CARRIED SPACEWARD—This 91½-pound satellite was carried skyward from Cape Canaveral, Fla., atop a powerful Juno II rocket in an effort to learn more about space and weather. Satellite Sends Back Valuable Information

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—America's new Explorer VII satellite is spinning about the earth every hour and 41 seconds gathering data about space radiation and the weather.

A four - stage Junio II rocket lifted the gyroscope satellite into orbit Tuesday and it immediately began transmitting valuable information.

Explorer VII joined eight other American satellites, including one orbiting the sun. The Soviet Union has three still up, also including one circling the moon.

Space scientists were pleased with the orbit attained—which takes the Explorer VII 664 miles from earth at its farthest point and as close as 346 miles at its nearest point.

Dr. Homer Newell Jr. of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported this orbit is more nearly circular than hoped for and said it would be an advantage because of the nature of some of the seven experiments carried in the instrument package.

For one thing, he noted, gauges designed to measure cosmic rays will not be unduly flooded by high altitude radiation.

Newell announced one of the two satellite radio transmitters was weaker than hoped for and that it probably will die in about two months. The transmitter is designed for precision tracking of the satellite. Newell said, however, that when the radio stops, the satellite can be tracked by telescopic means.

Explorer VII is expected to stay aloft for 20 years, but it will relay information for only one year. After that period, an automatic device will shut off the second transmitter. This is to prevent the radio signals from cluttering up satellite broadcasting wavelengths.

The main mission of the new satellite was to study the lower levels of bands of radiation hovering above the earth. This data may help ease man's way to the moon.

Other instruments measure cosmic rays in and below the belt; micro-meteoric density; sun-produced ultra-violet radiation; and the heat balance between the earth and the sun. Meteorologists believe the latter is responsible for most of our weather.

The Juno II was one of three rockets launched here Tuesday.

Earlier, a B47 jet bomber fired a 37-foot Bold Orion missile across the path of the Explorer VI "Paddle Wheel" satellite. The missile may be the forerunner of a weapon designed to knock down enemy satellites.

An Air Force statement issued in Washington said preliminary evaluation indicates the mission was successfully accomplished.

Pentagon officials said it might take several days to analyze data from the missile itself and from ground observation stations.

Tuesday night the Air Force launched its dependable Thor intermediate range missile on a 1,500-mile test flight.

Van Doren Due To Accept Subpoena

NEW YORK (AP) — A U. S. marshal awaited only a telephone call today to complete arrangements for serving a subpoena on Charles Van Doren to testify in a congressional probe into fixed TV quiz shows.

Marshal Thomas J. Lunney told newsmen the $129,000 quiz winner's attorney, Carl J. Rubino, had promised to arrange a time and place for serving the document.

Lunney smilingly greeted a corps of newsmen at his office with the remark: "Where's Charlie?"

Then he said he and the attorney had conversed.

Lunney said he personally would serve the subpoena, calling upon Van Doren to testify Nov. 2. Subpoenas ordinarily are served by deputies.

Van Doren arrived here Tuesday after a weekend in New England amid a furor over his whereabouts. The investigating subcommittee's chairman, Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark), has charged he ducked the subpoena. It was delivered to federal authorities here Tuesday.

The Subpoena presumably calls for Van Doren's appearance before the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee Nov. 2, when the inquiry, now in recess, will resume.

Van Doren's lawyer, Carl J. Rubino, said the young TV personality would accept the subpoena as soon as its delivery can be arranged. Rubino said Van Doren had just learned about the subpoena.

"He could not evade a subpoena which he did not know had been issued," Rubino declared.

Van Doren, a Columbia University English instructor, dropped out of sight last week when the subcommittee first sought his testimony in Washington.

The National Broadcasting Co. suspended him from a $50,000-a-year consultant's job pending the outcome of the investigations. He got the job after winning his prize money on NBC's "Twenty-One" quiz show in 1956-57.

Rubino said: 'He had no thought of evading anything. He just became distressed when NBC took him off the air summarily last Thursday. He was disturbed and just went off. He telephoned me last night and I told him that allegedly there was a subpoena out for him. I heard it over TV."

Van Doren, member of a distinguished literary family, spent the weekend in New England, the lawyer said. He visited the farm home near Cornwall, Conn., of his father Mark Van Doren.

The son had obtained a week's leave of absence from his teaching post.

Many Attend Gail Dinner

An estimated 150-160 businessmen, ranchers, farmers and others attended the Gail Parent-Teachers Ass'n. dinner at Gail Tuesday night.

One report said that fully half or more of those in attendance were from Snyder. The Snyder Chamber of Commerce, through its office and local members, had put on a drive to sell tickets to the function. Each business man here hosted a Gail rancher or farmer.

Johnny Boren was master of ceremonies. Entertainment included a skit by Bob Womack and choral numbers by Snyder teachers under the direction of Bob Clinton, choral director of the Snyder school system.

Tunisians Hanged

TUNIS (AP)—Eight Tunisians were hanged today for crimes against the regime of President Habib Bourguiba.

Rites Pend For Victims Of Accident

Funeral services for Clarence G. Raley, 54-year-old Lamesa motel operator—one of two related men fatally injured in a one-car Borden county accident yesterday morning—were still pending today at Bell Funeral Home.

An attendant said Wednesday morning that services would not be announced until after the arrival of relatives from Ohio.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Billy Jean Henkell, Big Spring, Mrs. Virginia Bentley, Xenia, O., and Miss Kern Sue Raley, Lamesa; and two sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Harrison, Temple, and a second sister identified only as Verdie whose address was not immediately known here.

The body of the second victim—87-year-old retired postal employe Francis A. Nott—was taken overland this morning to the deceased's city of residence, Port Arthur, Tex.

Nott, who was an uncle of Mrs. Clarence Raley—also a passenger in the overturned vehicle and still confined at Cogdell Memorial Hospital in critical condition—is survived by his wife Nora, of the home; two daughters, Miss Wilma Nott, of Port Arthur, and Mrs. Roy I. Biggs, Pecos, Tex., and one sister, Mrs. T. S. Crater, Temple, Tex.

An attending physician at Cogdell said Wednesday morning that Mrs. Raley's condition was "unchanged" and remained critical and that "she has not regained full consciousness but is aware that she is in a hospital."

Her injuries included chest injuries, multiple fractures, multiple lacerations and head injuries, he said.

The accident occurred between seven and eight o'clock yesterday morning 17 miles west of Snyder. Rain-slicked pavement may have been a contributing factor.

The Lamesa-bound vehicle left the highway on the left side, went down a 15-foot embankment, apparently turned over one or more times and came to a stop upside-down on a fence. The two men were thrown from the car. It was reported the car may have rolled over them. Mrs. Raley was pinned in the wreckage. Both men were dead on arrival here.

The Raleys had come to Snyder to pick up the uncle who had arrived only hours before for a visit with them. They were enroute home when tragedy struck.

Dallas Banker Faces Charge

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)— Federal authorities today charged an assistant vice president of the First National Bank with taking $290,320 from the institution.

Bank officials said the money was embezzled from the bank by James Cook Evans, 52, over the past two years, the FBI reported.

The government charged him with only one case involving $3,000. The formal charge was false entry in the bank records.

'RED HOT' SESSION IN WEEKLY GRID CONTEST

There were plenty of "red hot" entries in the Snyder Daily News football contest last week, and when the final returns were in it required a "three" to share the money.

No less than five individuals missed only three of the 28 contest games. The winners, who will share the first and second place prize money, are Hugh C. Lowry, 2208 Forty-second Street; Clyde Hall Jr., 2708 Thirty-fifth Street; Mrs. Ronald Bratton, 606 Twenty - ninth Street; Mrs. Jack Longbotham, Route 3, and Fred Beard, 3100 Forty-first Street.

The Rice-Florida tie threw all of the winners, while Pittsburgh's victory over Duke was missed by three of them.

One entry, that of Morris Noah, 3001 Thirty-eighth Street, called the Rice-Florida tie, but he failed to place "in the money."

Five contestants only missed four each. They were Jack Berry, 601 Twenty-ninth Street; J. D. Henderson, 900 Twenty-seventh Street; Johnny Johnson, 305 Benton Street, Big Spring; Roy Staton, Route 2, and Brent Newby, 318 Thirty-third Street.

A new contest begins today, and the list of games may be found in advertisements on the Football Contest Page of today's isue of The Snyder Daily News.

Inflationary Trend Cited

WASHINGTON (AP)—The striking Steelworkers Union gives the country only two alternatives, the industry's chief negotiator charged today—"another inflationary wage increase in steel or go without steel."

R. Conrad Cooper, who has headed the industry's negotiating team throughout the 92-day strike, defined this as the union's position in a statement prepared for a White House fact-finding board.

"Plain hogwash" is what Cooper called the union's contention that the real issue in the strike is the companies' desire to break the union.

Cooper's statement pounded again and again at what the industry calls the danger of inflation if a large wage increase is granted.

It was the industry's "day in court" before the inquiry board, which has heard the union present its side for the past day and a half. The board must report the facts of the strike to President Eisenhower by Friday. The President then decides whether to ask for a Taft-Hartley Act injunction, which would halt the strike for an 80-day cooling off period.

"There are two basic and clear-cut issues in this dispute," Cooper said.

"First, whether the companies should submit to the union's rule-or-ruin demands for another inflationary increase in wages and benefits in the face of the intense and steadily increasing competition which confronts our industry both at home and abroad; and

"Second, whether the new agreements will permit reasonable latitude in the management of the business, in the interest of improved efficiency and economy of operations."

Union President David J. McDonald completed the union's arguments before the board Tuesday night. The union claims the company's cry of inflation is phony. McDonald also said the companies would get their way in changing local working conditions only "over our dead bodies."

Cooper said in his statement the companies "are not trying to undermine or destroy the union. They do not seek to take away the basic rights of any employe. They are not asking for the arbitrary right to change local work practices without employe recourse to grievance procedure and arbitration."

Cooper's statement seemed to place even farther from likelihood any negotiated settlement, which would make the Taft-Hartley 80-day injunction unnecessary.

Referring to recent last-ditch negotiations, Cooper said "I cannot truthfully report to this board that the union made any discernible effort to reach a voluntary agreement as requested by President Eisenhower."

The fact-finding board has been sharply critical of other sides in the dispute. George W. Taylor, the panel's chairman, expressed hope the industry would tell its side in the same time it took the union.

U. S. Asks Study On Police System For Disarmament

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States called today for a U. N. study on a system of international and domestic police forces to preserve peace in the event of total world disarmament.

The new survey was proposed by U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge as a parallel to discussions of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's total disarmament plan laid before the U. N. General Assembly Sept. 18.

Lodge told the Assembly's 82-nation Political Committee the United States would join other members of the new 10-nation disarmament group in Geneva early next year in giving to the Soviet proposals the most serious scrutiny.

He said, however, that the United States still does not know what kind of inspection and controls the Soviet Union will accept and this is a key to whether the Soviet plan is acceptable.

"There cannot be 100 per cent disarmament with only 10 per cent inspection," Lodge declared.

He urged the Soviet Union to elaborate a detailed control plan before the Geneva disarmament talks begin if it wants the Khrushchev plan to get serious consideration.

Turning to the question of what happens after disarmament, Lodge asserted:

"If all nations lay down their arms, there must be institutions to preserve international peace and security and promote the rule of law.

"It seems to the U. S. government that there are three questions in particular to which detailed answers should be sought:

"1. What type of international police force should be established to preserve international peace and security?

"2. What principles of international law should govern the use of such a force?

"3. What internal security forces, in precise terms, would be required by nations of the world if existing armaments are abolished?"

The U. S. delegate made it clear that the United States had no objections in principle to total disarmament provided there could also be total control to prevent violations.

In agreeing to take up the Khrushchev plan at the Geneva disarmament talks, Lodge made it clear that the committee also would discuss other proposals, including those made by British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd before the General Assembly.

Britain Set To Soothe Germany

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—Britain is planning a major diplomatic drive to improve relations with West Germany after seven months of bickering with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Relations between London and Bonn have been frankly bad since Prime Minister Harold Macmillan journeyed to see Nikita Khrushchev in Moscow last February at the height of the Berlin crisis. Macmillan went without first consulting Adenauer.

Now the British leader has ordered his experts to get cracking on a program to restore relations between the two countries. He has given the task top priority.

Each government has its explanation for the strains and stresses existing between them.

Adenauer has tended to blame the British press, which he suspects is inspired by people he once described as "wire-pullers" in the Foreign Office.

Macmillan and his associates have been inclined to find fault with Adenauer himself. Some have speculated out loud whether the chancellor, at 83, is up to the burdens of office and is still able to follow new concepts of allied policy.

Adenauer told newsmen Tuesday that anti-German discord from the British public and press has saddened him. He said he had complained of this to Macmillan when they met last March.

Some British newspapers don't conceal their dislike of Adenauer. Lord Beaverbrook's empire - minded Sunday Express—an extreme case—discussed reports that the chancellor soon will be visiting London.

"The British people," it said editorially, "have no love for Dr. Adenauer. They know that he resents British power. They know that he has frustrated every British move for peace in Europe. They do not want him here."

Other British papers have been more tactful but no less critical.

Says Agencies Dodge Issue

DALLAS (AP) — Rep. Walter Rogers (D-Tex) said Tuesday night the attitude of federal agencies toward rigged television quiz programs amounts to "sticking their heads in the sand."

Rogers was in Dallas for the start of a combination speaking tour and inspection of irrigation projects. He gave his views in an interview.

The Texas Democrat said both the Federal Communications Commission and the Federal Trade Commission have the authority to have the problem "but they won't face up to it."

"On their own hook, they have decided that it is not their problem and have decided to forget the whole thing," Rogers said.

Conservation Pacts Are Due By Friday

Scurry County farmers were reminded today that Friday is the deadline for returning their offers to the County ASC committee for conservation reserve contracts for 1960.

Henry Burchett, local ASC office manager, said the forms were mailed out Monday, and that farmers must return them by Friday afternoon.

U. N. Hears Lopez Mateos

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—President Adolfo Lopez Mateos of Mexico warned the United Nations today that a buildup of arms to save peace can only end in war.

He said the future of the United Nations depends upon a solution to the problem of disarmament.

In a speech before the 82-nation General Assembly he declared: "History teaches quite clearly that it is an illusion to believe that peace can be won and supported by instruments of war. We know that ultimately these weapons, accumulated with a desire to avoid war, will threaten peace and then irreparably shatter it."

Lopez Mateos said the big powers possessing weapons of mass destruction are "in honor bound to desist from using them."

Rains Figure In 8 Deaths

By The Associated Press

Norther-spawned rains that figured in at least eight deaths and sent streams and lakes on the rise in Central and West Texas continued to fall in sections of East and South Texas Wednesday.

Galveston, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Brownsville, Houston and Tyler reported rain or drizzle after the cold front moved into the Gulf of Mexico.

Skies cleared over northwest Texas but remained murky over the rest of the state as the front drifted south.

Forecasts call for rain and showers through Thursday in East and South Central Texas and partly cloudy to cloudy skies in other areas.

Downpours of up to seven inches turned the quick rising waterways of the Hill Country in West and Central Texas into torrents, put some roads under water and made highways slick as a freshly-waxed floor in other sections Tuesday.

Four Army officers were killed in a plane crash, three persons died in accidents on wet roads and a man was electrocuted during a rainstorm.

An Army L20 liaison aircraft plunged to earth in a driving rainstorm near Boerne Tuesday afternoon. Two officers were killed when their parachutes failed to open after they bailed out. The other two died in the plane.

A spokesman at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio identified them as the instructor, 1st Lt. Richard R. Scott, 27, Galena Park, Tex., and three 23-year-old second lieutenants—John N. Combs, Columbus, Ind.; Gerald D. Cyrus, Frankfort, Ky., and James M. Chamness, El Paso.

Clarence Raley of Lamesa and F. A. Natt of Port Arthur died when their auto slid off a highway and overturned 17 miles west of Snyder.

A headon collision of two cars near Hardwood, Tex., killed Mrs. Elsie Wehland, 52, of Cuero.

Emmett Copley Jr., 18, was electrocuted in Trinity, Tex., while operating an electric ice machine in a rainstorm.

Small craft warnings were ordered raised from Brownsville to Morgan City, La., with 20 to 30 m.p.h. winds predicted over the Gulf.

The Colorado River went on a 10.85-foot rise near San Saba and the San Saba River climbed 14.87 feet, pouring torrents in mammoth Lake Buchanan—topmost of the Lower Colorado River Authority's chain of flood control and power lakes.

Other streams rose so high that U.S. Highway 277 had to be closed north of Del Rio. The border town got 1.32 inches of rain, but the real downpour came north of there, with four to seven inches measured at Loma Alta.

Rain measurements in the Hill Country-West Texas included Sonora 2.25 inches, Eldorado 2 inches, Jones Ranch in Schleicher County 2.28, Richland Springs 4.23, Eden 1.09, Menard 2.80, San Saba 2.26, Goldthwaite 3.47, Giddings 4 inches, Bastrop 3.50, Henly and Hye 1.80 each and Elgin .80.

Rainfall reports for the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Tuesday also included Waco 2.61, Lufkin 2.48, Sherman 2.24, Junction 1.75, Tyler 1.30, College Station 1.06, Longview 1.01, Palacios .96, Austin .85, San Antonio .81, Dallas .68, Houston .67, Waco .65, Tyler .64 and Fort Worth .49.

Gainesville, Weatherford, Snyder, Lufkin, Texarkana, Kingsville, Cotulla, Alice, College Station, Houston and Childress also had rain.

Maximum temperatures ranged from 59 at Amarillo and Dalhart to 94 at Alice.

The .68 inch in Dallas gave the city its wettest October in history. The total to date is 10.96 inches, topping the 1919 record of 10.94.

Union Re-Elects Walter Reuther

By DWIGHT PITKIN

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The United Auto Workers convention has given Walter P. Reuther firm control of the 1,200,000-member union for another two-year term.

Amid the boogie and trappings of a major party political convention, the 2,500 delegates reelected Reuther president by acclamation Monday.

Re-elected with him were all the officers and executive board members.

Nominating Reuther, 52, for an eighth term, the delegates marched through the auditorium carrying placards reading "Win with Reuther." They popped balloons and set off toy flares. Red caps paraded with bells, sounded sirens and sang their union song, "Solidarity Forever."

Then they turned onto the platform to shake hands with their leader.

All other candidates nominated for top offices withdrew to make the elections unanimous.

Some of the Negro delegates, however, served notice they would insist on election of a Negro to the executive board next time.

Willoughby Abner of Chicago and Robert Battle III of Detroit were offered as Negro candidates for a vice presidency. Both withdrew.

In nominating Abner, delegate Horace Sheffield of Detroit said Negroes are sick and tired of being told to wait until they have a qualified candidate for a high-level office.

"It is not necessary to be a Rhodes scholar to sit on the executive board," he said.

In withdrawing as a candidate, Battle said he was prompted by Reuther's promise "that progress will be made in the near future to put a Negro on the board."

The UAW has several hundred thousand Negro members.

Reuther first was elected president of the UAW in 1946.

Re-elected with him were Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey, Vice Presidents Leonard Woodcock, Richard T. Gosser, Pat Greathouse and Norman Matthews, Canadian Region Director George Burt and 27 U.S. regional directors, who make up the executive board.

The convention earmarked $.25 of the $5 rate to build up the strike fund. When the new rate goes into effect, union members no longer will have to pay a $2 special strike assessment.

Big Rocket Being Built

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (AP) — A giant rocket capable of orbiting a satellite carrying a "busload of trained observers" is being developed by the United States, Maj. Gen. [illegible] said here Tuesday night.

Medaris, chief of the Army's missile program, told the Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance Agents Convention that the rocket's clustered engines will provide a combined level of thrust about four times greater than this country's largest intercontinental ballistics missile.

Medaris did not specify if he was referring to the Army's Saturn rocket or some other missile under development. The Saturn being built at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala., will be capable of a 1½-million pound thrust. The Atlas, now the nation's most powerful rocket, has a thrust of 350,000 pounds.

Texas has 555 hospitals, more than any other state.

Brush Fire Rages Near Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A brush fire fanned by strong winds swarmed across Arroyo Seco Canyon today, devouring acres of valuable watershed and menacing foothill communities north of Los Angeles.

The east side of the fire, which has consumed some 1,200 acres, raged to within 1½ miles of the Caltech jet propulsion laboratory, a key center in space research. But the laboratory was not considered in any immediate danger.

Flames lit the slate-gray hills overlooking the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, south of the blaze.

The fire is blazing along a 15-mile perimeter. A spokesman for the county fire department said it is believed the blaze was caused by a careless smoker. He did not elaborate.

Two fiery fingers of the southern front pierced the northern edges of the fashionable foothill community of La Canada, 30 miles north of Los Angeles. Flames damaged several homes.

The La Canada home of wealthy contractor Guy F. Atkinson was severely damaged. Atkinson estimated the loss at about $50,000.

The flames also routed actor Dennis Morgan and his wife from their two-bedroom stone guest house, across the street from Atkinson's home.

The husky actor and his wife went to an emergency evacuation center, set up by the Red Cross at Flintridge Preparatory School.

About 200 to 300 residents were evacuated but most of them returned by daybreak as the threat to La Canada eased.

Associated Press reporter Howard C. Heyn watched the fire from a command post about 1,000 feet from the flames and reported: "Flames were leaping into the air, 30 to 50 feet high. I saw a wall of flames coming down a ridge toward town, then flames on succeeding ridges.

"The fire looked strangely beautiful in the nighttime air, lighting up the sky as though it were day light."

The fire started Tuesday in dense brush alongside Angeles Crest Highway, which winds through scenic Angeles National Forest and then down to the desert.

Four firefighters have been injured, one critically.

Forest Service crewman Patrick Bridge, 25, was struck in the stomach by the butt of a tree he felled.

Resident Reports House Is Entered

Dale Remy, who resides on Ave. R. between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, reported to Snyder police this morning that someone had entered his house during the night. Forcible entry was not made, police said, and nothing was missing, according to Remy, who is employed by the E. L. Farmer and Co. trucking firm.

Mrs. W. H. Clark, 2211 Thirtieth, reported that her daughter lost a pair of blue plastic, harlequin-type spectacles recently somewhere around the Snyder square.

Texas has 15,212 miles of railroad trackage; Rhode Island 181 miles.

Two Cases Dismissed

Two motions for dismissal of criminal charges—both involving bad checks and separate defendants—were signed today by County Judge J. Ray Martin. The motions were submitted by County Attorney George Killam, Jr.

Motions acted on included those filed Feb. 11, 1959, on J. D. Goode Jr. on a check allegedly given Rudy Crabtree No. 8, 1958, for $25; August 28, 1959, for a check allegedly given June 25, 1959, to R. E. Patterson, owner of the Snyder Drug, for $28.

Other county records showed today Joe Chevalier was assessed a $10 fine and $23.50 costs Oct. 8 in a case charging the defendant with "obtaining money by worthless check." The case was filed Sept. 21, 1959, and included evidence of a $10 check given several months ago to the Sunbeam Grocery, Snyder.

New Law Goes Into Effect

The revised portions of Texas' marriage license law go into effect Thursday.

Under the new provisions, applicants under the legal age (21 for men, 18 for women) must bring their parents or guardian when applying for a license. Under the old law, a letter-of-consent, if notarized, was sufficient.

And, all applicants, both bride and bridegroom-to-be, must appear to make application. Formerly the license could be issued to one for both.

Futhermore, all applicants must have with them at time of application a state-certified or state-issued driver's license, passport, visa, birth certificate or other documentary evidence stating the applicant's full name and correct age.

One highlight of the new law is the three-day waiting period between application and issuance of the license. This applies only to persons under the legal age, however.

The usual medical blood-test certificate is still required, it was pointed out.

Religious Program Given At Women's Culture Club

Mrs. L. O. Bynum was hostess to the Women's Culture Club when it met Tuesday afternoon at the Martha Ann Woman's Club.

The president, Mrs. A. C. Martin presided over the business session.

"Religions in Texas Under Seven Flags" was the subject for the program led by Mrs. M. L. Andress. In the introduction she gave the history of Texas under the seven flags.

Mrs. W. E. Doak spoke on the "Missions of Texas". In part she said:

"The Spanish Missions in Texas were religious institutions, but they were designed, primarily to supplement the presidio in holding and extending Spanish Dominion.

"One of the first missions established in Texas was in the northeastern part of Houston county near the Neches river. The various missions were agencies of the state as well as the church and their purpose was two-fold. First, to convert the Indians, and second to extend, hold and civilized the frontier.

The Spanish crown hoped to counter-act foreign influence among the Indians, deter them from invading the interior settlement, and secure from them aid in holding back more distant tribes and foreign intruders.

"Later the missions became not only christian seminaries, but industrial and agricultural schools as well".

Mrs. T. W. Pollard gave the history of christain denominations in Texas. In substance she said:

"The fall of the Alamo, the massacre of Goliad and the battle of San Jacinto have been memorialized in song, story and serious literature effort, numberless times. However, until Jesse Guy Smith wrote 'Heroes of the Saddle Bag', little has been written to record the efforts, or to perpetuate the memory of those equally intepid and courageous pioneers who, as circuit riders in the cause of the Prince of Peace, rode forth to found churches and preach christian religion during the era of the Texas Revolution and the Republic.

"Records show that William Stephenson, Washington and Green Orr began preaching and organizing societies of the Methodist faith as early as 1818, south of Red River in Texas.

"One of the most prominent Methodist leaders in Texas, who began his work during the colonial period but lived and worked far into the republic, was John Wesley Kenney.

"The first Baptist work done in Texas was by a preacher, Joseph Bays, who came from Missouri in June 1820, and settled on the Sabine river.

"Possibly no religious leader has left a deeper imprint in east Texas than Daniel Parker and his pilgrim church. Another early Baptist minister worthy of note was Rufus C. Burleson, who reached Texas one year after the Republic had come to an end. He became pastor of the Baptist Church at Houston, and later became president of Baylor University at Waco.

"Like the Methodist and Baptists, it was along Red River that the first Presbyterians preached in Texas. Among the first of this denomination to arrive in Texas was Sumner Bacon, who came in 1828 or 29, passing out Bibles, and tracts and occasional preaching. In 1836 Andrew Jackson McGown came and he and Bacon earnestly went to work to establish their church in the new republic.

"The camp meeting became the most famous of the religious assemblies. It's influence was profound. The class of preachers of these different denominations were meek and humble men, with very low views of themselves, but high and exalted views of Christ, the Savior. They came to Texas, not seeking honor nor wealth for themselves, but to glorify their Lord. This is the mission spirit that all should believe and rejoice in".

—Refreshments were served by the hostess to 19 members.

Red Blackmail Scheme

THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE

By means of a "parcel blackmail" system the Communists make even the suffering and privation of their subjugated peoples an asset by exacting tribute from Americans seeking to aid friends and relatives behind the iron curtain.

Communist regimes do not permit CARE or similar organizations to operate within the Soviet Union of the satellite countries. Instead, agents are maintained in the United States to collect exorbitant duties and fees ranging up to 250 per cent of the value of the relief parcels sent behind the iron curtain by American citizens.

The House un-American activities committee has found that Americans have by way of this blackmail paid the Communists at least $70,000,000 in exorbitant duties and fees. A similar operation in Canada is said to net between $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 annually — figures that indicate the House committee's estimate is low.

Money thus collected by the Communist party in Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Hungary is used to further the Reds' operations in the free world.

This blackmail operation proves that even in the alleviation of human misery, the Communists cheat and steal. The individual is unimportant to them except as a means for furthering the objectives of the state — of which the primary one is to conquer the free world from which it exacts the blackmail dollar.

Boys In Cuba Try To Do Men's Work

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

They are getting downright statesmanlike in Havana these days.

For example, Jules Dubois, the correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, is now entitled to eat again.

This decision of the Cuban Federation of Hotel and Restaurant Workers undoubtedly was referred first to the highest authority. It had forbidden its members to serve food or drink to the Chicagoan because it didn't like what he had been writing about the rule of Fidel Castro.

This change of heart on the part of the patriotic bosses of the waiters' union coincided with the arrival in Havana of delegates to the annual convention of travel agents. Only a churl would suggest that this coincidence had anything to do with the decision.

Dubois had written ably and hopefully about the Cuban revolution before the New Year's Day fall of the Fulgencio Batista dictatorship. If ever a nation had needed a revolution, it had been Cuba. But many a well - wisher was to learn that the only way to get along with Castro was to agree with him all the way on all things.

The abandonment of an attempt to starve a critic out of the country hints, however faintly, at the appearance of some logic in the upper reaches of the Castro revolution. It is possible now that the logic will be carried a few steps further.

It would be a welcome development, for example, if the leader of the revolution would get a shave and get out of uniform. A prime minister in uniform smacks of the same old trouble with which Cuba had ben afflicted so many times before.

It would be noteworthy, too, if Castro would lay aside the pistol he totes with him about the city, or that rifle with the telescopic sight he likes to carry with him when he ventures outside Havana.

It would be even more worthy of note if he would put an end to his constant whining about the United States and his habit of stirring up anti-American agitation to cover up his own shortcomings.

It would be healthy if he abandoned his attempts to regiment the young people of the country into goose-stepping, disciplined little mobsters, taught that their duty to the state is to squeal on neighbors and relatives.

It would be logical for Castro to take steps to prevent Cuba from drowning in seas of economic red tape and incompetence. There are a lot of boys in the Cuban government trying to do men's jobs.

Fidel Castro someday might even persuade his 30-year-old brother Raul, who boasts the magnificent title of commander in chief of the armed forces, to cut off his pony tail and consider the swashbuckling stage of the revolution at an end.

Above all, it would be a heartening development if Fidel Castro would stop trying to muzzle the press and his critics. Maybe there's hope. After all, one critic is being allowed to eat again.

Boyington's Wife Granted Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gregory (Pappy) Boyington, 48, was divorced Tuesday on grounds of mental cruelty.

The former Frances Reiman, 45, testifying against the World War II Marine colonel who shot down 26 Japanese planes, said he frequently stayed away from their home without explanation. She said he sometimes went into tantrums.

Under their divorce settlement she gets half the proceeds of Boyington's autobiography and the movie version of it, and a split from a television series he is doing.

Jobless Roll Is Still A Problem

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The high total of those out of jobs is still a problem to lick.

Seasonal factors color the report for September by the Labor Department. Outside work is slackening off, releasing many who want work only in the summer, and students are returning to school. This cuts the labor force.

The report for October will give a more accurate view of what the steel strike and other factors are doing to the unemployment problem.

The steel strike is causing an increasing number of men and women to be laid off in plants where steel supplies have run low or run out. But these workers know that when steel is on hand again they'll be back on the job.

Part of the trouble goes deeper. The economy is producing all it needs or wants to consume without the use of all those looking for work.

The answer usually given to this is to counsel patience. In time consumer demands will catch up and need more workers. This is small comfort to those out of work now. And besides there are many thousands more growing up and entering the labor force.

Another answer is that there is always a certain number out of work because they are between jobs. Doing seasonal work as in farming, they move from area to area, from job to job.

And some of the more cynical or hard boiled say it's good for the economy to have a pool of unemployed to draw upon when demand for their labor develops quickly in one industry or all other.

Some even more cynical say that the growth of relief programs may have dulled the urge to hunt for jobs or at least a tendency to be choosy about them.

However figures on unemployment have to be read with all these things in mind.

Mechanization is making it possible for many plants to make more products faster and with less men. Quite naturally, this is less than welcomed by all the workers in the plant before the new machines came along.

This is one of the issues dividing management and labor in the steel strike.

Economists point out that the history of mechanization has been that in time it actually creates more jobs, if not necessarily in the plant in question. But that takes time. And the union man with a family to feed, right now has small taste for the long wait while things work out.

Parents Get Tired Of Hearing This

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Teen-age remarks that parents get tired of hearing—or overhearing:

"I'll do it later."

"The trouble with you and Dad is that you've forgotten what it's like to be young."

"Hey, Sis, I hear Dad got a five-buck raise. Let's ask him to double our allowance."

"I know it's a weekend night, Joe, but you'd better go now—even if it is early. The old folks need their rest."

"Hey, Mom, can I borrow $19.95 to take this muscle — building course by mail?"

"Mother, pul-l-lease act your age. You can't wear a dress that short. It makes you look ridiculous."

"You think the pictures in your family album are funny? Boy, wait'll you take a look at ours."

"What makes all parents such squares? Were they born that way?"

"Sure, I said I'd cut the grass and I will — tomorrow, when it's cloudy. You don't want a fellow to get sunstroke, do you?"

"You know how hard Dad says he had to study when he was a kid? Well, I found one of his old high school report cards in the attic and guess what."

"Tell me, Mom, what was life really like in the old days, when you were young?"

"What's wrong with me, Mom? Here I am 13 — and not even going steady."

"Yeah, I'm looking for a job after school, too — about five years after."

"I don't see why you're so shocked at what I wrote in my diary. I found some of your old love letters and."

"Why can't I? Every other kid my age does."

"Every family in the block has a new car but us."

"If you think I tie up the phone so much, why can't I have a phone of my own?"

"Papa, what's a depression?"

"Yeah, and they danced something called 'the Charleston' and 'the Big Apple,' and made fudge in the kitchen. Weren't they quaint?"

"Wonder what Dad looked like when he had hair. Was he hand some?"

"He says that since it's Saturday night we can stay out until midnight. Big deal!"

"Well, if the television's broke I guess I might as well do my homework."

"Go on, Dad, the walk'll do you and Mom good. I can't spare the car tonight."

"What do you and Pop know about love anyway?"

Knife-Wielding Youth Is Sought

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—Police are hunting for a knife-wielding youth who robbed a beauty parlor and then raped a woman in the shop on the city's busiest street.

The victims told police the white youth entered the shop on Broadway Tuesday, flicked open a pocket knife and robbed the cash register of $12. Then he tore towels into strips, bound the lone customer and two operators, forced them into a back room, and assaulted one of the women.

THE BIG QUESTION—The big question mark in the background illustrates the suspense at Snyder High School as the race for homecoming queen progresses. The queen will be crowned and runners-up introduced at half-time ceremonies during the Snyder-Levelland football game Friday night. The candidates, from left, are Gretchen Short, Carla Gladson, Sherene Gladson, Peggy Ferguson and Camilla Roberts. (Katherine Northcutt photograph)

Students Planning For Homecoming

Plans are nearing completion on the Snyder High School campus for the annual homecoming celebration scheduled for Friday.

The event will come to a climax Friday night when the Snyder High School Tigers meet the Levelland Lobos in their annual football game.

The homecoming queen will be crowned during half-time ceremonies at the football game. T. E. McCollum, superintendent of schools, will crown the homecoming queen, and Don Montgomery will serve as crown bearer.

A reception for all ex-students of Snyder High School has been set for 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Friday in the high school cafeteria.

The queen candidates and their escorts are Gretchen Short and Mike LaFountain; Carla Gladson and Bill Murphy; Sherene Gladson and Richard Robinson; Peggy Ferguson and Darnell Boyde; and Camilla Roberts and Tim Williamson.

Families Of Strikers On Rock Bottom

MORRISVILLE, Pa. (AP) — "It's getting difficult. As a matter of fact we are at rock bottom, although there are other families far worse off than we are."

This, explains Helen Galambos, 33, is how the steel strike has affected her family. Her husband is one of the 6,100 employes on strike at U.S. Steel Corp. Fairless Works. They have a 6½-month-old daughter.

Mrs. Galambos says they are a month behind on their mortgage payments and have not been able to pay other bills.

"We're cutting on food where we can," she adds. "We are not eating the way we used to. Many of our meals are stews. We are buying less meat and when we do get it, it's the cheaper grades."

Many other families like the Galambos are in financial trouble. Mortgages are going unpaid. Bills are piling up. Christmas is approaching and there's no money for childrens' toys.

But the wives are not pressuring their husbands to rush into a settlement. Most take the position that their husbands, since they've been out this long, might just as well stay out a little longer until they get what they want.

Margaret Gribbin, 28, feels that President Eisenhower "should have stepped in before this" to effect a settlement.

"Too many families are hard up for food, clothing and money to have allowed this thing to go this far," she declares. "As far as the strike is concerned I think the men are right. They are trying to take away things that the men fought for years to get."

Mary Riblett, 35, says her family is two months behind on the mortgage and they are being carried by the milkman and the baker.

"We're about $500 in the hole," she explains. "It will take more than a year after the strike is over for us to catch up. We've cut down on milk and pastries. We're living on a week-to-week basis. We can't go much more than a month longer."

Snyderites Are In Magazine Photograph

Two Snyderites appear in a photograph in the current issue of Look Magazine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Huddleston are pictured in connection with an article on married students at Cornell University.

Huddleston is doing graduate work at Cornell on a fellowship and is scheduled to receive his doctor's degree next February.

How Brigitte Met Queen

By NADEANE WALKER

PARIS (AP)—Madame Ginette Spanier, English director of the Balmain fashion house, told the secret today of how she made Brigitte Bardot cover up for her presentation to Queen Elizabeth II.

In a speech to a Paris fashion group she quoted the sexy French star as crying: "If Marilyn (Monroe) shows more than me, I'll kill myself."

The American actress was presented at the same audience.

Madame Spanier said it took an hour and a half to persuade Brigitte to wear a dress with a modest neckline and a skirt wide enough to curtsy in, and another hour to teach her to curtsy. The dress finally had a shutter-type decolletage that could be raised at the Queen's approach, she said.

Separated Twins Are Eating Well

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Jeanett Stubblefield today is breathing more easily than at any time since she was separated from her Siamese twin sister a week ago Tuesday.

While both still remain on the critical list, they are beginning to eat well.

Denett is up to 4½ ounces of formula every three hours. Jeanett's diet Tuesday was jumped from 2 to 4 ounces every three hours.

Permits For Spike Heels

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Spike heels are illegal in Mobile but a way is provided for women to wear them without breaking the law.

Women will be given a permit which will relieve the city of responsibility in any accidents resulting from falls on city strets and sidewalks. The free permit would apply for all spike heels a woman owns.

An ordinance adopted by the city commissioners bans heels higher than 1½ inches which are less than an inch in diameter.

The ordinance was proposed last week after the commissioners were told that about 50 damage suits had been filed against the city during the past two years by women who had fallen on streets and sidewalks.

Probation Urged For Prostitute

DALLAS (AP)—Lisa York, a trim brunette prostitute from Fort Worth, was found guilty Tuesday of three charges which grew out of a near-riot in the Federal Courthouse here last spring.

The all-male jury recommended probation after finding her guilty on charges of disturbing the peace, resisting arrest and assault on federal officers who tried to quiet her and two other women who became unruly during a grand jury probe of North Texas vice.

Probation was recommended on grounds that she has gotten married and given up being a prostitute. U.S. Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson will hear a report from probation officers Monday.

Tregoff Fails In Her Latest Bid

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Carole Tregoff has failed in her latest maneuver to escape prosecution in the fatal shooting of her lover's wife.

Her request for a writ of prohibition was denied Tuesday by Judge Walter J. Fourt of the 2nd Dist. Court of Appeal.

Miss Tregoff, 22, is accused along with Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 41, of slaying Finch's wife Barbara, 33, last July outside the luxurious Finch home in suburban West Covina.

Judge Fourt denied the request for a writ without comment.

Actor Is Arrested

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Edward G. Robinson Jr., 26, was arrested and charged with drunkenness Tuesday night. Police said they found him in an alley.

School Homework Chore For Parents

HOPKINGTON, R.I. (AP)—Parents, not pupils, find homework burdensome, according to a member of the Hopkington School Board which Tuesday agreed to parents' contention children were overworked. The board limited home study to two hours.

The unconvinced board member, Paul MacKay, himself a teacher, said:

"The main trouble is the parents have to do the work for the kids. That's where the squawk comes in."

Man Convicted Of Assault On Negro

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — A 23-year-old white man was convicted of assault with intent to rape a Negro girl, and a white jury set his punishment at a three-year suspended sentence.

Jimmy Donald Casey Tuesday pleaded innocent to the charge involving a 16-year-old girl who had been baby-sitting at the home of a friend of Casey's when the attack allegedly occurred last July 16.

The maximum penalty on the charge is 21 years in prison.

Short and sweet! Engine's in the rear—where it belongs in a compact car. With more weight on rear wheels, you get extra road-gripping traction for cornering and driving on ice, mud or snow. Styling of both 4-door models is clean and uncluttered . . . as fresh and functional as modern architecture.

AIR COOLED

You never have to fuss with antifreeze. Turbo-Air 6 warms up quicker, with less wear on parts. Airplane-type heater* goes to work almost instantly. *Optional at extra cost.

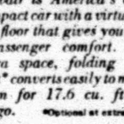
UNISTRUT BODY BY FISHER

Body and frame are combined into a single rigidly constructed unit that reduces Corvair's weight, enlarges its passenger space.

Practically FLAT FLOOR



Corvair is America's only compact car with a virtually flat floor that gives you full 6-passenger comfort. For extra space, folding rear seat converts easily to make room for 17.6 cu. ft. of cargo.* *Optional at extra cost.

TRUNK'S UP FRONT

Lots of luggage space under the hood, where it's convenient for groceries, packages.

NEARLY 3 FEET SHORTER

Corvair's almost 5 inches lower, 1,300 pounds lighter, too. Its compact size makes it a joy to jockey through traffic, a pleasure to park. No need for power assists.

MERCURY FOR 1960—The 1960 Mercury is both distinstive and functionally clean in design. The car's soft, smooth ride is the result of the blending of body, frame, suspension, engine and transmission into a completely road-turned car. The new Mercury will be on display in Snyder tomorrow at Wilson Motors, 1615 Twenty - sixth Street.

Wilson To Show '60 Mercury Here

Wilson Motors, 1615 Twenty-sixth Street, will display the Mercury for 1960 tomorrow in its showrooms at 1615 Twenty-sixth Street.

A completely road-tuned car, distinctively styled and functionally clean in design is offered by Mercury in its 13 new models for 1960. Body, frame, suspension, engine and transmission are precisely blended to provide a new standard in riding comfort.

Many important design changes were made in Mercury's three V-8 engines to improve both economy and performance and give greater reliability and smoother, quieter operation. All engines have two-barrel carburetors which save fuel, and two of the engines are designed for maximum performance with regular gasoline.

All models of the 1960 Mercury have a wheelbase of 126 inches, permitting a greater length between wheels, with a resultant improvement in occupant comfort. Continuing a feature introduced to the industry by Mercury last year, the 1960 models have a low transmission and driveshaft tunnel.

"Mercury engineers have succeeded in completely insulating the body of the car from the running gear, resulting in an exceptionally smooth ride," said Ben D. Mills, vice president of Ford Motor Company and general manager of the passengers are protected from noise, vibration and harshness by rubber, butyl and other effective insulating materials at every point where the body is attached to the frame or to other chassis components.

"In addition, every individual moving part is engineered to make Mercury the quietest car in its field," Mills said.

Mercury's exterior styling is completely new and is characterized by softer lines in its new hood, fenders, quarter panels, rear deck and doors.

The broad front bumper serves as a foundation for the air-gathering grille with bright concave vertical bars. The body side moulding includes the door handle as a contained part. At the rear, the lines of the deck fall off fast to meet the downward sweep of the upper surface of the quarter panel. The low tail lights are canted slightly outboard.

The upper body features a big, full-vision windshield. Hardtop "cruiser" models have a sloping roof, and sedan models have a flat, crisp roof with rear overhang.

Interior trim schemes are all new. New fabrics — all with 100 per cent nylon face — are offered. Metallic vinyls complement the bodycloth. Fifteen exterior colors and 36 two-tones are offered in super enamels which have more initial hardness and longer lasting wear.

In Mercury's 312 cubic inch engine, a re-shaped combustion chamber was engineered to improve efficiency. This engine has a compression ratio of 8.9 to 1, a rated horsepower of 265 at 4000 rpm and torque of 328 at 2100 rpm. The Mercury Marauder 383 cubic inch engine has an 8.5 to 1 compression ratio, 280 horsepower at 4200 and torque of 405 at 2200 rpm. These two engines give additional economy by operating on regular grade gasoline.

Oil Heiress Files Suit For Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Oil heiress Virginia Sinclair Mdivani has sued Georgian Prince David Mdivani for divorce, alleging cruelty. She is 44, he 59. They have been married 15 years but separated in 1956.

Simultaneously with the filing of the suit Tuesday the court issued an order restraining Prince David from molesting his wife or disposing of certain properties pending a hearing. He once was married to actress Mae Murray.

Gas Pipeline Recommended

WASHINGTON (AP)—A recommendation was issued Tuesday that three companies be permitted to build nearly 10 million dollars worth of pipeline facilities so they can buy natural gas from Texas fields.

The decision by Power Commission Examiner Harry W. Frazee would grant 20 independent producers authority to sell gas to two of the pipeline companies. It will become final if no review is initiated within 30 days.

The companies are Pioneer Gathering System, Inc., of Amarillo, Permian Basin Gas Pipeline Co., Omaha, and El Paso Natural Gas Co., El Paso.

Pioneer would build $3,674,100 worth of facilities to receive gas from producers in a number of areas, to transport gas for El Paso under an exchange agreement and to deliver gas to Permian.

El Paso would construct $849,000 worth of facilities to carry out the exchange agreement with Pioneer.

Permian's project would involve $4,702,200 worth of facilities to receive gas from Pioneer. Permian plans to sell the gas to its parent, Northern Natural Gas Co., also of Omaha.

Water District Is Abolished By Vote

NEWTON, Tex. (AP)—A special vote here Tuesday went 1301-1280 in favor of abolishing the Newton County Water Supply District, unofficial returns indicated today.

The district was created in 1955 by the Legislature to allow construction of reservoirs in the county.

15-Year-Old Girl Captures Most Southern Governors

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — If pretty Janice Smiley lives to be a hundred she'll never forget the Southern governors conference. Most of the governors won't forget her either.

Janice, 15 and cute as a bunny in her plaid longies and white sweat shirt, stole the show at the meeting of the Southern chief executives.

Bouncing all over the place, she kidded the heads of state. She made faces at Gov. Luther H. Hodges of North Carolina, who mugged back.

Then she persuaded Hodges to dance the Charleston with her.

She threatened to shove Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas off a precipice.

She won an invitation to be a house guest at the home of Delaware Gov. Caleb Boggs and his daughter, Marilu, 13.

Her animated chatter brought smiles to the politicos. Most of them thought she was another governor's daughter or granddaughter.

Truth is, Janice had never before met a real live governor. Her daddy is manager of a men's clothing store.

Another truth is that Janice crashed the bigtime meeting.

More than anything else she wants to be on the staff of the Lee Edwards High School newspaper. Her teacher laughingly told her it might help if she'd wait outside the governors' hotel and interview one of them.

So Janice trotted into the swank Grove Park Inn Monday and strode up to Alabama Gov. John Patterson.

"This," she said to a friend, "is my cute li'l ole governor from Alabama and that's where I used to live, sir, and do you know—"

Gov. Patterson later admitted, "She completely snowed me. That's quite a sharp young lady. She mentioned some prominent people in Birmingham."

The Alabama governor doesn't quite know how it happened, but he invited Janice to come to a big funfest, reception, banquet and dance that night, at which North Carolina was the host.

It was at a Mt. Mitchell luncheon that she persuaded Gov. Hodges and other chief executives to "live it up a little" by dancing on a bandstand.

Hodges accepted her dare to do the Charleston.

"I had no idea I could do it," said Hodges.

"Golly, you're real cool," said Janice.

Mexico Seeks American In Slaying Case

MONTERREY, Mexico (AP)—State police are seeking a young American in connection with the roadside slaying of a Monterrey girl and her brother.

Marta Villa Gomez, 21, and her 14-year-old brother Raul were shot to death and another sister, Hilda, 18, seriously wounded after their auto developed engine trouble Tuesday night between Nuevo Laredo, on the Texas border, and Sabinas Hidalgo, 60 miles north of Monterrey.

The three were returning with an older brother, Dr. Raul Perez Villa Gomez, from a visit to San Antonio, Tex., when their engine stalled. Dr. Villa Gomez hitched a ride to Sabinas Hidalgo to get a tow truck, leaving the others behind.

Hilda, wounded five times in the chest, told police this story of subsequent developments:

An auto stopped and a young man with blonde hair got out and asked the trio in English why they were stopped. Hilda tried to explain the situation in Spanish but the man appeared not to understand and then she told him in English.

The stranger then asked the two girls to go for a ride with him. When they refused, he angrily pulled out a pistol and began shooting, then drove away.

Hilda said the slayer's car was a late model blue sedan. Police said they assumed the man was American because of his apparent inability to understand Spanish.

Highway patrols set up check points in the area immediately after a motorist discovered the victims and notified police. Officials at the U.S. border also were alerted.

Police said there was no indication of robbery or of any attempt to rape the girls.

Benson Will Tell Quotas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson will announce marketing quotas for the 1960 cotton crop by Thursday.

He also will announce the date of a grower referendum on the quotas, which must be approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting. The referendum must be held by Dec. 15.

The quota will be translated into acreage allotments for apportionment among growers. The allotment is expected to be about the same as last year's 16,300,000 acres.

Price supports for the 1960 crop will decline under provisions of the law. This year they were 80 per cent of parity or an average inch middling base grade for growers complying with allotments and 65 per cent of parity or 24.7 cents for growers who elected to overplant by 40 per cent.

Next year the supports will be 75 per cent of parity or about 28.45 cents for those planting allotments and 60 per cent or 22.76 cents for those electing to overplant.

Between You And Me

By JERRY JACKSON

Reports filtering in from Abilene indicate that ex-Tiger star Joe Baxter is making quite a name for himself over on the McMurry Indian reservation. Baxter, one of four homegrown products playing for McMurry at the present time, is a freshman in classification, even though he graduated from Snyder High several years ago. In the meantime, he worked a couple of years for his rich Uncle Sam as a Marine Corpsman, and only recently enrolled at the Abilene school.

The Indians are flying high through the first half of the season, having won four of five contests played, and a large measure of their success can be attributed to Baxter's play. He is tied for the team lead in rushing yardage accumulated, having picked up 243 yards on 53 carries, for a 4.6 yard average.

Verification of his value to Redskin fortunes was sent out by way of the McMurry news service, which had this to say: "McMurry wasn't too impressive in its 20-7 victory over Southwest Texas State. Terry O'Brien, the nation's number two total offensive leader, completed only four of 14 attempts for 64 yards. His aim was bad and his receivers were off key. It took the Indians' second unit, sparked by freshman fullback Joe Baxter, to pull the Bobcat tilt out of the fire. Baxter scored once from the five and later from the 23-yard stripe."

Lobos Pose Tough Nut To Crack

THE LEVELLAND LOBOS, who will go against Snyder's Tigers here this Friday, will bring with them a real whing-dinger of a record to try and uphold. Their only loss to date was a 6-7 edging by Breckenridge, whereas they sport victories over Brownfield, Monahans, Artesia (New Mexico), and Andrews.

The Lobos will probably be installed a slight favorite, in that they are rated third in state in class AAA behind Breckenridge and Nederland, whereas the Tigers rest in the number 10 slot. However, comparative scores would tend to give the locals an edge. The only other common foe of both teams to date other than Breckenridge, who downed the Bengals by 22-20, has been Andrews. Levelland slipped by the Mustangs 20-12 this past Friday, while Snyder walloped the same bunch to the tune of 37-8 early in the season.

Abe A Philosophic Sort

ABE MARTIN, Frog coach, said it. "Somebody said Tech 'outhit' us. I don't give a darn about 'outhitting' the other team. I just want to outscore 'em."

CONFIDENTIAL TO H. F.—My advice would be to go ahead and tell her, so that you won't start out with that particular skeleton in your closet. Degradation, just like everything else, has a certain low point. After all, one cannot fall out of a well, now, can one??

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP) — Football coaches get hung in effigy when their best calculations prove wrong but football forecasters just take on another list of games. Here's the newest batch of picks with the warning that 14 of 56 selections were wrong last weekend for a .750 average.

Louisiana State over Kentucky: The Wildcats have fallen on lean days while LSU has won 16 in a row and should make it 17 with ease.

Northwestern over Michigan: Perhaps by as much as two touchdowns.

Texas over Arkansas: Texas speed to prevail over Arkansas stubbornness.

Auburn over Georgia Tech: The Plainsmen will try to make everyone forget they lost their opener to Tennessee by a field goal.

Mississippi over Tulane: It is the Mississippi homecoming.

Purdue over Ohio State: The Buckeyes have been shut out in their last two games. It could be three straight after this bruiser.

Southern California over Washington: Two unbeaten West Coast titans. The Trojans rested last week.

Syracuse over Holy Cross: Two more unbeaten clubs. Syracuse gets revenge for one-point setbacks the past two seasons.

Elsewhere:

Wisconsin over Iowa; Penn State over Boston University; Illinois over Minnesota; Tennessee over Alabama; Southern Methodist over Rice; Air Force over Oregon; Army over Duke.

FRIDAY

Utah over Denver, Navy over Miami of Florida.

New Mexico State Leads BC Stats

By The Associated Press

New Mexico State is making a shambles of Border Conference efforts of its mighty pervis Atkins.

Atkins tops the league in rushing, scoring and total offense and is the national leader in rushing and scoring.

Atkins has rolled up 547 yards carrying the ball on 76 runs. He came closest to being stopped last week when Trinity held him to 61 yards but maintained a 7.2 average.

He leads total offense with his passing yardage, and his 5 points is 19 better than anybody else in the conference.

Adding to New Mexico State's domination is Charley Johnson, who tops the passers with 37 completions in 75 attempts for 463 yards.

Sammy Oates of Hardin-Simmons leads the pass receivers with 14 catches for 134 yards. The punting leader is Al Zuger of Arizona State with a 49.8-yard average.

Arizona State dominates the team statistics, leading in total offense with 364 yards per game and in defense by allowing 271 per outing.

Coach John Elated Over Buck Showing

In the Quarterback Club Meeting of last night, Coach John Conley was very high in praise of the Tigers in their showing against Breckenridge. He commended their team effort in particular, emphasizing that every boy who played did a bang-up job throughout the game.

Of special note in his talk was the exceptional play of guard Tommy Minton, end Barry Walker, and quarterback Dick Hayes. "He (Hayes) did as fine a job of calling the game as any high school quarterback I've ever seen," stated Conley, and commented that it wasn't necessary to "second-guess" his engineering of the plays at any time during the game.

Conley's talk was followed by scouting reports on the forthcoming Levelland game of this Friday. Coaches J. P. Ward and V. V. Shearburn presented rundowns on the offensive and defensive setups, respectively, of the Levelland club.

The meeting was concluded with a showing of the Snyder-Breckenridge game film.

Ring Picture Still Muddled

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — A heavy cloud today hung over the proposed return world heavyweight championship bout between Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson in the wake of findings by the New York State Athletic Commission.

After hearing 800 pages of testimony on the manipulations of the promotion of the first fight last June 26, the commission Tuesday:

1. Directed Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, and Bill Rosensohn, promoter of the bout along with his former organization, Rosensohn Enterprises, to show cause why their licenses should not be revoked.

2. Banned Charles Antonucci (Charlie Black) from promoting or even attending a fight in New York state.

3. Recommended that the state Legislature enact a law requiring the licensing of the company or individual who controls the television, radio and movie rights to fights.

The action left the future of the return bout up in the air. Johansson, who is making a movie in Helena, Mont., declined comment, but a spokesman said he still was willing to fight Patterson if the mess is cleaned up.

One direct result of the commission's findings is that the return won't be held in New York. Vincent Velella, the current head of Rosensohn Enterprises, is not licensed in New York, so the commission couldn't bar him. By revoking the license of Rosensohn Enterprises, it achieved the same result.

Actually, Rosensohn, Rosensohn Enterprises and D'Amato all have an opportunity to go before the commission and make their pleas before their licenses are revoked permanently.

But it appeared that only Rosensohn wanted to go down fighting. He said he would request a hearing. D'Amato never answered the commission's call to testify despite dire warnings.

The commission hearing was called when it developed that Rosensohn actually owned only one-third of Rosensohn Enterprises and that the other two-thirds was held by Velella. Rosensohn eventually was tossed out by Vellella who brought in Irving Kahn, who held the TV, radio and movie rights.

The commission, in a 3,000-word statement, also criticized Rosensohn for accepting a $10,000 loan from Tony Salerno, whom it described as a shady character, and for failing to tell of Velella's role in the promotion.

It also said D'Amato or his corporation, Floyd Patterson Enterprises were partners with TelePromTer (Kahn's company) in the TV, radio and movie rights. Finally, it blasted D'Amato for dictating appointments of promoters and managers in many of Patterson's fights.

Black was barred apparently because he worked for D'Amato.

Where does that leave the fight?

"I still have the contract for the return," said Velella. "We will change the name of our organization to Feature Sports, Inc. and will hold the fight somewhere other than in New York. We have four or five other cities under consideration.

BLONDE TRIES OUT FOR TRACK TEAM—Pretty 16-year-old blonde Kathleen Stringer, an all-A student at Livonia Bentley High School near Detroit, has the athletic coaches in a quandary. Kathy wants to be on the track team but the coaches have been trying to "discourage her in a nice way." Kathy can run the 50-yard dash in 6.5 seconds, does comparably well in other events. She is confident she can beat the boys in the running events. (AP Wirephoto)

North Texas Leads In Total Offense

NEW YORK (AP) — The defense in college football is catching up with the offense.

Statistics compiled by the NCAA Service Bureau today reveal that the offensive leaders have gained less ground and scored fewer points to date this fall then anytime in nearly two decades.

North Texas State, the overall yardage leader, has averaged 401 passing and rushing yards per game in its four games, but every total offense champion since Duke in 1941 has bettered that average.

North Texas leads in both overall yardage and rushing, with College of Pacific, the 1959 rushing champion, reversing its field and now leading in passing. North Texas has averaged 341.3 rushing, and College of Pacific has averaged 237.7 yards passing in its thre games.

Last year Rutgers, with 33.4 points, had the lowest scoring average since Boston College in 1940. Of the current top 10, only Arizona State, with an average of 36 points, is above the 32-points-per-game averaged by B.C. 19 years ago.

For those who think a stout passing attack is imperative to success, it might be noted that the first nine teams in average passing yardage to date have an aggregate record of six victories and 27 defeats. Only the 10th team, SMU, has a winning record.

Stanford has gained 787 yards by air, but has played one more game that College of Pacific.

For throwing performance, Georgia tops the field. Frank Tarkenton and Charley Britt have averaged .731 completions, with 38 for 52.

Fullmer To Fight Webb In December

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) —Gene Fullmer will defend his NBA middleweight championship against Spider Webb of Chicago Dec. 4 at Logan, Utah.

Promoter Joe Dupler said his partner in promoting the fight, Norm Rothschild of Syracuse, N. Y., approved the site after touring it Tuesday. The fight will be held in the 7,000-seat Utah State University fieldhouse.

Dupler said the bout would be televised nationally (NBC). Fullmer and Webb will split 40-20 the $100,000 television money. He said the fieldhouse was being scaled for $100,000 gate, with seat prices ranging from $10 to $30. The split of the gate also will be 40 per cent for Fullmer and 20 for Webb.

Logan apparently was selected because it is midway between West Jordan, Utah, Fullmer's hometown, and Pocatello, Idaho, where Webb gained Olympic recognition while fighting for Idaho State College.

It will be the second fight between Fullmer and Webb. Fullmer won a unanimous decision here Sept. 11, 1958. After Fullmer beat Carmen Basilio for the National Boxing Assn. middleweight title, the NBA declared Webb the logical challenger.

Sugar Ray Robinson still is recognized as middleweight king by New York and Massachusetts.

Johansson-Moore Fight Is Boomed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jack Kearns is beating the drums for a heavyweight title bout between heavyweight champ Ingemar Johansson and light heavyweight king Archie Moore.

The veteran fight man, who is Moore's co-manager, said, "I believe Archie should fight Johansson in the Coliseum next year and I'll bet it will outdo any fight in history."

Kearns, who managed Jack Dempsey in the era of the million dollar gate, made his thoughts clear Tuesday night at the taping of a television show ("This is Your Life") which will be seen tonight.

Moore, the surprise guest of the show, said, "I'd like to fight Johansson, Rocky Marciano or anyone else, as long as the financial inducements are satisfactory."

PGA GOLFER OF THE YEAR—Art Wall Jr., displaying his baseball grip, is the Professional Golfers' Assn. Golfer of the Year for 1959. Wall, 35, from Pocono Manor, Pa., is the reigning Masters champion and is the leading money winner of the year with earnings of more than $50,000. (AP Wirephoto)

Junior High Teams Away, Fish Home

Tomorrow night will find two of Snyder's junior high grid teams on the road, as the Eighth Graders and Lamar Seventh Graders travel to Big Spring for clashes against Goliad junior high of that city. Game times are 6:30 for the Lamar contest, with the Eighth Graders following up at 8 o'clock.

Both local teams can boast of unbeaten records, in that the Eighth Graders have come out on top in all of their five games to date, while Lamar has won two, but has been tied by Sweetwater.

In another game which will be played here at Tiger Stadium tomorrow afternoon, the Snyder Freshman Team will pit its forces against San Angelo Edison, with a kickoff of 4 o'clock slated.

The local Frosh, fresh from a 28-0 win over San Angelo Lee, will be looking for win number two in a row as against three losses.

'Wild Card' System Is Panning Out

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—College football's "wild card" substitution rule is working fine, one of its authors reported today.

"I think it is doing what we hoped it would do, that is, opening up the game somewhat and making it easier to get a specialist into action without having to use a timeout," declared Wally Butts, University of Georgia coach and president of the American Football Coaches Assn.

Butts, dean of Southeastern Conference football coaches, also is a member of the NCAA rulesmaking body.

The "wild card" rule permits free entry of one player when the clock is stopped, provided the player hasn't used his two charged entries in that quarter. The rules committee put it in as a concession to a growing demand by coaches for loosening substitution restrictions.

Would Butts go further in modifying the substitution rules if enough coaches demand more liberalization?.

"Well, I believe the present rule is doing the job. But after looking at it for a year, we may be convinced that more changes are needed.

"The public is entitled to see the best players in action. This so-called wild card rule helps to get the best punter, the best passer or the best defensive man in there at the right moment," said Butts.

Ponies Picked To Down Rice By 7

By The Associated Press

Southern Methodist, Texas, Texas Christian and Baylor are favored in the odds to win Southwest Conference football games Saturday.

SMU is a 7-point choice over Rice at Houston, Texas is the same over Arkansas at Little Rock. TCU is 7½ over A&M at Fort Worth and Baylor is six over Texas Tech at Waco.

Herring MVC Lineman Of The Week

KANSAS CITY (AP) — For his play against Cincinnati, George Herring, North Texas State tackle, was named lineman of the week in the Missouri Valley Conference.

The 205-pound star from Snyder got eight tackles and five assists as North Texas beat Cincinnati 21-6.

Dick Johnson of Wichita, who gained 105 yards rushing and 58 passing in his team's third straight victory, was voted back of the week. He set up two touchdowns as Wichita beat George Washington 21-0.

Minnesota Move By Nats Talked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Will the Washington Senators move to Minneapolis? Calvin Griffith still isn't saying.

On the one hand he insists he hasn't made up his mind about moving his Washington baseball club to Minnesota.

On the other hand, he said Tuesday "The proposition (from Minneapolis) looks enticing."

Here is the bait now being offered by Minneapolis baseball interests: A guaranteed average attendance of 750,000 a year for the first five years in Minneapolis. That adds up to 3,750,000 customers for the whole period.

The offer is less than Minneapolis was holding out to Griffith last year for the franchise move. At that time its major league baseball committee was assuring the Senators an average of a million admissions a year for the first three years and "something like 650,000 a year for the next three." Committee Chairman Gerald L. Moore said.

Griffith said he has turned over the latest Minneapolis offer to his attorneys.

"The proposition seems all right but it's up to the lawyers," he said.

SWC Thumpers Open Practice Sessions

By The Associated Press

Basketball practice opens Thursday in the Southaest Conference, but no games will be played until after football season.

Arkansas, Texas A&M and Texas have been considered the top three of the coming race but Southern Methodist is rated high.

Defending champion Texas Christian lost heavily and isn't likely to be a title contender.

Texas is hopeful after winning only four games of 24 and finishing at the bottom of the conference in 1959. There are nine returning lettermen and a letterman from 1958—Brenton Hughes.

Arkansas also will have nine lettermen and A&M shows five plus some of the top sophomore prospects in the league.

Hunt Mum On New Pro Circuit Head

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) —Lamar Hunt, the wealthy young Dallas man who is organizing the American Football League, isn't talking about who's going to become the pro circuit's commissioner.

Hunt, here to discuss league draft policies, declined comment on a report Fritz Crisler, Michigan athletic director, is being considered.

A committee is to appoint the commissioner but Hunt also would not confirm that the committee had conferred with Crisler.

He said the committee decided it would not discuss the matter until a final announcement is made "in fairness to a personality or ourselves."

Crisler said that he has been sounded out and he understood his name is "in the hopper." He denied he had talked terms with anyone.

The new 1960 Edsel will go on display in Snyder tomorrow at Wilson Motors, 1615 Twenty-sixth Street.

The 1960 Edsel features completely new styling, a new wide-tread, long-spring ride, and a price that is competitive with top models of the "popular three".

Edsel's third year on the market represents its third year of distinct appearance changes. It also marks the lowest, widest, most spacious Edsel in the car's history. Ben D. Mills, Ford Motor Company vice president and general manager of the Mercury-Edsel-Lincoln Division, said.

"We believe the 1960 Edsel will appeal to those who want a distinctive car at a reasonable price," Mills said. "The discriminating buyer will find the new Edsel gives him excellent quality and value for his money."

The Edsel has been completely redesigned for 1960, and is one inch lower, almost three inches wider and five and a half inches longer than the 1959 model. The tread has been widened by more than two inches at the front wheels and 3.6 inches at the rear to 61 and 60 inches respectively.

Most interior dimensions have been increased for greater passenger comfort. For example, shoulder room has been increased 2.8 inches and 4 inches, front and rear. Hip room is up 1.8 inches in front and 2.4 in the rear seat, and rear seat leg room is 1.2 inches longer.

The increased tread, together with a lower center of gravity, make the Edsel one of the most road-hugging cars in the industry. Because of this stability, an Edsel would have to be tilted at an angle of 62 degrees or have its outside wheels lifted more than four feet off the pavement for the car to tip over.

Low Bridge Is No Problem To Skipper

SEATTLE (AP)—The yell "Low bridge" didn't bother skipper Charley Ackley of the 86-foot ship Nunivak.

He borrowed a saw from a tugboat. Off came three feet from the top of his mast.

Then he steamed under the Ballard Bridge, closed to ship movements along the Lake Washington ship canal during the 4 to 6 p.m. auto traffic rush hour.

Ackley, 30, explained that he wanted to reach a fuel dock on the other side of the bridge which closed 5 p.m.

Bear Meat Will Be Served To Inmates

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Portland city jail inmates will be served bear meat, probably in stew.

A motorist telephoned police and said he had run over a bear on the Columbia Gorge Highway east of Portland.

Would the police like it? Yes.

Officers, anxious to dress the carcass, let the man get away without identifying himself.

The bear, which appeared to be about seven months old, yielded some 60 pounds of meat, police said.

No Short Shorts, Strippers Declare

By WHITEY SAWYER

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Do girls in short shorts and tight halters among the spectators hurt the strip show business?

"I think so," says Lynne Browne, a dancer. "A free show is always best."

"Of course not," says stripper Antonee Young. "They come to see me dance. It's the illusion. Illusion is always better than bare facts anyway."

Do show girls wear short shorts?

"Very seldom in public," Lynne, 19, of New Orleans replied. "I feel like everybody is staring at me. The street is no place for anything to show."

Antonee, of Pascagoula, Miss., also avoids short shorts.

"I highly disapprove of immodest wear and I wouldn't think of walking in a supermarket with short shorts on."

Both girls work in a traveling strip show appearing on the State Fair Midway here. But while they agree that girls shouldn't wear short shorts in public, they disagree on whether brief clothing worn down the midway hurt the show business.

Lynne said "Sometimes when we're out front trying to attract a crowd, a young girl will walk by and the attention will fade.

"When I wear shorts," she said, "I like the ones that come down to here," indicating a point midway down a shapely leg.

Antonee felt girls on the Midway often "wear less clothes than I do.

"But," she added, "it's what I do that they don't do that the customers come to see."

She bills her speciality as an "Afro-Cuban exotic" dance.

"I stand on my head and shimmy and shake.

"That's why I'm known as the upside down girl."

How can short shorts compete with that?

Crash Kills 4 Soldiers

BOERNE, Tex. (AP)—A single-engine Army liaison plane plummeted to earth Tuesday, killing all four occupants.

Two bodies were found in the wreckage. Two more lay nearby. They apparently tried to bail out, but were too low for their parachutes to open.

An Army spokesman at Ft. Sam Houston identified the dead as 1st Lt. Richard R. Scott, 27, Galena Park, Tex., the instructor, and 2nd. Lts. John N. Combs, 23, Columbus, Ind.; Gerald D. Cyrus, 23, Frankfort, Ky.; and James M. Chamness, 23, El Paso.

The airplane was an L20 on a cross-country instrument training flight out of Ft. Rucker, Ala. It was en route from Dyess AFB at Abilene, Tex., to Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio when it crashed.

A woman at the scene said she heard a plane gunning its engine, looked up and saw the craft spinning. She said the plane appeared to fall apart and she saw two men jump free, but their parachutes failed to open.

Mickey Cohen Set To Wed Candy Barr

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ex-gambler Mickey Cohen says he'll marry nightclub stripper Candy Barr within 30 days.

Mickey said she's going to give up peeling.

Her lawyer, A. L. Wirin said Tuesday he will file a petition with the U.S. Supreme Court for a rehearing of her appeal from a 15-year prison term on her conviction in Texas of possessing marijuana. The high court had rejected it.

Several months ago Cohen said he planned to marry Miss Barr, whose real name is Juanita Dale Phillips. They became estranged and Mickey announced his engagement to another stripper, Beverly Hills. That one cooled, too.

Costly Fire Big Problem For Town

WILLIAMSPORT, Md. (AP)—A two-million-dollar fire that destroyed four businesses has created a serious economic problem for this western Maryland community.

The fire Tuesday threw 200 of Williamsport's 3,000 persons out of work.

Textiles and containers of chemicals fed the blaze which broke out in a boiler room of a 300-foot building housing the Federal Silk Mills.

Volunteers and firemen from 15 companies fought the blaze for six hours.

"One explosion would pop up in one part of a building, then another in another part," said a fireman.

Say Union Is Paid For Its Favors

HOUSTON (AP) — Two large electrical contracting firms and their presidents gave over $25,000 to union officials to get preferential treatment, a federal grand jury charged Tuesday.

The panel returned indictments charging 38 counts of violating the labor-management relations sections of the Taft-Hartley Law.

Fishbach and Moore of Texas, Inc., was named in 18 counts, and its president, Robert E. Moore, in two others. Hirsh Electric Co. was cited in 12 counts and its president, Daniel Hirsh, in six.

The indictments followed a four-day probe launched last week as a followup to an anti-trust action filed by Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson.

More than $24,000 in cash plus electrical services at home reportedly went to B. B. Morgan, a former union business agent in Houston.

Morgan testified in a court of inquiry which preceded the suit that he assigned agitators, winos, drunks and unqualified mechanics to whip contractors into line.

G. I. Thompson, business agent of Local 390 of the United Electrical Workers at Bridge City; J. C. Epperson, business agent of Local 66 at Houston; Bruce Hill, Morgan's successor in Local 716 at Houston; Arneth Lard, business manager of Local 861 at Lake Charles, La., and Dana Wolfe, business manager of Local 479 at Beaumont, also are alleged to have received gifts.

Gasoline Alley Residents In Arms Over New Gasoline Tax

By JACK STILLMAN

LACEY'S SPRING, Ala. (AP) — New taxes on gasoline have caused a hue and cry for home rule like none ever heard around here before.

The noise is coming frm a prosperous community three miles south of Huntsville, Ala., called Gasoline Alley. Its mailing address is Lacey's Spring.

Gasoline Alley is revolting against an additional half-cent a gallon tax imposed by the city of Huntsville, which is in Madison County.

To make it more confusing, Gasoline Alley proper is in Morgan County.

Atty. Gen. McDonald Gallion says Huntsville can legally collect the tax because Gasoline Alley is in Huntsville's police and fire jurisdiction.

But Gasoline Alley merchants don't think much of the Huntsville fire protection, especially since they don't have any fire hydrants in Gasoline Alley.

The police protection poses another problem. One Gasoline Alley merchant calculated that the city of Huntsville would collect $12,000 annually from Gasoline Alley's 11 service stations.

"Why, I'd take on the police man's job here any day for $12,000 a year," he said.

Gasoline Alley also has two grocery stores. That's the extent of the business district.

But Bill Black, spokesman for the service station operators, says he believes the area can produce 600 residents for the purposes of incorporating.

"We can form our own town and not have so many taxes," he said.

Another service station operator said the new tax would cost him at least $175 a month.

Paul Oaks, another operator, said Huntsville can't give the Alley much protection because "We don't have fire plugs and by the time they got here they'd just be a heap of ashes."

A Huntsville city official looks at it this way: "I'm all for it if they want to incorporate, then when they ask for a fire engine we'll just let 'em burn to the ground."

Because of the wide spread in taxes in Huntsville and Madison County, and those of Morgan County, there is a difference of five cents a gallon on gasoline sold in Gasoline Alley.

Regular gas costs 28.9 cents a gallon in the Alley and 33.9 in Huntsville; high test is 34.9 in the Alley and 39.9 in Huntsville.

Toy Guns Stolen

BRISTOL, Va.-Tenn. (AP) — A furniture store reported to police Tuesday that thieves had made off with three pistols and two rifles from its loading dock.

The thieves have a surprise coming, though. All the weapons were toys.

Alice Lon To Open New Show Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Alice Lon makes the big break tonight.

The former Champagne Lady of the Lawrence Welk television show starts a two-week engagement at the Cocoanut Grove.

"I've spent every cent I have in the world for the act," she said Tuesday.

Miss Lon, who broke with Welk last July, supports three young sons. She said she has turned down several offers because she wanted to prepare a solid act.

"Now I can sing songs I really want to sing, and in my own way," she said.

Scouters To Open Course

A Boy Scout Leaders' Training course, to be conducted for three consecutive Thursdays, will begin Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Snyder High School, Room 106.

The announcement was made by D. V. Merritt, Jr., Leadership Training chairman.

The second and third sessions of the course will be held Oct. 22 and Oct. 29, he said.

Filmstripe and charts, together with other training materials, will be utilized.

The course is especially adapted for teaching new leaders, including Scoutmasters, committeemen and men that would like to assist as leaders their sons and the sons of others.

According to Merritt, a trained worker is much happier because he knows what the Boy Scout program is concerned with, and will be more efficient in getting through to boys the character-building and citizenship program advocated by the Boy Scout method.

The public is invited to participate.
