

Recognition Day to honor women vets

The Big Spring VA Medical Center is planning a Women Veterans Recognition Day and Wellness Clinic on Tuesday, November 10, 1987. The observance is intended to focus attention on the significant contribution of women in the Armed Forces.

The Medical Center needs help in identifying women veterans in this area. If you are a woman veteran (or know this information about a woman veteran), contact the local VA office, or Dr. Carolyn Reed, 2400 S. Gregg, Big Spring, Texas 79720, so that information can be mailed about the upcoming event.

The Wellness Clinic is designed for the prevention of illness. Prevention strategies include early diagnosis and education. The Wellness Clinic will provide gynecologic examinations, cancer screening, diet counseling, mammography and other health screen tests.

Hearing Tests Set For Colorado City

Colorado City- Electronic hearing tests will be given at the Wallace Center, on Monday, August 3rd from 10:00AM to 12:00 Noon.

J. Wampler, professionally trained Hearing Aid Specialists will be at The Wallace Center to perform the tests.

Anyone who has trouble hearing is welcome to have a test using modern electronic equipment to determine if the loss is one which may be helped. Some of the causes of hearing loss will be shown.

Everyone should have a hearing test at least once a year-even people now wearing a hearing aid or those who have been told nothing could be done for them. Only a hearing test can determine if you are one of the many a hearing aid can help.

The FREE hearing tests will be given Monday, July 6th from 10:00AM to 12 Noon at The Wallace Center. If you can't come in, call 728-2392 for in home testing.

federal and state criteria for siting a low-level radioactive waste disposal facility, including groundwater that is more than 500 feet deep, excellent soil conditions, small annual rainfall and sparse population.

Last June, the Authority announced plans to begin a new statewide site search after the Texas General Land Office chose not to transfer the Hudspeth County site to the Authority for use as a disposal facility. Attempts to pass legislation directing transfer of the site died in the closing hours of the 70th Legislative Session when Senator Tati Santiesteban of El Paso threatened a filibuster against the bill.

The enabling legislation subsequently passed in the Special Session will help the state avoid millions of dollars in penalties which would be imposed if the state misses federally-set deadlines. "Each state has been directed to operate its own low-level disposal facility by January 1, 1993," Jacobi explained. "Failure to meet this deadline could cost the state as much as $35 million in penalties." Only low-level radioactive waste will be disposed of at the site. This waste is composed of ordinary items such as gloves, metal products, coveralls, resins, tools, and paper which have come in contact with radioactive materials. Low-level radioactive waste does not include spent nuclear fuel or high-level radioactive wastes products from fuel reprocessing plants.

Sheriff helps locate 'missing' man

Mitchell County Sheriff's Office had a hand in helping to locate an Abilene man who was believed to have been abducted along the highway between Odessa and Abilene Tuesday, but it all turned out to be a hoax.

Area law enforcement officers were alerted about 5 p.m. Tuesday, July 28 that Gregg Summers, 28-year-old white male, was reported missing. Abilene officers located Summers' car in Abilene with all his personal affects intact.

About 12:30 a.m. Wednesday night, the Mitchell County jailer received a call from an anonymous person that a body had been seen lying in a ditch on the Moss Creek Road, south of Coahoma. Big Spring officers were notified and found Summers there, tied up and lying in a ditch.

However, further investigation revealed that the man had pulled off the stunt himself, stating he was having marital problems.

ENJOY THE BENEFITS OF BOTTLED WATER...WITHOUT THE BOTTLES... REVERSE OSMOSIS

The MacClean R.O. Drinking Water System is based on the same process used by laboratories, hospitals and electronic manufacturers to produce "pharmaceutical" quality water (very high purity). In household use, water pressure forces the water through a semi-permeable membrane. The membrane is so fine that on average 90% of all dissolved solids are removed. The result is cleaner drinking water for the whole family. Another approach to better quality water to purchase bottled water. This, however is not only expensive, but also inconvenient and messy.

The MacClean Drinking Water System is ideal for low sodium diets. Coffee and tea will taste better. Food cooked in MacClean R.O. water will have improved flavor. You'll also have quality water for steam iron, car batteries and humidifiers-all from our MacClean Drinking Water System.

Weddings, Engagements

Rees, Nobles exchange wedding vows

Tracy Rees and Tim Nobles, both of Colorado City, were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony Saturday, July 25, at the Willow Park Inn in Snyder.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Rees of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ballou of Fulton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Nobles of Colorado City.

Gary M. Dennis of Levelland performed the ceremony in the atrium and pool area before a 22-light heart-shaped candelabra. A seven-light candelabra draped in purple lilacs and grapevine leaves flanked each side. The staircases and balcony landings also were draped with lilacs and grapevine accented with satin bows and streamers.

The pool was centered with a float of a large white wicker basket of mixed flowers accented purple with two white swans tied with purple satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, C.A. Rees, the bride wore a gown of white crepe satin. The fitted bodice overlaid with heavy lace was accented with tiny seed pearls. The dress had a slightly dropped waist and a large flat bow over the right shoulder. The dress had a long, full skirt and chapel train. The short veil of illusion was held by a band of flowers.

The bride wore long crocheted gloves worn by her great-grandmother when she was 15 years old. For something blue, she wore a blue garter decorated by Mrs. Vera Acuff, great-grandmother of the groom. She wore an antique ring borrowed from Mrs. Acuff.

The bride's bouquet was of cascading white silk phalaenopsis orchids, lavender and white roses, white stephanotis and baby's breath with matching streamers of bridal satin ribbon.

Tracy Womack of San Angelo played traditional wedding music.

Nina Bodine Lee of Rockdale was matron of honor. She wore a violet cotton satin dress, with princess seaming on a strapless bodice. The dress had a slightly dropped waist, pointed at the center. The tea-length dress with full skirt was accented with drape extending into a large flat bow over the left shoulder.

She carried a silk bouquet of lavender tulle tufts, purple carnations, lavender roses and baby's breath with matching streamers of lavender tulle. She wore a hair piece of silk lavender roses and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids were Kim Feaster Stewart of Colorado City, Shellie Dorn of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, and Elma Torrez of Odessa. They wore dresses identical to the matron of honor and carried bouquets identical to the matron of honor.

Best man was Tony Nobles of San Marcos, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Gary Rowe of Weatherford, Willie Martinez of Dallas and Steve Weniger of Lewisville.

Ushers were Tom Rees of

Mrs. Tim Nobles
...nee Tracy Rees

Colorado City, James Woods of Colorado City, brother of the bride, and Freddie Alvarez of Midland.

The groom and his attendants as well as the ushers wore silver tuxedos. Boutonieres were of lavender silk roses and greenery except for the groom whose boutonniere was of white stephanotis and lavender roses.

Members of the houseparty were Janie and Stacy Hardcastle, Tracy Rowe, Susan Combs and Melanie Rees.

The bride's table was laid with lavender under cloth with white lace organza edged cloth. The groom's table was laid with a floral cloth.

The bride's table featured a three-tiered wedding cake separated by tall pedestals. Candle staircases led to a small cake on either side. Hearts, bells and roses decorated the area between layers and it was topped with a miniature bride and groom in a gazebo. The groom's table had a German chocolate pound cake in a double ring design.

After a honeymoon cruise to Nassau, Salt Cay and Out Islands and a Disneyworld tour, the couple will be at home in Colorado City. For her going-away dress, the bride wore a pale grey linen skirt and matching sweater trimmed with Battenberg lace at the neckline.

Both the bride and groom are 1982 graduates of Colorado High School and graduates of Southwest Texas University, San Marcos. While at SWTU, the bride edited the school's newspaper and magazine.

Out of town guests registered from Fulton, McAllen, Breckenridge, San Marcos, Austin, Dallas area, Post, McCamey, Snyder, McKinney, San Angelo and Georgetown.

Device increases gas mileage by 22%

With the oil glut worse than ever and OPEC wringing its hands, on July 11th, the government awarded National FuelSaver Corp. $22,000 for developing a simple automotive accessory that increases gas mileage by 22 percent.

Called the Platinum GaSaver, it injects microscopic quantities of platinum into the airstream entering the engine.

The injector itself takes only minutes to install, while the platinum entering the engine increases the percentage of each gallon burning in the engine from the normal 68 percent to 90 percent.

Normally, that 22 percent would only burn when it came in contact with the platinum-coated surfaces of the catalytic converter. But with the GaSaver introducing the platinum into the engine, platinum catalyst can now burn that fuel in the engine where the release of that heat and energy is harnessed to drive that vehicle.

With 22 percent more of each gallon burning in the engine, 22 percent fewer gallons are required.

The process works on both leaded and unleaded gasoline, and meets EPA and California standards.

Federal Judge Walter Jay Skinner concluded the five-year administrative procedure studying the GaSaver by stating, "Independent testing shows greater fuel savings with the GaSaver than the 22 percent claimed by its developer, National FuelSaver Corp."

In another study concluded recently, the government confirmed that the Platinum GaSaver raises the octane of gasoline, eliminating the need for premium gasoline.

Joel Robinson, the developer, commented, "We've already sold over 70,000 GaSavers. Ironically, we find more people buying the GaSaver for its third benefit of extending engine life, than buy it for fuel savings or octane boosting. Ever since our economy became battered by OPEC in 1973, we were convinced it would be a small company like ourselves that would reverse the trend of higher fuel costs."

BOYCOTT MAZDA AND NOXELL.

First Assembly of God is joining the National Federation for Decency and Christian Leaders for Responsible Television in boycotting these two companies. For they are the leading sponsors of sex, violence and profanity on TV and more anti-Christian TV shows than any companies in America.

We would encourage you to think twice before you buy Noxell products, Cover Girl, Clarion and Marathon cosmetics. Noxzema and Raintree skin creams in the local stores. For you are helping them keep filth on TV.

When confronted by concerned Americans about this matter in letters sent by Clear-TV, these companies absolutely refused to reduce the amount of sex, violence and profanity they helped sponsor. So that means they care nothing about decency, only money. Let's make them feel the financial crunch by not buying their products.....

Oil, gas discoveries climb

AUSTIN—Texas oil and gas operators reported 41 gas and 35 oil discoveries in June, according to Railroad Commission Chairman Mack Wallace, an increase over May's total of 49 gas and 19 oil discoveries.

However, 1987 discoveries still trail 1986 totals by a considerable margin. For the first six months of the year, oil discoveries reported to the Commission totaled 154, down 43 percent from the 1986 half-year total of 266. Six month gas discoveries this year totaled 259, a 46 percent decline from the 478 reported during the same period last year.

A discovery is an exploratory well that is completed in a previously untapped reservoir.

Gas discoveries in June included three in the San Antonio area (District 1), one in the Refugio area (District 2), eight in Southeast Texas (District 3), 11 in deep South Texas (District 4), one in East Central Texas (District 5), one in East Texas (District 6), five in West Central Texas (District 7B), and one in North Texas (District 9).

Oil discoveries included four in the Refugio area (District 2), six in Southeast Texas (District 3), three in deep South Texas (District 4), four in East Texas (District 6), four in West Central Texas (District 7B), one in the San Angelo area (District 7C), one in the Midland area (District 8), seven in the Lubbock area (District 8A), and five in North Texas (District 9).

Those discoveries were included in the 636 oil, 235 gas, and 80 service completions operators reported in June. In May, operators filed 516 oil, 198 gas, and 37 service completions.

Well completions reported to the Commission during the first half of 1987 totaled 5,277.

Notice of 1987 Effective tax rate for Mitchell County

The purpose of this notice is to inform you about your taxes. The 1987 effective tax rate is a tax rate that would levy the same amount of operating taxes the county levied last year on property taxed in both years, plus the amount the unit needs to pay certain long term debts this year. The rate is calculated as follows:

	General Fund	Special Road/ Bridge Fund
1986 maintenance & operations tax levy	$ 1,444,779.43	$ 444,851.54
Less taxes levied to recoup 1985 appraisal roll errors and adjustments for lost value: - $	139.30	33.65
Equals adjusted 1986 maintenance & operations levy: = $	1,444,640.13	444,817.89
1987 total tax base:	$ 3,848,479.50	$ 3,827,816.87
Less adjustments for value of new property:	$ 2,040,540	$ 2,040,540
Equals adjusted 1987 tax base	= $ 3,828,074.10	$ 3,807,411.47
The adjusted 1986 levy divided by the adjusted 1987 base and multiplied by 100 equals the effective maintenance & operations tax rate:	$.3773 /$100	$.1168 /$100
Plus rate to correct for appraisal roll errors:	+$ 0 /$100	$ 0
Plus rate needed to pay debts and obligations:	+$ 0 /$100	$ 0 /$100
EQUALS 1987 effective tax rate for this tax:	= $.3773/$100	$.1168/$100

1987 county effective tax rate: .4941 per $100 of value

The maximum rate the governing body can adopt without publishing notices and holding a hearing is: .5089 per $100 of value

The maximum rate the governing body can adopt before taxpayers can initiate rollback petitions is: .5336 per $100 of value

This notice contains a summary of the calculations used to determine this year's effective tax rate. You can inspect the full calculations at Mitchell County Tax Office.

Opinions

Ray Mayo

Much to my regret, history was never one of my favorite subjects. I regret it now because in recent years, as the top of my head becomes more white with every passing year, I've come to appreciate the rich heritage of this country.

And even more so, I've come to appreciate the colorful history of Colorado City and Mitchell County. I applaud the efforts of the Mitchell County Historical Society and other individuals who have tried to preserve some of that history for us and for generations to come.

I am particularly impressed with the Heritage House, the old Scott-Majors home restored to its turn-of-the-century style and then donated to the city as a gift of Mrs. Marion Bassham.

A recent trip to the Texas coast took us through San Antonio and into Corpus Christi. In addition to touring the Alamo and building sandcastles on the beach at Padre Island, we had an opportunity to visit some restored homes in both of those cities.

Corpus Christi has started a historic district downtown that includes several restored early-day homes. Likewise in San Antonio, a historic neighborhood still has many of the city's grand old homes standing with many of them restored.

As my family and I toured the old homes and tried to capture in our minds the grandeur of what it must have been like to live during that time and in that manner of style, I could not help but think that we have something just as nice right at home.

True, the Heritage House is not grand by any means. When it was built in the late 1880s, however, it must have looked grand compared to some of the other houses in the dusty cowtown. After all, it was the first brick house ever to be built in Colorado City.

But what makes the Heritage House "grand" now is the manner in which it has been restored. Meticulous detail went into the refurbishing of the home and as a result, many visitors remark that the house looks as if one could move in it today and live comfortably even with the turn-of-the-century furnishings. Remarks like that must make Marion Bassham smile.

Mrs. Bassham is on a committee appointed by the city to oversee the operations of the Heritage House. Other committee members are Sissy Merritt, Margaret Trulock, Marian Craddock, Vista Harrell, Betsy Aycock and Nadine Gordon. Thanks to them, volunteers have been secured through various organizations to keep the Heritage House open on a regular basis. The house is open from 2-5 p.m. each day except Monday.

And, thanks to Mrs. Bassham and the committee, the house should always be something of which the citizens of Colorado City and Mitchell County can be proud.

The Bill of Rights

When members of the Constitutional Convention met in Philadelphia 200 years ago, one of the major problems was how to provide for a more powerful central government while safeguarding basic rights for all citizens.

Although it is hard to believe now, some major American leaders of the day were adamantly opposed to the very idea of a Constitution for fear the new government would be too powerful.

Even after the new Constitution was written, it was by no means certain that the necessary number of states would ratify it.

When the Virginia Constitutional Convention met to consider ratification, Patrick Henry spoke in opposition. "The rights of conscience, trial by jury, liberty of the press... all pretensions to human rights and privileges, are rendered insecure, if not lost, by this change."

The battle lines were drawn over how to shape this new experiment in democracy. Alexander Hamilton, James Madison and John Jay collaborated on the famous Federalist Papers explaining the new Constitution. These documents were widely circulated and debated in the states.

Supporters of the Constitution won, but not by much. The vote in Virginia was 89-79, and in New York, it passed by the slim margin of three votes.

Even though they lost the battle against ratification, the opponents contributed as much to our modern system of government as the supporters. It was their criticism that forced supporters to promise an immediate series of amendments to guarantee individual rights.

Ten amendments were adopted in 1791 to safeguard individual rights and freedoms from government encroachment. It is in those 10 amendments—the Bill of Rights—that we find the protection given the right to peaceably assemble, freedom of the press and speech, the right to a speedy and public trial by jury, and the right to the free exercise of religion.

These provisions are considered such an integral part of the Constitution that many don't realize they were not included in the original proposal. It is the combination of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights that is considered one of the greatest documents in human history.

This is one of a series of columns celebrating the 200th anniversary of the U.S. Constitution.

Q. When was the last audit made for Mitchell County Ambulance Service, and how often is the service audited?

A. According to Joe Morren, CPA, the last audit of the ambulance service was May 31, 1981. His firm is currently completing an audit for the past 6 years, which will be through May 31, 1987. It was the original intention of the Ambulance Board to have the service audited every two years.

ART LAWLER

My wife made the mistake of taking me shopping the other day. It doesn't happen often because, frankly, she doesn't like my shopping attitude. What is a pleasant solo journey for her, seems to become a nightmare when I tag along.

Don't get me wrong, I don't mind going to a mall - just as long as I'm not looking for anything. But I'd rather wear rags than pull all the pins out of shirts in order to try them on.

Size is a problem, too. In the old days, if I said I wore a 15 1/2 shirt, the sales clerk would take me to the 15 1/2 section and fix me up. I haven't tried on a 15 1/2 size shirt in the last 10 years that fit.

Pants are hopeless. Invariably I embarrass her by emerging from the dressing room walking on at least a foot of extraneous leg material that will have to be hacked off before I can wear the things on the street. If my legs were any shorter, I'd be a penguin.

The waist, is usually too tight, and I have to explain to the clerk how it's OK for me to buy them anyway, since I'm starting my diet Monday morning. My wife has repeatedly told me it's not necessary to tell the sales clerk about your dieting plans. He isn't going to believe you anyway.

Last week I got caught strolling in the mall, eating my chocolate chip cookies and mulling over the latest best-sellers at the bookstore when my wife decided she wanted to look for a blouse.

I tagged along, keeping my thoughts to my self - at least until we walked up on the Coca Cola section of clothes.

"I thought you were supposed to drink this stuff, not wear it," I said. "Shhhhhh. People will think you're from the sticks," she said.

"Why," I asked, "would anyone want to pay good money to wear an advertising logo?"

"Can we talk about this when we get home?"

"Well, I was just wondering...the Coca Cola people pay good money to come up with logos like that. Then they use the logos on signs and billboards and pop boxes so people can get familiar with what a Coca Cola looks like. They actually pay people millions to put that logo in front of the public. That's the way it's always been."

"We understand that dear," she says. "The whole world understands that."

"But does the whole world understand how turned around things have become when the public starts paying good money to Coca Cola in order to wear the company's logo and advertise for them?"

Let's go home now, OK?"

"If you ask me, it's a sign of low self-esteem."

"And what's that supposed to mean?"

"Well, you know how some people are always buying jewelry or shirts or something with their own names attached. You figure that's just a sign of conceit, right?"

"At this point I'm not considering anything. Will you just get in the car and shut up."

"The thing is, if conceited people wear their own names on their person, it just makes sense that people with low self-esteem would wear advertising logos of companies they consider to be highly successful. If you can't be a Coke, you can at least wear one."

"Are you through?"

"Yeah, this is kind of fun," I admitted. "When are we going shopping again?"

"You're not talking about this lifetime are you?"

RENE SILVA of the Kiwanis Colts fends off a strike during Wednesday's Colorado City versus Eastland baseball game at the district 1 TTAB Teenage tournament held at A.W. Phillips Field.

Colorado City teams place

Texas Teenage Baseball playoffs began and ended for three local teams last week as the Junior Teenage Colts, the Freshman Tight-Base Teenage Pirates and the Midget Teenage Colts all advanced to the championship rounds and placed in the top three in their respective district tournaments.

Junior Division

The Snyder Buffs defeated the Sweetwater Yankees 20-3 and the Eastland Greenbacks 20-5 and 19-3 to easily capture the TTAB district 1 Junior tournament held here at A.W. Phillips Field Monday through Wednesday.

Snyder's sweep sends the Buffs to the state tournament that starts Tuesday at Belton. The Buffs, 17-0, kickoff the tournament by taking on district 2 winner Gainesville at 9 AM Tuesday. The two teams also met at last year's state tournament. Snyder took fifth place last year after being eliminated by third place Gainesville.

Snyder pitchers gave up only six earned runs in the three big wins and the Buffs' defense committed only eight errors in the tournament while Snyder bats pounded pitcher after pitcher.

Three teams came to Colorado City as undefeated clubs but only the champion Buffs escaped unscathed. Snyder came with a 14-0 record and moved to 17-0. Second place Eastland brought a 12-1 record and left 14-3.

The Sweetwater Yankees and the Merkel Lumberjacks brought 12-0 records. Sweetwater opened the tournament with a 9-4 win over Merkel but then lost two for a final 13-2 mark. Merkel lost twice for a 12-2 final record.

The host Kiwanis Colts had an 8-4 mark going into the tourney. After a first round 6-5 loss to Eastland the Colts eliminated both Merkel and Sweetwater to take third place and finish the season 10-6.

The Colts were holding a 5-3 lead in Monday's contest against Eastland but the Greenbacks scored three in their last at-bat to steal the win.

Colorado City won twice Tuesday to advance to Wednesday's finals-eliminating the Merkel Lumberjacks 12-6 and the Sweetwater Yankees 9-7.

The Colts beat Merkel in a 4 PM game Tuesday with Mark Alvidrez pitching. Losing pitcher was Kyle Doan with relief from John Walsh and Stevie Bierra.

Alvidrez gave up 10 hits on 4 errors, struck out 6 and walked only three.

The purpose of this notice is to inform you about your taxes. The 1987 effective tax rate is a tax rate that would levy the same amount of operating taxes the taxing unit levied last year on property taxed in both years, plus the amount the unit needs to pay certain long term debts this year. The rate is calculated as follows:

1986 maintenance & operations tax levy:	$ 1,255,290.74
Less taxes levied to recoup 1985 appraisal roll errors and adjustments for lost value:	$ 52,498.66
Equals adjusted 1986 maintenance & operations levy:	= $ 1,202,882.08
1987 total tax base:	$ 397,030,917
Less adjustments for value of new property:	- $ 2,040,540
Equals adjusted 1987 tax base:	= $ 394,990,377
The adjusted 1986 levy divided by the adjusted 1987 tax base and multiplied by 100 equals the effective maintenance & operations tax rate:	$.3045/$100
Plus rate to correct for appraisal roll errors:	+ $.3045/$100
Plus rate needed to pay debts and obligations:	+ $ 0 /$100
Equals 1987 effective tax rate:	= $.3045/$100
1987 effective tax rate:	$.3045 per $100 of value
The maximum rate the governing body can adopt without publishing notices and holding a hearing is:	$.3136 per $100 of value
The maximum rate the governing body can adopt before taxpayers can initiate rollback petitions is:	$.3288 per $100 of value

"WHAT'S A DEE ZOL?"

by Rev. Jack Ward, First Christian Church, Colorado City

Driving along I-20 one day, I was passed rather speedily by a car bearing a bumper sticker that said, "Ask Me About My Dee Zol". Several miles down the road, I noticed a state trooper had stopped him, apparently to ask him about his Dee Zol. The trooper seemed very interested, for he was taking notes. The driver, however, did not seem to enjoy telling the trooper about his Dee Zol; perhaps he had been in a hurry to get somewhere.

This reminded me of many bumper stickers I've seen that call attention to the feeling of the driver; the inevitable political stickers whizzing by; the ones that would like to ban nukes, save the whales, stamp out roaches, and brake for artiesians; many religious stickers that say, "Texas Is God's Country", "The King Is Coming", "Honk If You Love Jesus", and so on....

All through life we seem to be advertising ourselves in one way or another. We try to show we are Christians with an occasional visit to the church, but it is that "bumper sticker" we carry each day that says what and who we really are; or in the analogy of the scripture above, our daily "fruits" show what kind of tree we are. No matter what kind of sticker we have on our car, or what kind of facade we portray on Sundays, it is our daily attitudes and actions that advertise what we really believe.

The scripture above begins in this manner, "Either make the tree good and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt and his fruit corrupt..." The only way we can be known as Christians is when people see Christ-like fruits in our daily lives.

I never did find out what a Dee Zol is. If anyone knows, please tell me.

Midget Division

The Farm Bureau Colts won second place at the TTAB district 2 Midget tournament held at Roscoe Monday through Wednesday.

After a 10-1 first round win over Sweetwater American the Colts lost to Sweetwater National then battled back through the loser's bracket to force a two-game series in the tournament championship.

Jeff Hill pitched in the first round win. Following the win was a 26-16 loss to the Sweetwater National Sonics. Bear Cooper took the loss. Second baseman Frank Espinoza, shortstop Jeremy Epperson, third baseman Patrick Cumbie and centerfielder Lynn Boyd all scored three runs.

The Colts worked their way into the championship by beating Roscoe 12-8 in the loser's bracket final. Jeff Hill pitched for his second win of the tourney, Boyd scored three times in three at-bats and led off the fourth with homerun. Also reaching base in every at-bat were Espinoza.

Sport Short

Here are some hints to help you stay in shape while avoiding sports injuries:

1. Begin slowly. If you're swimming for the first time, for instance, don't just plunge in. Set a goal for swimming laps for five minutes the first day and increase the time as it becomes comfortable.
2. Be attuned to the temperature. In hot weather walk in the cool of the morning or early evening, wearing a hat and drinking plenty of fluids, before, during and after the walk.
3. Take account of terrain. Walking along uneven terrain adds stress to the lower back and knees as does walking in deep sand.
4. Warm up to your exercise work. If you haven't hit the golf course or tennis court recently, do a few flexibility and stretching routines before you play. Hit a few practice balls and volleys.
5. Get help from health care experts before starting a new exercise program.

MES-ATSU-S-ET *
An Algonkian Indian village, near what is now Boston, got the name
"Mes-atsu-s-et, large hill place," from the fact that it was located in the
