Friday Storm Brings Damage To Crops

Rain, Hail, Wind Cause Replanting

More rain, hail and high winds were the order of the day last Friday as heavy-laden clouds rolled into the area from the northeast.

Widespread damage was reported by area farmers, ranging from hail damage to wind and water damage.

Official rainfall recorded by James Gallagher was 1.18, although heavier amounts fell in outlying areas.

Robert Akin, who farms one mile south and two miles west of Circle said the hail broke a picture window in their home and damaged the roof. He didn't know the extent of the damage to the roof. Lightning struck an amplifier at the home also.

Akin said they would have to replant cotton but would leave the feed.

Two miles north of Circle, Mrs. W. K. Britton reported "Quite a bit of rain and high winds."

"The winds broke several tree limbs. One large American elm tree had severe damage."

Vernon Britton who farms the land by the W. K. Brittons said he would leave the feed, saying "I think it will be o.k."

However, he will replant cotton. He had just planted last Monday.

"Can't tell yet," was the story from several of the area farmers when being interviewed Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Raymond Durham said their corn was hurt but they would leave it.

"We can't tell yet about cucumbers and castor beans."

Bookmobile To Visit Here

Mrs. Lorene Sooter, Bookmobile Librarian, has announced scheduled area stops.

The High Plains Library will stop Friday June 7 from 1:45 to 2:30 p. m. in Hart Camp and from 2:45 to 3:30 p. m. in Fieldton.

The library will arrive in Olton Saturday June 8 from 9:15 to 11:45 a. m.

she said. His farm is located three miles north and three and four miles west of town.

He also farms two miles south and one-half mile east of Springlake, where he said he was "hurt pretty bad but don't believe it is as bad as the home place."

Floyd Banister received 50 per cent damage to his cotton on a farm located two and one-half miles west of Olton.

He also farms near the Valley View Church and reported thirty five to forty percent damage there.

Three miles east of town, Larry Witten said that the west side of his farm was hurt more than the east side.

"Milo and soybeans were not hurt," Witten said, "but after running the rolling cultivator Wednesday, I still can't tell if I can save my cotton."

According to Mrs. Raymond Lewis, cotton on their farm one mile east of town was destroyed.

On the Ershel Johnson farm five miles east and two and a half miles north of Olton, hail fell with some hail stones measuring up to 10 inches around.

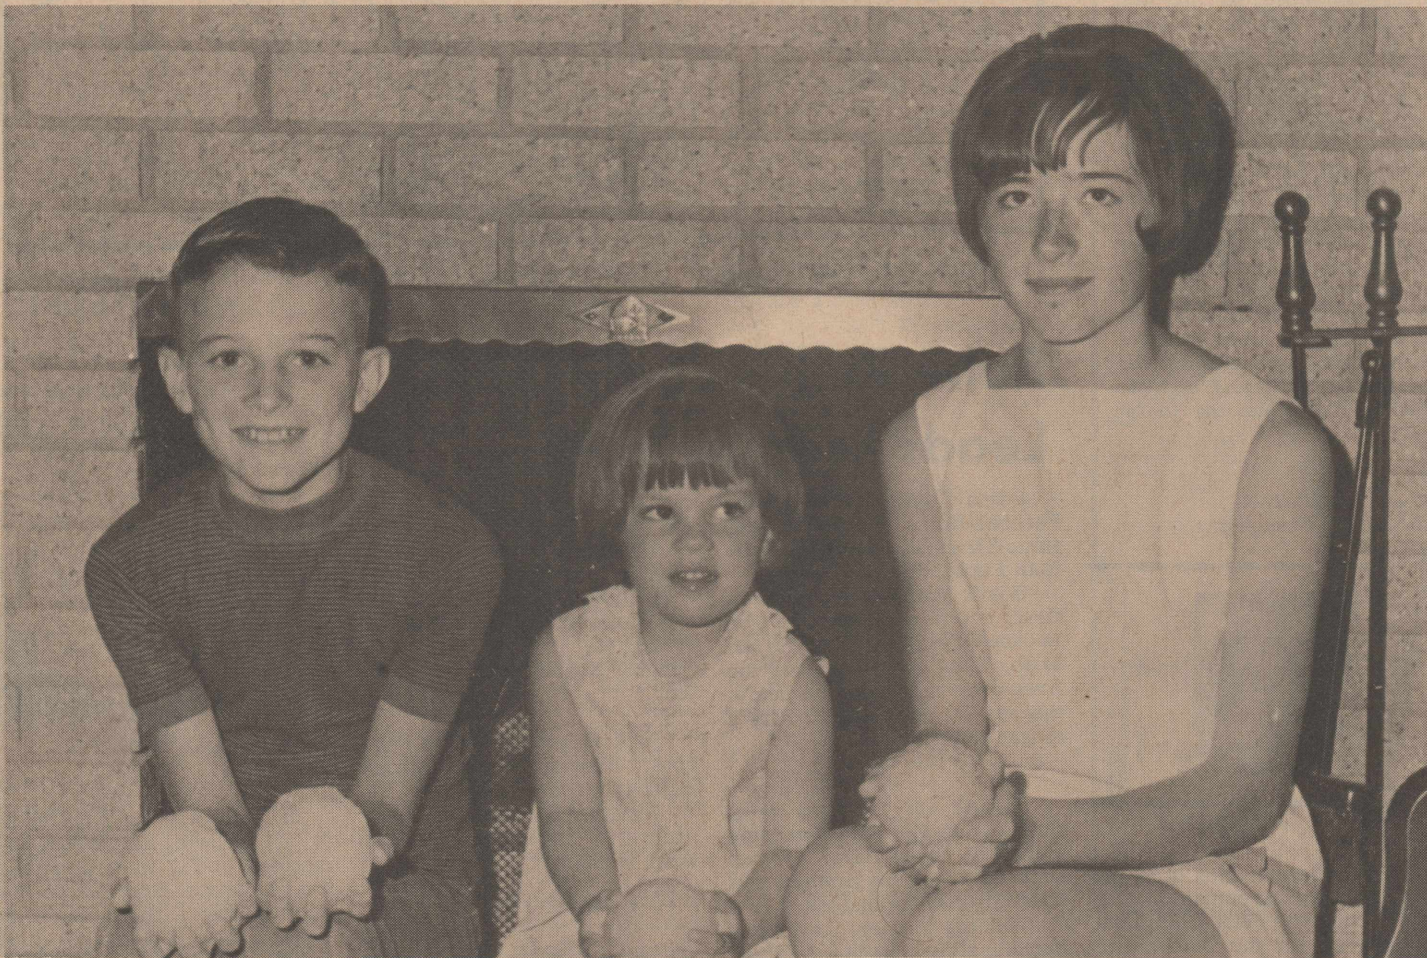

Mrs. Johnson said, "There weren't many of these though. And it is a good thing. Where they fell they were just imbedded in the ground and it killed the grass."

"Small hail was falling along with these big stones and crops were damaged some. However, the corn and feed seem to have come out of it and are looking good."

She also stated that trees around their home were ripped of their leaves by the high winds or hail. Leaves and branches were literally plastered to the yard, according to Mrs. Johnson. Damage to the roof of their home was also noted.

Wilton Bodkin's farm northwest of Olton received damage and he will have to replant cotton. However, cucumbers and feed didn't seem to be hurt too badly and they will not have to be replanted.

Even with all the turbulent weather conditions which have been prevalent recently, area farmers are still optimistic about their farms and are looking forward to a good year.

Roden, granddaughter; and Cynthia Johnson, daughter. The hail stones measured 10 inches in circumference, and when they fell they imbedded in the lawn from three to four inches.

Olton Volunteer Firemen Given Credit For Best Fire Record Rating Possible

A piercing siren sound and 31 men of varying age and occupation immediately dropped what they're doing and sped to a common destination -- the scene of a reported fire.

These 31 unsung heroes are members of the Olton Volunteer Fire Department. Their only rewards are the satisfaction of knowing they've done their best, the gratitude of a person helped and pay in the form of a free water bill.

The city of Olton has the best fire record rating with the State of Texas that any city can hold. This information is released by the Insurance Department in Austin.

As a result of this record, the insurance premiums of Olton residents are lower than those of many surrounding towns.

This Good Fire Record Credit is largely due to the Volunteer Fire Department, to the men who make up the department and the program they follow.

The department stations one volunteer fireman at the fire department building each night of the year to answer calls that might come in during the night.

The department meets in regular sessions twice each month.

Each year three volunteer firemen from the local department attend the state meeting in College Station. Participation in this state insurance department approved school earns the city a five percent credit.

The more credits a department can earn, the lower insurance rates become for that city. Thus the citizen benefits from increased knowledge for the fireman and decreased rates of his insurance.

Other points that earned credits for the department are the number of fire apparatus, methods of fire prevention taught in public schools, principles of fire insurance taught in the schools, and the participation in training schools.

Thanks to the Volunteer Fire Department, Olton can be proud that it has a rating with the state of Texas that is superior to those of surrounding towns.

OLTON - 31 volunteer firemen, 3 apparatus, estimated population 1,917. Rating - 25 percent Good Fire Credit.

FLOYDADA - 24 volunteer firemen, 2 apparatus, estimated population 4,500. Rating - 15 percent GFC.

EARTH - 25 volunteer firemen, 2 apparatus, estimated population 1,104. Rating - five percent charge.

PLAINVIEW - 25 paid firemen, 7 apparatus, estimated population 21,000. Rating - 10 percent GFC.

LITTLEFIELD - 26 volunteer and two paid firemen, 4 apparatus, estimated population, 7,500. Rating - 15 percent GFC.

Church-Related Service Chosen By Olton Youth

Four Olton youth are devoting their summer vacations to work in church-related vocations. At least one will continue this summer work in pursuit of his life's work.

Danny Amerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Amerson, was assigned as pastor to Dumont-Weinert at the Northwest Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church held in Amarillo week before last.

The 1967 graduate of Olton High School is a sophomore at McMurry College where he is taking pre-ministerial studies.

Red Cross Slates Meet

The annual meeting of the Lamb County Chapter of American Red Cross will be held June 7 at 4 p. m. in the Red Cross office in conjunction with the regular monthly meeting.

In addition to the regular routine, the meeting will include a report of the year's work, recognition of volunteers, election of officers and plans for next year.

All members and interested persons are invited to attend.

Miss Deena DeBerry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William DeBerry, is serving as Youth Director at the First Baptist Church in Freer.

The 1965 graduate of Olton High School will work with the youth for a period of 10 weeks. Freer is south of San Antonio.

Miss DeBerry will be a junior at Howard Payne College in Brownwood this fall.

Barbara Cowart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cowart, is serving as a staffer at Glorieta Baptist Camp in New Mexico.

The 1968 graduate is working in the dining hall at the church camp. Some of the activities scheduled for Glorieta this summer are conferences for Training Unions, Sunday School leadership, music, library, Bible, Missions, and Women's Missionary Unions.

Miss Kay Schultz, daughter of Superintendent and Mrs. Ray Schultz, will serve as youth director at the United Methodist Church in Hart for the summer months.

A 1967 graduate of Olton High School, Miss Schultz is a sophomore at McMurry College in Abilene. She was named Freshman Girl Favorite at McMurry.

Olton Serviceman Receives Medal For Outstanding Service In Vietnam

Specialist 4 Earnest Jerry LaFrance has been named the recipient of the Bronze Star medal.

The Olton serviceman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest LaFrance, received the decoration by direction of President Johnson.

The Bronze Star is awarded for "outstanding meritorious service in connection with military ground operations against a hostile force in the Republic of Vietnam during the period 25 January 68 to 29 February 1968."

Jerry and a buddy, Terry Joachin of Phoenix, Ariz., recently spent their R and R leave in Sydney, Australia.

Jerry writes his parents of his trip:

"Sydney was really great! Beautiful and COLD. But there is still no place to compare with HOME!

The people are very friendly. They sure think a lot of the American G.I. and go all out to make him enjoy his R and R time there.

We stayed on the top floor of the White Hall Hotel, with a beautiful view of the bay area. We could see the huge luxury liners coming in. Looking out the window to the left we could see the Big Harbor Bridge.

One of the most outstanding and impressive things we saw was the memorial honoring Australia's war dead, who have died in Viet Nam and all other wars.

Each Thursday, downtown Sydney holds this ceremony. It is really beautiful. They have a huge bronze monument, shaped sorta like a casket, with a huge bronze soldier and sailor with rifle and bayonet on the monument and in large gold letters it reads 'To Our Memorial Dead'.

The Aussie Soldiers are in full dress uniform with rifles and bayonets. A band in bright red uniforms performs. There are two uniformed men on horses on each side of the street with two soldiers with the flags. There were flowers all over the memorial. It is impossible to describe the beauty of it.

We didn't have our camera that day but did go back the next day and took pictures of the monument.

I guess the best night we spent there was the evening we spent visiting an Aussie family who invited us to their home. When their neighbors learned we were coming by, several came in. We spent about four hours talking about Texas and Arizona - also Australia.

Sure hated to leave, but as the saying goes 'All good things must come to an end.'

It takes about 10 hours of flying time. We left Tan San Nhut air port about 5:30 p. m. May 13 and arrived in Darwin about midnight. We had a two and one-half hour layover there because planes aren't allowed to land in Sydney before 0600 hours.

We spent six wonderful days of real rest and relaxation and arrived back at Lia Khe May 22. It was truly a wonderful and rewarding experience I shall never forget.

But now that is in the past and I'm counting the days until I'll be back in Beautiful Texas, Home and Olton.

'I'm For The Upperdog'

GUEST EDITORIAL

IF THIS BE HERESY...
 ...THEN WE PLEAD GUILTY...

For, you see, I have just about reached the end of my tolerance for the way our society at the present time seems to have sympathetic concern only for the misfit, the pervert, the drug addict, the drifter, the ne'er-do-well, the maladjusted, the chronic criminal, the underachiever, the loser -- in general, the underdog. It seems to me we have lost touch with reality and become warped in our attachments, if not in fact psychotic.

In short, I feel it is time for someone like me to stand up and say, "I'm for the upperdog!" I'm for the achiever -- the one who sets out to do something and does it; the one who recognizes the problems and opportunities at hand and endeavors to deal with them; the one who is successful at his immediate task because he is not worrying about someone else's failings; the one who doesn't consider it "square" to be constantly looking for more to do, who isn't always rationalizing why he shouldn't be doing what he is doing; the one, in short, who carries the work of his part of the world squarely on his shoulders. Not the wealthy, necessarily, not the gifted, necessarily -- just the doer, the achiever -- regardless of his status, his opulence, his native endowment.

We will never create a good society, much less a great one, until individual excellence and achievement is not only respected but encouraged. That is why I'm for the upperdog -- the achiever -- the successor; I'm for building an ever better society and this will only be done by those who take seriously their responsibility for achievement, for making the most of their native ability, for getting done the job at hand.

Dear Turnrow Tunkel

O. C. McBRIDE

Don't you think our young people should show more respect for their elders?

Yes, My parents taught me to address men older than myself as "Sir". I still do it, although the occasion doesn't come up too often any more.

I understand Federal authorities have ruled that each grade school in Berkeley must have an enrollment of 59 per cent white students, 28 per cent Negroes and 13 per cent Orientals.

I thought the schools in my home town were properly integrated, but apparently they are not. If we are going to comply with the law, the Government will have to send us some Chinamen.

Did you know that crude oil was once considered a cure-all for many illnesses?

I think it still helps in case of sickness. Anyone who has to enter a hospital these days needs a couple of oil wells.

Did you read about the fellow in New Jersey who sued a photographer because the wedding pictures of his bride made her appear unattractive?

Since cameras don't lie, I don't think he has much of a case. If her biscuits turn out bad, I wonder if he will sue the flour manufacturer.

I see where the Senate has voted to cut off foreign aid to nations that seize American fishing vessels on the high seas.

That's an unreasonable attitude. First thing you know we'll be insisting that countries receiving our aid stop burning our embassies.

What did you think of Frank Sinatra's announcement that he will support Vice-President Humphrey for the Democratic nomination?

I don't think Hubert should let that discourage him. There's always the chance that Stokeley Carmichael will come out for Bobby Kennedy, and Adam Clayton Powell will endorse Gene McCarthy.

Discovery

BY SUE CANNON

I have just made a discovery that should net me at least a million dollars!

I have discovered a perpetual motion machine!

There is just one catch to this machine. . . it really takes the fuel to keep going.

Boy, does it ever!

Everytime I go to the refrigerator I think, "It can't be this empty ALREADY!"

But it usually is.

And the bread box -- it is bound to have a leak somewhere!

Also this machine has to be "on-the-go" somewhere all the time in order to be real happy.

By now, those of you who have teenagers are very well aware of what I am talking about.

Oh, that endless energy!

And those appetites!

To say nothing about their temperaments.

As of last March, there are three teenagers at my home. Never a dull moment now for sure!

I was reading recently about a family with seven teenagers who live at Littlefield, I'd hate to try to stay up with that crowd. Three is bad enough.

The two older ones are involved in driver's education this summer. One will be going to Dallas with the band in June and the other two have plans for vacationing in Arkansas and Fort Worth for a while this summer.

Every day they go to the pool and would stay six hours if I would just let them.

I went out with them Monday and had been in for what seemed like two hours and I had only been in 45 minutes.

I was out on my feet for the rest of the evening! So tired I could just drop!

And speaking of appetites--- I don't know how Margie can feed kids for 35¢ a meal!

I sure can't. I am about ready to give them back to her and they haven't been out of school a month yet.

Of course, Daddy used to say it would have been cheaper to hire a hand to work in the Others plant carrots, or onions, or cucumbers, or asparagus, or lettuce. But there's one thing you can plant now that will create a variety of tastes. A gas barbecue grill.

We have several varieties. Any one lets you harvest a delicious meal any time of the year. Its perfect heat control and permanent briquettes give you year 'round cooking pleasure without the mess of a charcoal fire.

For best results, we recommend early planting. This will guarantee larger yields because you can start your harvest immediately.

New lower prices on the '68 models are in effect through July 31st. Prices start at $77.50 cash (includes installation and tax) or as little as $2.50 a month, whichever you prefer. After that, it will only cost a few cents per month for us to feed it.

Call us. We'll plant a gas barbecue grill in your yard. That is, if you have a taste for the outdoors. Buy a PATIO PAIR (one gas light and one gas barbecue grill) and save $26.00. Prices start at $103.70 (includes installation and tax) or $4.00 a month.
