Ike Sets Talk For Tuesday

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower will start his reelection campaign with an address to 800 Republican party leaders at a Washington dinner next Tuesday evening.

The President's vacation headquarters announced this today as White House press secretary James C. Hagerty hit back at former President Truman's charge that Eisenhower has been a "do-nothing president." Truman said further in a Des Moines speech last night that the President has compiled "one of the most amazing records of political betrayal" on farm matters that he (Truman) ever has seen.

"I don't believe that Mr. Truman, by his own standards, can recognize accomplishment when he sees it," Hagerty told newsmen in response to a request for comment.

Truman's criticism and the White House rejoinder came as Eisenhower pondered whether to sign or veto an omnibus farm bill on which Congress completed action last night. The President has let it be known he doesn't thhink it is a good bill, but Hagerty declined again today to speculate about the possibility of a veto.

He said Eisenhower's political address at a Washington hotel next Tuesday evening will be made in response to an invitation by Leonard W. Hall, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

The President will speak to party state chairmen and vice chairmen, national committee members from all the states, Republican members of Congress, party finance leaders, and chairmen of "Salute to Eisenhower" rallies which were held throughout the country last Jan. 20.

Hagerty said Eisenhower is scheduled to speak some time between 9:30 and 10 p.m., EST. He said he did not know whether the address will be carried nationwide on television and radio.

MOSQUITOS AID MANKIND

Pesky Critters Used For Tests

DALLAS (AP)— Now benefitting mankind is that pesky buzz-bomb, the mosquito.

Mosquitoes have become test "animals" to check the purity of foods, to show whether any harmful amounts of insecticides are left on agricultural crops.

The mosquito larvae or wigglers provide the sensitive testing in the new method described today to the American Chemical Society by Dr. L. C. Terriere and Ulol Kiigemagi of Oregon State College.

The mosquito test can detect microscopically small amounts of insecticides which cannot be picked up by chemical tests, Terriere said. These insects are extremely sensitive to most modern insecticides.

The Oregon scientists rear mosquitoes, let them breed and produce larvae. The larvae are fed powdered dog food for five to six days, becoming big enough to use as test organisms.

A sample of fruit or other crop, or of soil or of processed food, is added to the water in which the larvae live. They become exposed to any residual insecticide, and death or life among the larvae gives a measure of how much insecticide was present.

The method is cheap and simple.

Ground Raiders Attack

JERUSALEM (AP)—Warplanes of Egypt and Israel clashed today and Israel claimed first blood.

An Israeli army spokesman announced two Israel ifighters intercepted four Egyptian jets in a noon flight northward over Israeli territory and shot down one —a Britishmade Vampire jet—on Israel's soil.

"The other three planes escaped," he said. "Our planes returned safely to base."

This announcement of air-to-air combat in the current Arab-Israeli crisis developed on the heels of claims by Israel of five new attacks by Arab commando raiders aground last night, in one of which three Israeli school children and a teacher were killed at prayer.

Angered Israeli security forces pressed a hunt for the raiders and public clamor for retaliations mounted.

Egypt, too, registered a complaint. A military spokesman in Egyptian-held Gaza said Israelis opened automatic fire today on an outpost in the Beit Hanoun area northeast of Gaza City and an Egyptian soldier was wounded. He said the outpost did not return the fire.

The newly established Egyptian Middle East News Agency reported last night that 300 Arab commandos had returned to their base in Gaza after staging a series of 50 raids. Official confirmation was lacking in Cairo, which has disclaimed responsibility for the attacks, but an Egyptian Embassy spokesman in Damascus said the group had headed back after making its retaliations for the Israeli shelling last Thursday of the Gaza trip, in which 64 Arabs were killed and 102 wounded.

Hoffman Proposes Overseas Aid Plan

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Paul G. Hoffman, former head of the Economic Cooperation Administration, today urged formation of a committee of top civilian experts to develop an expanded program of overseas aid to counter new Kremlin tactics.

In an address prepared for delivery at the opening session of the third national study conference on the church and economic life, Hoffman said:

"Such a committee would appraise the needs and resources of new nations, analyzing the capacity of new and underdeveloped countries to administer economic programs and offer recommendations as to which U.S. agencies are best qualified to carry out the programs."

Hoffman, now chairman of the board of Studebaker - Packard Corp., said the new leaders in Moscow "put their stress upon trade offers and offers of economic aid."

"To counter this," Hoffman said, "we must have an all-out effort for peace. We must wage peace with imagination, boldness and dedication."

He estimated the cost of "waging the peace" over the next five years in the "neighborhood of 200 billion dollars," and declared:

"But sharing our wealth is no solution. It would begger rather than help. If, however, we as a nation, and we as a people are willing to accept leadership in an all-out effort to achieve a durable peace, that commitment carries implications which may generate the answers we seek."

Many Arrive For Meeting Of Firemen

About 50 out-of-town guests had registered here for the 35th semi-annual Mid-West Texas Firemen's Association convention today, Jim Sullinger, first assistant fire chief, said.

Registration of guest began at 10 o'clock this morning at the central fire station at the city hall.

First order of business in the convention was to have been calling the meeting to order at 1:30 o'clock by Ray Lusk, association president.

A pledge of allegiance to the flag and the song "America" were to have followed led by Jack Inman of Snyder.

A welcome address was to have been given by Snyder Mayor Harold Bennett, with a response by the Rev. Joe P. Self, Jr.

During the business meeting N. W. Autry, chief of the Snyder fire department for 29 years, was to present guests.

Following the business meeting one of the convention's highlights is to be a series of fire team races to take place on Twenty-sixth Street in front of the city hall at 4:30 o'clock.

The conventioners will be fed a barbecue supper in Towle Park at 6:30 o'clock, and will be guests at the Fireman's Ball in the VFW-American Legion clubhouse at 8 o'clock.

Cool Front Hits Texas

By The Associated Press

A mild Pacific cool front that entered Texas early Thursday was expected to drop temperatures slightly, touch off a few thundershowers and possible stir up a little dust.

The front, which blustered through Arizona Wednesday, rapidly lost its intensity as it moved across New Mexico.

Blowing dust was reported in El Paso, Big Spring, Amarillo, Dalhart, and other West Texas points Wednesday afternoon. Temperatures ranged from 67 degrees at Sherman to 86 at Wink.

Early Thursday skies were clear across the state, winds were gentle, and there was no dust nor fog reported. Temperatures ranged from 40 degrees at Dalhart to 64 at Laredo.

Farm Dispute Erupts Into Political Issue

By The Associated Press

The farm issue blazed hotter today after former President Truman denounced President Eisenhower's agricultural policies as "political betrayal" and the Democratic-controlled Congress passed a farm aid bill containing features Eisenhower strongly opposes.

For the moment, at least, the sharpened farm controversy—which promises to figure importantly in the coming presidential campaign—overshadowed the contest between Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Stevenson, given "new heart and courage" by his strong showing in the Illinois primary, went vote-hunting in the Miami, Fla., area Kefauver opened a three-day expedition of his own in Florida where the two are pitted in the state's. May 29 primary.

Ignoring veto warnings by administration farm leaders in Congress, the House, followed by the Senate, yesterday approved the complex farm bill and sent it to Eisenhower. The measure would provide the soil bank the administration sought. But it also would restore high, rigid price supports on this year's crops of wheat, corn, cotton, rice and peanuts—a move opposed by Eisenhower. He has been critical of other sections of the bill, too.

In Augusta, Ga., where Eisenhower is vacationing, press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the President "still does not think the bill meets the test of a good bill."

Truman cut loose at Eisenhower—calling him a "do - nothing President"—during a speech at a Democratic fund - raising dinner last night in Des Moines, Iowa.

"Gen. Eisenhower has personally been doing all he could to keep Congress from raising the support prices farmers get," Truman declared.

Gas Industry Gets Warning

FORT WORTH (AP)—The Natural Gasoline Assn. was told today it must face the unknown danger of failure regulation by the Federal Power Commission when considering buildling gasoline plants.

W. R. Heath of Signal Oil & Gas Co. of Los Angeles spoke at a forum on "to build or not to build a natural gasoline plant —management considerations."

Heath denounced federal regulation after citing reserves, productive rate, value of products and sale of residue gas as factors to be considered in reaching a decision on buildling of a gasoline plant.

He said that even though a suitable contract were arranged for the sale of the residue gas, the government after a year or even later may step in and say that the price that has been negotiated is not acceptable.

He said that even if the Fulbright-Harris Bill, passed Congress and was vetoed by President Eisenhower, had become law and freed independent producers from federal regulation at the wellhead, "our condition would not have been entirely different."

Farm Legislation Sent To President

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress last night plunged the farm issue more deeply into the 1956 political campaign by sending President Eisenhower a new farm bill loaded with features he opposes.

In an all-out rebuff for Eisenhower engineered by Democratic leaders, first the House and then the Senate gave final approval to a measure which administration lieutenants predicted Eisenhower will veto.

Key Democrats, declaring it was this bill or nothing, predicted he would sign it.

Eisenhower, vacationing at Augusta, Ga., relayed word that he "still does not think the bill meets the test of a good bill."

Secretary of Agriculture Benson said he was "deeply disappointed." The bill contains one major provision Eisenhower sought. That is a soil bank program to pay farmers subsidies of as much as $1,200,000,000 a year for not planting cropland to commodities already in surplus.

But it includes a return to higher rigid price supports for this year, as well as other features which also would raise price props.

Eisenhower and Benson have repeatedly opposed such moves, contending they will only aggravate the problem by building up more surpluses.

GOP leaders made a last-ditch effort in the House to refashion the bill more to Eisenhower's liking.

They lost 238-181, losing 27 Republican votes on the test while picking up 14 Democratic ones. The House then passed the bill 237-181, with 48 Republicans and 35 Democrats defecting from party lines.

Dr. Broaddus Dies Today In New York

Dr. John O. Broaddus, 40, former Snyder physician, died unexpectedly at about 12:30 a.m. today in Latham, N. Y., friends here were informed this morning.

Death was attributed to a heart attack.

In a telephone conversation with Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Cockrell this morning, Mrs. Broaddus said her husband had retired early last night after complaining that he felt "very tired." Later Mrs. Broaddus discovered that he had been stricken and he apparently died before help arrived.

Bell Funeral Home here was advised at noon today that the body is at Dufusne Funeral home in Albany, N. Y. Funeral services are to be held Saturday morning at Latham, and then the body will be carried to Moberly, Mo., his boyhood home, for service and burial at 2 p.m. Tuesday.

Dr. Broaddus and his family had moved to New York in June of last year after he was awarded a fellowship in surgery at the Albany Medical College of Union University. He had been doing research on cancer and teaching in the college since last July 1.

Dr. Broaddus was a graduate of the University of Missouri, and of the Wayne College of Medicine. He interned in Grace Hospital in Detroit and did his post-graduate work in surgery at Joliet, Ill. He moved to Texas after serving in the Navy from 1944 to 1947 and came to Snyder in December of 1943.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Broaddus, a son, Dick Broaddus, 12; a daughter, Geri, 5, and his mother, Mrs. Lena Broaddus of Moberly.

Deeds For Widening Project Are Ready

T. B. Knight, county commissioner, was to have given deeds for right-of-way for widening and paving of Eighth Street from the Clairemont Road to the Camp Springs county road to the state highway engineering department.

Knight said that all the deeds were in order and ready for presentation early this morning.

The state plans to pave the two-mile stretch of road to connect the pavements of the Clairemont Road and the Camp Springs road. The county is to furnish only the right-of-way.

Designation of the road as a state farm-to-market road is also in the states plans, Knight said.

Report On Inspection Stickers Given Here

Only 77 per cent of the motor vehicles in Scurry County are equipped with new state inspection stickers, according to a mid-week survey, John Marion of the Dept. of Public Safety reported.

Marion said a tabulation Wednesday morning showed that 7,551 inspection stickers have been issued by stations in the county, while 9,783 vehicles are registered.

The deadline for vehicle inspections is Saturday, and the Dept. of Public Safety has served notice that the inspection law will be enforced beginning April 16. That means that owners of vehicles on the roads and highways Monday will be subject to tickets if they do not have inspection stickers displayed.

Program For Aiding Farmers Is Studied By Farm Bureau

WACO (AP) —Directors of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation considered yesterday a cotton program and a number of other proposals to aid farmers and ranchers.

The cotton program was approved by the commodity advisory committee of the federation, which urged recommendation of the plan by the state board. The program has been approved by the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Besides the cotton plan, other proposals considered by the directors include those to:

Oppose multiple price systems or certificate plans on wheat and opposing the tying of the support price of grain sorghum to that of any other crop, particularly corn.

Recommend that the Texas Livestock Sanitary Commission start a disease eradication program.

Recommend cooperation with the meat institutes and the American Farm Bureau Federation in meat promotion campaigns.

Continue efforts to prepare suitable feed control bill for consideration at the next Legislature.

Recommend farm programs be administered so that retired or diverted acreage does not interfere with other commodities not now under existing control programs.

The cotton program would increase the farmer's cotton revenue even though it would reduce the sale price by about two cents a pound, the advisory group said. The increased revenue would result from greater sales, members said. The program would:

Change the loan basis from the inch basis to the average of the crop, which, for practical purposes would be one inch.

Develop an improved price support program for cotton.

Immediate action to regain and hold the cotton export market.

Reduction of surplus by offering farmers negotiable options to buy CC cotton at reduced prices for voluntarily reducing their cotton acreage.

A greatly expanded research program to reduce cost and improve quality.

Negotiate agreements with countries who are increasing textile exports to the United States so imports will not seriously affect the U.S. cotton industry.

Mandatory labelling of textile products to show clearly the fibre content.

Mid-Atlantic Coast Hit By Rain, Wind

By The Associated Press

Rain and wind storms which hammered the mid-Atlantic coast, causing flash floods in sections of Virginia, diminished over most areas today.

However, moderate to heavy rain pelted coastal sections of North Carolina and Virginia. Light rain fell in other parts of the storm belt.

Wind gusts up to 70 m.p.h. lashed sections of Virginia last night, causing the highest tides in 20 years and resulting in floods in the Hampton Roads Coastal area.

Communications and transportation were disrupted. Flood waters overflowed into business and waterfront sections of norfolk and Newport News, halting ferry service linking the two cities and closing a main bridge across the James River. The tides reached a peak of four to five feet above normal before midnight and then began receding. Some flooding olso was reported in Hampton, Buckroe Beach and Poquoson.

The Carolinas also were hammered by the stormy weather. More than two inches of rain fell in many areas, as well as in Virginia. Snow fell in western and southwestern parts of Virginia, measuring from 3 to 5 inches.

Most of the middle part of the country reported dry and fairly pleasant spring weather.

Snow fell in Wyoming and western South Dakota while rain doused a wide area of California.

It was coole over the western half of the country with temperatures in the 30s and 40s. Mire warm air spread from Texas into the Midwest with readings from the 50s in Texas to the 30s and 40s in Illinois and Wisconsin.

Clear, skies brought a little cooling to the eastern states and New England with early morning marks in the 20s and low 30s.

Early morning readings ranged from 26 at Jamestown, N.D., to 70 at Key West, Fla.

Wheat Crop Report Given

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Department of Agriculture estimated yesteday that Texas will produce more than twice as much wheat this yeear as in 1955.

The forecast yesterday was that Texas would produce 28,314,000 bushels, compared to the 1955 production of 13,464,000 bushels, smallest crop in 20 years. In 1955 growers planted 4,356,000 acres to wheat but only 1,496,000 acres were harvested due to the drought.

The department estimated last month that Texas farmers had again seeded 4,356,000 acres to wheat but warned that the amount of acreage to be harvested would depend on rainfall throughout April and May.

The department estimated the Texas orange crop at 1,600,000 boxes compared to 1,800,000 last year. Grapefruit production was set at 2,200,000 boxes, same as last year.

Legal Battle Is Shaping Up Over Negroes

HOUSTON (AP)—The courthouse cafeteria was closed today and a legal fight over its future was on in Federal Court.

William Scott, Jr., attorney for operator Dee Derrington, went before Judge Ben Connally to ask that a judgment ordering the eating place opened to Negroes be suspended pending an appeal.

Negro attorney Henry Doyle, whose long legal fight resulted in the judge's order earlier this week opening the eating place to Negroes, contended the judgment should remain in effect while it is appeal to the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans.

The cafeteria was closed yesterday after a hassle in the hallway when Doyle and a group of Negroes started to enter the cafeteria and ask for service.

Derrington said he will decide whether to reopen the cafeteria after Connally rules.

Negro attorney M. W. Plummer filed aggravated assault charges against J. M. Wren, a white oil operator. Plummer filed a civil suit later against Wren asking $60,000 damages.

Wren aimed several punches at Plummer before an unidenfitied spectator intervened to end the attack in the hallway outside the basement eating place in the courthouse.

Show Johnny How Words Can Help With Hobbies

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Note to anxious mothers and father: If Johnny can't read at age 16 but is a wizard at mechanical things, don't give him up as lost. Just show him how words can help him put a hot-rod or a TV set together.

This is the advice of Frank Jennings, reading specialist and teacher of education in the Bloomfield, N. J., junior high school. He describes himself as a professional uncle.

"Though I have no children, I have five brothers all of whom have big families, and the problems of my nieces and nephews keep me in touch with the younger generation."

Jennings believes there's too much hysteria on the part of parents over current widely publicized reading problems of children.

"Actually today's teaching methods are better than anything they had in the good old days," says he. "The difference is that in 1889 only 7 per cent of children went to high school. Today 77 per cent go to high school. Back in the '80s and '90s the ones who got to high school were only the cream of the crop, and so of course they had no reading problems.

"Today boys and girls of all levels of reading skill are pushed along, and there are bound to be some backward ones in that 77 per cent. But any way you look at it we're still way ahead of former generations."

Jennings is an ardent supporter of the program of the Library Club of America to encourage children to read more books. But he says:

The impetus to read must come from the family. If a child sees his parents reading and obviously enjoying books, he soon gets the idea this is something he wants to do too—it looks like fun."

Applications Taken For Dallas School

Girls interested in applying for scholarships to The Hockaday School in Dallas are asked to write to Miss Mary Reynolds, director of Admissions, Hockaday School, Dallas 6, Tex., for application forms. They should be filled in and returned to the school as quickly as possible.

Eligibility is based on academic ability, previous school records, character, and financial need. Scholarships are most often granted to girls entering grades nine through eleven. Since the school requires two years attendance before graduation, no girl is admitted to the twelfth grade her first year.

All applicants for Hockaday are given a scholastic aptitude test, which will be administered to scholarship applicants at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 19. Scholarship applicants are given as well, achievement tests in English and mathematics and a general intelligence test.

Interviews by the members of the Alumnae Scholarship Committee will be held in the afternoon following the testing in the morning, Mrs. Duncan E. Boeckman, chairman, has announced. Both the tests and the interviews will be conducted on the campus, corner of Greenville and Belmont Street in Dallas.

New Type Of Bath Mat Made Of Foam

Oooooh, you'll love to squish your feet into a new type bath mat made of extra-thick vinyl foam — non-skid, too — with a top layer of vinyl plastic woven into a cane, thatched straw, rop diamond, or one of several other patterns, And to complete a dream outfit, you can also get a matching bath mitt and bath pillow.

But as you admire all this bathroom glamour, just remember it also has a practical and durable side. The textured plastic surface washes perfectly in soup or detergent suds. The foam side of the mat is cleaned best by using a squeezing motion to ease the suds in and out of the tiny pores, and a soft-bristled brush in handy to use on any soil nestled in the crevices.

Undercover Mixing

Somebody has finally done something about mixing-bow splatter. The magic answer is a plastic "hood." This hood spreads to cover any size mixing bowl and the beater fits through a small hole at the top.

Holland Trip Is Discussed

At the meeting of the Twentieth Century Study Club Tuesday Mrs. John Hamblen who has been in Germany for a year, showed slides and discussed their trip to Holland. She was dressed in a native costume. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Ola Leath, 2612 Avenue R.

Dr. DWane Collins and Mrs. Wendell Shifflett, from the high school, presented some of the highlights from the Fiesta day program that is to be held Saturday. Participating were seven girls who did a Spanish dance that will be a contest number at the Fiesta. Those girls were Clinta Blackard, Connie Connell, Lee Eddleman, Ginny Woodyard, Booksie Tate, Sandra Feathers and Carol Stewart. The winner of the Spanish dance will entertain at the Queen's cornation and will also go to Austin for the state contest.

Also participating in the program was Wila Livingston, who gave an extemporaneous speech n Spanish, which is also a contest number for the Fiesta.

Mrs. Leath's daughter and grand daughter, Mrs. Richard Brice and Letha, assisted with the serving of refreshments to the 14 members and 15 guests present.

Flavorful Dressing

A crisp, flavorful dressing for fresh fruit salads is made by adding 2 tablespoons grated apple and 3 tablespoons chopped walnuts to ½ cup mayonnaise. Blend well.

Shredded Coconut With Baked Apples

Add a surprise flavor to the family's favorite baked apples by filling the centers with shredded coconut.

Wash and core apples and peel down about 1 inch. Make a syrup of red cinnamon candies and pour over cored apples. Bake covered for 30 minutes in hot oven. Then fill apple centers with shredded coconut and continue baking, uncovered, 30 minutes longer. Top with whipped cream if desired.

EDITORIALS

On The Very Verge

We Americans are so absorbed in domestic matters—the presidential primaries, the farm bill, the drouth, the late spring, the pull and haul of politics—that we either are bored by or disgusted with the daily gist of news from the hottest spot on earth—the Middle East.

The arrival of the UN secretary-general bearing proposals for easing the tension between Arab and Jew was the signal for fresh outbreaks of violence on the border seperating Israel from Egypt. At the same time the harassed British lion was getting a tail-twisting from two practically new directions—Aden, at the tip of the Arabian mainland, and the oil-producing island of Bahrain on the Persian Gulf.

These incidents, and many others that have gone before or will follow soon after, add up to one tthing: a determination, backed if not devised by Soviet Russia, to drive the power and influence and the very presence of Western nations from the Middle East.

Our stake there is only less enormous than Britain's. As little as most Americans realize it, all that the west owns in the Middle East trembles in the balance. Take one item: oil. If thet Anglo-American community of petroleum interests are driven out—in which case Russia would reap the full benefit—it would be only a matter of time until we ran out of gas. In case of global war that one item might be decisive—against us. In case of war it would be necessary to ration gasoline to absolutely essential uses; nine-tenths of the automobiles in the U.S. would not be merely rationed, they would be immoblized.

And the outbreak of a general shooting war in the Middle East would inevitably lead to global war, later if not sooner.

At this moment we are perilously near an open and widespread war in that area. Matters have gone so far—from neglect, from lack of initiative and imagination, from whatever cause—that pulling this one out of the fire will partake of the miraculous.

At this moment no magicians are visible on the Western front.

The Matter Of Fillers

In newspaper parlance a "filler" is one of those two, three of four line items like "The Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock after a long and stormy voyage from the old country," used to fill a bit of column space which otherwise might leave a blank space in the paper, which might not be a bad idea after all.

Their use probably is as old as newspapers, for they not only save the time of "leading out" a piece that does not quite fill the column, but by some stretch of the imagination might be said to be instructive, amusing and startling, especially when one of the things gets mixed up with a legitimate piece of news or advertising.

We daresay that in the course of a year we use thousands of these little bits of space-fillers. They are strictly utilitarian, harmless, ready to hand and really quite useful to a hurried make-up man.

Other day the Raleigh News and Observer reported that a gentleman had called its attention to the fillers, and generously offered a sample concocted by himself: "Pencils are made six-sided rather than round so they won't roll away."

Thank goodness the man didn't write "hexagonal." One of the great virtues of fillers is that they are pitched in plain English. This is not so much a matter of getting down to the reader's level, but to save the newspaperman the trouble of looking up difficult words, to prevent some smart filler-writer from putting something over on him.

Anyway, the gentleman who applied to the RN and O for a job of filler-writer—he had reached the age of retirement and wanted something to occupy his time—submitted a few additional samples, like this: "Most American newspapers are printed in English, as the majority of the citizens read and speak this language." For a filler, that's a pretty opinionated asservation, if you ask us, Fillers are supposed to eschew controversial matters.

And another: "Traffic lights are placed at most intersections for the purpose of preventing collisions and the red light means stop and the green go." That will be real news to most of our own readers.

Unnatural Calm, Like Lull Before Big Storm, Settles In The Jordan Sector

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP)—Here on the edge of the volcano there is an unnatural calm like the lull before the summer storm.

"Israel has humiliated the Arabs again," leading Arabs are saying, "but we must wait. We are not strong enough yet."

There is clearly a feeling among leading Jordanians that time is running out for Israel.

"Why did they attack in the Gaza Strip?" one Arab leader asked me. "It was because Israel is desperate. She knows we are getting stronger every day. She must provoke us to action that will bring Western intervention and freeze the status quo so she will be safe. But we will not fall for this trick."

Yet the situation here is full of danger. In stone huts, tin shacks and tents on the Jebels (hills) around Amman there is far less calm.

Passions among the half million Arab refugees in Jordan run higher with each report of an Israeli attack.

This confused little nation has been thrust suddenly to the forefront of Middle East power politics. The entire Western defense position is linked up with its future. That is why pressures bear down so heavily on the shoulders of the young king who would rather think about dual carburetors, jet planes and thrills than politics. But the threat to Hussein's throne is implicit in today's situation.

Jordan has become the prize of the political tug of war between Egypt's Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser and Iraq's Premier Nuri said.

Since the September Czech arms deal, Nasser has been the hero here. Suddenly, overnight, there was a drop in his stock among the refugees—who are a powerful political force in this country. Palestinians were killed in the latest attacks and there was wrath among fellow Palestinian refugees here. They are asking loudly why Nasser is not using his shiny new Communist arms.

Jordan today has a million and a half people. A third of these are refugees from Israel. Another third are of that part of Palestine annexed by Jordanian King Abdullah in the Arab-Israel war and what was the poorest part of Palestine became the richest part of Jordan. The rest are "east bank" Transjordanians of whom three quarters are nomad Bedouins whose way of life is virtually unchanged from Bible times.

From a nation which was hardly more than an unsinkable British aircraft carrier in the Middle East, it is developing into a country with a split personality. It is under terrific pressure from other Arab states to break all ties with Britain and the West.

Today this kingdom—dependent on Britain for its economic and military survival—typifies the ferment of the whole Arab world.

Young King Hussein considers he has a mission. He still hopes he can help lay the foundation of Arab unity and is making earnest gestures toward Syria. But circumstances are against him.

The price for even a semblance of unity with the Syrians and Egyptians is to break with Britain. Hussein is Western-oriented and educated.

Britain is connected with the Baghdad Pact, Jordan is linked in a pact with Iraq—thus Jordan willy - nilly has a link with the Baghdad treaty, the target of immense propaganda by the Egypt-Saudi Arabian-Sria bloc.

The influence of Egypt's Nasser complicates the situation here. He has been a hero since the arms deal. Informed opinion here is that Israeli attacks are aimed at calling Nasser's bluff, and shooting him off his white horse as Arab liberator.

Trimming nasser down will not help Hussein. It is bound to breed disillusionment and anger among Palestinian refugees. Inaction in face of Israeli attacks carries for Jordan a threat that mobs will be turned out on the streets of Amman with outraged Palestinians shouting that the time has arrived for "fire and iron." Ferment of this sort, such as that stirred up the time Britain tried to force this country into the Baghdad Pact, poses a threat to the throne itself. Hussein has been enjoying a wave of popularity since he dismissed Gen. Sir John Bagot Glubb, but the influence and example of Nasser is a heady influence, even in the Arab Legion.

There even is talk of a possible rise here of a strong man from the Legion ranks. One of those mentioned in this respect is Lt. Col. Ali Abu Nawar, a young officer who was the king's aide-de-camp. The so-called Free Officers' group reminds an observer of Nasser's revolutionary committee. But the king remains friendly with Nawar and apparently feels things are under control since he bowed to demands for the Arabization of the Legion.

The danger to the West here lies in the Nuri-Nasser struggle for Jordan. If Cairo wins and Jordan becomes "liberated," Iraq will be isolated and her position will deteriorate. Iraq is no stronger than 68-year-old Nuri, whose health is beginning to fade. It is unlikely Iraq could long withstand the terrific pressure to pull out of the Baghdad Pact.

In the light of British withdrawals and troubles elsewhere, Jordan is the last real toehold in the Middle East. Pressure on Hussein from Saudi Arabian money and Egyptian strategy is constant for a complete break with Britain.

There are some possible breaks in the generally gloomy outlook.

LITERARY GUIDEPOST

THE TRUE CROSS, By Carlo Scarfoglio. Translated from Italian by Frances Frenaye. Pantheon.

A novel of quiet understatement, this deals with a period when killing nonbelievers was one of Christianity's most glorified forms of service.

The central character of the novel is a young Italian, Guido, whose hungry zeal to serve Christ took him to Jerusalem to join the order of Knight Templars and wage war on the Arab world.

On the battlefields, he finds orgy of death, but in the life of the secret, celibate order of knights, he encounters perversion and rites of depravity.

Disillusioned, he leaves the order, and becomes a knight for a baron of the little Christian kingdom. In idleness between campaigns, he acquires a mistress, a wayward girl with no religion but with a boundless love.

His rigidly chaste background gives him a bitter, fatalistic attitude toward the affair.

The "Holy War" disintegrates into pettiness, jealousy, weakness and failure, and Jerusalem finally falls into the hands of the Moslem Leader, Saladin, who also sees his cause as divine.

In this conflict of religious passions, hundreds of thousands die. This novel is authentic history, crammed with the names, places, seiges and politics that dominated 15 years, 1177 to 1192.

It is only after the defeat of the Christian adventure, which had drained European nations of men and money and splashed the Levant with blood, did Guido find an answer to his search — as an unarmed pilgrim walking barefoot to Jerusalem in defeat — under the eyes of enemy guards.

The author is an Italian newspaperman. It is an odd novel in that there is no direct dialogue.

If Administration Has Plan To Prevent Middle East War, It Hasn't Been Told

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—If the Eisenhower administration has a plan for preventing Middle Eastern war, it hasn't been stated. Nor, if war begins between Israelis and Arabs, is it clear whether this government will try to stop it with armed force or a debate in the United Nations.

This lack of clarity about U.S. policy may discourage the Isrealis and Arabs from big fighting. Or it may have the opposite effect.

A careful reading of the White House statement issued this week after a conference between President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles shows this country is not saying precisely what it will do. The key sentences said:

"The United States, in accordance with its responsibilities under the charter of the United Nations, will observe its commitments within constitutional means to oppose any aggression.

"The United States is likewise determined to support and assist any nation which might be subjected to such aggression. The United States is confident that other nations will act similarly in the cause of peace."

Those two paragraphs could mean any a number of things: that Eisenhower, with congressional approval, would send armed forces into the Middle East to stop a war; or send one side or the other supplies; or ask both sides for a cease-fire; or ask the U.N. for united military action.

If it just meant getting into a debate in the U.N., a quick war might be over before the debate was.

Dulles called in congressional leaders yesterday for a briefing. It's possible, although officials discount the idea now, that Eisenhower may ask Congress to do what it did for him in 1955 when Formosa was threatened by the Red Chinese; authorize him to use armed force as he saw fit to stop an aggressor.

Whether that did it or not, the Red Chinese quieted down. A similar congressional authorization in the Middle East might not have the same result. The situation there is not identical.

In 1950 the United States, Britain, and France agreed on the subject of Israelis and Arabs: "The three governments, should they find that any of these states was preparing to violate frontiers or armistice lines, would, consistently with their obligations as members of the U.N., immediately take action, both within and outside the U.N., to prevent such violations."

That agreement, made under the Truman administration, has never been repudiated. But that doesn't mean Eisenhower will think the agreement is practical now.

The agreement didn't talk of armed force in so many words. It said "action" would be taken. Action can take many forms. The picture is different from 1950 when this country was far ahead of Russia in atomic development and the Russians were not involved in the Middle East.

So perhaps this country may not wish to carry out the 1950 agreement. Britain and France have their hands full in Cyprus and in North Africa.

What neither the United States, Britain nor France is providing now — as far as Middle East peace is concerned — is leadership.

Leap Year's A Cinch If You Have A Blank Check

By INEZ ROBB

Since Leap Year still has eight months to go, I feel it is no less than a sacred duty to put on paper the way in which one dauntless belle overcame all obstacles to get her man. (The Canadian Mounties could take lessons!)

So I shall plunge at once into the true tale of our heroine, more a woman than a girlie. As the scene opens, with 1956 on the horizon, Bix, as I shall call her, is wallowing in Stygian gloom.

Her current husband has just given her the heave, a humiliating and—to her—surprising end of another marriage. With her pride, rather than her emotions, bleeding at every pore, a most ample financial settlement accompanying the divorce scarcely salved her wounds.

In these mortifying straits, Bix's reaction was pure female. Obviousl, the only solution, the only means by which Bix could hold up her head in international cafe society in the future and salvage her go, was to marry before her immediate ex-husband could beat her to it.

As Bix mentally cased the list of eligibles, it became alarmingly clear that she had just about exhausted American possibilities in the past. But as the pit yawned at her feet, Bix suddenly remembered a remarkably attractive Englishman whom she had met only once before and then for only a few hours.

On a train from New York to Washington, they had been seated by happy accident at a small table for two. They chatted only enough for Bix to realize that he was a man-of-the-world, a charmer, and rich, to boot. Yachting, he had said, was his hobby and his love. He had talked of sailing with great enthusiasm.

She remembered these few things about him, his name and nothing more. But, stout soul, she took the next liner to England. Once settled into her London hotel, she began a systematic hunt for her quarry. She started by phoning all the best London clubs and hotels and asking for her man.

Within 40 minutes she located him. It was obvious that he scarcely remembered her. He was brief and coldly courteous. When she said that she had to see him at once, he explained that he would be in business conferences all day and was leaving for the Continent late in the afternoon.

But Bix was so insistent that he finally and reluctantly said that if she would come at once, he could see her for five minutes, no more.

The long and short of it is when they met, Bix told him she finally had decided to buy "the best small yacht in the world" and wished him, since he was an expert of experts, to order, superintend and buy it for her.

And, as a clincher, she handed him a blank check with only her signature in the proper place.

She had pinked him, as she expected, in his Achilles' heel. He could not resist. Naturally, while the yacht was a-building, he had to consult with Bix every day.

Yes, they were married 10 days ago.

Leap year, ladies, is a cinch, if you have a blank check handy.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Club Formed By Wife Of GOP Congressman

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON. — Mrs. E. Ross Adair, wife of the Republican congressman from Indiana, suddenly got an inspiration three years ago. With her gift for organization she has put it effectively to work.

She has just formed the third of a series of international wives' clubs made up of wives of members of the diplomatic corps who have come here from all over the world and the wives of members of Congress who come here from every state. She has formed one such club each year since her husband was made a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee three years ago.

The busy Congress' wife who is the mother of a daughter, 17, and son, 13, says the possibilities are just endless. "It's so worthwhile, such a privilege," she told me, "and there's so much we can learn from each other."

Mrs. Adair explained that she so enjoyed meeting women of other lands and exchanging ideas with them at the dinners to which they are invited that she wanted to share the experience with other congressional wives.

"It was like taking a trip all around the world right here at home," she said. "And I soon discovered that foreign wives were just as anxious to meet and know us American women."

Mrs. Adair began each group by inviting five diplomatic and fire congressional wives to her apartment for luncheon to talk it over. The No. 1 group is made up of wives of ambassadors and wives of members of the House Foreign Affairs and Senate Foreign Relations Committee. No. 2 group is made up of wives of embassy ministers and counselors from countries other than those in No. 1 and of congressional wives from different states. No. 3 is for foreign service wives in general.

All three clubs are limited to 20 members. The American women must be equally divided between Republicans and Democrats. Members take turns being hostess at the monthly luncheons, or teas at their home, or embassy, and each member is asked to bring a different guest each time. In June, Mrs. Adair says, the three groups hope to join forces at a luncheon.

"The idea is to promote better understanding and friendship among women of all nations," Mrs. Adair said.

RADIO-TV REPORT

BY CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—ABC-TV, the youngest of the three major networks, is taking a long forward stride in programming next season.

Three important themes will be brought to the home screen by its News and Special Events Department: alcoholism, divorce and the human element in the scientific complexity of our national defense program. Both film and live cameras will be combined in the format of these three big programs designed by John Daly. They are tentatively titled "Let's Cry Today," "Divided We Fall" and "Operation Survival." Dates have not yet been set for their howings.

"Omnibus," which this viewer considers the most consistently intelligent and interesting regular program on television, is switching from CBS to ABC next October. A basic reason is that ABC offered prime Sunday evening time. There has been no official announcement on the hour, but you can bet on 9:30 to 11 p.m., Eastern time.

"Omnibus" at such an hour will revive an evening that has become dull and stereotyped on the home screen. Except for occasional good dramas there hasn't been much in the way of stimulating TV fare on the one evening of the week when most familes are at home.

In step with this increase in live programming, ABC-TV will present six Theatre Guild productions from dramatic and musical comedy theater beginning in January. Among the shows planned are "The General's Other Son," "The Honeys," "Take A Giant Step," "By Jupiter" and "Playboy of the Western World."

In addition the Metropolitan Opera will produce two operas with the Met's regular stars and artists under the direction of Rudolf Bing. On Dec. 23 the New York City Ballet will present "The Nutcracker" with top stars under the direction of George Ballanchine.

A dozen new weekly series are in the works for ABC-TV next season, ten on film and two live. Of top interest, and marking a new development for the network, will be a 90-minute weekly drama series on film called "Command Performance." Produced by John Gibbs, the dramas will be based on the works of writers of the caliber of Somerset Maugham, John Dos Passos and John O'Hara.

Texas Third In Property Holdings By Government

BY TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new inventory of U.S. property shows holdings in Texas total $1,542,000,000.

The report of the House Government Operations is in compliance with a resolution introduced by Rep. Martin Dies, congressman at large from Texas.

Texas was fourth in the nation. California was first with $3,791,000,000, Washington (State) second with $2,246,000,000, and Tennessee third with $1,954,000,000.

Atomic energy plants in Washington and Tennessee put those states ahead of Texas. Texas ranked third in the total number of federal installations, with 545. California was first with 93 and New York second with 679.

The government owned 480 million U.S. acres, or 21.4 per cent of the total of 1,904,000,000 acres.

In Texas the federal government had 2,600,000 acres or 1.5 per cent of the state, less on a percentage basis than in any other Western or Southern state.

All federal buildings were valued at 14½ billion dollars. The top three states in order of cost were California, $1,587,000,000, New York, $800,000,000 and Texas, $781,000,000.

The report showed these Defense Department holdings in Texas: Army, 4 installations, 393,176 acres and 11,645 buildings with cost of 370 million dollars; Air Force, 50 installations, 102,310 acres and 10,115 buildings costing 586 million dollars; Navy, 41 installations, 22,063 acres and 2,414 buildings costing 163 million dollars; Army Engineers, 26 installations, 380,654 acres and 88 buildings costing 165 million dollars.

Dies said the inventory was to determine the value of tax-exempt federal holdings within localities, so as to estimate the loss in local taxes for support of schools, police and fire and other municipal and county functions.

Ike Is Accused Of Betraying Farmers

DES MOINES (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman last night accused President Eisenhower of betraying the farmers and then said Eisenhower may sign the controversial farm bill "in an effort to get re-elected."

He called Eisenhower a "do-nothing President' 'and said Eisenhower has been putting "road blocks in the way" of adequate farm legislation.

While the Senate in Washington completed action on the congressional farm legislation, Truman, unaware that the bill had been voted on, addressed an Iowa Democratic fund-raising dinner.

"The Democrats have led the fight (for high price supports) and I hope they lay a bill to help the farmer right on the President's desk,' 'he said.

"I don't know what Ike is going to do with that bill. He could veto it, of course, because it is directly contrary to his philosophy of reducing farm prices.

"However, this is an election year, and he may well decide that it's the better part of valor to sign this bill in an effort to get reelected . . ."

"Gen. Eisenhower has personlly been doing all he could to keep Congress from raising the support prices farmers get," Truman said.

"This is one of the most amazing records of political betrayal I have ever seen in ll my years of public life."

The former President spoke to about 1,200 persons who paid $25 a plae for the Jackson Day dinner.

Truman recalled his 1948 campaign in Iowa and asserted "we are on the road to victory again today as we were in 1948."

The situation at that time, he said, was that a Republican Congress had "tried to block everything the Democratic President was trying to do for the people."

"This year," Truman added, "it's a Republican President that's causing the trouble, instead of a Republican Congress, but the results are just as bad—maybe worse."

Five Hurled By Explosion

COLORADO SPRINGS (AP) —A smouldering fire exploded, hurling five men down a stairway, and razed a two-story building in downtown Colorado Springs early Wednesday.

The stubborn blaze raged out of control nearly five and a half hours before firemen brought it in check about 4:30 a.m.

Half a dozen business firms and a dozen offices were burned out as the flames destroyed the Bates Building on Pikes Peak Avenue, the main business street.

The loss was estimated unofficially by newsmen at nearly a million dollars.

The explosion occurred just after the five men entered the street level door and climbed to the second floor.

All were hurled down the stairs and out the door. Fireman J. A. DeMark suffered a possibly broken leg. He and the others also were burned about the face.

Fire officials said the blaze apparently started in false ceilings and the explosion resulted from a backdraft as air reached the flames.

More Drill Periods

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Air Force said today that it is authorizing 36 added paid drill periods a year, for its reserve and National Guard flying personnel. This will increase the annual total of paid drills to 84, plus a 15-day tour of active duty each summer. No more than 12 of the additional drills may be taken in any one three-month period.

Ike Speech Is Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — A foreign policy speech by President Eisenhower appeared likely today to take the spotlight away from a Democratic Woodrow Wilson Centennial dinner on April 21.

Eisenhower agreed yesterday to speak before the American Society of Newspaper Editors on the same night Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) and Sen. Alben Barkley (D-Ky) will be extolling the Democratic party. Both gatherings will be in Washington.

The editors have also invited Adlai E. Stevenson to speak at a luncheon on the same day as Eisenhower's night speech.

The Democrats' dinner, which they hope will raise $250,000, will wind up a two-day party discussion of campaign and national convention plans. They may take some steps to choose a keynoter for their Chicago convention opening Aug. 13.

Most frequently mentioned for this post is former Vice President Barkley. Others under consideration includle Gov. Frank G. Clement of Tennessee, Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, and Sens. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota and Albert Gore of Tennessee.

NEW YORK (AP)—Clifton Daniel, Margaret Truman's fiance, says they will honeymoon in Nassau, the Bahamas, after their April 21 wedding at the Independence, Mo., home of former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman.

Daniel, assistant to the foreign news editor of the New York Times, said yesterday the Nassau home of Count an Countess Guy de la Fregonniere had been offered to them for their honeymoon.

The countess, the former Philadelphia heiress Priscilla Dickerson, reportedly is a longtime friend of Daniel's.

Land Commissioner To Seek Reelection

SAN ANGELO (AP) — Land Commissioner Earl Rudder of Brady said yesterday that he would seek reelection to the post.

Rudder was appointed in January, 1955, when Bascom Giles, who had been elected, refused to take the oath.

Giles is in the penitentiary because of irregularities in the veterans land program while he was commssioner.

Froth And Frills Of Cake Set Festive Party Mood

The blooms of spring flowers and the blushes of spring brides all call for the delicate touch at party time. The most elegant of desserts give the guests a visual feast before tasting the cook's creation.

For decorating cakes, a creamy frosting and paper cones and a few decorating tubes are essential to confection flowers. To make paper cones, use butcher's paper, heavy freezer paper, parchment or any grease proof paper. Cut 12-inch squares and cut the squares in half from corner to corner to make triangles. Hold a triangle at the apex between the thumb and forefinger of the left hand. Bring right corner of triangle to thumb and forefinger and tuck it under thumb to form a cone. Swing left corner of triangle around front of cone and tuck it under forefinger. Fold points down into cone, cut off top ½ inch from bottom and drop a decorating tube into the cone.

Decorating tubes are numbered with the plain tubes being 1 and 12. Other basic tubes include the leaf tube with flat notched openings to form leaves and flower petals and star tubes with round, sawtoothed openings to make fluted borders, etc.

The circular mouthed plain tube is used to make green buds, rosebuds and daisies. To make a simple bud, hold a tube almost parallel and touching surface. Keep it straight and press out bud of desired size. Without removing the tube, continue to press and gently pull tube away, making a slender stem. For a rosebud, impose an "S" on the unstemmed bud. Petaled flowers, as daises, are made by pulling the tube away from each bud petal as if making a stem. The same principal is used with a twist tube to make leaves. Far upright leaves, a sharp upright motion to make standing leaf.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

IF WICHITA FALLS' pitching fails in the coming District 3-AA baseball chase, the Coyote batsmen may pull the team through in its bid for the title.

Going into this week's games, three Coyote lumber - swingers were hitting above .400 and two others boasting of .300 or above averages.

We don't know just what kind of pitching the Coyotes have been facing but these are pretty healthy batting averages in any league.

The Coyotes, going into this week's play, owned a 5-4 record. Most of the Coyote games to date have been against Oklahoma teams.

The three lads who are hitting over .400 are right fielder David West (.467); third baseman Larry Phillips (.417); and left fielder Reg Kimbrough (.414).

In pitching, Howard Franklin is the Coyote ace with a 2-0 mark. Franklin, however, has appeared in six games and has struck out 42 in 30 innings of hurling.

3-Way Title Race Looms

The way things are shaping up, the 3-AA race is going to be a three-way battle for the title between Abilene, Wichita Falls and Snyder.

We aren't discounting the fact that Vernon, the fourth team in 3-AA, may creep into the title picture. The Lions will go into district play as a "sleeper," meaning little is known of the actual strength of the Vernon nine.

The last count we had on the Lions they had a 2-2 mark. The two Lion wins came against Class B Northside, a community just outside Vernon.

On paper, it doesn't look like the Lions figure in the title running.

If the Tigers are fortunate enough to win the 3-AA title, we would rather see the Bengals meet Odessa in bi-district play rather than the Midland Bulldogs.

We're saying this despite the fact the Tigers broke even with Midland in four games at 2-2 whereas they lost both games played against Odessa.

We think the Tigers would stand a better chance against Odessa than Midland, in bi-district play. Midland easily has the superior pitching with the hitting of the two teams just about even.

We don't believe Odessa will beat Midland out for the 4-AA title, though, but if the Broncs stumble into a pile of luck as they did in edging the Tigers Tuesday then the Odessans may emerge with the title.

Abilene 'Yankees' Of 3-AA

Here we are putting the cart before the horse—talking about bi-district play before the first district game has been played.

We'd be satisfied to play the New York Yankees in bi-district if we could notch the 3-AA crown.

We don't know what the word out of Abilene is now but before Tuesday's 7-5 Eagle defeat at the hands of Monterey, the consensus of opinion of most outsiders concerning the Abilene reports on the Eagles was that the Warhirds were as invincible as the Yanks.

Abilene scribesmen say the Eagles are much stronger this year than last year's outfit that reached the state finals before losing.

In other words, the state title, according to the Abilene reports, already belongs to the Eagles. To make it official, though, the Eagles have agreed to go through the formality of playing out their schedule before placing the state championship cup in their trophy case.

With the spring exhibition games out of the way, professional baseball in Texas gets underway tonight. The Big State League kicks off its season tonight with the Texas League following suit tomorrow night. Then next week, the Southwestern League will get the ball rolling.

The major league season, too, opens next week with the Yankees at Washington opening up the fireworks Tuesday.

Yep, another baseball season has arrived and from now until next October, baseball will be hogging the sports spotlight.

Big State Loop Kicks Off Tonite

By The Associated Press

The Class B Big State League, one of the most drastically changed circuits in professional baseball, opens its tenth season Thursday night.

It's virtually unrecognizable from the league that was organized in 1947. Only two clubs that were in it then—Waco and Wichita Falls—are in the circuit this season.

Only three that were in it last year are back. They are Waco, Port Arthur and Corpus Christi. New members are Victoria, Lubbock, Abilene, Wichita Falls and Beaumont.

Opening the race Thursday night will be this schedule:

Corpus Christi at Victoria.
Lubbock at Abilene.
Wichita Falls at Waco.
Beaumont at Port Arthur.

Hal Sayles, the new league president, predicts a marked attendance increase over last year when the circuit hit it's all-time low with 415,211.

Corpus Christi is anticipating 150,000 for the season. Lubbock and Abilene think they'll draw better than 100,000.

It's the maiden voyage of Victoria in professional baseball. And this city is being picked as the one to beat in the battle for the pennant.

Landy Eyes U. S. Meets

MELBQURNE, Australia (AP) — John Landy, the fastest miler of all time, hinted today he might break the 4-minute barrier when he visits the United States for two races next month.

The Australian school teacher, who has gone under 4 minutes in four of his last five races, will run in Los Angeles May 5 and in the West Coast Relays in Fresno May 12. His world mark is 3:58.

"If conditions are right, I might even run faster than last Saturday," he said. He was caught in 3:58.6 in that one and complained later that he felt "sluggish."

"But it's just a gamble," he added. "I dearly would love to break the 4-minute mile in the United States, though."

The under-4-minute mile has been run nine times since Roger Bannister of Great Britain finally broke the barrier two years ago. It never has been done on American soil. Wes Santee's 4:00.5 is the closest in the United States.

"I haven't been training particularly hard," Landy continued. "But now I'll do some preparation for these meetings."

He said he had no idea who would run against him in Los Angeles — which will be a special mile in a dual meet between Southern California and UCLA—and Fresno.

There will be no more competitive appearances for him between his American races and the Olympics, the 25 - year - old Landy indicated.

Automobile Is Not Made For Floating

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Police Officer C. L. Posey's boat floated fine in nearby Lake Hefner yesterday—but his car and trailer didn't. Posey's brakes failed as he backed down a ramp to the water, and he kept right on going.

The policeman swam to safety, then recruited help to fish the auto out of 20 feet of water.

Maryland's Laurel race track has been the scene of two match races — Hourless against Omar Khayyan in 1917 and Eternal against Billy Kelly in 1918.

Local Thinly Squads In Foreign Meets

Nine Tiger tracksters and one tennis player will leave tomorrow for Amarillo where Saturday the thinlies will take part in the annual Amarillo Relays.

The lone netter to take part at Amadillo is Ronnie Smith, No. 1 singles player on the Tiger tennis squad.

This week's Amarillo Relays will wind up the regular schedule of the Tigers.

But four members of the Bengal cinder squad have qualified for the regional meet to be held in Stephenville next week. They are Jack Spikes, Bobby Pollard, Powell Berry and Bill Fowler.

Two other local track teams, the junior high and high school freshmen teams, will also see action this weekend. Both teams will take part in the Andrews Invitational meet tomorrow and the Abilene Invitational Saturday.

The Tiger entries in the Amarillo Relays are as follows:

Jack Spikes — 440-yard relay, discus, shot put and high jump.

Bobby Pollard — 440-yard relay, mile relay, 100-yard dash.

Powell Berry — 440-yard relay, high hurdles, low hurdles.

Tommy Gary — 440-yard dash, mile relay.

John Ward — Mile relay, high hurdles.

Bud Morgan — low hurdles, 220-yard dash.

Bill Fowler — 440-yard relay, 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash.

Mickey Craig — Mile relay, 440-yard dash.

Dean Staton — 880-yard run.

NCAA Boxing Meet Opens

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A star peppered field of 67 student sluggers began swinging today in the 19th annual NCAA Boxing Tournament.

Two defending champions, 12 undefeated punchers and several high powered team entries were among the representatives of 20 colleges and universities that opened action at the University of Wisconsin field house.

At stake were the team title and 10 individual championships plus an automatic berth in the Olympic tryouts next October for the title winners.

Today's program included 11 bouts this afternoon and 17 this evening to reduce the field to 40 for tomorrow's semifinals. Championship bouts are scheduled for Saturday night.

Idaho State, with four undefeated boxers and one defending champion, is picked to unseat Michigan State—defending team champion. However, the Spartans are given a chance to repeat. Louisiana State and Wisconsin are rated as the darkhorses.

U. S. Olympic Mit Prospects Poor

BOSTON (AP) — Uninspiring performances in the National AAU boxing championships indicated today the United States faces a rugged task in retaining supremacy in this year's Olympics in Australia.

"This was the poorest crop of amateurs I've seen in 40 years," said one veteran fight follower shortly after the windup of the 68th national tournament last night at the Boston Garden.

The performances definitely were not of the same calibre seen in 1952, when this country had a team which captured 5 of 10 titles in the Olympics.

The U.S. Air Force, which conducted a world-wide tournament and has had a squad in training for several weeks, captured 5 of this year's 10 AAU championships to win the team trophy by a wide margin.

Twelve major league teams and 35 minor league clubs trained in Florida this year.

Vets Due To Start Major Lid-Lifters

By JOE REICHER

NEW YORK (AP) — Despite the emergence of an unusually large number of rookie pitching prospects, it's a cinch the opening day major league games next Tuesday will be monopolized by tried and true veterans of the mound.

The most promising freshmen hurlers uncovered in the spring training camps include Cincinnati's Pat Scantlebury, Brooklyn's Don Drysdale, the Chicago White Sox' Bill Fischer, Biston's Dave Sisler, Philadelphia's Jim Owens, Kansas City's Bill Herriage and Washington's Hal Griggs and Connie Grob. None of these, however, has a chance to receive an opening day assignment.

The managers are keeping their opening day choices a deep, dark secret but it's a safe bet that when the curtain is raised, the likes of Robin Roberts, Bob Lemon, Whitey Ford, Johnny Antonelli, Don Newcombe and Bob Rush will be out on the hill sizing up the hitters.

A most exciting mound duel is in prospect in Brooklyn where Roberts (23-14), Philadelphia's great righthander, and Newcombe (20-5) of the Dodgers probably will renew their personal rivalry. Roberts had a 4-4 record against Brooklyn last year but two of his victories were dramatic 3-2 decisions over Newcombe. Those were the only losses charged to big Newk in seven decisions against the Phillies.

Here are the probable opening day pitching assignments based on the pitchers' past performances, reputations, their showing in the spring and their previous records against the opposing clubs (last year's records in parentheses):

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Philadelphia at Brooklyn—Roberts (23-14) vs. Newcombe (20-5)

Pittsburgh at New York—Friend (14-9) vs. Antonelli (14-16)

St. Louis at Cincinnati—Haddix (12-16) vs. Nuxhall (17-12)

Chicago at Milwaukee — Rush (13-11) vs. Buhl (13-11)

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Baltimore at Boston—Wilson (12-18) or Wight (6-8) vs. Sullivan (18-13)

New York at Washington —Ford (18-7) vs. Stone (6-13)

Kansas City at Detroit—Kellner (11-8) vs. Garver (12-16)

Cleveland at Chicago — Lemon (18-10) vs. Donovan (15-9)

DOUBLE-DUTY—Alan Snead, above, is a valuable hand for Tiger baseball coach Speedy Moffett. Snead is a front-liner in the Tiger pitching staff and he's currently leading the Tigers in batting. Snead usually patrols an outfield position when not on the mound. The senior right hander owns a 3-1 mound record and a .359 batting mark. Snead is scheduled to go against Rotan today in quest of his 4th mound win. (Lee Watson Photograph)

Tigers-Rotan Tilt Re-Set For Today

The Snyder and Rotan baseball game, originally slated for yesterday at Pony League Park, has been moved up today due to a mix-up in dates.

Tiger coach Speedy Moffett had his charges on the field yesterday ready for action but Rotan failed to make an appearance.

After a 30-minute delay of the scheduled 4 p.m. starting time, Moffett called Rotan school officials to learn that the Yellowhammer coach understood the game was scheduled for Thursday.

The game, thus, will be unreeled today, starting at 4. Alan Snead, who was slated for starting mound duty for the Tigers yesterday, is again expected to get the starting nod in todays game.

After the Yellowhammers failed to show yesterday, Moffett staged an intra-squad game with the regulars taking on the reserves.

The Tigers will wind up their pre-district schedule tomorrow in a game at Big Spring.

Then the Bengals will be playing for keeps the remainder of the season, opening their District 3-AA slate next Tuesday against the vaunted Abilene Eagles at Pony League Park.

The Tigers currently are sporting a 13-5 record for the season.

Colonial Slates Press Tournament

FORT WORTH (AP) — The seventh annual Wide Open Golf Tournament, one of the world's most unique sporting events, will be held here April 24, heralding the $25,000 Colonial National Invitation.

This tournament is for press, radio and TV, pays nothing so it won't impair anybody's amateur standings, and gives prizes for the worst score as well as the best. A look at the records indicates there's difficuly in determining which is the best and the worst.

After the tournament the press folks will be guests of Colonial for dinner at which time all information on the Colonial National Invitation, scheduled May 3-6, will be given.

Bob Shawkey, former pitcher for the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics, is Dartmouth's vasity baseball coach.

Spieser TKO's Joe Rowan In 6th Round

DETROIT (AP) — Referee Lou Handler, a veteran Detroit ring official, said today he was afraid for a moment that he had helped set up a punch that might have cost Chuck Spieser his fight with Joe Rowan here last night.

As it was Spieser won handily, chopping away at Rowan's left eye until it closed completely in the fifth round. Dr. Joseph Cahalan stopped it between rounds but under Michigan rules it was classed as a sixth round technical knockout.

"He (Rowan) hurt me just that once," Spieser admitted, "back in the second round. We'd been in close and I thought the ref was going to break us.

"I dropped my hands and wham! He caught me with a left hook and then pushed me into the ropes."

Handler said he actually shouted to the fighters "fight out of it."

"But the minute I said it and saw Spieser drop his hands I knew he thought I was going to say 'break.' I felt awful."

Rowan followed the sharp punch by pushing Spieser into the ropes. It was no knockdown and the Detroiter came back fast to win the round on every scorecard. In fact, he won every round on every official scorecard and the referee had him ahead by 10 points under Michigan's "10-must" scoring system when the fight ended.

Rowan, from Philadelphia, weighed 180¼, a loss for him of almost 15 pounds in two weeks. Spieser, fourth ranking challenger among the light heavies, scaled 173 for the televised (ABC) bout. The surprisingly good crowd paid a gross of $7,839.40.

4 State Champs Enter Dallas Gal Tourney

DALLAS (AP) — Fourteen women amateur golfers, including four state champions, were among the early entries listed yesterday for the first annual Dallas women's $7,500 72-hole tournament to be played at Glen Lakes Country Club starting next Thursday.

Michigan has won the NCAA hockey championship five times.

Braves, Tigers In 16-Inning 0-0 Tie

By $D WILKS
The Associated Press

After a hitters' year in which there were only two 20-game winners among major league pitchers in 1955, there are signs this spring that the hurlers are back from exile.

Detroit and Milwaukee spotlighted the evidence as six pitchers breezed through 14 scoreless innings before the managers called it quits at Terre Haute, Ind., yestrday. There were 16 hits—all singles—but nary a runner got past second base.

Virgil Trucks, Dick Marlowe and Pete Wojey checked the free-swinging Braves on six hits. The Tigers got 10 from Lew Burdette, Red Murff and Humberto Robinson.

At Washington the Senators' Camilo Pascual and Pete Ramos dueled the Brooklyn Dodgers' Carl Erskine and Don Newcombe on even terms for eight innings before Pete Runnels lashed one of Newk's fast ones for an inside-the-park home run in the ninth to edge the world champs 2-1.

Newcombe, who paired with Philadelphia's Robin Roberts as the only 20-game winners in the majors last season gave up only one other hit in his 3 1-3 innings and fanned the side in order in the eighth. The pitching foursome struck out 15 despite 48-degree temperatures.

Elsewhere, Johnny Antonelli, bidding to return to the 20-wins group after a 14-16 disappointment in '55, struck out eight while scattering five hits and walking three in his seven innings as the New York Giants whacked the Cleveland Indians 5-1. Bob Lennon and Gail Harris made homers off Early Wynn and Mike Garcia.

Baltimore's Orioles beat the Chicago Cubs 5-4, shutting out the Bruins until the ninth when Monte Irvin opened with a homer and Jim King came through with a three-run clout. Jim Wilson, the Birds' starter and winner, and Dave Pope homered off loser Russ Meyer.

The St. Louis Cardinals provided the big hitting of the day with Wally Moon, Stan Musial and Hank Sauer tagging Jack Harshman for homers to overhaul a three-run Chicago lead and beat the White Sox 5-3.

Dale Long drove in three runs, two on a homer off Art Ditmar, as Pittsburgh beat Kansas City 5-3. Bob Friend gave the A's a scattered seven hits and struck out Gus Zernial four times.

The New York Yankees and Cincinnati hooked up in a shabby, eight-error scuffle won by the Redlegs 7-5 with the benefit of five unearned runs on five Yank errors—three by rookie shortstop Jerry Lumpe. Bill Skowron and Al Silvera homered for New York.

SMU Bows To Dallas Eagles

By The Associated Press

The Southern Methodist Mustangs went to bat against one of their former star pitchers, Tommy Bowers, Wednesday and lost a 5-1 decision to the Dallas Eagles of the Texas League.

Bowers, who graduated from SMU last season, held the Mustangs to three hits although Goerge Moore, on the mound for the Mustangs, allowed the Eagles only six hits and four runs in his seven innings. He struck out five Eagles in the Dallas game.

At Seguin, the Rice Owls bowed 2-1 to the Texas Lutheran Bulldogs.

The Wednesday games were among those being played this week by Southwest Conference teams against outside foes.

Friday and Saturday the loop members resume conference play with SMU engaging Rice at Houston, Baylor traveling to College Station for games with Texas A&M, and Texas host to Texas Christian University at Austin.

Eagles Get Hurler

DALLAS (AP) — Pitcher Dom Zanni, who posted 15 wins and 12 losses at Sioux City, Iowa, last season, has joined the Dallas Eagles.

Grace And Prince Reunited

MONTE CARLO (AP)—American film star Grace Kelly greeted Monaco's Prince Rainer III with a big smile and "darling" today as they staged a romantic reunion on the blue Mediterranean.

Grace and the man she will marry next week were reunited on Rainer's Yacht Deo Juvante II just offshore from his tiny Riviera principality. The 32-year-old bridegroom-to-be sailed his gleaming white, 138-foot craft out to tie up beside the liner Constitution, which had brought his bride and a shipload of relatives, friends and reporters from America.

The only immediate kissing was a light one Rainer quickly planted on the future princess' slender hand.

Five minutes later, as the yacht steamed toward shore and the couple stood on the bridge, the prince wrapped his arms around the fiancee. Holding her big white hat with one hand, Grace snuggled up and put an arm around Rainer's shoulders.

Then radiantly holding hands they sailed into port to a tumultuous welcome.

Thousands of Monacans and visitors lined the rocky Riviera coast to watch the reunion of tiny Monaco's ruling prince and the blonde American film beauty he will wed in ceremonies next Wednesday and Thursday.

The dockside was thronged with 3,000 tourists, newsmen, photographers and hundreds of Monacan schoolgirls wearing red and white ribbons — the national colors — in their hair.

Even the weatherman provided a welcome fit for a princess. The blue Mediterranean was almost glassy calm and it was a bright day, despite a few clouds overhead and darker skies to the north over the coast.

Scores of small boats cut white wakes in the sea around the Constitution and the yacht. Light planes and helicopters circled overhead.

Gay pennants flew from the big liner, but the prince's 300-ton yacht carried only his royal flag, white with a gold crown. After Miss Kelly came aboard, the yacht hoisted the U.S. flat at the masthead with the royal colors.

As the Deo Juvante reentered the port of Monte Carlo, Miss Kelly and her prince came out on the bridge to receive a thunderous greeting. Lusty cheers from the crowd, rockets and sirens of the ships in port mingled with a 21-gun salute.

The prince and Miss Kelly stood close together acknowledging the greetings of her future subjects.

Money Stolen Near Government Vault

FORT KNOX, Ky (AP) — Almost within the shadow of the big government gold vault, a lone bandit made off with $650.

The Western Union office robbery also occurred within 200 feet of the provost marshal's headquarters of the Army's huge armored center.

The bandit wrote a message and handed it to clerk Mrs. Shirley Thomas. It read:

"Give me all you have or I'll shoot."

Mrs. Thomas said she tried to stall for time, but the man, with his hand in a pocket as if he had a gun, snapped:

"Well, you can read, can't you? Make it snappy, no change."

Mrs. Thomas obeyed. The man fled.

NOMINATED — Livingston T. Merchant, now assistant secretary of state, has been nominated as ambassador to Canada to succeed retiring R. Douglas Stuart.

Compromise Fades For Texas Demos

AUSTIN (AP)—The possibility of compromise between feuding factions of Texas Democrats apparently has vanished.

Gov. Shivers said yesterday Sen. Lyndon Johnson had lined up with Speaker Sam Rayburn and therefore with "the minority radical wing of the Democratic party of Texas."

State Executive Committee Chairman George Sandlin said he didn't see how anyone could doubt that Johnson "has aligned himself with the left wing of the Democratic Party in Texas."

The Shivers and Sandlin statements presaged a running exchange for at least six weeks between the Shivers-led conservatives and the liberal-loyalist side led by Rayburn.

Both sides are intent on winning control of the State Democratic convention at Dallas May 22 and the 56-member Texas delegation to the national convention.

Shivers and Sandlin spoke out about Johnson after the senator said Tuesday night he would accept both chairmanship of the delegation and the role of favorite son for the presidential nomination if a majority at the state convention so desire.

Rayburn first suggested Johnson for these roles. Sandlin has proposed that Shivers lead the Texas delegation. The governor has said he would do so if the majority so desired.

Commenting on Johnson's speech, Shivers said the issue in the convention fight next month at Dallas "is not personalities but important principles, such as this: Should the leader of Texas' national Democratic delegation represent the views of a majority of Texas Democrats."

"I am sincerely sorry that Sen. Johnson has chosen to identify himself so closely with Speaker Sam Rayburn, whose affiliations with the minority radical wing of the Democratic party of Texas are well known to all," Shivers continued.

"It is difficult to see how a moderate, middle-of-the-road delegation could come out of such a one-sided alignment."

Shivers said again he "will not indulge in a campaign of personalities against my good friend Lyndon Johnson."

Nike Rocket Bids

FORT BUCKNER, Okinawa (AP) —The U.S. Army said today it will call for bids this week to build eight Nike antiaircraft rocket launching sites on Okinawa. Each will cost a million dollars.

Koreans Face Charge

MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — The United Nations Command today charged the North Korean Communists with a "wanton" attack on a U. N. Command sentry post inside the truce zone dividing North and South Korea. They said the attack occurred yesterday six miles north of Chorwon.

As Suggested By Jennie V. Wynne

JELLIED MOLDED CHICKEN*
SPINACH SOUFFLE*
TOMATO STUFFED WITH COTTAGE CHEESE
STRAWBERRY ICE CREAM BUTTER COOKIE
HOT ROLLS COFFEE or TEA

JELLIED MOLDED CHICKEN:

1 small hen, chopped real fine
1 cup diced celery
6 hard boiled eggs, chopped
1 small can pimientos, chopped
1 bottle capers
1 cup mayonnaise
6 cups chicken broth
6 heaping tablespoons gelatine
1 cup cold water

Mix chicken, celery, eggs, pimientos, capers and mayonnaise as for chicken salad. Dissolve gelatine in cold water and add to chicken broth. Stir into chicken mixture and pour into molds. Serve as a meat course.

SPINACH SOUFFLE:

2 pounds spinach
1 onion
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
½ cup Parmesan or shaker cheese
1 cup thin cream
3 eggs, beaten separately
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper and nutmeg
Bread crumbs

Prepare spinach in usual way, add onion while cooking. Remove onion and drain spinach very dry, put through strainer. There should be one full cup. Melt butter, add flour, salt and pepper. Add gradually cream, spinach pulp and yolks of 3 eggs beaten 3 minutes. Fold cheese and stiffly beaten egg whites in, turn into a well-buttered mold or dish that has been sprinkled with bread crumbs over butter. Set in a pan of hot water and bake 25 minutes. Serve with mushroom sauce. This is a most delicious recipe.

BUTTER COOKIES:

1 cup butter
2/3 cup sugar
Pinch of salt
Vanilla to taste
1 whole egg, unbeaten
2½ cups flour

Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add salt, vanilla and egg, and beat well. Add flour, small amount at a time. Roll thin and bake in a fast oven at 400 F.

Highest Tides In Two Decades Set Off Flooding In Virginia

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The highest tides in two decades churned up a quickie flood in the Hampton Roads coastal area last night, disrupting communications and transportion and temporarily isolating two communities.

The waters lapped into business sections of Norfolk and Newport News, forced suspension of ferry service linking the two cities and caused the closing of a main bridge across the James River.

The floods struck hardest at the York County community of Poquoson on Chesapeake Bay and the Norfolk-side village of Willoughby. Each was isolated for a while and Army amphibious vehicles were called in to re-establish connections.

The tides were spawned by an Atlantic storm that brought winds up to 70 miles an hour. The tides reached a peak of four to five feet above normal before midnight and began receding.

The weather bureau said the worst of the northeaster was over, but a new threat was posed by high tides due today. The bureau said they were expected to be less than two feet above normal.

Despite a weather bureau forecast the storm would veer out to sea, Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut ordered a standby alert in the event of heavy rains.

A late forecast indicated chances the storm would hit Connecticut has lessened, but tides were expected to run two to three feet above normal.

The Virginia floods topped a one-day springtime weather package that also produced a snowfall of three to five inches in western and southwest portions of the state. There were strong gusts of wind over most of the Old Dominion yesterday, too.

Last night the water seeped into business and waterfront establishments in Norfolk, Newport News, Hampton, Buckroe Beach and Poquoson. The damage was expected to total many thousands of dollars.

Poquoson, with a population of 4,000, was without electricity last night and the Navy dispatched a mobile generating unit to aid the town.

Along the Atlantic Coast, the storm kept the Coast Guard busy.

The tug Dunlap reported heavy seas parted her tow line to the SS Alpha about 130 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras. The Alpha carried a 14-man crew but was not in any danger.

The tug Barney Turecame reported that heavy seas 10 miles southwest of Frying Pan Shoal lightship threatened her tow line to an unidentified vessel believed to have a four-man crew.

The fishing ship Dixie Queen radioed late yesterday she was lost somewhere east of the Cobb Island lifeboat station off Virginia's Eastern Shore.

Two freighters ran aground near Chesapeake Beach.

Former Con Arrested In Bank Robbery

DALLAS (AP)—A former convict was arrested and charged with attempted bank robbery less than an hour after a cool teller foiled a lone bandit who threatened to blow up the Merchants State Bank with nitro-glycerin yesterday.

V. E. Gallagher, 54, said a man walked up to his cage and showed him a vial.

"Do you know what this is?"

"No."

"This is a high explosive. I want money."

The teller calmly left his cage, walked over to a bank official and told him of the robbery attempt. he official stepped on the robbery alarm, sending police cars from over the city toward the bank in northeast Dallas.

The robber stood in front of the empty cage a few minutes, fingering the vial and then walked out.

Gallagher watched the man get into a late model red-and-white auto with Mississippi license plates. He relayed the data to police who soon spotted the car at an apartment house. Officers crashed in and arrested Ellis Martin, 58.

After police found a vial containing a milky sustance in a dresser drawer they said Martin made a statement admitting the holdup attempt.

Martin, who officers said is a three-time convict wanted here on a charge of passing bad checks, insisted the vial contained nitroglycerin. It was sent to the crime lab for analysis.

Police said checks found in Martin's possession indicated he had been operating in Denver and Jackson, Miss.

"It was the second time in a week that an employe of the bank had foiled an attempted robbery. Last April, Sam Randlett, a crippled teller, ducked and ran when a bandit armed with a pistol tried to rob him.

Nearly Blind Cocker Spaniel Is Rescued

DALLAS (AP) — Jeffrey Berns, 12, jumped into an abandoned water well yesterday and saved his nearly blind cocker spaniel, Inky.

Inky, 13, fell into the 20-foot well yesterday as the two were playing near the lad's home. Jeffery, holding the dog, stood on a small ledge just above the four feet of water in the well while two girls who were with him summoned aid.

Firemen and police pulled out the boy and the dog, both unharmed.

Texas Farm Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas congressmen voted almost solidly yesterday for the farm bill which passed both houses and sent to the President. The lone dissenters were Reps. Albert Thomas of Houston and Bruce Alger (R) of Dallas.

Bloomburg's Bank Robbed By Thugs

BLOOMBURG, Tex. (AP) — Two tough acting thugs cleaned out the safe and two cash drawers of all the bills in sight yesterday at the First State Bank, then escaped toward Louisiana with their $10,000 loot.

It was the third bank robbery in six days in this vicinity.

Holdup men got $1,600 in Bossier City, La., near Shreveport Thursday. A stickup man got $21,500 Saturday at Gilmer, where the vault still was being used in a bank building being torn down.

One of the holdup men brutally kicked an employe, Raymond Puckett, who was lying on the floor by order of the robbers. Cashier E. D. Simmons was slapped. The thugs threatened to rock all employes in the vault, but were dissuaded by Miss May Jones, an employe.

The unmasked men didn't clean out the bank. Simmons said there was some money in the vault, outside the safe, which was missed.

No customers were in the bank. It was only 5 minutes until the 3 p.m. closing time.

Revely Adcock, standing on a street corner of this little town of 500 on the Arkansas line, saw the men climb without hurry into their grey and blue auto and drive toward Shreveport.

Both men were 35 to 40 years old. Both wore bright sport shirts. One was a short blond, the other a dark tall man.

Roadblocks were thrown up. The FBI entered the case.

Simmons said this happened:

"A couple of guys entered while I was in the directors' room. When I came out of the directors' room, the two holduup men were in the bank and they had the two other bank employes covered.

"They ordered me to take a bag and pick up the money. And they told the other employes to get on the floor.

"I started toward the cash drawers and they slapped me and told me to hurry up.

"I emptied two cash drawers of all the bills, and then they wanted more, so I went into the safe and I gave them all the bills in the safe.

"But we had more money in another place in the vault but they didn't get it. The bills were from 1s to 20s and a few 50s."

Bottle Of Fluid Has Dangerous Features

DAYTON, Ohio, (AP)—Eight-year-old Kathy Evans found a bottle containing a clear fluid in the front yard of her home in nearby Kettering Tuesday. She took it to her mother.

Mrs. Louise Evans, 34, casually glanced at the label and put the bottle on a kitchen shelf. Yesterday Mrs. Evans became worried and called police. Officers hastily summoned demolition experts from Wright-Patterson Air Force Base and began an investigation.

Said Mrs. Evans, "good God!" correctly identified the contents—nitroglycerin.

Senator Price Daniel Is Given Endorsement

HOUSTON (AP) — Sen. Price Daniel was endorsed as a candidate for governor by the Houston Post today.

A front page editorial said:

"We reached this conclusion by measuring the aspirants by the yardstick of their experience, their past records, their ability, their aims, and their qualities of leadership. Sen. Daniel scores an excellent grade in all these categories. . .

"All his public service—as state representative, speaker of the house, attorney general, and United States senator—has been performed with vigor, sincerity and good results. He knows Texas problems and is capable and desirous of solving them as governor."

NEED A WOODEN INDIAN?

They Sell For Up To $500

NEW YORK (AP)—A lot of people went shopping yesterday — for wooden Indians.

Customers made like bargain-basement enthusiasts in paying an average of more than $500 apiece for the old cigar store statues.

"I've never known a sale to generate as much interest as this one," said Louis J. Marion, veteran auctioneer for Parke-Bernet Galleries.

"People love those wooden Indians."

A hundred of the rare figures, once familiar landmarks of the tobacco store in America, sold for $54,700.

"I'm very satisfied," said Carl W. Haffenreffer, of Providence, R.I., whose father accumulated the redskins.

What did the buyers want with them?

Well, some plan to put them in their living rooms or hallways, or stand them in front yards, set them in lobbies of business buildings or showrooms, display them in museums or for sale in antique shops.

More than 400 people crowded the auction room.

"Don't use my name," said one purchaser, admiring his $850, life-size wooden brave, holding a bundle of cigars and a plug of chewing tobacco. "This is going to be a surprise for my wife."

Highest price — $2,050 — went for a tall Indian chief, carved in thin silhouette, with long hair, feathered helmet and black tunic. It was bought for a "Southern museum."

Name of the museum, for which purchases were among the heaviest at the sale, was not made public, but it was reported to be at Richmond, Va. — with the bidder here acting for a donor.

A stern-faced chief, with feathered crowi, golden earrings, fringed tunic and bucksin trousers, will go to the lobby of Newsday, a newspaper on New York's Long Island.

Harry G. Guggenheim, husband of publisher Alicia Patterson, bought the proud, old warrior for $1,025 for the newspaper building, and also picked up a squaw for $350.

The 100 figures were about half of a huge collection, gathered during some 20 years of collecting Indian relics by the late Rudolph F. Haffenreffer, of Providence.

The statues were recently turned over to the Narragansett Brewing Company Foundation, of which his son is trustee, to be sold with the proceeds to go for charitable and educational purposes.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A Dividend on new Class A stock has been declared by the recently rtorganized Missouri Pacific Railroad Co. Directors said it would be the only dividend for the year. Future dividends would be determined by business conditions.

Bartender Has Reason To Feel Blue Today

LOUISVILLE, Ky., (AP)—William Talaferro, part - time bartender, probably felt like saying boo to blue yesterday.

Taliaferro said a blue - eyed bandit wearing a blue scarf walked into Schmitt's tavern, poked a blue-steel revolver in his face and ordered him to put two pints of whisky and the contents of the cash register in a paper bag.

The man clutched the whisky and $28 under a blue suede jacket and fled.

The name Taliaferro means blue -steel knife in Italian.

More Polio Shots Needed

AUSTIN (AP) — An official of the State Health Department says more immunization against polio is needed to ward off a major polio year in Texas.

An increase of about 60 per cent in the number of cases reported this year over 1955 was disclosed yesterday.

Dr. J. E. Peavy, head of the communicable disease division, said there was no explanation of the increase. He said not enough children had received the anti-polio vaccine to slow the disease.

"Texas will be in for a major polio year if we don't have more immunization," Peavy said.

The demand for the Salk vaccine was greater than the supply. The department said shipments were increasing.

The polio epidemic season still is two weeks away for Texas.

Peavy said less than one third of Texas children under 20 had received shots. At least one dose has been given to 962,415 children and pregnant women, there are 3,542,200 children in this age bracket in the state.

Polio cases reported to the end of last week was 181 compared with 114 for 1955. Some 96 of this year's cases were paralytic but only 4 victims had received shots.

Honors For Students

WOONSOCKET, R. I. (AP)—The Woonsocket school committee says it feels brilliant students are worthy of civil recognition too. It voted last night to give a dinner for senior high school honor pupils.
