Needle Makes Quick Take-Off

A "lie detector" needle made a quick take-off—in the wrong direction—when Douglas Corrigan (left) said "certainly" to the question: "Did you really start for California?" Dr. W. M. Marston, inventor, (below), reads tht result of the test in Boston. Smiling Doug, however, stuck to his story.

Corrigan No 'Big Shot'; Plans To Take Job As Co-Pilot With Airlines; To Fly 'Crate' Soon

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11—Douglas Corrigan said today he planned to return immediately to New York to reassemble his $900 Atlantic-spanning airplane and then to prepare for a regular job.

Feted at a breakfast by Oswald Ryan, member of the civil aeronautics authority, Corrigan told a group of government officials he intended soon to accept a co-pilot's job with an airline company (American Airlines).

"Co-pilot?" an official asked. "I thought you'd be a bigger shot than that."

"No," smiled the unassuming flier, "I guess it'll be a long time before I'm a big shot."

Carroll Gives Alibi In Case

(By The Associated Press)

SOUTH PARIS, Me., Aug. 11—A picture of Deputy Sheriff Francis M. Carroll playing cards in a distant home at the hour elderly Dr. James G. Littlefield was slain last Oct. 13 was painted today as counsel unfolded Carroll's defense—without the aid of his brunette daughter, Barbara, 18.

"Barbs," whose letters to her one-time sweetheart, Paul N. Dwyer, 19, figured in the chain of tragic events that ended in the strangulation of Dr. Littlefield and his wife, will not be called to testify, Defense Attorney Clyde R. Chapman announced.

To Close Case Today

The defense indicated it would close its case today.

Dwyer, now serving a life sentence for the doctor's murder, repudiated a "confession" and charged Carroll actually committed the crime in the Dwyer home because the physician threatened to imprison him for alleged maltreatment of Barbara when she was 12 or 13.

The state contends Dr. Little-

Studded Nose

Blase New Yorkers, ever alert for bright ideas in personal adornment, saw one of the most exotic when the Maharanee of Bhaonagar recently arrived at the metropolis wearing, as pictured below, a large diamond set in each side of her nose. She was accompanied by her husband, the Maharajah, and their two sons.

Petitions Out On Bonds Vote

Several petitions urging the city commission to call an election on a proposal to issue $750,000 in bonds were scheduled for presentation to the semi-monthly meeting of the city commission at the city hall this afternoon, according to information this morning.

The presentation was to be by L. Wesley Read, insurance and real estate man, and a number of others who have circulated the petitions.

No Report Received

Eight or 10 of the petitions were put in circulation, city officials were advised, but they had received no report as to how many signatures had been obtained.

The petitions urge that four per cent bonds be issued to finance storm sewer, sewage disposal, fire department and street improvement expansions. The bond issue will be necessary, it was explained, before the city can have hope of securing matching grants from the Public Works administration.

Several other matters of routine business also were scheduled for

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Samuel Insull's will disclosed today he was worth about $1,000 when he died July 16 in Paris.

The man who built a $4,000,000,000 house of power and once had a fortune estimated at $100,000,000 left the paltry sum that constituted his estate to the widow, Margaret.

President Is Given Degree By Georgia

Educational And Economic Conditions Linked In Talk; Gave Pat On Back Wednesday

BY WILLIAM B. ARDERY
Associated Press Staff Writer

ATHENS, Ga., Aug. 11—President Roosevelt said today that one job of the national government is "to raise purchasing power and thereby create wealth in those sections where it is far too low."

The chief executive spoke at the University of Georgia, where he received an honorary degree.

Doesn't Touch Wage-Hour

Devoting much of his address to a discussion of educational and economic conditions in the South, he did not refer directly to the wage-hour measure, enacted after a long fight by the last congress.

Neither did he refer, in his prepared talk, to the Georgia political situation. At Warm Springs yesterday, Mr. Roosevelt said he hoped Lawrence S. Camp, an administration supporter, would be the next senator from Georgia.

Camp is among the opponents of Senator Walter F. George, who opposed wage-hour and other administration measures. George is seeking renomination in the September 14 Democratic primary.

Discusses Federal Duties

Discussing the duties of the federal government toward state and local educational objectives, Mr. Roosevelt called today for "constant progressive action" on both educational and economic fronts.

This, he said, "is better than following either those who want to slow up or those who promise they will hand you the moon on a silver platter a week after they are elected."

Definite Connection

He said there was a definite connection between tax-financed education and economic conditions in various sections.

"In the long run," he said, "the best way for your national government to assist state and local educational objectives is to tackle the national aspects of economic problems."

Government, he asserted, should seek to prevent the waste of natural resources, encourage each section to become financially indepen-

'Purge' More Than A Word

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 — The Roosevelt administration apparently is trying to compensate in Georgia and possibly other states for the resounding defeat of New Deal Senator James P. Pope of Idaho.

This was the interpretation given today by some well-informed persons to the speed with which President Roosevelt followed Pope's downfall by endorsing Federal Attorney Lawrence Camp for the Georgia seat of Senator Walter F. George.

Pope was beaten by Rep. D. Worth Clark, an out-and-out conservative.

Boston Paper Says Roosevelt's Income $170,000 In 5 Years

BOSTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—The Evening American, in a copyrighted story, declared "James Roosevelt's total taxable income for the last five years was $170,000."

"The income figures," the article said, "were revealed to the American by a responsible authority in refutation of the Saturday Evening Post article, 'Jimmy's Got It,' which contained an estimate of the James Roosevelt annual income as from $100,000 to $2,000,000."

The $170,000 figure the paper asserted, included the president's son's total from all sources except his $10,000 federal salary as secretary and aide to the president.

Relatives Of Gun Victim Are Sought

W. E. Carroll, Levelland, Is Fatally Shot Wednesday; Was Approached By Officers

(Special To The Journal)

MORTON, Aug. 11—Efforts still were being made here this morning to get in touch with the father and mother of W. E. (Buster) Carroll, 24, of Levelland, who died in a Levelland hospital Wednesday night of a bullet wound which, according to authorities, he said he had inflicted upon himself because he had "pulled a bonehead."

Unless relatives are reached, according to Sheriff Tom Standefer, funeral services for Carroll probably will be held this afternoon. His body is at the F. F. Rowland Funeral home.

Relatives with whom authorities sought to get in touch included E. T. Carroll, 64, father of the youth, who was reported to have left Levelland Wednesday enroute to California via Roswell, N. M., Carroll's 16-year old wife, the former Wenona Meadows of Leyelland, whom he married July 24, was in Morton today. She was quoted as having said her husband had been "moody" but that there had been no estrangement between them.

Circumstances Related

Circumstances of the shooting, as related in an account prepared today for publication in Friday morning's issue of the weekly Cochran County News here were intensely dramatic. Joe W. Baldwin is publisher and T. J. Briscoe editor of The News.

The story as unfolded there and gathered from the investigations in which the sheriff, County Attorney Lloyd R. Kennedy and Justice of the Peace J. P. Taylor participated, told, among other episodes, of Carroll having threatened to shoot the baby companion of a man who was giving him a ride in an automobile. The threat was made, according to

Roper Says Gain Is Showing In Business

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Secretary Roper declares an early summer gain in business morale has manifested itself in actual business program.

These gains the commerce department chief said late yesterday on returning to work after a European vacation, have been spread all along the line and indications point to further momentum through the fall.

"The significance of this improvement has been increased employment and larger payrolls in numerous industries," he added.

Roper said it was not desirable that the upward trend reach boom proportions, but that he hoped "the advance will be on a safe and sound foundation."

Nazi Sky Liner Hops Atlantic

Considerable mystery was made of the preparations for the non-stop flight from Bremen to the United States of Germany's largest and fastest land plane, of the Condor type shown below top. An unexplained delay which postponed the departure, produced rumors that a highly distinguished German was the only passenger and that the plane would carry an important message. The Condor planes are all-metal, 26-passenger, 4-motor Diesel-powered, monoplanes. They have roomy accommodations with the latest conveniences such as the comfortable double seats and table service pictured in the interior view below.

Arkansawyers Will Meet Here Friday

Hillbilly music and husband and log calling contests are on the program for the annual reunion of former "Arkansawyers" all day Friday at Mackenzie state park.

There will be plenty of variety to the program. Entertainment plans still were being made this morning.

The Hillbillies, band that plays over KFYO, will be present. In addition, several former Arkansas residents now living here will take their musical instruments and contribute to the program.

G. V. Pardue will serve as master of ceremonies. A welcome address will be delivered.

All attending are to bring baskets and the lunches will be spread at noon. The residents are to begin gathering in the morning and are to remain through the day.

Police Guard Placed Around Deposed UAW Leader's Home

DETROIT, Aug. 11 (AP)—A police guard was posted today at the home of Richard T. Frankensteen, one of the deposed vice presidents of the United Auto Workers of America following the bombing late last night of a garage at the rear of his residence.

No one was hurt and the damage was slight.

Quicker Tempo Is Being Felt In Detroit

Thousands Of Men Are Being Called Back To Work In Factories Over Area

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Aug. 11—Industrial Detroit, so often the nation's economic barometer, moved at quicker tempo today as the automotive plants prepared for production of 1939 models.

Thousands of men were called back to work and 1,260 families were withdrawn from the welfare rolls in the last two days.

First plants to feel the upsurge particularly are the parts and accessory makers.

Parts Plants Started

United State Rubber Co. executives said telegrams had been sent to more than 700 workmen calling them back to their jobs.

An executive of General Motors corporation said its parts plants had started production for 1939 assemblies and that all units in the Detroit area would be in operation by the middle of September.

Ford Motor Co. resumed steel production. Three open hearth furnaces were lighted. Three hundred men went back to work on Ford steel. The rolling mills are to start operation in a few days. Ford has built six furnaces during the recession as part of a $34,000,000 expansion program.

At nearby Toledo, David R. Wilson, president of Willys-Overland Motors, announced that 1,000 men would be recalled by Aug. 15 for assembly line operations by Aug. 22.

Tech To Have 223 NYA Jobs

Approximately 223 National Youth administration student jobs will be available at Texas Technological college next college year, it was announced this morning.

Dr. James M. Gordon, chairman of the executive committee, said that notification had been received from the state office that NYA jobs will be available to a number equal to 9.3 per cent of the enrollment of students meeting certain requirements on Oct. 1, 1936. Confirmation was received Wednesday from the state office concerning the date to be considered in determining the basis for the number of jobs.

Slight Revision Likely

Registrar W. P. Clement said this morning that on that date a total of 1,483 men students and 917 women students, equalling 2,400, under 25 years of age and carrying 12 hours or more college work were enrolled. That total is subject to a slight revision if the number of students under 16 years of age is

DALLAS, Aug. 11 (AP)—Karl A. Crowley, defeated candidate for governor, faced suit for divorce today.

Mrs. Annie Crowley of Dallas, wife of the former postoffice solicitor, filed the suit yesterday asking $100 a month support for their 11-year-old son until he reaches the age of 16.

'Cease Firing' Order Issued On Frontier

Both Sides Agree To Truce After Peace Parley; Troops Still Remain On Border

(By The Associated Press)

A "cease firing" order on the embattled Siberian-Manchoukuoan frontier today ended, at least temporarily, the danger of large scale Japanese - Russian hostilities.

Both sides agreed to a truce after a peace parley in Moscow between Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Russian foreign commissar, and Mamoru Shigemitsu.

The spark that might kindle a new incident still burned. Troops remained in the area and the fundamental issue still was unsolved.

Jap Thrust Westward

On the China front, a Japanese force thrust westward from Kiukiang toward Hankow, Chinese provisional capital 135 miles up the Yangtze river. Chinese, however, said they killed 300 invaders in a counter-attack and forced them to withdraw, prolonging the deadlock on the Yangtze's marshy banks.

AIR RAIDERS ACTIVE

HANKOW, China, Aug. 11. (AP)—Japanese air raiders killed an undetermined number of Chinese today on the campuses of the American Church (Episcopal) mission's Boone university and St. Hilda's girls' school at Wuchang.

Twenty-seven planes heavily bombed Hanyang and Wuchang, across the Yangtze river from Hankow, provisional Chinese capital, in the afternoon raid.

Preliminary estimates placed the total casualties in the two cities at more than 500 but it was feared the toll would be much higher as rescue squads dug desperately in the wrecks of buildings.

Japanese air raiders heavily bombed industrial and waterfront areas in the tri-city area of which Hankow is a part. Across the river from the seat of government they dropped explosives on Hanyang and in Wuchang. Fires were started which burned rapidly and heavy casualties were feared.

Prisoners Defy Orders

Seventeen Chinese and seven Russian international settlement policemen were injured in Shanghai quelling a rebellion in a Chinese concentration camp. The prisoners defied orders to lower the flag of the central government and the police tried forcibly to do it themselves. Permission had been given to fly the colors tomorrow, first anniversary of the start of the warfare in Shanghai.

Fighting in the Spanish warfare spread to three fronts.

Insurgents launched an offensive against the rich Alamaden mining country in southwestern Spain. The government said its troops were widening a breach in Insurgent lines south of the Balaguer Bridgehead, across the Segre river in western Catalonia. In southern Catalonia, Insurgents reported they were beginning to put pressure on the Gandesa front.

Pioneers Are In Gathering

(Special To The Journal)

CROSBYTON, Aug. 11.—Some old-time Crosby county pioneers camped out last night at the old Rock House in Blanco canyon, built in 1876 by the late Hank Smith, as they came from considerable distances to attend the 13th annual West Texas Old Settlers reunion today and Friday.

Several car loads arrived yesterday at the place in the Canyon and spent the night there. They visited among themselves and with those from over the county who attended a carnival showing there last night.

More Arrive Today

Today more arrived, a large number of cars coming in this morning and heading north for the canyon. A number stopped in town to visit relatives and friends before going out to the grounds.

Program will get under way this afternoon. There will be speaking, an amateur hour, old fiddlers contest and old time dancing. Prizes will be awarded winning competi-

Slicker Gives Hollywood The Horse Laugh

Bewhiskered Playboy Of Pacific 'Steals' Show And Ending Has To Be Changed

By DAN DE LUCE
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 11 — Slicker, the seal, gave Hollywood the horse laugh today. And Hollywood deserved it.

The 4-year-old bewhiskered playboy of the Pacific is the most surprising movie news of the week. He "stole" a $1,400,000 picture.

The larceny, what's worse, was committed under the very noses of George Raft, Dorothy Lamour and John Barrymore, who had been assured by some of our brighter minds that there was nothing to worry about, because a seal couldn't act.

Slicker showed them.

Others may get the star billing in "Spawn of the North," the new super-thriller about Alaskan salmon pirates, but it's Slicker's picture.

The seal plays the buddy of Raft, the pirate. When Raft is happy, Slicker claps his flippers, whoops like a dog. When his master is shot, Slicker cries in the bathtub and utters a

Newest Weapon Of Modern Warfare Used By 'Red Army'; Drop Propaganda Leaflets

(By The Associated Press)

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 11 (AP)—Brig. Gen. William E. Guthner's invading "red army" utilized in its war game conflict with "blue" forces the newest weapon of modern warfare—propaganda leaflets spread over enemy territory.

"We are fighting for you!" declared the red propaganda sheets tossed into the streets of Cheyenne, Wednesday, the state capital in battle maneuvers of 7,000 Colorado national guard and regular army troops.

"The red army is a friend of the blue nation," continued the propaganda message. "We are not waging war against your people. Our war is a fight against an insidious government that has led your people into slavery.

"This is not a war of aggression. We have come to liberate you—to lift from your necks the heavy yoke of oppression.

"Join now in this great cause of humanity. Help us set you free!

Couple Honored Here In Wedding Supper; Miss Conner Given Shower

Garrison-Lytle Service Read

The marriage of Miss Mildred Lytle of Amarillo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Lytle of Springfield, Mo., and Ward Garrison of Amarillo, son of Mrs. Isabel Garrison, 2217 Fourteenth street, took place Wednesday night at 8:15 o'clock in Plainview at the home of Rev. Walter P. Jennings, pastor of the First Christian church, with Reverend Jennings reading a ring service.

The bride wore a frock of blue marquisette with blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias. For "something old" she carried a lace handkerchief Mr. Garrison's mother had used at her wedding.

Miss Ellen Blake of Amarillo was the maid of honor.

Early Peltier of Lubbock served the bridegroom as best man.

In Garrison Home

Following the ceremony the bridal party came to Lubbock where they were served a wedding supper by the bridegroom's mother at her home. The table was decorated with Jo Anna Hill roses. Guests included Miss Frances Eileen Martin.

On their return from a wedding trip to points in New Mexico and Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Garrison will be at home in Amarillo at 1016 West Tenth street.

Mr. Garrison, a graduate of Texas Technological college, is sales representative of the industrial division for the Gates Rubber company.

Mrs. Doughtie Is Honored

A series of lovely courtesies is being given for Mrs. V. L. Doughtie who is leaving September 1 to make her home in Austin. Friday afternoon between 4 and 6 o'clock Mesdames Robert J. Allen and O. V. Adams are to entertain at the home of the former, 2408 Thirteenth street, for Mrs. Doughtie.

Guests will be members of the AA and AK P. E. O. chapters.

Mrs. T. L. McRee entertained Wednesday with a bridge-breakfast at the home of Mrs. W. P. Garvin, 1711-A Fourteenth street, honoring Mrs. Doughtie. Five tables were in play.

The honoree was presented with a shower of autographed cuptowels.

Patent Leather Trim Lends

The pockets of this new dress for early fall days are trimmed with raised patent leather in quilted motif. It matches the patent leather belt which is an effective contrast to the dull black wool of the frock. Notice that skirt fullness is achieved through knife pleats. The step-in pumps also are of patent leather, and the flattering off-the-face hat is wine velvet.

J. N. Michie, 2215 Sixteenth street, is leaving Friday for Chicago to attend the marriage of his daughter, Dr. Sarah Michie, and Victor Harris which will take place in that city Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lloyd Hamilton has returned to Big Spring after a four days' visit with Mr and Mrs. M. N. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Halford and Mrs. O. H. Allen. Tuesday afternoon she was a special guest at a meeting of the women's auxiliary to the painters union.

Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Edwards of College Station are spending several days here. Mr. Edwards is district agent leader and is visiting agents in this district.

Mrs. R. H. Gear of Los Angeles is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Hartsfield, 1723 Twenty-seventh street.

FREE VENTILATION

Constant free circulation of air is the basis of cool ventilation. Keep the windows open at both top and bottom—open at the bottom to draw the cooler air into the room, open at the top to allow the hot air which has naturally risen toward the ceiling to escape. More actual comfort from your electric fan will be enjoyed if the fan is placed in such a position that it forces the hot air out of the upper window than by actually sitting in the path of its draft.

Watermelon Supper Will Be Given By Club

Mrs. D. A. Atkins was hostess to the Monroe Home Demonstration club Tuesday afternoon. The club planned a watermelon supper to be held August 18 for members and their families. Birthday gifts were presented to Mrs. L. D. Shipman.

Others attending were Mesdames W. O. Fortenberry, Jackson West, John McGuire, S. H. Rosson, E. J. Exum, J. R. Sumner, Dick Norman and John Harrell.

The next meeting will be September 13 in the home of Mrs. J. R. Robinson.

Thirty-three persons attended a family picnic supper given recently by the club at Mackenzie State park.

Miss Haskins Is Married

The marriage of Miss Geraldine Haskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Haskins of Wolfforth community, and J. C. Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Williamson, south of Lubbock, took place at 8 o'clock Tuesday night at the bride's home. Rev. Cecil R. Matthews, assistant pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated with a single ring ceremony.

Altar for the occasion was arranged of palms, gladioli and asters. The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. M. T. Daniell, pianist, and Miss Dorothy Casey, violinist, Wolfforth residents who also played "I Love You Truly" (Bond) as the vows were exchanged. Mrs. Daniell wore a blue dress with wrist corsage of pink flowers and Miss Casey wore a white dress with white wrist corsage.

Wears Blue Taffeta

The bride wore a blue taffeta, floor-length dress and, in a her hair, a band of flesh pink roses. She carried flesh pink roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Jimmie Bailey of Levelland, bridesmaid, wore a gold taffeta, floor-length dress and had an arm bouquet of white rosebuds. A Attaway of Midland served as best man.

Guests at the wedding were guests at a small reception in the Haskins home after the ceremony. Mrs. M. E. Casey of Wolfforth and Mrs. B. Whitt of Muleshoe presided at a lace covered table which was centered with an arrangement of pansies. The table also was set with blue and white tapers and a three-tired wedding cake.

The couple left on a wedding trip through New Mexico and Colorado, the bride wearing a dubonnet crepe suit with black accessories. They will be at home in Midland after August 22.

Mrs. Williamson was graduated in June from Texas Technological college with degree in home economics. She was a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, national honorary home economics society.

Mr. Williamson is a graduate of Tech college with B. S. and M. S. degrees and had studied in the graduate division of the University of California at Berkeley. He is employed in Midland as a geologist with the Phillips Petroleum company.

Guests at the wedding included Messrs. and Mesdames Casey, Fred Stryker, B. M. Keese, Ralph Williamson, Mr. Billy Casey and Winnifred Stryker of Wolfforth; Mrs. O. M. Jennings of Lazbuddy; Miss Betty Bledsoe of Friona; Miss Orvelene Price of Brownfield; Miss Jimmie Bailey of Levelland; Jim Wyman who this year will teach vocational agriculture at Bovina, and Mr. and Mrs. William McKelvey.

Informality Marks Society Of Early August In City

Attending were Mesdames E. E. Brock, Bill Deatherage, B. F. Foster, W. V. Lewis, J. H. York and a guest Mrs. Bobby Graham.

The club will meet at 3 p. m., August 24, in the home of Mrs. Bryan Landers in the Arnett-Benson addition.

Miss Lucille Hvass who is leaving this week to enter the Baylor university school of nursing at Dallas was complimented Wednesday morning when Mrs. Marvin McLarty entertained at home, 2210 Eighteenth street, with a bridge-breakfast.

Guests were Miss Hvass and her mother, Mrs. Florence Hvass, Mrs. Marvin Ferguson of Eunice, N. M., Miss Betty McLarty of Sudan and Mesdames Donald Robertson, John Conner, R. G. Porter, G. A. Foote, Bill Spikes, Bill Whitson and Ben McGee.

Visitors In City

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riddle of 2016 Broadway are their nieces, Miss Mavoreen Page of San Diego, Calif., and Miss Margaret Ann Bradley of Amarillo. The young women came to Lubbock with Mr. and Mrs. Riddle as they returned from an extended vacation trip to San Diego, San Francisco, the state of Nevada and Denver, Colo. They will be here until about September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Roberts and son, John, of Corpus Christi are spending this week in the home of Mrs. Roberts' father, John L. Ratliff, 2413 Nineteenth street.

Miss Watkins Here

Miss Eva Robb Watkins, society editor of the Denison Herald and former member of the Avalanche-Journal editorial staff, visited here Wednesday. She is spending most of her vacation visiting her parents in Seagraves.

Mrs. Patrick Henry, jr., of Dallas left, for her home Wednesday afternoon after visiting in the new home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. McFarland, 1909 Twenty-third street.

Whitesides Leave

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whiteside left Wednesday morning on a tour of scenic points of Colorado and a visit in Salt Lake City with their son, J. H. Whiteside, jr., and Mrs. Whiteside. The younger Mr. Whiteside is associated with the Dr. Pepper Bottling Works in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Chase D. Bickle and young son, John William, of Dallas are visiting Mrs. Bickle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGee of 1509 Avenue K.

Surprise Party Given

Mrs. T. H. Hobbs was honored at a surprise housewarming given at her new home, 2409 Twenty-second street, Wednesday afternoon. Mesdames Grace Byers and Payton Powers presided at the punch bowl.

Others attending were Mesdames Howard Cox of Plainview, E. E. Dyer of Lockney, Floyd Barber of Lockney, Kenneth Alexander, C. D. Moseley, M. E. Witt, Larry Baker, Frances Van Dyke, Finis Myrick, Pat Magee, Harry Hill, and M. W. Hobbs.

The Merry circle club met in regular session at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at Mackenzie State park. Watermelons were served.

Ten members attended and group pictures were taken.

Next meeting will be conducted at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Graves at 705-A Fifteenth street Aug. 24. A tea towel shower will be given.

Allene Bartley Marries Len Smith In Dallas

RALLS, Aug. 10 (Special) — Miss Allene Bartley of Dallas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Bartley of Cone, was married last week to Len Smith, Dallas business man. The ceremony was performed in the First Baptist church there by Rev. R. C. Campbell.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Ralls High school and an ex-student of Texas Technological college. She was employed for a number of years by the Lubbock National bank, and is at present employed in the governmental offices of Dallas.

The couple plan to make their home in Dallas after a two weeks wedding trip to Montreal, Canada.

Party Is Held In Floydada

Miss Louise Conner, whose marriage to O. B. Haught is an event of the week-end, was honored Wednesday night at a yard party given in Floydada at the home of Mrs. S. W. Ross. Assistant hostesses were Mesdames J. T. Hammons, E. P. Nelson, Homer Steen, Lee Rushing, Glad Snodgrass, E. F. Stovall, Ed Johnson, Misses Alice May Fyffe, Mary Anna Ross and Juanita Rushing.

The entertainment centered around a wishing well placed in the center of the yard and filled with gifts for Miss Conner. Several young women, in formal garden costumes, sang the "Wishing Song" from "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Marguerite Leonard scattered flower petals in the path of the honoree as she approached the well. Before she looked in a mirror and made a wish, the bride-elect listened to the history of her engagement given by Mrs. Lon B. Smith.

Seventy-five guests attended.

Miss Conner, who lives in Lubbock, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Conner of Floydada.

They Said It Couldn't Be Done But Woman Picks 8 Straight Winners; Reaps $3,165.40

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Turf experts said it couldn't be done, but Miss June Marks of Kenosha, Wis., had a $3,000 check today to show that an amateur handicapper could pick seven consecutive winners.

Miss Marks won the daily handicap contest at Washington Park yesterday by picking the winners in the first seven races. The $1,000 daily prize had tripled through carry-overs of previous awards this week.

Miss Marks not only picked the first seven races as required for the contest, but added the eighth. She played all her choices, which paid a total of $96.60 for eight $2 straight bets.

That wasn't all. Miss Marks also played her daily double selection and won $68.80 for a profitable $3,165.40 day at the races.

CHAFING · BABY RASH · ECZEMA

That's why millions use it!

IF YOU suffer from externally caused skin irritations, try this medicated cream which has already brought soothing skin relief to millions of men and women—Noxzema Skin Cream!

Noxzema was first prescribed by a number of doctors for the relief of Burns and itching of Eczema. Some nurses discovered how effective it is for relief of Pimple irritations, badly Chapped Hands, Chafing and other skin irritations from external causes. Noxzema relieves most skin itching almost instantly—thus promotes much quicker healing. That's because Noxzema contains real medication.

Noxzema is not like old-fashioned greasy, messy ointments. It is a dainty, snow-white stainless cream that vanishes into skin pores, carrying with it soothing helpful medication. You can use it freely day and night to help more quickly clear your skin. No wonder women are so enthusiastic—no wonder over 15,000,000 jars are used yearly!

Rodeo Leader Next Problem

Negotiations for a director of the rodeo which will be the night grandstand feature of the Panhandle-South Plains fair next fall has been narrowed, for the moment at least, to four possibilities, all widely recognized, according to information given by officials of the fair association this morning.

They are Jimmy Mullins of El Paso, who was arena director in Madison Square Garden New York City several years; Butler Brothers of Elk City, Okla., who have played practically every important rodeo in the country; Frank Rush, jr., perhaps the most spectacular of the younger directors; and Curley Daughtery of Olton, whose operations have been restricted to a smaller area than the others but whose rodeo at Olton was described as "among the best."

To Be Given Latitude

Butler Brothers are to put on a rodeo in Tahoka soon. Rush, from Craterville, Okla., has been director of a number of shows in West Texas.

Director of the show, officials of the fair asserted, will be given wide latitude in arranging the program to be presented. He will be instructed to get the best available performers and will be expected to arrange a show which will satisfy both the most critical of rodeo fans as well as those lacking in expert knowledge of the sport.

Have Visited Rodeos

Representatives of the fair association already have visited rodeos in Stamford, Olton, Childress and Dalhart, Texas, and Hobbs, Clovis and Tucumcari, N. M., in search of ideas, and will visit a number of others before the program is completed.

Also in connection with preparations for the fair was the announcement most of the material has been assembled for the early printing of the catalogue. Indications are it will be approximately the same size as that of last year, which contained 120 pages. It was the largest ever to be printed for a Panhandle-South Plains fair, a significant fact for the reason that the number of pages is determined by the advertising volume.

Cover pages of the catalogue will be silver with blue lettering, appropriate to the "silver jubilee" of the fair, it was announced.

Oklahoma Press Leader Is To Speak At West Texas Session

SEYMOUR, Aug. 11 (AP) — Officials in charge of arrangements announced today that H. Merle Woods of El Reno, Okla., president of the Oklahoma Press association would speak on a program of the West Texas Press association here this week-end.

The West Texas association, anticipating a record attendance, will meet Friday and Saturday.

Among speakers listed here Herschel Schooley of the Hardin-Simmons college journalism department; H. S. Hilburn of Plainview, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and Arthur Lefevre of Houston.

Mrs. Mary Whatley Dunbar of Palo Pinto, president of the association will preside.

Dr. Wilson Elkins Appointed San Angelo College President

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 11 (AP) — School trustees here have announced appointment of Dr. Wilson Elkins, Rhodes scholar, former athlete of the University of Texas, and now a member of the faculty of the university as president of the San Angelo college.

This separates the institution as an operating unit of the school system here and relieves Supt. Felix Smith to duties of the high school, junior high school and ward schools. A building program taking up $250,000 in bonds and a PWA grant of $200,000 will occupy more of his time, trustees advised.

A new travel record was set at Rocky Mountain National Park in Colorado on July 4, 1938, when 16,498 passed through the highway gateways.

All Right Now

Alice Jane McHenry of Omaha, famed in 1935 as "the girl with the upside-down stomach," is back in New England for the first time since she underwent an operation three years ago. Normal and healthy now, she's shown during her vacation in Little Compton, R. I.

DRUG STORE ENLARGES

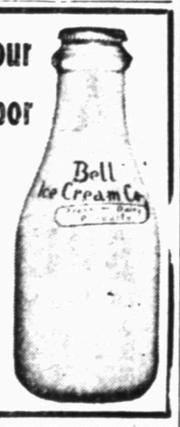

MULESHOE — Western Drug store here has been enlarged, moving into a room in the rear of the building formerly occupied by the Rosa-Dora cafe. The cafe has moved into a new building on Main street.

Garbo Not Holing Up In Swedish Castle; She's Coming Back For More Pictures

(By The Associated Press)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 11—All that stuff about Greta Garbo holing up in a castle in Sweden was just idle talk.

Some of the boys who were making bets wish it hadn't been talk. If they knew Garbo's record, they'd know better. Once again, she's coming back to her fenced-in house and she'll be here almost a year. MGM, which is most interested, announces Nov. 1 as the date of her return.

The MGM announcement made no mention, of course, of Leopold Stokowski. The orchestra man and Greta have been seeing Europe together and Hollywood presumes he will be returning, too, possibly for film work.

May See Her Oftener

If Stokowski comes to Hollywood, folks think they'll be seeing Greta oftener. This theory is based on Stokowski's liking for seeing people and going places. It is certain, some Hollywoodites will tell you, that they won't go 'round and 'round like some people do in Hollywood. Some people in Hollywood are going around so much they make whirling dervishes look like lamp-posts. Stokowski likes quiet, private gatherings.

The studio also says that Aldous Huxley, the English writer, will start to work today on one of the two screenplays Garbo will make. The best is none too good to Garbo. Huxley is putting into scenario form the biography of Madame Marie Curie written by her daughter, Eve.

The other Garbo starrer will be about a beautiful spy who gets terribly involved, with the fate of a nation resting on her decision. It won't be anything like "Mata Hari," another spy piece Garbo made awhile back.

MGM says it has no commitments beyond these two films. When asked about further Garbo movies, there wasn't even a note of hope in the MGM spokeman's answer.

GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE

HOUSTON, Aug. 11 (AP)—Roy C. Haggard, 18-year-old Fort Worth youth, who held up a bank here June 27 with a bottle of soap and water, has been given another chance.

Haggard was charged with the $851 robbery of the Merchants and Employes Industrial bank but was allowed to plead guilty to a charge of attempted robbery by assault. Persons convicted of robbery are not eligible for suspended sentences.

150,000 GROCERS CAN'T BE WRONG

Grocers, restaurants, hotels and other handlers of food, know insect killers. It is truly significant when such a great number of them select DWIN for their own use. Surely, there must be good reasons for this selection. The very reasons why grocers and other food handlers select DWIN is your best guide to adopt DWIN for your own use.

Do as the grocer does — use DWIN in your home—(and in your garden)—to kill insects. Your grocer knows that DWIN is effective, pleasant to use—that it will not harm food or inture fabrics. "As fragrant as flowers in May" DWIN leaves a delightful floral fragrance in rooms. Buy it in the green can from your grocer, drug, hardware or department store. Try a can today.

Good Neighbor Policy Is Aim

EDITOR'S NOTE: How would an influx of propaganda from the United States affect our relations with other republics in the western hemisphere? The state department's attitude is outlined in the following article, second of two on Latin-American relations).

BY ANDRUE BERDING
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 — A well-informed official described the administration today as determined to avoid a war of propaganda in Latin-America against the totalitarian nations of Europe.

He said the cornerstone of the department's program for developing "good neighbor" relations would be, in effect:

The United States, as a government, will not carry on propaganda in South America, regardless of what the European nations do there.

To Have Two Functions

The official said the new cultural division of the state department, set up to improve relations with Latin-America, would have two principal functions:

1. Determination of policies to be followed toward bringing Uncle Sam in closer and friendlier contact with his Spanish cousins to the south.

2. Coordination of the activities of other branches of the government and of private organizations seeking to increase the economic, political and cultural exchanges with Latin-America.

Stands To Gain More

It will not seek, of itself, to place propaganda in South America. In this respect the state department is listening to the advice of its representatives in Latin-America and travelers who have returned from there.

This advice is that the United States stands to gain more from friendly actions toward Latin-America, from a continuance of the good neighbor policy and from a cultivation of cultural relations than it does from direct propaganda, whether by radio, by newspapers, by lecturers or by subsidizing local activities.

Accompanied By Warning

The advice is accompanied by a warning that propagandizing on the part of a government sometimes is apt to react against that government instead of helping its policies.

Officals here believe that on occasions German and Italian propaganda efforts in Latin-America have overreached themselves. The none-too-good relations between Germany and Brazil, despite all the propaganda attentions of the former, are a case in point.

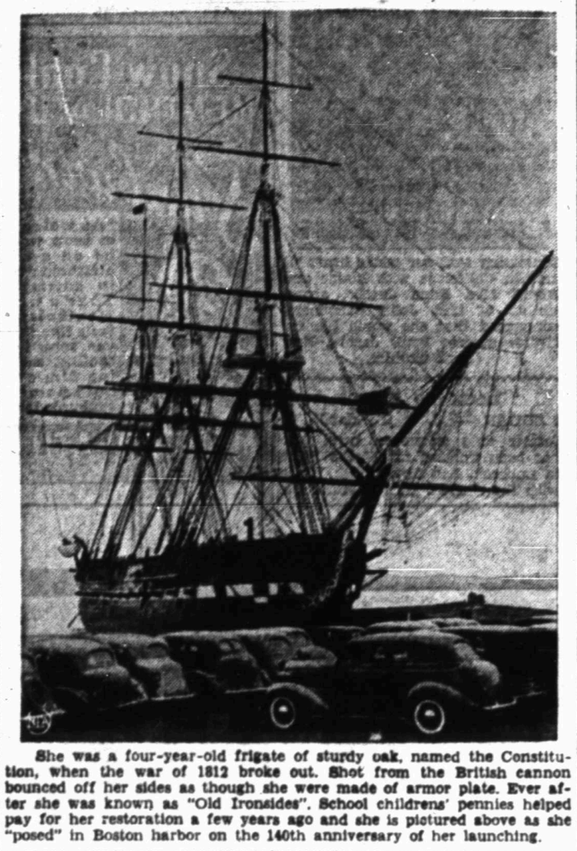

Officials believe, moreover, that a propaganda war is like a military war — the victors lose along with the vanquished.

CIO Leaders Brushing Up On Spanish For Trip To Mexico

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP) — Strange sounds can be heard these days around CIO headquarters—but they don't have much to do with labor problems.

Some of the organization's key men are brushing up on their Spanish in the hope of being chosen to accompany John L. Lewis if he goes to Mexico City next month to help form a Latin-American labor federation.

Her Birthday Picture

She was a four-year-old frigate of sturdy oak, named the Constitution, when the war of 1812 broke out. Shot from the British cannon bounced off her sides as though she were made of armor plate. Ever after she was known as "Old Ironsides". School childrens' pennies helped pay for her restoration a few years ago and she is pictured above as she "posed" in Boston harbor on the 140th anniversary of her launching.

Penitentiary Guard Has College Degree He Worked Ten Years For But Still He's Not Satisfied

BELLEFONTE, Pa. Aug. 11 (AP)—A guard who has at last the college degree he worked ten years to obtain — and still isn't satisfied — paced the corridors of Rockview penitentiary as usual today.

Michael P. Kersavage, once a state trooper, came to Rockview here 12 years ago. A fellow guard who at one time was a teacher urged him to study and Kersavage entered Bellefonte academy in 1928, completing a four-year high school course in two years.

He enrolled at Pennsylvania State college in 1930, but because of his work at the penitentiary often averaged only four hours of sleep nightly.

He was forced to discontinue his studies in 1935 because of failing health but resumed them later and won this year a bachelor of science degree in mining engineering — 22 years after he left the eighth grade in Mahanoy City, Pa., to go to work.

And now he wants to continue his studies, aiming for a master of science degree in commercial chemistry.

Cost Of Living Of Wage Earners Declines 0.2 Per Cent In July

NEW YORK, Aug. 11 (AP) — The cost of living of wage earners declined 0.2 per cent from June to July, according to a report made public today by the National Industrial Conference board, an organization chiefly supported by large industries.

Living costs in July were 20.6 per cent higher than the 1933 depression low; 13.8 per cent lower than in July, 1929, and 2.7 per cent lower than in July a year ago.

The current change showed moderate decreases in all groups of expenditures except fuel and light, which increased slightly.

RECOVERS EYESIGHT

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 11 (AP) —When Kenneth Posnaugh was a small boy he suffered a head injury that left his eyesight blurred.

Last week Kenneth, now 16, dived into Lake Wawasee and bumped his head again. Now his eyesight is normal.

Doctors said the jar probably relieved pressure on a nerve that had caused his defective vision.

HELP 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

To Flush out Acids and Other Poisonous Waste

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 Miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the beginning of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 Miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Valley Citrus Growers To Vote On Marketing Pact Changes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11 (AP) — Citrus fruit growers and handlers in Cameron, Hidalgo, and Willacy counties, Texas, will vote on whether they favor changes in the marketing agreement program, the Agricultural Adjustment administration has announced.

The AAA said growers of the three counties would be asked in a referendum whether they favored an order covering proposed amendments, and at the same time handlers would be asked to accept or reject the amended agreement.

Security Will Be Explained

AMARILLO, Aug. 11.—Field men of the Texas Unemployment Compensation and of the Social Security board will be available as speakers before civic clubs during Social Security week, B. H. Thomson, district supervisor of the unemployment commission, said here today.

Social Security Week in Texas has been proclaimed for the week of August 14-21 by Governor James V. Allred.

The governor asked Texans to participate in local observances and "acquainted themselves with efforts of state and federal governments to bring about a greater measure of security for the individual."

Marks Third Anniversary

"August 14 marks the third anniversary of the signing of the Social Security act," the proclamation read, "the most significant national legislation ever enacted for the general welfare of the American people.

"It is well for the people of Texas to reflect upon the events of the past three years which have brought about a greater measure of security for Texans than ever before.

"Old age assistance has brought aid to needy old people, unemployment compensation has proved a boon to jobless workers, and humanity has been served through the extension of child welfare, maternal and child health, crippled children, vocational rehabilitation and public health services.

"We should consider further the fact that Texas is one of a small number of states which have not provided assistance to their dependent children and needy blind.

"Because of the social welfare of our people is a fundamental requirement to the material progress and economic development of our state, social security should interest every Texan to the extent that he familiarize himself with its every phase."

Record Is Examined

Examining the record of social security, Texans could find on the credit side:

A million workers covered by the state unemployment compensation law and approximately five million dollars paid as benefits to temporarily unemployed workers since January 1. About 30,000 jobless men and women have been placed in employment by the Texas State Employment service each month for the first six in this year.

More than $19,000,000 granted by the Federal government for the old-age assistance program since payments first began to be made in July, 1936. Currently, more than 111,000 needy persons past the age of 65 are receiving monthly assistance checks, which averaged $13.74 during May, a monthly total of $1,500,000.

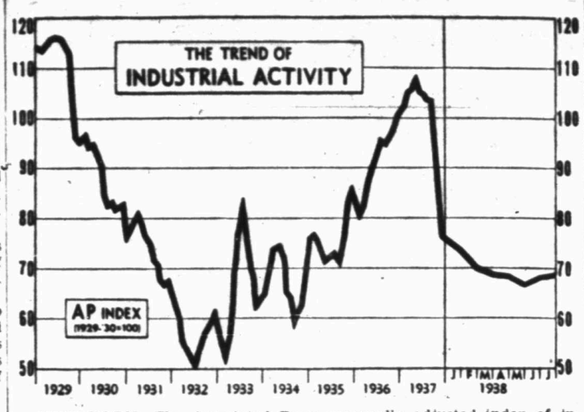

More Than 1,620,000 Cards

More than 1,620,000 social security account cards assigned to Texas workers, who by this means establish wage accounts and begin to build up credits in the federal old-age insurance program. Already, $151,485.54 has been paid in lump-sum benefits to 5,168 Texas workers who have reached age 65 or to estates of workers who have died before reaching that age.

Maternal and child welfare programs, in which the federal and state governments cooperate to aid the individual by making available services instead of cash, have received from the federal government, during the past three years, grants in the following amounts: Child Welfare, $135,307.29; maternal and child health, $347,193.42; crippled children, $321,792.52. For the public health program in Texas, total grants of $780,664.20 had been received. Also 2,547 physically disabled persons were being trained and placed in gainful employment under the program of vocational rehabilitation. Much of this assistance went to or benefited residents of the rural areas of the state.

On the debit side, Texas has failed to provide funds for assisting the state's needy blind and probably more than 50,000 dependent children, although an amendment to the constitution for this purpose was adopted by the people in August, 1937, by a generous majority. Only eight other states do not have programs of aid to dependent children and the needy blind.

Index For July Shows Another Rise

NEW YORK—The Associated Press seasonally adjusted index of industrial activity, based on 1929-30 as 100, rose during July for the second consecutive month. The index jumped to 68.8 from 67.5 in June and compared with 104.5 in July last year.

Irishman Named Corrigan Meets Another Named Mulligan And All Is Forgiven

BY EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Said an Irishman named Douglas Corrigan to an Irishman named Dennis Mulligan:

"I didn't do anything for aviation, but my plane did."

Beamed Mulligan, director of the federal air commerce bureau, to the man whose flying license he had suspended, "What about explaining your conduct?"

Flew On Wrong End

Corrigan: "There's nothing much to explain except that I flew on the wrong end of the needle of the compass and got to Ireland instead of California."

Mulligan: "Are you certain?"

Corrigan: "Yes, and I'm awfully ashamed. I certainly expected some worse punishment than suspension of my license. I thought you'd give it to me when I got back here."

Had Tremendous Effect

Mulligan: "Douglas Corrigan, your flight has had a tremendous effect on the world."

Corrigan: "Well, it wouldn't do for every kid in America to jump in any old crate and go flying off."

The two men met late yesterday after Corrigan had been given a rousing reception in the capital. He has his flying license back, the suspension ended just before he landed in New York—but the license for his $900 plane has not yet been reinstated. It probably will be in a few days.

Corrigan was as nervous as a schoolboy in a principal's office when he was introduced to Mulligan. He twisted his fingers and stood first on one leg and then the other.

When the interview was over, Mulligan was asked by reporters if all was forgiven.

"Well," he smiled, "you can't resist Niagara."

Third Of Quartet Of Convict Fugitives Captured Wednesday

TEXARKANA, Ark., Aug. 11. (AP)—Gilbert Sanderson, one of a quartet of convicts who escaped from the central Texas prison farm Friday, was captured here last night by Bowie County Deputy Sheriff John Ponder and Texarkana, Ark., Patrolman Bryan Westerfield.

Sanderson made no attempt to use a pistol he carried in his trousers pocket.

He was the third of the quartet to be captured since the break. Axie Loft of Texarkana was the object of an intensive search here. Sanderson said he didn't know Loft's whereabouts as they separated when officers spotted them as they were riding in an automobile stolen Saturday night. The car was found abandoned just before Sanderson's capture.

It's The Angle That Matters, Sally Rand Says; Answer To Civil Suit Is Presented

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 11.—It isn't that Sally Rand minds being photographed. It's the angle from which the pictures are made that matters, the dancer who made America conscious of new uses for fans and bubbles, contended today.

Her opinions along such lines were contained in an answer which her attorney filed in municipal court to a suit for $2,622.70 demanded by a Los Angeles couple who claim the dancer "bit, scratched and tore" at them. The incident took place at a downtown theater where Miss Rand was appearing, after the pair, C. R. Stanford and Hazel Drain snapped pictures of her from the front row.

Sally's reply, drawn by Attorney Milton M. Golden, declares that she was defending herself against "piracy of her rights of privacy." She asserts also that the photographs taken by the couple "would have tended to degrade, debase and libel" her, because they "were taken from the floor of the theater at an angle" and "were not intended to be photographs depicting the defendant's artistic dance interpretation."

Miss Rand further declared that she "politely requested" the couple to give her the pictures after her act, but that they refused and threatened her.

War Department Allotment Is Allowed For Red River Work

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 11. (AP)—A war department allotment of $100,000 for preparation of plans for the denison reservoir project on the Red River in Texas and Oklahoma was announced today by Capt. D. W. Griffiths, executive officer of the Little Rock district army engineers.

It's The Women Who Pay Tonight At Parris Field

All Men Will Be Guests Of Club Owners

It's the women who pay!

Yes, sirs, gentlemen tonight will be admitted to the final Lubbock-Wink affray without charge. Marvin Gramly, who was tabbed for pitching duty Thursday night, probably will take the hillock tonight in the game starting at 8:45 o'clock.

Charlie Bryan's sharp breaking curve and fine control stood him in good stead last night as he held the Spudders to seven bingles to give Lubbock the second straight win of the series, 8 to 3.

Collaborating with Bryan in fashioning the win were Johnnie Taylor, Malcolm Stevens and Al Carr, who scored all the runs and made seven of the Hubbers' 11 hits. Carr was shifted to rightfield and looked good at his new job.

Mollie Ferguson on the mound for the Spudders hurled a nice game except for his difficulties with Taylor, Stevens and Carr. In the first two frames Ferguson retired the first two batters only to haver Taylor, Stevens and Carr to score with two away.

Hubbers Score Early

In the initial stanza the Winks were unable to get a man on base. In the home half Gedzius filed out. Watkins whiffed, then it started. Taylor singled to left. Stevens walked. Carr singled Taylor home. Hillin singled, scoring Stevie and Carr. The Hubbers batted around in this frame, retiring with the bases full. Gedzius struck out in the second. Watkins grounded out to short. Then Taylor was hit, and Stevens sent him home with a double. Al Carr then lined one over the right field barrier. The final Lubbock tallies were made in the seventh when Taylor and Stevens singled and were sent home on Al Carr's third hit, a line single into right.

Simpson tallied the visitors' first run in the fourth after singling, advancing to third on Stone's hit and scoring when Joe Gedzius threw away a double play ball at first. Happy Spangler spanked one over the left field palings to open the sixth. Jodie Tate opened the seventh with a single, was forced at second by Spangler, who scored a moment later on Simpson's double. The two-baser was Simpson's third hit of the contest.

Late and early scoring gave Midland its second straight over the third-place Clovis Pioneers, 12 to 4. Del Ballinger and Tex Stuart clouted home runs.

A dozen runs in the first four frames were enough for Hobbs to gain a win over Big Spring, 12 to 4. Johnny Soden went to the relief of Clarence Trantham in the fifth to hold the Boosters scoreless from there out, but too late to patch up damage of the early innings.

Patty Appears To Have Beaten Jinx

CHICAGO, Aug. 11. (AP)—The jinx which followed Patty Berg for three consecutive Women's Western golf derbies was on the 'run today and apparently was due for a beating from the Minnesota star.

The freckle-faced Minneapolis girl, runner up in the event the past three summers, turned in her third straight sub-par round Wednesday for a 54-hole total of 226 strokes and an apparent stranglehold on the title won from 1935 through 1937 by Marion Miley, Lexington, Ky.

Miss Miley, whose 309 aggregate last year set a tournament record which is expected to go by the boards in tomorrow's final 18 holes, had a 54-hole total of 240 strokes for third place as the field headed into the home stretch. The second place holder was another Minneapolis star, Beatrice Barrett, who carded a two-under-par-78 today for a 329 aggregate.

Tied for fourth place at 242 were Edith Estabrooks of Duduque, Ia., and Eliamae Williams of Chicago, with the Kansas City veteran, Mrs. Opal S. Hill, in the 245 bracket. At 249 were Dorothy Traung, San Francisco, Mrs. H. Austin Pardue, Minneapolis, had 255.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 11. (AP)—Frankie Graham, 134, Dallas, was accurate with his punching and difficult to hit last night and he won a wide-margin decision over Ted (Mustang) Garcia, 135, Sioux Falls, in a ten round bout at 40 & 8 arena.

Kid Comite, 122, Corpus Christi, won a close decision over K. O. Borrado, 122, Corpus Christi over the ten-round route.

Bill McDowell, 147, Dallas, decisioned Cecilio Lozado, 150, Nuevo Laredo, in ten rounds.

Ralph Marshall Is Ruled Free Agent

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 10. (AP)—It was a jinx fight from the day it was signed. . . . Nobody warmed up to it. . . . It never was an outdoor show, anyway and now they've got it where it belongs—in the garden. . . . From the start ticket sales have lagged which discouraged the fighters as well as their pilots and Promoter Mike Jacobs. . . . Not one in 20 ever gave Ambers a chance against Armstrong and that hurt. . . . Another thing, interest in Schmeling and Louis reached such a high peak that when the reaction set in it really set in. . . . The sports world still is talking about that fight.

Can't keep football news from sneaking onto the sports pages, boys. . . . Here's George Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears, predicting the 1938 season will be one of the most outstanding in history. . . . And out at Ann Arbor they're getting ready for a crowd of 75,000 for the Michigan-Michigan State game largely because of the excitement stirred by the arrival of Fritz Crisler at Michigan. . . . Arnold Herber, Green Bay packer passing star, has gained 4,738 yards (almost three miles) on his tosses since 1932. . . . And just sit back and watch Irish Carroll, Catholic U. backfield star, go for the collitchers in the all-star game.

Pittsburgh fans already have the Pirates "in". . . . They're busy getting up world series contests and all. . . . But the manager of one of the largest hotels is kicking himself because he reserved most of his place for a convention during the entire week in October. . . . Nick Altrock, Washington's venerable coach, gives Bob Feller less than four more years in the majors. . . . Washington and Lee grid fans are singing the blues because Dick Pinck, ace sophomore prospect from Patterson, N. J., will be out of action for the first weeks of the season because of an operation this summer.

A serious blow was given the Lubbock pitching staff Wednesday when Judge W. G. Bramham, commissioner of minor league baseball, informed that Ralph Marshall had been declared a free agent.

Not only was Marshall declared a free agent, but he was forbidden to join a member club of the White Sox chain.

The action was based on a technicality and not upon a willful or knowing violation of the rule which stipulates that only first year men may be given bonuses for signing. Marshall was declared not to be a first year man because he played 20 days with Palestine in the East Texas League in 1934, then gave up the professional game.

A player must have played 30 days to be considered a man with previous professional experience in determining if he is a class man, according to Harry Faulkner, business manager of the Hubbers. Because Marshall had played only 20 days, he was believed to be a first year man under the technical definition when Dallas paid him bonus for signing this spring.

Since joining the Hubbers Marshall has equalled the feats of Jerry Blanchard in pitching a no-hitter and in striking out 22 in a single game. He has worked in 8 games, winning 5 and losing 2, and was considered the ace of the Hubber staff if not of the entire league.

Faulkner said last night it was his understanding that Oklahoma City planned to offer Marshall a contract. Marshall planned to leave today for Dallas and take up the trail from there.

Jerry Blanchard, recalled recently by Oklahoma City, may return within the week, Faulkner said, and will be eligible to compete in the Shaughnessy play-off, provided Lubbock finishes in the upper division.

Beaumont Widens Margin In Texas

(By The Associated Press)

Tere was a healthy margin today between the top four teams and the second division in the fight for places in the Texas league play-off.

Fourth spot Tulsa, beginning to win again after what loomed as the season's most disastrous slump, was five games ahead of fifth place Houston which now looks like the only team with an outside chance to break into a play-off position instead of Tulsa, Oklahoma City or San Antonio.

Last night league-leading Beaumont bounced San Antonio again and widened its margin to six and one half games over the Padres. The score was 5-0 as John Tate gave up only three hits, all singles.

Tulsa downed Oklahoma City, third place club, 3-2.

Little Sal Gliatto hung up his fifteenth pitching win of the season as the Dallas Steers harpooned the Fort Worth Cats, 6-4.

Bill Seinsoth pitched a five-hitter to give the Houston Buffs a 3-1 victory over Shreveport.

'Junk Car Derby' Is To Be Held Sunday

Worn out jallopies worth no more than $75 and piloted by amateurs will "speed" over the circus grounds on East Broadway, across from the fairgrounds, Sunday afternoon for a minimum of $50 in prizes. It is the "Junk Car Derby."

The program, similar to others being staged in various parts of the Southwest, will begin at 3:30 o'clock. Admission will be 35 cents for adults and 15 cents for children under 12.

May Be Weekly Event

D. R. Gayle, promoter of the event, expects similar derbies to be regular Sunday afternoon affairs. A short, rough and treacherous track has been laid out but the contests, of which there will be three on Sunday, are more tests of driving skill than of speed, since the ancient cars will not develop much speed and sharp turns keep the drivers from going at a dangerous pace. Usually each driver is accompanied by his mechanic who helps coax the machine around the 35 laps in the race.

Gayle said several Lubbock used car dealers are to have entries and he invites other entries not only from Lubbock but also from nearby towns. Entries are being taken at Bowen's Drug store and anyone may enter. A $5 entry fee is charged and the only provision is that any car entered must be sold for $75 if anyone offers that price for it.

Investment Proves To Be A Good One

GOSHEN, N. Y., Aug. 11. (AP)—Lawrence B. Sheppard proved the wisdom of his $20,000 investment Wednesday when McLin trotted to a straight heat victory in the Hambletonian, blue ribbon event of light harness racing.

The bay son of Mr. McElwyn-Ethelinda turned back the bid of nine other high ranking three-year-olds, including Long Key, the heavily-played favorite owned by E. J. Merkle of Columbus, Ohio.

Ten days ago, McLin was quartered in W. H. Cane's nearby Good Time stable. He had finished last in five starts as a two-year-old but jumped into prominence by whipping Long Key in one heat of the American stakes at Agawam. Previously, he had showed his veteran trainer, Walter Cox, plenty of speed in early season trials.

Sheppard offered Cane and Cox $20,000 for the horse. The offer was accepted. Wednesday McLin earned nearly all that back for the winner's share of the $38,692 amounted to $19,944.30.

Favorites Advance In Eastern Grass Courts Championships

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 11. (AP)—Six of the eight seeded players in the Eastern Grass Courts tennis championships' men's singles, paced by Defending Champion Bobby Riggs of Chicago, today reached the round of 16 with only Elwood T. Cooke, of Portland, Ore., listed fifth, on the sidelines.

Cooke was eliminated Wednesday by Jack Kramer, 16-year-old Californian, 6-2, 4-6, 6-4.

Riggs, Frank Parker, Bitsy Grant, Wilmer Allison, Joe Hunt and Gene Mako all came through without much difficulty.

Riggs beat Frank Bowden of New York, 6-0, 6-4. Parker trounced Russell Bobbitt of Atlanta, Ga., 6-1, 6-0, while Grant downed Robert Low, another New Yorker.

Allison whipped J. Gilbert Hall of New York and South Orange, N. J., 8-6, 6-4, in a bitterly fought match. Hunt downed E. J. Filby, the newly arrived English player, 6-0, 12-10 and Mako whipped Bob Kamrath of Austin, Tex., 6-2, 6-2.

Other players to reach the round of 16 were George Toley of Coral Gables, Fla., Charles E. Hare of England, Wayne Sabin of Portland, Ore., Hal Surface of Kansas City, Mo.; Frank D. Guersey of Orlando, Fla., A. Ronald Lubin of Los Angeles, Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, Gerard Podesta of Montclair, N. J., and Owen.

Champagne One Day, Water The Next In Baseball; Look At Warneke And Vander Meer

BY SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

You never can tell in this baseball business. The fellow who draws his pay-check every two weeks from the club treasurer will tell you it's champagne one day, water the next; a limousine today and a hitch-hike tomorrow.

They know there isn't an awful lot of difference between a pat on the back and a pop bottle out of the stands.

Take A Look

Take a look at a couple of this year's examples—Long Lonnie Warneke, one of the few reasons the St. Louis Cardinals are still in the National league, and Johnny Vander Meer, the double-no-hit kid, whose tossing tricks earlier in the year boosted the Cincinnati Reds into the money.

For weeks, Long Lon was getting exactly nowhere. And Frankie Fisch, who has enough worries (things being what they are with the gasless gas housers) had just one more reason for his thinning grey locks.

Returns To Form

It's not that the Cards are going anywhere at any great rate, even now. But still the six-footer from Arkansas has returned to form, gone the route in five of his last six starts, allowed just eight runs in 52 innings and won four out of five, three of them by shutouts.

Lonnie's latest was a four-hit 5-0 whitewashing over the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday in a game cut to seven innings by rain.

Vander Meer, now, has been running just the reverse. Young Johnny tossed two no-hitters in a row, if you remember, and was instantly labeled the hottest thing to come down the pike in years.

Things Change Quickly

But Johnny has failed to go the route in his last five starts, boasts just one victory in seven trips to the post since mid-July, and has been tagged for 26 runs in about 45 innings, which goes to show you how fast things can change. Yesterday he went against the Chicago Cubs, but his boom-boom ball was belted for four runs in the eighth frame, and the happy Hartnetts took a 6-3 decision.

By the win, the Cubs climbed to within half-a-game of the New York Giants, who were given a neat and thorough going over by the Boston Bees, 8-2, and remained 6 1-2 games off the Pittsburgh pace.

Yanks Hold Edge

The Yankees held their five-game edge in the American league by nipping the Senators, 12-11, in a weird ten-inning affair. Cleveland's second-place Indians had to stage a five-run rally in the ninth to top the St. Louis Brown, 9-6.

Swingin' Sammy Chapman celebrated his return to the Athletics' lineup with a two-run homer that beat the Boston Red Sox, 5-3. The Chicago White Sox clubbed four pitchers for 15 hits to nose out the Tigers, 8-7.

Scotch Foursome Scheduled Friday

First place in the main event at Lubbock Country club's weekly "ladies day" special Wednesday was Mrs. Glen D. Smith, recent winner of the women's city championship. Prize was offered for the fewest putts on the nine-hole round.

Winners of the nine-hole special event was Mrs. Arthur Moore.

Fifteen women competed in the event.

Country club officials announce a Scotch foursome for Friday evening, to be followed by a chicken barbecue on the club grounds. All members of the club are invited to attend, and a special urge is extended to women golfers. A nine-hole event will begin about 4 o'clock, after which the participants will indulge in the barbecue.

Members planning to attend should notify Charles Akey, club pro, at once.

Two Hundred Golfers Are Out In Quest Of Cleveland Title

CLEVELAND, Aug. 11. (AP)—Two hundred golfers, including most of the top-notch professionals, started out today in quest of the $10,000 prize money in the Cleveland open tournament at Oakwood Country club.

Sam Snead, distance ace from West Virginia, sounded a warning to rivals yesterday when he played the second nine par 36 in 29 strokes. He took a birdie three with a 40-foot putt on the 18th green.

Contenders include Ralph Guldahl, National Open champion; John Revolta, Dick Metz, Denny Shute, Paul Runyan, Harry Cooper, Henry Picard and Ed Dudley.

Armstrong Is Stopped But By Downpour

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 11—Henry Armstrong finally has been stopped, but it took a good, soaking rain to do it.

He and Lou Ambers were all ready to climb into the ring for their lightweight title scrap last night at the Polo grounds with a drizzle turned into a downpour and Promoter Mike Jacobs declared a week's armistice.

Taking no chance on another rebuff from the weather, Mike transferred the bout indoors to Madison Square garden, where the pair will meet next Wednesday night. This was the fight's second postponement, it having been set up from the original date of June 26 when Ambers returned from the West coast with an injury.

Transfer Pleases Armstrong

The transfer to the Garden pleased Armstrong right down to the ground both the little negro and his portly manager, Eddie Mead, wanted to fight Ambers there all along, but the lightweight king insisted upon an outdoor setting, figuring it would require at least a ball park to hold the crowd.

He doesn't need to worry about that now. There probably weren't more than 5,000 customers rattling around in the Giants' parlor when the rain came last night, and there were none to speak of on the outside trying to get in.

Jacobs Does His Best

Jacobs, a pained expression on his face, did his best to get the thing over with. As it began to drizzle shortly before the first preliminary was due, he dispatched messengers to Armstrong and Ambers telling them to prepare to go on at a moment's notice. He had the ring light snapped on and invited what few ringsiders there were to go back and sit under the covered stands, which they did.

But then it began to come down in earnest, soaking the canvas of the ring, and Mike reluctantly said enough.

Chicago Golfer Is Mere Piker; Dallas Youth Shoots 230 Holes

DALLAS, Aug. 11. (AP)—Clark Haley, Dallas marathon golfer, played 230 holes Wednesday before dusk chased him from the Parkdale Country club.

Haley, 21-year-old son of a local contractor, went over the 85 stroke limit that he had set for himself only twice during his 14 hours and 51 minutes of play.

Haley hit his first tee shot at 4:52 a. m. and walked from the 230th hole at 7:42 with a gallery cheering him.

"Why I'm not tired at all. I could have played some more if it hadn't been dark," he said as he completed his marathon race that was charted at 58.5 miles.

Father's Day At Diamond

By Collier Parris

IT'S MAMA WHO PAYS tonight if she would see the ball game at the local park.

The old man gets a break, although the price of mama's ticket probably will come out of his pocket in the long run.

Something new in local baseball circles is "men's night" at the park. Ladies' nights are ordinary enough, and they are fine gestures on the part of the club management, but a men's night—that's something sort of different.

No doubt you've heard about the "feud" betwixt Sam Rosenthal, president and Harry Faukner, general manager, of the Hubber baseball association. It dates back to Monday night, when Harry was out of town and Rosenthal appointed himself head man of the ladies' night celebration.

We are not familiar with the kind of campaign Mr. Rosenthal conducted, if any, but the fact that he claims credit for being host to the largest crowd of the season—and, incidentally, there were 750 paid customers Monday night—sort of irks the general manager. So the g. m. is tossing a party for the men tonight. To gain free admission to the park tonight, it is necessary that one be a bona fide wearer of trousers, and this doesn't go for wives of henpecked husbands.

RECENT ACTION of Judge Wm. G. Bramham in declaring Ralph Marshall, ace of the Hubber hurling staff, a free agent, not only is a tough blow to the local club and its fans, and probably to Marshall himself, but is a move that is likely to injure baseball generally. It certainly does not make more friends for the ruling powers in baseball.

It would seem that Judge Bramham, czar of all organized baseball under the major leagues, is trying to emulate the baseball dictator, Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

Bramham has been mentioned now and then as possible successor to Landis.

If Bramham is campaigning for the job, he is certainly on the wrong track, because Dictator Landis, in his dotage, certainly has lost face with baseball by adhering strictly to the letter, instead of the spirit, of baseball law. He is on his way out, and his graying hirsute had little to do with his approaching exit.

Marshall was declared a free agent, and prohibited from signing with any club in the Chicago White Sox organization, as a result of Bramham's interpretation of the "bonus" rule. It was a weird interpretation of a technicality, inspired either by league enemies or by some sharp outside the league with a grudge against Marshall or the Hubbers.

There are several angles to the bonus rule, and we shall attempt to explain just how and why the Marshall incident came about.

Marshall was signed by the Dallas Steers last spring, and given a bonus for signing. It was all right to sign Marshall, but it wasn't all right, says Judge Bramham, to give him a bonus—because he had previously signed a professional baseball contract.

Section 10 in Article 22 of the National Association agreement, sets forth that "clubs in Class C or higher classification may sign first year players without previous professional experience by payment of a bonus for signing their first contract in organized baseball."

Back in 1934, Marshall played part of the season with Palestine in the East Texas league. He is alleged to have received pay for only 20 days. He quit playing pro ball then, and did not turn up for play-for-pay service until this year, when he was signed by Dallas, farmed out to Longview, then moved here.

The rules stipulate that a "first year man" is one who has had no previous professional experience. As generally interpreted, a player without previous professional experience is one who has played 30 or less days for pay.

Marshall is said to have played but 20 days for Palestine.

But in order to play at all in professional baseball, a player must sign a professional contract.

And the rule says that a player is not eligible for a bonus for signing any but his first professional contract.

So there you are.

Baseball law is a law unto itself, self-contained, self-enforced, and self-penalized if violated. The laws were framed, not by state or federal attorneys or judges, and is not in any way related to civil or criminal law and law enforcement.

The fellows who framed baseball law were baseball men, looking out for the good of the game and the perpetuation of the sport. As for enforcing and penalizing, the spirit, rather than the letter, of the law was, and should be, the primary consideration.

By the drastic actions in dictating according to the very letter, and not for the general good of the game or the players, Landis and Bramham are making themselves very unpopular fellows.

BUT WE'LL PROBOBLY survive the passing of Marshall, although the Hubbers will miss him.

Next announcement you hear regarding the situation probably will inform that Marshall has been signed by the Oklahoma City Indians of the Texas league, and the return of Lefty Blanchard by Oklahoma City to the Hubbers.

And we don't feel so badly about the outcome of things when old Ears Blanchard is on the mound. He should be showing up any day, now, and it'll be nice to see him back.

Uneasiness On Gasoline Felt

By ALFRED WALL
Associated Press Staff Writer

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 11 — Uneasiness about the gasoline market caused some concern to the oil industry today while otherwise the business seemed to be about holding its own.

Marketers in the Mid-Continent reported motor fuel had a hesitant tone, a puzzling factor in the face of lively consumption and a good reduction of storage stocks which were so heavy a few months ago.

Unfavorable Trend Seen

Company executives noted that August generally is the month of heaviest gasoline business during the year and agreed soft spots in that commodity at this season was a distinctly unfavorable trend.

Already the midsummer sluggishness was so pronounced that there was talk about whether it could be a forecast of an early autumn downturn in all lines.

One reason cited for the weakness was that the general upturn in gasoline prices, so confidently predicted three weeks ago, had failed to materialize. Some refiners had built up their stocks in anticipation of an increase and were back in the market to dispose of these stocks. It generally was reported most of this material had been disposed of.

Drilling Work Slackens

Drilling work slackened off for the week, with a total of 459 wells completed in the nation, 77 less than the week before. Oklahoma had some wildcat tests showing for pool openers. Kansas and Texas major drilling areas reported a number of extensions and pool openers.

The Oil and Gas Journal's report showed that to date 15,820 wells had been completed in the United States this year, compared to 18,279 the same week last year.

Partial Vision Given By Modern Surgery

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11 (AP) — Through modern surgery, partial vision has been restored in the sightless eyes of a middle-aged minister, who wept for joy, and a youthful pianist, so overcome with happiness he fainted.

Healthy cornea tissue from the eyes of pious Mrs. Margaret Carr, 80, who died July 31, was transplanted to one eye each of the Rev. Erend U. E. Harding, 53-year old Nazarene minister of Portland, Ore., and Arthur Morton, 21-year old musician from Sacramento, Calif.

The Rev. Mr. Harding had been blind 43 years and Morton six, both from troubles which affected their cornea tissue, through which light enters the eyes. Surgeons considered only one eye of each operative.

The delicate operations were performed here Aug. 3 by a surgeon who asked that he remain unidentified. This week he removed bandages from the eyes of his patients.

"I can see!" the minister cried. "I can see your fingers and count them! I can see colors!" He wept for joy.

Morton, gazing up from his bed in a darkened room, exclaimed: "Things are blurred, but I can see!" Then he fainted.

$70,000 Ahead

Among the Hollywood folk who made an exodus recently aboard the liner Normandie was vivacious Adrienne Borg, who is seen above posing pertly on the ship's rail for ze- cam-era. The young French actress told ship news reporters that her studio spent $70,000 on her although she did not work a day.

serious case of constipation and indigestion. My entire system was filled with poisons and I grew worse each day until finally my nerves became terribly upset and caused no end of worry. Rheumatism and neuritis with all their aches and pains attacked me and at times the suffering was almost more than I could bear. I tried various highly recommended medicines but always met with the same results—failure. Then Gly-Cas was brought to my attention and I decided to give it a trial.

"My entire system has been toned into the best condition it has been in for years," continued Mr. Butler. "My bowels have been wonderfully regulated and the distressing indigestion which caused me such trouble is now in the past. Gas and bloating have been entirely eliminated and my nerves have even been quieted and I am scarcely ever bothered with those awful pains of rheumatism and neuritis. Gly-Cas is one medicine that deserves much praise for it gives REAL results, quickly and efficiently."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway, and by the leading druggists in surrounding towns. Adv.

EVER hear of Dr. Joseph Jastrow, of Chicago?

Probably not.

But just the same, he's a guy you'd be willing to grasp by the hand and slap on the back if you could only meet him.

Perhaps you'd even contribute a fund to build a monument to his memory.

Why?

Well's it's none other than old Doc Jastrow who courageously says:

"That adage about the benefits of turning in early is better rhyme than reason.

"There is absolutely no virtue in getting up early in the morning!"

Writing in the magazine "Hygea," published by the American Medical association, Doc Jastrow, who is a psychiatrist, insists:

"What you need and crave is enough sleep to start the day right. If you don't get refreshing sleep—which millions do not—no night is long enough for recovery.

"The best thing you can do is get all the sleep you can in the morning hours, for you are then in the most relaxed condition for sleeping. And if you lose sleep, you should make it up in the daytime by taking as many naps as you can."

GOOD, old Doc Jastrow—bless his heart—is right down The Plainsman's alley.

We don't know how much he knows about psychiatry, or medicine. But when he says a fellow's more relaxed, and in better condition to sleep in the morning, he's as right as he can be.

He's got sumpin' there, all right, all right.

He knows his onions!

The hardest job of the day for your humble servant is piling out of the shucks.

It doesn't make any difference whether it's 6 a. m., or 9 a. m. It's all the same.

And we've always had a sneakin' notion that these good souls who are forever urging others to get up early are like those who insist that castor oil is the best remedy known for man or beast.

They are the kind that believe that whatever's pleasant is bad—and whatever's the most unpleasant is bound to be good and right!

It's surprising how many people there are like that!

WHILE we are mighty doubtful of it, we hope Mr. Roosevelt reads the Hill Press, of Bristol, Tenn.

If FDR is a reader of the Hill Press, we hope he'll read a recent article appearing in that somewhat significant publication—and then pass it along to the bright young men who are forever at his elbow, giving him their warped views on every subject from "a" to izzard.

Mr. Joseph Dunbar, jr., of the Hill Press, recently wrote in his paper a piece about his dog which barks at the mail man.

"Although the mail man likes the dog," said Mr. Dunbar, "the dog doesn't like the mail man. This happened because a substitute mail man that didn't like the dog hit him with a strap, so now the dog can't tell the difference between the mail men and barks at both of them.

"That reminds us of the way some politicians treat all business men—just because a few business men are bad!"

EVER at First Presbyterian church, several dozen children are gathering daily in the annual summer Bible school.

There's nothing unusual about that.

Several Lubbock churches sponsor such summer courses, which are fine for the children who attend them.

What appeals to The Plainsman in the Presbyterian school, however, is this:

Every morning as the kids prepare to begin their schedule they stand and repeat the oath of allegiance, which goes:

"I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States, and to the republic for which it stands; one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Nearly everybody knows that pledge of allegiance, or, at least, has heard of it.

But few people ever think about it and still fewer have ever stopped to carefully analyse its meaning and significance.

It would be good for us and for our country if more of us would think that pledge over and impress ourselves with its exact meaning.

THE Plainsman has considered for some time carrying that oath of allegiance daily in the editorial page mastheads of both The Morning Avalanche and The Evening Journal.

In this era of "boring from within" upon the part of the addicts of all sorts of "isms," "chisms," and "wizzums,"—and with so many soapbox howlers pointing out the "benefits" of swapping our freedom for off-brand types of government, it is high time more of our citizens make themselves realize that we've got a lot to be thankful for—and something to uphold to the last ditch.

Frequent consideration of that oath, we think, would be very beneficial.

In some states, at the opening of each public school day, the pupils in each and every room are required to stand, face an American flag, and repeat that oath of allegiance.

It only takes a couple of minutes, at the most, and inculcates in young minds a spirit of patriotism which sometimes seems sadly lacking in this great land of ours.

The Plainsman, for one, would like to see such a program followed in every grade and room of the Lubbock school system—and, for that matter, in every school on the South Plains.

HERE AND THERE: It may be only a coincidence, but publicity material boosting Gerald Mann for attorney-general and C. V. Terrell for the Railroad commission comes to The Avalanche-Journal on the same kind of paper, typed on the same kind of typewriter and with the mimeographing identical as far as the naked eye can see. . . CAST OF CHARACTERS

NIKKI JEROME, heroine; blond, popular, is engaged to six-foot, black-haired

STEVE MALLORY, hero; who is accompanying her on a trip to Nikki's aunt and uncle on a Wyoming dude ranch. Nikki's father,

PETER JEROME, is a wealthy New York jewel merchant.

Yesterday: Death is narrowly averted on the trail when Sarto's horse plunges into Fiske's. Steve saves the day.

CHAPTER VIII

Uncle Jim strode over to where Sarto still sat astride his trembling, frightened horse.

"What in burnin' blue blazes did you do to that horse?" he almost shouted, his voice blurring with anger. "Do you know you came so near killin' a man that it was only the grace o' God that saved him? And Steve Mallory," he added Sarto might be a guest but that didn't save him.

"Did you kick him or hit him back there? What made him jump like that? Mister, he's been ridin' this trail for years and he never done nothin' like that before."

Sarto climbed down from the saddle sullenly.

"How do you get that way." He was snarling. "Who do you think you're talkin' to? I don't know anything about horses. How should I know what happened?" Uncle Jim examined the girths.

Bancroft's quiet, purring voice broke in.

"Mr. Sarto isn't accustomed to horses and mountain trails," he said. "Perhaps I shouldn't have insisted that he come along."

He shot a quick glance at his companion.

"I didn't intend that anything like this should happen. I think he will get along better when we get to the camp."

"Maybe I was a little hasty," apologized Uncle Jim, but he reformed the line and put Sarto just behind Rance, Bancroft next and the others trailed them.

Nikki studied the group while this conversation went on. Fiske had regained his calm and gave no indication that he thought the matter anything but an accident. Sarto's face didn't tell her anything. She had never seen it anything but sullen blankness. She reached over and touched Steve and wished for a moment they were both back at the ranch. She had fully decided to tell Steve everything. If I had done that in the first place we'd all be safer, she thought. Steve said:

"You all right?" and she smiled back and nodded. They continued on up the trail.

Just before dark they reached the cabin where it squatted among the trees at the edge of the timberline on a plateaued ridge of Squaw Mountain. It had been built there several years before as a base for hunting parties. There was one big room with a wood fireplace that served the double purpose of heating the cabin and for cooking in bad weather. This room was lined with double-deck bunks. Behind it was a smaller auxiliary room with only four bunks. This Uncle Jim turned over to Nikki, as the bunks in the larger room would easily accommodate the men.

In pleasant weather all the cooking was done outside over an open campfire and the hunters squatted around this same fire on their heels to eat from tin plates and to drink coffee from tin cups which unquestionably were hotter than anything else ever devised.

Within a few minutes of their arrival Woody had a big fire going. A few minutes later the satisfactory hissing of searing steaks accompanied the mysterious night sounds of the mountains that always begin the moment the sun has set. The fire light sent flickering fingers of light scurrying off into the darkening fringe of timber.

Nikki strolled over to Steve and said:

"Steve dear, please be careful. I'm going to tell you about Bancroft and Dad and all just as soon as we get a minute alone. But will you please be careful in the meantime? And don't get into any trouble with Bancroft, or Sarto, either. Will you promise?"

"Sure. But nothing's going to happen to me. How about a little promising on your account?"

"I'm all right," she assured him. "Except that I'm getting a little bit scared."

"Scared of what? You're not letting that little accident this afternoon frighten you? Wait a minute. You don't think Sarto deliberately tried to push Fiske off the trail?"

"I don't know, but that's why I want you to be careful. I can't tell you any more. Here comes Rance."

"Well," said Rance. "How'd you stand the trip? Feel any the worse for your dive this afternoon, Steve?"

"Not a bit. Feeling fine."

"That's good." A frown wrinkled Rance's forehead. "I can't understand how it could have happened. We've brought 20 parties up here and that's the first accident. I know that equipment was all right. I saddled Sarto's horse myself this morning." He turned. "Well, I've got to go straighten out the hunting stuff."

"He's a bear for details, isn't he," said Steve, grinning. "The Lazy R stable looks like a filing cabinet. One of the men told me Rance couldn't stand to see a thing out of place. I'd bet money that accident didn't happen through any slip-up of his."

"Rance is grand," defended Nikki. Steve laughed.

"Sure he is honey. I didn't mean anything against him. I like the big towhead."

Just then Woody called and they went over to get their plates and cups and have them filled. They ate hugely and after their camp supper sat quietly over cigarets and watched the eddying flames as the night wind explored the embers.

Nikki rose from her cross-legged position and walked slowly past the edge of the clearing and out of the light cast by the fire thinking Steve would see and follow. But he was busily engaged with Woody in a discussion over whether a deer or an antelope was the most difficult to hunt. Nikki was leaning against a tree staring at the stars which seemed too magically close, when she heard Bancroft speaking.

"You look lonely out here."

"I wasn't," said Nikki. Bancroft stepped nearer.

"I've never seen anyone as beautiful as you are tonight. I don't usually tell women they're beautiful. If they are, they know it. But you're different. Do you know what I think about you?"

"I know what I think," said Nikki. "I think we'll go back to the others."

"Not yet," said Bancroft. "We won't go back until I tell you something. I'm going to see you when we get back to New York. I'm going to see you—plenty. And maybe you won't be so sorry to see me, either."

"You know I'm engaged to Steve Mallory," said Nikki, wishing his voice didn't make her shudder inside. "What makes you think I would be glad to see you?"

"You asked me the other day if I knew your father. Maybe I do know him. And maybe he knows me—pretty well. Maybe he'll be glad to have you going out with me." He took another step closer and one hand rested on her shoulder. Nikki felt paralyzed.

"Listen, baby. The things we couldn't do to New York, you and me. The things—"

There was a loud crackling as a clumsy foot trod on a fallen dead branch. Bancroft drew back as Sarto burst full upon them.

He stopped and stared, open mouthed. He started to say something when Bancroft beat him to it.

"You blundering, meddling fool. What are you doing here? Why don't you stay where you belong? I ought to break your neck for what you did this afternoon. Now you come stumbling out here. You fool."

Lashing himself into blind anger with his own words, Bancroft struck out furiously. His fist caught the smaller man on the side of the chin and he fell stumblingly backward. Bancroft stood over him a moment, rubbing the knuckles of his right hand, his hard breathing audible.

Nikki fled back to the campfire.

A SANE, PROTECTIVE MOVE

City health officials are to be congratulated on the steps they have taken seeking to prevent a repetition of the "mad dog scares" which occurred several times last summer.

Some of the experiences then were more than mere "scares." It is not exaggrating in the least to say that on one occasion, perhaps two, the community last summer was dangerously close to an epidemic of rabies. Many infected animals were killed. Several persons had to take anti-rabies treatment as a necessary precaution.

This year we have been fortunate. Not a single proved case of "mad dog" has been reported. No one has had to take Pasteur treatment.

That fortunate condition, however, cannot be expected to continue unless we are alert; unless a constant vigil is maintained against outbreaks. One necessity to such vigil is that dogs be vaccinated, and that they not be permitted to run at large.

Health authorities merit cooperation of every citizen in their effort to insure that safeguards will be effective.

Hollywood Chit-Chat

BY PAUL HARRISON
Journal Hollywood Correspondent

(Bill Porter, of NEA Service's Hollywood's staff, is conducting the Hollywood column while Paul Harrison is on vacation.)

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 11—On location with the "Gunga Din" company at Lone Pine, Calif., at the foot of Mount Whitney:

Two hundred and fifty miles from the nearest movie studio, the company was still within the city limits of Los Angeles. The desert land on which the camp was pitched was purchased by the city to get water rights.

All the Hindus, Hawaiians, and other brown-skinned extras in Hollywood have worked in "Gunga Din," and more than 250 men live at the camp.

Every morning at 5 o'clock a bugler creeps from his cabin, blows mess, which is the only call he knows, and heads for the shower room. The camp is soon alive with natives and white men making their way to the showers, clad only in bath towels, which are more clothes than most of them will wear the rest of the day.

Breakfast over, the men go in buses a couple of miles farther back into the hills, where the movie-set village of Tantrapur nestles in a setting closely resembling the foothills of the Himalayas.

Lesson In Making Up Five Men At A Time

Now begins the job of transforming 250 men into Indians.

Five men at a time are seated on a turntable. The table turns slowly while two make-up men with spray guns spray on a brown make-up. Each day less and less make-up is necessary, for the sun in that country is intense, and has given most of the company a natural tan.

When all the natives are made up, the cameras are set up and a good old-fashioned game of cowboys and Indians gets under way—but the cowboys are dressed in the uniforms of British troops, and the Indians are the India variety.

Douglas Fairbanks, jr., Cary Grant, Victor McLaglen, and some native troops are trying to hold the fort against the attack of a band of outlaws.

Blank cartridges are passed around, and at the command of "action" mounted outlaws dash up and down the street shooting at the British soldiers, who have taken a stand on the roof tops.

The noise of the blanks is terrific, and every now and then Cary Grants lights a stick of "dynamite" and hurls it at the attackers. The sticks do not explode, for they are only pieces of rubber hose. The explosions will be made back in Hollywood and dubbed in.

"You're A Better Man Than I Am"

Along about 11 a. m. the heat reaches its peak intensity, and for several weeks has averaged between 110 and 115 degrees.

One poor native was assigned to the task of cutting the lines of communication, which meant he had to climb a telegraph pole. As he reached the top of the pole was to get shot and drop limp over the crosspiece of the pole.

The action wasn't difficult, but it happened that the pole was in the background of every shot made that day, so the native spent the whole day hanging from the top of that pole in the blistering sun.

Gunga Gets Service

Back on the set after a fine lunch, Sam Jaffe, who plays the title role, was sitting in the shade of a rock, clad in a "twisty piece of rag," and his goatskin water bag lay on the ground nearby.

A grip was busily placing a fresh jug of water on the drinking fountain. Jaffe's valet stood by the fountain with a water glass in his hand, waiting to draw his master a drink.

The Hollywood influence is noticeable in the camp, for the three streets which house the white extras are named Hollywood Boulevard, Sunset, and Cine. The street where the natives live is called Olvera Street, after Los Angeles' famous Mexican street.

Californian Is Charged With Attempt To Extort From Uncle

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 11 (AP) — Charged with attempting to extort money from his wealthy uncle, H. G. Barnard, by threatening to blow him up with dynamite, Reuben Houghton, 38, El Cajon, Calif., was held today in the county jail in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Houghton pleaded innocent in common pleas court late Tuesday, a few hours after he was arrested by Sheriff Garland Marrs in the office of John Rogers, attorney for Barnard.

Marrs and Deputy Sheriff Eck King said Houghton carried a pasteboard box containing nine sticks of dynamite and a hundred dynamite caps and wore a pistol stuck in his belt. He surrendered without resistance and meekly gave up the lethal box he was carrying.

Common Pleas Judge Krit Logsdon set preliminary hearing for Aug. 18.

Echoes Of Famous Madison Oil Trail Recall Many Headaches To Lawyers On Both Sides

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Echoes of the celebrated Madison oil trial, what with various oil companies and executives just fined after anti-trust conviction months ago, others being granted a new trial and still others facing a grand jury on separate charges, recall to defense and government lawyers the headaches of that first trial.

In May, 14 defendant companies and 11 oil executives of another group awaiting trial pleaded nolo, electing to pay $400,000 in fines and costs. Profiting from the first trial's lessons, they didn't want to spend a few months in Madison at great expense. They didn't like Wisconsin juries and an adverse decision was likely. Cost of lawyers alone would have been more than fines. Other defendants elected to fight.

Dutcher

At least 80 lawyers served the defense in the first trial. The jurors, kept four months from their families except at Christmas, were more irate than the defendants, thanks to constant bickering as to whether they should go to the movies or play pinochle. They had to take recreation in a body.

The oil men had a press-agent who handed them a manual on how to act. They were asked to go to church and avoid drinking in public. The manuel was suppressed. Dr. Glenn Frank invited the defendants to a cocktail party. The party was suppressed too. Numerous veterans of the first trial still threaten to write a hilarious book.

No Kin

The New Deal has an Edmund Burke. You may hear more of him. He is no descendant of the great British orator, but he has been sent to New York by SEC to handle the new Chandler act covering corporate reorganizations. A young Harvard law graduate, Burke had much to do with writing the Chandler act and explaining it to Congress.

"Tomayto" Queen A-Visiting

Only White House visitor to cause a flurry since the President left was Miss Peggy Walsh, the "Tomato Queen," from Indiana. She is 18, and her name isn't Peggy Walsh, but the big tomato canner, who had her in charge wouldn't let her tell her real name. The Queen had a bushel of tomatoes for Mr. Roosevelt, but these were turned over to Bill Hassett, assistant to Secretary Steve Early and highest ranking White House occupant at the time.

Interviewers learned from Peggy it's pronounced "tomayto" and the reason it's a fruit instead of a vegetable is because "it's a love apple." Peggy is a handsome girl.

Too Boisterous

Even most congressmen don't know why the senators have a double-track monorail car service to take them underground from their offices to the Senate chamber, whereas members of the House have to walk.

A guard says there used to be a tramway on the House side, too. But the boyish enthusiasm of representatives who crowded it beyond its gunwales resulted in so many cars breaking down service had to be abandoned.

Puzzle To Wonderful

The Treasury department has a colored messenger named Wonderful Anthony and he is a man of parts. Wonderful is a master penman and an able cartoonist. Once he made a living drawing a comic strip called "Aggravatin' Papa" for a Negro newspaper.

"I was named 'Wonderful' by my father," says Anthony, shaking his head, "I don't know why he did it."

Too Much Of A Boom

Despite the administration's eagerness to have everyone believe business is booming and employment expanding, Federal Trade commission has just made B. Radford of Chicago stop advertising that demand for students of his commercial art courses is greater than can be supplied and that students will obtain steady employment within seven weeks.

FLASHES OF LIFE

(By The Associated Press)

Open Sesame

CAMDEN, N. J. — Federal agents, seeking the source of untaxed liquor, saw a passerby stamp three times on a manhole cover. The cover promptly opened, and an arm thrust out a bottle.

The agents also stamped three times.

They grabbed the arm—and its owner. Beneath the street they found nine gallons of illegal liquor.

Dead Shot

FRESNO, Calif. — Hunt big game with arrows? Wing jackrabbits with a slingshot? Shucks, all Thomas Rose, ranch foreman, needs is a beer bottle.

Rose spied a coyote lurking near the ranch house. A beer bottle was handy so he let fire. The bottle clipped the animal, 50 feet away, behind the ear. It fell dead.

Improves With Age

LOS ANGELES — It's the granddaddy of 'em all but there's plenty of life left in George C. Green's automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Green of Lambertville, N. J., arrived here in a 1904 "horseless carriage" after a 4,600 mile cross-continent vacation trip.

Green said the car, equipped with steering tiller side crank, bulb horn and kerosene lamps, made a top speed of 30 miles an hour and averaged 30 miles to the gallon of gas.

Costa Rica To Take Action

(By The Associated Press)

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, Aug. 11.—Congress passed by a vote of 40 to 1 Wednesday a measure authorizing the government to expropriate properties of the Electric Bond and Share company.

The measure includes a grant of power to negotiate a loan to pay indemnity.

Earlier a government-appointed commission from congress approved the proposal, which was advanced by communist representatives.

The commission said this was the only way to end difficulties with the North American corporation, due to unification contracts which asserted extend the period of rate schedules until 1980. Several disputes have occurred between the company and the national electric board.

mournful wail. Frequently, he kissed Raft with his damp muzzle. He even kisses Dorothy Lamour.

His liveliest moment comes at a Ketchikan dance when he dives into a tub of lemonade.

The drama hangs so heavily on the seal that Paramount actually changed the ending and cut out his last scene to give the human actors a break. As it is, those who saw the sneak preview swear, he turns in the best animal performance since a puma and a deer fared forth together years ago in "Sequoia."

Reporting that 5,000 of the leaflets were showered over Cheyenne, Adjutant General Alphonse Ardouret of the Colorado national guard said:

"In war, it could happen here."

A footnote on the leaflet explained its purpose, declaring:

"Propaganda in the event of invasion of the United States would be directed at the civilian population for the purpose of weakening their morale and inciting them to sabotage and rioting."

County's Tax Rate Expected To Be Set On August 20

Call for a meeting of the county commissioners court to consider county budgets and set a tax rate for the fiscal year which began last July 1 was issued by County Judge J. J. Dillard this morning for Aug. 20.

The meeting is one which must be called and general opinion in authoritative circles at the courthouse was that the county tax rate likely will remain 50 cents on the $100 of assessed valuation, as has been the case the last three years.

Also on the county commission schedule is a meeting Friday afternoon when bids are to be opened on proposals to install an elevator and convert present stairway space at the courthouse into offices.

A Public Works administration allotment of $9,000 has been earmarked for the work. But, officials said, to obtain that sum the county must appropriate $11,000 and the work must be started before Aug. 20. Otherwise, officials have been notified, the allotment will be withdrawn.

Two Clarendon Sportsmen Not Questioned On Their Story

CLARENDON, Aug. 11. (AP)—Fish and weather stories coming out of the Texas Panhandle never are questioned.

The Rev. Homer Holcombe and Marcellous Stovall went fishing in Briscoe county (population 6.2 to the square mile). Said Stovall:

"We stayed all night and caught 50 pounds of fish. Captured three coon cubs; killed two rattlesnakes; took alive a pair of blue quail and shot 23 skunks."

In proof, the nimrods brought home the cubs and game birds, but no one cared personally to check the skunk count.

Birds cannot see blue or violet, but they do see red and infra-red.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 11. (AP)—Cotton futures opened 2 to 3 points net higher here today.

October contracts opened at 8.47, Dec. at 8.55, Jan. 8.56, March 8.59, May 8.62 and July 8.65 bid.

Cessation of rains in the eastern and central parts of the belt prompted increased liquidation later in the morning but the trade continued to buy in moderate volume and prices moved erratically.

Towards mid-session October contracts sold at 8.43, Dec. at 8.51, March at 8.55 and May at 8.60, or 2 points lower to 1 higher compared with the previous close.

There was little desire to transact new business during the first half of the session and trading approached a virtual standstill towards the middle hour.

The weather map was dry in practically all areas and temperatures ranged from normal to above.

The turnover yesterday was 12,700 bales and open commitments 384,200 bales, an increase of 1,400 bales over the previous day.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—Cotton futures opened 3 points higher on firmer Liverpool cables and the absence of selling pressure. Oct. 8.39; Dec. 8.47; Jan. 8.47b; March 8.50; May 8.52; July 8.54b.

Dec. sold off from 8.47 to 8.45, leaving quotations net unchanged to 4 points higher late in the first hour.

The trade continued to absorb scattered selling later in the morning and prices ruled about steady. Further complaints of boll weevil activity were received from the eastern belt of Alabama. At midday Dec. sold at 8.42 and the list was 1 to 2 points net lower.

Stock Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. (AP)—A break in wheat futures to new 5-year lows helped inspire fresh selling in today's stock market and recent leaders fell fractions to 2 points and a few volatile issues as much as 7.

In addition to renewed weakness of grains, not only in America but in virtually all world centers, failure of the Reds to respond to the Russo-Japanese truce in the Far East was disappointing to those who thought prices lately had been depressed by the flare-up in the Orient.

At the same time financial observers of the trans-Pacific scene recognized that the "peace" agreement between Tokyo and Moscow might be only temporary. Talk of a possible German coup on the Czechoslovak border while having no immediate basis of fact also served to discourage important buying support.

One or two steels held fairly well, but rubbers, mail orders, farm machinery and high-priced specialties were under water throughout. Even rails and utilities were in supply.

Dealings expanded on the slip-up, with transfers around the 1,000,000 share mark.

Party's 'Purge'

Against this administration loss, which Republican Chairman John Hamilton called a "stunning blow to the New Deal," were the overwhelming renomination of Senator Robert J. Bulkley in Ohio and the victory of Senator Hattie Caraway in Arkansas.

The president indicated his favor for both of the latter last month.

More Than Figure Of Speech

His unequivocal support of Camp yesterday showed that the much-discussed party "purge" is more than a figure of speech and that the defeat of George is an objective. He opposed the court bill.

The president's action in Georgia raises the question: Will he now intervene against conservative Senators Smith in South Carolina and Tydings in Maryland and possibly Lonergan in Connecticut? All have New Deal opponents.

Speaking Is Planned

Speaking is planned for the afternoon. Judge J. A. P. Dickson, a pioneer judge, is scheduled to speak. Jerry Sadler and Gerald C. Mann also are to be here and talk.

Former Judge Pink L. Parrish, who later served as mayor of Lubbock and also as state senator, is to be one of the speakers today. He was a resident of Crosby county for many years and is popular here.

Large crowds from Floydada, Dickens, Spur, Ralls, Lorenzo, Petersburg and other towns are expected during the day. Registration booth will take care of old timers.

Barbecue, cooked under ground, will be served from a chuck wagon in charge of L. H. Randolph.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Smith who reside at the old rock house, will hold open house during the two days.

Nine Rescued; 14 Others Said Missing In Storm On Lake Erie

CLEVELAND, Aug. 11 (AP)—Nine persons were rescued from their crippled yacht on storm-tossed Lake Erie early today as U. S. coast guards launched a search for 14 others reported missing.

A rain and wind storm described as "terrific" by coast guard headquarters lashed the lake last night.

Six members of a Mansfield, O., fishing party, including three ministers of the United Lutheran Church of America, were reported missing off Sandusky, O.

Four young yachtsmen were long overdue at Toledo from the inter-lake regatta at Put-In-Bay, O.

Two young couples were missing in an outboard motorboat in which the put out from North Shores, Mich.

APPOINTMENT ANNOUNCED

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 11. (AP)—Dean E. J. Kyle of Texas A. and M. college today announced the appointment of Dr. Kelshaw Bonham as an assistant professor in the college's wild game department. The dean explained that the appointment was a step in keeping with the growing interest in fish and fisheries.

Baths 'Black-Listed' At Army Maneuvers Due To Shortage Of Water; Order Is Issued

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 11. (AP)—Due to a water shortage, baths have been "black-listed" at camp bullis where 15,000 national guard troops from Texas and Oklahoma have been concentrated for the third army maneuvers.

Maj. Gen. Claude V. Birkhead, commander of the 36th division, issued the order Wednesday. The order reads:

"No water will be used for bathing until further orders. Guards will be placed on all bath houses and shower baths to enforce this order."

Secret Service Men Frown On Modern Electrical Equipment

BARNESVILLE, Ga., Aug. 11 (AP)—President Roosevelt's guards, the secret service men, have frowned on the use of ultra-modern electrical equipment when the chief executive dedicates a rural electrification project here today.

REA officials planned to have the president start electricity flowing by use of an "electric eye."

But the secret service agents looked at the gadget and decided against it. They didn't say why, they just said "no."

So the president electrified the lines with a plain, old-fashioned pull switch.

ALLRED CANCELS DATES

AUSTIN, Aug. 11. (AP)—Governor James V. Allred cancelled all engagements today because of a severe head cold which impaired his hearing. He planned to remain at home until his condition improved.

Editors To Gather Here En Route To Seymour Session

Lubbock will be a gathering point for several editors of the area Friday for departure to the annual convention of the West Texas Press association in Seymour Friday and Saturday, according to information given at the chamber of commerce this morning.

Heading Lubbock's official delegation will be Cecil Horne, profesor of journalism at Texas Technological college, and Dick Shinkle, publicity man for the chamber of commerce. They will join in extending an invitation to the West Texas group to attend and participate actively in the reception for the state association convention to be held in Lubbock next spring.

Among those who have advised they plan to be in Lubbock en route to the Seymour convention were listed W. H. Graham of Farwell, president of the Panhandle association; Forrest Weimhold of the Sudan News, and Ralph Shuffler of the Odessa News-Times.

Departure is planned from the city hall shortly before noon and any others who may be bound for the convention were invited by chamber of commerce officials to join the group here.

dent and "take the lead in establishing social security."

"Obviously," he said, "the federal government can not carry the load alone.

"In education, for example, Washington has greatly assisted by using the labor of people who really need help to build school houses, to give student aid and to pay many teachers. And Washington will help by giving some grants in aid to those communities which need them most. But Washington should not and can not rightly subsidize public education throughout the United States. Education should be run by the states and their subdivisions."

Saying that a group in the South has questioned why pay in this section was low, why roads were poor and why medical and school facilities were improperly maintained, the chief executive continued:

"I Have A Right"

"I do not mince words, because, first of all, I have a right—a nation-wide right, a state right and withal a sympathetic and understanding right to speak them, and, secondly because you as well as I know them to be true.

"It may not be politic, but it is good American idealism to recognize, to state boldly, that in 1932 the conditions of human life in Georgia and in other states of the lower South were as a whole at the bottom of the national scale.

"At the same time let us rejoice and take pride in the undoubted fact that in these past six years the South has made greater economic and social progress up the scale than at any other period in her long history.

It is my objective and yours to maintain that march and to accelerate its pace."

Bird Is To Be Tried For Seven Robberies In Baltimore Area

BALTIMORE, Aug. 11 (AP)—Charles Bird, youthful desperado who bragged his bank holdups and other crimes "netted $100,000" will be tried here for seven highway robberies in which he obtained less than $1,200, State's Attorney J. Bernard Wells said today.

Prosecutor Wells refused to waive jurisdiction of the former "public enemy No. 2" and Mrs. Bird to the department of justice for return to Cleveland.

U. S. District Attorney Bernard J. Flynn, in seeking their custody, said Bird is wanted in Ohio for three robberies of national banks, for jailbreak while in custody of the federal marshal and a possible state charge in the death of a Negro man struck by his automobile when he fled from jail. Mrs. Bird is wanted for harboring her husband and his brother after the jail break.

Three Oil Companies Lose In Appeals To Mexican Tribunal

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 11. (AP)—Three oil companies have lost an appeal to the Mexican supreme court to regain sequestered oil property because it belongs not to Mexico but to the United States.

The Huastecas Oil Fields corporation, Border Oil company, and Compania de Inversiones Aztlan were the appellants.

The property, in Reyrosa district, Tamaulipas state, was turned over to government oil interests in 1936.

A court investigation, however, ascertained that the property passed to the United States in 1936, when a Brooks county, Tex., court clerk granted title to the land to P. Garcia and Juan Garcia Diaz. The lots were known as "El Perdido," and "Vergas."

STAFF IS COMPLETED

STEPHENVILLE, Aug. 11. (AP)—The football coaching staff of John Tarleton college has been completed with Earl Rudder taking the place vacated by Assistant Coach H. J. (Choc) Sanders, who resigned.

Rudder, a product of Tarleton and Texas A. and M., has been coach of Brady High school for four years.

Scotch Nudism Is Frowned On At San Antonio Course But Golfers Have Good Reason

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 11. (AP)—This is the story of three Scotch nudists who played golf on riverside park golf course Wednesday.

They must have been Scotch because they took off their clothes the better to find lost golf balls. And Radio Patrolmen Fritz Bruhn and Charles Ogden will vouch for the fact they were nudists.

Police were called to the golf course by a telephone report that three nude men were playing golf at the seventh hole in sight of nearby residences. Rushing to the scene, Patrolmen Bruhn and Ogden found the three men in the river and their golf clubs on the turf.

The men explained that they had been unable to pass the water hazard and had lost all of their golf balls in the stream. If they were to continue their game, they must recover their golf balls and if they were to recover their golf balls they would have to get into the water and they couldn't get into the water with their clothes on, they explained.

They were permitted to don their clothes and continue their game.

Cochran Shooting

the account, when Carroll demanded that he be taken to Littlefield, beyond the point where the driver, Orville Perry, resided.

According to the account in The News, Carroll appeared in Morton Tuesday and attempted to trade a pistol which was out of order for one which would work, explaining he planned a trip to Mexico. The man's actions were such, according to authorities, that officers were asked to keep him under observation.

Carroll left here Wednesday, however, officers said, and was picked up at the edge of town by Perry, who was accompanied by a baby. After proceedings to a point northeast of Morton, the report continued, Perry started to turn off the road. It was then, reports continued, that Carroll pointed his rifle at the baby with the threat to kill the child unless he was taken to Levelland. Perry dissuaded Carroll, who alighted from the car. Perry called the sheriff.

Warned Away By Rifle

Officers reportec, according to The News account, that Carroll apparently had taken shelter in the cab of an abandoned truck on a side road after leaving Perry's car. While there, the report continued, Porter Harris and Robert Payne, residents of the community, attempted to approach him but had been warned away by Carroll's gestures with his rifle.

The sheriff reported that Carroll was sheltered in a deep ditch when officers tried unsuccessfully to persuade him to surrender. The officers, according to their report, fired several shots into the air in an attempt to frighten him. Finally, the report continued, Carroll waved a white handkerchief and the sheriff started alone to approach him.

Shot Is Heard

The sheriff, according to the report, had moved only a few steps when a shot sounded. He discovered, he said, that Carroll had been shot through the abdomen. The bullet was discovered later to have penetrated his liver.

Carroll was taken to the hospital in Levelland and an operation was performed. It became apparent that a blood transfusion would be needed if he was to have a chance of life. Volunteers were called. Several responded and were waiting when Carroll died.

Mrs. Carroll said her husband moved to Levelland last fall and had been employed in a blacksmith shop. He left home Tuesday, she said further, planning to go to Roswell in search of employment.

Judge Talyor's official finding in the case, according to the sheriff, was that death was due to a bullet wound self inflicted. Officers added that Carroll's dying statement concerning his "bonehead" was in obvious reference to the attempted intimidation of Perry.

Demand For Building Permits Continues Fast Pace Today

Demand for building permits lagged a bit Wednesday, but the respite was brief and this was just another busy day for Jim Reid, city building inspector, and Miss Maurine Hughes, his office assistant.

Permits for construction to cost $12,512 were issued before noon boosting totals for the week to $61,487, the month to $113,992 and the year to $1,620,984.

New permits included Tabernacle Baptist church, frame and stucco church building at 1501 Avenue N, $3,500, C. C. Cotten, frame residence at 3106 Twenty-second street, $3,000, E. Gilliland, owner, and Otis Rich, costractor, to alter building at 1216 Texas avenue, $2,702; W. W. Stevens, owner and Robinson and Nelson, contractor, frame residence at 1515 Twenty-third street, $2,280, and Sterling Cone, lumber shed at 916 Avenue N, $1,000.

Wiley Grinnell, Former Itasca Coach, Named To Job At Teague

TEAGUE, Aug. 11. (AP)—Wiley Grinnell, whose teams won 30 and lost 3 games in the three years he was coach of the Itasca Wampus Cats, has been named head football coach of the Teague Lions.

Grinnell succeeds Bryan Schley, who resigned to serve as assistant coach at Nacogdoches.

COACHING SCHOOL SET

COLLEGE STATION, Aug. 11. (AP)—More than 100 high school and college coaches were expected here for the Texas Aggie ninth annual coaching school, Aug. 14-26.

Instruction in all sports and care and treatment of injuries will be given by members of the Aggie staff with P. E. (Pete) Shotwell, coach of the 1937 state high school football champions from Longview, and Bob Berry, coach of the 1937 Lone Star conference champions, East Texas State Teachers, assisting.

field's knowledge of the alleged maltreatment gave Carroll a motive for murder.

Flatly Denies Killing

Yesterday Carroll flatly denied he killed Dr. Littlefield or the latter's frail wife, who was strangled Oct. 15.

Special Prosecutor Ralph M. Ingalls' attempts to quiz Carroll about a morals offense involving his pretty daughter, for which he originally was arrested, was blocked by the court.

Carroll stuck firmly to his contention he knew nothing of the Littlefield murders until Dwyer was arrested in North Arlington, N. J., with the bloody bodies in an automobile he had driven aimlessly through six states.

Wife, Friends Take Stand

Carroll's wife, Ruby, and friends, also took the stand to tell of Carroll's whereabouts the night of October 13, when Dwyer had charged Carroll viciously choked and beat the doctor in the Dwyer home.

Carroll and his wife testified he attended an American Legion supper the night of the murder, and later played cards.

American Family Must Average Two And Six-Tenths Children

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Aug. 11 (AP)—Each American family must average two and six-tenths children to keep America's population stationary, the institute of maternal and infant welfare was told today.

Dr. M. Edward Davis, professor of obstetrics at the University of Chicago, said the United States birthrate was "decreasing at an alarming rate."

"If the trend continues, in a few years our population will be decreasing," he said in an address.

"We are now only a shade above the static point with an average of two and seven-tenths."

"There were 3,000,000 births in 1925 and only 2,000,000 in 1937."

Gov. Marland Of Oklahoma Is To Review Guardsmen Today

CAMP BULLIS, Aug. 11. (AP)—Governor E. W. Marland of Oklahoma came today to review Texas and Oklahoma National guard units participating in third army maneuvers.

A 19-gun salute by a battery from Wewoka, Okla., was ready to boom out for the governor when he arrives in camp about noon.

Yesterday Governor Allred of Texas was given the 19-gun salute as he entered camp with W. Lee O'Daniel and Leon C. Phillips, Democratic gubernatorial nominees of Texas and Oklahoma respectively.

They reviewed the thirty-sixth division, Texas National guard, during which five retiring army officers were honored. Governor Allred was received at thirty-sixth division headquarters by Maj. Gen. Claude V. Birkhead, commander.

Shrimp Are Dumped In Strike Flareup In New Orleans Area

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 11. (AP)—Shrimp were dumped in New Orleans today in a strike involving prices for the seafood and catches by non-union fishermen.

Five truckloads of shrimp for delivery to the French market in New Orleans were dumped and kerosene poured over the shrimp. Similar dumping of catches was reported from Buras, about 90 miles down the Mississippi river from New Orleans.

San Francisco Paper Says 'Spy Hunt' Being Made On Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11 (AP)—The San Francisco Examiner said today it had "unofficial information" that army officials were conducting a "spy hunt" as a result of the reported theft of drawings of a secret device used in training fliers at the army air corps base at Hamilton field.

The newspaper said the involved plans were for a "link bombing trainer," an apparatus used in teaching the technique of the accurate placements of bombs.

Cream Meetings Scheduled In City

The West Texas Cream Improvement association will cooperate with the extension service in a series of meetings to be conducted on the South Plains, beginning Tuesday and continuing through Aug. 25, said K. M. Renner, head professor of dairy manufacturing at Texas Technological college and secretary of the association.

The meetings are to be conducted for the purpose of stimulating interest in better dairying and conservation of dairy feeds.

Twenty-nine meetings of farmers and others interested in dairying will be conducted in that many towns in the area, E. R. Eudaly, senior dairy husbandry extension man, and K. J. Edwards, district agent, will have charge. M. E. McMurray, general manager of the Texas Cream Improvement association, will be on the program. Every meeting will be attended by some creameryman of this are who will furnish dairy refreshments.

Two 'Revolutionaries' Shot In Attempted Escape In Mexico

EAGLE PASS, Aug. 11. (AP)—Mexican army officers announced yesterday two men they termed "revolutionaries" were shot by a military squadron during an attempted escape from the Piedras Negras garrison across the border from here.

General J. J. Quinones, garrison commander, said letters found in the Piedras Negras hotel room of former Col. Jose Martinez Moctezuma and Miguel Martinez when the two were arrested Tuesday were from General Saturnino Cedillo, leader of the abortive San Luis Potosi revolt and now a fugitive.

Counterfeiting Beer Bottle Caps Latest Wrinkle In Bootlegging

AUSTIN, Aug. 11 (AP)—Counterfeit beer bottle tops are the newest wrinkle in the bootlegging business, M. L. Eilers, investigator for the Texas liquor board, said today 500 fake caps were seized in Fayette and Lavaca counties where home brewers have offered the beer for sale as a brewery product.

Action Opposing Non-Resident Appointees Planned By Dies

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11. (AP)—Rep. Dies (D-Tex) said he would introduce a resolution as soon as congress convenes expressing opposition and appointment of federal judges who are not residents of the districts affected.

Dies said he was "amazed" at the commendatory letters and wires he said he received from Texas since he expressed opposition to the confirmation of Gov. James V. Allred of Texas as judge of the southern Texas district. Wichita Falls is not in the judicial district to which Allred was appointed.

California's Demo Registration Higher For August 30 Primary

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11 (AP)—Democratic registration in California is seven and one half per cent higher for the August 30 primary than it was for the 1936 general election while the Republican figure is slightly lower, an Associated Press survey showed today.

SALE OF CARS LOWER

AUSTIN, Aug. 11 (AP)—Sales of new automobiles in Texas for the first seven months of the year were 34.1 per cent under those of the same period last year, the University of Texas bureau of business research reported today.

July sales in 15 representative counties were 3,477 cars.

DEMONSTRATION GIVEN

TACOMA, Aug. 11. (AP)—United States army airplanes rained bombs on an oil slick in the Pacific ocean off Cape Flattery for more than three hours Wednesday, in a demonstration of just what they might do to an enemy fleet should it venture to approach Puget sound.

TO PAVE HIGHWAY

EAGLE PASS, Aug. 11 (AP)—Construction will begin immediately on a new paved highway from Piedras Negras to Saltillo, crossing the state of Coahuila, Mexico, reports here said today.

The highway will be from the border to the Coahuila capitol and will open a new tourist route to connect with the Pan-American highway below Monterrey.

Sadler Is Heard In City On Wednesday

Pledge of "honest and conscientious service" if elected railroad commissioner was made to an audience in the park west of the city hall Wednesday afternoon by Jerry Sadler of Gregg county, opponent of the present commissioner, C. V. Terrell, in the Aug. 27 democratic primary.

He said charges had been hurled that he would discriminate.

"Over in East Texas they say I'll discriminate in favor of West Texas, while in West Texas my enemies are saying I'll shut down the stripper wells and open the East Texas field. Now obviously one of these stories is untrue, and the fact is that both are made up. I live in East Texas and am obligated to the people of West Texas, so I'll be fair to all of Texas."

Declined Support

Sadler commented on John Wood and R. A. Stuart who were eliminated in the first primary, coming out for Terrell.

They offered to support me," Sadler said, "but I wouldn't accept the conditions offered. I want to be free to serve my kind of people, the plain people of Texas."

"The 30-year-old candidate said Texas needed "new blood, fighting blood" on the railroad commission, and asserted that "these professional politicians and their monopolistic backers have ganged up on me.

Harley Sadler Introduces

"They're out trying to buy affidavits against me," Sadler charged. "I have always been taught that a public office is a public trust, and I will remember that when I am in Austin."

The speaker was introduced by his cousin, Harley Sadler, West Texas showman, who said he was supporting Jerry "because he's the best man for the office. His opponent has held office 52 years and it is time for him to step aside for a younger man who can serve us better."

Sadler's cowboy string band played for the rally which was held on the city hall lawn.

Dr. Roger S. Knapp Is Added To West Texas Hospital Staff

Dr. Roger S. Knapp has become a member of the staff of West Texas hospital, it was announced Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. Knapp recently completed his interneship in Southern Baptist hospital in New Orleans. He received a degree in medicine from Tulane university, New Orleans. He is the son of Mrs. Bradford Knapp of Lubbock and the late president of Texas Technological college.

He will practice general medicine, surgery, and obstetrics. His office is located at 1209 1-2 Broadway.

Greater London has increased in population by more than two million since 1889, when the London County Council came into being.

Chief Quizzer

Caught by the candid camera at the Senate Civil Liberties Committee investigation of labor policy of "little steel" companies is Senator Robert M. LaFollette, chief inquisitor. LaFollette's questioning of one company representative led to a laugh when it developed that the witness heled carry Cleveland for LaFollette's father in the 1924 presidential election.

Applications Being Taken Once More

Taking of subsidy applications was resumed Wednesday at the office of the county farm agent after a new supply of 1,750 blanks had been received. The original supply was exhausted Monday.

County Agent C. C. Jobson said considerable confusion had arisen regarding payments. Many farmers, he explained, seem to think that payment is made on total production. This view is in error.

"Payments are based on the 1937 adjusted acres and the 1937 normal yield," he said. "Multiply your acres in cotton by the normal yield per acre; take approximately 61 per cent of this and multiply it by three cents a pound. It will give you the approximate payment.

Farmers Advised

"Farmers are paid on the percentage of their base acreage and production and not on the entire amount."

Farmers have been notified by form letter, which gives their contract number. They are asked to bring this letter with them to save time, and also the total lint yield for last year, in pounds.

"All who produced cotton in 1937 and who have since moved, either within the county or from one county to another, are advised they will facilitate matters and payment if they will notify the county agent's office where their records are, of their new address," said Jobson.

Hungarian Grain To Be Sold To Italy Under Agreement

ROME, Aug. 11. (AP)—Hungarian sources said Italy concluded today conferences with a Hungarian grain delegation which agreed to sell Italy more than 2,566,000 bushels of wheat.

These sources said Italy bought 5,500,000 bushels in June, and may buy still more by the end of this month.

They said Italy had agreed to pay one-third in cash and two-thirds in raw materials and industrial products. The price was understood to be 14 pengoes per quintal, or about 75 cents a bushel.

WCTU's Traditional Stand Reaffirmed

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11. (AP)—The Woman's Christian Temperance union, ending its national convention here Wednesday, adopted forceful resolutions reaffirming its traditional stand against traffic in beverage alcohol.

A more strict prohibition of traffic in narcotics also was urged.

A legislative program seeking to prohibit the sale of liquor in all federal areas was adopted.

The delegates voted also to urge federal protection of areas where the local laws prohibit the importation or sale of liquor.

LIGHTNING KILLS MAN

RUPERT, Idaho, Aug. 11. (AP)—Melbourn Chugg, 27, was instantly killed eight miles northeast of here late Wednesday when he was struck by lightning while pitching hay.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go.

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else.
