STATE RENEWS ALLOTMENT OF HIGHWAY AID

Projects of $700,000 Given Approval By Road Commission

U. S. AID PROMISED

Counties to Furnish Funds Until State Is Able To Pay

AUSTIN, April 11. (AP)—Definite assurance that federal road aid again is to be available soon to the Texas highway system, was seen today when the highway commission made allotments involving about $700,000 in federal money.

Roughly estimated $337,000 in state aid, was allotted. In addition, tentative promises of perhaps $500,000 in state aid and about that sum in federal aid, provided certain conditions are met, were made, both sums to be paid out within three years.

Federal Agreement

Practically all the major allotments, however, were made on the condition that counties benefitting will furnish all funds for the present and will be later reimbursed by the state.

All allotments could be cancelled should the federal government fail to agree.

Approximate allotments made:

Webb county $136,000; in state aid and $434,000 in federal aid for construction of concrete top on 31.9 miles of highway number 12-A from Laredo to Duval county line. The county will furnish funds and will be re-imbursed by the state about Jan. 1, 1928. Total cost was estimated at $30,000 per mile, the county to pay one-third, the state about one-fifth and the federal government the remainder. With completion of the 32 mile strip, about 13 miles will remain unimproved.

Nolan county, $97,000 state aid and $194,000 in federal aid for gravel base and macadam top on 15 miles of highway number 1 from Sweetwater east to the Nolan county line.

$180,000 In Ellis

Ellis county, $40,000 in state aid, $80,000 in federal aid for improvement of highway number 34 east and west of Waxahachie to Waxahachie precinct limits. Total cost will be about $180,000. The county will furnish funds at present, to be reimbursed by the state about Jan. 1, 1928.

Jim Hoggs county, $14,000 in state aid and $14,000 in federal aid for topping ten miles of highway number 12-A through the county. Total cost was estimated at $88,000.

Hamilton county, $4,000 in state aid for grading and drainage structures on seven miles of highway number 108 from Hamilton to Hico.

Promise to Grayson

Fayette county, $50,000 in state aid for construction of eight miles of gravel road from Fayetteville to the Austin county line. (Allotment made with the understanding that hard surface will be applied as soon as possible.)

A tentative promise of allotment of about $600,000 in state aid over a period of three years, and about $500,000 in federal aid to be paid out during the same period, was made to Grayson county with the understanding that it will be void unless a proposed bond issue of about $2,000,000 is voted.

The commission discussed a plan that will prohibit state aid allotments for gravel highways without the understanding that hard surface will be applied "in due time."

Threats Back Demands Of Powers In China

U. S. Joins Other Nations In Demands For Complete Reparations For Outrages

By WILLIAM P. FLYTHE
Universal Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The United States today made a demand on the Cantonese for complete reparations for the Nanking outrages and threatened prompt measures of retaliatation unless the demands are met promptly.

The demands follow:

Demand of Powers.

One—Adequate punishment of the commanders of the troops responsible for the murders, personal injuries and indignities and material damage done, as also of all persons found to be implicated.

Two—Apology in writing by the commander-in-chief of the Nationalist army including an express written undertaking to refrain from all forms of violence and agitation against foreign lives and property.

Three—Complete reparation for personal injuries and material damage done.

"Unless the Nationalist authorities demonstrate to the satisfaction of the interested governments their intention to comply promptly with the terms the said governments will find themselves compelled to take such measures as they consider appropriate."

At the same time Great Britain, Japan, France and Italy presented identical notes. They were handed to Eugene Chen, premier of the Cantonese at Hankow and to General Chiang Kai Shek, commander-in-chief of the Nationalists, or Cantonese armies, at Shanghai.

Terms Agreed On.

The American state department issued an explanation saying that the terms had been agreed upon by the powers concerned and that there would be concerted action to enforce compliance. The powers issued similar statements of explanation.

It was regarded as significant that the terms were declared in this explanation to be "studiously moderate" and not directed at the Chinese people whom the "interested governments are glad to believe friendly," but at "those influences, both foreign and Chinese" responsible for the outrages.

The statement follows:

"Upon the entry of the Nationalist forces into Nanking there were prepetrated against the foreign consuls and other residents by uniformed and organized bodies of troops of the Nationalist armies, during the morning and afternoon of March 24, systematic outrages upon their persons and properties.

"A number of Americans, British, French, Italians and Japnese nationals were murdered or wounded; many others were brutally assaulted and their lives jeopardized; they were robbed and treated with the utmost indignities; and women were subjected to nameless outrages, the American, British and Japanese consulates were violated and their national flags insulted. The houses and institutions of all foreigners residents in Nanking were systematically looted and in many cases burned.

Joint Statement.

"In view of these manifestly premeditated assaults upon their official representatives and upon their nationals peacefully engaged in their lawful occupations, the governments of the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan have found it necessary to formulate demands for satisfactory amends by the responsible nationalist authorities. The terms thus agreed upon are studiously moderate, covering only the minimum of what would in the circumstances be done by way of honorable amends by any government conscious of its own dignity and its duty to other friendly peoples in the family of nations.

"These demands are not made in derogation of the soverignty or dignity of the Chinese people whom the interested governments are glad to believe friendly and with whom they earnestly desire to continue and improve relationships of good will and co-operation. They are directed rather towards those influences, both foreign and Chinese, which made themselves responsible for the Nanking outrages by their activitines in seeking to break up the existing friendship and to inflame the Chinese people to distrust, hate and violence towards the people of the friendly powers."

Moody Revokes Pardon Granted Man Fourteen Years Ago

AUSTIN, April 11. (AP)—For fourteen years free from the shadow of a life term in prison, Corry Traylor of Jefferson county convicted of murder must again enter the walls and serve on his sentence.

Traylor was convicted in Jefferson county in 1898 and sentenced to life. He was granted a conditional pardon in 1913 by W. H. Mayes of Austin, then acting governor. Governor Dan Moody today revoked the pardon on the ground that he has reliable information that Traylor is in custody in Angelton, "charged with burglary implicated" in a store robbery.

Traylor now must return to the penitentiary, the proclamation said.

HEAVY RAIN SOAKS CITY

Wichita Falls Gets Second Shower in Two Days

Wichita Falls was soaked with a second violent rain Monday night, the downpour turning downtown streets into small creeks for a few minutes. The shower, as that of Sunday night, was of short duration and followed a violent electrical display and brisk wind.

Temperatures again skidded downward Monday night after reaching a high point of 89 during the day.

Apparently the heavy shower here was local in character, as no widespread rainfall was reported by dispatchers for railroads. The dispatcher for the Fort Worth and Denver City railway said light showers had fallen between Wichita Falls and Vernon. No reports of rain along its right-of-way had been received by the dispatcher for the Missouri-Kansas Texas railway early Monday night.

FLOODS AGAIN MENACE TOWNS IN OKLAHOMA

Heavy Rains Force Rivers Out of Banks In Wide Area

LOWLANDS CLEARED

Residents in Bottoms Flee Before Advancing Waters

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 11. (AP) Floods which inundated sections of Oklahoma last week again threatened tonight following generally heavy rains.

In northeastern Oklahoma the Neosho, Grand, Verdi Gris and Arkansas rivers were out of their banks in some places, forcing inhabitants of lowlands to high ground.

40 Families Marooned

The Arkansas river near Tulsa was said to be menacing Bruner and Vern stations, suburbs. Forty families were reported to be marooned on Cedar island. The river was out of its banks in several places and still rising. Residents of lowlands near Muskogee were preparing to leave their homes as the Arkansas crept near the flood stage.

A dozen families left their homes in the Neosho river bottoms near Miami.

Half a dozen families today were forced at Fort Gibson to leave their homes on the banks of the Grand river. Back water of the Arkansas, into which the Grand flows, caused the later to overflow.

Roads Blocked

The Verdi Gris was reported at flood stage north of Muskogee, but was still in its banks near Muskogee.

Adding to the flood menace in the Washita river basin in the south a rain of 1.04 inches fell last night. A rise of 10 inches was recorded in the already swollen river at Chickasha. Roads north and east out of Chickasha remained blocked where they cross the Washita. The Washita dropped four feet at Anadarko, however, in the last 24 hours.

Gonzaullas Captures Liquor Car After 100-Mile Race to Henrietta

An exciting race between two high-powered automobiles which started just west of Fort Worth early Monday afternoon ended early Monday night eight miles east of Henrietta when M. T. Gonzaullus, federal prohibition agent, overtook a shiny new roadster and placed the occupants under arrest as rum runners.

Two young women and one man, all residents of Wichita Falls, were in the roadster which also contained 84 half-gallon fruit jars filled with rye wriskey and one pint. The women and the man were brought to Wichita Falls and placed in the county jail.

Officers who saw the roadster after it had been confiscated here marveled at the manner in which the whiskey was packed in the rear compartment of the car. The liquor was in corrugated cardboard cases and placed in the car so that it would have been almost impossible to break it.

The rye whiskey was being brought to Wichita Falls from Fort Worth to be distributed to local bootleggers in wholesale quantities, the man arrested is quoted as having said.

Mr. Gonzaullus laid in wait for the car as it left Fort Worth and drove out immediately behind it when it passed his place of concealment. Several opportunities of overtaking the alleged whiskey runners were presented before reaching the spot of the arrest but the opportunities were not in places considered desirable for making the arrests. Approximately 100 miles were covered in the race.

SWEET MUSIC

Wise Age and Impatient Youth Split Honors of Opening Day Games

(By The Associated Press.)

Veteran pitching arms topped by wise old baseball heads and the more resilient wings of impatient youth anxious for a first taste of major league glory quivered alike today as the hammer lifted on the gong to announce the opening of another baseball season.

Pennant-winning predictions were tabled for future reference, all official statements were in and all that remained of the preliminaries was to stage a few parades and toss out the first ball on eight major league battlefields.

But Mr. Fan, fed up on the "dope" was prepared to perch in the bleachers and figure it all out for himself.

His show-me attitude, an annual scepticism, brought his critical gaze to the aged legs of Ty Cobb, Eddie Collins and Zack Wheat, novitates gathered in the Philadelphia fold to add the punch experts believe will bring the American league flag to the Athletics in September. However, he will watch closely the New York Yankees, champions in 1926, for out in the sun gardens the American league champions have a "punch" of their own that overshadows even "dope sheets."

Last year the Yanks were picked to wander in the gloom of the second division because of a kid infield that could hit, but was not expected to do so well on ground balls and a pitching staff that was canny but ancient as pitching staffs go. But the "punch" of the Babe and his mates pulled the club through. Now although the kids of the infield are veterans, another year has been added to the arms of Herb Pennock, Bob Shawkey, Urban Shocker, Dutch Reuther and Waite Hoyt. Ruth, however, again may deliver the deciding blows.

C-C REDUCES BOND ISSUE

$1,000,000 Approved For New Road Construction

Reduction of $750,000 in the road bond issue proposals by the highway committee of the chamber of commerce was decided upon Monday at a meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce.

Several weeks ago the highway committee recommended that the board of directors appear before the count ycommissioners court and asked for an election for a $1,750,000 road bond issue.

At a joint meeting Monday of the committee and the board of directors it was decided that a $1,000,000 bond issue would be requested instead of the previous amount.

The original $1,750,000 estimate of the committee was reduced by deciding to recommend that some roads in the county be gravelled and asphalted, instead of being constructed with concrete as originally planned, C. H. Clark, chairman of the highway committee, said Monday night.

The board of directors will appear before the county commissioners within the near future, it was announced at the conclusion of the meeting, and request that the road bond celction be called.

Hamilton to Add Two Stories To Building For Palatial Wichita Club

Two stories to the Hamilton building will be added immediately for the occupancy of the Wichita club, members of which voted Monday night to move the club's quarters from the City National bank building to the Hamilton building.

The announcement of the club's action was made by Charles I. Francis, president, and the addition of the two floors by W. B. Hamilton.

The club's lease on its present quarters expires January 1, Mr. Francis said. At that time the club will move to the Hamilton building to occupy the two top floors which will be constructed especially for club purposes.

The club's quarters in the Hamilton building will include private dining rooms, a large lounging room, a club dining room and dance floor, a library and game rooms.

It will be one of the best equipped clubs in Texas and on a par with the outstanding clubrooms in Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio, according to Mr. Francis.

Construction of the two floors will be started just as soon as plans can be drawn and estimates for construction obtained, Mr. Hamilton said Monday night.

FRANK BURNS WINS POST AS POLICE CHIEF

Thelbert Martin Named City Attorney and J. E. Glenn Night Captain

GENERAL SHAKEUP

King, Jones and Carter Take Office After Canvas Of City Vote

Appointments of Frank Burns as chief of police; Thelbert Martin as city attorney and J. E. Glenn as night police captain were made Monday night by the city council.

The appointments were made upon recommendation of Roy E. Carter, who a few minutes previous to presenting the recommendations had been sworn in by Mayor R. E. Shepherd as fire and police commissioner.

McClure Reappointed

The re-appointment of J. L. McClure as fire chief was recommended by Carter and confirmed by the council.

A. W. King, who was sworn in as park and sanitary commissioner by Mayor Shepherd at the same time this action was taken in regard to Mr. Carter, recommended the re-appointment of C. C. Bunnenberg as superintendent of parks. The recommendation was acted upon favorably by the council.

Oral Jones, finance commissioner, sworn in for his second term, recommended the re-appointments of W. E. McBroom as city secretary and Ralph Hyer as city tax collector and assessor. The council acted favorably upon the recommendations.

In short talks, Burns, Glenn and Bunnenberg expressed their appreciation to the concilmen for acting favorably on Mr. Carter's and Mr. King's recommendations.

Before Mr. Carter, Mr. King and Mr. Jones were sworn into office the council canvassed the votes of the city election held April 5.

Jones Gains Votes

As a result of the canvass it developed that Mr. Jones received 40 more votes than reported by the judges to Mr. McBroom the day following the election. Mayor Shepherd discovered an error of 40 votes in the report from the Buchanan street fire station in the compiling of the votes Mr. Jones received at that box.

The canvass disclosed the following total vote for each candidate: Finance commissioner, Oral Jones, 3585. Fire and police commissioner, Carter, 1530; John T. Young, 1235; Frank Queisser, 324; Tom Wynn, 325, and J. O. Cowart, 254. Park and sanitary commissioner, King, 1573; J. H. Patton, 1559, and Ollie Reeves, 511.

The motion to accept the results of the election was made by Mr. Queisser, retiring fire and police commissioner, and seconded by Mr. Patton, retiring park and sanitary commissioner.

Following the canvass, Mayor Shepherd gave the oath of office to Mr. Carter and Mr. King and they took their seats at the council table. Mr. Queisser and Mr. Patton remained in the council room.

Two Retire

As he gave his chair at the council table to Mr. King, the retiring commissioner, Mr. Patton, said:

"I want every citizen in Wichita Falls to know that I bear no 'hard feelings' toward any one. I am going to help Mr. King whenever he calls upon me and I am going to help to build Wichita Falls to be the greatest city in the state. I want every member of the council to know that they are at liberty to call on me at any time when they need my assistance."

Mr. Queisser said, as Mr. Carter took his chair: "I consider it a privelege to have been able to serve Wichita Falls as fire and police commissioner. As a member of the council I have differed with other members sometimes relative to certain phases of the city's administration but they have been

BILLY MALONE LAID TO REST

Services Held at Frederick For Water Victim

Special to The Record News.

FREDERICK, Okla., April 11.—Funeral services for Billy R. Malone, 17, who was drowned in a tank at Wilson's Switch, 15 miles south of Wichita Falls Sunday afternoon, were held here Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church with the Rev. J. D. Salter in charge.

Many persons from Wichita Falls were in attendance in addition to hosts of friends of the Pearson family here. Mr. and Mrs. George C. Pearson, parents of Billy Malone, are former residents of Frederick.

Billy Malone was drowned Sunday at 12:20 o'clock while attempting to swim the large reservoir at Wilson's Switch. He was fishing there with his stepfather, George C. Pearson of 1107 17th street, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Hendrickson, also of 1107 17th street.

The youth had covered about 400 yards of the distance and was drowned within 50 feet of the bank. Mr. Hendrickson attempted to recover the body by diving but was unsuccessful and the body was not found until six hours after when six men from the Wichita Falls and Southern shops here took boats and hooks to the scene on a motor car.

friendly differences. I regard the members of the council as being among my best friends and I feel sure that Mr. Carter will find out what I am saying is true after he has worked with you for a short time."

In assuming his place at the council table, "I intend to make the very best park and sanitary commissioner that I can possibly be and I anticipate working in harmony with the other members of the council."

Thanks Queisser

Mr. Carter said, when he assumed office: "I am going to give every man a square deal. Regarding Mr. Queisser, I want to say that I do not believe I could have had a better 'sport' for an opponent than he was. During the past few days he has assisted me in learning the 'ins and outs' of the fire and police departments."

All of the men appointed by the council assumed office immediately.

Mr. Burns has been a resident of Wichita county for the past 18 years, coming here from the vicinity of San Angelo where he was engaged in ranching.

Veteran Officer.

For two years he was constable of precinct No. 1, being elected to that post in November, 1912. He made the race for sheriff in 1914 and was defeated in a close contest by George Hawkins. Again in 1918 Mr. Burns ran for sheriff but in a field of three candidates Bob McFall was the winner.

After leaving the constable's office Mr. Burns joined the Wichita Falls police department and served as a plain clothes officer from 1915 to 1917.

Since 1919 he has been in charge of producing properties of the Sibley-Taylor syndicate in the KMA field.

Mr. Burns is well known in Wichita Falls and Wichita county and friends who have known him for years declare that he is well qualified for the post. Acquaintances of Mr. Burns were unanimous Monday afternoon in declaring that he is "clean and a square shooter."

Praise From Hodgins.

Former Police Chief George Hodgins who resigned April 1, declared that Mr. Burns was an efficient officer. Mr. Hodgins stated that shortly after being appointed chief of police four years ago he tried to enlist Mr. Burns as a member of the department but that he preferred to give his time to his private interests at that time.

J. E. Glenn, who was appointed night chief is well known as a peace officer here. He has served both with the city and county and since Jan. 1 he has been with the highway department in Wichita county.

Nix On Publicity.

Fire and Police Commissioner Carter, who made his race for office on a promise of reorganizing the police department, declared Monday afternoon that replacements on the force would probably reach a total of 12. Additional changes, however, will be made gradually and at the discretion of the new police chief, Mr. Carter declared.

Mr. Carter reiterated pre-election statements to the effect that whether or not members of the present department supported him in his campaign for election had no weight whatever on changes to be made in the department's personnel.

"I have instructed the men appointed by me to make public no special plans they have for law enforcement. The proper time to give such things publicity is after they have taken place," Mr. Carter stated.

Officers Take Oath

The new police officials were sworn into their new duties by Mayor R. E. Shepherd in the chief's office at the city hall at 9:50 o'clock, immediately following adjournment of the council session.

Chief Frank Burns called all officers present into the police court room shortly after being sworn in and addressed them briefly, telling them to continue their work in the same manner in which they have been working.

Chief Burns announced that he will be out of the city for about three days and that during that time Captain J. E. Glenn will be in charge of the department. Chief Burns stated that his absence would be necessary while making arrangements to move his family to Wichita Falls.

"You men know where you belong and you are expected to be there tonight. Each man will work just as he has been doing until orders or given to the contrary," the new police chief told the officers present.

No Immediate Changes

"There will probably be some changes made but until I have become more familiar with the department I can not say who will be asked to resign. All of you will not be fired, I know," he declared.

Will Allen, retiring night captain, began going over the records with the new officials immediately after the oaths were administered. Mr. Allen assured Chief Burns and Captain Glenn that he would help them in any way they might see fit.

Full co-operation between police, sheriff's, federal and constable's departments is highly desirable to Chief Burns, he declared just before leaving for his home at Kemp City. Such co-operation is essential to successful law enforcement, he declared.

YOUTH AND SPRING

Cupid Scores Heavily Among Couples In 'Teens

Youth of Wichita Falls and vicinity has apparently turned its thoughts to love this spring, according to Miss Elizabeth Hall, county clerk. A majority of 12 couples who secured licenses Saturday and Monday were practicing the "marry young" idea, the county clerk's records show.

Of the 24 persons involved in the marriages, those over 25 years of age could be counted on the fingers of one hand, the records show. All four persons in two of the contracting parties were minors and had to have consent of their parents. In two others one or the other of the future life mates had not reached the legal age. Two couples were exactly old enough while the remainder had passed the age minimum only a few years.

GIRL TELLS OF CANE BEATING

Col. Carrington Accused By Society Deb

By FRED VAN DEVENDER.
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, April 11.—There are two sides to every question.

Last week Col. E. C. Carrington, wealthy New York publisher told his story about the alleged infidelity of his wife and his brother Campbell Carrington.

Today, the alleged infidelity of Col. Carrington in his association with a pretty little Chicago manicurist was told from the witness stand by Walter Dixon, apartment house man.

Court Room Laughs.

The Carringtons are suing each other for divorce, charging almost everything that could be included in the divorce laws of Illinois.

The court room guffawed as Dixon told of the negligee party.

"She had on "a pink negligee and no shoes or stockings," he said. "Col. Carrington was lying on the bed partly clothed.

"The girl turned to him and said 'Daddy here's the boy with your White Rock. You'd better pay him.' He said 'all right. Bring me my money.' Then he gave me the money and a couple of bucks for myself."

Judge George Fred Rush almost broke his gavel rapping for order.

Dixon was preceded on the stand by Miss Elinor Snyder, cultured New York society girl who told how Col. Carrington had beat her with his cane on the night of March 16, 1926.

On the night in question, Col. Carrington's language to her and her mother was insulting, she said. He accused them of great sins, and when he retaliated by slapping his face, he beat them with his cane until their faces covered with blood.

Attacked Women.

"'I'll break your neck,' he said to me," the girl testified.

"He hit me in the face. The only thing that kept me from fainting was the fear that he would do the same thing to mother and kill my grandmother, who had just had a stroke.

"Then he stuck mother behind the ear and she fell to the floor unconscious. He kept chasing me about the room raining blows on me. Blood was spattered all over everything. I fell over a low table and he kicked me.

"Then mother came too and grabbed his cane. She hit him with the tip of it. Then he took it away from her and started beating her with the crook of it."

She said she ran out and brought the elevator boy into the room and the Colonel ceased.

Miss Snyder told how she had gone to a retired doctor in another partment in the building, but that he had refused to treat her. Their own doctor came and dressed their wounds, she said.

Junior College Students Show Abilities in Annual "Majestic"

One of the most entertaining programs given at the Junior college this season was the "Mock Majestic," presented by pupils of the Junior college and high school Monday evening. The Majestic bill is an annual entertainment given by the students and was an even greater success that the one last year.

The acts were clever and well presented and each received hearty applause from a large audience which filled the auditorium. The Apache dance in which Gladys Parish, J. B. Fletcher, Geraldine Monroe, Harold Naylor, Ruby Nance, J. P. Davidson, Margaret Blum, Nellie Saunders and Harry Greer, took part was especially attractive, and was presented in true vaudeville style.

Helen Howard, Walter Pinney and Lefty Watson in a tramp act, took their roles well as black faced comedians, and John Wolf, Paul Hull, Frank Rugeley, Womack Clarkson, William Warren, Ford Chauncey and Kennard Rundell in a "lullaby act" carried out the effect by swinging dolls and crooning lullabies to them.

"His Night Out," was a clever dialogue in which Tressie Lewis and Alexander Cameron starred, and Lois Franklin, dressed as a "tuffie" took her part exceedingly well and sang several numbers.

The program was closed by a dance revue with Wilma Brown, Frank Rugely and Dolores Peavy, and was accompanied by "The Little Rovers," one of the most popular musical organizations of the city.

Italian Admits Plot to Slay Mussolini With Machine Gun

By Universal Service.

ROME, April 11.—Tito Zaniboni, former socialist member of the chamber of deputies, created a tremendous sensation today when arraigned before a special military tribunal, charged with being the leader of a plot to slay Premier Mussolini and overthrow the fascist government. He calmly confessed his guilt and added that if the police had delayed in arresting him and his associates until 12:30 on the afternoon of Nov. 4, 1925, instead of jailing him and his confederates at 8 o'clock that morning, the plot would have succeeded.

"We would have removed Mussolini and installed a military dictatorship," Zaniboni shouted at the trial.

Following this spectacular admission, General Freri, the presiding judge, had the greatest difficulty in restoring order. Zaniboni seemed to glory in his action, and his attempt to justify it aroused further hostile demonstrations.

Strong guards, carbinieri and militia were posted in and outside of the palace of justice and their presence served not only to restore order by probably to save the defiant socialist deputy from the wrath of the spectators.

General Luigi Capello, Ulisse Ducci and five others charged with being associated with Zaniboni in the plot were also arraigned today.

The trial began this morning, General Noseda, the prosecutor, introduced documentary evidence that Zaniboni and Capello were the heads of the movement which was made up of subversivists from all parts of the kingdom and financed by the foes of the king and the fascist government.

The shooting of Premier Mussolini by Zaniboni with a machine gun spray, trained from the Hotel Dragoni, on the balcony of the Chigi palace from which Il Duce was advertised to address a great fascist throng was to have been the signal for a general insurrection.

BORGER MAN HELD

Police Investigate Claim For $1000 Travellers Checks

A man suspected of attempting to defraud the American Railway Express company of approximately $1000 by seeking refund on travellers checks claimed to have been lost by him, was arrested at the union station Monday morning by City Detective E. H. Carmichael.

The man arrived in Wichita Falls from Borger Sunday night, it was said. He claims to have lost the travellers checks when his automobile was stolen in Oklahoma City on February 3. He had a car when arrested of the same make as the one claimed to have been stolen, according to Mr. Carmichael. The suspect is being held in the city jail.

Since her disappearance last December 19 she has been working on a farm in LaPorte county.

STATE CLOSES KNIFE CASE

Negro Feared For Friend, Defense Claim

That J. B. Masters, negro, was of the opinion that Bob Johnson, negro, his friend, would be seriously injured if he did not aid him was the substance of the testimony introduced Monday afternoon by attorneys for Masters, who went to trial Monday morning in the 30th district court on a charge of assault with intent to murder in connection with an alleged knife attack on Sam Spence, assistant district attorney.

Negro to Testify

The state, represented by Ben Allred, district attorney; James Allred, special prosecutor, and John Humphrey, assistant county attorney, closed its case at 4 p. m. Monday afternoon. After testimony for the defendant had been introduced for one hour, court was adjourned until 9 a. m. Tuesday, at which time the defendant is expected to take the witness stand in his own behalf.

In outlining their case, the defendant's attorneys set out that Masters only joined in the affray, which ended in Mr. Spence and M. W. Barnett, United States narcotic enforcement officer, being seriously stabbed, when he was of the opinion that Johnson would be injured.

Spence Tells of Stabbing

Mr. Spence was the principal witness for the state. He said that while riding in an automobile on Eleventh street, near Scott, that he noticed three negroes driving an automobile in a reckless manner.

He stopped them, Mr. Spence said, and informed the negroes that he was an officer and that they were under arrest. The negroes started running away from Spence, according to the testimony, and were stopped a short distance from Eleventh on Scott street, by Mr. Barnett.

After being stopped the negroes engaged in a scuffle with the officers during which Mr. Spence and Mr. Barnett were stabbed, according to the testimony.

HEALTH SURVEY

Council Approves Canvass Of Conditions Here

A survey of health conditions in Wichita Falls will be made by the American Health association, according to a resolution passed by the city council Monday night.

Mayor R. E. Shepherd and A. W. Kirby, sanitary and park commissioner, were authorized by the council to negotiate with the association for the survey.

The main details of the survey were outlined by Mayor Shepherd who conferred last week with a member of the association.

The survey will consist of suggestions for improvements in the maintenance of health in Wichita Falls and will also suggest the best ways and means to install the improvements at the lowest possible cost.

Action on a bill presented by the Family Relief association for $398 for food and clothing given to people, without money, who have been quarantined during the past two months was deferred to allow the presentation of the bill to the county commissioners court, which body is expected to pay part of the cost of the supplies.

All bids for the purchase of 60 feet on Front street, running into the Wichita river, which was recently condemned by the city, were rejected due to the low amount of the bids.

The American Refining company was given permission by the council to install an underground gasoline tank in the alley between Scott and Lamar and Seventh and Eighth.

CORN UP IN ELECTRA AREA

Crop Conditions Good For Planting Season

Special to The Record News.

ELECTRA, April 11.—In many fields the corn is already up to a good stand, although some, who planted early are having to plant over.

Cotton planting is well under way but many farmers who have their cotton land ready are going to delay planting until the weather is warmer.

Roy Scales of the Enterprise community, was the first to begin planting in the Electra district, having begun planting some two weeks ago, and reports some cotton up. Mr. Scales will be remembered as the winner in the contest for the first bale of cotton brought in last year, and was awarded the prize by the chamber of commerce and local merchants.

Considerable sudan and row stuff is being planted this week. Gardens in general appear to be flourishing.

Ferd S. Keller, Jr., secretary of the Texas Wheat Growers association, returned last week from a tour of the Panhandle district and southern Oklahoma, and reports that the grain around Electra, although badly infested with green bugs is better than that found in other places.

He reports that a supply of green bugs are found in practically every wheat growing district in which he has traveled, and he thinks that the general grain outlook is not so good as that of last year, at this time.

PROSPECTS GOOD IN QUITAQUE SECTION.

QUITAQUE, April 11. — The farmers of this section are well up with their field work, some few have planted corn while some will wait until about the first of May, it is the opinion of many farmers that corn make a better yield to be planted in the month of May than earlier than that time. About 90 per cent of the fields are prepared for spring planting. The small grain crops are looking good. Rain would be helpful to the growing crops but nothing is suffering.

SOLON HITS TOBACCO TAX

Williams Urges Collection Of Delinquent Revenue

Editor, The Record News,
Wichita Falls, Texas.

Your opposition to the proposed imposition of a tobacco tax by the legislature has attracted my attention and I desire to applaud your attitude in that behalf. This measure will doubtless be before us in the special session and for that reason your discussion is opportune.

The federal tax on cigarettes at this time amounts to 40 per cent, according to my information, and the state levies $10 and the county $5 as an occupation tax against dealers at this time. This measure is based on expediency and proposes to levy a tax on one commodity to the exclusion of others no more essential and, generally speaking, will be paid by the same class of people who are now carrying the expense of government by taxation of other subjects.

There is now due the state in occupation taxes, gross production taxes and gross receipts taxes about $8,000,000 and in property taxes about $25,000,000. This immense sum of money is due from people who have avoided paying any portion of the expense of their governmental protection, education of their children and their fair share of the expenses of caring for the unfortunates among our citizenship and these people should be required to come up to the "lick-log" before we resort to expediency legislation.

The 40th legislature submitted to the people a proposed amendment to the constitution providing for the separation of subjects of taxation and I am sure this will be adopted. The legislature will then be called upon to enact tax laws putting that amendment in effect and thereafter the state will receive its support from sources other than physical propertics situated in the county and the various counties will have a free hand in raising their revenues from physical properties within their borders to the exclusion of the state. When this legislation is enacted the delinquent taxes above mentioned will become profit and loss items and the tax dodger will be the beneficiary, and as a member of the legislature I can not vote to levy an expediency tax on a new subject when there is enough money due the state to take care of the emergency.

It is my opinion that the legislature should make provision to collect the delinquent taxes and thus avoid the claimed necessity for seeking new sources of revenue pending the result of the election on the tax separation amendment to the constitution.

Respectfully submitted: W. T. Williams, member of the legislature from Travis county, Texas.

RELIGIOUS CENSUS

Organization of Work at Memphis Planned Next Sunday.

Special to The Record News.

MEMPHIS, April 11.—A religious census drive has been planned for Memphis, and an organization for the campaign consisting of members of the various churches of the city was to have been consummated Sunday, but owing to stormy weather conditions only a few were present at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church.

The leader of this move suggested that the matter be postponed for another week, urging each church of the city to announce another meeting for next Sunday, at which time it is hoped 100 workers can be organized for this very important work.

The purpose of the census drive, says the Rev. E. T. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist church, is to put each church of the city in a better position to encourage Sunday school work and church going.

SOPHIE IRENE LOEB Says—

When Second Love Is Best.

A woman writes to me as follows: "When I was a girl I met a young man. We went out together often. I believe he thought a great deal of me. At least, he let me think so. We went together for a long time, and the neighbors began to talk about me as they do in a small town, and thought we would soon be getting married, when, to my astonishment, he married another girl. He never asked me to marry him, but he always talked as though I would.

"Well, you can imagine how I felt, and I worried and thought about it so long that I really got sick. But I am thankful it happened as it did, for I got a much better man, and every time I think of it I say: 'Well, it is a good thing I did not get the offer.'"

And there are many, many like this. I know a young girl who fell in love with a man, a writer. He seemed to return her affection, although he never asked her to marry him, always putting forth the suggestion that he was "unworthy" of her, and the more unattainable he seemed the more she became infatuated.

He was called to do war work in Europe. The girl grieved until she was almost sick over it. She finally secured a means of doing work on the other side, too, and followed him. Of course, she went for the main purpose of being near him. When she arrived, although he treated her with some indifferences, yet on occasions he appeared glad that she was there.

Also she saw him in another light. He was frivolous, and had several girl friends to whom he paid equal attention. She saw that he fell short of the great Ideal she had made of him. She could not help seeing his short-comings and her feelings for him were changed to a degree.

When the girl returned on the ship she met another man who interested her very much, but always she thought that no one could take the place of that first love which seemed strongly entrenched in her heart.

Not long after she returned, the first man was hurt in a hospital. He began to reflect. He thought about all his friends. He found that he loved this girl better than all these others, and wrote her accordingly. He begged her to marry him and to come at once to him.

And the remarkable part of the thing was that when she knew she could have him, the fact that he had not measured up weighed against him, and she could she did not really want him.

The second man, who is a better man in every way, had taken his place and is going to marry her.

She realizes now that if she had married the other man she would have been miserable. Both of these cases should be good lessons to girls who think that there is only one man in the world.

The old adage, "there is as good fish in the seas as ever was caught," still bears truth in the realm of every-day affairs. Sometimes the second love is the real one. At any rate, no good is gained by grieving over a thing that is gone.

As I have said before, there is nothing so dead as a dead love. You might as well try to revive ashes from which all spark is gone. And if there is anything distasteful to a man it is the attention of the woman whom he has ceased to love.

Every move she makes in his direction is magnified. Better let him alone. If he truly loves he will return. If not, give him up and smile at others.

P.-T. A. Council To Hold Meeting Today

A meeting of the P.-T. A. city council will be held at the home of Mrs. T. H. Lawson, 1825 Huff avenue Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present.

Grandmother's Day.

The oldest woman in Lincoln is aged 105 years. She has gray hair and pink cheeks, and takes a lively interest in everything that is going on. She likes tea at any hour, and she loves young folks. But she does hate bobbed hair! It is her only criticism of the modern girl. "Daresay they are just as bad as the girls of my young days," is her generous remark on youth.

FOR Acid Stomach PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this spuring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

TRY A 25-CENT BOTTLE

Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and 50-cent bottles, any drug store. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered trade mark of the Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor, Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Adv.

Sportswoman

In startling contrast to the generally accepted version of a sweet old grandmother we have the Duchess d'Uzes, riding to hounds in the forests of France, to celebrate her 86th birthday. The duchess was attended in her celebration by descendants of the lords and ladies who hunted in the same forests with her in her youth. She is called the dean of the world's huntswomen.

Versatile Leader.

One of America's most distinguished women in society and social welfare is Mrs. J. Borden Harriman of Washington. She was a debutante in the days when the "400" first came into existence, and has been constantly active in service since that time. In 1918 she went to Paris as head of the women motor corps drivers of the Red Cross. During the world war she was the only woman member of President Wilson's Federal Industrial Relations commission, and afterwards served as chairman of the Gompers committe on women in industry.

All The Meal is on the Table

LAUNCHING a merchandising campaign is much like sitting down to a good dinner.

Directly before you is the main dish. But that, in itself, does not fill the requirements of the appetite. The soups and the salads, the vegetables and the desserts play proper parts in the balanced fare.

A morning newspaper places all of the market before a merchandiser at one sitting. With a good round portion of city dwellers as the main dish, it delivers the suburban and rural elements in proper relation.

Whenever and wherever a new family is added to the morning newspaper list there is one more family buying potential opened to the approach of the morning newspaper advertiser.

The time element makes the morning newspaper the most attractive contact with the city for the majority of families in the greater market. Having expressed its interest in the city by buying a city-made retail product—(the morning newspaper) the suburban family is ready to be interested in other merchandise from the city.

Merchants who are making capital of the interest expressed in this newspaper by thousands of families are learning how to occupy their rightful place in the vast morning market.

MODISH MITZI — Just a Nice Cheerful Costume — By JAY V. JAY

It's a lovely day to go Easter shopping—what with birds (sparrows) chirping and flowers blooming (even if it's only in the shop windows). Mitzi sets out in a new hat with a turned back brim and a coat with a flower on the shoulder to consider Easter seriously.

Mitzi's fancy was for something as cheerful as the weather—something red or bright green or brilliant blue for preference. She pauses, though, to consider how superlatively smart this black satin dress is—with its side ruffle of pleats and all.

She also meditates a moment on the subject of the black chiffon evening wrap. Sheer wraps are going to be smart this summer! And the coat of the young woman passing is black satin lined. Perhaps it's reversible. Mitzi wishes she knew. (It is!).

Considerably later in the day when Mitzi has persuaded herself into a black satin suit with a blouse of sheer brocade, it is quite too cheerful for any words. It isn't the color, she decides sagely, it's the style that makes one's cheerfulness in clothes! Tomorrow—Silk and Satin Coats.

Love Will Wait, Opportunity Will Not, Dorothy Dix Advises College Youth

Shall He Drop College to Marry the Girl He Loves or Stay and Graduate?—Advice to Prisoner-Wife Whose Husband Is a Jailor—Why a Boy Who Marries at 18 Dooms Himself to Poverty and Unhappiness.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a young man torn between love and ambition. I am in love with a girl, but I am still in college and will not be financially able to marry for several years. Shall I marry her and give up getting my degree? I worship her, but my desire for success is almost equally great. What shall I do? TOMMY.

Answer: My earnest advice to you, Tommy, is to put off matrimony and go on with your education. There are many reasons why this is the best course to pursue.

In the first place, love will wait, but opportunity will not tarry. If the girl really cares for you and you really care for her, your affection will stand the strain of a few years' delay in marriage; but if you give up your chances of getting an education now that will fit you for the career you intend to pursue, it is gone forever.

You will have to descend to a lower level of life. You will have to take the job you can get that will make a living for a family, instead of doing the thing you want to do. Perhaps you will have to do work that nature never intended you to do and for which you are unfitted, and that will mean that you will not only be a failure in life but that you will always be discontented and unhappy.

Furthermore, in the struggle between love and ambition, while love may win the first round, ambition always scores the final knockout.

I have known many men and women who gave up their careers in order to marry some one with whom they thought they were in love, but I've known very few of these marriages to turn out well. Nearly always the love was killed by balked ambition, and the men and women were dissatisfied and miserable and came to feel that they had paid too high a price for their romances.

Do not think you are showing the girl what a great lover you are by giving up your career in order to marry her. A finer proof of devotion would be to go on and make yourself worthy of her by showing that you have enough strength and manhood to control your passions and achieve a success that is worthy of her acceptance.

"All for love and the world well lost," is a fine, resounding, poetic slogan for the sentimental, but it doesn't bear the test of actual, everyday experience. For the grand passion cannot live on air. Even Romeo and Juliet have to be fed and clothed and warmed and sheltered. It is sadly true that romance has to be financed and that only those marriages are happy in which people can go on living pretty much as they used to do before they were married and carry on with their usual avocations.

So put marriage out of your thoughts until you are ready for it. If the girl doesn't love you well enough to wait for you, she is small loss, and if she isn't interested enough in your ambitions to sacrifice something for them, she would make you a poor wife anyway.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am 28 years old, the mother of two wonderful kiddies and live in a lovely home, but I am a prisoner in it. My husband has forced me to give up every friend I ever had. I have no relatives. I am not permitted to speak to my next-door neighbor. When I go to the grocery store he times me. I have no dress fit to wear in public or on a street car, because by husband says that if I had good clothes I would be gone somewhere all the time.

For seven years I have stayed within my own walls. No church, no companionship, until I am a physical and mental wreck. At times I think death is the only way out and I tried it once and failed. And it is hard to part from my little ones, whom I love dearly. What shall I do? Persuasion has failed. Kindness has failed. Good work and neat housekeeping—even the doctors telling him that I must have some pleasure and freedom in my life—have failed. What CAN I do? MARITAL PRISONER.

Answer: Break out of your prison. Flee from it at once. No woman in the world should endure such treatment.

What is a home where you are physically comfortable and well fed if it is nothing but a cage in which your soul is starved? You will be happier out in the world, no matter how hard you have to work to support yourself, than you will be living with a man who is nothing but a tyrant and a jailer. And any court will give you your children when it listens to the story of your wrongs and of your husband's insane conduct.

I am not in favor of a woman leaving a husband until she has tried every way in the world to get along with him. I believe that a wife should overlook many faults and even stand a lot of bad treatment from her husband if she has children. But no woman is called upon to endure slavery or to be deprived of all the ordinary, human associations, and when a man deliberately shuts out all the pleasures from his wife's life it is time for her to get up and leave.

DOROTHY DIX.

* * *

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have a boy who will be 18 years old in April and who declares his intention of marrying as soon as he reaches that age. The girl he wants to marry is a good girl, but four years his senior. I am not opposed to his marrying her when the proper time comes, but what chance for a successful marriage has any boy with no special training along any line of endeavor and no moneyed father to back him up? How can I instill into his mind a little of that golden elixir common sense? TROUBLED DADDY.

Answer: I think that it would take a surgical operation on your son's head to put any common sense into it, for evidently he has shut his mind against all arguments and is bent of rushing to destruction.

It is useless to tell him that at 18 no boy knows his own mind or has the faintest idea of what he wants in a wife and that the girl he is in love with now he wouldn't have on a bet when he is 25, or even 21. It is waste of words to try to show him that "a young man married is a young man marred," as the old proverb says, and that if he handicaps himself with a family now he will be poor and hard run all of his days, because he will never have any chance to save up the money to take advantage of any opportunity that comes his way and thus get ahead in the world.

But can't you find some object lesson in your community that would bring home to him his folly in making a premature marriage? Can't you find some poor, dragged-down, seedy, discouraged young husband and father who is a tired, worn-out old man before he ever came to man's estate? Get such a man as this to talk to your son and tell him what a curse a man bring on himself who marries in his teens and it will have far more effect than anything you can say.

Perhaps if you tell the girl that you will not help support her you can keep her from rushing into this disastrous marriage. But any girl of 22 who is willing to marry a boy of 18 has even less sense than he has.

Poor, foolish, misguided creatures, wrecking their lives before they are ever begun! Of such are the divorce courts made.

Girls! Tell This To Your Skinny Friend

Tell him that the quick easy way to put pounds of solid flesh on his bones is to take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

Tell him it's the modern way to take nasty tasting, stomach upsetting cod liver oil—that these tablets are rich in vitimines and besides helping him to fill out his flat chest and sunken cheeks and neck that the vitalizing vitimines in McCoy's will make him strong and vigorous and give him more ambition.

Tell him that he can get 60 tablets for 60 cents at Renfros Drug Stores or any druggist anywhere, and that if he isn't delighted after a 20 day test he can have his money back.—Adv.

INGROWN NAIL

Turns Right Out Itself

A few drops of "Outgro" in the crevice of the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.—Adv.

It is great to have a clear skin

A clear skin means everything to the popularity of men and women. You cannot get it with external applications. If you are unfortunate enough to have pimples or skin blemishes, in justice to your friends and yourself, you should treat the source of the trouble. Nature will then provide the complexion which is so much deserved.

Thousands have been enabled to free themselves of unsightly blemished and painful annoyances by taking a course of S. S. S.

You owe it to yourself to try S. S. S. It helps Nature build up red corpusles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished.

"I suffered from impure blood—was weak and I had lost so much weight I didn't look natural. I had pimples and was also bothered with a breaking-out that itched terribly. I also had boils one after another I tried different kinds of remedies but nothing did me any good until a friend avised me to take S. S. S., which I did. This was some time ago. Now I feel well, and I am getting along fine. S. S. S. stopped the itching and it cured me of boils. I advise all weak and run-down people to give S. S. S. a trial. It clears up the skin and makes you strong and fills you with energy." Mrs. J. W. Barker, 1337 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

S. S. S. is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory. It is time-tried and reliable.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.—Adv.

CARS AND GAS AND RUBBER

THIS is the auto age. This is the gasoline age. This is the rubber age. More than 22,000,000 motor vehicles were registered in the United States during 1926. Export sales of American vehicles will exceed 60,000,000 in 1927. Gasoline taxes yielded a net revenue of $187,603,231 in 1926.

A gasoline tax was imposed in all but four states at rates ranging from one cent to five cents per gallon, the average rate being 2.38. Tax collections indicated that 8,000,000,000 gallons were consumed in the states imposing the tax and it is estimated that nearly 2,000,000,000 gallons were used in the four states in which no tax was imposed.

Kentucky has a five-cent rate. Virginia has a four and a half cent rate. Here is where the highway comes in.. It is nounced the road building program of states for 1927 calls for expenditure of a total of $650,000,000. This for 47 states. Connecticut has not reported. There are state highway departments in the 48 states.

Road maintenance will cost $126,000,000. As for rubber It is announced that the consideration policy of manufacturers resulted in a big saving in 1926 although car registration was 10 per cent greater than in 1925. In 1925 the consumption of raw rubber in the United States amounted to 388,000 tons. In 1926 the actual consumption was only 366,000 tons. Thus there was a saving of 60,000 tons, and the auto manufacturers report large reserved stocks of raw rubber. This is the rapid transit age. In the not distant future a billion dollars will be invested in the highways every year.

BLACK ON FARM LAND IN TEXAS

TAXATION is an interesting study. J. M. Bledsoe is an educator. William A. Black is a single taxer. Mr. Bledsoe insists the necessary fund for running the public schools "must and will have to be levied either on tobacco or on the farms and homes of the people." This did not appeal to Singler Taxer Black. He made a pertinent inquiry. He asked if the educator knew how much the farm lands of Texas contributed for state taxes in 1926.

Then for the benfit of all concerned, the single taxer declared, the state collectd in taxes from all sources last year some $53,000,000 of which less than $25,000,000 came from advalorum taxes and only $16,000,000 of this $25,000,000 from real estate.

Furthermore, he said the state collected from farm lands last year less than 5 1-2 per cent an acre, and remarked for the benefit of his educator friend that if the whole $53,000,000 in taxes last year had been collected from real estate and the farm lands of the state had been taxed 58 per cent of this total, which is the proportionate share of assessed realty values, it would only have been 17 cents an acre. And the single taxer scored another point.

He said the federal census shows farm lands in Texas that were worth $4.77 an acre in 1900 were worth $28.45 an acre in 1920. "This means that the working farmers of Texas have six times as heavy a capital investment in land now as they had in 1900," is the conclusion of the single taxer, who is a former lawmaker and is said to have made economics a close study for years and years.

IDAHO HAS CENTER OF STAGE

IDAHO has the center of the stage. Idaho lawmakers enacted a sterlization act. Governor H. C. Baldridge signed the act. Idaho lawmakers appropriated money to defray expenses of carrying the law into effect ,and the attorney general has ruled that the law carries with its adequate provision for disbursement of the fund.

Under the provisions of the law all persons, male or female, in any state institution who are feeble minded, insane, epilectic, habitual criminals, moral degenerates or sexual perverts, who are, in the opinion of the heads of public institutions of the state, likely to become a menace to society are subject to the sterlization process.

Idaho is not a radical state. Idaho is the home state of Senator William A. Borah, but in Idaho the lawmakers appear to be determined that society shall be protected if there is a way to go about it.

Not many years ago the senate of Texas defeated a similar bill by a very close vote, and it came with a few votes of passing in the house at the same session. Science is marching onward.

GOLF AND GASOLINE HOLD THE FORT

GOVERNOR RICHARDS of South Carolina invoked a blue law of the 17th century to enforce the Ten Commandments and Sunday observance. He made life miserable for golf players and gasoline sellers.

Now he has lifted the ban. Golf players and gasoline sellers are permitted to ply their callings while soft drink sellers are not to be molested. There is method in the madness of the governor.

His legislature repealed the law of ancient vintage. He vetoed it. Public opinion thundered.

As the governor is something of a politician, he saw the point and gracefully side-stepped. Now the Ten Commandments in South Carolina are to be violated every Sunday by the golf and lawn tennis players, who insist that it is proper to attend church in the morning and go to the links in the afternoon.

ANOTHER BOOZE RULING

UNDER the Volstead act, ruled the District of Columbia court of appeals, federal courts have no jurisdiction over vehicles used to transport liquor unless the driver or owner was arrested at the time of the violation and subsequently convicted. Regardless of all this, the wise man who is not a booze runner will keep liquor out of his car.

HIGH COST OF INSURANCE

STATE FIRE MARSHALL HOLTON says over-insurance is costing Texas policy holders $8,500,000 a year. Now what is the cost of under-insurance? It must run into the millions.

A STORY OF MYSTERY, SUSPENSE AND LOVE
"THE SOB-SISTER"

WHAT HAS HAPPENED

DIANA BROOKS, beautiful daughter of ROGER BROOKS, owner and publisher of the CATAWBA CITY TIMES and a chain of nine other daily newspapers, had been kidnaped and then released. Her father is engaged in a persistent fight against the corrunt administration of CATAWBA CITY and through the medium of the TIMES, redoubles his scathing attacks on politicians of the RING, and the UNDERWORLD.

Later Brooks himself is kidnaped and in five days released. On his return he finds that his newspaper stock is being manipulated and suspects JOHN W. WALDEN, who he determines to fight.

Brooks' closest friend is DONALD KEENE, his literary editor, who is the guardian of TEDDY FARRELL, reporter and SOB SISTER. Teddy loves Don. He believes himself in love with LOLA HANTELL, Diana's cousin.

Diana, in response to a phone call, goes to a roadhouse, where Lola is supposed to be detained with a sprained ankle. She is surprised to find JOHN W. WALDEN JR., an unscrupulous suitor, waiting for her. He confesses that Lola is not at the inn at all. Diana is held in a remote part of the house but succeeds in calling up the TIMES and telling Teddy of her plight.

Thash w'at I am—bold, bad villian."

NOW GO ON

CHAPTER XXXII.

Walden drew nearer, smirking. He tried to put an arm about her waist.

She shrank from his touch and sprang past him into the outer room.

"Now, I think I'll go——"

"Listen here——"

Walden's voice was thick and he swayed slightly as he sprang after her. Diana was trying the door.

"And you've locked it—just like a regular villian in a regular melodrama," she said, with a supreme contempt.

"Correct!"

He grinned mockingly at her and went on, with an attempt at facetiousness. "Thash w'at I am—bold, bad villain. But it isn't complete; th' lady ish slightly tarnished!"

Diana's face was white from rage.

"You're a contemptible pig!" she cried, her eyes almost black."

"Nosh a pig—noshing contemp'ble."

There was an evil leer on Walden's mottled face. He continued:

"Might fool y'r ol' man; might fool lossa people—can't fool John Wald'n. Yuh shtayed'd islan' all night 'lone wish Keene—damn 'im! You think you——"

His insulting language was interrupted suddenly and unexpectedly. Diana's tightly clenched fist shot out. There was a resounding smack as it came in contact with his cheek. He recoiled with a snarl.

"You've got—to—take that—back, John Walden!"

The girl spoke with a choked utterance. Tears—impotent tears—born of inarticulate rage, half blinded her.

He cursed, nursing the cheek she had struck.

"I'll be damned 'f I take it back! You mean t' shay y' deny Keene didn't——"

"You beast! You filthy beast!"

He stopped short at the whip-like declamation and stared at the girl. She went on ,swiftly:

"Of course I shall not discuss my affairs with you. I don't consider you of enough importance. You are low and vile. If Donald Keene had heard what you just said he'd kill you just as he'd kill a poisonous snake!"

He continued to stare at her stupidly. She went on with her denunciation.

"Neither Don nor I would or could be capable of the indecency you've been guilty of here. And you profess to be a gentleman."

"But, Diana, listen."

He appeared to be remorseful. She waited.

"That affair on th' island," he proceeded, having succeeded in finding his voice, "that doesn't make any diff'rence. I've got to have you. If you'll promise to marry me, I'll——I'll let you go. You hit me jush now—but it makes me all more mad 'bout you. C'mon, Di'na—promish!"

She ignored his words and evaded his reaching hands.

"How did you contrive to get me here?" she asked, her voice cold, incisive. "And how did you know about Lola?"

Time. That was her need. Delay until help came.

He guffawed with drunken uproariousness.

"Oh, that was simple. I passed Lola on th' road. She said she was jus' out drivin.' I had t' get you some way where I c'd talk to you for 'while. So I had th' clerk call you. It worked—you fell f'r th' ankle stuff! Ha, ha!" He laughed gleefully and then stopped short to add: "Lola doesn't know a thing 'bout it!"

"May I go now?" asked Diana, calmly.

He hesitated, his face working with passion.

"If you'll promise t' marry me—yes," he said, finally.

"You know very well I'll never make such a promise!"

"Then you'll stay here all night!" he jerked out savagely. "Th' only diff'runce 'tween this'n y'r islan' 'fair 'll be that I'll marry you after you've been properly compromised. That's a score on Keene!"

"Ugh, but you're loathsome! Don Keene didn't have to marry me!"

Diana managed to make the retort, although the altercation had become almost too revolting to endure.

"You stay!, That's final!" croaked Walden. "Make up your mind to that. No one will interrupt us. I'm supposed to be havin' a little private party, 'n if you make a fuss——" He grinned maliciously—"they'll think you're drunk, an' won't pay any attention. In th' mornin' you'll change your mind 'bout marry'n me!"

He had lost in part his thickness of speech in the grim seriousness of his purpose. The girl noted this with varying emotions.

"I won't make any fuss," she replied. "And I won't change my mind."

She spoke in a low tone, her ears on the alert—waiting.

Walden poured another drink and gulped it down greedily. During the momentary hush Diana heard strains of music. Gounot's nightly merriment was getting into swing.

The last drink seemed to aggravate Walden's sense of aggrievement. He sat for some time in dejected attitude, a childishly stubborn look on his face. Then he appeared to grow contrite and for several minutes kept up a monotonous plea for Diana to marry him.

But she had ceased to bother even in looking at him. He was evil, repulsive.

Her silence and composure seemed to be infuriating him. He couldn't understand her strength, her calm. He raged in partially drunken helplessness. But he'd show her. . . .

Finally, muttering a curse, he brought his fist down on the table. Diana glanced indifferently toward him and seeing that he had sprung to his feet, rose also.

He seemed fired with a diabolical purpose. Diana for the first time, felt terrified. Some instinct warned her to prepare for self-defense.

"I'm going to—destroy you," rasped Walden, "tame—you—do you hear? I'm going—to make you grovel. I've got you now where I want you——"

He was shouting hoarsely, his eyes buiging. Maniac's eyes.

Diana crouched against the wall, her lips white. She had never before witnessed such a revelation of degenerate passion. He approached her slowly, his shoulders hunched forward, his hands clawing the air before him. It seemed to the girl that he had turned into a monster. There was no mercy in his eyes.

Why didn't Teddy come? Or Don? Somebody—had it been this that her dream foretold?

"Don! Teddy!" she shrieked, "For the love of God, Walden."

He was tearing at her dress, ripping the soft stuff all the way down. She fought him desperately, now jerking his head back by his hair—kicking him.

"I'm going to destroy you," he snarled, gloatingly, "if it's necessary, I'll kill you. Kill you, do you hear?"

"Haven't you any decency at all?" gasped Diana, staying his hand by a supreme effort from her throat. But it was useless, she knew to appeal to him.

She wondered in the agonized midst of the fight that no one heard them. They knocked over a chair. A lamp went smashing to the floor, the bulb shattered to a thousand pieces.

She was giving up, weakening. Only his hoarse mutterings were clear in her ears—"I'll smash you—off your—pedestal—and my old man is going to—smash your old man—you didn't know that—did you? Walden and Walden are going to send—the—Brooks breed into the gutter—we're going to break you. Break you!"

Diana was growing limp from exhaustion. Walden's contorted face flickered indistinctly before her.

"Dad!" she cried, frantically.

"Your dad is going to be—fixed—so that he—will be harmless—he's held the high hand—long enough—with his clean policy—his publicity of virtue rot. We're closing in—on him—he's trapped!"

Diana felt herself released. Something had distracted Walden's attention. He grew still, listening. There was some sort of commotion on the other side of the door.

"Teddy, is that you—Teddy?" she cried, feebly.

"Yes, Diana! Let us in!"

The voice of the little sob sister came clearly through the partition.

"How the hell did she get here?" gasped Walden, dazedly.

"You'd better—open that door," jerked out Diana.

(To Be Continued.)

Rescue! But can the crazed Walden be beaten without a tragedy? Read the next installment.

BITER IS BITTEN.

SYRACUSE, N. Y.—William Johnson, a colored citizen with an abundant and illicit jag aboard, became involved in an argument with Patrolman Gruenberg, who promptly arrested him. William, emphasizing an objection to the process bit Gruenberg on a finger. Gruenberg, who objects to cannibalism on principle, looked up Johnson's record with extreme care and found him to be a fourth time offender, which, under the New York state Baumes law makes William liable to from 20 years to life. "My turn to bite now," said Gruenberg.

BO BROADWAY ..... By Joseph Van Raalte

NEW YORK, April (EFS)—The New York papers carried a piece the other day by Henry Ford's friend, Arnold Bennett, saying that the 12 greatest novels were written by four Russians whoses names it wouldn't do any good to print here because you couldn't pronounce them, anyway.

Arnold Bennett, having written a couple of good novels himself, the article might have carried some weight if the editor hadn't made the mistake of printing the Worthy Brother's picture. I took my first look at Mr. Bennett and then I laughed out loud, because I realized at once that Dickens, Thrackery, Bertha M. Clay and other Old Masters and Mistresses were safe.

Authors make a mistake in letting editors run their pictures, when you read something particularly striking, powerful or pungent and then get a squint at the lad who wrote it—looking as if he couldn't stay on a merry-go-round without the aid of a clothes pin, it sort 'o shakes your faith in the proportions.

Arnold Bennett looks exactly like a picture I saw one time in an Arizona paper, of a gentleman in a patent medicine ad who invited the general public out to his place on the desert to view the little bungalow he had constructed entirely of gall stones.

* * *

Thomas Gonapulos is a conscientious, hard-working young Broadway kitchen man. His weekly stipend is not large, but Thomas operates on the principle that devotion to duty, a clean conscience and a good appetite will carry anyone to success.

The other day he was handed a large box of silver polish, a bundle of rags, several small brushes and a mountain of silver knives and forks.

"Polish 'em" said the restaurant owner. "Shine 'em up till thy glisten like a chorus girl's nose in the morning."

Gonapulos rolled the sleves of his green-orange - red-and- -blue striped shirt high on his muscular Greek arms and fell to with a will He scoured, scrubbed, rubbed and brushed, not even halting for midday sustenance.

When the 5 o'clock whistles sounded above the roar of the Big Town the industrious Greek was still laboring. The pile of discouraged silver had been reduced to 12 lone knives.

Shoul he go on past the 5 o'clock hint and complete the task or should he remain true to the unwritten law of labor?

"No," said Thomas Gonapulos, "I must cling to the traditions of my station. I must not betray the hundreds of thousands of my brethren in the ranks of the toilers the country over. I must abandon my task!"

Repairing to the washroom he removed all traces of toil from his complexion and started through the restaurant in the general direction of home.

His way led past the table where he had worked all day and his raisin-colored eyes grew sad as he beheld the dozen lonesome silver blades, tarnished and unlovely in proximity to the glittering heap of rejuvinated cutlery.

"What a shame," he murmured. "What a shame! Only 12 knives left to clean out of all that pile. But I know what I shall do!"

Grabbing the dozen knives he crowded them into his overcoat pocket. He would take them home, clean them before he retired, and deposit them bright and glorious on top of the silver pile next morning.

He forgot that there was a hole in the pocket of his Harris tweed coat and was startled and surprised when at 47th street and Broadway a knife slipped through the aperture, clanking to the pavement. Several persons paused to sniker and someone made a cold, unfeeling remark.

Then things became five, six, 11 times worse, as one by one the blades, tumbling one over the other, dropped to the resounding and unsympathetic sidewalk.

A policeman sauntered up and directed a series of insinuating questions, most trying to a soul as sensitive as that of Thomas Gonapulos. He tried to explain the knives represented a detail of conscientious endeavor.

"It's home work," he explained later to the magistrate.

"We call it petty larceny down here," replied the judge.

"THE TRIUMPHANT SPIRIT"

Tuesday

"Love Rises Above Treachery"

SCRIPTURE: Read—John 13: 1-15.

"Behold the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table" (Lk. 22:21). "Then he poureth water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet" (Jn. 13:5). "Love . . . beareth all things" (I. Cor. 13:7).

See—Matthew 5:39, 44; Romans 12:17.

Meditation: Contrast the two spirits—in Judas, selfishness unto treachery; in Jesus, love that loves still when treachery has done its worst. That triumphant love He promises me.

"The brightest glory is not in the stars, but in the struggles of a conquering soul."

Hymn:

Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if Thou be near;
O may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes!

When the soft dews kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
Forever on my Saviour's breast!

Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take,
Till in the ocean of Thy love
We lose ourselves in heave above.
John Keble, 1820.

Prayer: Thanks for responsibilities.

Pray for—the merciful spirit; the hard-hearted; American homes.

Collect—O God, who dwellest in the beauty of holiness, we praise Thee for the beauty of the earth, for loveliness embodied in noble men and for the revelation of Thyself in Jesus Christ the incarnation of Thy conquering love. We are covered with shame at the thought of Thy faithfulness for we have not been ever true to Thee. Keep us from infidelity to Thy friendship. Save us from treachery of soul. From the choice of evil and from the enthronement of the lesser things deliver us. Awaken in us a living sense of Thy spirit. Give us hunger and thirst for righteousness. May our hearts burn with the presence of Christ all by the grace of Christ. Amen.

A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favor of the Lord.—Proverbs, 18:20-22.

SELECT FOOD OF THE RIGHT QUALITY.

One of the most important objects you should have in selecting the foods which are to constitute your diet is to learn to select the foods of the proper quality.

As the builder chooses materials out of which to construct a building, so you should study with the utmost care the materials out of which you are to build your body, not alone for strength and endurance, but for beauty and symmetry.

Although your system has the important power of choosing the elements needed from the mass of conglomerate you burden your digestive organs with, it is not wise to over-work your assimilative functions with so much needless material you are in the habit of using for food. We need solely to supply the essential elements for building and repairing cell structure. The only foods necessary for the body are those containing these vital elements. Probably the most needed substnce is that supplied by the protein foods, such as meats, eggs, cheese, nuts, fish, fowel, etc. Our muscular systems require these important protein foods and the body can not long exist if deprived of them. Next in importance are the foods which embrace the vitimines and organic salts, such as those found in the non-starchy vegetables. Chief among these vegetable are celery, spinach, asparagus,— in short, all of the greens and also the small tender non - starchy squashes, as Summer Squash, Zucchini, Chayotes and Cucumbers. These vegetables provide the vegetable minerals out of which we construct and repair the necleus of the nerve, blood and bone cells.

No living animal cell can long exist without these indispensable elements. Fruit also furnishes a large supply of these vital principles, so needed by our bodies, often starved on so much tasty denatured food so common on the modern table.

Our tables are always loaded with an excess of carbohydrate foods which are the opes least needed for building and repairing body structure. If these foods are used, great care must be exercised in selecting only those which have not been devitalized by too much refinement. For instance, "pure white" flour has practically no vital material left after the roller mill process has removed the cark, coarser portions. The white part of the flour is mostly starch and water and of very little use to the system. The most nourishing part of the wheat was discarded to be fed to cattle until in recent years. But, Health Food Manufacturers use these parts in making breakfast foods but these are usually devitalized in the process of preparing them into tasty "pre-digested" dishes.

If you do not learn to select your foods from the stand-point of proper quality, you cannot expect the grocer or butcher to do this for you.

QUESTION: Middle Aged writes: "I suffer so much from Asthma. I would like to know if there is a certain diet I could take to overcome this trouble.

ANSWER: I have never seen a case of asthma that did not have as it cause, gas on the stomach or in the intestines. If you will fast and diet, and fast and diet, until you have thoroughly cleansed your system of the accumulated toxins which cause gas, you will practically have cured yourself of asthma. Send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope, and I will be glad to send you detailed instructions.

QUSETION: Mrs. Fat and Forty writes: "I have an abnormal craving for sweets: It seems that I must satisfy myself with candy every day. Why is this."

ANSWER: Your craving for sugar and sweets is caused by the same thing which makes some people crave whiskey. The reason is that you are not living on the right diet and your system is not properly nourished, and therefore calls out for stimulation. I would advise a short fast on orange juice and water, followed by a diet free from sugars and starches, but containing an abundance of the non-starchy vegetables in combination with a proper amount of protein.

QUESTION: Catherine K. writes: "What is the cause of premature gray hair?"

ANSWER: Premature gray hair is caused by certain chemical changes which take place in the body, whether due to a sudden emotional disturbance, or too long continuous nerve waste. In either case, a toxic state of the body always exists, and the color is literally bleached out of the hair roots by the poisonous gasses which pass through the pores of the skin.

QUESTION: George J. writes: "Is it trup that night sweats mean tuberculosos? I have been having these night sweats, and have just been told that my trouble may be tuberculosis."

ANSWER: Night sweats are an indication of physical weakness produced by toxins which are present in the body with every disease, including tuberculosis. The prevention lies in getting rid of these poisonous toxins through a proper fasting and dieting regime that will give you a good systmic housecleaning.

QUESTION: Anna May L. writes: "I have several moles on my face. How can I safely remove them?"

ANSWER: Molcs on the face are, as a rule, very easy to remove, and I have removed thousands with the electric needle. This, in the hands of an expert, will leave absolutely no scar.

MERELY A SUGGESTION.

France is trying to do something to help the moving picture art. A good way would be to put a lot of current films into the Louvre and keep them there.

Detroit Has Punch—Speaker Adds Much Power To Sens

Despite the widely prevalent expectation that the Yankees and Athletics will club it out between themselves, there is at least a suspicion among the fans west of the Alleghenies that if the pennant race is to be decided on "punch" Detroit will be reckoned with. The Tigers have a combined outfield wallop that is second to none and all-round attack that will make many a pitcher's afternoon unpleasant.

Then, too, Tris Speaker's big bat will reinforce the clubs of Goose Goslin, Sam Rice, Joe Judge and Bucky Harris in the Senators' fold, while Cleveland generally is placed in the "first five" among the contenders, largely because of the strength of the Indian hurling corps.

Mr. Fan may be interested in the possibilities of the new pilots at the helms of the White Sox, St. Louis Browns and Red Sox, but apparently he doesn't consider them dangerous pennant factors. Although critics foresee Pittsburgh and New York locked in a titanic struggle from the start in the National league, the bleacher "expert" likes the appearance of the Giants, for they, too, are a gang of sluggers. Rogers Hornsby, clouting in the form that brought him championships, furnishes a marked contrast to the second base situation in the Pirate outfit where Hal Rhyne, a comparatively weak sticker, has the call over several rivals.

"There's base hits in that outfield," the fan muses as he runs his eye over the list of Eddie Roush, George Harper, Al Tyson, Heinie Mueller, chief among the Giant gardners. But in rebuttal the Pirates have such clouters as Paul Waner and Hazen Cuyler in the outer works, plus an infield cordon with stars such as Traynor and Wright, who rank well up with the Hornsby-led Giant cast.

The St. Louis fan, undismayed by the fact that only three out of two score experts expect the world's champions to repeat, looks for Frankie Frisch to make him forget Hornsby and support the slugging of Southworth, Bottomley, Lester Bell, and Manager Bob O'Farrell.

The Chicago Cubs have the bleacherite's favorite. Hack Wilson, to head Joe McCarthy's contenders, but Cincinnati, its outfield ace gone, offers a great twirling troupe to catch the fans' fancy. The Braves, Brooklyn and Phillies all have revamped their force, but the fans are waiting "to be shown" before they are convinced any one of the three is a pennant factor.

Pennant Chances

By DAVE BANCROFT
Manager Boston Braves

All I will say is that the Braves are ready to start this season where they left off last fall. Of course, we have improved. And you know we were the best club in the league during the last three weeks in 1926. Lance Richbourg has made the outfield, Herbie Thomas will be a star at second base and several pitching youngsters who were going through their first year in 1926 are ready to deliver. I have two young pitchers in Henry Wertz and Elmer Hearn who will be sensations before the summer has passed. We may lack what other clubs have—fence busters, but I believe we will have what others haven't— fighting to win every day. The four Western clubs and the Giants are regarded as the class of the league but you will find the Braves upsetting more than one opponent next summer.

BANCROFT

Pennant Chances

By WILBERT ROBINSON
Manager Brooklyn Superbas

With a team that promises to be lighter than usual in hitting I have given most of my attention this spring to my pitching staff. If the boys deliver we may be crowding around the first division and disappointing those who have dropped up close to the cellar. I have no particular choice for the pennant. If we don't get there I don't care who lands in front. I look for Dazzy Vance to come back to his form of two years ago, Barnes, Petty, McWeeny, McGraw, Ehrhardt, Doak and the other pitchers have given me plenty of encouragement this spring. If I was as sure of my infield and outfield as I am of pitching I wouldn't hesitate to say we would be a dangerous challenger this season. I expect to be better than a year ago. Is there a manager who starts a fresh season who isn't optimistic over his team? There isn't a single team that stands out this year and it looks to me like an open race.

YOUNG CORBETT DEAD

DENVER, Colo., April 11. (AP)—William H. Physicians said he died of heart failure. He was 47 years old.

"REST OF LEAGUE SHOULD FIND IT TOUGH GOING IN ANY TIGER SERIES," SAYS MORIARTY

"I AM DEPENDING ON PITCHING STAFF TO INSPIRE REST OF TEAM"

By GEORGE MORIARTY

The Detroit Tigers are anxiously awaiting the clang of the bell which will open the American league season of activities. Barring accidents and bad weather, during the intervening space between now and the initial day, the Detroiters will go out to the post in fine physical condition, and excellent spirits, due to a most satisfactory and strenuous training grind.

GEO MORIARTY

The fans throughout the country realize that I am depending of the Bengal pitching staff to come across with the brand of pitching that will inspire the rest of the team to perform consistently at top speed. In this regard, I have seen many encouraging signs in the last six weeks.

Earl Whitehill, a steady winner since his debut in the Johnson circuit, has an excellent opportunity to grasp the crown that Herb Pennock has held as the premier left-hander all these years.

He is an improved pitcher in several respects, and I would not be surprised if he turns in the best season of his career to date.

Ken Holloway is another Tiger hurler who is likely to rise beyond any goal that his previous mound labor has earned for him.

Added heights may also be expected of Sam Gibson, Rip Collins and "Lil" Stoner.

All of these moundsmen have worked with a tireless spirit in order to eradicate flaws that have heretofore made trouble for them.

Wells, Johns and Walkup are the southpaws who are battling to wear the Tiger's livery.

Walkup, like Sherdel, is a clever mix 'em artist. These left-handers have all displayed ability that is needed in a major league campaign, although the real test lies just ahead.

Jess Doyle, Hankins and George Smith have also manipulated cleverly on the rubber, and Owen Carroll, the Holy Cross product, is beginning to dish up the brand of slants that made him a feared performer at Toronto last season.

MARTY McMANUS

The addition of McManus has made the standard of the Detroit infiled higher than it has been for years. With his punch at the bat, and his sparkling play at second base, it will be difficult to overshadow the Tigers' inner rim this summer.

The garden territory will be patrolled by the three slugging kings, Manush, Fothergill and Heilmann. As athletes of gigantic stature they can pull down flies in a most dependable fashion, and every rooter is aware of their power at the plate.

Although Detroit has had little trouble in winning from the Texas league teams, the two games played with Pittsburgh afforded an excellent opportunity to judge the strength of the Tigers.

They played high class ball in both contests, winning one and losing one.

When two major league clubs meet, the players try every possible device and trick to show their supremacy, and that was the case when these two clubs lined up.

RIP COLLINS

I was greatly encouraged after those two battles, yet, I am not willing to make a prophecy about our finish, excepting to state that every American league club should find it tough going in a series with the Tigers this summer. They form a capable, confident and serious combination of performers.

THAT SPORTS WRITER MUST NOT BE SMART

Anyhow, Boys, the Big Lid's Off Today Up in The Large Show

By WARREN BROWN,
Universal Service Staff Correspondent.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Once in every year a sport writer feels the urge to cast about for flowery phrases, double-jointed adjectives, and three dollar nouns to impress upon such readers as he may have, the all important fact that now is the time for all good fans to come to the aid of the home team.

After several false starts, involving the destruction of countless sheets of very valuable copy paper, he generally manages to cram all his ideas in two words, and begins his literary effort to-wit, and as follows:

"Play Ball!"

And, after all, that's all that matters.

The opening day of the 1927 pennant races in the National and American leagues are at hand, much to the surprise, no doubt, of the crepe wearers who felt that the numerous entanglements, near-scandals, and so on of the winter would scratch big league baseball completely off the calendar. And because opening day is here once more, it becomes just as necessary and just as correct as ever to say that the game is in for a bigger and better year.

For the proper presentation of big league baseball in Chicago tomorrow, the Cubs will entertain the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals, minus their gallant leader of a year ago, Rogers Hornsby, but plus the energetic ex-Giant, Frankie Frisch, and that ancient enemy of the Cubs, though former team-mate, Grover Cleveland Alexander, primed for duty on the firing line.

Cards Look Same.

The Cardinals, save for Frisch, will look no different than the team which swept through a hot National league race last year, and blasted the New York Yankees' hopes in the world series.

The Cubs, one of the truly interesting teams a year ago, have shifted a bit, acquiring a new outfielder, supposed to be of base-hit gathering ability, in Earl Webb, and revising the infield to the extent of planting Riggs Stephenson, a hitter, but a doubtful quality as a fielder, at third base.

Charley Root, a lively young pitcher has been selected to oppose the mighty Alex, for the opening game purpose, a last minute switch to Root from "Sheriff" Blake having been reported by the men who gather the straw ballots on the managerial notions of Joe McCarthy.

A made-over ball park, among other things, will greet the 40,000 that will endeavor to do their bit towards getting the season started as a season should be started. So, all things considered, there remains nothing to insure the opener's complete success, but the final score's showing a balance in favor of the Cubs. Otherwise the day will be written off as a total loss.

Elsewhere in the baseball world, the whoop-de-dooing will be as vigorous as it is here in Chicago.

The high run for the day will be reached at New York, where the Yankees and Babe Ruth will greet the Philadelphia Athletics, and their new assortment of old men, Ty Cobb, Eddie Collins, and Zack Wheat. This will be the biggest "shot" of the American league's opener, though the Washington Senators, with Tris Speaker in the lineup, will be no small bargain when they square away with the Boston Braves.

The White Sox, preceding under own power, will be at Cleveland, and Detroit, one of the likeliest of the American league clubs, opens with and at St. Louis.

Contenders Clash.

Two of the supposed contenders in the National league, leap into the fray immediately, when Pittsburgh and Cincinnati hook up in the Ohio city. The Giants, with Hornsby, can find nothing better to do than pick on the Phillies, again doomed to enjoy one of their terrible years, while Brooklyn and Boston will gather in the Massachusetts metropolis to make life miserable as possible for the unfortunates who have to watch the proceedings.

New managers, new players, new rules and regulations—but the same old game of baseball. That is the offering for this really big day of April, 1927.

There has been enough switching about of playing material, and shaking up of the strength of various organizations, to throw both the races into the mystic class.

Pittsburgh, in the National league, goes to the post as a favorite, with trouble coming from the Giants, the Reds, and the Cardinals. Philadelphia, in the American league, is best liked, with opposition from New York, Cleveland and Detroit.

Each and every city that sports an opener today, can be depended upon to put the affair across with the best showmanship possible. All sorts of celebrities and all sorts of members of the rank and file will be out, because it happens to be opening day.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CONCEDES CONNIE MACK

For the first time in probably a decade pennant interest in the American league just prior to the official tilting of the lid is concentrated on Connie Mack and his remarkable collection of talent on the 1927 White Elephants.

CONNIE MACK

Mack might not win the pennant, but with the addition of Ty Cobb, Eddie Collins and Zack Wheat his club has already attracted, and will continue to attract, more attention than any of his seven rivals.

From all surface appearances the Athletics will tie up with the Yankees and the Nationals in the scramble for the flag. Both of these teams are recognized contenders.

With Babe Ruth in perfect condition the Yankees are always dangerous, but there have been signs of decay breaking out in Miller Huggins' ageing pitching staff. Nor is the New York infield considered bomb proof.

The Nationals have held more than their share of ill fortune this spring, especially with the injury to Walter Johnson. However, Bucky Harris has a steady, consistent team, and is rated a certain one, two, three placer.

WALTER JOHNSON

The remainder of the field shows five new managers and five rebuilt teams. George Moriarty, succeeding Cobb with the Tigers, put over the deal with the Browns that brought Marty McManus to Detroit. McManus may turn the Bengals into a pennant contender. Again he may not. At any rate Detroit, with its slugging power, is conceded a first division berth by most critics.

The second division fight will be a give and take affair with the White Sox, Red Sox, Browns and Indians doing their best to keep out of the cellar. Ray Schalk didn't have much to start with at Chicago, but when Johnny Mostil did what he did, Ray had little left.

Bill Carrigan's job is almost hopeless, for a year or so, and Dan Howley's is almost equally as hard with the Browns. Howley corraled Sad Sam Jones to help out his pitching staff and persuaded Phil Ball to pay $75,000 for Fred Schulte.

DAN HOWLEY

The Indians are going to feel the loss of Tris Speaker, as Jack McCallister, the new pilot, has failed to find a worthy successor to the Gray Eagle. It is a born optimist who sees future greatness for this year's addition of the Indians.

By DANIEL P. HOWLEY
Manager St. Louis Browns

Many promises made in April go astray by October. The Browns of last year finished ahead of only one team in the league. One promise we have made in April and expect to make good on is that we'll be in the front of more than one rival next fall. I have received excellent support from the players, especially George Sisler, whom I succeeded, and I cannot say too many kind things about Sisler. He has helped me at every opportunity. Also Bill Killefer, my assistant. We have been set back a bit at the start owing to the injury to Bill Mullen, my regular third baseman, and the failure of Oscar Melillo to recuperate sufficiently to be ready for the opening of the season, but we will plug along with our heads up. The pitching will be the biggest improvement with the club. I am making this statement because the pitchers have said so. They are the ones who deliver, you know. This is my first year as a big league manager, and I prefer to have the results and not my personal prophecy to show the fans what we are going to do.

By STUFFY McINNIS
Manager Philadelphia Nationals

The only club in the league that interests me is the Phillies. I would not attempt to pick the winner in the race. I may stand alone in my opinion about my ball club but see if the Phillies do not surprise those who have been calling us a joke ball club this spring. The pitching will be better, much better and in my new prospects I believe I have found a phenom in Southpaw Edward Taber. With Carlson, Dean, Ferguson, Decatur, Ulrich, Willoughby, Baecht, Mitchell and Privett I have a staff that will bother many of our rivals. Frankie Thompson is going to steady the infield. Where is there a better catcher than Jimmy Wilson? And I have a good punch in the outfield. Don't get the impression the Phillies are going no place in particular this season. We'll give the boys a battle and may not be the league's tail-ender.

By BOB O'FARRELL
Manager St. Louis Cardinals

My club may not be fancied by many of the experts this spring as the pennant winner, but having been through this mill I know ball games are decided on the field by the players. In spite of what has been rumored I can guarantee perfect harmony prevails on the team. We are not going to attempt to win the National league pennant on our reputation as world champions. The past has been forgotten and we are going out to win this one before us. I feel I have a big surprise in store for the fans this season—Alexander. Watch Grover Alexander pitch next summer. I haven't a one-man staff either, for I expect Bill Sherdel, Jesse Haines, Jimmy Ring, Vic Keen and all of the other pitchers to do their share of the work. I cannot give too much praise to Frankie Frisch. He fits into our combination perfectly. The fans know what Thevenow, Les Bell, Douthit, Southworth, Bottomley and the other boys can do. I do not fear the Giants. I expect the strongest competition from the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Track Meet Billed Here April 21-23

There has been some confusion on the dates of the district track meet at Wichita Falls. Many had the meet carded for April 15 and 16, but Coach Bud McCallum announced Monday night that the meet would not be held until April 21-23.

At the present time the Electra Tigers are favored as winners of the track, but the Coyotes have been working hard for the past few days to give the Tigrs their greatest fight.

Psychology In Golf

"It's no use for me to comment on my game," smiles Hagen. "You know my game as well as I know it myself.

"When I meet a golfer of my own temperament, that guy is the hardest fellow in the wide world for me to slip under. Sometimes I even stop to think if he's getting "at" me or whether he is just acting.

"At that point I slam out all I have and if it goes, so does he, and if it doesn't, he shouldn't think for a minute it will affect me."

There is one thing that Hagen knows better than his golf, and that is its psychological effect on his opponent.

Hagen hasn't lost more than four matches in the last five years.

"One can't always be on his game. Under those conditions I always try to play at 75, and after a round or two the breaks will take me on the way up. There is no reason why a golfer should go worse than 75 if he is just staying to ordinary golf.

"If a fellow finds he isn't going any better at the end of a third round, then is the time for him to shoot the works. That is the psychology of my game, and the only reason why I am known as a great finisher.

"Then again, they don't finish. But under the conditions I give all I have and want to give more. That is where the breaks come into golf."

He was a demon on the sacks,
Say, he could steal them all.
He learned this trick in running
For the dinner call.

Both Made Rapid Climb

Tunney had a remarkable year during 1925. He knocked out two heavyweights who had never been on the floor before.

He stopped Martley Madden in four rounds and knocked out the crafty Tommy Gibbons in 14 rounds.

Gibbons had gone the 15-round route against Champion Dempsey, and had beat every other heavyweight of note that he met.

The Gibbons knockout was a real fistic surprise, as Tommy was picked to stow Gene away.

In knocking out the tough Bartley Madden Tunney ended the career of the toughest heavyweight of the last decade. Harry Wills, the deceased Bill Brannon, Fred Fulton, Gibbons, Greb and other luminaries of the fistic world, found Bartley a stubborn proposition.

Tunney was the first man to ever floor Madden, and the knockout Gene scored was the tip that Tunney was about ready for the title.

Gene had to beat Stribling to earn the Dempsey go. That may sound funny today.

Oh, boy, he had a nasty curve,
The batters all swung late
In fact it was so twisty,
He couldn't cut the plate.

Managing Is Half the Game

Managing a ball team or a fighter, or a billiard star, or an opera singer, or anything, depends on whether or not the one in question understands the one concerned.

There are many beloved managers in baseball and there are not. The difference between understanding your men and not getting along with them is the difference between winning ball games, getting a fighter to do the best he can, or an opera singer to reach high "C."

If she or he or the whole team has any sort of a crossing between the business of the situation, which is co-operation, then they or the whole gang, including the fan, suffer.

Baseball realizes this to a finer degree than any other sport, professionally, and the situation is obvious when the road gets bumpy.

Moriarty and Schalk, in this modern day of baseball, are growing examples of the subject, and before the season is over the fan will be able to profit as well as the club.

By BILL CARRIGAN
Manager Boston Red Sox

There isn't much for a fellow who is coming back to the game after an absence of more than 10 years to say. I did not win the pennant for the Red Sox with interviews in the spring and I am not going to do a lot of talking this year. We have some mighty fine young talent on this ball club and I am going to do the best that is possible in improving the team for Boston. They say the game has changed since I was in it. Shucks — baseball never changes. We did not mention a word about the rule at the training camp all spring. We trained to get on edge and give the best we have. It will require a bit of time to get the club back on its feet but with what I have I consider I have a pretty fair start. I do not care to form an opinion about the probable winner. Four or five clubs seem to be bunched for first place but we will go out to beat them as often as possible.

By JOHN J. M'GRAW
Manager New York Giants

A loser is not tolerated in New York and when my Giants cracked last season and fell to the second division I was forced to make rapid changes. I am satisfied with my 1927 model and although only Shortstop Jackson and Third Baseman Lindstrom remain of my regulars of a year ago, I am confident I have pieced together a great ball club. I'm not underestimating the strength of the four clubs in the west, but I fail to see where they are superior to the Giants. I will have another great hitting club and if the pitchers hold up I do not see where they can hold back the Giants. I'd like to have another Mathewson on my staff—good, old Matty. How we miss him. I did not have a pitcher to win 20 games for me last season. If I get one to go that high this year you'll see the Giants back on top. I expect to see a thrilling race and I doubt whether it will be decided until the last week.

MOOS WINS BERTH

SAN ANTONIO, April 11. (AP)—Albert (Big) Moos, New Braunfels rookie, who has made an .1000 per cent record as a pinch hitter this season, has won a regular place on the Bears' roster, club officials said today. Yesterday Moos came to bat for the sixth time as a pinch hitter this spring and got his sixth hit. Two of his pinch hit and one a double and yesterday he rounded all of the bases when an outfielder hurled his single. The hit gave San Antonio a 13 to 0 victory over Omaha, the third victory of the series for the Bears.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE WILL NOT BE RUN-AWAY

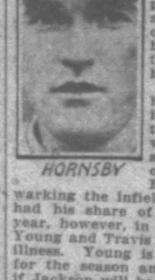
With the capitulation of Eddie Roush and Flint Rhem to new high-powered contracts, the National league race has not taken on the expected appearance of a free-for-all dash for pennant honors with only three clubs of the field obviously removed from any serious consideration.

EDDIE ROUSH

Dave Bancroft with his Braves, Stuffy McInnis with his Phils and the rotund Wilber Robinson with his Dodgers are admittedly second division entries. They are outclassed and going anywhere simply are not going anywhere this year.

But picking a winner from the four western clubs and the Giants is an entirely different proposition. It is possible the Cardinals may repeat, but it is equally as logical to look for the Giants, Reds, Pirates or even the Cubs in first place next October.

The Hornsby deal may or may not have strengthened the world champion Cardinals, Bob O'Farrell has brought out fine results with the club during the opening days of his managerial career in the south. Frisch has demonstrated he is capable of replacing Hornsby, and the addition of Frank Snyder has strengthened the Cardinals behind the bat.



HORNSBY

The Giants have likewise been brought up to war strength with Roush bolstering up the outfield and Hornsby bulwarking the infield. McGraw has had his share of ill fortune this year, however, in the loss of Ross Young and Travis Jackson through illness. Young is definitely out for the season and it is doubtful if Jackson will be able to play before June. The Pirates, with perfect harmony existing under Donie Bush, are certain to be a pennant threat during the entire season.

If the pitching staff holds up, and there is no reason to believe that it will not, the Bucs are set. Cincinnati is rated by many critics as the best club in the league. Surely the Reds' pitching is without a rival in the circuit. The punch is there and Kelly's presence will somewhat compensate for the loss of Roush.

GEO. KELLY

The Cubs surprised them all last year and Joe McCarthy insists he has a better ball club than in 1926. There are five teams to be watched, and three teams to be dismissed with a lift of the eyebrows. It should be a great race.

By GEORGE MORIARTY
Manager Detroit Tigers

Detroit has not won a pennant since 1909, but I believe this is the year to break the streak. Everything looks mighty encouraging for us. It is a great ball club, and if we fail to win and they want to blame me I will accept the criticism gracefully. Show me a better outfield in baseball than Fothergill, Manush and Heilmann. The infield has been balanced through the addition of Marty McManus. He has been the life of the ball club. Every pitcher on the club has promised me to pitch his arm off to win a ball game. We have a great catcher in Mervin Shea, from the Coast league, to help the others. I know no manager ever received better support from his players than I have this spring. I have not paid much attention to the Yankees, Indians, Athletics, Senators, White Sox, Browns and Red Sox this spring, as I have been giving all of my time to my ball club. We will take them as they come this season, and promise to win more games than we lose.

WACO BLANKS LINKS

WACO, April 11. (AP)—Waco's Cubs blanked Lincoln of the Western league, 5 to 0. Ace Elliott started for the Cubs, but was relieved by Henson by the pinch hitter route in the sixth. Lynch, starting pitcher of the Links, was relieved by Nelson in the fifth. There was not an extra base hit made by the Links.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 1927 BASEBALL SEASON

Eight new managers will be introduced. In the American league, George Morarity at Detroit, Ray Schalk at Chicago, Jack McCallister at Cleveland, Dan Howley at St. Louis, and Bill Carrigan at Boston, and in the National league, Bob O'Farrell at St. Louis, Donie Bush at Pittsburgh, and Stuffy McInnis at Philadelphia are the new leaders.

* * *

Five of baseball's greatest stars have been demoted to the ranks of the players. Tris Speaker moved from Cleveland to Washington, Ty Cobb from Detroit to Philadelphia, Eddie Collins from Chicago to Philadelphia, George Sisler remained at St. Louis and Rogers Hornsby shifted from St. Louis to New York.

* * *

The Browns in St. Louis now form the only club that has not won a pennant. The Cardinals, in Missouri's metropolis, broke the chain of 38 successive years without a winner with its thrilling triumph in 1926.

* * *

Babe Ruth will be paid at the rate of $454 for each game through his record salary of $70,000 for the 1927 season.

* * *

The American league will start a season for the first time without an official president. "B. B. Johnson has been given "a leave of absence." Vice-President Frank Navin, owner of the Detroit club, is "acting president" while Secretary William Harridge, at the Chicago offices, is filling the duties of the position.

* * *

Walter Johnson will not pitch the opening game for the Washington Senators for the first time in 14 years. He suffered a fractured ankle bone in training and his start will be delayed until about May 15.

* * *

When Ty Cobb faces the pitcher it will be his 10,987th time at bat, officially.

* * *

Who will be the most valuable player this season? The previous winners are—American league: Sisler, 1922; Ruth, 1923; Johnson, 1924; Peckinpaugh, 1925; George Burns, 1926. National league: Vance, 1924; Hornsby, 1925; O'Farrell, 1926.

* * *

Since the formation of two major leagues the western clubs have had a majority of the leading batters, gaining the honor 22 times in the last 27 years in the National league and 23 times in the American league.

* * *

Boston has not had a champion batter since Hugh Duffy averaged .438 in 1894.

* * *

Experts who have followed the clubs in training expect the closest races in years. They say it is easier to pick the tail-enders than the winners.

* * *

The Red Sox and Phillies are dumped in the cellar in the two leagues by the majority.

* * *

As for the winners, well they say follow the Cardinals, Pirates, Giants and Reds in the National league, with the Yankees, Athletics, Tigers, Indians and Senators grouped in the top flight in the American league.

* * *

While scandal was flowing during the cold winter days baseball ensusiasm was waning, but judging by the interest during the last month a record will be created for attendance figures on opening day with favorable weather.

Draw on your imagination, look at that top line and guess just what those hieroglyphics indicate when you are told that is a type picture of lovely emotion felt by this honest, if nothing else, sports scrivener upon realizing that the baseball season has swung around the circle and landed in the middle of us again.

Words don't express it, at least, words the big boss will allow printed in this col. Majors bust into action this p. m. The Texas gets under way Wednesday.

And every poor, dumb, sports writer in the land (dumb, or he wouldn't be a sports writer) must crack down and go to work again.

JUST A SLAVE.

More than six months has life been rosy, has life been gay. But the inevitable has arrived. No more loafing, no more play, no more pleasure. Just WORK, plain old WORK, hard, hard labor, the rest of the way. Swamped with box scores every night. Run ragged by composing room foremens. Worried to a frazzle by managing editors yapping over dead-lines. Worn to a shadow by the battle for sufficient space in which to run the durn things (the boxes.) Aged half nuts by compilation of baseball statistics. Warted by foolish fans asking still more foolish questions. Yokels yelping over the telephones for baseball scores, asking about some village nine over in Colorado, or yurping for results of games played, migosh knows where, and even before they're played. Clashes with the funny grandstand managers. Blamed more than the umpires if the home club isn't going well. Brain fatigue from trying day after day to figure new angles to the same old story, new leads and new alibis.

Yus, yus, it's the great national pastime for most of you, but the great national punk-time for me.

Aw, shut up!

DIDN'T MEAN IT.

Just kidding you along. Goofy like the rest of you. Been waiting all winter impatiently and almost red-eyed for the opener. But the above could be labelled the expression of many a sports writer when maybe the wiff bowled him over at the breakfast table, or some burly ball player messed up a party for him, or the big boss put him in the dumps by refusing the weekly request for elevation out of the starvation class, or maybe just feeling down in the mouth on a blue Monday like the usual blue Monday is supposed to be and like yesterday is supposed to was.

* * *

NOW, WOULD IT?

But if a sports writer, we yurbled IF—a sports writer ever does forget for a moment what a soft existence he leads, a g-o-o-d sports writer, you know, and starts getting sore on the job why, with just a little cogitation he can drum up something like the wail of above and really start believing that he is a quite muchly maligned person. And that, you can judge for yourself, wouldn't be very hard to do.

Wachtel or Burns Open for Panthers

FORT WORTH, April 11. (AP)—Red Clemmons, young first baseman, has returned to the Monroe club of the Cotton States league, it was announced by officials of the Fort Worth club today. Clemmons showed promise in workouts with the Cats this spring, but needed more seasoning.

Paul Wachtel or Dennis Burns will get the call for the opening game of the season against Dallas at Dallas Wednesday, it was learned today. The entire corps of Panther hurlers are in excellent condition, however, and any member of it might be expected with reason to pitch good ball if called upon.

The cats worked out today, limbering up for the first fracas. They're ready to go. The fans, the management, the players themselves, admit it. Only another day's polishing remains, and this probably will be occupied with light exercises.

AGGIES BEAT FROGS

FORT WORTH, April 11. (AP)—Getting away to a three-run lead in the first inning, the Texas Aggies defeated the Texas Christian university Horned Frogs, 5 to 2, splitting the two-game series. The Frogs won Saturday, 5 to 1.

Wyman of the Aggies allowed but four hits while he was striking out six men. He gave only one base on balls. Brewster, who went most of the route for the Frogs fanned three. The score:

A. & M.	5 5 2
T. C. U.	2 4 4

Wyman and Schuennemann; J. Williams, Brewster and H. Taylor.

STEERS DRUB OWLS

AUSTIN, April 11. At Austin:

Texas	5 6 1

Spudders Clout 21 Safeties; Mann and Lamb Bring Home Bacon

Wichita Falls wound up exhibition play Monday at Spudder park, nosing out Des Moines of the Western league by an 11-10 score in 12 innings. It was a heavy-hitting melee with the Spudders clouting Davenport, Rhodes and Pallas for 21 safeties.

Mann's double paired with Lamb's infield hit and Knothe's jungle heave to first gave Wichita Falls the victory in the twelfth.

Pitchers' lives didn't amount to much before the big bludgeon attacks launched by Collins, Griffin and Haworth of the Demons and the first seven wallopers in the Spud batting order.

Tom Jenkins crowded to the fore, wielding the hickory at a smashing gait that produced five base smacks in six attempts. The Spudder port gardener connected for a brace of doubles and three triples. Kind of like old times last summer for the Texas league's leading wrecker.

LaFayette, Mann and Fitzgerald each added three hits to the Spudder crop.

Four in First.

Davenport was nicked for four runs at the start and was in hot water all the way. LaFayette walked and scored when Mann doubled to deep center. Fitzgerald dropped a single in right sending Mann to third. Lamb filled to Donohue and Mann scored after the catch. Jenkins singled past short and Fitzgerald stopped at second. Turgeon lofted to Collins. Swenson slashed a long double to right center scoring Fitzgerald and Tobin struck out.

An infield hit by Griffin, an infield out, a hit batsman and a long double by Haworth gave Des Moines two runs in the second inning.

The Spudders started right where they left off in the first and shoved over three more runs. Roberts singled to center. LaFayette doubled to center sending Roberts to third. Mann lined out to Collins and Roberts scored after the catch. Fitzgerald filed to Griffin and LaFayette went to third after the catch. Lamb doubled to left scoring LaFayette. Jenkins doubled to deep center scoring Lamb. Turgeon popped to second.

After two men were out in the third inning, Collins singled to center and Pug Griffin poled a long home run over the left field wall.

Again in the fourth the Spudders scored a pair of runs. Fitzgerald opened with a single to center. Lamb sacrificed him up a notch. Jenkins lined a double to right, scoring Fitzgerald. Turgeon singled to right, scoring Jenkins, but was thrown out trying to make his hit a double. Swenson doubled to right, but Tobin grounded out.

A walk, a single by Brausen and Collin's first home run over the left field wall gave Des Moines three more in the fifth. It was in this inning that Tobin's hand was injured.

Demons Lead in Seventh.

Des Moines went into the lead in the seventh inning and sent Jim Roberts to the showers. Collins started the fireworks with his second home run over the left field wall. Griffin took three healthy swings at the ball and walked away. Donohue beat out an infield hit to short. Donohue went to second on a wild pitch. Knothe walked. Van Camp hit one in front of the plate that took a high hop over Roberts and fell behind him for a base hit, filling the bases. Homer Haworth smashed a double to right field scoring Donohue and Knothe. Williams then pulled Roberts and sent little Herb Cobb to the firing line. Rhodes went out swinging. LaFayette and Cobb retired Gislason. A walk to Lapan, a sacrifice bunt by Cobb, and a scorching single to right by LaFayette again tied the count in the seventh.

The two teams battled along the rest of the way at a fast clip until the last inning when the Spudders shoved over the winning marker.

LaFayette started the twelfth by grounding out to first. Mann then slammed a two-base knock down the third base line. Fitzgerald popped to second. Lamb then scored him with a hard smash to short that he beat out. The throw was low and Mann scored the last run with ease.

They're Off Today

Finished with the exhibition stuff and in comparatively good shape, Manager Carl Williams and his Spudders, 21 in number, check out at 11:55 Tuesday morning for Shreveport where Wednesday. Wichita Falls opens the season with Art Phelan's Sports in the first of a four-game series.

Pete Lapan is booked for the bulk of the catching with Frank Tobin out of it for a week or 10 days due to a bum digit, injury caught in yesterday's game. Elmer Francis, recruit catcher, will be carried along to jump into the breach should Lapan get hurt.

George Payne is Williams' starting box selection Wednesday.

Williams leaves four players behind. They are Ross, Buvid, Bullock and Devinney.

Players making the trip are LaFayette, Mann, Fitzgerald, Lamb, Jenkins, Turgeon, Swenson, Benton, Tobin, Lapan, Payne, Francis, Fussell, Roberts, Steengrafe, Kiefer, Estell, Cobb, Hodge, White and Williams.

Plumbers Line Up For Baseball Play

The Scotland Plumbing company baseball enthusiasts met Monday night at the plumbing shop and organized a baseball team. Bert Dimock was made the manager of the team and will try to seek admission to the Twilight league this year if they can get another team to enter with them.

The team is very anxious to get any practice games and will meet any or all teams. Any manager that wants a game can get in touch with Jack Kneisel or Bert Dimock at the Scotland Plumbing company. The telephone number there is 8343.

JEEMS READY

HOUSTON, April 11. (AP)—Jim Galloway, manager and hard-clouting first sacker of the Beaumont Exporters, Monday wired President Fred Ankenman the Exporter starting lineup for Wednesday's opening Texas league game. His pitching selection, however, was indefinite. Ross, Hoshauser, Pillette, J. Robertson or Phillips, he said, will start.

Manager Joe Mathis does not believe Ernie Orsatti will be able to play in Wednesday's opening game, due to a wrenched ankle.

Mathis has not said, but sport writers say it is rather safe to predict that Frankhouse or Penner will pitch the opening game for the Buffs.

Callow's Dope Correct, At Last

By ALAN J. GOULD
The Associated Press Sports Editor

"Rusty" Callow, the Gilmour Dobie of rowing, finally has had his pessimistic expectations fulfilled.

Like the gaunt Cornell football coach, Callow has had a consistent habit of anticipating disasters that seldom overtook his University of Washington crews.

Probably, also a la Dobie, Callow figured that pessimism had a psychological effect on his pupils. At any rate they had been winning everywhere with such regularity, particularly against California, that the critics didn't take "Rusty" seriously when he predicted defeat for his charges by the Golden Bears.

Apparently it took a case of smallpox for one of his veterans and some other upsetting factors to do it, but the net result was that a vastly improved California varsity eight trimmed the huskies for the first time since 1921 and achieved a rowing upset whose echos have reverbrated from coast to coast.

In getting a price of $100 a share for his 1167 shares of Cardinal stock, more than twice as much as he paid for it two years ago, Rogers Hornsby qualifies as the David Harum of the season, observers declare in giving him credit for pulling the shrewdest bargain of all in the somewhat frenzied financial preliminaries to the 1927 baseball campaign.

Where Babe Ruth scaled his salary demands from $100,000 to $70,000 per annum and most of the holdouts were forced to do the same, Rogers "compromised" for only $5 a share or $5835 less than the price he asked originally.

Students of football and basketball will have difficulty recognizing their own children when the 1927-28 models of these games are put before them next season. Extraction of the dribble from basketball is regarded as an even more radical step than the work of the football rule makers in setting back the goal posts, opening up the use of the lateral pass and preventing touchdowns from fumbled punts.

Pennant Chances

By JOE M'CARTHY
Manager Chicago Cubs.

MC CARTHY

We fooled everybody a year ago and don't be surprised if we do it again this season. There is nothing mysterious about organizing a successful ball club. All units must work together perfectly. Individual stars, lacking team spirit will not do anybody any good. When I became manager of the Cubs I saw I had to rebuild the club and instill confidence. I am not prepared to talk about the finish next fall. It is a long journey but the fans can rest assured the Cubs will be a hustling ball club. I don't think there is a younger pitching staff in the league than mine. I have good hitters in the outfield, the fastest and best infield in the league and two clever catchers. What more does a fellow want? I am satisfied and ready for the bell to ring on opening day.

Pennant Chances

By DONIE BUSH
Manager Pittsburgh Pirates.

BUSH

I will take my chances and match them with any ball club in the National league this season. This is a serious profession and my players by now know I will not tolerate any romping or fooling. The first day we gathered in camp the players agreed with me that we were going out to win the pennant. I told them if there were any who did not feel that way they could get their release. Why shouldn't we win? Show me a better pitching staff. The outfield ranks with the best. Look at the infield and I am more than satisfied with my catching staff. Don't compare this team with the one of last season. A winning spirit prevails and there will be no friction on our bench next summer.

Milwaukee Tea Shops Win Bowling Congress Top Coin

PEORIA, Ill., April 11. (AP)—Swirling pins crashed into the pits for the last count in the American Bowling Congress tournament tonight which brought more than 9,000 bowlers here during the last six weeks to test their skill for cash prizes totaling $67,480.

First prize of $1,000 in the five-men team event went to the Tea Shops of Milwaukee, who piled up a score of 3,195. The Witter Razz of St. Louis took second prize of $925 with a total score of 3,082. The Koors of Dayton, Ohio, took third prize $865 with a score of 3,061 and the St. Francis Hotel quintet of St. Paul took fourth place, which paid $810, with 3,037. Fifth place with a prize of $760 went to Waukesha Dairy squad of Milwaukee, the dairy players counting 3,029 pins.

In all there were 290 cash prizes in the five-men team division, the amount dropping down from $1,000 to $20 for last place.

Next year the tournament will be held in Kansas City, Mo., from March 3 to April 2.

Pennant Chances

By JACK HENDRICKS
Manager Cincinnati Reds

HENDRICKS

The biggest improvement with the Reds this season will be in the pitching strength. It will be recalled we lost out by a whisker last season when several regulars became injured. With Art Nehf back in shape, Pete Donohue, Eppa Rixey, Carl Mays, Fred Lucas, Roy Meeker and Ray Kolp I thing I have the strongest staff in the league. The outfield will see a new star in the Christensen and league in Walter played regularly in center field between Bressler and Walker I expect him to develop into a phenom. The race should be close. It can't be much more interesting than the one of a year ago. The Cardinals have a good ball club. The Pirates and Giants appear to have improved and the Cubs always make it interesting.

YAQUI JOE BEGINS TO LOOM AS FAVORITE IN GRIP BATTLE

They say it'll be goodbye for your bouncing boy baby, Charley Grip, Wednesday night when he clashes with Yaqui Joe again.

For the Sonora Indian is coming back stronger than ever, if you want to take the word of several of his most ardent admirers who have been following the Indian youth in his travels over the south and Mexico the past couple of months since he absented himself from Wichita Falls.

Joe has improved greatly, his followers say, has beat a number of men who rank with Grip in effectiveness and wrestling ability, has developed still more speed and a by far more uncanny ring generalship than the comparatively smart and wily Redskin used to display here in his many matches of the past.

Grip, a much wiser man after the setbacks registered on him by Hallas and Reynolds, has buckled down to training and declares he will be in tiptop condition for the heartiest reception he ever has given his swarthy rival.

More than a little animosity exists between the Indian and Grip. Joe is sore because of alleged brutal treatment given him by Grip in their other two matches. Grip declares that he almost still can feel where Yaqui vollated wrestling rules and clouted him on the chin and over the heart with his clinched fists.

They expect a merry battle. It's the second bout of a double card tomorrow night in the Palace theater.

ONLY FAIR.

An astronomer has discovered a new comet for the second time. If he discovers it a third time it ought to become his property.

You'd think P.A. was on wheels!

I MEAN the way it rolls. You don't need long practice to roll a first-class cigarette with Prince Albert. You see, P.A. is crimp-cut . . . the ideal form for home-made cigarettes. It stays put in the paper. Doesn't spill all around. Ask any roll-your-owner!

So much for the convenience of Prince Albert. The big thing, after all, is the taste. The fragrance of P.A. as you roll it makes your mouth fairly water for a cigarette made with this wonderful tobacco. A fragrance that is refreshing as the breath of spring.

You light up and agree instantly that the aroma did not "over-advertise." From the first pull to the last, it is cool as a sea-breeze. Sweet as a ripe peach. Mild as a moonbeam . . . mild, yet with that full, rich tobacco body which experienced smokers demand.

Get some Prince Albert and get rolling. That's my tip. And if you want to get the biggest thrill you ever got out of a jimmy-pipe, pack it with this same wonderful tobacco. Men who were pipe-shy for years have found P. A. the answer to every pipe-problem.

P. A. is sold everywhere. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

CONCHO COUNTY JOINS FOLD OF WEST TEXAS OIL PRODUCERS

OIL PROMISED IS 43 GRAVITY

Bailing Fails to Reduce Oil In Hartgrove No. 1

Special to The Record News.

SAN ANGELO, April 11.—While the striking of oil of 43 gravity in Arkansas Fuel Oil company's S. A. Hartgrove in Concho county in quantity promising production was outstanding in West Texas development late in the week, other areas showed activity.

Releasing of a number of wells in Upton county that had been pinched was made possible by completion of the 8-inch looping of the Humble's 6-inch line from McCamey to the Church-Fields area, a distance of 28 miles. Production in seven West Texas counties, no including Reagan, gained 3,833 barrels a day totaling 62,177 barrels, due to increases in Pecos, Howard and Upton counties.

Humble announced the creation of a new division at McCamey, where work has been started on an office building and 12 residences for employes.

Bailing failed to exhaust the oil in Arkansas Fuel Oil company's No. 1 Hartgrove in Concho county, 30 miles southeast of San Angelo, in tight sand, after pay struck at 2445 feet had been penetrated 11 feet. Tools were lost last Saturday, but upon their recovery it was intended to go deeper, although oil men believed shooting would develop a commercial producer.

The pay and the area is compared to the famous Fry field in Brown county, and the gravity of the oil is the same. Gas was reported to be nominal, but in other Concho county tests it has been heavy, notably in the Exploration Company's No. 1 Hartgrove 4 1-2 miles to the northwest.

That test now is fishing for casing at 1700 feet. Six tests are drilling in the county besides the Arkansas No. 1 Hartgrove, which is in section 49, block 70, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. survey. Many of the major companies hold protection acreage around more than one of these wildcats and a large number of independents are interested in leases and royalties. An extensive play in Concho county began a year ago.

News of The Fields

WICHTEX, WOODWARD

Wichtex Oil company is drilling at 2975 feet in its No. 1 Woodward, located in section 54, block 15, H. & T. C. survey of Wilbarger county. This well, if drilled to contract depth, will be one of the deepest in Wilbarger county. It was abandoned the past summer as a dry hole but deepening was started recently.

JACKSON, MUNGER

Jackson Drilling company tested a sand at 1787 to 1808 feet in its No. 1 Munger, located in block 121, W. H. Spillers survey, abstract 258, Wichita county. The sand showed some oil but not enough for a commercial well, according to reports. The well is located southeast and across the Big Wichita river from the Hammond et al No. Bradley.

BRIDWELL, WAGGONER

Bridwell and Mayfield have abandoned as a dry hole their No. 4 J. & J. Waggoner, located in block 12, Hezekiah George survey, Wichita county. The test failed to pay off in any of the several sands of that area and was plugged at a depth below 1900 feet.

SIMMS, TURBEVILLE

The Simms Oil company No. 20 J. H. Turbeville in block 172, Robert Carson survey, Archer county, is swabbing at the rate of 125 barrels daily in sand at 1477-1500 feet. The sand is to be drilled deeper and an increase in production is expected.

HUMBLE, GOODE

Humble Oil and Refining company is spudding in its No. 1 Goode an important wildcat test in south Knox county and in section H. & T. B. survey.

PANHANDLE, MATTHEWS

The Panhandle Refining company topped the sand at 721 feet in its No. 7 Matthews in the A. Rohus survey, northeast Young county, and the well filled 125 feet with oil with the pay scratched delicately. Pipe is being run to complete the operation.

SHAPPELL, BARTON-DERDEN

Shappell Oil company has spudded in its No. 1 Barton and Derden, located in block 7, McKinney and Williams survey, and four miles west of Mankins, North Archer county.

KRUGER ET AL, TURBEVILLE

Kruger and Staley and Wynne at their No. 2 J. H. Turbeville, located in the northeast corner of block 146, Robert Carson survey, Archer county, and on the east edge of "Little Seminole" in blocks 124 and 142, is swabbing better than 250 barrels per day from sand at 1454-80 feet.

Texas Fourth In Mineral Yield

Oklahoma Trails Pennsylvania in Values

Texas, a tremendous oil producing state, ranked fourth in 1925 in mineral production, a compilation by the bureau of mines just released shows. Value of Texas production during that year was $351,212,000, the report says.

Oklahoma was the second state with a total production valued at $501,767,000 and was led by Pennsylvania alone which showed a total output worth $867,196,000.

The report shows the overwhelming preponderance of coal and oil as factors in the nation's mineral production. It emphasizes a generally unrealized fact that certain eastern states contribute tremendously to the nation's output.

Oklahoma, with petroleum, zinc and natural gas as its principal mineral products, produce $501,196,000 worth of material; Texas, with sulphur supplanting zinc, produced $351,212,000. Louisiana had $60,504,000 worth of the same products and New Mexico $25,549,000 in copper, coal, petroleum and zinc.

SHIPMENTS OFF

AMARILLO, April 11.—With the three major lines soon to start to accepting crude oil for movement to the markets of the world, the tendency to ship oil out of the Panhandle field by tank cars is starting to lessening.

The past week the 121,000 barrels a day of production was divided as follows: Tank shipments of 44,000 barrels and to storage 77,000 barrels.

This week the ratio to storage is expected to reach 90,000 barrels a day, as several firms have stopped shipping by tank cars.

STORY OF OIL

"The Story of Petroleum" is visualized in a new motion picture film being made for the bureau of mines. The $25,000 appropriation made by the American Petroleum Institute is being used in making the picture.

It is planned to illustrate in detail the production, transportation, refining and marketing of petroleum states 'a bulletin released by the bureau. Several months are expected to be consumed in coming the film.

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY

Duke and Langford have abandoned as a failure their No. 1 Willard, in the center of the southwest of section 97, black 22, of H. & G. N. survey in Collingsworth county. It is around seven miles south of Ramsdell, in southwestern Wheeler county.

NORTHWEST DALLAM

Wood & Wood-Smith & Downey in No. 1 Capital reservation, in section 19, block 17, of C. S. S. survey, at Buffalo Springs, in northwestern Dallam county, the most northwesterly test in the Texas Panhandle, is drilling in red shale below 2240 feet.

Three States Have 261 Official Completions During Past Week

AMARILLO, April 11.—There were 261 "official completions" the past fiscal week in Oklahoma, Texas and Kansas areas of the Mid-Continent.

One hundred and forty-nine of the completions were oil wells and had an initial flush production of 56,875 barrels a day. Fifteen gas wells had an open initial flow of 285,500,000 cubic feet. They were divided as follows:

State	Oil Wells	Dry Holes	Bbls.
Oklahoma	62	27	30,021
Texas	74	52	24,949
Kansas	13	9	1905

Central, north, west and the Panhandle areas of Texas were well represented in the fiscal week's total. STOCKS CLIMB TO NEW HIGHS

Bears Make Little Progress In Attack On Oils

By BROADAN WALL.
Universal Service Financial Expert.

NEW YORK, April 11.—High-grade stocks continued in the limelight today and sold into new high territory. This was true of Baltimore and Ohio, New York Central, Atchison, Chesapeake and Ohio and General Motors, all of which were called to the attention of readers of this column recently. Stocks of sterling merit should continue in demand because of the plethoria of idle funds.

Despite the unfavorable condition in the oil industry and some slackening in trade, the bears have failed to make much headway in their destructive tactics. The only strides made by the shorts have been in stocks which have been lifted to fictitious values by pools. The Class 1 railroads' February earnings, which were at the rate of 4.93 per cent as compared with 4.58 per cent in February a year ago, are regarded as a good showing, especially since taxes increased 2 per cent over last year.

Money loaned at 4½ per cent. Foreign exchange was irregular; commodities generally steady.

General motors reached a new peak in the face of an unconfirmed rumor that a suit was impending against the company. The stock is being bought because sales to dealers and users reached a new top level in March. Mack Trucks was strong. A raid was made on Tobacco Products but support was encountered which closed the stock higher for the day. The selling of a number of the tobaccos which has been under way for the account of a certain estate is understood to have been completed. Malicious rumors were spread throughout Wall Street today concerning the tobacco products dividend. Tobacco products, like other companies in this business, is sharing in the prosperity in the tobacco trade. Reynolds reached loftier heights on its earnings position.

Gimbel changed hands at the highest of the year. This stock has not begun to discount the great future for the company, as pointed out here last week. On account of the Gimbel store at 33rd Street and the Saks' Store at 34th Street being at the Hudson Terminal from New Jersey and on accoun of the growth of the suburban towns, and the tubes having connection with practically all the railroads coming into Jersey City, Gimbel has the benefit of this increasing business.

There is also going on now a big increase in office buildings in the midtown section of this city, which gives the people in that locality an opportunity to shop.

Traders are seeking stocks which have been inactive in the recent upturn. They have picked out Mathieson Alkali. The company is now doing the biggest business, it is said, in months. Because of the big strides being made in the manufacture of Rayon in this country, and because this company manufactures chemicals used in the making of rayon, earnings should reflect the increased demand for its products. Mathieson, in addition, is also a large manufacturer of ammonia used in electrical refrigeration.

Local gas stocks were fairly strong. Brooklyn Union was in good demand on large transactions for this stock. The big developments spoken of here a few months ago are about to materialize. In some of the gas and power companies a change in controlu is nderstood to be under way. Big blocks of Consolidated Gas, Brooklyn Union and Brooklyn gas have been acquired steadily.

A significant fact lost sight of by Wall Street is that J. P. Morgan and company and Drexel and company are now interested in the power and electrical field. They prought out recently one of the largest bond issues of the year on a public utility property. The company that the Morgan-Drexel people are largely interested in dominates New Jersey and a large part of New York state, also the eastern part of Pennsylvania.

B. and O. continued its rise. The company may announce shortly the acquisition spoken of here recently. Western Maryland shares reached a new peak figure on buying credited to interests close to the B. and O. and New York Central. Western Maryland second preferred back dividends are likely to be straightened which should mean bigger profits for stockholders.

Oils were neglicted. Sinclair did not do much although the company is understood to have earned in the neighborhood of $2.50 a share last year compared with about $1 the year previous. Consolidated Textile was heavily traded in. Interest in this group is due to the steady improvement in the cotton textile industry.

COTTON GOODS.

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—Cotton goods ruled quiet with cotton goods steady. Mills are using more rayon than ever before. Raw silk was steady to firm. Silk printed goods were selling better. Wool goods continued quiet.

MARKET GOSSIP

J. R. Baldwin and Co., brokers, basement Bob Waggoner building, today received the following from New York, New Orleans and Chicago connections:

NEW ORLEANS, April 11.—Mild recessions in the price of cotton today were mainly the result of the poor showing of the Liverpool market, on top of which were further discouraging accounts from the Manchester cloth and yarn market. Weather reports were about evenly balanced, the east getting too much rain, while the west got but little moisture. Private reports indicated that some sections were backward, while others were making fair progress with plowing and planting. In other words, new crop news was about evenly balanced.

Interior reports indicated only a moderate demand for spots but they also indicated that this moderate demand was being met by only scanty offerings, which state of affairs kept the basis steady.

The outlook is for little change in weather conditions over the belt, but it is idle to think the present favorable weather can last through the unsettled period represented by the remainder of April and the month of May. It looks to us as if any change in the weather will be for the worse, hence we think well of buying cotton on any favorable turns in the price.

Grain

GRAIN LETTER.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Wheat—Scattered liquidation developed in the market today, which at one time carried prices to a new low level on the May and July. Selling was rather general, but market seemed to meet with good class of support on the decline, which along with buying by holders of bids brought about a recovery of about one cent per bushel towards the close. Nearby futures were weaker than the deferred received. The Liverpool market did not fully rflect decline of Saturday, closing ⅝ to ⅛d lower. World's shipments were almost 21,000,000 bushels but did not seem to have any depressing effect. Early reports today indicated rather a slow demand for export, but late advices were to the effect that total sales were 500,000 to 600,000 bushels in all positions, including both red and hard winters. Basis at the gulf on hard wheat was firmer and there were said to be inquiries for new crop winters for deferred shipment. Red wheat basis was little changed, with Chicago market still out of line with other sections. Visible decreased 1,127,000, which is somewhat less than expected. Milling demand for the choice varieties continues fairly active, but medium and low grades in most all markets are slow sale. Weather conditions favorable in winter wheat territory, but some complaints received from scattered sections in the southwest, principally western Kansas. Some comment was heard about possibility of late seeding in the northwest, also in Canada, due to unfavorable weather. With our prices showing a better basis compared to Liverpool than has prevailed all during the season, we anticipate market will meet fair support on the declines and that numerous rallies will be in evidence, but as long as the new crop situation is favorable, and there is not a more urgent demand for the cash article, we believe sales should be made on all such firm spots.

Corn—Was weak and undertone heavy during most of session, liquidation was fairly general, support lacking. Visible decreased 1,586,000 which is about as expected, with Chicago showing a decrease of about 745,000, country offerings continue light and movement is small, but eastern demand here does not improve to any extent. While we would hesitate about making sales on such breaks, we do feel that prices will work to lower levels until such time as our stocks start to move out in a liberal manner.

Oats—Easier with other grains, trade featureless. Cash demand fair, visible decreased 1,695,000 bushels; weather conditions favorable for field work.

Rye—Easier with scattered selling n evdence, export demand not aggressive as recently reported. Visible increased 62,000.

TEXAS GRAIN.

FORT WORTH, April 11. (AP)—The growing impression that heavy rains in the southwest will make more bushels of wheat than they will destroy and a disposition on the part of farmers to market grain more freely, were instrumental in bringing about further recessions in wheat Monday.

Tired holders of corn liquidated when wheat's tendency weakened.

Oats carried little special feature, easing a quarter in sympathy with corn.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

NEW YORK, April 11, (AP)—Resumption of operations for the rise in today's stock market sent more than a score representative issues to record high levels but it was accompanied by increased selling pressure for both accounts. New weak spots continued to crop out here and there and many of the early gains in the high priced industrials and specialties were reduced or cancelled in the afternoon trading.

Unexpected stiffening of call money rates from 4¼ to 4½ per cent, coincident with the calling of about $15,000,000 in loans, despite the sharp increase in reserve shown in last Saturday's clearing house statement, had a tendency to dampen bullish enthusiasm. The weekly report of federal reserve brokers' loans showed an increase of $36,962,000 in the week ended last Wednesday bringing the total to $2,840,238,000, or close to the high level of the year established on March 16. Loans are still well below the record of $2,141,250,000 established Jan. 6, 1926.

The unexpectedly small decrease in the March unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation which were made public last Saturday afternoon undoubtedly contributed to the large volume of week end buying orders in steel common which touched a new high record for all time at 172⅞ and then sold down to 171⅝, up ⅝ net. Republic Iron and Steel advanced over a point to 72⅛. Wall Street expects important changes in Republic's directorate next Wednesday as a result of the recent purchase of a substantial nterest in that company by C. S. Eaton and his associates. Bethlehem Steel sold down nearly a point as traders became reconciled to reports that the resumption of dividends probably would be delayed until later in the year.

General Motors common was bid up to a record top at 186 on official announcement that March sales of cars had broken all monthly records, but it sold down later to 184⅛ for a net loss of a half a point. Heavy buying of Chrysler, which scored an extreme gain of over two points by touching a new peak for the year at 46 was accompanied by unconfirmed merger rumors. Mack Trucks and Hudson each climbed nearly three points also to a new 1927 top but Pierce Arrow preferred broke six points to a new low at 77 and minor recessions took place in some of the other motors. New high prices since 1925 or longer also were registered by Commercial Solvents "B," International Nickel, R. H. Macy, Consolidated Textile, Reynolds Tobacco "B," American Water Works and Public Service of New Jersey.

Strength of Chesapeake and Ohio, which attained a new high for the year at 171⅛, coincided with the publication of statistics showing a paper profit of $18,000,000 on Erie and Perre Marquette stocks either owned or under option by that road. Atchison was run up over three points to 182, a record top while Kansas City Southern, Baltimore and Ohio, St. Louis-Southwestern, Texas and Pacific and Katy common touched the highest prices in years.

Time money which was quoted last week at 4½ to 4⅝, back to 4⅜ to 4½. Commercial paper rates unchanged.

Establishment of a new high by Italian lira around 4.85 cents featured the irregular foreign exchange market. Demand stering and French francs were slightly easier around 4.85⅜ and 3.91 cents, respectively. Sharp breaks in the Spanish and Japanese rates probably represented profit-taking.

STOCKS

NEW YORK, April 11.—There was more profit taking and selling today than of late. This was somewhat encouraged by a little firmness in call money, absorption was good, however, and the action of the market gave indications of still higher prices this week in some of the rails, motors and steels.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, April 11. (AP)—Blizzard reports from Alberta and Saskatchewan, Canada, emphasizing news of interference with spring crop seeding had a bullish effect today on wheat. At one time, however, May and July wheat touched a new low price for the season. Closing quotations on wheat were irregular at ⅛c net decline to ⅜c advance with corn ⅝@½c to 1⅛c down, oats unchanged to ⅜c off, and provisions varying from 17c loss to 10c gain.

Persistent slackness of eastern demand had a bearish influence on the corn market and indirectly affected oats.

Provisions were responsive to liberal exports of lard, but clearances of meats lacked volume.

Cotton

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—The cotton market was quiet, generally steady today. An early decline in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables was followed by recoveries on reports of further rains in the Mississippi valley but the slight bulges were not fully maintained. After selling up from 14.28 to 14.35, July closed at 14.31. The general market closed steady, at net declines of one to three points.

The opening was barely steady at declines of four to five points in response to the easier showing of the English market. May sold off to 14.08, and October to 14.54, net declines of five to six points on active positions as a result of liquidation by recent buyers and a little southern selling. Comparatively small offerings were soon absorbed, and the mid-day market steadied up on unsettled weather reported in the central belt which served to increase the apprehension of floods in that section.

May advanced to 14.14 and October to 14.62 or about one to three points net higher during mid-afternoon, but this bulge seemed to meet some realizing or hedging and the close was three or four points off from the best.

Private cables attributed the relatively easy showing of Liverpool to hedging and Bombay selling. The latter, according to other advices received here, represented the undoing of straddles between Bombay and Liverpool the former market having been depressed by the liquidation of long accounts with the widening of the difference between the two markets sufficient to show a profit on the straddle operations. Favorable reports from the domestic goods markets seemed to create no trading interest of consequence and business during the greater part of the day here was quiet as indicated by the narrow fluctuations.

Exports for the day 35,052, making 9,158,046 so far this season. Port receipts 20,909. U. S. port stocks 2,248,798.

It was reported that the next statement of the department of agriculture on boll weevil emergence in the south would be published at the opening on April 13, but very little comment was heard as to its probable showing.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

NEW ORLEANS, April 11. (AP)—The cotton market was rather quiet today and price fluctuations were narrow and without definite trend. Following an opening dip of 4 to 6 points which soon increased to 8 points on all active positions due to lower Liverpool cables, the market gradually rallied on a little trade buying and covering and on predictions for unsettled and rainy weather in the belt and soon after noon prices hsowed a recovery of 5 points from the lows which brought the price level to within a single point of Saturday's close. The market remained quiet to the end, easing off 3 points from the highs in the late trading on some realising and closing steady at net losses of 4 points.

As Liverpool cables were 6 to 7 penny points lower than due the market there opened easier, first trades showing losses of 4 to 6 points. Right after the call May traded down to 14.14, July to 14.31 and October to 14.45.

The subsequent rally gradually advanced prices to 14.19 for May, 14.36 for July and 14.50 for October, or 5 points up from the lows, but still 1 point below Saturday's close. The market eased off 3 points from the best in the late trading, showing a trifling net loss for the day. Exports today totaled 35,052.

The Two Roads of Life

Two roads are traveled in life. One is short and leads to elimination and is often the easiest to travel because it requires no effort. The other is long—in fact never ending—and keeping on its path demands constant, wholehearted effort.

The right road is traveled by those who are far-sighted—those who can see the bright side of every seemingly discouraging condition—those who keep on buying Wichita Falls Real Estate—pinning their faith in the future, judging from the past. They are wise because it is almost a surety that Wichita Falls will become even a greater and larger city than it is today—values will continue to increase perhaps forever.

That you may get properly started on the right road to future independence, consult a Realtor today and get his opinion on the future growth of Wichita Falls realty values and have him tell you how easy it is to own Wichita Falls Real Estate.

COUNTY LETS BOND CONTRACT

St. Louis Firms Win $500,000 Refunding Issue

Minimum premium of $11,875 and maximum, $13,125, accrued interest and a 4 3-4 interest rate was the offer accepted Monday by the county commissioners' court for $500,000 worth of county refunding bonds.

The successful bidders were Kauffman, Smith and company and William R. Compton company, both of St. Louis. There were six other bidders.

The bids will be issued to retire $500,000 of county road bonds, drawing 5 per cent interest. The bonds were issued in 1917 for a 40-year period, with the county reserving the right to redeem the bonds at the end of 10-year period, which expires July 10.

The successful bidders offered to pay the county $1026.25 for every $1000 bond delivered before July 10 and $1028.75 for $1000 bonds delivered after that date. If all of the bonds are delivered before July 10 the county will receive the maximum premium; if not, the minimum.

With the issuance of the 4 3-4 per cent bonds to replace the five per cent bonds the county will save approximately $50,000 in interest during the remaining 20 years of the term of the bonds.

The county commissioners ordered the issuance of $4,000 in warrants for work completed on the Wichita river bridge on the Diversion Lake road.

MISSION

NEVER OVER A QUARTER

Tuesday and Wednesday

THIS gay picture of young love in Old Spain will reveal the alluring Merry Widow in the biggest hit of her career.

"Scotty of the Scouts" No. 3

Today { At the Theaters

By Ruth Morrison

MAJESTIC: "Children of Divorce," with Clara Bow and Esther Ralston; comedy, Pathe News and Topics of the Day.

OLYMPIC: "Hotel Imperial," starring Pola Negri; on the stage, "A Night in Hawaii," also comedy and Fox News.

STRAND: "Faust," starring the famous German actor, Emil Jannings, and comedy.

MISSION: Mae Murray in "Valencia," and Chapter 3 of "Scotty of the Scouts."

GEM: Milton Sills in "Flowing Gold" and comedy.

GARDEN: "The Night Patrol," with Richard Talmage; western picture and comedy.

PALACE: "Beau Geste," with Ronald Colemanr Alice Joyce, Mary Brian and many others, Tuesday the last day. Special music by the company's own orchestra.

Emil Jannings and Yvette Guilbert in "Faust," showing at the Strand Theater Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The middle ages, when life was simple, and men were concerned with magic and religion and crusades, comprise the background of "Faust," the age-old legend, which Marlowe and Goethe evolved into magnificent tomes, and to which Gounod set his unforgetable music. It has finally reached the screen and is now showing at the Strand Theater.

In those dim, dark days lived a philosopher who taught mankind, and who, in common with the savants of his day, practiced alchemy. Mephisto and the cherubin quarrel over the soul of this man. Mephisto is challenged to work evil in the heart of Faust.

How he contrived to make Faust sign away his chances of heaven in exchange for his lost youth makes an engrossing sequence. For this background the architects, Herlth and Rohrig, supplied brown settings, a queer, twisted town, heavy with cathedrals and market places.

For the lighter sequences, in which Faust woos and wins the Duchess of Parma, and the fragile, gentle Marguerite, light compositions were the rule. There is the breath of spring in the Easter scenes, when Faust first meets Marguerite, and falls in love with her. And yet a plaintive, sad note is evident. Marguerite is so charming, so wistful; one fears for her, and the unfortunate alliance she is about to make. Always in the background is the sinister Mephisto, tempting Faust to his ruin.

Perhaps the most startling scenes are those in which Faust and the devil are shown whirling through space, on the latter's cloak, the while the earth rolls by beneath them.

In all "Faust" is a picture to take away one's breath. By no means pass it by.

* * *

"Valencia," Mae Murray's latest picture showing at the Mission Tuesday and Wednesday, is said to be one of the most dramatic films of the year.

Under the direction of Dimitri Buchowetzki, the famous Russian director, she has done some of the best work of her career in a role more vivid and colorful than any that have previously fallen to her lot.

It is the romance of a Spanish gypsy who falls in love with a sailor, and is pursued by the governor of Barcelona. The play is gorgeously costumed and staged, with hundreds of people in picturesque Spanish garb, great reproductions of castles and an entire street in Barcelona, and other thrilling details.

Spudders Guests of Kiwanis Club At Luncheon; Weeks Sees Pennant

Members of the Spudder baseball team were guests of the Kiwanis club at the wekely luncheon Monday at the Kemp hotel. Fred Weeks, local baseball fan, addressed the baseball team, and predicted the winning of the pennant this year.

"It takes more all-round qualities to make a ball player than any other profession. The players must be clean, aggressive in a fight, and have "gray matter," Mr. Weeks declared.

The speaker added that it took confidence and determination to win. He also praised the team, and said that they were "giving something to the country that it needs,—clean sport."

Walter Nelson introduced J. A. Gardner, president of the Wichita Falls ball club, and Mr. Gardner presented Carl Williams, manager of the team, and members of the Spudder team.

Charles Bowman Hutchins, the bird man from Boulder, Colo., whistled two numbers, accompanied at the piano by Mike Ellis.

The grip of the motion picture held Wichita Falls theater circles last night as it has never done before at the opening night of "Beau Geste" at the Palace theater. Seldom is such a film version of a famous novel brought here. Criticism tends to believe that the utmost appreciation was given this production of Major Percival Wren's novel for which the picture is named.

Those who have read the book found that it was closely followed in the theme of the film. To those unacquainted with it, each moment proved constantly exciting.

"Beau Geste" is the story of the love of three brothers which proved stronger than their fear of death itself. This motif, up to the time of the production of "Beau Geste" had never been used on the screen as a primary theme. As shown here it is a stirring element.

Ronald Colman, Ralph Forbes and Neil Hamilton as the three brothers have created characters in this picture that will be long remembered. Colman in "Beau Geste," has added to his overabundant popularity and Neil Hamilton and Ralph Forbes have made places for themselves that cannot be overlooked.

"Prisoner's Song" For New Chief

The Holt hotel radio program was again a great success Monday evening from 6:30 until 8:15, officials reported. Toby Durnal, the Dallas talking baritone, was in charge of the program and did all the announcing.

Durnal was assisted by the Holt hotel entertainers, a six-piece orchestra. The same orchestra will play again tonight starting at 6:30, and the public is invited.

Roy Carter, police commissioner, stopped at the program while on his way to the city council room, and made the members of the orchestra nervous after he had congratulated them by asking them to play the "Prisoner's Song" as soon after his election.

The program tonight will be under the supervision of Toby Durnal, the Dallas radio artist. Durnal is from station WRR at Dallas.

The equipment for the station was furnished by the Phonograph Shop of Wichita Falls.
