FAA SAYS AIRPORT LEASE REQUIREMENTS TOO TOUGH

The federal government, with an enormous appetite for rules and regulations, has told Aransas County its requirements for its bustling little airport are too tough.

So the Aransas County Commissioners Court last week told the Federal Aviation Administration that if the FAA didn't like the lease requirements Uncle Sam could write up a new set.

It all started when County

Navi. Dist. Has Busy Session

The Board of Navigation and Canal Commissioners met November 4 with Chairman David Maguglin presiding. Present were Commissioners Hal B. McKnight, R.W. Landrum, Richard J. Fox and Jimmy Anders; Attorney David Connery and Harbormaster B.C. DeForest.

Guests attending were V.G. Smith, Jr., H.E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Aiken, Jane Murray, J.C. Harlan, W.W. Brock, Doris Morgan and Ken Barrett.

Commissioner Fox made a motion for the passage of the following Resolution: Be it Resolved that, on October 15, 1975, Interest Coupon #2 of Aransas County Navigation District No. 1, Series 1974, Revenue Bonds #7-10, inclusive, in the amount of $1760.00 became due and were paid to the First National Bank of Rockport, Paying Agent, of Rockport, Texas. Commissioner McKnight seconded the motion. The Board agreed.

Commissioner Landrum made a motion to declare Park No. 2 as surplus property for lease in excess of five (5) years and advertise for bids for improvements to be installed. Interested parties that wish to may inspect surplus land by inquiring at the Navigation District office. Bids on this land to be opened December 2, 1975 at regular meeting. Navigation District has right to reject all bids. The motion was seconded by Jimmy Anders. It was agreed.

Commissioner Landrum made a motion to advertise in the Rockport Pilot and Toast of the Coast Herald once a week for two consecutive weeks before final date of receiving bids. Motion was seconded by Commissioner Fox. The Board agreed.

An informal discussion followed on the rental agreements required by the District. Commissioner McKnight made a motion that all contracts be signed and returned to the District office by December 2, 1975, or prepaid monies be refunded and stall cancelled. Commissioner Fox seconded the motion. It was agreed.

The Board negotiated a five-year lease with Mr. V.G. Smith, Jr., owner of the Harbor Light Cafe.

Agreed to increase lease payments on Cove Harbor Lots #44-#65, #80-93 and Lots #94 and #95.

Asked Harbormaster DeForest to check on costs of concrete bulkheading and creosoted piling.

Tabled discussion on Mile-long Beach bulkheading. Noted that Commissioners McKnight and Landrum received information from Galveston Corps of Engineers that the surveys for channel and basin depths to Rockport and Fulton were completed and cross sections were plotted in July and plans forwarded on October 8th. Commissioner McKnight wrote Congressman John Young seeking his assistance in the matter.

Minutes of October 14, 1975 were read and approved. Treasurer's Report was reviewed and placed on file. Monthly bills were approved and checks signed.

SOCIAL SECURITY REPRESENTATIVE TO VISIT ROCKPORT

A representative of the Social Security Administration will be at the Courthouse in Rockport on Tuesday, November 18, at 9 a.m.

You may obtain information about your rights and duties under the Social Security Act. Eligible persons can secure assistance in applying for old-age, survivors, or disability insurance payments, and for Medicare benefits, from the representative at that time.

Judge John Wendell spent more than a month writing minimum requirements for leases at the county airport.

Wendell used the guidelines sent down by the National Association of State Aviation Officials. Wendell said he used the guidelines because he figured that is what the FAA wanted.

The commissioners several months ago approved Wendell's recommendations. The recommendations, covering such things as insurance, building requirements and other matters dealing with operation of an airport, were compiled into a magazine-size publication.

"I would be happy to have the commissioners court rescind the order and let the FAA write the requirements," Wendell said.

The FAA, in a letter to Wendell, said in comparing the county's requirements it "appears that Page 19 was copied verbatim, as such. He just copied the page as part of his minimum requirements for the airport."

The government agency said the guidelines were not applicable to all airports and that many of the county's requirements are not relevant. The agency said the requirements would impose restrictions that would affect the local growth of aviation and suggested the county reconsider future needs and revise its requirements. The county had already done that in Wendell's recommendations. Wendell said he used basic requirements of the national airport officials and then trimmed down the regulations.

The judge told commissioners that he had tried to get FAA officials to fly to Rockport for help in the matter but was told they couldn't make it because of the fuel shortage.

But as the FAA wrote Wendell, "proper standards discourage the unqualified for the protection of both the established operator and the public."

Meanwhile, the commissioners gave approval for a local savings and loan association to lend money to an operator to build a $16,000 new building at the busy airport.

In other business, the commissioners okayed dividing the law library into two rooms. One of the rooms will house the assistant county attorney.

Girl Injured When Struck By Automobile

Debra Marie Brooks, 17, of Rockport was struck by an automobile while she was walking south on South Church St. near the Wharf Street intersection last Friday afternoon, according to Chief of Police James Craigmile.

A car driven by Guy Hanks, 85, also of Rockport, was involved in the vehicle-pedestrian accident. The Hanks' car was travelling south on Church St. at the time of the accident.

Ms. Brooks was taken to the Aransas Hospital in Aransas Pass by Roth Ambulance where she was treated for bruises and abrasions and held for further test and observation.

Police Ask Cooperation

Several persons have recently been arrested for shoplifting in the City of Rockport.

Cooperation between local business and the police department has been excellent. Police Chief Jim Craigmile stated "that he hopes the merchants will continue to call us when a shoplifter is detected."

Many times in the past when a merchant caught a shoplifter, the merchandise was returned to stock and the offender asked to leave and not come back.

This was a soft approach and usually permitted the shoplifter to continue his practice from store to store and failed to stop them.

The only effective approach is arrest and prosecution. In this way the person is identified, mugged and fingerprinted. Arrest of that person in the future for the same offense along with his past record will help determine what further steps or action should be taken against the offender.

Local courts have done an outstanding job in helping us with the shoplifting problem.

School Board Appoints Textbook Com.

The School Board of the Aransas County Independent School District meeting in regular session Monday, appointed a Textbook Committee to select Spelling and Mathematics books for grades one through six. The committee will consist of Cepha Jessee, Dorothy Roe, Nancy Lang, Beverly Rainey, Manuel Rocha, Joel Mixon and E.J. Randow.

In compliance with Federal regulations governing Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, which prohibits sex discrimination in education programs, the School Board adopted the following policy statement:

"No person in the Aransas County Independent School District shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program of this school district."

"No person applying for employment or subject to promotion in the Aransas County Independent School District, shall on the basis of sex, be subjected to discrimination in regard to employment and/or working conditions."

If any student or employee feels that they are being discriminated against due to their sex, they should address their complaint in writing to the Superintendent of Schools, Box 907, Rockport, or telephone 729-2276. A hearing concerning the discrimination practice will be held.

The independent financial audit report of the 1974-1975 school year as submitted by the audit firm of McCarty, Millikin and Green was approved.

The contract of Alma Johnson, School Tax Assessor-Collector, was extended for two years effective January 1.

The Board inspected the new band rehearsal room which is nearing completion.

Illegal Netters Pay the Price

Three "sport" fishermen who gave Houston as their home address were apprehended October 31 by an air/water team of Texas Parks and Wildlife game wardens for fishing with illegal nets.

Game warden Eddie Gammon of Victoria was flying as observer with conservation pilot Don Meek of Rockport when he spotted the illegal nets in Panther Lake and the men working the nets. He contacted game warden Arthur Lawrence who was on patrol in his boat. Lawrence arrested the two men working the net and another on shore nearby.

The three men, two attorneys and a realtor, were charged with using nets in closed waters before county judge Jetton of Calhoun County.

They were found guilty and each paid a fine of $149.50 which included court costs.

Game wardens say the confiscated nets will be held 20 days. If no appeal has been filed by then the court will issue a "destruction order" and the nets will be burned.

RECEIVES GOOD CITIZEN AWARD

Nancy Jo Goodin, a senior student in the Rockport-Fulton High School, was selected as the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen for the school year of 1975-1976.

The Senior Class selects three students using the areas of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism as the criteria for the selections. From these three the faculty selects one student to be the Good Citizen for the school year of 1975-76. The other two students which the students selected for this honor were Raymond Torres and William G. Walston, Jr.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Goodin, 1712 Picton Lane, Rockport.

Chamber to Sponsor 'Shop at Home' Campaign

Encouraged by favorable response from merchants last year, the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors has agreed to again sponsor "Shop at Home" campaign. Joe Randow, chairman of Community Planning and Development, will head this promotional project.

Ribbons, advertising and a drawing for children will be part of the promotion again this year. Entry blanks, rules and boxes for the drawing will be placed in local businesses by the end of the month.

It was voted to hold a "Tell a Friend" contest this year for winter visitors. The Chamber will have entry blanks at the Chamber office for visitors to pick up, fill out and send to a friend back home. The friend will fill out his name at the bottom of the blank, mail it back to Chamber where it will be placed in a box.

The friend will receive brochures and information about the area as well as a chance to win a cash prize along with the person who sent him the entry form. Also eligible for a cash prize will be the motel or park where the visitor is staying. This type of contest will afford the area considerable publicity. The drawing will be in January or February.

The Chamber is in the process of having a small booklet printed to be placed in motels and trailer parks describing places of interest, things to do and see, restaurants, shops and other facts that visitors will find useful while vacationing in the area.

Other business discussed at the Nov. 4 board meeting was the vacation show in Houston January 9 through 17. Gordon Stanley is in charge of the Chamber booth for this show. It was tentatively agreed to operate the concession stand at the July 4th Art Festival and endorsement of the TriNational Highway project was unanimously voted on.

Attending the meeting were Rev. Paul Bohot, Joe Hugenberg, Joe Lister, president; Mick Ladner, John McDavid, Jr., James Pearson, Randow, Dr. Jerry Shaw, Stanley, Mayor Walter S. Falk, Jr., Bill Janeeck, Bill Wilson, owner of the Sea Chest, and Loyce Landrum.

City to File Delinquent Tax Suits Against Property Owners

The City Council met in regular session Monday night at 8 p.m. at the City Hall with Mayor Walter S. Falk, Jr., presiding. Councilmen Norvell Jackson, Charlie Garrett and Joe 'Pepe' Zambrano were present. Councilman Seth Steele is still hospitalized.

Members of the Council authorized Dave Connery, City Attorney, to file delinquent tax suits against all property owners that have delinquent taxes against their property in January, 1976.

Eight bids were received on the 1950 and 1952 Jeeps. Mr. Kimbrough's bid of $485.00 was approved. The bid of $125.00 on the 1967 Chevrolet was rejected.

The meeting time for the regular council meetings was changed from 8 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. and public hearings from 7:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The regular Council meeting and joint meetings with the Planning and Zoning Commission was changed from 7:30 p.m. to 5 p.m., Nov. 24.

It was the Council's decision to request the Parks and Wildlife Dept. and Coast Guard to enforce the water safety regulations in the ski basin and channel leading into Little Bay.

The Council accepted a letter of resignation from Patrolman Robert McCormick who had been with the city police department approximately 27 months, to accept other employment. The Council hired James R. Jacoby to replace him. Jacoby has been a patrolman at Ranger, Texas.

Sgt. Joe Hinojosa was promoted to the rank of lieutenant.

The mayor received, in behalf of the City, a Bicentennial flag and two plaques from the State. These were presented to Mrs. Adrath Rogers, vice-chairperson of the Rockport Bicentennial Commission. The plaques will be placed in the Chamber of Commerce building and the flag will be flown on the Bicentennial flag pole located on the beach.

Hospital Benefit Bazaar Scheduled for Nov. 29-30

Members of the Women's Committee of the Chamber of Commerce are busy preparing for a hospital benefit Christmas bazaar scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 29 and 30, at the Paws and Taws building, starting at 9 a.m. both days.

The committee, which is headed by Mrs. George Cone, Mrs. Clay Cooke and Mrs. Don Milks, will sell a wide variety of handicrafts, white elephant merchandise, shell craft and food, including pies, cakes, cookies, candy, beer and hot dogs, at the bazaar.

Between 20 and 25 volunteers are working Mondays through Fridays at the former Prophet office building on State Highway 35. Use of the building has been contributed by the Prophets. Originally the committee made its headquarters in the first floor rooms of the Cooke home on Key Allegro. However, response of workers was so great that it was necessary to seek larger quarters.

Money realized from the bazaar will be added to funds being accumulated to finance a hospital-clinic type of emergency medical service for Aransas County, possibly to include an ambulance manned by medical technicians.

Another promising project which is expected to contribute substantially to hospital funds is the gift of an oil lease in Frio County, Texas, to the committee. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke make the gift.

The Hospital Benefit tennis tournament staged at Key Allegro Tennis Club early in October, including a distribution of tennis equipment and a barbecue supper following the tournament, netted approximately $400 for the fund. Also, a handicraft booth operated by the committee at SeaFair produced more than $500, it was reported.

The committee is seeking contributions of merchandise, shells, food and money for the Christmas bazaar, as well as additional workers to help prepare handcraft items for the affair. The committee may be contacted at headquarters in the Prophet building at Bronte and State Highway 35 or through P.O. Box 821, Rockport.

The program was concerned with the basic principles of atomic energy and its beneficial applications. The role of the atom in energy production, industry, and medicine was explained. In addition, atomic research was discussed.

Ihms also talked to the physics and chemistry students in a classroom setting on Wednesday afternoon giving further information and answering students' questions in regards to atomic energy and atomic research.

'Lost' War Decoration Awarded Local Veteran

Carl L. Stracener of Rockport has received the China War Memorial Decoration awarded by the government of the Republic of China. The medal was sent to him by the Chinese Embassy through the 14th Air Force Association of which he is a member.

The China War Memorial Medal, known as the "Lost" decoration of World War II, commemorates service in China with our Chinese allies in the defeat of the Empire of Japan. The decoration was authorized by the Chinese Government at the end of World War II; and Circular No. 166, U.S. Forces, China Theatre, dated 29 September 1945, was prepared for distribution to provide for issuance of the award. But the hurry-burry at the end of the war, the rush to return to "Uncle Sugar," the hasty demobilization of our armed forces, and the general confusion then existing in China apparently resulted in the documentation being misplaced, lost, or otherwise missing-in-action. Some few people heard of the award and it was noted on some discharge documents and service records, but no one ever saw the decoration or received it. It was generally considered to be a myth by those who had heard the rumors about it.

But one persistent individual Graham K. Kidd of Florida, who had served in 14th Air Force Headquarters in Kunming, Yunnan, China, kept on investigating. After 29 years succeeded in locating a copy of Circular No. 166. He sent the information to Myron D. Levy of St. Louis, the President of the 14th Air Force Association. Levy got in touch with Minister S.K. Hu of the Chinese Embassy through Anna Chennault, widow of Flying Tiger General Claire Lee Chennault, and after all the paperwork had cleared away, the Chinese Government authenticated the award and announced that members of the 14th Air Force Association would receive the K'ang Chan-Nien Chang, as the decoration is known in Chinese. The 14th Air Force Association is a veterans organization of people who served in China with the American Volunteer Group (AVG), the China Air Task Force (CATF), and/or the 14th U.S. Air Force; it was organized at the close of World War II.

As a prelude to the distribution of the medal to members of the 14th Air Force Association entitled to the award, the decoration was presented, posthumously, to the leader of the Flying Tigers, Lt. Gen. Claire Lee Chennault, by His Excellency James C.H. Shen, Ambassador of the Republic of China to the United States, at the General's grave in Arlington, National Cemetery. This subsequent award to the General's men, the Flying Tigers of the 14th Air Force Association, is one of this year's highlights in the Association activities.

Nuclear Power Speech Topic

The possibility of death or injury from nuclear power generation is greatly exaggerated, according to Orlan L. Ihms, member of the staff of Texas A&M University's College of Engineering who spoke at a luncheon meeting of Rotary Club Nov. 5 at Sandollar Restaurant.

Subject of his talk was "This Atomic World." Ihms, who has received special training in nuclear science at Oak Ridge, Tenn., the world famous atomic research center, also spoke to the student body at Rockport-Fulton High School earlier in the day.

Ihms asserted that chances anyone will be injured as the result of nuclear power plant accidents is approximately one in 160,000 and the possibility anyone will be killed is about one in 300 million, about the same risk as getting struck by a meteorite. He added that even though there is a remote chance of injury or death that risk must be taken because we must have nuclear power to replace other fast-diminishing sources of power.

The speaker pointed out that the era of cheap power is gone. At present 90 per cent of power in the world is produced from fossil fuel which is not replaceable. The United States uses 35 per cent of all the power produced in the world, he added.

Ihms said there are immense supplies of coal in the United States but much additional research is needed to make full use of this resource. Also, vast amounts of equipment are needed, especially for strip mining. He explained that production of hydroelectric power can be expanded very little, and solar energy production presents many unsolved problems, although it does offer attractive possibilities for the somewhat distant future. Geothermal power is another possibility. At present San Francisco is getting one-third of its energy from this source, but it has serious limitations, especially with reference to the environment.

Ihms explained that while the cost of nuclear power plant construction is quite high we have little choice but to go ahead with this development which already is underway on a large scale here and abroad.

He said heat disposal and storage of radioactive waste material were the two most difficult problems for nuclear power plants. Water heated in the process must be disposed of without damaging the environment. However, it is possible this hot water may be used to heat homes or for use in farming, such as raising shell fish in water heated by the plants.

So far, little progress has been made in productive use of nuclear power plant radioactive waste material. All nuclear power plants in this country produce a total of about seven pounds of this material a day and a year's production can be stored in a receptacle two-thirds the size of a telephone booth, according to Ihms.

However, this material will remain radioactive for thousands of years. One possibility for disposing of this waste is to shoot it into the sun, he said. However, this method is too expensive at present but may be reduced in cost when space shuttles are perfected, Ihms asserted.

As to fuel for nuclear plants, he said there are known reserves of uranium available which would run 1,000 nuclear power plants for at least 40 years. If we perfect and utilize breeder reactors which actually produce fuel, our known supplies would last for 4,000 years, he declared.

Supporting his assertion as to the safety of nuclear power plants, Ihms pointed out uranium used for fuel is processed into small sealed pellets which are in turn sealed in reactor rods insuring very slight possibility of escape of radioactive material. Then the rods are submerged in water which is confined in reinforced concrete containers with walls up to 12 feet thick. All of this is then contained in reinforced concrete domes. This provides five levels of safety. One of these safeguards might fail but certainly all five would not fail at the same time, Ihms declared.

He said Ralph Nader wants the possibility of accident reduced to zero, an impossible demand. "We simply must have the energy produced by nuclear power plants, even though there is some small risk involved," Ihms declared.

Pharmacy Topics

By RICHARD BECK

Back in 1938, the chemical components of the human body were worth 98 cents. Inflation has brought the figure up to $5.60. (One biochemist, working with the retail cost of blood plasma, says the average adult male is worth more than $500.)

Obstetricians in the U.S. are trying the "gentle delivery" methods of French doctor Frederick Leboyer. Verdict so far: babies are calmer, yet more alert.

Doctors are mastering reconstructive surgery that builds a replacement breast for women who have undergone mastectomies.

Good news: that nationwide measles immunization campaign has had measurable results. Study shows that the 60 million vaccinations given between 1963 and 1972 prevented 24 million cases of measles, 2,400 deaths and 7,900 new victims of mental retardation. Dollar saving is figured at $1.3 billion.

More heart attack victims may be saved by emergency care, thanks to a new, portable defibrillator. Machines are so light and so inexpensive doctors hope to put them in factories, office buildings, stadiums, and the like.

Whether your doctor prescribes a new miracle drug or an old stand-by you can depend on our expert compounding.

Pictured above is just a quarter of the beginner band program started in the Rockport-Fulton Jr. High this year. The program is divided into four separate classes with Peter Cheaney teaching two brass classes and Rolando Zapata teaching two woodwind classes.

BROWNIES

Brownie Troop 431 has been active in several projects the past couple of weeks.

On October 23, officers were elected. Catherine La Porte was elected president and Rachel Flores was elected treasurer for three weeks.

On October 30, the girls roasted marshmallows and played games for a combination cookout and Halloween party.

On November 6, the troop performed a service project by picking up trash in the community.

The klipspringer is a small antelope—and all this while we thought it was the little man in our watch case who keeps snipping the mainspring.

METAL TRADES CLASS ACCOMPLISHES MUCH

The Metal Trades Class has held their second judging of student projects.

Their names will be inscribed on a plaque along with last month's winners who were: Shop I, Ernest Castro, Mark White and Curtis Keller; Shop II, Jimmy Jordan.

This month's winners are: Shop I, George Miller and Curtis McNabb; Shop II, Ernest DeForest.

These boys' projects are judged by their fellow students for quality and design. Some of their projects are in the community for sale at various places of business.

These projects are sold at the cost of materials, the quality is assured and any shortcomings are always handled quickly. The boys do custom fabrication and repairs on the same basis.

These are learning opportunities and aid in keeping young people in the community. Most of the projects include not only welding but lathe work is part of the planning.

Some projects are made of sheetmetal and arc, gas and spot weldings are used to complete the design.

The students have built a trailer to haul their metal and projects as well as pick up and delivery.

They have projects coming in on schedule for repairs which include a complete rebuilding of a 4-horse trailer, two trailer modifications, building 1 boat trailer, barbecue pits on wheels and an assortment of small projects in the shop.

One project the boys are awaiting space and time to work on is the original wood stove from the old Runge State Bank.

The students learn basic blacksmithing and forging to make duplicate parts for many old projects.

They have books that show design, dimensions and methods to duplicate many metal projects used by early settlers in our country.

Projects like these enable our students to perpetuate our national heritage in an age of plastics.

NEW FRAMING DEPT. AT HELGA'S GALLERY

Effective January 1, 1976 Helga's Art Gallery will open a new department in the area of custom frames; a "do-it-yourself" framing center.

The aims of this department (1) to provide quality picture framing at a cost less than a complete custom framing service, (2) to provide the do-it-yourselfer with a place to do picture framing without the investment required to set up a full framing studio.

According to Rindy Price, director of Helga's custom framing department, "The do-it-yourself framer will have access to the same moldings offered to our full service customers. We will cut the molding, matts, and glass. The framer will then be able to use our equipment to assemble the frames and complete the installation." Plans are set for one extra table to be set up, with room for two or three more as the project expands.

"Do-it-yourself framing has become increasingly popular nation wide and we hope that by offering this service to the people of Rockport, they will be able to obtain good quality frames for their pictures and documents without being afraid of the high cost of custom framing," said Bob Price, owner of Helga's.

1900 CHILDREN AT HALLOWEEN PARTY

"Don't talk to me about Halloween," was all that Don Stone, Fulton Lions Club chairman of the Halloween Party, was willing to say after the October 31 observance out at the Aransas County Airport. "The hobgoblins have me!"

The 3rd annual party was a roaring success with 1,900 children crowding through the nine-game carnival and teen dance. With parents added, the scene was pure hilarious bedlam, with every child given a chance to play each of the games and getting a sack of candy and a Coke served by the Girl Scouts.

Games were operated by Fulton Lions Club, Rockport Lions Club, Rotary, V.F.W., Allegro Women's Club, Republican Women of Aransas County, A.A.R.P., Rockport Firemen's Auxiliary, Tourist Association and Fulton Fire Department and Auxiliary.

A community party on Halloween seems to be an established fact on Live Oak Peninsula. At the appropriate time next year Fulton Lions Club will head up plans for the 1976 party. Any suggestions should be directed to this year's chairman, Mr. Stone, as he closes out books for 1975. A financial report will be made public when all contributions have been received and all bills paid. $106.17 was dropped into the cauldron at the party.

The Fulton Lions express their thanks for the cooperation given by other clubs and organizations.

GREGORY-PORTLAND DOWNS PIRATE JV

Gregory-Portland's JV scored the first three times they had the ball to take a 22-0 lead, and then the Pirate JV, outmanned 57-17, shut down the Wildcats to a single second half score in a 28-6 loss last week in Rockport.

The Pirate defense could not stop the Wildcats in the early going, but finally put it all together to give a good account of themselves, especially with a number of players out with injuries or infections.

The Pirates had to go to the air to move the ball, but at that only attempted 11 passes. Of the 11 attempts, 7 were completed, 6 of those to tight end Doug McKibbin for 93 yards, and one to Charlie Edler for 11 yards.

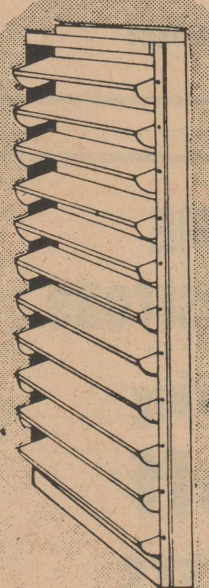

The Pirates scored in the third quarter after linebacker Bill Adams recovered a football shook loose by tackle Newlin Parker. The Pirates moved 74 yards in 11 plays with fullback Ricky Garcia blasting over from the four-yard line.

With Gregory in possession of the ball for so long, numerous players on the Pirate defense had a ton of tackles. Safety Bob Smith led with 17 tackles, followed by Ruben Carpenter with 16; Jerry Kelly with 15; Adams with 15; and Scott Hiller with 13 tackles.

The Pirates will close out their season against West Oso this week.

A wide variety of colorful and informative filmstrips on development, infancy, toys, food, and clothing are used to enrich the study.

Next week students will be concentrating on creative forms of entertaining children, as they will be performing puppet shows, demonstrating art projects, and teaching one another games and songs to be used when working with children.

The homemaking II classes are taught by Miss Frances Mutscher, local homemaking teacher.

Miss Shirley Ann West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe N. West of Beeville, and Ernest Wayne DeForest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie DeForest of Fulton, were married at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 21 in the Baptist Church of Pettus.

The Rev. M.D. Zornes officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

Two wicker baskets filled with white carnations and two white candelabras holding white tapers flanked the altar. John Brett Lee of Pettus, soloist, sang the Lord's Prayer, accompanied by Mrs. James L. Guess, organist, who also provided the traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length peasant style dress fashioned with an inset of lace which formed a rounded yoke. The wedding ring collar and long full sleeves were trimmed with the same lace and her long full skirt ended in a deep flounce ruffle. The bride carried a nosegay of pink and white roses trimmed in greenery and baby's breath and tied with pink satin streamers. She wore a small wreath of the same flowers in her hair.

Maid of honor was Miss Becky Winkler of Beeville wearing a floor-length pink crepe gown. Best man was the bridegroom's father. Ushers and candlelighters were Bruce Smith and Dale Lee of Pettus.

The reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white cloth overlaid with pink illusion trimmed in pink satin ribbon. A candelabra holding three white tapers entwined with greenery and pink satin ribbon centered the table. The two-tiered white wedding cake and fruit punch served from a cut glass punch bowl flanked either side of the bride's table.

The bridegroom's table held a coffee service and German chocolate cake. The table was covered in a white cloth edged in lace and centered with an arrangement of greenery accented with pink flowers and white short candles.

Misses Susan Smith, Sharon Smith and Denise Weaver and Mrs. Jimmy Hudman served at the reception. Miss Karen DeForest presided at the guest book.

The bride attends Jones High School and the bridegroom attends Rockport-Fulton High School.

Special guests attending the ceremony were Bob Higginbotham of Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Murry Kenard and Mr. and Mrs. P.O. Foley of Refugio, Mrs. Ruby West of Beeville, Mrs. Mary Walters of Pettus, Mr. and Mrs. D.A. West and children of Victoria, the bridegroom's great-grandmother, Mrs. Burns and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marker, all of San Antonio.

V.K. DULLEY HONORED

Victor K. Dullye, honor student at St. Mary's University and son of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Dullye, Jr., of Rockport, has been nominated as a member of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

He received the following notification:

Dear Mr. Dullye:

I am privileged to inform you that you have been nominated by your school for inclusion in the 1975-76 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

A recognized institution of the American academic community, this "Who's Who" award is conferred annually upon outstanding student leaders. Over the past 40 years more than 1,100 colleges and universities have adopted this program as part of their annual campus honors. Selections are made by campus nominating committees and are based on decidedly above average academic standing, community service, leadership ability and future potential.

As documentary evidence and in recognition of this honor, a certificate will be presented to you by your college later this year. Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, two new candidates were voted in as members. They were Jack Davis, Jr., and David Crawford. There was discussion on effective use of manpower and equipment in fighting fires.

Cookies for refreshments were furnished by Mrs. Cleo Truelove and Mrs. Elva Mullinax.

The Kinsey Report

Since the Rev. John Bradshaw, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, grew a beard some time ago, he has been told by many friends that he actually does bear a resemblance to Jesus.

Last Sunday on the way to church my wife and I told our daughter, Mrs. Ken Herbert and sons, Mike, 6, and Jay, 4, (who were visiting us) that the minister looks somewhat like Jesus.

After church, all of us got in line along with others who had attended the service and shook hands with Reverend Bradshaw on the way out.

When we got in the car, Jay said: "Grandpa, that man really does look like pictures of Jesus, but where were his sandals?"

MAJOR FRED LEWIS BASED IN JAPAN

Marine Major Frederick E. Lewis, whose wife Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Hancock of Rockport, has reported for duty with the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing, Fleet Marine Force, homebased at Iwakuni, Japan.

He is a 1961 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., with a Bachelor of Science degree.

If you can't laugh at yourself, learn to occupy your time with a good hobby.

Presby. Women Met Nov. 6

The Women of the First Presbyterian Church met November 6 in the memorial room of the church. Circle 1 served refreshments to 11 members present.

Meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Van Morgan. In the absence of the program chairman, Neva Jackson gave the devotional from the book "I've Got to Talk to Somebody, God."

Secretary read the minutes and they were corrected and approved. Treasurer gave her report. The heater-fan discussed at the last meeting was purchased and Circle 2 has paid their part -- Circles 1 and 3 each need to pay their $8. Each circle has paid for layette material.

Since larger heater-fans have been purchased for two Sunday School rooms in question the smaller one purchased by the WOC will be used in the choir room. This brought up discussion as to how these rooms could be made more comfortable for the choir as they are very cold -- with no heat -- and very warm in the summer.

It was decided to put in a rug. Upon investigating and measuring, Loraine Winkler reports that the room on the east side does have a green rug and the other side does not. This room is 9 1/2 x 10 1/2. Neva knew of a rug which might be obtained and the president appointed her to look into the matter and if it was not available to see if a scrap piece might be purchased and what it would cost.

The family night supper will be on November 19 and Circle 3 will be in charge of tables, etc. The Kenneth Helmgrens will show slides of their African trip taken this summer. At the December family night supper the lap robes made by the women will be on display. These will be wrapped immediately afterwards for distribution to the nursing homes.

It was decided to have a WOC Christmas party and Dec. 18 chosen as the day. Neva Jackson offered her home. Circle 2 will decide about refreshments and inform the other circles what to bring. Everyone is to bring money for the Christmas baskets or a toy.

The Christmas Card for the joy gift will be up as usual for members to sign their name and contribute to the joy gift. Also a receptacle will be available to collect unperishables for the Christmas basket in the foyer during December. There will be a joy gift program during December, probably at the family night supper. Three women attended the combination district meeting at the Grace Church in Corpus Christi on October 25. They reported a good meeting but were disappointed that there were no workshops. The annual Presbyterian meeting will be combined with the regional this year and will be on March 25. The Grace Church women offered rides to any women going to Mo Ranch Women's Conference in June -- to contact them if interested.

The White Cross quota will be available in January.

There will be no WOC meeting in December.

GREGORY-PORTLAND BEAT PIRATES

Rockport-Fulton's Pirates met one of the powers of South Texas last week as they were shut out by the Gregory-Portland Wildcats 44-0 in Portland.

The Pirates were very impressive in the early going before a pair of penalties opened the gates for the Wildcat attack. Even though Gregory scored on their first two possessions, the Pirates forced the Wildcats to take a maximum of plays and crucial plays to make the scores. The first score came after 10 plays on a surprising pass play. The second score came on the twelfth play of a drive after the Pirates had nailed the Wildcats on their own seven; then the two consecutive 15-yard penalties came, and suddenly the Wildcats were at Pirate 46.

Gregory scored twice more in the second quarter on offense, and their defense scored a safety when a bad snap got by the Pirate punter and the Pirate punter was tackled in the endzone.

In the second half the Wildcats let off some of the pressure, but they still managed to score twice more.

The Pirates were not without their own stars, even in the face of a 44-0 score. Tailback Jeff Dietz collected 55 yards rushing against one of the stingiest defenses in Texas schoolboy football. More than once Dietz was one man from breaking for six.

Three Pirates came up with turnovers to stop Wildcat drives: Ronnie Ormand and Darrell Green picked up loose footballs, and Dickie Ballou pulled in a stray Wildcat aerial. John Picton was the team leader with 17 tackles. Johnny Washburn, Dietz and Jerry Hutson all contributed at least 10 tackles.

This Friday's game will close out the season for the Pirates. West Oso will visit Pirate Stadium for the finale.

OCTOBER ROCKPORT POLICE DEPT. REPORT

The Rockport Police Department made the following report for the month of October:

Autumn days, such as we've been having, are considered by many to be the best time of the year.

Football, hunting seasons, homecoming queens and thoughts of Thanksgiving fill the air, but to many it's the choice fishing time of the whole year. Big bass are being caught, redfish are in the surf and bays and off-shore tising is still available.

On Sunday, November 9, the surface temperature of the Gulf near Port Aransas was 82 degrees. As long as the water stays that warm there will be good fishing in the Gulf. Not many boats were fishing in the off-shore waters that day, but those that were caught fish. I know of one large wahoo that was caught and an even larger one that got away. As far as I know, no billfish were sighted, but that does not mean that they are not around.

Boats fishing around oil platforms south of Port Aransas have been loading up with small snappers, spade fish, blue fish and sand trout. Some kingfish and Spanish mackerel are still being caught and scattered black-finned tuna are still around.

Those fishermen who like to wade the shallow bay waters at night are cleaning up on flounder. Many people prefer this kind of fishing. They say that right now everything is perfect - the flounders are there and the water is still warm and comfortable.

Lots of speckled trout are being taken and redfishing is good. I should say that redfishing is good for those who know how to catch redfish. Not everybody does.

A lot of winter visitors from mid-western states are already here for the winter. They're catching their share of the fish.

Wildcat Frosh Sink Pirates

The Pirate Freshmen lost a hard-fought battle for an unblemished district record as they came out on the short end of a 32-0 score against Gregory-Portland last week in Rockport.

After playing to a 0-0 first quarter, and holding a 6-0 score at halftime, Gregory-Portland turned loose the horses to race to a 32-0 margin. GP scored four straight possessions to blast out to the winning margin.

The Pirate offense which has been potent for the previous six games could manage only 60 total yards for the evening.

The Pirate defense was on the field for most of the game and there were some outstanding performances. Linebackers Joe Brooks and Steve Naler combined for 43 tackles. Raymond Bauer, Rudy Samora and Dewayne Harrison all had better than nine tackles each.

This coming week the Pirates close their season with West Oso in Corpus Christi.

SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY PARTY — Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Troy will be honored in celebration of their 60th wedding anniversary with an open house to be given by their son, Col. Harland Troy, ret., and Mrs. Troy, of St. Louis, Missouri. The reception will be held in the Woody Acres Club House on Sunday afternoon, November 16th from 2:00 to 4:00 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy were married in New Hampshire, Iowa on November 17th, 1915.

Other out of town guests will be Mrs. Phillip Carlson and Mrs. Phillip Starkey of Minneapolis, Minnesota and Raymond Troy of California.

All local friends are cordially invited to attend.

Never refuse to listen to advice, but only rarely follow it.
