, lending credit to rumors that the 1939 champions were considering giving up the chase. The decision hoisted the Eggers into fifth slot in the Class B division as a result.

There will be no games tonight and Friday. Activities at the park tonight will be concerned with a double bill in Lubbock County Amateur baseball play, the first game to start at 8:30 o'clock. Softball competition will be resumed Friday night.

Jake Weathers of Sherrod's limited Sear's to two hits to hang up his initial win of the season. Al Hardy was the sparkplug of the winners' offensive, getting a homer and a double. Dexter Walthall also hitting for the circuit for the victors.

The line scores:

McLemore Gets Himself Out On A Limb To Pick Rex Mays As Winner In Big Speed Classic; Says Shaw Will Be Second

By HENRY McLEMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 30—Pit patter from the 500-mile pits. Lou Meyer, only three-time winner of this whirl, says that 107 fellows he's known in this trade are dead. "Ten per cent of them died by accident," he said, "the others killed themselves by recklessness."

Of the 24 drivers who've gotten the checkered flag here, nine are dead. . . . Bill Cummings died in a traffic accident, the others behind winning motors on a race track. . . . They were Dario Resta, Howard Wilcox, Gaston Chevrolet, Floyd Roberts, Ray Keech, Frank Lockhart, Jimmy Murphy and Joe Boyer.

First Customer On Hand

The first customer at the gate was Frank Carson, of Greenfield, Mass. . . . He arrived at the speedway gate April 21, and says the time passed quickly. . . . He had a dog with him. . . . He lived in a trailer . . . And he says a life-long ambition has been satisfied. . . . It seems that he has been trying to be first in line here for years and years.

Gar Wood, the old motorboat maharajah, tried to land his plane here this morning and nearly came a cropper. . . . The landing gear on the amphibian collapsed or just did not show up and the bottom was ripped right out of the plane. . . . It scared Wood, his sister-in-law and his brother, but hurt no one.

Favors Rex Mays

Rex Mays, who looks like a polo player, and drives like one, is 6 to 1 favorite to win despite the fact that in his six other appearances on these bumpy bricks he's never finished. . . . He got the pole at 128 miles an hour, two less than the late Jimmy Snyder last year.

The boys say that the speed this year was curtailed by the frightful weather, which played hell with carburetion, whatever that is. . . . Mays is considered the top chauffeur in this racket, but heavy foot has burned out his cars. . . . This year he has the wily Louis Meyer in the pit and Meyer is not one to sacrifice top cash for lap dough.

The beer concession at the speedway was sold to a local firm for $4,500. . . . There was a terrific argument at the big dinner here last night. . . . One fellow kept rising and heckling Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, asking for an accounting of the receipts on race day. . . . Edward put the fellow in his place verbally, and a lot of other men escorted the heckler from the scene.

Rain Threatens

Rain threatened, but Johnny Armington, the local weather guesser, said his rheumatism told him that fair weather would be on tap.

Bombs are the order of the day. . . . But they're the peaceful kind. . . . One went off at 6 this morning to let Carson and his kind know their moment has arrived. . . . Another was set for 9 to wake Carson, in case he should be in danger of missing his triumph of triumphs. Another at 9:50 to wake the drivers. . . . Another at 10 to start the race. . . . And another at 10:15, because there's an extra bomb (all times Central Standard). . . . Everyone of the 135,000 persons in the joint expect to see somebody killed. . . . It makes gooseflesh to watch those 33 cars hit that first turn in a bunch. . . . Some day one is going to strike it broadside and they'll be a lot of happy sadists and no more Indianapolis race. . . . Mass killing is not yet popular in our part of the world. . . .

Out on a limb department. . . . Mays will win; Shaw, the dapper two-time winner who is real boss of these chauffeurs and who today wheedled and cajoled an extra $1,000 out of visitors for lap prizes, will be second. . . . Frank Wearne will be third, Ted Horn fourth and Mauri Rose fifth. . . . I can't go further without consulting my notes. . . . The newspapermen hope that Rose doesn't win because he wants a slight fee for such a quote as "good morning, pass the butter." . . . Hey, driver, thirty miles an hour's fast enough. . . . I'm in no hurry.

Bucky Walters Is Plenty Hot For The Reds

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sports "experts" eventually get used to having their bad guesses thrown back in their faces, but the fellows who predicted Bucky Walters wouldn't do so well this year must have had an uncomfortable conscience about every fourth day lately.

The lean and languid star of the Cincinnati Reds mound corps just marked up his eighth victory without defeat, 4-0, over the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday, and is so far out in front of his pace of last year that there is no comparison.

Far Ahead Of 1939

Enroute to his total of 27 victories and 11 losses and the honor of being the National league's most valuable player, the sinkerball specialist had a record of six won and four lost on Memorial day 1939.

This year he has taken his regular turn against all comers, pitching eight complete games and being batted off the hill only once, a no-decision affair as far as Walters was concerned.

His conquest of the Pirates yesterday raised the Reds again into a virtual tie with Brooklyn for the National league lead. The Dodgers, whose small percentage margin stems from the fact they have played fewer games, were idle yesterday along with the New York Giants.

The day was a good one for pitchers, ten of them going the route in seven games, and three making successful starting debuts.

Atley Donald, who won 13 in a row before being beaten last year, made his first start of 1940 and held the Washington Senators to four hits in giving the New York Yankees their fifth straight victory, 2-1.

Bill Butland, a six foot six inch rookie, made his first appearance for the Boston Red Sox and won an 8-3 decision over the Philadelphia Athletics although giving up 12 hits.

Bespectacled Bill Dietrich made his first start of the season for the Chicago White Sox and salvaged fifth place with a 4-3 triumph over the St. Louis Browns.

Bob Feller achieved his seventh success with an eight-hit 7-4 job against the Detroit Tigers.

In the National league the St. Louis Cardinals stepped up to fifth place with an 8-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

One of the day's best pitching performances came from an unexpected quarter, Dick Errickson of the Boston Bees held the Philadelphia Phillies to five hits and won 3-1.

Lubbock Women Are To Enter Tourney

Lubbock's women golfing fraternity will be represented in the annual women's West Texas golf association tournament getting under way with qualifying rounds in Abilene next Monday morning, it has been announced.

A quartet of Lubbock Country club linkswomen plan to seek some of the honors which will attract an expected record field to the event. Those who have announced intentions of competing in the tourney include Mesdames Wright Kerr, Homer Hall, Penner Tubbs and Charles Akey.

Dean To Attend

Mrs. C. L. Dean is a director in the association and will be present for the directors' meeting but will not take an active part in the competition.

The announcements were made following "ladies day" activities at the club Wednesday. In a "flag tourney," Mrs. Dean took the lower division prize while Miss Ruth Ford walked away with the higher handicap honors. Mrs. Dean was hostess for the day.

Those who either attended the luncheon, played golf or both Wednesday are Mesdames Paul Newman, C. C. Longbaugh, Kerr, J. H. Stiles, Tubbs, Hall, Olen Key, Gordon Cranmer, C. E. Dean, Charles Akey, T. E. Patterson, J. W. Heilhecker, E. A. Henry, W. F. Helwig, M. M. Brown and Miss Ford.

Tom Pendergast Is Being Freed Today

(By The Associated Press)

KANSAS CITY, May 30 — The United States frees Tom Pendergast, erstwhile Kansas City Democratic machine boss, to lead a "clean, upright, temperate life" this Memorial day but the state expects to arrest him quickly on a bribery charge.

Pendergast completed a year and a day behind bars at 9:25 a. m.

He was sentenced to 15 months in Leavenworth, Kas., prison on his plea of guilty to evading income taxes on $443,500 but got time off for good behaviour.

To Hear Conditions

He was brought here for a recital of Federal Judge Merrill E. Otis' conditions for the five-year probation under which he gains freedom.

Pendergast is barred from "any participation, direct or indirect" in "political activities of any kind or character" and prohibited from entering 1908 Main street. It was from his office at 1908 Main that he helped elect U. S. senators, governors, state supreme court judges and other officials ranging to constable and justice of the peace.

Pendergast is barred from "any place where gambling is permitted." Maurice M. Milligan who, as U. S. district attorney, prosecuted "Boss Tom" told the court he bet $2,000,000 on race horses in 1935 alone and lost $600,000 of it.

Must Live Clean Life

Pendergast is under orders to live a "clean, upright, temperate life" and conduct an "honorable, reputable and lawful private business."

He must try to raise, before April 15, 1941, the remaining $125,000 the government says he still owes in taxes and penalties. The original figure was $707,000 but was compromised at $350,000. Part of that and a $10,000 fine were paid during his imprisonment.

Immediately after hearing of his probation, Pendergast is to be released to Missouri officers. He is charged by the state with paying a $62,500 bribe to R. Emmett O'Malley, then state insurance superintendent, to compromise a $9,500,000 fire insurance rate case. Under terms of the 1935 settlement, insurance companies received 80 percent of impounded premiums and policyholders got 20 percent.

O'Malley, who served a prison term for evading income taxes on $62,500, is charged with accepting that sum as a bribe.

Gen. Gamelin Said Suicide

(By The United Press)

ROME, May 30.—Benito Mussolini's newspaper Popolo D'Italia published a dispatch today under a Berne, Switzerland, dateline saying: "An excellent source confirms the report that Gamelin (Gen. Maurice Gustave, former French army generalissimo) was believed to have committed suicide following a definite invitation of the French high command."

The dispatch said it also had been confirmed that Gen. Andre Corap, who commanded French forces holding the Ardennes sector in the Maginot line extension into Belgium, had been executed.

Replaced By Weygand

Gen. Gamelin was replaced as commander-in-chief of the Allied forces on May 19 by General Maxime Weygand, who had been recalled from his post as commander of the Allied army in the near east.

Corap, who commanded the French seventh army holding the vital Ardennes sector, was relieved of his post by Weygand after the German break-through.

(No word has been received from Paris as to the whereabouts of Gamelin or Corap.)

PAPER TO HELP

LOS ANGELES, May 30 (AP)—The Los Angeles Times said last night it will contribute to the Red Cross European war refugee relief 10 per cent of its gross classified advertising revenue for today's issue.

Longview Takes The Lead From Marshall

(By The United Press)

Longview set the pace for the East Texas league again today after grabbing the lead from Marshall with a 7-to-1 triumph last night. Gramley won the game with six-hit pitching. Navie went wild in the second inning to let Longview score six of its runs.

Kilgore took third place away from Palestine with an 11-to-0 victory. Kilgore, determined to take the game, used three hurlers to hold Palestine to three hits.

Texarkana beat Tyler, 2 to 1, scoring one run in the first inning and another in the last half of the ninth.

Jacksonville won another game, its 12th of the season, with a 5-to-4 victory over Henderson.

State Charter Given Local Kiwanis Club

Kiwanis club of Lubbock, Texas, is the official name of the Lubbock Kiwanis club said W. C. Rylander, secretary, in announcing receipt of a state charter granted by Texas secretary of state.

Incorporation was sought, he explained, on the recommendation and advice of Kiwanis International, as a part of its program to have all member clubs officially chartered by the state. The Lubbock club months ago voted to incorporate and George P. Kuykendall, Charles H. Read and W. C. Wood were named to secure the necessary papers.

W. L. Stangel is club president. The board of directors handled the action by vote of the club.

INCREASE ACREAGE

ANDREWS—An additional allotment of 425 acres of cotton for Andrews county increases the total to nearly 3,000 acres. The state Agricultural Adjustment administration office approved the increase.

The postoffice department doesn't recognize the word "postmistress." The one title is "postmaster."

Reservations should be made if possible by 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, he said.

Contract For Razing Hotel Will Be Let

Contract probably will be let today for the razing of the old Broadway hotel, Lubbock landmark situated at Broadway and Avenue H, according to information given this morning by Mrs. S. C. Rawlings, member of a committee of the Church Women's federation.

The building has been donated to the federation by I. A. Stephens, head of the dry goods business bearing his name, who announced that he plans to erect a modern business structure on the site.

Mrs. Rawlings announced that the materials salvaged from the old structure will be removed to property belonging to the federation at Sixth street and Avenue D to be used in the erection of a building to serve for non-denomination religious and recreational purposes. Serving with Mrs. Rawlings on the committee are Mrs. D. M. Davis and Mrs. Annie Steele.

They explained that the original plan to move the building as it stands to the new site has been abandoned. The razing of the structure will start without delay—perhaps Saturday, they said.

Women Delegates To Bring Along Knitting

PHILADELPHIA, May 30 (AP) — Note to women delegates to the national Republican convention: bring your war knitting along.

Mrs. Humbert Borton Powell, chairman of headquarters for women at the conclave starting June 24, told the arrangements committee today many had informed her they do not wish to interrupt their war relief activities at home.

"I have written them," she said, "that a Red Cross station will be set up at headquarters, and urged them to bring their hand-work along."

Hubs registered one of their infrequent triumphs. Manager Engle, with four lusty clouts in as many times up and Chester Hajduk, with four for five, paced the cellar dwellers at the plate.

The approximately 2,500 persons who watched the contest saw Raish and Hart, starting Borger hurler, tangle in a scoreless duel for the initial three stanzas. Gordon Nell breaking the ice with a homer in the fourth, Lubbock retaliating by soaking the sacks and evening the count when Vince Castino walked to force in Hajduk.

They Open Up

Patterson then took over. And the Hubber threat was dispelled temporarily. But Borger forged ahead again in the fifth, again Lubbock coming back.

But finally tiring of the see-sawing, the Hubs finally started rolling in the seventh, batted around for five runs off four hits, including doubles by Hajduk and Engle. They kept up the good work in the eighth, garnering three more tallies when Niedziela, who was shifted to the leadoff position, Drake, Hajduk, Sparr and Engle connected for base blows.

MISS BROWNFIELD — Pretty Virginia Stroup, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stroup of Brownfield, holds the title of "Miss Brownfield" to compete with other girls from West Texas cities for title of "Miss Permian Basin" in Odessa Friday and Saturday. She was selected by the Brownfield Junion Chamber of Commerce over three other contestants, Wanda Graham, Mary Jean Lees and Betty Shelton. Odessa is staging a two-day celebration to dedicate the new $75,000 Ector county auditorium, park and swimming pool.

Life Was A Burden She Suffered So

Nine Years Of Muscular Aches And Pains Had The Best Of Her; Gly-Cas' Action Was Surprising

"Gly-Cas has made life worth living," said Mrs. Sarah McNeil, 1517 Madison St., Brownsville, Texas. "For twenty-five years I had been badly constipated, felt miserable all the time.

MRS. SARAH McNEIL

My digestion was bad and I would bloat so after eating I could hardly get my breath. I had awful pains around my heart and to get a good nights' sleep was out of the question. Frequent kidney action forced me to get up several times every single night and my back ached constantly. But for the past nine years muscular aches and pains had increased over my body and became so severe I had little desire to live. I slowly grew worse and had very little hopes of regaining my health at my age of seventy, but when Gly-Cas was put to the test it made a remarkable change."

"Gly-Cas has been worth hundreds of dollars to me," continued Mrs. McNeil. "First I began getting proper elimination of those clogged intestinal impurities through regular bowel action. Then I was able to eat heartily of the foods I wished and without ill after effects, those backaches have been relieved, and now those muscular aches and pains have disappeared. I get about without a single ache or pain now and praise Gly-Cas for coming to my rescue after all those years of suffering."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway, this city, and by the leading druggists in surrounding towns. Adv.

After looking at magazine advertisements of the ladies new swimming suits, we feel the urge to rewrite an old favorite, thusly:

"Mother, may I go out to swim?"
"Yes, my darling daughter.
But if you wear that scanty suit
Stay neck deep in the water!"

THE Associated Press again tells us of efforts being made to throw the gates of the United States open to more people from Europe—this time to refugees from the over-run sections of Holland, Belgium and France.

Strangely, some of our highest officials, who should have other more pressing and closer-to-home problems to work on now, are described as working on a plan to bring this effort to fruition.

All this is very, very hard for a simple-minded country boy to comprehend.

Some people will say that The Plainsman is hard-hearted when he says, as he does here and now, that we should not let down the bars to the war refugees.

But the writer is not hard-hearted. Only hard-headed. Hard-headed, as some men are described in business.

Regardless of the horrible plight of the refugees; regardless of their need for help, regardless of everything, the fact remains that we do not have room for any more helpless people over here. The reason is, we have people to care for over here—people who were born here and belong here—and we're not doing a perfect job in taking care of them.

DESPITE the fact that our defense-and-preparedness campaign, just beginning to get into the talking stage, is expected to take up much of the slack in unemployment, we'll still have plenty of unemployed to look after when all jobs are filled.

And we'll still have millions of unemployable people left—people whose labors are not acceptable to private industry—and they'll have to be looked after, too.

Why should we accept more people, no matter how humanitarian the act, when our hands already are more than full?

There is a limit to what any nation can do—there is a limit to what the individual citizen of any nation can do—when it comes to paying bills.

Our defense and preparedness campaign is going to cost the people of this nation untold billions of dollars, but no one in his right mind is kicking about that.

Our continuance of the policy of taking care of our aged and our unfortunates and our unemployables is going to cost other untold billions as the years roll on, and while some people may be kicking about that, we're going to do it, anyhow.

In short, our national expenses are going up—Up—UP from now on until a long time after those of us who are living today are under the sod.

Why should we take on more? Why should we add more problems when those we have confronting us cry for solution?

ALL the peoples of the world, working together, could not change this mundane sphere from a man-operated affair to an Utopia.

Certainly, we of the United States, alone, can't do it when we haven't even made our own nation perfect.

We should do what he can to help the helpless of Europe, and elsewhere in the world. But as this column sees it, there's no sense in permitting those helpless to come over and be a part of an already more-than-a-little disorganized family.

National leaders and high officials should quit spending time talking about plans and efforts to bring refugees over here and get busy on their home work, of which there is plenty.

That's our ticket—and it's simply hard-headed, not hard-hearted.

HERE'S one you can work on. Marvin B. "Bennie" Hilburn brought it in in the form of a newspaper clipping.

Signor Mussolini was born in the year 1883; he came into power in the year 1922; he has been in power 18 years and his age is 57.

Joe Stalin was born in 1879; he came into power in 1924; he has been in power 16 years; his age is 61.

Adolf Hitler was born in 1889; he came into power in 1933; he has been in power 7 years; his age is 51.

Franklin Roosevelt was born in 1882; he came into power in 1933; he has been in power 7 years; he is 58 years old.

Get out your paper and pencil and add the figures for each. (For example, for Mussolini, add 1883, 1922, 18 and 57.)

You'll find that in each man's case the figures total 3880!

Divide 3880 by 2 and you get 1940 the current year!

The Plainsman doesn't know what all this means, if anything.

But it is an interesting state of affairs, anyhow!

HERE AND THERE: Our thanks to the good people of the Tabernacle Baptist church, and to its pastor, Rev. Ben Johnson, for their thoughtful passage of a resolution thanking Avalanche-Journal papers for publicizing recent church activities.... "Judge" Landis, boss of KFYO, says it is practically impossible to convince new radio talkers to refrain from clearing their throats into the microphone... He tells all "mike neophytes" to avoid the practice but they won't pay any attention to him!... The writer received a postcard from Carlsbad, N. M., that was unaddressed save for the words "Lubbock, Texas." Reason: the picture on the card was dedicated to a plainsman... John W. Wilson, member of the Junior High school faculty, asks us to explain that he is not the John W. Wilson who wrote two recent letters to the editor, panning numerous American beliefs and traditions... Mr. Wilson of Junior High has written no letters and is very unhappy because some readers thought he was the author of those published... Somebody sent this in: "We wouldn't mind trying to pronounce the names of the Hubber baseball players if they'd only go into a winning streak!"... Which reminds us to tell you that no one feels quite so badly over the Hubbers' poor showing thus far as does Manager Charlie Engle... Each defeat hurts him deeply—almost like somebody stuck a hot iron into him... Worried over a series of injuries to some of his best men, over the lackadaisical attitude of various players and over the greenest collection of kids ever seen in professional ball, Engle is not himself... Normally, he is a comedian—a happy-go-lucky, rollicking young man as he was for awhile last night... His antics once were famous and popular in Texas league parks... But under recent conditions, the Little Round Man has found it impossible to relax and be himself... While the Hubbers have looked lousy to us nearly every time we've seen 'em except last night, we still hope for something better after Billy Webb, who bosses the White Sox farms, gets here and looks things over.

YESTERDAY: Jan puts Johnny in his place. She is pleased when Lance finds Derek a good listener, although "too close-mouthed" about himself.

CHAPTER SIX
No Work No Eat

"You asked Derek not to tell me about his suicide attempt?" repeated Lance. "Because of my reaction? Don't be a silly goose, Sis. In my opinion it takes a lot more courage to live than die. I told him so, but he didn't agree. Please, honey, don't ever let anything like that worry you. I know when I get those fits of depression I say I'd rather be dead, but I don't mean it. Not so long as I have you. I guess I just have to let off steam when the pressure gets too high."

She dropped to her knees beside his chair and laid her cheek against his hand. "He wants to stay here with us, Lance. I've got a crazy idea I can do something for him, readjust him, somehow. Have I a crusader's complex, do you think?"

"A too developed maternal complex, I'd say. You always did drag in stray cats and pups when you were a little kid. Mother used to have a fit, but Dad always made up excuses for you."

"It seems like more than four years since—"

"I'm glad they went before this happened to me. It would have hurt them so." She sensed his withdrawal from the pain of remembering. He went on: "It doesn't seem very provident to keep the fellow here, Jan. We have so little as it is and we've talked of taking in another roomer this summer."

"Lance, will it be all right if I promise to make him useful?" she pleaded. "I'll try to make him a paying proposition, if I can. There's jobs to be had around here with summer coming on. Maybe Captain Tuppie will take him on one of his fishing barges."

Lance patted her wind-tumbled hair. "All right, baby, if it'll make you happy to have a stray man to fret over."

"Johnny was so mean about it this morning," she said in a little-girl voice against the woolly blanket. "He suspects Derek of everything from larceny to may-hem."

"Well, I hope Johnny isn't right," Lance sighed.

She looked up, defiance in her deep blue eyes. "You don't think he's a criminal, Lance?"

"I don't know anything to think, Jan. But your man had better make good or Johnny and I will both annihilate him!"

Put on the defensive she deliberately submerged any doubts she herself had. "He's a fine person," she declared. "I'll prove it to you. Wait and see."

She stirred to action. She would find Derek and tell him he had to get a job right away.

But Derek was nowhere in the house, she found. He must have gone for a walk, and here she was in a mood to talk to him without mincing words. Later she might not be, her moods were so evanescent.

Disturbed, nervous, not nearly so sure as she'd tried to make Lance believe, she sought the grand piano and the soothing touch of its keys. Although she did not practice enough to play really well, her fingers were light and facile and drew comfort for her from the classics she loved. In the semi-dusk of the familiar, friendly living room she dropped to the piano bench and let her fingers drift into the sad beauty of Schumert's Serenade.

Smooth Mask

Enrapt, singing the words softly to herself, she didnt hear the door open nor did she see Derek come in. When the last tone sighed into silence she looked up and saw him. The expression on his face startled her, hurt her in some vague manner she could not comprehend: It was an expression of torment, of agonizing frustration. Then a smooth, blank mask covered it and she felt as if, for a fleeting moment, she had been permitted to look into his soul.

"Derek," she began. "I have something to say to you—"

But he fled upstairs with the panicky step of a man pursued by ghosts, leaving her alone with the echo of Schubert.

Jan emptied the contents of her coin purse on the kitchen table. Eighty-nine cents and two three-cent stamps. "And four people to feed," she wailed softly to herself. "Johnny's rent is due tomorrow, but that doesn't help out tonight. And I ought to get Derek a razor and toothbrush and comb. I suppose I could borrow money from Norma if she gets home in time, but I hate to do that. I guess I'll make a meat loaf. Hamburger's cheap enough."

Lifting her old black sweater from the hook on the kitchen door, she mumbled to Neptune, "Thirty-five cents ought to do it. I've got plenty of potatoes, butter, bread and coffee. Oh, yes, and a can of peaches for dessert. I wonder why he looked like that and why did he run away? Is my playing as bad as all that?"

Frank had his big fist lifted to knock as she pulled open the front door. A delighted grin creased his broad face. "I'm bringing pay for last night's feast," he said, extending a newspaper-wrapped bundle to her. "Yellow tail, and a big one!"

"I could hug you for this," Jan cried. "I'm down to hamburger tonight. Frank, this is grand. Lance loves fish—want to eat with us?"

"Wish I could, but I have to play watchman tonight. If you think of it, you might send a cup of coffee over to the station about ten. Guess I'll run up and see Lance a minute, I think I've got a buyer for the clipper ship he just finished. Say, I almost forgot to ask, how's that bird you pulled out yesterday?"

"Hale and hearty, I guess. At least he eats as if he were. Frank, you don't happen to know of some kind of job for him, do you?"

"Job?" Frank rubbed his brown jaw thoughtfully. "Does that mean he's going to hang around here awhile?"

"So he says."

"Now, listen, Jan, if you don't want him around just say the word."

"I want him around if he works," she put in hastily. "I need money. I thought maybe Cap Tupple?"

"That old grouch. He'd love to mistake me for a tuna and stick a harpoon in me! Trouble with him is he's griped because he has to run fishing barges instead of liners. He ain't fit for anything but a barge,

MORE TROUBLE FOR PENDERGAST

Former Boss Tom Pendergast of Kansas City apparently is destined to receive a second lesson before many days pass in a course which might be entitled, "crime never pays."

As most newspaper readers will recall, Pendergast now is completing a term in federal prison for income tax frauds after having ruled Kansas City as a virtual dictator for almost 20 years. For a long time it seemed that Pendergast was one "big shot" in the nation who not only had made a paying proposition of wholesale crime, but that he was completely beyond the reach of the law.

However, the law finally caught up with him and now he is in prison. Efforts have been made from time to time to obtain leniency for him, but they have been flat failures. Still he has had cause to hope that he would live to see the day when he would be a free man again.

That hope now has been all but blasted. Three federal judges have demanded that he be prosecuted for his part in a notorious and gigantic fraud in connection with an insurance case compromise. The demand from such source cannot be ignored, and the prospect is that Pendergast will be tried, convicted and returned to prison to serve other terms if he lives long enough.

It is to be expected that attempt will be made to raise the cry of persecution for the one-time czar. Actually, even if he remains in prison the rest of his life, he will have paid only a portion of his debt he owes the law.

Dies Puts John L. Lewis "On Spot" Over Communism In CI

Heavily Armored Battleships Cost More!

By BRUCE CATTON
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 30—A nice, gloomy note for the taxpayer in connection with the preparedness program is the fact battleships are going to be even more expensive if they are actually to be made airplane-proof along the lines suggested by Secretary of the Navy Edison.

Catton

Naval experts have figured it would take a protective shell of 7 1-2 inch armor plate to render a battleship invulnerable to the latest type of 2,000-pound bomb. Not only will that kind of sheathing be expensive, but applying it as a standard thing would practically mean starting from scratch and building a lot of new vessels. Existing ships just couldn't carry the weight.

That, in turn, would mean battleships much larger than any now in existence. Some navy people are talking about ships of 60,000 or 70,000 tons, at costs estimated around $125,000,000 apiece.

Existing craft could be given shields that would protect them adequately from small bombs and that would cut down casualties from flying splinters and stray bits of gear. But these couldn't, say the experts, get 100 per cent protection.

Battleships Good News

Just to show you the scale in which some people are viewing the defense program for the next decade—it is being argued in some quarters that these $125,000,000, turtle-backed battle wagons actually come under the head of good news for the American people.

The argument goes like this: nobody on earth could afford to build that kind of ship except Uncle Sam. It might almost break him, but he could do it; and since nobody else could, he would presently have the only airplane-proof battle fleet in all the world and hence would be undisputed lord of the seas.

Cleavage May Grow

Martin Dies' demand that John L. Lewis "make known there is no place on American soil for agents of foreign powers" by ridding the CIO of Communists highlights a sharp cleavage that has been developing within the CIO ever since last fall.

This cleavage has not come to an open break, and may not do so. Further, it is concerned with other issues in addition to the question of Communism. But it has become of increasing concern to friends of the labor movement, and with the present emphasis on "fifth column" perils it is likely to become wider rather than narrower.

In effect, the CIO today is divided into two groups. One is headed by Lewis himself; the other by Sidney Hillman, head of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers.

The Hillman faction wants to purge Communists from the CIO, but Lewis has successfully resisted.

It is easy to misconstrue Lewis' position. He certainly is no Communist, nor is he, as is sometimes loosely asserted, "under Communist domination."

Some of his recent pronouncements on isolation, the New Deal and the need for co-operation among all left-wing[s] jibe with the party friends say Lewis [has] always did and [still] munists who are [fol]not vice versa. But, [in] practical effect [it] leaders who are [fight]munists and the [party] the moment, fighting

These rates for consecutive insertion only. All out-of-town ads received by mail must be cash with order. No exception. "NO REFUND" on ad stopped after it has appeared in paper.

PHONE 18, 14, 15 OR 16

Our experienced ad taker will receive your ad and help you to word it, then our collector will call the following day.

THESE ACCOUNTS ARE "ACCOMMODATION ACCOUNTS" FOR OUR PATRONS AND FOR ONE DAY ONLY.

No advertisements accepted on an "until forbid" order. A specified number of insertions must be given.

We reserve the right to place an advertisement under the proper classification and reject unclean or objectionable copy.

Obituaries and cards of thanks at regular classified advertising rates.

The publishers are not responsible for any omissions, typographical errors or any unintentional error that may occur further than to correct it next issue after it is brought to their attention. All advertising orders are accepted on this basis only.

The Avalanche-Journal can not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion of a classified ad. Advertisers should check their ads on first day of publication and immediately notify the Classified Department if any mistakes occur. Classified Advertising accepted until 5 p. m. on week days and Saturdays.

For classified display advertising information—

PHONE 18, 14, 15 OR 16
TO DISCONTINUE AN AD

Notice to Discontinue an Ad must be given after 8 a. m. and before 6 p. m. to some member of the Classified Advertisement Department. We cannot be responsible for notice given before or after these hours, and to members of some other department.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

The Avalanche-Journal is a member of the Association of Newspaper Classified Advertising Managers which includes leading Newspapers throughout the country and has as its aim the elimination of fraudulent and misleading Classified Advertising.

TEXANS TURN TO F.H.A. HOMES UNDER $3,000
Texas families in ever increasing numbers are turning to FHA financing facilities in building or purchasing homes costing $3,000 or less, officials of the FHA report. So marked has been the increase in the demand for these homes, which may be bought on payments of $25 a month or less, that we have recently placed on the market a number of ideal building sites which are suitable for homes of this cost. Let us show you some ideal lots in 85 and 60 foot frontage that will meet every requirement of the FHA, and we will get your FHA loan for you, then your housing worries will be over. Call us for appointment to explain in full. There is no obligation.

British Take Drastic Steps To Curb Defeatis

DONALD DUCK — B (R) EACH OF ETIQUETTE — BY WALT DISNEY

Final Exams At Tech Are Completed Today

Texas Technological college final examinations for the closing term will be completed this afternoon.

A series of commencement activities will keep graduating students busy until after the commencement service Monday night.

The dormitories will not close between end of the long session and opening of the summer session, although meals will not be served June 4 and 5, said Miss Mozelle Craddock, business manager. Registration for the first term is scheduled for June 6.

There are five "poles" in the Arctic: North Pole, pole of the greatest cold; magnetic pole; ice pole and wind pole.

Keever Funeral Is Held On Wednesday

Funeral services for James B Keever, pioneer South Plains resident, were conducted in Sanders chapel here Wednesday afternoon. Burial was in Lubbock cemetery.

Officiating were Rev. Jesse B Leverett, pastor of the Silverton First Baptist church and Rev. W. K. Johnston, retired minister of Lubbock.

Mr. Keever died at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Tahoka residence of a daughter, Mrs. L. E. Bigham. He was 88 years old.

Born in Lincoln county, N. C., he was a merchant several years. He was married June 22, 1881, to Miss Alice Bell Douthit of Wilks county, N. C., and seven children were born.

In 1911, Mr. Keever and his family moved to Tahoka and he operated a business several years, later liquidating and moving with Mrs. Keever to Lubbock. They lived here four years and when Mrs. Keever died Mr. Keever spent the rest of his life with his children, mostly at Mrs. Bigham's residence.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church and the IOOF.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Bigham and Mrs. W. C. Bishop of Chillicothe; three sons, E. E. Keever of Pratt, Kas., C. D. Keever of 1619 Ninth street in Lubbock, and James B. Keever, jr., of Hutchinson, Kas.; one sister, Mrs. W. H. Hicks of North Carolina; 16 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

South Is Training Ground For Pilots

WASHINGTON, May 30 (AP)—The south will be the training ground for virtually all the 7,000 new pilots to be turned out annually under the army's program of air force expansion.

Grig. Gen. Jacob E. Fickel, assistant chief in charge of training, said the general policy would be to use schools and training centers south of the 37th degree latitude. Roughly, this follows the northern boundaries of North Carolina, Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Arizona. Southern California is south of the line.

Mild winter weather is more favorable to uninterrupted work, it was explained.

Tactics Of 1914 Are Repeated By Allies In The Flooding Of Port Of Dunkerque

(By The Associated Press)

Dunkerque, which disputes with Bordeaux the right to be known as France's third-ranking seaport, is the northernmost city in France. It lies ten miles from the Belgian border and is only 45 miles from Dover and 108 miles—by water—from London.

In flooding its environs to cover their retreat, the Allies of 1940 thus repeated the tactics of 1914.

In October, 1914, after the fall of Antwerp and the first battle of the Marne, the Belgians opened the sluices along the Yser river, a bit east of the present flooding. That permitted them to hold their line and save their channel ports from German occupation.

Important As Base

In the World war it was important to the Allies as a base for anti-submarine operations and as a subsidiary base for the Dover patrol which harried German positions along the Belgian coast.

As such Dunkerque was the target for frequent German air attacks. In September 1916, the German lines drew close enough so that the town was subjected to artillery bombardment from 22 miles away.

Air raids and shell fire took some 1,500 lives during the World war, and also destroyed the roof of the church of St. Eloi.

It was St. Eloi who, in erecting a church in the waste of sand dunes close to the sea in the seventh century, both started the town and gave it its name, a compound of the Flemish "Duin" (dune) and "kerk" (church).

A strongly fortified port as early as the middle ages, Dunkerque in modern times has been made a central part of fortifications that include inundations and canals and also take in the smaller, near-by towns of Bergues, Bourbourg and Gravelines. The latter is on the coast, half way to Calais, which lies 255 miles to the east.

While its port handles 5,000,000 tons of goods in a normal year, including heavy imports of wool from the Argentine and Australia, Dunkerque's own industries include spinning of jute, flax, hemp and cotton; iron foundries; manufacture of cod liver oil (the city is the base of a cod-fishing fleet which fishes off Iceland), shipbuilding and oil refining.

A tax was laid on funerals in England in 1793.
