W. Germans Seek Red China Contacts

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP) — West Germany wants to renew official contacts with Red China in the spring, a top official of the Bonn government reports. An exchange of trade missions could result, but the chief goal is political.

Talks between the two governments would not take place until Chancellor Ludwig Erhard explained his position to President Johnson, the official said.

"Now that the American elections are over, we can move ahead in our dealings with Red China," he added.

West Germany and Red China signed a one-year trade agreement in 1957, but it was not renewed. German and Chinese officials held preliminary talks earlier this year. The Chinese Communists said then they were willing to sign a new trade agreement with West Germany providing for an exchange of trade missions and including a clause stating that West Berlin is considered economically and politically part of West Germany.

West Germany already has trade agreements containing such a clause with the Communist governments of Poland, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria. This has undermined the Soviet and East German position that Germany is divided into three separate units — East and West Germany and West Berlin.

Some West German officials have said an exchange of trade missions between Bonn and Peking would have little trade significance but would be politically important.

These officials feel it would be an overture to France that would not get Bonn into much trouble with the United States. France established diplomatic relations with Peking last summer and reportedly has been pressuring West Germany to follow suit.

Johnsons Return To White House

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, back in the White House for the first time since his big election victory, got a backyard welcome Sunday night from Cabinet members, staff aides, children and dogs.

A crowd of several hundred, headed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk, gathered at the south portico to greet the President and Mrs. Johnson as they arrived by helicopter on the final leg of a trip from their ranch home in Texas.

"My," said Johnson, "It's so nice to see all of you."

Johnson is expected to remain in Washington only a few days and hopes to spend much of the next seven weeks at his hill country ranch near Johnson City.

Rusk and other Cabinet members and their families were the first to greet the Johnsons, setting up an informal receiving line alongside the helicopter ramp.

The others, most of them White House employes, some in work clothes, then formed a narrow aisle through which the Johnsons walked into the executive mansion, handshaking all the way.

The President apparently had no advance word of the very informal affair.

Someone handed him the leashes of his two beagles, Him and Her, soon after he alighted, and he kept the dogs in tow on the trek to the house.

Even Blanco, the first family's white collie, who has a reputation as a loner, joined in the welcome.

Johnson hadn't been home long when he made a quick trip by car to the State Department to drop in on a farewell party for Dr. Walter W. Heller, who has resigned as chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, to return to a professorship at the University of Minnesota.

The President had only one announced departure appointment today, to participate in the noontime swearing in of Arthur M. Okun as a member of the Council of Economic Advisors.

Okun fills a vacancy left by the resignation of Heller. Johnson elevated Gardner Ackley, a council member, to the chairmanship.

Johnson's two-week stay at his ranch home left him tanned, rested and in fine humor.

Blizzard Strands Hundreds

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A snowstorm that blitzed the Rocky Mountains Sunday brought blizzards to northern Arizona and spilled wintry weather across normally mild central and southern deserts.

Hundreds of motorists were stranded, hunters marooned and 13 persons reported missing as the late-afternoon blizzard struck the Kingman area in Arizona's northwest corner. All the missing later were found safe.

Arizona 93, the main route from Phoenix to Las Vegas, Nev., was closed by the highway patrol after at least 100 cars were stranded about 15 miles south of Kingman.

Bonanza Airline Flight 114 with 25 passengers and three crew members was missing en route from Phoenix to Las Vegas. It disappeared from view in a radar screen about 10 miles from Las Vegas.

The Arizona Highway Patrol also shut off U.S. 66 to the east, and the Mohave County sheriff's office dispatched its jeep posses into snow-swept desert mountains south of Kingman in search of the lost, who were mostly hunters. All were found by late Sunday night.

Sheriff Floyd Cisney said he'd never seen a heavier storm so early in the year.

Deputy Pearl Misak said, "There was about four inches of snow on the ground and the wind piled up drifts as high as two feet on both U.S. 66 and State Route 93.

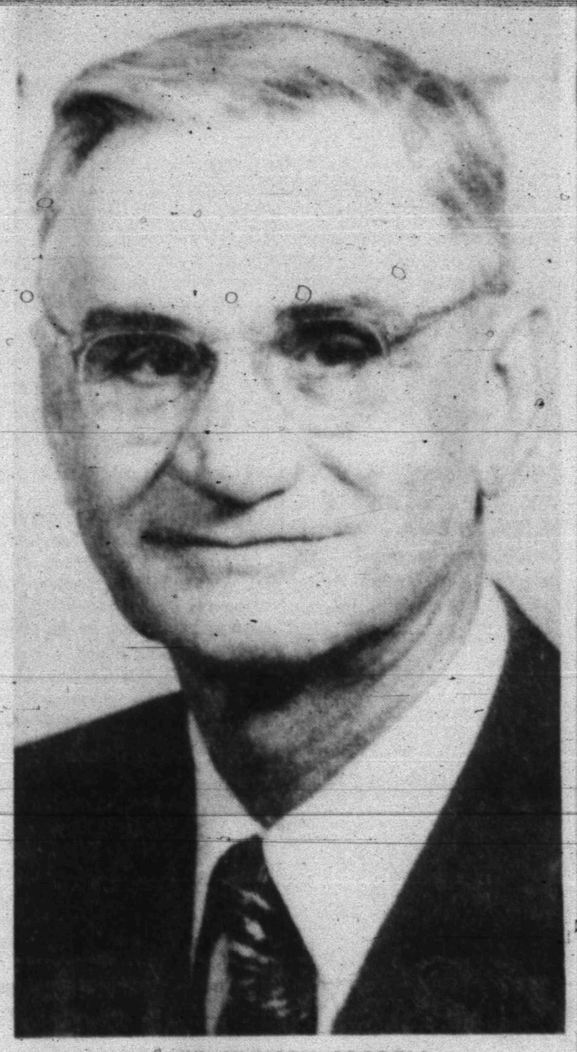

Motels filled up as the stranded motorists poured into Kingman and many were taken into private homes.

DAVID MUNSEY COGDELL

D. M. Cogdell, Sr. Dies; Rites Today

Death came at about 2:30 a.m. Sunday to D. M. Cogdell, Sr., 80, at his ranch home near Snyder.

Mr. Cogdell had suffered an apparent heart attack, and was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital which bears his name.

Born in Holly Springs, Miss., on Mar. 24, 1884, he came with his parents at the age of six to Mineral Wells. His father, the late D. M. Cogdell, had been a Methodist minister, but moved his family to Texas when he had to leave the pulpit due to a throat ailment.

The senior Cogdell became a groceryman at Mineral Wells and operated a store until his death in 1912.

Upon leaving home at the age of 21, Mr. Cogdell went first to Haskell, at which time he once recalled, "I had a horse, buggy, saddle, and $750." He came to West Texas in about 1915, and married the former Johnnye Oldham in Abilene in 1918.

Mr. Cogdell acquired his first ranch in Jones County in about 1917 and stocked it on a small scale, but the break in cotton in 1920 influenced him to sell out his holdings there. He made arrangements to purchase a ranch in Kent County, and moved there in 1920.

After the oil discovery in 1950, Mr. Cogdell acquired two more ranches, one in Floyd County and one in Briscoe County. In addition to the 13,500 acre Kent County Ranch, Mr. Cogdell also owned about 2,800 acres in Fisher County, and the 3,000 acre "home place" just south of Snyder.

Throughout the years, Mr. Cogdell displayed an active interest in the Snyder and Scurry County area. He keynoted this desire for betterment of this area back in the days when Snyderites were seeking to raise funds for the new hospital.

When the hospital campaign appeared in danger of bogging down, Mr. Cogdell gave its boosters 20 acres of land for a building site at the northwest corner of his "home place" and put in $200,000 for "seed" so public subscription of funds could be given the impetus which ultimately made the hospital a reality.

Mr. Cogdell also donated land and considerable funds to the project of building the Trinity Methodist Church in the Cogdell Center. Also in that area he gave the land for the Grace Lutheran Church, and also built the Martha Ann Woman's Club and dedicated it to the women of the Snyder area. The Clubhouse was named for a daughter who had died at the age of 13 years.

In 1954 Mr. Cogdell, along with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bradshaw, of Waco, donated the [illegible] to be named the Cogdell Memorial Methodist Church in honor of his father and also the late R. R. Cogdell, his uncle, who was Mrs. Bradshaw's father. Mr. Cogdell also gave $50,000 to help with the building of the $250,000 structure.

Space Program Delayed By Delta Rocket Problems

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's scientific satellite program has been slowed seriously by problems with a new third stage on the once reliable Delta rocket.

Three Delta launchings scheduled in October and November apparently will be delayed until [illegible]. The Vanguard 9 weather satellite, an orbiting solar observatory and an Explorer radiation - sensing payload.

These delays in turn will cause postponement of follow-on Delta shots. Only two launching pads here are available for the rocket, the workhorse booster for medium-size satellites.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Goddard Space Flight Center is trying to solve the third-stage problem. It also is looking for a possible substitute motor.

The third stage, called the X258, is 59 inches tall, weighs 576 pounds and burns solid fuel. It has been used four times on Delta rockets and not once has performed as intended. However, [illegible] every one of the satellites achieved orbit, and two — the Syncom 3 communications payload and the first Interplanetary Monitoring Platform — IMP-1 — are operating as planned.

An Explorer ionosphere-study satellite failed to orbit and IMP-2 achieved such a low orbit that most of its instruments are not providing useful data.

A space agency spokesman said engineers believe the X258 is "tipping-off" and "coning." Tipping-off is a term to describe a slight jar when the X258 separates from the second stage, knocking it off line. Coning means that it travels in spiral fashion instead of on a straight line.

The demanding missions as [illegible] have extended the stage beyond its capability.

IMP-2, for example, was to have shot into an orbit with a high point of 161,000 miles. It reached only 59,000 miles. The X258 has performed satisfactorily on four occasions, however, when it has been a segment of a smaller Scout satellite rocket, whose assignments call for low orbits which are relatively easy to achieve.

The architects showed the court preliminary drawings of the coliseum which will be built here.

Forensic Squad In 2 Victories

The Snyder Forensic Squad tasted victory twice Saturday at the Seminole Debate and Speech Tournament. After a full day of debating the team of Aleta January and Nan Martin defeated all of their opponents to capture the coveted first place trophy and two gold medals for Snyder.

The team took an outstanding victory over a strong Odessa High School team that has won some 8 to 10 major tournaments in the last year. Forty - four debate teams from 10 4A and 3A schools competed.

Jay Don Rogers captured another victory for Snyder by winning a first place gold medal after defeating more than 20 other contestants in the persuasive speaking contest. Jeff Graham won third place in a prose contest. This is the second major victory for Snyder this year. The squad shared a four way tie for first and second places two weeks ago at the Andrews High School Debate Tournament.

This is the beginning of the fourth year for the Snyder Forensic Squad to compete in major 3A and 4A tournaments in Texas. For the last three years the Squad has never failed to qualify for the finals of more than 30 speech and debate tournaments. The finals are composed of the top six to eight teams or contestants from a field of 200 to 500 students. The Snyder Forensic Squad has won 18 first places in district and regional Interscholastic League meets in the last three years, had four students to win as high as second in the state meet, and won the district championship sweepstakes for the last two years.

Both Abilene Christian College and Texas Technological College have recently invited the Snyder Forensic Squad to furnish the model speakers for speech teachers and speech students conferences on public address and debate. The squad is directed by Bobby L. Taylor.

Burch Vows To Resist Ousting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's support of Dean Burch's claim that he has "a four-year contract" to head the Republican National Committee pushed bickering Republicans today toward a showdown over control of their party machinery.

Burch said Sunday he will fight back if anyone tries to oust him.

Among others, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, former Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York made it clear they will use all the influence they have to force a change in leadership of the national committee.

Goldwater said on his return Sunday night from a Jamaican vacation after his defeat by President Johnson that the party should honor Burch's "contract." Goldwater picked Burch for the chairmanship after his own nomination at the San Francisco convention and the committee in turn elected the Phoenix, Ariz., lawyer.

Burch has scheduled a January meeting of the national committee at which he has said he would stand or fall on a vote of confidence.

An Associated Press survey showed that the comparatively few national committee members willing to express an opinion were about evenly divided on whether the chairman should step aside because of his part in the election campaign. Many members of the committee said something must be done to rebuild the party, but not many were specific about what form this should take.

Veteran politicians had expected Burch to save his $30,000-a-year job by some conciliatory statement that he would serve all party factions as a non-policy-making director.

This would have followed the pattern of Goldwater's statement that the Republican course in the next four years will be carved out by GOP members of the Senate and House under the leadership of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

Funeral services for Mr. Cogdell were to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Trinity Methodist Church with the Rev. Elton Wyatt of Petersburg, a former pastor of the church, and the Rev. Ross Dunn, present pastor, officiating. Burial was to be in Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Canyon's Existence Is Confirmed

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — The first direct evidence confirming existence of the "Hatteras submarine canyon" was reported by Duke University scientists Sunday.

Dr. Robert Menzies, director of the university's oceanography program, said sonar soundings from the university research ship Eastward indicated the chasm in the Atlantic Ocean floor off Cape Hatteras is several hundred feet deep and may be several hundred miles long.

The canyon has been an object of speculation for more than 20 years.

The Kaaba is a cube-shape, basalt structure that stands in the open courtyard of Mecca's Great Mosque. According to tradition, the shrine was built by Abraham at the command of God.

US Missionary To Be Executed

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Dr. Paul Carlson, an American medical missionary who refused to abandon his Congolese patients behind rebel lines, is to be executed in Stanleyville today, a rebel broadcast announced.

The rebels charged Carlson, 36, was a major in the U.S. armed forces.

(In Washington the Pentagon said Carlson is not a military man.)

U.S. Embassy officials in Leopoldville said Carlson, 36, belonged to the Protestant mission Evangelique de L'Ubangi which has its headquarters at the Covenant World Mission in Chicago.

They said Carlson's only military experience was a two-year hitch in the Navy between 1946 and 1948.

Carlson was captured by the rebels on Sept. 21 at Yakoma, north of Stanleyville on the Congo's border with the Central African Republic. He had radioed earlier that he intended to stay behind to treat sick and wounded.

Christophe Gbenye, self-proclaimed president of the Communist-backed "Congolese Peoples' Republic" in Stanleyville, announced last month that Carlson was being held in the rebel capital, awaiting trial.

In Chicago, Dr. Arden Almquist, executive secretary of Covenant World Missions, said Carlson "definitely is not a spy.

"Part of his difficulty may be that we have radio communication between our various mission stations and we have transmitters," he said.

"It's possible the use of the transmitters or rebel knowledge of that fact that he has one may be interpreted by them to mean that he is spying."

Carlson is the first white foreigner rebel leaders have ordered executed.

Thousands of Congolese have been murdered. Central government troops who recaptured Kindu, capital of Maniema Province, found the foot of a monument to the late Patrice Lumumba, the Congo's extremist first premier blackened and cracked by heat where rebels had burned hundreds of Congolese alive.

Messages filtering out of Stanleyville say batches of Congolese are killed there each day at the foot of a monument to Lumumba.

More than 1,000 foreigners are still in the rebel zone, including more than 60 Americans.

Most of the trapped Americans are missionaries or teachers at Stanleyville's Protestant University. Five Americans from the U.S. consulate in Stanleyville have been held more than two months.

The rebels hoped to pressure the United States, Belgium and other Western nations into dropping support of Premier Moishe Tshombe.

Assassination Site To Be Restored

WASHINGTON (AP) — The old Ford's Theater building is to be closed on Nov. 30 so that work may start on restoring the interior to its appearance the night of April 14, 1865, when President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated.

Work will take about two years, said Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall. Congress has voted $2,730,600 for the restoration.

The building now houses the Lincoln Museum and has little to indicate that it was once a theater. During restoration the museum items will be placed in storage but later will be on display in the theater basement.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and a college senior. I could have had many dates last year but a boy on campus monopolized all my time and ruined my chances with everyone else. At the end of the semester I told him I wasn't sure I cared enough about him to continue dating him in the fall. I said we shouldn't see each other over the summer, but should think it over and talk about it again when school resumed. He said he loved me and always would but he'd abide by my wishes.

When we returned to school he immediately started dating another girl. I called him and told him I wanted to talk to him. (I was going to tell him I DID love him.) When he came to see me, he brought the other girl along. I knew then that it was all over between us. Now everyone is saying that HE dropped ME for HER. This is hurting my reputation and I think it's his place to tell our friends that I dropped HIM. What do you think?

NOT DROPPED

DEAR NOT: All right, so you weren't "dropped" — you were freed. But don't expect him to put an ad in the paper. Your pride may be bruised but your reputation won't suffer.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Six months ago I took a course in "scientific massaging" and I passed the examination without any trouble. I massage as a side line to earn extra money. I enjoy massaging because it brings relaxation to many. I massage men, women and even children. I carry my own table and go to their homes by appointment. My problem is my wife. She does not want me massaging ladies. I say that my work is like a doctor's and there is no reason why I shouldn't massage ladies. What is your opinion?

MASSERU

DEAR MASSERU: Your wife apparently fears that your lady clients may be getting a treat instead of a treatment. Such fears could be caused by her own feelings of inadequacy. Keep assuring her that she has absolutely nothing to worry about. (P. S. The little woman is jealous — but don't rub it in.)

* * *

DEAR ABBY: That lady who wrote about the "Open House" shower, where an ad was placed in the newspaper and anyone who wanted to come was welcome, was a piker compared to someone in my husband's family. Listen to this: One of the girls had to get married, so all her aunts got together and gave her a combination BRIDAL and BABY shower! Practical, I suppose, but wasn't that the absolute limit?

OWOSSO, MICHIGAN

DEAR OWOSSO: I'd say they exceeded the limit. Speed and otherwise.

CONFIDENTIAL TO POSTAL EMPLOYEE: All my mail is opened for me with the aid of an electric letter - opener, and the envelopes are discarded. When I read unsigned letters, unless some reference to the city is made, I have no way of knowing from where the letter has come.

Prelates Hear Appeal For Poor

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The 2,000 Roman Catholic prelates entered the final week of the current session of the Vatican Ecumenical Council today and heard an appeal for donations to the poor of the world, just as Pope Paul VI gave away his own jeweled crown.

Archbishop Percile Felici, secretary general of the Council, told the assembly in St. Peter's Basilica that a number of cardinals gave the Pope money for the needy after the pontiff's dramatic gesture last Friday.

The archbishop said many council father had asked how they could "participate" in Pope Paul's action.

"The very best way would be to give offerings to the Pope for the poor," Archbishop Felice said. He asked that such contributions be sent to the Vatican secretariat of state.

He appeared to be talking of cash contributions although at past council sessions some prelates suggested that bishops turn in their rings and pectoral crosses as a way of raising money for the poor.

There was no indication from Vatican sources how Pope Paul's $10,000 crown would be used to help the poor.

The council began the 10th and last week of its third session.

Labor Battle Smouldering In New Congress Agenda

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — An explosive labor battle with a short fuse is sizzling in the wings of the new Congress.

The fight is expected to flare up soon after Congress meets in January. It could be the hottest labor battle since the 1959 Congress cracked down on union racketeering with the Landrum-Griffin Act.

The issue is simple. Organized labor wants to repeal one short paragraph in federal labor law that directly affects every union in America and about one-third of the nation's approximately 70 million workers.

The paragraph — Section 14B of the 1947 Taft-Hartley Act — permits states to outlaw union shop labor contracts under which every worker must join the union. Twenty states have outlawed them. They are legal in the 30 other states.

Jubilant labor leaders have been waiting 18 years for the fight time to light the fuse in Congress to wipe out the 20 state "right-to-work" laws. They're in no mood to wait. They think the hefty new Democratic majority makes repeal of 14B a cinch.

George Meany, president of the 13 - million - member AFL-CIO, has tagged it labor's No. 1 goal in Congress in 1965. Even unions that don't get along with the big federation agree.

Labor spokesmen predict a fast, short, hot fight in which "we expect to be victorious." Opponents are led by the National Right-to-Work Committee. Even before union leaders made their move, the committee said: "The hierarchy of organized labor is trying to take a giant step toward their admitted goal of forcing every employed person in the nation to pay a union boss for the privilege of working."

The committee is also talking about court action if labor wins.

In pressing for repeal, labor will be trying to collect on a four-year-old Democratic campaign promise. It was written into the Democratic platform in 1960 as well as 1964, but until now labor didn't have the political muscle in the House to force the issue.

What makes labor so confident is that the new Congress will have a majority of labor-backed members in the House for the first time.

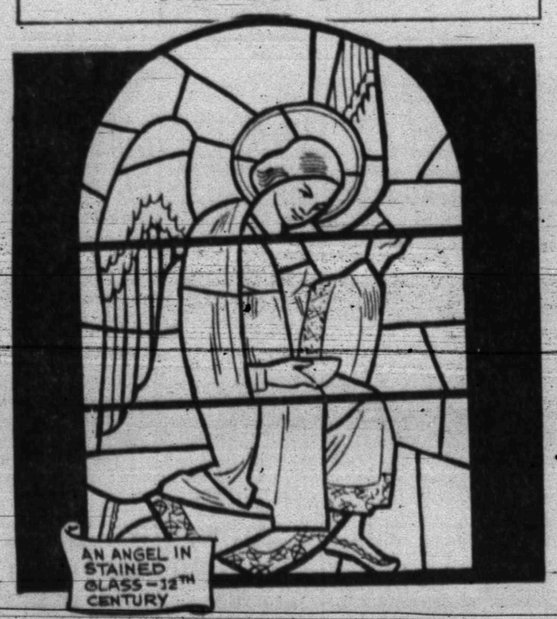

The Committee on Political Education, the AFL-CIO's political arm, helped boost 233 House members into office. Labor leaders are also eager to take quick advantage of the defeat of GOP presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, the Senate's right-to-work champion.

Union men believe right-to-work laws drag down the whole cause of organized labor, not just in the 20 states that have them. Repeal of 14B could set off major organizing drives.

The National Council for Industrial Peace, which lobbies against right - to - work legislation, said the issue "brought about a revolution" in the contro of legislatures in Montana, New Mexico, Wyoming, Utah, Indiana and Pennsylvania.

The states with right-to-work laws are Utah, Indiana, Kansas, Wyoming, Arkansas, Arizona, Florida, Nebraska, Georgia, Iowa, North Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, North Dakota, Nevada, Alabama, South Carolina and Mississippi.

Junior Editors Quiz on Stained Glass

QUESTION: How were the stained glass windows in cathedrals made?

• • •

ANSWER: Very ancient glass objects usually have colors, because these came from chemical impurities in the sand and other materials used. Early glass makers learned which chemicals resulted in which colors—such as a trace of cobalt oxide making a brilliant blue. When, in the Christian era, men began to glorify God by building huge cathedrals, they got the idea of using pieces of glass of different colors in the windows, arranged in a picture so they would both tell some religious story and give a heavenly feeling of beauty when the light streamed through them. To make such windows, a plan was laid out on a large board and the color areas marked. Then pieces of glass of different colors which matched the sketch were cut and laid down. Glass was scarce and valuable, so they had to piece what they had together, which is why you see lines going across in odd places. With the pieces all assembled, fine details such as drapery lines would be painted in enamel, and these baked on the glass. Finally, the pieces were set into lead strips, getting the effect of the original design. The black strips overlap the glass on both sides and hold it firmly in place.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Our artist has left out some detail so you can color the window and have it clear and brilliant. Use bright contrasting colors to get the feeling of the light coming through.

Columnist Reads His Mail Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Drowning is the fourth highest cause of accidental death in America — and four out of five who drown are male.

For generations, musicians have held that the quality of wood in a musical instrument affects its tone, but a scientist at the University of Southern California claims that a clarinet made from a section of plastic garden hose produced just as good music.

People fib most about their age, the number of times they go to church, and how often they brush their teeth.

Hint to housewives: Don't wash eggs before you store them in the refrigerator. Water destroys the protective film that helps keep out air and odors.

Researchers at Rutgers University have found that the more educated you are, the more likely you are to drink. Over half those with grammar school educations drink, but the figure rises to 70 per cent for high school graduates, and above that for those who went to college.

Mother, have you ever noticed the wan smile on the face of a supermarket manager when you come into his store with a child? That's because it costs the average supermarket $3,700 a year to replace equipment and merchandise damaged by youngsters.

SWC Teams Feel Better

by HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Forgive the Southwest Conference for feeling a trifle chesty—it has just contributed teams to the two top-rated bowls in the country. Games that got the top-rated teams eligible for bowls, that is.

Texas, ranked No. 5, meets Alabama, No. 2, in the Orange Bowl. That latter hasn't said it will be at Miami Jan 1 but it's only a matter of meeting the rules of its conference. Alabama has to finish the season before it can publicly accept a bowl bid.

Arkansas, rated No. 3, meets Nebraska, No. 4, in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

Arkansas is the undefeated, untied leader of the Southwest Conference, expected to win the championship undisputed Saturday when it plays Texas Tech at Lubbock in the final game.

Texas is second in the conference and could tie for the title Should Arkansas stumble to Tech while the Longhorns were socking Texas A&M on Thanksgiving day.

Of course No. 1 is Notre Dame but apparently it isn't going to a bowl game.

The Southwest Conference also felt pretty good about its intersectional record. It appeared for a time that the league might make its worst showing but Baylor and Texas Tech took care of all worries Saturday when they beat Kentucky and Washington State respectively.

So the conference winds up 10-10 in intersectional play.

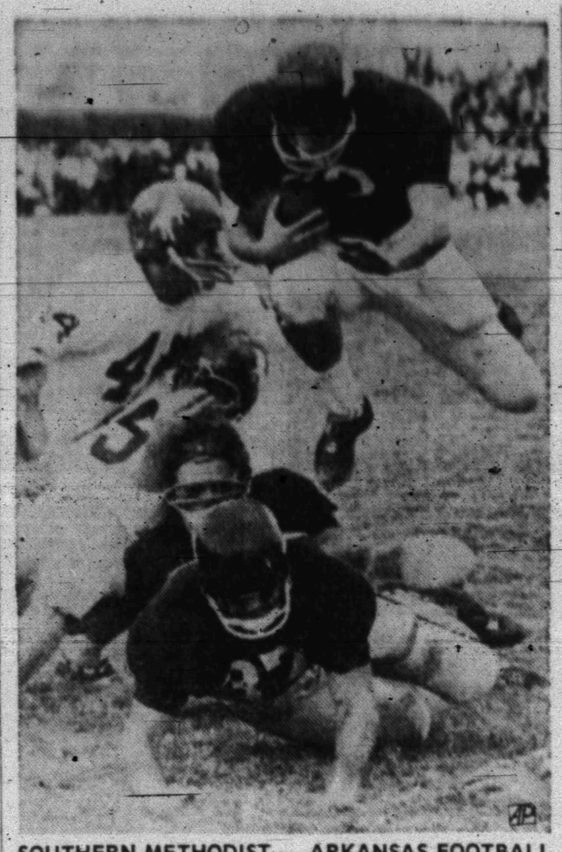

Arkansas clinched a tie for the title Saturday when it swamped Southern Methodist 44-0. That also made Arkansas host team in the Cotton Bowl.

Texas whipped Texas Christian 28-13 and got into the Orange Bowl. Texas also stayed only a game back of Arkansas and still held onto its hopes of gaining a championship tie.

Rice beat Texas A&M 19-8 and moved into fourth place in the conference standings.

Baylor's triumph over Kentucky was 17-15 and Texas Teck's victory over Washington State was 28-10. The conference thanked the Bears and Red Raiders for doing their part to keep it above water on the intersectional run.

Rice and Texas Christian play at Houston while Baylor and Southern Methodist battle at Dallas in conference games Saturday. Texas and Texas A&M are idle this week. They will wind up the season Thanksgiving Day at Austin.

SOUTHERN METHODIST — ARKANSAS FOOTBALL —The University of Arkansas' Bobby Burnett scores the third touchdown for the Razorbacks as they led at halftime 21-0. Southern Methodist University players trying for the stop are No. 44 Richard Stark and Charles Standifier. Arkansas fullback No. 37 Bobby Nix leads the play. (AP Wirephoto)

Alex Hawkins Saves Colts

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Alex Hawkins is the Baltimore Colts' third captain, sixth running back and seventh pass receiver.

He also is a major reason why the Colts are within one victory of gaining the title in the National Football League's Western Conference.

Hawkins, filling in for injured end Raymond Berry, made a diving catch of a 26-yard touchdown pass from Johnny Unitas that boosted the Colts to a 17-14 victory over Minnesota Sunday.

The Colts' ninth straight triumph gave them a virtually insurmountable 3½-game lead over Detroit and Los Angeles which both lost. They now have four games in which to win one that will make them conference champions for the first time since 1959.

Hawkins, in his fifth season, is one of the most valuable utility men in the league. He plays where he is needed — behind five other runners and six other pass receivers — but his primary job is heading the special teams — the kicking and receiving units.

In that position, he joins quarterback Unitas and defensive end Gino Marchetti as Baltimore's captains.

But in his position of end Sunday, he caught only his second pass on the season and scored his first touchdown since 1962.

The 6-foot-1, 186-pound veteran entered the game on offense a short while before he was called on for the winning catch. It came with six minutes left and Baltimore trailing 14-10.

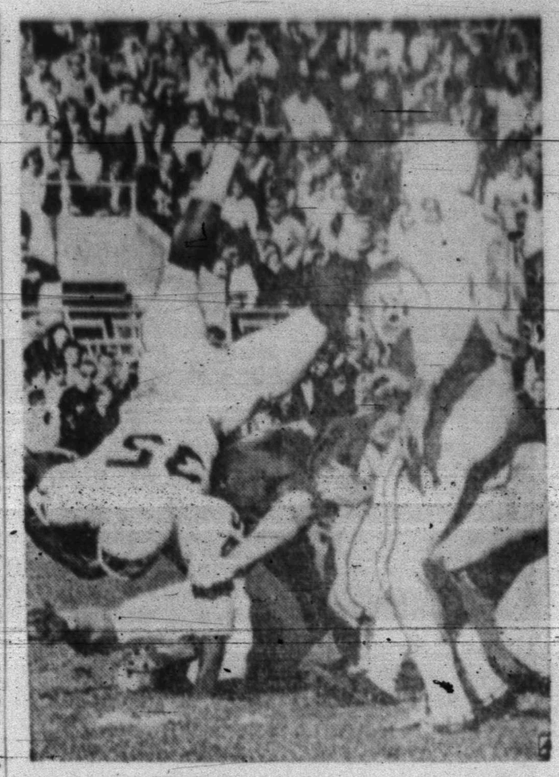

The touchdown was the 15th of Hawkins' career, putting him slightly behind Jimmy Brown, who has 103. Brown scored two touchdowns in Cleveland's 37-21 victory over Detroit.

In other games, Chicago stopped Los Angeles 34-24, New York tied St. Louis 10-10, San Francisco upset Green Bay 24-14, Philadelphia edged Dallas 17-14 and Washington walloped Pittsburgh 30-0.

The Colts broke a scoreless tie with Lou Michaels' 35-yard field goal and Unitas' 74-yard touchdown pass to Lenny Moore in the third quarter. Moore's score marked the 13th consecutive game in which he has gone across with a touchdown.

Minnesota, however, came back with two touchdowns. Fran Tarkenton's 16-yard aerial to Hal Bedsole and Tommy Mason's 21-yard run.

Brown's scoring smashes of six and two yards placed him only two behind Don Hutson's all-time record for total touchdowns. Lou Groza added field goals of 38, 47 and 36 yards to the Browns' victory that shot them 2½ games in front in the Eastern Conference.

WILDCAT UPENDED—Northwestern's Woody Campbell (35) is brought down hard after picking up eight yards against Ohio State in second quarter play. Northwestern's Ron Rector (29) looks on as the Bucks' Ike Kelley (53) moves in to help. The tackle was made by an unidentified Buckeye. (AP Wirephoto)

Class AA, A Get Started In Playoffs

By The Associated Press

They start the drive for two state championships of Texas schoolboy football this week while the upper divisions — Classes AAAA and AAA — wind up the district campaign.

Classes AA and A open the state playoffs with 16 games in each division and the favorites will be Phillips in Class AA and Hull-Daisetta in Class A.

But Phillips must open its bid by tackling another undefeated, untied team—Iowa Park.

Hull-Daisetta has it much easier. The South Texas team, that rolled through 10 straight games like a scythe, faces three-times loser Weimar in the bi-district round.

Petersburg, the defending champion of Class A, is again in the playoffs but not expected to get very far. It might lose its first battle. Springlake, which has a 9-1 record compared to 8-1 for Petersburg, is the opening foe.

There are 16 undefeated teams in the two classes with two of them, however, having ties on their records—Sinton of AA and Rosebud of A.

Undefeated, untied teams left in AA are Phillips, Iowa Park, Denver City, Alpine, Dublin, Atlanta, Canton (which is unscored on), Taylor, Palacios and San Antonio Randolph.

In A teams with perfect records are Coahoma, Clifton, Hull-Daisetta and Three Rivers.

While Classes AA and A are entering the state playoffs, Classes AAAA and AAA each decide 10 district champions to round out the brackets of 16 teams that will enter the fight for state titles next week.

Already in the Class AAAA playoffs are Garland, the defending state champion; Amarillo Tascosa, Nederland, Galena Park, San Antonio Highlands and San Antonio Burbank.

In Class AAA these teams have reached the playoffs: Dumas, Andrews, Sweetwater, Vidor, Cypress-Fairbanks and San Marcos.

In A the teams with perfect records are Coahoma, Clifton, Hull-Daisetta and Three Rivers.

Snyder Pee Wee Stars Win Pair

LAMESA — Scurry County Boys' Club Pee Wee All-Stars scored a pair of shutouts over Lamesa all-stars in a pair of football games Saturday afternoon.

The 11-12 year-old Super All-Stars from Snyder rolled to a 16-0 decision after the 9-10 year-old Snyder stars had taken a 14-0 victory.

After a scoreless first half in the 9-10 game, Jackie Murray galloped 90 yards with the opening kickoff in the second half to launch the scoring. Jerry Hardin went over from five yards out for the second six-pointer after Karl McKinney had set it up with a 50-yard run. Mike Line picked up the two extra points. Cited for top defensive play were Line, John Rushing and Lewis Lloyd.

The Snyder 11-12 super stars scored in the second period when Tony Breedlove went over right tackle for a 40-yard touchdown run.

In the third period, Stewart Sims hit left tackle for 8 yards and a touchdown, and Mike Shearburn rolled out around right end for the two extra points. The Snyder team got a safety, also in the third period when Bid Cooper nailed the Lamesa quarterback in the end zone.

Top ball carriers for Snyder were Sims, Breedlove, Glenn Rambin and Gary Shields. Top blockers were Barry Welch, Bobby Thompson, Travis Angel and Jerry Smith, while leading defensive players were Johnny Quiros, Stephen Camp, Bid Cooper, Steve Dillaha, Billy Kay, Joe Hale, Larry Wall and Bill Wilson.

Lamesa teams will go to Snyder for return matches Saturday. The Saturday card in Snyder will find the Snyder Red and Blue all-stars playing each other at 5:30 p.m., the Snyder-Lamesa 9-10 all-star game at 6:30 p.m. and the 11-12 Super stars of Snyder meeting Lamesa at 7:30.

Bills' Fireman Unable To Move When Team Is Ahead

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Key injuries and costly fumbles opened the gates. Babe Parilli's right arm finished the job. But the Buffalo Bills' magic may have started to slip away when they called for the fireman before the fire had started.

The Boston Patriots capitalized on Buffalo mistakes Sunday and, with Parilli firing five touchdown passes, rallied for a 36-28 American Football League victory that ended the Bills' winning string at nine games.

Injuries to pass receivers Glenn 'Bass and El Dubenion and defensive back Booker Edgerson contributed to the Buffalo fadeout. So did three fumbles that set up Boston touchdowns. The tip-off, however, came in the second half when the Bills made a mistake that won't show in the game statistics.

They sent in Daryle Lamonica —when they were ahead.

Lamonica, the league's No. 1 relief pitcher, had come off the bench in six previous games and led the Bills to comeback victories. But, when he replaced starting quarterback Jack Kemp midway through the third quarter, with Buffalo leading 28-14, the move backfired.

After a five-yard delay-of-game penalty moved the ball from the Buffalo 27 to the 22, Lamonica threw an incomplete pass, was tossed for a 10-yard loss on the next play and then lost the ball to Boston's Larry Eisenhower on the 5.

Parilli immediately flipped a five-yard scoring pass to Gino Cappelletti and the Patriots struck for two more touchdowns in the last quarter to pull it out.

While the Bills' loss tightened the Eastern Division race, the San Diego Chargers closed in on the Western title by whipping Kansas City 28-14 behind second-year quarterback John Hadl. The Denver Broncos surprised the New York Jets 20-16 and the Oakland Raiders toppled the Houston Oilers 20-10.

Boston scored the go-ahead points on Parilli's six-yard pass to Larry Garron and a two-point conversion flip to Cappelletti, whose 24 points raised his league-leading total to 122.

The Pats' victory lifted them within 1½ games of the front-running Bills in the Eastern race. The clubs wind up the season at Boston next month in a game that could decide the title.

The Chargers, 7-2-1, can nail their second successive Western crown by winning two of their remaining four games.

Langston Powell's 12 points was tops for the Lincoln boys B team. Billy McClain had 9, Hayward Clay 6, Sylvester McKnight 3 and Don Williams and Leon Riggins 2 each. Clay led in rebounds with 8. Harvey Denson was high man for Sweetwater B with 15 points.

Sam Houston Takes Title

By The Associated Press

Sam Houston State has the Lone Star Conference championship in the bag and goes after a perfect season Saturday when the Bearkats wind up against Sul Ross at Huntsville.

Sam Houston beat Texas A&I 21-16 to clinch the championship. Sul Ross pushed into a tie for second place with A&I when it downed Howard Payne 12-8.

Kathy Whitworth Captures Title

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Kathy Whitworth had her first golf tournament victory of the year today as she headed for Japan and an exhibition tour.

Miss Whitworth fired a closing two-under-par 70 Sunday and won the $10,000 San Antonio Civitan Open first prize of $1,500 with 283 for 72 holes.

Lamar Tech Wins Crown

By The Associated Press

The first Southland Conference football race is at an end with Lamar Tech picking up all the marbles.

The Cardinals played Arkansas State to a 7-7 tie Saturday to sew up the title. Arkansas State was undefeated but had two ties on its record.

Trinity beat Arlington State 23-7 for third place and leaving the latter in the cellar. Abilene Christian, which wound up fourth, played an intersectional game, losing to Drake 14-3.

Two games with outsiders end the season Saturday. Arlington State plays West Texas State at Arlington while Lamar Tech meets Southwest Missouri at Springfield, Mo.

Cincinnati Wraps Up Valley Title

By The Associated Press

Cincinnati has wrapped up another Missouri Valley football crown and the only remaining questions involve second place and possible owl bids for Cincinnati, and high-scoring Tulsa.

Both Tulsa and Cincinnati could finish with 8-2 season records, good enough for post-season play. Tulsa, the national scoring leader, appears to have the best bowl chance despite losses of 31-22 to unbeaten Arkansas and 28-23 to Cincinnati.

This is because of the presence of passer Jerry Rhome, who smashed six national records in his team's 47-0 romp over North Texas Saturday. Split end Howard Twilley also set an NCAA mark and Tulsa broke two team national records.

Cincinnati evened matters against Wichita, the only Valley team to beat the Bearcats the past two seasons. Forced to share the crown last year, the Bearcats nailed down its first undisputed title with a 19-7 victory at Wichita. It was Wichita's first home loss since 1962.

In the other game, Louisville lost at Memphis State 34-0, dropping the Valley's record against outside teams to 11-16-1. This Saturday Cincinnati plays at Miami of Ohio, Drake at Louisville and Tulsa at Toledo in a night contest. North Texas is at Wichita in the only league game.

Sugar Bowl scouts watched Rhome hit 17 of 23 passes for 268 yards and four touchdowns. One of his marks is 134 consecutive passes without an interception.

Irish Still May Be Bowl Candidate

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The feeling grows that the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame, the country's No. 1 college football team, may make themselves available for a bowl bid provided they beat Iowa this week and Southern California a week from Saturday to wind up a perfect 10-0-0 season.

The bowl situation jelled somewhat over the weekend with the announcement that Arkansas and Nebraska, each unbeaten and untied in nine games, will play in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas New Year's Day. Texas, 8-1, accepted an invitation for the Orange Bowl at Miami New Year's night. Unofficially Alabama, 9-0-0 and second-ranked nationally to Notre Dame, was indicated as the opponent for the Longhorns.

That leaves the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans and the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., as the other major bowls Jan. 1.

A Sugar Bowl source told The Associated Press Sunday that Louisiana State, 6-1-1, and Syracuse, 7-2, will play there although no official announcement is expected until after this week's games.

The Rose Bowl is committed to teams from the Big Ten and Pacific Athletic Conference.

The powers-that-be at Notre Dame haven't said yes or no or maybe regarding a bowl bid, but there's no doubt the players would be for it.

"I guess it would be great," said star pass receiver Jack Snow after the Irish walloped Michigan State 34-7 Saturday for their eighth in a row. Going from a 5-5 season to a 2-7 season and now a bowl. I'd like it, but it's not up to me to say anything."

Coach Ara Parseghian declares only "it's an administrative problem" and Athletic Director Moose Krause denies saying "chances of accepting (a bowl bid) were one in a million, no a billion."

All this talk plus the fact that the athletic board, headed by University Executive Vice President Edmund P. Joyce, C.S.C., has made no announcement one way or the other, accounts for the feeling that the Irish might be receptive to a bid.

Team officials at Arkansas, Nebraska and Texas expressed elation at being named to bowls.

"It's a great day, a milestone, anything you want to say," Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said after his Porkers had crushed Southern Methodist 44-0.

"The players all shouted they wanted the Orange when I told them they could have their choice of a bowl," said Texas Coach Darrell Royal after the Longhorns had whipped Texas Christian 28-13.

Nebraska accepted the Cotton Bowl bid after defeating Oklahoma State 27-14 for its 16th straight victory. The Cornhuskers are fourth-ranked nationally, Arkansas No. 3 and Texas, last year's national champs, No. 5.

Michigan, No. 6, whipped Iowa 34-20, and Ohio State, No. 7, downed Northwestern 10-0 and now are primed for their Big Ten title and Rose Bowl bid clash Saturday. Woody Hayes, Ohio State coach, aptly termed it the "purgatory or Pasadena" game.

Stanford upset No. 8 Oregon State 16-7 to set up the confusing situation in the PAC. Oregon State, UCLA, Southern California and Washington share the lead and if Oregon beats Oregon State Saturday the Ducks would have the best over-all team record 8-1-1, although only a 2-1-1 conference mark. That night lead those whose task it is to pick a team for the Rose Bowl to flip a coin.

Alabama crushed 10th-ranked Georgia Tech 24-7 and LSU, No. 9, downed Mississippi State 14-10 in other games involving The AP's Top Ten.

Princeton, another major unbeaten-untied team, won the Ivy League title by tripping Yale 35-14.

Reds Do Booming Business In London Banking Circles

LONDON (AP) — The fastest expanding bank in London is run by Russian Communists.

It does business on fully traditional lines with the avowed aim of turning a profit — and it does, indicating a Communist institution can flourish in capitalist surroundings.

The Moscow Narodny (People's) Bank was founded here as a branch of a Moscow bank back in czarist days. When the Bolsheviks took over, they had it incorporated under British law.

Moscow Narodny started out cautiously in the heady world of capitalist high finance. Its first modest office overlooked leafy Finsbury Circus, several blocks from the heart of the City, London's financial section. Its business was confined largely to finding credits for then almost nonexistent British-Soviet trade.

In a few years the Russians moved their bank to larger quarters on Moorgate, just the toss of a ruble from the Bank of England. There City gents in bowler hats with furled umbrellas, top-hatted bank messengers, whistling office boys provided the atmosphere.

Last June, with its business booming after the removal of embargoes on much East-West trade, Moscow Narodny moved to a new eight-story steel and glass structure on the approach to London Bridge.

The main hall is like that of any British bank — black and white marble, a gold mosaic wall, lots of polished mahogany. Discreet gold emblems on the plate-glass windows proclaim MNB — The Bank for East-West Trade.

Most of the staff of 200, including clerks and cashiers, are British. So is General Manager Cyril Dicks — "You don't have to be a Communist to work here." The over-all boss is a jovial-looking Russian, Andrei Doubonossov, and there are one or two other Russians in the top executive posts.

Moscow Narodny's money comes from the Soviet state banks and those of the satellite countries. It is used to purchase goods from Britain and the Commonwealth — Malaysian rubber, Australian wool. In reverse it finances sales of Russian timber and furs and hides.

On its retail side the bank pays diplomats and other Russians working in Britain. It has a few English accounts, mainly held by exporters. Any Englishman producing the proper references may open an account.

Last year the bank doubled its capital to $11.2 million. Assets rose from $291 million to $582 million. Profits after taxes were $1.29 million, providing enough for a dividend of $1.12 million to its state shareholders back in the Soviet Union.

Although Moscow Narodny claims to have financed more than half the $2.4-billion trade between the Soviet bloc and the sterling area, it is seeking to broaden its business.

"We have excess funds to employ and it is naturally best to do so at a profit," said Chairman Doubonossov early this year. "It is not good business to have all our money tied up in one activity, such as East-West trade."

The bank has invested in British government securities to the tune of almost $4 million.

Its other activities include dealing in the foreign exchange market, financing of some British trade with the United Arab Republic, and loans to British municipalities to finance improvements.

Most of the loan-seeking municipalities have been Socialist-controlled, but some have been Conservative too.

One of the loans was to the Tory Urban Council of Chorleywood in the Buckinghamshire stockbroker belt. H. J. Ryman, chairman of the council's finance committee, found himself temporarily embarrassed because titled houseowners and wealthy company directors don't pay their taxes on time. He went to the Moscow Narodny for $140,000 to tide him over. He got the loan at 4½ per cent. "We're certainly in the red now," he jokes.

Another Tory-controlled council to seek aid was that of Wanstead and Woodford, better known as Sir Winston Churchill's old parliamentary district.

Although these loans sometimes make headline news in Britain, the Moscow Narodny bank hasn't always had such favorable publicity.

Sir William Joynson-Hicks, then home secretary, told the House of Commons in 1928 that he had definite proof that British Communists were reciving "Moscow gold" through the Narodny bank. The bank directors denied any knowledge of such transactions.

In 1957 the bank attracted the attention of Scotland Yard, which was investigating its cashing of a $56,000 check during a provincial bus strike. Similar withdrawls had coincided with industrial troubles in England before, it was alleged at the time.

Icing Mist Moves Into Panhandle

By The Associated Press

Freezing drizzle fell at Dalhart in the Panhandle Monday as a cold front moved leisurely through Northwest Texas. Colder weather was in the future for most of the state.

The temperature was 31 degrees when the freezing drizzle fell.

The Weather Bureau reported a sharp drop in temperatures behind the cold front—but said the readings were not below normal even in the colder area.

Ahead of the front, temperatures were unusually warm for this time of year. Humidity was high.

Shortly after dawn, the cold front had reached a line from Henrietta and Stamford to Lamesa. It moved very slowly.

The front triggered rain and was expected to cause still more moisture as it moved southeastward.

A warming trend was expected Tuesday in northwest Texas and throughout the state by the end of the week.

Overnight rainfall totals included Dalhart .43 inch, San Antonio .42, Amarillo .49, Childress .38, Mineral Wells .12, and less than a tenth of an inch at El Paso, Houston, Waco, Abilene, San Angelo, Wichita Falls, Texarkana, Lufkin and Junction.

USDA Predicts Drop In 1965 Wool Crop

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department predicted today another drop in U.S. shorn wool production next year due to a continued decline in sheep numbers. It said prices likely will be slightly less than those received early in 1964.

But it said mill consumption of apparel and carpet wool probably will increase in 1965 from 1964, which was the lowest since 1958. This will mean increased imports of wool and wool products.

Guard Works To Speed Mobility

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Guard has strong hopes its first-line divisions could be in shape to deploy three weeks after mobilization in an emergency, its chief said today.

This would be less than half the eight-week readiness objective set by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

During the Berlin crisis of 1961-62 it took two Guard divisions five months to get into condition for deployment after being mustered into federal service.

Maj. Gen. Winston P. Wilson, chief of the National Guard Bureau, told The Associated Press certain reforms put into effect over the past two years are showing promising results.

The three-week readiness goal of the Guard can be reached "if we are supported properly," Wilson said.

By this he said said he meant getting enough money to broaden weekend drills to include all 400,000 Guardsmen. Up to now, Wilson said, he has been able to find funds to give this kind of training to about 150,000 Guardsmen.

Another must, he said, is the modernization and fully equipping of priority Guard units which have been given a key role in the Pentagon's plans which contemplate a 22-division Army force — 16 regular divisions and 6 from the Guard.

The reform on which Wilson placed considerable stress was the substitution of weekend drills in the field for one-night-a-week training in armories.

"About all you could do with a man under the old system was show him a tank," Wilson said, "but now he can get out and actually train with the tank."

Because of the widening practice of weekend drills, he said, it is becoming possible to undertake battalion level training in first-line Guard units where company-level training was the best that could be achieved before.

One vital factor in the readiness of high-priority units is the plan to build them up to 100 per cent of their authorized weapons and equipment and to allow them as much as 80 per cent of their full mobilized strength.

For the first time, officials said, Guard units are starting to get equipment right from the factory rather than hand-me-downs from the regular forces.

In the Berlin crisis, the 32nd Division of Wisconsin and the 49th Armored Division of Texas were delayed in rounding into readiness because of severe equipment shortages and the need to fill out their ranks with individual reservists called to active duty.

A guard division is rated ready when it can be deployed to forward position, not necessarily into combat.

For example, if the regular Army's 25th Division should be ordered to the Far East it could be replaced in Hawaii by a priority Guard division. The Guard division would undergo additional training. Its state of readiness would be such, it is hoped, that in a pinch it could be rushed into combat.

A controversial Guard reorganization after the Berlin crisis resulted, among other things, in ticketing six Guard divisions as first line, high priority units destined for early callup in an emergency.

The six divisions are the 26th of Massachusetts, the 28th of Pennsylvania, the 30th of North Carolina, the 42nd of New York, the 50th Armored of New Jersey and the 30th Armored of Tenn.

BUSINESS and INDUSTRIAL NEWS

WHEN HER CUSTOMERS ASKED FOR "ROADRUNNERS" Mrs. Rachel Rogers, owner of Justine's, made some phone calls, wrote some letters, and went to considerable effort to get what her customers wanted. That's because Mrs. Rogers wants her customers to be happy customers. Here she displays one of the "Roadrunner" fashions in wool, made by the Novis-Denne firm of Scottsdale, Ariz.

Justine's Offers Beautiful Fashions In Lovely Store

Whether she's a new customer or a regular customer who has been there many times, every lady who walks into Justine's knows that what she buys will be in good taste.

How does she know?

Simply because everything in the store, from the luxurious purple carpeting to the elegant French Provincial decor proves that Justine's is a store where nothing but fine fashions will be offered.

But a "fine fashion" doesn't have to be high - priced. That's where experience and skill of the buyer are apparent.

Mrs. Rachel Rogers, owner of Justine's, has many years of experience in ladies wear. She has been associated with the store since shortly after its opening in July, 1963, and became the owner recently when she purchased the shop from Mrs. Justine Brown when Mrs. Brown moved from the city.

But that was not Mrs. Rogers' first experience in a ladies specialty shop. When living in California she had been involved in ladies wear, and had come to enjoy working with people and their clothing needs.

"I like being around nice people and nice clothes," Mrs. Rogers said, "and that was why I decided to buy the shop. Because that's what we have here — the nicest customers in town, and, I think, the nicest clothes."

Some of the lines of these "nicest clothes" are Howard Wolf, Lady Van Husen blouses, and Jonathan Logan Junior Knits.

Not only these — the store is chock - full of the finest in hats, gloves, sweaters and skirts from quality manufacturers. And if a new line appears that from Mrs. Rogers' judgment will offer what her customers want, she makes every effort to secure that line for her customers.

While it's admitted that Justine's is a shop for ladies, that doesn't mean that only ladies can shop there. Not at all!

It won't be long before men will be shopping for ladies — and the friendly folks at Justine's will lend a helping hand to the menfolks. A gift from Justine's is a gift that is guaranteed to be in good taste — a gift that will be sure to make a hit.

So ladies, you know the advantages of shopping at Justine's. It will also be to your advantage to start dropping those hints to the men in your life. Justine's will treat them just as well as they do you when you shop there.

Justine's is located on the south side of the Snyder square. And now, since parking is free on the square, take as long as you like in browsing through the beautiful things in the beautiful store — Justine's.

Quick Wit Saves Life

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — A doctor gave Ghent Brewer less than a 50-50 chance to live when he was brought into a hospital with his jugular vein, windpipe and neck arteries severed.

Brewer, 34, beat the odds, partly through first-aid measures applied by policeman Paul Perdue and an off-duty fireman, N. A. Henderson.

The paving contractor, who went home Sunday, was injured Oct. 30 when his pickup truck hit a tree and overturned. Brewer's head and neck went through the windshield.

Perdue, on duty a block away, rushed to Brewer's aid and applied pressure to the neck wound. Henderson saw the accident from his home and ran to help.

In a three-hour operation at the hospital, it took 50 clamps to stop the flow of blood. Surgeons placed 250 stitches around Brewer's neck.

Report To Blame Goose

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — An investigative board was expected to report today that a goose caused the fatal crash of astronaut Theodore C. Freeman's plane Oct. 31.

One of the birds reportedly pierced the cockpit of Freeman's T38 jet trainer and struck the astronaut in the face.

Flights of geese were observed flying close to the ground that day, and workers at the crash scene reportedly found feathers among the wreckage.

Freeman, 34, was approaching Ellington Air Force Base for a landing when, at 300 to 500 feet, the canopy of his swept-wing craft suddenly flew off. The plane crashed into open

Shortage Of Parts Due To Close Ford

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. studied its next move today in a parts-shortage situation which it says could lead to a system-wide shutdown of its 90 plants by the end of the week.

Approximately 58,000 of Ford's 160,000 employes remained idle in strikes or layoffs at factories across the country as negotiations continued with the United Auto Workers Union.

Included were 16,700 workers affected by local-plant strikes which were reduced to five over the weekend.

Ford, blaming a car-parts shortage from key manufacturing plants, laid off 34,000 men last week. At that time a string of local-plant strikes was idling 24,100 workers.

Both company and union expressed hope that all the strikes could be settled before a scheduled meeting between management and the UAW's national bargaining committee Thursday.

The union ordered its national Ford committee to Detroit to assist in negotiations after top-level talks had produced no agreements.

Local agreements at the plant level supplement the national agreement between Ford and the UAW, which was reached Sept. 18. The present local strikes began Nov. 6.

Two weekend settlements, at the Sheffield, Ala., aluminum foundry and the Chicago Heights, Ill., stamping plant, left five disputes remaining in the interlocking nationwide plant system of the country's second-largest automobile producer.

The unsettled disputes were at two car and truck-assembly plants in Wayne, Mich., parts plants at Ypsilanti and in Michigan's Sterling Township, and the Buffalo, N.Y., stamping plant.

Savings Gone Second Time

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Mohamed Ben Ali had hoped to retire this year after 40 years of selling hot chestnuts, peanuts and popcorn from his pushcart.

Saturday night burglars stole what he called his life savings of $24,000. The money included $10,000 in coins, stuffed into peanut bags and hidden in shopping bags.

"I saved and saved and saved — all for a burglar," said the 68-year-old vendor. "I'm just a man without a life. I feel like the blood has run out of me."

Ben Ali, who lives alone, has been a widower nearly 20 years. He left his native Morocco as a teen-ager.

After losing money in the 1929 stock market crash he began to store his cash in paper bags.

The "blackout" period experienced alcoholics is not a period of unconsciousness. It is similar to amnesia or loss of memory.

Possible Wage-Price Advances Feared As Result Of Increased Labor Demands

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — A new labor climate is beginning to shape the economy. Its effect is likely to be stronger in the months ahead.

Already industrial production has been clipped a bit by a rash of strikes in the auto industry. And so have retail sales. The total of new orders by manufacturers has been raised by stirrings within steel union ranks.

At the money end of the economy, bankers report credit conditions slightly less easy and suspect this to be due to official worrying over the part the new labor climate might have in fostering another wage-price spiral some months from now.

The labor climate itself has been affected by changes in two economic currents:

1. Technical advances have eliminated or threatened many jobs, thus making security uppermost in workers' minds.

2. Impressive spurts in profits in many industries have underscored the fact that in the last two years the increases in wage scales have averaged more than a few years back.

Labor is talking increasingly of "total security" in job tenure and "human dignity" in working conditions at the local plant level and "a larger slice of the profit pie".

In some cases management is finding these arguments harder to combat than a year or two ago, before prosperity took its long lease on the economy.

This year's auto labor-management confrontation has affected the climate in two ways: 1. The generous contract has set a goal other union leaders may shoot at, and has aroused fears this may yet set off an inflationary surge. 2. The stress this time on local working conditions has led to strikes, first at General Motors and later at Ford, that have crippled at least temporarily both the industry and some of its suppliers.

The steel labor-mangement confrontation won't come until next spring, but already it is affecting business thinking and planning.

A challenge to present steel union leadership is developing and this could lead to stiffer demands on management to satisfy restless union members.

Customers are stepping up their orders of the metal. They want stocks on hand in case labor demands hit a management stonewall and a strike results. Some also are ordering now because they feel that sooner or later steel prices will be increased with production costs given as one cause.

Such metal stockpiling, and any rush to make up lost time from the auto shutdowns, could give the economy a glow. The trouble is that such a flush usually is followed by a chill.

And prosperous times will strengthen labor's growing demands for a bigger share financially, and for working conditions more to its liking.

Since automation seems sure to be a problem to present job holders for some time to come, and since unemployment will stay troublesome as the labor force swells, the new climate will become more evident and have a deeper effect, at least as long as the present business upswing continues.

Texas Produces It's Share Of Broken Financial Bubbles

DALLAS (AP) — Those loud noises you have been hearing over the past 10 years sometimes are financial bubbles bursting in the faces of creditors.

Texas seems to produce some of the noiser explosions.

Remember these?

U. S. Trust and Guaranty (A. B. Shoemake), ICT (Ben-Jack Cage), the Benson upgrader (John Milton Addison), General American Casualty, Paul Amos Sandblom, and the man that made the rest, except Sandblom, look like small operators, Billie Sol Estes.

The way politicians toss figures around these days, the total loss may not seem so staggering. But there can be no question that it staggered thousands of individuals, some of whom lost their life savings.

The total loss is somewhere around $120 million, depending on how the bookkeeping is done. When you get up into that many millions, money is liable to turn into nothing more than pencil marks on pieces of paper.

Except to the losers.

With at least six big financial collapses in a decade, does a pattern appear?

Not a clear one.

Some big insurance companies simply went broke, a pretty dull way to go when the investors could have had some fun, at least, for their money if they had placed their cash on such characters as John Milton Addison, the evangelist type, or BenJack Cage, who wallowed to his double chin in good-guy sincerity.

Some promotions were such blantant come-ons that in the post-mortems it is difficult to see how anyone would invest a worn-out ten-cent piece.

Of course, you have to remember the affable personalities of the promoters may have been an influence.

If you are one of the disgruntled types who goes around asking "Why ain't I rich and famous?" it may be some consolation that these temporarily rich and famous me ended up without any money.

At least, investigators can't find any money, although one or two of the promoters are living pretty high. They got friends, they say, who help out with a dollar here and a dollar there.

The first big bust of the decade was General American Casualty Co. of San Antonio, which exploded July 16, 1954.

It was not a very sensational collapse, except that four employes of the state insurance commission got fired because they — to quote a civil suit document — "Willfully and maliciously violated their duties as examiners in showing a condition of solvency" when the company owed on 57,000 claims totaling $7 million.

A little more than a year later another big insurance company went down in a somewhat more spectacular manner.

U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co., of Waco, collapsed Dec. 15, 1955, about $7 million in debt, although a liquidator recouped about 40 per cent.

Three weeks later the company's top man, A. B. Shoemake, wrote a note to his wife, sat in a comfortable chair in his palatial home and put a bullet through his head.

The bullet didn't kill him. It damaged part of his brain, leaving him child-like. A hospital authority was asked if Shoemake had the mind of an 8-year-old. The authority said that would be a generous evaluation.

Shoemake is a patient in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Waco.

These two major bankruptcies heralded a wave of insurance company failures in the 1950s and early 1960s. For instance, 28 companies failed in one period of three years. Most were small.

Many causes were cited. Some companies tried to expand too fast on fake assets and poor-risk customers.

Other causes included easy laws and sloppy state supervision.

Yarborough Defends Civil Rights Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., said Sunday he doesn't foresee any additional civil rights legislation until the law has been fully tested.

The Texan also said he believed his vote for the 1964 civil rights bill represented "the true spirit of the South."

The senator said he was a Southerner and "I had no qualms about voting for the bill."

He spoke on Radio Press International's program, "From The People."
