Cpl. Wilson Is Wounded In Viet Nam

A United States Marine whose picture appeared in the Snyder Daily News about three weeks ago in connection with a story about soap sent to troops in Viet Nam has been wounded, according to word received here.

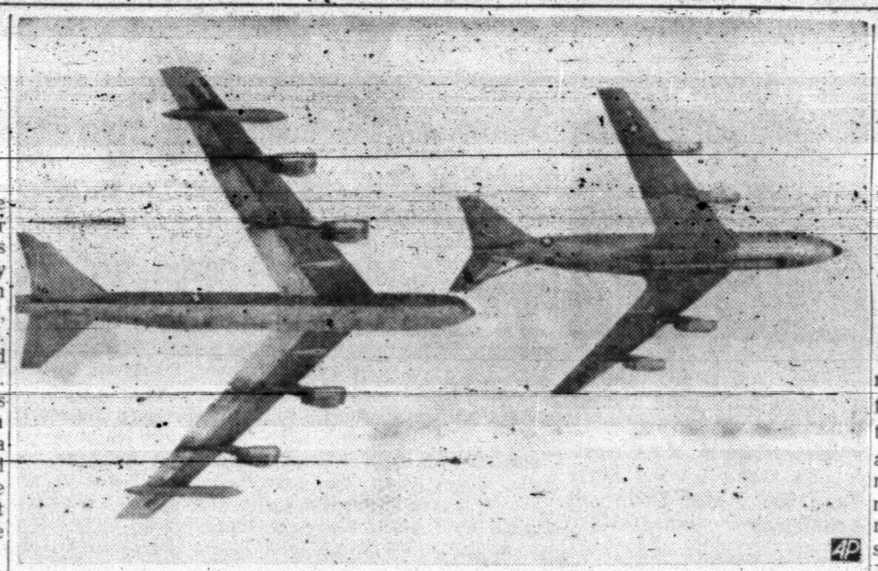

Lance Corporal Bobby Gerald Wilson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Wilson, Jr., Route 3, was wounded in action near Da Nang April 2, according to a telegram his parents received Monday from General Wallace M. Greene, Jr., Commandant of the United States Marine Corps.

The telegram:

". . . this is to confirm that your son, Lance Corporal Bobby Gerald Wilson, USMC, was injured the second of April, 1966, in the vicinity of Da Nang, Republic of Viet Nam. He sustained fragmentation wounds to both legs while engaged in action against hostile forces. His condition and prognosis are good. He is presently receiving treatment at the 3rd Medical Battalion. Your anxiety is realized and you are assured that he is receiving the best of care. His mailing address remains the same."

Corp. Wilson is attached to the 1st Battalion, 3rd Marines, "B" Company, 2nd Platoon.

In a recent letter home, the former Snyder schoolboy expressed his appreciation to the "good people" of Snyder for sending soap to the troops in Viet Nam.

Suspect In Robbery Captured At C-City

Close cooperation between peace officers in Snyder, Colorado City and San Angelo Monday resulted in the capture of a suspected armed robber three hours after an estimated $106 was taken at gun point from women employes in the Mode-O-Day, a dress shop on the south side of the square in Snyder.

The robbery occurred about noon. The suspect, James W. Oliver, 21, of Lovington, New Mexico, was arrested about 3 p.m. in Colorado City by State Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger. He was taken immediately before a magistrate—Elmer Martin, county judge of Mitchell County—where bond was set at $5,000 after his rights were explained under the new Code of Criminal Procedure.

Scurry County Sheriff Keith Collier and Police Captain D. E. McWhirter went to Colorado City to bring the suspect here. He was remanded to the Scurry County Jail about 5:30 p.m. in lieu of bond.

A warrant charging Oliver with armed robbery was issued in Justice of the Peace Cone Merritt's Court here before the suspect was arrested.

Oliver allegedly took about $106 at gunpoint from Mrs. Verline Koening, manager of Mode-O-Day, minutes before the noon hour. She said the robber forced her and Mrs. A. G. Johnson, a store clerk, to remain in a back room at the firm while he made his "getaway."

Shortly after the robbery, peace officers here and in area towns began a surveillance of roads leading out of Snyder. A warrant charging Oliver with the armed robbery was issued when San Angelo Police notified authorities here that a man fitting his description was suspected of robbing a womens dress shop in San Angelo last week.

Information given to local authorities over the teletype by San Angelo police contained an accurate description of the suspect with the type and make of automobile he was driving. The Highway Patrolman at Colorado City had the same information and halted Oliver when he spotted his car.

Capt. McWhirter said Oliver apparently surrendered without resisting arrest. The Snyder police captain praised the work of everyone connected with the case, saying that such an early arrest was possible only through close cooperation of peace officers.

Authorities recovered some money and a revolver allegedly used in the holdup. The suspect signed a statement concerning the armed robbery for local authorities after his return here.

San Angelo officers were due here today to question the suspect in connection with the robbery of the dress shop in that city.

Officers were first alerted that a robbery had taken place when the Mode-O-Day employes left the firm via a rear entrance and walked to the telephone company office on a nearby street.

The fast exchange of information that followed and the alertness of Hertenberger resulted in the quick arrest.

Authorities originally suspected Oliver of the armed robbery at San Angelo when witnesses gave them the license number of his car. A routine check of the New Mexico license plate revealed his identity, according to police.

The suspect had his car serviced and had driven about two blocks from the station in Colorado City when the officer spotted his license number. Officers said he had been staying at a motel in Colorado City.

4 Concerts Are Booked

The Scurry Concert Association closed its drive Saturday and immediately booked four concerts with United Audience Services. The programs are: Varel and Bailley, Chanteurs de Paris, a highly entertaining group from Paris; The Three Beers, an American folk singing trio; Nathan Twining, pianist; and The Albert Tipton Trio, piano, flute and cello.

Attendance to the concerts is by membership only. Dates for the concerts will be announced later.

At the Board of Directors meeting Saturday, it was decided to organize a "Patron" group for the association. Any person may be a "Patron" by contributing $10 or more to the association. Mrs. F. G. Sears will be chairman of this committee. All patrons will be appropriately recognized on the programs at each concert.

Water Panel Is Named At Fluvanna

FLUVANNA — Approximately 50 persons met here Monday night to discuss the possibility of establishing a water supply for residents in the northwest part of Scurry County.

The group named a steering committee to continue work toward determining interest in such a project and the committee plans to contact prospective patrons and take deposits of $55 each from those who will definitely commit themselves to participation in the proposed project.

Bill Jones was named chairman of the committee, while Joe Landrum was named secretary and W. S. Brüner was named treasurer. Other members of the committee include Raymond Daugherty, M. A. Gleghorn and Don Jones.

The committee has scheduled another meeting for 7:30 p.m. April 12 at the Union Methodist Church. Purpose of the session there is to determine possible interest in that community in the water project. If there is sufficient interest, some residents of the Union community will be added to the steering committee.

Church Plans New Building

The Colonial Hill Baptist Church has entered into a contract with J. D. Hinton, local architect, to design a colonial-style sanctuary and to convert the present sancutary into educational facilities.

The new sanctuary to seat 600 persons will be constructed south of the present church building and will be joined to the existing structure by offices. It will face south and occupy a location on a former block of Thirty-sixth Street which was closed last year by the city council to enable the church to link up its two blocks of property between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-seventh Streets.

Church leaders said it was hoped that construction work on the new project can be launched late this summer.

Stanley Noah is chairman of the building committee.

Vietnam Civil Tension Eased By Compromise

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON (AP) — A compromise appeared tonight to lift the threat of civil war within the Vietnamese armed forces at Da Nang. But a Buddhist demand for establishment of a national assembly within three months maintained political tension.

Riot police fired tear gas and broke up a crowd of about 700, including a lot of street urchins, who marched again in Saigon in violation of a curfew.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky flew back to the capital after day-long talks at the sealed-off Da Nang airbase with Maj. Gen. Nguyen Van Chuan intended to avert bloodshed between loyal and dissident troops. Chuan commands the 1st Corps area, the birthplace of current opposition to Ky's military regime.

Chuan told newsmen there of arrangements to ease the crisis. Among other things, he said, he is sending away a battalion he had called in to oppose 4,000 Vietnamese marines Ky flew to the Da Nang base, while government orders will confine the marines to that base.

The call for the government to set up a National Assembly within three months was voiced by Thich Tam Chau, chairman of Saigon's Buddhist Institute, an address before an estimated 15,000 persons in the institute's compound. He appealed to the people to join him in a "night of prayer" for the Vietnamese who have struck against Ky's regime and criticized the U.S. government.

Ky's plans call for creation of a new constitution this fall and election of an assembly as early as 1967 as war and conditions in the countryside permit. The Buddhist leader wants a speed-up.

Chau told the institute gathering:

"This is a common struggle, not a personal-struggle. It is a nonviolent and peaceful struggle."

Shortly after Chau finished speaking, 500 persons marched away from the compound toward the center of the city in defiance of a 9 p.m. to 5 a.m. curfew imposed earlier in the day. About 1,000 scattered along a roadway in front of the institute.

About 700 paraders were in the streets when police ambushed them four blocks short of the central market place. Police hurled tear gas grenades and the crowd disintegrated, fleeing into nearby buildings.

Vietnamese paratroopers then took a hand.

They stormed into alleys and doorways where the demonstrators were hiding and swung clubs and rifle butts. Among those they caught was a Buddhist monk. They knocked him unconscious.

U.S. C130 transports had poured Vietnamese marines into the Da Nang air base in a challenge to the rising unrest at that strategic city of 160,000 persons, 380 miles northeast of Saigon.

The premier, a marshal who still commands South Viet Nam's air force, flew in for a showdown with his northern opponents. His government had named Chuan, former commander of the 1st Vietnamese Division, to replace Lt. Gen. Chang Thi, Ky's chief rival for power, as commander of the 1st Corps. The antigovernment, anti-American agitation developed after Thi was fired March 10.

Storm Area Digging Out

By TED EDIGER and Jim STROTHMAN

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Throngs of sightseers today hampered officials and householders engaged in a massive cleanup job after a series of tornadoes which left a path of destruction across central Florida.

The twisters, hopscotching Monday from Tampa on the Gulf of Mexico to the Cape Kennedy area on the Atlantic Coast, left at least 10 dead, injured more than 300 and did damage estimated by the state office of Civil Defense at $29.4 million.

A spokesman for the sheriff's office in the hard-hit citrus growing county of Polk begged the curious to stay out of the area.

"They're sitting in nice cars watching and blocking roads we need to get equipment through," he said. "We can't get big trucks in."

The sheriff's office said that unless sightseers stop arriving, measures will be taken to clear the stricken sections of all but residents.

Looting, however, was at a minimum with only one arrest reported — a juvenile who was raiding a model airplane store. National Guardsmen and other officers were on duty through the night to protect homes and businesses.

Gov. Haydon Burns said he would ask President Johnson to declare five counties disaster areas, making them eligible for federal relief.

The Red Cross said the hardest hit area was around Gibsonia, north of Lakeland, where a preliminary survey showed at least 300 homes destroyed or damaged. There was heavy damage all around Lakeland, a city of 41,000, at Auburndale, Davenport, Haines City and Winter Haven.

Striking first at the St. Petersburg-Clearwater area about 8 a.m., the howling winds next hit Tampa, second largest city in the state with 275,000, then moved on to Lakeland in the northern part of citrus-rich Polk County.

The twisfers moved south of Orlando and went into the Atlantic Ocean just south of the missile center at Cape Kennedy.

West of Gibsonia, another 32 houses were destroyed. Twenty-six trailers were splintered at a trailer park south of Polk City.

PLANS ARE COMPLETED FOR SUNRISE SERVICE

Plans for the annual Community Easter Sunrise Service have been completed here.

The service is sponsored each year by the Scurry County Ministerial Alliance and the Snyder Jaycees.

It will begin at 6:15 a.m. Sunday at the Snyder High School football stadium. In the event of inclement weather, the service will be moved to the high school auditorium.

The Rev. William N. Parkey, pastor of the First Christian Church, will deliver the sermon. Dr. John English, pastor of First Methodist Church, will preside, while the Rev. Jerry Speer, pastor of Green Hill Baptist Church, will lead the prayer, and the Rev. John Bollinger, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, will read the Scripture.

Jim Casey, director of music at Colonial Hill Baptist Church, will direct the music for the service, with Mrs. Wendell Rehm of First Methodist Church accompanying at the organ. Hymns selected for the service are "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today" and "Christ Arose."

Harold Davis of Austin, who is directing music for a revival at First Baptist Church, will sing a solo.

Statistics Show Employment Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Employment surged upward by more than 500,000 in March while the number of jobless showed little change, the Bureau of Labor Statistics announced today.

While the jobless rate figured out to 3.8 per cent of the labor force compared with 3.7 in February, officials said this could be attributed to variations that occur in any sampling, rather than an actual change in unemployment.

In the first quarter of 1966, the rate averaged 3.8 per cent, and officials called this a sharp improvement over the 4.2 per cent in the last quarter of 1965.

The reason employment can rise sharply while joblessness remains steady is that the "labor force" fluctuates.

This is defined as persons working or looking for work, and it has increased as housewives and others are attracted toward jobs in the booming economy.

The March increase of 520,000 in nonfarm employment brought the total to [illegible]. The jump exceeded seasonal expectations by 300,000 and was the largest for this period since 1950. Overall the seasonally adjusted total was at an all-time high.

The weekly and hourly earnings of factory workers edged up to record levels. But officials pointed out that overtime work did not increase markedly. To them this was a sign that management succeeded in hiring large numbers of workers despite talk of labor shortages in some areas and some skills.

Since March 1965, unemployment is down by 600,000. Total nonfarm payroll employment is up 2.9 million and factory workers' average weekly gross earnings are up $4.50 to a record $111.22.

Schools May Observe Silent Meditation

BOSTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke has ruled that a bill to require public schools to open each day with a minute of silent meditation does not violate the federal or state constitutions.

The legislature passed and sent to Gov. John A. Volpe a bill to require the period of silent meditation.

Surprise Snow Whitens Plains

By The Associated Press

An unexpected spring snow poured as much as 4.5 inches of snow on parts of the Texas South Plains and Panhandle on what for the remainder of the state was a clear, cool day just about right for this time of year.

The 4.5 inch measurement was at Farwell on the Texas-New Mexico border, southwest of Amarillo. Radar indicated snow fell within 30 miles of Amarillo, hub city of the Panhandle.

At Bovina, a little northeast of Farwell, W. E. Williams said he measured 4 inches while snow still fell.

It was a pleasant surprise for farmers in this rich soil area, where rain has been sparse and wheat is approaching the make-or-break stage.

Some light rain fell with the snow. Temperatures were slightly above freezing.

In Plainview on the South Plains, the snow reduced visibility to a mile in a country so flat that only the curvature of the earth limits the distance you can see.

Most of the Panhandle had sub-freezing weather, with 22 degrees reported at Dalhart and 31 at Amarillo. Only a few overnight Texas temperatures were in the 50s.

However, a general warmup was predicted for Wednesday.

NASA Adds 19 New Astronauts

By RONALD THOMPSON
Aerospace Writer

MANNED SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP) — The U.S. space agency, faced with fewer astronauts than expected to blaze America's trail in space, has 19 new spacemen, the largest group ever named at one time.

These additions to the team Monday boosted the astronaut ranks to an even 50, but it will be at least two years before any of the rookies gets a chance to man a spaceship under current training policies.

Nevertheless, the agency prepared for the busy time toward the end of this decade, when it hopes to be rocketing three men at a time on trips to the moon and other ambitious space missions.

Originally, officials planned to pick only 15 for the new group. However, this was before the Gemini 9 crew — Elliot M. See and Air Force Maj. Charles A. Bassett Jr. — died in a jet plane crash Feb. 28.

The astronaut corps has been struck by sickness, death and resignations at double the 10 per cent manpower loss rate officials say they had figured on. Three of 36 chosen earlier died in jet crashes, 2 resigned, and 3 were knocked off flying jobs by medical problems. Since the famed original seven Mercury astronauts were selected April 6, 1959, the United States added nine in 1962, fourteen in 1963, and six scientist-astronauts in 1965.

With a breakneck pace in manned space exploration, the agency has found itself on the borderline of a pilot shortage. All but 5 of the 23 flight-qualified astronauts are assigned to a 1966 space flight, either as prime or back-up crewmen. One mission, Gemini 12, still lacks a crew.

For roles as astronauts, the space agency the chosings newest group drew on test pilot instructors, their students and a physicist. All but two are married, and the average age is 32.8, ranging from 28 to 36.

Seven are Air Force officers, six Navy, two Marine Corps, and four civilians. This gave the Air Force an 18 to 17 edge over the Navy in team members while running the total to 12 civilians and 5 Marines.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: You said if a lady didn't know a gentleman's last name and she didn't want to address him by his first name, she could call him, "Sir." Abby, a lady NEVER addresses a gentleman as "Sir" unless she is in England and he happens to be a knight.

HORRIFIED

DEAR HORRIFIED: After personally consulting my good friend Amy, (Vanderbilt, that is) I am advised that on occasion it is proper for a lady to address a gentleman as "Sir." Example: A secretary coming upon a visitor to her boss might very well say, "One moment Sir," if she doesn't know his name and he appears to be of the same distinguished mien as her boss. The same secretary might address her boss as "Sir," occasionally, — but never the delivery boy. But under NO circumstances would a lady use "Sir" alone to attract attention anywhere. And by the way, in England, she would never, never use "Sir" alone in addressing a knight. He is "Sir John." I have quoted what I consider to be the Supreme Court of Etiquet; so sue me!

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My name is Linda. I am 17 years old, and I did a very dumb thing. I gave a boy my picture and wrote something very mushy on it. I really meant it at the time I wrote it, but things have changed, and I don't mean it any more. I would give anything to get that picture back, but she won't give it to me. I wouldn't mind if he kept the picture and tore off what I wrote. Or even if he tore up the whole picture. Don't you think under the circumstances, he ought to return it. How can I make him give it back to me?

LINDA

DEAR LINDA: You can't. You gave him the picture and it is his. Yes, I think he "ought to" return it, but unless he wants to, there is nothing you can do about it. Let this be a lesson to you. With maturity will come many changes of heart. Be careful what you put in writing. (And some adults would be wise to heed this advice.)

* * *

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a husband who tells his teen-age children that most policemen are crooked, and the reason most of them become policemen is so they can lord it over other people? I think children ought to be taught respect for the law and its enforcers. If you print this in the newspaper, he will be sure to see it. And I will be looking for your answer. Thank you.

MONTE MOM

DEAR MONTE: Being a good mother is tough enough without having to counteract the effects of a poor father. Yours is such a task. You can't very well tell your children that daddy is a heel, but they'll find it out themselves soon enough. Just say that all humans make mistakes. Daddy is human and he makes his share. Good luck, mom. You're on the right track.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO JEANNIE BELLE: Love is like a game of checkers. You have to know which man to move.

READING COURSES ARE OFFERED

The Womens' Missionary Union of Colonial Hill Baptist Church is conducting special reading courses for persons who do not know how to read.

Anyone who would like to take the course should contact Mrs. Dan Calloway, community missions chairman, at HI 3-7590 after 4 p.m.

MINOR INJURIES—Edith L. Westbrook, 66, Route 3, received minor injuries at 9:36 a.m. today when her 1962 Model Studebaker apparently went out of control and crashed into two parked cars at Avenue S and Twenty-sixth Street near the southwest corner of the square. She was released after treatment at Cogdell Memorial Hospital where she had been taken by Bell-Seale ambulance. Damage to her car was set at $500. The 1965 Model Dodge of Juanita Sullenger, 2603 Avenue V, was damaged in the amount of about $700, and the other vehicle, a 1965 Model Chevrolet, owned by Marjorie McDowell, 2111 Forty-third Street, had damages of about $800. ## Snyderite Awarded Viet Nam Medal

Air Controlman Airman Tommy E. Foree, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Foree of Snyder, was awarded the Viet Nam Service Medal while serving off the coast of Viet Nam aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger, currently on her second combat cruise to the Viet Nam war zone.

Servicemen stationed in Viet Nam or aboard Seventh Fleet ships in the South China Sea for 30 or more consecutive days are eligible to receive the new campaign medal. Prior to last July, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal was awarded.

With the aircraft of Carrier Air Wing 14 aboard the Ranger, the ship is a mobile landing field for air strikes against communist targets. Ranger carries fighters, attack bombers and reconnaissance aircraft.

Firemen Called Out

City Firemen answered a call about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon in the 300 block of Twenty-third Street when the front seat of Robert Highfield's car caught fire. Damage was minor. He resides at 306 Twenty-third Street.

Police Log 270 Arrests

City Police made 270 arrests and collected $3,793.50 from 214 fines during the month of March.

Speeding was the most frequent offense during the month as officers issued 138 tickets.

Four persons arrested were transferred to the County. They included one for driving while intoxicated, one for theft, one for carrying a prohibited weapon, and one for burglary.

Units traveled 22,843 miles during the month. They investigated 21 accidents, including eight with injuries.

Graveside Rites Held For Infant

Graveside rites were held at 9 a.m. today at Snyder Cemetery for the newborn son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Hernandez, Arah Route. The child died at 1 a.m. at Snyder Hospital.

Fr. Herman Valladares officiated and burial was under direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home. Survivors, in addition to the parents, are a sister, Elizia, and three brothers, Robert, Paul and Ralph Hernandez.

Bo Brown Winner Of Award At UT

H. P. (Bo) Brown of Snyder was among University of Texas law students sharing $3,100 in scholarships and other awards during the 14th annual Law Day observance at the university.

Brown received $100 from the Law School Foundation. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Brown of Snyder.

NEARLY VOTING TIME

It was sixty years ago this year my father drove oxen. He knew each ox by names. Thirty years ago while he was running for commissioner in precinct 2 my father told a lot of this. Sometimes while I was churning, churning butter sure was lonesome with no TV to watch then. On one occasion he told me by great-grandfather was named Jeptha and was born in 1800. Long string of us ole boys. His father died about 1812. Around 1865 by great-grandfather Jeptha freed about one hundred slaves. In 1815 I can just hear my great-grandmother saying "Jeptha come on home it's nearly supper time." Come on now call others it's nearly voting time.

Snyderites Attend Meet At Sweetwater

Twelve Zeta Lambda Chapter members of Delta Kappa Gamma Society attended a luncheon at the Sweetwater Country Club, Saturday, April 2, 1966, hosted by Gamma Tau Chapter of Sweetwater and Rotan.

Invocation was given by Mrs. Rita Carter, president of Zeta Lambda Chapter.

Mrs. Viola Benson, president of Gamma Tau Chapter, welcomed the visitors and served as program moderator. The response was given by Mrs. Erna Lou Burt, vice-president of Beta Epsilon Chapter of Colorado City.

Music was furnished by members of Mu, Zeta Phi, Zeta Psi, and Zeta Chi chapters of Abilene.

Mrs. H. B. Lafferty, State President of Delta Kappa Gamma, was guest speaker.

Mrs. Lafferty in developing her speech on "What about the Weekdays?" emphasized the importance of the spirit of enthusiasm. She said, "Just as a light is necessary for a shadow to be produced, enthusiasm can cause a light from within a person. Continued enthusiasm makes success, which is the true pattern of genius. We radiate enthusiasm by what we know and by what we believe. If you believe in the youth of today they will respond to your trust in them with trust in you. If you have enthusiasm you will care and know if your students are working to their full potential and their problems will become your problems."

In conclusion she said "nothing is so contagious as enthusiasm, it can not be pretended for it is the essence of sincerity and truth, and it is needed every day."

Mrs. Lafferty, a member of Kappa Chapter is presently Counselor at Bassett Junior High School in El Paso. She was introduced by Olaf South, Superintendent of Sweetwater Schools, under whom she taught in Clyde, Texas.

Local members attending were Mrs. Hazel Hanback, Mrs. Lida Rhoades, Mrs. Leota Burris, Mrs. Laura Holladay, Mrs. Rita Carter, Mrs. Mary Devenport, Miss Virginia Grove, Miss Maydelle Burns, Miss Zaida Brown, Miss Evelyn Boone, Mrs. Lillian Jones, and Mrs. Dorothy Miller.

New Tasty Sunday Dessert

Eastertime heralds a new season. There's the balmy weather after winter's chill. Everyone is in new holiday finery. And in food, too, it's the season for renewal.

Spring is the time for the return of the elaborate dessert, and there is nothing more delicious to tickle your family's food on Easter Sunday than patty shells filled with a whipped lemon pudding and topped with apricot halves.

This Easter dessert is sensational to look at, yet quick and easy to prepare. Frozen puff pastry patty shells may be baked early in the day and are ready to be filled just before serving. This year make Easter dessert both easy to fix and elegant to serve.

Apricot 'n Lemon Delight

1 package frozen patty shells
1 package (3¾ ounces) lemon whipped dessert mix
½ cup cold water
½ cup cold milk
1 can (16 ounces) apricot halves, drained and chopped (reserve 6 halves for garnish)

Prepare patty shells according to package directions.

In small deep bowl thoroughly blend whipped dessert mix and milk. Whip at highest speed of electric mixer for 1 minute — mixture will be very thick. Blend in water. Whip at high speed for about 2 minutes. Fold in chopped apricots. Refrigerate until cold, at least 1 hour. At serving time fill patty shells with refrigerated mixture. Garnish with apricot halves. Serves 6.

Loboes Host Bengals Today

1st 3-AAA Clash For Snyder Nine

The fighting Snyder Tigers open the District 3-AAA baseball race today at Levelland with a 4 p.m. clash against the Loboes.

Coach Speedy Moffett's team is 8-8 for the year while the Lobos are under the .500 mark. Levelland began district competition with an 8-0 loss at Lamessa Saturday when Connie Mills threw a 1-hitter at them.

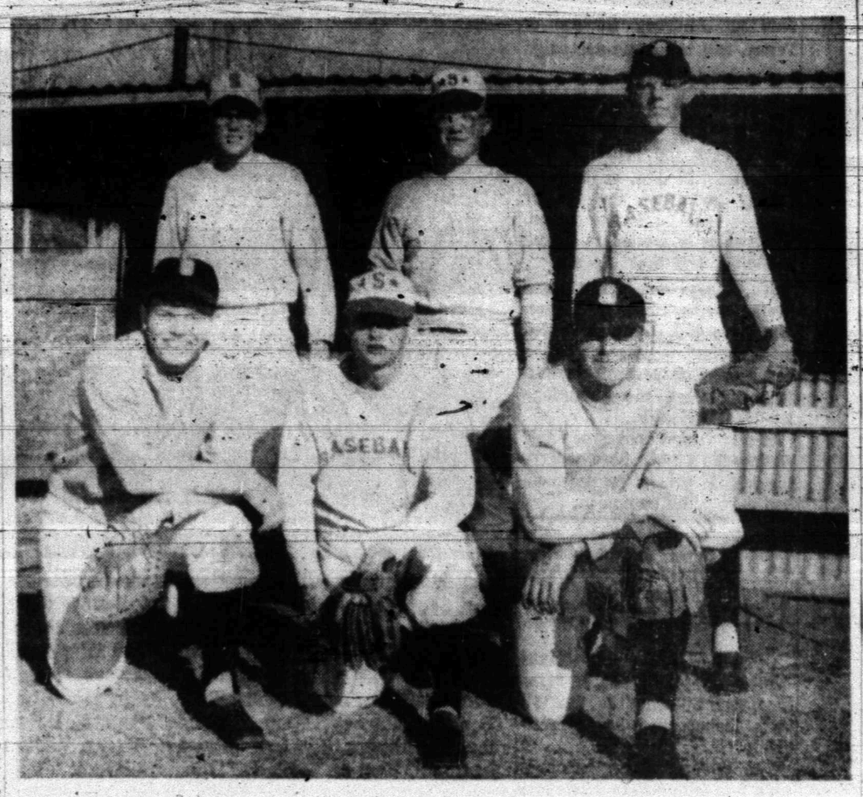

If anything, the loss should put the Loboes in a mood to try to salvage some pride at the Tigers' expense.

After "shaking up" the lineup last weekend, Coach Moffett saw the Bengals perform with the same caliber of play that sent them to the state playoffs last year.

The pitching has improved considerably. Roy Hunter and Bobby Clardy went the distance in their last outings. Roy twirled a 3-hitter and Bobby allowed only 5 safeties in a losing cause. Little Freddie Benitez has drawn the starting assignment for this first district game. The other infield positions find Roy Kizer behind the plate, Ray Kizer at first, Steve Moffett at second, Terry Holt at short and David Holt at third.

In their next outing, the Bengals will be at Brownfield Thursday for another 4 p.m. encounter. They travel to Lamesa for a 4 p.m. clash next Tuesday. The next home game will be at 4 p.m. Friday, April 15 when Brownfield comes to town.

Price For Larsen Falls

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Don Larsen, a million-dollar pitcher 10 years ago, was available for $1 today after the Baltimore Orioles asked waivers on him preparatory to giving the veteran right-hander his unconditional release.

Larsen, 36, pitched the only no-hitter in World Series history in 1955 when he hurled a perfect game for the New York Yankees in the fifth game of the series against the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Harry Dalton, personnel director of the Orioles, said he had tried unsuccessfully to line up another big league job for Larsen. After he is given his release, the lanky pitcher can be claimed for $1 by any club.

Bearkats Sign Snook Star

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Calvin Gerke, the all-stater who led Snook to the state Class B basketball championship, has signed to play with Sam Houston State.

Gerke, 6-5, averaged 29 points and 11.6 rebounds per game. He paced Snook to a 100-1 record in two years.

Gerke was the only unanimous choice of the Texas Sports Writers Association for all-state.

Yankees Lash Reds, Orioles Sock Nats

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tornadoes swept through Florida Monday, and that wasn't a bad hurricane the New York Yankees unleashed at Fort Lauderdale.

Roger Repoz, a young outfielder, walloped three home runs as the Yankees outlasted Cincinnati 10-9 in one of two games that survived Florida's rainy, windy weather.

In the other Florida game, Baltimore downed Washington 8-4.

At Mesa, Ariz., Cleveland whipped Los Angeles 7-2 and at Las Vegas, Nev., the Chicago Cubs blanked California 4-0.

Cancelled because of the storm were Houston-Pittsburgh; Minnesota - Kansas City; St. Louis-Chicago White Sox; Boston-New York Mets; and Atlanta-Philadelphia.

Repoz slammed two of his homers off Sammy Ellis, who will open the season for the Reds against the Mets next Monday at Cincinnati. Repoz tagged Ted Davidson for the third.

Gordy Coleman led the Reds' attack with five runs batted in on a homer, triple and single. Johnny Edwards also homered for Cincinnati.

New York rallied for its winning runs in the ninth inning with Lou Clinton's bases-loaded single delivering the tying and winning runs.

Leon Wagner rapped a pair of run-scoring doubles and left-handed ace Sam McDowell struck out seven Dodgers in the six innings he worked as Cleveland beat Los Angeles.

Max Alvis also drove in two runs for the Indians and McDowell, the American League's strikeout king last year, allowed five hits but had trouble with his control, walking five, in his six innings.

Ernie Broglio worked the first seven innings and relief specialist Ted Abernathy finished up the Cubs' three-hit shutout of the Angels. Broglio allowed all the California hits and stretched his spring record to three earned runs in 31 innings.

Catcher Chris Krug had a perfect day with four hits in four swings for Chicago. He drove in two runs. Billy Williams homered for the Cubs against Angel ace Dean Chance.

Curt Blefary, the American League's Rookie of the Year last season, hammered two home runs and Boog Powell had one as the Orioles defeated Washington.

Powell also drove in two runs with a fifth inning triple as Baltimore tagged Phil Ortega and Dick Bosman for five runs.

Blast Stops Ags

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Jim Loving's solo home run in the seventh inning boosted the Missouri University Tigers to a 4-3 victory over Texas A&M Monday.

Dietzel Ready For 'Discharge'?

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — Two newspapers report Paul Dietzel is resigning as head football coach at Army to become athletic director and head football coach at the University of South Carolina.

The Columbia State said in today's editions formal announcement would be made by South Carolina officials at a news conference Wednesday.

The New Orleans Time-Picayune said in a copywrited story by sports editor Bob Roesler that Army would announce Dietzel's resignation today and would begin looking for a new head coach immediately.

The Times-Picayune story quoted an "unimpeachable source" at Army as saying South Carolina would give Dietzel an eight-year contract calling for $35,000 a year.

South Carolina seeks to replace Marvin Bass, who resigned as athletic director and head football coach to become head coach and general manager of the new Montreal team in the Continental Football League.

The New Orleans story said Dietzel's seven-year contract at Army called for $18,000 a year and was later renewed to $19,000 for 10 years. He also has a rent-free cottage at West Point, the story said, and fring benefits probably made the Army contract worth about $25,000 a year.

Dietzel's four Army teams had a 21-18-1 record. They had one victory and a tie in four games with arch rival Navy. The Cadets were 4-3-1 last fall.

Griffin Inks Astro Pact

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros have signed Tom Griffin, 18, a right-handed pitcher from Van Nuys, Calif., as their No. 1 choice in the January free agent draft.

Griffin, a 6-foot-2, 200-pounder, was signed to a bonus contract by Astro scouts Jim Wilson and Karl Kuehl who previously had signed pitcher Larry Dierker.

"Tom has impressed us just as Dierker did," Wilson said. "He throws very hard and has an excellent curve ball and good control."

Griffin will attend junior college until June, when he will report to the Astros' rookie team in Bismarck, N.D.

Connally Speaks To Ginners Association

DALLAS (AP)—Texas' population is increasing by 200,000 a year—160,000 in metropolitan areas—and "prudent" leadership is needed to make sure this growth means "greater progress rather than greater problems," Gov. John Connally said today.

Speaking to the Texas Cotton Ginners Association convention, Connally said Texas is "industrializing at the fastest rate in history."

Says Medicare To Be American Way

MILFORD, Conn. (AP)—Medicare "will soon be as American as apple pie," says Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn.

Ribicoff said in a speech, "even some doctors who fought medicare in the past now feel that the law will mean more and better care for the aged."

Porkers Whip Froggies, 5-1

By The Associated Press

Arkansas whipped Texas Christian 5-1 Monday to take over the undisputed lead in Southwest Conference golf.

The Razorbacks ran their standing to 13½-4½.

Texas dropped out of a tie with Arkansas for the top when the Longhorns were able to beat Texas A&M only 3½-2½.

Baylor beat Texas Tech 5½-1½ in another conference match Monday and moved into third place.

Fight Cards On The Table

LONDON (AP) — Fight promoters on both sides of the Atlantic are competing for the right to put Cassius Clay up against Britain's heavyweight champion, Henry Cooper.

Alex Griffiths, who operates in the English Midlands, wants to stage the fight at a soccer ground and says he can take 300,000 pounds ($840,000).

"Clay," he said, "would be guaranteed 150,000 pounds ($420,000) — not bad for a lad who may be earning a few dollars a day in the Army before long."

Cooper's manager, Jim Wicks, says he has another firm offer of a quick fight with Clay from Canada's Harold Ballard but wants the fight in Britain.

Said Wicks: "Clay needs the money more than Cooper. Naturally we want Clay over here.

"But we will go any where to permit Henry to achieve his life's ambition."

Cooper put Clay on the canvas in their only previous encounter three years ago but still lost in the fifth, just as Cassius had predicted.

Mets Beam At Casey

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Baseball's senior citizen, Casey Stengel, is on his way home today after spending a month at the New York Mets' training base.

And Ol' Case liked what he saw of the club he managed for 3½ years.

"They're greatly improved," Casey said. "The most impressive thing is the development of the outfield. With the way they're being platooned, they're no lower than third in the National League. Only the Giants and Braves outfields may be better."

Casey didn't say where he rated the rest of the Mets.

Dallas University Slugs SMU, 10-6

DALLAS (AP) — Smitty Duke pitched a seven-hitter and his teammates clouted 11 hits Monday as University of Dallas beat Southern Methodist 10-6 in baseball.

Glenn Alexander hit two home runs and Ted Dettmer one a three-run blast—to feature the Dallas attack.

Five Champs At Methodist Relays

DALLAS (AP) — Five champions of the Texas Relays, including Raidy Matson, the great weight star, will be in the Southern Methodist Relays Friday night, and the new track and field meet is expected to get off to some outstanding records as a result.

Matson, who won the Texas Relays shot with 65 feet 4½ inches and discus with 169-10, will make Texas A&M the favorite to win the meet.

The Texas sprint medley relay team that did 3:20.7 and two-mile relay team, with a 7:27.2 time, plus Southern Methodist's 440-yard relay champions (40.6) head up the relay field.

There also will be the 880 and mile relays, with SMU favored in the former and Texas in the latter.

Texas finished second in 3:10.9 in the Texas Relays mile relay.

Jim Bankhead of Southern Methodist, the Southwest Conference's 440-yard champion, and Gil Smith, Texas A&M's ace sprinter, are other top entries.

It will be a 17-event meet with five relays and all regular track events except the 220-880.

Texas, Texas A&M, Baylor, Southern Methodist and Texas Christian have entered teams, except that TCU will run only in the relays.

Triangular Meet Set In Beaumont

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Kansas State, Lamar Tech and University of Mexico will hold a triangular track and field meet here Wednesday.

Kansas State and Mexico come through here on the way to Lafayette, La., for the Southwestern Relays Saturday.

Lamar Tech will join them in the trip to Louisiana.

Kansas State will boast the NCAA indoor mile champion, Conrad Nightingale, who did 4:02.8, and Harold Wooten of Galveston, Tex., who runs the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.1.

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE — A 1966 Ford Mustang driven by Jack Murry Bowden, Clairemont Route, and a 1959 Model Chevrolet operated by John Andrew Greene, Route 2, were involved in a collision at Thirty-seventh Street and Avenue S at 7:53 p.m. Monday. Billy Bowden, a passenger in the right front seat of his brother's car, was taken to Cogdell Hospital by Bell-Seale ambulance for treatment of facial lacerations. Later, he was released. Damage to the Ford was listed as total, and damage to the other car was estimated at $500. (Staff Photo)

Labor Plays Bigger Role In Texas Political Arena

By The Associated Press

Labor's role in the Texas political arena drew attention on a couple of fronts Monday in a gradually warming campaign.

In one case it was a statement by the state legislative board of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers endorsing Gov. John Connally for re-election.

This countered an earlier endorsement of the Texas AFL-CIO of Stanley Woods, an opponent of Connally in the May 7 Democratic primary.

On another front it was an allegation by Crawford Martin, among three Democrats running for attorney general, that one of his rivals, State Sen. Franklin Spears, counts on labor backing in a bid for the governor's office two years hence.

The railroad union described Connally as "the man most qualified to receive the Democratic nomination for governor."

Woods meanwhile asserted Monday that the regional director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, William Crook, should resign if he is going to continue to campaign for John Connally."

"Irresponsible" was the reply from Crook earlier to a claim by Woods that a public relations consultant works for both Connally and the Jobs Corps at Camp Gary as a matter of political patronage.

Woods, in turn, told an audience of farmers at Midway: "I would say of Mr. Crook that it was, at best, very poor judgment to pay $12,000 to a firm that has been and still is so deeply involved in partisan politics."

There was no public comment from Connally.

Crawford made his remarks about Spears at a Fort Worth luncheon. Declaring that Spears was certan to draw financial support from labor in 1968, he said:

"They are going to place him (Spears) in the governor's race two years from now. This is an effort by them to take over the state government."

Spears, on a six-day swing across West Texas, appealed for more state help to local law enforcement in an El Paso speech.

"We cannot sit idly by and do nothing as our crime rate increases almost six times faster than our population growth," Spears said.

State Sen. Galloway Calhoun, third man in the Democratic race for attorney general, and Spears both arranged to attend a dinner and a rally arranged by Young Democrats at Athens tonight, after which Spears planned to fly back to Midland.

Rep. Paul Haring, challenging Railroad Commissioner Byron Tunnell's bid for his first elective term, joined in the complaint by Woods about the employment of a public relations consultant. Haring asserted the same consultant also worked for Tunnell and added:

"The poverty program should be used to help the poor rather than enrich politicians."

Tunnell moved on to campaign in San Antonio today after opening his county headquarters in Dallas.

Spears To Appear Here

State Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio, who is a candidate for Attorney General of Texas, will bring his campaign to Snyder tomorrow.

Sen. Spears will visit with local voters at an informal coffee between the hours of 3:15 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. in the community room of the Snyder Savings and Loan Association. The public is invited to attend the event and meet Spears.

Sen. Spears served two terms in the Texas House of Representatives and then was elected to the State Senate where he has served on several committees, including the Committee for Mental Health.

His campaign spokesman said Wednesday's visit here will be the first of several he has planned during the campaign.

2 Students Earn Honors

COLLEGE STATION—Texas A&M University's list of "Distinguished Students" for the fall term include two Snyder residents.

The undergraduate honor is awarded to students who post a 2.25 grade point ratio (out of a possible 3.0) and who earn no grade lower than "C."

The local scholars include: Weldon Lloyd Merritt, senior psychology major, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Merritt, Route 2, and Billy Wayne Gleastine, junior wildlife science major, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benerd Gleastine, 2807 Avenue Q.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Aurthur Clark, Rt. 1, are the parents of a 7 lb. 9 oz. baby girl born at 6:05 a.m. April 4th.

A PLAY, "Love Me, Love My Dog," was presented Monday night for the Northeast Elementary P.T.A. by Mrs. Grace Groseclose's first grade room and by Mary Lou Scott, music teacher. King Cole, played by Randy Weber, was constantly harrassed by Fido (Chuck West) and other characters as he attemped many times to ask for Old Mother Hubbard's hand in marriage. Old Mother Hubbard was played by Darla Allen. Other characters were: Bo-Peep, Terri Callaway; Boy Blue, Bob Waller; Margery Daw, Kathy Merritt; Contrary Mary, Lori Martin; Humpty Dumpty, Mark Mueller; Pieman, Roland Arguijo; Simple Simon, Beth Jones; Fiddlers 3, Larry Stewart, Bryan Walton, Richard Wallace; Sheep, Teresa Clark, Wanda Williams, David Bostrom.

35 Teams Enter Texas Water Safari

SAN MARCOS, Tex. (AP) — The rugged 538-mile Texas Water Safari will begin April 29 with 35 teams competing for $3,000 in cash and other prizes.

Once in their canoes or boats, the crew can take on no extra food of clothing or machinery. The fresh and salt water trail goes through Luling, Gonzales, Cuero, Victoria, Matagorda and Freeport.

The race is billed as the world's toughest. Safari Chairman Tom Webb says the challenge, not the prize money, is the real attraction. Teams from Michigan have won the endurance and speed race the past two seasons.

VOL. 16, NO. 290 SNYDER, TEXAS (79549) TUESDAY, APRIL 5, 1966 SECTION B

R. L. McMILLON

DE-ICT Banquet Slated Thursday

R. L. McMillon of Abilene, branch manager for Business Men's Assurance Company of America, will be the speaker Thursday night at the annual banquet of Distributive Education and Industrial Cooperative Training students of Snyder High School.

McMillon, who is in demand as a speaker throughout the United States and Canada, is listed in "Who's Who in America," "Who's Who in Insurance," "Who's Who in Commerce and Industry" and "Who's Who in the Southwest."

He is president of the National Life Underwriter Training Council and past president of the National Association of Life Underwriters. He was selected as Man of the Year in Health Insurance in 1965 and was awarded the Harold R. Gordon Memorial Award.

McMillon also is active in civic and community affairs at Abilene. He is a past chairman of the conventions committee of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce, past chairman of the city board of missions for the Methodist Church, and is a member of the Board of directors of the Council for Economic Growth and Security. He has written and had published many articles on selling and human relations.

Money Sometimes Plays 2nd Fiddle

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Money still talks but up in the executive suites other things sometimes are more persuasive.

Such things as more interesting work, less cut-throat competition among fellow executives, freedom from overemphasis on memo writing, may mean more to a key man than an offer of higher pay if he is thinking of changing jobs.

In an affluent society, with more big-salaried posts around than men with ability or reputation to command them, a lot of companies are reporting trouble these days in recruiting top or middle-level officials.

Today, executive recruiters say, a prospect may turn down a job offering $25,000 more a year if he feels the other company would be less congenial to his tastes, the other industry less fitted to his talents, or even another location less suited for his hobbies.

The typical executive today is well-paid. He probably can furnish most of the things his family craves. Profit sharing, retirement and other benefits ease his present and future state. More money weighs less in his mind today than yesteryear when good jobs were hard to find.

One big company is having trouble getting new men because of its reputation for organizational zeal. "It's report-happy," one man said in turning down an offer, "and I'd rather be judged on performance than on my literary skill."

Thorndike Deland Associates, executive recruiters, reports one key vice president recently tuned down a $100,000-a-year post to stay on his present $75,000 job. His reason: he had doubts about the other firm's image.

Still another stuck to his $28,000 post rather than take $40,000 from a larger company. His reason: his firm promoted him to executive vice president (with no pay boost) and he could be a general executive there rather than a production specialist with the larger one.

One of the biggest companies in its field is having trouble getting men, the recruiters say, because of its reputation of being overloaded with "young tigers" fiercely competing with each other. One executive who declined an offer said, "Why should I get into that rat race when I can make almost as much here and not get an ulcer?"

Justice Takes Copter Hop

LIBERTY, Tex. (AP)—Justice William O. Douglas of the U.S. Supreme Court continued his tour of the Big Thicket today with a helicopter hop across the East Texas forest.

Douglas, 67, spent 11 hours touring portions of the big pine and hardwood forest Monday to gather material for his new book, "The Wildernesses of Texas."

The justice, who has written more than 20 books including five on America's natural beauty, plans to include a chapter about the Big Thicket in his latest effort.

When Douglas and his party arrived at the Alabama-Coushatta Indian tribes' reservation near Livingston, Tex., Monday, he was awarded an honorary membership in the tribes by Fulton Batiste, second chief of the reservation.

Lady Bird Goes Home

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — Lady Bird Johnson was home on her own LBJ Ranch today after four days of touring Texas, and she still had some beautification-conservation missions on schedule.

The first thing the traveling First Lady wanted to do was check up on the wild flowers she had planted around the ranch.

She'd seen plenty of wild, spectacular scenery in the Big Bend country of southwest Texas, and now she's quietly taking a look at her own home beautification efforts.

Mrs. Johnson flew to the ranch Monday afternoon with Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall and George B. Hartzog Jr., director of the National Park Service, who went along on her Texas tour promoting one of the biggest of the nation's parks.

They were to join Mrs. Johnson and her daughter, Lynda, 22, in a tree planting in the President's home town here this afternoon.

Tower Tours Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge granted permission for Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., to enter Viet Nam for a visit Monday despite a ban on congressional visits due to political unrest in South Viet Nam.

Tower arrived in Saigon Monday. Tower's office said he had been permitted to enter the country because he was already on his way there when the State Department ban was put into effect.

Tower expects to remain in Viet Nam until April 11 on a tour as a representative of the Senate Armed Forces Committee.

Defective Autos To Be Repaired

DETROIT (AP) — Chevrolet Division of General Motors plans to spend about $3 million to repair accelerator defects in 1964-65 model cars.

A spokesman said Monday the firm had issued a call to owners of 1964-65 Chevelles and 1965 Chevrolets with Powerglide transmissions to bring them into dealers for repairs on throttles that reportedly stick. He said a splash shield would be installed free on all cars.

Unofficial estimates put the cost at $2 per car, or $3 million for the 1.5 million vehicles on the nation's roads.

The spokesman said Chevrolet had received reports of snow or slush causing accelerators to stick. However, he said the company had no "reports of "personal injuries resulting from the fewer than half a dozen cases" involving such incidents.

"This happened only in heavy snow or slush at around 32 degrees," he said. Installation of the shield, he said, would "prevent slush from packing around the throttle linkage."

Asked about the large number of cars recalled, the spokesman said: "Regardless of the number of incidents involved we take corrective action as the need indicates."

He declined comment on whether Chevrolet would assume responsibility for possible damages.

The spokesman also declined comment on auto industry critic Ralph Nader's remark that the auto companies be required to notify the federal government anytime a defect was found in a large number of cars of one model. Nader made the suggestion to a Senate committee that now is studying President Johnson's highway safety bill.

General sales and gross receipts taxes paid to states during 1965 amounted to $6.7 billion, continuing as the top source of income for state governments.

Thieves Open Safe Too Thoroughly!

CHICOPEE, Mass. (AP)—These burglars tried too hard.

Police said thieves used nitroglycerine while trying to blow open a safe, but in the process blew apart a third of the building and scattered $30,000 about the office.

The thieves apparently were behind the building during the blast, and did not take any of the money, police said.

Spending Apt To Continue Despite Threat Of Inflation

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some of the leading vocal champions of economy have joined in voting for increases in federal spending this year.

And if the trend that has developed during the first three months of the session continues, the 1966 Congress seems likely to increase rather than cut President Johnson's requests for new appropriations and commitments for future spending.

This is despite talk about the need to cut spending because of the threat of inflation and the Viet Nam war.

President Johnson took cognizance of the election-year situation when he told a recent news conference he didn't think Congress will substantially cut his budget, despite talk there of economy.

"We will have a lot of speeches on it," the President commented. "We will have a lot of talking. There will be a good many handouts. They will say he ought to cut the expenditures, but you cut one of these veterans hospitals and see what a buzzsaw you run into."

The President was speaking against a background of many years as a member of Congress — first the House, then the Senate.

Most of the bills involving huge amounts of money still await congressional action, and some of them almost certainly will be boosted beyond what the President requested. They finance programs dear to the hearts of most congressmen, including the school lunch and school milk programs, federal payments to school districts, expanded educational programs, and local public works projects.

Johnson has proposed cuts in many of the spending programs, but Congress appears to be in no mood to go along. This is a congressional election year and 469 of the 535 Senate and House seats will be at stake in the November elections.

Republicans have led the demands for curtailment of spending on new "Great Society" programs and some of the older domestic ones. A few Democrats have joined them in repeated insistence for home-front belt-tightening.

Undoubtedly, many more members of both parties have preached the gospel of economy during forays into their home districts.

Among the more prominent advocates of budget-cutting have been Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader; Rep. Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, the House GOP chief; Sens. John J. Williams, R-Del.; Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio; and Allen J. Ellender, D-La.; and Reps. Melvin R. Laird, R-Wis.; H. R. Gross, R-Iowa; Frank T. Bow, R-Ohio; and Paul C. Jones, D-Mo.

All nine of them voted for the biggest boost in spending approved this year. But they were in good company in their support of a bill providing educational and other benefits for veterans with service that started after 1955, when benefits under the Korean GI bill ended.

The bill carried a price tag about $260 million above what the administration had advocated. A compromise measure it passed the House 381-0 and the Senate 99-0.

Another big budget puncture came on a bill originally designed to raise $6 billion in emergency revenues by restoring excise taxes on telephone calls and automobiles and changing income tax withholding procedures.

The Senate added to the bill — over the objections of Ellender, Dirksen and Williams, with Lausche not voting — an amendment that would have blanketed several hundred thousands elderly persons into the Social Security program at a cost of $790 million.

The House balked, and the result was a compromise costing about $90 million more than the President wanted. Reps. Bow, Gross and Jones opposed the compromise. Reps. Ford and Laird voted for it. Senators Dirksen, Ellender and Williams supported it, with Lausche not voting.

The tax-Socail Security compromise, however, gave opponents of the $90-million increase little choice. There was no way to separate the tax section from the Social Security provision. It was a case of voting for the whole package or voting against it.

On the positive side of the ledger, economy advocates can point to relatively minor cuts in money for two brand-new "Great Society" programs. The House has passed a bill providing only $12 million of the $30 million requested for rent subsidies, and $12 million of the $13.2 million sought for the new teachers corps.

Democrats helped effect these cuts in the House Appropriations Committee. A drive by Rep. Bow to eliminate both funds failed.

Most of the money for the rent, teachers and school district programs is for use only until June 30 of this year.

Some of the House-voted cuts in the temporary measure may be restored by the Senate.

On the two other smaller bills involving spending, the leading champions of budget-cutting were united in their losing opposition. These bills authorized $9.5 million to help finance an inter-American cultural center in Miami, Fla., and $4.6 million to help Alaska celebrate the centennial of its purchase from Russia. The actual cash has not yet been appropriated.

But advocates of budget cutting haven't given up the fight.

Before the end of the session, more than a dozen appropriation bills involving presidential requests for more than $137 billion in new funds and authority to obligate money will be considered. Congress has no control over about $13 billion of the total, the major uncontrollable item being interest on the national debt.

Only one money bill has cleared Congress. It appropriated $13.2 billion in emergency funds to finance the war in Viet Nam until the much larger annual defense bill is considered. No attempt was made to cut it.

Backing up his threat to not spend money in excess of what he asked, the President signed a $126,079,000 Coast Guard authorization bill and said he doesn't want to spend the extra $23 million Congress put into it.

Lana's New Role Is In Business

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The view from Lana Turner's office looks down upon her old playground, the Sunset Strip.

But Lana, as she pads about the thick-carpeted executive suite she shares with her sixth husband and business partner, Robert Eaton, seems disinclined to play. Asked why she needs an office, she replies, "To make money, of course. I hope to make a lot of it."

Lana Turner, businesswoman, is a role I never expected to see her play. But she demonstrated her skill as a salesgirl in a recent tour she made on behalf of "Madame X," which is expected to help supply the wherewithal for the Eaton-Turner enterprises in films, plays and other fields.

"The tour was exhausting but stimulating, and it taught me a great deal about the movie business," Lana reported. "I covered seven cities and I was on the go from morning to night.

"I learned so much about how people feel about films. I found out they're fed up with the sick, sick pictures that have been coming out of Hollywood. They want escape, and we haven't been giving it to them."

Lana faced all kinds of interviewers, from teen-age panels to electronic inquisitors. There were a few zings, but she has learned to blunt the pointed questions with a soft answer.

What did the interviewers want to know?

"I usually got the same old question of whether I was discovered at Schwab's drug-store," she sighed. "Schwab's has been living off the publicity for years."

"I had to explain that it wasn't Schwab's; it wasn't even a drugstore. It was a malt shop opposite Hollywood High School and the story was true."

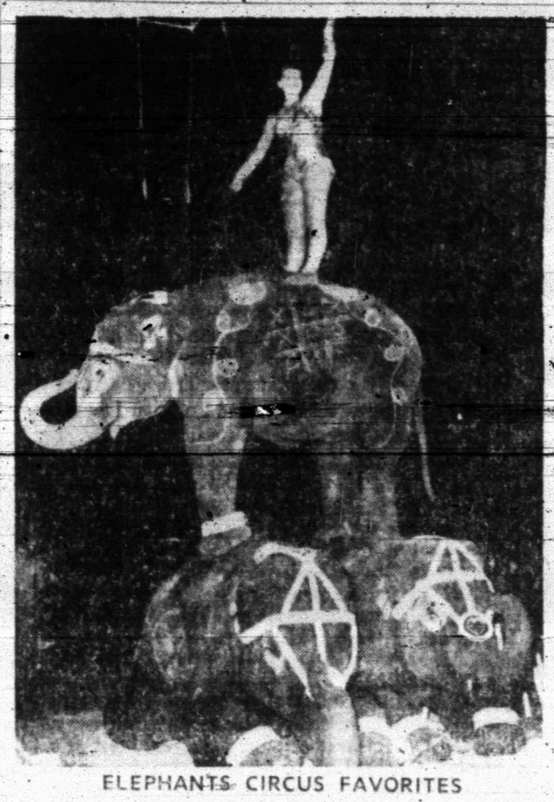

"I had some questions of my own. Did she have a fight with producer Ross Hunter on 'Madame X'?

"Yes, we did have a misunderstanding, and he didn't talk to me for eight days. But we're the best of friends now."

Did she feud with the late Constance Bennett?

"No. I was as friendly with Miss Bennett as she would allow anyone to be. The company did have some problems with her in the film."

As you can see, Lana can still handle the zings.

ELEPHANTS CIRCUS FAVORITES

Circus Elephants Always Favorites

There's something about the huge elephants with the Kelly-Miller Bros. Circus that actually fascinates the hundreds of the show's personnel, especially the girl performers.

The circus is coming to Snyder for two performances Thursday, under sponsorship of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. A matinee show is set for 4 p.m. and the evening event will begin at 8 p.m.

And, of course, the elephants will be in the spotlight. Myrtle, the "dowager queen" of the herds of ponderous pachyderms, has a keen sense of rhythm. In fact, all of the show's elephants are noted for their poise. The huge beasts trained by Capt. Steve Johnson appear in intricate maneuvers and routines in the three rings under the mammoth "big top" tent and are presented by Jean Kreisler, Wanda Waterson and Norma Fields.

This season's Kelly-Miller Bros. performance includes a multitude of features from Europe and Asia, among them the great Arturo, and family, high wire performers from Austria, and the renown bareback riding act of the Martinis who were contracted while appearing with a circus in Belgium.

While many foreign acts have been contracted this year, the Kelly-Miller Bros. Circus also will display some of the well-known American troupes, such as the Chesterfields, acrobats who recently appeared on the Hollywood Palace.

Hungarians Celebrate Liberation

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Hungarians marked their 21st Liberation Day with a relaxed celebration Monday showing how the atmosphere has changed since Soviet tanks crushed the anti-Soviet uprising in 1956.

Ten thousand well-dressed members of the Communist Youth Union assembled in Heroes' Square and took a loyalty oath. Teen-age girls even had seamless nylons and smart hairdos.

Before a national television audience and perhaps 50,000 spectators, the youth pledged "to be true to proletarian internationalist ideas (and) if necessary to defend with arms the fatherland, the Hungarian People's Republic."

The military parade held every April 4 for nearly two decades was omitted for the first time. An official said that for economy reasons it will be staged only every five years in the future. Liberation Day celebrates the expulsion of German troops from Hungarian soil in 1945.

Bands played and a pale spring sun warmed the square, scene of climactic events in nearly a century of Hungarian history. Spectators munched sausages and soft drinks. A handful of the 60,000 Soviet troops estimated to be stationed in Hungary wandered about.

After the oath taking, visiting Soviet cosmonaut Alexei Leonov said in a speech that "if those who laid down their lives 21 years ago for the liberation of Hungary could be here today, they would learn that they had not died in vain."

1,000 Southwestern Bell employees are attending training courses today

Why?

Because you have to know your business before you can provide the world's best telephone service.

Today—and every workday—1,000 or more employees are in company training classes. Last year, 43,000 telephone people spent 2,900,000 on-job hours learning how to serve you better.

And the training doesn't stop after the workday ends. Last year, 2,941 telephone people took advantage of the company's Tuition Plan to attend courses at 110 different colleges and universities. Paid for by Southwestern Bell, these courses cover just about anything that will help the employee do a better job.

Telephone people have established a solid reputation for being courteous and helpful. One thing that helps them help you is the intensive training they receive. Our goal is to make your telephone service already the world's best—even better.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

MEXICO CITY—There is always a rage of some kind going on in this town. And one of the more recent rages is the Slim Look for ladies.

Our television blares, "keep that school girl figure, etc. etc." Billboards around the country announce that only asbestos cookies with creosote poured over them can preserve the youthful line.

Nobody is kidding me. This business is like airplanes and civilization. Not here to stay. And after a while Mexico will get tired of the fad and settle down to comfortable living.

Not too many years back they had beauty gymnasiums where the ladies could get properly developed. Physical experts guided them through exercises designed to plump up the backsides, build a set of wrestler's legs and hang on a chest like a bull pigeon.

The gentlemen of those days liked ladies who were solid. You would have one strolling down Reforma Avenue and on the corner a gentleman would peer over his newspaper and his eyes would almost explode.

Instantly he would saunter to the lady's side and say, "My what a delightful load of top sirloin and fillet mignon you are carrying, ma'am. May I accompany you a few blocks just to protect you from any wolves who might make uncouth remarks?"

Of course the lady would pay no attention to him. Outwardly. But the chances were she would spend the following morning in the beauty gym bolstering the upholstering.

Came the beehive hairdo. And probably a husband arrived home feeling rotten after a day at the office. His wife with a piled-up beehive (5 feet 2, 178 pounds) greeted him at the door with a huge smile.

One look at her stacked hair and he gasped, "Heavens, Belinda, you mean there's a flying cow around our neighborhood?"

Of course when he came out of the hospital things were different. Because Belinda and her friends got together in front of a mirror and decided to resign from the beef gymnasium.

So in this decade we have Slim Jane. Crash diets, black coffee with a lettuce leaf and grief-stricken owners of candy shops.

Store windows are loaded with health gadgets. Machines that thump and roll the tonnage down to stringbean size.

Paladin throws his hogleg on a TV varmint in Spanish but before the shots ring out the commercial is rolling. A lady in circus tights, looking like a slightly swollen toothpick, stands before a wiggle machine.

She hooks a wide belt around her posterior, flips a switch and smiles at the audience while she is wiggled. Take the excess off and gather more attention than a perfumed posie.

Fashion designers here walk around with bulging pocketbooks. The local foam rubber industry is riding the crest of the wave, furnishing padding where the fillet magnon has been removed. Wear it down to mothing and reconstruct with foam rubber. Only the banana split and cake industries feel the pinch.

But this is life in the big city, children. If one side doesn't get your $ $ $ $, the other side will. And you end up with the same set of zeros either way.

Shutdown Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—There will be a delay in the shutdown of the Texarkana, Tex., Coastal Gateway Postal Terminal to prevent an interruption of children's schooling.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., said Monday the Post Office Department informed him that the phase-out of the terminal was being extended to avoid interruption of schooling that would be necessitated by students moving to another city.

The shutdown had been scheduled for April 15 but the delay will be several months and some employment actually will continue at the Texarkana terminal until January or February.

Bid Opening Set

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (AP)—The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Rock Island district office has announced it will open bids May 19 for an overlook area where the public can watch construction of the Saylorville Dam, near Des Moines, Iowa.

New S. Viet Discontent Not Being Blamed On Reds

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It would be some comfort to the United States if it could say the crisis in American-backed Viet Nam was Communist-rigged or that the Vietnamese were limiting their venom to one another.

Such is not the case. The United States, apparently, can't say either is true. And that makes the whole situation just that much more grim for this country.

The Communists do not seem to have inspired the demonstrations against the military government of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky. In other words, it's the discontented South Vietnamese who are supplying the main thrust.

And anti-American feeling is not only present throughout South Viet Nam, which this country is defending from the Communists at the cost of billions of dollars and many American lives, but is growing.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk testified Monday before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in closed session. Later both he and the committee chairman Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., talked to newsmen.

Fulbright said Rusk before the committee took the attitude that the demonstrators were not necessarily Communist-led or inspired. Rusk himself would not talk to newsmen about the Reds' possible rôle in Viet Nam events.

Another committee member, Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, said it would be a mistake to blame on Communists troubles which he said stem from "the continuing and persistent divisions among the Vietnamese."

Rusk expressed the opinion that the civil strife stemmed at least in part from contending groups trying to carve out for themselves guaranteed roles in a future civilian government.

He mentioned Buddhists, Roman Catholics, and others. This has its own ominous overtones. These various groups and factions have been at odds for years.

If, in the midst of war, a civilian government took over and was made up of these contending groups, it is hard to see how the government would last long or how Viet Nam could avoid civil war.

The same goes if peace should suddenly be restored through defeat of the Viet Cong. Any way you look at it, the whole Vietnamese prospect is dark and ugly.

It's ironic that the United States should be a target of the demonstrators all over Viet Nam. It doesn't seem to occur to them that if the United States cleared out tomorrow they couldn't last five minutes against the Viet Cong which already controls most of the country anyway.

In Saigon 500 schoolboys swirled through the streets, demanding Ky's ouster and an end to American support for him. They battled police and burned a U.S. Army Jeep.

At Qui Nhon, 260 miles northeast of Saigon, a march of 3,000 persons reflected the anti-American trend. They carried placards saying: "Foreign countries have no right to set up military bases on Vietnamese land."

At Dalat, a mountain resort 140 miles northeast of Saigon, 300 students demonstrated with banners declaring: "Peace in Viet Nam must be resolved by the Vietnamese."

In Saigon speakers charged that U.S. aid to Viet Nam was designed to acquire and maintain military bases in that country and that American spending in Viet Nam made the economic situation more and more difficult.

In Da Nang 10,000 demonstrators marched through the streets with banners denouncing both Ky's government and the United States.

Meetings of students, Buddhists and others have taken on an increasingly anti-American tones.

Junior Editors Quiz on BLINKING

QUESTION: Why do people blink their eyes?

• • •

ANSWER: Our autos, these days, have many tricky little gadgets which increase our enjoyment and make traveling safer. One of the most important of these is the windshield wiper. Think how difficult car driving would be if we had no such busy little objects on the outside pushing rain and snow aside. A clean windshield is necessary both for enjoyment and safety. Exactly the same thing is true of the human eye. If dust or dirt were to stick on the eyeball, our vision would be greatly hampered; also, grit between eyeball and eyelids would prevent the eyeball from rotating freely, something very important. Nature has provided us with human windshield wipers adapted to the special purpose of keeping our eyeballs clean. Under the upper eyelids lie the lacrimal or tear glands. Since you have grown up and given up crying, you may have wondered what good tears are, and here's the answer. The tear fluid is spread over the eyeball as you blink your eyelids, cleaning the surface and lubricating the eyeball. The salt in your tears also helps to keep the eyeball in good shape. Since we blink about 25 times a minute, our eyeballs are always clean.

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: We have to turn on a windshield wiper in a car, but our eyes keep blinking without our having to do anything about it. Open your eyes and look at something steadily. Suddenly you'll find you have blinked—whether you expected to or not.

Tips From Priestess Of Protocol

by KELLY SMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — Can you use asparagus scissors? Eat an artichoke? Peel an orange with knife and fork? Do you realize "lady" is a poor word choice?

In Washington, you know, or you're out.

Some have dubbed this a jungle of gentility and knowing the game called protocol is vital to survival.

A priestess of protocol is Mrs. Gladstone Williams, a petite, dark-haired, English-born hostess listed in Who's Who and the Green Book, Washington's selective social list.

Concerned over the dilemma of unknowing newcomers, Mrs. Williams started a "prestige course in social protocol" four years ago at Southeastern University, two blocks west of the White House.

Several hundred diplomats and wives from 45 countries and 50 states since have completed one of her eight-week courses.

The names are secret. Mrs. Williams says, "We don't like to embarrass our students.

"There are rules for every phase of diplomatic life. Rules tell you how to eat, what to eat, how to leave calling cards, what to talk about, and how to visit the White House.

"The protocol rules are 150 years old. Some are archaic. But diplomats coming here from other countries expect to follow them, and do—with the White House setting the pace."

Students in her classes, which meet four hours one night a week, learn such things as:

How to entertain with a full staff, how to use calling cards, reminder cards, table decor and settings, how to rank guests, serve wines, set up receiving lines, plan a wardrobe, fashion taboos, how to offer a toast, how to tip at the theater and "wrong words."

These include words like lady—use woman; drapes — use draperies; formal—use evening gown; and tux—don't use it at all.

Mrs. Williams generalizes:

On peeling an orange with knife and fork: "If you'll notice, the Americans at the table barely tackle it."

On attending a reception: 'Put antiperspirant on your hands before the party."

On fried chicken and steak: "Never serve at a formal dinner."

If in doubt about any protocol problem, Mrs. Williams says "a smile in your eyes can get you by. If you look worried, it looks as if you don't know what you're doing. Act confident.

"If you worry too much about whether to do a thing — if you find yourself asking 'Should I?' — then don't do it at all."

"A general rule of thumb is to do anything to make people feel at ease."

Tax Answers

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — How do I report the gain from the sale of my home?

A — This should be done on Schedule D. If you do not have a copy contact your local IRS office. Instructions are on the form.

Q — I made over $10,000 last year for the first time. Does that mean I have to file an estimated return this year?

Q — Yes, if the total estimated tax exceeds your withholding by $40 or more. The requirements for filing estimated returns, Form 1040ES, are given on the form and it would be wise for you to check them.

Declarations of estimated tax should be filed if your expected tax liability exceeds withholding by $40 or more and either (1) your income exceeds $5,000 for an individual or $10,000 for married couples filing jointly, heads of households and certain widows and widowers; or (2) more than $200 of income is from sources not subject to withholding (dividends, business profits, etc.).

Q — I've heard that your agents are paid based on the amount they get when they audit returns. Is that right?

A — No it is not. There is no commission system, percentage deal or quota for our audit personnel or any other IRS employee. All employees up to the Commissioner are Civil Service employees who are rated on a merit system.

Q — Is a statement from a doctor sufficient to establish a medical deduction?

A — Such a statement may be used to establish the fact that you had a deductible expense, but you will also need records to show that the expense was paid during the tax year. A statement from your doctor which included this information usually would be acceptable to support a medical deduction.

Q — What can I deduct for sales tax this year?

A — The 1040 instruction booklet has tables that you may use as a guide.

Q — When is the sale of a home by someone 65 not taxed?

A — If you are 65 or older and sell your home, you may exclude the entire gain from the sale if the adjusted sale price is $20,000 or less and if you owned and used the home as your principal residence for a total of at least 5 years within 8 years from the date of sale. If the adjusted sale price is over $20,000, you may exclude part of the gain.

Note that this provision applies only to those 65 years of age and over, and that it is available only once in a lifetime. Other taxpayers who sell their homes should be sure to check the 1040 instructions and Schedule D.

Q — I just got my refund. Can I throw last year's tax records away?

A — No. Records should be kept as long as needed for tax purposes. This means a minimum of three years from the time the return was due. Some like records on the purchase of a home, should be kept much longer. They would be needed to establish your cost basis.

Q — I heard that IRS has booklets for keeping track of tips. How can I as an employer, get enough copies for my employees.

A — Call your local IRS office and ask for Document 5635, a pocketsized booklet which has been prepared to help keep a daily record of tips. It is free and contains forms used to report tips to employers as well as a brief explanation of the law.

Q — We lost several trees to an ice storm. Is that a deductible item?

A — If the trees were on land held for your personal use, it is — provided you can show that the loss resulted in a decrease in the value of your real estate as a whole and it was not covered by insurance. Photos before and after the storm may be helpful in establishing the extent of damage. Note that if you do have a casualty loss on property held for personal use, the first $100 of the loss is not deductible.

Q — Why does my wife have to sign our joint return? She had no income.

A — Under community property laws in Texas, your wife would have income. She is legally responsible for the tax liability on one half of the community income. If the return is not signed, the processing will be delayed and any refund due will be held up.

Q — May I deduct interest on a life insurance policy loan which I took out last year to make home repairs?

A — You may deduct it if you are on a cash basis and actually paid the interest during the tax year. If, on the other hand, the interest is added to the total amount of the loan, a person on a cash basis may deduct the interest only when the loan is finally paid off.

Q — Under what conditions can educational expenses be deducted? I'm a teacher and take courses from time to time.

A — Ordinary and necessary educational expenses are deductible if they are incurred primarily for the purpose of (1) meeting the express requirements of your employer or the requirements of the law or regulations or (2) maintaining or improving the skills required in performing the duties of your present employment. These expenses are not deductible if the primary purpose for which they are incurred is to obtain a substantial advancement in your present position, a new position, or to fulfill your general educational aspirations or for other personal purposes.

Q — Where should tax returns be mailed?

A — The address is given in your 1040 instructions. In most cases this will be to your district director. In seven Southeastern and five Mid-Atlantic states and the District of Columbia, however, a return calling for a refund may be mailed to one of the Internal Revenue Service Centers. Those states and the respective Service Center addresses are listed in the instructions.

Q — What do you have to do to qualify for the retirement income credit?

A — You must have earned more than $600 from wages, salaries or other compensation for personal services for each of any ten prior calendar years before the current year. You also must have retirement income in the year the credit is claimed.

Q — Is the money I received from my credit union account considered interest or dividends?

A — It is considered interest and is fully taxable.

Continuation Urged For Negro Colleges

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Negro schools of higher education must continue to operate, says Benjamin E. Mays, president of Moorehouse College in Atlanta, Ga.

Mays told a fund-raising meeting:

"Because of three and a half centuries of disabilities under which Negroes suffered, we are duty bound and morally bound to give the more than 32,000 students in 33 Negro colleges and universities the best education available."

Maritime Union To Build Apartments

NEW YORK (AP)—The AFL-CIO National Maritime Union will build an apartment building for union members and their families in each of four cities.

The union said the apartments would go up in New York, New Orleans, Chicago and San Francisco at a total cost of $14 million — 20-story buildings in New York and New Orleans and 11-story structures in the other cities.

Planting Speeded

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas farmers, held up briefly by light showers, rushed last week to get their crops in the ground, the U.S. Department of Agriculture said Monday.

By the end of the week, 11 per cent of the expected cotton crop, 61 per cent of the corn crop and 26 per cent of the sorghum crop was in the ground.

Cotton was slightly behind last year's schedule, but the other two crops were ahead of the 1965 pace.

The department said wheat responded to warmer temperatures in the northern high plains, but dryland wheat was in a critical stage because of a lack of moisture.

Oklahoma Reports Production Decline

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Production of crude oil and lease condensate totaled 8,201,800 barrels daily last week, a decline of 25,900 barrels daily from the previous week, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

Oklahoma production was down 24,400 to an average of 595,700 barrels daily.

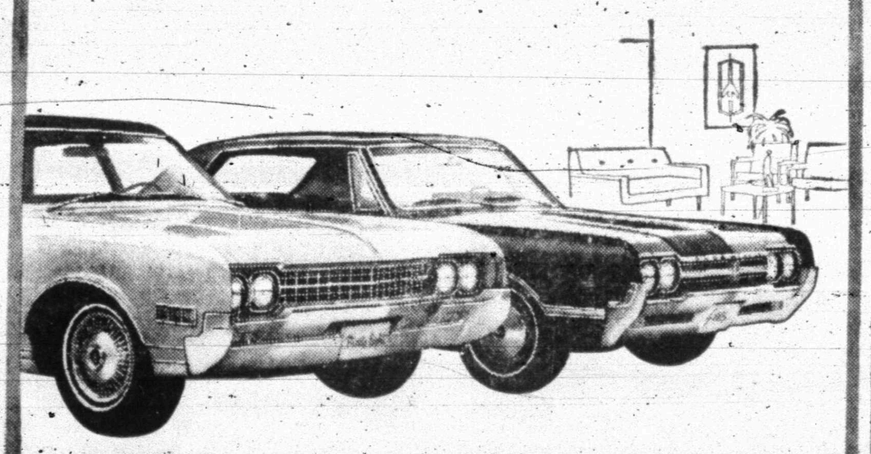

Texas production was unchanged at 2,961,800. Louisiana's remained 1,809,300 and New Mexico's 357,100.

Lady, you'll just love flameless electric cooking

You'll love flameless electric cooking when you try it — that's the best way to discover just how modern and convenient cooking can be. You'll love the automatic controls that cook dinner while you're away... the accurately measured heat settings that make possible the same fine results, time after time... the freedom from extra kitchen cleaning, because electric heat is as clean as electric light. And you'll love electric cooking most in summer, when electric surface units heat the utensils, not the kitchen air.

AND YOU'LL LOVE THE SPECIAL INSTALLATION OFFER AT YOUR DEALER'S... SEE HIM SOON

Whisper to your husband that you'd just love a new, flameless electric range. And remind him that he will, too, when he discovers how economical electric cooking really is.
