

On The BEAM

By J. W. King, Sr.

There are so many things Loraine needs to do to improve that it would take considerable space to enumerate and discuss all of them.

One area in which a lot of improvement could be made is in the business section of town. Some of our business buildings have been modernized and are attractive but in some instances a modern building is offset by an old building that detracts from the view.

I would like to see a modernization program in our downtown area that would make people stop and look. It can be done and is being done by other towns. There are government programs available for such purposes. Some towns are taking advantage of these programs in full while others are using only a part of the program and supplying the money needed for improvements on their own.

If we are not in favor of accepting government help to get our town in tip-top shape, we ought to do it on our own. Say what you will, you like to, and I like to shop where the stores are attractive outside as well as inside. Our stores lose an enormous amount of business each year to the large attractive stores elsewhere. I would not say that a town-wide improvement program in our town would keep all of this business at home, but I would say that the program would help to keep a lot of business at home. Let's give it a try.

Loraine Band Wins Second

The Loraine High School Bulldog marching band marched in Midland at the University Interscholastic League marching contest Saturday, Nov. 20, and received a II Division rating, which is considered excellent.

The bands are rated according to standards rather than against other bands. The ratings are I through V, with I being the highest.

The band will represent Loraine in the Pecan Bowl Parade in Abilene and during the half-time performance at the football game there Dec. 11, stated band director Roark Barnes.

Lynn Hamilton Makes Hole In One

While golfing at the Colorado City Country Club last week, with another golfer from Loraine, Lynn Hamilton proved to be either an expert golfer or one of the luckiest persons to perform on the green.

Hamilton made a hole-in-one on No. 5, a distance of 147 yards, reports Woodrow Pratt, who said this was the first time he had even seen this happen.

Only a small number of golfers have been so lucky while golfing at the club, he said, that only 4 or 5 persons had been known to have this luck.

Farmers Turn Down Allotment Transfer, Approve Quotas

In a light turn-out Tuesday, Nov. 23, Loraine farmers voted against allotment transfers out of the county, 47-17, and favored marketing quotas, 59-5. Out of the 207 votes cast in Mitchell County, Loraine cast 64 of these.

Members of the Community Referendum Committee in charge of voting at the agriculture building were Willis Cornutt, S. A. Hutchins and T. L. Finley.

Loraine High School State Testing Results Received

The State Testing Program has been completed in the Loraine school for the seventh and ninth grades. These grades, along with the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades, have been participating in the testing program since Oct. 15. The State Tests included ability and achievement tests.

The tests have been machine-scored and results are being received by the school. Individual profiles, or charts, are being prepared for the test results, under supervision of Preston C. Lightfoot, Supervisor-Counselor.

The profile charts show the students' strength and weaknesses and after they have been discussed with the students, they are taken home for the parents to see. Parents may desire to discuss with the school and the counselor the results which are profiled. The student's teachers are also provided with a set of profiles to assist them in determining whether or not satisfactory progress and development are being made by individual students. With this information, they know better how to advise them regarding their educational plans and problems, and how best to help them with their school work. This information should enable each student to make his own educational plans more intelligently, especially in high school.

Ability tests are used for the purpose of estimating scholastic ability and providing a basis for judging the pupil's potential for success in his current school work.

The achievement tests are designed to measure the student's educational growth and development.

The tenth grade and twelfth grade were administered the personal preference inventory and the occupational preference inventory, respectively. These surveys are widely used to measure an individual's interest or preference for particular kinds of personal and social relationships or specific occupational areas and are used in conjunction with the vocational preference inventory which is used to measure an individual's interest in the broad vocational areas of outdoor, mechanical, computational, scientific, persuasive (dealing with people), artistic, literary, musical, social service, and clerical. Some 40,000 jobs are included in these ten areas and when the student's preferences are identified, he can investigate the occupations that involves these activities. In this way, he narrows the field of investigation to those occupations most deserving of his attention.

In many cases, a person's attention may be called to an occupation for which he is suited, but which he had not previously considered simply because he was not familiar with it.

Sometimes a person selects his career on the basis of superficial qualities, or for some reason well removed from the occupation itself. He may enter an occupation because his friends did, or because he once knew someone in that field, or because of the prestige value usually associated with the occupation. For these reasons, a check on career choice is very desirable before vocational preparation is far advanced.

Survivors include his wife; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. White of Sweetwater; three daughters, Mrs. Laverne Sawyer of Abilene, Mrs. L. E. Robison Jr. of San Angelo, and Mrs. Rodney Walker of Loraine; one sister, Mrs. V. E. Soules of Roscoe; three brothers, Joe of Eola, L. O. of Abilene and C. L. of Sweetwater; and 10 grandchildren.

Pallbearers were nephews: W. L. J. F. M. L., and J. L. Tarver, and Virgil and J. T. Soules.

Burial was in Loraine Cemetery with Kiker and Son in charge.

Funeral services for W. W. Whipkey, pioneer citizen of Mitchell County, were held at Kiker and Son Chapel in Colorado City, at 2 p. m. Monday. Mr. Whipkey died Saturday at Root Memorial Hospital after a brief illness.

Baby Home From Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Preston went to Dallas last Wednesday and brought their little daughter, Ginger home after she had been in Scottish Rites Hospital since the previous Friday, for the application of a new cast.

Ginger, who was two years old on Nov. 8, has been under treatment of Dallas doctors since May for correction of a dislocated hip. Both legs have been in casts, but last week they said she had improved so much they only put the new cast on her right leg. In eight weeks, they will remove this cast and say she will be dismissed and freed from the cast, and as active as she is, they expect her to be walking in a very short time.

FFA Team Wins First; To Compete In State

The Senior Farm Skill team from Loraine FFA Chapter qualified for the State Leadership Contest, to be held at Sam Houston State College, Huntsville on Dec. 11.

The team members, composed of Randy Britton, Keith Hackfeld and Donnie Phillips placed first in the Area II contest held at Howard County Junior College, Big Spring, which qualified the team for the state contest.

Only first place winner in the Area Contest qualifies for the state contest.

Competing in the Big Spring event were the seven first place winners from each district in Area II. Ten teams will be competing at Sam Houston State College, all first place winners in their respective areas.

In winning first in the Area II contest, the Loraine team broke the monopoly held by Brownfield. For the past fifteen years, the Senior Farm Skill in Area II has been won by them and the Junior Farm Skill has been won by them or a team from their district, except in 1957 when Loraine won the contest.

Placings in the Area II contest were: 1st, Loraine; 2nd,

Wallace Wildcats Win, 85-43 Over Loraine

The Wallace Wildcats chewed up the Loraine Bulldogs, 85-43 in the opening game for the season here Tuesday night. However the Wildcat's victims proved to be pretty tough bait before the game was over.

An excited crowd watched as Donnie Phillips paced through to win the high point score of the night with a total of 17 points. Top scorer for Wallace was Willie Brown with 21.

The Top-notch Wallace school has participated in basketball the entire season and Loraine spectators were pleased that their team held out so good against their polished opponents. The Bulldogs gave out what may prove to be their hardest fought game of the season, on this opening night.

In the girls game, Marilyn Forbes sunk the ball repeatedly for the final high score of 14. Wallace's Lonnie Williams scored 13 for tops on her team.
