Government Seeks Solution To Bitter GM Wage Dispute

Lubbock Joins Nation In Solemn Thanksgiving Day Observance

LUBBOCK opened its Thanksgiving observance here last night in a reverent manner as residents packed the First Christian church at the annual union service sponsored by the Lubbock Ministerial alliance.

Rev. John A. Winslow, rector of St. Paul's on the Plains Episcopal church, delivered the sermon, listing the things the nation has to be thankful for this year, and also the responsibilities that go with these things. Dr. J. M. Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, explained the program for teaching the Bible in public schools. The night's offering went to this cause.

Songs On Program

Songs were by the A Capella choir of Lubbock Senior High school, directed by Mrs. John Watson. High school students met after the service for the Senior High Religious council's Thanksgiving party.

Others on the program included Rev. Cecil R. Mathews, director of the Wesley Foundation; Dr. C. E. Hereford, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Dr. C. A. Bickley, pastor of Asbury Methodist church. Rev. H. G. Gantz, pastor of the First Christian church, presided.

Business Firms To Close

Business houses and offices are closed today, along with the banks and the First Federal Savings and Loan association, the postoffice and all governmental agencies, including the U. S. Employment service, Navy, commerce offices in the City hall.

The only postal service today will be delivery of parcels and special delivery items.

Students in Lubbock's school system were dismissed from classes Wednesday, not to return until Monday, giving them one of their longest holiday periods of the term. Texas Tech will observe a similar period beginning next Wednesday.

This morning at 11 o'clock, a special service will be held at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, at 2202 Broadway. The order of service includes the reading of a lesson-sermon on the toplic of Thanksgiving, with opportunity afforded for testimonies of gratitude. A general invitation was issued.

Reunions To Be Held

The day is due to be one of many family reunions. Hundreds of former service men will be spending their first Thanksgiving at home in several years.

Between 2,000 and 3,000 Lubbockites are expected to go to Amarillo where the Lubbock Westerners will meet the Amarillo Sandies in a traditional Thanksgiving classic.

Nine chartered buses, available to students for the first time since the beginning of World War II, will carry approximately 240 high

Fighting Flares In Central Java

BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 21 (AP)—Fighting broke out in Ambarawa in central Java today after Indonesians attacked a civilian internment camp, and British Gurka troops in a forced overnight march rescued thousands of women and children endangered b ythe new eruption of battle.

The new disorders flared amid reports that Indonesian leaders might cancel peace talks scheduled for tomorrow with the Dutch and British in efforts to end fighting which has caused an estimated 6,000 nationalist casualties at Soerabaja alone.

Camp Under Fire

Indonesians attacked the Ambarawa camp with mortar and machinegun fire, setting it aflame, dispatches said. The Gurkhas marched from Semarang, scene of bitter fighting yesterday, to protect thousands of terrified internees who had been evacuated to Ambarawa from Semarang and other trouble spots.

British planes flew over the town, and the RAF was reported ready for battle action, or to fly

TEXAS will slow down to a job today when schools, offices and stores close in honor of the first peaceful Thanksgiving since Pearl Harbor.

Churches throughout the state are holding special services.

The traditional Turkey Day football game bqiween Texas and Texas A. & M. will be lacking, however. Originally scheduled for Nov. 29, the date could not be changed when the earlier Thanksgiving was made official and the annual grid classic will be held next Thursday.

As a result, Austin will be the lone Texas city not observing Thanksgiving today. It will close next Thursday, the day of the big game.

Elsewhere, however, the state observes Thanksgiving sincerely, solemnly.

A sunrise service is planned at Houston. Union services are being held at Denison, Hillsboro, San Antonio, Amarillo, Abilene, Galveston, Beaumont, and in other cities. Special services are set for Army camps.

Grid Games On Menu

Amarillo and Lubbock held community Thanksgiving services last night, also.

Thanksgiving day football games will be played at Denison, where Denison and Sherman meet, at Abilene, where San Angelo and Abilene tangle, and at San Antonio, where the game between Thomas Jefferson and Brackenridge may determine the district championship, as well as in numerous other Texas cities.

Service men are being welcomed in Houston homes, and at Galveston merchant seamen are given a dinner by the United Seaman's service, the USO is giving a dance, and the Salvation Army reinstitutes a dinner for unemployables. Army personnel at San Antonio will have a half-day holiday.

Federal and state offices and banks close throughout the state, and schools are dismissing, not to resume classes until Monday. Most stores also are closing today.

ONE OF TRIPLETS DEAD

BROWNWOOD, Nov. 21 (AP) — Two survivors of the triplet girls born yesterday in a Caesarean operation to Mrs. Irwin Norwood, 37, were described in "fine" condition today and condition of the mother was reported as "fair."

DeGaulle Assumes Control Of Army Under Coalition Setup

PARIS, Nov. 21 (AP)—President de Gaulle, ending a nine-day cabinet crisis, today announced formation of a coalition government in which all France's armed forces are unified under his single command.

De Gaulle created a new cabinet post for Communists—the ministry of armaments. De Gaulle himself, however, as president and as chief of the armies, "assumed direction of the national defense."

Abolishes Former Posts

The announcement said de Gaulle "will be assisted" in direction of national defense by Communist Charles Tillon, former air minister, now appointed minister of armaments, and by Armand Michelet of the Popular Republican Movement (MRP) as minister of the armies.

The old posts of ministers of air, navy, and army are abolished.

De Gaulle, who threatened to resign because of demands by the dominant Communist party for either the war, interior of foreign affairs ministries, explained that the role he envisions for France—that of intermediary between the United States and Soviet Russia—prevented him from acceding to the party's demands.

All Get Equal Share

The new "coalition" setup was achieved by giving the three major parties—the Communists, Socialists and MRP—equal shares of the 21 portfolios. Little doubt was seen that the constituent assembly would give the government a vote of confidence on Friday.

Twelve members of de Gaulle's former provisional government remain, including Foreign Affairs Minister Georges Bidault. A newcomer to a cabinet post is novelist Andre Malraux, who becomes minister of information.

Leahy Surprised At Admiral's Protest

By WILLIAM T. PEACOCK
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21—Admiral J. O. Richardson's 1940 protests to President Roosevelt that the fleet was "unmanned" and "unready" came as a surprise to Admiral William D. Leahy, the latter testified today.

Leahy told the Senate-House committee investigating Pearl Harbor that he was "distrassed" because he had been saying the fleet was ready and because he considered war with Japan a "likely contingency."

Leahy Confirms Talk

Leahy was at that time governor of Puerto Rico and later became chief of staff to the President.

From Leahy the committee heard his recollections of the luncheon conference the two admirals had with the President and of the conversations to which Richardson attributed his later removal as commander of the fleet.

After the luncheon, Leahy said, he expressed to Richardson his surprise and distress over the latter's statement the fleet was "unmanned" and "unready." The two, he explained, drove away from the luncheon in the same car.

Though he had no recollection of some other remarks which Richardson said were made, Leahy agreed that his fellow admiral told the President that American ships did not have their full complement of men, lacked facilities at Pearl Harbor, and lacked oil for extensive operations. Richardson had said he had urged that the fleet be removed from Hawaiian waters to the west coast but the President disagreed.

Relieved By Kimmel

That was on Oct. 8, 1940. The following Feb. 1, Richardson was detached as commander in chief of the fleet and relieved by Admiral Husband E. Kimmel who was in command when the Japanese attacked.

Richardson testified that when he arrived in Washington in March he told the late Secretary of the Navy Knox that he had "never known of a flag officer being detached from command of the U. S. fleet in the same manner that I was, and I feel that I owe it to myself to inquire why I was detached."

Hurt President's Feelings

He quoted Knox as replying that the President would "send for me and talk the matter over with me."

"Did the President ever send for you? asked Senator Ferguson (R-Mich)

"He did not."

When Ferguson pressed as to whether he ever received any indication of why he was detached,

Yamashita Said Tool Of Tokyo

MANILA, Thursday, Nov. 22. Lt. Gen. Akira Muto, chief of staff to Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita who is on trial as an accused war criminal, threw in a few good words for his old boss today, but the praise quickly was stricken from the record.

Maj. Gen. Russell B. Reynolds, president of the U. S. military commission hearing charges that Yamashita condoned wholesale horrors by his troops in the Philippines, interrupted Muto to caution that he was not a character witness and that his remarks were out of line.

Orders From Tokyo

Muto tried a final plug for his former commander.

"I was absolutely astounded when I learned about him being indicted as a war criminal," he said, but the remark was ordered stricken.

Questioned by Yamashita's chief counsel, Col. Harry Clarke, Muto reiterated former testimony that all of Yamashita's operational orders came direct from Tokyo. Clarke was trying to show that Yamashita was not in full command.

Under Field Marshall

Yesterday, Muto testified that of 300,000 troops on Luzon under various commands, Yamashita controlled 120,000, and these only as a subordinate of Field Marshal Count Hisaichi Terauchi, commander of southern areas including the Philippines.

Last December, Muto testified,

Autopsy Fails To Reveal Death Cause

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)—An autopsy on the body of Actor Ralph Holmes, second husband of blues singer Libby Holman, failed to disclose today the cause of death, assistant medical examiner Robert C. Fisher said at Bellevue hospital.

Holmes, recently discharged a captain from the U. S. Army Air force, was found dead last night in his east side apartment. Police said Holmes had been dead several days and death resulted from "apparently natural causes."

Secret 'Pact' Is Revealed

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. — Heretofore secret assurances to Japan that the Allies would return its surrendered soldiers to Japan were revealed today by Secretary of State Byrnes in explaining continued presence of U. S. Marines in China.

Byrnes told a news conference that these assurances go beyond the Potsdam ultimatum which said merely that the enemy soldiers would be "permitted" to return home. He said it is the duty of the Allied forces to accomplish the surrender of the Japanese units wherever they are and see that they get home. The speed is dependent in some degree on transportation, Byrnes said.

May Stay Many Months

His comments immediately raised speculation among diplomats here that American Marines and other forces would be active in strifetorn China for a fairly long time.

It was, in fact, a question of how soon these United States forces in North China—scene of conflict between Chinese government and Chinese Communist forces — might be withdrawn which set off the discussion that led to mention of the undisclosed assurances.

Byrnes was reminded that about two weeks ago he said there was planning under way for withdrawal of the Marines. He was asked how the situation stands now.

Agree To Return Soldiers

His information, he replied, is the same as it was two weeks ago when it was communicated by Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, American commander in China.

Then Byrnes added that his information as to the fighting and shooting in China is that reports of it have been exaggerated. He did not say in what way.

He went on to say the Marines are there as the result of Japan's surrender. As far back as Aug. 16 and 17, he said, the United States advised the Japanese government that in carrying out the Potsdam declaration the supreme commander, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, would see to it that the surrender was accomplished and Japanese soldiers returned to Japan. There are now about 300,000 Japanese civilians and soldiers of equal number in North China, Byrnes said. He called it our duty to bring about their surrender and their return home.

Matt Kimes Reported In Texas City Area

HOUSTON, Nov. 21 (AP) — A search for Matt Kimes, wanted for bank robbery, was spurred here tonight by the report of a Texas City, Tex., man that he was in that area Tuesday night.

W. L. Ladish, police chief at Texas City, said a man who knew Kimes years ago stated he had seen him in a tavern near there with two women.

Kimes is one of four men charged in the $17,000 robbery of the First State Bank of Morton, Tex., last Sept. 5. Forty-two days before the bank was robbed he was released from the Oklahoma State prison at McAlester for a 60-day period. He was serving two life terms on murder convictions.

Ladish refused to identify the man who said he saw Kimes because of "possible reprisals."

Youth Walks Around With Broken Neck

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 21 (AP) —An 11-year old boy was hospitalized today after walking around for 36 hours with a broken neck.

The boy, Darryl Underwood, fell while playing soccer at school. He picked himself up and walked home.

Later, he complained of pains in his head, ears and chest so X-rays were taken.

Dr. Walker Harold Horton explained that while most victims die immediately, a dislocated vertebrae became wedged so that there was little pressure on the spinal cord.

Bus Service Taken Over

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The government took over strike-paralyzed street car and bus lines in the capital today and President Truman denounced the walkout as a blow "at the very roots of orderly government."

The President, saying that the walkout by some 3,000 AFL unionists violated a no-strike clause in the contract between the union and the Capital Transit company, asserted:

Blunt Warning Sounded

"The federal government will not permit this kind of action to interfere with its processes either in the capital of any part of the nation."

The President's statement said that the strike "is a blow at the sanctity of labor agreements. . . . The action of this union brings discredit on the whole body of organized labor which naturally decries any violation of sacred covenants."

ODT To Run System

The Office of Defense Transportation was directed to take over the transit system and operate it, with any assistance from the Army that might be necessary. Under the Smith-Connally act, any one promoting a strike in a government-operated facility is liable to fine or imprisonment.

A few cars and busses started moving shortly after the ODT took control and asked the strikers to resume work. Officials forecast that tomorrow's holiday schedules would be met and that service would be normal on Friday.

Union Has No Comment

The union issued no immediate comment on Mr. Truman's statement.

The strike, the second here this month, started at 3 a. m. today. It affected more than 300,000 government workers and 200,000 other persons who use the street cars and buses daily.

The workers are demanding a pay increase of 30 cents an hour which would bring their base pay to $1.25 an hour. The company offered $1.02 an hour with a stipulation for a 48-hour week.

AFL taxicab drivers met in the rain on a vacant lot to decide whether to halt operation but voted to delay any action for 10 days. They have been asking a limit on the number of cabs which may be licensed here and a new zone system for fares.

Tension Mounts In North Iran

TEHRAN, Nov. 21 (AP) — An Iranian military spokesman tonight declared that "approximately 6,000 Russian troops have been moved toward Karaj," 25 miles northwest of Tehran, and asserted "tension is growing" in troubled northwest Iran.

Araj is on the highway between this capital and Kazvin, 80 miles to the northwest, where Russian troops yesterday halted Iranian reinforcements sent to put down disorders in Azerbaijan, the mountainous, Russian-occupied Iranian province bordering the Soviet union. The commander of the four Iranian battaions halted, but ignored Soviet orders to return to Tehran.

The military spokesman did not amplify hi sstatement that 6,000 Russians had moved toward Karaj.

Family Travels 7,000 Miles In Small Boat To Reach U. S.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Nov. 21. (AP)—Capt. Kou Walter, his wife and three children, and his crew of one dropped anchor in Biscayne bay today after sailing 7,000 miles from Sweden in a yawl one-third the tonnage of Columbus' smallest ship.

One of the voyagers was baby Belme, who spent five of her nine months on the journey. The latter-day Vikings had nothing much on Columbus, except a can opener.

Yet to Walter, the odyssey was nothing out of the ordinary.

"I come of a family of seamen," the 38-year-old skipper, a native of Estonia, explained mildly.

Walter, with the aid of Mihkel Kovamees, 54, an old friend and retired sea captain, handled the 47-foot, 15-ton sailboat on the Atlantic crossing.

His wife, Clarissa, 32, took charge of the galley with its miniature cookstove—and the three children: baby Helme, Aloha, 10, and Maia, 9.

"The children were no trouble," said Walter, only member of the group who speaks English. "The younger they are the better they can take it."

Gen. Patch Is Death Victim

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Lt. Gen. Alexander McCarrell Patch, Jr., 55, commander of the Seventh army in its drive through France and Germany and commander of the Fourth Army at Fort Sam Houston, died of pneumonia tonight in Brooke General hospital.

General Patch succumbed to pneumonia after an illness of more than a week. He was admitted to the hospital Nov. 14, suffering from what hospital authorities described as a "special type" of pneumonia.

Was Ill Several Days

At his bedside when death came at 8:10 p. m. (Central Standard Time) were his wife, his daughter, Julia, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alexander M. Patch III.

General Patch would have been 56 on Friday. He had been ill several days.

Patch handled the final mopping up of the Japanese on Guadalcanal, moving in with Army troops late in 1942 to relieve Marines. Previously he had commanded United States troops in New Caledonia.

Headed Southern Invasion

It was early in 1944 that he was made commander of the U. S. Seventh army in Europe. In midsummer he led that army when it carried out invasion operations on the southern French coast. A few days after the landings he was given the temporary rank of lieutenant general.

Son of an Army officer, Patch was born Nov. 23, 1889 at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., and was appointed to the U. S. Military Academy from Pennsylvania in 1909.

During the first World war he participated in the Aisne-Marne, St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives.

General Patch returned to the United States in March 1945 to head the Fourth Army corps.

Survivors include his wife, Julia Lillell Patch. A son, Alexander M. Patch, III served as an infantry officer.

Also at the bedside was his brother, Maj. Gen. Joseph Patch, who arrived yesterday from Washington.

Veteran of the first World war, Patch assumed command of the Fourth army here last July.

Police Probe Death Of Gainesville Youth

GAINESVILLE, Nov. 21 (AP) — Texas Ranger M. K. Dixon today joined city and county authorities in an investigation of the fatal shooting of Bill Purcell, 18, of Gainesville, while on a hunting trip yesterday.

Joe Purcell, jr., twin brother of the dead boy, said he was hunting with his brother and another boy near here yesterday when they heard a shot and a bullet passed over their heads. The youths shouted a warning. Another bullet was fired, Joe Purcell, jr., said, striking Bill Purcell in the neck as he crouched behind a tree.

He died before reaching a hospital.

Sheriff Carl Wilson said today a knee print was found in the soft dirt near the scene of the shooting.

Huge Industry Closed Tight

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Nov. 21—The Federal government tonight sought a solution to the bitter wage dispute which led to a strike of nearly 200,000 General Motors corporation employes today.

The action came as Walter Reuther, vice president of the United Auto Workers (CIO), told a press conference that 96 per cent of GM's far flung industrial empire was shut down tight as a result of the walkout at 10 a. m. (CST) today.

Meeting Planned Friday

"The other four per cent is under consideration," Reuther added, but he did not amplify the remark.

General Motors spokesmen reported 175,000 production employes were out on strike but would not hazard a guess as to how many of the 73,500 salaried workers were idle because of picket lines or other causes connected with the strike.

Reuther confirmed reports that John Gibson, special assistant to secretary of Labor Schwellenbach, had requested a meeting with union officials here Friday to review the strike situation.

Washington Meeting Talked

Earlier reports from Washington indicated Gibson, a former president of the Michigan CIO council, had been empowered to arrange separate meetings with the union and company to seek resumption of negotiations on wage differences.

Company officials said they had the meeting.

The Washington story said Gibson was to return there Friday to give Secretary Schwellenbach a first-hand report on the strike which hit General Motors plants in 20 states today. Some sources indicated company and UAW representatives would be summoned to Washington to confer with high government officials.

Affects 325,000 Workers

Reuther told his press conference that "nearly 325,000 General Motors workers would be affected b ythis strike." The UAW official said 160,000 had been listed as eligible to cast ballots in the strike vote which the National Labor Relations board recently took at GM.

"That was at the start of the reconversion period and GM has added many thousands since then," he asserted.

Asked if the union, which called the strike to support its demands for 30 per cent wage rate increases, could support a strike "until Nov., 1946," Reuthers replied:

"We will travel the road to the bitter end. We're right and when

Solons Assail Labor Strikes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Amid angry denunciations of strikes, the House rules committee today dispatched to the House floor legislation applying heavy penalties to unions which violate no-strike contracts.

It would deprive such unions of collective bargaining rights for a year, and subject them to civil damages if employers could prove injury.

Other Provisions Included

Other provisions in the bill would:

Amend the corrupt practices act to prohibit unions or their subordinate affiliates from participating financially in national primary or general elections.

Strike from the Smith-Connally labor disputes act authority for government seizure of struck war plants and likewise delete a provision under which the national labor relations board conducts strike ballots.

Quick Showdown Soon

The rules committee also acted to clear the way for a House vote on legislation to punish anyone interfering unlawfully with interstate shipments of goods.

The actions, taken in executive session on a 6 to 12 vote, came despite administration supporters' pleas for delay. How long House leaders could keep the legislation from a House vote was doubtful,

Million Germans May Starve This Winter In U. S. Occupation Zone

Maj. Steve Debnam, an officer on leave from the Allied Military government said Wednesday that possibilities that one million Germans in the American occupation zone may starve this winter—one out of every four—creates possibly the ultimate test of the reception there of the democratic ideology.

He was addressing the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club, held a day early because of Thursday's national holiday, in the east ballroom of Lubbock hotel.

Debnam is a former county agent in this area and is now making his home in Lubbock.

Pulls No Punches

Debnam's address pulled no punches, and at its conclusion there were numerous questions from the large audience. The officer is charged with feeding Germans, under a rationing system that allows the barest number of calories that will sustain life of possibly three-fourths of those inside the American zone, on food produced in Germany.

He said that discouraging conditions in Germany may be taken as a testing field for democracy in the future. Now, he said, we have won a victory and "find ourselves at the half period, poised to see whether we'll have another war to fight. Whether we do may depend upon our immediate reaction to the needs for food and medicines and trust and attempts toward better adjustment of the economies of nations so that hope for survival and appreciation may succeed, rather than revolution fostered by dispair."

He said that this nation should "not expect of peace conferences and international missions solutions that could be subscribed to overnight; a business man lays plans, arranges financing, has blueprints drawn and does not become impatient and chuck the whole idea when his plans fail to materialize at a moment's notice. The family of nations must be even less lacking in patience—must employ ever so much more tolerance. It may be a long time before the distrust between nations—possibly as deserved from the standpoint of one as from that of another—can be dissipated."

Sailor Drives Into Channel And Drowns

PASADENA, Nov. 21. (U.P.) — Charles Grant Briggs, 19-year-old Houston sailor, was killed early today when he drove an automobile into the Houston ship channel at a ferry landing and sank in 35 feet of water.

The body of the yoeman second class was found in the rear seat of the sedan when the automobile was pulled from the water by a wench truck at daybreak.

The car crashed through the protective chain on the ferry landing at 2:45 a. m. and went down 35 feet from shore. Witnesses said the car was going about 40 miles an hour when it hit the chain and apparently Briggs did not know the road ended at the landing.

Briggs, a veteran of 31 months in the Pacific, had borrowed the car to take his mother, sister and a girl friend home from his farewell party. He was to have returned to his ship within a few days.

Wainwright To Be Fort Worth Guest

FORT WORTH, Nov. 21. (U.P.)— Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, hero of Bataan and Corregidor who was rescued from a Japanese prison camp in Mukden, Manchuria, will be a guest of Fort Worth Dec. 17, for a Victory Loan rally.

Tarrant county loan drive officials said that it would be the only stop for the general in Texas, except that he might visit one or more military installations in the state.

It will be a sort of "homecoming" for Wainwright, who served his first duty in Texas after graduating from West Point. He was assigned to Fort Clark in September, 1906, with the 1st cavalry. He later served at Camp Eagle Pass and Camp Felipe at Laredo.

More than 4,000,000 life insurance policy death claims have been paid in the United States since Pearl Harbor. Fewer than five per cent of these were on the lives of service men.

THANKSGIVING

Today sees our armed forces victorious everywhere. Our enemies in the Pacific, driven from the lands they had enslaved, surrendered in their own homeland. The European war had already ended. The promise for tomorrow is a happy one.

All of us, a united and victorious America, on this Thanksgiving Day, 1945, humbly raise our thanks to God for the strength and courage given to combat our enemies. May we continue in the faith, courage and self-sacrifice which sustained us in war, as we build a better world in Peace.

Capital Baptists Back President, Indirectly Assail Texas Censure

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Texas Baptists' criticism of President Truman for his "reported attitude" toward gambling and drinking had a sequel today in the District of Columbia Baptist convention.

After a brief debate in which there was on oblique reference to the Texas convention action of Nov. 15, the local convention adopted by a standing vote a resolution assuring Mr. Truman "earnest and continued prayers" in the discharge of his official duties.

Few Scattered "Noes"

No one stood up in opposition, but there were a few scattering "noes" when the resolution was put to a voice vote. The resolution was offered by the Rev. Dr. Edward H. Pruden, pastor of the First Baptist church, where the President worshiped several weeks ago.

Rev. James P. Rodgers, of the Petworth Baptist church, in trying unsuccessfully to have the resolution referred to a committee asserted:

"The least said about this matter the better off all Baptists will be."

The resolution made no mention of the Texas Baptists' proposal, but several convention delegates said it was prompted by the latter.

Texas Resolution

The Texas Baptist convention last week adopted a resolution noting that Baylor university planned to confer an honorary degree on Mr. Truman. This resolution asserted that "because of the reported attitude of the President of the United States as a Baptist toward gambling and drinking" the convention opposed any honorary degree for "those holding such a position."

The resolution adopted here today said "we are keenly aware of the honor, as well as the responsibility, which have come to us as Baptists" because of the elevation of a Baptist to the presidency. It also assured Mr. Truman support in his efforts toward world peace.

Thirty four churches with a total membership of more than 26,000 were represented in the District of Columbia convention.

While the convention was meeting, President Truman received a new Bible for his desk from the American Bible society as a source of "inspiration and strength." He also was presented a medal from fellow 33rd degree Masons for his service to his "country and humanity."

The chief executive told officials of the Bible society that he had read the Bible through by the time he was eight years old, and three times before he was 12. Dr. J. C. Chapman Bradley, society secretary, said the President's favorite passages are the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount.

He added the President indicated he would participate in the worldwide Bible reading program sponsored by the society, church leaders and prominent Protestant laymen calling for the reading of selected daily passages on each of the days between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Surplus Ships To Be Retained At Beaumont

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP) — The Maritime commission said today the Pennsylvania ship yards at Beaumont, Tex., had been selected as a site for "laying away" idle vessels when they are no longer needed by the armed forces.

Final approval is "subject to the negotiation of a contract," a spokesman for the commission said, but added that this step was considered a routine procedure and that no obstacle is expected to consummation of the transaction.

The exact number of ships to be kept on a "standby" condition for use in any future emergency was not immediately known. It was understood, however, that the figure would be approximately 300 oil tankers. They would be brought in for anchorage over a period of months as their services no longer are needed.

26,000 Airmen Killed In Flying Accidents

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 21. (AP) —Flying accidents cost more than 26,000 lives in the Army Air forces during the war and destroyed 22,000 airplanes more than were destroyed by the Germans and Japs.

Col. George C. Price, chief of the Office of Flying Safety of the AAF, disclosed that today in an address to the third National-Aviation clinic, a conference of all elements in aeronautics.

He used the story of the Air Force accident record—a record which showed that the accident rate was lower throughout the war than it ever had been in peacetime—to plead for concerted action by the aviation industry to retard and reduce an already alarming rise in civilian flying crash statistics.

Mexican Cars Buying Gas In Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 21 (UP)—Mexican cars crossed into Brownsville today to buy gasoline from American service stations — the reverse of what happened during gas rationing days—and Mexican customs officials over the border in Matamoros do not like it.

It was strictly a turnabout situation.

Six months and more ago American motorists without the necessary ration coupons filled their tanks in Matamoros until Mexican gasoline stocks were considerably reduced.

Now Brownsville gas merchants report an increase in Mexican customers.

The reason apparently was the new gasoline tax levied in Tamaulipas state beginning last Oct. 1. Customs officers in Matamoros said Mexican-licensed cars were buying American gas to evade the tax.

They have contacted general customs headquarters in Mexico City and today were awaiting instructions as to their next move.

Meanwhile, Mexican cars crossed international bridges, which were not being checked, and stopped at pumps of Brownsville filling stations.

He indicated that Tojo may be the first to stand trial, although the exact order of the defendants has not yet been determined.

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

THANKSGIVING for the last time is plural again—to let you eat twice as much, be twice as good. Tradition-lovers may hew to the last Thursday; departers from tradition may have the newer date. There is nothing the matter with having two days, as we see it. And after all the date has been kicked about quite a bit since George Washington proclaimed the first Thanksgiving day for the United States in the first year of his presidency (1789) when he called for folks to be thankful for the constitution of the United States.

• • •

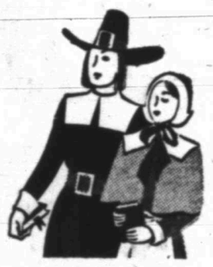

THE very first Thanksgiving day in this country was proclaimed for the purpose of expressing thanks for the bountiful harvest which the colonists had reaped and also for the sturdy health and endurance that had permitted them to survive the hardships and exposure of that first rigorous year in America.

This year will bring a better Thanksgiving to many homes because servicemen and veterans who were far, far away last year and the year before and the year before that are eating the traditional meal with their families once more.

Families that will always have an empty chair are thankful that with the first peaceful Thanksgiving in three years love can be sown in a world where there had been hatred; union can be realized where discord had been prevalent. We can all be thankful that once again we can see the dawn of hope where last year despair was in our hearts; that joy visits today where sadness spent last year.

• • •

"SO that we might after a more special manner rejoice together . . ." That was the reason for the first giving of thanks. And can we now, 'though we search our hearts, find a better? Let us quote to you from a letter G. Mourt, scholar and gentleman, wrote back home to England in 1691, and sent it by the dauntless ship, "Fortune," which was the second ship to follow the "Mayflower" to America. It is an honor to read his quiet words:

"Our corn did prove well and God be praysed, we had a good increase of Indian-Corne and our Barley indifferent good, but our pease not worth the gathering for he feared they were too late sowne, they came up well, and blossomed; but the Sunne parched them in the blossome; our harvest being gotten in, our Governor sent foure men on fowling, that so we might after a more special manner rejoice together after we had gathered the fruit of our labours; they foure in one day killed as much fowle, as with a little helpe besides, served the Company almost a weeke, at which time amongst other Recreations, we exercised our Armes, many of the Indians coming amongst us, and amongst the rest their great King Massasoyt, with some ninetie men, whom for three dayes we entertained and feasted, and they went out and killed fiuve Deere, which they brought to the Plantation and bestowed on our Governor, and upon the Cāptaine and others.

"And although it be not alwayes so plentiful, as it was at this time with us, yet, by the goodness of God, we are so farre from want, that we often wish you partakers of our plentie."

Former Prizefighter And Young Girl Slain In New Crime Wave

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP) — Police, faced with a crime wave that has produced 64 violent deaths in 72 days, organized "strong-arm squads" today after boxer Al (Bummy) Davis was killed by four gunmen when he tried to halt a robbery and after 16-year-old Susan Scarga's bruised and bullet-marked body was found on a lot.

Both crimes took place in Brooklyn. Davis, former contender for the world's lightweight and welterweight boxing crowns, was shot by a gunman when he slugged one of them on the jaw with his fist. Police said the Scarga girl apparently died fighting off attempts to rape her. Her knees were bruised and police said a bullet had been fired through her head.

Youth Is Sought

Police said they had broadcast an eight-state alarm for apprehension of a 16-year-old youth who lived a block from the little red warehouse shack near where the girl's body was found and who had been reported missing from home.

Davis, whose real name was Albert Davidoff, was in the tavern of his friend, Arthur Polansky, when the four robbers entered at 2:45 a. m., after having robbed five other taverns, and lined Davis, the bartender and four others against the wall.

Davis Followed Gunmen

The robbers took $150 from the cash register, and Davis demanded "why don't you stop?" and "why don't you leave the fellow alone?" This led to an argument, during which Davis let go with his fist. As he did so, all four gunmen shot him and fled to their automobile at the curb.

Despite bullets through his throat and chest, Davis followed the men and tried to jump into his own car—to give chase, police said—and he dropped dead. Meanwhile the robbers had fired at him again as their car sped away.

Eighteen months ago the boxer's two brothers, Harry and William Davidoff, were shot and critically wounded in a Brooklyn tavern. They spent several months in a hospital and police said they refused to name their assailants, declaring they would settle the score "in their own way."

Housing Czar To Fix Price Ceilings Urged

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP) — A bill to create a national housing "czar," who would have authority to fix price ceilings on houses, was introduced today by Chairman Patman (D-Texas) of the House Small Business committee.

The measure would authorize establishment of an Office of Housing stabilization, headed by a director. The bill specifies that the director would work "to prevent speculation and excessive profits in the sale of housing and to insure that availability of real estate for housing purposes at fair and reasonable prices."

He would be directed to "formulate and develop a comprehensive national program" to carry out the bill's aims.

His authority would include power to: (1) Set maximum sales prices for housing; (2) Control priorities on housing materials; (3) Specify order of occupancy for available housing facilities.

Man Gets Life Term For Slaying Guard

HOUSTON, Nov. 21 (U.P.)—Leonard C. Stockton today looked forward to a life behind bars instead of death in an electric chair.

Stockton, the husky-throated man who has spent half his life in jail, yesterday drew a life sentence for killing George Preston, a prison guard.

It was his second trial for the slaying. Stockton was given the death sentence by a Walker county jury but another trial was granted after he proved one of the jurors was related to a guard connected with the shooting.

Stockton and three companions broke out of the Wayne Prison farm on June 20, 1944, when Preston was killed.

Before the trial Stockton, a deliberate-speaking fatherly-appearing man, studied dog-eared law books at the county jail. He had announced he was going to do his own cross examining as "I was there that day and I know more about what happened than any lawyer will ever know."

However at the trial he chose to let his attorneys do the talking but conferred with them frequently.

The prosecution, charging he was anti-social and cannot be reformed, asked the death chair penalty.

He served a 10-year stretch in 1927 for manslaughter in connection with a man's death in a beer hall fight.

MAJ. BOXER IN STATES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21. (AP) — Maj. Charles Boxer, handsome, greying British Army intelligence officer held prisoner in China for three years by the Japanese, today headed for New York and marriage "as soon as possible" with Emily Hahn, the American author whose autobiography named him as the father of her daughter Carola, 4.

WORKING FOR YANKEE DOLL-AIRE: Top Sgt. LeRoy Ramage, center, of Lyons, Kans., listens to sales-spiel for wall hanging while Cpl. Angelo J. Liuzzi, foreground, of Albany, N. Y., considers a wooden candle stand. Prices were on the high side.

Cotton Ginnings Show Drop From '44 Total

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—The census bureau reported today that 6,429,844 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales and excluding linters, had been ginned from the 1945 crop prior to Nov. 14.

This compares with 9,486,356 bales ginned to the same date last year and 9,929,895 in 1943.

The ginnings this year and last included: Texas 1,396,857 and 1,881,290.

At Verkhoyansk, Siberia, temperatures have been recorded from 90 below zero, coldest ever recorded on earth, to 94 above.

Mrs. Deen had been ill several months. The family has resided in Post 18 years.

Rumors On Flu At Tech Denied

Denying rumors of an influenza epidemic among students, and reports that classes would be dismissed for the annual Thansgiving observance this week, Texas Tech officials last night said holidays will be observed as scheduled, on Nov. 29 to Dec. 2.

During the last two weeks there has been an unusual number of students suffering from colds, but it couldn't be called an epidemic, Mrs. Donna Harris, school nurse, said. "Theirs isn't a serious illness because a temperature runs one day, then they may be unable to attend classes two or three days," she added.

"The majority of persons ill are not suffering from flu," Mrs. Harris announced. Each year about this time there are more absences recorded for students because of illness, but there has been a few more this year, records show.

The last three days there has been a decline in the number of students suffering from colds, but an average of 20 students are stricken daily. The illness is more prevalent among boys than girls, Mrs. Harris said.

Rumors that Thanksgiving holidays would be changed from fourth Thursday to tomorrow have circulated since school began, Dr. H. L. Kent, administrative assistant said. Date of Thanksgiving observance was set before school began and has not been changed.

Jap Records Reveal Tardiness Of Plans

MANILA, Nov. 21 (AP)—If American forces had attacked Luzon island in mid-November or December of last year they would have "undoubtedly captured the island with one blow," the military court hearing war crimes charges against Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita was told today.

The invasion began Jan. 9, and the campaign ended July 5.

Yamashita's chief of staff, Lt. Gen. Akiro Muto, said Japan was "too slow preparing its Philippines defenses by at least six months and should have started socner for effective defense."

Texas Has 40,000 Jobs Waiting For Right Workers, Is Report

AUSTIN, Nov. 21. (AP)—Approximately 40,000 jobs are going begging in Texas and a high proportion of them will remain in that status because of current wages, a shortage of qualified workers and a general tightening of employers' requirements, said C. E. Belk, state director of the U. S. Employment Service.

In a statement Belk added qualified workers are taking jobs but of the 40,000 unfilled jobs more than 50 per cent pay between 50 and 75 cents per hour and five per cent pay less than 50 cents per hour.

Need Experienced Workers

"Principal problem in filling the remaining 45 per cent paying 75 cents an hour and more is to find qualified applicants acceptable to employes," Belk said.

To illustrate, he pointed out that in Dallas 42.6 per cent of the jobs paying over 75 cents an hour are in the building trades and automobile and electrical appliance repair, and not many workers possessing these skills are available. On the supply side of the picture are thousands of jobseekers for whom there is no demand: wirers and solderers, semi-skilled machine operators, instrument and aircraft assemblers, welders, visual or precision inspectors and shipyard workers.

By the week ending Oct. 31, Belk said, layoffs from war plants had dropped to about normal industrial labor turnover. These layoffs brought the total since V-J day to 61,888 in the state of which 26,000 were in Dallas and the balance in the rest of the state.

The same week saw a decline in the number of new jobs openings listed—40,000 as compared with 65,000 in the week following V-J day. On the other hand, an upswing was noted in deferrals of job seekers to jobs, Belk said.

Vets May Get Better Chance At Surpluses

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP) — Congress and the Veterans administration today studied a proposal to employ normal wholesale channes in giving veterans first chance at surplus war property.

Both have been advised by the surplus property administration that if this fails to work alternatives are to junk veterans' preference or appropriate hundreds of millions of dollars to establish retail veterans' stores throughout the country.

Crux of their problem, declared W. Stuart Symington, SPA chief, is that there are insufficient places where veterans may obtain information on prospective purchases or see the merchandise they wish to buy.

Decline In Need For Farm Workers Cited

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 21. (AP) — The mid-November Texas farm-labor picture reflected decline in demand for workers in some sections, especially those favored by good weather, and a continuing labor need in others, the Texas A. & M. college extension service reported today.

Caesar Hohn, extension service farm labor supervisor, said rains last week halted cotton picking in the Blackland area. Much cotton remains unharvested in central Texas, particularly north from Bell county.

Migratory labor crews were reported returning from the colder sections of Texas—in the west and nothwest portions — and from points out of the state to South Texas, where cultivation of early vegetables and fruit harvesting were in full swing.

Hohn said some crews were being directed into counties where cotton pullers and pickers were needed, including Hall and Gray in the Panhandle, and Collin, Dallas, Denton, Hunt, Fannin, Ellis and Bell in the Blackland and North Texas areas.

Police Seeking Clues In Brutal Slaying Of Man At New Braunfels

NEW BRUNFELS, Nov. 21 (U.P.) —Texas rangers and local officers still were without a clue today in the mystery surrounding the death of a Massachusetts sergeant, whose slayers apparently cut off his hands and forearms to forestall identification.

Comal County Sheriff W. A. (Doc) Scholl said that the length of time had passed since the victim, T/Sgt. John W. Murphy, 27, of Boston, Mass., had been killed obliterated almost any chance of uncovering any "hot" clues as to the identity of his slayers.

Body Decomposed

"The body was very badly decomposed," Scholl said. "I believe he was killed from two to three weeks ago. It looks like he was robbed because his pockets were turned inside out.

'Both of the man's forearms and hands were missing and I think whoever killed him cut his arms off at the elbows so that we would not be able to identify him by fingerprints."

Murphy's body, without any trace of identification, was found Saturday on the Doerr farm, 14 miles southwest of New Braunfels, near Bracken, by Milton Doerr, who investigated after he noticed his cows shying away from a spot of Johnson grass in a cornfield.

Had Been Shot

When found, Murphy was clad in a khaki shirt and pants and a regulation Army tie and belt. He had been shot through the chest.

He was identified Monday through markings found on the Army clothes by the State department of public welfare laboratory at Austin.

Brooke General hospital records at San Antonio disclosed that Murphy had been at Dodd field, San Antonio, about three months when he was last seen there on Nov. 5. He was assigned to the War department personnel center. He formerly had been at Fort Benning, Ga.

McCoy Named Acting SU Medical Dean

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21. (AP)—Dr. George Walter McCoy, former surgeon general of the U. S. public health service, today was named acting dean of the Louisiana State university medical school in which a dispute had caused the recent resignation of 28 faculty members.

Dr. McCoy will head the school pending the appointment of a permanent successor to Dr. Wilbur C. Smith, who tendered his resignation as dean last week. The faculty upheaval followed the naming of Dr. Smith to the office to replace Dr. B. I. Burns.

The new acting dean has been on the faculty for several years.

He was chosen by committees representing the faculty and board of supervisors.

Most of her sales are to business firms. But she has sold more than $30,000 of Series E bonds to her neighbors.

Her roughest competition comes from her daughter, Margaret, a sophomore at the University of Houston. Margaret, once crowned bond queen of the university, has sold $135,000.

When questioned concerning reports that the Santa Fe installation was to be closed, Schriber said he did not believe there was any foundation for the reports.

Sergeant Of Guard Over Bigshot Nazis Airs Views On Prisoners

By DANIEL DE LUCE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NUERNBERG, Nov. 21. — Nobody is a hero to the sergeant of the guard, but he rates former grand admiral and substitute Fuehrer Karl Doenitz as the "meanest man in the Nuernberg jail."

T-Sgt. Richard E. Sayther, 24, of San Diego, Calif., runs the shift of 41 GI's responsible for security in the cell tier of Nazi bigshots.

Character Sidelights

He found time to compile character sidelights on the blackest of the brownshirts:

Reichmarshal Hermann Goering—"Always a glad-hander and even tries to give us American soldiers cigarettes from his ration. He also offers us condolences on our monotonous job."

Deputy Fuehrer Rudolf Hess—"Not crazy but we have to put handcuffs on him by higher order every time he goes across the yard to be interrogated or examined. Actually he has never been violent or caused any trouble. The last time we snapped them on he grinned and remarked, "I'm getting to be an expert on handcuffs, I wear them so often."

Hates To Take Orders

Nazi Philosopher Alfred Rosenberg—"Vain and arrogant. Hates to take orders from Americans."

Doenitz—"Gruff, short tempered and generally mean. Never seems to be right with the world."

Col. Gen. Alfred Jodl—"Likes to keep his head under the blankets, which is a bother. A guard must go into his cell and pull the blankets down again, for the rule is that the prisoner's head must be seen on each patrol of the corridor."

Field Marshall Welhelm Keitel—"Neatest of the whole bunch. Keeps his quarters orderly as if his life depended upon it."

'THE GARTER'—Marie "The Body" McDonald now will be known as "The Garter.' She's shown at LaGuardia Airport, New York, displaying new style, black satin garter adorned by cameo.

Ordinances On Car Companies Approved

AUSTIN, Nov. 21. (AP) — Cities may pass ordinances requiring owners of driverless car companies to post indemnity bonds to protect the public against damage resulting from operation of such vehicles, the Supreme court held today.

The court set aside the portion of a court of civil appeals judgment restraining the city of Corpus Christi from requiring the deposit of indemnity policies or securities by driverless car companies to protect the public.

It upheld the portion of the intermediate courts judgment invalidating a Corpus Christi ordinance requiring such companies to pay an inspection fee of $20 annually. In this connection the opinion by Associate Justice Gordon Simpson noted that the state had pre-empted in 1917 the exclusive right to levy license fees on motor vehicles.

Simpson's opinion held, however, that the requirement for an indemnity bond "is a reasonable one."

New Plea Submitted In Oil Litigation

AUSTIN, Nov. 21. (AP)—Pleading that the Supreme Court's refusal to review litigation involving 20,000 acres of oil-rich land establishes "highly dangerous precedents" implied in a Court of Civil Appeals decision, the losers in the case today asked the Supreme court to reconsider.

The losers who were joined by the state, were granted an additional 30 days to submit written arguments in their plea that the court grant a writ of error against the two-to-one decision of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals, affirming the title of Thomas O'Connor of Victoria to approximately 20,000 acres of land in the rich O'Connor oil field Refugio county.

The state and others had attacked validity of the original Mexican grant to the tract, dating back to 1834. The Court of Civil Appeals upheld the validity of the grant, and the Supreme court by refusing to review the case, had left its findings standing.

The state now is asking the court to have another look at the Civil Appeals ruling.

Anderson Seeks Plan To Unload Surplus Government Cotton

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson sought today the advice of the cotton industry on ways of disposing of surplus government-owned cotton in export markets.

He formed a Cotton Exports Advisory board composed of seven representatives of the cotton industry to help on the problem.

The government owns more than 4,000,000 bales of cotton acquired before the war under grower price support programs. An additional amount of more than 2,000,000 bales is held as collateral for loans to growers.

Huge Surplus On Hand

Anderson seeks at this time advice on ways of getting rid of about 2,500,000 bales of low grade cotton with a bulk value of about $250,000,000 for which there is no market in this country.

In announcing formation of the advisory board, the Agriculture department said it believes outlets for this cotton may be found in Some European and Far Eastern countries.

American cotton is priced above world market levels as a result of government-price support programs. Little cotton is moving into world markets except under a government program subsidizing foreign shipments at four cents a pound.

Subsidy Insufficient

This subsidy apparently is insufficient to move the quantity of cotton the government would like to have move abroad.

The advisory board:

W. L. Walker, of the American Cotton Shippers association, Houston, Tex., chairman.

Lamar Fleming, Jr., of Anderson, Clayton, and Co., Houston;

W. B. Davis, president of the American Cotton Shippers Assn., Newman, Ga.

W. W. Sansom, general manager of the American Cotton Cooperative association, Memphis.

R. T. Hoover, of Cotton Exporters, El Paso, Tex.

John H. McFadden, Jr., Memphis, and Robert Mayer, Dallas.

History Of Turkey Is Unearthed Along With Early Picture

ST. BONAVENTURE, N. Y., Nov. 21. (AP)—The Rev. Irenaeus Herscher, OFM, librarian at St. Bonaventure college, has unearthed a picture which he believes to be the first representation of a turkey ever printed.

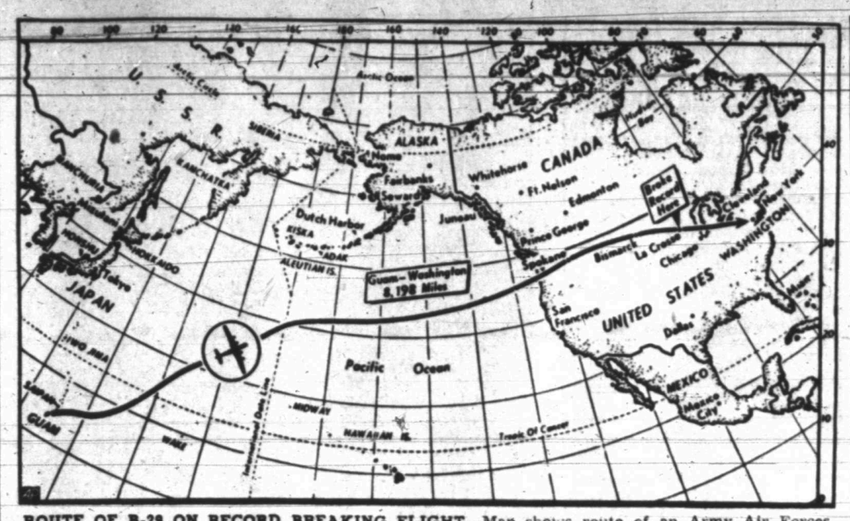

He came across the picture in a centuries-old zoology text, "Historia Anumaleum," the work of Conrad Gesner, a Swiss naturalist, who is credited generally, Father Herscher said, with being the first naturalist to illustrate his writings.

"Gallopavum," the latin word for "hen peacock" was Gesner's name for the traditional Thanksgiving day bird. Gesner wrote that the bird came from the West Indies, emitted a mouth-watering aroma while being cooked and was very tasty.

The librarian said the Turkey actually originated in America, was domesticated in Europe and brought back by colonists. Some historians believe Columbus took the turkey to Europe; others, that it was Hernando Cortez, Father Herscher said.

He suggested these possible origins of the name "turkey:" A false belief that the bird came from Turkey; its "turk-turk-turk" call and its somewhat fez-like head.

Garners To Observe Golden Wedding Date

UVALDE, Nov. 21 (U.P.)—Whitehaired, bushy-browned John Nance Garner, former vice president of the United States, today prepared for a busy week-end.

Besides Thanksgiving, Garner tomorrow will celebrate his 77th birthday. Sunday he and Mrs. Garner will observe their Golden Wedding anniversary.

Friends and relatives planned a gala celebration of the 50 years of married life of Garner and the former Ettie Rheiner, whom he wooed and won during a campaign for county judge.

It will be one of the first large-scale events they will have participated in since Garner went into virtual seclusion after leaving office in 1941.

Friends said both of the Garners were in good health.

Civilian Crews For Transports Needed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—An Army official said tonight that civilian personnel are leaving Army transports for peacetime jobs and delaying the return of soldiers from overseas.

Colonel Alexander Corey, chief of the civilian personnel division of the Army Transportation corps, reported that Army transports were in danger of being tied up on both coasts. He was interviewed by Albert Leitch on a radio program over ABC.

Better Inner Tubes Promised Shortly

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—There will be better inner tubes for passenger car tires after the first of the year, the Civilian Production administration said today.

Beginning January 1 manufacturers of these tubes may use butyl, which OPA described as "the special purpose synthetic rubber credited with retaining air better than natural rubber."

Clear Thanksgiving Weather Forecast

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Tomorrow should be a nice day for most everybody but the Turkeys.

A special Thanksgiving day forecast from the weather bureau said that "most of the nation will enjoy clear, sunny weather."

"The Atlantic coast states from Georgie to New England will have cloudy, stormy weather with snow in northern New England and upper New York and rain farther south," the forecast said.

The Pacific northwest also is slated for cloudy and rainy weather.

But the fair weather in the central states will be cold, all the way down to the gulf coast—"early morning temperatures ranging from ten below zero in Minnesota and North Dakota to freezing as far south as Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi and northern Alabama."

Seizure Of Bus Lines At Tulsa Requested

TULSA, Nov. 21 (AP) — Mayor Olney F. Flynn today requested President Truman to order seizure of Tulsa city bus lines by the Office of Defense transportation, to end a stoppage of bus service now five days old.

In the event the mayor's telegraphed request gets no action, the city legal department has been ordered to prepare a petition to be filed in district court for placing the bus company in receivership, with service to be resumed at once, the city executive said.

Offer Of Credit To Britain Is Relayed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP) — British sources said today that an American offer of a $4,000,000,000 credit has been relayed to London after a series of conferences between Anglo-American financial experts.

As outlined by the British spokesman, who declined to be named, the proposal calls for a straight loan of $3,500,000,000 at 2 per cent interest, and $500,000,000 additional at 2 3-8 per cent. The latter sum would be used to settle Britain's lend-lease account by paying cash for supplies shipped after V-J day.

American officials said the terms include a five-year period during which payment of no interest or principal will be required. Altogether, Britain would have 30 years in which to repay the loan.

Witness' Language Belies His Answer

MANILA, Thursday, Nov. 22 (AP) Lt. Gen. Akiro Muto, a defense witness at the war crimes trial of his former boss, Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita, was asked in cross-examination, "do you speak English?"

"No," he said.

The roar of the spectators brought a vigorous rap of the gavel for order.

Auxiliary Fields In Area To Be Closed

Two Lubbock Army Air field auxiliary fields and one auxiliary field of South Plains Army Air field were declared surplus to needs of the Army Wednesday, according to telegrams received at LAAF and SPAAF.

The north and west auxiliary fields for LAAF, located on the Spade ranch, were declared not needed. The action leaves the west field, also on the Spade ranch, and the Abernathy field still active.

SPAAF auxiliary field No. 2, near Idalou, is surplus, Col. H. O. Bordelon, commanding officer, was advised in a telegram from Washington.

Covering a section of land purchased by the government in the early days of the war for $30,307, SPAAF No. 2 was used in the glider training program. It has three asphalt runways, each 150 feet wide and 5,000 feet long, with essential taxi strips and several small frame buildings, most of them constructed from the boxes in which gliders were shipped to Lubbock. No personnel has been housed on the field.

Colonel Bordelon said he had received no official information from Washington regarding the future of SPAAF, located six miles north of Lubbock and encompassing Lubbock Municipal Airport in addition to much added space. The colonel, however, hazarded the opinion that the field would be cleared of onetime Army combat planes now being stored and worked on there, by February 1, at the latest.

There currently are more than 1,500 battle-weary bombers and smaller planes at SPAAF, where workers assure their being in flying condition. Planes are flown in and out of SPAAF by Army Air Transport pilots, but are taken down, checked, reassembled and test-flown by SPAAF personnel while here.

The Idalou auxiliary field is located 8-to-10 miles northeast of Lubbock and its western boundary lies almost exactly 8 miles due east of SPAAF.

Dragnet Laid After Liquor Store Raids

DALLAS, Nov. 21. (AP)—Police tonight were probing virtually every city block here in an effort to encircle a bandid trio who brazenly held up four liquor stores in four hours and escaped amid a flurry of bullets in south Dallas.

Chief of Detectives Will Fritz said the three men were believed to be accompanied by a woman. Pursued by Detectives T. S. Connelly and M. K. Tucker, the bandits held up the fourth liquor store in a matter of minutes.

A big help in our job of providing urgently needed long distance circuits is a device called a "carrier."

Resembling somewhat the equipment inside your radio, carriers send or "carry" several long distance calls over one pair of wires at the same time. Some carriers handle 3 calls, some 12, others many more.

By installing carriers as fast as they're available, we're trying to provide as many new circuits as we can, as quickly as we can, to handle today's heavy load of long distance calls. Meanwhile, if any of your calls are delayed, we know you'll understand why.

City's Housewives Are Warned On Dangers Of Food Poisoning

Doctors, dietitians and specialists of Lubbock, have voiced a timely warning to housewives against dangers of food poisoning by exercising precaution in preparing turkey and dressing for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

This warning follows closely the news of 100 persons being stricken ill Tuesday in Dallas after having eaten at a Thanksgiving banquet. Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer, said nothing to compare with this has ever occurred in Lubbock, "we have been fortunate thus far in that respect," he added.

Danger Of Spoilage

"There is greater danger of food spoilage when cooking large quantities and in huge containers, but the same thing can happen when preparing food for a family of three," Miss Lillian Johnson, West Texas hospital dietitian, warned.

Food spoilage can be traced to many different causes, and there are various reasons why bacteria grow, the dietitian said. "However, cooking will usually kill the bacteria—unless the food has spoiled beforehand," Miss Johnson explained.

If meat has been frozen it must be cooked immediately after it has thawed, else it begins to spoil. Occasionally if a large fowl has been frozen it takes hours to thaw and a long time for heat to penetrate.

Precautionary Methods

Precautionary methods of cooking fowl suggested by Miss Johnson are: Cook meat soon as it has thawed, do not allow it to remain in the Frigidaire too long if it has been frozen, and use all left over fowl by the following day. "Nothing spoils sooner than fowl," Miss Johnson said.

There is danger in cooking dressing too, Miss Margaret W. Weeks, dean of Texas Tech's division of home economics, said. She warns against letting the mixture stand too long after being prepared for cooking. "Because dressing is so closely compact there is a possibility of the heat not penetrating, if cooked in large quantities," she explained.

"I think the greatest danger from turkey lies in keeping it too long out of the refrigerator," Miss Clara Pratt, county home demonstration agent, said. She said turkey, if cooked properly, may be preserved in the refrigerator for several days but it isn't advisable to keep it longer.

Naturally there are always some instances of persons being ill from over-eating of rich and heavy food prepared on special occasions. That's the price a gourmet pays for his love of fine foods.

But food poisoning is a different story—and a dangerous one.

Improper Handling Of Gravy Causes Illness

DALLAS, Nov. 21. (AP) — Improper handling of gravy today was blamed for the mass food poisoning of 150 persons at a pre-Thanksgiving dinner here yesterday.

Only 41 remained hospitalized today. There were no fatilities.

John H. Hall, manager of the Fort Worth and Dallas plants of Swift and Company, said company chemists reported toxin in the gravy caused the sudden illness of nearly half of 300 guests at a turkey dinner at the company's Dallas plant. Hall, himself, was among the victims.

Toxin In Gravy

Dr. Dan T. Meredith, resident physician at Baylor hospital, said the packing plant employes were suffering from what is commonly known as food poisoning.

Toxin in gravy caused the mass food poisoning, company chemists at Fort Worth reported today.

John H. Hall, manager of the Fort Worth and Dallas plants, a victim of the poisoning himself, said he had a full report on the analysis of food and investigation of serving.

A new cook made up gravy for the dinner on Monday evening, and left the gravy off of ice all night, Hall said.

Gravy Re-Heated

The gravy was re-heated Tuesday morning and mixed in with the dry dressing for the Thanksgiving feast.

The re-heating killed bacteria which had formed, but did not remove the toxin which the bacteria had caused in the gravy, Hall said the chemists reported.

The bacteria was described as staphylococcus.

A series of tests on the foods was made by plant officials, city health officials and Southwestern medical college.

Superintendent A. B. Greene said the plant is not operating today.

Students Get Chance To Play In Symphony

AUSTIN, Nov. 21. (U.P.) — Two and possibly three high school musicians will get the opportunity of appearing with the Houston Symphony orchestra as a result of a statewide contest decided here yesterday at the University of Texas.

Entitling them to perform with the orchestra were first place awards to Lacy McCarry of Mesquite in the violin contest and Virginia Thomas, Denton, in piano. They also received $100 cash.

No first was awarded in the voice contest. But judges announced that they would recommend Herbert Rogers, Wichita Falls, second-place pianist, for appearance with the orchestra.

Second and third place winners were:

Violin—Marian Atterburn, Dallas and Doris Musgrave, Corpus Christi.

Voice—Judy Key, Atlanta, Tex., and Bonnie Lyle, Wichita Falls.

June Stokes, Houston, was third in the piano contest.

The auditions were sponsored by the State Department of Education and Texas Gulf Sulphur company.

Total sales of farm equipment in 1944 were more than $1,067,000,000, in 1944, compared with $636,000,000 in 1943, and $517,000,000 in 1929.

New Reign Of Terror Is Feared In Japan

(By Scripps-Howard Newspapers)

TOKYO, Nov. 21.—Japan's pre-war regime has been called "government by assassination."

A throwback to the old ways came recently in the discovery of a postcard in the mails threatening Japan's freed communist leaders with assassination on Dec. 1. The writer stated that after killing the Communists he and his companions would take their own lives in the name of the emperor at Meiji Shrine.

Typical of Old Threats

It was typical of many such threats of the old days, and it reopens the question whether Jap irreconcilables are still pursuing, undercover, a program of resistance to the death against encroachment of any western ideas.

Our counterintelligence agents are investigating the note which boldly announced the name of the prospective assassin. It also bore a curious cross-like symbol similar to that of the Ku Klux Klan emblem.

The writer announced he was a member of the Kamikaze association which was sworn to uphold the honor of the emperor through suicide.

Authorities discount the theory that this is symptomatic of any widespread resistance movement, although it is well known that some dissident elements still are biding time for a "suitable" demonstration against American rule.

These Kamikaze youngsters — mostly between 18 and 20—are hotheaded and imbued with a hatred for all foreigners. They have been educated in special schools designed to inculcate the theory that they can join their honorable ancestors only by performing some feat of extraordinary bravery and self-sacrifice. There is no chance of re-educating such youths who are steeled to fanatic hardness by years of indoctrination.

Court Orders Taxes Cancelled At Austin

AUSTIN, Nov. 21. (AP) — The Supreme court today issued a mandamus to compel State Comptroller George Sheppard to cancel state and county taxes levied against certain property purchased by the city of Austin in tax foreclosure proceedings.

Tht court's ruling, of general application to taxing agencies throughout the state, was that property so acquired by a municipality is public property used for public purposes and therefore is exempt under the constitution from state and county taxation.

Oil Development In Matagorda To Reopen

AUSTIN, Nov. 21. (AP)—Ninety days after the land board gives official notice today 75,000 acres of submerged lands in the Matagorda bay area will be reopened to oil development.

The acreages was leased to 14 companies prior to the war. An executive order closed the bay to operations, effective in May, 1942, because of the proximity of military installations.

Under state law operations may be resumed 90 days after the land board gives official notice of federal government removal of restrictions. The leases have remained in frozen status during the war upon payment of annual rental by leases.

Medals To Be Given New Mexico Veterans

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 21. (U.P.) —Designs are under study and medals will be cast for members of New Mexico's 200th Coast artillery, according to Gov. John Dempsey.

Explaining that the $1,000 authorized for the medals by the last legislature would probably not provide sufficient funds for the estimated 1,600 medals, the governor said the state finance board would make provisions for any additional requirements.

Relationship Between Soil, Health Studied

CHICAGO, Nov. 21. (AP)—Scientists are seeking to establish a positive relationship between soil fertility and human health.

There is some circumstantial evidence of such a link, but years of research may be required before a definite decision can be reached.

Karl B. Mickey attempts to trace the connection in a forthcoming book, "Health From the Ground Up." Offers—"by way of illustration rather than proof"—a number of examples.

Level Low In South

He cites a report by Col. Leonard G. Rowntree, medical chief of Selective Service, that examiners had found the highest U. S. health level in Colorado, where seven of every ten registrants were acceptable for military service.

"The poorest health level was found in one of the southern states, where only three of every ten men examined were acceptable," the book adds. "Now, the soils of some of the southern states are notoriously deficient in calcium and phosphorus, while the area comprising Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska and the western parts of Texas and Oklahoma is notably rich in those minerals."

Mickey writes that an examination of 810 school children in Hereford, Tex., showed that only 50 per cent had tooth decay, compared with 85 to 100 per cent among school children in the country at large. Then:

"Analysis of wheat, milk, vegetables and meat produced in the vicinity showed an unusual concentration of phosphorus," he reports. "In the case of wheat the concentration of phosphorus was six times normal. The calcium concentration also was high."

Legion Urges U. S. To Adopt Strong Policy

CHICAGO, Nov. 21. (AP)—The American Legion reaffirmed approval of the United Nations organization today but "strongly urged" this nation to adopt and announce "a definite foreign policy."

Adopting a report of their foreign relations committee at the 27th annual national convention, the legionnaires urged a greater interest in foreign affairs by the American people, said "the first essential to world recovery is that the United States itself should remain strong and free," and recommended thorough, complete training and supervision "to qualify our diplomatic and consular representatives and their staffs."

The same report called for maintenance of the highest standards of American justice in trial of war criminals.

Texas' Famed 36th Division To Be Home For Yuletide Holidays

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—The 36th division, claimed by Texas, will not be returned to Texas for inactivation, Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex) was informed today.

The division will be demobilized in New York upon its arrival from Europe, the senator was told.

Conferring with Lt. Gen. J. E. Hull of the Army general staff, Connally was informed that quick demobilization of the division is planned so that the veterans can be discharged and get home for Christmas.

Started At Brownwood

Hull said that Secretary of War Patterson, General George Marshall and General Dwight D. Eisenhower, all had considered the proposal of Brownwood, Tex., citizens that the division be returned there for inactivation. The 36th was mobilized in Brownwood in 1940.

The idea was turned down in the interest of the veterans themselves, Hull told Connally, since it would probably prevent most of them from getting to their homes for Christmas. The division is not expected in New York before the middle of December.

Hull said that while the original division was made up of Texas National guardsmen, only 600 men in the outfit now are Texans.

The Texans probably will be sent to Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex., for discharge, and other men sent to separation centers nearer their homes.

GM Wage Dispute

you're right you can afford to go the whole way. General Motors cannot break the union."

Reuther said that if GM "offers to negotiate, we will be willing."

No Reports of Violence

There were no reports of violence in any of the walkouts, involving workers in 20 states.

The strike, bringing to grips the world's largest labor union and one of the nation's largest corporations, was the most far-reaching since the sit-down strikes of 1937 in which union recognition was the issue.

There was a difference of opinion between management and the union concerning the number of workers immediately affected by the walkouts. General Motors asserted it had 162,000 production workers presently employed. Union spokesmen have estimated more than 200,000 workers would be immediately affected by the mass walkouts.

Would Close Other Plants

To this industry spokesmen have added that if the strike continued for a week all but one automobile manufacturer (presumably Ford) would be compelled to close down, and that nearly three quarters of a million workers in the motorcar and allied industries would be affected.

This was explained by the statement that most of the companies obtain some car parts, such as spark plugs and ignition harness, from General Motors.

R. J. Thomas, UAW-CIO president, asserted the union had a $4,000,000 strike fund and other union officials intimated additional funds would be forthcoming from the national CIO if needed.

Wage Estimates For GM Workers Given

DETROIT, Nov. 21, (AP) — The average General Motors production worker has been earning from $1.12 to $1.15 per hour, by union estimates and $1.18 per hour, by company estimates.

The United Automobile Workers (CIO) is demanding a 30 per cent wage increase, which would boost the figure from $1.12 to $1.46 per hour, and the weekly pay for 40 hours from $44.80 to $58.40. Based on the corporation figure, a 30 per cent increase would bring the $1.18 hourly rate up to $1.53, and make the weekly pay for 40 hours $61.20 instead of $47.20.

The estimates were made, for the corporation, by a press relations spokesman, and for the union by Walter P. Reuther, UAW-CIO vice president.

Soerabaja Fighting Quieter

Earlier, the Allied command had ordered all Dutch native troops withdrawn from Batavia as a result of serious outbreaks of disorders in the capital Monday and yesterday. The order was issued after Indonesian officials charged the Amboinese troops with deliberate attacks on Indonesians.

Meanwhile, Associated Press correspondent Vern Haugland reported the situation in Soerabaja had had quieted to some extent after 12 days of fighting which a British source estimated cost the Indonesians 6,000 casualties.

Yamashita Praises

Yamashita informed Terauchi that the situation was deteriorating and that he planned to fall back on the mountains to fight a delaying action. His evacuation of Manila was largely completed by Jan. 1, 1945, Muto stated, leaving the 1,500 army troops behind to guard stores which could not be removed because of transportation difficulties.

Wants To Evade Blame

Muto said Yamashita advised Admiral Iwabuchi, commander of Naval forces in Manila, of his plan to withdraw, and urged him to do likewise, but had no power to order him to do so. Moreover, the Navy had prior orders to destroy the waterfront and other Manila installations which took precedence over any Yamashita directive.

Muto's testimony left the inference that Yamashita, who quit Manila for Baguio last Dec. 29, was not responsible for the actions of Iwabuchi's men. He said Yamashita in Baguio received over the Navy radio daily reports of the battle raging for possession of Manila, but insisted that these reports never contained the faintest hint of any orgies of rape, murder, pillage and destruction.

It was "unthinkable," the witness said,, that Yamashita could have ordered the killing of civilians and other atrocities. As the general's chief-of-staff, he stated categorically that Yamashita never issued orders to kill any civilians or prisoners of war.

Texans Are Urged To Buy Bonds As Thanks To Veterans

(By The Associated Press)

Texans can give thanks to the servicemen who made victory possible by buying a victory bond for Thanksgiving, Nathan Adams, state chairman of the Victory Loan, said today.

"What better way to observe this, our first peacetime Thanksgiving in three years," Adams said, "than by buying a Victory Bond in Thanksgiving to the servicemen who made victory possible.

"They fought hard so that you could have peace. A grateful nation can give thanks to these men by lending its dollars to the Victory Loan."

Ross-Olsen Team Is Winner In Mat Tilt

The wrestling team of Don Ross and Milt Olsen were the winners in the tag wrestling main event last night at the Lubbock Horse and Mule Auction arena, winning over the team of the Hood and Gorilla Poggi in the best two out of three falls.

Ross and Poggi started the match, but it was the Hood who won the first fall, dropping Olsen in 25 minutes with a series of knee slugs. Ross won the second fall, besting the Hood with a series of body slams in 21 minutes.

Olsen subdued Poggi with an arm lock for the winning fall.

Ivan Jones won the preliminary event of the card, coming from behind to beat Jose Manuel by winning the second and third falls of the match. Manuel won the first fall in 11 minutes with an airplane spin. Jones evened the match with a giant swing in 25 minutes, then won the match in another 15 minutes with a full nelson.

CHUNGKING, Nov. 21. (AP)—A Nationalist army, striking 60 miles into Manchuria without a fight, threatened today to overrun the Communist-held port of Hulutao and seize a solid foothold in the territory.

A triumphant sweep across southern Manchuria was reported by the Army newspaper Ho Ping Pao as Communists charged the Nationalists had massed 12,000 troops and heavy guns in Nankow pass—historic invasion gateway for the Mongol hordes in past centuries—for a simultaneous drive into Inner Mongolia.

Ho Ping Pao said the Nationalist army after a new 25-mile advance was nearing the Peiping-Mukden railway city of Hingcheng, 17 miles east of which lies Hulutao.

U. S. To Deport Nazi Soldier In U. S. Army

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP)—The Army announced tonight it had recommended deportation to Germany of Sgt. Frederick Emil Bauer, held at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., since early September on suspicion of espionage.

Investigation has shown, said a War department statement, that Bauer was a member of the German army sent to the United States on an espionage mission. He enlisted in the United States army in May, 1942.

The department's announcement said no specific acts of espionage were committed by Bauer, and therefore it was decided no criminal action against him would be practical. The army recommended to the Justice department that he be sent to Germany.

Stocks Show Decline As Strikes Spread

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP) — Prices declined 50 cents to $2 in today's stock market on selling set off by the strike of General Motors employes and announcement that Montgomery Ward workers would walk out next week.

Part of the retreat was a technical correction inasmuch as the list has been at 14-year peaks recently but news of increasing industrial strife touched off the heavy sales.

ADVISORY SETUP TO HANDLE LABOR PROBLEMS IS TALKED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP) — President Truman's labor-management conference today received a proposal for a semi-permanent national advisory committee on industrial problems and pointed its deliberations toward a possible adjournment next week.

Simultaneously, one conference subcommittee reported but then withdrew a plan to bar "quickie" strikes or lockouts. Another disclosed basic disagreement over penalties for violations or contract agreements.

To Resume Talks Monday

On higher levels, the executive committee voted to tackle the controversial question of whether fact-finding agencies should be employed when collective bargaining and conciliation fail.

The 17-day old conference, recessed tonight until Monday, had "really started to tangle with long-range problems," Secretary George W. Taylor told a news conference.

However, with early adjournment as a target, observers believed that any definite provisions for finished arbitration machinery might necessarily be left to the new semi-permanent agency if and when it is organized.

Iran wants these nations to "respect the liberty of action of the imperial forces as well as the imperial government's liberty of action in accomplishment of their duties to safeguard Iran's security," he said.

The tripartite agreement, signed in 1942 by Iran, Britain, and Russia, gave assurances that Russian and British troops would be withdrawn from Iran after the war.

Jackson Says Nazis Convict Themselves

NUERNBERG, Nov. 21. (AP)—Justice Robert Jackson asserted today that the 20 top-flight Nazis on trial before the international war crimes tribunal would be convicted by their own "Teutonic thoroughness' for recording everything from plans in 1940 to attack America to the smallest atrocities.

Jackson, presenting the United States' case against the men he described as "living symbols of racial hatred, of terrorism and violence, and of arrogance and cruelty," spoke after the defendants had entered pleas of innocence and their attorneys had sought unsuccessfully to quash the trial.

Except for the brief opening period, when the fallen Nazis faced the microphone one by one to deny their guilt and defense attorneys disputed the court's right to try the defendants, the entire second day of the historic trial was devoted to the 20,000-word statement of the U. S. prosecutor.

Perfect Weather, Top Crowd Predicted At Amarillo Tilt

Perfect football weather, clear and cool, was the report from Amarillo on the eve of the Amarillo Golden Sandies and Lubbock Westerner grid classic in that city this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with advance tickets sold out and a top crowd of between 10,000 and 13,000 assured for the game.

The holiday battle will be one of the top games of the state, in spite of the oft beaten record of the Lubbock Westerners, and the fact that the Sandies will be an overwhelming favorite for the game.

Last Westerner Game

The Thanksgiving classic will close the season for the Westerners, with no hopes for a chance to share in the title picture. But Amarillo still will have the Dec. 1 battle with the Pampa Harvesters which will decide the championship in District 1-AA, and a possible trip down the state playoff December trail.

Both teams rested last week, and have had two weeks in which to get ready for this battle, always one of the top games on the schedule for both schools, and a battle deep rooted with tradition.

Both clubs will be in top shape for the battle, and every man is in peak form for the big battle. There is very little to choose in the weight advantages of the two teams, with Amarillo holding an edge in the line and Lubbock having a slight edge in the backfield.

Sandies Are Heavier

The Amarillo giants in the forward wall top the Westerners with 1203 pounds to 1166 for the Lubbock forwards. In the backfield, Lubbock weighs in at 673 pounds and Amarillo at 657, according to the weights announced on the programs. Team weights show Amarillo with a 29 pound advantage in the starting lineup.

Amarillo has been beaten only once this year, a 20-13 loss to Odessa, a team that toppled Lubbock in the season's opener, 26 to 7, and is among the state's undefeated, untied teams.

Other comparisons of scores show Amarillo beating Abilene 33 to 12, and Lubbock lost to Abilene 12-6. Amarillo beat San Angelo 2-6, and Lubbock tied the Bobcats, 13-3. Amarillo beat Borger 21-0, and Borger beat Lubbock 21-19. Amarillo beat Plainview 7-0, and Plainview beat Lubbock 13-7. Amarillo beat Brownfield 42-6, and Lubbock beat the same club 20-0.

On the basis of these records, Amarillo is again shown up as a big favorite in today's game.

Westerners Improved

But Lubbock fans take some hope from the fact that the Westerners have looked better in each of the last three games, and reached a peak in the last game played, when the local club tied the vaunted Pampa Harvesters, 0-0, knocking Pampa from the undefeated, untied list of the state teams.

The Westerners have not set the woods afire with an offensive show, but the fact remains that the scoreless tie with Pampa was the only time this year that the club has been held scoreless, but only three of nine opponents have been checked.

Amarillo, too, has been able to blank but three opponents out of eight, but have not been held scoreless in any game. The Amarillo steamroller, lumbering behind waves of big blockers, has smashed over at least two touchdowns in every game but one.

Brewer vs. Collins

Amarillo, strictly an offensive team, is paced by Harland Collins, hard driving halfback. But Lubbock fans still want to see how Collins will stack up against Gorgeous George Brewer, the best back in the District 1-AA race, and today's game is expected to develope into a duel between these two lads, both almost sure of berths on the District 1-AA all-district eleven.

There will be little change from the lineups that carried the brunt of the season's play for both teams, but Amarillo will welcome back Avon Flaniken, regular 175 pound fullback, who has been out of the game much of the time of late with injuries.

Harland Collins, 163, Bill Attebury, 160, and Bobby Bauman, 159, will make up the remainder of the Sandie backfield, slated to start the battle.

Charlie Houston, 175, and Jack Glasgow, 162, are at the ends for the Sandies, Brian Rusk, 171, and Billy Snodgrass, 170, will be at the tackles, Carlos Thornton, 160, and Bill Juett, 212, at the guards, and Don Mulkey, 53, at center.

Coach Dixie White announced that he would start Captain Charles Presley, 182, at center; Stoney Wall, 165, and L. O. Pierce, 130, at guards; O. C. Foster, 191, and Wayne Cobb, 190, at tackles; Gerald Davis, 168, and Dick Schmidt, 140, at ends. The backfield will be John Paul Jones, 178, George Brewer, 178, Noel Sikes, 145, and Arthur Rampy, 172.

Tickets were sold out in Lubbock early Wednesday morning, but it is reported there are still a few general admission tickets available in Amarillo.

It is best to whip no more than a pint of cream at a time when it is being done at home.

Texas Schoolboy Titles At Stake

(By The Associated Press)

The spotlight of Texas schoolboy football swings alternately to Wichita Falls, El Paso, Fort Worth, Mineral Wells, Tyler and San Antonio Thursday with district championships in the balance.

It's the big week of the grid-iron campaign when more than one-half of the sixteen district titlists will have been determined.

Two already are marking time: Paris in District 5 and Milby (Houston) in District 13.

Vernon plays at Wichita Falls in a battle between unbeaten District 2 teams. El Paso High meets Austin (El Paso) for the District 4 crown. Jaschal tangles with North Side for the Fort Worth district title. Breckenridge plays at Mineral Wells needing a victory to clinch District 9 honors but in a tie for the lead even if upset. Marshall engages Tyler at Tyler for the District 11 championship. Jefferson plays Brackenridge at San Antonio and the former can sew up District 15 honors with a victory but a tie or defeat would virtually hand the crown to Austin.

Friday finds titles on the line in Districts 8, 12, 14 and 16.

Crozier Tech and Sunset tangle for the Dallas district crown, Lufkin plays Jacksonville for the District 12 laurels, Galveston engages Goose Creek for the District 13 pennant, while Brownsville will meet Harlingen seeking to win undisputed honors in District 16.

The week-end schedule:

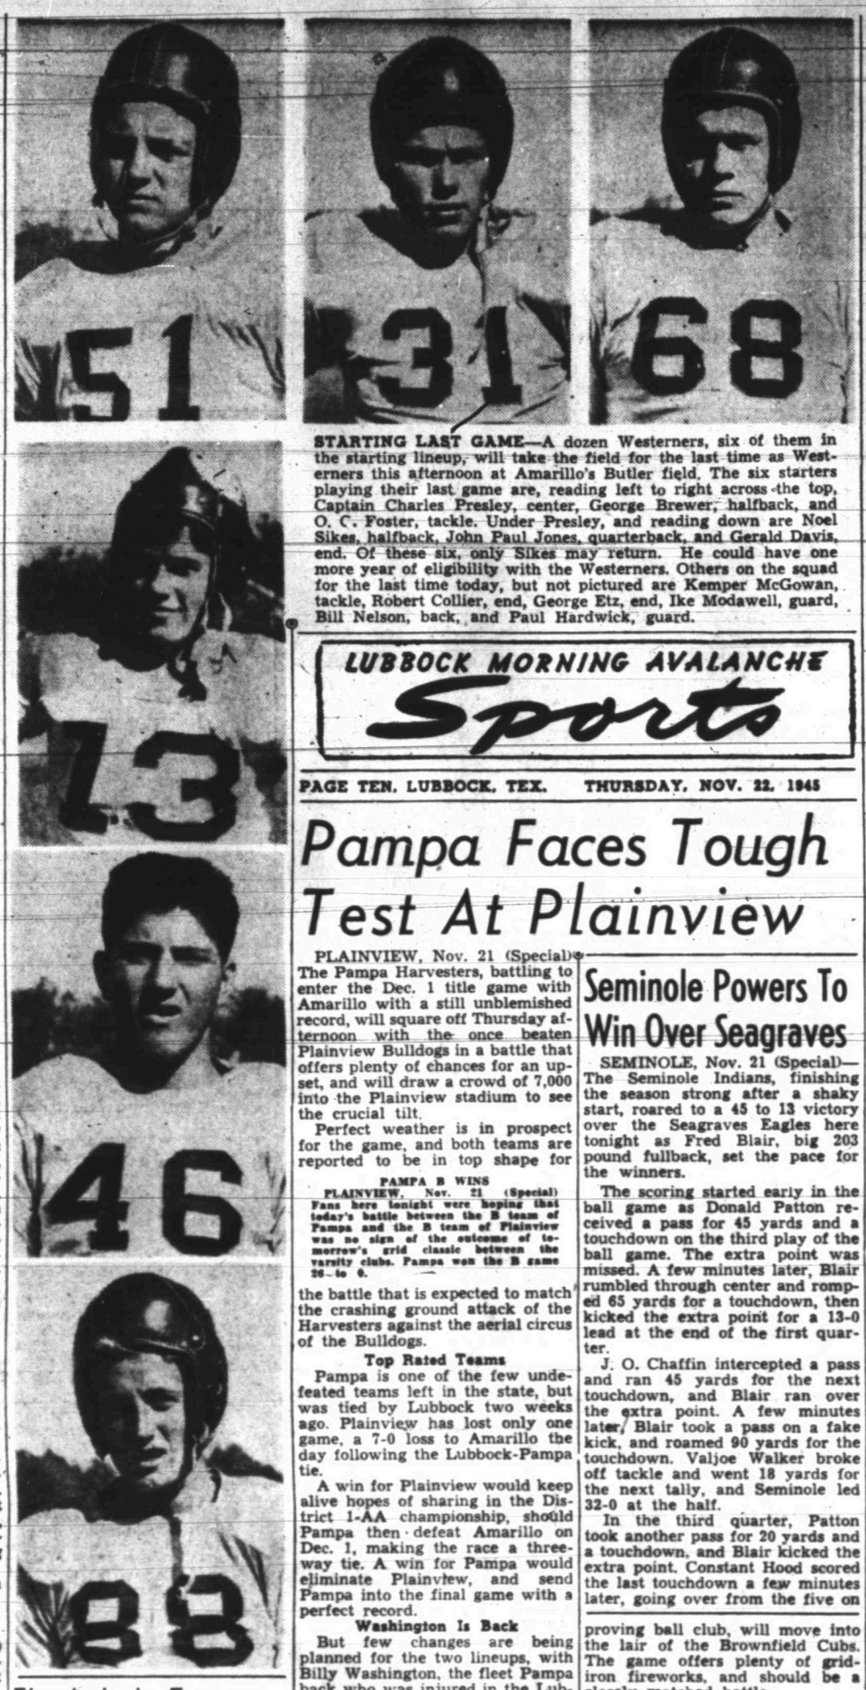

Thursday — Lubbock at Amarillo, Borger at Brownfield, Pampa at Plainview, Vernon at Wichita Falls, Electra at Quanah, Olney at Graham, San Angelo at Abilene, Lamesa at Midland, Sweetwater at Big Spring, El Paso High vs Austin (El Paso) Denison at Sherman, Gainesville at Bonham, Paris at Greenville, Arlington at Sulphur Springs, McKinney at Highland Park (Dallas), Paschal (Fort Worth) vs. North Side (Fort Worth), Forest (Dallas) vs. Adamson (Dallas), Weatherford at Brownwood, Breckenridge at Meneral Wells, Stephenville at Ranger, Eastland at Cisco, Hillsboro at Waxahachie, Marshall at Tyler, Longview at Gladewater, Kilgore at Henderson, Sam Houston Houston) vs. Jeff Davis, (Houston), Beaumont at Port Arthur, Jefferson (San Antonio) vs. Brackenridge (San Antonio), McAllen at San Benito.

Friday—Crozier Tech (Dallas) vs. Sunset (Dallas), Ennis at Waco, Lufkinat Jacksonville, Nacogdoches at Athens, Palestine at Livingston, San Jacinto (Houston) vs. Reagon( Houston), Galveston at Goose Creek, Kerrville at Austin, San Antonio Tech at Laredo, Harlingen at Brownsville, Edinburg at Kingsville.

Saturday — Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) vs. North Dallas.

HUNTSVILLE COPS TITLE

HUNTSVILLE, Tex., Nov. 22 (AP) —The Huntsville Hornets defeated the Elkhart Elks here tonight 46 to 0 to win the District 23-A championship. The Hornets were undefeated and untied in district competition.

STARTING LAST GAME—A dozen Westerners, six of them in the starting lineup, will take the field for the last time as Westerners this afternoon at Amarillo's Butler field. The six starters playing their last game are, reading left to right across the top, Captain Charles Presley, center, George Brewer, halfback, and O. C. Foster, tackle. Under Presley, and reading down are Noel Sikes, halfback, John Paul Jones, quarterback, and Gerald Davis, end. Of these six, only Sikes may return. He could have one more year of eligibility with the Westerners. Others on the squad for the last time today, but not pictured are Kemper McGowan, tackle, Robert Collier, end, George Etz, end, Ike Modawell, guard, Bill Nelson, back, and Paul Hardwick, guard.

Floydada In Feature Grid Scrap In 4-A

The Floydada Whirlwinds, champions of District 4-A will face a tough test this afternoon in the annual Turkey Day clash with the dethroned champions, the Spur Bulldogs.

This traditional battle has usually named the champion in recent years, but will make no difference in the outcome of the race for this season, but could leave Floydada only a co-champion.

Two other conference games are on the Thanksgiving schedule, but neither of them will have any bearing on the district title scramble. Ralls will play at Lockney and Paducah journeys to Matador.

One other conference team will be in action, Crosbyton Chiefs, a team just back into action after a wartime layoff and loser only to Floydada, playing the Petersburg Buffs, a team that will be playing in the district next year. These two teams play at Crosbyton.

Pampa Faces Tough Test At Plainview

PLAINVIEW, Nov. 21 (Special)— The Pampa Harvesters, battling to enter the Dec. 1 title game with Amarillo with a still unblemished record, will square off Thursday afternoon with the once beaten Plainview Bulldogs in a battle that offers plenty of chances for an upset, and will draw a crowd of 7,000 into the Plainview stadium to see the crucial tilt.

Perfect weather is in prospect for the game, and both teams are reported to be in top shape for the battle that is expected to match the crashing ground attack of the Harvesters against the aerial circus of the Bulldogs.

PAMPA B WINS

PLAINVIEW, Nov. 21 (Special) Fans here tonight were hoping that today's battle between the B team of Pampa and the B team of Plainview was no sign of the outcome of tomorrow's grid classic between the varsity clubs. Pampa won the B game 26- to 0.

Top Rated Teams

Pampa is one of the few undefeated teams left in the state, but was tied by Lubbock two weeks ago. Plainview has lost only one game, a 7-0 loss to Amarillo the day following the Lubbock-Pampa tie.

A win for Plainview would keep alive hopes of sharing in the District 1-AA championship, should Pampa then defeat Amarillo on Dec. 1, making the race a three-way tie. A win for Pampa would eliminate Plainview, and send Pampa into the final game with a perfect record.

Washington Is Back

But few changes are being planned for the two lineups, with Billy Washington, the fleet Pampa back who was injured in the Lubbock game after playing a great game, back in the starting lineup for this tilt. Teamed with Randall Clay, Washington will give Pampa a potent running attack that will be hard to stop.

The only changes planned for the Plainview lineup will be a pair of new tackles, inserted in hopes of slowing down this powerful running game. Morrison and Clark will take over at the tackle slots.

One of the most feared attacks in the district this year has been the passing attack, engineered by Jack Williams, the Plainview sensation. Williams is expected to be in top shape for the duel this afternoon, and fans here expect to see lots of passing done against the vaunted Harvesters.

Borger At Brownfield

The game will close the season for Plainview. Two more teams in the district race close the season today, playing a conference battle that will have no bearing on the outcome of the race.

The Borger Bulldogs, a fast improving ball club, will move into the lair of the Brownfield Cubs. The game offers plenty of grid-iron fireworks, and should be a closely matched battle.

Seminole Powers To Win Over Seagraves

SEMINOLE, Nov. 21 (Special)— The Seminole Indians, finishing the season strong after a shaky start, roared to a 45 to 13 victory over the Seagraves Eagles here tonight as Fred Blair, big 203 pound fullback, set the pace for the winners.

The scoring started early in the ball game as Donald Patton received a pass for 45 yards and a touchdown on the third play of the ball game. The extra point was missed. A few minutes later, Blair rumbled through center and romped 65 yards for a touchdown, then kicked the extra point for a 13-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

J. O. Chaffin intercepted a pass and ran 45 yards for the next touchdown, and Blair ran over the extra point. A few minutes later, Blair took a pass on a fake kick, and roamed 90 yards for the touchdown. Valjoe Walker broke off tackle and went 18 yards for the next tally, and Seminole led 32-0 at the half.

In the third quarter, Patton took another pass for 20 yards and a touchdown, and Blair kicked the extra point. Constant Hood scored the last touchdown a few minutes later, going over from the five on a quarterback sneak.

The second team took the field for the last quarter, and Seagraves scored twice on passes, Cecil Shaw scoring one and Howard Hassell the other. J. B. Cotton ran over the extra point. Cotton and Hassell were the outstanding performers for Seagraves.

Seagraves threatened ony once against the Seminole first team.

Wildcats, Hornets Play For 5-A Crown

SUDAN, Nov. 21. (Special) — This little Lamb county city has gone "football wild" in the last few days, and more than 2,000 fans are expected to jam into the high school stadium at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon to see the Sudan Hornets battle the Littlefield Wildcats for the District 5-A grid title.

Turkey dinners will be eaten early over a wide area of West Texas, and the caravans of fans will start streaming into town for the game that will pair the point a minute Wildcats with the dark horse Hornets, who have taken their foes one by one, and come through to this final game with a record of being undefeated and untied.

Sundan supporters refuse to admit that the Wildcats will have anything over Coach Francis Smith's light, but game Hornets, and a great battle looms in the making for this battle.

The powerful Wildcats, finalists last season in the regional playoff, have rolled roughshod over most of the teams they have faced this season, paced by the great passing arm of Billy Lyman. Only the high scoring Ballinger Bearcats have stopped the Littlefield club this season, winning a free scoring 19-14 battle.

The Wildcats have roared over West Texas gridirons for eight wins in nine starts this season, and have piled up the staggering total of 408 points to 37 for their opponents.

Sudan has not turned in the scoring feats of the Wildcats, but have shown plenty of ability to deliver when the chips were down. The Hornets will be the underdogs—in spite of the belief of Sudan fans—but the local club is confident of giving the Littlefield lads a rough afternoon.

Only one other District 5-A team will be in action this week, the Levelland Lobos going to Monahans, where the Lobos are in for a rough battle with a team rated high in the district race there.

Slaton To Entertain Andrews Club Today

SLATON, Nov. 21 (Special) — The Thanksgiving grid feature here Thursday afternoon will pair the Slaton Tigers and the Andrews Mustangs in a District 6-A grid battle at 3 o'clock.

The game was moved up to an afternoon affair, and will close the season for Andrews. Slaton has one more game, a battle with Sundown on Nov. 30 at 7:15 o'clock.

Andrews has lost only one game in the conference, and could tie the Denver City club for the championship, but having lost to Denver City the playoff rights would go to that team in case of a tie. Slaton has lost two and tied one in conference play.

Dunbar And Abilene Play At Tech Field

Affording Lubbock grid fans with their lone Turkey day grid game and the last home game of the year the Lubbock Dunbar High school negro football eleven takes to the field today at 2:30 p. m. in Tech stadium against an Abilene Negro High school team that proved to be a tough foe in one other game this season.

The game is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce with this organization halving the profits with the Lubbock school fund. The west stands are being reserved for colored patrons with whites seated in the east side.

In their first meeting this year the two colored elevens batted each other all over the field before Dunbar was able to push over the winning seven points, taking a 14-7 decision from the tough Abilenians.

Playing before Lubbock fans for the first time this season the local squad whipped to a 20-0 win over a previously unbeaten San Angelo colored eleven on Tech field last Friday night.

Whitharral Defeats Whiteface For Tie

WHITEFACE, Nov. 21 (Special) —The District 6-B six man football race was thrown into a tie here this afternoon as the Whitharral Panthers won over the Whiteface Antelopes, 25 to 15.

Whiteface won over Whitharral in the first game of the season, 12-0, and today's game put the Panthers back into the running. The playoff will be held Nov. 30 at Levelland, and the winner will play Union (Dawson county) on Dec. 7 for the bi-district championship.

Denver City To Battle Sundown

DENVER CITY, Nov. 21 (Special)—With the district 6-A title already hanging in the trophy room the hometown Mustangs play host Thursday afternoon to the twice-beaten Sundown Roughnecks placing their undefeated and unscored conference record at stake.

Kickoff is at 2:30 on Mustang field. It is Denver City's last League game.

The local eleven has whipped through their season to date with but six points scored against them, this by the non-conference and powerful rivals—the Levelland Lobos. The game ended a 6-6 tie.

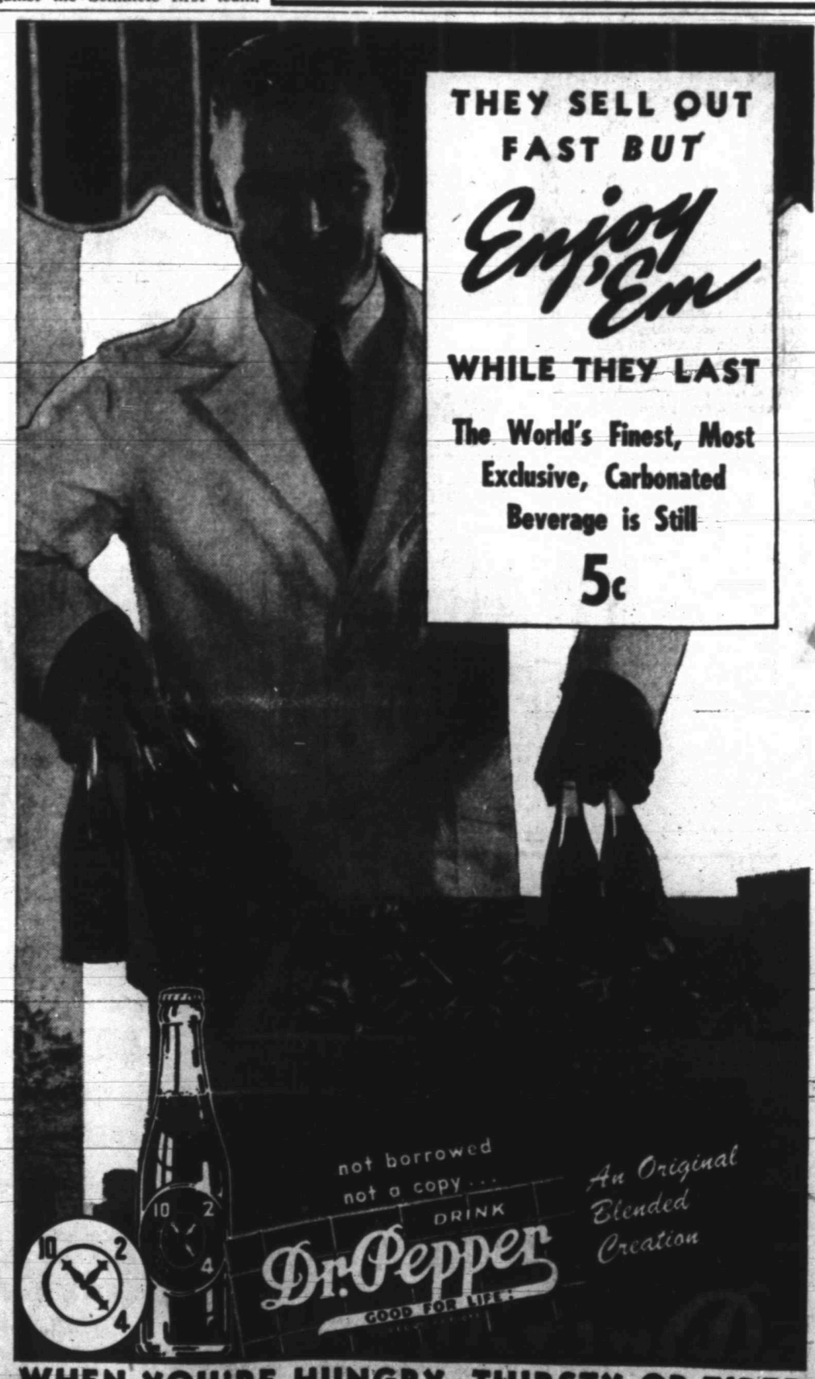

Denver City has the title cinched and will represent the district in the bi-district play regardless of the outcome of the Turkey day fray. Andrews will get a claim to a co-championship if the Mustangs lost, but a loss by the present runner-ups to the locals by a 20-0 score gives Denver City the play-off rights.

The locals will meet the winner of Thursday's West Texas Class A grid classic between Littlefield and Sudan. No date has been set for this game, nor have any plans been made between any of the three schools.

Sundown has lost games this year to Seminole and Andrews giving the host team the role as favorites.

This Thanksgiving Day

For many veterans, this Thanksgiving Day is the one they have dreamed about while overseas. A real old-fashioned Thanksgiving with all the trimmings, shared with the ones they love best. On this day America and her allies give thanks for victory.

Count Your Blessings!

Thanksgiving, 1945, Is Real

WE know little of the purpose and history and real meaning of Thanksgiving when we shudder in the presence of the atomic bomb, civil strife the world over and the trends of nations into patterns which preceded other world wars and ask ourselves despondently, "What in the world have we to be thankful for at such a tragic time as this?"

Such a question is natural, perhaps, with those who in the old days have gorged themselves with turkey, speeded to some crowded football stadium, attended post-game jollifications and considered Thanksgiving a wonderful institution. If Thanksgiving ever had been intended for the satisfaction of gluttony, there might be some slight warrant for concluding that this is a poor time to be returning thanks.

But if Thanksgiving had ever been intended to be dedicated to the gratification of physical appetites, history would lack the story of the first Thanksgiving service held by the Pilgrims. For those devout people were shadowed by many difficulties. They were aliens in a strange and forbidding country. Their daily battle for their daily bread was carried on against a coalition of cold and famine and disease and hostile Indians. They never knew when they knelt to pray whether they would be shot dead and scalped before their prayer was ended. It was of a travail of loneliness and stark suffering that Thanksgiving was born.

And what darker day ever dawned upon the republic than the day Abraham Lincoln revived a custom that had gone neglected since the days of Washington and counselled the American people to devote a day to Thanksgiving for the blessings they had enjoyed? Surely, we have as many things to be grateful for in 1945 as our forefathers had when the weary Lincoln lifted his eyes above the battle smoke to recognize the unfailing mercies of the Creator.

Through the pillar of smoke which rose above Nagasaki, there might have shone a ray of hope. The awful thing the scientists have created might, conversely, be the permanent cure for war that mankind has sought for ages. For this slim possibility, we can be thankful.

Above all, we can be grateful over the closing of history's most terrible war, and the fact that millions of our sons, brothers, husbands and fathers are back home again.

Though we still have our troubles and may look to the future with uneasiness, we are really the most fortunate people in all the world. Our soil is unscarred by bombs. There is no hunger in our country. We do not have to sleep in the rubble of bombed-out homes. Our people are remarkably free of serious epidemics. There are perhaps a billion humans in other parts of the world who would gladly give everything they possess for the blessings and privileges enjoyed by the humblest American.

For A Better State Park

THE proposed construction of an amusement area at Mackenzie State park will do much to increase the recreational value of that already widely popular summertime play and relaxation center.

The project would cover about 30 acres and calls for the building of permanent structures. It would offer to the public such amusements as skating, a golf driving range, a merry-go-round, merry mix-up, etc., and, in addition, places where a variety of food and other refreshments could be obtained.

The latter provision will be good news to those who like to "picnic." It will preclude the necessity of preparing a picnic box at home and toting it to the park.

Plans also call for ample rest-room facilities, which is another badly-needed improvement. Toilet facilities in the park proper are wholly inadequate and, most of the time through the summer, are in a filthy condition.

Improved maintenance of the park will also be possible, since part of the profits of the amusement area will go to the Lubbock Park commission for upkeep.

It is a step in the direction of providing more recreational means for the city, which has been handicapped in this regard for many years. And the addition would be in line with what other and larger cities have established in their parks. Lubbock is a city now and it is proper that she conduct herself like one.

Erasing War's Damage

FROM Germany comes word by an American correspondent that an inventive German engineer has devised a method by which rubble, the debris made by bombing raids, can be turned into bricks and building blocks. It is said that the machine is mobile, making it unnecessary to haul away the remains of destroyed structures.

If these things are true, the rebuilding of many places that were bomb targets during the war will be much shorter than had been expected. Naturally, the British, in their scarred cities, will be greatly interested. People in American cities, crowded by the housing shortage, have no conception of what homelessness has come to mean.

Nothing, so far, has been tried to make rebuilding swift and easy after the destructiveness of modern war, but if a way has been found to make the process less arduous and less time consuming it will be a boon.

Marshall's Report On The War

By Gen. George C. Marshall
Wartime Chief Of Staff

(This is the eighth of 47 installments of material selected from General Marshall's report on the winning of World War II.)

ON TO THE BOOT

IN THE first two days of the invasion more than 80,000 men, 7,000 vehicles, and 300 tanks had been landed; several small ports had been placed in operation; at least six airfields had been captured and were being prepared for use.

Allied aircraft gave close support to ground operations, flying up to 1,200 sorties each day. Heavy bombers knocked out the few airdromes remaining serviceable to the enemy, and the ground troops were advancing rapidly. All air operations were under the Mediterranean Allied Air Forces headed by Air Chief Marshal Sir Arthur Tedder with Lt. Gen. Carl Spaatz as Commander of the Northwest African Air Forces. All heavy bombers were organized into the Strategic Air Force under Maj. Gen. James H. Doolittle.

By July 16 the battle line ran from a joint just south of Catania on the east to Porto Empedocle on the west; about one-quarter of the island was in our hands. On 22 July, General Patton's forces in a rapid thrust across the western end of the island occupied the key port of Palermo. Further east the troops forged steadily ahead through rugged mountains stubbornly defended by the enemy. By the end of July only the northeastern corner of the island remained to the enemy.

Catania, the east coast bastion which had held up the advance of the British Eighth Army, fell early in August. The Germans and Italians were already withdrawing across the Strait of Messina under heavy air bombardment and continued pressure by our ground forces. On 16 August patrols of our 3d Division entered Messina from the west simultaneously with British units from the southeast and the next day organized resistance ceased. In 90 days the Sicilian campaign had ended. Through use of a heavy concentration of anti-aircraft gun the Germans managed to extricate thousands of their first-line panzer and airborne troops as well a sa considerable amount of light equipment over the Strait of Messina to the mainland. Nevertheless, for the Axis the loss of Sicily was a major military disaster. Their casualties totaled 167,000 of which 37,000 were Germans. Our casualties totaled 31,158 killed, wounded, and missing.

General Eisenhower reported:

". . . Nine months after the first landings in North Africa, the Allied Forces had not merely cleared its shore of enemy forces, but had wrested from him the Sicilian bridge to use as our own in an advance onto the Italian mainland."

Italians Call Quits

Operation HUSKY, as we had hoped, precipitated a political disaster for the Axis. On 25 July, King Victor Emmanuel proclaimed the resignation of Mussolini. In August the President and the Prime Minister with the Combined Chiefs of Staff met at the Citadel at Quebec, the meeting being designated the QUADRANT Conference. By now the Italian Government was ready to quit. Marshal Badoglio had established contact with General Eisenhower in an effort to negotiate a surrender without the knowledge of the Germans. General Eisenhower was instructed to accept the unconditional surrender of Italy and to obtain the greatest military advantage from this development. He was to size Sardinia and Corsica and attempt the establishment of air bases in the Rome area and northward, if feasible, maintaining unrelenting pressure on German forces in Northern Italy. At the same time, he was directed to coordinate his plans with the requirements of operation OVERLORD.

The Combined Chiefs of Staff at the QUADRANT Conference also conceived the operation against Southern France designated operation ANVIL and arrived at these conclusions:

"Offensive operations against Southern France (to include the use of trained and equipped French forces) should be undertaken to establish a lodgment in the Toulon-Marseille area and to create a diversion in connection with OVERLORD. Air nourished operations in the southern Alps will, if possible, be initiated . . ."

On 8 September, the day before American troops landed on the Italian mainland, the unconditional surrender of Italy was announced. On 9 September and the succeeding days the principal elements of the Italian fleet surrendered.

Invasion of Mainland

Comelling reasons had developed for the invasion of the Italian mainland. The operation (AVALANCHE) would enable us to capitalize on the collapse of Italian resistance; it offered a field for engaging German divisions which otherwise might operate against the Red Army and later against the forces in France; it wuold provide airfields from which the German homeland and the Balkans could be bombed from substantially shorter range; it would complete Allied control of the Mediterranean.

Canadian and British divisions of General Montgomery's Eighth Army crossed the Strait of Messina under cover of heavy artillery and air bombardment and landed on beaches near Reggio Calabria and Villa San Giovanni on 3 September. The beachheads were quickly secured, and the Eighth Army advanced northward through Calabria.

Six days later the U. S. Fifth Army under command of Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark disembarked on beaches along the Gulf of Salerno. It landed with the VI Corps commanded by Maj. Gen. E. J. Dawley on the right and the British X Corps on the left. The VI Corps was composed principally of the 36th and 45th Divisions. American Rangers and British Commando units landed on the Sorrento Peninsula, north of the port of Salerno.

The enemy had suspected that we might undertake an amphibious operation against the Naples area, and as a result enemy reaction to the Salerno landings was swift and vigorous. It was evident that the German High Command had decided that its only hope of salvaging the situation arising from the surrender of the Italian Government lay in holding the Allied forces south of Naples until fresh dispositions could be made. On D-day the Germans made several local tank attacks. By 13 September the German XIV Panzer Corps was in action, and both the American and the British Corps were under heavy attack. The situation was critical.

Looking At Life ------ By Erich Brandeis

TO BE completely up-to-date in the post-war period you will have 839 new developments at your disposal, according to a 167-page volume just issued by a Senate Military Affairs, subcommittee.

Here are a few of the things your wife might expect in the near future:

BRANDEIS

Spun glass or aluminum dresses (and if you accompany her, you will be dressed in a non-shrinkable, never shiny serge suit with permanent crease).

Pastel-colored glass kitchen sinks.

A house with windows of insulated glass which cuts the heat bill down fifty percent. The house will have neon lightning rods.

A mechanical cow which turns out milk and cream from a mixture of water, dried skimmed milk and butter.

Bread made from sea water.

Soy bean shoe soles put on at home with a hot flatiron.

Rust-proof aluminum bathing suits.

A powder to keep the ground from getting muddy no matter how hard it rains.

Electric lamps without cords.

Sheep pelts dipped in a plastic to look exactly like seal-skin or beaver.

• • •

My wife and I were discussing all these wonderful new innovations, just after I had a switch in the kitchen and vainly tried to put a new washer in the bathroom faucet

"Won't it be wonderful, dear," I said, "when this new life begins? Hardly any more work for you. Nothing but a couple of switches and everything to make things easy and bright! Plastics and electronics, spun glass and aluminum threads — twenty-four hours a day of leisure and convenience."

"Well," said my wife, who was just then putting a new elbow in her mother's old purple sweater which was made of plain wool, "I wonder whether I am going to like it. It's pretty hard to keep a house going, particularly an old house like ours, but isn't it going to be just as hard trying to figure out what to do with yourself when you have nothing to do?"

• • •

AND there you have it.

Loafing is wonderful in theory but pretty monotonous in practice.

Every time I go to New York I see those women who live in modern apartments hanging around the cocktail lounges or in the stores spending their husbands' money, and they always seem to look so restless and dissatisfied.

Then I come home to Brookfield, where the women are busy raising kids and taking care of their houses. It's pretty tough, I know, but somehow there is something contented-looking about them, something normal and decent and regular.

I wonder whether our women in Brookfield and the millions of women in the Brookfields all over America will like all these new-fangled gadgets.

And I wonder how my wife would look in one of those rust-proof aluminum bathing suits.

Hitler And The Bankers

How Nazis Co-erced Business

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

THE FILES of the American Counter-Intelligence corps in Germany contain the story of the wickedly picturesque technique by which Adolf Hitler gained control of the banking and industrial system, with its far-flung ramifications in the United States and many other countries. The official documents read like romantic novels as they narrate the beginnings of his rise to a power that conquered almost all of Europe.

A score of leading financiers were recently arrested by our agents as suspected war criminals. They headed the three greatest banks in the Reich —the Deutsche bank, the Dresdner bank and the Bank de Deutsche Arbeit. Their directors, who had many friends and connections in this country in prewar days, controlled 200 major industries and 62 arms factories.

TUCKER

It is charged that, willingly or unwillingly, they put their facilities at Hitler's disposal both before and after he became Der Fuehrer. It is alleged that they financed his rearming in violation of the Treaty of Versailles, and encouraged his attacks on other countries. They also transformed their foreign branches — in France, Belgium, Holland, Italy etc. — into spy centers, and eventually were permitted to pilfer enemy riches as their reward.

The bankers under arrest, as well as colleagues who have escaped detection, fall into different categories. But, although they did not kill and torture and wage war themselves, they are branded as "war criminals."

A novel and dynamic idea for the postwar world is behind the Allies' attempt to convict these once respected and internationally famous financiers. If the trial court holds them equally responsible with military leaders, Gauleiters and the brutal bosses of concentration camps, it may deter bankers in every nation from turning their assets over to a war-minded government.

In short, the victor's lawyers are writing a revolutionary chapter in the book of international jurisprudence.

• • •

EXPLANATION: Many of these bankers welcomed the appearance of a Hitler in the hope that he would crush the radical Socialists and Communists who threatened to overrun Germany in the twenties and early thirties. Others opposed him, but were finally put under financial obligation to him during the depression. A third group consisted of Nazis from the gangster classes who became the heads of financial institutions because of their early clambering aboard Der Fuehrer's bandwagon.

A few typical profiles of these men, taken from the Counter-Intelligence records, give the most understandable explanation of the strange alliance of an eccentric Austrian house painter and Germany's leading figures in finance and industry. Here is the reference to Gunther Quandt, a director of the Deutsche bank and a czar of the whole German economy:

• • •

FAVOR: "He was born July 28, 1881, the son of a textile manufacturer. He never received a university education, notwithstanding the fact that he now holds an honorary degree of doctor of engineering. He started his business career at the age of 19, when he was entrusted with the management of one of his father's textile factories. He made rapid progress and expanded into other fields."

Next he bumped into the Nazis and was caught in the net.

"In the Spring of 1933, Quandt came into conflict with Joseph Goebbels, who by that time had become the husband of Quandt's divorced wife. Goebbels attached the holdings of Quandt in his various firms, asserting that the alimony which Quandt owed to his own child was endangered. A settlement was apparently made, as a result of which Goebbels acquired a portion of Quandt's holdings . . . However, Quandt continued to prosper and remain in favor."

• • •

INFLUENCE: Typical Nazi opportunist was Carl Luer, a director of the Dresdner bank and of the Adam Opel Corporation company, the largest automobile producer on the continent before the war. He was a leader of the Hitler Youth Movement and a member of the Reichstag before the collapse.

"Carl Luer was born August 14, 1897. He apparently did not receive more than a secondary education. In the First World war he served with a regiment of the guard and was wounded.

"In the pre-Hitler period Luer occupied only obscure positions, but following the establishment of the Nazi regime, his influence in private industry began to rise rapidly and he was elected to the directorate and management of important firms because of the strong political influence he was able to exert in their interest, based upon his affiliation with the Nazi hierarchy. In 1934 he was given an honorary degree at Frankfurt."

At Washington men like Luer are known as lobbyists.

"It is interesting to note that before the advent of Hitler, Luer was an outstanding exponent of the then favorite Nazi socialistic theories, and especially vehement in his denunciation of the practices of private capitalism such as interlocking directorates, concentration of industrial and financial power in a few groups. But there are few people today in Germany who have accomplished more than he in the development and preservation of powerful industrial combinations."

• • •

ROGUES: Dr. Friedrich Flick is representative of the industrial Junker who embraced the Hitler-Goering-Goebels crew with open arms. Virtually alone, he controlled the German steel cartel, numerous banks, coal companies and many other industrial concerns vital to rearmament.

Although he never held an official party post, he financed the German Army Secret Service (in violation of the Versailles treaty), the German Folk party and the German National party.

"In 1931 he reached an understanding with Goering and the Nazis. Thereafter Goering and Flick benefited tremendously by mutual favors. Each acquired important properties and consessions in Germany and abroad, and shared in the spoils of German conquest of Europe.

"Flick has been characterized as shunning publicity and hoping to pass as a moderate after the crash, thus insuring his industrial niche."

Allied prosecutors report that it may take years before they can unearth enough evidence to convict this diamond horseshoe gallery of Nazi rogues. But they believe that these men must be destroyed if the Reich is to be kept prostrate and peaceful.

• • •

SUGAR: American sugar supplies may continue scarce and expensive for at least two years. Although the negotiations have received no publicity, Agriculture Secretary Clinton Anderson scored no victories in recent dealings with Cuban and Puerto Rico growers during the last few weeks.

When the Cuban sugar salesmen arrived here a few weeks ago, they wanted to unload three crops on the United States. They insisted that Mr. Anderson agree to purchase the 1946, 1947 and 1948 crops at present rates, which include a subsidy of about two cents a pound to the refiners. That grant, which amounts to $138,000,000 annually, was made to keep the price down for the ultimate consumer in this country.

Mr. Anderson explained to the visitors that the law did not permit him to contract for more than one crop — the 1946. He also told them that even if it were legally possible he would not buy the 1947 and 1948 crops. The Truman administration wants to terminate all food controls as soon as feasible, and advance purchasing of the kind the Havana diplomats suggested would defeat that plan.

• • •

HOLDUP: So the island emissaries departed in a huff. They now have two choices: They can sell us their 1946 output and take a chance on prices for future years, or decide to market the 1946 production in the open, free world market, instead of turning it over to us. The Puerto Ricans may also sell abroad if we do not meet their demands for a higher price.

Atomic Bomb Makes New Setup A Necessity

World Government Gains Support

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—It is becoming clear that public opinion is moving closer toward the next step in international relations.

This is usually described as "world government."

The atomic bomb is responsible for this shift or opinion. The shift is discernible in recurring expressions by political leaders who were pioneers for a United Nations organization, by scientists who helped create the bomb, by organizations which were set up to promote the UNO.

STOKES

It is significant. It shows that public opinion is moving with the times, which are moving awfully fast.

World government means, in essence, a single government of all the nations of the world, just as the United States is one government of 48 states. Each nation would have to yield up sovereignty, just as our states did when the constitution was drafted.

Anyone who suggested this when the 54 nations gathered at San Francisco last April was scornfully derided as a starry-eyed idealist by the practical diplomats and politicians there who were still "practical," though most of them came from nations laid waste by war.

But that was before the atomic bomb dropped to end lots of illusions about statecraft and international politics.

• • •

Politicians Take Notice

It is not so unpopular now to talk about world government.

No one, of course, expects world government to come tomorrow or the day after tomorrow. But the atmosphere is being created. This changed atmosphere is perhaps the most important single thing that has happened in political thinking since Woodrow Wilson came forward boldly, 25 years ago, after the first the first World war, with his League of Nations proposal.

It is the most important single fact in the world today and the politicians and diplomats are beginnig to take notice

• • •

FOR that reason it is expected that this change of atmosphere will become apparent when the UNO assembly meets for its opening session in January, and that the attitude and approach of that body will be entirely different from what might have been predicted just after it was created at San Francisco.

For there is no question that the people of the world have been frightened by the atomic bomb and this fright is being transferred, slowly as usual, to their political leaders.

The signs of the new approach are to be found in the numerous demands—and from responsible, functioning government with real powers.

• • •

Must Guard A-Bomb

These demands proceed, in the first instance, from the fact that the UNO must be the trustee or custodian of the atomic bomb. That requires power. Consequently there are demands for change in the veto, so that one of the big five powers can't prevent action; for creating a real international police force; for powers of inspection for secret atomic bomb manufacture. Also, and this is in the interest of a real union of nations, there are demands that the trusteeship provisions, now rigid, be changed so that the UNO itself would assume all trusteeships, and not leave various dependencies to the whims of those who have ruled them so long.

How good a job the international politicians thought they had done at San Francisco may be gathered from the difficulty with which they surrounded change or amendments to their charter. It takes a two-thirds votes of the assembly including all five of the big powers to amend. A constitutional convention to consider amendments can be called by a two-thirds vote of the general assembly including a simple majority of the security council of seven members.

• • •

BUT the delegates at San Francisco showed how little change they expected any time soon by providing that if such a convention has not been held in 10 years, then a proposal—only a proposal—for such a convention would be put on the agenda of the 10th session of the general assembly.

The very first session of the general assembly is likely to get proposals for amendments, now that we have the atomic bomb.

The people again seem to be moving ahead of the politicians.

The politicians might as well catch up.

New Boost In Crude Oil Output Reported

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)—A further increase in crude oil production was reported today by the American Petroleum institute along with a substantial rise in gasoline stocks.

In the week ended Nov. 17 the daily average gross crude oil output increased 23,300 barrels, totaling 4,474,500 and compared with 4,738,850 in the 1944 week.

Refinery operations were at 86.8 per cent of capacity, indicating a run of stills of 4,693,000 barrels of crude daily, compared with 88.6 per cent and 4,789,000 barrels a week earlier. Last year the total was 4,598,000 barrels.

The 14 cotton-growing states have 737 cotton-spinning mills.

Chinese Return As Negotiations Fail

PEIPING, Nov. 20. (Delayed)—It was reported authoritatively today that Generalissimo Chaing Kai-Shek ordered his administrators home from Manchuria because of a break-down in negotiations with Russia.

Members of the Nationalist delegation, which was sent to Manchuria's capital of Changchun after Japan's surrender to take over the administration, said on their arrival by plane here they had been held almost incommunicado.

Members of the delegation, who would not be quoted by name, said the Russian authorities in Changchun had presented "a score of demands" to Gen Hsiung Shih-Hui representing the Generalissimo, who took them to Chungking in person.

The nature of the conditions which Russia reportedly set up to be met before national troops would be allowed to enter Manchuria by sea or air were not disclosed.

Delegation members described them however as "more harsh than the 21 demands made by Japan to China in 1915."

(In 1915 Japan made demands that would have undermined China's sovereignty. They were so harsh that when first published the world refused to believe them).

Churchill Reasserts Leadership Plans

LONDON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Former Prime Minister Winston Churchill was reported tonight to have reasserted his position as opposition spokesman in Commons during a heated 90-minute private session of members of his Conservative party.

Newsmen learned after the session that youthful conservatives had charged the Churchill old guard with lackadaisical and unplanned maneuvers against the Laborite government, and in turn had urged a hammer and tongs campaign.

Churchill was understood to have argued it would have been bad policy to have opened an immediate attack on the new government because public sentiment favored giving the Labor government a "fair chance."

He explained that next Wednesday he would address the Conservative central council in London and he implied he would make a fighting speech initiating an all-out offensive against the government.

One Killed, 15 Hurt In Train Accident

CHICAGO, Nov. 21 (AP) — At least one passenger was killed and 15 others were injured tonight when the locomotive and five coaches of a northwestern railroad passenger train were derailed after striking an automobile at a crossing near Appleton, Wis., the railroad reported.

The railroad said the train was an eight-coach steam train bound from Milwaukee to Green Bay.

The railroad spokesman said the extent of injuries suffered by the passengers had not been determined immediately.

The wreckage of the car was caught under the locomotive causing the derailment, the spokesman said.

The wrecked train was one of two sections making the Green Bay trip (train 209).

The locomotive and head coach turned over after leaving the rails but the four other derailed coaches remained upright, the railroad said.

Leahy Surprise

Richardson related that on one occasion Knox told him:

"The last time you were here you hurt the President's feelings."

Leahy Doesn't Remember

Asked if the reference was to the Oct. 8 luncheon, Richardson said, "I think so."

Leahy said he had made no memorandum and had no recollection of much of what was said at the White House.

He did not recall that Mr. Roosevelt expressed doubt that the United States would go to war even if Japan attacked the Philippines. Nor, he said, did he hear the President say the fleet must stay at Pearl Harbor as a "restraining influence" on Japan.

Richardson had quoted the President as making those statements.

Expected War With Japan

Leahy emphasized that he was not disputing Richardson's account of what was said at the White House:

"I cannot say the conversation did not take place, but I do not remember it," he said.

Leahy, who served for a time as ambassador to the Petain regime in France, said that while he was in Vichy, he was kept informed by the French of Japan's movement of troops into Indo-China. He became "convinced we would be at war with Japan over the Philippines in the near future."

He so notified Washington, he added.

Rep. Gearhart (R-Calif) asked whether he anticipated an attack on Hawaii.

"I did not," Leahy replied.

Hull Next Witness

Leahy was on the stand a little over an hour. When he was dismissed, the committee recessed over the Thanksgiving holiday until 10 a. m. Friday.

William D. Mitchell, committee counsel, said it would take up then "the State department story" with former Secretary Hull as the first witness, his health permitting.

Admiral Richardson, during his testimony, said President Roosevelt did not strengthen the fleet as fast as he could have in 1940 although there was concern that war with Japan might come that fall.

Six Are Sought On Indictments

Of 14 defendants named in 13 bills of indictment returned by a 99th district court grand jury of which Homer E. Hunt was foreman, only six were sought by officers last night. The jury was discharged upon its own request Tuesday afternoon by Judge G. V. Pardue.

Four of the six defendants who have not been reported arrested are charged with desertion of wife or minor children.

Other charges were three indictments alleging car theft, two forgery and passing, one theft of $50 in money, and two rape.

Rape Charge Filed

Another rape investigation did not bring a bill, but a formal charge of rape was filed in the court of D. W. Robertson, justice of peace, binding Homer D. Powell, 21, of 400-block Ave. G, over to a subsequent grand jury, which probably will be impaneled in January or February.

Powell was charged with having assaulted a 17-year-old girl who lives near Lubbock, Monday afternoon on a Lubbock county dirt road.

Bond of $1,000 was set for Powell. The complaint naming him was prepared by Burks and was signed by Land.

Those Under Arrest

Indictments naming persons who were under arrest were:

Charlie Shepard, indicted on a charge of child desertion, posted $1,000 bond late Wednesday following his arrest by the sheriff's department.

Mollie Harris, 23, a negro woman, theft Nov. 1 of $50 from Mrs. O. T. Lindsey.

Ernest H. Adams, 17, of Paris, theft Oct. 26 of an automobile from Max Brownlee.

Carson Thomas Anthony, 17, of Fort Worth, theft of an automobile Aug. 28 from R. L. Bain of Slaton.

W. H. McClure, 19, of Houston, and Marshall Parker, 19, of Texarkana, theft of an automobile Sept. 30 from Florence Bingham.

Tommy Mason, 22, of Plainview, forgery and passing of a false instrument Oct. 29—a $29 check payable to Sid Payne and signed with the name of H. G. Wilson, and passed to H. T. Stovall.

J. B. Jackson, 32, a negro who was on parole from the penitentiary, rape Nov. 17 of Ruby Lacy, a negro woman.

Nationwide Strike Of Ward Workers Called

NEW YORK, Nov. 21. (AP)—A week-long, nationwide strike affecting an estimated 75,000 employes of Montgomery Ward and company was called today for next Monday by the United Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Employes of America (CIO).

Samuel Wolchok, union president, said at a press conference, where he announced the strike call, that the union was willing to call it off if Sewell L. Avery, company board chairman, accepted "in time" a union proposal sent him last Friday by air mail.

The proposal offered to drop demands for a closed shop and check-off and to submit other proposals to arbitration.

In Chicago, however, Avery rejected the arbitration proposal which, he said in a letter to Wolchok, might deprive the company "of the general management of the business."

The union president declared the strike would affect employes in nine mail order houses and 646 retail stores throughout the country.

Lubbock Sea Scouts Attend Turkey Fete

First formal meeting of Sea Scout Ship Lubbock, sponsored by the Knights of Pythias, lodge 486, was a turkey dinner with all the trimmings held at the lodge hall Wednesday night.

A movie on senior scouting was shown at part of the program. G. M. Unger, South Plains council executive, led the songs.

Members of the Sea Scout committee, P. L. Adams, chairman; T. O. Moore, J. B. Patterson, H. W. Hodges and C. H. Tisdel, and their wives; and parents of the scouts were guests.

The ship has been without adult leadership for a year and a half, and is due to receive its charter next months. W. L. Jones is Skipper and J. L. Garrett, mate.

Navy To Lower Points For Enlisted Sailors

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP) — The Navy announced today the point score discharge of most enlisted men will be reduced from 41 to 38 on Dec. 1.

On Dec. 15, the score will be lowered to 37 and on January 1 to 36. The Navy estimated the cuts will make approximately 150,000 additional men eligible for release.

Previously, the Navy had announced plans to reduce the score to 39 on Dec. 1 and 38 on Jan. 1.

The Navy said no further reduction of critical scores for women was made at this time because their demobilization is proceeding ahead of schedule.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP) — The cotton futures market moved in a narrow range in quiet pre-holiday trading today. Mill buying against textile orders was offset by scattered hedge selling and liquidation. The Bureau of Census reported 1945 crop cotton ginnings at 6,420,484 bales or about 3,000,000 bales under a year ago. Traders generally were anticipating some further declines in the next government cotton crop forecast on December 8th.

Futures closed 80 cents a bale higher to 5 cents a bale lower.

Friction In Iran Adds Further To British And Soviet Disagreement

By LOUIS F. KEEMLE
United Press Staff Writer

The uprising in northern Iran has taken on international importance cheifly because it is a source of possible friction between Great Britain and Soviet Russia.

Already, charges and countercharges are appearing in the press of the two countries. The British apparently suspect that the Russians are supporting the independent movement in the Azerabijan district of northwestern Iran bordering the Soviet Union. London so far has produced no evidence to support Iranian charges that the movement is backed by arms supplied by Russia.

Newspaper Denies It

The official Soviet newspaper Izestia has denied the charge, and countered it with the accusation that the British press and radio are "making a mountain out of a molehil.l' In Izvestia's view, the British Broadcasting corporation is trying to divert attention from disorders in Palestine, Egypt and elsewhere in the Near East, for which Britain is responsible.

The Iranian minister to Washington announced that his government had sent a note to Moscow demanding that Russia respect the "territorial integrity, soverignty and political independence of Iran." He was quoting the terms of the treaty of alliance signed by Great Britain, Russia and Iran in 1942, which later brought Iran into the war against Germany as a full ally. The minister also charged that Iranian government troops had been sent north to the trouble zone, but had been turned back by Soviet troops still occupying that region under the war-time agreement.

Repeated Pledges

Pledges to respect Iran's "territorial integrity, sovereignty and political independence" are much older than 1942 and the same have been made repeatedly by outside powers over many years. At the same time, Iran (or Persia) has been a sort of international ward, nominally independent but subject to foreign supervision.

Iran and adjoining Afganistan and Tipet have been a subject of controversy between Britain and Russia for more than a century. The two powers almost went to war over the "Panjdeh incident" on the Afghan border in 1885.

Three-Fold Reason

The reason for the friction is three-fold — Iran's oil resources, her proximity to India and her geographic position as a land bridge between Russia's Caspian sea and the warm waters of the Persian gulf.

For imperial reasons, Britain is suspicious of any Russian incursion into Iran. It is the ideal buffer state on the overland route to India, along with Afganistan. On the other hand, even without any designs on India, Russia would like to have free access to the Persian gulf.

Tech's Feeding Tests Continue

Comparison of feeding value of Martin Milo with Plainsman Milo is being continued by Texas Tech's department of animal husbandry, Ray C. Mowery, professor of animal husbandry, announced.

The experiment was begun two years ago at Tech, with approval of th college research committee, in cooperation with the Texas Agriculture Experiment Station, College Station.

Experimental feeding with 100 lambs, bred by Louis Acker of Abilene, was begun Nov. 14 and will continue 112 days. At the end of the feeding periods the lambs, which weighed an average of 62 pounds each, will be shipped to market for slaughter.

Two Lots of Lambs

Forty lambs were placed in two dry lots, 20 lambs to each lot. Lambs in one of the lots are being fed Martin Milo and those in another lot are being fed Plainsman Milo. The roughage is alfalfa hay.

The remaining 60 lambs, divided in two lots of 30 head to each lot, are given access to a field of immature hegari with practically no grain. Those in one of the lots are being fed 3-4 pound alfalfa and those in the other lot are being fed 1-4 pound cotton seed meal.

Due to lateness of crops this year, the number of lambs being fed is less than usual, Prof. Mowery said. Feeding reports on lambs are compiled every 28 days.

Solons Charge Some European Nations Sell UNRRA Supplies

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP) — Two senators asserted today that some foreign nations had been selling United Nations relief supplies for the benefit of their own governments.

The charges were made by Senators Elmer Thomas (D-Okla) and McKellar (D-Tenn) after a Senate appropriations subcommittee completed closed hearings on a bill appropriating an additonal $550,000,000 for the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration.

Thomas told reporters testimony showed that the Greek government sold 7,000 UNRRA mules to farmers and "then used the proceeds to improve the agricultural program in that country."

McKellar said that UNRRA was "turning over food supplies to these governments and they are selling supplies for their own currency."

"I want to find some way to stop that," said McKellar. He did not name the governments he said were selling the food supplies.

Assistant Secretary of State Will Clayton and Herbert H. Lehman, UNRRA director, appeared before senators today.

Americans now are taller on the average than any large group of people in history.
