Poultry Association Meeting Here Tonight

In an effort to get the poultry interests of the county actively banded together in a live organization, several Floyd County poultry raisers have been discussing the question of organization and last week set the dates for a organization meeting for tonight. The place is the Chamber of Commerce office in basement of the court house and the time is 8 o'clock.

Mrs. W. M. Massie, L. G. Mathews, Oliver Allen, H. P. Coleman, Robt. Smith, Jr., W. W. May and E. S. Shoaf signed the call for the meeting of poultry breeders of the county, which is as follows:

"We, the undersigned, are of the opinion that Floyd County should have an active poultry association and have set Thursday night, May 7th, for a meeting of all poultry breeders of this county. At this meeting the subject will be thoroughly discussed, officers elected and permanent working organization formed.

"It is impossible to estimate the good that can be derived from an organization of this kind, and it is to the interest of all poultry breeders, whether they raise just a few chickens or are commercial poultry farmers.

"Be sure and come. Remember the date, Thursday night, May 7th, at Chamber of Commerce office, basement of Court House, Floydada, Texas, at 8 p. m."

Poultrymen locally recall that a former association of poultry breeders in the county was largely instrumental in increasing the interest in the poultry business in the county, raising the standard of the poultry stock, gaining information on poultry raising and breeding through poultry shows, and otherwise generally improving conditions in the poultry business. The organization was allowed to lapse, however, for a time. This new effort is being encouraged by every interest with the hope that it will become a permanent organization and aid in the many possible ways it can in developing the poultry business in the county.

WICHITA BOOSTERS IN FLOYDADA ON SCHEDULE

The Wichita, Kansas, special train of business men, who toured the plains of Texas last week reached Floydada on schedule and gave a party that was thoroughly enjoyed for their hour's visit here.

Their American Legion Band proved to be equal to the advance advertisement given it. It was probably the best band that has been heard in this section in recent years. Members of the band also formed a quartet that sang unusually well.

More than a thousand persons gathered in the crowd to see and hear the Wichita trade trippers. The Wichita people were thoroughly impressed with the panhandle country. Most of their estimates on population, taken from the 1920 census were so far wrong that it was the occasion for comment on all sides among the excursionists. Representatives of the Wichita newspapers in their articles declared that every figure made in advance of their trip was an under-estimation, especially as regards populations.

SLATON WINS BY A LAST-MINUTE RALLY

Slaton's Hi School base ball team repeated the performance of the school's football team last fall, when last Saturday afternoon the team put on a last minute rally against Floydada Hi's team and won the game and the district championship 11 to 8; in a tournament at Lubbock to determine district championship.

That the Slaton school's claim to the championship is clear and the school's right to the honors pronounced, is indicated by the fact that the rally the team staged in the ninth inning of their game against Floydada Hi, was in the 27th inning of play the team had engaged in during the day. Earlier in the day the team won from Spur and Plainview in succession, having drawn these teams. Floydada Hi played Lubbock Friday afternoon and won 7 to 5, and had the Slaton boys bested until the latter came from behind to win in the ninth.

Friday of last week Mrs. S. W. Ross honored her daughter, Mary Anna, with a party and noon time dinner, the occasion being her eighth birthday. Only relatives of the honoree were invited to the dinner and the most unique feature of the affair was the fact that four grandparents of little Mary Anna were present at her birthday party. Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Ross of Shawnee, Oklahoma and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Boerner were all present. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boerner and little son.

FINE RAIN FALLS

Floyd County was blessed with one of the finest rains its citizens could have asked for, on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. It totalled an inch of moisture.

Coming on top of nearly an inch and a half of rain a week ago, it gives good planting seasons and assures a good start for the row crop.

Many farmers who have been unwilling to put cotton seed in to the ground, will now go ahead confidently with cotton as well as feedstuffs. Thousands of acres of feed, planted during the past week will come up to a good stand, without doubt.

One hundred or more ladies were here on Monday for the one-day cooking school which was to have been conducted on that day by Mrs. Frances Young Kline under the auspices of the home demonstration work in Floyd County. Due to confusion of dates, however, Mrs. Kline was not here on Monday, and on Tuesday morning the cooking school was opened. Twenty-five or so women were present during the day to watch the interesting demonstration given by Mrs. Kline in the making of salads, desserts, etc., and to listen to her lecture on "Protective Diet."

In our regular recipe column we have printed this week some of the favorite recipes used during this demonstration by Mrs. Kline.

CLERKS BEST MECHANICS IN FIRST BALL GAME

Clerks and mechanics of Floydada have formed them a twilight league to play baseball, and although they are starting out with only two teams it is possible enough ball-players and would-be players will become interested before the season is over to make up three or four teams. At present they are playing once or twice a week according as the "spell" hits them.

Last week the "spell" hit Thursday afternoon, and the clerks had it all over the mechanics, winning 5 to 0. Yearwood Brown and Curry were batteries for clerks with Reed, Mickey and White for the mechanics. P. G. Stegall, clerk's center fielder, was the star of the game. He picked off two long hits that went "fur and fair", with two men on each time.

The games are played after six o'clock.

Dr. W. H. Alexander accompanied Grady Paschall to Lubbock Saturday where the latter will remain in a sanitarium for a few days for treatment

May Trades Day Goes Over Big

Second of Series of Trades Days Created Big Interest in Territory Monday

The First Monday in May,—Trades Day—Monday of this week—was one of the biggest business days Floydada has ever had during a spring month and drew interest of the residents of trade territory for many miles.

In spite of the fact that rains had recently fallen and many planters were kept going all over the territory, practically every family in the trade territory had at least one representative in Floydada during the afternoon.

Attendance figures give the crowds at estimates from four thousand to five thousand persons, the belief being that even a larger crowd was in Floydada Monday than was here a month ago on First Monday.

Particular attention is called by retail merchants of the city to the fact that next Trades Day—First Monday in Floydada—will come on the first day of June.

YOUTHS MUST RUSH APPLICATIONS FOR SUMMER CAMPS

Young men in this section wishing to make application for the Citizens' Military Training Camps to be held this summer should at once communicate with or see J. H. Reagan the local chairman for the Military Training Camps Association.

Mr. J. H. Reagan will be ready at all times to assist prospective students in making out and forwarding to Fort Sam Houston applications for attendance.

It is urgent that all who plan to attend send in their applications as soon as possible, as completed applications must be filed before June first. Another reason for the necessity of immediate action is that all who attend the camps must be vaccinated before their arrival at camp. Dr. V. Andrews will make medical examination without charge.

Sunset People Looking Forward to New Town

Already signs of new capital and new developments that will come to this section when the new railroads are built, are looming up on the horizon.

People of the Sunset community are among the people who will be benefited by the new railway the Denver is planning to put up the caprock, and a new town is expected to spring up somewhere in the northeast part of the county, not far from Sunset, when the Denver announces its route definitely, according to Walter Wood and Fred Miller, who were in Floydada Friday.

A large surveying crew is now camped under the hill and have been working on the route that leads up through the Long lands. A grade better than one per cent has been found there, it is said, and this crew is thought to be working out the detail of the route up the hill. More than a dozen tents are required to house the large crew of surveyors who have been working on the project.

BUREAU COTTON DELEGATES TO BE NAMED SATURDAY

At a convention to be held in Floydada Saturday afternoon, May 9th, Floyd County Members of the Farm Bureau Cotton Association will select their delegates to the district convention which will also meet in Floydada on the following Saturday, May 16th.

Saturday afternoon's meeting is called for 2 p. m., at the court house. At this meeting a temporary chairman and temporary secretary will be chosen to conduct the meeting until the permanent chairman and permanent secretary shall be named, who will then take charge of the meeting. Delegates chosen shall be certified by the chairman and secretary to the district convention.

Floyd County is now in District No. 19 of the association, the state having been redistricted recently in order to equalize membership representation. This district is composed of Cottle, Motley, Floyd, Hale, Parmer, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Hall, and Childress now. Although it is permissible and possible that some of these counties may be represented here on May 16th by proxy, it is thought likely that all of them will send delegates here for the district meeting.

SEARS-ROEBUCK.
 That the mail order houses of the country would like to reach the people the most inexpensive way, viz through the newspapers, is indicated by a circumstance which occurred last week. Sears-Roeback & Company, for many years one of the leading mail order houses of the country furnished the circumstance. This firm offered a large number of "country" papers in Texas a series of advertisements, which would tally in the case of The Hesperian as one of the three biggest accounts had this newspaper accepted the business.

The old way of direct catalogue advertising is apparently becoming too expensive. Styles, desires and needs of the people of the country are changing too fast. A catalogue 90 days old is too old to be of value to the reader, who discards it for something newer. This something newer that most nearly reaches all the homes in the territory is usually the local newspaper. It is a logical medium for a mail order concern. But most local newspapers do not believe in mail order concerns. A natural antipathy to them grows out of the fact that local newspaper people run into mail order competition of one kind or another every day of the world. The local news paper people know that mail order business carried to its logical end, means a big economic loss. As proof they point to the fact that if you will find the most backward community in the country you will also find there the largest per centage of purchases through mail order houses, the poorest merchants, the poorest markets, the least progressive and financially able farmers, unpainted homes, lack of civic pride, and most of all of the thing that a newspaper man does not want his town and county to be. Not all exactly the result of the mail order business probably, but hand in hand with it.

So, that so long as the country newspapers of Texas can see a probability of reasonable support from the field in which they labor and the "legitimate" dealer, the latter is going to be protected, so far as the newspaper is concerned, as much as possible from the mail order concern. Naturally, when some lazy storekeeper sits whittling or whistling, as the newspaper man solicits his business, and suggests with a yawn that he has not been convinced yet on the value of advertising, and besides that it doesn't look like rain soon, the newspaper solicitor almost wants to wire Sears-Roeback to get their ad ready. But this spell soon passes.

It takes a long pull, and a strong pull, with all hands working, to build up a community. The mail order concern doesn't fit into that kind of a scheme of things and the newspaper man dislikes to give him encouragement and the recognition of the newspaper advertising columns.

Benedict, of the College of Arts and Sciences, has made public a list of 392 students worthy of distinction for excellent work in their studies. This list is divided into four groups, the leading group being designated as Summa Cum Laude, and including the best 67 students out of the 3,450 registered in the College of Arts and Sciences. The second group, Cum Laude Amplia et Magna, includes the best 155 students among the 3,450; the third group, Magna Cum Laude, includes the best 218; the fourth group, Ampla Cum Laude, includes the best 308 students; and the fifth, Cum Laude, includes the best 392.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY MET MONDAY EVE.

The Ladies Auxillary, American Legion, McDermott Post met last Monday evening with a small but very enthusiastic group of ladies present. With so many school activities in progress many of the ladies who had signified their intention of being present were unable to be there, but plans for some sort of activity on the part of the Auxillary in the Legion boys Fourth of July celebration were discussed at that time. It is probable that the ladies will maintain a booth during the Fourth of July celebration where the general public may learn of their relationship to the Legion and where articles will probably be sold by the ladies.

The Auxillary will meet the third Monday night at the Legion Hall, which will be May 18th. The president Mrs. L. G. Mathews is desirous of having a large group of ladies present at this meeting to further perfect their Fourth of July plans and in order to formulate important committees.

WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

The Wednesday Bridge Club met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. W. Cloud.

After several rounds of bridge Mrs. Herbert Ralls and Mrs. A. N. Bratton tied for high score.

A delightful luncheon of chicken salad with bread and butter sandwiches, apricot sherbert and angel food cake was served to the members and following guests: Mesdames E. L. Angus, A. N. Bratton, Roy Snodgrass, John Farris, Kight Dickey, Homer Steen, Bob Echols of Matador.

The club will meet on Wednesday afternoon May 13 at the home of Mrs. B. K. Barker.

FOR WORKING PEOPLE

The best of workers get out of sorts when the liver fails to act. They feel languid, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged and think they are getting lazy. Neglect of these symptoms might result in a sick spell, therefore the sensible course is to take a dose or two of Herbine. It is just the medicine needed to purify the system and restore the vim and ambition of health. Price 60c. Sold by All Drug Stores.

DUTCHESS TROUSERS

10¢ a Button, $1.20

A mere matter of detail

THE great popularity of Dutchess Trousers is largely due to the wise care that the manufacturer gives to each small detail—the way the buttons are sewed on, the size of the cuffs, the finish of the seams, the belt loops.

You will appreciate these niceties even though the first thing that strikes you is the fashionable cut. Custom tailor style, yet at a price that fits a modest purse.

We have your size in Dutchess Trousers for dress, for work, for play—and every pair bears the famous warranty label, guaranteeing "10c a Button, $1.00 a Rip."

From the Beacon:

Mrs. J. A. Weathers, who lived 7 miles northwest of Lockney, died Wednesday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock following an accident that occurred at Plainview last Thursday.

While attending the barbecue at Plainview Mrs. Weathers either fainted or suffered a stroke of paralysis, falling on the pavement, striking the side of her head. She was brought to the home of her son, J. H. Weathers, near Aiken, where she became unconscious about 9 o'clock Thursday night, never reviving to consciousness.

Mrs. Weathers, whose maiden name was Miss John Etta Ewing, was married to J. A. Weathers in Hunt County, Texas, 44 years ago. To this union there was born three boys and three girls: J. H. Weathers, J. C. Weathers, Mrs. Lee Floyd of Lockney; Mrs. Earnie Barrow, of Mora, N. M., Mrs. Eva Whitfill and Oran Weathers of Lockney, all of whom survive her, also J. A. Weathers, husband, survives his wife.

Funeral services were conducted at the Aiken Baptist church at 3 o'clock this afternoon by Rev. Virgil Lemons, and interment followed in the Lockney cemetery.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Services next Lord's day will be interesting. It will be observed at our church when the American Legion, McDermott Post, will conduct services during the morning hour. A special sermon by the pastor appropriate to the occasion will be delivered at this hour and Miss Myrtice Meador will render some special solos.

There will be no evening services on account of the Baccalaureate Service at the High School Auditorium next Sunday evening.

Remember the Sunday School meets at 10:00 o'clock and we have a class for you and all of the family. The morning services will begin at 11 o'clock.

If the weather and the roads permit the pastor will preach at Mayview Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

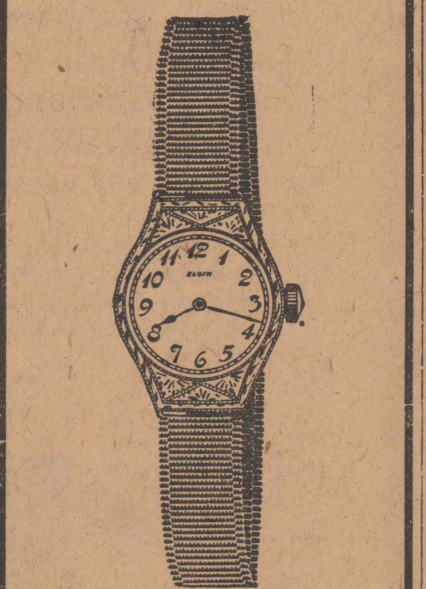

Harper Scoggins accompanied the Floydada athletes to Lubbock Friday where they participated in a tournament. The boys made an excellent showing.

NEW INTERSCHOLASTIC RULES INTERPRETED BY OFFICIALS

Austin, Texas, April 30—With the date of the state meet drawing near, Interscholastic League officials are being kept busy tabulating results of district meets and in making final arrangements for the reception of the 3,000 high school visitors expected in Austin in May.

Along with the district results enquiries have come from coaches asking for information on the new ruling for possible substitutions of entries. For the benefit of those not having the official league bulletin which contains the complete rules governing the county, district and state meets, the league executives have summarized the ruling as follows:

"In the case a contestant in a meet finds that he will be unable to attend the next higher meet, it shall be his duty to notify his principal or superintendent, whose duty, in turn, it shall be to notify the next place winner in the event (except in track or field), who shall become eligible to represent his county or district, as the case may be.

"No substitution is allowable in individual events, but local school authorities may make a substitution to fill a vacancy on a team, as in tennis, debate, or track and field.

"Qualification in the relay race is by schools. In this event any four eligible men may be used."

GETS BETTER MAIL SERVICE FOR LOCKNEY AT MEETING

Homer Howard returned the last of last week from a trip to Ft. Worth, where he attended a session of the executive committee of the State Postmaster's Association, where a program was made for the annual meeting to be held at Galveston during the month of May.

While away Mr. Howard took occasion to arrange for a through letter mail pouch from Estelline to Lockney, which is now in operation and gives Lockney a better mail service from this angle of her mail service.

Mr. Howard is vice president of the State Postmaster's League.

GRAND PRAIRIE PREACHER VISITS IN FLOYDADA

Avoid Mistakes in Grasshopper Poisoning

By R. R. Reppert, Entomologist
Extension Service, A. and M. College of Texas

(Read Carefully)
Mistake No. 1 has already been made in poisoning grasshoppers in 1925.

The poison bran mash as recommended by A. and M. College has proven fully effective in killing grasshoppers. Last year, failures were reported, but investigation in every instance showed some detail of mixing or distributing had been neglected.

April 7th of this year the Extension Service sent out Press Letter Vol. 1. No. 1 on grasshopper control, giving the formula and going into considerable detail. Where a good grade of amyl acetate could be obtained this was advised in place of lemons, being cheaper, more effective, and more easily mixed. Especial care was taken to advise "high grade amyl acetate" and to "avoid bronzing liquids." In spite of this, we have already found that bronzing liquid is being sold to the farmers in large quantities for the purpose of killing grasshoppers.

Bronzing liquids contain amyl acetate, but mixed with other materials in such quantities that it often repels the hoppers instead of attracting them. Only a high grade amyl acetate should be used, such as "C.P." or "Technical No. 1." Avoid anything sold in tin cans labeled "Bronzing Liquid." A high grade of amyl acetate suitable for use in poison bait can be purchased at less than $5.00 per gallon, and we will be glad to put your druggist in touch with a source at this price if he cannot obtain it otherwise.

We wish to emphasize the necessity of following closely all details of mixing and distributing. "Don'ts" are obnoxious, but must be used here.

1. Don't substitute bronzing liquids or other low grade products for High Grade Amyl Acetate.
2. Don't use calcium arsenate or lead arsenate. Be sure your poison is either White Arsenic or Paris Green.
3. Don't use corn syrup. Cane molasses is necessary, and a low grade cane molasses is best.
4. Don't put the mash out in piles. Sow it broadcast.

SMALLPOX ON INCREASE

More smallpox cases were reported to the Texas state board of health during the month of April than cases of tuberculosis, there being 193 cases of smallpox and 185 cases of tuberculosis.

There has also been an increase in smallpox throughout the United States the last year, according to information issued by the United States Public Health Service with mild epidemics occurring in several states.

The most serious of these epidemics have been at Birmingham, Ala., and at Washington, D. C., where 19 deaths have occurred since January 1st. The cases appearing there have been of a more virulent type than cases reported from other sections of the country, and thousands of government employees as well as other residents of Washington, have submitted to vaccination recently.

EXPRESSION RECITAL

Miss Thelma Green's expression class is to appear tonight in recital at the high school auditorium.

The feature of the evening will be "The Marriage of Jack and Jill", a play in which 41 children will have parts.

Musical numbers will also be used in the program.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. Boone Hall were in Plainview last Sunday evening and enjoyed the preaching at the First Baptist Church by the Rev. J. Pat Horton.

FACTS AND FANCIES FROM PLEASANT VALLEY

What's in a name? Well, in our opinion its altogether where you are located. In some parts the names of schools and communities are taken from some peculiarity of the surroundings, such as Walnut Grove or Rocky Point, but out in this country it's different. It's all so much the same that one name is as good as another, so they called this Pleasant Valley. Why, we haven't found out, for its no pleasanter here than any place in 50 miles of here, the wind and sand blows just as hard and the sun is just as hot. Neither is there any more valley here, but that's the name and we are not wanting to change it.

Now, we are going to call these little items Facts and Fancies from Pleasant Valley, and we think the reader will agree with us that Facts and Fancies is the right name.

The Pleasant Valley School, which has been taught by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Shaw, closed last Wednesday. A nice program was rendered Wednesday night, by both pupils and teachers. An appropriate speech by Mr. Shaw thanking the patrons for their assistance in making this one of the most successful schools ever taught in this community. Mr. Shaw and wife have given good satisfaction and have made a host of warm friends during their stay in this community and will carry the best wishes of all with them. They informed us that they will attend summer school at Plainview.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reeves and little daughter, Fay, spent the day with G. R. Smith and family last Sunday.

A large crowd of Valley people attended Trades Day at Floydada last Monday. We intended to go but, well, you know, Henry Ford says thou shalt not run my jitneys without gasoline.

The click, click of the cotton and feed planters are heard all over the community these days.

We are going to be mighty friendly and sociable with Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Smith from now on for we notice they have about seven or eight hundred spring chickens on their place. Many of them will be ripe in two or three weeks, and then Mr. Smith informs us he expects to experiment in the watermelon line to some extent this year. These people have just moved into our community this year and we think a lot of them.

That cold wind Monday put such a hump in our back that it will take a week of sunshine to get it out.

Judge Arthur B. Duncan is being detained from his abstract office this week by illness. He was quite sick but is showing material improvement at this time.

Salad and Dressing Recipes

The Hesperian has the unusual pleasure this week of substituting in our regular recipe column recipes furnished by Mrs. Kline, the Food Specialist who conducted a one day cooking school in the Floyd County Court Room Tuesday of this week, under the auspices of the county home demonstration work being conducted by our local agent, Miss Mabel Faulkner.

Those who were fortunate enough to attend this very interesting and helpful school and were served a portion of most of the delicious things listed below as prepared by Mrs. Kline and for those who could not attend perhaps the printing of these recipes will be of much help in making appetizing and inexpensive dainties for the family table:

Mrs. Kline's Own Salad Dressing
1 pint of oil (any kind)
1 whole egg
3 tablespoons of lemon juice or vinegar
2 teaspoons of salt

Procedure: Put the salt and one tablespoon of lemon juice or vinegar and one tablespoon of oil and the whole egg broken on top of this. Then start to beating with a rotary egg beater. Gradually add oil until the mixture begins to thicken. After it has become thick add the remainder of the vinegar.

This salad dressing can be used as a basis for any of the fancy dressings by adding Roquefort cheese or such ingredients as necessary for making Thousand Island Dressing or Russian Dressing.

Jell-O Chicken Salad

1 pkg. lemon Jell-O dissolved in a pint of broth in which a chicken has been cooked. Add to this 3 tablespoons of vinegar. When partially congealed add one cup of diced chicken meat. One cup of diced celery, one cup of nut meats and one-fourth cup sweet green peppers. Mold and serve with salad dressing and garnish with parsley or lettuce leaves.

Pimento Salad

Take one package of lemon Jell-O and dissolve in a pint of boiling water, to which has been added three tablespoons of vinegar. When Jell-O has partially congealed add one cup of diced celery, one cup of shredded cabbage, one green pepper, two pimentos and pinch of salt. Mold and serve with salad dressing or garnish with lettuce leaves.

New Manhattan Salad

1 pkg. of lemon Jell-O dissolved in a pint of boiling water to which has been added one tablespoon of vinegar. After the Jell-O has partially congealed add to it one cup of diced celery one cup of nut meats, one tart apple and pinch of salt. Mold and serve.

Tomato Jell-O Salad

Cook one pint tomatoes together with one slice onion and one celery stalk for five minutes. Strain and add one teaspoonful vinegar, one-fourth teaspoon salt, pinch of red pepper and water sufficient to make one pint liquid. Heat to boiling point and dissolve one package Lemon Jell-O in the mixture. Mold in individual molds and serve on lettuce leaves with salad dressing.

Plum Pudding

Dissolve a package of lemon Jell-O in a pint of boiling water, and while it is still hot stir in 3-4 cup Grape Nuts, 3-4 cup English walnut meats, 3-4 cup cooked prunes and 1-4 cup citron—all cut fine; 1-2 teaspoonful cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoonful cloves. Salt to taste. Mix and let harden. Serve with sweetened whipped cream or pudding sauce.

MOTHER'S DAY

(By Gertrude Friend Scoggins)

A Day set apart to honor her
Who risked her life for another,
A Hallowed Day to worship her,
Your best friend and your mother.

She went through the Valley of Shadow,
She suffered that you might live;
She smiled when you were happy
She gave all that she could give.

Your sorrow or your tear-drops
Carved deep into her soul,
Your future was her beacon,
Her Aim, Her Life, Her Goal.

Remember her today, then,
As you never could another
For your Guiding Spirit loves you,
Your Faithful, Darling Mother.

Juniors of F. H. S.
Entertain Senior Class

The Junior Class at High School entertained the Senior Class with a party at the home of Mrs. W. J. Burke Thursday evening of last week. A very happy time was enjoyed by the 79 students who registered for the evening, and the Junior committee, Audrey Felton, Arie Gamble and Evelyn Kizzier, in charge of the affair are to be congratulated on the cleverness with which they carried out the colors of the senior class, purple and gold, and the colors of the junior class, gold and white, in the general decorating scheme.

Much credit for the success of the evening is due to the efforts put forth by Miss Ida Mae Jarvis who was full of original ideas and enthusiasm.

Various contests, games of 42 and Flinch were the order of the evening, and at a late hour refreshments consisting of brick ice cream and angel food cake were served to the guests. The ice cream and cake carried out the color scheme of green and white, the colors of the high school in a very effective manner.

Weak In Back
and Sides

"Before the birth of my little girl," says Mrs. Lena Stencil, of R. F. D. 2, Matthews, Mo., "I was so weak in my back and sides I could not go about. I was too weak to stand up or do any work. I felt like my back was coming in two. I lost weight. I didn't eat anything much and was so restless I couldn't sleep nights. My mother used to take so I sent to get it. I improved after my first bottle. Cardui is certainly a great help for nervousness and weak back. I took six bottles of Cardui and by then I was well and strong, just did fine from then on. Cardui helped me so much."

Thousands of weak, suffering women have taken Cardui, knowing that it had helped their mothers or their friends, and soon gained strength and got rid of their pains. Cardui should do you a lot of good.

The Santa Fe Creed

President Storey says that teamwork, courtesy, and co-operation form the Santa Fe creed. Regional Advisory Boards are an example of co-operation. Every one benefits when the transportation machine works smoothly.

Community of interest of the railroads, their patrons, and the public is generally recognized without argument.

A fine spirit of co-operation has resulted and has become an invaluable aid in rendering transportation service.

One outstanding example of co-operation is the Shippers' Regional Advisory Boards, eleven in number. They are voluntary organizations of shippers, representing production, distribution, consumption, and credit as related to transportation.

Each board has separate commodity committees dealing with each important commodity.

Railroads are not represented on these boards, but do have separate committees of their own which co-operate with the commodity committees.

These boards consider, analyze, and solve many transportation problems. Through them railroads learn shippers' needs in advance and are enabled to distribute cars to care best for such needs.

Shippers learn the necessity of prompt loading, unloading, cleaning, and release of cars, and the importance of giving advance notice of their requirements.

Friendly conferences around the table have been very helpful. All parties have profited thereby.

Car loadings in 1923 and 1924 broke all records, yet the railroads moved the traffic offered without car shortage or delay.

There was no magic or mystery about this record-breaking performance. Available facilities were used to the best advantage by railroads and shippers. Plain common sense was applied in a co-operative spirit to solving a difficult problem.

Such co-operation made it possible to have the products of forests, mines, manufactures, and agriculture delivered without delay at reasonable cost.

Everyone benefits when the transportation machine functions smoothly and without friction.

BULL'S EYEEditor and General Manager
WILL ROGERS

Another 'Bull' Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Ziegfeld Follies and screen star, and leading American Humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

NEW YORK is building some more of those subways under the ground. No use building any more, people can't find their way out of the ones they got now. There's people down underground in New York that haven't been up for years. New York people are just like a lot of Gophers; every time they see a hole in the ground they grab a nickel and duck for it. If they keep on living underground, in two more generations their children will have fur like a rat

What's this Subway got to do with 'Bull' Durham?

Nothing.

What do people outside New York care about how New Yorkers live?

Nothing.

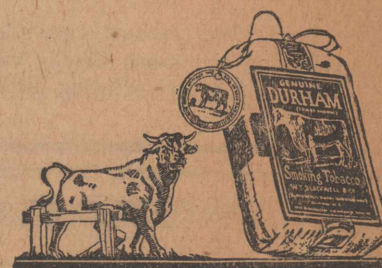

But there is an old saying that one half the world don't know how the other half live, so I am telling you how they live, not as an Ad but as a fact. Five million Ground Hogs in New York rush through life missing one Train and being shoved into the next. The real trouble is that they can't smoke 'Bull' Durham down there.

Will Rogers

P. S. I'm going to write some more pieces that will appear in this paper. Keep looking for them.

SIXTY-FIVE YEARS AGO!

In 1860 a blend of tobacco was born—'Bull' Durham. On quality alone it has won recognition wherever tobacco is known. It still offers the public this—more flavor, more enjoyment and a lot more money left at the end of a week's smoking.

SPANISH CLUB EATS, TALKS SPANISH AT LUNCHEON

Monday evening of this week the Spanish Club with Miss Ida Mae Jarvis sponsor of the Club and Spanish teacher at High School, held a six o'clock dinner in the Domestic Science Rooms at High School. All dishes served were cooked in Spanish style and the girls in the Club were the cooks. Recipes were garnered from every available source and the result was a wonderful and strange assortment of viands especially to the West Texas taste. Among some of the dishes served and their fearful names were tortillas, tamales, agu, chili, pastes and chocolate, the latter being the only recognizable and safe thing that the writer would dare take a chance on.

Spanish conversation was the rule of the evening which was rather cramping to the style of some. However, all agreed that they understood their own Spanish perfectly; as for the other fellow understanding it, ah, that is another story, as the Spanish would say.

Among those who enjoyed the unique pleasure of dining out in Spanish fashion on this occasion were: Miss Ida Mae Jarvis, Richard Stovall, Lucille Montague, Cleo Norman, Betty Lewis, Johnnie Courtney, John Gamble, Clara Tubbs, Alpha King, Sybil Covington, Louise Jackson, Bonnoarea Stevens, Margaret Henson, Mildred Carter, Edna Faulkner, Quinby Kizlar, Wallace Robbins, U. A AND B DIVISIONS IN LITERARY EVENTS AS FORMERLY

Austin, Texas, April 30.—Division of schools into class A and class B in the literary events will not be affected by the new Interscholastic League ruling, which unites the respective classes in athletic events, according to information given out this week by Roy B. Henderson, one of the League officials. In the state meet, he said, competition will be conducted in A and B classes in debate, declamation and other literary phases just as they have in the past.

The new rule provides for the eliminations of the two divisions of schools beyond the county tournaments and has been made to reduce the number of entrants in the finals at Austin in May.

Records in the past have not justified two divisions in track and field events, and for that reason it was thought best, Mr. Henderson stated, to place all contestants in one big class.
