Russia Blames Crisis On U. S.

Departure From Roosevelt's Policies Branded Cause Of East-West Dispute

(By The Associated Press)

MOSCOW, May 20—Tass says "leading circles" in Russia blame current Soviet-American difficulties on the United States government's departures from the policies of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The official Russian news agency said, in a dispatch distributed last night, it was in a position to report the opinions of these "leading circles" and that the belief there is that the Soviet-American deadlock is the result of the present Washington government's "aggressive attitude."

Under the administration of President Roosevelt, Tass said, "the most difficult international questions" were settled between the United States, Britain and Russia for more than three years.

"The question therefore arises why now is it considered impossible to reach agreed decisions of the powers on new, less difficult questions? Is it not perhaps because the present government of the U. S. A. has departed from the Roosevelt policy and is pursuing a different policy?

"The Soviet public considers that the situation that has arisen is the result of the aggressive attitude adopted by the present government of the United States of America."

Tass charged the U. S. State department contradicted itself by its negative attitude toward proposals for direct negotiations as contained in an exchange of "open letters" between Prime Minister Stalin and Henry A. Wallace, third party presidential candidate.

This Washington response evoked surprise in Moscow, the news agency said, commenting that while Stalin had addressed his remarks to Wallace the State department, nevertheless, "considered it necessary to make a special statement to the press on J. V. Stalin's reply to Mr. Wallace."

HOUSE PASSES MEASURE EASILY

Anti-Red Bill To Be Delayed By Senate

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 20—Senate Republican leaders today promised discussion—but no early action — on the anti-Communist bill backed through the House by a 319-to-58 vote.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) told a reporter there "certainly" will be judiciary committee hearings on the measure sponsored by Reps. Mundt (R-SD) and Nixon (R-Calif.)

The Mundt-Nixon bill says an international Communist movement is plotting to set up a dictatorship in this country through Moscow-controlled organizations. It tabs the Communist party here as one of such controlled groups.

Stiff Penalties Promised

With stiff fines and imprisonment, the measure makes it illegal to try to create a foreign controlled dictatorship in this country.

Senator Taft of Ohio, who heads the Republican policy committee, said he thinks the measure needs "serious study" before the Senate acts on it.

"As I read the bill," Taft said, "it requires the registration of anybody who is trying to set up a dictatorship. But that would be an admission of what becomes a crime under the bill. So there would be no registration. I'm afraid it would merely drive Communists underground."

Copes With Situation

On the other hand, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) a judiciary committee member, said he thinks the measure makes any subversive activity of a Communist a crime.

"I think it will cope with a situation we are facing, if we actually enforce it," he said. "We already have laws on this point, but I think we have fallen down in enforcing them and I'm willing to take this new step."

Youth Asks Rescue From Tramp Ship

NEW YORK, May 20 (U.P.)—An 18-year-old Portuguese youth asked police today to save him from a tramp steamer on which he said he and two friends had been held as virtual slaves since they stowed away in a schoolboy escapade two years ago.

Jose Mota told police he and his friends had no idea what they were letting themselves in for when they went aboard the freighter Star of Alexandria back in 1946.

Mota was fished out of the river by police last night after he jumped overboard when the vessel docked at Tompkinsville, Staten Island.

"That was two years ago," he said, "and we've been prisoners on the ship ever since. They made us work without pay, didn't give us any cigarettes or decent food and often even beat us."

British Peace Plan Favored

LAKE SUCCESS, May 20. (AP)—Britain's plan for United Nations mediation between warring Arabs and Jews in Palestine was given a good chance today to win security council approval.

It held a decided edge over the Russian-sponsored American proposal for the security council to apply sanctions and armed force, if necessary, to stop the fighting.

No Vote Today

The council was called to meet at 9:30 a. m. (EST). A formidable list of speakers made it virtually certain that no vote could be taken before tomorrow.

Britain and China broke with the United States yesterday on the issue of stopping the Palestine fighting. They are not willing to take the strong step asked by the U. S. at this time. They favor mediation.

The United States is insisting on its resolution but delegates generally conceded the council is not ready to adopt it.

Belgium Backs Plan

Belgium favored the British resolution yesterday after it was introduced by Sir Alexander Cadogan.

Cadogan said the council should call on all parties to issue a cease-fire order in Palestine and take advantage of the good offices of a U. N. mediator provided by the special assembly on Palestine last Friday.

The mediator has not yet been

President To Speak To Students Today

PHILADELPHIA, May 20 (AP)—President Truman arrived in Philadelphia at 11:55 a. m. today to address the student body at Girard college in connection with the school's centennial observance.

The White House labeled the trip "strictly non-political," and cited:

1. The presence of Republican Governor James H. Duff of Pennsylvania and Republican Mayor Bernard Samuel in the welcoming committee when the six-car special train pulled into the 30th street station.

2. The prospective audience of 1,300 voteless students of teenage and younger before whom the President will speak extemporaneously at 4:05 p. m. (E. S. T.)

3. A six-hour schedule confining the President strictly to the campus of the historic college for fatherless boys established under the will of Stephen Girard, wealthiest American of his day.

Oklahoma Harvests First 1948 Wheat

RANDLETT, Okla., May 20 (AP)—Oklahoma's first harvested 1948 wheat was destined for an elevator at Burkburnett, Tex., today.

It was shipped yesterday. Randlett is about nine miles north of the Texas-Oklahoma border.

The wheat was cut in the field owned by D. L. Alexander, four miles south of here.

It is of the Black Hull variety. It tested 57 pounds and sold for $2.00 a bushel. The anticipated average yield was 15 to 16 bushels per acre, cotton county farm Agent Carl Neumann said.

Arabs Claim That Jews Are Short Of Food, Water

(By The Associated Press)

The battle for Jerusalem roared on today. A Jewish communique said the Arabs were shelling the Hebrew university and the held by the army of Israel.

Arabs said they expected a decision today or tomorrow over Jewish fighters, estimated at 8,000 in the violent, continuing battle for Jerusalem.

Capture Mt. Zion

The Jewish army said it had captured Mt. Zion and broken through the nearby Zion gate and raised the months-long siege of 1,700 Jews in the old walled city.

Daniel De Luce of the Associated Press reported from inside the walled city that the British-trained Arab legion of Trans-Jordan and Arab volunteers were fighting inside and outside the walls. He said the Arabs have cleared away nearly all the Jews to the north, east and south and struck deeply into modern Jerusalem to the west. Truce efforts failed. Arabs said the Jews were short of food and water.

Premier David Ben-Gurion decreed a state of emergency in Israel. Egyptian planes bombed Tel Aviv for the sixth day running. The mayor asked the U. S., Russia and the United Nations to stop Egypt from bombing Tel Aviv.

Settlement Is Occupied

Egypt announced her troops in southern Palestine occupied the Arab town of Beersheba, southernmost limit of the Holy Land of Bible days. The defense ministry said Egyptian troops in a 10-hour battle captured the fortified Jewish settlement of Deir Suneid, guarding the road to Tel Aviv.

Deir Suneid is about seven miles north of Arab Gaza, commanding the road and railway to Tel Aviv. The Egyptians said the strongly fortified settlement was a base for supplying other Jewish defenses in southern Palestine.

The Cairo ministry said that in the northward drive up the coastal plain the Egyptians also seized Beit Hanun, five miles northeast of Gaza. It is described as "one of the strongest points in the operational theater."

A Damascus communique said Syrians threw back a Jewish counter-attack Tuesday and Wednesday in the Galilee area. It said Syrian artillery destroyed fortifications at Sha-Ar Hagolan and Masada in two battles in which

Man Arrested For Desertion

A waiver of extradition was signed this morning by William Lee Walker, 39, who was arrested at Idalou for Jackson county, Okla., where a wife and child abandonment charge had been filed April 12.

Arrest was by Dep. Sheriff George Eubank. Date of the alleged offense was Dec. 23, the charge showed.

Fines Are Assessed

Fines of $25 and court costs were assessed against Gean George, 29, of Beaumont, and Kenneth Edward Harper, 35, of Gainesville, after they had pleaded guilty of assault of Eddie E. Stone, 50, of Albuquerque, N. M. Total assessment in each case was $38.15, records of C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, showed.

The woman is the wife of Sam George, 41, who posted $600 bond Wednesday on a liquor law violation charge filed in Lynn's court.

Harry W. Hubbard, an inspector for the liquor control board, told Lynn that Harper and Mrs. George accused Stone of having informed against her husband. In a raid of George's trailer house, at a carnival here, the liquor board said its inspectors seized approximately two cases of whisky and two of beer Tuesday night. They said both the woman and Harper struck Stone, who was treated for a severe beating.

Sam Rayburn Is Chosen For Chairman Job

McGrath Denies Appeasement For Southern Demos

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, May 20 — Democratic leaders today selected Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky as keynoter for their July 12 national convention. Rep Sam Rayburn of Texas was named permanent chairman.

Sam Rayburn

Senator J. Howard McGrath, Democratic national chairman, said in reply to a question the selections were not aimed at appeasing the southern bloc opposed to President Truman's civil rights program.

"They are both very liberal men," McGrath said, "who supported in every way the program of Presidents Roosevelt and Truman."

"Recognition is due both for long and valiant service to the Democratic party," he added.

Barkley told reporters in Washington:

Both Will Serve

"I appreciate the honor, which comes to me wholly unexpectedly. I'll do the best job I can."

Rayburn said of his selection: "I consider this a high honor, and I shall accept the post."

Edward J. Flynn of New York, former national chairman, said there was no discussion among the 16 member executive committee as to who would place Mr. Truman's name in nomination at the convention.

"It's up to the President," he said.

McGrath told newsmen the committee members discussed Mr. Truman's campaign prospects privately, but not during the committee meeting to complete organization of the convention.

Is Great Optimist

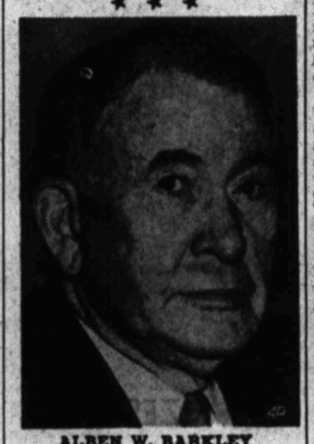

Asked regarding Mr. Truman's chances of re-election, McGrath replied:

"I am the greatest optimist in the United States when it comes to that."

This will be Barkley's third convention keynoting assignment. He served as keynoter or temporary chairman for the 1932 and 1936 conclaves and also as per-

Navy-Air Force Dispute May Be Revived By Super-Carrier

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 20—The proposal to build a super-size aircraft carrier may reopen an Air Force-Navy argument supposed to have been quited by high command agreement two months ago.

Some high Air Force officials take a dim view of the Navy's plan—backed by President Truman and Secretary of Defense Forrestal—to construct a 65,000-ton, flush-deck carrier from which long range planes could be launched. But what form the Air Force opposition may assume is not yet clear.

Missions Defined

The nub of the developing controversy is this:

The Air Force contends that the assignment of missions worked out at the high command conferences with Forrestal at Key West, Fla., in March specified two things:

1. The primary function of the Air Force is strategic air warfare (defined as the destruction of factories, sources of raw material, rail and highway systems and other things making up an enemy's war-making capacity.)

2. The Navy's primary air function is support of a "naval campaign" (defined as an operation or series of operations by ships, planes and marines to gain, extend or maintain control of the sea.)

Carrier Would Encroach

Despite this, the Air Force maintains that a carrier of the size planned—with an unobstructed flight deck more than 1,000 feet long—undoubtedly would be used to launch big planes, possibly carrying atomic missiles as well as conventional bomb loads, to strike at strategic targets.

This, the Air Force feels, would result in the Navy's encroaching on its assigned duty.

For this reason, it is understood that Air Force representatives at sessions of the joint chiefs of staff (Army-Navy-Air Force) have declined to support the idea of supercarriers.

Forerstal, in a recent letter to a House armed services sub-committee, said the carrier project has the approval of President Truman and himself. He made no reference to agreement by the joint chiefs.

Wants Single Carrier

The letter reiterated what Forrestal had told reporters previously—that he wants a "single prototype" super-carrier built as a pattern in case a fleet of such ships is needed in some future emergency.

The Navy has disclamied officially any intention to trespass on the Air Force's strategic bombing duty.

One Navy explanation of the need for 65,000 or 80,000 ton carriers is that the growing size and weight of fighter and torpedo-bomber aircraft require a bigger, more heavily constructed flight deck. Navy men also say that with the growing use of jet fighters longer flight decks are desirable, especially for landing the high speed air craft.

LONG SENATE DEBATE IS SEEN

Hot Dispute Looms On Immigrant Bill

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 20 — The Senate squared off for a heated battle today over a bill to admit 100,000 homeless Europeans to this country during the next two years.

Senator Wherry (R-Neb), acting majority leader, said the debate "will be hot" and probably will continue three or four days before a final decision.

Even before the measure hit the floor for opening arguments the battle lines had formed. Opponents came armed with a pile of amendments and a substitute bill that would double the number of displaced persons to be given refuge here.

Carefully Screened

As drafted by the Senate public works committee, the bill calls for admission of 50,000 Europeans this year and next. Half of the aliens must come from eastern Poland and the Baltic countries now under Russian control. All must be carefully screened first by regular U. S. immigration and consular officials.

Half of those accepted must be farmers and jobs must be available for the rest. In addition all must be assured of "decent, safe and sanitary housing without displacing" present residents and citizens of this country.

The substitute bill being pushed by Senators McGrath (D-RI)

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP) — The House passed by voice vote today a $207,930,100 Army construction bill for improving bases and posts from Iceland to Hawaii.

The bill now goes to a Senate-House conference committee to work out differences between the House version and a similar Senate bill passed last year. The Senate measure would authorize about $250,000,000 worth of work.

Miss Kellems To Sue Everyone In War On Withholding Taxes

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 20—Vivien Kellems says she is going to "sue everyone" in her war on the withholding tax law—including a bank which turned over $1,685 of her money to the government.

The Westport, Conn., manufacturer told a news conference yesterday that the Internal Revenue Bureau's forced collection of the money was "misappropriation of funds."

"Don't think I am going to back down," she declared. "I'm going to take every legal step open to me."

Miss Kellems, demanding a test of the constitutionality of the withholding tax law, said she is ready to go to jail to get one.

She said she could be sentenced to jail for 40 years and fined $40,000 for refusal to withhold taxes from each of the 40 workers in her cable grip manufacturing company at Westport.

"I shall not colect any withholding taxes unless the law is taken to the Supreme court and declared constitutional," she continued. "I think it's stealing to go into any one's pay envelope."

Miss Kellems held the news

Mules To Race Against Train

GREENVILLE, Miss., May 20 (U.P.)—The reliable mule is in a tough spot here today. Greenville citizens hope the Illinois Central railroad is in an even tougher one.

For a long time the city fathers have been unhappy about the I-C rail service between Greenville and Cleveland, Miss., 38 miles away.

Too slow. You can get there faster on a mule, they say.

They are going to try to prove it Saturday. But it's the long-eared beast that will have to carry the load.

Leave With Mules

The idea is a race from Cleveland to Greenville, pitting a series of mules against the I-C train.

The first of four muleriders will gallop out of Cleveland at 11:52 a. m. Saturday, just as the train pulls out of the station. The Cleveland volunteer fire department will sponsor the sendoff for the mule express, which will be carrying a message from Cleveland Mayor Howard Williams to Greenville Maylor George Archer.

Band Ready

At Shaw, Dr. Roy Cronan of Leland will take over the mule relay. Lions club President Russell Neal of Leland will carry the mail through his town. Local legislator Larry Pryor will ride the last leg into Greenville.

There he (and the heroic anchor mule) will be welcomed by a brass band and a cheering crowd, win or lose.

Editor Hodding Carter of the Delta Democrat-Times says he will guarantee that the mule team will win.

Drivers Plan To Walk Out Friday Night

72 Employes Are Affected On 90 Daily Schedules

A walkout involving all drivers of the Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma Coaches here, and which threatens to also involve all machinists, has been set for 10:45 o'clock Friday night, it was announced today by J. W. Thompson, of Kansas City, representative of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, with which the local unit of the bus drivers is affiliated.

The strike, for which Thompson said a call was issued after several months of what he called futile negotiations for wage increase, will, if it takes effect, tie up all bus operations. It was said at the bus company office here that 72 drivers would be involved on the 90 daily schedules in and out of this city.

Temporary Agreement

Thompson said the machinists have reached a temporary agreement with the bus management, and are not immediately involved in the strike, but would be called out or picketed, as the case might call for, unless an agreement is reached with the drivers.

The drivers are asking an increase from five cents to 6½ cents per mile, and there were indications in some circles today that the drivers would be willing to accept less than their original demand. This scale would involve drivers of three years service or more.

The local union grievance committee, composed of T. J. Armstrong as chairman, J. H. Pace as vice chairman, are R. E. Hefner as secretary, said through Thompson that the company has made no offer in the dispute other than to pay the five percent bonus, same as last year, conditioned on equivalent earnings.

No Program Reported

Here also seeking to gain a settlement, and to prevent a walkout and stoppage of service, is than A. Walker of Oklahoma City, of the Federal Mediation Conciliation service. Walker was in session the greater part of today with company and union representatives, but said no progress had been made.

Negotiations on a new contract started in January, Thompson said, although he was not called into the case until February. He said a strike ballot among employes, taken in March, carried by a large majority.

Commissioner Walker called a meeting for April 21 and 22, but Thompson said the union's agree-

Father Finds Grave Of Son

STAMFORD, Conn., May 20 (U.P.)—Ever since his fighter pilot son was shot down in Europe in 1944 and given up for dead, Ellis S. Middleton had but one aim in life—to locate his boy's body.

He never gave up hope and today, after a three years' search in which he enlisted the aid of thousands of sympathetic Europeans, he learned that the body of Capt. Ellis S. Middleton, 2nd, 25, was in a lonely grave in a German forest.

Would Never Quit

"It's a great relief," said Middleton, a Stamford attorney. "But I'd have never quit trying to find him."

Even before the war was over, Middleton began his campaign to end the uncertainty that came with the War department's message that his son was "missing in action."

Middleton had 30,000 circulars printed. On them were his son's picture. As soon as the mails were reopened in 1945 he sent the circulars to the mayors of towns in Belgium and the Netherlands. He asked them to post them where they would be seen by as many people as possible.

Then he waited. Soon letters came to him from hundreds of Europeans offering their help. A Dutch railway executive sent for 5,000 of the circulars to post in WASHINGTON, May 20. (AP)—The longest range plane in the world, the Navy's P2V Neptune, has been successfully launched from an aircraft carrier, it was learned today.

A Navy official, who refused to allow use of his name, said the Neptune was launched with jet power assistance from the 45,000-ton carrier, Coral Sea, off the Virginia capes last month. The craft flew to a landing on shore.

This type of plane—a two-engine craft—set the world distance record of 11,235 miles on a flight from Perth, Australia, to Columbus, Ohio, in 1946.

Oklahoma Newspaper Claims It Has Found Jesse James Alive

LAWTON, Okla., May 20 (U.P.)—The Lawton Constitution claimed today that it had found Jesse James alive, but 100 years old and bedfast with a broken hip.

Frank Hall, the paper's city editor, said it had "iron-clad evidence" that a man listed on government pension rolls as J. Frank Dalton actually was the old Missouri bandit.

The Constitution carried a five-column story by reporter Lindsey Whitten about Dalton—or James—on its front page yesterday. It quoted Dalton as saying he was a completely reformed man.

Perfect Example

"Crime doesn't pay," he said. "I'm the perfect example. I live in remorse because of some of the things I did years ago."

He said the official story that Bob Ford shot him down in his home in St. Joseph, Mo., in 1882, was a hoax.

Officials of the newspaper became convinced of Dalton's identity after checking his story. They said his physical appearance matches James' and that he has scars similar to those borne by James.

Dalton said the story about Ford killing him was trumped up so he could lose his identity. His brother, Frank, and their mother identified his "body" but it was really the corpse of one Charles Bigelow.

Sang At Own Funeral

The Constitution story said "Jesse sang at his own funeral, sounding off with his handsome baritone voice, which even today is something to feel proud of."

Dalton said he made a pact with his gang not to reveal the true secret until "all of us are dead or past the age of 100."

After he "died," Dalton said, he became a soldier of fortune for 40 years and fought in Mexico, South America and Africa.

He claimed that when almost 70 he fought in World War I with the Canadian army. He took the name Dalton "15 or 20 years" ago.

Last year he was admitted to the Texas Confederate pension rolls as a veteran of Quantrill's guerrilla band. His birthdate was listed as March 8, 1848. The Constitution listed his age as 100 last Sept. 5. James, according to records, was born Sept. 5, 1847.

James also fought with Quantrill's irregulars.

Lately, Dalton has been living at Centerville, Tex., with Lee Howk, who claims to be a grandson of a James henchman named Baxter.

Last winter Dalton broke his hip and was admitted to a veterans hospital near Austin, Tex. He left the hospital a month ago, with Howk's help, to "head up the trail" of his outlaw exploits for one last time.

He has been living in a tourist cabin here for a month, confined in bed by his broken hip.

The newspaper said that except for his hip Dalton was in good condition physically and had the mental alertness of a man of 65. It said he stood about five feet 11 inches tall "and must have been a powerful man in his youth."

Missing Dog Found After Three Years

OMAHA, May 20 (AP) — A man with a long memory was credited today with reuniting a dog, missing for three years, with its mistress.

Emil Hampl of Omaha saw the dog, recognized her from a picture published by an Omaha newspaper Sept. 12, 1945 at the time the dog was lost.

The dog, Queenie, belonged to Mrs. Jo Ann Ross Nicholson, formerly of Fort Collins, Colo., now of Pittsburgh. Queenie broke away between trains at Union station during a train trip. Mrs. Nicholson advertised anxiously and the railroad apologized and made amends.

The dog turned up at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Ehlers of Omaha who named her Daisy and gave her a home.

Hampl recently visited his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ehlers, and recognized the dog from the old newspaper picture. Mrs. Nicholson was notified.

Rockwall Building Destroyed By Fire

ROCKWALL, May 20 (AP)—Fire last night destroyed a two-story building in downtown's Rockwall and caused damage estimated at $35,000 to $40,000.

The building, occupied by the Pennsylvania Rubber company, was owned by Mrs. B. B. Hartman of Rockwall.

The fire started about 8 p. m. and firemen from Royce City and Garland aided in fighting the flames.

A large stock of tires were lost and some telephone lines were knocked down, disrupting service in part of the town.

Cause of the fire has not been determined.

PROMINENT TEXAS FARMER WANTS FRIENDS TO KNOW HOW RETONGA AIDED HIM

"Every Bite I Ate Seemed To Turn Against Me," States Mr. Lee McClung, Who Found Retonga To Be Everything Claimed For It. Tells Of His Case.

"When I find something good, I like for my friends to know about it, and that's the way I feel about Retonga," says Mr. Lee McClung, prominent Hill County farmer who lives at 101 Smith St., Hillsboro, Texas, in joining the thousands who have praised this famous gastric tonic in strong public statements. Mr. McClung gratefully states:

"Every bite of food I ate seemed to turn against me and form terrific gas pressure in my stomach. I suffered tortures from sharp, cutting pains in the pit of my stomach and at times it would seem to swell up as tight as a drum. At night it seemed to be worse and at times I thought the pressure would cut off my breath. I was on edge most of the time and I couldn't seem to get a good night's sleep. In the mornings I had to drag myself out of bed.

"I certainly found Retonga to be everything claimed for it and I'm thankful for the prompt relief it gave me. I can eat anything I want to now and not have to worry about that gas forming on my stomach. Once more I know what a good night's sleep can mean to a fellow, and I don't feel on edge like I did. I'm more than glad to recommend Retonga to anyone suffering as I did."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal, combined with Vitamin B-1. You can get Retonga at all good drug stores. Adv.

Troops With Bayonets Clear Riot Area At Packing Plant

(By The United Press)

WATERLOO, Ia., May 20—National guardsmen with fixed bayonets today drove more than 400 strikers away from a two-block area at the Rath meat packing plant, where 2,000 persons rioted last night after a non-striker killed a picket.

The force of 350 guardsmen, many of them combat veterans, lined up shoulder to shoulder before dawn on orders of Col. Frank P. Williams, chief of staff of the 34th division.

Troops Move Forward

The troops moved forward, pushing back approximately 55 pickets parading before the plant in violation of a restraining order. The troops did not drive away five pickets allowed at the plant gates under a provision of the court order.

The troops cleared a block in front of the plant.

Two hours later, just before the 7 a. m., starting time for the first shift to report to work, guardsmen moved up again.

They dispersed a crowd of about 400 strikers at the edge of the cleared area, making them move another block away from the plant. Many of the troops wore their campaign ribbons and battle stars on their uniforms.

Remains In Plant

About 50 non-striking employes remained in the plant all night. They left this morning under protection of the troops.

Union officials said the company had "promised" not to operate today and that workers who entered the plant today were only for clean-up purposes.

The union leaders said they would try to meet with company representatives today to discuss the situation.

During the first push the pickets shouted and swore at the advancing line of soldiers, but no violence occurred. The troops moved across the street, between the houses opposite the plant, across the alley and through to the street a block away from the plant.

Gatherings Prohibited

Williams ordered no restriction on movement inside the one block area but prohibited all gatherings of more than two men. Persons who lived in the area were given passes, but all others were moved out.

Gov. Robert D. Blue called the troops out last night after Black Hawk County Sheriff H. P. Wagner reported police and deputies "couldn't do a thing" with the surging mob.

Guard units totaling 800 men were called from 15 cities and began arriving early this morning. They were put on a stand-by basis at Wagner's disposal.

The Waterloo unit was not sent to the plant, Wagner said, because "they are local people and it might create agitation."

Second Time In Week

It was the second time within a week that troops have been ordered to quell violence in the CIO United Packinghouse Workers' 66-day strike. Gov. Luther W. Youngdahl of Minnesota called the National Guard to duty at South St. Paul and Newport after strike violence last Friday.

Capt. Max Bredow, assistant chief of police here, said the outbreak started about 4:30 p. m. Police did not get the situation under control until shortly before 9 p. m. when the word spread that the National Guard troops were on the way.

Police Sgt. Clyde Sauer, who was in short wave communication with all police officers throughout the fighting, said the violence became a full riot a little before 5 p. m. when a non-striker, Fred Roberts, 55, negro, shot and killed William Farrell, 40, one of the pickets.

Auto Was Seized

The shooting occurred when strikers began approaching Roberts' car as he drove near the plant yesterday. A group of strikers grabbed one side of the automobile and lifted it.

Roberts fired out the window away from the crowd but the bullet hit Farrell who was approaching from the other side.

Farrell died instantly. The bullet passed through his head and wounded Margaret Drahiem, 34, a spectator. She was hit in the shoulder but her injuries were not considered serious.

Police said the members of CIO United Packinghouse Workers local 46 had been in a "sullen" mood all day yesterday because officers had arrested two union members in connection with minor individual disturbances at the plant.

Frenship Exercises Are Slated Tonight

The eighth grade graduation exercises of Frenship elementary school will be conducted at 8 o'clock tonight in Wolfforth First Baptist church.

Twenty-nine students will receive diplomas. Honor graduates will be Joanne Pierce, valedictorian, and Nanilea Coke, salutatorian.

Barbara Sanders and Sammye Koonce also were honor students, ranking third and fourth.

A student participation program will be presented, with diplomas presented by Supt. E. A. Deering and Fred Worsham, president of the board of education. James Mitchell, class president, will give a speech of acceptance.

Special awards for winners in various Interscholastic League contests and for perfect attendance wil be presented by Superintendent Deering.

Mrs. Katherine Czerweic is class sponsor. J. Weldon Bennett is elementary school principal.

Body Of John H. Day Arrives For Burial

The body of Pfc. John Henry Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark H. Day of 2124 Sixth, arrived here this morning at 7:30 o'clock from the Fort Worth army depot.

Day, who served in the 45th division with the 179th infantry, was killed by artillery fire on Jan. 10, 1945, during the recapture of Metz, Germany.

He is survived by his parents, his wife, Virginia Irene Day, of 2826 Twenty-fifth; two daughters, Johnnie Jo and Virginia Mae, and a brother, Herman Day, all of Lubbock.

Funeral services, under the direction of Plains Funeral home, will be held at 3:30 p. m. Sunday in the First Baptist church, with Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Tech Memorial park, with the V. F. W. in charge of graveside military rites.

Boy Searches For Job As Ranch Hand

Rio is okay, perhaps, but Roger Bradley, 17, got enough of it and the coffee plantations and the rest.

He took the money he had saved in three years of chauffering for the American owner of a large plantation, boarded the SS Cuba and returned to the States.

Wednesday night he landed in Lubbock, broke, but with hopes of employment, he told J. J. Moore, of Moore's Bonded patrol, who got him a room. Like most of the rest of those who never saw the Southwest before, he would rather have boots and spurs and big hat and a job on a ranch.

Young Bradley said his father died in Buffalo, N. Y., when he was a few months old. He and his mother moved to Miami, Fla. A few weeks after the youngster—he was 14 then—had worked his way to Rio as cabin boy on a tramp steamer, his mother died. He's been alone with his wanderlust since then, he said.

NEW CABINET CRISIS

HELSINKI, Finland, May 20. (AP)—Finland faced another cabinet crisis today. Parliament, in a late night session, passed a conservative motion for censure of the Communist minister of the interior, Irjo Leino, 81 to 61.

Prisoners Stage Four-Hour Mutiny

HOUSTON, May 20. (AP)—Everything was back to normal at the Harlem prison farm No. 2 near Sugar Land today following a four-hour mutiny by 15 convicts yesterday because they did not see a movie the night before.

Warden Joe Hines broke the mutiny yesterday by throwing a can of tear gas at the strikers.

Turning Point In History Of Ancient Land

Chiang Kai-Shek Becomes China's First Constitutional President In Ceremony

(By The Associated Press)

NANKING, May 20 — Chiang Kai-Shek became China's first constitutional President today, and he called it a "turning point" in the history of this ancient land.

Wearing a Chinese gown, the 59-year-old political and military leader was inaugurated before an audience of some 3,000 in the great hall of the national assembly.

Sworn in at the same time was Gen. Li Tsung-Jen, vice president elected for his outspoken demands for governmental reform. Li's election climaxed a bitter, prolonged fight in the national assembly in opposition to the Kuomintang, the governing party.

Chiang, who has guided China's destiny in one capacity or another for the past 20 years, pledged "complete allegiance" to the new constitution. The national assembly and legislative yuan were chosen under terms of that document. Chiang and Li then were elected by the national assembly.

"This," said Chiang in his inaugural address, "is a turning point in the history of our nation. For me, personal success or failure—nay, even life or death—no longer enter into my consideration.

"My only wish is to serve the state and my people."

The generalissimo warned that China's civil war "is a war between democracy and totalitarianism"—and not political friction. He said it is a struggle "between those who wish China to continue as an independent nation and those who seek to subdue her."

Observing that relations between the Allied powers have deteriorated, Chiang commented: "China is greatly concerned over this state of affairs."

He said the government's main task "is to purge itself of corrupt officials." On the economic front, he added, "we must take effective steps to stabilize currency, balance the budget, regulate credit and banking, improve transportation and effect land reforms."

Within 24 hours, Chiang is expected to nominate a successor to Premier Chang Chun, who recently submitted his resignation. Chang may be asked to continue serving, but Gen. Ho Ying-Chin has been mentioned frequently.

Season Ends For Chapter

The closing meeting of the year for Nancy Anderson chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held Wednesday afternoon was highlighted with an officer installation led by Mrs. Robert W. Wright, regent, and with a talk, "What The DAR Believes," presented by Mrs. J. Sterling Crumpler. In her talk, Mrs. Crumpler made a report on the National DAR conference which was held in Washington, D. C., recently.

Mrs. J. B. Logan, 2803 Twenty-first, was hostess and was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Bledsoe, Miss Kathleen Brown and Mrs. Creek Brown.

Mrs. Wright opened the meeting with the DAR prayer; the Salute to the Flag followed. During the business meeting, committee chairmen made reports of the year's work.

Eighteen members and one new member, Mrs. R. D. Moxley, attended.

Miss Mary Jane Morgan of Hereford, also a new member in the chapter, was unable to attend the meeting.

Jaycee-Ettes, Families Attend Picnic At Park

Families of Jaycee-Ettes were entertained at a picnic given Tuesday night at Mackenzie State park. Mrs. Jack Thomas and Mrs. Arnold Chauncey were hostesses.

Twenty couples and their children attended.

The club will have a business meeting June 1 at 8 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Joe E. Baldridge, 2005 Fifteenth.

Bridal Shower Is Honor To Mrs. Kirk, Bride

Mrs. Paul Kirk, the former Miss Zida Mae Scott, was given a bridal shower in the home of Mrs Clifton Holley, 1923 Second, Wednesday afternoon. Hostess with Mrs. Holley was Mrs. Ernie Bishop.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames A. L. Graham, jr., A. L. Graham, sr., Wayne Kirk, L. C. McMillan, J. D. Skinner, Billy Kirk, J. F. Freeman, R. C. Richardson, L. Jennings, Florine Smith, the honoree and the hostesses. Others sent gifts.

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL . . .

Girl Secretary, 22, Falls In Love With Boss Who Is 40 And Says Age-Difference Matters

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am a 22-year-old secretary in a large organization and I have fallen in love with my boss, a bachelor 40 years old, who says he loves me too.

Lyle is very well known in the community, has many friends and is advancing rapidly in his field. We are of nearly the same temperament, have similar interest in recreation and home life, and we enjoy each other's company very much.

I have worked in his office (very happily) for more than three years, and many times in the past two years I have been his guest at business and social functions, where he always introduces me as "Miss Blank", never as his secretary.

SHE'S NEVER HAD A KISS FROM HIM

HE HAS been very attentive, sends me flowers, candy, charming gifts and never fails to compliment me at least once a day on my appearance or my work. However, he has never kissed me. Our working relationship is more that of colleagues than boss and secretary, which is the way he wishes it to be.

We have discussed the difference in ages and neither objects, but he feels the problem should be analyzed by a disinterested person who is qualified to forsee what difficulties might arise in marriage due to that difference, and how we may avoid or overcome them. That's why I am writing to you.

Our friends are about equally divided in their opinions as to whether we could be happily married despite the age-difference. Lyle owns a very comfortable home in which he lives with his mother, a very sweet and charming little lady whom I have met a number of times, and his income is quite substantial. We will appreciate your comments.

Signed—C. V.

MAN IS DODGING THE REAL ISSUE

DEAR C. V.: What you don't realize and what Lyle doesn't admit, perhaps because it is an aspect of himself that he has never faced, is that he is not matrimonially inclined, not even toward you, whom he likes a lot in a fond, genteel, appreciative way.

No doubt his very comfortable home life with his mother, an ostensibly sweet and charming little lady, has much to do with his being a bachelor (and neuter-gender type male) at 40.

It is safe to say that subjectively they are as closely knit as the proverbial Siamese twins; that his mother's plans for and demands on him are the "inner promptings" which determine all his decisions, and that it suits her purpose to keep him unmarried, to be her exclusive pride and joy.

In consequence, though he might be confronted, time and again, with opportunities for "ideal marriage," Lyle would be inhibited from recognizing them as such. Rather he would wait for his mother to give the encouraging sign or to make up his mind for him, and she, of course, would delicately discourage the proposition, with an air of thinking only and magnanimously of his, or the girl's, good.

HE IS CONTENT TO BE A BEAU

NOW, coming to your quandary, it is my belief that the age-angle doesn't really bother Lyle, but it is the only defense he has against your artless assumption that marriage is in the cards.

When you broach the subject, he indicates that he is deeply pondering the age-angle as a potentially serious drawback, and thinks expert opinion should be consulted. But if he sincerely felt just that, and honestly wanted the question cleared up, he would dig for the answer himself.

The fact that he doesn't, that he simply leaves the question with you, shows that he is content with the status quo. He doesn't want to marry you, but he doesn't care to face that fact, much less disclose it to you, because he doesn't want to give up your company—a sacrifice that would be in order, as a matter of honor, if he were frank about his basic attitude.—M. H.

Style Show Is Given By Homemaking Students

A style show carrying out the "May Time Frolic" theme was presented by third and fourth period homemaking classes of Central Junior High school Wednesday under direction of Mrs. Paul Mills, teacher.

Blouses made in class and home projects, which included play clothes, skirts and blouses and special occasion clothes, were modeled by 39 girls.

Script was by Ruth Breazeale, Billie Clarkson, Mona Lou Young and Frances Hazel and narrators were Ruth Breazeale and Peggy Joyce Smith. Piano music was furnished by Betty Jo James, Helen Walker and Clydene Gee and a solo was sung by Betty Jean Jenkins. The decoration committee included Rilla Shepherd and Joyce Walker and invitations were sent out by Opal Walker and Dorothy Porterfield.

Mrs. Lila Wilkins of the Tech Home Economics division assisted with arrangements.

Musical Plays Will Be Featured In Recitals

Mrs. Dwight Browder is presenting pupils in recital tonight and Friday nights in the parlor of the First Christian church. Piano solos, duets, two piano numbers and a musical story, "The Three Little Pigs," will be presented.

Pupils who will play tonight, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, are Larry and Sylvia Edwards, Jerry Smith, Byron Edwards, Carolyn Abel, James and Fred West, Sharon Sutherland, Brian Hambright, Virginia Ann Boles, Avonlee Fentress, Myrna Browder, Mary Jean Robertson and Jimmy Whitacre.

A guest will give a cornet solo. Mary Jean Robertson and Avonlee Fentress will be ushers.

Two piano numbers and a musical story, "Peter Rabbit," given by six-year-old Jean Ann Oliver, will be features of the Friday program, which begins at 8 o'clock.

Those appearing are Margaret Ann Greve, Jean Ann and Mary Beth Oliver, Shirley Caldwell, Myrna Browder, Betty and Jackie Fortune, Marilyn Smith, Sandra Hill, Nancy McKissack, Betty Dennison, Vivian Robertson, Virginia Carr.

Mary Beth Oliver, Betty Fortune and Shirley Caldwell will be the ushers.

Book Club Is At Election

At Wednesday afternoon meetings held by a book club, a Tech group and a business women's club, officers were elected and programs were presented.

A review by a guest and an election of officers featured the last meeting of the season for the Book-of-the-Month club Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. G. Denman, 2615 Twenty-second, with Mrs. Milton Jones and Mrs. Charles H. Read as assistant hostesses.

Mrs. Ben Brewer reviewed "The Wind That Shakes the Barley" (James Barke).

Mrs. James O. Cade, retiring president, presided for election of the following: Mrs. DeWitt Landis, president; Mrs. Morley Jennings, vice president; Mrs. Parker F. Prouty, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Roy Loveless is retiring secretary-treasurer. Sixteen members were present. Mrs. L. W. Ellington of Hillsboro, mother of Mrs. Denman, was a guest.

MRS. FRED SPARKS IS CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. Robert Blon was named president of Tech Newcomers club at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Fred Sparks, 1901 Sixteenth. Other new officers are Mrs. L. Orr Bunton, vice president, and Mrs. Joe T. Cardwell, secretary.

Plans for a picnic to be held by the club Sunday from 1 until 6 o'clock at Mackenzie State park were completed. Following the business session, Mrs. T. W. Womack, a guest, played two piano selections.

Mrs. H. F. Godeke was cohostess; 18 persons were present. The club's first fall meeting will be with Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, sponsor, in September.

PROGRAM GIVEN AT LUNCHEON

A humorous program, featuring doggerel rhymes written by Mrs. Dan Ellis, was presented at a luncheon held by Lubbock Business and Professional Women's club Wednesday at Hilton hotel. The rhymes were dedicated to club officers and other members.

Miss Ruby Lattimore presided. Mrs Ford Benham was a guest of the club.

P-TA TO INSTALL

George M. Hunt Parent-Teacher association will conduct an installation service tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the school. Mrs. J. E. Hartley, president of the P-T council, will officiate. A musical program will be given under direction of Mrs. J. L. Jenkins.

THE "OLD LOOK" . . . Old-fashioned charm in a white cotton eyelet-trim blouse.

Meal Served In Backyard

Members of Las Vivarachas Alumnae association and husbands attended a backyard supper Friday night at the home of Mrs. Homer Maxey, 3206 Twenty-first.

The organization will not meet again until September.

Hostesses were Mesdames Maxey, Verlon Bigham, Curtis Cheaney, Kenneth Phar and Max Tidmore.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Adair, Bruce Ferrell, Max Tidmore, Homer Maxey, Buster Welch, Howard Klein, F. E. Hightower, Robert Maxey, Verlon Bigham, Curtis Cheaney, Kenneth Phar, and Mesdames Rupert Pearce, Bill Gillespie, Harold Fulgham, Doyle Jordan and Opal Dixon.

Graduating Seniors Are Honored With Dinner

Graduating seniors of Las Vivarachas social club of Texas Technilogical college were honored at a farewell dinner given in Hilton hotel Navajo room Tuesday night.

The retiring president, LaWayna Griffin, and the club sponsor, Miss Martha Graves, were presented gifts. Seniors presented a program and gave booklets, containing the club songs and constitution, to members.

Candles and bouquets of spring flowers were used to decorate. The song, "Violets," was played during the dinner.

The coral snake does not strike. If stepped on or touched, it will turn, deliberately bite, and retain its hold.

Brides-Elect Are Honored

June brides-elect are being complimented daily with parties and showers.

Continuing a series for Miss Elizabeth Ponce, who is to marry Graham Bogel June 6, a bridge supper and miscellaneous shower were given Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Edna Gossett, 2720 Twenty-ninth. There were sixteen guests.

Hostesses with Mrs. Gossett were her daughter, Polly, and Mrs. Ray Forbes and daughter, Jo Ann.

The rooms were decked with red and pink roses.

Miss Betty McFarling Is Honored With Tea

To compliment Miss Betty McFarling, bride-to-be of Roy C. Clark of Texas A&M, a tea was given by her mother and aunt, Mrs. Exel McFarling and Mrs. Hugh McKelvy, in the Yaqui room of Hilton hotel recently.

Mrs. Jack Griggs and Mrs. Ross Adamson presided at the tea table which was laid with lime green net over satin of the same color and centered with an arrangement of yellow snapdragons flanked by white candles burning in silver holders.

Others in the houseparty were Misses Margie Means, Joy Munden, Mary Anna Holly, Margie Williams and Joan Hughes all of Abilene. Miss Jean Horton played organ music during calling hours.

Sixty-five registered in the bride's book.

Miss McFarling and Mr. Clark are to be married June 12.

Winners In Golf Games At Club Are Listed

Members of the Country Club Ladies association played golf Wednesday afternoon on the club course.

Winners were listed as follows: Mrs. J. H. Stiles, 18-hole group; Mrs. C. O. Campbell, 9-hole group, and Mrs. C. A. Rosebrough, beginners.

Schools Lose Credit Rating

AUSTIN, May 20 (AP) — The Good Neighbor Commission has announced that the schools of Mathis, San Patricio county, have lost their credit rating because of segregation practices.

"The accreditation will be given back, of course, as soon as improvements have been made in the education of all the Latin American children in the community," said Thomas S. Sutherland, executive secretary of the commission.

He made the announcement in one of a series of radio broadcasts on the work of the commission.

Report Is Made

Sutherland said a committee of five Latin American citizens of Mathis, headed by Dr. Hector Garcia, reported to the commission that Latin American school children were segregated in "an inadequate, unsanitary, dilapidated, over-crowded school building. Generally speaking, the report said, teachers were "poorly prepared."

The report said that Latin Americans are in the majority in Mathis and that Latin American children account for 80 percent of state money provided for the schools there. State funds are allocated on a per capita count of scholastics.

Sutherland said he checked with the school superintendent of Mathis and found "conditions substantially as reported." The same day, he said the state department of education removed the school from its accredited list.

Betrothal Is Being Told

Plans for approaching marriage of Miss LaWayna Griffin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Griffin of Amarillo, and A. J. Smith, jr., son of Mrs. A. J. Smith, sr., and the late Mr. Smith of Lubbock, were revealed recently in Amarillo at a tea in the Griffin home.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. W. I. Johnson of Plainview, grandmother of the bride-elect and Misses Bettie Hart and Jean Price, two classmates at Texas Tech college. Miss Martha Graves presided at the register.

Plate favors were metallic covered match books enscribed with the names of the couple and their wedding date, June 26.

Miss Griffin, who will be graduated from Tech in June, is president of Las Vivarachas club. Mr. Smith, an industrial engineering major at the colege, is president of the Wranglers club.

Outstanding Woman Will Be Introduced Tonight

Identity of Lubbock's "most outstanding woman of the year," will be revealed at a formal dinner to be given by Altrusa club tonight at 7 o'clock at the Hilton hotel. Her selection was made by Lubbock civic clubs and the name has been kept secret.

Anna V. Moren To Give Junior Piano Recital

Texas Tech music department is presenting Anna V. Moren in junior piano recital Friday at 7:30 p. m., at St. John's Methodist church. Gene Sorley, tenor, and Bob Scoggin, organist, will assist.

The young people study with Mrs. Carl Scoggin.

The music of "America" also is the music of the national anthems of the British Empire, Denmark, and Switzerland.

Vocalist And Reader To Assist With Program

When Rudelle Thompson and Ann Kerr are presented in piano recital tonight by their teacher, Mrs. Vincent Carr, two young girls will assist.

Dorothy Dell West, a former resident who has been studying voice in San Angelo with Miss Marie Watkins, will sing. Mary Lou Sanders will read "The Erl King."

The program, which is open to the public, will be given in the chapel of First Methodist church, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Mullins Is Party Hostess To 42 Club

Three guests played forty-two with members of Pla-Mor club Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. N. N. Mullins, 2216 Seventeenth, entertained at her home. They were Mrs. L. C. Odom of Slaton, Mrs. Guy F. Bennett of Guymon, Okla., and Mrs. John Kuhns.

Eleven members were present.

Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth, 2512 Twenty-fifth, will be club hostess June 25 at 3 p. m.

Edward P. Weathers Extends Enlistment

First Sgt. Edward P. Weathers of Lubbock extended his enlistment for an additional three years with the First Calvary division on April 21, 1948, at Camp King, Omiya, Japan. The division, which is now on occupational duty in the ten prefectures of the Tokyo-Yokohama area, was the first Allied force to enter Manila and the first to enter Tokyo.

Sgt. Weathers is serving as first sergeant of Troop B of the Eighth Cavalry regiment. He and Mrs. Weathers live in the dependent housing located on the post at Camp King.

The First Cavalry division is under the command of Major General Wm. C. Chase of Providence, R. I. It is part of the Eighth army which is commanded by Lt. General Robert L. Eichelberger of Urbana, O.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Thompson, 1625 Ninth, have as their house guest her sister, Mrs. Bill Ambach, and Mr. Ambach of Torrance, Calif.

Rising Temperature Forecast In Texas

(By The United Press)

Rising temperatures and a lack of rain were predicted for Texas today, as most of the state interred its seventh dry weekend.

The U. S. weather bureau said the mercury would seek out the upper levels gradually, but that weekend readings could be in the mid-nineties.

Skies remained generally fair early today. Only a trace of rainfall was reported during the last 24 hours—at Corpus Christi, Salt Flat and Guadalupe Pass. Temperatures were mostly mild Wednesday, ranging from Presidio's 100 degrees to a maximum of 80 at Texarkana.

Official early morning readings were from 56 at Guadalupe Pass to 72 at Corpus Christi, Del Rio, Laredo and Galveston.

The week of mild temperatures, the weather bureau said, was caused by a high pressure area that settled over most of the nation, with circulation moving out of the northeast.

Heart Attack Fatal For Gaines Rancher

SEMINOLE, May 20 (Special)—Following a heart attack at his ranch home 10 miles from Seminole, F. W. Howard, 57, died about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in an ambulance which was taking him to Seminole for treatment. Howard, veteran rancher, had been a resident of Gaines county since 1914.

Services have been set tentatively for Friday, but time and place of services were pending. The body is at Alpha Funeral home in Seminole.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Dell Howard; his mother, Mrs. B. B. Howard of Olney; and four brothers and one sister, all of Young county.

Bevin Opposes Steps To Wage Aggressive War On Russians

SCARBOROUGH, England, May 20 (AP) — Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today he opposes "any steps to carry on aggressive war against Soviet Russia or any other country."

"I am not one of those who believe that war is inevitable," he said in a foreign affairs debate at the annual conference of the labor party. "I never have."

But he told the labor delegates that a "war of nerves" has been going on for some time in Greece and more recently in Berlin, and added:

To Stay In Berlin

"We intend, whatever provocation there might be, to stay in Berlin. We shall have a lot of provocation to put up with. I suggest for a start they might set an example and stop it."

Bevin did not identify the "they" but the reference came as he discussed relations between Britain and Russia.

He repeated his opposition — first laid down a week ago in the House of Commons after the exchange of notes between Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and United States Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith — to a new big power meeting "on a series of generalities."

"After all," he said, "what is holding up peace is concrete things."

Lifebuoy with its Purifying Ingredient

GETS SKIN CLEANER

STOPS "B.O." as no other leading soap can!

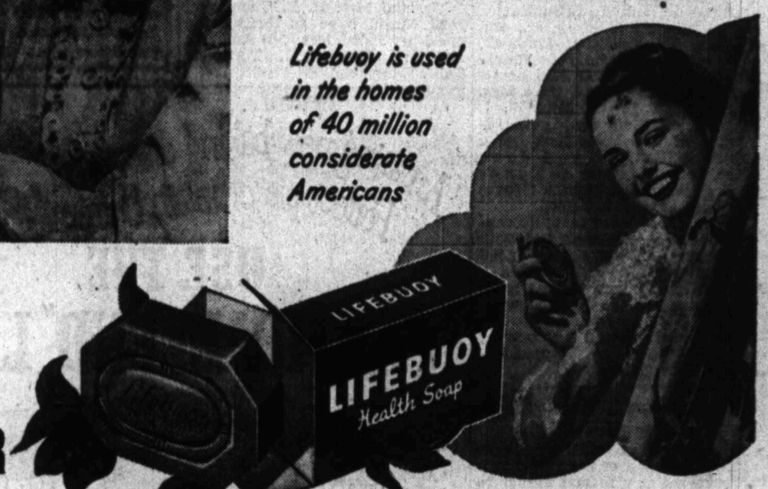

DOCTORS PROVED with 820 scientific tests the truth of this amazing statement...

The cleaner you get your skin, the doctors found, the safer you are from "B.O." (body odor). Any soap will remove all the grime and perspiration you can see—yet leave "invisible dirt" on your skin to form a foothold for "B.O."!

Doctors compared the effects of daily baths with different soaps. The results are amazing! When you bathe with any other leading soap, you are simply not as clean, not as safe from "B.O." as you are when you bathe with Lifebuoy. After 820 scientific tests doctors say Lifebuoy's purifying ingredient makes the difference! And it is this same purifying ingredient that makes Lifebuoy so mild.

Use Lifebuoy daily. It is made from a special oil blend that gives you such an abundant, refreshing lather. Remember, Lifebuoy gives you cleaner skin ... stops "B.O." as no other leading soap can!

Lifebuoy is used in the homes of 40 million considerate Americans

Three Four-Star Generals Face Demotion Under Terms Of Law

By JIM G. LUCAS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 20—Congress—always anxious to take up the cudgel for GI Joe—is being asked to right a wrong for some of the men who led him to victory in World War II.

Under the Officer Personnel act of 1947, three four-star generals and three four-star admirals will lose one star on July 1. They're being demoted simply because the law allows the Army only four generals and the Navy only four admirals, and there are now seven four-star men in each service.

Action Uncertain

What Congress will do is anybody's guess. But Senator Raymond Baldwin (R., Conn.), a member of the armed services committee who sponsored the law last year, considers the scheduled demotion "mean and petty." He plans to introduce amendments to spare the six men the humiliation of unwarranted demotion. He says he will do all he can to push his amendments through before adjournment.

Those affected are Gens. Thomas Handy, commander of the Fourth army, Mark Clark, Sixth army, and Courtney Hodges, First army; Admirals Thomas Kincaid, Commander of the Eastern Sea Frontier, Henry Hewett, senior naval representative at the United Nations, and Raymond Spruance, president of the Naval War college.

General Hodges, a 40-year veteran, may save his rank by retiring June 30. He has seven months before he reaches the retirement age—64—but having served more than 30 years can quit whenever he elects. Admiral Spruance will be only one month away from retirement on July 1. Admiral Hewett has eight months; Admiral Kincaid one year and 10 months. General Handy, however, has five years and six months to serve before he retires, and General Clark has 10 years ahead of him.

Little Saving

Demotion of the six will mean little cash saving for the taxpayer. They will continue to draw the same pay, which is not increased after an officer becomes a major general or a rear admiral. Their allowances will be cut from $2200 to $500 a year. That will be $1700 per man; $10,200 if all six serve another 12 months. But since three retire shortly after their scheduled demotions, it will be considerably less.

Senator Baldwin says he is convinced a grateful nation never intended to penalize military leaders who served it faithfully in time of war. He believes Congress wants to limit the number of officers wearing four stars after the men who earned that rank in battle go back to civilian life. Chairman Chan Gurney (R., S. D.) of the armed services committee agrees. Senator Gurney said his committee would ask Defense Secretary James Forrestal to suggest a solution.

Amendments limiting the number of four-star officers were written into the Officer Personnel act by the House armed services committee. The law was intended to provide the armed services with an orderly promotion system—advancement by merit rather than length of service.

Eisenhower Urged Action

Appearing before the Senate armed services committee last July—a few days before adjournment—General Eisenhower urged immediate action even though, he said, he disagreed with some features of the bill, including the demotion amendments. At that time, he said:

"The one thing I want to impress upon you is the need for speed in getting it (the promotion system) on the books. The principles of the bill and the handling of the officer corps are the important things to me. Where our ideas differ on some specific points, say in the number of four-star generals, I am not going to make any great argument . . . The pressure now is pretty bad because we are filling up the grades of lieutenant colonel and colonel in many instances with people we do not want."

Senator Baldwin said the House amendments which now force the Army and Navy to demote some of its best men were left in because no one wanted to jeopardize a much-needed promotion plan by fighting to take them out.

"Certainly," he said, "a nation which depended for its very existence upon the skill and character of these men, can ill-afford to slap them in the face now that they are nearing the end of useful careers."

$8 Million Won't Go Far For Columbia

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—Columbia university has received a gift of eight million dollars but it won't be erecting any new building with the money.

The dollars are Chinese, donated by Tung-Li Yuan of Peiping, an alumnus. They are worth about $25 in American money.

Add a half-cup of coarsely chopped sweetpickle and a teaspoon of grated onion to a fish loaf to give it piquant flavor.

City Officials Have Red Faces When High School Seniors Take Over Municipal Jobs

ZANESVILLE, O., May 20. (AP) — The unexpected happened when high school seniors took over city offices for the day yesterday.

Townsfolk expected the seniors to have fun "playing" mayor, police chief and other city officials. They had fun all right—and the adult officials had red faces because:

Jack Harker as police chief staged a series of gambling raids. "Mayor" Aubrey Sibbring and "City Solicitor" Frank Shurts, jr., went along.

They confiscated a jar with gambling slips in one place, broke up a poker game and found a pull tab board.

Harker didn't file any charges, although he claimed he had full legal authority to do so.

While this was going on, "Fire Chief" Charles Cooper, "City Auditor" Henry Abele and "Safety Director' John Montgomery tried to condemn the high school building as a fire trap.

The real school officials, Superintendent Donald Summers and Principal Ralph Storts, managed to forestall this after an hour and a half conference.

Agents Meet Here

Several prominent agriculturilists spoke on animal and cotton insects and chemical weed eradication at an all day meeting of county agents of district number 2 of the state extension service held in Aggie Memorial auditorium at Texas Technological college Wednesday. Dr. H. G. Johnson, head of the department of entomology at Texas A&M, spoke on animal parasites, followed by C. E. Fisher, agronomist for the Texas experiment station at Spur, on weed control by the use of chemicals. Dr. Gaines, also of the Texas A&M entomology department, spoke in the afternoon on cotton insects.

Several representatives of insecticide companies attended the meeting. All of the talks were recorded for future use by the county agents and the commercial firms.

W. M. Williamson, district agent of district number 2, was in charge of the meeting.

Four-Room Bungalow To Give Pay Boost

PARIS, Ill., May 20 (AP)—Paris High school teachers are in line for a boost in salaries through efforts of students who built and furnished a four-room bungalow.

The bungalow, which has been inspected by thousands of persons, will be sold at auction Saturday. Proceeds will be applied to teachers salaries due to the current deficit in school system funds.

Clodfelter Hurls Hubs To Victory

Pitcher Bob Clodfelter of the Lubbock Hubbers made West Texas-New Mexico league headlines last night and almost slipped through the Hall of Fame front door, when he came within one batter of pitching a no-hit, no-run ball game.

Clodfelter helped his own cause along with a circuit clout over the left field fence in the third inning to score the first of seven runs the Hubbers collected.

Second Place Tie

The victory moved the Hubbers back into a second place tie with the Borger Gasers, who lost to the league-leading Pampa Oilers, 5-4. Abilene moved into a fourth place deadlock with Lamesa by trouncing Amarillo 17-7, while the Loboes pounded out a 16-12 win over the Albuquerque Dukes.

It wasn't the pitcher's night in the loop in two games, but in the other half the hurlers certainly had their innings. Clodfelter turned in the best game seen in the West Texas-New Mexico league this year. And at Lamesa, Joe Behl did his darndest to win for the Dukes. He hit a triple, homer and single to get credit for three hits in four appearances, but his hurling was a little on the sour side and he was charged with the defeat.

Six Homers In Game

Six fourmasters featured the Lobo-Duke contest, with Tony Fiarito's fifth of the season clinching the game in a four-run eighth inning. Eddie Skrabacz picked up his seventh fence-blaster earlier in the contest and Manager George Sturdivant also hit for the circuit.

But Clodfelter was the whole show last night. The tall, well-proportioned righthander was nicked for a fluke single in the fourth inning, when Manager John Bottarini blooped a spinning Texas Leaguer behind second that no one could reach. Except for that blow, Clodfelter would have entered baseball's most coveted hall.

The Lubbock hurler allowed only one man, Bottarini, to get past first, the Pioneer catcher going to third on a Lubbock error after his single. Eddie McGuire went down swinging at a third strike to retire the side and protect the shutout.

27 Batters Face Him

Only 27 Pioneer batters officially faced Clodfelter, who gave up four walks, three of which were erased immediately by fast double plays. He struckout six batters, getting Wilcy Moore twice. Only four Pioneer runners were left on base, two of them in the fourth inning, one through an inning-ending forceout and the fourth when an error allowing life left the runner stranded.

It was a beautiful pitching performance and the crowd of over 1,000 persons gave Clodfelter a well-deserved hand at its conclusion.

Tonight the Hubbers play the the first game set to start at 7:30. Manager Jackie Sullivan said that Marvin Alexander would hurl the first tilt, with Red Ramsey throwing the second game.

Eddie Gideon Wins Feature Mat Match

Honors in the main event of the regular Wednesday night wrestling card at Sled Allen's arena were copped by able Eddie Gideon of Montgomery, Ala., who bested Olan Boynton of Amarillo in the two out of three falls feature.

Gideon took the first decision in 14 minutes with an abdominal stretch, but the bulky Boynton bounced back to win the second fall in just two minutes with a body pin. Gideon gained the decisive third fall in 10 minutes with a rope rebound and body pin to clinch the victory.

In the semifinal go Jack Wentworth and Ace Abbott, the Abilene grappler, fought to a draw. Wentworth took the first setto, but Abbott evened the count in the second fall. Time ran out before either contestant could gain a decision.

Ray "Big Train" Clements and Billy Sandow were eliminated from the card in the preliminary "Rassle Royal."

Joe Smith To Play With Baltimore

BALTIMORE, May 20 (AP)—The Baltimore Colts of the All-America Football Conference yesterday announced the signing of Joe Smith, 200-pound end from Texas Tech.

He is a native of Lubbock, Tex.

SMITH COMPLETES WORK AT TECH THIS SPRING

Joe Smith, who has been active in athletics and social life at Texas Tech, completes his college work this spring. He earlier had announced his intention of signing with Baltimore, soon after participation in the Sun Bowl game on New Year's Day at El Paso.

The stocky end, who turned in a brilliant performance in the annual North-South grid game at Montgomery, Ala., helped with spring football training at Tech.

Sluggers Walloped By Lubbock Sports

The Lubbock Sluggers were looking for better opposition today, better for them, after dropping a 22-4 game to the Lubbock Sports yesterday afternoon in an independent team baseball game.

Cecil Thompson, Sports catcher, hit two home runs, Dean Fawcett had a circuit clout, a double and two singles and Hugh Carlen also had a home run for the winning team. Max Macon hit three for four.

Donald Dunigan was the winning pitcher, while Jackie Lewelling worked on the mound for the losers, with Louis James behind the plate.

Between ... The Lines

— By JOE KELLY —

Baseball fans who expect high scores in the West Texas-New Mexico League—and who aren't happy unless they are high—must have been disappointed last night at Rosenthal Field. But for fans who love to see an occasional pitching duel and well-pitched games, that tilt with the Clovis Pioneers last night was almost the tops. It was just about as good a game as you will see anywhere and there should have been more fans on hand to enjoy it.

Bob Clodfelter was magnificent. He was throwing them in there easily, changing his pace enough to baffle the hitters and keep them taut, but bearing down when it really counted. He didn't seem to have too much curve on the ball; the important thing is that he had complete control. The Pioneer batters never knew what to expect and most of them spent the night futily swinging at elusive pitches.

We asked Don Moore after the game what Clodfelter had been throwing and he said "everything." Jackie Sullivan said that Clodfelter had a beautiful sinker and that it was working last night. Only five balls were hit to the outfield, Charley Scarborough making four putouts and Frank Boothe nabbing the other. The lone hit of the game in the fourth was a Texas Leaguer that fell between Royce Mills, Scarborough and Jackie Wilcox just behind second base.

The infield had a busy night, with 16 putouts and 13 assists, Virgil Richardson getting 12 of the putouts himself. The inner defense was working beautifully, with two double plays. The other twin killing was turned in by Scarborough and Richardson, the former taking a line drive to centerfield and throwing to first in plenty of time to catch Jess Jacinto. Jacinto had broken for second on the hit and couldn't get back in time. It was a beautiful throw that erased one of the men who was the biggest pain in the Hubber side in that opening ball game April 21.

Clodfelter was nearly as pleased over his home run as he was over the one-hitter. He got his blow in the third inning with Scarborough on first and the count at one ball, no strikes. It was no fluke. Clodfelter hit the ball sharply and hard, lifting it into the netting over the left field fence. It didn't matter that he struckout twice after that; he hit when it counted, which more or less bears out the remark made here the other day. Opposing pitchers hardly dare pass any one batter in the Hubber lineup to get to another and it's getting to the point where this includes the pitchers.

All in all, it was quite a ball game last night, even if the crowd didn't go into wild paroxisms. The team hit hard enough to win, Clodfelter deserved his shutout and the defensive work was fine. Tonight Marvin Alexander and Red Ramsey go after twin victories over Clovis in an effort to move Borger. If the Hubbers can win both ends of the double bill, they'll go into undisputed possession of second place, no matter if Borger beats Pampa. It's a good goal at which to shoot.

Frank McAlexander, the reliable and sometimes brilliant third baseman, was missing from the lineup last night. Frank ate something on the road that didn't agree with him and was sick most of the four-days the Hubbers were in Amarillo and Borger. It was severe enough to keep him out of the lineup last night, but he'll probably be back at third in both games tonight.

We were asking Jackie Sullivan about Kermit Altizer's pitching performance Tuesday night against Borger. Jackie was high in his praise of the erstwhile catcher and considers him a good prospect. Altizer concealed the fact that he had an upset stomach, similar to McAlexander's, until after the game, when he came into the dressing room and was sick. The younger brother of the Dallas Rebels' Quentin Altizer is determined to be a moundsman. Jackie says he has a fine fast ball that jumps and a good curve. With more experience, Altizer may be one of the answers to the Hubber dreams.

The turf in Rosenthal Field is being put into the hands of a recognized expert, Charles D. McGehee of the Lubbock Country club. McGehee has guaranteed that he will have an infield you can putt on within six weeks and the Hubber front office is letting him go to it. Holes are being filled in with soil and the entire infield will be raked and graded into a carpet. It definitely will make a difference with the spin balls have been taking, to say nothing of taking away those bad hops, both in the infield and outfield.

Feller Wins, Puts Indians Atop Heap

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Feller and his Cleveland tribe have cooled off Connie Mack's Athletics and wrested the actual American league lead from Philadelphia.

By a mathematical freak, the Indians slipped into first place Tuesday night when they really trailed the A's by a half game. No longer is there any freak about it. Feller took care of that.

The fireballing righthander, who was the only American leaguer to win 20 games last season, hung up his fifth victory last night by trimming Philadelphia, 6-1, with three hits.

Sweep Of Series

Feller's brilliant pitching permitted the Tribe to sweep the series from the A's, who came into town on a red hot spree after winning a doubleheader in the Yankee Stadium. They moved on to Detroit in second place.

Last night's crowd of 33,871 saw Feller retire the side in order in seven of the nine innings while the home club routed Bill Dietrich in a five-run fifth.

Hal Newhouser got back on the win path after being knocked out five straight times, when he hurled Detroit to a 4-1 decision over Boston. Hal tied a record when he started four of the Tigers' six double plays.

Vic Wertz broke up a 1-1 game when he homered off Ellis Kinder with two on in the last of the ninth. Pat Mullin's homer in the fourth accounted for the other run.

The New York Yankees finally got a route-going job from Lefty Ed Lopat, ex-White Sox'er, who allowed 12 hits in taking an 8-4 verdict over Fred Sanford and the St. Louis Browns.

Pitcher Early Wynn helped Washington out of trouble with his bat. Coming in as a pinchitter he singled home two runs that started the Senators to a 4-1 nod over Chicago. Walt Masterson benefitted by the blow off Joe Haynes.

There were some high shenanigans at Ebbets Field, where the St Louis Cardinals thumped Brooklyn, 14-7, before a night crowd of 32,888. It lasted for three hours and 28 minutes and consumed five of the Brooks' seven able pitchers. Clyde King who replaced starter Rex Barney, caught the loss and the win went to Ted Wilks, the third Card chucker.

Cards Shade Chicago

While the Dodgers were losing their fourth in a row at home, the Phils were coming from behind to shade Chicago, 2-1. Two in the last of the ninth on a triple by Johnny Blatnik and singles by Del Ennis, Eddie Miller and Howie Schultz turned Cliff Chamber's potenial shutout into a decision for reliefer Sam Nahem.

The New York Giants took advantage of another fine pitching job by Larry Jansen, who curved the ball past Cincinnati for a 5-0 victory. Whitey Lockman and Bill Rigney hit homers for the Giants.

Boston uncovered a new rookie, Vern Bickford, who may have an important bearing on the race. Bickford, making his first start, limited Pittsburgh to five hits in a 4-1 victory.

Waco Moves Into Top Spot

(By The Associated Press)

Waco tops the Big State league today, with the Greenville Majors shunted to second place.

The Pirates won their fourth straight last night, beating Sherman-Denison, 13-6, to take the lead by a half-game as Greenville bowed to Austin, 4-3.

Two ther games saw Paris jump on Wichita Falls, 14-7, and Gainesville rally to beat Texarkana, 7-4.

Haddican Leads Attack

Hal Haddican paced Waco's outburst, hitting a single and grand-slam home run to drive in five runs. Del Dunnack also helped the Pirates off to a fast start with a two-bagger with the bases loaded in the first inning.

Earl "Dinty" Moore set Greenville down with five hits, won his fourth game of the year, and knocked in two runs in the seventh with a double. He also scored the game's winning run.

Gainesville Rallies To Win

Gainesville came from behind in the last two frames to beat Texarkana scoring four runs in the eighth and two in the ninth. Texarkana had tallied four times in the seventh.

Paris ran its winning streak to three games when it used 17 hits to smash the Spudders. Newcomer Dave Short hit a three-run homer, double and single and Frank Carswell chipped in a homer and two singles.

Longview Holds Lone Star Lead

(By The Associated Press)

Lufkin extended its losing streak ot ten straight games last night while Longview held a one-game advantage over Tyler at the top of the standings.

Manager Joe Kracher's two home runs helped Kilgore to an 8-4 decision over Lufkin, which was playing under a new boss, Stan Bartkowski.

Longview had little trouble with Marshall, winning 10-1, Bryan blanked Henderson, 5-0, and Tyler downed Gladewater, 10-7.

Martin Rushing scattered six Marshall hits as his mates jumped on two Tiger pitchers for an even dozen.

Five of Bryan's eight hits were doubles and came in the right moments to beat Henderson.

Tyler stayed right behind the Texans with its win over the Bears.

Rebels, Tulsa Trade Places

BY WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

The game of leap-frog Dallas and Tulsa are playing with fourth place in the Texas league had Dallas there today.

Bob Brady's ninth inning single jumped the Rebels ahead of the Oilers for one of two changes in the first division. The other saw Houston break its second place tie with San Antonio for second on a double win from Beaumont. San Antonio divided with Shreveport.

Cats Win Two

Fort Worth, which is five and one-half games ahead after last night's double victory over Oklahoma City, appears due for a long stay in the No. 1 position.

Dallas' 5-4 decision over the Tulsa was the only single game played as these results were posted in double bills:

Fort Worth 3-9, Oklahoma City 2-4; Houston 4-5, Beaumont 0-2; Shreveport 7-1, San Antonio 0-2.

The Cats needed an extra-inning in the seven-frame opener to nudge the Indians, Irving Noren's double breaking up the game. The Cats picked up a dozen hits in the nightcap for an easy decision.

Boyer Wins Fourth

Claude Boyer won his fourth game in holding Beaumont to five hits in the first game. A three-run second inning gave the Buffs a lead that was never threatened in the nightcap.

Vern Petty's error in the tenth gave San Antonio a split with Shreveport, George Corona scoring from second. Home runs by Al Mazur and Dan Reynolds helped the Shippers win the opener.

A change in sites tonight sends Oklahoma City to Dallas and Tulsa to Fort Worth, but leaves Shreveport at San Antonio and Houston at Beaumont.

McPike May Pitch For Lamesa Tonight

LAMESA, May 20 (Special) — The Lames Loboes probably will start Calien McPike on the mound tonight against the Albuquerque Dukes, the righthanded pitcher joining the staff officially yesterday.

McPike was a member of the Loboe hurling staff in 1946 and has rejoined the Lamesa nine for another try at pitching under a five-day look contract. Lamesa Baseball club officials made the announcement Wednesday.

McPike now is the property of the Sweetwater Sports of the Longhorn League, whose officials deny that the hurler has a sore arm.

McPike was released by Lamesa during the 1946 season and caught on with Abilene, finishing the season with eight wins and eight losses. He had an earned run average of 6.51.

Abilene sold him to Sweetwater during the 1947 season, after he had won six and lost four for the Blue Sox. He had an earned run average at that time of 5.57.

The righthander is a limited service player and probably will see action as a starter during the current nine-game home stand opening tonight.

Behind The Scenes In Noted Gotham Gym

Rocky Graziano Gets Ready For Defense Of His Title

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 20.—Stillman's gymnasium is a ramshackle building whose soul centers about two stained, worn boxing rings. In it, you'll find the motliest collection this side of Singapore.

Throughout the afternoon it is boxing's busiest bedlam. And a cigaret haze cloaks the fighters, from champion to uncertain preliminary boy, as they shuffle through their shadow boxing, labor at calisthenics and belabor each other with simulated fury.

Graziano Winds Bandages

In the midst of this, a happy Rocky Graziano wound bandages on his fists and muttered:

"Jeez, it's good to be back."

The middleweight champion was just in from the quiet of the country. There he had tried to ready himself for his June 9 title defense against Tony Zale at Newark's Ruppert Stadium. His muscles had hardened but in the unfamiliar quiet The Rock wasn't at peace. The kid from the East Side had to come home to the blissful noises of the big city.

"It was too quiet up there for me," he grinned. "Besides, I couldn't get any sparring partners to come up to the country."

Madhouse Of Maul

Graziano whirled around the madhouse of maul greeting his friends. Their welcomes were typical of their background. In those circles it's considered cute to belt a guy in the belly, or send a stiff right hand whistling to the kidneys. Everyone laughs. They are tough kids; they know it, and there is a suspicion that they glory in it.

Back in the crowded little cubicle which serves him as a dressing room, The Rock stripped down and strutted around in his muscles. Jack Healy, a night club guy who is one of Graziano's managers, walked by and The Rock feinted a punch. Healy leaped back and everybody snickered.

In Troops Lee Oma

The door opened and in trooped Lee Oma, a good heavyweight who finds himself handicapped by the bright lights. Sweat dripped off his forehead and Oma wiped himself with a grimy towel. As he stripped, Graziano spotted a wide piece of rubber wrapped tight around Oma's waist, designed to sweat the suet off his belly.

"What'd ya do, swipe your wife's girdle?" The Rock asked.

Everybody laughted again and Oma replied, in a husky voice:

"I gotta be in shape this time."

Oma fights a negro comer named Henry (Snow) Flakes at the Garden on Friday night. Flakes beat him the last time out.

"I got too much at stake to fool around for this one," said Oma, who hopes for a heavyweight title fight. "I was out of shape last time and I almost had him. He punches good early, that Flakes, but he runs down quick. This time I'll nail him."

Hit On Adam's Apple

"Say," Graziano interrupted, "what ever happened to your voice?"

"I got hit on the Adam's apple," Oma rasped. "They say there's nothing wrong with my throat but it comes out husky."

People kept pushing in and out of the little room but everybody stopped when Oma asked:

"How do you think you'll do this time against Zale."

The gym was like a big barn now. The fighters had quit for the day and the crowd had drifted out.

"This time," said The Rock, "I'm out to get him as quick as I can."

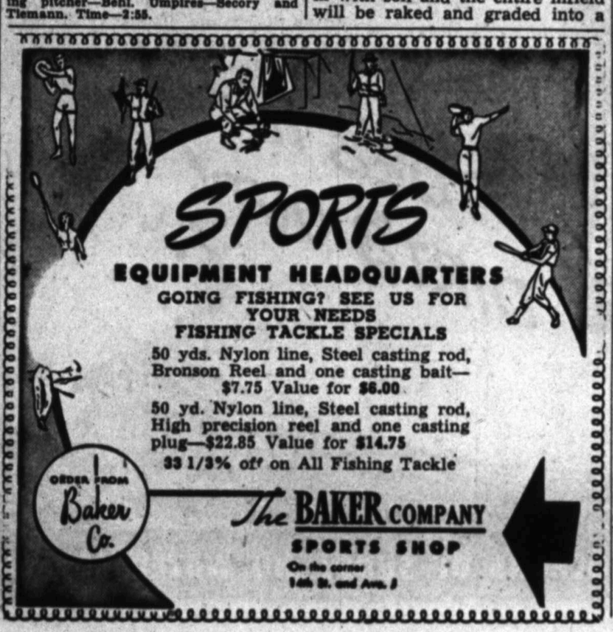

With that they followed the noise out to the street.

Good Morning! was your shave a Treet?

Hamilton, Hogan Lead PGA Play

BY SKIPPER PATRICK
Associated Press Staff Writer

ST. LOUIS, May 20—Two former champions, Bob Hamilton and little Ben Hogan, shared the lead with five-under-par 66's at the start of today's second and final 18 holes of qualifying play in the 30th Professional Golfers association tournament.

Sure putting and accurate approaches to the greens of the hilly 6,467 yard Norwood Hills Country club put the pair in the lead.

Hamilton, the 1944 titlist, turned in a classy 25 putt job as seven of the top 12 shooters showed complete mastery of the fast, true greens yesterday.

Eagle And Two Birdies

Hamilton, of Landover, Md., flashed the niftiest series of shots with an eagle and two birdies on successive holes that gave him a four-under-par for the incoming nine. He chipped from well off the green into the cup for an eagle 2 on the 13th, and lifted another into the hole for a birdie 3 on the 18th.

Hogan, of Hershey, Pa., who won the crown in 1946, used only 29 putts. Long putts accounted for three of his five birdies.

Gene Sarazen of Germantown, N. Y., and former Masters champion Herman Keiser of Akron, O., each needed only 30 putts for 67's.

Ferrier Scores 70

Big Jim Ferrier, the defending champion, who didn't have to qualify, stoked through a 36-34—70 round just to get the "feel of the course."

All told, 25 of the 133 starters yesterday bettered or equalled regulation figures for the tournament stretch.

A qualifying score of about 150 appeared to be the order for the 63 players who will join Ferrier in match play Friday for the top $3,500 prize. The final match of 30 holes is scheduled for next Tuesday.

One-Armed Pitcher To Work Game Here

A doubleheader softball affair Saturday night at Jumbo Webster Field, with two Texas Softball League tilts being played, may be the reason fans are going out there, but the center of attraction will be L. D. Cunningham, a one-armed pitcher with the Big Spring softball nine.

Cunningham will pitch one of the two games for the invading Big Spring team, with either Bluebonnet-Sunbeam's ace, Jackie Neel, or G. W. Warden opposing him.

The Bluebonnet-Sunbeam nine currently is leading the loop with nine victories against one defeat and a twin killing Saturday night would improve their first place standing.

Draft Of Candidate For Governor Hinted

AUSTIN, May 20 (U.P.) — A candidate for governor is to be drafted at a meeting at Fort Worth tentatively set for late May or early June, it was announced today.

Joe T. Steadham, chairman of the joint railway labor board, said the meeting would bring together farm, labor, old age pension, teacher and cooperative groups.

He said the meeting will be held shortly after May 25, date of the state convention, and by June 3. The deadline for filing for the governorship is June 7. Steadham said indications were that the group would seek to draft former Attorney General William McCraw of Dallas or former Gov. Pat M. Neff.

Favorites Pace Women's Play

SAN ANTONIO, May 20 (AP) — Favorites pace the 27th women's Texas Golf association championship into quarter-final play today.

Mrs. L. M. Keating, the former Kay Pearson of Houston, two time defending champion, meets Austin's Betsy Rawls, tournament co-medalist, in the top match. Other pairings are:

Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, Fort Worth, vs. Mrs. Pedd Roe, San Antonio; co-medalist Bettye Mims White, Dallas, vs. Mrs. Harold Weilbacher, San Antonio; Mrs. Jack Williford, Sherman, vs Betty Mackinnon, Mount Pleasant.

Mrs. Roe scored a mild upset in second round play yesterday, ousting Mrs. George Noble of Dallas, 1 up.

Mrs. Keating took a narrow 2 and 1 decision over Mrs. Sydney Hurst, Dallas, overcoming a two-hole handicap at the end of nine holes.

Mrs. White ousted 16-year-old Betty Dodds, San Antonio, 4 and 3, and Miss Rawls beat Mrs. W. K. Stripling jr., Fort Worth, 6 and 4.

Mrs. Goldthwaite, three times tournament champion, easily beat Mrs. Paul Streit, San Antonio, 8 and 6 while Mrs. Weilbacker downed Mrs. C. A. Ferguson, San Antonio, 4 and 3; Mrs. Williford defeated Mrs. Lee Christopher, San Antonio, 5 and 3; and Miss Mackinnon beat Mrs. Charles True, Dallas, 3 and 1.

Black Hubbers Beat Abilene At Memphis

Lubbock's Black Hubbers who missed a game here Monday night with the Chicago Brown Bombers after they cancelled their schedule in order to reach an engagement in Iowa, nosed out Abilene's Black Eagles last night in a 5 to 4 decision on neutral ground at Memphis, Tex.

E. Smith, who started on the mound for the Black Hubbers, was relieved in a late inning in favor Alexander Johns. Hutson went all the way for the Eagles.

The Black Hubber management said an effort is being made for a game next week-end. Next home games will be May 30 and 31, when the local crew plays the Marlin Tigers here.

Two To Three Bowls Hear Death Knell As Conferences Impose Restrictions

NEW YORK, May 20 (U.P.)—Two and maybe three bowls heard something ominously akin to a death knell today but the others will continue to flourish even though the Southeastern and Southwest conference have cracked down on post-season football games.

A United Press survey revealed that the Dixie bowl at Birmingham, Ala., and the Delta bowl at Memphis, Tenn., newest additions to the family of New Year's day games, were almost certain to go under. The 'Gator bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., rode the same boat as the other two, but had stronger hopes of getting out before it sinks.

The other 16 games which were staged last Jan. 1 don't use Southeastern or Southwest conference teams anyway, so they'll doubtless continue in all their mass production glory, multiplying like souped-up rabbits.

The Southeastern conference started the ruckus by restricting its teams to the Cotton, Sugar and Orange bowls. The Southwest followed through by leving a $10,000 or 25 percent "tax" on receipts of its members which play in bowl games.

Each of those leagues supplied four bowl teams last Jan. 1.

Stars Gather For Los Angeles Relays

LOS ANGELES, May 20 (AP)—A crowd of more than 60,000 at the annual Los Angeles Coliseum relays was anticipated today as one of the greatest arrays of track and field stars got in final training licks for the cinderpath carnival tomorrow night.

Primary magnet for the track addicts is the renewal of the 100-meter sprint duel between Mel Patton of Southern California and Lloyd La Beach of Panama.

Named for the 100-meters with them were ex-sprint king Barney Ewell of Penn State fame, who arn third to atton here last year; Charlie Parker of Texas, Australia's John Treloar, and four others.

The 1500-meter Coliseum record is 3 minutes 51.2 seconds, set by Italy's Luigi Beccali in 1932. Rated a chance to lower it are Penn State's Gerald Karver, who won the corresponding mile last year; Roland Sink of USC and Texas' diminutive Jerry Thompson.

Aiming at the Coliseum 14.3 seconds for the 110-meter high hurdles (Roy Staley, USC, 1936) are such athletes as Lloyd Duff of Ohio State and August Erfurth of Rice.

Twin Softball Bill Scheduled Tonight

Bluebonnet-Sunbeamers clash with Baldridge Bakery and the Thomes Jewelers meet the Golden Light Coffee nine in a South Plains Softball league twin bill tonight at Jumbo Webster field.

In the first tilt Jackie Neel, the Sunbeamers' ace hurler who has chalked up 132 strikeouts in 63 innings, is slated to take the mound against Bill Kizer, top-ranking chunker from Amarillo. Neel is hailed as the best softball pitcher to appear in the local park and Kizer, obtained by Baldridge for this game, has a brilliant record.

Wee Willie Holder will toe the slab for the Jewelers in the nightcap against Bobby Young or Dewey Carr for the Coffeemen.

The first game will start at 8 o'clock.

Bob Feller Throws Book At Athletics

CLEVELAND, May 20 (AP)—Bob Feller, pitcher and author, threw the book at the Philadelphia athletics last night.

Feller's new tome is titled, "How to Pitch," so the Cleveland Indians' fireballer proceded to give the pesky Athletics a practical review of its contents by twirling a three-hit 6 to 1 victory.

Bob had a one-hit shutout until the ninth and faced only 25 batters in the first eight innings, only one more than par for the course.

"I knew from the beginning I had it," Feller said. "About once in every eight or ten games you have exceptional stuff and I had it last night."

From the peaks of north Sweden, the sun can be seen continuously for six weeks.

Winner In Denton Contest Is Named

DENTON, May 20.—Climaxing a three-week contest, tiny, brown-eyed Virginia Clark of Neptune City, N. J., was announced as "Miss Varsity" of North Texas State college.

Chosen in secret judging as winner over nine other finalists in the college beauty contest, Miss Clark received $200 in prizes offered by Denton merchants. Four hundred dollars in prizes was divided among the runners-up in the contest sponsored by Pi Phi Pi fraternity.

A sophomore student majoring in music, Miss Clark was named New Jersey's "Most Lovable Girl of the Month" last September and received a seven-year modeling contract and gifts of jewelry.

Total Of 264 Entries Received For Lubbock's Soap Box Derby

Lubbock's first official Soap Box Derby, to be staged here on Monday, July 5, today had a total of 264 entries today, the largest group of boys ever to enter a first-year race in the nation.

And another record was set for the race also, members of the Exchange club, who with the Avalanche-Journal and Kuykendall Chevrolet company are joint sponsors of the Derby. Every boy in the race will have a car sponsored by some firm, individual or organization. Warlick Carr, president of the Exchange club said. A total of 245 sponsors had been signed by the club up until today, Carr said.

With the entry deadline passed, and school closing this week, the boys will be concentrating on building of their cars in the next six weeks. The cars must be built exclusively by the boys, although they can seek the advice and counsel of their parents and sponsors. Each boy must not spend more than $6 for materials for his car. The sponsor's fee of $17.50 provides for the cost of wheel and axle and stearing gear sets.

Latest entries in the big amateur race, which is expected to draw upwards of 15,000 spectators on the Fourth of July holiday celebration here July 5, included:

Entries Named

Jerry J. Lee Gilliland, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Gilliland, 1923 Twenty-seventh; Elmo Judson McKee, 13, son of V. M. McKee, route 7; Billy D. Meek, 14, son of M. M. Meek, 2611 North First; Kenneth Woodward, 15, son of M. K. Woodward, 1824 Ave. Q; Glenn W. Smith, jr., 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Smith, sr., 2102 Seventh; Clinton Smith, 13, son of Mrs. A. O. Smith, 2408 Ave. U; Thomas E. Mowery, 11, son of Mrs. B. P. Mowery, 2913 North Fourth; Robert Sidney Webb, 11, son of Robert Webb, 2007 North Third; Donald Runkles, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Runkles, 316 Ave. W; Neil McMullen, 12, son of Mrs. V. T. McMullen, 2418 Eighth; Hugh Carlen, 11, son of Glen Carlan, 1628 Seventh; Doyle Free, 13, son of M. R. Free, 2910 North Fourth; and Charles R. Shoemaker, 12, son of C. H. Shoemaker, 1521 Twenty-sixth.

Sponsors signed up for the race by the Exchange club members in the past few days include:

showed. Police who made the arrest at 12:15 a. m., said he also had a loaded pistol in his car at the time and that, earlier in the night, he had been given a ticket for negligent collision, after a mishap at Ninth and Ave. K.

A Lubbock young man paid $10 for his yen to "sound off." Police said he drove his car, which had a "straight exhaust pipe" to the station, put it in low gear" and almost blasted the boys out of the station."

A radio call resulted in his arrest four blocks from the station.

Another fellow, 30, of Pampa paid $15 for disturbance growing out of his threat of another person with a chair.

Dep. Sheriff George Eubank transferred Tony Don Juan Pier, 23, alias Edgar S. Brown, a Houston negro, to Lubbock from Quanah Wednesday afternoon to face an indictment charging forgery.

Plainview Man Charged

He was indicted in the August term of 72nd district court, under the name of Brown.

El Paso and Cleburne have asked for his custody after the court here has disposed of his case, the sheriff's records showed.

In the justice court of D. W. Robertson, a fugitive warrant bond was set at $1,000 for James D. Graham, 24, of Plainview. He is charged with violation of the check law in Riverside, Calif., and was being held.

A blue 1942 Ford sedan was reported stolen from Charles Garrett last night from 1800-block Ave. H, according to police. The vehicle had a 1946 grill.

Theft of a white sidewall tire and hub cap was reported by Sam Partnoff, of 1114 Thirtieth. The property was taken in 1100-block Texas Ave., records showed.

streetcars.

One of the circulars came into the hands of Karl Riemer, a German forester. He went to American officials and told them that in September, 1944, he had seen an American plane crash in the Reichswald forest in western German.

Riemer said the pilot on the plane was buried by paratroopers who put a rude birch cross over the grave.

After hearing Riemer's story, U. S. Army personnel examined the grave, which contained the unmistakable remains of an American soldier. Through tooth charts, the body was positively identified as that of Capt Middleton.

The Army notified Middleton that his son's body was being transferred to a U. S. military cemetery at Neuville-En Condroz, Belgium.

and Hatch (D-NM), with administration backing would double the number of Europeans admitted and liberalize rules for selecting and bringing them here.

It would let the international refugee organization pick out the persons to apply for admission. In addition it would allow 15,000 Europeans, now in this country on temporary student or visitor permits, to remain permanently.

Senator Hatch said the substitute bill is much closer to terms of a bill pending in the House for admission of 200,000 displaced persons. Speaker Martin (R-Mass) says the House will approve that measure.

other committee member, said he doesn't like the idea of trying to control a man's thinking by legislation.

"I think that's getting us into the field of gestapo methods," Kilgore added.

Senator Dworshak (R-Idaho) said he is inclined to agree with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York that "you can't legislate a philosophy out of business."

Bus Strike

ment to arbitrate was refused by the company on the grounds the drivers were being paid on a parity with others in the area.

An announcement said the stoppage, if it occurs, would involve all schedules on or after the 10:45 o'clock deadline, and that inbound buses out on a run would complete the run before tying up.

Thompson cited other rates he said were or should be comparable to those for operators here. Southwestern Greyhound, he said, pays 5.85 cents a mile. He added that Continental and Dixie Trailways both are operating now at 5.25 cents, but that both are involved in negotiations for an increase.

Company Marking Time

Mrs. Joe Bowman, widow of the late founder of the bus company, is president of the company, and Jess Levens is vice president and manager. Hurley Carpenter, director of schedules and operations, said the company now is "marking time."

Levens, who has been in conference with Walker and the union officials today, said this afternoon that a strike notice had been served.

"It's true that they have served the strike notice, but in my opinion there will be no strike," Levens said.

This will be Rayburn's first official capacity at a national convention.

The executive committee, which met two hours behind locked doors, has the authority to select a keynoter but may only recommend the permanent chairman with the convention doing the actual electing.

There was no announcement whether any conflict developed in filling the two key convention posts. Earlier, Philadelphia Democratic leaders had conducted a campaign to have Pennsylvania Senator Francis J. Myers named keynoter.

Senator Harley A. Kilgore of West Virginia called at the White House yesterday to seek presidential endorsement of Myers on the eve of Mr. Truman's Philadelphia visit to address a Girard college centennial.

The $1,685 represented $37.70 in withholding taxes due, a 100 percent penalty and $10 interest.

She told the conference the government was violating the constitutional amendment against involuntary servitude when it sought to force her to spend time and money collecting taxes.

Employes of the company, with her help, saved enough money to pay their income taxes for the first quarter-year last March 15, and now are saving for the next installment due on June 15, Miss Kellems said.

Stock Market

VOLUME 18 EXPANDED

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—The stock market advanced smartly today on expanded volume.

Buying was on a selective basis but advances of fractions to around 2 points were well distributed. The revival in demand was accompanied by increased turnover, with the day's activity at the rate of around 2,400,000 shares.

Among the various industrial groups most in demand were airlines, metals, oils and golds. Individual issues in many cases sold at the highest levels of the year or longer.

Among the gainers were Schenley, National Distillers, Pan-American Air, Eastern Airlines, Northern Pacific, U. S. Steel, Youngstown, General Motors, Chrysler (despite a strike), Studebaker, American Smelting, International Paper, Sinclair Oil, Pacific Western, Anderson-Prichard, Kennecott, Phelps Dodge, and Transcontinental and Western Air.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP)—Cotton futures turned irregular in slow trading today. The market was easy early on liquidation in nearby July which influenced commission house and New Orleans selling in the balance of the market. Later the market hardened on spot house buying of near months.

Traders were cautious pending new developments on the export situation. Some selling was influenced by further weakness in cotton textile prices and the lack of demand for goods for the second half of the year which pointed to some slowdown in textile production unless the picture rapidly changes.

Weather in the cotton belt was favorable.

Futures closed $2.35 a bale higher to 30 cents lower than the previous close.

Milkman Receives Medal For Rescue

DALLAS, May 20 (AP)—Mrs. J. B. Wear, a 74-year-old Dallas widow, paid her milk bill gladly. The man who made her daily deliveries saved her life.

Now, that milkman—L. E. Lumpkin, routeman for a milk firm—has won the Pasteur medal, awarded by the milk industry foundation for "distinguished public service."

Lumpkin's award came as a result of heads-up action last October 21, when he was making his usual delivery to Mrs. Wear's home. He approached the side door to her apartment and heard a low moan from inside.

"Help me," the voice pleaded. "I'm burning up."

Lumpkin jerked open the screen door, tearing the latch off, and ran inside to find Mrs. Wear on the kitchen floor, her clothing aflame. He snatched a blanket from the bedroom and wrapped it around the aging woman, smothering the flames.

Then he called an ambulance

Doctors at St. Paul's hospital, where Mrs. Wear spent three months with second and third degree burns over a quarter of her body, said Lumpkin's fast action undoubtedly saved the woman's life.

Dupree Infant To Be Buried Friday

Funeral services for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dupree, jr., will be held at the graveside in Lubbock cemetery Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, it was announced today at Bryan McDonald and Son Funeral home.

The child died at birth in an Amarillo hospital Wednesday night. The father, son of Mr. and Mrs Geo. W. Dupree of 2314 Seventeenth here, is in the engineering division of Southwestern Public Service company, and lives in Amarillo. The maternal grandmother is Mrs. W. W. Nelson of 2215 Fifteenth.

Dr. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of First Presbyterian church, and Dr. H. I. Robinson, pastor of First Methodist church, are to officiate.

Liquor Advertising Control Bill Killed

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—The Senate commerce committee today killed a bill to regulate liquor advertising.

By a vote of 6 to 3, it rejected a proposal to amend the federal trade commission act to make "misleading" any advertisement which represented alcoholic beverages as:

1. Beneficial to health or contributing to physical upbuilding.

2. Increasing social or business standing or prestige.

3. Traditional in American family life or is or should be part of the atmosphere of the American home.

Rites Are Read For Lubbock Ex-Resident

COLORADO CITY, May 20 (Special) — Funeral services were held here at 2 p. m. Tuesday for Mrs. A. B. Phipps, 82, mother of Claude E. Phipps of 322 Ave. V in Lubbock, and resident of this city for about 20 years. Mr. and Mrs. Phipps had formerly resided in Lubbock for many years.

Survivors include her husband and a daughter, Wardie Kate; another son, C. C. Breedlove of Muleshoe; and three daughters, Mrs. Bae Billingsley of Tucson, Ariz., Mrs. Annie Richardson of LaFeria, and Mrs. Callie Turk of Roscoe.

8,000-Mile Flight Completed By B-36

WASHINGTON, May 20 (U.P.)—An Air Force B-36 superbomber recently flew a record-breaking 8,000 miles with a dummy bomb-load of probably five tons, it was learned today. It was aloft for a day and a half.

This feat puts in the minor leagues any wartime achievements in the aircraft range, even when allowance is made for the difference between actual bombing operations and single-plane simulated missions. And it may be compared with the highly publicized 4,600-mile trips flown in April by two B-29 superforts, each with a five-ton bomb load.

Potatoes are natives of Peru and the Peruvian Indians called them "papas."

News Briefs

Mrs. James C. Brown, 30, of 3501 Twenty-first, was released after hospital treatment of a deep laceration of the forehead suffered in a collision on Texas Tech campus south of the administration building this morning, police said. They said a car she was driving was in collision with the rear of a city bus driven by William Elbert Conner, 41, of five miles east of Lubbock, and that a negligent collision charge naming her was prepared. She was taken to West Texas hospital by Plains ambulance.

C. B. Summers, 35, charged with liquor law violation, pleaded innocent, and bond of $500 was set, county court officials said today.

Jeff P. Watson, president of the Lubbock Insurance Exchange, is in Waco to attend the fiftieth anniversary convention of the Texas Association of Insurance Agents, it was announced today. Watson was accompanied by his wife and son, Jimmy.

Kiwanis Hears Story Of Photo-Engraving

An explanation of the process of photo-engraving, a word and film, was given at the Kiwanis club luncheon today at Hotel Lubbock.

Previous to start of the film, Winston Reeves, head of an engraving concern here, sketched a hypothetical word picture of the gradual development of early day man toward printing and engraving.

The film, with Jack Glasco as projectionist, traced a piece of "copy" or picture through the several stages of the engraving process. The program was introduced by Dale Buckner.

It was announced that next week's meeting will be held on the campus at Texas Tech college, after being postponed from earlier this month. Specially invited farmer-guests are to attend the meeting which centers largely around the college's artificial insemination breeding program. It is anticipated that 200 or more will attend the meeting.

Club President L. E. (Jack) Davis was in the chair, with invocation by Dr. O. W. English.

Mother Requests Transfer For Her Son

Navy Declines To Interfere In Sailor's Hawaii Romance

WASHINGTON, May 2 (INS)—The Navy and Army agreed today that there is something about a sailor and soldier that is his own personal business—his love life.

The hands-off-romance statements were prompted when a 35-year-old Columbus, Ohio, mother suggested to the Navy that it send her 18-year-old son home from Pearl Harbor so he could make sure his professed love for a Japanese girl "is the real thing."

Talked To Son

She said she talked long-distance with her son, second class seaman Paul Eugene Hickman, who had written for her permission to marry a Hawaiian-born Japanese girl named Betty. Mrs. Hickman said in Columbus:

"I told him that if after a year's wait he still wanted to marry this girl, I would help him in every way possible.

"He's just a boy and is fickle. I am certain this is just an infatuation The Navy should act by sending him back to the United States or somewhere away from Honolulu."

A navy spokesman was poker-faced when told of Mrs. Hickman's plea. He revealed that the Navy cannot chart the course of love—true or false.

Provides Activities

The spokesman pointed out that the Navy provides all sorts of off-duty activities for the boys-in-blue—movies, hobby shops, sports and religious guidance. The spokesman added:

"We don't feel that we should become involved in the private love affairs of every one of our men."

Because romance in a foreign land—and someday maybe even on another planet—may come to a soldier as well as a sailor, the Army was asked how about it, too.

Maj. Gen. Floyd Parks, Army information chief backed the Navy's view. Parks said:

"The individual in this country has always been jealous of his personal perogatives.

Navy Feels Personal

"You have got to allow him to make his decisions himself. You can't regiment everything about a man's life."

The Navy felt a little more personal about the romance of Seaman Hickman. The spokesman indicated that this was, of course, natural.

He asserted that it seemed to him a little unfair to expect the Navy to declare pretty girls, be they Japanese or what-have-you, off limits to sailors.

There was no indication from the Navy that it would interfere in Hickman's Hawaiian romance, which, officially, at any rate, seemed headed for uncharted seas.

Japan's Navy Has One Ship

YOKOSUKA, Japan, May 20 (U.P.)—Once ringed by one of the world's great naval forces, Japan is defended today only by five American fighting ships and a handful of rusty minesweepers.

In this former key naval base, where Japan sent out her mighty war-time fleet ranging across the Pacific, the answer is plain. The Japanese fleet is extinct.

Only tiny 100-ton wooden craft that constantly ply the harbor waters of Japan in search of mines remain. They hunt for magnetic mines dropped in strategic waters by U. S. B-29's. Even these tiny ships will be worthless when their task is through.

Thousands of tons of Japanese navy hulks lie at the bottom of Manila, Kure and Yokohama harbors, Great Britain, Russia, China and the United States account for almost the entire remainder of the fleet.

Only sleek warships, American and British, are now seen in the waters of Japan. An American cruiser and four destroyers make up the sole sea force permanently stationed here.

Constant Patrol Made

The American vessels constantly tour Japanese ports and patrol the straits between Korea and Japan. Technically, the patrol ships are on the look-out for Koreans who try to cross the straits and enter Japan illegally.

The small Japanese craft which patrol in search of mines are scarcely distinguishable from the large fleets of fishing vessels that set out from Japanese harbors each day before dawn.

Low-flying B-29's sowed the mines in narrow channels and harbors in early 1945 to bottle up Japanese shipping. But now they menace American vessels.

The mines were set to explode after a certain number of vessels passed over them. Japanese fishing craft have been the victims of some. But still there are many left—just how many and where they are, no one knows.

Dallas Operettas To Feature Stars

DALLAS, May 20 (U.P.)—A cavalcade of stars from stage and screen will head for Texas this summer to participate in the 10-week Starlight Operetta opening in the State fair Casino June 14.

Among Hollywood notables to appear in the starlight's season of musical comedies and operettas are Gertrude Niesen, who scored a hit in Dallas last summer, Kenny Baker, Arthur Treacher, Vivian Blaine, June Preisser, Carol Bruce, Allan Carney and John Carradine.

The Broadway stage will be represented by Joan MacCracken, Helen George, Hal Leroy and others.

Opening attraction of the Starlight season will be "The Great Waltz," which will run for two weeks.

Folowing will be one-week attractions including "Anything Goes," "One Touch of Venus," "Rosalie," "The New Moon," "Bloomer Girl," "Naughty Marietta," "Hit the Deck," and "The Vagabond King."

Season tickets have been placed on sale at the Starlight ticket office in Dallas.

New York City's "Bowery" takes its name from Peter Stuyvesant's farm, which he called "the Bouwerie."

Warren Drive Is Underway

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren of California has begun his stretch drive in the Republican presidential race. Some of his friends here think the timing may place him among the serious contenders for the nomination.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif) told a reporter he thinks Warren, who has kept a careful pace well behind the leaders, now is in "excellent tactical position" if a convention deadlock develops.

Has Many Friends

"Governor Warren has a great many friends and few, if any, enemies in the Republican party," Knowland said. "It seems to me he is a logical compromise candidate if there is a deadlock."

Warren's aides took the wraps off his campaign this week when they began bidding openly for support in states with uninstructed and favorite son delegations. Previously they had been under orders from the California governor to avoid such efforts.

Backers of Senator Robert A. Taft and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey said they think Warren's move may have come too late to make him a strong contender for the nomination.

Votes Were Possible

As an example, the Taft and Dewey aides generally agree that Warren could have had Oregon's 12 votes—and possibly Washington's 19—on the first convention ballot if he had given the word last fall that he wanted them.

Now Oregon's quota will go to the winner of tomorrow's primary battle between Dewey and former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota. Washington's group has been divided between the latter two, apparently with Dewey having a substantial majority.

Vandenberg Talk

There was some talk about Senator Arthur Vandenberg as second choice if Stassen and Dewey fail to make the nomination grade.

Dan Whetstone, veteran incumbent, and state Senator Fred I. Robertson were involved in a contest for the national committeeman post.

Maryland Republicans also were picking 16 delegates, with no clear advance indication of where their support might go.

Mother Gives Birth To Baby Under Tree

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., May 20 (INS)—A hitch-hiking mother, evicted from her home two days ago, with her husband and three small sons, gave birth today to a 7 pound, 11 oz. girl under a walnut tree as they sought shelter from the rain.

Mrs. Christopher Behrens, 27, was seized by labor symptoms as her family desperately sought a ride to Springfield, Mo. She had been evicted from her nearby Corona, Cal., home two days earlier.

After frantic unsuccessful appeals to charity organizations, she stopped on the outskirts of San Bernardino. The family sought shelter from the rain in a walnut grove. Behrens went for help to the police.

John Marler, a special Santa Fe officer, and John Purdy of the Purdy ambulance service responded.

Following the birth, San Bernardino police treated the small boys to their first meal in over 24 hours before housing them in the juvenile home. Mrs. Behrens was taken to the county hospital. Both were reported in "satisfactory" condition.

Supersonic Tunnel Is Part Of Project

LOS ANGELES, May 20 (U.P.)—America's first large supersonic wind tunnel is rapidly nearing completion at the North American Aircraft plant here and aerophysicists credit German engineers with saving them two years of valuable research time.

The grotesque rig is specifically designed to be used in a hush-hush guided-missile project, and when completed will have a wind velocity of 3,400 mph. It will be used both in furtherance of the guided-missile project and for the study of sonic aircraft design, officials said.

It differs from orthodox wind tunnels by sucking, rather than blasting, air which rushes in to fill a giant steel ball containing a perfect vacuum.

Seagoing Snuff Is Offered For Sale

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP)—Want to buy 1,152 tins of sea-going snuff?

If you do, the War Assets administration will receive your sealed bid on these and other tobacco items until 4:45 p. m., June 7.

Other items for sale include: 2,088 tobacco plugs, 204 packages of chewing tobacco, 27,256 cigars, 492,535 packs of cigarettes, 23,103 packages of smoking tobacco and 1,217 packs of cigarette paper.

Al this has been taken off decommissioned navy vessels.

Buyers must reprocess the products if they plan to resell them in this country.

Madisonville Cattlemen's Club Is Expert At Plugging Its Town, Texas In General

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

No chamber of commerce ever touted a town so expertly as the Madisonville Sidewalk Cattlemen's Association has plugged Madisonville, Tex.

Operating strictly with ideas, the association has consistently drawn national attention to the quiet, pleasant, undistinguished county seat of Madison county in east Central Texas.

Current project of the association is to bring to Texas the out-of-state war veteran who hates the Lone Star state most—and change his mind. Winner of a national contest and chosen as Texas hater No. 1, Ray F. Halloran of Cincinnati, Ohio, lands at Houston today, and will be subjected to entertainment and hospitality in every section of the state.

Typical Of Efforts

This is typical of what the Cowboy association tries to do—get a newsworthy idea and back it up with money.

President of the group since it was organized in 1939, Dr. J. B. Heath told us:

"We started the association to provide a little humor to combat the tension of war nerves."

Stated purpose of the organization is to control the wearing of cowboy boots. Its slogan: "Cowboy boots for cattle owners only."

Here are the rules: If you own two head of cattle you are entitled to wear boots. If you own three, you are entitled to stuff the right pant leg in your boot. The owner of four head can stuff both pants leg in and the owner of six can wear spurs.

On many occasions the association has threatened boot-wearing, cattle-less celebrities with a ducking in Madisonville's horse trough should they venture to Madison county. It should be stated, however, that the extreme penalty, so far, has been to make the culprit buy drinks for everyone within yelling distance—and remove the boots.

Provides Ideas

H. B. Fox, former Madisonville newspaperman and now a resident of Granger, helps provide the cattlemen with ideas. Once a little girl in Boston couldn't find a pair of cowboy boots for a school entertainment. She wrote the sidewalk cattlemen a letter. They bought her the boots, flew her to Texas, and made her honor guest at their annual barbecue.

Madisonville has a population of 2,095, Madison county, 12,029 The association has 4,000 active members, all of whom pay dues of $1 per year. When real money is needed, the group throws a dinner or a barbecue. There'll be plenty of money to take care of the Ohio veteran—the cattlemen are giving a dinner and the tickets are selling for $25 each.

The tickets, printed on leather, are going like hotcakes.

"There won't be $25 worth of food," Heath smiled, "but this county knows a good cause when it sees one."

Bus-Riding Dog Sees Sights In Big Town

PARIS, Ill., May 20 (AP)—Rex, the Paris bus riding canine, is just a small town dog after all.

He has been riding buses in this city of 8,000 for years. This week, however, he accompanied his master on a 25-mile automobile trip to Terre Haute, Ind. There he jumped from the car and became lost in the city of 65,000.

A Terre Haute resident noted that his license was issued at Paris. He telephoned the Paris city clerk, learned the name of the dog's owner, and returned him home.

Wallace Willing To Visit Stalin

SAN DIEGO, Calif., May 20 (AP)—If it would help the cause of peace, Henry A. Wallace would visit Premier Stalin.

Replying to a question from the audience at his speech here last night, the third party presidential candidate declared:

"If I was confident that by going to Moscow and talking to Stalin the cause of peace would be forwarded, I certainly would go."

Disputing a State department view that it cannot enter negotiations on world issues with Russia, he cited article 33 of the United Nations charter.

The article provides that "parties to any dispute which threatens strife or endangers the peace of the world shall first of all seek solution by negotiations."

"I wonder," said Wallace, "if Secretary Marshall is fully aware of article 33."

About 2,000 persons heard the former vice president.

Japan's Most Famous Dog To Be Restored

TOKYO, May 20 (AP)—Dog lovers have arranged for a new statue of Hachiko, Japan's most famous dog.

Hachiko became famous in the '20s. Each night he met his master at the busy Shibuya railway station here. When the master died, Hachiko did not understand.

Nightly he met the commuter trains for 11 years looking for his master.

After he died in 1934, a statute was raised by commuters to his memory. They grew accustomed to meet "in front of Hachiko."

During the war the statue was melted down for the army. People made much ado over Hachiko going to war and a farewell ceremony was held.

Now they are bringing him back.

Sharman Douglas Claims She Has Storybook Feeling About It

Britain's Favorite American Girl Says That First Year In London Has Been "Wonderful"

BY RUSSELL LANDSTROM
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 20 — Sharman Douglas, Britain's favorite American girl, sums up her first London year in a word—"wonderful."

Happily at home now, with a lot of new friends and an ardent interest in everything, the pretty 19-year-old daughter of U. S. Ambassador and Mrs. Lewis Douglas confesses she still has a storybook feeling about it all.

Is Far Too Modest

Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret, taken by her unassuming ways, have made her a friend and that naturally has something to do with it, although Sharman herself if far too modest to say so.

But there is much more.

"It has all been super — end a marvelous education," she said in an interview.

How does British royalty, sheathed in traditions, strike such a girl with her all-American backgrounds?

All Very Thrilling

"Very, very thrilling," she declared.

"I was just like any other American would be at first," she said. "I had only vague notions of what to expect, especially where royalty is concerned. We Americans, of course, don't know much about royalty except what we read—and that's usually piecemeal. So most of us can't understand why people in a country like this feel the way they do about a king and queen.

"Well, I found out.

SHARMAN DOUGLAS
Britain's favorite, with dog

"The royal family is so democratic, kind and friendly.

Princesses Are Charming

The princesses are absolutely charming and a lot of fun. And so is Prince Philip.

"Elizabeth is a real princess, there's no mistake about that. When she smiles! Then nobody can help warming to her. As for Princess Margaret, who could be sweeter or more attractive?"

Sharman has been with the younger royal set a good deal — at the theater, dinner parties, sports arenas, Windsor, Buckingham Palace garden parties. They get along well together, share similar interests, and laugh about the same things.

One Side Of Life

That's one side of her life in London. But for every hour passed in royalty's company there are many hours devoted to more ordinary pursuits.

Deep in an exacting business college course, she applies herself faithfully and steadily to the routine. At school she mingles with a cross section of British teen-agers, chats with them about their ambitions and problems. She aims to get about among all kinds of people, as would any eager girl in a foreign country.

She has found that young people here are "pretty much the War Hero's Mother Held For Shooting

CHICAGO, May 20 (INS)— A 48-year-old Chicago mother, scheduled to receive an American Legion gold star in memory of her dead soldier son, was held by police today charged with the fatal shooting of her husband.

Mrs. Veronica Elliott told police she slew her husband, Cecil, 56, because he refused to return a picture of her hero son by a former marriage, Staff Sgt. Bernard Kritchmas.

Murder Verdict

Sgt. Kritchmas was shot down over Germany during World War II.

A coroner's jury returned a murder verdict against the woman today and recommended that she be held for grand jury action.

Mrs. Elliott, who had been sought since the body of her husband was found in their home with a bullet in the head yesterday morning, was surrendered to police last night by two Chicago newsmen.

They declared they traced her to a neighborhood tavern after she admitted the slaying in a telephone call to her daughter, Mrs. Bernice Hoare, 25, and threatened to end her life by drowning.

Police said they deferred questioning Mrs. Elliott until she recovered from what they described as an "intoxicated stupor."

Later, she told them she and her husband had returned home from a day-long drinking bout with relatives on an Indiana farm, 65 miles from Chicago.

Weeps At News

She said they had been home only a short time when her youngest son, Edward, 23, called from his New Jersey Army camp to tell her he was being shipped overseas for occupation duty.

Mrs. Elliott declared she wept when she heard the news. She added:

"Cecil didn't lik eit. He told me all I had done for the last four years was cry about my boys.

"He said first it was Bernard—he would have been 25 now—and now Edward."

She asserted that when she took Bernard's picture from a wallet in her purse, her husband grabbed it from her.

Gets Gun

Mrs. Elliott said a scuffle followed when he refused to return it to her. She continued:

"I wanted that picture back, so I went to the downstairs bedroom, got the gun and went back upstairs."

She declared Elliott again refused to return the picture and threatened to tear it up instead. The mother explained:

"So I shot him. When he stopped moaning I reached in his pocket and got the billfold."

THEY MISS FRIENDLY PASSENGERS OF 20 YEARS AGO

Hicks Brothers Have Notable Transportation Safety Score

By OPAL DIXON
Journal Staff Writer

"Too many people nowadays want the right of way and don't show any courtesy to the other man," said C. W. Hicks, one of two brothers who have worked 20 years in the public transportation business in Lubbock and have been cited for safe driving.

"Now, they just see who can get there quickest," he said.

The brothers, Chas. W. and Hub Hicks, both of whom now are officials in the transportation business, agree that courtesy on the part of motorists would decrease the number of accidents.

Watch Other Fellow

Watch your own driving and the other fellow's as well, one suggested. If the other fellow is anxious to get there faster than you, let him go on.

Each of the brothers has received a Texas State police, Department of Public Safety, certificate of merit "for operating a motor vehicle in such a manner as to reflect definite skill, courtesy and a knowledge of safe driving practices when observed by an officer of the Texas Highway patrol." The certificates were signed by Homer Garrison, jr., director of the state department.

Neither has had a chargeable accident in 20 years. C. W. Hicks this spring received a merit card from Royal Indemnity Co. certifying he had operated a commercial vehicle in the service of Lubbock Bus Co. 20 years "with a clear record for safe driving." He is superintendent of Lubbock Bus Co. The card was signed by J. A. Fortenberry, bus company manager.

Runs School Buses

Hub Hicks, who is superintendent of Transportation, Inc., which operates school buses of Lubbock Independent School district, has driven 833,000 miles without a chargeable accident. He received the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce award for safe driving in 1940.

The attribute their avoidance of accidents to two factors—being careful and being lucky. One has to be careful to avoid accidents, but luck also is important, they said.

So long a part of the transportation industry in Lubbock that they wanted to know what there was to write about, the two men were asked some of the changes in the transportation business over the period of 20 years. C. W. Hicks started work as a kid sweeping out for the City Bus company in 1927, then began driving in 1928. Hub Hicks began driving in 1928. Both have driven buses and taxicabs.

Relations Change

One of the principal changes have noted is in the driver-customer relations. They miss the old days when Lubbock was a sprawling country town, with the housewives coming out to the bus to give the driver a piece of cake or pie or a cookie, and when the bus occupants were like a happy family.

C. W. Hicks recalled that the same customers rode again and again and there were fewer of them than today. About a dozen men and one young woman were customers on one early morning run years ago, he said. After the young woman announced she would not ride the bus again because she was moving, the group presented her with a bouquet and a farewell speech.

"I used to know their names, where they lived and where they got off," said C. W. Hicks. Some bus customers rode with him when they were going to Texas Technological college, then their children rode on buses he drove when they started to public school.

Have To Like People

"You have to like people to drive a bus," he said.

Both cited some of the problems of the bus driver requiring patience. People ask the same questions over and over, which is not a reflection on the people but

Auto Industry Keeping Watch On GM Talks

DETROIT, May 20. (AP)—The auto industry, with more than 90,000 workers already idle as a result of the Chrysler strike, today kept a close watch on General Motors' negotiations with its 265,000 workers.

Both the CIO United Auto Workers and the CIO United Electrical Workers are making preparations for a walkout at GM if contract negotiations fail.

Representatives of the 225,000 UAW employes at GM sat down at the conference table with company officials today for the third time this week.

To Call Walkout

The UAW has asked for a 25-cent hourly pay boost. It has notified GM that it will call the workers out unless a new contract is negotiated by May 28. Originally, the UAW-GM contract expired April 28, but was extended a month by mutual agreement.

Sources close to the GM-UAW conferences said the company has made no counter offer to the union. Company spokesmen declined comment on this report.

The UE, which has 40,000 members in GM plants, has begun taking a strike vote among its GM workers as has the UAW. The UE has not revealed its exact demands on the big motor company.

No Sign Of Settlement

At Chrysler meanwhile, the strike of 75,000 workers entered its eighth day with no signs of any settlement. The tieup has idled 15,000 workers at the Briggs Manufacturing Co. and other Chrysler supplier plants.

Federal and state officials, including Michigan's Governor Kim Sigler, kept a close watch on the situation ready to offer their services in efforts to halt the work stoppage. There has been no meeting of UAW and company officials since the May 12 walkout.

The UAW struck to support its demands for a 30-cent an hour pay boost. During negotiations it offered to settle for 17, but the company declined. Chrysler made only one wage offer during the pre-strike talks, a six-cent offer which was withdrawn when the union turned it down. The wages of Chrysler production workers average $1.50 an hour.

PILEATED HERONS LOOK ODD

CHICAGO. (U.P.)—The Brookfield zoo now has four pileated herons and claims to be the only zoo in the country that has them. Pileated herons come from South America and this is what they look like: white with a black cap and a long dashing feather on the back of the head; bright blue feathers around the eyes and bill.

There are 14 to 18 pounds of mineral matter, mostly lime and phosphate, in every ton of milk sent off the farm.

Annual Post Rodeo Will Open Tonight

(Special To The Journal)

POST, May 20.—The annual Post Stampede and Rodeo, featuring performances at 8 p. m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday and a matinee performance at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, will get under way officially with a rodeo parade at 7 p. m. tonight, with subsequent parades being held Friday and Saturday nights at the same time.

With more than $3,000 in cash prizes to be awarded, first money in the various events ranges from $60 to $100. Events in the show include bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, calf roping, wild steer riding, wild cow milking, cutting horse contests and a cowgirl sponsor contest.

Rodeo Stock Fresh

Bill Lyons rodeo stock, which will be used in all events except the cutting horse contests, was brought to Post fresh from winter range near Petrolia, and the stock is said to be plenty wild from not having been used in previous shows this season. Calves for the cutting horse contests are being provided by the Double U company.

The newly organized Post Antelope band of Post High school will make its initial public appearance at the parade tomorrow night, and will appear in the two remaining parades. The band and the Majorettes, a group composed of a drum majorette and five feminine baton twirlers, will dress in cowboy and cowgirl regalia for the occasion.

Rodeo concessions have been granted to the Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts of the city. The Cubs will peddle cold bottled drinks during performances and the Boy Scouts will operate a chuck wagon, serving western style dinners from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. each day and cowboy suppers from 5 to 7 p. m. each night. The chuck wagon has been borrowed from the U Lazy S ranch.

Carnival On Grounds

Scouts will also sell hamburgers and hot dogs during the rodeo performances each day.

A concession has also been granted to the Raney carnival, which has been set up near the rodeo grounds this week.

A dance will be held at the pavilion each night following the rodeo performances.

Tickets for the rodeo are $1.50 each for adults and 75 cents for children. No season tickets, good

New Bank Is Open In City

The American State Bank of Lubbock, newest banking institution in the city, will open for business today in its temporary building at Fourteenth street and Avenue Q, adjacent to the site of the new, modern bank building now under construction, Jack Payne, president of the bank, has announced.

The new bank, with a total capital structure of $250,000, is a member of the Federal Reserve system, and its deposits are protected by the Federal Deposit Insurance corporation.

Work Is Underway

The permanent quarters for the bank, being built at an estimated cost of $35,000, is expected to be ready for occupancy within about 90 days, Payne said.

Designed by James Atcheson, local architect, the new brick and glass structure will feature drive-in teller service, safe deposit boxes, night depository, a spacious parking area and other modern innovations.

J. W. Langston is cashier of the bank, and the board of directors, in addition to Payne and Langston, is composed of E. B. Collins, E. K. Hufstedler, jr., Harold E. Humphries, Homer G. Maxey, Robert E. Maxey and Joe N. Nislar.

Case Of Mistaken Identity May Result In Freedom To Prisoner

PHILADELPHIA, May 20 (AP)—A case of mistaken identity may free 35-year-old Howard Smith from Holmesburg prison.

Smith has served two years on larceny charge. But yesterday, Mrs. Agreeda Woodward faced him in police court and said

"I am sorry but I made a mistake when I identified you as one of the men who took my money."

Convicted By Woman

It was on the identification of Mrs. Woodward that Smith and Edward Bryant were convicted of tricking the woman out of $112 in a confidence game.

Smith denied the charges but received no support from Bryant. Before Bryant's recent death in prison he gave Smith the nickname and description of his accomplice.

The police permitted Smith to search the records but he found no trace of the man.

Last month in Holmesburg prison Smith spotted 42-year-old Foy Faison in the exercise yard. Faison was serving time on a separate larceny charge.

Both Returned

County prison Agent. Charles M. Gibbs said Smith raised such a racket they took both of them to city hall. There Mrs. Howard identified Faison as the man who had tricked her.

Pending trial of Faison both men were returned to prison but Gibbs said:

"We're going to take steps immediately to have Smith freed. It is clearly a case of mistaken identity."

Lubbock Men Will Attend Ford Show

Harry Morris and Preston Johnston, general manager and sales manager, respectively, of Lubbock Auto Company, Inc., will leave Sunday to preview the full line of 1949 Ford cars in Oklahoma City's municipal auditorium, Monday, May 24. More than 1,700 Ford dealers from the 10-state Southwestern region are expected to attend the preview.

Five special trains and motor cars will help move the dealer host to what is expected to be one of the largest dealer get-togethers ever held in the Southwest.

The dealers will lunch with Ford executives and the company's Southwestern sales personnel, listen to entertainment by Spike Jones, and then watch the unveiling of the new models.

Ford personnel from the six district cities in the Southwestern region—Kansas City, Dallas, Houston, Memphis, New Orleans and Oklahoma City—will attend the preview.

Assembly plants in Kansas City, Dallas and Memphis will supply the new models for the Southwestern and Midwestern states

The public showings will be in mid-June.

AMAZING RESULTS WITH MERTOX TONIC

Mrs. Ben Grossman of Houston writes us as follows:

"For a long time I have had occasional billious spells. My head would hurt and I would vomit my food. My last spell was very severe and I just thought I would die. My appetite was poor and I couldn't sleep at night. I was so troubled with my limbs stiffening just before I would have a spell of gas and bloat. I would be dizzy and I would have a severe headache. My food soured and it just seemed as if everything was wrong with me. To anyone suffering like I was, I recommend Mertox highly."

This splendid medicine, containing 25 ingredients, works fast to eliminate poisonous matter from your system. Helps to build rich, red blood. Relieves constipation within a few hours and helps to create a more rhythmic bowel action. Get Mertox Compound today from any Texas druggist at the new REDUCED price.

Claude Jarman Yearning To Study Agriculture, Not Acting

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, May 20 (AP) — Young Claude Jarman, the memorable Jody of "The Yearling," indicates that a life-long film career is not for him.

Claude's ambition is to study agriculture and play football at the University of Tennessee and he's aiming at that goal. Now five-feet-seven and approaching high school, he still has a few years of film work left.

The lad now is cavorting with Lassie in "Sun in the Morning." His next film probably will be "The Secret Garden," to be made in England with Margaret O'Brien and Dean Stockwell. That's the picture which has been on the fire for a couple of years, and if MGM doesn't hurry, it will have to be made as an adult story. The kids are aging.

"White Christmas" Set

Fred Astaire happened to remark to Irving Berlin: "I suppose now that you've had 'Alexander's Ragtime Band' 'Blue Skies' and 'Easter Parade,' you'll undoubtedly have a picture called 'White Christmas.'" So the tunesmith whipped up one and Fred and Bing will star in it at Paramount next year.

Fred wrote Bing: "I suppose you will have another string of night clubs (as he did in 'Holiday Inn' and 'Blue Skies.') Only this time there'll be snow on the ground."

Says David Niven: "People in Hollywood worry too much, and it doesn't help a bit. You're either going to work, or not work." He has reason not to worry—Rank, Korda and Warners are all seeking his services this summer. Korda is the apparent winner; after "Take Three Tenses," Niven sails to London for another "Scarlet Pimpernel" . . .

Gable Trip Uncertain

Clark Gable's European jaunt is in doubt. "Commando Decision" is taking longer than he expected. And with all the Hollywood people planning summer trips abroad, Clark says "Europe will look like the Sunset Strip" . . .

Hollywood Confusion: MGM is now filming "Connecticut Yankee" with June Allyson. Last year, Paramount made "Conn. Yankee" with Bing Crosby. The MGM version is a sequence for the Rodgers - Hart biography, "Words and Music." Paramount had to wirte its own music because MGM owned the original score.

Drunk Or Not Drunk, Police Held Liable

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 20. (U.P.)—Police found Edward Bender, 61, stretched out on the sidewalk. They took him to the station house.

The incident wound up costing the city $3,000.

During its trip to the police station, the patrol wagon collided with another vehicle and Bender suffered a head concussion, a nose fracture and other injuries. Later Bender was convicted of a public intoxication charge.

He got balm for that, though, when a Supreme Court jury decided he was entitled to $3,000 for his injuries.

Siamese Publisher Critically Wounded

BANGKOK, Siam, May 20 (AP) Suri Thongwanitch, newspaper publisher and outspoken critic of the Siamese government, was shot and cirtically wounded last night as he stepped into a jeep at the doorway of his home.

A gunman, who had been waiting outside, shot the editor through the back of the head. His condition today was critical.

His newspaper, the Voice of the Siamese, has strongly attacked the military influence in Saimese politics.

Without Painful Backache

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Scottish Group Protests Paris Sabbath Activities Of Royalty

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

From the sturdy land of highlands and purple heather, where folk r-r-roll their r's and r-r-remember the Sabbath, comes word that the Scottish association of the Lord's Day Observance society has sent Prime Minister Attlee a telegram recording in part:

"We feel constrained to express our profound regret that the itinerary arranged for their royal highnesses, Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh (Prince Philip), while on their official visit to Paris, included atendance at racing, theater and night club dancing during the Lord's day."

Too strong mustard? Well, whether we agree with this rebuke, or feel that it's a wee bit austere, there are many people who will find it encouraging to encounter such a staunch stand for religion, especially in the face of the world-wide Communist drive to deprive humanity of a God.

Of course, probably nobody claims that the charming lady, who one day likely will be queen, and her husband committed any terrible sin by their activities on Sunday. However, members of the royal family do have a mighty influence on the habits of the rank and file, and must expect criticism at times. For royalty isn't immune from the afflictions of ordinary man, as witness that Princess Margaret Rose, sister of the heiress presumptive to the throne, is suffering with measles.

The Scots as a whole are intensely religious, as I have observed during many visits to the land of my paternal ancestors. The Sabbath is a day for worship and contemplation. Scots who believe in the old time religion have no place for sports or recreation on Sunday. Why, the average Scot won't indulge in golf on Sunday, though he loves the game so much that he uses a golf club for a cane so that he always will be ready for play. Many even frown on whistling as too frivolous.

No Sunday Fishing

I used to fish for trout in Scotland, and one of the first rules I ran up against was that there was no fishing on the Sabbath. I recall one Cambridge student who sneaked out on a Sunday and did a bit of fishing. He was ostracized by all the guides at his headquarters until he finally begged forgiveness and promised never to do it again.

But that religious austerity isn't confined to Scotland. You find the same things in parts of England. Down in the picturesque old fishing village of St. Ives, on the southwest coast, the fisher folk take their religion so seriously that they won't even permit visitors to break the Sabbath. For example I have known the fishermen to stop a woman from knitting on the rocks by the sea, and a man artist who was painting beside the water was thrown into it.

Still, we don't have to go so far afield as the British Isles to find religious zeal. There's plenty of it right here in the United States—throughout most of the world, for that matter. Even those who aren't intensely religious believe in the Supreme Being and the hereafter.

As a matter of fact the Communist effort to kill religion, as the "dope of the masses," undoubtedly has reacted against the Reds. Religious folk have been stimulated to battle for their beliefs. Possibly this has had something to do with the exceptionally strong move of the Scottish association regarding the activities of Elizabeth and Philip in Paris on the Sabbath.

Weak, Watery Blood Blamed for Making Men and Women Look and Feel Older

THAN THEIR YEARS

How do you feel at the end of a day? Is that old time pep and drive lacking? Have you checked-up on your blood strength lately? Thousands now regaining glowing good looks and vitality through the release of vibrant energy to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a general run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. NOW IT'S THE BOLD LOOK

BOSTON (U.P.)—This year it's the "bold look" for men. At a showing of fashions by the Men's Apparel Club the newest new look consisted of longer coats, wider shirt collars and ties that would put a sunset to shame.

Canada Will Deport U. S. Union Leader

TORONTO, May 20 (AP)—George Knott, American union organizer, faces deportation proceedings here today. A high Ottawa official said Knott, who was arrested yesterday as a suspected Communist, probably will be deported to the United States soon.

The official said the government's move was in line with government policy to rid Canadian labor unions of alien Communists. He said unless Knott delayed the action by appealing to the courts, he would be escorted across the border, probably at Buffalo, N. Y., within the next few days.

The official said Knott was an organizer for the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter workers (CIO).

On May 5 Reid Robinson, eastern Canadian vice president of the Mine, Mill and Smelter union, was deported to the U. S. under a federal law barring aliens who advocate overthrow of the government by force.

New Elephant Sees Pink People In Zoo

LOS ANGELES, May 20 (AP) — The Los Angeles zoo housed its first elephant in four years today and a group of local politicians promptly took advantage of the situation by naming the pachyderm "GOP."

Zoo officials, however, careful of a lady's feelings, declined to name the newcomer immediately. Just off the boat yesterday from Siam, the five-year-old female elephant appeared shy and wobbly on her piano-type pins. One bystander observed that she possibly was seeing pink people.

"GOP" got a friendly reception from everyone except a nearby donkey. It let out a raucous bray.

HE WAS ANNOYED

NEW YORK. (U.P.) — Raphaiel Torres, a ship's cook, infuriated because he missed a bus at two successive corners, chased it in a taxicab. When it stopped next, he boarded it and stabbed the driver with a pen knife, police charged.

O'Daniel Will Reveal Plans

FORT WORTH, May 20 (U.P.)—Only one man knew today what Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel, (D.,Tex.) will say tonight when he reveals his political plans for the future.

That man was the junior senator himself.

He would not give the least hint of his intentions prior to the broadcast, which will be carried over radio station WBAP and the Lone Star network at 8 p. m.

The only thing definite was that the broadcast will be of a political nature. O'Daniel admitted that. And Lone Star chain officials also said it was a paid political broadcast.

Some observers in state Democratic party circles expected the people of Texas to tell him what to do.

He used the same tactics in 1938. At that time, he invited the voters to tell him what to do. He answered their postcards by running for governor.

1. Run for re-election.
2. Run for governor.
3. Retire from public office.

That was all speculation, however.

"No one knows but me what I will announce," Senator O'Daniel said.

Hicks Brothers

a test of the driver's good humor. Hub Hicks recalled instances in which someone would be waiting on a corner knowing she would get on the bus, then when the bus stopped would fish frantically for change, then pull out a $5 bill—and complain if she received change in nickels.

It's all in the day's business, however, and the good driver develops patience.

Sometimes Drive

C. W. Hicks, sometimes' drives a city bus when a driver is ill or need develops for some other reason. Hub Hicks said he had driven a bus Monday for the first time in four months, and that he seldom drives. He said 23,000 children are transported weekly on school buses. That figure includes repetition of rides by the same children.

When the brothers began driving buses, there were two city buses. Sometimes, they drove taxicabs on the bus routes when a bus was not in usable condition. College avenue was not paved and many times a bus would get stuck in the mud on that avenue.

In those days, the bus crowds were easier "to handle," readily giving seats to women loaded with packages, making way for more customers and fulfilling directions of the driver. "If a man cursed on my bus, I'd tell him we wouldn't have any more of 'that,' said C. W. Hicks. Now, the driver doesn't have much control, he said.

Take Off Ugly Fat With Grape Fruit Juice Recipe

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Baptists Will Elect Officers

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 20 (AP)—Southern Baptist debated one of their favorite subjects today—separation of church and state.

The voting for new officers of the Southern Baptist convention waited until late afternoon (5 p. m. EST) while religious education in public schools was discussed. Other church-and-state relationships also came up.

The subject was tied to the report of the committee on public relations, supported by four Baptist conventions including the Southern group.

Active In Opposition

During the past year the committee has been active in opposition to formal religious instruction in public schools. It has also promoted organization of Protestants to work for more separation of church and state.

Nominations for president and other convention officers were to be made from the floor. Most prominently mentioned as possible successors to President Louie Newton of Atlanta, Ga., have been Dr. John H. Buchanan of Birmingham, Ala., and Dr. Robert G. Lee of Memphis. Newton is retiring after two terms.

Yesterday's opening-day sessions were marked by a convention refusal to accept a motion commending President Truman for his recognition of the new nation of Israel.

The convention agreed on an over-all southwide goal of $10,000,000 for 1949. It also:

Budgeted $2,000,000 to its foreign mission board. $700,000 to the home missions board, and $180,000 each to its seminaries in Louisville, Ky., Fort Worth, Texas, and New Orleans, La., for 1949.

Mother Of Lubbock Man Death Victim

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Klein and son, Jack, of 2430 Twenty-sixth, left Lubbock late Wednesday to attend the funeral of Klein's mother, Mrs. Henry Klein, about 90, who died at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in St. Anthony's hospital, Amarillo.

Funeral services will be conducted for Mrs. Klein Friday afternoon in the Methodist church in Adrian, where she had been residing. Exact time of services has not been set.

Henry, another son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Klein, and his wife will leave Lubbock this afternoon for Adrian.

Last Rites Planned For Motley Pioneer

MATADOR, May 20 (Special)—Last rites will be held today at 2 p. m., in the Matador First Methodist church for Mrs. Mintie Rose Jameson, 67, of White Flat, near Matador. Rev. Oscar Bruce will officiate.

Wife of R. L. (Bob) Jameson, retired minister of the First Methodist church in Matador, and a resident of Motley county for 42 years, Mrs. Jameson died at her home in White Flat at 11 p. m. Tuesday.

Survivors include her husband; six sons, Malcolm, White Flat; Leslie, Goree; and Bob, jr., Frank, Ed, and Olin, all of Matador; and five daughters, Mrs. Homer Kingery, Roaring Springs; Mrs. H. C. Smith, Pampa; Mrs. Preston Spray, White Flat; and Mrs. Billy Merriman and Miss Ruth Jameson, both of Amarillo.

Interment will be in the East Mound cemetery in Matador under direction of the Bryan McDonald and Son Funeral home.

Former Lubbock Man Dies At Hobbs, N. M.

HOBBS, N. M., May 20 (Spl.)—D. O. Light, 66, died here at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday as a result of a heart attack suffered while firing a boiler on an oil rig. Light had been a resident of Hobbs for the past five years and a former resident of Lubbock for 15 years.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Hobbs Church of Christ at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, with burial in the Hobbs cemetery.

During his residence in Lubbock, Light had operated a laundry.

Favorite Girl

Not Much Difefrence

"In spite of what some people say," she observed, "I can't see that there is a lot of difference. At least there isn't when you really get to know the people here.

"Neither the British girls nor the British boys have been hard to get acquainted with. I haven't found them snobbish, standoffish, or inclined to think you're funny because you say and do things differently. And you certainly couldn't ask for politer young people."

Amazed By Speculation

Two young guardsmen friends of Sharman's circle, for example, have made it something of a habit to ride their horses up the steps of the Douglas home in 14 Princess Gate, overlooking Kensington Gardens, and ring the doorbell without dismounting. One of these is Lord Blandford, known as "Sonny" to his pals, who has recently escorted Sharman on social occasions, and whose name has been linked with hers romantically.

Both Sharman and her mother have been amazed by this kind of speculation, in which have figured also the names of the Marquess of Milford Haven, best man at the wedding of Elizabeth and Philip, and Lord Hope, another young peer of the realm.

Sharman dismisses all these rumors with laughter. So do her friends.

Other Things To Think Of

"The gossips have had her engaged a half dozen different times," Mrs. Douglas said. "Where they get their information I don't know. I'm sure if there were any truth in the talk. Sharman's father and I would know about it. There isn't. Sharman has other things to think about right now besides getting engaged.

"If the glamorizers were to be believed," she continued, "people might get the idea that Sharman is over here simply to have a romp, be free from responsibility, and dream only of romance.

"Just the opposite is true. There is no fooling about her life. She is working very hard at her studies, every week-day and at least six hours a day. In fact, we sometimes think we're pushing her too hard. But she's be the last to complain."

Breaks For Good Time

Obviously, there are breaks for a good time, differing little essentially from the amusements of a co-ed back in the states.

What has been the year's biggest thrill?

"It is hard to say," she replied. "There have been so many thrills, so many wonderful experiences, so much novelty.

"There was the first time I met members of the royal family. There was that weekend at Windsor when Mrs. (Eleanor) Roosevelt was a guest, too—that was certainly among the tops. And the palace garden parties last summer, the royal wedding, the the theater parties, and my trip to Germany with my parents."

The Likes Sports

She likes gaiety, color and movement, and practically all sports. Considering her bounding vitality, apparent in her rosy complexion and good appetite, it would be surprising if she weren't. That doesn't mean, however, she can't settle down to serious things.

Such as her schoolwork—shorthand, typing, bookkeeping. It's an unglamorous course for an ambassador's daughter and one of the most photographed girls in the land.

A cubic foot of water is convertible into 1661 cubic feet if steam.

"MARTIANS" RAID EARTH

TROY, N. Y. (U.P.)—Vandals who stole $600 worth of scientific equipment from the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute observatory left a calling card near the 12-inch telescope. The scrap of paper was signed: "Men from Mars."

First steel plow in the United States was made by screwing pieces of saw blades to the wooden plow frame, in 1833.

That man was the junior senator himself.

He would not give the least hint of his intentions prior to the broadcast, which will be carried over radio station WBAP and the Lone Star network at 8 p. m.

The only thing definite was that the broadcast will be of a political nature. O'Daniel admitted that. And Lone Star chain officials also said it was a paid political broadcast.

Some observers in state Democratic party circles expected the people of Texas to tell him what to do.

He used the same tactics in 1938. At that time, he invited the voters to tell him what to do. He answered their postcards by running for governor.

For weeks, it has been expected that the senator would announce his intention to do one of the following:

1. Run for re-election.
2. Run for governor.
3. Retire from public office.

That was all speculation, however.

"No one knows but me what I will announce," Senator O'Daniel said.

a test of the driver's good humor. Hub Hicks recalled instances in which someone would be waiting on a corner knowing she would get on the bus, then when the bus stopped would fish frantically for change, then pull out a $5 bill—and complain if she received change in nickels.

It's all in the day's business, however, and the good driver develops patience.

Sometimes Drive

C. W. Hicks sometimes drives a city bus when a driver is ill or need develops for some other reason. Hub Hicks said he had driven a bus Monday for the first time in four months, and that he seldom drives. He said 23,000 children are transported weekly on school buses. That figure includes repetition of rides by the same children.

When the brothers began driving buses, there were two city buses. Sometimes, they drove taxicabs on the bus routes when a bus was not in usable condition. College avenue was not paved and many times a bus would get stuck in the mud on that avenue.

In those days, the bus crowds were easier "to handle," readily giving seats to women loaded with packages, making way for more customers and fulfilling directions of the driver. "If a man cursed on my bus, I'd tell him we wouldn't have any more of that," said C. W. Hicks. Now, the driver doesn't have much control, he said.

Take Off Ugly Fat With Grape Fruit Juice Recipe

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy — no trouble at all and, costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears — how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Baptists Will Elect Officers

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 20 (AP)—Southern Baptist debated one of their favorite subjects today—separation of church and state.

The voting for new officers of the Southern Baptist convention waited until late afternoon (5 p. m. EST) while religious education in public schools was discussed. Other church-and-state relationships also came up.

The subject was tied to the report of the committee on public relations, supported by four Baptist conventions including the Southern group.

Active In Opposition

During the past year the committee has been active in opposition to formal religious instruction in public schools. It has also promoted organization of Protestants to work for more separation of church and state.

Nominations for president and other convention officers were to be made from the floor. Most prominently mentioned as possible successors to President Louie Newton of Atlanta, Ga., have been Dr. John H. Buchanan of Birmingham, Ala., and Dr. Robert G. Lee of Memphis. Newton is retiring after two terms.

Yesterday's opening-day sessions were marked by a convention refusal to accept a motion commending President Truman for his recognition of the new nation of Israel.

The convention agreed on an over-all southwide goal of $10,000,000 for 1949. It also:

Budgeted $2,000,000 to its foreign mission board. $700,000 to the home missions board, and $180,000 each to its seminaries in Louisville, Ky., Fort Worth, Texas, and New Orleans, La., for 1949.

Mother Of Lubbock Man Death Victim

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Klein and son, Jack, of 2430 Twenty-sixth, left Lubbock late Wednesday to attend the funeral of Klein's mother, Mrs. Henry Klein, about 90, who died at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in St. Anthony's hospital, Amarillo.

Funeral services will be conducted for Mrs. Klein Friday afternoon in the Methodist church in Adrian, where she had been residing. Exact time of services has not been set.

Henry, another son, of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Klein, and his wife will leave Lubbock this afternoon for Adrian.

Last Rites Planned For Motley Pioneer

MATADOR, May 20 (Special)—Last rites will be held today at 2 p. m., in the Matador First Methodist church for Mrs. Mintie Rose Jameson, 67, of White Flat, near Matador. Rev. Oscar Bruce will officiate.

Wife of R. L. (Bob) Jameson, retired minister of the First Methodist church in Matador, and a resident of Motley county for 42 years, Mrs. Jameson died at her home in White Flat at 11 p. m. Tuesday.

Survivors include her husband; six sons, Malcolm, White Flat; Leslie, Goree; and Bob, jr., Frank, Ed, and Olin, all of Matador; and five daughters, Mrs. Homer Kingery, Roaring Springs; Mrs. H. C. Smith, Pampa; Mrs. Preston Spray, White Flat; and Mrs. Billy Merriman and Miss Ruth Jameson, both of Amarillo.

Interment will be in the East Mound cemetery in Matador under direction of the Bryan McDonald and Son Funeral home.

Former Lubbock Man Dies At Hobbs, N. M.

HOBBS, N. M., May 20 (Spl.)—D. O. Light, 66, died here at 9:30 p. m. Tuesday as a result of a heart attack suffered while firig a boiler on an oil rig. Light had been a resident of Hobbs for the past five years and a former resident of Lubbock for 15 years.

Funeral services will be conducted in the Hobbs Church of Christ at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, with burial in the Hobbs cemetery.

During his residence in Lubbock, Light had operated a laundry.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Jessie Light, Hobbs; his mother, Mrs. A. M. Stacy of Aquilla, Tex.; five sons, A. C. Light of Vernon, Tex., C. K. Light of Earlimant, Calif., and L. L. Light, L. V. Light and D. O. Light, jr., all of Lubbock; two daughters, Mrs. O. F. McLendon of Lamesa, Tex., and Mrs. A. W. Mays of Richmond, Calif.; three brothers, five sisters and 21 grandchildren.

Favorite Girl

Not Much Difefrence

"In spite of what some people say," she observed, "I can't see that there is a lot of difference. At least there isn't when you really get to know the people here.

"Neither the British girls nor the British boys have been hard to get acquainted with. I haven't found them snobbish, standoffish, or inclined to think you're funny because you say and do things differently. And you certainly couldn't ask for politer young people."

Prankishness breaks out here, as it does in Arizona, New York or Illinois.

Amazed By Speculation

Two young guardsmen friends of Sharman's circle, for example, have made it something of a habit to ride their horses up the steps of the Douglas home in 14 Princess Gate, overlooking Kensington Gardens, and ring the doorbell without dismounting. One of these is Lord Blandford, known as "Sonny" to his pals, who has recently escorted Sharman on social occasions, and whose name has been linked with hers romantically.

Both Sharman and her mother have been amazed by this kind of speculation, in which have figured also the names of the Marquess of Milford Haven, best man at the wedding of Elizabeth and Philip, and Lord Hope, another young peer of the realm.

Sharman dismisses all these rumors with laughter. So do her friends.

Other Things To Think Of

"The gossips have had her engaged a half dozen different times," Mrs. Douglas said. "Where they get their information I don't know. I'm sure if there were any truth in the talk, Sharman's father and I would know about it. There isn't. Sharman has other things to think about right now besides getting engaged.

"If the glamorizers were to be believed," she continued, "people might get the idea that Sharman is over here simply to have a romp, be free from responsibility, and dream only of romance.

"Just the opposite is true. There is no fooling about her life. She is working very hard at her studies, every week-day and at least six hours a day. In fact, we sometimes think we're pushing her too hard. But she's be the last to complain."

Breaks For Good Time

Obviously, there are breaks for a good time, differing little essentially from the amusements of a co-ed back in the states.

What has been the year's biggest thrill?

"It is hard to say," she replied. "There have been so many thrills, so many wonderful experiences, so much novelty.

"There was the first time I met members of the royal family. There was that weekend at Windsor when Mrs. (Eleanor) Roosevelt was a guest, too—that was certainly among the tops. And the palace garden parties last summer, the royal wedding, the the theater parties, and my trip to Germany with my parents."

The Likes Sports

She likes gaiety, color and movement, and practically all sports. Considering her bounding vitality, apparent in her rosy complexion and good appetite, it would be surprising if she weren't. That doesn't mean, however, she can't settle down to serious things.

Such as her schoolwork—shorthand, typing, bookkeeping. It's an unglamorous course for an ambassador's daughter and one of the most photographed girls in the land.

A cubic foot of water is convertible into 1661 cubic feet if steam.

Spokesmen For Little People Of UN Believe U.S. Should Call Russia's Bluff On Peace

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Spokesmen for some of the "little peoples" of the United Nations are convinced the United States should call Russia's bluff by demanding a general peace conference like that which followed World war I.

Stalin and Molotov, they point out, are doing their utmost to put the United States on the spot. Having blocked the peace for nearly three years, they now seek to make the world believe America is to blame. To put the horse before the cart, therefore, the United States should tell them:

Call Their Bluff

"You say you want peace. All right. Let's invite all interested countries to the table the way it was done at Paris, in 1919.

"However, until we reach complete agreement the United States will go right ahead with its national defense measures, European recovery program and the rest."

The little members of the UN have long resented being shoved aside by the great powers in matters relating to peace. In this, Russia has been and remains the chief offender. It was Russia that insisted on ruling China out of the picture and keeping France waiting on the doorstep.

But the little nations object just as much to the big four or big five formula. They are an integral part of the UN, they remark with some bitterness, hence are just as much bound by its rules as Russia, the United States or any other member, however big.

Equality For All

Article I of the charter declares the UN is "based on the principle of sovereign equality of all its members." All are equally bound by its provisions. All "shall give the UN every assistance in any action it takes" to maintain world peace and security.

If the UN should so require, it would be every bit as difficult for little Panama to provide 35,000 soldiers—five per cent of her population—as it would be for the United States to provide seven million or Russia nine million. And there would be the same relative strain if the requirement was money, materials or any other form of national effort.

Thus, it is argued, the great powers have no moral—or, for that mater, legal—right to get together and dictate a peace which the little fellows would be expected to defend.

Might Require War

Such a peace might require UN members to shed their blood to maintain borders which they believed to be wholly unjust. It might require them to join in a war to make millions of uprooted peoples stay where they had ben put, or to defend "territorial changes that do not accord with the freely expressed wishes of the peoples concerned"—as the Atlantic charter puts it.

If members of the UN are to be expected to maintain and defend the peace after it is made, the smaller members assert, they should have a hand in its making. That, they insist, is elementary.

If peace is arrived at in any other way, they warn, it almost certainly would doom the UN. The chances are that the first time the UN seriously called for enforcement, most of its members would refuse to march, on the ground that they did not like the peace in the first place and had not been consulted in the second.

The answer to all these problems—the phony peace drive launched by the Kremlin as well as the eventual success of the UN—seems to lie in the direction of a general peace conference rather than one limited to four or five powers.

The Paris peace conference of 1919, it is recalled, was such an assembly. All Allied and associated nations which had participated in the war against the central powers were represented. Not all had the same number of delegates. But they had a voice.

Texas Tech Grad Is To Serve At Church

James Lemuel Tittsworth, jr., student at Austin Presbyterian Theological seminary and graduate of Texas Technological college, will serve this summer as assistant to the Rev. Ernest F. Deutsch, pastor of First Presbyterian church of Bay City.

Tittsworth graduated from Texas Tech in January of this year with a degree in business administration, having nearly completed his work in that field before deciding for the ministry. He is a member of First Presbyterian church of Lubbock and under care of El Paso Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry. He served for several months as pastor of Veterans Village at Lubbock Army Air field.

Stassen-Dewey Campaigns Are At Bitter End In Oregon Race

By B. L. LIVINGSTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

PORTLAND, Ore., May 20 — Oregon's bitterly fought Republican primary campaign drew to an acrimonious close today—last of the presidential primary trials before next month's nominating convention.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota, who for three weeks have made Oregon the nation's foremost presidential battleground, brought their campaigns home at a gallop.

Stassen publicly charged an "eastern combination of Taft-Dewey forces" was spending $250,000 in Oregon to stem the Stassen election tide which started in Nebraska and Wisconsin.

Desperate Tactics

The New York governor reforted that this represented "reckless and flagrantly untruthful statements," and "desperate, irresponsible, eleventh-hour tactics."

His campaign expenses, Dewey said, "are not a tiny fraction of the ridiculous sum he mentions, and he knows it."

The Minnesotan's reference to a supposed join-up of Dewey and Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio was labeled "unfounded and false."

Stassen forces replied late last night through Stassen headquarters here with the statement:

"We are willing to rely upon the good common sense of the people of Oregon to decide whether or not the amount of eastern money and the number of New York state employes, from the superintendent of banking on down, which are being poured into Oregon in this 'Stop Stassen' campaign, are out of proportion to an honest appeal for their votes."

Charge Made

Stassen's original charge, made at Astoria, stated:

"Obviously, the 12 Oregon votes to the national convention are not the cause of this huge expenditure.

"This eastern combination of Taft-Dewey forces has been making a desperate attempt through this Oregon primary to stop our nation-wide public support."

Dewey's answer said "It is saddening that Mr. Stassen in the final days should degrade the campaign by such reckless and flagrantly untruthful statements . . . I have come to know the people of Oregon and I know they will resent and repudiate these desperate, irresponsible eleventh-hour tactics."

Oregonians had first-hand evidence on billboards, in newspapers, and over the radio, that both sides were running up campaign bills. But heretofore the highest campaign expenditure in Oregon has been the $64,000 reported in the 1944 senatorial race.

More than 300,000 Republicans are registered to vote in tomorrow's polls—and the total registration of around 630,000 is the highest in Oregon's history.

A heavy turn-out was a foregone conclusion, with predictions for 65 to 70 per cent among the Republicans.

Completely overshadowed by the neck-and-neck presidential scrap were primary contests for governor and a full slate of lesser state offices. Senator Cordon was unopposed in the Republican primary.

Stassen Driving Hard

Today—the last day of the driving finish around Portland to be capped by an old-fashioned torchlight parade through the streets of Portland tonight.

Dewey was taking it a little easier. He scheduled a visit to the Shrine hospital this morning and conferences the rest of the day here.

Both candidates were to make final pleas over state-wide radio networks today and tonight.

Polls open tomorrow at 8 a. m. and close at 8 p. m. (Pacific Standard time).

CARNIVAL — By Dick Turner

"The way I get the story, a bird left him on a flower and a bee picked him up and brought him home!"

School Whippings Upheld By Board

BECKLEY, W. Va., May 20 (AP) —The Raleigh county board of education has upheld a school principal's right to whip children who come to class exhaling the odor of "ramps."

The ramp is a particularly powerful branch of the wild onion family, which children hereabouts sometime nibble on the way to school.

Fred C. Roberts, principal of the Trap Hill High school, testified the smell "could be likened to that of a polecat," and said some of his pupils were made ill by the breaths of offending classmates.

He told the board he had asked children to hold their ramp-chewing until Friday afternoon, and announced a policy of segregation for the first offense and whipping for the second.

The board voted three-to-one at this week's meeting to dismiss charges of undue cruelty against Roberts. The negative vote was cast by J. E. Daniels, whose son, Dennis, was one of the boys involved and who brought the charges.

Tom Breneman Estate Assayed At $250,000

LOS ANGELES, May 19 (AP) — The $250,000 estate of radio master of ceremonies Tom Breneman has been left to his widow, Billie Dunn Breneman, former actress.

Mrs. Breneman, 45, obtained a court order yesterday for $3,000 a month family allowance from the estate, shortly after the will was admitted to probate. The document, signed Dec. 18, 1946, left the entire estate to Mrs. Breneman.

She was appointed guardian of their two children, Gloria, 19, and Tom, jr., 14, as a legal step to insure their inheritance of $10,000 each under an insurance policy.

Breneman died April 28 at the age of 47. He had conducted the "Breakfast in Hollywood" radio show.

That Girl on Broadway says when you borrow trouble, the interest rate runs high.

A small boy is so unpredictable he's liable to do anything—except go on a hunger strike!

QUITE a ruckus has been kicked up in Congress over the discovery that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, retired, is being furnished with an Army sergeant as a chauffeur; a Wac as a secretary, and a junior officer as an aide.

Some of the gentlemen in Congress feel like the taxpayers should not be expected to furnish the general with a chauffeur, a secretary and an aide—and maybe they're right. But only "maybe."

It all depends upon how much work and how much advice the Department of Defense shall expect from General Eisenhower, who now is one of our "military elder statesmen." If the government—which means the taxpayers—expects the general to continue, unofficially, as one of its ablest military advisors, then furnishing him whatever help he may need is not at all "out of line."

This much should be remembered, too.

If we should be plunged into war any time soon, "Ike" Eisenhower is one of the first men who would move from civilian life into military life again.

He would naturally go into one of the most responsible military positions, hence it is to the nation's advantage that General Eisenhower, although now a civilian, keep up with what's going on from a military standpoint.

This means that the general is going to be working, on his own time, for the government—and the taxpayers—while he also is serving as president of Columbia university.

Furnishing him with Army personnel may not be such a bad deal, after all.

OF course, if and when General Eisenhower's separation from the Army may be considered permanent, then Army aides of all sort should be withdrawn.

That's why we say Congressional critics of "Ike's" aids "may be" right.

But unless and until the country doesn't expect to call upon General Eisenhower's admitted military talents, we say let him have whatever military aides he may need.

After all, a lot of people less important to the nation's welfare have more tax-paid help than he.

Is there any such thing as "gentle criticism?"

* * *

That Man on Avenue Q says it's only fair to warn this Spring's crop of college graduates that this tough old world usually is more impressed by frogskin than by a sheepskin.

ONE of the things Lubbock should have, if and when we get our new city auditorium, is an annual exhibition of outstanding work of pupils and teachers of the public schools.

We got to thinking about this need the other day as we listened to School Supt. Raymond Matthews tell about the local system; what it has done, is doing and expects to do in the immediate future. Mr. Matthews' speech was good and it was informative. If we had an annual system-wide exhibition, properly ballyhooed and open to the public, that would bring the story of Lubbock's schools home to many more people than Mr. Matthews, or anyone else, could reach with speeches to civic clubs and other interested groups.

We do have, during each school year certain programs at individual schools, where some work of students is on display and where operations of the schools are explained to patrons. That's all we can do now, because of lack of a central space sufficiently large for a system-wide exhibition. It is only a "stop-gap" affair.

As Mr. Matthews pointed out in recent speeches to civic groups, the Lubbock schools have much to be proud of and an all-school exhibit could be built up here, with proper space available, to a tremendous annual event.

When we were a kid in Tulsa, a similar event, held in Convention hall, annually drew thousands of visitors and at that time Tulsa was not much larger than Lubbock is today.

Most people in Lubbock—including many of those making noise about "what ought to be done" and needlessly bothering school officials with "directives"—know very little about the school system and what its children are doing.

An all-school exhibit would be helpful, as well as interesting.

SPEAKING further of things scholastic, along about this time every year most of us smilingly note the kids—from the primary grades through senior high—as they prepare to lay their books aside and plunge into the freedom of Summer vacation.

Happiness and joy shine from the eyes of most youngsters, wearied from the long month's of school routine. There are parties and picnics and other gatherings and an air of jollity surrounds the usually somber halls of learning.

But as we see the happy kids and, remembering our own days of similar happiness, we can't keep our mind from wandering to the relatively few who aren't happy at all: to the little boys and girls who "didn't pass."

We can't help feeling sorry for them at a time when they must feel "left out," even if they don't show it.

We often wonder how many of these youngsters who "didn't pass" should be blamed for their scholastic record.

How many of them have been handicapped by living in a home where there is so much fussing and bickering among parents that the child can't put and keep his mind on his school work?

How many others have been handicapped by a fear, however groundless, of a teacher; or by a teacher not interested enough to give a floundering youngster that little extra something to straighten him out?

How many of them have sight or hearing deficiencies which parents have been too busy to notice?

And how many of those who "didn't pass" were marked as "failures" simply because they were pushed harder than their nervous systems could absorb?

WE adults have learned a lot about a lot of things over the past quarter century, or the past three or four decades. We have come to know that not all youngsters who "didn't pass" should be blamed for their troubles; that just because a boy or girl "didn't pass" is no reason to indict him or her as a "dummy," or just a "sorry loafer."

Of course, there are some who "didn't pass" because they didn't pay attention in class; because they didn't study; because they didn't do their home work—largely because their parents didn't see that they applied themselves inside school and out.

But if the truth were known, we believe the majority of those who "didn't pass" were victims of something else besides their own shortcomings.

Let's all be charitable to the boy or girl who "didn't pass."

BY DREW PEARSON: AMERICAN NEWSMAN KNEW GREEKS WERE TRYING TO REMOVE HIM

Polk Murder In Greece Linked To Rightist Faction

WASHINGTON — George Polk, the American news commentator, whose bullet-pierced, bound-up body was found in Salonika bay, wrote me a letter before his death about his troubles with the Greek government. Based on this letter and otherwise, evidence points to the porbability that Rightist forces within the government were responsible for Polk's murder.

PEARSON

In the first place, only the Greek government had access to his broadcasts. Only they knew how critical he had been of Greek rightist attempt to sabotage the American reconstruction program. The Greek guerrillas, on the other hand, had everything to gain from the interview with Polk which he sought.

In addition, all sorts of obstacles had been placed in Polk's path. The Greek government did not want him in Greece and did everything possible to get him out. Here is a sample of Greek obstruction:

"During the past four days, I've been trying to make arrangements for flying to Salonika," Polk wrote. "I've been to the foreign ministry press section, to the Greek air force headquarters, to the Greek commercial air line, and to the government air travel priority department. Today, after four days of leg work and innumerable telephone calls, I have not succeeded in making any arrangements.

"Everything is tied up in red tape. The airlines will not say whether they have a seat or not. First, I've got to produce a priority but I can't get the priority until I give the seat number and flight number and date of the plane I will take. So, back and forth I've been like a tennis ball. The plan is to make me fret myself into a tizzy—or perhaps give up the trip. Yet if I made an issue of all this red tape, everybody would blandly say that Polk is simply 'impatient.'"

George Polk was a fighter, whether as newspaperman or in the service of his country. During the war as a Navy pilot he was in the thick of the battle of Guadalcanal, broke his back in a crash landing, came home to fight for unification of the Army and Navy. One of the things that griped him was his memory of an Army pilot sinking in the water with the Navy refusing to rescue him until it cleared with the Army.

In Greece, George fought the grafters and the rightwing extremists. An article in Harper's magazine told a revealing story. In writing to me, he told how reactionaries in the government sought to discredit American newsmen who were critical. Apparently he had some premonition of trouble, for he said: "The rightwing is trying to get a number of us discredited or removed from Greece."

"Royalist 'Ethmos' has denounced 'irresponsible correspondents' who write 'unfavorable and misleading' stories about the Greek government," George continued.

"The attack upon correspondents is being made by the Royalist political group known as the Populist party. Under leadership of deputy prime minister and foreign minister Constantine Tsaldaris, key Populist members throughout the government appear to be implementing a carefully devised offensive.

"As an illustration of the method of attack, consider a letter concerning me written by Greek Ambassador Vassili Dendramis, an ultra-rightist supporter of the Tsaldaris clique. Strangely enough, Dendramis wrote to CBS President Frank Stanton complaining about my article on Greece in the December 'Harper's Magazine.' Dendramis is smart enough not to write to 'Harper's' because he knows the magazine probably would publish the letter, thereby enabling me to answer his charge in print.

"However, my case up to the present is rather mild compared with the attack being made against other out-spoken reports on the scene. The ministry of foreign affairs has just written to the 'Christian Science Monitor' complaining that their correspondent in Greece Constantine Argyris, is guilty of using ofefnsive language in dealing with Greek government officials and also is guilty of drunkenness at interviews. Knowing Argyris as well as I do—and having the highest respect for his professional and personal attributes—I know this charge is a lie.

"Another correspondent who has drawn Greek rightwing fire is Ray Daniell of the 'New York Times.' He arrived in Greece unaccompanied by his wife and when his articles proved displeasing for the rightwing politicians, they spread malicious slander about Daniell.

Yet another reporter who had provoked the Greek rightwing is Homer Bigart, of the New York Herald Tribune. At the moment, being a newcomer in Greece, Bigart is getting the 'treatment' that others of us already have had. In particular he is being denounced by name as a Communist; he is being ridiculed for 'looking at things upside down;' he is being refused interviews by persons he needs to see for news purposes—such as Foreign Minister Tsaldaris. The 'New York Herald Tribune' has been denounced by Royalist 'Embros' for 'bad faith in publishing untruths.'

"Someone Will Get Hurt"

"John O'Donovan, of the London 'Observer,' is sharing Bigart's 'treatment.' Two other reporters, Stephen Barber of the London 'News Chronicle' and his wife, Mary Barber, of 'Time' Magazine, recently encountered a little more effective rightwing retaliation. At Ioannina they were prevented for some time from proceeding to Konitsa because of—and this charge was made to them in person being 'Communists.'

"Another corespondent who has encountered news gathering troubles is Fred Sparks, of the 'Chicago Daily News.' In fact, Sparks has written a bitter story about his experiences at being denied routine press privileges while trying to cover the Konista battle.

"The pattern of the rightwing's attack on the other American correspondents here is clever—public denunciation plus official obfuscation. There is nothing so tangible as censorship or blunt refusal to allow a reported to visit the civil war areas; instead, there is a clever plan of making news work in Greece as difficult as possible for critical correspondents.

"In addition, now that so many correspondents are writing such critical stories on the dominant rightwing faction of the government, there are a number of vague hints that 'somebody is likely to get hurt.'"

Poor George didn't know, when he wrote these prophetic lines, that he was to be the man who would get "hurt." His murder, however, may be the cause celebre which will bring to the surface the ugly scandals of Greece—scandals which the American people very much need to know about. To that end, this column will soon publish further revelations regarding dynamite - laden Greece.

"We Must Burn Evil Spirits Out Of Her"

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

"THE male animal simply has to play the starring role or the marriage will slip," says an expert on family relations.

At this point women may well ask: "Well, why doesn't he go ahead and play the starring role?"

MILLETT

If it's so important for Papa to star in the drama of family life, why has he relinquished so many of the rights of the star to Mama?

Once he was the family's sole bread winner. That in itself gave him the leading role in the family. But every year more and more married women take jobs.

Once it was Papa who made the family's big decisions. Now he either puts half the responsibility for making decisions on Mama's shoulders, or he lets her tell him what the family is going to do.

PAPA BETTER GET BUSY

ONCE Papa laid down the law when it came to what the kids could and could not do, and was the disciplinarian when the kids didn't toe the mark. Mama now has the say-so on bringing up the children.

It looks as though Papa is only too willing to let Mama take over many of the responsibilities that were once his, and then complain that he's no longer the star.

He shouldn't expect to play a minor role in family life and get star billing. If he "simply has to play the starring role"—as the psychologist claims—then he'd better bet busy and play it.

Horseshoes first were used in 500 B. C., specimens having been found in ruins of old British roads of that period.

ANYWAY, GET RID OF 'EM!

Few thinking people are likely to take too seriously the warnings of occasional alarmists who say that rats—the four-legged kind—are about to take over the country. Similarly, most people won't be able to work up much of a lather over a warning from one B. O. Burkitt, of New York—who is described as a "rat expert"—who dolefully predicts that rats of the four-legged variety are about to take over the whole earth.

Usually these extremely alarmist warnings come from individuals who have something to gain in one way or another for rat-killing campaigns. We don't know what B. O. Burkitt's interest might be, although it is a plausible guess that his professional advice on such matters might be available for a fee.

However, regardless of the motives which might inspire such "warnings," everyone knows there are too many rats everywhere, including Lubbock. They are destructive, a menace to health and filthy to have around any home, place of business or community.

Whatever effort is necessary to get rid of them is very much worthwhile, even though few persons may share Burkitt's professed fear that rats are about to "take over the earth."

"Try And Stop Me"

WHEN Farmer Hahnden made his first trip to the big city he was so goggle-eyed at the big buildings and the traffic that he didn't see a huge Great Dame loping down the street and was knocked flat by the dog. Somewhat dazed, he climbed to his feet and was promptly knocked down again by one of those midget cars garage attendants use to call for customers limousines.

A friendly cop came to Farmer Hahnden's rescue and inquired solicitously, "Are you hurt, Pop?" The farmer brushed off the dirt on his best Sunday suit and said, "The dog didn't hurt me none, but that can tied to his tail really knocked me for a loop."

THE PLAINSMAN'S MAIL

Readers Offer Views On A Variety Of Subjects

RE-NAMING STREETS

Dear Plainsman: Some few months back you were recommending that the City rename the streets of Lubbock, so that in the future it would be comparatively easy for a stranger in our midst to find his way around our city.

I heartily concur in your suggestion, particularly where it is necessary to eliminate confusion. The area bounded by Fourth street on the South, Avenue L on the East, the main line Santa Fe railroad on the North, and Van Buren avenue on the West, is the most concrete example of haphazard naming of streets and avenues that could be mentioned, and baffles an old time resident, much less an utter stranger.

If you can tell me why a street running East and West should be called Sixth street, and another street a few blocks North of said Sixth street running parallel called North Sixth street, it will be very helpful to a poor floundering post office directory clerk trying to help people receive improperly addressed mail. So it goes with every portion of the aforesaid circumscribed area. A goodly number of the persons living in that area are confused themselves by the complexities of the situation and consequently in notifying correspondents and publishers they furnish the wrong addresses. The problem has already gotten to the point of being an enigma to postal clerks and carriers who are earnestly trying to give the patrons the very best service possible.

Now while Lubbock is still growing and changing the names of the streets would not present difficulties, would be the proper time to take necessary steps to clarify the maze that exists in the Northwest portion and eliminate even greater perplexities as that section continues to develop Westward. A pattern for future designations can be established so as to prevent a similar recurrence in additions to the city in any direction.

Sincerely,
Glenn Ridge,
Lubbock.

APPROVES VIEW

Dear Plainsman: Your views as stated on the recent comic book controversey and the bill advocated by Congressman Clare Hoffman, of Michigan, are to be commended. Some of them are, I think, the best opinions on the subjects that I have read in an editorial page of a newspaper.

Many authorities claim that the United States is entering its regular periodic season when the conservative-minded began to guide public thinking. It seems, considering the Hoffman bill, Mundt bill, the comic book controversey, the Congressional un-American committee, and all the other issues advocated by the misguided, so-called conservatives that the conservative group has declared open season on most of our rights of free speech and of free press.

What changes will take place in America in the next five years? I can hardly wait to find out.

Yours truly,
Thomas Sanders,
3114 Twenty-seventh street.

HOSPITAL NEEDED

Dear Plainsman: May I make a suggestion to the people of Lubbock through your page? As a newcomer I think Lubbock has lots of reasons to be proud of herself as a city, but I also think she has one reason to be ashamed, and that is of her hospital facilities.

In a city where money flows so freely for the good of the community why not have an open staff hospital? Nearly every denomination is building or planning a new church, which is a good thing. I would like to think that every church in Lubbock would join together in building a hospital that the South Plains could be proud of. Couldn't it be a medical center with enough charity work to take care of the poor as well as the rich?

Couldn't it grow under a great leadership formed from members of each church whose purpose it was to see how much it could give rather than how much it could get? I'll wager the paying customers would take care of the non-paying.

Beautiful new churches are an inspiration and necessary, but how much more sorely needed is a new hospital with a beautiful policy of ministering to the sick.

A New Resident.

RE-DISCOVERS ANCESTOR

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Herman Bobbe of the National Library Bindery Co. saw the picture of an ancestor for the first time at an art exhibition. He viewed the painting of Hille Bobbe, who was burned at the stake in the 17th century for knowing too much about books.

The electrical manufacturing industry is the largest civilian user of copper in peace-time in the United States.

Nislar Is Named To Head Water Board

Joe N. Nislar, Lubbock implement dealer, was elected chairman of the Water Resources Board of the City of Lubbock, in a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Lubbock National bank.

Nislar succeeds the late Lamar Forrest as chairman of the board. R. L. Stewart was named vice chairman and Charles E. Maedgen, jr., secretary.

Informal discussion during the meeting concerned the proposed dam on the Canadian river north of Amarillo and other water matters. The board voted to send a delegation to a meeting in Amarillo to be called in the near future for discussion of the dam project.

X-Ray Treatment To Cure Scalp Ringworm Described By Doctors

By PAUL F. ELLIS
United Press Science Writer

NEW YORK, May 20.—The best way to cure stubborn cases of ringworm of the scalp, a serious childhood disease, is temporary removal of the hair, according to two Philadelphia specialists.

The way to make a child temporarily "bald" is through use of X-rays, the specialists contend in the magazine Radiology. Their technical name for the removal of the hair is "epilation."

They explained that ringworm of the scalp has been epidemic along the eastern seaboard since 1943. At one time there were 5,000 cases in New York. Philadelphia is believed to have had 13,000 cases in 1945. The disease, however, is not exclusive in the East.

The physicians, Drs. Eugene P. Pendergrass and J. Francis Mahoney, said appropriate X-ray treatment gives "a high cure rate" and that "it is a rare case that is not cured by X-rays."

The treatment can be completed in one sitting, they said. The patient becomes virtually non-infectious at the end of three weeks.

"After that period," they said, "the entire scalp will be depilitated, and for practical purposes, there is no longer any danger of contagion. The possible dangers of permanent depilitation are rare."

They report that the child is completely bald for about six weeks, after which a fine, fuzzy growth of new hair makes its appearance.

"This is not of the character of that seen after shaving the head," they said, "but is more like the first growth of hair upon a baby who is born bald. Normal oilness is regained within one year after treatment. The hair is usually unchanged in color, or may be slightly darker when it has regrown."

The ringworm infection, caused by a fungus, is spread by infected hairs and the principal places of contact are the home, the school, the playground, the theater and the barber shop, the physicians pointed out.

Review Of Stalin's Eleven Points Indicates That Settlement Talk Has Been Tried Before

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 20—Premier Josef Stalin has listed 11 major problems he thinks this country and Russia can sit down and talk about.

To this idea, the State department has said in effect:

"Wait a minute. Not so fast. They're not new problems. They're old ones. Let's look at the record on each one."

So the department has made public an answer or explanation on each one of the 11. Why? To show that:

They're long-standing, unsolved problems and, in most cases, Russia has either blocked their solution or refused to help solve them.

Wallace Points Given

Henry Wallace, third party presidential candidate, in an open letter to Stalin had listed a number of problems which he said should be a starting point for American-Russian peace talks.

Stalin chose 11 problems from the Wallace list and, in a public reply, said yes, indeed, they would be good starting points.

Below are the 11 Stalin-Wallace points. Following each is the State department's explanation. Material in parenthesis is the writer's.

1. Nations should reduce their armaments—

The United Nations has been considering this since 1946. Result: zero.

(Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov first proposed world disarmament in October 4946. It's been hanging fire. Since U. N. hasn't solved atomic control, trying to control other armaments would be a joke.)

2. International control of atomic weapons—

The U. S. offered U. N. a plan. Russia didn't agree, offered ideas of its own. The U. S. blames Russia for blocking a solution.

3. Reaching a German peace settlement—

The U. S. blames Russia for blocking this.

4. Reaching a Japanese peace settlement—

No real peace talks on Japan have begun. The U. S. wanted the talks handled one way, Russia another, China another. Eight nations mixed up in the Japanese peace talks agreed with the U. S. Result: zero.

Troops Out Of China

5. Getting troops (meaning U S. troops) out of China—

There are no Russian troops in China but there are about 5,500 American soldiers, sailors and marines there. Why? The Chinese government requested them.

6. Getting troops (U. S. and Russian) out of Korea—

The U. N. had a plan for getting both nations' troops out. Russia has blocked this by refusing to cooperate.

(After the allies freed Korea from Japan, U. S. troops occupied the southern half, Russian troops the northern half. Both still are there.)

7. Respecting other nations' rights and not interfering in their internal business.

(The State department is vague on this. It says the facts are too well-known to be repeated. Russia has been accused of pressuring its neighbor states which have gone Communist.

(But the U. S. has been accused by Molotov of interfering in Greece's internal affairs by pouring in money and arms to help the present Greek government crush Communists.)

Military Bases

8. It's wrong to set up military bases in member countries of the U. N.—

The U. N. knows where we have set up bases. We've told U. N. it's all in keeping with U N. rules and regulations. We've set up bases only in those countries which said we could.

9. Developing international trade—

After two big international conferences—at Geneva and Havana in 1947 and 1948—the U. S. and 54 other nations signed agreements for better world trade. Russia refused to take part.

10. Helping countries which suffered from the war—

Under the Marshall plan the U. S. is helping 16 European nations. They asked us to do it that way. Russia things it should be done through U. N. But Russia has refused to take part in the Marshall plan.

11. Human rights—

The U. N. is working on this now. With the U. S. and Russia taking part.

Adding all these together, the State department has publicy told Stalin:

If you're sincere in wanting to settle these problems, then get to work and settle them.

That's the American viewpoint of course. The Russians will argue on their side just as strenuously that they're right and we're wrong.

Blind Negro Washes Automobiles Well

CLEVELAND, May 20 (AP)—People come from miles around to watch Forrest Hill, 30-year-old blind negro, perform his work as a car washer.

Harry Johnson, his boss at a gasoline station at Washington boulevard and Leed Rd., says Hill is "tops" as a washer.

"His speed is just average, but the result is perfect," Johnson declared. He never misses a spot. When he has finished a job on a car it is really done. He is so good that a lot of people wait around until he can get to their cars."

Hill lost his sight two years ago when the optic nerves in both eyes were severed in an automobile accident.

He tries to make up for his lack of sight by his sensitive fingers. He goes over each car twice with a hose and his fingers tell him if he has missed a spot.

Grated American cheese is excellent added to French dressing or mayonnaise and used on a cooked vegetable salad. Serve on a bed of crisp greens such as escarole, chicory, watercress.

Arias Jumps Ahead In Panama Voting

PANAMA, Panama, May 20 (AP)—Arnulfo Arias Madrid lengthened his lead in the Panama presidential race today to 1,181 votes, with 369 of 576 precincts counted.

Arias, a former president, was candidate of the authentic revolutionary party in the election May 9.

The returns give him 50,059 votes to 48,878 for Domingo Diaz Arosemena of the Liberal (government) party and 30,088 for Jose Isaac Fabrega of the National Revolutionary and Renovation parties.
