Fighting Picks Up Tempo On Korean Fronts

SEOUL (AP)—Brisk fighting on the Central and Western Fronts today ushered in the 30th month of the Korean War.

British and Australian night raiders drove into the Red lines and clashed with Chinese troop for more than eight hours. Brilliant gunfire pierced the pre-dawn darkness on the Western Front.

Allied infantrymen on the touchy Central Front stormed back at dawn and recaptured two key outposts near Red-held Jackson Heights. The Chinese had captured the positions in the night.

Gen. Mark Clark huddled with his top field commanders, then flew back to his Tokyo headquarters. The U. N. supreme commander conferred with Gen. James A. Van Fleet, boss of all Allied ground forces in Korea, and the U. S. Fifth Air Force chief, Lt. Gen. Glenn O. Barcus.

The top brass probably discussed the forthcoming visit of President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower. Clark toured the front in a light plane Monday, possibly surveying the ground Eisenhower will visit.

Temperatures climbed across the battlefront, bringing welcome relief from chilling cold.

Despite cloudy weather B26 Marauders roared over Communist supply routes last night and reported 85 Red trucks destroyed.

Rising temperatures brought relief to ground troops. The British First Commonwealth Division supplied the heaviest punch in the ground fighting.

Rains Leave; Panhandle Clogged By Heavy Snow

Scurry Gets 1.25 Inches Since Sunday

A total of 1.25 inches of rain fell in Snyder since it began Sunday morning. Forty-four hundredths of an inch fell last night, Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, official weather observer, said this morning.

Most of the additional moisture fell in a hard shower at about 8:30 o'clock last night. Later in the night a strong West wind started blowing and cleared the skies of clouds. Clouds started blowing in again about 7 o'clock this morning.

Forecasts for West Texas show that precipitation, if any, will be moderate this week. Showers on Thursday and Friday are said possible.

The moisture will provide a shot in the arm to farming in Scurry County. "We got enough to get up wheat that was dry sown," stated Jake Hodges, Soil Conservation Service work unit conservationist. Because the rain fell slow new terraces that have been put up this year were not thoroughly tested, he added.

Irelan L. Finley, Production and Marketing Administration officer, said the moisture will be a booster to the wheat that is already up, and additional farmers may sow more of the grain as a result. The rain should also help in the deep plowing jobs that are going on in the county, he added.

Finley stated that the rain may have a long range effect on the amount of emergency hay that will be ordered. "But it won't affect the amount until the wheat gets high enough to make grazing for the cows," he said.

Oscar Fowler, county agriculture agent, emphasized that the relief is temporary and that more rain will be needed on the wheat in less than two months. The plants that are coming up due to the last rain will grow better if there are no high winds and the weather remains warm, he added.

The year's unofficial total at this point stands at 14.23 inches, which is a 4.02 inch increase over the amount that fell all last year. The total rainfall for the month is 1.89 inches. The last rain was on Nov. 9 when .54 of an inch fell.

The high temperature was 44 degrees yesterday, and the low reading last night was 37 degrees, Mrs. Strayhorn said. At 7:30 o'clock this morning the thermometer showed 38 degrees.

Ezra Taft Benson, (above) was named to be Secretary of Agriculture after the meeting with President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower in New York. Benson, 53, from Salt Lake City, is a former official of the National Council of Farm Cooperatives.

Small Twister In Gulf Coast Town

By The Associated Press

Heavy snows clogged Panhandle cities and closed schools and airports Tuesday. Winds of a new norther stormed in icy gusts across the top of Texas.

A tiny twister cut a small path of destruction through the coastal city of Port Arthur.

Slow, steady rains that began Sunday slacked off to final gray drippings in northeast Texas and along the coast.

Behind the wide assortment of weather in Texas was this situation:

A new, snow-bearing norther was whipping west to east across the state. Soon, the Weather Bureau said, the norther would mingle with the remains of a cold front that had hung stationary in Southeast Texas for two days but was now slipping out of the state. It was this fading front that had brought Texas its first heavy general rains in 30 months.

AIRPORT CLOSED

Snow piled up in Borger, Amarillo, Dalhart, Pampa, Perryton and Childress. It fell also in eastern New Mexico and southern Oklahoma towns bordering the Texas Panhandle.

The rain was heaviest at Borger and Amarillo.

All roads leading to Borger were closed by an overnight snowfall of eight inches. The city measured 11 inches Tuesday morning. Workers showed up late all over the city. The airport was closed the third day in a row. The temperature hung at 24 degrees.

Amarillo's 10 inches of snow was a November record. The previous record was 8½ inches in 1906 and again in 1923. Many roads were blocked. A trickle of traffic was able to get through on highways leading east and south, but motorists were warned to stay off the highways except in emergencies. Rural schools closed, but Amarillo schools stayed open.

A 27 mile-an-hour wind blew in gusts up to 32 miles an hour at Amarillo, and the mid-morning temperature was 24 degrees. A 10-degree low was predicted for Tuesday night. Cars were stuck and workers were late.

PAMPA SCHOOLS CLOSED

Five inches or more of snow—high winds made the exact depth uncertain—and a 22-degree temperature closed Pampa schools. All roads were blocked. The airport closed.

Dalhart recorded five inches of snow and Perryton two inches. The Weather Bureau said snow was falling at Childress. Dalhart's winds blew in gusts up to 40 miles an hour.

The Weather Bureau said that as the cold front left the Panhandle, snow would cease and skies clear. Clearing and colder weather was predicted Tuesday night for the whole state.

Port Arthur's twister uprooted trees, felled several power poles, tore off awnings and knocked small buildings awry, but damage was reported light.

RAIN TAPERS OFF

The only places still reporting rain Tuesday were Texarkana, Houston, Galveston, Beaumont and Lufkin.

The Weather Bureau said the new norther's gusty winds would dry out some of the moisture left in the soil by two days of general rain—but not much.

The new cold wave reached to Houston, near the Gulf Coast, by late Tuesday morning, dropping the temperature from 71 degrees to 57 in 10 minutes. A low of 44 was predicted for Houston Tuesday night.

Reports of totals from the fading rainfall continued to come in from happy farm centers.

SHERMAN 4.40 INCHES

Sherman reported 4.40 inches since noon Saturday and 2.61 inches in the 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. Tuesday. A 24-hour total of 1.49 inches fell at Corsicana, which already had received heavy rain. Bonham reported 3.65 inches of rain since Sunday.

Quanah, in Northwest Texas, reported 1.38 inches of rain. A drizzle turned to slushy sleet Tuesday morning.

Standard To Re-Enter Hole In Mitchell

Standard of Texas has located a wildcat in Northwest Mitchell County as its No. 1-1 B. F. Dunn.

It is an old dry hole which was drilled by Stanolind Oil & Gas Co. to a total depth of 5,500 feet and was plugged and abandoned at that depth in 1946.

Standard proposes to re-enter and clean the hole to 3,000 feet and test the pay found to the southwest of it in the Coronet 2900 field.

It is 660 feet from south and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 64-20-Lavaca Navigation survey, five miles northeast of Vincent and about 22 miles southwest of Snyder.

BORDEN FAILURE

George S. Hammonds No. 1 W. J. Cebulske in Northwest Borden County has been plugged and abandoned at a total depth of 9,658 feet in Ellenburger.

It had a drillstem test at 9,610-658 feet in Ellenburger with tool open six hours and recovered 200 feet slightly oil and gas cut sulphur water and 9,000 feet slightly oil cut sulphur water. Tentative top of the Ellenburger was 9,598 feet. Elevation is 2,964.

It is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 1-32-t6n-TT-RR, 18 miles northwest of Gail.

CORONET LOCATION

King Oil Co. of Wichita Falls has staked locations for two projects in the Coronet 2900 field of Northeast Howard County. They are the No. 1 C. L. Jones, 330 feet from south and east lines of the northeast quarter of section 5-25-H&TC, and the No. 2 C. L. Jones, 330 feet from north and east lines of the same section and survey.

The No. 1 will drill to 2,000 feet or a test of the Coronet pay at a lesser depth beginning at once and the No. 2 will drill to 2,950 starting in the near future. Both will use combination tools. They are two miles east of Vincent.

KENT TEST

General American No. 1 Atkins Ranch, Kent County wildcat, flowed 156 barrels of new oil through an 18-64th inch tubing choke in 24 hours. It is still testing, and a swab lost several days ago is still in the hole.

Seaboard Oil Co. has spotted location for its No. 3 Turner May in the Rowen & Hope field of Northwest Nolan County. It is 1,780 feet from south and 2,500 feet from west lines of section 42-22-T&P. It will drill to 6,500 feet to the Pennsylvanian lime, starting at once.

Meany New Leader Of AFL; CIO Bid

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor today chose 58-year-old George Meany as its new president and made a new bid to the CIO for a merger.

Meany was elected unanimously by the AFL's 14-member Executive Council as successor to the late William Green.

William F. Schnitzler, 46, Chicago, was unanimously selected to be the AFL's secretary-treasurer, the post vacated by Meany.

Green died Friday at the age of 82 after serving as the AFL's cheef executive for more than a quarter century.

Meany told newsmen the AFL Council also had reactivated a nine-man committee on union with the CIO and had empowered it to invite the rival labor organization to join the new discussions on a merger.

Such talks have been conducted off and on many times in the past without success.

However, Meany expressed confidence they could now be carried forward successfully. He said:

"They are trade unionists and so are we, and we must find some way to get together."

Some indication of the CIO's attitude may come from a meeting of its top officials in Atlantic City Friday. The main business of that meeting will be to discuss naming a new CIO president.

George Meany

The CIO presidency was vacated by the death of the veteran Philip Murray on Nov. 9.

Red Confesses To Titoism

VIENNA, Nov. 25 (AP)—Karel Svab, 13th former top Communist to confess before a Prague court in the current Czech purge trial, admitted today that as former deputy security minister he covered up a widespread anti-Moscow conspiracy.

Svab is one of the three non-Jews among the 14 Reds on trial for plotting to overthrow the government of President Klement Gottwald.

Only one defendant—former Deputy Defense Minister Bedrich Reicin—remained to be heard as the trial of former Communist Party boss Rudolf Slansky and his associates neared its end.

Radio Prague said Svab, 48, admitted he was a member of the "Titoist type" conspiratorial group led by Slansky.

Western charges that the trial has strong anti-Semitic overtones drew comment from the Communist newspaper Rude Pravo.

The paper indicated Communist organizers of the trial were attempting to prove that all Jewish capitalists were "Zionists, traitors and anti-Semitic" while the average Jewish worker was anti-Zionist.

Airman Charged With Trying To Peddle Secrets To Enemy

TOKYO (AP) — S.Sgt. Guiseppe Cascio, swarthy veteran of nine years in the U. S. Air Force, today was charged with conspiring to sell secret information on America's top jet plane in Korea to the enemy.

The Air Force announcement did not identify the enemy. Presumably it referred to the Communists.

An Air Force officer said the secret information was contained in films of the souped-up F86e jet fighter, which has racked up an 8-1 victory margin over Russian-made MIG15s in Korean air battles.

Cascio, 34, was a photographic laboratory technician with the 49th Air Base Group. He doubled as a photographer and handy man.

The Air Force said Cascio obtained the secret information from Sgt. John P. Jones of Manchester, Mass. Jones was attached to the Far East Air Forces Headquarters Squadron in Tokyo.

Jones and Cascio were arrested Sept. 21. A medical board later declared Jones insane and he was shipped back to the U. S. No court martial charges have been filed against him.

Cascio, if convicted, could be sentenced to life imprisonment. No date or place for his court martial trial has been set.

The charge against him says Cascio "did wrongfully offer for sale to unauthorized persons classified military writing . . . with reason to believe that said writing would reach the enemy."

In Tucson, Ariz., Cascio's 44-year-old wife declared, "Anyone who does anything to undermine his nation deserves whatever happens to him.

"This thing has just made me sick. We never got along. We were divorced once and I foolishly married him again."

She said her husband left for Korea early this year. She had not heard from him since June.

Maj. Mathew Stanhope of Whiteville, N.C., who arrested Cascio, said the stocky, heavy-set sergeant submitted meekly.

"The guy gave me no argument," Stanhope reported.

Appointments Are Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Eisenhower's latest appointments—one a surprise, the other somewhat expected—have come in for a general round of applause.

The surprise was the designation of Ezra Taft Benson as Eisenhower's secretary of agriculture. Benson, 53, has devoted much of his life to agriculture but he has been less well known in that field recently than as a leader of the Mormon church in Salt Lake City.

Not unexpected was the choice of Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire to a key spot in Eisenhower's high command. Adams, also 53, headed the Eisenhower campaign. He was named to be assistant to the President, a job that includes liaison work between the White House and most of the federal departments and agencies.

Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, to whom Benson is distantly related, had this comment for newsmen at Columbus:

"I think it is an excellent appointment. I certainly joined in the recommendation (but) I can't claim him as my recommendation."

The six cabinet appointees to date: John Foster Dulles as secretary of state, Charles E. Wilson as secretary of defense, James M. Humphrey as secretary of the Treasury, Herbert Brownell as attorney general, Oregon's Gov. Douglas McKay as secretary of interior and Benson as secretary of agriculture.

Union Punished Under RuleOnNon-Communist Affidavits For Leaders

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board said today it has imposed its first punishment for filing of a false non-Communist affidavit.

The board said it acted after Anthony Valentino, business manager for Local 80-A, Packinghouse Workers Union (CIO) was convicted of false filing in U. S. district court at Camden, N. J.

The punishments imposed, NLRB announced, were:

1. The local's name was stricken from the list of unions in compliance with the filing requirements of the Labor Management Relations Act. It thus lost the right to NLRB services in representation elections and unfair labor practice cases.

2. Steps were taken to revoke the collective bargaining certifications issued to five local unions representing more than 900 employes in Camden plants.

French Troops Stay Dug In

WITH FRENCH UNION FORCES, Nov. 25 (AP)—French Union infantrymen dug in deeply today preparing for an all-out attack by Communist-led Vietminh troops on this dusty outpost-key to the mountainous Thai country of Northwest Indochina.

Except for minor patrol clashes, isolated airstrip and barbed wire the defense perimeter around this entanglement 117 miles west of Hanoi was quiet last night. Both sides apparently were grabbing a last breather between Sunday night's initial clash and the decisive battle.

WEATHER

WEST TEXAS: Clearing Panhandle and South Plains late Tuesday afternoon and generally fair elsewhere. Colder Tuesday night, lowest 12-22 in Panhandle, 18-28 South Plains and 32-38 Del Rio-Eagle Pass area, 24-34 elsewhere. Wednesday fair, not so cold in Panhandle and South Plains.

NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Clearing and colder Tuesday afternoon and night, lowest 28-35 Tuesday night. Wednesday fair and cold.

EAST and SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Clearing and colder Tuesday night, lowest 30-38 north portion Tuesday night. Wednesday, fair and cold. Strong northerly winds on the coast.

Sweeping Reforms Are Promised Iraq Mobs

BAGHDAD, Iraq, Nov. 25 (AP) — Iraq's new blood-spawned government rounded up political leaders today, promised sweeping reforms to placate the mob and threatened curfew violators with heavy jail penalties.

The strategic oil producing country's military premier, Gen. Mahmoud Nur Al Din, earlier had ordered all political parties dissolved and 12 newspapers shut down. Gen. Nur Al Din was called to office by Regent Abdul Ilah after 11 persons were killed and 50 wounded in week-end riots.

Many politicians fled from the Army and police roundup. At least six already were in jail.

Leftist demands for direct parliamentary elections instead of the present method of indirect balloting had caused the former government of Premier Al Umari to resign and touched off the violence Saturday and Sunday.

Dies May Have To Form New Committee To Help 'Cleanup'

JASPER, Tex., Nov. 25 (AP)—If Martin Dies is not placed on his old House Committee on Un-American Activities, he may try to form his own investigating group.

He said last night the new body would "sweep Socialists, moral perverts and grafters" out of the national government along with Communists.

Dies, a Democrat, said he felt any such new committee would receive bi-partisan support and that he didn't see how President-Elect Eisenhower "could resist" supporting such a group.

He made his statements to the Associated Press in a telephone interview after saying Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa) didn't think Dies "has any constructive contribution to make to the committee's work."

Dies was elected congressman-at-large from Texas after campaigning chiefly on his work in the Un-American Activities group from 1938 to 1945 when he was chairman of the House group.

Walter will be the ranking Democrat on the committee in the 83rd Congress, but Dies angrily said, "If it takes a fight I'm ready for a fight with Mr. Walter and the rest of them."

He added he might try to form the new group if he finds the present committee "isn't cleaning up the mess in Washington," adding he didn't care who cleaned it up just so it's cleaned up.

Dies also said Rep. Sam Rayburn, due to be House minority leader, recently said that he (Rayburn) would do everything he could to oppose Dies' assignment to the investigating committee now existing.

"They're getting awfully scared," the big East Texan said.

Dies called Walter "one of the group of 'psuedo liberals' who fought us all the way" when Dies was heading the investigating committee and said, "it's not surprising he says things like this."

The Congressman-elect said he would want his new committee to investigate anybody suspected of being unfit for governmental service whether elected or appointed.

Rejection Of Peace Plan Is Tipoff; May Be Bad Blunder

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press Staff

The timing of Moscow's rejection of India's compromise proposal for a Korean truce may go down in history as a serious Soviet blunder. But the Kremlin probably considered itself forced into the hasty rejection.

The Soviet move could have been predicted with confidence—but not the time element. There is no question Moscow dictated the orders hurriedly. Satellite Poland's delegate suddenly called off his plans to speak on the proposal Monday. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky wanted to speak, and in a hurry.

What Vishinsky had to say indicated several things:

1. The USSR is not interested in peace in Korea but simply in talking about it.

2. Moscow did not believe there was a real British-American split over the Indian proposal, but looked up the differences as a maneuver to force the Soviet hand.

3. Moscow has tightened the screws on the Communist Chinese and is dictating to Peiping on every step of the Korean discussions.

This impression grows: With the continuing heavy burden of the Korean War, differences between the Chinese Communists and their Russian allies have been coming more to the fore.

Vishinsky told the U. N.—dashing truce hopes in the progress—that only the Soviet resolution, embodying terms impossible for the U. S., was acceptable to Moscow in the Korean issue. This involves a general 11-nation commission to handle all Korean questions, including the repatriation issue. Red China and Red North Korea, as well as the Soviet Union and Communist Czechoslovakia, would be on this commission. It could result in making the Korean Peninsula a bristling armed camp for an indefinite period.

The Vishinsky pronouncement illuminates the whole Soviet maneuver which began in the summer of 1951 with the Moscow proposals purportedly looking toward an armistice. It indicates that having gambled desperately and unsuccessfully to secure the whole Korean Peninsula for the USSR, the Russians intended to perpetuate a stalemate costing Moscow little and the U. S. a great deal. It could also serve as a constant irritant in the relations among the free nations allied in the defense of South Korea.

The surprise came with the haste of Moscow's rejection of India's proposal. This suggests that Moscow suspected the British and Americans of cooking up the appearance of a deep split to maneuver the USSR into an untenable position. But it suggests something more important. Ordinarily, Moscow would have reveled in the prospect of a widening split in British-American relations and would have done all possible to fan it.

However, Moscow believed it had to act swiftly. There seems only one answer to this. That is, that the Indians, before going ahead with their proposal, had some sort of green light from the Peiping regime. Possibly, the Communist Chinese actually do want to get out from under the awful cost of the Korean War by any face saving device available.

Industrial Assistance Bonds Called Move Toward Socialism

DALLAS, Nov. 25 (AP) — Dallas City Auditor E. Lynn Crossley today lashed out at the use of "industrial assistance bonds" by municipalities and branded the practice as "a move toward socialism."

The Dallas auditor, speaking before the General Session of the Texas League of Municipalities, said that the industrial assistance bond has come into use during the past few years, but he warned against the long-range effect of issuance of such type of bond.

The industrial assistance bond is one issued by a municipality to finance or subsidize a new industry within the city. The industry repays the city from its revenues.

"I am sure there is a strong temptation to small communities desiring new industries to aid growth to use this type of bond," said Crossley. "Each of us can calculate the benefits of additional employment and the attendant demands for goods and services in the community. However, we must consider the long-range effect.

"The first, and I'm sure most obnoxious to Texans, is the move toward socialism."

"If we are to preserve states' rights, we certainly must confine our financing strictly to those necessary for the conduct of government," he said.

A Houston attorney, William E. Davis Jr., also spoke.

The convention opened yesterday and the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. was accused of lobbying at the gathering.

Yesterday Mayor Harold Schmitzer of Denison accused the phone firm of trying to lobby the league into favoring a state-wide commission to regulate utility rates.

"It's the first time I've seen Southwestern Bell people around at one of these meetings," Schmitzer told 73 members of the Texas City Managers Association meeting in connection with the league's three-day conclave.

"It means they're trying to lobby for a resolution from the league for the State Legislature to set up a state commission to regulate utility rates," Schmitzer added.

His charges were followed by a statement from C. C. Crutchfield of Austin, field consultant for the League, that it's not long until such state commissions "represent the utilities instead of the people."

South Korea Will Not Accept Just Any Agreement For Peace

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 25 (AP)—South Korean announced today it would not accept any truce arranged by the U. N. against its wishes. President Syngman Rhee's foreign minister indicated his government believes Korea's future is nobody else's business.

In a formal statement, Minister of Foreign Affairs Stmt. Pyun said,

"The government of the Republic of Korea cannot and will not accept, against its wishes, any arrangement or agreement or resolution in regard to the disposition of what it considers to be its citizens or part of its historical domain, made or reached or adopted without its official and full participation with the unrestricted voice sovereign nations usually exercise in similar matters of exclusive concern to themselves."

South Korea is not a member of the U. N. nor is it taking part in the truce negotiations at Panmunjom.

In a speech to the U. N.'s Political Committee, South Korea's chief observer earlier also said the only end to the war which his government could accept was the liberation of all Korea and the creation of an international demilitarized zone in Manchuria to protect the border.

The South Korean statement was issued as U. N. delegates made plans to get priority for an Indian plan on breaking the prisoner of war deadlock. The plans were pushed despite Russia's flat rejection of the Indian proposal.

These delegates said even though the Russians had rejected the plan, they felt the Assembly should endorse it and leave it up to the Chinese Reds and North Koreans at Panmunjom to accept it or face world censure by turning it down.

Supporters of the Indian proposals planned a bitter fight against certain Soviet bloc opposition in the 60-nation Political Committee, which today was to take up a motion to put India's plan at the top of the list of Korean resolutions to be discussed in detail.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky yesterday crushed the widespread hopes here that India's V. K. Krishna Menon had found at least a formula for ending the deadlocked POW issue holding up a Korean armistice.

The Russian denounced the Indian plan as "unsatisfactory and unacceptable." He said only his own resolution calling for an immediate cease-fire followed by a peace conference on prisoner repatriation and all other Korean issues would stop the fighting.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, who disagreed with some points of the Menon plan as being too vague, said the United States is "wholly in agreement with the spirit of this resolution." He urged the committee to continue to seek a solution in spite of the despair Vishinsky had cast over the body.

The Menon plan, already revised along lines suggested by British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, calls for a four-power commission headed by a fifth-power umpire to take charge of repatriating prisoners and to care for those who refuse to go home until a political conference decides their fate.

Former Snyder Man Surprised During Audience With Pope

By EDWARD H. HARTE

ROME, — Until today I assumed that a papal audience (a visit of about 80 persons to the Pope) would be a slick piece of stagecraft designed to rush curious Americans into the presence of Pope Pius and then whisk them out again.

You know—by the numbers, one, two ... you go in, you see him, you come out again.

Well, today I learned that in audiences with the present Pope there is no stagecraft. The thing wasn't even efficiently handled. It was a homely affair, with the chief actor, Pope Pius, comporting himself not with the pomp of one of this world's most influential men but with the benign simplicity of an affectionate grandfather. Of course, a very urbane and cultivated grandfather. But still like a grandfather, leisurely, gentle, beneficent.

There are at least three varieties of papal audiences. There is the kind he held last Sunday, in which several hundred pilgrims go to his summer residence, Castel Gondolfo, where he addresses them and blesses them from a balcony. That is a general audience.

SPECIAL AUDIENCE

Then there is a special audience, to which we were able to get an invitation. This is an audience for about 75 persons, perhaps more on occasion, who are admitted to a room where the Pope speaks briefly with each of them and gives them his blessing.

Besides this, there is the private audience, extremely difficult to arrange and reserved generally for heads of states and cabinet members. It is particularly hard for an American to get one because the United States does not send a diplomatic representative to the Vatican.

The story of our special audience goes back several months. First, letters from American prelates or Catholics known in Rome were written ahead of our arrival. In our case, Bishop Laurence Fitz-Simon of Amarillo was kind enough to recommend us for an audience.

Then, on arrival in Rome, the American desiring a papal audience goes directly to the North American College, where applications by Americans for audiences are processed.

At the college the monseigneur checks you out on what to wear, how to conduct yourself, and so forth. For special audiences, the rule is navy blue or black for both men and women. In addition tradition requires the women to wear a black lace mantilla over their heads.

INVITATION

Finally, the appointment for the audience is confirmed, and about 8 o'clock the night before the audience there is a knock at the door of your hotel room and a messenger delivers your printed invitation.

It reads that Mr. So-and-so and his "consort" will be received by Pope Pius XII at 9:15 a.m. the following day. The map is consulted, for despite the wintriness of the cold gray sky, the Pope is still in residence at his summer palace outside Rome. Then the alarm is set. Dinner is ordered at once. And the family shoes are given an extra-good polishing.

The morning of our audience found us proceeding through the cold November dawn along the new Appian Way toward the Pope's castle.

We gave only a glance at the beautiful little lake (formed in the crater of an ancient volcano) below the castle. Self-consciously we presented ouselves to the brilliantly costumed Swiss guards at the castle gate. With surprisingly little ceremony, they ushered us upstairs to a large, cold hall, about the size of the Cactus Hotel ballroom in San Angelo.

There a functionary, attired in full dress, pointed us to a seat on a wooden bench, covered with green baize, which ran along both sides and one end of the hall.

Everyone was a little tense and was trying to disguise it. We chatted among ourselves, laughed at things that were not funny, and tried to present a we-do-this-every-day front to the world.

There wasn't much to do but wait — and watch the other people. We soon discovered that the rule about being dressed in navy blue or black was not enforced. Many persons were admitted whose costumes didn't fill the bill.

WAITING

At 9:15 we were sitting stiffly on the uncomfortable benches. At 9:30 we still were there, taking in the not-very-impressive decor of the baroque hall, the simple dais and gilded throne chair, and watching the majordomo and the guards pace back and forth in a very business-like way. At one point our hearts leaped as one set of doors was closed and another pair opened. But the only result of this change was that we could not hear the majordomo talking on the telephone in the anteroom.

Then, quite suddenly, the majordomo moved rapidly through the room calling, "Get up, get up. Hurry please. Everyone here in the center."

Bewildered, we huddled in the middle of the hall before the throne. Nobody knew how to behave, and everyone held back waiting for someone to take the lead. The majordomo placed an American admiral and his family at the head of the group (he missed an Army general in plainclothes who was lost in the shuffle). Second after the admiral and his family were two Army chaplains. Behind them, it was first come, first served.

And then, suddenly, the announcement in English, "The Holy Father!" and everyone in the room dropped to his knees.

There was considerable disagreement among us about when we should rise from our knees. By the time we had drawn ourselves up the Pope already had begun his circuit of the guests. Contrary to our expectation, he had not seated himself on the throne so prominenently displayed in the hall, nor did he go near it during the entire audience.

CEREMONY

By watching those in front of us, we soon caught into the protocol of the ceremony. Catholics knelt and kissed his ring when the Pope addressed them. Protestants received his blessing, but did not kneel or kiss the ring.

The white clad figure of the 70-odd year-old Pope moved quietly though the hushed room. His smile was very genuine. His manner completely easy. And he transmitted to each of us the feeling that we were at home and welcome.

He approached each person, extended his hand and began his interview by asking some little question in a very low voice.

To us he said, "You're American?" Before we could reply he asked, "What state?" Taking our cue from him, we whispered our reply (although the word usually is shouted), "Texas." Then, smiling, he said, "You are newlyweds?" I laughed and my wife replied, "We have three children."

"But you look so young ..." he said, as he moved away, leaving my rapidly aging wife beaming with gratitude.

After he had spoken to everyone in the room, all of us knelt on the marble floor while he invoked the blessing of the Lord.

GROUP PICTURE

We thought it was all over. But as we moved away, we could hear the Pope speaking. "Don't you want a picture?" So we crowded around him and a photographer snapped the group. These photographs were delivered that same night at our hotels.

As the crowd milled around him after the picture, a few persons approached him timidly to exchange a few remarks. He was attentive and responsive, and seemed utterly unhurried. Eventually, a guard replaced on his shoulders the old-looking ermine cape which he had removed for the picture-making and the Pope waved good-bye.

Spontaneously, the nearly 100 per cent American audience broke into applause. We thought it was inappropriate, but if the Pope shared that view he did not betray it in his look.

And so he disappeared, waving benignly and smiling.

For most of us it was a great experience, all that we needed and more than we deserved.

But for two or three persons, for whom the audience was the climax of a long religious experience and who really had something to communicate to the Pope, the audience was too public, too embarrassing to permit them to say what they wanted to say.

Children Suffocated

NEWPORTVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Two young children suffocated yesterday after crawling into the defrosted family refrigerator while playing alone in their home.

The victims were Kenneth Kugel, 3, and his sister, Jo Ann, 7.

Their mother, Mrs. Betty Kugel, 40, a widow, was at work.

School Choral Group Tonight

High school choral groups will present a program entitled "Musical Spice" at 8 o'clock tonight in the high school auditorium.

The program is open to the public and no admission charge will be made, according to Mrs. M. M. O'Rear, director of the choruses.

Fred Waring songs will be included in the program to cover classical, religious, folk tunes, swing and dramatic numbers, she said.

Included in the selections will be "Where In the World But In America," "You'll Never Walk Alone," "The Holy City," "Gandy Dancers' Ball,", "Shrimp Boats", "At Sunset", "Ay Around the Corner," and "Leprechaun's Lullaby."

The program is to be divided between the girls' and boys' quartets, Mrs. O'Rear said. Jane Houston, is student director, and accompaniment will be provided by Kay Watson and Kenneth Lawrence.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pinkerton of 1005 Twenty - third Street are the parents of a baby girl born at 10:14 o'clock this morning in the Battenfield Hospital. The baby weighs six pounds and 14 ounces.

Bob Myer of 601 Twenty-fourth Street was admitted as a medical patient.

Dismissals were Mrs. Rhea Waters of Snyder who was a medical patient and E. B. Warren, 2205 Twenty - first Street, medical.

Commissioners Vote To Pay $6,000 To Ira Grocery Owner

The county commissioners yesterday afternoon voted unanimously to offer J. W. Smallwood of Ira $6,000 for expense, damages, and land to be taken for right of way in constructing one of the county's farm-to-market roads.

Smallwood's grocery store will have to be moved, and the county will take the entire lot, 70 by 70 feet, on which it is located. A part of the lot on which the Smallwood home is located will also be taken.

The court decided to pay him $2,000 for the land, $1,000 to cover Smallwood's expense of cement work, $2,000 for expense in moving the buildings, and $1,000 for time he will lose and for damages.

Special School Board Meeting Set Tonight

The school board is to meet in special session at 6:30 o'clock this evening, according to H. W. Scarborough, secretary.

The regular meetings of the board are held on the second Tuesday nights of each month, but the board decided two weeks ago to meet this afternoon in order to lighten the amount of work necessary in the next regular meeting.

The board has discussed holding two regular meetings each month, but no definite decision has yet been made.

Davis, Sr., Is Arrested Again

Anderson Davis, Sr., numerously convicted bootlegger who testified before the recent Amarillo bootlegging syndicate probe that he had quit bootlegging, was arrested again Saturday night and charged yesterday with possession of liquor.

Lloyd Merritt, sheriff, said he confiscated five half - pints of whisky and several cans of beer in the raid on Davis, Snyder Negro, who pleaded innocent and was released on $1,000 bond.

A fine of $1,000 plus court cost of $28.50 was paid to the county clerk's office yesterday for Irene Hemphill, an employe of Davis, after a mandate had been given the court by the court of criminal appeals in Austin confirming a county court conviction here several months ago. The mandate was received here early last week.

Special Rule For Marriage

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—A special ruling by Minister of Agriculture Joao Cleophas will make possible the marriage of a white government worker and an Indian princess he courted deep in the Matto Grosso jungle.

Normally the government bans such matches with Indians, who are wards of the state.

The prospective groom, Ayres Camara Cunha, met Princess Diacui—Prairie Flower—four years ago while on a government expedition into the remote Indian country. The plump 18-year-old girl's father was a chief of the Kalapalos, a primitive tribe in which the women wear only loin cords.

Lower Fire Loss For Year Is Noted At Banquet Last Night

"If the fire loss record maintained so far this year is kept up the rest of the year, Snyder may have its fire insurance key rates lowered," Norman W. Autry, fire chief, said at the annual fire department banquet last night.

About 100 persons attended the banquet held in the Central Primary School cafeteria.

In his report Autry said that 103 fires inside the city limits this year so far had resulted in insured losses totaling $48,300, only little over half last year's total losses. He said losses last year were about $89,000.

The department has answered 150 fire alarms this year, 47 of which were outside the city limits. Of those fires only 11 were classified as wet fires—fires which necessitated use of two and one-half inch fire hose connected to fire plugs on the water mains. Only two false alarms have been received by the department, he said.

The number of volunteer firemen on the department has increased from 22 to 30 this year, and during the same period the department has increased its paid staff from four to seven men, Autry stated.

TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR

Autry was one of the new officers of the department introduced. He is beginning his twenty-sixth year as the fire chief here.

Although he called his report a good one from the standpoint of fire losses, he said, it was a bad one in respect to personal injury to firemen and damage to equipment.

"This year was the first time in 25 years that a fireman has been seriously injured or a piece of equipment badly damaged," he said.

He was referring to the injury of Ed Shuler last summer when the fire truck he was driving was demolished in a wreck on the northeast corner of the square here. Shuler was hospitalized with cracked vertebrae, and is still wearing a steel brace on his back. Shuler was at the banquet last night.

Dr. Cecil Yarbrough, superintendent of Snyder schools, was toastmaster.

ENTERTAINMENT

Special entertainment was by Mrs. E. N. Baker and her daughter, Donna Baker. Donna Baker sang a number of songs accompanied by her mother at the piano. Mrs. Baker also sang two songs accompanied by Ivan Gatlin, fire marshal, at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Gideon, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Porter, all of Colorado City, were out-of-town guests at the banquet. The men are former members of the Snyder fire department.

Kenneth Woods, a fire department volunteer, was recognized as the only member who had a 100 per cent attendance record at fire drills so far this year. Larry Cole, Gerald Shied, Joe Watson, and Howard Yielding, each have missed only one of the 22 drills, Autry said. Jim Sullinger and Gatlin, have each missed only two drills, Autry said.

Members of the city council, police department, city office workers, sheriff's department, and state highway patrolment were special guests at the banquet.

Mad Russian Vents Anger On Store Window

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese police said today a Russian who gave his name as Timofeev Victor Pavolvich was arrested for smashing three store windows early Sunday. He was later released after paying for damages.

The Tokyo Evening News said the man was one of six Russians told to leave Japan by Thursday because the Japanese Foreign Ministry does not recognize the Soviet mission in Tokyo. All claimed to be members of the mission.

SNOWED UNDER

Two workmen try to clear the snow from the tarpaulin covering Shields Watkins Field in Knoxville, Tenn., for a football game between Kentucky and Tennesssee. About nine inches of snow had fallen. Before night was over, Knoxville had 22 inches of snow, an all-time record for the Tennessee City .

New Aluminum Plant Starts Today In State

ROCKDALE, Nov. 25 (AP)—Continuous production began yesterday at Aluminum Co. of America's newest smelting plant that has transformed this little Texas cotton center into a mushrooming boom town.

A brief ceremony signaled the first stage of the new plant's development.

Two ALCOA officials, smelting division Manager R. T. Whitzel and Rockdale works Manager J. D. Harper, poured an aluminum pig from the first operating potline.

Three more potlines are in the plans. Also scheduled for future construction are lignite mining facilities and two sister plants—one to generate the required electricty and one to make carbon electrodes necessary to producing aluminum.

COSTS 100 MILLION

In all, it will cost 100 million dollars. It will produce 170 million pounds of aluminum a year. It will employ 1,100 to 1,200 men and women. To Rockdale's economy it will bring a 4½ million dollar annual payroll.

For months Rockdale has been putting on its Sunday best. New businesses have sprung up. Bulldozers have sliced streets through new subdivisions. New homes are building. Traffic signal lights have been installed.

"Never thought we'd see the day," said an oldtimer who once cursed the poor soil loaded with lignite that attracted ALCOA to Milam County.

TURNS OUT BARS

The plant site is about 10 miles southwest of Rockdale. It will make no finished producers but will turn out aluminum pigs—or bars—from refined aluminum ore. These will be shipped elsewhere for use in aluminum products.

It will be the first plant in the nation to use electric power generated by burning lignite, a process developed by research of the Texas Power and Light Co. and the U. S. Bureau of Mines. Rockdale had been the logical choice for the plant site. It had long advertised itself as having the largest lignite deposit in the world.

No. 2 UNIT IN MONTH

The plant's first potline was finished early this month—13 months after ground was broken. For the past three weeks, work has been underway baking or curing the potlinings and gradually bringing the first potline into full production.

The second potline will be ready for production early next month. Number 3 and 4 will be completed in the spring but not put into operation until the fall when a new power plant will be ready.

Until ALCOA's lignite burning power plant is completed, electric power for the first two units will be supplied by Texas Power and Light.

Ava Gardner Placed In London Hospital

LONDON (AP)— Hollywood star Ava Gardner, suffering from a tropical infection picked up on a movie location in Kenya colony, is expected to be out of bed tomorrow. She is in a London nursing home after being flown back from East Africa yesterday.

Her doctors said her stomach ailment — from drinking impure water in the Kenya back country— was not serious. She is undergoing a series of antibiotic injections and physicians said 42 shots might be needed.

The actress wife of Frank Sinatra is slated to fly back to Africa within 10 days.

Dulles And Churchill Are About Talking

NEW YORK (AP) — A possible meeting between Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain and John Foster Dulles, U. S. secretary of state-designate, is indicated in an exchange of cables.

The exchange over the week end was released yesterday by President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters.

Cabling congratulations to Dulles, Churchill said: "I shall look forward to talking things over with you."

Dulles, expressing thanks, replied:

"As we have talked together in the past, so I hope we shall talk in the future."

Hermleigh Cardinals Roll Up Impressive Season Statistics

The Hermleigh Cardinals, the team that won't let anyone else have a chance at a district championship, has produced a statistician's dream in its tallies this year.

The squad, undefeated in its 10 season games, has scored 315 points to opponents' 74, and only two of these foes scored more than six points on them. Coahoma, which ended second in District 5-B, lost to Hermleigh 26-18, while Bronte lost 34-20. Of the other eight teams Hermleigh played, two were scoreless and the remaining six tallied only six points.

The Cardinals ended their regular season with 127 first downs to opposing teams' 56.

The squad gained a total of 2,133 yards rushing, a mile and a quarter, in 386 carries, for an average of 5.7 yards per carry.

Of the 48 touchdowns made by the team, 17 were made by Fullback Dickie Wall, who was chosen all district back this season for his second year. Wall was the team's leading ground gainer for the season with 972 yards in 131 carries, an average of 7.4 yards per carry.

Other scorers this year were Charles Rhinehart, six touchdowns and a gain of 352 yards; Douglas Chitsey, four TD's and 279 yards; Floyd Hacker, three TD's and 163 yards; Wendell Goodman, two TD's and 139 yards; Joe Groves, four TD's and 60 yards, Jimmie Cooper, nine TD's and 72 yards, Kemp McMillan, one TD and 36 yards; Jackie Roemisch, one TD and 25 yards; and Delbert Hess, one TD.

Hacker, the team quarterback was given honorable mention on the all-district team. The team pilot completed 41 out of 93 passes during the season for a total of 1,140 yards, seven of them for touchdowns. His completion average was 44 per cent, and his average yardage per completion was 27.8. Only six of the 93 passes were intercepted.

Kemp McMillian, sub quarterback, completed three out of seven passes for 81 yards, one for a touchdown. That gives a completion average of 42 per cent and average yardage of 27 yards. Only one of his passes was intercepted.

The team's total on passes was 44 completions out of 105 tries for 1,221 yards, while opponents completed 38 out of 159 for 579 yards.

Jimmie Cooper, end who was also chosen all-district for the second time, led in pass receiving with 31 catches for 945 yards, seven for touchdowns. Average per catch was 30.5 yards. Hess followed with seven receptions for 94 yards and one TD, averaging 13.4 yards per completion. Others were Chitsey with three for 122 yards, averaging 40.6 yards; Rhinehart with two for 18 yards, and McMillan with two for 42.

Guard Gerald Jordan, contributed 23 points to the team's record during the year on conversions, making them on 43 tries, averaging 53 per cent. Cooper made one good extra point on two tries, and Center Bill Huston made good his only try.

Tackle Denzil Kight blocked two punts during the season, one for a safety, and Huston blocked two.

On the 20 punts booted by Hermleigh players this season, the team averaged 34.1 yards per punt. Opponents averaged 32 yards on 30 punts.

Only eight Cardinal passes were intercepted in the 10 games, and Hermleigh players made up for it twice by intercepting 16 passes.

Their average yardage gain per game was 335 to opponents' 129 yards.

LEGAL NOTICE

AN ORDINANCE FIXING AND DETERMINING RATES AND CHARGES TO BE CHARGED FOR SALES OF NATURAL GAS TO RESIDENTIAL AND COMMERCIAL CONSUMER WITHIN THE CITY LIMIT OF HERMLEIGH, SCURRY COUNTY, TEXAS, PROVIDING FOR THE MANNER IN WHICH SUCH RATES AND CHARGES MAY BE CHANGED AND AMENDED AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF HERMLEIGH:

SECTION 1. Effective with the first gas bills rendered after the date of passage and approval of this ordinance the rates and charges for sales of natural gas and natural gas service rendered to residential and commercial consumers within the city limits of Hermleigh by Lone Star Gas Company, a Texas corporation, its successors and assigns, are hereby fixed and determined to be as follows:

Minimum Monthly Bill $1.53
First 1 m.c.f. at $1.70 per m.c.f. gross; $1.53 per m.c.f. net
Next 1 m.c.f. at $1.422 per m.c.f. gross; $1.28 per m.c.f. net
Next 3 m.c.f. at .867 per m.c.f. gross; .78 per mcf net
Next 20 m.c.f. at .589 per m.c.f. gross; .53 per m.c.f. net
All Over 25 m.c.f. at .533 per m.c.f. gross; .48 per m.c.f. net

Net rate shall apply to all bills paid within ten days from monthly billing date.

Except with respect to rates, all charges for natural gas service now in effect shall remain in effect unchanged.

The above rates and charges are applicable to each residential and commercial customer per month or for any part of a month for which gas is used at the same location.

SECTION 2. The rates and charges set forth in Section 1 may be changed and amended by either the City or the company furnishing gas in the manner provided by law.

SECTION 3. The fact that there is an imperative public need for an immediate change and adjustment in the rates and charges for gas and gas service furnished to residential and commercial consumers creates an emergency and the reading and passage of this ordinance at three separate meetings is hereby suspended and this ordinance shall take effect and be in full force from and after the date of its passage at a single meeting and the approval thereof by the mayor.

Terrell Picked To Carry Class AA Title

By The Associated Press

Terrell has been tabbed as the favorite for the Class AA Texas schoolboy football championship and that team has the record to back it up.

Terrell has won 10 straight games while rolling up 378 points to 68 for the opposition. It hasn't been pressed in any game.

But there are seven undefeated, untied teams in this class which starts the playoff for the state title this week. They are Floydada, Phillips, Stamford, Center, Killeen, Huntsville and Terrell and all are top favorites in the title drive. Phillips and Floydada meet this week, however, in the bi-district round and one of them will be eliminated early.

Graham, Seminole, Sulphur Springs and Ennis are other well-ranked teams although they have suffered defeat during the season.

In the playoff round this week there will be two instances of teams meeting each other again. During the regular season Seminole beat Brownfield, 6-0, and they clash at Brownfield Thursday in the bi-district round. Graham walloped Mineral Wells, 59-6, and they are opponents this week in the playoff.

The high-scoring team in Class AA is Graham, which has rolled up 463 points in 10 games although losing two. Graham might be the power of the West.

The bi-district playoff schedule this week (team records in parentheses):

Thursday—Childress (5-4-1) vs Seymour (7-3) at Childress; Stamford (10-0) vs Tahoka (6-3) at Stamford; Brownfield (7-3) vs Seminole (8-1-1) at Brownfield; Clarksville (8-1) vs Center (10-0) at Center; Jasper (6-3) vs Ennis (8-1-1) at Huntsville, Lavega (8-1) vs Killeen (10-0) at Temple (night).

Friday—Phillips (10-0) vs Floydada (10-0) at Amarillo; Winters (5-4-1) vs Stephenville (6-3-1) at Brownwood (night); Mineral Wells (8-2) vs Graham (8-2) at Graham (night); Terrell (10-0) vs Sulphur Springs (9-1) at Commerce (night); Belton (5-4) vs Lockhart (4-2-4) at Belton (night); Bellville (9-1) vs Bay City (7-2-1) at Wharton (night); LaMarque (9-1) vs French (Beaumont) (5-5) at LaMarque (night); Del Rio (6-2-2) vs Yoakum (9-1) at Uvalde (night); Aransas Pass (8-2) vs Weslaco (7-3) at Alice (night), Huntsville draws a bye.

Griders Get Invitations

DALLAS, Nov. 25 (AP)—Bill Forester, tackle, and Val Joe Walker, halfback, of the Southern Methodist footbal team have accepted invitations to play in the East-West game at San Francisco, Dec. 27.

One Of Worst W Seasons Ends Thursday

By The Associated Press

Thursday's annual Thanksgiving Day classic between the University of Texas and Texas A&M College had all the spotlight left today in the Southwest Conference.

The lack-luster season—in which everybody lost too many intersectional games—was drawing to a close with less interest than in many a season.

The Texas Longhorns will host the Cotton Bowl, but that's been known for a long time. And the Longhorns are champs—but that's been apparent now for days.

Baylor plays Rice in Waco Saturday and Texas Christian and Southern Methodist have a date the same day in Dallas.

The other team—Arkansas' Razorbacks—are through for the season after a dismal record which saw them wind up in the loop cellar.

Rain hampered both the Aggies and Longhorns Monday. Both held brief limbering up exercises and called it a day. Although their game will not affect the conference standings, it's always a toss-up and nobody would be surprised to see the Fighting Aggies upset the Longhorns.

Rice held a 45-minute drill Monday while Baylor heard a scout's report on the Owls and watched movies—football plays, of course. Both team set scrimmages for Tuesday and expected to be in tip-top shape for Saturday's contest.

Rain kept the Southern Methodist and Texas Christian teams indoors Monday but both teams planned heavy work Tuesday, weather permitting.

It looked like the Frogs might be at full strength for the game at Dallas Saturday, but SMU had three former regulars out of the line-up for the final game: Duane Nutt, Doyle Nix, and Tommy Hairston.

OPEN SEASON

By DALE WALTON

We think Snyder football fans deserve commendation for their turnout at the football games this year.

While the support in numbers at the four home games has averaged only 2,125, it has been loyal support. Almost half that number has followed the team out of town to games, even as far away as Fort Worth.

The attendance figure here is not bad for this district, either. Sweetwater, Big Spring, and possibly Vernon have had larger crowds at their games, but Lamesa, which held onto the district lead until Sweetwater defeated that team last week, has fallen short on attendence.

A Lamesa news story last week reported that the largest crowd at any home game before the Lamesa - Sweetwater game was 1,800, and Lamesa is about the same size town as Snyder. The game last Friday night drew 3,000, but it was a deciding tilt in the district and Lamesa's homecoming.

The largest crowd at a home game here was at the Vernon game, the Tigers' first district tilt, when 2,429 persons bought tickets. The game with Thomas Jefferson, the first game of the season, drew 2,283. A total of 1,933 watched Snyder defeat Cisco, and 1,854 attended the game with Bowie.

School officials are expecting a large turnout at the Thanksgiving game here with Plainview, and they have already put tickets on sale in the county superintendent's office in the courthouse.

* * *

Tickets are also on sale at the county superintendent's office for the Hermleigh - Sanderson game to decide the championship of Districts 5-B and 6-B. Hermleigh was undefeated in season play, and Sanderson finished with seven wins and two losses. The game will be played in Snyder Dec. 5.

* * *

Spirit - boosting for the Snyder-Plainview game will begin in the high school tomorrow afternoon when the entire student body will turn out with the band on the practice field at 3 o'clock for a big pep rally. Public is invited.

* * *

Agenda for the Quarterback Club, which meets at 8 o'clock tonight in the high school cafeteria, will include plans to attend tomorrow's pep rally at the school and viewing of the film on the Snyder-Big Spring game, if it returns from the film processing firm. The group will hear coaches discuss the Plainview game.

Michigan State First For 7th Straight Week; Maryland Falls

NEW YORK (AP) — Michigan State's undefeated football powerhouse, which closed out its season with a whopping 62-13 victory over Marquette Saturday, was voted the nation's No. 1 football team today for the seventh straight week.

Southern California and Georgia Tech, also unbeaten, were second and third in the Associated Press weekly poll of the nation's sportswriters and sportscasters. The 10th and final poll will be conducted next week.

The major change in the top 10 this week was the absence of once-feared Maryland, which dropped with a thud from eighth place to 15th after bowing, 27-7, to Alabama. And Alabama, 14th a week ago, jumped up into eighth.

Michigan State polled 88 first-place votes out of 149 cast to roll up 1,400 points.

Southern Cal moved up from fourth last week to second on the basis of its 14-12 victory over UCLA, which sends the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

Southern Cal had 24 first-place votes and 1,244 points. Georgia Tech was close behind with 1,223 points and 20 firsts.

Others in the top 10 were Oklahoma, fourth; UCLA, fifth; Mississippi, sixth; Notre Dame, seventh; Tennessee, ninth; Texas 10th.

Points are based on 10 for first, nine for second, etc. down the line.

The leaders (first-place votes in parentheses):

1.	Michigan State (88)	1,400
2.	Southern Cal (24)	1,244
3.	Georgia Tech (20)	1,223
4.	Oklahoma (3)	793

Tatum Takes Blame For Fall Of Maryland

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Bowl fever was the cause of it all, says Maryland Head Coach Jim Tatum in agreeing with its president that poor coaching brought defeat in the once-mighty Terrapins' last two games.

"I'm sorry that I could not be the leader that Dr. Byrd thought I should be," Tatum said at Jacksonville, Fla., last night.

That was his comment on University President H. C. (Curbly) Byrd's criticism of Maryland football coaching "from November on." Tatum said Byrd was "exactly right" and continued:

"For three weeks our team has not been able to do anything right. I spent most of my energy being concerned whether or not we were going to a bowl.

"I didn't think Maryland should go to a bowl as it was against the conference rules. ....Yet I knew the boys wanted to go and as coach I didn't want to be the man to stop them. I'm afraid I spent all my mental energy and a great deal of my time being concerned with this instead of with Ole Miss and Alabama."

Until two weeks ago, the Terrapins' record sparkled—1952 Sugar Bowl champions, winners of 22 straight games and ranked No. 2 in the nation behind Michigan State, the team it beat three years ago to vault into big time college football.

Then came Waterloo, a double dose: First it was Mississippi, 21-14, and, last Saturday, Alabama, 27-7.

Against this backdrop, Dr. Byrd—a former player and coach—went before the Washington Touchdown Club yesterday for a speech and question-and-answer session.

Byrd not only complained about coaching at Maryland. He also said Coach Tatum talks too much. Of college presidents in general, Byrd said they try to de-emphasize football without taking into account their schools' desire for good teams.

When asked about Maryland's football chances in 1953, Byrd replied:

"If we get the kind of coaching we did from September to November of this year, we'll be all right. But if we get the kind of coaching we did from November on, when the coaches stopped thinking, I wouldn't be able to answer."

Maxwell Being Drafted Into Army Wednesday

DENTON, Nov. 25 (AP)—Billy Maxwell, one of the all-time greats of Texas amateur golf, enters military service Wednesday.

He still has a year to go in North Texas State College where he paced the golf team to three national collegiate titles.

He said he would return to North Texas State to get his degree when he was discharged from the service.

Arlington State Wins Pioneer Conference

By The Associated Press

The Pioneer Conference football race is over with the championship in the hands of Arlington State.

The Rebels had a season record of eight victories, one loss and one tie, the tie coming in conference play.

Arlington beat Tarleton State, 27-13, last week to clinch the championship. Schreiner downed Ranger, 27-20, in the other conference game on the schedule. Paris of the Big Six lost to San Angelo, 32-28.

The only game left is an engagement at Roswell, N. M., Thursday for Schreiner Institute with New Mexico Military Institute.

Date For Game Changed

WICHITA FALLS, Nov. 25 (AP)—A football game between Midwestern University and National University of Mexico at Mexico City will be played Saturday, Dec. 13, not Dec. 4 as originally scheduled. Officials announced the new date yesterday.

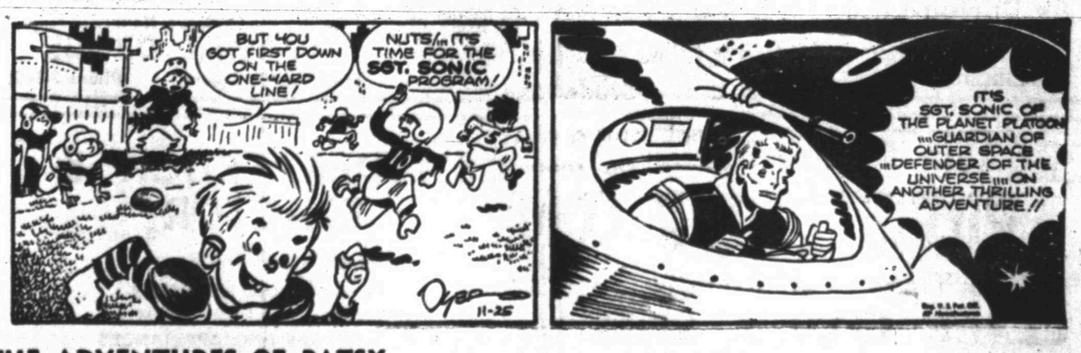
THE ADVENTURES OF PATSY



MING SERVICE ADDED AT HOWARD'S

R. T. Howard, owner of Howard's Trim Shop on the East Highway, is shown with an electric buffer beside an old 1938 Chrysler, the right hood of which has just received a Ming polishing. Comparison between the polished and unpolished portions of the car readily shows how the Ming service restores new beauty to cars with dull paint. With Howard is C. K. McKissack, owner of the car. (Lee Watson Photograph.)

Chemical Car Polish Added To Service Of Seat Cover Firm

Plans are being completed for a new building adjoining Howard's Trim Shop building on the East Highway to house facilities for a new automobile specialty service.

The new service is the Ming paint treatment that preserves car finish and restores new car lustre and shine to used and old cars, R. T. Howard, franchised dealer for the service, said.

"Ming actually preserves 'new car' appearance and brilliance for many months beyond the time your car would normally acquire that usual dull, used look," Howard said.

He explained that Ming, although it gives car finish the new look is not a polish or wax.

Ming removes the dust and dirt-catching pores from old paint and leaves a mirror smooth surface that resists catching dust, he said.

"Because the process removes the pores in the paint, it makes the car finish retain its new look under any weather conditions for much longer than ordinary polish and wax jobs do," he said.

Until Howard's new building is completed he will offer the Ming service in the building which houses his custom seat cover and upholstery service.

Although the service had not been publicized except by word of mouth of his first customers, the shop did seven Ming polishing jobs on cars in one day last week.

As in all polish jobs the car surface must first be reasonably free of dirt and dust, but a careful washing is not necessary before the job is done, Howard said.

In the Ming process a sheepskin buffer is used on which the chemical is applied to the car surface. Heat generated by the buffer on the paint surface along with the polishing effect of the chemical makes it glaze the paint without removing any of it as other polishes do.

Howard said that a Ming job usually requires about one hour per car with slightly less or more time required depending upon the condition and color of paint on the car, Howard stated.

With this new service added, Howard's Trim Shop offers a complete automobile beauty care both inside and outside.

"The specialty of the firm will still be custom made seat and door panel covers, but we will add personnel as needed in the Ming department," Howard said.

Young Boys Killed In Automobile Accident

NEW SUMMERFIELD, Tex., Nov. 25 (AP)—Two young boys were killed and the mother of one of them was injured seriously yesterday in a car-truck collision near here.

The dead were Robert Claude Hargrove, 9, and Robert Ward Fowler, 8, both of Shreveport, La. Mrs. Robert Hargrove, 32, mother of Robert Claude, was hospitalized with possible arm and leg fractures.

Neither Mrs. Hargrove's husband nor the driver of the truck, Lee Owens Deaton of Rusk, was seriously injured.

It was raining at this East Texas community south of Tyler at the time of the mishap.

The Fowler child was a friend of the Hargrove boy.

Malnutrition Causes Strange Man's Death

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Alfred R. Hall isn't lonely anymore—and his neighbors know now why he avoided life for five long years.

Police found Hall's withered body yesterday in the home where his wife died in 1947.

On the floors were five years' accumulation of newspapers and letters. A heavy layer of dust covered every room but the one in which he lived. There was no food.

Bank books showed the 73-year-old Hall had $12,000 in three Phoenix banks. A wallet held $130 in cash.

Yet the medical examiner said he died of malnutrition.

When he died sometime last week, Hall weighed 100 pounds. Evidence showed he lived for years on milk and bread.

A 1947 calendar was on the wall.

Officers were called to investigate when Alfred N. Letarte, a neighbor, failed to get an answer to his knock on Hall's door. Letarte said Hall had permitted no one in the house, located in a fashionable Phoenix district, since his wife's death.

For five years he left home only once a day—to place flowers on the headstone of his wife's grave—Letarte said.

Police said Hall probably died Thursday. But in their report book they wrote:

"This man died five years ago. . ."

Electric Work Holds Up Final Payment Here

The county still cannot collect several thousand dollars from the federal government through the Civil Aeronautics Board as final payment of its portion of the cost of Winston Field, Edgar Taylor, county judge, said today.

The reason was given yesterday by C. L. Burr, district official of the CAA, when he inspected the county airport for the second time this month. Judge Taylor said the officer informed him the CAA could not make the final payment of about $22,000 until the electrical work had been completed according to the county's contract with Fagan Electric Co.

Enough of the work has been completed to allow operation of the airport which was dedicated nearly a year ago, but some work remains unfinished. Judge Taylor said he believed the amount still due the county in federal aid was actually about $17,000.

The unfinished part of the electrical contract is the only work contracted there and not yet completed. The airport was opened more than a year ago and was dedicated last Dec. 11.

First Fire In Two Weeks Reported Here

The first fire reported to the fire department in almost two weeks was out when fire fighting equipment arrived at the scene at 9:30 this morning, Ivan Gatlin, fire marshal said.

A heating unit in the garage of the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Riddle, 2609 Thirty - second Street, became overheated and burned some of the enamel off the apparatus, Gatlin said, but he added no other damage was done.

Gatlin said strong winds entering the open door of the garage caused the flame in the heating unit to burn too high and overheat the unit.

It was the first fire reported since Nov. 13.

Ochoa Laughing At U.S. Law From His Sanctuary In Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 20 (AP) — Scar-faced George Ochoa, the gay caballero, the devil with the senoritas, the panther on wheels, the hombre accused of murdering two men in Texas —George Ochoa will go free.

Like less debonair and colorful border jumpers, Ochoa proved that often a man can laugh at United States law — from the Mexican side of the border.

Like for example, Jose Villalobos. There's nothing colorful about Villalobos. A Texas sheriff stopped him on a lonely Big Bend road and asked to see his citizenship papers. Villalobos grabbed the sheriff's gun and killed him with it. Jose was arrested in Mexico. He confessed. Then he was freed.

Ochoa never admitted he was guilty. He was charged in Laredo, in 1949, with killing two men in separate rooms of a hotel. Both men knew Ochoa's beautiful wife, Rosa.

By the time officers got on Ochoa's trail, he was over the Rio Grande — or the Rio Bravo, as the snake-like border river is known in Mexico. Mexican officers finally arrested him. There were more than two years of attempts by the United States to extradite him for trial. Ochoa even claimed once he wanted to stand trial in the United States.

BEAT EXTRADITION

But he beat the extradition attempts Nov. 14. The Supreme Court said there wasn't enough evidence against him.

It's hard to extradite a man from Mexico — almost impossible if he's a Mexican citizen, a little easier if he's a United States citizen.

Although both Ochoa and Villalobos have Latin names and claimed to be Mexican citizens, they never proved their claims. The evidence was stronger in the other direction.

That didn't seem to matter. Ochoa found himself in a pretty good spot after he finally landed in the federal jail in Mexico City.

He stayed out of jail for a long time, though.

The bodies of Henry Whittenburg Jr., 31, Laredo cotton ginner, and Air Force Cpl. James Lindsay, 30, of Oneida, Tenn., were found July 31, 1949. Whittenburg's body lay in a fifth-floor Laredo hotel room. Both had been shot with the same .32 caliber pistol.

Witness told of seeing a scar-faced man around the hotel in the early morning. Police Chief David O. Gallagher discovered that both men knew Mrs. Ochoa, although there was no evidence they knew each other.

JEALOUSY

"Jealousy," said Gallagher, and a day later he filed a murder charge against Ochoa.

But Ochoa had disappeared, after putting in a debonair appearance at his golf club.

This appearance was in character. Dchoa was a wealthy importer. He inherited the business and it didn't demand too much of his time.

His friends called him Gavo. He was a flashy dresser but "he took off his shirt at the slightest opportunity," a friend said drily. He was a fine swimmer and diver, a crack shot, an expert boxer and a very good golfer. He was 38 then.

Another friend summed him up this way: "Gavo was a polished gentleman when sober and a panther on wheels when drunk. He was a gay caballero, blue - eyed and smiling. He was well educated, clever, witty and a devil with the ladies."

But that wasn't the Gavo who showed up on Christmas night in 1949 at the home of a Laredo broker, J. J. Ballesteros. Ochoa looked "terrible" — red eyed and haggard. He demanded money, got none, snatched some cold tamales from Ballesteros' refrigerator and fled back across the border.

DYED HAIR

All this time, the state of Texas and the U. S. State Department were trying to get Mexico to arrest Ochoa. Mexican officers finally did catch him — in a Mexicali hotel room July 11, 1950. He had dyed his hair blond and registered as Guillerme Vidal.

He was transferred to the penitentiary at Mexico City. There he lived in a private room. He liked to sit up all night playing dominoes.

While Gavo played dominoes, his lawyers kept wrapping red tape around the case. The U. S. State Department almost dropped its extradition proceedings when Ochoa said he wanted to be tried in the United States. The joker was that Ochoa wouldn't waive the injunction preventing arrest his lawyers had filed for him.

In June of 1951, a Mexican federal judge said Ochoa would have to go back to Laredo to be tried.

But on Nov. 14 of this year, Ochoa, the smooth operator, turned out to be the winner when the Supreme Court issued an injunction against his extradition, deciding there wasn't enough evidence against Gavo.

The Villalobos case wasn't quite so complicated and was in doubt a much shorter time.

Sheriff O. W. (Blackie) Morrow of Presidio County was shot to death on the lonely road between Marfa and the Texas town of Presidio March 12, 1950. Skilled trackers followed Villalobos' trail to the border. They got Mexican officers to help and on March 16 caught Villalobos in the mountains of northern Mexico.

After he confessed, he was clapped into jail while the United States tried to extradite him. But in May, 1950, Federal Judge Felipe Galindo Hernandez of Chihuahua City ordered Jose released.

The judge said no order authorizing Villalobos' arrest had ever been issued in Mexico.

Drunk Driving Cases In County Court

A fine of $73.50, including court cost, was paid yesterday by Rex Long, 21, of Hobbs, N.M., when he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated. Arrested with him was Louis Ray Ellison, 29, Center, Tex., who was assessed a fine of $38, including cost, when he pleaded guilty to a justice court charge of being drunk in an automobile.

The men were arrested near Hermleigh Sunday night by Bill Love, captain of the Snyder police department, who was off duty and en route to Hermleigh at the time. Love said he held the men in Hermleigh and telephoned for an officer of the sheriff's department who brought them back to Snyder.

LeRoy Hurst, 46, of Knapp pleaded innocent yesterday to a charge of driving while intoxicated, and he was released on bond of $250.

Officers From Here At Detection Schools

Homer Whisnand, sheriff - elect, and two other Snyder men attended a detection school in Lubbock yesterday, and three members of the police department here are attending a similar school today in Abilene.

Whisnand said he and John Angel, whom he said he intended to employ as a deputy sheriff here Jan. 1, attended the school which was sponsored by the National Automobile Theft Bureau, the FBI, and the Texas Department of Public Safety. Also attending the Lubbock school from here was L. E. Haynes, present deputy sheriff.

Those attending the school today at Abilene are Buddy Norris, W. J. Ramsey, and Leamon Land, Whisnand said. The Abilene school is the eighteenth meeting sponsored in Texas in the last two months by the three organizations because of the vast increase in car thefts over the state.

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) —Sister Elizabeth Kenny's doctors expressed optimism today after the world-famed 66-year-old nurse rallied slightly last night from an attack of cerebral thrombosis.

Girl Injured In Wreck Near Here Last Night

Marjorie Rinehart, 11-year-old girl, was injured in an automobile accident at the intersection of the East Highway and Thirty-seventh Street about 6:45 last night.

The girl was a passenger in a 1946 Pontiac sedan which was involved in a collision with a pick-up truck.

Attendants at Battenfield Hospital said she was admitted and released from the hospital after a check disclosed only minor bruises.

Lots Offered For New Street

Joe Burkett of the Towle Place Development Corp. yesterday told the commissioners court he would donate the county approximately one and a half vacant residential lots in Towle Place if the county would build a street south of the addition from the new high school east to the Big Spring highway.

The court took no action yesterday on the proposal. Burkett told the court that two land owners across whose property such a road would be built had agreed to donate enough land for the street. The proposal of the three, however, was that the street be paved. Edgar Taylor, county judge, said the commissioners did not refuse the offer, however, adding that paving could not be done until spring anyway because of temperature.

The lots offered by Burkett are among a strip of lots bordering solid a street way around the high school sight. The street way of the school, however, is not paved yet as a street. If the school property were joined to the proposed new road, the lots would have to be used.

Communists Arrested

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Secret police arrested 56 persons, described as Communists, yesterday on charges of distributing subversive literature.

"Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year," the caption on the Christmas card above conveys the season's greetings and gives friends and relatives a look at members of the family they may not have seen for many months or years. "It makes a much more personal greeting card than the stock Christmas cards with only the greeting lines," Charlie Wolfe, owner of Wolfe Studio and Camera Shop, 1701 Twenty-fifth Street, maker of the cards, said. A Christmas tree at the studio enables them to make actual Christmas pictures now.

Inauguration Tickets Are HikedByTaxes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even the prices of tickets for the President's inauguration parade are going up.

The parade tickets more or less went on sale yesterday, at a price of around a third more than they cost four years ago. People paid from $2 to $10 for a seat to see President Truman ride by. It will cost from around $3 to $15 to watch President Eisenhower.

Most of the increase is due to taxes. Four years ago the parade committee either forgot—or didn't know about—the amusement tax. They later had to cough up 20 per cent of the gross for the tax collector.

This time the tax will be added to each ticket.

The reason prices haven't been set definitely: The bids haven't been let for the erection of temporary stands, so no one knows the cost.

Despite these confusions a constant stream of people poured into ticket headquarters—(it's a former Eisenhower-for-president hangout) — to put their names down for ticket orders.

John F. Morrissey, in charge of ticket sales, said of the rush:

"I was surprised myself."

Some 60,000 seats will be put up along the parade route. The choice seats—the $15 ones—will be in Lafayette Park, across Pennsylvania Avenue from the White House.

None of these 4,000 seats will be put on sale for the general public. They're going to Republican bigwigs who have waited years for this day, and to several schools in the area which always buy blocks of inauguration seats.

Woman Handles Government's Anti-Trust Suit

CHICAGO (AP) — An attractive, blue-eyed woman lawyer is sharing with two men the responsibility of presenting the government's antitrust suit against the du Pont family and its major financial holdings.

Miss Dorothy Hunt, an assistant attorney general, hasn't uttered a word yet during the historic proceedings which began last Tuesday in the federal courtroom of Judge Walter J. Labuy. But she had a big hand in preparing the government's case.

The trial resuming today is expected to last six months.

Furthermore, Miss Hunt doesn't expect to do much talking. She is the Justice Department's legal backstop. She takes careful notes during court sessions and doesn't plan to speak unless she believes her two colleagues have left unsaid something important.

Miss Hunt, who wears her hair in a boyish bob, declines to reveal her age to newsmen but says she was graduated from the University of Illinois in 1937, if that's any hlep. She lives in Winnetka, Ill.

A Justice Department employe since 1945, she worked more than two years helping to prepare the du Pont suit for trial. Her task was to investigate the histories of the du Pont family and the corporations in which the du Ponts have interests.

Her first government assgnment took her to Nuernberg, Germany, where she was assistant to Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor, who represented the U. S. in the prosecution of Nazi war criminals.

Sara Tidwell, Sidney Gunter Plan Wedding

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Sara Louise Tidwell of Dallas to Sidney Ray Gunter of Monahans, formerly of Snyder, was made Saturday.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Tidwell, and her fiance is the son of Mrs. Gladys Gunter of Monahans.

Mrs. Tidwell announced her daughter's engagement Saturday at a brunch at her home in Dallas. The wedding will take place Dec. 20 in Bassett Chapel of the Cliff Temple Baptist Church.

Included among attendants will be Mrs. Frank McDonald, who will be matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Patricia Williams and Miss Betty Fay Gunter, sister of the bridegroom-to-be. Willard Gunter will serve his brother as best man, and groomsmen will be Don Mullins of Longview and Warren Witherspoon of Odessa, both cousins of the prospective bridegroom.

Miss Tidwell was graduated from North Texas State College where she was a member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority and the Future Teachers of America.

The bridegroom-to-be is a graduate of Monahans High School and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mullins, 1704 Seventeenth Street.

What sort of casserole dish could I make using some of the left-over turkey I'm anticipating having? Mrs. R.

This dish is called Turkey 'N Dressing Supreme and could be made a day ahead and refrigerated. You'll need 2½ cups cooked turkey.

For the corn bread dressing required in this recipe, use the following ingredients:

2½ cups corn bread crumbs
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
¼ cup diced celery
¼ cup diced green pepper
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon sage
1 egg, beaten
¼ cup water

To make the dressing, mix butter with corn bread crumbs. Add the remaining ingredients, mixing well.

To assemble the baked dish, grease a 7 x 11-inch baking pan. Place a layer of turkey on the bottom, and then alternate layers of dressing, sauce and turkey with dressing on top. Bake in moderate oven 50 to 55 minutes. Serve with medium white sauce.

• • •

We would like to have a dessert recipe that can be made ahead of time. For a family dinner we are each to bring something, and I am sure there will be an abundance of pies and cakes.

A seasonal dessert is Cranberry Apple Crisp. You need the following:

2 cups chopped unpeeled apples
1 can jellied whole cranberry sauce
1 cup oats, uncooked
½ cup brown sugar
¼ cup sifted enriched flour
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup melted butter or margarine
¼ cup chopped nutmeats (optional)

Combine apples and cranberry sauce; place in a greased 8-inch square baking dish.

Combine rolled oats, sugar, flour and salt. Add butter, mixing until crumbly. Sprinkle over apple-cranberry mixture. Top with nutmeats. Bake in moderate oven for one hour. Serve warm or cold.

BOYLE'S COLUMN

Just Two Years Ago 'End The War Drive' Was Started

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—As the veil of secrecy descends on Gen. Eisenhower's projected visit to Korea, many a veteran of that conflict must look at the calendar today with wry memories.

For it was just two years ago that U. N. forces there launched their great "end-the-war" offensive. The war was five months old then. It will be 29 months old tomorrow.

Few great drives in military history have opened with more public optimism—and more private doubt—than the U. N. attack that began in the early morning hours Nov. 24, 1950.

The optimism centered at the Tokyo headquarters of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The doubt lay in the minds of the frontline commanders. They were uneasy.

ONE BIG QUESTION

The reason: They didn't know the size of the enemy before them.

The goal: The Yalu River, dividing North Korea and Manchuria.

The big question: Had the shattered North Korean Army been reinforced by only 60,000 Red Chinese "volunteers," or did a massive Chinese force wait like a hidden cat in the frozen hills between the Allied line and Manchuria?

Deep-penetrating patrols had failed to yield the answer to the enemy's strength. A division chief of staff looked at the war map in his tent and shook his head as he told correspondents:

"Gentlemen, I've been studying these maps for a quarter of a century, and this one doesn't tell me what I want to know."

CARRIES BUG OUT JUICE

A general was so fearful of ambush that before the attack started he issued orders that every vehicle in his division retain a basic supply of "bug out gasoline," enough to sustain a retreat if necessary. Another general said pessimistically:

"The Reds have nothing to lose and all to gain by keeping the Chinese fighting us."

The average doughboy, however, leaped off with a mixture of dread and joy. He didn't know what foe he would meet, but he was tired of standing still and the general feeling was, "Let's get it over with." And there was also that magic rumor spreading like wildfire through the lines:

"They say we'll be out of here by Christmas if we make it to the border."

TEN DIVISIONS START

Ten of the U.N.'s 19 divisions struck out across a frozen wilderness of mountains and ice-covered rice paddies. For two days they plowed jubilantly onward against slight opposition.

The second night the enemy counterattacked. They came in screaming waves, blowing bugles and whistles. The mystery was over. The Chinese seemed to crawl out from behind every rice stalk. In three continuous night attacks, they shattered three South Korean divisions, drove them back 20 miles, ambushed a Turkish force, threatened to surround four U. S. Army divisions—then about one-third of America's entire worldwide striking strength.

ALLIES YIELD

The endless waves of Chinese turned the great attack into a great retreat. The Allies yielded Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, then fell gradually back on Seoul, which later was abandoned, too.

The stubborn, bitterly fought withdrawal was magnificently directed, heartbreaking to see. I flew with an air colonel over the long lines of Allies riding down the long road back, and he said:

"That hurts. It hurts where a man can't scratch."

Later the Allies pushed back north beyond Seoul again. The lines are roughly along the 38th parallel, where the war began. But in nearly 16 months of truce talks, the Chinese have built their Army from 500,000 to some million men. Their tanks and artillery pieces are at a peak.

These are the somber facts that face Gen. Eisenhower on this fateful anniversary two years after the Allied End-the-Korean-War drive began.

Work On Immigration Act In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Working against a rapidly nearing deadline, Justice Department experts today continued their efforts to draft regulations for dealing with aliens under the new immigration law.

The new law, known as the McCarran-Walter Act, becomes effective Dec. 24, just one month from today.

Atty. Gen. James P. McGranery, who has described the new statue as badly organized, contradictory and possibly unconstitutional in some respects, said over the week end he hopes to have the revised regulation ready sometime around Dec. 14.

Traders Over World Needing Young Workers

NEW YORK, Nov. 24 (AP)—American industry is looking for young men willing to work in far-off-places—Brazil, Iraq, West Africa, The Philippines and other strange and distant lands.

Jobs in foreign trade are going begging, industry sources say.

An indication of this was seen at the recently concluded National Foreign Trade Convention here—a meeting of top manufacturers, financiers, exporters and importers whose farflung trade interests span the world.

STUDENTS ATTEND

Two hundred college students attended the three-day convention as guests of the sponsoring organization, the National Foreign Trade Council. This was the biggest student delegation ever invited to the annual event.

Here's a sample of the advice they got:

An old hand at foreign trade, Vice President W. R. Stebbins of W. R. Grace & Co., told the students:

"We've found that men who have been in business for themselves or men who have acquired some experience in the business world make our best traders. The kind of business they've been in isn't important. The man who has collected and sold waste paper and made a little money out of it may have an easier job of marketing his talents to use."

START AT BOTTOM

Basically, Stebbins said, success in foreign trade is "still founded on the age-old copy book rules of business, which do not vary in substance with either place or time."

He emphasized that the college-trained job hunter must be willing to start at the bottom.

"The men in our personnel department have told us that far too many young men with good and thorough academic training approach us with the idea that they are prepared to assume administrative positions in our foreign trade setup.

"This is unfortunate because we don't consider them ready."

Drives With Bullet Wound In His Chest

LIGONIER, Pa. (AP) — George Giesey, 35, of Ligonier, who drove 12 miles to his home by auto despite a bullet wound under his heart, is in critical condition today at McGinnis Hospital.

Giesey told state police a .22-caliber pistol discharged while he was cleaning it at his hunting lodge. He collapsed after reaching home.

Scurry Man Makes His Rate Aboard Destroyer

Jack Hill of Snyder, now serving with the Navy aboard the destroyer USS Laffey in Korean waters, was recently promoted to the rank of boatswain's mate third class.

Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hill, who live north of Union on the Arah route.

He is a former student of Snyder High School.
