Let The Constitution Prevail

Certain legislative proposals should be opposed on broad questions of principle.

Two such proposals are now current. One would give the President the authority to raise or lower the individual income tax, in order to deal with possible inflationary or deflationary developments. The other would give him carte blanche to launch public works projects costing as much as two billion if he thinks it necessary to help prevent a recession or depression.

There is no sound argument, under our system of government, for giving one man an authority which the Constitution, in full wisdom, vested in Congress. It is no reflection on Mr. Kennedy or any other President to say that one man's judgment is much more likely to falter than the collective judgments of hundreds of members of Congress.

It is argued that giving such vast and unprecedented powers to the president would make possible instantaneous action. But Congress can act in such matters, if action is needed, with only brief delay. And if Congress surrenders the power of the purse to the Executive Branch, the systems of checks and balances established by the Constitution will be weakened to the point of impotence.

THE GREATEST HOAX

Speaking on the floor of the House, Representative Herlong of Florida recently made an extremely important point that seems to be generally overlooked or misunderstood in discussions of government spending: "Only by controlling its spending can the government achieve the results which so often, but inaccurately, are said to come from increased spending. The greatest hoax of our time is the notion that greater spending in the so-called public sector is a means for increasing economic growth. The Government lives off of the private economy, and not vice versa."

The government does not and cannot create genuine wealth and growth. Growth depends upon the availability of capital—from the savings of individuals and from the profits of industry. The more that government takes out of the economy, in taxes, the less there is left to build, renew and revitalize that economy.

It's that simple, in spite of all the clouds of learned words that, more often than not, serve to obscure, not clarify the matter.

WORTHY OF SHYLOCK

The latest on revision of the crazy quilt federal income tax system is a plan now before Congress to enable the government to get more of its taxes from a citizen's earnings before he receives them. It would withhold 20 cents of every dollar of dividends, interest earned on savings accounts in banks, savings and loan associations, etc. If more taxes are withheld than owed, the taxpayer could apply to the treasury for a refund. They are already withholding taxes on wages and salaries.

A depressing aspect of the bill is the lack of confidence shown by the government in the honesty of its citizens—it treats them all as dishonest in order to catch the few who are.

Tax revision can go one step farther—require that all salaries, wages and earnings be paid to the government, and then have the government return to each individual or company whatever might be left to them after the tax-gatherers had done their work. Sounds crazy, but that would make it easier to deal with a nation of crooks.

Farm Facts

Frederick W. Waugh, writing in the Yearbook of Agriculture, points out that everyone has a stake in continuing technological improvements in agriculture.

"Our great modern industries of manufacturing and commerce would have been impossible without the technological revolution in agriculture, which made available the necessary manpower for factories, banks, stores. 'Primitive societies must use most of their resources in primary production—in farming, fishing, forestry, and mining. Very few people can be spared to work in manufacturing, trade, services, the arts and sciences. . . ."

"As our farm labor has become more productive, a smaller and smaller percentage of our workers can feed and clothe our whole population. . . ."

"The direct effects of better agricultural technology are seen in more and better food and fiber. The indirect effects are in more automobiles, television sets, roads, schools, and all sorts of non-agricultural goods and services. "Taking the direct and indirect effects together, the technological revolution in agriculture has contributed a great deal to the prosperity and well-being of all of our people."

Have Car Safety Inspected for '62 By April 15th

Less than thirty per cent of the registered vehicles in this area have been safety inspected for 1962, according to Patrolman Harlan Eades, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

With the April 15 deadline, for having the vehicles checked, rapidly approaching, this means there are approximately 37,900 vehicles in Wichita County remaining to be inspected by the 53 approved inspection stations available.

Many motorists are going to find long lines awaiting them as the deadline draws nearer, due to the inspection stations not being able to cope with this large number.

The patrolman urged drivers to have their vehicles inspected as soon as possible to avoid this last minute rush. In addition, he reminded drivers that this time of the year is noted for adverse weather conditions which prevent the inspection stations from checking the vehicles.

"Passenger cars are inspected for brakes, lights, reflectors, horn and windshield wipers; while commercial vehicles are inspected for the above plus additional items required by law," Patrolman Eades said. "All motorists not displaying a valid 1962 inspection sticker by April 15 will be in violation of state law."

W. Babson Weekly Report

Roger W. Babson

Discusses Labor Outlook
Most manufacturers, many merchants, and even some industrialists with whom I talk are alarmed about the labor uncertainties. They fear labor will ruin export trade which we need to stabilize our dollar, and restore the profits of our business upon whom our federal Government depends for money.

Now Being Threatened Labor leaders are facing into spring bargaining season
every intention of bettering the gains made for their members during the recent recession. The AFL-CIO is keenly aware of the restraining influence of joblessness in some areas; the fact that the consumer price index has remained relatively unchanged over the last four months; and the growing reluctance on the part of employers to permit gains
labor costs. Labor also recognizes the problems emerging from the spread of automation
and its reshuffling of manpow-

are going to push for wage gains and fringes that the White House may consider inflationary, and they do not intend to be curbed. Many union negotiators will be seeking raises this year of as much as 5% on the basis of productivity gains.
Where employers clearly recognize that this is a misrepresentation of the actual rise in productivity, firm resistance may mean strikes. The Federal Government appears sympathetic to 2 1-2% wage increases instead of 5% demanded with costly fringe benefits. A wage hike of 2 1-2% equals from 4c to 7c per hour according to the industry involved.

Effects of Secretary. Goldberg
Over the months ahead, large scale bargaining is slated in air craft, airlines, aluminum, communications, petroleum, textiles, paper and railroads. Of particular importance are the current steel negotiations, since an agreement long in advance of contract expiration would encourage similar government pressure in other fields.

If Secretary Goldberg is successful in achieving an early settlement in steel, it will be met by union leaders as a kind of intrusion into free collective bargaining. It would not be surprising, in fact if some of the more radical unionists refused to cooperate in future proposed preliminary bargaining sessions
to avoid last minute disputes.

What A U. S. Agency Has Just Done

While the above negotiations have been going on, a U. S.
Government Agency has, for the first time, granted exclusive bargaining rights to a labor union to negotiate on grievances, safety, vacations, etc; but not on wages or the total hours in work week. The government is also asking for a no-strike pledge and no restrictions on race, color, or creed.

This important precedent was established in connection with a Department of Agriculture decision on March 8th that its 2,472 meat inspectors would be represented by a unit of the American Federation of Government Employees, AFL-CIO.
The Department's action is in accordance with an executive order issued by President Kennedy on Jan. 7th, providing for government recognition of unions representing federal employees. When we consider that in addition to those in the military, there are several million
U. S. workers in ordinary clerical and industrial jobs, we see what this ruling could mean.
But whether it will result in a federal dictatorship or in plain socialism, I cannot now forecast.

Labor Leaders Resent Government Interference

Labor's distaste for intervention by the Administration was once again quickly revealed
when Labor Secretary Goldberg stated that the government should define the national interest involved in labor industry disputes and help settle any differences accordingly.

NAVY AND YOU

On April 16, 1862, Union Flag Officer David Glasgow Farragut ordered the advance unit of his fleet to open fire on forts Jackson and St. Philip which guarded the Mississippi Delta. This marked the beginning of the movement to take New Orleans. After bombarding the forts for five days, Farragut sent his fleet captain up river to destroy the chain-and-log barrier enabling the fleet to pass through in single file. Upon entering the bay, the ironclad Manassas led the southern attack, but was soon blown up and the battle of New Orleans was won for the U.S. Navy.

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH -- MILLIONS LEAVE THEM THERE

The RESPECTED WORD

The bible is a book translated into every known language. It is the word that men have died for, in order that it may be available to all men. It is the textbook for God's people.

The bible, itself, is not worshipped, but is respected, for it is the story of God and his relationship to man. It is man's guide for worship and daily living.

Attend church regularly, study, and seek God's will in your life.

"I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

GARDENING FOR BEAUTY AND PLEASURE

trench. If soil is sandy dig the trench six inches deep; if heavy dig three inches deep.

Be sure to plant with the pointed end of the corm up. Glads, like most other plants, know which direction is up. Some gardeners plant corms in holes four inches deep and 10 inches apart is fairly rich and well-drained soil and a teaspoon of bone meal be stirred into the dirt at the bottom of each hole.

It is also a good idea when planting to drive a small stake about three feet in length next to the corm. That's so that the plant, when blooming, comes will have support against any high wind that may come along. Driving in such stake after the plant comes up might damage roots.

If you plant in a trench, after planting, fill trench half-way full and firm the fill. Level the bed later, after the glads are up. Water sparingly until the plants are up since too much water rots the corms.

Gladiolus bloom about sixty days after planting for a period of roughly two weeks. The blooms are large bell-shaped flowers growing in profusion on a narrow stalk from almost ground level to a height of two or three feet.

They vary in color from a pure white to almost black, with many shades of red, yellow, pink, purple and orange filling the middle.

After blooming the stalk "feeds back" into the bulb which should be left undisturbed, until early fall—when, as the first frost comes, the bulbs should be dug up for winter storage.

They should be cleaned and stored in a dry open tray free from danger of freezing and should be placed where rodents will not be able to reach them.

Glads worst enemy is the thrip. Best control is prevention. Spray weekly when flower spikes appear with a commercial product recommended by your nursery supplier.

Try this new way of rooting shrubs—it's so easy the experts use it. To get new plants of your favorite shrubs, make cuttings eight to ten inches long.

Squeeze excess water from well-soaked sphagnum and spread on plastic sheet. Special sheets treated with plant food, hormones, and fungicides are now available at garden centers for this use.

Hardin PTA presented $150 to the school for library books to be divided equally between the Hardin and Primary buildings. Shown above is Mrs. R. W. Morine, President of the PTA, presenting the check to Mr. Morris Simonson, Principal.

Place cuttings on sphagnum, fold sheet, roll up, tie.

Set rolled-up shoots in a warm sunny spot. Don't water again—just watch.

Plastic will retain moisture, allow circulation of air. Stripes on special plastic contain the rooting and growth aids.

When you can see roots thru the clear plastic, unwrap. If roots are less than one inch long, rewrap and wait a few more days.

When roots are longer, set cuttings about three inches deep in loamy, well pulverized soil. Rooting time will vary with shrubs, from three to five weeks in most cases. Choose a spot where the plants can grow undisturbed for a year. Move them to permanent location in spring.

Brown — "I'm sorry, old man, but I lent it to a friend of mine. Were you wanting it?"

Jones — "Well, not for myself, but the fellow I borrowed it from says the owner wants it."

City Election Set For April 3

Tuesday, April 3rd, was set for the City Election in which three places on the City Commission will be filled. The election will be held in the Town Hall. Date and place for the election was called by the City Commission at its regular meeting last February 12th.

The terms of George McClarty, Joe Crowley and Buddy Byars expire on April. Crowley is the only one of the three to file for the coming election. He was appointed by the Commission to fill the unexpired term of Claude Reed when Reed resigned to accept the position of City Inspector. According to our City Charter, the Mayor will be elected by the Commission, from among members of the Commission, at its first regular meeting after the election.

Other candidates that had filed before the deadline were Joe Logan, Jim Frye, John Larson, C. L. Simmons, Jack Alexander, Mrs. Philip A. Carpenter, Bill Bryant, and Cecil Bradley.

He Did His Full Duty

In East Texas, within the city of Palestine, stands a monument for John H. Reagan.

Thereon, you will find a most appropriate quotation: "The old Roman's highest ambition was to do his full duty; Consciousness of having done it was his ample reward."

It is a large monument. It had to be in order to list the accomplishments of Reagan.

Inscribed on it is a list of the positions held by Reagan from 1845 to 1905. They include Probate Judge, Texas Legislator, District Judge, U. S. Congressman, Confederate Congressman, Postmaster of the Confederate States of America, Secretary of the Treasury of the Confederate States, Delegate to the Texas Constitutional Convention, Chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, and author of "Memories of Secession and Civil War."

It can truly be said that this man did his "full duty."

Jan Lee Extension Time Changes For Summer Schedule

The membership of Jan Lee Extension has announced a change of time in their scheduled services for the summer months. Beginning Sunday, April 1, Sunday School will meet at 9:30 with morning worship services to follow at 10:45. The Training Union will begin at 6:30 (one hour later than usual), with the evening worship services to begin at 7:30. The mid-week services begin with the weekly officers and teachers meeting at 7:00 p. m., followed by the prayer service at 7:45. Choir rehearsal begins at 8:15. A special invitation is extended to all.

Also, many plans are being made for the coming spring revival. The dates are April 29 through May 6. We have a wonderful pastor coming for evangelist to lead us in these days. We would like for all the people of our community to feel that they have a special invitation to worship with us in these services. Gospel singing during the revival will be led by C. D. Rogers, Minister of Music at First Baptist Church, Iowa Park.

Policyholder Questions Answered by the Institute of Life Insurance

Q. Why is so much stress put on "lifetime insurance," when it is so much cheaper to buy term insurance from year to year? Especially for us younger folks, who need so much protection and have relatively small incomes?

A. Life insurance companies and their agents continuously urge all buyers of life insurance to buy "lifetime" protection, unless the insurance is for a purpose with a definite, established short term need. This is because this business, two centuries old, has learned by sad experience that most people are going to need life insurance protection in the latter years of their life and, if they do not buy lifetime policies in their earlier years, they just won't have it later. They will be priced out of the insurance, if they can get it at all. This is because term insurance premiums have to increase year by year, to nearly prohibitive levels in the 60s—while the lifetime policies carry the same premium throughout life. If the premium on $10,000 was $150 in the 20s, it will still be $150 in the 90s. Equivalent term insurance might be $50 when young, but it would be $400 by the mid-60s and unobtainable shortly after that. If the policyholder dies early in life, the difference in cost is academic, as the amount paid the beneficiary is many times the premiums under either plan. But most people will live to their 60s—in most families, the wife will outlive the husband. Life insurance is the guarantee for the later years—the only known medium which can guarantee protection for those years.

Q. I have been planning to turn my life insurance policies into paid-up policies, so that I would have no more premiums to pay after I retire, but have suddenly wondered if this would eliminate my ability to borrow on the policies in case of emergency. Is this true?

A. No. Your paid-up policies would have cash values, just like they now have, on which you can borrow at any time. In fact, the cash values would grow year by year, as they must equal the full face amount of the paid-up insurance eventually—and this means that the amount available as policy loan would increase, too.

Den 1—Pack 156

On March 27th we had our weekly meeting with our Den Mothers, Mrs. Mary Rupard and Mrs. Florence Gann, at the home of Mrs. Rupard.

We opened the meeting with the pledge of Allegiance. We finished our costumes and practiced our skit for the Pack meeting. We closed with the Living Circle and the Cub Scout Promise. We regretfully said good bye to Cecil Ray Holly who is moving to California.

Refreshments were furnished by Eugene Lucas and served to Ray Holly, Len Brown, Michael and Joel Rupard, Randy Green and Ronnie Gann. Ronnie Gann, Keeper of the Buckskin

Social Security Information

People who are nearing or are past 62 years of age can save time and speed up the payment of their first social security checks if they get in touch with the social security office early.

Mr. Erton F. Tate, District Manager of the Wichita Falls Social Security Office said that an application for retirement payments can be filed as much as three months before the person actually retires. He also noted that people who plan to go on working past retirement age should get in touch with the office to find out whether a recent change in the law will permit them to collect some payments in addition to their earnings.

To insure prompt payment of the first check, persons who call at the office should bring their social security cards, proof of age or date of birth, and evidence of 1961 earnings—withholding statement (Form W-2) for employees or copies of Federal income tax returns and proof of payment of taxes for self-employed.

Tate explained that even if all these papers are not available, no one should delay filing an application for benefits. The social security office located in Wichita Falls will suggest other proofs that may be used.

PIPE THAT!

A Texan arrived in Niagara Falls in the evening and did a lot of bragging before he retired. Next morning they showed him the Falls and said, "You haven't seen anything like that in Texas, have you?" "No," admitted the Texan. "But we've got a plumber in Houston who could stop that leak in ten minutes."
