Colorado City Record

"The only newspaper published that's devoted completely to the interests of Colorado City and Mitchell County!"

52ND YEAR—No. 22 | 12 PAGES | COLORADO CITY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, DEC. 20, 1956 | $5 Per Year in Mitchell County—10c PER SINGLE COPY

SHELL'S GIFT TO CITY—Here is the large 7,000 square foot building that Shell Pipe Line Corporation Thursday deeded to the city for use as a community recreation center. The building, which formerly housed the firm's West Texas Area offices before transfer to Midland, is completely air-conditioned. Camera view here is from the southwest corner and includes a view of the building's immediate grounds, the major part of 1.14 acres also given to the city by Shell. (Record Staff Photo)

Deed Presented To Council Thursday

Shell Pipe Line Corporation Thursday gave to Colorado City the corporation's office building and the land it occupies on E. 10th St.

City officials immediately announced plans for use of the building as a major facility in the community's proposed recreation program.

Deed of gift to the property was presented to the city at 9:30 a. m. at a special meeting of City Council.

Presenting the deed on behalf of Shell Pipe Line was Gale G. Billings, the company's West Texas Area manager from Midland, who was a civic leader in Colorado City before Shell Pipe Line's West Texas Area offices were transferred from here to Midland in 1954.

Cooperating in the gift was Dr. R. D. Bridgford, local dentist and civic worker, who assured the city of parking facilities he owns adjacent to the building as long as the gift building is used for community recreation purposes.

The completely air-conditioned Shell building contains approximately 7,000 square feet and is constructed of asbestos shingles and composition roof.

Land involved in the gift consists of a .73-acre tract occupied by the building and an adjoining tract of .41 acres given by Shell Pipe Line in dedication for street and alley purposes.

The building is now occupied by the pipe line's Colorado Division offices, but only a small part of the large one-story building is in use. It originally housed Shell Pipe Line's entire West Texas Area offices before their transfer to Midland in 1954.

Billings told city councilmen and other officials today that Colorado Division Manager A. L. (Buck) Geer, a former city councilman here, and his staff will move into leased quarters in the Bridgford Dental Building, 446 Walnut St.

Shell's offer of the gift deed and the City Council's unanimous acceptance of the gift Thursday culminated a project that started months ago with a handful of citizens here and with Billings, then progressed through various stages of approval with Shell Pipe Line and city officials.

Only consideration on the part of the city in the deed of gift is the construction of a small concrete tile building to house Shell telephone equipment that will be moved from the recreation building.

City Council, in formally accepting the gift, agreed to construct the building near its north side water well sites at an estimated cost of about $2,200. Lease to Shell will be at $10 per year for five year period with option to renew in five year periods up to 20 years.

The councilmen also accepted the offer of Dr. Bridgford, who purchased Shell Pipe Line property adjacent to the recreation building property and extending north, for the city to lease parking facilities as long as the building is used for recreational purposes.

"I am very pleased to express for Shell Pipe Line managment," Billings told councilmen, "its opportunity to join hands with you if you will in community development and make this property available to you."

With Billings at the special council meeting in City Hall was Geer, the division manager.

Representing the city were Mayor Trevor Crawford and the remainder of councilmen Lawrence Ruddick, R. B. Baker, L. J. Taylor, Jeff Taylor, O. L. Simpson and Sie Hamm; City Manager Rollin K. Snethen; City Attorney John Worrell, City Secretary Ford Merritt and Rev. Earl Clary, president of the municipal parks and recreation board.

A.F. Feaster, Buford Citizen 62 Years, Dies

Final rites for Arthur F. Feaster were conducted Tuesday afternoon in First Baptist Church.

Feaster, who had lived in the Buford Community for 62 years, died Sunday evening in the local hospital after being ill for some time.

Rev. Everett Yeilding of Brownsville, former pastor of the Buford Baptist Church where Feaster was a member, officiated in the funeral service. He was assisted by Rev. J. C. Koen of Lubbock and Rev. Clinton L. Eastman of Westbrook.

Burial was in the Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker and Son Funeral Home.

The 64-year-old man was born in South Carolina Sept. 18, 1892 and married Gertie Jackson Dec. 7, 1917 in Colorado City.

Survivors include his wife; three sons — Aaron Feaster, Dwayne Feaster and Ronald Lee Feaster of Colorado City; two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Willis and Mrs. Joy Cotton of Colorado City.

Three brothers — Luther Feaster and Clint Feaster of Colorado City and Claude Feaster of Mission; two sisters, Mrs. Ewell Smith and Mrs. R. Y. Hammond of Colorado City, and 10 grandchildren.

Market Steady With 540 Head in Sale

Consigned in the sale were 540 head of cattle.

Packer cows were steady with fat cows selling for $10 to $11.50 and some heifer types up to $13. Canners and cutters brought $7 to $9.50 while some hard and light shells were down to $5.

The steady market was reflected in the fat cattle, but few choice animals were in the run. Cattle grading good brought $15.50 to $17. And a few low choice animals were up to $18 with utility and commercials from $11 to $14.

Buyers offered $15 to $16.50 for good feeder steers and $12 to $14.50 for plain and mixed kinds. Their prices were $13.50 to $15 for good feeder heifers and $10 to $13.50 for plain and mixed kind.

Fat calves ranged from $14.50 to $17.50 for good and choice. Utility and commercials brought $10 to $13.50 and culls were down to $8.

Good steer calves brought $16 to $17.50 while plain and mixed kinds were $10 to $13.

Market was slow for cows and calves with demand poor. No choice pairs were in the run, but plain and medium pairs were $65 to $85.

For bulls the market was about steady. Buyers paid $12 to $13 for good heavy bulls and $10 to $12 for light and dairy types.

Tate Bros. reported sales will be conducted here at Colorado City as usual this Saturday and also Saturday, Dec. 29. However, the usual Monday sale at their auction barn in Lamesa has been cancelled for Dec. 24.

Four County Fields Log Five New Tests, Four More Oilers

Oil operators have completed four new wells and staked sites for five more drilling sites in Mitchell County.

The new oil development is scattered over four fields western half of the county.

Two well completions and a new drilling location were reported in Westbrook Field.

Sharon Ridge-1700 Field logged two new drilling sites and one oiler.

A pair of drilling locations were spotted in Turner-Gregory Field while the Albaugh (Yates) Field counted one new producer.

Latest well completion in Westbrook Field is Standard Oil of Texas No. 10 Sam Smartt, which has daily pumping potential of 81 barrels of oil, plus 30 per cent water.

Pay zone is topped at 2,457 feet with total depth 3,085 feet. Location is 330 feet from north and 990 feet from west lines, northeast quarter, Section 21, Block 28, T-1-N, T&P Survey.

The other Westbrook oiler is Standard Oil of Texas No. 12-1 W. H. Abrams, three miles north of Westbrook with daily potential of 72 barrels of 23.6 gravity oil, plus 21 per cent water.

Production is from perforations between 3,016-3,036 and 3,050-3,060 feet over total of 3,090 feet. Site is 990 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines, Section 29, Block 28, T-1-N, T&P Survey.

Adding to Albaugh Field production in the county's southwestern area is Cosden Petroleum Corporation No. 4 Chalk, 12 miles southeast of Coahoma.

It has daily pumping potential of 46 barrels of 30.4 gravity oil from perforations between 1,212-1,240 feet over total depth of 1,246 feet after treatment of 3,000 gallons of fluid. Site is 1,650 feet from south and 990 feet from east lines, Section 90, Block 29, W&NW Survey.

New producer in Sharon Ridge-1700 Field is Melton & Krug of Colorado City No. 1-C Mills, 15 miles northwest of Colorado City, with daily pumping potential of 50.26 barrels of 28.5 gravity oil, plus 30 per cent water.

The well is bottomed at 1,677 feet with production from perforations between 1,612 and 1,630 feet. Site is 330 feet from north and 990 feet from east lines, 9-1, Smith Survey, O'Keefe Subd.

Staked as drilling sites in the Sharon Ridge-1700 Field are Melton & Krug No. 1 and No. 2 L. A. Strain, both rotary projects for 1,725-foot deth 15 miles northwest of Colorado City.

No. 1 Strain will be 330 feet from north and west lines, Section 64, Block 97, H&TC Survey. No. 2 Strain will be 330 feet from north and 1,650 feet from west lines, same section.

More Baskets Sought For Needy Families

Persons giving Christmas baskets to needy families can obtain used clothes and toys for their baskets.

Boy Scouts collected the clothes and toys last week and toys have been repaired by shop classes at Colorado High and D. W. Wallace High.

However, despite the availability of used clothes and toys for baskets, there is a need still for more basket donors.

Rev. Tommy Nelson, Ministerial Alliance coordinator for the Christmas basket programs, said there were about 20 families remained on the needy list without basket sponsors.

The AFL Union at Col-Tex is providing 10 baskets, Kiwanis will furnish between 35 and 40, Lions and Jaycees will provide scores more, and individuals are furnishing baskets, too.

But the fact remains that the list of needy families outnumbers the list of donors.

Nelson said that the clothing and used toys for the baskets of food can be obtained by contacting Mrs. Arlene Morris, RA 8-2303. The articles can be picked up at First Baptist Church's Bruner House.

Two quarts of milk can also be obtained for each basket at the Southland Ice Company, Nelson said.

Feed Program Is Extended

Walter T. McKay, state director of Farmers Home Administration, Thursday, advised John M. Russell, county supervisor, of the extension of the Emergency Feed Grain Program in Mitchell County.

Under this extension, farmers and ranchers may now file applications through Feb. 15, 1957, for a supply of feed grain necessary to carry their basic livestock through March 15, 1957.

McKay also advised that the Emergency Roughage Program will be extended. However, there will be a delay in accepting applications for roughages until sometime in early January since financial aspects of the program are being worked out in Washington.

Board Planning Best Use for Gift Building

City officials Thursday praised Shell Pipe Line Corporation for its gift of a recreational building to the city.

And Rev. Earl Clary, president of the city parks and recreation board, said the board planned to use the gift to the best possible advantage in the park and recreation program.

Appreciation for the deeding of the huge 7,000-square foot building to the city was expressed immediately after Gale G. Billings, Shell Pipe Line's West Texas Area manager, made the presentation Thursday morning in City Council chamber.

"I want to say that this act is certainly considerate of Shell Pipe Line," spoke Councilman R. B. Baker.

"It certainly is," added Mayor Trevor Crawford, " and it is a real Christmas gift for the city."

Other councilmen joined in the tribute to the firm, which had its West Texas Area headquarters here until 1954, and then approved a formal resolution of appreciation that will be written and sent to top officials of Shell Pipe Line.

"I would like to point out," Clary said, "that this is the primary work of one man.

"His organization is behint it, but one man—Gale Billings—has

Long Distance Phone Cable Cut in Mishap

A 200-pair inter-city long distance underground phone cable was cut accidentally Friday morning in the southwest section of Westbrook.

The accident at approximately 9:45 a. m. knocked out 208 long distance circuits connecting Colorado City, Abilene, Sweetwater, Big Spring, Midland and Odessa with other points.

John R. Robbins, Southwestern Bell Telephone wire chief here in Colorado City, reported the cable was cut by a Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative digging machine.

The accident was reported immediately by the Lone Wolf crew and phone company workmen were on the job shortly after, working more than 8 hours on repairs.

Phone service over the long distance circuits was restored completely by 3:30 p. m. Friday, according to Robbins. No local phone service was interrupted.

Busy with the repair job were phone workmen from Colorado City and Abilene.

Mrs. Brooks Bell Sr. Succumbs in Dallas

Mrs. Brooks Bell Sr., widow of a prominent pioneer Colorado City merchant, died Wednesday in Dallas.

Mrs. Bell, a frequent visitor here since moving from Colorado City, had been residing in Dallas at 5330 Bonita Ave.

Her late husband was a partner in Burns & Bell, a large retail store on E. Second St. during the city's earlier history. And her son, Brooks Bell Jr., is a prominent dentist in Dallas.

Friends here were notified that funeral service is scheduled Frida

Stubblefield Guests

Visiting recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Stubblefield were Mrs. C. N. Stubblefield and Mrs. M. H. Kelly, guests from Cross Plains, and afternoon guests—Mr. and Mrs. Trevlyn Kelley, Mrs. Ed Bodine and children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stubblefield and children and D. C. Stubblefield.

COMPANY REORGANIZES

Tollett Heads New Col-Tex Directors

R. L. Tollett, president of Cosden Petroleum Corporation, heads the new Col-Tex Refining Company board and directorate.

The Big Spring industrial and civic leader was named to the postitions this week as Col-Tex completed its reorganization under ownership of Cosden Petroleum Corporation.

At the same time Cosden announced that general offices of Col-Tex are being moved to Big Spring from Oklahoma City, Okla., where the headquarters was maintained under previous ownership of Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation.

Tollett is chairman of a six-member Col-Tex board that includes Marvin M. Miller, Cosden executive vice president; R. W. Thompson, Cosden vice president of pipe lines; Dan M. Krausse, Cosden vice president of manufacturing; R. M. Johnson, Cosden sales director, and R. O. Wilson, Cosden manager of asphalt.

Vice presidents in the Col-Tex directorate under Tollett's presidency are the five board members—Miller, Thompson, Krausse, Johnson and Wilson. Also serving as Col-Tex directors are A.V. Karcher, secretary, who also is Cosden secretary; L. T. King, treasurer, who serves also as Cosden treasurer; and V. A. Whittington, assistant treasurer, a position he holds also with Cosden.

The reorganization of Col-Tex as a wholly owned subsidiary under Cosden is in line with previous statements by Tollett that the Colorado City refinery will be administered and operated as a separate company under its own board and directors.

Final negotiations in the stock deal by which Anderson-Prichard sold Col-Tex to Cosden were first revealed to the Record last Sept. 19.

And Cosden completed acquisition of the Col-Tex properties Nov. 20.

In the deal Anderson-Prichard and Standard Oil Company of Texas( former owners of Col-Tex, disposed of their Col-Tex shares in exchange for Cosden shares.

The new Col-Tex officials have announced that Col-Tex will continue to operate under its own name and to market its products under its present brand. At same time Col-Tex employes are being retained, their pensions kept and requirements to dealers and jobbers will be fully met.

FROM .80 TO 1.3 INCHES

Rains Soak County But Soil Needs on Par With Next Fall

Farmers and ranchers hoped slow rains Tuesday and Wednesday are a trend for winter soil seasoning.

But they were keeping their fingers crossed and waiting for at least another two weeks before committing themselves.

Rain that came with sub-freezing temperatures blanketed the county, providing sorely needed moisture for pasture and crop lands.

Reports to the Record ranged from .80-inch to 1.3 inches.

All areas, however, described the moisture as the soaking time with good soil penetration.

Soil Conservation Service personnel here Thursday reported that soil checks Wednesday showed the moisture then had penetrated 11 inches on sandy soil.

Harold Stephens, SCS unit conservationist here, said the moisture was beneficial, but more is needed to put county soil conditions ahead of the same period last year.

"We will be able to tell more about the pasture and crop outlook in about 10 days," he added.

County Agent Jack Burkhalter appraised the moisture about the same as Stephens, emphasizing that the county so far is no better than the same period last year.

"Good for small grains," the agent said, "but we need several more weeks of this kind of moisture."

Official rain gauge here in Colorado City measured .91 total for the week.

Heaviest rainfall was reported in the Landers community south of Loraine, where Mrs. Forrest Porter said the rain gauge totaled 1.3 inches.

One inch of moisture was reported in the rain total at Westbrook by Mrs. Tom Ellett.

At Loraine the rain total for the two days was 1.2 inches, according to Kirk Taylor at First State Bank.

Leonard Coldewey, north of Loraine, reported 1.2 also as the total there.

In the Plainview community, southwest of Colorado City, R. C. Howell said his rain gauge measured one inch. And down south in Spade area, Commissioner J. C. (Jake) Northcutt reported a total of .90.

The two-day total at Payne was 1.2 inches, according to Mrs. Charles Williams.

North of Colorado City in the Buford community Mrs. Thurston Smith reported the rain total was one inch. The total dropped to .80 in Cuthbert area, according to R. E. McMillan.

AT JUNIOR HIGH

Students to Stage Yuletide Program

A Christmas play, "And Lo, The Star", will be presented Friday afternoon at Colorado Junior High School at 2:30 o'clock.

Taking part in the play is the school's speech department, art department, seventh and eighth grade music classes.

Director for the play is Mrs. Arnel Smith. Music director and pianist is Mrs. Richard Montgomery. Art instructor is Mrs. John Drummond.

The play takes place in the home of Elizabeth when John the Baptist was six months old. Elizabeth goes in search of Mary and Joseph so they can spend the night at her home, leaving Esther, the servant girl, to stay with Baby John.

In the course of the evening many visitors come to the humble dwelling among them, Joseph, seeking shelter for his wife. Esther, not realizing who he is, offers to let him use the manger in the court-yard. A brilliant star leads both shepherds and wise men to the house seeking the new-born King.

Members of the cast include Sue Blackard as Esther, an orphan girl of Bethlehem; Linda Farrar as Elizabeth, mother of John the Baptist; Weldenia Scott, Mary Louise Cox and Judy Humphreys, Esther's friends.

Mary Ann Merritt as Bersice, a very special friend of Esther.

Perry Loveless as Josephy; Harold Henley as Ezra, an old shepherd; Don Thomas as Benjamin, his young grandson, and Jerry McKay as Gaspar, one of the wise men.

Those appearing in the tableau are Carolyn Sprott as Mary; Joe Tarter and Lonnie Robinson as the other Wise Men; Robert Lloyd, Bobby Lemons, Buddy Compton and Don Vest, shepherds, and Gayle Feaster as the Angel.

was selected as the official timer of the Olympic Games

When the organizing committees of the 16th Olympiads convened to choose an official timer they realized that the performance of every Olympic contestant must be measured with undisputed accuracy. They realized that only an organization with long experience in the science of precision-timing could shoulder such a great responsibility.

Since Omega had the knowledge and experience, gained not only from timing all previous Olympiads since 1932... but also the timing of the historic Bannister 3.59.4 mile-run, the British Commonwealth Games, the 1955 Pan American Games and scores of other contests... the appointment of Omega was natural and logical. HOSTED BY HESPERIANS

Annual Christmas Party Honors Hesperian Daughters Study Club

Hesperian Daughters Study Club was honored Friday at the Hesperian Club's annual Christmas party in the home of Mrs. J. E. Hale.

Mrs. Arthur Barry, Hesperian president, was co-hostess for the afternoon fete.

Highlighting the program was a book review by Mrs. G. A. Horton. The book, "Tender Victory", written by Taylor Coldwell, was the story of a young Protestant minister who adopted five war orphans of differing races and religions.

After carrying him to his first pastorate, he found intolerance because of the differences in race and religion, but through faith and perserverance he won his people over. He found a welcome for his children and won the hand of a newspaper publisher's daughter to help him rear them.

Mrs. F. N. (Nat) Thomas was leader for the program. The autnor's life was discussed briefly by Mrs. J. A. Sadler Sr.

Ribbon sandwiches, nuts, candy, fruit cake and coffee were served by the hostesses.

Refreshment table was laid with a cutwork linen cloth and centered with a Christmas arrangement of golden sprayed figurines, balls, and candles.

Members of the honored club attending were Mrs. Frank Ginzel, Mrs. A. L. McSpadden, Mrs. John M. Worrell, Mrs. Glen Johnson, Mrs. A. L. Geer, Mrs. C. L. Echols, Mrs. E. V. Grantland, Mrs. R. P. Bates, Mrs. Curtis Baker and Mrs. Laurence Rudd.

Hesperians present were Mrs. Charles C. Thompson, Mrs. Sadler, Mrs. Sam Wulfjen, Mrs. Rollin K. Snethen, Mrs. Bennett Scott, Mrs. Thomas.

Also, Mrs. R. J. Wallace, Mrs. J. W. Watson, Mrs. C. E. Cogswell, Mrs. E. H. Winn, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. G. O. Thrower, Mrs. V. V. Shropshire, Mrs. Raymond Perdue, Mrs. Otto Jones, Mrs. J. Frank Jones, Mrs. Lynn Halbert and the hostesses, Mrs. Barry and Mrs. Hale.

Miss Langley in TSCW Yule Play

Miss Sandra Langley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Langley of Westbrook, was a member of the cast for a Christmas play at Texas State College for Women.

The presentation, "The Story of the Christ Child", was presented Dec. 16.

Yuletide Fete Compliments Club Members

Members of the Shakespearean Club were honored at a Christmas party Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Harry Logsdon.

Roll call was answered by each member telling a Christmas thought or greeting.

Afternoon program was highlighted by a recent article in Life magazine about the reign and character of Henry VIII. The review was by Miss Nellie Riordan.

Mrs. Logsdon presented during the drawing of gifts from the Christmas tree.

Guest for the annual party was Mrs. Sue Johnson. Members attending were Mrs. R. S. Brennand, Mrs. Byron Byrne, Mrs. W. M. Elliott, Mrs. W. H. Fulton, Mrs. Fielding Lee Sr., Mrs. Frank Lupton, Mrs. W. R. Motley, Mrs. Jerold Riordan, Miss Riordan, Miss Hennie Meriweather and Mrs. Logsdon.

Next meeting of the group will be Jan. 4 in the home of Mrs. Fulton.

Yule Readings Highlights Class Party

Two Yuletide readings by Mrs. W. D. McClure Friday highlighted a Christmas party for Philathea Sunday School Class of First Methodist Church in ellowship Hall.

Readings presented by Mrs. McClure during the evening program included "The Innkeeper" and "Old Fashioned Christmas".

Program was opened with the group singing "Silent Night", accompanied by Miss Ruth Hightower. Prayer was said by Mrs. H. L. Jamison.

Following the readings the class sang "Oh Come All Ye Faithful". Mrs. J. C. Garrett sang "White Christmas".

A gift from the class was presented to Miss Gladys Miller, class teacher, by Mrs. Jewell Richter. Mrs. J. W. Hill then presented a gift from the class to Mrs. Richter, assistant teacher.

Hosting the occasion were Mrs. C. W. Cook, Mrs. Ben Wilkinson, Mrs. McClure and Miss Effie Copeland.

A love offering of $64.25 was received. Refreshments of fruit cake topped with whipped cream and coffee were served by the hostesses to Mrs. Ed Strain, Mrs. H. H. Bilberry, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Mildred Campbell, Mrs. Pete Ainsworth, Mrs. Richter, Mrs. Jamison, Mrs. Ethel Hardegree and Miss Miller.

Shurtleff House Guests

Sunday guests in the home of Mrs. John Shurtleff were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shurtleff, and children, Leslie and Sue, of Rankin.

Baby Shower Compliments Mrs. House

A baby shower recently complimented Mrs. Doyle House of Odessa in the home of Mrs. J. B. Buckner.

Co-hostesses for the affair were members of the Challengers Training Union Group of Oak Street Baptist Church.

Refreshment table was decorated with an arrangement of white mums sprinkled with pink snow. A corsage made of a pasifier and blue ribbons was centered in the floral arrangement. Other decorations included snow men made of paper and candy.

Refreshments of cookies, candy, coffee and hot chocolate were served to guests.

Among those registering were the honoree, Mrs. Olen House, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. Wayne Clark and baby of Big Spring, Mrs. Gene Fowler, Mrs. Cecil Clark.

Mrs. E. V. Alsobrook, Mrs. Harvey Jones, Mrs. Howard Cain, Mrs. W. C. Hargrove, Mrs. Winfred Talley and Mrs. Buckner.

Yule Party Features Poetry by Mrs. Bell

"Christmas in Poetry", a collection of poems taken from the life of Christ, presented by Mrs. Joe Bell was featured at the Zetagathian Study Club's Yule party last Thursday in the home of Mrs. O. B. Trulock Sr.

Various phases of Christ's life told by Mrs. Bell, a guest speaker, included the stable where He was born, the angels who warned the Wise Men and Mary's prayer.

Christmas selections were played on the organ as background music by Mrs. O. B. Trulock Jr., hostess for the afternoon party.

Mrs. Curtis Latimer was leader for the program. Christmas carols were sung concluding the program. Gifts were exchanged by club members. Food and money were brought to fill a Christmas basket for a needy family.

The Yuletide motif was carried out in room and table decorations. Miniature sandwiches, cookies and coffee were served.

Those attending in addition to the guest speaker were Mrs. Robert Aycock, Mrs. H. H. Bodine, Mrs. Jay Craddock, Mrs. Trevor Crawford, Mrs. Jack Elzey, Mrs. Roy Fox, Mrs. Latimer, Mrs. Eldon Mahon, Mrs. Sam L. (Buzz) Majors Jr., Mrs. Johnny Moore, Mrs. Ray Noble, Mrs. W. S. Rhode, Mrs. Bob Robinson, Mrs. Charles L. Root Jr., Mrs. Carl Shelton, Mrs. Brady Warren, Mrs. Martin Weaver, Mrs. George Witten, Mrs. Forrest Ferguson, Mrs. L. W. Patterson, Mrs. Charles Swann, Mrs. L. S. (Bunky) Girvin Jr. and the hostess.

Yule Service Set At All Saints' Church

Holy Communion will be conducted at All Saints' Episcopal Church Christmas morning at 9 a. m.

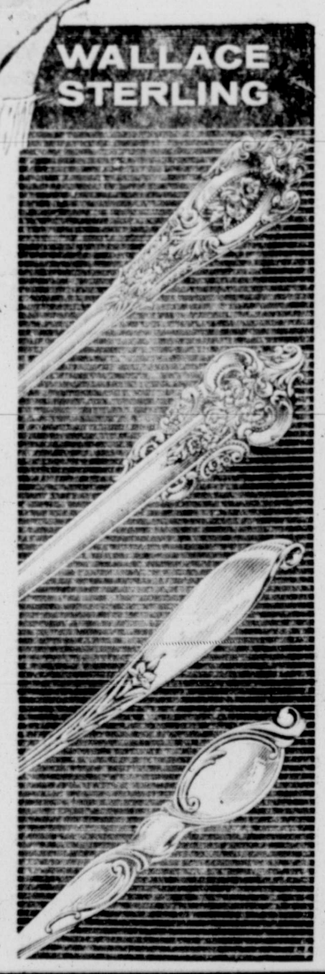

Children's Christmas program will be presented Christmas Eve from 7 p. m. until 9 p. m. Following the program an informal Parish family party will be hosted in Parish House, according to Mrs. Stewart Cooper.

Mrs. Barber Returns

Mrs. Laura Barber recently returned from Waco where she visited with her daughter, Miss Barbara Barber, who is attending Baylor University.

Wallace Crew Beats Abilene In Two Games

D. W. Wallace High School cagers sweep both games of a double header here Wednesday night against Woodson High of Abilene.

The local A-team Wildcats swamped the Rams 89-58 with D. W. Woods and Earnest Biggers scoring 20 and 18 points, respectively, for Wallace.

Other Wallace score-makers were Elmer Randle, 10; Robert Bracy, 8; Joe Christian 6; Fred Johnson, 4 and Jessie Griffin, 8.

M. L. Horn scored 14 to lead the Woodson scorers.

In the B-team tilt, Charles Lindsey scored 24 points to lead Wallace to a 58-29 victory.

Next game for the Wallace school is Dec. 31 when they play Colorado High Wolves' team.

initiated and worked steadily for its culmination."

Also praised was C. C. Combs, Shell Pipe Line vice president in Houston, who also was instrumental in Shell's gift.

"Citizens of our city have received a fine present from Shell Pipe Line Corporation," Clary added, "and we want to express our appreciation to Mr. Billings and all those who have made it possible.

"Colorado City soon will have available in the Shell Recreation Center a fine building for the development of recreational and leisure time activities for the youth and adults of the city.

"The board of parks and recreation," Clary emphasized, "has as their goal the development of a program that will use the Shell Recreation Center to the best possible advantages."

IN LAST MINUTE OF PLAY

Smith's Free Throws Give Wolves Narrow 30-29 Cage Win Over Post

It marked the Wolves' first home game of the season and the second victory of the year over the Post team.

Before Smith's game winning free toss efforts, Post was leading by a point and appeared on their way to victory.

But a Post cager fouled Smith and the cool junior stepped to the free throw line.

The first toss tied the game at 29-29 and the second put the Wolves ahead 30-29.

Both teams attempted several shots after Smith's free tosses in the last 45 seconds of the tilt, but both failed to connect.

Wolves threw up a terrific defense in the initial quarter, holding the Antelopes scoreless, while scoring 10 points themselves.

Midway of the second quarter Daymon Ethridge found the range for Post and sank a two-pointer from 12 feet out to break the ice.

Bad passes hampered the Wolves in the second quarter as they scored only nine points to the Antelopes' 11, making the halftime score 19-11.

Finding the Wolf defense too tough under the basket, the Antelopes tried a barrage of long shots which paid off, pulling them within two points of the host team at the third quarter mark, 23-21.

Post went ahead of C-City late in the fourth quarter and appeared on their way to victory until Smith's free tosses.

Colorado's Don Black took game high scoring honors with nine points while Troy Cartmill and Jimmy Short led Post with seven points each.

Wolves B-team lost their encounter with the Post quintet by the score of 48-39.

The contest was close all through the first half with the score knotted at 24-all when the halftime buzzer sounded.

But late in the third quarter, the Post team went ahead and were not checked by the Wolves the remainder of the team.

Short was also high point man of the Post B-team with 14 points followed closely by Colorado City's Jerry Treadwell and Raymond Weaver with 13 and 12, respectively.

TECH ACE—Leading the Texas Tech cagers this year is Harry Scaling, 2-year letterman senior guard from Fort Worth. Some of the top teams in the nation will play in Tech's new million-dollar gym this season.

KILLING TIME NOW

Fence Row Trees Cut Farm's Cash

Have you ever stopped to think how much undesirable trees and brush in the farm fence rows cost?

A. H. Walker, extension range specialist, says a recent study showed that a single large mesquite tree was using all of the water from one-sixth acre of cropland.

The farmer on whose farm the study was made reported that the tree cost him $9.10 last year. He averaged a half bale of cotton to the acre on his other cropland but got nothing from the area around the tree. He stopped and did a little figuring and for less than five cents killed the tree.

On another farm, Walker said, no crops were growing for a distance of 90 feet from a brushy fence row. In one mile of fence row the farmer was losing 10 acres of cropland. Countywide surveys have shown that in many counties upwards of 5,000 acres of cropland are not producing crops because of fence row thieves.

Walker says if fence rows, trees and brush are not controlled, the farmer would at least save his planting seed, time and labor by not trying to produce crops close to brushy fence rows. This he adds would be a waste of good cropland and not very good management.

Now is the time of the year to apply chemicals to these moisture and soil nutrient robbers, Walker says research and many farm demonstrations have shown that best control is obtained by spraying the cut-off stump; the trunk base or by applying a solution in frills to the standing trees. The accepted chemical is 2,4,5-T which should be mixed with diesel oil or kerosene and applied with a hand or backtype sprayer. For the hard to kill trees, Walker recommends a pound of the chemical in six gallons of oil. For easier to kill trees a pound to 12 gallons of oil is suggested.

December, January and February are good months for carrying out the control program. Labor is usually available and working conditions more desirable. Too, few broad-leaf crops are growing which might be damaged from drift from the chemical. The chemical is nonpoisonous to man or livestock in the recommended formula.

This article was prepared because many people in the Mitchell Soil Conservation District are planning to plant Sorghum Almum in 1957.

The experiment stations evidently do not show the same enthusiasm for the grass that the seed dealers are showing.

Church Offering for Indians' Christmas

BALMORHEA STATION

Data Released on Beef Cattle Tests

The 14th annual beef cattle performance and progeny test at the Balmorhea Station reports an average daily gain of 2.38 pounds for 119 young bulls and 1.72 pounds for 20 heifers during a 140-day period, according to A. A. Melton, station superintendent.

One hundred and fourteen Hereford, three Santa Gertrudis, and two Charbray bulls were used in the tests which ran from October 14, 1955 to March 2, 1956. Hereford heifers were used.

Initial weights in sire groups of three or more progeny, ranged from 447 to 711 pounds and age from 209 to 350 days. Range in daily gain for the 103 young bulls in this group was from 2.12 to 2.72 pounds. This .60 pound difference indicates a high degree of selection, Melton said.

Weights per day of age averaged 2.08 pounds at the outset of the test and climbed to 2.17 pounds at the close. Average increase was .09 pounds. Progeny groups registering high weights per day of age had a tendency to show above average scores for condition.

Progeny groups making greatest increases in weight per day of age were below average in that respect at the outset and even though they made above average gains during the test period, were still below the others in weight per day of age at the close.

Ground hegari bundles were full fed in the tests, while ground alfalfa hay and cottonseed meal were limited fed in equal amounts. Salt was free choice. All feed was of excellent quality and the ground hegari contained about 25 per cent grain by weight. Average ration, according to Melton, was 3.04 pounds of cottonseed meal, 3.06 pounds of ground alfalfa hay and 15.6 pounds of ground hegari bundles.

Forty-two of the tested bulls were sold at auction in three sale price groups. The top 30 per cent averaged $490 per head, the middle 40 per cent, $236, and the bottom 30 per cent, $167.

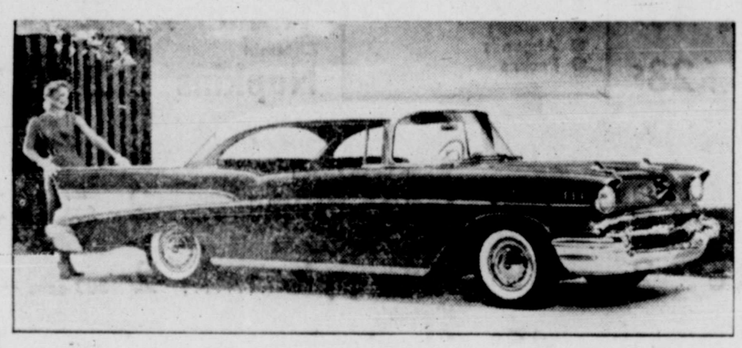

Prices were affected by absence from the sale of some of the test's better bulls and fear of dwarfism in pedigree.

The complete report is available in Progress Report 1899 and my be obtained from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

STATE EMPLOYES TO SING CAROLS

Better Government Bills Drafted, Daniel Backs Water Plan as Inauguration Nears

By VERN SANFORD,
Texas Press Association.

Christmas has come to the state capitol, and all the traditions are being observed.

A mammoth 40-foot tree with hundreds of lights centers the rotunda. State employes, from the youngest clerk to the top man, gather round the huge tree once each year to sing Christmas carols.

For the first time, Gov. Allan Shivers and his family will spend Christmas in the Mansion. In the past they've gone to Sharyland, their Rio Grande Valley home. But this year they're staying here to get ready for moving —to make room for Gov.-Elect Price Daniel who takes office on Jan. 15.

Sen. Daniel is working against time to get legislative and inauguration plans settled before the first of the year. Then he must go to Washington to serve two more weeks as senator.

But between being senator and getting ready to be governor, the Daniels hope to sandwich in a simple family holiday at their Liberty ranch home.

Better Government

An extensive legislative program designed to prevent recurrence of state scandals has been unveiled.

Sixteen "better government" bills were formulated in the attorney general's department under sponsorship of the Texas Press Association. TPA's legislative committee approved the measures and has called on Texas newspapers to work for their passage.

Bills are aimed primarily at secrecy in public affairs. They would outlaw closed meetings of governmental bodies, force publication of official transactions and impose penalties for suppression of public records. Insurance companies would be required to publish financial statements at least twice a year. Names of veterans applying for land under the veterans land program would be publicized.

Committee members also endorsed creation of a special Travis County grand jury for state affairs.

Water Plan

Gov.-Elect Price Daniel will submit as emergency legislation the proposed $100,000,000 water development fund.

Daniel said he will support this and other objectives of the Texas Water Resources Committee's program. But he said he wants to study further before making a tax recommendation.

According to committee members, the $100,000,000 revolving fund would not require a special tax. It would be used to extend credit to local governments for water conservation projects.

However, the committee did suggest taxes to buy water storage space in federal reservoirs. Proposed levies would increase fishing licenses 50 cents and place a five per cent excise on pleasure boats and motors.

Fight Over Water

Texas' largest cities have squared off in a water rights battle that promises to surpass all others.

Southern Canal Company has asked the State Water Board for a permit to withdraw 200 million gallons daily from the Trinity River for industriol use in the Houston area. Houston has indicated it is backing the company's plan.

Trinity River Authority, together with Fort Worth, Dallas and other cities using Trinity water are protesting.

Testimony before the Water Board is expected to be complex and lengthy.

State Capitol NEWS

Rain is Less

All areas of the state are nearing the end of the year with substantially less-than-normal rainfall.

State Board of Water Engineers reports 11-months deficiencies ranging from 12 to 19 inches. Storage in major lakes continues at about 43 per cent of capacity.

Aid Extended

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has extended from Dec. 31 until March 15 the emergency program to help livestock owners in drought areas buy feed.

Gov. Shivers commended this decision and asked that USDA also extend grazing privileges under the soil bank program. He requested railroads to continue reduced freight rates for hay shipments to drought areas.

Cameron and Willacy Counties have been added to bring the total drought-hit counties in Texas to 238 out of 254.

Woman Governor

To Mrs. Nevelle Colson of Navasota went the distinction of being Texas' first woman governor since Mrs. Miriam Ferguson.

Mrs. Colson's senate colleagues had named her interim president pro tempore, an office second in line to the governorship. Go. Shivers and Lt. Gov. Ramsey gallantly left the state so Mrs. Colson could have the traditional "governor for a day" honors.

Segregation Trip

Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd will go to Tennessee next month to help defend persons charged with interfering with school integration.

Shepperd, whose term of office ends Jan. 1, will act as a private citizen.

A federal court order has enjoined persons from interfering with Clinton school integration by "thought, deed or word." Shepperd said he thought this "too broad."

Short Snorts

There'll be a several months delay, Land Commissioner Earl Rudder has told some 13,000 veterans applying to purchase land. Money from the additional $100,000,000 bond program voted in November will not be available until sometime between April and June—USDA has upped its forecast of Texas' 1956 cotton crop to 3,610,000 bales — a 10,000-bale increase over the November estimate — Texas farmer is becoming a big operator, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. From 1949-54 the number of farms decreased 12 per cent, but total area under cultivation jumped by a half million acres. Result: fewer farms, but more in the $25,000 a pear bracket — Austin school authorities may ask the legislature to establish a special school for the teen-age boys who serve the law-makers as pages. In the past, pages have missed a semester of work — Newly elected prosecuting attorneys came to Austin for a short course in state codes and procedures. Sponsors were the University of Texas School of Law and the Attorney General's Department. A course for incoming sheriffs and deputies was held simultaneously by the Department of Public Safety.

IN LORAINE RESIDENCES

Pre-Christmas Fetes Entertain Church Class and Club Groups

By MRS. C. C. HAMILTON,
Record Correspondent.

LORAINE—Traditional Christmas season entertaining continues to keep the calendar crowded here.

Individuals' church groups and clubs are included in the long list of hosts.

Young Couples Class of Loraine First Methodist Church enjoyed its Christmas party and dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hallmark, one mile south of Loraine.

The buffet dinner was served from a table laid with white linen cutwork cloth centered with a large candle in midst of greenery. Foursome tables were laid with Christmas cloth and marked by miniature snow men and greenery.

The group sang Christmas carols and enjoyed organ selections by Mrs. Hallmark and Mrs. J. M. Templeton.

Yule poems were read by John Mahon, class teacher, and gifts were exchanged from a lighted tree.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Mahon, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Martin and daughters, Charla Mae and Arleta; Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Templeton, Mr. and Mrs. Dual Blair and sons, Ronnie and Larry; Mr. and Mrs. Hallmark and son, Rodney.

Mrs. E. W. Claxton was hostess for a dinner in her Loraine home complimenting several members of her family.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cain and children, Jerry and Patricia, of Colorado City; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nichols of Jacksboro; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Anders, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Claxton and children, Hortense, weldon and Lavonne, all of Loraine.

A pre-Christmas dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Riden, two miles south of Loraine, honored their daughter and her family.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Warlene Jennings and children, Sandra and Bobby, of Hurst; Mr. and Mrs. Rex McDaniel and daughter, Judy.

Hosting the annual Christmas dinner and party for the Bridge Club were Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Johnson.

The buffet dinner in the Johnson home was served from a table laid with linen cutwork cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink carnations and candles.

An arrangement of poinsettia at the mantle, foursome tables laid with linen cloths and marked with decorated candles in styrafoam highlighted other decorations in the party rooms.

Bridge was played after dinner and gifts were exchanged from a lighted tree late in th evening.

Attending were Dr. and Mrs. John Hamblen of Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Doss of Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Coon, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coffee, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Pratt and the hosts.

Gifts were exchanged at a large lighted tree following the buffet luncheon. Club pals also exchanged gifts after revealing their identity. New names for club pals were drawn for the next year.

Special guests were Mrs. W. M Teeters and Mrs. Marvin Sursa who joined the club.

Others attending were Miss Elinor Harvey, county home demonstration agent; Mrs. Garland Cary, Mrs. Lester Webb, Mrs Floyd Griffin, Mrs. J. C. Payne Mrs. R. D. White, Mrs. A. J Scarbrough, Mrs. Jasper Doyle, Jean Clifton and the hostess.

Fairview Club Packs Basket At Yule Party

By MRS. J. C. WOMACK,
Record Correspondent.

CUTHBERT—Members of Fairview Home Demonstration Club Saturday night combined entertainment with assistance for the underprivileged.

It was their annual Christmas party, hosted in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McMillan.

Entertainment included games of 42.

But the club members packed a Christmas basket for distribution to a needy family.

Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Strain, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Pace, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Strain, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Strain, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Morris, Mrs. W. W. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Womack and the hosts.

Mrs. Homan Posy is a guest this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waddell Strain.

Visiting in the E. R. Uzzie home over the week were Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson and daughter, Johnnie. Mr. Uzzie has just returned from a deer hunt in the Davis Mountains.

To Visit in Dallas

Mrs. Fred B. Ison of Loraine will be a holiday guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Franklin, and other relatives in Dallas.

AT COLORADO HIGH

Distinction List Has 30 Students

Thirty Colorado City High students earned places on the school's honor roll of distinction for second six weeks of the fall semester.

To be eligible for the honor students must average above 90 in all their grades.

Leading the roll with the most students was the sophomore class. Eleven sophomores averaged above 90.

Honor roll seniors and their grades are Joyce Black, 93; Ruan Owen, 93; Joe Phariss, 92; Danella Porter, 96; Joyce Rogers, 94; Frediine Theis, 91.5; Nelda Thurman, 94; Dru Vowell, 94; Neil Webb, 94; Laverne Williams, 96.

Juniors on the list are Bob Aycock, 96; Cynthia Aycock 94; Melvyn Berman, 98.5; Larry Boren, 91; Jane Merritt, 97; Rayvel Moseley, 96; Kaye Treadaway, 96; Joe Windham, 92.

In the sophomore group are Dorothy Blair, 94; Emma Lee Blassingame, 94; Judy Dixon, 96.5; Nancy Hamner, 91; Mary Hazard, 92; Ann Lewallen, 97; Kaye McKinnon, 94; Carolyn Shimer, 93; Kenny Simmons, 94; Bertha Strinkland, 94; and Rosemary Thomas, 96.

Berman's average of 98.5 was the highest of all the students. However, there were two 97 averages—Jane Merritt, also a junior with Berman, and Ann Lewallen, a sophomore.

Veteran Shell Pipeliners Are Honored

A total of 977 years of service with Shell Pipe Line Corporation was recently at the "Ten and Over Club" party held at the Cloud Club in Abilene.

Sixty-eight Shellites (including 15 pensioners) from the West Texas Area were invited to the party which is held annually for all Shell Pipe Line personnel with upwards of ten years employment.

Chairman of arrngements for the party was A. L. Geer, Colorado City Division Superintendent for Shell Pipe Line Corporation.

The oldest Shell Pipe Line employee to be honored (with 30 years) was R. H. Kneer of Hamlin.

Similar "Ten and Over" banquets are held by Shell Pipe Line throughout the country each year. Company employees receive a service emblem upon completion of ten years' service and another emblem every five years thereafter. Upon completion of 25 years each employee is awarded an inscribed gold watch in addition to a diamond-set service emblem.

IT'S GOOD BUSINESS, TOO

Agent Says Good Farm Records Can Reduce Annual Income Tax

Wise tax management is a part of good farm management, according to Associate County Agent Alfred Byrd.

But he emphasizes that it must be considered all during the year instead of just from Jan. 1 to tax reporting time.

For little can be done to reduce taxes after the close of the year's business.

Byrd says there is a wide variation in a Mitchell County farmer's annual net income because of variation in production and changes in prices and costs.

This affects the income tax he will have to pay because, generally, the less that his yearly income fluctuates the less tax he will have to pay over a period of years.

Good tax management means managing the farm business in such a way that the amount of taxes paid over a period of years is not greater than the legal minimum.

Since the government expects to receive no more tax than is due, the farmer should use all permissable means to reduce his ing loss.

Byrd says successful tax management is based to a great extent upon complete records kept regularly and carefully during the year. By using good records, a farmer can make a check of income and expenses to determine the approximate taxable income at any given date.

If an unusually high net income is anticipated by a cash basis taxpayer, some sales may be delayed until the next year or deductible expenses may be increased before the end of the year, according to the agent.

On the other hand, it is always advisable to have a net taxable income as large as the amount of exemptions and personal deductions.

"Since depreciation of farm machinery, improvements, and purchased breeding stock are allowable tax deductions," Byrd emphasized, "farm records should include a detailed record of all capital investments.

"Such a record should include date of purchase, cost, method taxes, the associate agent says.

One means of reducing taxes, Byrd reports, is to spread the annual net income as evenly as possible over a period of years because the graduated tax rate and personal exemptions cannot be accumulated from one year to another. Some other important considerations in good tax management are capital gain provisions, methods of depreciation and the provisions for carrying backward and forward an operat- and rate of depreciation, depreciation claimed in prior years, date of sale or trade and selling rice."

Sometimes bank statements are examined when a tax return is audited. Deposits listed on these statements may be taken as taxable income unless a farmer is able to prove otherwise. For this reason records should be kept to identify all deposits so as to determine taxable as well as nontaxable receipts.

"Since income tax is a personal tax levied upon the net income of an individual," the agent concluded, "it reduces the amount of money left for family living and farm investments.

"Like other costs on the farm, income tax costs can be reduced by good management."

Air Force Pair Visit Homes Of Relatives

By MRS. C. C. HAMILTON,
Record Correspondent.

LORAINE—Airman 3rd Class and Mrs. Donald L. Richards visited relatives in Loraine recently while the airman was on furlough.

With the Air Force couple were the airman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richards of Midland.

The Richards family formerly lived in Loraine, but moved to Midland several months ago.

Airman Richards is a native of Loraine and a graduate of Loraine High. He attended a school in Amarillo before entering the Air Force last September. His basic military training was at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, and Sheppard Air Force Base, Wichita Falls.

He will be stationed at Foster Air Force Base, Victoria, for special training.
