LOCAL AFFAIRS

ALIX E. BERRY, Notary Public, Esq.
Our city is quiet and orderly.
The weather is quite a bit warmer.
Work on the Plaza yesterday morning went off like hot cakes at $5.00 a loaf.
Yukon is a good deal of a neutral ground in the city.
It is rumored that some of our city officials will be removed.
SCHUMAKER'S MONTHLY is before us, and is more attractive than ever.
The men in the circus turned ten double somersaults, all but one.
The organization of the German-English school reflected credit on both teachers and pupils.
SAN ANTONIO is under obligation to Mexico for supplying the town with fresh oysters.
The prospects are brightening for the erection of that much-talked-of and long-expected Government Depot.
Two water-cure plants have been built in the city.
The Lynchburg Republican says the "reaction" against Grant seems to be coming.
We forgot to mention the arrival of our fellow townsman Mr. David Bell, who has recently returned from a trip to the North, bringing with him a letter for life.
We should like to see you with great pleasure in many northern cities, and may pay a visit before long, those who are not vaccinated should become so as soon as possible.
We regret our charitable citizens will be disappointed in the offering of the poor and distressed.
We observed Market Master Bennett's appearance during the closing out of the obstructions in the gutter on Market street.
The weather is unusually favorable for the display of the fair.
